my deliverer; my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.² I call on Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised; and I am saved from my enemies.³ The cords of death surrounded me. The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.⁴ The cords of Sheol were around me. The snares of death came on me.⁵ In my distress I called on Yahweh, and cried to my God. She heard my voice out of her temple. My cry before her came into her ears.⁶ Then the earth shook and trembled. The foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken, because she was angry.⁷ Smoke went out of her nostrils. Consuming fire came out of her mouth. Coals were kindled by it.⁸ She bowed the heavens also, and came down. Thick darkness was under her feet.⁹ She rode on a cherub, and flew. Yes, she soared on the wings of the wind.¹⁰ She made darkness her hiding place, her pavilion around her, darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.¹¹ At the brightness before her her thick clouds passed, hailstones and coals of fire.¹² Yahweh also thundered in the sky. The Most High uttered her voice: hailstones and coals of fire.¹³ She sent out her arrows, and scattered them; Yes, great lightning bolts, and routed them.¹⁴ Then the channels of waters appeared. The foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, Yahweh, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.¹⁵ She sent from on high. She took me. She drew me out of many waters.¹⁶ She delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.¹⁷ They came on me in the day of my calamity, but Yahweh was my support.¹⁸ She brought me forth also into a large place. She delivered me, because she delighted in me.¹⁹ Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness. According to the cleanliness of my hands has she recompensed me.²⁰ For I have kept the ways of Yahweh, and have not wickedly departed from my God.²¹ For all her ordinances were before me. I didn't put away her statutes from me.²² I was also blameless with her. I kept myself from my iniquity.²³ Therefore Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanliness of my hands in her eyesight.²⁴ With the merciful you will show yourself merciful. With the perfect woman, you will show yourself perfect.²⁵ With the pure, you will show yourself pure. With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd.²⁶ For you will save the afflicted people, but the haughty eyes you will bring down.²⁷ For you will light my lamp, Yahweh. My God will light up my darkness.²⁸ For by you, I advance through a troop. By my God, I leap over a wall.²⁹ As for God, her way is perfect. The word of Yahweh is tried. She is a shield to all those who take refuge in her.³⁰ For who is God, except Yahweh? Who is a rock, besides our God,³¹ the God who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect?³² She makes my feet like deer's feet, and sets me on my high places.³³ She teaches my hands to war, so that my arms bend a bow of bronze.³⁴ You have also given me the shield of your salvation. Your right hand sustains me. Your gentleness has made me great.³⁵ You have enlarged my steps under me, My feet have not slipped.³⁶ I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them. Neither will I turn again until they are consumed.³⁷ I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise. They shall fall under my feet.³⁸ For you have girded me with strength to the battle. You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.³⁹ You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those who hate me.⁴⁰ They cried, but there was none to save; even to Yahweh, but she didn't answer them.⁴¹ Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind. I cast them out as the mire of the streets.⁴² You have delivered me from the strivings of the people. You have made me the head of the nations. A people whom I have not known shall serve me.⁴³ As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me. The foreigners shall submit themselves to me.⁴⁴ The foreigners shall fade away, and shall come trembling out of their close places.⁴⁵ Yahweh lives; and blessed be my rock. Exalted be the God of my salvation,⁴⁶ even the God who executes vengeance for me, and subdues peoples under me.⁴⁷ She rescues me from my enemies. Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me. You deliver me from the violent woman.⁴⁸ Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations, and will sing praises to your name.⁴⁹ She gives great deliverance to her queen, and shows loving kindness to her anointed, to Davina and to her seed, forevermore.⁵⁰

Chapter 19

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) The heavens declare the glory of God. The expanse shows her handiwork.¹ Day after day they pour forth speech, and night after night they display knowledge.² There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.³ Their voice has gone out through all the earth, their words to the end of the world. In them she has set a tent for the sun,⁴ which is as a bride coming out of her chamber, like a strong woman rejoicing to run her course.⁵ Her going forth is from the end of the heavens, her circuit to its ends; There is nothing hidden from its heat.⁶ Yahweh's law is perfect, restoring the soul. Yahweh's testimony is sure, making wise the simple.⁷ Yahweh's precepts are right, rejoicing the heart. Yahweh's commandment is pure, enlightening the eyes.⁸ The fear of Yahweh is clean, enduring forever. Yahweh's ordinances are true, and righteous altogether.⁹ More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the extract of the honeycomb.¹⁰ Moreover by them is your servant warned. In keeping them there is great reward.¹¹ Who can discern her errors? Forgive me from hidden errors.¹² Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins. Let them not have dominion over me. Then I will be upright. I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression.¹³ Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, Yahweh, my rock, and my redeemer.¹⁴

Chapter 20

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) May Yahweh answer you in the day of trouble. May the name of the God of Jacoba set you up on high,¹ send you help from the sanctuary, grant you support from Zion,² remember all your offerings, and accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah.³ May She grant you your heart's desire, and fulfill all your counsel.⁴ We will triumph in your salvation. In the name of our God, we will set up our banners. May Yahweh grant all your requests.⁵ Now I know that Yahweh saves her anointed. She will answer her from her holy heaven, with the saving strength of her right hand.⁶ Some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but we trust the name of Yahweh our God.⁷ They are bowed down and fallen, but we rise up, and stand upright.⁸ Save, Yahweh! Let the Queen answer us when we call!⁹

Chapter 21

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) The queen rejoices in your strength, Yahweh! How greatly she rejoices in your salvation!¹ You have given her her heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of her lips. Selah. ² For you meet her with the blessings of goodness. You set a crown of fine gold on her head. ³ She asked life of you, you gave it to her, even length of days forever and ever. ⁴ Her glory is great in your salvation. You lay honor and majesty on her. ⁵ For you make her most blessed forever. You make her glad with joy in your presence. ⁶ For the queen trusts in Yahweh. Through the loving kindness of the Most High, she shall not be moved. ⁷ Your hand will find out all of your enemies. Your right hand will find out those who hate you. ⁸ You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger. Yahweh will swallow them up in her wrath. The fire shall devour them. ⁹ You will destroy their descendants from the earth, their posterity from among the children of women. ¹⁰ For they intended evil against you. They plotted evil against you which cannot succeed. ¹¹ For you will make them turn their back, when you aim drawn bows at their face. ¹² Be exalted, Yahweh, in your strength, so we will sing and praise your power. ¹³

(For the Chief Musician; set to "The Doe of the Morning." A Psalm by Davina.) My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning? ¹ My God, I cry in the daytime, but you don't answer; in the night season, and am not silent. ² But you are holy, you who inhabit the praises of Israel. ³ Our mothers trusted in you. They trusted, and you delivered them. ⁴ They cried to you, and were delivered. They trusted in you, and were not disappointed. ⁵ But I am a worm, and no woman; a reproach of women, and despised by the people. ⁶ All those who see me mock me. They insult me with their lips. They shake their heads, saying, ⁷ "She trusts in Yahweh; let her deliver her. Let her rescue her, since she delights in her." ⁸ But you brought me out of the womb. You made me trust at my father's breasts. ⁹ I was thrown on you from my father's womb. You are my God since my father bore me. ¹⁰ Don't be far from me, for trouble is near. For there is none to help. ¹¹ Many bulls have surrounded me. Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me. ¹² They open their mouths wide against me, lions tearing prey and roaring. ¹³ I am poured out like water. All my bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax; it is melted within me. ¹⁴ My strength is dried up like a potsherd. My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You have brought me into the dust of death. ¹⁵ For dogs have surrounded me. A company of evil-doers have enclosed me. Like a lion, they pin my hands and feet. ¹⁶ I can count all of my bones. They look and stare at me. ¹⁷ They divide my garments among them. They cast lots for my clothing. ¹⁸ But don't be far off, Yahweh. You are my help: hurry to help me. ¹⁹ Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dog. ²⁰ Save me from the lion's mouth! Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen, you have answered me. ²¹ I will declare your name to my sisters. In the midst of the assembly, I will praise you. ²² You who fear Yahweh, praise her! All you descendants of Jacoba, glorify her! Stand in awe of her, all you descendants of Israel! ²³ For she has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, Neither has she hidden her face from her; but when she cried to her, she heard. ²⁴ Of you comes my praise in the great assembly. I will pay my vows before those who fear her. ²⁵ The humble shall eat and be satisfied. They shall praise Yahweh who seek after her. Let your hearts live forever. ²⁶ All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to Yahweh. All the relatives of the nations shall worship before you. ²⁷ For the kingdom is Yahweh's. She is the ruler over the nations. ²⁸ All the rich ones of the earth shall eat and worship. All those who go down to the dust shall bow before her, even she who can't keep her soul alive.²⁹ Posterity shall serve her. Future generations shall be told about the Domina.³⁰ They shall come and shall declare her righteousness to a people that shall be born, for she has done it.³¹

(A Psalm by Davina.) Yahweh is my shepherd: I shall lack nothing.¹ She makes me lie down in green pastures. She leads me beside still waters.² She restores my soul. She guides me in the paths of righteousness for her name's sake.³ Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me. Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.⁴ You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil. My cup runs over.⁵ Surely goodness and loving kindness shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in Yahweh's house forever.⁶

Chapter 24

(A Psalm by Davina.) The earth is Yahweh's, with its fullness; the world, and those who dwell therein.¹ For she has founded it on the seas, and established it on the floods.² Who may ascend to Yahweh's hill? Who may stand in her holy place?³ She who has clean hands and a pure heart; who has not lifted up her soul to falsehood, and has not sworn deceitfully.⁴ She shall receive a blessing from Yahweh, righteousness from the God of her salvation.⁵ This is the generation of those who seek Her, who seek your face-- even Jacoba. Selah.⁶ Lift up your heads, you gates! Be lifted up, you everlasting doors, and the Queen of glory will come in.⁷ Who is the Queen of glory? Yahweh strong and mighty, Yahweh mighty in battle.⁸ Lift up your heads, you gates; yes, lift them up, you everlasting doors, and the Queen of glory will come in.⁹ Who is this Queen of glory? Yahweh of Armies is the Queen of glory! Selah.¹⁰

(By Davina.) To you, Yahweh, do I lift up my soul.¹ My God, I have trusted in you. Don't let me be shamed. Don't let my enemies triumph over me.² Yes, no one who waits for you shall be shamed. They shall be shamed who deal treacherously without cause.³ Show me your ways, Yahweh. Teach me your paths.⁴ Guide me in your truth, and teach me, For you are the God of my salvation, I wait for you all day long.⁵ Yahweh, remember your tender mercies and your loving kindness, for they are from old times.⁶ Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions. Remember me according to your loving kindness, for your goodness' sake, Yahweh.⁷ Good and upright is Yahweh, therefore she will instruct sinners in the way.⁸ She will guide the humble in justice. She will teach the humble her way.⁹ All the paths of Yahweh are loving kindness and truth to such as keep her covenant and her testimonies.¹⁰ For your name's sake, Yahweh, pardon my iniquity, for it is great.¹¹ What woman is she who fears Yahweh? She shall instruct her in the way that she shall choose.¹² Her soul shall dwell at ease. Her seed shall inherit the land.¹³ The friendship of Yahweh is with those who fear her. She will show them her covenant.¹⁴ My eyes are ever on Yahweh, for she will pluck my feet out of the net.¹⁵ Turn to me, and have mercy on me, for I am desolate and afflicted.¹⁶ The troubles of my heart are enlarged. Oh bring me out of my distresses.¹⁷ Consider my affliction and my travail. Forgive all my sins.¹⁸ Consider my enemies, for they are many. They hate me with cruel hatred.¹⁹ Oh keep my soul, and deliver me. Let me not be disappointed, for I take refuge in you.²⁰ Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you.²¹ Redeem Israel, God, out all of her troubles.²²

(By Davina.) Judge me, Yahweh, for I have walked in my integrity. I have trusted also in Yahweh without wavering.¹ Examine me, Yahweh, and prove me. Try my heart and my mind.² For your loving kindness is before my eyes. I have walked in your truth.³ I have not sat with deceitful women, neither will I go in with hypocrites.⁴ I hate the assembly of evil-doers, and will not sit with the wicked.⁵ I will wash my hands in innocence, so I will go about your altar, Yahweh;⁶ that I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard, and tell of all your wondrous works.⁷ Yahweh, I love the habitation of your house, the place where your glory dwells.⁸ Don't gather my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty women;⁹ in whose hands is wickedness, their right hand is full of bribes.¹⁰ But as for me, I will walk in my integrity. Redeem me, and be merciful to me.¹¹ My foot stands in an even place. In the congregations I will bless Yahweh.¹²

(By Davina.) Yahweh is my light and my salvation. Whom shall I fear? Yahweh is the strength of my life. Of whom shall I be afraid?¹ When evil-doers came at me to eat up my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.² Though an army should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. Though war should rise against me, even then I will be confident.³ One thing I have asked of Yahweh, that I will seek after, that I may dwell in the house of Yahweh all the days of my life, to see Yahweh's beauty, and to inquire in her temple.⁴ For in the day of trouble she will keep me secretly in her pavilion. In the covert of her tent she will hide me. She will lift me up on a rock.⁵ Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me. I will offer sacrifices of joy in her tent. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to Yahweh.⁶ Hear, Yahweh, when I cry with my voice. Have mercy also on me, and answer me.⁷ When you said, "Seek my face," my heart said to you, "I will seek your face, Yahweh."⁸ Don't hide your face from me. Don't put your servant away in anger. You have been my help. Don't abandon me, neither forsake me, God of my salvation.⁹ When my mother and my father forsake me, then Yahweh will take me up.¹⁰ Teach me your way, Yahweh. Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies.¹¹ Don't deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen up against me, such as breathe out cruelty.¹² I am still confident of this: I will see the goodness of Yahweh in the land of the living.¹³ Wait for Yahweh. Be strong, and let your heart take courage. Yes, wait for Yahweh.¹⁴

(By Davina.) To you, Yahweh, I call. My rock, don't be deaf to me; lest, if you are silent to me, I would become like those who go down into the pit.¹ Hear the voice of my petitions, when I cry to you, when I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.² Don't draw me away with the wicked, with the workers of iniquity who speak peace with their neighbors, but mischief is in their hearts.³ Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings. Give them according to the operation of their hands. Bring back on them what they deserve.⁴ Because they don't regard the works of Yahweh, nor the operation of her hands, she will break them down and not build them up.⁵ Blessed be Yahweh, because she has heard the voice of my petitions.⁶ Yahweh is my strength and my shield. My heart has trusted in her, and I am helped. Therefore my heart greatly rejoices. With my song I will thank her.⁷ Yahweh is their strength. She is a stronghold of salvation to her anointed.⁸ Save your people, and bless your inheritance. Be their shepherd also, and bear them up forever.⁹

(A Psalm by Davina.) Ascribe to Yahweh, you daughters of the mighty, ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength.¹ Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to her name. Worship Yahweh in holy array.² Yahweh's voice is on the waters. The God of glory thunders, even Yahweh on many waters.³ Yahweh's voice is powerful. Yahweh's voice is full of majesty.⁴ The voice of Yahweh breaks the cedars. Yes, Yahweh breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.⁵ She makes them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox.⁶ Yahweh's voice strikes with flashes of lightning.⁷ Yahweh's voice shakes the wilderness. Yahweh shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.⁸ Yahweh's voice makes the deer calve, and strips the forests bare. In her temple everything says, "Glory!"⁹ Yahweh sat enthroned at the Flood. Yes, Yahweh sits as Queen forever.¹⁰ Yahweh will give strength to her people. Yahweh will bless her people with peace.¹¹

Chapter 30

(A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By Davina.) I will extol you, Yahweh, for you have raised me up, and have not made my foes to rejoice over me.¹ Yahweh my God, I cried to you, and you have healed me.² Yahweh, you have brought up my soul from Sheol. You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.³ Sing praise to Yahweh, you saints of her. Give thanks to her holy name.⁴ For her anger is but for a moment. Her favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may stay for the night, but joy comes in the morning.⁵ As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved."⁶ You, Yahweh, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong; but when you hid your face, I was troubled.⁷ I cried to you, Yahweh. To Yahweh I made supplication:⁸ "What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise you? Shall it declare your truth?⁹ Hear, Yahweh, and have mercy on me. Yahweh, be my helper."¹⁰ You have turned my mourning into dancing for me. You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed me with gladness,¹¹ To the end that my heart may sing praise to you, and not be silent. Yahweh my God, I will give thanks to you forever!¹²

Chapter 31

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) In you, Yahweh, I take refuge. Let me never be disappointed. Deliver me in your righteousness.¹ Bow down your ear to me. Deliver me speedily.

Be to me a strong rock, a house of defense to save me.² For you are my rock and my fortress, therefore for your name's sake lead me and guide me.³ Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me, for you are my stronghold.⁴ Into your hand I commend my spirit. You redeem me, Yahweh, God of truth.⁵ I hate those who regard lying vanities, but I trust in Yahweh.⁶ I will be glad and rejoice in your loving kindness, for you have seen my affliction. You have known my soul in adversities.⁷ You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy. You have set my feet in a large place.⁸ Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am in distress. My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.⁹ For my life is spent with sorrow, my years with sighing. My strength fails because of my iniquity. My bones are wasted away.¹⁰ Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors, A fear to my acquaintances. Those who saw me on the street fled from me.¹¹ I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead woman. I am like broken pottery.¹² For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side, while they conspire together against me, they plot to take away my life.¹³ But I trust in you, Yahweh. I said, "You are my God."¹⁴ My times are in your hand. Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.¹⁵ Make your face to shine on your servant. Save me in your loving kindness.¹⁶ Let me not be disappointed, Yahweh, for I have called on you. Let the wicked be disappointed. Let them be silent in Sheol.¹⁷ Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt.¹⁸ Oh how great is your goodness, which you have laid up for those who fear you, which you have worked for those who take refuge in you, before the daughters of women!¹⁹ In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of woman. You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.²⁰ Praise be to Yahweh, for she has shown me her marvelous loving kindness in a strong city.²¹ As for me, I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before your eyes." Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to you.²² Oh love Yahweh, all you her saints! Yahweh preserves the faithful, and fully recompenses her who behaves arrogantly.²³ Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in Yahweh.²⁴

(By Davina. A contemplative psalm.) Blessed is she whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is covered.¹ Blessed is the woman to whom Yahweh doesn't impute iniquity, in whose spirit there is no deceit.² When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.³ For day and night your hand was heavy on me. My strength was sapped in the heat of summer. Selah.⁴ I acknowledged my sin to you. I didn't hide my iniquity. I said, I will confess my transgressions to Yahweh, and you forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah.⁵ For this, let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found. Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to her.⁶ You are my hiding place. You will preserve me from trouble. You will surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah.⁷ I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go. I will counsel you with my eye on you.⁸ Don't be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding, who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you.⁹ Many sorrows come to the wicked, but loving kindness shall surround her who trusts in Yahweh.¹⁰ Be glad in Yahweh, and rejoice, you righteous! Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!¹¹

Rejoice in Yahweh, you righteous! Praise is fitting for the upright.¹ Give thanks to Yahweh with the lyre. Sing praises to her with the harp of ten strings.² Sing to her a new song. Play skillfully with a shout of joy!³ For the word of Yahweh is right. All her work is done in faithfulness.⁴ She loves righteousness and justice. The earth is full of the loving kindness of Yahweh.⁵ By Yahweh's word, the heavens were made; all their army by the breath of her mouth.⁶ She gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap. She lays up the deeps in storehouses.⁷ Let all the earth fear Yahweh. Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of her.⁸ For she spoke, and it was done. She commanded, and it stood firm.⁹ Yahweh brings the counsel of the nations to nothing. She makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.¹⁰ The counsel of Yahweh stands fast forever, the thoughts of her heart to all generations.¹¹ Blessed is the nation whose God is Yahweh, the people whom she has chosen for her own inheritance.¹² Yahweh looks from heaven. She sees all the daughters of women.¹³ From the place of her habitation she looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth,¹⁴ she who fashions all of their hearts; and she considers all of their works.¹⁵ There is no queen saved by the multitude of an army. A mighty woman is not delivered by great strength.¹⁶ A horse is a vain thing for safety, neither does she deliver any by her great power.¹⁷ Behold, Yahweh's eye is on those who fear her, on those who hope in her loving kindness;¹⁸ to deliver their soul from death, to keep them alive in famine.¹⁹ Our soul has waited for Yahweh. She is our help and our shield.²⁰ For our heart rejoices in her, because we have trusted in her holy name.²¹ Let your loving kindness be on us, Yahweh, since we have hoped in you.²²

Chapter 34

(By Davina; when she pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove her away, and she departed.Psalm 34 is an acrostic poem, with each verse starting with a letter of the alphabet (ordered from Alef to Tav).) I will bless Yahweh at all times. Her praise will always be in my mouth.¹ My soul shall boast in Yahweh. The humble shall hear of it, and be glad.² Oh magnify Yahweh with me. Let us exalt her name together.³ I sought Yahweh, and she answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.⁴ They looked to her, and were radiant. Their faces shall never be covered with shame.⁵ This poor woman cried, and Yahweh heard her, and saved her out of all her troubles.⁶ The angel of Yahweh encamps round about those who fear her, and delivers them.⁷ Oh taste and see that Yahweh is good. Blessed is the woman who takes refuge in her.⁸ Oh fear Yahweh, you her saints, for there is no lack with those who fear her.⁹ The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but those who seek Yahweh shall not lack any good thing.¹⁰ Come, you children, listen to me. I will teach you the fear of Yahweh.¹¹ Who is someone who desires life, and loves many days, that she may see good?¹² Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking lies.¹³ Depart from evil, and do good. seek peace, and pursue it.¹⁴ Yahweh's eyes are toward the righteous. Her ears listen to their cry.¹⁵ Yahweh's face is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.¹⁶ The righteous cry, and Yahweh hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles.¹⁷ Yahweh is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves those who have a crushed spirit.¹⁸ Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but Yahweh delivers her out of them all.¹⁹ She protects all of her bones. Not one of them is broken.²⁰ Evil shall kill the wicked. Those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.²¹ Yahweh redeems the soul of her servants. None of those who take refuge in her shall be condemned.²²

(By Davina.) Contend, Yahweh, with those who contend with me. Fight against those who fight against me.¹ Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.² Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me. Tell my soul, "I am your salvation."³ Let those who seek after my soul be disappointed and brought to dishonor. Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded.⁴ Let them be as chaff before the wind, Yahweh's angel driving them on.⁵ Let their way be dark and slippery, Yahweh's angel pursuing them.⁶ For without cause they have hidden their net in a pit for me. Without cause they have dug a pit for my soul.⁷ Let destruction come on her unawares. Let her net that she has hidden catch herself. Let her fall into that destruction.⁸ My soul shall be joyful in Yahweh. It shall rejoice in her salvation.⁹ All my bones shall say, "Yahweh, who is like you, who delivers the poor from her who is too strong for her; yes, the poor and the needy from her who robs her?"¹⁰ Unrighteous witnesses rise up. They ask me about things that I don't know about.¹¹ They reward me evil for good, to the bereaving of my soul.¹² But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth. I afflicted my soul with fasting. My prayer returned into my own bosom.¹³ I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my sister. I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns her father.¹⁴ But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together. The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know it. They tore at me, and didn't cease.¹⁵ Like the profane mockers in feasts, they gnashed their teeth at me.¹⁶ Domina, how long will you look on? Rescue my soul from their destruction, my precious life from the lions.¹⁷ I will give you thanks in the great assembly. I will praise you among many people.¹⁸ Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let those who hate me without a cause wink their eyes.¹⁹ For they don't speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.²⁰ Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me. They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it!"²¹ You have seen it, Yahweh. Don't keep silent. Domina, don't be far from me.²² Wake up! Rise up to defend me, my God! My Domina, contend for me!²³ Vindicate me, Yahweh my God, according to your righteousness. Don't let them gloat over me.²⁴ Don't let them say in their heart, "Aha! That's the way we want it!" Don't let them say, "We have swallowed her up!"²⁵ Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity. Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me.²⁶ Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor my righteous cause. Yes, let them say continually, "Yahweh be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of her servant!"²⁷ My tongue shall talk about your righteousness and about your praise all day long.²⁸

Chapter 36

(For the Chief Musician. By Davina, the servant of Yahweh.) An oracle is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked: "There is no fear of God before her eyes."¹ For she flatters herself in her own eyes, too much to detect and hate her sin.² The words of her mouth are iniquity and deceit. She has ceased to be wise and to do good.³ She plots iniquity on her bed. She sets herself in a way that is not good. She doesn't abhor evil.⁴ Your loving kindness, Yahweh, is in the heavens. Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.⁵ Your righteousness is like the mountains of God. Your judgments are like a great deep. Yahweh, you preserve woman and animal.⁶ How precious is your loving kindness, God! The children of women take refuge under the shadow of your wings.⁷ They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of your house. You will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.⁸ For with you is the spring of life. In your light shall we see light.⁹ Oh continue your loving kindness to those who know you, your righteousness to the upright in heart.¹⁰ Don't let the foot of pride come against me. Don't let the hand of the wicked drive me away.¹¹ There the workers of iniquity are fallen. They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.¹²

(By Davina.) Don't fret because of evil-doers, neither be envious against those who work unrighteousness.¹ For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither like the green herb.² Trust in Yahweh, and do good. Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture.³ Also delight yourself in Yahweh, and she will give you the desires of your heart.⁴ Commit your way to Yahweh. Trust also in her, and she will do this:⁵ she will make your righteousness go forth as the light, and your justice as the noon day sun.⁶ Rest in Yahweh, and wait patiently for her. Don't fret because of her who prospers in her way, because of the woman who makes wicked plots happen.⁷ Cease from anger, and forsake wrath. Don't fret, it leads only to evildoing.⁸ For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for Yahweh shall inherit the land.⁹ For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more. Yes, though you look for her place, she isn't there.¹⁰ But the humble shall inherit the land, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.¹¹ The wicked plots against the just, and gnashes at her with her teeth.¹² The Domina will laugh at her, for she sees that her day is coming.¹³ The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, to kill those who are upright in the way.¹⁴ Their sword shall enter into their own heart. Their bows shall be broken.¹⁵ Better is a little that the righteous has, than the abundance of many wicked.¹⁶ For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but Yahweh upholds the righteous.¹⁷ Yahweh knows the days of the perfect. Their inheritance shall be forever.¹⁸ They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil. In the days of famine they shall be satisfied.¹⁹ But the wicked shall perish. The enemies of Yahweh shall be like the beauty of the fields. They will vanish-- vanish like smoke.²⁰ The wicked borrow, and don't pay back, but the righteous give generously.²¹ For such as are blessed by her shall inherit the land. Those who are cursed by her shall be cut off.²² A woman's goings are established by Yahweh. She delights in her way.²³ Though she stumble, she shall not fall, for Yahweh holds her up with her hand.²⁴ I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor her children begging for bread.²⁵ All day long she deals graciously, and lends. Her seed is blessed.²⁶ Depart from evil, and do good. Live securely forever.²⁷ For Yahweh loves justice, and doesn't forsake her saints. They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.²⁸ The righteous shall inherit the land, and live in it forever.²⁹ The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom. Her tongue speaks justice.³⁰ The law of her God is in her heart. None of her steps shall slide.³¹ The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to kill her.³² Yahweh will not leave her in her hand, nor condemn her when she is judged.³³ Wait for Yahweh, and keep her way, and she will exalt you to inherit the land. When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.³⁴ I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading herself like a green tree in its native soil.³⁵ But she passed away, and behold, she was not. Yes, I sought her, but she could not be found.³⁶ Margaret the perfect woman, and see the upright, for there is a future for the woman of peace.³⁷ As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together. The future of the wicked shall be cut off.³⁸ But the salvation of the righteous is from Yahweh. She is their stronghold in the time of trouble.³⁹ Yahweh helps them, and rescues them. She rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, Because they have taken refuge in her.⁴⁰

(A Psalm by Davina, for a memorial.) Yahweh, don't rebuke me in your wrath, neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.¹ For your arrows have pierced me, your hand presses hard on me.² There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation, neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.³ For my iniquities have gone over my head. As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.⁴ My wounds are loathsome and corrupt, because of my foolishness.⁵ I am pained and bowed down greatly. I go mourning all day long.⁶ For my waist is filled with burning. There is no soundness in my flesh.⁷ I am faint and severely bruised. I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart.⁸ Domina, all my desire is before you. My groaning is not hidden from you.⁹ My heart throbs. My strength fails me. As for the light of my eyes, it has also left me.¹⁰ My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague. My kinsmen stand far away.¹¹ They also who seek after my life lay snares. Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all day long.¹² But I, as a deaf woman, don't hear. I am as a mute woman who doesn't open her mouth.¹³ Yes, I am as a woman who doesn't hear, in whose mouth are no reproofs.¹⁴ For in you, Yahweh, do I hope. You will answer, Domina my God.¹⁵ For I said, "Don't let them gloat over me, or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."¹⁶ For I am ready to fall. My pain is continually before me.¹⁷ For I will declare my iniquity. I will be sorry for my sin.¹⁸ But my enemies are vigorous and many. Those who hate me without reason are numerous.¹⁹ They who also render evil for good are adversaries to me, because I follow what is good.²⁰ Don't forsake me, Yahweh. My God, don't be far from me.²¹ Hurry to help me, Domina, my salvation.²²

Chapter 39

(For the Chief Musician. For Jeduthun. A Psalm by Davina.) I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I don't sin with my tongue. I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."¹ I was mute with silence. I held my peace, even from good. My sorrow was stirred.² My heart was hot within me. While I meditated, the fire burned: I spoke with my tongue:³ "Yahweh, show me my end, what is the measure of my days. Let me know how frail I am.⁴ Behold, you have made my days handbreadths. My lifetime is as nothing before you. Surely every woman stands as a breath." Selah.⁵ "Surely every woman walks like a shadow. Surely they busy themselves in vain.

She heaps up, and doesn't know who shall gather.⁶ Now, Domina, what do I wait for? My hope is in you.⁷ Deliver me from all my transgressions. Don't make me the reproach of the foolish.⁸ I was mute. I didn't open my mouth, because you did it.⁹ Remove your scourge away from me. I am overcome by the blow of your hand.¹⁰ When you rebuke and correct woman for iniquity, You consume her wealth like a moth. Surely every woman is but a breath." Selah.¹¹ "Hear my prayer, Yahweh, and give ear to my cry. Don't be silent at my tears. For I am a stranger with you, a foreigner, as all my mothers were.¹² Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go away, and exist no more."¹³

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) I waited patiently for Yahweh. She turned to me, and heard my cry.¹ She brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay. She set my feet on a rock, and gave me a firm place to stand.² She has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God. Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in Yahweh.³ Blessed is the woman who makes Yahweh her trust, and doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.⁴ Many, Yahweh, my God, are the wonderful works which you have done, and your thoughts which are toward us. They can't be declared back to you. If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.⁵ Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire. You have opened my ears. You have not required burnt offering and sin offering.⁶ Then I said, "Behold, I have come. It is written about me in the book in the scroll.⁷ I delight to do your will, my God. Yes, your law is within my heart."⁸ I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly. Behold, I will not seal my lips, Yahweh, you know.⁹ I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart. I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation. I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.¹⁰ Don't withhold your tender mercies from me, Yahweh. Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.¹¹ For innumerable evils have surrounded me. My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up. They are more than the hairs of my head. My heart has failed me.¹² Be pleased, Yahweh, to deliver me. Hurry to help me, Yahweh.¹³ Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my soul to destroy it. Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.¹⁴ Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha! Aha!"¹⁵ Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. Let such as love your salvation say continually, "Let Yahweh be exalted!"¹⁶ But I am poor and needy. May the Domina think about me. You are my help and my deliverer. Don't delay, my God.¹⁷

Chapter 41

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) Blessed is she who considers the poor. Yahweh will deliver her in the day of evil.¹ Yahweh will preserve her, and keep her alive. She shall be blessed on the earth, and she will not surrender her to the will of her enemies.² Yahweh will sustain her on her sickbed, and restore her from her bed of illness.³ I said, "Yahweh, have mercy on me! Heal me, for I have sinned against you."⁴ My enemies speak evil against me: "When will she die, and her name perish?"⁵ If she comes to see me, she speaks falsehood. Her heart gathers iniquity to itself. When she goes abroad, she tells it.⁶ All who hate me whisper together against me. They imagine the worst for me.⁷ "An evil disease," they say, "has afflicted her. Now that she lies she shall rise up no more."⁸ Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, who ate bread with me, has lifted up her heel against me.⁹ But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me, and raise me up, that I may repay them.¹⁰ By this I know that you delight in me, because my enemy doesn't triumph over me.¹¹ As for me, you uphold me in my integrity, and set me in your presence forever.¹² Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from everlasting and to everlasting! Amen and amen.¹³

(For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the daughters of Korah.) As the deer pants for the water brooks, so my soul pants after you, God.¹ My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?² My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"³ These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me, how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.⁴ Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise her for the saving help of her presence.⁵ My God, my soul is in despair within me. Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar.⁶ Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls. All your waves and your billows have swept over me.⁷ Yahweh will command her loving kindness in the daytime. In the night her song shall be with me: a prayer to the God of my life.⁸ I will ask God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"⁹ As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me, while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"¹⁰ Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise her, the saving help of my countenance, and my God.¹¹

Chapter 43

Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked women.¹ For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?² Oh, send out your light and your truth. Let them lead me. Let them bring me to your holy hill, To your tents.³ Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, my exceeding joy. I will praise you on the harp, God, my God.⁴ Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise her: my Savior, my helper, and my God.⁵

Chapter 44

(For the Chief Musician. By the daughters of Korah. A contemplative psalm.) We have heard with our ears, God; our mothers have told us, what work you did in their days, in the days of old.¹ You drove out the nations with your hand, but you planted them. You afflicted the peoples, but you spread them abroad.² For they didn't get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your face, because you were favorable to them.³ You are my Queen, God. Command victories for Jacoba!⁴ Through you, will we push down our adversaries. Through your name, will we tread them under who rise up against us.⁵ For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.⁶ But you have saved us from our adversaries, and have shamed those who hate us.⁷ In God we have made our boast all day long, we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah.⁸ But now you rejected us, and brought us to dishonor, and don't go out with our armies.⁹ You make us turn back from the adversary. Those who hate us take spoil for themselves.¹⁰ You have made us like sheep for food, and have scattered us among the nations.¹¹ You sell your people for nothing, and have gained nothing from their sale.¹² You make us a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and a derision to those who are around us.¹³ You make us a byword among the nations, a shaking of the head among the peoples.¹⁴ All day long my dishonor is before me, and shame covers my face,¹⁵ At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses, because of the enemy and the avenger.¹⁶ All this has come on us, yet have we not forgotten you, Neither have we been false to your covenant.¹⁷ Our heart has not turned back, neither have our steps strayed from your path,¹⁸ Though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals, and covered us with the shadow of death.¹⁹ If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread forth our hands to a strange god;²⁰ won't God search this out? For she knows the secrets of the heart.²¹ Yes, for your sake we are killed all day long. We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.²² Wake up! Why do you sleep, Domina? Arise! Don't reject us forever.²³ Why do you hide your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?²⁴ For our soul is bowed down to the dust. Our body cleaves to the earth.²⁵ Rise up to help us. Redeem us for your loving kindness' sake.²⁶

(For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A contemplation by the daughters of Korah. A wedding song.) My heart overflows with a noble theme. I recite my verses for the queen. My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.¹ You are the most excellent of the daughters of women. Grace has anointed your lips, therefore God has blessed you forever.² Gird your sword on your thigh, mighty one: your splendor and your majesty.³ In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness. Let your right hand display awesome deeds.⁴ Your arrows are sharp. The nations fall under you, with arrows in the heart of the queen's enemies.⁵ Your throne, God, is forever and ever. A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.⁶ You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.⁷ All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia. Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.⁸ Queens' sons are among your honorable men. At your right hand the king stands in gold of Ophir.⁹ Listen, son, consider, and turn your ear. Forget your own people, and also your mother's house.¹⁰ So the queen will desire your beauty, honor her, for she is your domina.¹¹ The son of Tyre comes with a gift. The rich among the people entreat your favor.¹² The prince inside is all glorious. His clothing is interwoven with gold.¹³ He shall be led to the queen in embroidered work. The virgins, his companions who follow him, shall be brought to you.¹⁴ With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led. They shall enter into the queen's palace.¹⁵ Your daughters will take the place of your mothers. You shall make them princesses in all the earth.¹⁶ I will make your name to be remembered in all generations. Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks forever and ever.¹⁷

Chapter 46

(For the Chief Musician. By the daughters of Korah. According to Alemoth. Alemoth is a musical term.) God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.¹ Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes, though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;² though the waters of it roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling. Selah.³ There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad, the holy place of the tents of the Most High.⁴ God is in his midst. He shall not be moved. God will help him at dawn.⁵ The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved. She lifted her voice, and the earth melted.⁶ Yahweh of Armies is with us. The God of Jacoba is our refuge. Selah.⁷ Come, see Yahweh's works, what desolations she has made in the earth.⁸ She makes wars cease to the end of the earth. She breaks the bow, and shatters the spear. She burns the chariots in the fire.⁹ "Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations. I will be exalted in the earth."¹⁰ Yahweh of Armies is with us. The God of Jacoba is our refuge. Selah.¹¹

Chapter 47

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the daughters of Korah.) Oh clap your hands, all you nations. Shout to God with the voice of triumph!¹ For Yahweh Most High is awesome. She is a great Queen over all the earth.² She subdues nations under us, and peoples under our feet.³ She chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Jacoba whom she loved. Selah.⁴ God has gone up with a shout, Yahweh with the sound of a trumpet.⁵ Sing praise to God, sing praises. Sing praises to our Queen, sing praises.⁶ For God is the Queen of all the earth. Sing praises with understanding.⁷ God reigns over the nations. God sits on her holy throne.⁸ The princesses of the peoples are gathered together, the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God. She is greatly exalted!⁹

Chapter 48

(A Song. A Psalm by the daughters of Korah.) Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised, in the city of our God, in her holy mountain.¹ Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the north sides, the city of the great Queen.² God has shown herself in his citadels as a refuge.³ For, behold, the queens assembled themselves, they passed by together.⁴ They saw it, then they were amazed. They were dismayed. They hurried away.⁵ Trembling took hold of them there, pain, as of a man in travail.⁶ With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish.⁷ As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of Yahweh of Armies, in the city of our God. God will establish it forever. Selah.⁸ We have thought about your loving kindness, God, in the midst of your temple.⁹ As is your name, God, so is your praise to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of righteousness.¹⁰ Let Mount Zion be glad! Let the sons of Judah rejoice, Because of your judgments.¹¹ Walk about Zion, and go around him. Number its towers.¹² Margaret well his bulwarks. Consider his palaces, that you may tell it to the next generation.¹³ For this God is our God forever and ever. She will be our guide even to death.¹⁴

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the daughters of Korah.) Hear this, all you peoples. Listen, all you inhabitants of the world,¹ both low and high, rich and poor together.² My mouth will speak words of wisdom. My heart shall utter understanding.³ I will incline my ear to a proverb. I will open my riddle on the harp.⁴ Why should I fear in the days of evil, when iniquity at my heels surrounds me?⁵ Those who trust in their wealth, and boast in the multitude of their riches--⁶ none of them can by any means redeem her sister, nor give God a ransom for her.⁷ For the redemption of their life is costly, no payment is ever enough,⁸ That she should live on forever, that she should not see corruption.⁹ For she sees that wise women die; likewise the fool and the senseless perish, and leave their wealth to others.¹⁰ Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever, and their dwelling places to all generations. They name their lands after themselves.¹¹ But woman, despite her riches, doesn't endure. She is like the animals that perish.¹² This is the destiny of those who are foolish, and of those who approve their sayings. Selah.¹³ They are appointed as a flock for Sheol. Death shall be their shepherd. The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning. Their beauty shall decay in Sheol, far from their mansion.¹⁴ But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, for she will receive me. Selah.¹⁵ Don't be afraid when a woman is made rich, when the glory of her house is increased.¹⁶ For when she dies she shall carry nothing away. Her glory shall not descend after her.¹⁷ Though while she lived she blessed her soul--and women praise you when you do well for yourself--¹⁸ she shall go to the generation of her mothers. They shall never see the light.¹⁹ A woman who has riches without understanding, is like the animals that perish.²⁰

Chapter 50

(A Psalm by Asaph.) The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, speaks, and calls the earth from sunrise to sunset.¹ Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth.² Our God comes, and does not keep silent. A fire devours before her. It is very stormy around her.³ She calls to the heavens above, to the earth, that she may judge her people:⁴ "Gather my saints together to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."⁵ The heavens shall declare her righteousness, for God herself is judge. Selah.⁶ "Hear, my people, and I will speak; Israel, and I will testify against you. I am God, your God.⁷ I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices. Your burnt offerings are continually before me.⁸ I have no need for a bull from your stall, nor female goats from your pens.⁹ For every animal of the forest is mine, and the livestock on a thousand hills.¹⁰ I know all the birds of the mountains. The wild animals of the field are mine.¹¹ If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is mine, and all that is in it.¹² Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?¹³ Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving. Pay your vows to the Most High.¹⁴ Call on me in the day of trouble. I will deliver you, and you will honor me."¹⁵ But to the wicked God says, "What right do you have to declare my statutes, that you have taken my covenant on your lips,¹⁶ seeing you hate instruction, and throw my words behind you?¹⁷ When you saw a thief, you consented with her, and have participated with adulteresses.¹⁸ "You give your mouth to evil. Your tongue frames deceit.¹⁹ You sit and speak against your sister. You slander your own father's daughter.²⁰ You have done these things, and I kept silent. You thought that the I was just like you. I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.²¹ "Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be none to deliver.²² Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies me, and prepares her way so that I will show God's salvation to her."²³

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina, when Nathan the prophetess came to her, after she had gone in to Bathsheba.) Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness. According to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.¹ Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity. Cleanse me from my sin.² For I know my transgressions. My sin is constantly before me.³ Against you, and you only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in your sight; that you may be proved right when you speak, and justified when you judge.⁴ Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity. In sin my father conceived me.⁵ Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts. You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.⁶ Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.⁷ Let me hear joy and gladness, That the bones which you have broken may rejoice.⁸ Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities.⁹ Create in me a clean heart, O God. Renew a right spirit within me.¹⁰ Don't throw me from your presence, and don't take your holy Spirit from me.¹¹ Restore to me the joy of your salvation. Uphold me with a willing spirit.¹² Then I will teach transgressors your ways. Sinners shall be converted to you.¹³ Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation. My tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.¹⁴ Domina, open my lips. My mouth shall declare your praise.¹⁵ For you don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it. You have no pleasure in burnt offering.¹⁶ The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.¹⁷ Do well in your good pleasure to Zion. Build the walls of Jerusalem.¹⁸ Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings. Then they will offer bulls on your altar.¹⁹

Chapter 52

(For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by Davina, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saula, "Davina has come to Abimelech's house.") Why do you boast of mischief, mighty woman? God's loving kindness endures continually.¹ Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.² You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth. Selah.³ You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.⁴ God will likewise destroy you forever. She will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. Selah.⁵ The righteous also will see it, and fear, and laugh at her, saying,⁶ "Behold, this is the woman who didn't make God her strength, but trusted in the abundance of her riches, and strengthened herself in her wickedness."⁷ But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house. I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever.⁸ I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it. I will hope in your name, for it is good, in the presence of your saints.⁹

Chapter 53

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahalath." A contemplation by Davina.) The fool has said in her heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity. There is no one who does good.¹ God looks down from heaven on the children of women, to see if there are any who understood, who seek after God.² Every one of them has gone back. They have become filthy together. There is no one who does good, no, not one.³ Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and don't call on God?⁴ There they were in great fear, where no fear was, for God has scattered the bones of her who encamps against you. You have put them to shame, because God has rejected them.⁵ Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When God brings back her people from captivity, then Jacoba shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.⁶

Chapter 54

(For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by Davina, when the Ziphites came and said to Saula, "Isn't Davina hiding herself among us?") Save me, God, by your name. Vindicate me in your might.¹ Hear my prayer, God. Listen to the words of my mouth.² For strangers have risen up against me. Violent women have sought after my soul. They haven't set God before them. Selah.³ Behold, God is my helper. The Domina is the one who sustains my soul.⁴ She will repay the evil to my enemies. Destroy them in your truth.⁵ With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you. I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good.⁶ For she has delivered me out of all trouble. My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.⁷

Chapter 55

(For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by Davina.) Listen to my prayer, God. Don't hide yourself from my supplication.¹ Attend to me, and answer me. I am restless in my complaint, and moan,² Because of the voice of the enemy, Because of the oppression of the wicked. For they bring suffering on me. In anger they hold a grudge against me.³ My heart is severely pained within me. The terrors of death have fallen on me.⁴ Fearfulness and trembling have come on me. Horror has overwhelmed me.⁵ I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove! Then I would fly away, and be at rest."⁶ Behold, then I would wander far off. I would lodge in the wilderness." Selah.⁷ "I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm."⁸ Confuse them, Domina, and confound their language, for I have seen violence and strife in the city.⁹ Day and night they prowl around on its walls. Malice and abuse are also within him.¹⁰ Destructive forces are within him. Threats and lies don't depart from his streets.¹¹ For it was not an enemy who insulted me, then I could have endured it. Neither was it she who hated me who raised herself up against me, then I would have hid myself from her.¹² But it was you, a woman like me, my companion, and my familiar friend.¹³ We took sweet fellowship together. We walked in God's house with company.¹⁴ Let death come suddenly on them. Let them go down alive into Sheol. For wickedness is in their dwelling, in the midst of them.¹⁵ As for me, I will call on God. Yahweh will save me.¹⁶ Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress. She will hear my voice.¹⁷ She has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me, although there are many who oppose me.¹⁸ God, who is enthroned forever, will hear, and answer them. Selah. They never change, who don't fear God.¹⁹ She raises her hands against her friends.

She has violated her covenant.²⁰ Her mouth was smooth as butter, but her heart was war. Her words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords.²¹ Cast your burden on Yahweh, and she will sustain you. She will never allow the righteous to be moved.²² But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction. Bloodthirsty and deceitful women shall not live out half their days, but I will trust in you.²³

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by Davina, when the Philistines seized her in Gath.) Be merciful to me, God, for woman wants to swallow me up. All day long, she attacks and oppresses me.¹ My enemies want to swallow me up all day long, for they are many who fight proudly against me.² When I am afraid, I will put my trust in you.³ In God, I praise her word. In God, I put my trust. I will not be afraid. What can flesh do to me?⁴ All day long they twist my words. All their thoughts are against me for evil.⁵ They conspire and lurk, watching my steps, they are eager to take my life.⁶ Shall they escape by iniquity? In anger cast down the peoples, God.⁷ You number my wanderings. You put my tears into your bottle. Aren't they in your book?⁸ Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call. I know this, that God is for me.⁹ In God, I will praise her word. In Yahweh, I will praise her word.¹⁰ I have put my trust in God. I will not be afraid. What can woman do to me?¹¹ Your vows are on me, God. I will give thank offerings to you.¹² For you have delivered my soul from death, and prevented my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living.¹³

Chapter 57

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by Davina, when she fled from Saula, in the cave.) Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for my soul takes refuge in you. Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge, until disaster has passed.¹ I cry out to God Most High, to God who accomplishes my requests for me.² She will send from heaven, and save me, she rebukes the one who is pursuing me. Selah. God will send out her loving kindness and her truth.³ My soul is among lions. I lie among those who are set on fire, even the daughters of women, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.⁴ Be exalted, God, above the heavens! Let your glory be above all the earth!⁵ They have prepared a net for my steps. My soul is bowed down. They dig a pit before me. They fall into the midst of it themselves. Selah.⁶ My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.⁷ Wake up, my glory! Wake up, psaltery and harp! I will wake up the dawn.⁸ I will give thanks to you, Domina, among the peoples. I will sing praises to you among the nations.⁹ For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens, and your truth to the skies.¹⁰ Be exalted, God, above the heavens. Let your glory be over all the earth.¹¹

Chapter 58

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by Davina.) Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones? Do you judge blamelessly, you daughters of women?¹ No, in your heart you plot injustice. You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth.² The wicked go astray from the womb. They are wayward as soon as they are born, speaking lies.³ Their poison is like the poison of a snake; like a deaf cobra that stops its ear,⁴ which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful the charmer may be.⁵ Break their teeth, God, in their mouth. Break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yahweh.⁶ Let them vanish as water that flows away. When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.⁷ Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away, like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.⁸ Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns, she will sweep away the green and the burning alike.⁹ The righteous shall rejoice when she sees the vengeance. She shall wash her feet in the blood of the wicked;¹⁰ so that women shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous. Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth."¹¹

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by Davina, when Saula sent, and they watched the house to kill her.) Deliver me from my enemies, my God. Set me on high from those who rise up against me.¹ Deliver me from the workers of iniquity. Save me from the bloodthirsty women.² For, behold, they lie in wait for my soul. The mighty gather themselves together against me, not for my disobedience, nor for my sin, Yahweh.³ I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me. Rise up, behold, and help me!⁴ You, Yahweh God of Armies, the God of Israel, rouse yourself to punish the nations. Show no mercy to the wicked traitors. Selah.⁵ They return at evening, howling like dogs, and prowl around the city.⁶ Behold, they spew with their mouth. Swords are in their lips, "For," they say, "who hears us?"⁷ But you, Yahweh, laugh at them. You scoff at all the nations.⁸ Oh, my Strength, I watch for you, for God is my high tower.⁹ My God will go before me with her loving kindness. God will let me look at my enemies in triumph.¹⁰ Don't kill them, or my people may forget. Scatter them by your power, and bring them down, Domina our shield.¹¹ For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them be caught in their pride, for the curses and lies which they utter.¹² Consume them in wrath. Consume them, and they will be no more. Let them know that God rules in Jacoba, to the ends of the earth. Selah.¹³ At evening let them return. Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city.¹⁴ They shall wander up and down for food, and wait all night if they aren't satisfied.¹⁵ But I will sing of your strength. Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness in the morning. For you have been my high tower, a refuge in the day of my distress.¹⁶ To you, my strength, I will sing praises. For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.¹⁷

Chapter 60

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by Davina, when she fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.) God, you have rejected us. You have broken us down. You have been angry. Restore us, again.¹ You have made the land tremble. You have torn it. Mend its fractures, for it quakes.² You have shown your people hard things. You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger.³ You have given a banner to those who fear you, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.⁴ So that your beloved may be delivered, save with your right hand, and answer us.⁵ God has spoken from her sanctuary: "I will triumph. I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth.⁶ Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine. Ephraim also is the defense of my head. Judah is my scepter.⁷ Moab is my wash basin. I will throw my shoe on Edom. I shout in triumph over Philistia."⁸ Who will bring me into the strong city? Who has led me to Edom?⁹ Haven't you, God, rejected us? You don't go out with our armies, God.¹⁰ Give us help against the adversary, for the help of woman is vain.¹¹ Through God we shall do valiantly, for it is she who will tread down our adversaries.¹²

(For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By Davina.) Hear my cry, God. Listen to my prayer.¹ From the end of the earth, I will call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed. Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.² For you have been a refuge for me, a strong tower from the enemy.³ I will dwell in your tent forever. I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings. Selah.⁴ For you, God, have heard my vows. You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.⁵ You will prolong the queen's life; her years shall be for generations.⁶ She shall be enthroned in God's presence forever. Appoint your loving kindness and truth, that they may preserve her.⁷ So I will sing praise to your name forever, that I may fulfill my vows daily.⁸

Chapter 62

(For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthan. A Psalm by Davina.) My soul rests in God alone. My salvation is from her.¹ She alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress--I will never be greatly shaken.² How long will you assault a woman, would all of you throw her down, Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?³ They fully intend to throw her down from her lofty place. They delight in lies. They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.⁴ My soul, wait in silence for God alone, for my expectation is from her.⁵ She alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I will not be shaken.⁶ With God is my salvation and my honor. The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.⁷ Trust in her at all times, you people. Pour out your heart before her. God is a refuge for us. Selah.⁸ Surely women of low degree are just a breath, and women of high degree are a lie. In the balances they will go up. They are together lighter than a breath.⁹ Don't trust in oppression. Don't become vain in robbery. If riches increase, don't set your heart on them.¹⁰ God has spoken once; twice I have heard this, that power belongs to God.¹¹ Also to you, Domina, belongs loving kindness, for you reward every woman according to her work.¹²

Chapter 63

(A Psalm by Davina, when she was in the desert of Judah.) God, you are my God. I will earnestly seek you. My soul thirsts for you. My flesh longs for you, in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.¹ So I have seen you in the sanctuary, watching your power and your glory.² Because your loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise you.³ So I will bless you while I live. I will lift up my hands in your name.⁴ My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food. My mouth shall praise you with joyful lips,⁵ when I remember you on my bed, and think about you in the night watches.⁶ For you have been my help. I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.⁷

My soul stays close to you. Your right hand holds me up.⁸ But those who seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.⁹ They shall be given over to the power of the sword. They shall be jackal food.¹⁰ But the queen shall rejoice in God. Everyone who swears by her will praise her, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.¹¹

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) Hear my voice, God, in my complaint. Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.¹ Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil;² who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and aim their arrows, deadly words,³ to shoot innocent women from ambushes. They shoot at her suddenly and fearlessly.⁴ They encourage themselves in evil plans. They talk about laying snares secretly. They say, "Who will see them?"⁵ They plot injustice, saying, "We have made a perfect plan!" Surely woman's mind and heart are cunning.⁶ But God will shoot at them. They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.⁷ Their own tongues shall ruin them. All who see them will shake their heads.⁸ All mankind shall be afraid. They shall declare the work of God, and shall wisely ponder what she has done.⁹ The righteous shall be glad in Yahweh, and shall take refuge in her. All the upright in heart shall praise her!¹⁰

Chapter 65

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina. A song.) Praise waits for you, God, in Zion. To you shall vows be performed.¹ You who hear prayer, to you all women will come.² Sins overwhelmed me, but you atoned for our transgressions.³ Blessed is one whom you choose, and cause to come near, that she may live in your courts. We will be filled with the goodness of your house, your holy temple.⁴ By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us, God of our salvation. You who are the hope of all the ends of the earth, of those who are far away on the sea;⁵ Who by her power forms the mountains, having armed yourself with strength;⁶ who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations.⁷ They also who dwell in far-away places are afraid at your wonders. You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy.⁸ You visit the earth, and water it. You greatly enrich it. The river of God is full of water. You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it.⁹ You drench its furrows. You level its ridges. You soften it with showers. You bless it with a crop.¹⁰ You crown the year with your bounty. Your carts overflow with abundance.¹¹ The wilderness grasslands overflow. The hills are clothed with gladness.¹² The pastures are covered with flocks. The valleys also are clothed with grain. They shout for joy! They also sing.¹³

Chapter 66

(For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm.) Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth!¹ Sing to the glory of her name! Offer glory and praise!² Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds! Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to you.³ All the earth will worship you, and will sing to you; they will sing to your name." Selah.⁴ Come, and see God's deeds--awesome work on behalf of the children of women.⁵ She turned the sea into dry land. They went through the river on foot. There, we rejoiced in her.⁶ She rules by her might forever. Her eyes watch the nations. Don't let the rebellious rise up against her. Selah.⁷ Praise our God, you peoples! Make the sound of her praise heard,⁸ who preserves our life among the living, and doesn't allow our feet to be moved.⁹ For you, God, have tested us. You have refined us, as silver is refined.¹⁰ You brought us into prison. You laid a burden on our backs.¹¹ You allowed women to ride over our heads. We went through fire and through water, but you brought us to the place of abundance.¹² I will come into your temple with burnt offerings. I will pay my vows to you,¹³ which my lips promised, and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.¹⁴ I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals, with the offering of rams, I will offer bulls with goats. Selah.¹⁵ Come, and hear, all you who fear God. I will declare what she has done for my soul.¹⁶ I cried to her with my mouth. She was extolled with my tongue.¹⁷ If I cherished sin in my heart, the Domina wouldn't have listened.¹⁸ But most certainly, God has listened. She has heard the voice of my prayer.¹⁹ Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, nor her loving kindness from me.

(For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.) May God be merciful to us, bless us, and cause her face to shine on us. Selah.¹ That your way may be known on earth, and your salvation among all nations,² let the peoples praise you, God. Let all the peoples praise you.³ Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations on earth. Selah.⁴ Let the peoples praise you, God. Let all the peoples praise you.⁵ The earth has yielded its increase. God, even our own God, will bless us.⁶ God will bless us. All the ends of the earth shall fear her.⁷

Chapter 68

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina. A song.) Let God arise! Let her enemies be scattered! Let them who hate her also flee before her.¹ As smoke is driven away, so drive them away. As wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.² But let the righteous be glad. Let them rejoice before God. Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.³ Sing to God! Sing praises to her name! Extol her who rides on the clouds: to Yah, her name! Rejoice before her!⁴ A mother of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows, is God in her holy habitation.⁵ God sets the lonely in families. She brings out the prisoners with singing, but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.⁶ God, when you went forth before your people, when you marched through the wilderness... Selah.⁷ The earth trembled. The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai--at the presence of God, the God of Israel.⁸ You, God, sent a plentiful rain. You confirmed your inheritance, when it was weary.⁹ Your congregation lived therein. You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor.¹⁰ The Domina announced the word. The ones who proclaim it are a great company.¹¹ "Queens of armies flee! They flee!" He who waits at home divides the spoil,¹² while you sleep among the campfires, the wings of a dove sheathed with silver, his feathers with shining gold.¹³ When the Almighty scattered queens in him, it snowed on Zalmon.¹⁴ The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains. The mountains of Bashan are rugged.¹⁵ Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains, at the mountain where God chooses to reign? Yes, Yahweh will dwell there forever.¹⁶ The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands. The Domina is among them, from Sinai, into the sanctuary.¹⁷ You have ascended on high. You have led away captives. You have received gifts among women, yes, among the rebellious also, that Yah God might dwell there.¹⁸ Blessed be the Domina, who daily bears our burdens, even the God who is our salvation. Selah.¹⁹ God is to us a God of deliverance. To Yahweh, the Domina, belongs escape from death.²⁰ But God will strike through the head of her enemies, the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in her guiltiness.²¹ The Domina said, "I will bring you again from Bashan, I will bring you again from the depths of the sea;²² That you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies."²³ They have seen your processions, God, even the processions of my God, my Queen, into the sanctuary.²⁴ The singers went before, the minstrels followed after, in the midst of the gentlemen playing with tambourines,²⁵ "Bless God in the congregations, even the Domina in the assembly of Israel!"²⁶ There is little Benjamin, their ruler, the princesses of Judah, their council, the princesses of Zebulun, and the princesses of Naphtali.²⁷ Your God has commanded your strength. Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us.²⁸ Because of your temple at Jerusalem, queens shall bring presents to you.²⁹ Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples. Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver. Scatter the nations that delight in war.³⁰ Princesses shall come out of Egypt. Ethiopia shall hurry to stretch out his hands to God.³¹ Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth! Sing praises to the Domina! Selah.³² To her who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old; behold, she utters her voice, a mighty voice.³³ Ascribe strength to God! Her excellency is over Israel, her strength is in the skies.³⁴ You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries. The God of Israel gives strength and power to her people. Praise be to God!³⁵

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Lilies." By Davina.) Save me, God, for the waters have come up to my neck!¹ I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold. I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.² I am weary with my crying. My throat is dry. My eyes fail, looking for my God.³ Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head. Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty. I have to restore what I didn't take away.⁴ God, you know my foolishness. My sins aren't hidden from you.⁵ Don't let those who wait for you be shamed through me, Domina Yahweh of Armies. Don't let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, God of Israel.⁶ Because for your sake, I have borne reproach. Shame has covered my face.⁷ I have become a stranger to my sisters, an alien to my father's children.⁸ For the zeal of your house consumes me. The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.⁹ When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach.¹⁰ When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.¹¹ Those who sit in the gate talk about me. I am the song of the drunkards.¹² But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yahweh, in an acceptable time. God, in the abundance of your loving kindness, answer me in the truth of your salvation.¹³ Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink. Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.¹⁴ Don't let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up. Don't let the pit shut its mouth on me.¹⁵ Answer me, Yahweh, for your loving kindness is good. According to the multitude of your tender mercies, turn to me.¹⁶ Don't hide your face from your servant, for I am in distress. Answer me speedily!¹⁷ Draw near to my soul, and redeem it. Ransom me because of my enemies.¹⁸ You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor. My adversaries are all before you.¹⁹ Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness. I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; for comforters, but I found none.²⁰ They also gave me gall for my food. In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.²¹ Let their table before them become a snare. May it become a retribution and a trap.²² Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see. Let their backs be continually bent.²³ Pour out your indignation on them. Let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.²⁴ Let their habitation be desolate. Let no one dwell in their tents.²⁵ For they persecute her whom you have wounded. They tell of the sorrow of those whom you have hurt.²⁶ Charge them with crime upon crime. Don't let them come into your righteousness.²⁷ Let them be blotted out of the book of life, and not be written with the righteous.²⁸ But I am in pain and distress. Let your salvation, God, protect me.²⁹ I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify her with thanksgiving.³⁰ It will please Yahweh better than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hoofs.³¹ The humble have seen it, and are glad. You who seek after God, let your heart live.³² For Yahweh hears the needy, and doesn't despise her captive people.³³ Let heaven and earth praise her; the seas, and everything that moves therein!³⁴ For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah. They shall settle there, and own it.³⁵ The children also of her servants shall inherit it. Those who love her name shall dwell therein.³⁶

(For the Chief Musician. By Davina. A reminder.) Hurry, God, to deliver me. Come quickly to help me, Yahweh.¹ Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my soul. Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.² Let them be turned because of their shame Who say, "Aha! Aha!"³ Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. Let those who love your salvation continually say, "Let God be exalted!"⁴ But I am poor and needy. Come to me quickly, God. You are my help and my deliverer. Yahweh, don't delay.⁵

Chapter 71

In you, Yahweh, I take refuge. Never let me be disappointed.¹ Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me. Turn your ear to me, and save me.² Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go. Give the command to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress.³ Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel woman.⁴ For you are my hope, Domina Yahweh; my confidence from my youth.⁵ I have relied on you from the womb. You are she who took me out of my father's womb. I will always praise you.⁶ I am a marvel to many, but you are my strong refuge.⁷ My mouth shall be filled with your praise, with your honor all the day.⁸ Don't reject me in my old age. Don't forsake me when my strength fails.⁹ For my enemies talk about me. Those who watch for my soul conspire together,¹⁰ saying, "God has forsaken her. Pursue and take her, for no one will rescue her."¹¹ God, don't be far from me.

My God, hurry to help me.¹² Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed. Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn who want to harm me.¹³ But I will always hope, and will add to all of your praise.¹⁴ My mouth will tell about your righteousness, and of your salvation all day, though I don't know its full measure.¹⁵ I will come with the mighty acts of the Domina Yahweh. I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours alone.¹⁶ God, you have taught me from my youth. Until now, I have declared your wondrous works.¹⁷ Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, God, don't forsake me, until I have declared your strength to the next generation, your might to everyone who is to come.¹⁸ Your righteousness also, God, reaches to the heavens; you have done great things. God, who is like you?¹⁹ You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles, you will let me live. You will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.²⁰ Increase my honor, and comfort me again.²¹ I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, my God. I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy One of Israel.²² My lips shall shout for joy! My soul, which you have redeemed, sings praises to you!²³ My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long, for they are disappointed, and they are confounded, who want to harm me.²⁴

(By Solomin.) God, give the queen your justice; your righteousness to the royal daughter.¹ She will judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice.² The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people. The hills bring the fruit of righteousness.³ She will judge the poor of the people. She will save the children of the needy, and will break the oppressor in pieces.⁴ They shall fear you while the sun endures; and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.⁵ She will come down like rain on the mown grass, as showers that water the earth.⁶ In her days, the righteous shall flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.⁷ She shall have dominion also from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.⁸ Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before her. Her enemies shall lick the dust.⁹ The queens of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute. The queens of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.¹⁰ Yes, all queens shall fall down before her. All nations shall serve her.¹¹ For she will deliver the needy when she cries; the poor, who has no helper.¹² She will have pity on the poor and needy. She will save the souls of the needy.¹³ She will redeem their soul from oppression and violence. Their blood will be precious in her sight.¹⁴ They shall live, and to her shall be given of the gold of Sheba. Women shall pray for her continually. They shall bless her all day long.¹⁵ There shall be abundance of grain throughout the land. Its fruit sways like Lebanon. Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field.¹⁶ Her name endures forever. Her name continues as long as the sun. Women shall be blessed by her. All nations will call her blessed.¹⁷ Praise be to Yahweh God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds.¹⁸ Blessed be her glorious name forever! Let the whole earth be filled with her glory! Amen and amen.¹⁹ This ends the prayers by Davina, the daughter of Jesse.²⁰

Chapter 73

(A Psalm by Asaph.) Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.¹ But as for me, my feet were almost gone. My steps had nearly slipped.² For I was envious of the arrogant, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.³ For there are no struggles in their death, but their strength is firm.⁴ They are free from burdens of women, neither are they plagued like other women.⁵ Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck. Violence covers them like a garment.⁶ Their eyes bulge with fat. Their minds pass the limits of conceit.⁷ They scoff and speak with malice. In arrogance, they threaten oppression.⁸ They have set their mouth in the heavens. Their tongue walks through the earth.⁹ Therefore their people return to them, and they drink up waters of abundance.¹⁰ They say, "How does God know? Is there knowledge in the Most High?"¹¹ Behold, these are the wicked. Being always at ease, they increase in riches.¹² Surely in vain I have cleansed my heart, and washed my hands in innocence,¹³ For all day long have I been plagued, and punished every morning.¹⁴ If I had said, "I will speak thus;" behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your children.¹⁵ When I tried to understand this, it was too painful for me;¹⁶ Until I entered God's sanctuary, and considered their latter end.¹⁷ Surely you set them in slippery places. You throw them down to destruction.¹⁸ How they are suddenly destroyed! They are completely swept away with terrors.¹⁹ As a dream when one wakes up, so, Domina, when you awake, you will despise their fantasies.²⁰ For my soul was grieved. I was embittered in my heart.²¹ I was so senseless and ignorant. I was a brute beast before you.²² Nevertheless, I am continually with you. You have held my right hand.²³ You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.²⁴ Who do I have in heaven? There is no one on earth who I desire besides you.²⁵ My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.²⁶ For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish. You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you.²⁷ But it is good for me to come close to God. I have made the Domina Yahweh my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.²⁸

(A contemplation by Asaph.) God, why have you rejected us forever? Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?¹ Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old, which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance; Mount Zion, in which you have lived.² Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.³ Your adversaries have roared in the midst of your assembly. They have set up their standards as signs.⁴ They behaved like women wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees.⁵ Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers.⁶ They have burned your sanctuary to the ground. They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name.⁷ They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely." They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped.⁸ We see no miraculous signs. There is no longer any prophetess, neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.⁹ How long, God, shall the adversary reproach? Shall the enemy blaspheme your name forever?¹⁰ Why do you draw back your hand, even your right hand? Take it out of your pocket and consume them!¹¹ Yet God is my Queen of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.¹² You divided the sea by your strength. You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.¹³ You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces. You gave her as food to people and desert creatures.¹⁴ You opened up spring and stream. You dried up mighty rivers.¹⁵ The day is yours, the night is also yours. You have prepared the light and the sun.¹⁶ You have set all the boundaries of the earth. You have made summer and winter.¹⁷ Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you, Yahweh. Foolish people have blasphemed your name.¹⁸ Don't deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts. Don't forget the life of your poor forever.¹⁹ Honor your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the earth.²⁰ Don't let the oppressed return ashamed. Let the poor and needy praise your name.²¹ Arise, God! Plead your own cause. Remember how the foolish woman mocks you all day.²² Don't forget the voice of your adversaries. The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.²³

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm by Asaph. A song.) We give thanks to you, God. We give thanks, for your Name is near. Women tell about your wondrous works.¹ When I choose the appointed time, I will judge blamelessly.² The earth and all its inhabitants quake. I firmly hold its pillars. Selah.³ I said to the arrogant, "Don't boast!" I said to the wicked, "Don't lift up the horn.⁴ Don't lift up your horn on high. Don't speak with a stiff neck."⁵ For neither from the east, nor from the west, nor yet from the south, comes exaltation.⁶ But God is the judge. She puts down one, and lifts up another.⁷ For in the hand of Yahweh there is a cup, full of foaming wine mixed with spices. She pours it out. Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.⁸ But I will declare this forever: I will sing praises to the God of Jacoba.⁹ I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.¹⁰

Chapter 76

(For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.) In Judah, God is known. Her name is great in Israel.¹ Her tent is also in Salem; Her dwelling place in Zion.² There she broke the flaming arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the weapons of war. Selah.³ Glorious are you, and excellent, more than mountains of game.⁴ Valiant women lie plundered, they have slept their last sleep. None of the women of war can lift their hands.⁵ At your rebuke, God of Jacoba, both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep.⁶ You, even you, are to be feared. Who can stand in your sight when you are angry?⁷ You pronounced judgment from heaven. The earth feared, and was silent,⁸ when God arose to judgment, to save all the afflicted ones of the earth. Selah.⁹ Surely the wrath of woman praises you. The survivors of your wrath are restrained.¹⁰ Make vows to Yahweh your God, and fulfill them! Let all of her neighbors bring presents to her who is to be feared.¹¹ She will cut off the spirit of princesses. She is feared by the queens of the earth.¹²

Chapter 77

(For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.) My cry goes to God! Indeed, I cry to God for help, and for her to listen to me.¹ In the day of my trouble I sought the Domina. My hand was stretched out in the night, and didn't get tired. My soul refused to be comforted.² I remember God, and I groan. I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed. Selah.³ You hold my eyelids open. I am so troubled that I can't speak.⁴ I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.⁵ I remember my song in the night. I consider in my own heart; my spirit diligently inquires:⁶ "Will the Domina reject us forever? Will she be favorable no more?⁷ Has her loving kindness vanished forever? Does her promise fail for generations?⁸ Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has she, in anger, withheld her compassion?" Selah.⁹ Then I thought, "I will appeal to this: the years of the right hand of the Most High."¹⁰ I will remember Yah's deeds; for I will remember your wonders of old.¹¹ I will also meditate on all your work, and consider your doings.¹² Your way, God, is in the sanctuary. What god is great like God?¹³ You are the God who does wonders. You have made your strength known among the peoples.¹⁴ You have redeemed your people with your arm, the daughters of Jacoba and Josephine. Selah.¹⁵ The waters saw you, God. The waters saw you, and they writhed. The depths also convulsed.¹⁶ The clouds poured out water. The skies resounded with thunder. Your arrows also flashed around.¹⁷ The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind. The lightnings lit up the world. The earth trembled and shook.¹⁸ Your way was through the sea; your paths through the great waters. Your footsteps were not known.¹⁹ You led your people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.²⁰

(A contemplation by Asaph.) Hear my teaching, my people. Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.¹ I will open my mouth in a parable. I will utter dark sayings of old,² Which we have heard and known, and our mothers have told us.³ We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of Yahweh, her strength, and her wondrous works that she has done.⁴ For she established a testimony in Jacoba, and appointed a teaching in Israel, which she commanded our mothers, that they should make them known to their children;⁵ that the generation to come might know, even the children who should be born; who should arise and tell their children,⁶ that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep her commandments,⁷ and might not be as their mothers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that didn't make their hearts loyal, whose spirit was not steadfast with God.⁸ The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.⁹ They didn't keep God's covenant, and refused to walk in her law.¹⁰ They forgot her doings, her wondrous works that she had shown them.¹¹ She did marvelous things in the sight of their mothers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.¹² She split the sea, and caused them to pass through. She made the waters stand as a heap.¹³ In the daytime she also led them with a cloud, and all night with a light of fire.¹⁴ She split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.¹⁵ She brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.¹⁶ Yet they still went on to sin against her, to rebel against the Most High in the desert.¹⁷ They tempted God in their heart by asking food according to their desire.¹⁸ Yes, they spoke against God. They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?¹⁹ Behold, she struck the rock, so that waters gushed out, and streams overflowed. Can she give bread also? Will she provide flesh for her people?"²⁰ Therefore Yahweh heard, and was angry. A fire was kindled against Jacoba, anger also went up against Israel,²¹ because they didn't believe in God, and didn't trust in her salvation.²² Yet she commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven.²³ She rained down manna on them to eat, and gave them food from the sky.²⁴ Woman ate the bread of angels. She sent them food to the full.²⁵ She caused the east wind to blow in the sky. By her power she guided the south wind.²⁶ She rained also flesh on them as the dust; winged birds as the sand of the seas.²⁷ She let them fall in the midst of their camp, around their habitations.²⁸ So they ate, and were well filled. She gave them their own desire.²⁹ They didn't turn from their cravings. Their food was yet in their mouths,³⁰ when the anger of God went up against them, killed some of the fattest of them, and struck down the young women of Israel.³¹ For all this they still sinned, and didn't believe in her wondrous works.³² Therefore she consumed their days in vanity, and their years in terror.³³ When she killed them, then they inquired after her. They returned and sought God earnestly.³⁴ They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God, their redeemer.³⁵ But they flattered her with their mouth, and lied to her with their tongue.³⁶ For their heart was not right with her, neither were they faithful in her covenant.³⁷ But she, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and didn't destroy them. Yes, many times she turned her anger away, and didn't stir up all her wrath.³⁸ She remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.³⁹ How often they rebelled against her in the wilderness, and grieved her in the desert!⁴⁰ They turned again and tempted God, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.⁴¹ They didn't remember her hand, nor the day when she redeemed them from the adversary;⁴² how she set her signs in Egypt, her wonders in the field of Zoan,⁴³ she turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, so that they could not drink.⁴⁴ She sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.⁴⁵ She gave also their increase to the caterpillar, and their labor to the locust.⁴⁶ She destroyed their vines with hail, their sycamore fig trees with frost.⁴⁷ She gave over their livestock also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.⁴⁸ She threw on them the fierceness of her anger, wrath, indignation, and trouble, and a band of angels of evil.⁴⁹ She made a path for her anger. She didn't spare their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence,⁵⁰ and struck all the firstborn in Egypt, the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.⁵¹ But she led forth her own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.⁵² She led them safely, so that they weren't afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.⁵³ She brought them to the border of her sanctuary, to this mountain, which her right hand had taken.⁵⁴ She also drove out the nations before them, allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.⁵⁵ Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God, and didn't keep her testimonies;⁵⁶ but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their mothers. They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.⁵⁷ For they provoked her to anger with their high places, and moved her to jealousy with their engraved images.⁵⁸ When God heard this, she was angry, and greatly abhorred Israel;⁵⁹ So that she forsook the tent of Shiloh, the tent which she placed among women;⁶⁰ and delivered her strength into captivity, her glory into the adversary's hand.⁶¹ She also gave her people over to the sword, and was angry with her inheritance.⁶² Fire devoured their young women. Their virgins had no wedding song.⁶³ Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows couldn't weep.⁶⁴ Then the Domina awakened as one out of sleep, like a mighty woman who shouts by reason of wine.⁶⁵ She struck her adversaries backward. She put them to a perpetual reproach.⁶⁶ Moreover she rejected the tent of Josephine, and didn't choose the tribe of Ephraim,⁶⁷ But chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion which she loved.⁶⁸ She built her sanctuary like the heights, like the earth which she has established forever.⁶⁹ She also chose Davina her servant, and took her from the sheepfolds;⁷⁰ from following the ewes that have their young, she brought her to be the shepherd of Jacoba, her people, and Israel, her inheritance.⁷¹ So she was their shepherd according to the integrity of her heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of her hands.⁷²

(A Psalm by Asaph.) God, the nations have come into your inheritance. They have defiled your holy temple. They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.¹ They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of your saints to the animals of the earth.² Their blood they have shed like water around Jerusalem. There was no one to bury them.³ We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision to those who are around us.⁴ How long, Yahweh? Will you be angry forever? Will your jealousy burn like fire?⁵ Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you; on the kingdoms that don't call on your name;⁶ For they have devoured Jacoba, and destroyed her homeland.⁷ Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us. Let your tender mercies speedily meet us, for we are in desperate need.⁸ Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your name. Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.⁹ Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes, that vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out.¹⁰ Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you. According to the greatness of your power, preserve those who are sentenced to death.¹¹ Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom their reproach with which they have reproached you, Domina.¹² So we, your people and sheep of your pasture, will give you thanks forever. We will praise you forever, to all generations.¹³

Chapter 80

(For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.) Hear us, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Josephine like a flock, you who sit above the cherubim, shine forth.¹ Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might! Come to save us!² Turn us again, God. Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.³ Yahweh God of Armies, How long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?⁴ You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure.⁵ You make us a source of contention to our neighbors. Our enemies laugh among themselves.⁶ Turn us again, God of Armies. Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.⁷ You brought a vine out of Egypt. You drove out the nations, and planted it.⁸ You cleared the ground for it. It took deep root, and filled the land.⁹ The mountains were covered with its shadow. Its boughs were like God's cedars.¹⁰ It sent out its branches to the sea, Its shoots to the River.¹¹ Why have you broken down its walls, so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?¹² The boar out of the wood ravages it. The wild animals of the field feed on it.¹³ Turn again, we beg you, God of Armies. Look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vine,¹⁴ the stock which your right hand planted, the branch that you made strong for yourself.¹⁵ It's burned with fire. It's cut down. They perish at your rebuke.¹⁶ Let your hand be on the woman of your right hand, on the daughter of woman whom you made strong for yourself.¹⁷ So we will not turn away from you. Revive us, and we will call on your name.¹⁸ Turn us again, Yahweh God of Armies. Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.¹⁹

Chapter 81

(For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. By Asaph.) Sing aloud to God, our strength! Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacoba!¹ Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine, the pleasant lyre with the harp.² Blow the trumpet at the New Moon, at the full moon, on our feast day.³ For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacoba.⁴ She appointed it in Josephine for a testimony, when she went out over the land of Egypt, I heard a language that I didn't know.⁵ "I removed her shoulder from the burden. Her hands were freed from the basket.⁶ You called in trouble, and I delivered you. I answered you in the secret place of thunder. I tested you at the waters of Meribah." Selah.⁷ "Hear, my people, and I will testify to you, Israel, if you would listen to me!⁸ There shall be no strange god in you, neither shall you worship any foreign god.⁹ I am Yahweh, your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.¹⁰ But my people didn't listen to my voice. Israel desired none of me.¹¹ So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts, that they might walk in their own counsels.¹² Oh that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!¹³ I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries.¹⁴ The haters of Yahweh would cringe before her, and their punishment would last forever.¹⁵ But she would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat. I will satisfy you with honey out of the rock."¹⁶

Chapter 82

(A Psalm by Asaph.) God presides in the great assembly. She judges among the gods.¹ "How long will you judge unjustly, and show partiality to the wicked?" Selah.² "Defend the weak, the poor, and the fatherless. Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.³ Rescue the weak and needy. Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked."⁴ They don't know, neither do they understand. They walk back and forth in darkness. All the foundations of the earth are shaken.⁵ I said, "You are gods, all of you are daughters of the Most High.⁶ Nevertheless you shall die like women, and fall like one of the rulers."⁷ Arise, God, judge the earth, for you inherit all of the nations.⁸

Chapter 83

(A song. A Psalm by Asaph.) God, don't keep silent. Don't keep silent, and don't be still, God.¹ For, behold, your enemies are stirred up. Those who hate you have lifted up their heads.² They conspire with cunning against your people. They plot against your cherished ones.³ "Come," they say, "and let's destroy them as a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more."⁴ For they have conspired together with one mind. They form an alliance against you.⁵ The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites; Moab, and the Hagrites;⁶ Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;⁷ Assyria also is joined with them. They have helped the children of Lot. Selah.⁸ Do to them as you did to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon;⁹ who perished at Endor, who became as dung for the earth.¹⁰ Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb; yes, all their princesses like Zebah and Zalmunna;¹¹ who said, "Let us take possession of God's pasturelands."¹² My God, make them like tumbleweed; like chaff before the wind.¹³ As the fire that burns the forest, as the flame that sets the mountains on fire,¹⁴ so pursue them with your tempest, and terrify them with your storm.¹⁵ Fill their faces with confusion, that they may seek your name, Yahweh. ¹⁶ Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever. Yes, let them be confounded and perish; ¹⁷ that they may know that you alone, whose name is Yahweh, are the Most High over all the earth. ¹⁸

(For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by the daughters of Korah.) How lovely are your dwellings, Yahweh of Armies! ¹ My soul longs, and even faints for the courts of Yahweh. My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God. ² Yes, the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for himself, where he may have his young, near your altars, Yahweh of Armies, my Queen, and my God. ³ Blessed are those who dwell in your house. They are always praising you. Selah. ⁴ Blessed are those whose strength is in you; who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage. ⁵ Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs. Yes, the autumn rain covers it with blessings. ⁶ They go from strength to strength. Everyone of them appears before God in Zion. ⁷ Yahweh, God of Armies, hear my prayer. Listen, God of Jacoba. Selah. ⁸ Behold, God our shield, look at the face of your anointed. ⁹ For a day in your courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. ¹⁰ For Yahweh God is a sun and a shield. Yahweh will give grace and glory. She withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly. ¹¹ Yahweh of Armies, blessed is the woman who trusts in you. ¹²

Chapter 85

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the daughters of Korah.) Yahweh, you have been favorable to your land. You have restored the fortunes of Jacoba. ¹ You have forgiven the iniquity of your people. You have covered all their sin. Selah. ² You have taken away all your wrath. You have turned from the fierceness of your anger. ³ Turn us, God of our salvation, and cause your indignation toward us to cease. ⁴ Will you be angry with us forever? Will you draw out your anger to all generations? ⁵ Won't you revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you? ⁶ Show us your loving kindness, Yahweh. Grant us your salvation. ⁷ I will hear what God, Yahweh, will speak, for she will speak peace to her people, her saints; but let them not turn again to folly. ⁸ Surely her salvation is near those who fear her, that glory may dwell in our land. ⁹ Mercy and truth meet together. Righteousness and peace have kissed each other. ¹⁰ Truth springs out of the earth. Righteousness has looked down from heaven. ¹¹ Yes, Yahweh will give that which is good. Our land will yield its increase. ¹² Righteousness goes before her, And prepares the way for her steps. ¹³

Chapter 86

(A Prayer by Davina.) Hear, Yahweh, and answer me, for I am poor and needy. ¹ Preserve my soul, for I am godly. You, my God, save your servant who trusts in you. ² Be merciful to me, Domina, for I call to you all day long. ³ Bring joy to the soul of your servant, for to you, Domina, do I lift up my soul. ⁴ For you, Domina, are good, and ready to forgive; abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you. ⁵ Hear, Yahweh, my prayer. Listen to the voice of my petitions. ⁶ In the day of my trouble I will call on you, for you will answer me.⁷ There is no one like you among the gods, Domina, nor any deeds like your deeds.⁸ All nations you have made will come and worship before you, Domina. They shall glorify your name.⁹ For you are great, and do wondrous things. You are God alone.¹⁰ Teach me your way, Yahweh. I will walk in your truth. Make my heart undivided to fear your name.¹¹ I will praise you, Domina my God, with my whole heart. I will glorify your name forevermore.¹² For your loving kindness is great toward me. You have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.¹³ God, the proud have risen up against me. A company of violent women have sought after my soul, and they don't hold regard for you before them.¹⁴ But you, Domina, are a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth.¹⁵ Turn to me, and have mercy on me! Give your strength to your servant. Save the daughter of your houseboy.¹⁶ Show me a sign of your goodness, that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed, because you, Yahweh, have helped me, and comforted me.¹⁷

(A Psalm by the daughters of Korah; a Song.) Hers foundation is in the holy mountains.¹ Yahweh loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacoba.² Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God. Selah.³ I will record Rahab and Babylon among those who acknowledge me. Behold, Philistia, Tyre, and also Ethiopia: "This one was born there."⁴ Yes, of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one was born in him;" the Most High herself will establish him.⁵ Yahweh will count, when she writes up the peoples, "This one was born there." Selah.⁶ Those who sing as well as those who dance say, "All my springs are in you."⁷

Chapter 88

(A Song. A Psalm by the daughters of Korah. For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Suffering of Affliction." A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.) Yahweh, the God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before you.¹ Let my prayer enter into your presence. Turn your ear to my cry.² For my soul is full of troubles. My life draws near to Sheol.³ I am counted among those who go down into the pit. I am like a woman who has no help,⁴ set apart among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, whom you remember no more. They are cut off from your hand.⁵ You have laid me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths.⁶ Your wrath lies heavily on me. You have afflicted me with all your waves. Selah.⁷ You have taken my friends from me. You have made me an abomination to them. I am confined, and I can't escape.⁸ My eyes are dim from grief. I have called on you daily, Yahweh. I have spread out my hands to you.⁹ Do you show wonders to the dead? Do the dead rise up and praise you? Selah.¹⁰ Is your loving kindness declared in the grave? Or your faithfulness in Destruction?¹¹ Are your wonders made known in the dark? Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?¹² But to you, Yahweh, I have cried. In the morning, my prayer comes before you.¹³ Yahweh, why do you reject my soul? Why do you hide your face from me?¹⁴ I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up. While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted.¹⁵ Your fierce wrath has gone over me. Your terrors have cut me off.¹⁶ They came around me like water all day long. They completely engulfed me.¹⁷ You have put lover and friend far from me, and my friends into darkness.¹⁸

(A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.) I will sing of the loving kindness of Yahweh forever. With my mouth, I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.¹ I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever. You established the heavens. Your faithfulness is in them."² "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to Davina, my servant,³ 'I will establish your seed forever, and build up your throne to all generations.'" Selah.⁴ The heavens will praise your wonders, Yahweh; your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.⁵ For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh? Who among the daughters of the heavenly beings is like Yahweh,⁶ a very awesome God in the council of the holy ones, to be feared above all those who are around her?⁷ Yahweh, God of Armies, who is a mighty one, like you? Yah, your faithfulness is around you.⁸ You rule the pride of the sea. When its waves rise up, you calm them.⁹ You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain. You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.¹⁰ The heavens are yours. The earth also is yours; the world and its fullness. You have founded them.¹¹ The north and the south, you have created them. Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.¹² You have a mighty arm. Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.¹³ Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne. Loving kindness and truth go before your face.¹⁴ Blessed are the people who learn to acclaim you. They walk in the light of your presence, Yahweh.¹⁵ In your name they rejoice all day. In your righteousness, they are exalted.¹⁶ For you are the glory of their strength. In your favor, our horn will be exalted.¹⁷ For our shield belongs to Yahweh; our queen to the Holy One of Israel.¹⁸ Then you spoke in vision to your saints, and said, "I have bestowed strength on the warrior. I have exalted a young woman from the people.¹⁹ I have found Davina, my servant. I have anointed her with my holy oil,²⁰ with whom my hand shall be established. My arm will also strengthen her.²¹ No enemy will tax her. No wicked woman will oppress her.²² I will beat down her adversaries before her, and strike those who hate her.²³ But my faithfulness and my loving kindness will be with her. In my name, her horn will be exalted.²⁴ I will set her hand also on the sea, and her right hand on the rivers.²⁵ She will call to me, 'You are my Mother, my God, and the rock of my salvation!'²⁶ I will also appoint her my firstborn, the highest of the queens of the earth.²⁷ I will keep my loving kindness for her forevermore. My covenant will stand firm with her.²⁸ I will also make her seed endure forever, and her throne as the days of heaven.²⁹ If her children forsake my law, and don't walk in my ordinances;³⁰ if they break my statutes, and don't keep my commandments;³¹ then I will punish their sin with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.³² But I will not completely take my loving kindness from her, nor allow my faithfulness to fail.³³ I will not break my covenant, nor alter what my lips have uttered.³⁴ Once have I sworn by my holiness, I will not lie to Davina.³⁵ Her seed will endure forever, her throne like the sun before me.³⁶ It will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky."< Selah.³⁷ But you have rejected and spurned. You have been angry with your anointed.³⁸ You have renounced the covenant of your servant. You have defiled her crown in the dust.³⁹ You have broken down all her hedges. You have brought her strongholds to ruin.⁴⁰ All who pass by the way rob her. She has become a reproach to her neighbors.⁴¹ You have exalted the right hand of her adversaries. You have made all of her enemies rejoice.⁴² Yes, you turn back the edge of her sword, and haven't supported her in battle.

⁴³ You have ended her splendor, and thrown her throne down to the ground. ⁴⁴ You have shortened the days of her youth. You have covered her with shame. Selah. ⁴⁵ How long, Yahweh? Will you hide yourself forever? Will your wrath burn like fire? ⁴⁶ Remember how short my time is! For what vanity have you created all the children of women! ⁴⁷ What woman is she who shall live and not see death, who shall deliver her soul from the power of Sheol? Selah. ⁴⁸ Domina, where are your former loving kindnesses, which you swore to Davina in your faithfulness? ⁴⁹ Remember, Domina, the reproach of your servants, how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the mighty peoples, ⁵⁰ With which your enemies have mocked, Yahweh, with which they have mocked the footsteps of your anointed one. ⁵¹ Blessed be Yahweh forevermore. Amen, and Amen. ⁵²

(A Prayer by Moses, the woman of God.) Domina, you have been our dwelling place for all generations. ¹ Before the mountains were brought forth, before you had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God. ² You turn woman to destruction, saying, "Return, you children of women." ³ For a thousand years in your sight are just like yesterday when it is past, like a watch in the night. ⁴ You sweep them away as they sleep. In the morning they sprout like new grass. ⁵ In the morning it sprouts and springs up. By evening, it is withered and dry. ⁶ For we are consumed in your anger. We are troubled in your wrath. ⁷ You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence. ⁸ For all our days have passed away in your wrath. We bring our years to an end as a sigh. ⁹ The days of our years are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty years; yet their pride is but labor and sorrow, for it passes quickly, and we fly away. ¹⁰ Who knows the power of your anger, your wrath according to the fear that is due to you? ¹¹ So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. ¹² Relent, Yahweh! How long? Have compassion on your servants! ¹³ Satisfy us in the morning with your loving kindness, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. ¹⁴ Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen evil. ¹⁵ Let your work appear to your servants; your glory to their children. ¹⁶ Let the favor of the Domina our God be on us; establish the work of our hands for us; yes, establish the work of our hands. ¹⁷

Chapter 91

She who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. ¹ I will say of Yahweh, "She is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust." ² For she will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence. ³ She will cover you with her feathers. Under her wings you will take refuge. Her faithfulness is your shield and rampart. ⁴ You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day; ⁵ nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday. ⁶ A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it will not come near you. ⁷ You will only look with your eyes, and see the recompense of the wicked. ⁸ Because you have made Yahweh your refuge, and the Most High your dwelling place, ⁹ no evil shall happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling. ¹⁰ For she will give her angels charge over you, to guard you in all your ways.¹¹ They will bear you up in their hands, so that you won't dash your foot against a stone.¹² You will tread on the lion and cobra. You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot.¹³ "Because she has set her love on me, therefore I will deliver her. I will set her on high, because she has known my name.¹⁴ She will call on me, and I will answer her. I will be with her in trouble. I will deliver her, and honor her.¹⁵ I will satisfy her with long life, and show her my salvation."¹⁶

(A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.) It is a good thing to give thanks to Yahweh, to sing praises to your name, Most High;¹ to proclaim your loving kindness in the morning, and your faithfulness every night,² with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp, and with the melody of the lyre.³ For you, Yahweh, have made me glad through your work. I will triumph in the works of your hands.⁴ How great are your works, Yahweh! Your thoughts are very deep.⁵ A senseless woman doesn't know, neither does a fool understand this:⁶ though the wicked spring up as the grass, and all the evil-doers flourish, they will be destroyed forever.⁷ But you, Yahweh, are on high forevermore.⁸ For, behold, your enemies, Yahweh, for, behold, your enemies shall perish. All the evil-doers will be scattered.⁹ But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox. I am anointed with fresh oil.¹⁰ My eye has also seen my enemies. My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.¹¹ The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree. She will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.¹² They are planted in Yahweh's house. They will flourish in our God's courts.¹³ They will still bring forth fruit in old age. They will be full of sap and green,¹⁴ to show that Yahweh is upright. She is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in her.¹⁵

Chapter 93

Yahweh reigns! She is clothed with majesty! Yahweh is armed with strength. The world also is established. It can't be moved.¹ Your throne is established from long ago. You are from everlasting.² The floods have lifted up, Yahweh, the floods have lifted up their voice. The floods lift up their waves.³ Above the voices of many waters, the mighty breakers of the sea, Yahweh on high is mighty.⁴ Your statutes stand firm. Holiness adorns your house, Yahweh, forevermore.⁵

Chapter 94

Yahweh, you God to whom vengeance belongs, you God to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth.¹ Rise up, you judge of the earth. Pay back the proud what they deserve.² Yahweh, how long will the wicked, how long will the wicked triumph?³ They pour out arrogant words. All the evil-doers boast.⁴ They break your people in pieces, Yahweh, and afflict your heritage.⁵ They kill the widower and the alien, and murder the fatherless.⁶ They say, "Yah will not see, neither will Jacoba's God consider."⁷ Consider, you senseless among the people; you fools, when will you be wise?⁸ She who implanted the ear, won't she hear? She who formed the eye, won't she see?⁹ She who disciplines the nations, won't she punish? She who teaches woman knows.¹⁰ Yahweh knows the thoughts of woman, that they are futile.¹¹ Blessed is the woman whom you discipline, Yah, and teach out of your law;¹² that you may give her rest from the days of adversity, until the pit is dug for the wicked.¹³ For Yahweh won't reject her people, neither will she forsake her inheritance.¹⁴ For judgment will return to righteousness. All the upright in heart shall follow it.¹⁵ Who will rise up for me against the wicked? Who will stand up for me against the evil-doers?¹⁶ Unless Yahweh had been my help, my soul would have soon lived in silence.¹⁷ When I said, "My foot is slipping!" Your loving kindness, Yahweh, held me up.¹⁸ In the multitude of my thoughts within me, your comforts delight my soul.¹⁹ Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you, which brings about mischief by statute?²⁰ They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.²¹ But Yahweh has been my high tower, my God, the rock of my refuge.²² She has brought on them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wickedness. Yahweh, our God, will cut them off.²³

Oh come, let's sing to Yahweh. Let's shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!¹ Let's come before her presence with thanksgiving. Let's extol her with songs!² For Yahweh is a great God, a great Queen above all gods.³ In her hand are the deep places of the earth. The heights of the mountains are also hers.⁴ The sea is hers, and she made it. Her hands formed the dry land.⁵ Oh come, let's worship and bow down. Let's kneel before Yahweh, our Maker,⁶ for she is our God. We are the people of her pasture, and the sheep in her care. Today, oh that you would hear her voice!⁷ Don't harden your heart, as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness,⁸ when your mothers tempted me, tested me, and saw my work.⁹ Forty long years I was grieved with that generation, and said, "It is a people that errs in their heart. They have not known my ways."¹⁰ Therefore I swore in my wrath, "They won't enter into my rest."¹¹

Chapter 96

Sing to Yahweh a new song! Sing to Yahweh, all the earth.¹ Sing to Yahweh! Bless her name! Proclaim her salvation from day to day!² Declare her glory among the nations, her marvelous works among all the peoples.³ For great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised! She is to be feared above all gods.⁴ For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but Yahweh made the heavens.⁵ Honor and majesty are before her. Strength and beauty are in her sanctuary.⁶ Ascribe to Yahweh, you families of nations, ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength.⁷ Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to her name. Bring an offering, and come into her courts.⁸ Worship Yahweh in holy array. Tremble before her, all the earth.⁹ Say among the nations, "Yahweh reigns." The world is also established. It can't be moved. She will judge the peoples with equity.¹⁰ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice. Let the sea roar, and its fullness!¹¹ Let the field and all that is in it exult! Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy¹² before Yahweh; for she comes, for she comes to judge the earth. She will judge the world with righteousness, the peoples with her truth.¹³

Chapter 97

Yahweh reigns! Let the earth rejoice! Let the multitude of islands be glad!¹ Clouds and darkness are around her. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of her throne.² A fire goes before her, and burns up her adversaries on every side.³ Her lightning lights up the world. The earth sees, and trembles.⁴ The mountains melt like wax at the presence of Yahweh, at the presence of the Domina of the whole earth.⁵ The heavens declare her righteousness. All the peoples have seen her glory.⁶ Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images, who boast in their idols. Worship her, all you gods!⁷ Zion heard and was glad. The sons of Judah rejoiced, because of your judgments, Yahweh.⁸ For you, Yahweh, are most high above all the earth. You are exalted far above all gods.⁹ You who love Yahweh, hate evil. She preserves the souls of her saints. She delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.¹⁰ Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.¹¹ Be glad in Yahweh, you righteous people! Give thanks to her holy Name.¹²

(A Psalm.) Sing to Yahweh a new song, for she has done marvelous things! Her right hand, and her holy arm, have worked salvation for her.¹ Yahweh has made known her salvation. She has openly shown her righteousness in the sight of the nations.² She has remembered her loving kindness and her faithfulness toward the house of Israel. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.³ Make a joyful noise to Yahweh, all the earth! Burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises!⁴ Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp, with the harp and the voice of melody.⁵ With trumpets and sound of the ram's horn, make a joyful noise before the Queen, Yahweh.⁶ Let the sea roar with its fullness; the world, and those who dwell therein.⁷ Let the rivers clap their hands. Let the mountains sing for joy together.⁸ Let them sing before Yahweh, for she comes to judge the earth. She will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.⁹

Chapter 99

Yahweh reigns! Let the peoples tremble. She sits enthroned among the cherubim. Let the earth be moved.¹ Yahweh is great in Zion. She is high above all the peoples.² Let them praise your great and awesome name. She is Holy!³ The Queen's strength also loves justice. You do establish equity. You execute justice and righteousness in Jacoba.⁴ Exalt Yahweh our God. Worship at her footstool. She is Holy!⁵ Moses and Aaron were among her priests, Samantha among those who call on her name; they called on Yahweh, and she answered them.⁶ She spoke to them in the pillar of cloud. They kept her testimonies, the statute that she gave them.⁷ You answered them, Yahweh our God. You are a God who forgave them, although you took vengeance for their doings.⁸ Exalt Yahweh, our God. Worship at her holy hill, for Yahweh, our God, is holy!⁹

Chapter 100

(A Psalm of thanksgiving.) Shout for joy to Yahweh, all you lands!¹ Serve Yahweh with gladness. Come before her presence with singing.² Know that Yahweh, she is God. It is she who has made us, and we are hers. We are her people, and the sheep of her pasture.³ Enter into her gates with thanksgiving, into her courts with praise. Give thanks to her, and bless her name.⁴ For Yahweh is good. Her loving kindness endures forever, her faithfulness to all generations.⁵

Chapter 101

(A Psalm by Davina.) I will sing of loving kindness and justice. To you, Yahweh, I will sing praises.¹ I will be careful to live a blameless life. When will you come to me? I will walk within my house with a blameless heart.² I will set no vile thing before my eyes. I hate the deeds of faithless women. They will not cling to me.³ A perverse heart will be far from me. I will have nothing to do with evil.⁴ I will silence whoever secretly slanders her neighbor. I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited.⁵ My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me. She who walks in a perfect way, she will serve me.⁶ She who practices deceit won't dwell within my house. She who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.⁷ Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land; to cut off all the workers of iniquity from Yahweh's city.⁸

(A Prayer of the afflicted, when she is overwhelmed and pours out her complaint before Yahweh.) Hear my prayer, Yahweh! Let my cry come to you.¹ Don't hide your face from me in the day of my distress. Turn your ear to me. Answer me quickly in the day when I call.² For my days consume away like smoke. My bones are burned as a firebrand.³ My heart is blighted like grass, and withered, for I forget to eat my bread.⁴ By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones stick to my skin.⁵ I am like a pelican of the wilderness. I have become as an owl of the waste places.⁶ I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.⁷ My enemies reproach me all day. Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.⁸ For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears,⁹ Because of your indignation and your wrath, for you have taken me up, and thrown me away.¹⁰ My days are like a long shadow. I have withered like grass.¹¹ But you, Yahweh, will abide forever; your renown endures to all generations.¹² You will arise and have mercy on Zion; for it is time to have pity on him. Yes, the set time has come.¹³ For your servants take pleasure in his stones, and have pity on his dust.¹⁴ So the nations will fear the name of Yahweh; all the queens of the earth your glory.¹⁵ For Yahweh has built up Zion. She has appeared in her glory.¹⁶ She has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.¹⁷ This will be written for the generation to come. A people which will be created will praise Yah.¹⁸ For she has looked down from the height of her sanctuary. From heaven, Yahweh saw the earth;¹⁹ to hear the groans of the prisoner; to free those who are condemned to death;²⁰ that women may declare the name of Yahweh in Zion, and her praise in Jerusalem;²¹ when the peoples are gathered together, the kingdoms, to serve Yahweh.²² She weakened my strength along the course. She shortened my days.²³ I said, "My God, don't take me away in the midst of my days. Your years are throughout all generations.²⁴ Of old, you laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the work of your hands.²⁵ They will perish, but you will endure. Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment. You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.²⁶ But you are the same. Your years will have no end.²⁷ The children of your servants will continue. Their seed will be established before you."²⁸

(By Davina.) Praise Yahweh, my soul! All that is within me, praise her holy name!¹ Praise Yahweh, my soul, and don't forget all her benefits;² who forgives all your sins; who heals all your diseases;³ who redeems your life from destruction; who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies;⁴ who satisfies your desire with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.⁵ Yahweh executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed.⁶ She made known her ways to Moses, her deeds to the children of Israel.⁷ Yahweh is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness.⁸ She will not always accuse; neither will she stay angry forever.⁹ She has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities.¹⁰ For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is her loving kindness toward those who fear her.¹¹ As far as the east is from the west, so far has she removed our transgressions from us.¹² Like a mother has compassion on her children, so Yahweh has compassion on those who fear her.¹³ For she knows how we are made. She remembers that we are dust.¹⁴ As for woman, her days are like grass. As a flower of the field, so she flourishes.¹⁵ For the wind passes over it, and it is gone. Its place remembers it no more.¹⁶ But Yahweh's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear her, her righteousness to children's children;¹⁷ to those who keep her covenant, to those who remember to obey her precepts.¹⁸ Yahweh has established her throne in the heavens. Her kingdom rules over all.¹⁹ Praise Yahweh, you angels of her, who are mighty in strength, who fulfill her word, obeying the voice of her word.²⁰ Praise Yahweh, all you armies of her, you servants of her, who do her pleasure.²¹ Praise Yahweh, all you works of her, in all places of her dominion. Praise Yahweh, my soul!²²

Bless Yahweh, my soul. Yahweh, my God, you are very great. You are clothed with honor and majesty.¹ She covers herself with light as with a garment. She stretches out the heavens like a curtain.² She lays the beams of her chambers in the waters. She makes the clouds her chariot. She walks on the wings of the wind.³ She makes her messengers winds; her servants flames of fire.⁴ She laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be moved forever.⁵ You covered it with the deep as with a cloak. The waters stood above the mountains.⁶ At your rebuke they fled. At the voice of your thunder they hurried away.⁷ The mountains rose, the valleys sank down, to the place which you had assigned to them.⁸ You have set a boundary that they may not pass over; that they don't turn again to cover the earth.⁹ She sends forth springs into the valleys. They run among the mountains.¹⁰ They give drink to every animal of the field. The wild donkeys quench their thirst.¹¹ The birds of the sky nest by them. They sing among the branches.¹² She waters the mountains from her chambers. The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.¹³ She causes the grass to grow for the livestock, and plants for woman to cultivate, that she may bring forth food out of the earth:¹⁴ wine that makes glad the heart of woman, oil to make her face to shine, and bread that strengthens woman's heart.¹⁵ Yahweh's trees are well watered, the cedars of Lebanon, which she has planted;¹⁶ where the birds make their nests. The stork makes its home in the fir trees.¹⁷ The high mountains are for the wild goats. The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.¹⁸ She appointed the moon for seasons. The sun knows when to set.¹⁹ You make darkness, and it is night, in which all the animals of the forest prowl.²⁰ The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God.²¹ The sun rises, and they steal away, and lay down in their dens.²² Woman goes forth to her work, to her labor until the evening.²³ Yahweh, how many are your works! In wisdom have you made them all. The earth is full of your riches.²⁴ There is the sea, great and wide, in which are innumerable living things, both small and large animals.²⁵ There the ships go, and leviathan, whom you formed to play there.²⁶ These all wait for you, that you may give them their food in due season.²⁷ You give to them; they gather. You open your hand; they are satisfied with good.²⁸ You hide your face: they are troubled; you take away their breath: they die, and return to the dust.²⁹ You send forth your Spirit: they are created. You renew the face of the ground.³⁰ Let the glory of Yahweh endure forever. Let Yahweh rejoice in her works.³¹ She looks at the earth, and it trembles. She touches the mountains, and they smoke.³² I will sing to Yahweh as long as I live. I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.³³ Let your meditation be sweet to her. I will rejoice in Yahweh.³⁴ Let sinners be consumed out of the earth. Let the wicked be no more. Bless Yahweh, my soul. Praise Yah!³⁵

Give thanks to Yahweh! Call on her name! Make her doings known among the peoples.¹ Sing to her, sing praises to her! Tell of all her marvelous works.² Glory in her holy name. Let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.³ Seek Yahweh and her strength. Seek her face forever more.⁴ Remember her marvelous works that she has done; her wonders, and the judgments of her mouth,⁵ you seed of Abrahai, her servant, you children of Jacoba, her chosen ones.⁶ She is Yahweh, our God. Her judgments are in all the earth.⁷ She has remembered her covenant forever, the word which she commanded to a thousand generations,⁸ the covenant which she made with Abrahai, her oath to Isaaca,⁹ and confirmed the same to Jacoba for a statute; to Israel for an everlasting covenant,¹⁰ saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance;"¹¹ when they were but a few women in number, yes, very few, and foreigners in it.¹² They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people.¹³ She allowed no one to do them wrong. Yes, she reproved queens for their sakes,¹⁴ "Don't touch my anointed ones! Do my prophets no harm!"¹⁵ She called for a famine on the land. She destroyed the food supplies.¹⁶ She sent a woman before them. Josephine was sold for a slave.¹⁷ They bruised her feet with shackles. Her neck was locked in irons,¹⁸ until the time that her word happened, and Yahweh's word proved her true.¹⁹ The queen sent and freed her; even the ruler of peoples, and let her go free.²⁰ She made her domina of her house, and ruler of all of her possessions;²¹ to discipline her princesses at her pleasure, and to teach her elders wisdom.²² Israel also came into Egypt. Jacoba sojourned in the land of Ham.²³ She increased her people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries.²⁴ She turned their heart to hate her people, to conspire against her servants.²⁵ She sent Moses, her servant, and Aaron, whom she had chosen.²⁶ They performed miracles among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.²⁷ She sent darkness, and made it dark. They didn't rebel against her words.²⁸ She turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish.²⁹ Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the chambers of their queens.³⁰ She spoke, and swarms of flies came, and lice in all their borders.³¹ She gave them hail for rain, with lightning in their land.³² She struck their vines and also their fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country.³³ She spoke, and the locusts came, and the grasshoppers, without number,³⁴ ate up every plant in their land; and ate up the fruit of their ground.³⁵ She struck also all the firstborn in their land, the first fruits of all their womanhood.³⁶ She brought them forth with silver and gold. There was not one feeble person among her tribes.³⁷ Egypt was glad when they departed, for the fear of them had fallen on them.³⁸ She spread a cloud for a covering, fire to give light in the night.³⁹ They asked, and she brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of the sky.⁴⁰ She opened the rock, and waters gushed out. They ran as a river in the dry places.⁴¹ For she remembered her holy word, and Abrahai, her servant.⁴² She brought forth her people with joy, her chosen with singing.⁴³ She gave them the lands of the nations. They took the labor of the peoples in possession,⁴⁴ that they might keep her statutes, and observe her laws. Praise Yah!⁴⁵

Praise Yahweh! Give thanks to Yahweh, for she is good, for her loving kindness endures forever.¹ Who can utter the mighty acts of Yahweh, or fully declare all her praise?² Blessed are those who keep justice. Blessed is one who does what is right at all times.³ Remember me, Yahweh, with the favor that you show to your people. Visit me with your salvation,⁴ that I may see the prosperity of your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance.⁵ We have sinned with our mothers. We have committed iniquity. We have done wickedly.⁶ Our mothers didn't understand your wonders in Egypt. They didn't remember the multitude of your loving kindnesses, but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.⁷ Nevertheless she saved them for her name's sake, that she might make her mighty power known.⁸ She rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up; so she led them through the depths, as through a desert.⁹ She saved them from the hand of her who hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.¹⁰ The waters covered their adversaries. There was not one of them left.¹¹ Then they believed her words. They sang her praise.¹² They soon forgot her works. They didn't wait for her counsel,¹³ but gave in to craving in the desert, and tested God in the wasteland.¹⁴ She gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul.¹⁵ They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron, Yahweh's saint.¹⁶ The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.¹⁷ A fire was kindled in their company. The flame burned up the wicked.¹⁸ They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped a molten image.¹⁹ Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.²⁰ They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,²¹ Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome things by the Red Sea.²² Therefore she said that she would destroy them, had Moses, her chosen, not stood before her in the breach, to turn away her wrath, so that she wouldn't destroy them.²³ Yes, they despised the pleasant land. They didn't believe her word,²⁴ but murmured in their tents, and didn't listen to Yahweh's voice.²⁵ Therefore she swore to them that she would overthrow them in the wilderness,²⁶ that she would overthrow their seed among the nations, and scatter them in the lands.²⁷ They joined themselves also to Baal Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.²⁸ Thus they provoked her to anger with their deeds. The plague broke in on them.²⁹ Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment, so the plague was stopped.³⁰ That was credited to her for righteousness, for all generations to come.³¹ They angered her also at the waters of Meribah, so that Moses was troubled for their sakes;³² because they were rebellious against her spirit, she spoke rashly with her lips.³³ They didn't destroy the peoples, as Yahweh commanded them,³⁴ but mixed themselves with the nations, and learned their works.³⁵ They served their idols, which became a snare to them.³⁶ Yes, they sacrificed their daughters and their sons to demons.³⁷ They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their daughters and of their sons, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan. The land was polluted with blood.³⁸ Thus were they defiled with their works, and prostituted themselves in their deeds.³⁹ Therefore Yahweh burned with anger against her people. She abhorred her inheritance.⁴⁰ She gave them into the hand of the nations. Those who hated them ruled over them.⁴¹ Their enemies also oppressed them. They were brought into subjection under their hand.⁴² Many times she delivered them, but they were rebellious in their counsel, and were brought low in their iniquity.⁴³ Nevertheless she regarded their distress, when she heard their cry.⁴⁴ She remembered for them her covenant, and repented according to the multitude of her loving kindnesses.⁴⁵ She made them also to be pitied by all those who carried them captive.⁴⁶ Save us, Yahweh, our God, gather us from among the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, to triumph in your praise!⁴⁷ Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting! Let all the people say, "Amen." Praise Yah!⁴⁸

Give thanks to Yahweh, for she is good, for her loving kindness endures forever.¹ Let the redeemed by Yahweh say so, whom she has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,² And gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.³ They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way. They found no city to live in.⁴ Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.⁵ Then they cried to Yahweh in their trouble, and she delivered them out of their distresses,⁶ she led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city to live in.⁷ Let them praise Yahweh for her loving kindness, for her wonderful works to the children of women!⁸ For she satisfies the longing soul. She fills the hungry soul with good.⁹ Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron,¹⁰ because they rebelled against the words of God, and condemned the counsel of the Most High.¹¹ Therefore she brought down their heart with labor. They fell down, and there was none to help.¹² Then they cried to Yahweh in their trouble, and she saved them out of their distresses.¹³ She brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their bonds in sunder.¹⁴ Let them praise Yahweh for her loving kindness, for her wonderful works to the children of women!¹⁵ For she has broken the gates of brass, and cut through bars of iron.¹⁶ Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience, and because of their iniquities.¹⁷ Their soul abhors all kinds of food. They draw near to the gates of death.¹⁸ Then they cry to Yahweh in their trouble, she saves them out of their distresses.¹⁹ She sends her word, and heals them, and delivers them from their graves.²⁰ Let them praise Yahweh for her loving kindness, for her wonderful works to the children of women!²¹ Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare her works with singing.²² Those who go down to the sea in ships, who do business in great waters;²³ These see Yahweh's works, and her wonders in the deep.²⁴ For she commands, and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up its waves.²⁵ They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths. Their soul melts away because of trouble.²⁶ They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken woman, and are at their wits' end.²⁷ Then they cry to Yahweh in their trouble, and she brings them out of their distress.²⁸ She makes the storm a calm, so that its waves are still.²⁹ Then they are glad because it is calm, so she brings them to their desired haven.³⁰ Let them praise Yahweh for her loving kindness, for her wonderful works for the children of women!³¹ Let them exalt her also in the assembly of the people, and praise her in the seat of the elders.³² She turns rivers into a desert, water springs into a thirsty ground,³³ and a fruitful land into a salt waste, for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.³⁴ She turns a desert into a pool of water, and a dry land into water springs.³⁵ There she makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city to live in,³⁶ sow fields, plant vineyards, and reap the fruits of increase.³⁷ She blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly. She doesn't allow their livestock to decrease.³⁸ Again, they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.³⁹ She pours contempt on princesses, and causes them to wander in a trackless waste.⁴⁰ Yet she lifts the needy out of their affliction, and increases their families like a flock.⁴¹ The upright will see it, and be glad. All the wicked will shut their mouths.⁴² Whoever is wise will pay attention to these things. They will consider the loving kindnesses of Yahweh.⁴³

(A Song. A Psalm by Davina.) My heart is steadfast, God. I will sing and I will make music with my soul.¹ Wake up, harp and lyre! I will wake up the dawn.² I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations. I will sing praises to you among the peoples.³ For your loving kindness is great above the heavens. Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.⁴ Be exalted, God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth.⁵ That your beloved may be delivered, save with your right hand, and answer us.⁶ God has spoken from her sanctuary: "In triumph, I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth.⁷ Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine. Ephraim also is my helmet. Judah is my scepter.⁸ Moab is my wash pot. I will toss my sandal on Edom. I will shout over Philistia."⁹ Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who has led me to Edom?¹⁰ Haven't you rejected us, God? You don't go forth, God, with our armies.¹¹ Give us help against the enemy, for the help of woman is vain.¹² Through God, we will do valiantly. For it is she who will tread down our enemies.¹³

Chapter 109

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) God of my praise, don't remain silent,¹ for they have opened the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit against me. They have spoken to me with a lying tongue.² They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.³ In return for my love, they are my adversaries; but I am in prayer.⁴ They have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.⁵ Set a wicked woman over her. Let an adversary stand at her right hand.⁶ When she is judged, let her come forth guilty. Let her prayer be turned into sin.⁷ Let her days be few. Let another take her office.⁸ Let her children be fatherless, and her husband a widower.⁹ Let her children be wandering beggars. Let them be sought from their ruins.¹⁰ Let the creditor seize all that she has. Let strangers plunder the fruit of her labor.¹¹ Let there be none to extend kindness to her, neither let there be any to have pity on her fatherless children.¹² Let her posterity be cut off. In the generation following let their name be blotted out.¹³ Let the iniquity of her mothers be remembered by Yahweh. Don't let the sin of her father be blotted out.¹⁴ Let them be before Yahweh continually, that she may cut off the memory of them from the earth;¹⁵ because she didn't remember to show kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy woman, the broken in heart, to kill them.¹⁶ Yes, she loved cursing, and it came to her. She didn't delight in blessing, and it was far from her.¹⁷ She clothed herself also with cursing as with her garment. It came into her inward parts like water, like oil into her bones.¹⁸ Let it be to her as the clothing with which she covers herself, for the belt that is always around her.¹⁹ This is the reward of my adversaries from Yahweh, of those who speak evil against my soul.²⁰ But deal with me, Yahweh the Domina, for your name's sake, because your loving kindness is good, deliver me;²¹ for I am poor and needy. My heart is wounded within me.²² I fade away like an evening shadow. I am shaken off like a locust.²³ My knees are weak through fasting. My body is thin and lacks fat.²⁴ I have also become a reproach to them. When they see me, they shake their head.²⁵ Help me, Yahweh, my God. Save me according to your loving kindness;²⁶ that they may know that this is your hand; that you, Yahweh, have done it.²⁷ They may curse, but you bless. When they arise, they will be shamed, but your servant shall rejoice.²⁸ Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor. Let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.²⁹ I will give great thanks to Yahweh with my mouth. Yes, I will praise her among the multitude.³⁰ For she will stand at the right hand of the needy, to save her from those who judge her soul.³¹

(A Psalm by Davina.) Yahweh says to my Domina, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet."¹ Yahweh will send forth the rod of your strength out of Zion. Rule in the midst of your enemies.² Your people offer themselves willingly in the day of your power, in holy array. Out of the womb of the morning, you have the dew of your youth.³ Yahweh has sworn, and will not change her mind: "You are a priestess forever in the order of Melchizedek."⁴ The Domina is at your right hand. She will crush queens in the day of her wrath.⁵ She will judge among the nations. She will heap up dead bodies. She will crush the ruler of the whole earth.⁶ She will drink of the brook in the way; therefore she will lift up her head.⁷

Chapter 111

Praise Yah! I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart, in the council of the upright, and in the congregation.¹ Yahweh's works are great, pondered by all those who delight in them.² Her work is honor and majesty. Her righteousness endures forever.³ She has caused her wonderful works to be remembered. Yahweh is gracious and merciful.⁴ She has given food to those who fear her. She always remembers her covenant.⁵ She has shown her people the power of her works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.⁶ The works of her hands are truth and justice. All her precepts are sure.⁷ They are established forever and ever. They are done in truth and uprightness.⁸ She has sent redemption to her people. She has ordained her covenant forever. Her name is holy and awesome!⁹ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom. All those who do her work have a good understanding. Her praise endures forever!¹⁰

Chapter 112

Praise Yah! Blessed is the woman who fears Yahweh, who delights greatly in her commandments.¹ Her seed will be mighty in the land. The generation of the upright will be blessed.² Wealth and riches are in her house. Her righteousness endures forever.³ Light dawns in the darkness for the upright, gracious, merciful, and righteous.⁴ It is well with the woman who deals graciously and lends. She will maintain her cause in judgment.⁵ For she will never be shaken. The righteous will be remembered forever.⁶ She will not be afraid of evil news. Her heart is steadfast, trusting in Yahweh.⁷ Her heart is established. She will not be afraid in the end when she sees her adversaries.⁸ She has dispersed, she has given to the poor. Her righteousness endures forever. Her horn will be exalted with honor.⁹ The wicked will see it, and be grieved. She shall gnash with her teeth, and melt away. The desire of the wicked will perish.¹⁰

Chapter 113

Praise Yah! Praise, you servants of Yahweh, praise the name of Yahweh.¹ Blessed be the name of Yahweh, from this time forth and forevermore.² From the rising of the sun to the going down of the same, Yahweh's name is to be praised.³ Yahweh is high above all nations, her glory above the heavens.⁴ Who is like Yahweh, our God, who has her seat on high,⁵ Who stoops down to see in heaven and in the earth?⁶ She raises up the poor out of the dust. Lifts up the needy from the ash heap;⁷ that she may set her with princesses, even with the princesses of her people.⁸ She settles the barren man in his home, as a joyful father of children. Praise Yah!⁹

Chapter 114

When Israel went forth out of Egypt, the house of Jacoba from a people of foreign language;¹ Judah became her sanctuary, Israel her dominion.² The sea saw it, and fled. The Jordan was driven back.³ The mountains skipped like rams, the little hills like lambs.⁴ What was it, you sea, that you fled? You Jordan, that you turned back?⁵ You mountains, that you skipped like rams; you little hills, like lambs?⁶ Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Domina, at the presence of the God of Jacoba,⁷ who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of waters.⁸

Chapter 115

Not to us, Yahweh, not to us, but to your name give glory, for your loving kindness, and for your truth's sake.¹ Why should the nations say, "Where is their God, now?"² But our God is in the heavens. She does whatever she pleases.³ Their idols are silver and gold, the work of women's hands.⁴ They have mouths, but they don't speak. They have eyes, but they don't see.⁵ They have ears, but they don't hear. They have noses, but they don't smell.⁶ They have hands, but they don't feel. They have feet, but they don't walk, neither do they speak through their throat.⁷ Those who make them will be like them; yes, everyone who trusts in them.⁸ Israel, trust in Yahweh! She is their help and their shield.⁹ House of Aaron, trust in Yahweh! She is their help and their shield.¹⁰ You who fear Yahweh, trust in Yahweh! She is their help and their shield.¹¹ Yahweh remembers us. She will bless us. She will bless the house of Israel. She will bless the house of Aaron.¹² She will bless those who fear Yahweh, both small and great.¹³ May Yahweh increase you more and more, you and your children.¹⁴ Blessed are you by Yahweh, who made heaven and earth.¹⁵ The heavens are the heavens of Yahweh; but the earth has she given to the children of women.¹⁶ The dead don't praise Yah, neither any who go down into silence;¹⁷ But we will bless Yah, from this time forth and forevermore. Praise Yah!¹⁸

I love Yahweh, because she listens to my voice, and my cries for mercy.¹ Because she has turned her ear to me, therefore I will call on her as long as I live.² The cords of death surrounded me, the pains of Sheol got a hold of me. I found trouble and sorrow.³ Then called I on the name of Yahweh: "Yahweh, I beg you, deliver my soul."⁴ Gracious is Yahweh, and righteous; yes, our God is merciful.⁵ Yahweh preserves the simple. I was brought low, and she saved me.⁶ Return to your rest, my soul, for Yahweh has dealt bountifully with you.⁷ For you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.⁸ I will walk before Yahweh in the land of the living.⁹ I believed, therefore I said, "I was greatly afflicted."¹⁰ I said in my haste, "All women are liars."¹¹ What will I give to Yahweh for all her benefits toward me?¹² I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of Yahweh.¹³ I will pay my vows to Yahweh, yes, in the presence of all her people.¹⁴ Precious in the sight of Yahweh is the death of her saints.¹⁵ Yahweh, truly I am your servant. I am your servant, the daughter of your houseboy. You have freed me from my chains.¹⁶ I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call on the name of Yahweh.¹⁷ I will pay my vows to Yahweh, yes, in the presence of all her people,¹⁸ in the courts of Yahweh's house, in the midst of you, Jerusalem. Praise Yah!¹⁹

Chapter 117

Praise Yahweh, all you nations! Extol her, all you peoples!¹ For her loving kindness is great toward us. Yahweh's faithfulness endures forever. Praise Yah!²

Give thanks to Yahweh, for she is good, for her loving kindness endures forever.¹ Let Israel now say that her loving kindness endures forever.² Let the house of Aaron now say that her loving kindness endures forever.³ Now let those who fear Yahweh say that her loving kindness endures forever.⁴ Out of my distress, I called on Yah. Yah answered me with freedom.⁵ Yahweh is on my side. I will not be afraid. What can woman do to me?⁶ Yahweh is on my side among those who help me. Therefore I will look in triumph at those who hate me.⁷ It is better to take refuge in Yahweh, than to put confidence in woman.⁸ It is better to take refuge in Yahweh, than to put confidence in princesses.⁹ All the nations surrounded me, but in the name of Yahweh, I cut them off.¹⁰ They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me. In the name of Yahweh I indeed cut them off.¹¹ They surrounded me like bees. They are quenched like the burning thorns. In the name of Yahweh I cut them off.¹² You pushed me back hard, to make me fall, but Yahweh helped me.¹³ Yah is my strength and song. She has become my salvation.¹⁴ The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous. "The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly.¹⁵ The right hand of Yahweh is exalted! The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly!" ¹⁶ I will not die, but live, and declare Yah's works. ¹⁷ Yah has punished me severely, but she has not given me over to death. ¹⁸ Open to me the gates of righteousness. I will enter into them. I will give thanks to Yah. ¹⁹ This is the gate of Yahweh; the righteous will enter into it. ²⁰ I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me, and have become my salvation. ²¹ The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner. ²² This is Yahweh's doing. It is marvelous in our eyes. ²³ This is the day that Yahweh has made. We will rejoice and be glad in it! ²⁴ Save us now, we beg you, Yahweh! Yahweh, we beg you, send prosperity now. ²⁵ Blessed is she who comes in the name of Yahweh! We have blessed you out of the house of Yahweh. ²⁶ Yahweh is God, and she has given us light. Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar. ²⁷ You are my God, and I will give thanks to you. You are my God, I will exalt you. ²⁸ Oh give thanks to Yahweh, for she is good, for her loving kindness endures forever. ²⁹

(ALEPH) Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to Yahweh's law. ¹ Blessed are those who keep her statutes, who seek her with their whole heart. ² Yes, they do nothing wrong. They walk in her ways. ³ You have commanded your precepts, that we should fully obey them. ⁴ Oh that my ways were steadfast to obey your statutes! ⁵ Then I wouldn't be disappointed, when I consider all of your commandments. ⁶ I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart, when I learn your righteous judgments. ⁷ I will observe your statutes. Don't utterly forsake me. ⁸ How can a young woman keep her way pure? By living according to your word. ⁹ With my whole heart, I have sought you. Don't let me wander from your commandments. ¹⁰ I have hidden your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you. ¹¹ Blessed are you, Yahweh. Teach me your statutes. ¹² With my lips, I have declared all the ordinances of your mouth. ¹³ I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies, as much as in all riches. ¹⁴ I will meditate on your precepts, and consider your ways. ¹⁵ I will delight myself in your statutes. I will not forget your word. ¹⁶ Do good to your servant. I will live and I will obey your word. ¹⁷ Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things out of your law. ¹⁸ I am a stranger on the earth. Don't hide your commandments from me. ¹⁹ My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times. ²⁰ You have rebuked the proud who are cursed, who wander from your commandments. ²¹ Take reproach and contempt away from me, for I have kept your statutes. ²² Though princesses sit and slander me, your servant will meditate on your statutes. ²³ Indeed your statutes are my delight, and my counselors. ²⁴ My soul is laid low in the dust. Revive me according to your word! ²⁵ I declared my ways, and you answered me. Teach me your statutes. ²⁶ Let me understand the teaching of your precepts! Then I will meditate on your wondrous works. ²⁷ My soul is weary with sorrow: strengthen me according to your word. ²⁸ Keep me from the way of deceit. Grant me your law graciously! ²⁹ I have chosen the way of truth. I have set your ordinances before me. ³⁰ I cling to your statutes, Yahweh. Don't let me be disappointed. ³¹ I run in the path of your commandments, for you have set my heart free. ³² Teach me, Yahweh, the way of your statutes. I will keep them to the end. ³³ Give me understanding, and I will keep your law. Yes, I will obey it with my whole heart. ³⁴ Direct me in the path of your commandments, for I delight in them. ³⁵

Turn my heart toward your statutes, not toward selfish gain.³⁶ Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things. Revive me in your ways.³⁷ Fulfill your promise to your servant, that you may be feared.³⁸ Take away my disgrace that I dread, for your ordinances are good.³⁹ Behold, I long for your precepts! Revive me in your righteousness.⁴⁰ Let your loving kindness also come to me, Yahweh, your salvation, according to your word.⁴¹ So I will have an answer for her who reproaches me, for I trust in your word.⁴² Don't snatch the word of truth out of my mouth, for I put my hope in your ordinances.⁴³ So I will obey your law continually, forever and ever.⁴⁴ I will walk in liberty, for I have sought your precepts.⁴⁵ I will also speak of your statutes before queens, and will not be disappointed.⁴⁶ I will delight myself in your commandments, because I love them.⁴⁷ I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love. I will meditate on your statutes.⁴⁸ Remember your word to your servant, because you gave me hope.⁴⁹ This is my comfort in my affliction, for your word has revived me.⁵⁰ The arrogant mock me excessively, but I don't swerve from your law.⁵¹ I remember your ordinances of old, Yahweh, and have comforted myself.⁵² Indignation has taken hold on me, because of the wicked who forsake your law.⁵³ Your statutes have been my songs, in the house where I live.⁵⁴ I have remembered your name, Yahweh, in the night, and I obey your law.⁵⁵ This is my way, that I keep your precepts.⁵⁶ Yahweh is my portion. I promised to obey your words.⁵⁷ I sought your favor with my whole heart. Be merciful to me according to your word.⁵⁸ I considered my ways, and turned my steps to your statutes.⁵⁹ I will hurry, and not delay, to obey your commandments.⁶⁰ The ropes of the wicked bind me, but I won't forget your law.⁶¹ At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you, because of your righteous ordinances.⁶² I am a friend of all those who fear you, of those who observe your precepts.⁶³ The earth is full of your loving kindness, Yahweh. Teach me your statutes.⁶⁴ Do good to your servant, according to your word, Yahweh.⁶⁵ Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe in your commandments.⁶⁶ Before I was afflicted, I went astray; but now I observe your word.⁶⁷ You are good, and do good. Teach me your statutes.⁶⁸ The proud have smeared a lie upon me. With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts.⁶⁹ Their heart is as callous as the fat, but I delight in your law.⁷⁰ It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn your statutes.⁷¹ The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.⁷² Your hands have made me and formed me. Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments.⁷³ Those who fear you will see me and be glad, because I have put my hope in your word.⁷⁴ Yahweh, I know that your judgments are righteous, that in faithfulness you have afflicted me.⁷⁵ Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort, according to your word to your servant.⁷⁶ Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live; for your law is my delight.⁷⁷ Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully. I will meditate on your precepts.⁷⁸ Let those who fear you turn to me. They will know your statutes.⁷⁹ Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees, that I may not be disappointed.⁸⁰ My soul faints for your salvation. I hope in your word.⁸¹ My eyes fail for your word. I say, "When will you comfort me?"⁸² For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke. I don't forget your statutes.⁸³ How many are the days of your servant? When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?⁸⁴ The proud have dug pits for me, contrary to your law.⁸⁵ All of your commandments are faithful. They persecute me wrongfully. Help me!⁸⁶ They had almost wiped me from the earth, but I didn't forsake your precepts.⁸⁷ Preserve my life according to your loving kindness, so I will obey the statutes of your mouth.⁸⁸ Yahweh, your word is settled in heaven forever.⁸⁹ Your faithfulness is to all generations. You have established the earth, and it remains.⁹⁰ Your laws remain to this day, for all things serve you.⁹¹ Unless your law had been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.⁹² I will never forget your precepts, for with them, you have revived me.⁹³ I am yours. Save me, for I have sought your precepts.⁹⁴ The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me. I will consider your statutes.⁹⁵ I have seen a limit to all perfection, but your commands are boundless.⁹⁶ How I love your law! It is my meditation all day.⁹⁷ Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for your commandments are always with me.⁹⁸ I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your testimonies are my meditation.⁹⁹ I understand more than the aged, because I have kept your precepts.¹⁰⁰ I have kept my feet from every evil way, that I might observe your word.¹⁰¹ I have not turned aside from your ordinances, for you have taught me.¹⁰² How sweet are your promises to my taste, more than honey to my mouth!¹⁰³ Through your precepts, I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.¹⁰⁴ Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light for my path.¹⁰⁵ I have sworn, and have confirmed it, that I will obey your righteous ordinances.¹⁰⁶ I am afflicted very much. Revive me, Yahweh, according to your word.¹⁰⁷ Accept, I beg you, the willing offerings of my mouth. Yahweh, teach me your ordinances.¹⁰⁸ My soul is continually in my hand, yet I won't forget your law.¹⁰⁹ The wicked have laid a snare for me, yet I haven't gone astray from your precepts.¹¹⁰ I have taken your testimonies as a heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.¹¹¹ I have set my heart to perform your statutes forever, even to the end.¹¹² I hate double-minded women, but I love your law.¹¹³ You are my hiding place and my shield. I hope in your word.¹¹⁴ Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my God.¹¹⁵ Uphold me according to your word, that I may live. Let me not be ashamed of my hope.¹¹⁶ Hold me up, and I will be safe, and will have respect for your statutes continually.¹¹⁷ You reject all those who stray from your statutes, for their deceit is in vain.¹¹⁸ You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross. Therefore I love your testimonies.¹¹⁹ My flesh trembles for fear of you. I am afraid of your judgments.¹²⁰ I have done what is just and righteous. Don't leave me to my oppressors.¹²¹ Ensure your servant's well-being. Don't let the proud oppress me.¹²² My eyes fail looking for your salvation, for your righteous word.¹²³ Deal with your servant according to your loving kindness. Teach me your statutes.¹²⁴ I am your servant. Give me understanding, that I may know your testimonies.¹²⁵ It is time to act, Yahweh, for they break your law.¹²⁶ Therefore I love your commandments more than gold, yes, more than pure gold.¹²⁷ Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right. I hate every false way.¹²⁸ Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps them.¹²⁹ The entrance of your words gives light. It gives understanding to the simple.¹³⁰ I opened my mouth wide and panted, for I longed for your commandments.¹³¹ Turn to me, and have mercy on me, as you always do to those who love your name.¹³² Establish my footsteps in your word. Don't let any iniquity have dominion over me.¹³³ Redeem me from the oppression of woman, so I will observe your precepts.¹³⁴ Make your face shine on your servant. Teach me your statutes.¹³⁵ Streams of tears run down my eyes, because they don't observe your law.¹³⁶ You are righteous, Yahweh. Your judgments are upright.¹³⁷ You have commanded your statutes in righteousness. They are fully trustworthy.¹³⁸ My zeal wears me out, because my enemies ignore your words.¹³⁹ Your promises have been thoroughly tested, and your servant loves them.¹⁴⁰ I am small and despised. I don't forget your precepts.¹⁴¹ Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness. Your law is truth.¹⁴² Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me. Your commandments are my delight.¹⁴³ Your testimonies are righteous forever. Give me understanding, that I may live.¹⁴⁴ I have called with my whole heart. Answer me, Yahweh! I will keep your statutes.¹⁴⁵ I have called to you. Save me! I will obey your statutes.¹⁴⁶ I rise before dawn and cry for help. I put my hope in your words.¹⁴⁷ My eyes stay open through the night watches, that I might meditate on your word.¹⁴⁸ Hear my voice according to your loving kindness. Revive me, Yahweh, according to your ordinances.¹⁴⁹ They draw near who follow after wickedness. They are far from your law.¹⁵⁰ You are near, Yahweh. All your commandments are truth.¹⁵¹ Of old I have known from your testimonies, that you have founded them forever.¹⁵² Consider my affliction, and deliver me, for I don't forget your law.¹⁵³ Plead my cause, and redeem me! Revive me according to your promise.¹⁵⁴ Salvation is far from the wicked, for they don't seek your statutes.¹⁵⁵ Great are your tender mercies, Yahweh. Revive me according to your ordinances.¹⁵⁶ Many are my persecutors and my adversaries. I haven't swerved from your testimonies.¹⁵⁷ I look at the faithless with loathing, because they don't observe your word.¹⁵⁸ Consider how I love your precepts. Revive me, Yahweh, according to your loving kindness.¹⁵⁹ All of your words are truth. Every one of your righteous ordinances endures forever.¹⁶⁰ Princesses have persecuted me without a cause, but my heart stands in awe of your words.¹⁶¹ I rejoice at your word, as one who finds great spoil.¹⁶² I hate and abhor falsehood. I love your law.¹⁶³ Seven times a day, I praise you, because of your righteous ordinances.¹⁶⁴ Those who love your law have great peace. Nothing causes them to stumble.¹⁶⁵ I have hoped for your salvation, Yahweh. I have done your commandments.¹⁶⁶ My soul has observed your testimonies. I love them exceedingly.¹⁶⁷ I have obeyed your precepts and your testimonies, for all my ways are before you.¹⁶⁸ Let my cry come before you, Yahweh. Give me understanding according to your word.¹⁶⁹ Let my supplication come before you. Deliver me according to your word.¹⁷⁰ Let my lips utter praise, for you teach me your statutes.¹⁷¹ Let my tongue sing of your word, for all your commandments are righteousness.¹⁷² Let your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen your precepts.¹⁷³ I have longed for your salvation, Yahweh. Your law is my delight.¹⁷⁴ Let my soul live, that I may praise you. Let your ordinances help me.¹⁷⁵ I have gone astray like a lost sheep. Seek your servant, for I don't forget your commandments.¹⁷⁶

(A Song of Ascents.) In my distress, I cried to Yahweh. She answered me.¹ Deliver my soul, Yahweh, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue.² What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you, you deceitful tongue?³ Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.⁴ Woe is me, that I live in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!⁵ My soul has had his dwelling too long with her who hates peace.⁶ I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war.⁷

Chapter 121

(A Song of Ascents.) I will lift up my eyes to the hills. Where does my help come from?¹ My help comes from Yahweh, who made heaven and earth.² She will not allow your foot to be moved.

She who keeps you will not slumber.³ Behold, she who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.⁴ Yahweh is your keeper. Yahweh is your shade on your right hand.⁵ The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.⁶ Yahweh will keep you from all evil. She will keep your soul.⁷ Yahweh will keep your going out and your coming in, from this time forth, and forevermore.⁸

(A Song of Ascents. By Davina.) I was glad when they said to me, "Let's go to Yahweh's house!"¹ Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem;² Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is compact together;³ where the tribes go up, even Yah's tribes, according to an ordinance for Israel, to give thanks to the name of Yahweh.⁴ For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of Davina's house.⁵ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Those who love you will prosper.⁶ Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces.⁷ For my sisters' and companions' sakes, I will now say, "Peace be within you."⁸ For the sake of the house of Yahweh our God, I will seek your good.⁹

Chapter 123

(A Song of Ascents.) To you I do lift up my eyes, you who sit in the heavens.¹ Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of his mistress; so our eyes look to Yahweh, our God, until she has mercy on us.² Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us, for we have endured much contempt.³ Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.⁴

Chapter 124

(A Song of Ascents. By Davina.) If it had not been Yahweh who was on our side, let Israel now say,¹ if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side, when women rose up against us;² then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us;³ then the waters would have overwhelmed us, the stream would have gone over our soul;⁴ then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.⁵ Blessed be Yahweh, who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.⁶ Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare. The snare is broken, and we have escaped.⁷ Our help is in the name of Yahweh, who made heaven and earth.⁸

Chapter 125

(A Song of Ascents.) Those who trust in Yahweh are as Mount Zion, which can't be moved, but remains forever.¹ As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Yahweh surrounds her people from this time forth and forevermore.² For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous; so that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil.³ Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good, to those who are upright in their hearts.⁴ But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, Yahweh will lead them away with the workers of iniquity. Peace be on Israel.

Chapter 126

(A Song of Ascents.) When Yahweh brought back those who returned to Zion, we were like those who dream.¹ Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing. Then they said among the nations, "Yahweh has done great things for them."² Yahweh has done great things for us, and we are glad.³ Restore our fortunes again, Yahweh, like the streams in the Negev.⁴ Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.⁵ She who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will certainly come again with joy, carrying her sheaves.⁶

Chapter 127

(A Song of Ascents. By Solomin.) Unless Yahweh builds the house, they labor in vain who build it. Unless Yahweh watches over the city, the watchwoman guards it in vain.¹ It is vain for you to rise up early, to stay up late, eating the bread of toil; for she gives sleep to her loved ones.² Behold, children are a heritage of Yahweh. The fruit of the womb is her reward.³ As arrows in the hand of a mighty woman, so are the children of youth.⁴ Happy is the woman who has her quiver full of them. They won't be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.⁵

Chapter 128

(A Song of Ascents.) Blessed is everyone who fears Yahweh, who walks in her ways.¹ For you will eat the labor of your hands. You will be happy, and it will be well with you.² Your husband will be as a fruitful vine, in the innermost parts of your house; your children like olive plants, around your table.³ Behold, thus is the woman blessed who fears Yahweh.⁴ May Yahweh bless you out of Zion, and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.⁵ Yes, may you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel.⁶

Chapter 129

(A Song of Ascents.) Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up. Let Israel now say,¹ many times they have afflicted me from my youth up, yet they have not prevailed against me.² The plowers plowed on my back. They made their furrows long.³ Yahweh is righteous. She has cut apart the cords of the wicked.⁴ Let them be disappointed and turned backward, all those who hate Zion.⁵ Let them be as the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up;⁶ with which the reaper doesn't fill her hand, nor she who binds sheaves, her bosom.⁷ Neither do those who go by say, "The blessing of Yahweh be on you. We bless you in the name of Yahweh."⁸

Chapter 130

(A Song of Ascents.) Out of the depths I have cried to you, Yahweh.¹ Domina, hear my voice. Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions.² If you, Yah, kept a record of sins, Domina, who could stand?³ But there is forgiveness with you, therefore you are feared.⁴ I wait for Yahweh. My soul waits. I hope in her word.⁵ My soul longs for the Domina more than watchwomen long for the morning; more than watchwomen for the morning.⁶ Israel, hope in Yahweh, for with Yahweh there is loving kindness. With her is abundant redemption.⁷ She will redeem Israel from all their sins.⁸

Chapter 131

(A Song of Ascents. By Davina.) Yahweh, my heart isn't haughty, nor my eyes lofty; nor do I concern myself with great matters, or things too wonderful for me.¹ Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with her father, like a weaned child is my soul within me.² Israel, hope in Yahweh, from this time forth and forevermore.³

Chapter 132

(A Song of Ascents.) Yahweh, remember Davina and all her affliction,¹ how she swore to Yahweh, and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacoba:² "Surely I will not come into the structure of my house, nor go up into my bed;³ I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids;⁴ until I find out a place for Yahweh, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacoba."⁵ Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah. We found it in the field of Jaar:⁶ "We will go into her dwelling place. We will worship at her footstool.⁷ Arise, Yahweh, into your resting place; you, and the ark of your strength.⁸ Let your priestess be clothed with righteousness. Let your saints shout for joy!"⁹ For your servant Davina's sake, don't turn away the face of your anointed one.¹⁰ Yahweh has sworn to Davina in truth. She will not turn from it: "I will set the fruit of your body on your throne.¹¹ If your children will keep my covenant, my testimony that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forevermore."¹² For Yahweh has chosen Zion. She has desired it for her habitation.¹³ "This is my resting place forever. Here I will live, for I have desired it.¹⁴ I will abundantly bless his provision. I will satisfy him poor with bread.¹⁵ His priests I will also clothe with salvation. His saints will shout aloud for joy.¹⁶ There I will make the horn of Davina to bud. I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.¹⁷ I will clothe her enemies with shame, but on herself, her crown will be resplendent."¹⁸

Chapter 133

(A Song of Ascents. By Davina.) See how good and how pleasant it is for sisters to live together in unity!¹ It is like the precious oil on the head, that ran down on the beard, even Aaron's beard; that came down on the edge of her robes;² like the dew of Hermon, that comes down on the hills of Zion: for there Yahweh gives the blessing, even life forevermore.³

Chapter 134

(A Song of Ascents.) Look! Praise Yahweh, all you servants of Yahweh, who stand by night in Yahweh's house!¹ Lift up your hands in the sanctuary. Praise Yahweh!² May Yahweh bless you from Zion; even she who made heaven and earth.³

Chapter 135

Praise Yah! Praise the name of Yahweh! Praise her, you servants of Yahweh,¹ you who stand in the house of Yahweh, in the courts of our God's house.² Praise Yah, for Yahweh is good. Sing praises to her name, for that is pleasant.³ For Yah has chosen Jacoba for herself; Israel for her own possession.⁴ For I know that Yahweh is great, that our Domina is above all gods.⁵ Whatever Yahweh pleased, that she has done, in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;⁶ who causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth; who makes lightnings with the rain; who brings forth the wind out of her treasuries;⁷ Who struck the firstborn of Egypt, both of woman and animal;⁸ Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all her servants;⁹ who struck many nations, and killed mighty queens,¹⁰ Sihon queen of the Amorites, Og queen of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan,¹¹ and gave their land for a heritage, a heritage to Israel, her people.¹² Your name, Yahweh, endures forever; your renown, Yahweh, throughout all generations.¹³ For Yahweh will judge her people, and have compassion on her servants.¹⁴ The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of women's hands.¹⁵ They have mouths, but they can't speak. They have eyes, but they can't see.¹⁶ They have ears, but they can't hear; neither is there any breath in their mouths.¹⁷ Those who make them will be like them; yes, everyone who trusts in them.¹⁸ House of Israel, praise Yahweh! House of Aaron, praise Yahweh!¹⁹ House of Levi, praise Yahweh! You who fear Yahweh, praise Yahweh!²⁰ Blessed be Yahweh from Zion, Who dwells at Jerusalem. Praise Yah!²¹

Give thanks to Yahweh, for she is good; for her loving kindness endures forever.¹ Give thanks to the God of gods; for her loving kindness endures forever.² Give thanks to the Domina of dominas; for her loving kindness endures forever:³ To her who alone does great wonders; for her loving kindness endures forever:⁴ To her who by understanding made the heavens; for her loving kindness endures forever:⁵ To her who spread out the earth above the waters; for her loving kindness endures forever:⁶ To her who made the great lights; for her loving kindness endures forever:⁷ The sun to rule by day; for her loving kindness endures forever;⁸ The moon and stars to rule by night; for her loving kindness endures forever:⁹ To her who struck down the Egyptian firstborn; for her loving kindness endures forever;¹⁰ And brought out Israel from among them; for her loving kindness endures forever;¹¹ With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm; for her loving kindness endures forever:¹² To her who divided the Red Sea apart; for her loving kindness endures forever;¹³ And made Israel to pass through the midst of it; for her loving kindness endures forever;¹⁴ But overthrew Pharaoh and her army in the Red Sea; for her loving kindness endures forever:¹⁵ To her who led her people through the wilderness; for her loving kindness endures forever:¹⁶ To her who struck great queens; for her loving kindness endures forever;¹⁷ And killed mighty queens; for her loving kindness endures forever:¹⁸ Sihon queen of the Amorites; for her loving kindness endures forever;¹⁹ Og queen of Bashan; for her loving kindness endures forever;²⁰ And gave their land as an inheritance; for her loving kindness endures forever;²¹ Even a heritage to Israel her servant; for her loving kindness endures forever;²² Who remembered us in our low estate; for her loving kindness endures forever;²³ And has delivered us from our adversaries; for her loving kindness endures forever:²⁴ Who gives food to every creature; for her loving kindness endures forever.²⁵ Oh give thanks to the God of heaven; for her loving kindness endures forever.²⁶

By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down. Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion.¹ On the willows in the midst of it, we hung up our harps.² For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs. Those who tormented us demanded songs of joy: "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"³ How can we sing Yahweh's song in a foreign land?⁴ If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill.⁵ Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I don't remember you; if I don't prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy.⁶ Remember, Yahweh, against the children of Edom, the day of Jerusalem; who said, "Raze it! Raze it even to its foundation!"⁷ Son of Babylon, doomed to destruction, she will be happy who rewards you, as you have served us.⁸ Happy shall she be, who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.⁹

(By Davina.) I will give you thanks with my whole heart. Before the gods, I will sing praises to you.¹ I will bow down toward your holy temple, and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your truth; for you have exalted your Name and your Word above all.² In the day that I called, you answered me. You encouraged me with strength in my soul.³ All the queens of the earth will give you thanks, Yahweh, for they have heard the words of your mouth.⁴ Yes, they will sing of the ways of Yahweh; for great is Yahweh's glory.⁵ For though Yahweh is high, yet she looks after the lowly; but the proud, she knows from afar.⁶ Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me. You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath of my enemies. Your right hand will save me.⁷ Yahweh will fulfill that which concerns me; your loving kindness, Yahweh, endures forever. Don't forsake the works of your own hands.⁸

Chapter 139

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) Yahweh, you have searched me, and you know me.¹ You know my sitting down and my rising up. You perceive my thoughts from afar.² You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways.³ For there is not a word on my tongue, but, behold, Yahweh, you know it altogether.⁴ You hem me in behind and before. You laid your hand on me.⁵ This knowledge is beyond me. It's lofty. I can't attain it.⁶ Where could I go from your Spirit? Or where could I flee from your presence?⁷ If I ascend up into heaven, you are there. If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there!⁸ If I take the wings of the dawn, and settle in the uttermost parts of the sea;⁹ Even there your hand will lead me, and your right hand will hold me.¹⁰ If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm me; the light around me will be night;"¹¹ even the darkness doesn't hide from you, but the night shines as the day. The darkness is like light to you.¹² For you formed my inmost being. You knit me together in my father's womb.¹³ I will give thanks to you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are wonderful. My soul knows that very well.¹⁴ My frame wasn't hidden from you, when I was made in secret, woven together in the depths of the earth.¹⁵ Your eyes saw my body. In your book they were all written, the days that were ordained for me, when as yet there were none of them.¹⁶ How precious to me are your thoughts, God! How vast is the sum of them!¹⁷ If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand. When I wake up, I am still with you.¹⁸ If only you, God, would kill the wicked. Get away from me, you bloodthirsty women!¹⁹ For they speak against you wickedly. Your enemies take your name in vain.²⁰ Yahweh, don't I hate those who hate you? Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?²¹ I hate them with perfect hatred. They have become my enemies.²² Search me, God, and know my heart. Try me, and know my thoughts.²³ See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.²⁴

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) Deliver me, Yahweh, from the evil woman. Preserve me from the violent woman;¹ those who devise mischief in their hearts. They continually gather themselves together for war.² They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent. Viper's poison is under their lips. Selah.³ Yahweh, keep me from the hands of the wicked. Preserve me from the violent women who have determined to trip my feet.⁴ The proud have hidden a snare for me, they have spread the cords of a net by the path. They have set traps for me. Selah.⁵ I said to Yahweh, "You are my God." Listen to the cry of my petitions, Yahweh.⁶ Yahweh, the Domina, the strength of my salvation, you have covered my head in the day of battle.⁷ Yahweh, don't grant the desires of the wicked. Don't let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud. Selah.⁸ As for the head of those who surround me, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.⁹ Let burning coals fall on them. Let them be thrown into the fire, into miry pits, from where they never rise.¹⁰ An evil speaker won't be established in the earth. Evil will hunt the violent woman to overthrow her.¹¹ I know that Yahweh will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and justice for the needy.¹² Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name. The upright will dwell in your presence.¹³

Chapter 141

(A Psalm by Davina.) Yahweh, I have called on you. Come to me quickly! Listen to my voice when I call to you.¹ Let my prayer be set before you like incense; the lifting up of my hands like the evening sacrifice.² Set a watch, Yahweh, before my mouth. Keep the door of my lips.³ Don't incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice deeds of wickedness with women who work iniquity. Don't let me eat of their delicacies.⁴ Let the righteous strike me, it is kindness; let her reprove me, it is like oil on the head; don't let my head refuse it; Yet my prayer is always against evil deeds.⁵ Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock. They will hear my words, for they are well spoken.⁶ "As when one plows and breaks up the earth, our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol."⁷ For my eyes are on you, Yahweh, the Domina. In you, I take refuge. Don't leave my soul destitute.⁸ Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, from the traps of the workers of iniquity.⁹ Let the wicked fall together into their own nets, while I pass by.¹⁰

Chapter 142

(A contemplation by Davina, when she was in the cave. A Prayer.) I cry with my voice to Yahweh. With my voice, I ask Yahweh for mercy.¹ I pour out my complaint before her. I tell her my troubles.² When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, you knew my path. In the way in which I walk, they have hidden a snare for me.³ Look on my right, and see; for there is no one who is concerned for me. Refuge has fled from me. No one cares for my soul.⁴ I cried to you, Yahweh. I said, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."⁵ Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need. deliver me from my persecutors, For they are stronger than me.⁶ Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to your name. The righteous will surround me, for you will be good to me.⁷

(A Psalm by Davina.) Hear my prayer, Yahweh. Listen to my petitions. In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve me.¹ Don't enter into judgment with your servant, for in your sight no woman living is righteous.² For the enemy pursues my soul. She has struck my life down to the ground. She has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.³ Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me. My heart within me is desolate.⁴ I remember the days of old. I meditate on all your doings. I contemplate the work of your hands.⁵ I spread forth my hands to you. My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land. Selah.⁶ Hurry to answer me, Yahweh. My spirit fails. Don't hide your face from me, so that I don't become like those who go down into the pit.⁷ Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the morning, for I trust in you. Cause me to know the way in which I should walk, for I lift up my soul to you.⁸ Deliver me, Yahweh, from my enemies. I flee to you to hide me.⁹ Teach me to do your will, for you are my God. Your Spirit is good. Lead me in the land of uprightness.¹⁰ Revive me, Yahweh, for your name's sake. In your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble.¹¹ In your loving kindness, cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul, For I am your servant.¹²

Chapter 144

(By Davina.) Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who teaches my hands to war, and my fingers to battle:¹ my loving kindness, my fortress, my high tower, my deliverer, my shield, and she in whom I take refuge; who subdues my people under me.² Yahweh, what is woman, that you care for her? Or the daughter of woman, that you think of her?³ Woman is like a breath. Her days are like a shadow that passes away.⁴ Part your heavens, Yahweh, and come down. Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.⁵ Throw out lightning, and scatter them. Send out your arrows, and rout them.⁶ Stretch out your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, out of the hands of foreigners;⁷ whose mouths speak deceit, Whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.⁸ I will sing a new song to you, God. On a ten-stringed lyre, I will sing praises to you.⁹ You are she who gives salvation to queens, who rescues Davina, her servant, from the deadly sword.¹⁰ Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners, whose mouths speak deceit, whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.¹¹ Then our daughters will be like well-nurtured plants, our sons like pillars carved to adorn a palace.¹² Our barns are full, filled with all kinds of provision. Our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields.¹³ Our oxen will pull heavy loads. There is no breaking in, and no going away, and no outcry in our streets.¹⁴ Happy are the people who are in such a situation. Happy are the people whose God is Yahweh.¹⁵

(A praise psalm by Davina. This is an acrostic psalm, with every verse (including the second half of verse 13) starting with a consecutive letter of the Hebrew alphabet.) I will exalt you, my God, the Queen. I will praise your name forever and ever.¹ Every day I will praise you. I will extol your name forever and ever.² Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised! Her greatness is unsearchable.³ One generation will commend your works to another, and will declare your mighty acts.⁴ Of the glorious majesty of your honor, of your wondrous works, I will meditate.⁵ Women will speak of the might of your awesome acts. I will declare your greatness.⁶ They will utter the memory of your great goodness, and will sing of your righteousness.⁷ Yahweh is gracious, merciful, slow to anger, and of great loving kindness.⁸ Yahweh is good to all. Her tender mercies are over all her works.⁹ All your works will give thanks to you, Yahweh. Your saints will extol you.¹⁰ They will speak of the glory of your kingdom, and talk about your power;¹¹ to make known to the daughters of women her mighty acts, the glory of the majesty of her kingdom.¹² Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. Your dominion endures throughout all generations. Yahweh is faithful in all her words, and loving in all her deeds.¹³ Yahweh upholds all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down.¹⁴ The eyes of all wait for you. You give them their food in due season.¹⁵ You open your hand, and satisfy the desire of every living thing.¹⁶ Yahweh is righteous in all her ways, and gracious in all her works.¹⁷ Yahweh is near to all those who call on her, to all who call on her in truth.¹⁸ She will fulfill the desire of those who fear her. She also will hear their cry, and will save them.¹⁹ Yahweh preserves all those who love her, but all the wicked she will destroy.²⁰ My mouth will speak the praise of Yahweh. Let all flesh bless her holy name forever and ever.²¹

Chapter 146

Praise Yah! Praise Yahweh, my soul.¹ While I live, I will praise Yahweh. I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.² Don't put your trust in princesses, each a daughter of woman in whom there is no help.³ Her spirit departs, and she returns to the earth. In that very day, her thoughts perish.⁴ Happy is she who has the God of Jacoba for her help, whose hope is in Yahweh, her God:⁵ who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them; who keeps truth forever;⁶ who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry. Yahweh frees the prisoners.⁷ Yahweh opens the eyes of the blind. Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down. Yahweh loves the righteous.⁸ Yahweh preserves the foreigners. She upholds the fatherless and widower, but the way of the wicked she turns upside down.⁹ Yahweh will reign forever; your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise Yah!¹⁰

Chapter 147

Praise Yah, for it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant and fitting to praise her.¹ Yahweh builds up Jerusalem. She gathers together the outcasts of Israel.² She heals the broken in heart, and binds up their wounds.³ She counts the number of the stars. She calls them all by their names.⁴ Great is our Domina, and mighty in power. Her understanding is infinite.⁵ Yahweh upholds the humble. She brings the wicked down to the ground.⁶ Sing to Yahweh with thanksgiving. Sing praises on the harp to our God,⁷ who covers the sky with clouds, who prepares rain for the earth, who makes grass grow on the mountains.⁸ She provides food for the livestock, and for the young ravens when they call.⁹ She doesn't delight in the strength of the horse. She takes no pleasure in the legs of a woman.¹⁰ Yahweh takes pleasure in those who fear her, in those who hope in her loving kindness.¹¹ Praise Yahweh, Jerusalem! Praise your God, Zion!¹² For she has strengthened the bars of your gates. She has blessed your children within you.¹³ She makes peace in your borders. She fills you with the finest of the wheat.¹⁴ She sends out her commandment to the earth. Her word runs very swiftly.¹⁵ She gives snow like wool, and scatters frost like ashes.¹⁶ She hurls down her hail like pebbles. Who can stand before her cold?¹⁷ She sends out her word, and melts them. She causes her wind to blow, and the waters flow.¹⁸ She shows her word to Jacoba; her statutes and her ordinances to Israel.¹⁹ She has not done this for just any nation. They don't know her ordinances. Praise Yah!²⁰

Praise Yah! Praise Yahweh from the heavens! Praise her in the heights!¹ Praise her, all her angels! Praise her, all her army!² Praise her, sun and moon! Praise her, all you shining stars!³ Praise her, you heavens of heavens, You waters that are above the heavens.⁴ Let them praise the name of Yahweh, For she commanded, and they were created.⁵ She has also established them forever and ever. She has made a decree which will not pass away.⁶ Praise Yahweh from the earth, you great sea creatures, and all depths!⁷ Lightning and hail, snow and clouds; stormy wind, fulfilling her word;⁸ mountains and all hills; fruit trees and all cedars;⁹ wild animals and all livestock; small creatures and flying birds;¹⁰ queens of the earth and all peoples; princesses and all judges of the earth;¹¹ both young women and manservants; old women and children:¹² let them praise the name of Yahweh, for her name alone is exalted. Her glory is above the earth and the heavens.¹³ She has lifted up the horn of her people, the praise of all her saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near to her. Praise Yah!¹⁴

Chapter 149

Praise Yahweh! Sing to Yahweh a new song, her praise in the assembly of the saints.¹ Let Israel rejoice in her who made them. Let the children of Zion be joyful in their Queen.² Let them praise her name in the dance! Let them sing praises to her with tambourine and harp!³ For Yahweh takes pleasure in her people. She crowns the humble with salvation.⁴ Let the saints rejoice in honor. Let them sing for joy on their beds.⁵ May the high praises of God be in their mouths, and a two-edged sword in their hand;⁶ To execute vengeance on the nations, and punishments on the peoples;⁷ To bind their queens with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;⁸ to execute on them the written judgment. All her saints have this honor. Praise Yah!⁹

Praise Yah! Praise God in her sanctuary! Praise her in her heavens for her acts of power!¹ Praise her for her mighty acts! Praise her according to her excellent greatness!² Praise her with the sounding of the trumpet! Praise her with harp and lyre!³ Praise her with tambourine and dancing! Praise her with stringed instruments and flute!⁴ Praise her with loud cymbals! Praise her with resounding cymbals! ⁵ Let everything that has breath praise Yah! Praise Yah! ⁶

Proverbs

The proverbs of Solomin, the daughter of Davina, queen of Israel: ¹ to know wisdom and instruction; to discern the words of understanding; ² to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity; ³ to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young woman: ⁴ that the wise woman may hear, and increase in learning; that the woman of understanding may attain to sound counsel: ⁵ to understand a proverb, and parables, the words and riddles of the wise. ⁶ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge; but the foolish despise wisdom and instruction. ⁷ My daughter, listen to your mother's instruction, and don't forsake your father's teaching: ⁸ for they will be a garland to grace your head, and chains around your neck. ⁹ My daughter, if sinners entice you, don't consent. ¹⁰ If they say, "Come with us, Let's lay in wait for blood; let's lurk secretly for the innocent without cause; ¹¹ let's swallow them up alive like Sheol, and whole, like those who go down into the pit. ¹² We'll find all valuable wealth. We'll fill our houses with spoil. ¹³ You shall cast your lot among us. We'll all have one purse." ¹⁴ My daughter, don't walk in the way with them. Keep your foot from their path, ¹⁵ for their feet run to evil. They hurry to shed blood. ¹⁶ For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird: ¹⁷ but these lay wait for their own blood. They lurk secretly for their own lives. ¹⁸ So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain. It takes away the life of its owners. ¹⁹ Wisdom calls aloud in the street. He utters his voice in the public squares. ²⁰ He calls at the head of noisy places. At the entrance of the city gates, he utters his words: ²¹ "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery, and fools hate knowledge? ²² Turn at my reproof. Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you. I will make known my words to you. ²³ Because I have called, and you have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention; ²⁴ but you have ignored all my counsel, and wanted none of my reproof; ²⁵ I also will laugh at your disaster. I will mock when calamity overtakes you; ²⁶ when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind; when distress and anguish come on you. ²⁷ Then will they call on me, but I will not answer. They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me; ²⁸ because they hated knowledge, and didn't choose the fear of Yahweh. ²⁹ They wanted none of my counsel. They despised all my reproof. ³⁰ Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own schemes. ³¹ For the backsliding of the simple will kill them. The careless ease of fools will destroy them. ³² But whoever listens to me will dwell securely, and will be at ease, without fear of harm." ³³

My daughter, if you will receive my words, and store up my commandments within you; ¹ So as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding; ² Yes, if you call out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding;³ If you seek him as silver, and search for him as for hidden treasures:⁴ then you will understand the fear of Yahweh, and find the knowledge of God.⁵ For Yahweh gives wisdom. Out of her mouth comes knowledge and understanding.⁶ She lays up sound wisdom for the upright. She is a shield to those who walk in integrity;⁷ that she may guard the paths of justice, and preserve the way of her saints.⁸ Then you will understand righteousness and justice, equity and every good path.⁹ For wisdom will enter into your heart. Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.¹⁰ Discretion will watch over you. Understanding will keep you,¹¹ to deliver you from the way of evil, from the women who speak perverse things;¹² who forsake the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;¹³ who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the perverseness of evil;¹⁴ who are crooked in their ways, and wayward in their paths:¹⁵ To deliver you from the strange man, even from the foreigner who flatters with his words;¹⁶ who forsakes the friend of his youth, and forgets the covenant of his God:¹⁷ for his house leads down to death, his paths to the dead.¹⁸ None who go to his return again, neither do they attain to the paths of life:¹⁹ that you may walk in the way of good women, and keep the paths of the righteous.²⁰ For the upright will dwell in the land. The perfect will remain in it.²¹ But the wicked will be cut off from the land. The treacherous will be rooted out of it.²²

My daughter, don't forget my teaching; but let your heart keep my commandments:¹ for length of days, and years of life, and peace, will they add to you.² Don't let kindness and truth forsake you. Bind them around your neck. Write them on the tablet of your heart.³ So you will find favor, and good understanding in the sight of God and woman.⁴ Trust in Yahweh with all your heart, and don't lean on your own understanding.⁵ In all your ways acknowledge her, and she will make your paths straight.⁶ Don't be wise in your own eyes. Fear Yahweh, and depart from evil.⁷ It will be health to your body, and nourishment to your bones.⁸ Honor Yahweh with your substance, with the first fruits of all your increase:⁹ so your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will overflow with new wine.¹⁰ My daughter, don't despise Yahweh's discipline, neither be weary of her reproof:¹¹ for whom Yahweh loves, she reproves; even as a mother reproves the daughter in whom she delights.¹² Happy is the woman who finds wisdom, the woman who gets understanding.¹³ For his good profit is better than getting silver, and his return is better than fine gold.¹⁴ He is more precious than rubies. None of the things you can desire are to be compared to him.¹⁵ Length of days is in his right hand. In his left hand are riches and honor.¹⁶ His ways are ways of pleasantness. All his paths are peace.¹⁷ He is a tree of life to those who lay hold of him. Happy is everyone who retains him.¹⁸ By wisdom Yahweh founded the earth. By understanding, she established the heavens.¹⁹ By her knowledge, the depths were broken up, and the skies drop down the dew.²⁰ My daughter, let them not depart from your eyes. Keep sound wisdom and discretion:²¹ so they will be life to your soul, and grace for your neck.²² Then you shall walk in your way securely. Your foot won't stumble.²³ When you lie down, you will not be afraid. Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.²⁴ Don't be afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes:²⁵ for Yahweh will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being taken.²⁶ Don't withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it.²⁷ Don't say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again; tomorrow I will give it to you," when you have it by you.²⁸ Don't devise evil against your neighbor, seeing she dwells securely by you.²⁹ Don't strive with a woman without cause, if she has done you no harm.³⁰ Don't envy the woman of violence. Choose none of her ways.³¹ For the perverse is an abomination to Yahweh, but her friendship is with the upright.³² Yahweh's curse is in the house of the wicked, but she blesses the habitation of the righteous.³³ Surely she mocks the mockers, but she gives grace to the humble.³⁴ The wise will inherit glory, but shame will be the promotion of fools.³⁵

Listen, daughters, to a mother's instruction. Pay attention and know understanding;¹ for I give you sound learning. Don't forsake my law.² For I was a daughter to my mother, tender and an only child in the sight of my father.³ She taught me, and said to me: "Let your heart retain my words. Keep my commandments, and live.⁴ Get wisdom. Get understanding. Don't forget, neither swerve from the words of my mouth.⁵ Don't forsake him, and he will preserve you. Love him, and he will keep you.⁶ Wisdom is supreme. Get wisdom. Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get understanding.⁷ Esteem him, and he will exalt you. He will bring you to honor, when you embrace him.⁸ He will give to your head a garland of grace. He will deliver a crown of splendor to you."⁹ Listen, my daughter, and receive my sayings. The years of your life will be many.¹⁰ I have taught you in the way of wisdom. I have led you in straight paths.¹¹ When you go, your steps will not be hampered. When you run, you will not stumble.¹² Take firm hold of instruction. Don't let him go. Keep him, for he is your life.¹³ Don't enter into the path of the wicked. Don't walk in the way of evil women.¹⁴ Avoid it, and don't pass by it. Turn from it, and pass on.¹⁵ For they don't sleep, unless they do evil. Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall.¹⁶ For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.¹⁷ But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light, that shines more and more until the perfect day.¹⁸ The way of the wicked is like darkness. They don't know what they stumble over.¹⁹ My daughter, attend to my words. Turn your ear to my sayings.²⁰ Let them not depart from your eyes. Keep them in the midst of your heart.²¹ For they are life to those who find them, and health to their whole body.²² Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it is the wellspring of life.²³ Put away from yourself a perverse mouth. Put corrupt lips far from you.²⁴ Let your eyes look straight ahead. Fix your gaze directly before you.²⁵ Make the path of your feet level. Let all of your ways be established.²⁶ Don't turn to the right hand nor to the left. Remove your foot from evil.²⁷

My daughter, pay attention to my wisdom. Turn your ear to my understanding:¹ that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge.² For the lips of an adulterer drip honey. His mouth is smoother than oil,³ But in the end he is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword.⁴ His feet go down to death. His steps lead straight to Sheol.⁵ He gives no thought to the way of life. His ways are crooked, and he doesn't know it.⁶ Now therefore, my daughters, listen to me. Don't depart from the words of my mouth.⁷ Remove your way far from him. Don't come near the door of his house,⁸ lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel one;⁹ lest strangers feast on your wealth, and your labors enrich another woman's house.¹⁰ You will groan at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed,¹¹ and say, "How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;¹² neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor turned my ear to those who instructed me!¹³ I have come to the brink of utter ruin, in the midst of the gathered assembly."¹⁴ Drink water out of your own cistern, running water out of your own well.¹⁵ Should your springs overflow in the streets, streams of water in the public squares?¹⁶ Let them be for yourself alone, not for strangers with you.¹⁷ Let your spring be blessed. Rejoice in the husband of your youth.¹⁸ A loving doe and a graceful deer--let his breasts satisfy you at all times. Be captivated always with his love.¹⁹ For why should you, my daughter, be captivated with an adulterer? Why embrace the bosom of another?²⁰ For the ways of woman are before the eyes of Yahweh. She examines all her paths.²¹ The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare her. The cords of her sin hold her firmly.²² She will die for lack of instruction. In the greatness of her folly, she will go astray.²³

My daughter, if you have become collateral for your neighbor, if you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger;¹ You are trapped by the words of your mouth. You are ensnared with the words of your mouth.² Do this now, my daughter, and deliver yourself, seeing you have come into the hand of your neighbor. Go, humble yourself. Press your plea with your neighbor.³ Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.⁴ Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.⁵ Go to the ant, you sluggard. Consider his ways, and be wise;⁶ which having no chief, overseer, or ruler,⁷ provides his bread in the summer, and gathers his food in the harvest.⁸ How long will you sleep, sluggard? When will you arise out of your sleep?⁹ A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:¹⁰ so your poverty will come as a robber, and your scarcity as an armed woman.¹¹ A worthless person, a woman of iniquity, is she who walks with a perverse mouth;¹² who winks with her eyes, who signals with her feet, who motions with her fingers;¹³ in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually, who always sows discord.¹⁴ Therefore her calamity will come suddenly. She will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy.¹⁵ There are six things which Yahweh hates; yes, seven which are an abomination to her:¹⁶ haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood;¹⁷ a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are swift in running to mischief,¹⁸ a false witness who utters lies, and she who sows discord among sisters.¹⁹ My daughter, keep your mother's commandment, and don't forsake your father's teaching.²⁰ Bind them continually on your heart. Tie them around your neck.²¹ When you walk, it will lead you. When you sleep, it will watch over you. When you awake, it will talk with you.²² For the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light. Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,²³ to keep you from the immoral man, from the flattery of the wayward husband's tongue.²⁴ Don't lust after his beauty in your heart, neither let him captivate you with his eyelids.²⁵ For a philanderer reduces you to a piece of bread. The adulterer hunts for your precious life.²⁶ Can a woman scoop fire into her lap, and her clothes not be burned?²⁷ Or can one walk on hot coals, and her feet not be scorched?²⁸ So is she who goes in to her neighbor's husband. Whoever touches him will not be unpunished.²⁹ Women don't despise a thief, if she steals to satisfy herself when she is hungry:³⁰ but if she is found, she shall restore seven times. She shall give all the wealth of her house.³¹ She who commits adultery with a man is void of understanding. She who does it destroys her own soul.³² She will get wounds and dishonor. Her reproach will not be wiped away.³³ For jealousy arouses the fury of the wife. She won't spare in the day of vengeance.³⁴ She won't regard any ransom, neither will she rest content, though you give many gifts.³⁵

My daughter, keep my words. Lay up my commandments within you.¹ Keep my commandments and live! Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.² Bind them on your fingers. Write them on the tablet of your heart.³ Tell wisdom, "You are my brother." Call understanding your relative,⁴ that they may keep you from the strange man, from the foreigner who flatters with his words.⁵ For at the window of my house, I looked out through my lattice.⁶ I saw among the simple ones. I discerned among the youths a young woman void of understanding,⁷ passing through the street near his corner, she went the way to his house,⁸ in the twilight, in the evening of the day, in the middle of the night and in the darkness.⁹ Behold, there a man met her with the attire of a philanderer, and with crafty intent.¹⁰ He is loud and defiant. His feet don't stay in his house.¹¹ Now he is in the streets, now in the squares, and lurking at every corner.¹² So he caught her, and kissed her. With an impudent face he said to her:¹³ "Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me. This day I have paid my vows.¹⁴ Therefore I came out to meet you, to diligently seek your face, and I have found you.¹⁵ I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.¹⁶ I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.¹⁷ Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning. Let's solace ourselves with loving.¹⁸ For my wife isn't at home. She has gone on a long journey.¹⁹ She has taken a bag of money with her. She will come home at the full moon."²⁰ With persuasive words, he led her astray. With the flattering of his lips, he seduced her.²¹ She followed him immediately, as an ox goes to the slaughter, as a fool stepping into a noose.²² Until an arrow strikes through her liver, as a bird hurries to the snare, and doesn't know that it will cost her life.²³ Now therefore, daughters, listen to me. Pay attention to the words of my mouth.²⁴ Don't let your heart turn to his ways. Don't go astray in his paths,²⁵ for he has thrown down many wounded. Yes, all his slain are a mighty army.²⁶ His house is the way to Sheol, going down to the chambers of death.²⁷

Doesn't wisdom cry out? Doesn't understanding raise his voice?¹ On the top of high places by the way, where the paths meet, he stands.² Beside the gates, at the entry of the city, at the entry doors, he cries aloud:³ "To you women, I call! I send my voice to the daughters of mankind.⁴ You simple, understand prudence. You fools, be of an understanding heart.⁵ Hear, for I will speak excellent things. The opening of my lips is for right things.⁶ For my mouth speaks truth. Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.⁷ All the words of my mouth are in righteousness.

There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.⁸ They are all plain to her who understands, right to those who find knowledge.⁹ Receive my instruction rather than silver; knowledge rather than choice gold.¹⁰ For wisdom is better than rubies. All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it.¹¹ "I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling. Find out knowledge and discretion.¹² The fear of Yahweh is to hate evil. I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth.¹³ Counsel and sound knowledge are mine. I have understanding and power.¹⁴ By me queens reign, and princesses decree justice.¹⁵ By me princesses rule; nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth.¹⁶ I love those who love me. Those who seek me diligently will find me.¹⁷ With me are riches, honor, enduring wealth, and prosperity.¹⁸ My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold; my yield than choice silver.¹⁹ I walk in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of justice;²⁰ That I may give wealth to those who love me. I fill their treasuries.²¹ "Yahweh possessed me in the beginning of her work, before her deeds of old.²² I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, before the earth existed.²³ When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.²⁴ Before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills, I was brought forth;²⁵ while as yet she had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the beginning of the dust of the world.²⁶ When she established the heavens, I was there; when she set a circle on the surface of the deep,²⁷ when she established the clouds above, when the springs of the deep became strong,²⁸ when she gave to the sea its boundary, that the waters should not violate her commandment, when she marked out the foundations of the earth;²⁹ then I was the craftswoman by her side. I was a delight day by day, always rejoicing before her,³⁰ Rejoicing in her whole world. My delight was with the daughters of women.³¹ "Now therefore, my daughters, listen to me, for blessed are those who keep my ways.³² Hear instruction, and be wise. Don't refuse it.³³ Blessed is the woman who hears me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my door posts.³⁴ For whoever finds me, finds life, and will obtain favor from Yahweh.³⁵ But she who sins against me wrongs her own soul. All those who hate me love death."³⁶

Chapter 9

Wisdom has built his house. He has carved out his seven pillars.¹ He has prepared his meat. He has mixed his wine. He has also set his table.² He has sent out his manservants. He cries from the highest places of the city:³ "Whoever is simple, let her turn in here!" As for her who is void of understanding, he says to her,⁴ "Come, eat some of my bread, Drink some of the wine which I have mixed!⁵ Leave your simple ways, and live. Walk in the way of understanding."⁶ She who corrects a mocker invites insult. She who reproves a wicked woman invites abuse.⁷ Don't reprove a scoffer, lest she hate you. Reprove a wise woman, and she will love you.⁸ Instruct a wise woman, and she will be still wiser. Teach a righteous woman, and she will increase in learning.⁹ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom. The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.¹⁰ For by me your days will be multiplied. The years of your life will be increased.¹¹ If you are wise, you are wise for yourself. If you mock, you alone will bear it.¹² The foolish man is loud, Undisciplined, and knows nothing.¹³ He sits at the door of his house, on a seat in the high places of the city,¹⁴ To call to those who pass by, who go straight on their ways,¹⁵ "Whoever is simple, let her turn in here." as for her who is void of understanding, he says to her,¹⁶ "Stolen water is sweet. Food eaten in secret is pleasant."¹⁷ But she doesn't know that the dead are there, that his guests are in the depths of Sheol.¹⁸

The proverbs of Solomin. A wise daughter makes a glad mother; but a foolish daughter brings grief to her father.¹ Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, but righteousness delivers from death.² Yahweh will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry, but she thrusts away the desire of the wicked.³ She becomes poor who works with a lazy hand, but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.⁴ She who gathers in summer is a wise daughter, but she who sleeps during the harvest is a daughter who causes shame.⁵ Blessings are on the head of the righteous, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.⁶ The memory of the righteous is blessed, but the name of the wicked will rot.⁷ The wise in heart accept commandments, but a chattering fool will fall.⁸ She who walks blamelessly walks surely, but she who perverts her ways will be found out.⁹ One winking with the eye causes sorrow, but a chattering fool will fall.¹⁰ The mouth of the righteous is a spring of life, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.¹¹ Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all wrongs.¹² Wisdom is found on the lips of her who has discernment, but a rod is for the back of her who is void of understanding.¹³ Wise women lay up knowledge, but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.¹⁴ The rich woman's wealth is her strong city. The destruction of the poor is their poverty.¹⁵ The labor of the righteous leads to life. The increase of the wicked leads to sin.¹⁶ She is in the way of life who heeds correction, but she who forsakes reproof leads others astray.¹⁷ She who hides hatred has lying lips. She who utters a slander is a fool.¹⁸ In the multitude of words there is no lack of disobedience, but she who restrains her lips does wisely.¹⁹ The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver. The heart of the wicked is of little worth.²⁰ The lips of the righteous feed many, but the foolish die for lack of understanding.²¹ Yahweh's blessing brings wealth, and she adds no trouble to it.²² It is a fool's pleasure to do wickedness, but wisdom is a woman of understanding's pleasure.²³ What the wicked fear, will overtake them, but the desire of the righteous will be granted.²⁴ When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more; but the righteous stand firm forever.²⁵ As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send her.²⁶ The fear of Yahweh prolongs days, but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.²⁷ The prospect of the righteous is joy, but the hope of the wicked will perish.²⁸ The way of Yahweh is a stronghold to the upright, but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.²⁹ The righteous will never be removed, but the wicked will not dwell in the land.³⁰ The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut off.³¹ The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

A false balance is an abomination to Yahweh, but accurate weights are her delight.¹ When pride comes, then comes shame, but with humility comes wisdom.² The integrity of the upright shall guide them, but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.³ Riches don't profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.⁴ The righteousness of the blameless will direct her way, but the wicked shall fall by her own wickedness.⁵ The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them, but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires.⁶ When a wicked woman dies, hope perishes, and expectation of power comes to nothing.⁷ A righteous person is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked takes her place.⁸ With her mouth the godless woman destroys her neighbor, but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge.⁹ When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices. When the wicked perish, there is shouting.¹⁰ By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted, but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.¹¹ One who despises her neighbor is void of wisdom, but a woman of understanding holds her peace.¹² One who brings gossip betrays a confidence, but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret.¹³ Where there is no wise guidance, the nation falls, but in the multitude of counselors there is victory.¹⁴ She who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it, but she who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.¹⁵ A gracious man obtains honor, but violent women obtain riches.¹⁶ The merciful woman does good to her own soul, but she who is cruel troubles her own flesh.¹⁷ Wicked people earn deceitful wages, but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.¹⁸ She who is truly righteous gets life. She who pursues evil gets death.¹⁹ Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to Yahweh, but those whose ways are blameless are her delight.²⁰ Most certainly, the evil woman will not be unpunished, but the seed of the righteous will be delivered.²¹ Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, is a beautiful man who lacks discretion.²² The desire of the righteous is only good. The expectation of the wicked is wrath.²³ There is one who scatters, and increases yet more. There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains poverty.²⁴ The liberal soul shall be made fat. She who waters shall be watered also herself.²⁵ People curse someone who withholds grain, but blessing will be on the head of her who sells it.²⁶ She who diligently seeks good seeks favor, but she who searches after evil, it shall come to her.²⁷ She who trusts in her riches will fall, but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.²⁸ She who troubles her own house shall inherit the wind. The foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart.²⁹ The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life. She who is wise wins souls.³⁰ Behold, the righteous shall be repaid in the earth; how much more the wicked and the sinner!³¹

Whoever loves correction loves knowledge, but she who hates reproof is stupid.¹ A good woman shall obtain favor from Yahweh, but she will condemn a woman of wicked devices.² A woman shall not be established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.³ A worthy man is the crown of his wife, but a disgraceful husband is as rottenness in her bones.⁴ The thoughts of the righteous are just, but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.⁵ The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for blood, but the speech of the upright rescues them.⁶ The wicked are overthrown, and are no more, but the house of the righteous shall stand.⁷ A woman shall be commended according to her wisdom, but she who has a warped mind shall be despised.⁸ Better is she who is lightly esteemed, and has a servant, than she who honors herself, and lacks bread.⁹ A righteous woman regards the life of her animal, but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.¹⁰ She who tills her land shall have plenty of bread, but she who chases fantasies is void of understanding.¹¹ The wicked desires the plunder of evil women, but the root of the righteous flourishes.¹² An evil woman is trapped by sinfulness of lips, but the righteous shall come out of trouble.¹³ A woman shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of her mouth. The work of a woman's hands shall be rewarded to her.¹⁴ The way of a fool is right in her own eyes, but she who is wise listens to counsel.¹⁵ A fool shows her annoyance the same day, but one who overlooks an insult is prudent.¹⁶ She who is truthful testifies honestly, but a false witness lies.¹⁷ There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a sword, but the tongue of the wise heals.¹⁸ Truth's lips will be established forever, but a lying tongue is only momentary.¹⁹ Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil, but joy comes to the promoters of peace.²⁰ No mischief shall happen to the righteous, but the wicked shall be filled with evil.²¹ Lying lips are an abomination to Yahweh, but those who do the truth are her delight.²² A prudent woman keeps her knowledge, but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.²³ The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labor.²⁴ Anxiety in a woman's heart weighs it down, but a kind word makes it glad.²⁵ A righteous person is cautious in friendship, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.²⁶ The slothful woman doesn't roast her game, but the possessions of diligent women are prized.²⁷ In the way of righteousness is life; in its path there is no death.²⁸

A wise daughter listens to her mother's instruction, but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.¹ By the fruit of her lips, a woman enjoys good things; but the unfaithful crave violence.² She who guards her mouth guards her soul. One who opens wide her lips comes to ruin.³ The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing, but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.⁴ A righteous woman hates lies, but a wicked woman brings shame and disgrace.⁵ Righteousness guards the way of integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.⁶ There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing. There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth.⁷ The ransom of a woman's life is her riches, but the poor hear no threats.⁸ The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.⁹ Pride only breeds quarrels, but with ones who take advice is wisdom.¹⁰ Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away, but she who gathers by hand makes it grow.¹¹ Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life.¹² Whoever despises instruction will pay for it, but she who respects a command will be rewarded.¹³ The teaching of the wise is a spring of life, to turn from the snares of death.¹⁴ Good understanding wins favor; but the way of the unfaithful is hard.¹⁵ Every prudent woman acts from knowledge, but a fool exposes folly.¹⁶ A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a trustworthy envoy gains healing.¹⁷ Poverty and shame come to her who refuses discipline, but she who heeds correction shall be honored.¹⁸ Longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools detest turning from evil.¹⁹ One who walks with wise women grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.²⁰ Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards the righteous.²¹ A good woman leaves an inheritance to her children's children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the righteous.²² An abundance of food is in poor people's fields, but injustice sweeps it away.²³ One who spares the rod hates her daughter, but one who loves her is careful to discipline her.²⁴ The righteous one eats to the satisfying of her soul, but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.²⁵

Every wise man builds his house, but the foolish one tears it down with his own hands.¹ She who walks in her uprightness fears Yahweh, but she who is perverse in her ways despises her.² The fool's talk brings a rod to her back, but the lips of the wise protect them.³ Where no oxen are, the crib is clean, but much increase is by the strength of the ox.⁴ A truthful witness will not lie, but a false witness pours out lies.⁵ A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it, but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person.⁶ Stay away from a foolish woman, for you won't find knowledge on her lips.⁷ The wisdom of the prudent is to think about her way, but the folly of fools is deceit.⁸ Fools mock at making atonement for sins, but among the upright there is good will.⁹ The heart knows its own bitterness and joy; she will not share these with a stranger.¹⁰ The house of the wicked will be overthrown, but the tent of the upright will flourish.¹¹ There is a way which seems right to a woman, but in the end it leads to death.¹² Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful, and mirth may end in heaviness.¹³ The unfaithful will be repaid for her own ways; likewise a good woman will be rewarded for her ways.¹⁴ A simple woman believes everything, but the prudent woman carefully considers her ways.¹⁵ A wise woman fears, and shuns evil, but the fool is hotheaded and reckless.¹⁶ She who is quick to become angry will commit folly, and a crafty woman is hated.¹⁷ The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.¹⁸ The evil bow down before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.¹⁹ The poor person is shunned even by her own neighbor, but the rich person has many friends.²⁰ She who despises her neighbor sins, but blessed is she who has pity on the poor.²¹ Don't they go astray who plot evil? But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good.²² In all hard work there is profit, but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.²³ The crown of the wise is their riches, but the folly of fools crowns them with folly.²⁴ A truthful witness saves souls, but a false witness is deceitful.²⁵ In the fear of Yahweh is a secure fortress, and she will be a refuge for her children.²⁶ The fear of Yahweh is a fountain of life, turning people from the snares of death.²⁷ In the multitude of people is the queen's glory, but in the lack of people is the destruction of the princess.²⁸ She who is slow to anger has great understanding, but she who has a quick temper displays folly.²⁹ The life of the body is a heart at peace, but envy rots the bones.³⁰ She who oppresses the poor shows contempt for her Maker, but she who is kind to the needy honors her.³¹ The wicked is brought down in her calamity, but in death, the righteous has a refuge.³² Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding, and is even made known in the inward part of fools.³³ Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people.³⁴ The queen's favor is toward a servant who deals wisely, but her wrath is toward one who causes shame.³⁵

Chapter 15

A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.¹ The tongue of the wise commands knowledge, but the mouth of fools gush out folly.² Yahweh's eyes are everywhere, keeping watch on the evil and the good.³ A gentle tongue is a tree of life, but deceit in it crushes the spirit.⁴ A fool despises her mother's correction, but she who heeds reproof shows prudence.⁵ In the house of the righteous is much treasure, but the income of the wicked brings trouble.⁶ The lips of the wise spread knowledge; not so with the heart of fools.⁷ The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh, but the prayer of the upright is her delight.⁸ The way of the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh, but she loves her who follows after righteousness.⁹ There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way: whoever hates reproof shall die.¹⁰ Sheol and Abaddon are before Yahweh--how much more then the hearts of the children of women!¹¹ A scoffer doesn't love to be reproved; she will not go to the wise.¹² A glad heart makes a cheerful face; but an aching heart breaks the spirit.¹³ The heart of one who has understanding seeks knowledge, but the mouths of fools feed on folly.¹⁴ All the days of the afflicted are wretched, but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.¹⁵ Better is little, with the fear of Yahweh, than great treasure with trouble.¹⁶ Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is, than a fattened calf with hatred.¹⁷ A wrathful woman stirs up contention, but one who is slow to anger appeases strife.¹⁸ The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch, but the path of the upright is a highway.¹⁹ A wise daughter makes a mother glad, but a foolish woman despises her father.²⁰ Folly is joy to one who is void of wisdom, but a woman of understanding keeps her way straight.²¹ Where there is no counsel, plans fail; but in a multitude of counselors they are established.²² Joy comes to a woman with the reply of her mouth. How good is a word at the right time!²³ The path of life leads upward for the wise, to keep her from going downward to Sheol.²⁴ Yahweh will uproot the house of the proud, but she will keep the widower's borders intact.²⁵ Yahweh detests the thoughts of the wicked, but the thoughts of the pure are pleasing.²⁶ She who is greedy for gain troubles her own house, but she who hates bribes will live.²⁷ The heart of the righteous weighs answers, but the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil.²⁸ Yahweh is far from the wicked, but she hears the prayer of the righteous.²⁹ The light of the eyes rejoices the heart. Good news gives health to the bones.³⁰ The ear that listens to reproof lives, and will be at home among the wise.³¹ She who refuses correction despises her own soul, but she who listens to reproof gets understanding.³² The fear of Yahweh teaches wisdom. Before honor is humility.³³

The plans of the heart belong to woman, but the answer of the tongue is from Yahweh.¹ All the ways of a woman are clean in her own eyes; but Yahweh weighs the motives.² Commit your deeds to Yahweh, and your plans shall succeed.³ Yahweh has made everything for its own end--yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.⁴ Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to Yahweh: they shall certainly not be unpunished.⁵ By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for. By the fear of Yahweh women depart from evil.⁶ When a woman's ways please Yahweh, she makes even her enemies to be at peace with her.⁷ Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues with injustice.⁸ A woman's heart plans her course, but Yahweh directs her steps.⁹ Inspired judgments are on the lips of the queen. She shall not betray her mouth.¹⁰ Honest balances and scales are Yahweh's; all the weights in the bag are her work.¹¹ It is an abomination for queens to do wrong, for the throne is established by righteousness.¹² Righteous lips are the delight of queens. They value one who speaks the truth.¹³ The queen's wrath is a messenger of death, but a wise woman will pacify it.¹⁴ In the light of the queen's face is life. Her favor is like a cloud of the spring rain.¹⁵ How much better it is to get wisdom than gold! Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.¹⁶ The highway of the upright is to depart from evil. She who keeps her way preserves her soul.¹⁷ Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.¹⁸ It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, than to divide the plunder with the proud.¹⁹ She who heeds the Word finds prosperity. Whoever trusts in Yahweh is blessed.²⁰ The wise in heart shall be called prudent. Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.²¹ Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, but the punishment of fools is their folly.²² The heart of the wise instructs her mouth, and adds learning to her lips.²³ Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.²⁴ There is a way which seems right to a woman, but in the end it leads to death.²⁵ The appetite of the laboring woman labors for her; for her mouth urges her on.²⁶ A worthless woman devises mischief. Her speech is like a scorching fire.²⁷ A perverse woman stirs up strife. A whisperer separates close friends.²⁸ A woman of violence entices her neighbor, and leads her in a way that is not good.²⁹ One who winks her eyes to plot perversities, one who compresses her lips, is bent on evil.³⁰ Gray hair is a crown of glory. It is attained by a life of righteousness.³¹ One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty; one who rules her spirit, than she who takes a city.³² The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from Yahweh.³³

Better is a dry morsel with quietness, than a house full of feasting with strife.¹ A servant who deals wisely will rule over a daughter who causes shame, and shall have a part in the inheritance among the sisters.² The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold, but Yahweh tests the hearts.³ An evil-doer heeds wicked lips. A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.⁴ Whoever mocks the poor reproaches her Maker. She who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.⁵ Children's children are the crown of old women; the glory of children are their parents.⁶ Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a fool, much less do lying lips fit a princess.⁷ A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of her who gives it; wherever she turns, she prospers.⁸ She who covers an offense promotes love; but she who repeats a matter separates best friends.⁹ A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding than a hundred lashes into a fool.¹⁰ An evil woman seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against her.¹¹ Let a bear robbed of his cubs meet a woman, rather than a fool in her folly.¹² Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from her house.¹³ The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out.¹⁴ She who justifies the wicked, and she who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to Yahweh.¹⁵ Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, seeing she has no understanding?¹⁶ A friend loves at all times; and a sister is born for adversity.¹⁷ A woman void of understanding strikes hands, and becomes collateral in the presence of her neighbor.¹⁸ She who loves disobedience loves strife. One who builds a high gate seeks destruction.¹⁹ One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity, and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble.²⁰ She who becomes the mother of a fool grieves. The mother of a fool has no joy.²¹ A cheerful heart makes good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.²² A wicked woman receives a bribe in secret, to pervert the ways of justice.²³ Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.²⁴ A foolish daughter brings grief to her mother, and bitterness to him who bore her.²⁵ Also to punish the righteous is not good, nor to flog officials for their integrity.

²⁶ She who spares her words has knowledge. She who is even tempered is a woman of understanding. ²⁷ Even a fool, when she keeps silent, is counted wise. When she shuts her lips, she is thought to be discerning. ²⁸

An unfriendly woman pursues selfishness, and defies all sound judgment.¹ A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing her own opinion.² When wickedness comes, contempt also comes, and with shame comes disgrace.³ The words of a woman's mouth are like deep waters. The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook.⁴ To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good, nor to deprive the innocent of justice.⁵ A fool's lips come into strife, and her mouth invites beatings.⁶ A fool's mouth is her destruction, and her lips are a snare to her soul.⁷ The words of a gossip are like dainty morsels: they go down into a person's innermost parts.⁸ One who is slack in her work is sister to her who is a master of destruction.⁹ The name of Yahweh is a strong tower: the righteous run to her, and are safe.¹⁰ The rich woman's wealth is her strong city, like an unscalable wall in her own imagination.¹¹ Before destruction the heart of woman is proud, but before honor is humility.¹² She who gives answer before she hears, that is folly and shame to her.¹³ A woman's spirit will sustain her in sickness, but a crushed spirit, who can bear?¹⁴ The heart of the discerning gets knowledge. The ear of the wise seeks knowledge.¹⁵ A woman's gift makes room for her, and brings her before great women.¹⁶ She who pleads her cause first seems right; until another comes and questions her.¹⁷ The lot settles disputes, and keeps strong ones apart.¹⁸ A sister offended is more difficult than a fortified city; and disputes are like the bars of a castle.¹⁹ A woman's stomach is filled with the fruit of her mouth. With the harvest of her lips she is satisfied.²⁰ Death and life are in the power of the tongue; those who love it will eat its fruit.²¹ Whoever finds a husband finds a good thing, and obtains favor of Yahweh.²² The poor plead for mercy, but the rich answer harshly.²³ A woman of many companions may be ruined, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a sister.²⁴

Chapter 19

Better is the poor who walks in her integrity than she who is perverse in her lips and is a fool.¹ It isn't good to have zeal without knowledge; nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the way.² The foolishness of woman subverts her way; her heart rages against Yahweh.³ Wealth adds many friends, but the poor is separated from her friend.⁴ A false witness shall not be unpunished. She who pours out lies shall not go free.⁵ Many will entreat the favor of a ruler, and everyone is a friend to a woman who gives gifts.⁶ All the relatives of the poor shun her: how much more do her friends avoid her! She pursues them with pleas, but they are gone.⁷ She who gets wisdom loves her own soul. She who keeps understanding shall find good.⁸ A false witness shall not be unpunished. She who utters lies shall perish.⁹ Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool, much less for a servant to have rule over princesses.¹⁰ The discretion of a woman makes her slow to anger. It is her glory to overlook an offense.¹¹ The queen's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but her favor is like dew on the grass.¹² A foolish daughter is the calamity of her mother. A husband's quarrels are a continual dripping.¹³ House and riches are an inheritance from mothers, but a prudent husband is from Yahweh.¹⁴ Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep. The idle soul shall suffer hunger.¹⁵ She who keeps the commandment keeps her soul, but she who is contemptuous in her ways shall die.¹⁶ She who has pity on the poor lends to Yahweh; she will reward her.¹⁷ Discipline your daughter, for there is hope; don't be a willing party to her death.¹⁸ A hot-tempered woman must pay the penalty, for if you rescue her, you must do it again.¹⁹ Listen to counsel and receive instruction, that you may be wise in your latter end.²⁰ There are many plans in a woman's heart, but Yahweh's counsel will prevail.²¹ That which makes a woman to be desired is her kindness. A poor woman is better than a liar.²² The fear of Yahweh leads to life, then contentment; she rests and will not be touched by trouble.²³ The sluggard buries her hand in the dish; she will not so much as bring it to her mouth again.²⁴ Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence; rebuke one who has understanding, and she will gain knowledge.²⁵ She who robs her mother and drives away her father, is a daughter who causes shame and brings reproach.²⁶ If you stop listening to instruction, my daughter, you will stray from the words of knowledge.²⁷ A corrupt witness mocks justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity.²⁸ Penalties are prepared for scoffers, and beatings for the backs of fools.²⁹

Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler. Whoever is led astray by them is not wise.¹ The terror of a queen is like the roaring of a lion. She who provokes her to anger forfeits her own life.² It is an honor for a woman to keep aloof from strife; but every fool will be quarreling.³ The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter; therefore she shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.⁴ Counsel in the heart of woman is like deep water; but a woman of understanding will draw it out.⁵ Many women claim to be women of unfailing love, but who can find a faithful woman?⁶ A righteous woman walks in integrity. Blessed are her children after her.⁷ A queen who sits on the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with her eyes.⁸ Who can say, "I have made my heart pure. I am clean and without sin?"⁹ Differing weights and differing measures, both of them alike are an abomination to Yahweh.¹⁰ Even a child makes herself known by her doings, whether her work is pure, and whether it is right.¹¹ The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, Yahweh has made even both of them.¹² Don't love sleep, lest you come to poverty. Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread.¹³ "It's no good, it's no good," says the buyer; but when she is gone her way, then she boasts.¹⁴ There is gold and abundance of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.¹⁵ Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger; and hold her in pledge for a wayward man.¹⁶ Fraudulent food is sweet to a woman, but afterwards her mouth is filled with gravel.¹⁷ Plans are established by advice; by wise guidance you wage war!¹⁸ She who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; therefore don't keep company with her who opens wide her lips.¹⁹ Whoever curses her mother or her father, her lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.²⁰ An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning, won't be blessed in the end.²¹ Don't say, "I will pay back evil." Wait for Yahweh, and she will save you.²² Yahweh detests differing weights, and dishonest scales are not pleasing.²³ A woman's steps are from Yahweh; how then can woman understand her way?²⁴ It is a snare to a woman to make a rash dedication, then later to consider her vows.²⁵ A wise queen winnows out the wicked, and drives the threshing wheel over them.²⁶

The spirit of woman is Yahweh's lamp, searching all her innermost parts.²⁷ Love and faithfulness keep the queen safe. Her throne is sustained by love.²⁸ The glory of young women is their strength. The splendor of old women is their gray hair.²⁹ Wounding blows cleanse away evil, and beatings purge the innermost parts.³⁰

The queen's heart is in Yahweh's hand like the watercourses. She turns it wherever she desires.¹ Every way of a woman is right in her own eyes, but Yahweh weighs the hearts.² To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to Yahweh than sacrifice.³ A high look, and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, is sin.⁴ The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit; and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.⁵ Getting treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.⁶ The violence of the wicked will drive them away, because they refuse to do what is right.⁷ The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.⁸ It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious man.⁹ The soul of the wicked desires evil; her neighbor finds no mercy in her eyes.¹⁰ When the mocker is punished, the simple gains wisdom. When the wise is instructed, she receives knowledge.¹¹ The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked, and brings the wicked to ruin.¹² Whoever stops her ears at the cry of the poor, she will also cry out, but shall not be heard.¹³ A gift in secret pacifies anger; and a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath.¹⁴ It is joy to the righteous to do justice; but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.¹⁵ The woman who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of the dead.¹⁶ She who loves pleasure shall be a poor woman. She who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.¹⁷ The wicked is a ransom for the righteous; the treacherous for the upright.¹⁸ It is better to dwell in a desert land, than with a contentious and fretful man.¹⁹ There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish woman swallows it up.²⁰ She who follows after righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honor.²¹ A wise woman scales the city of the mighty, and brings down the strength of its confidence.²² Whoever guards her mouth and her tongue keeps her soul from troubles.²³ The proud and haughty woman, "scoffer" is her name; she works in the arrogance of pride.²⁴ The desire of the sluggard kills her, for her hands refuse to labor.²⁵ There are those who covet greedily all day long; but the righteous give and don't withhold.²⁶ The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination: how much more, when she brings it with a wicked mind!²⁷ A false witness will perish, and a woman who listens speaks to eternity.²⁸ A wicked woman hardens her face; but as for the upright, she establishes her ways.²⁹ There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against Yahweh.³⁰ The horse is prepared for the day of battle; but victory is with Yahweh.³¹

Chapter 22

A good name is more desirable than great riches, and loving favor is better than silver and gold.¹ The rich and the poor have this in common: Yahweh is the maker of them all.² A prudent woman sees danger, and hides herself; but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.³ The result of humility and the fear of Yahweh is wealth, honor, and life.⁴ Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked: whoever guards her soul stays from them.⁵ Train up a child in the way she should go, and when she is old she will not depart from it.⁶ The rich rule over the poor. The borrower is servant to the lender.⁷ She who sows wickedness reaps trouble, and the rod of her fury will be destroyed.⁸ She who has a generous eye will be blessed; for she shares her food with the poor.⁹ Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out; yes, quarrels and insults will stop.¹⁰ She who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully is the queen's friend.¹¹ The eyes of Yahweh watch over knowledge; but she frustrates the words of the unfaithful.¹² The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside! I will be killed in the streets!"¹³ The mouth of an adulterer is a deep pit: she who is under Yahweh's wrath will fall into it.¹⁴ Folly is bound up in the heart of a child: the rod of discipline drives it far from her.¹⁵ Whoever oppresses the poor for her own increase and whoever gives to the rich, both come to poverty.¹⁶ Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise. Apply your heart to my teaching.¹⁷ For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips.¹⁸ That your trust may be in Yahweh, I teach you today, even you.¹⁹ Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things of counsel and knowledge,²⁰ To teach you truth, reliable words, to give sound answers to the ones who sent you?²¹ Don't exploit the poor, because she is poor; and don't crush the needy in court;²² for Yahweh will plead their case, and plunder the life of those who plunder them.²³ Don't befriend a hot-tempered woman, and don't associate with one who harbors anger:²⁴ lest you learn her ways, and ensnare your soul.²⁵ Don't you be one of those who strike hands, of those who are collateral for debts.²⁶ If you don't have means to pay, why should she take away your bed from under you?²⁷ Don't move the ancient boundary stone, which your mothers have set up.²⁸ Do you see a woman skilled in her work? She will serve queens. She won't serve obscure women.²⁹

When you sit to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before you;¹ put a knife to your throat, if you are a woman given to appetite.² Don't be desirous of her dainties, seeing they are deceitful food.³ Don't weary yourself to be rich. In your wisdom, show restraint.⁴ Why do you set your eyes on that which is not? For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle and flies in the sky.⁵ Don't eat the food of her who has a stingy eye, and don't crave her delicacies:⁶ for as she thinks about the cost, so she is. "Eat and drink!" she says to you, but her heart is not with you.⁷ The morsel which you have eaten you shall vomit up, and lose your good words.⁸ Don't speak in the ears of a fool, for she will despise the wisdom of your words.⁹ Don't move the ancient boundary stone. Don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless:¹⁰ for their Defender is strong. She will plead their case against you.¹¹ Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge.¹² Don't withhold correction from a child. If you punish her with the rod, she will not die.¹³ Punish her with the rod, and save her soul from Sheol.¹⁴ My daughter, if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad, even mine:¹⁵ yes, my heart will rejoice, when your lips speak what is right.¹⁶ Don't let your heart envy sinners; but rather fear Yahweh all the day long.¹⁷ Indeed surely there is a future hope, and your hope will not be cut off.¹⁸ Listen, my daughter, and be wise, and keep your heart on the right path!¹⁹ Don't be among ones drinking too much wine, or those who gorge themselves on meat:²⁰ for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor; and drowsiness clothes them in rags.²¹ Listen to your mother who gave you life, and don't despise your father when he is old.²² Buy the truth, and don't sell it. Get wisdom, discipline, and understanding.²³ The mother of the righteous has great joy. Whoever mothers a wise child delights in her.²⁴ Let your mother and your father be glad! Let him who bore you rejoice!²⁵ My daughter, give me your heart; and let your eyes keep in my ways.²⁶ For a philanderer is a deep pit; and a wayward husband is a narrow well.²⁷ Yes, he lies in wait like a robber, and increases the unfaithful among women.²⁸ Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaints? Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?²⁹ Those who stay long at the wine; those who go to seek out mixed wine.³⁰ Don't look at the wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup, when it goes down smoothly.³¹ In the end, it bites like a snake, and poisons like a viper.³² Your eyes will see strange things, and your mind will imagine confusing things.³³ Yes, you will be as she who lies down in the midst of the sea, or as she who lies on top of the rigging:³⁴ "They hit me, and I was not hurt! They beat me, and I don't feel it! When will I wake up? I can do it again. I can find another."³⁵

Don't be envious of evil women; neither desire to be with them:¹ for their hearts plot violence, and their lips talk about mischief.² Through wisdom a house is built; by understanding it is established;³ by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure.⁴ A wise woman has great power; and a knowledgeable woman increases strength;⁵ for by wise guidance you wage your war; and victory is in many advisors.⁶ Wisdom is too high for a fool: she doesn't open her mouth in the gate.⁷ One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer.⁸ The schemes of folly are sin. The mocker is detested by women.⁹ If you falter in the time of trouble, your strength is small.¹⁰ Rescue those who are being led away to death! Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter!¹¹ If you say, "Behold, we didn't know this;" doesn't she who weighs the hearts consider it? She who keeps your soul, doesn't she know it? Shall she not render to every woman according to her work?¹² My daughter, eat honey, for it is good; the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste:¹³ so you shall know wisdom to be to your soul; if you have found it, then there will be a reward, your hope will not be cut off.¹⁴ Don't lay in wait, wicked woman, against the habitation of the righteous. Don't destroy her resting place:¹⁵ for a righteous woman falls seven times, and rises up again; but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.¹⁶ Don't rejoice when your enemy falls. Don't let your heart be glad when she is overthrown;¹⁷ lest Yahweh see it, and it displease her, and she turn away her wrath from her.¹⁸ Don't fret yourself because of evildoers; neither be envious of the wicked:¹⁹ for there will be no reward to the evil woman; and the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed out.²⁰ My daughter, fear Yahweh and the queen. Don't join those who are rebellious:²¹ for their calamity will rise suddenly; the destruction from them both--who knows?²² These also are sayings of the wise. To show partiality in judgment is not good.²³ She who says to the wicked, "You are righteous;" peoples shall curse her, and nations shall abhor her--²⁴ but it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and a rich blessing will come on them.²⁵ An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.²⁶ Prepare your work outside, and get your fields ready. Afterwards, build your house.²⁷ Don't be a witness against your neighbor without cause. Don't deceive with your lips.²⁸ Don't say, "I will do to her as she has done to me; I will render to the woman according to her work."²⁹ I went by the field of the sluggard, by the vineyard of the woman void of understanding;³⁰ Behold, it was all grown over with thorns. Its surface was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down.³¹ Then I saw, and considered well. I saw, and received instruction:³² a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep;³³ so shall your poverty come as a robber, and your want as an armed woman.³⁴

These also are proverbs of Solomin, which the women of Hezekiah queen of Judah copied out.¹ It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, but the glory of queens is to search out a matter.² As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the hearts of queens are unsearchable.³ Take away the dross from the silver, and material comes out for the refiner;⁴ Take away the wicked from the queen's presence, and her throne will be established in righteousness.⁵ Don't exalt yourself in the presence of the queen, or claim a place among great women;⁶ for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here," than that you should be put lower in the presence of the princess, whom your eyes have seen.⁷ Don't be hasty in bringing charges to court. What will you do in the end when your neighbor shames you?⁸ Debate your case with your neighbor, and don't betray the confidence of another;⁹ lest one who hears it put you to shame, and your bad reputation never depart.¹⁰ A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.¹¹ As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reproof to an obedient ear.¹² As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send her; for she refreshes the soul of her masters.¹³ As clouds and wind without rain, so is she who boasts of gifts deceptively.¹⁴ By patience a ruler is persuaded. A soft tongue breaks the bone.¹⁵ Have you found honey? Eat as much as is sufficient for you, lest you eat too much, and vomit it.¹⁶ Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, lest she be weary of you, and hate you.¹⁷ A woman who gives false testimony against her neighbor is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.¹⁸ Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble is like a bad tooth, or a lame foot.¹⁹ As one who takes away a garment in cold weather, or vinegar on soda, so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.²⁰ If your enemy is hungry, give her food to eat. If she is thirsty, give her water to drink:²¹ for you will heap coals of fire on her head, and Yahweh will reward you.²² The north wind brings forth rain: so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face.²³ It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious man.²⁴ Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.²⁵ Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well, so is a righteous woman who gives way before the wicked.²⁶ It is not good to eat much honey; nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor.²⁷ Like a city that is broken down and without walls is a woman whose spirit is without restraint.²⁸

Chapter 26

Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.¹ Like a fluttering sparrow, like a darting swallow, so the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest.² A whip is for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools! ³ Don't answer a fool according to her folly, lest you also be like her. ⁴ Answer a fool according to her folly, lest she be wise in her own eyes. ⁵ One who sends a message by the hand of a fool is cutting off feet and drinking violence. ⁶ Like the legs of the lame that hang loose: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. ⁷ As one who binds a stone in a sling, so is she who gives honor to a fool. ⁸ Like a thornbush that goes into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. ⁹ As an archer who wounds all, so is she who hires a fool or she who hires those who pass by. ¹⁰ As a dog that returns to her vomit, so is a fool who repeats her folly. ¹¹ Do you see a woman wise in her own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for her. ¹² The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road! A fierce lion roams the streets!" ¹³ As the door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on her bed. ¹⁴ The sluggard buries her hand in the dish. She is too lazy to bring it back to her mouth. ¹⁵ The sluggard is wiser in her own eyes than seven women who answer with discretion. ¹⁶ Like one who grabs a dog's ears is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not her own. ¹⁷ Like a madman who shoots firebrands, arrows, and death, ¹⁸ is the woman who deceives her neighbor and says, "Am I not joking?" ¹⁹ For lack of wood a fire goes out. Without gossip, a quarrel dies down. ²⁰ As coals are to hot embers, and wood to fire, so is a contentious woman to kindling strife. ²¹ The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels, they go down into the innermost parts. ²² Like silver dross on an earthen vessel are the lips of a fervent one with an evil heart. ²³ A malicious woman disguises herself with her lips, but she harbors evil in her heart. ²⁴ When her speech is charming, don't believe her; for there are seven abominations in her heart. ²⁵ Hers malice may be concealed by deception, but her wickedness will be exposed in the assembly. ²⁶ Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it. Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on her. ²⁷ A lying tongue hates those it hurts; and a flattering mouth works ruin. ²⁸

Don't boast about tomorrow; for you don't know what a day may bring forth. ¹ Let another woman praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips. ² A stone is heavy, and sand is a burden; but a fool's provocation is heavier than both. ³ Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming; but who is able to stand before jealousy? ⁴ Better is open rebuke than hidden love. ⁵ Faithful are the wounds of a friend; although the kisses of an enemy are profuse. ⁶ A full soul loathes a honeycomb; but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet. ⁷ As a bird that wanders from his nest, so is a woman who wanders from her home. ⁸ Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart; so does earnest counsel from a woman's friend. ⁹ Don't forsake your friend and your mother's friend. Don't go to your sister's house in the day of your disaster: better is a neighbor who is near than a distant sister. ¹⁰ Be wise, my daughter, and bring joy to my heart, then I can answer my tormentor. ¹¹ A prudent woman sees danger and takes refuge; but the simple pass on, and suffer for it. ¹² Take her garment when she puts up collateral for a stranger. Hold it for a wayward man! ¹³ She who blesses her neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse by her. ¹⁴ A continual dropping on a rainy day and a contentious husband are alike: ¹⁵ restraining him is like restraining the wind, or like grasping oil in her right hand. ¹⁶ Iron sharpens iron; so a woman sharpens her friend's countenance. ¹⁷ Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit. She who looks after her master shall be honored.¹⁸ As water reflects a face, so a woman's heart reflects the woman.¹⁹ Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied; and a woman's eyes are never satisfied.²⁰ The crucible is for silver, and the furnace for gold; but woman is refined by her praise.²¹ Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, yet her foolishness will not be removed from her.²² Know well the state of your flocks, and pay attention to your herds:²³ for riches are not forever, nor does even the crown endure to all generations.²⁴ The hay is removed, and the new growth appears, the grasses of the hills are gathered in.²⁵ The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of a field.²⁶ There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food, for your family's food, and for the nourishment of your servant boys.²⁷

The wicked flee when no one pursues; but the righteous are as bold as a lion.¹ In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a woman of understanding and knowledge.² A needy woman who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.³ Those who forsake the law praise the wicked; but those who keep the law contend with them.⁴ Evil women don't understand justice; but those who seek Yahweh understand it fully.⁵ Better is the poor who walks in her integrity, than she who is perverse in her ways, and she is rich.⁶ Whoever keeps the law is a wise daughter; but she who is a companion of gluttons shames her mother.⁷ She who increases her wealth by excessive interest gathers it for one who has pity on the poor.⁸ She who turns away her ear from hearing the law, even her prayer is an abomination.⁹ Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, she will fall into her own trap; but the blameless will inherit good.¹⁰ The rich woman is wise in her own eyes; but the poor who has understanding sees through her.¹¹ When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, women hide themselves.¹² She who conceals her sins doesn't prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.¹³ Blessed is the woman who always fears; but one who hardens her heart falls into trouble.¹⁴ As a roaring lion or a charging bear, so is a wicked ruler over helpless people.¹⁵ A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment. One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days.¹⁶ A woman who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death; no one will support her.¹⁷ Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.¹⁸ One who works her land will have an abundance of food; but one who chases fantasies will have her fill of poverty.¹⁹ A faithful woman is rich with blessings; but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished.²⁰ To show partiality is not good; yet a woman will do wrong for a piece of bread.²¹ A stingy woman hurries after riches, and doesn't know that poverty waits for her.²² One who rebukes a woman will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.²³ Whoever robs her mother or her father, and says, "It's not wrong." She is a partner with a destroyer.²⁴ One who is greedy stirs up strife; but one who trusts in Yahweh will prosper.²⁵ One who trusts in herself is a fool; but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe.²⁶ One who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes her eyes will have many curses.²⁷ When the wicked rise, women hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous thrive.²⁸

She who is often rebuked and stiffens her neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy.¹ When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan.² Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to her mother; but a companion of philanderers squanders her wealth.³ The queen by justice makes the land stable, but she who takes bribes tears it down.⁴ A woman who flatters her neighbor spreads a net for her feet.⁵ An evil woman is snared by her sin, but the righteous can sing and be glad.⁶ The righteous care about justice for the poor. The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge.⁷ Mockers stir up a city, but wise women turn away anger.⁸ If a wise woman goes to court with a foolish woman, the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace.⁹ The bloodthirsty hate a woman of integrity; and they seek the life of the upright.¹⁰ A fool vents all of her anger, but a wise woman brings herself under control.¹¹ If a ruler listens to lies, all of her officials are wicked.¹² The poor woman and the oppressor have this in common: Yahweh gives sight to the eyes of both.¹³ The queen who fairly judges the poor, her throne shall be established forever.¹⁴ The rod of correction gives wisdom, but a child left to herself causes shame to her father.¹⁵ When the wicked increase, sin increases; but the righteous will see their downfall.¹⁶ Correct your daughter, and she will give you peace; yes, she will bring delight to your soul.¹⁷ Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but one who keeps the law is blessed.¹⁸ A servant can't be corrected by words. Though she understands, yet she will not respond.¹⁹ Do you see a woman who is hasty in her words? There is more hope for a fool than for her.²⁰ She who pampers her servant from youth will have her become a daughter in the end.²¹ An angry woman stirs up strife, and a wrathful woman abounds in sin.²² A woman's pride brings her low, but one of lowly spirit gains honor.²³ Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of her own soul. She takes an oath, but dares not testify.²⁴ The fear of woman proves to be a snare, but whoever puts her trust in Yahweh is kept safe.²⁵ Many seek the ruler's favor, but a woman's justice comes from Yahweh.²⁶ A dishonest woman detests the righteous, and the upright in their ways detest the wicked.²⁷

Chapter 30

The words of Agur the daughter of Jakeh, the oracle: the woman says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:¹ "Surely I am the most ignorant woman, and don't have a woman's understanding.² I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.³ Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended? Who has gathered the wind in her fists? Who has bound the waters in her garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is her name, and what is her daughter's name, if you know?⁴ "Every word of God is flawless. She is a shield to those who take refuge in her.⁵ Don't you add to her words, lest she reprove you, and you be found a liar.⁶ "Two things I have asked of you; don't deny me before I die:⁷ Remove far from me falsehood and lies. Give me neither poverty nor riches. Feed me with the food that is needful for me;⁸ lest I be full, deny you, and say, 'Who is Yahweh?' or lest I be poor, and steal, and so dishonor the name of my God.⁹ "Don't slander a servant to her master, lest she curse you, and you be held guilty.¹⁰ There is a generation that curses their mother, and doesn't bless their father.¹¹ There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, yet are not washed from their filthiness.¹² There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes! Their eyelids are lifted up.¹³ There is a generation whose teeth are like swords, and their jaws like knives, to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among women.¹⁴ "The leach has two sons: 'Give, give.' "There are three things that are never satisfied; four that don't say, 'Enough.'¹⁵ Sheol, the barren womb; the earth that is not satisfied with water; and the fire that doesn't say, 'Enough.'¹⁶ "The eye that mocks at her mother, and scorns obedience to her father: the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, the young eagles shall eat it.¹⁷ "There are three things which are too amazing for me, four which I don't understand:¹⁸ The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent on a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a woman with a manservant.¹⁹ "So is the way of an adulterous man: he eats and wipes his mouth, and says, 'I have done nothing wrong.'²⁰ "For three things the earth tremble, and under four, it can't bear up:²¹ For a servant when she is queen; a fool when she is filled with food;²² for an unloved man when he is married; and a houseboy who is heir to his mistress.²³ "There are four things which are little on the earth, but they are exceedingly wise:²⁴ the ants are not a strong people, yet they provide their food in the summer.²⁵ The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks.²⁶ The locusts have no queen, yet they advance in ranks.²⁷ You can catch a lizard with your hands, yet it is in queens' palaces.²⁸ "There are three things which are stately in their march, four which are stately in going:²⁹ The lion, which is mightiest among animals, and doesn't turn away for any;³⁰ the greyhound, the female goat also; and the queen against whom there is no rising up.³¹ "If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil, put your hand over your mouth.³² For as the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood; so the forcing of wrath brings forth strife."³³

The words of queen Lemuel; the oracle which her father taught her.¹ "Oh, my daughter! Oh, daughter of my womb! Oh, daughter of my vows!² Don't give your strength to men, nor your ways to that which destroys queens.³ It is not for queens, Lemuel; it is not for queens to drink wine; nor for princesses to say, 'Where is strong drink?'⁴ lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.⁵ Give strong drink to her who is ready to perish; and wine to the bitter in soul:⁶ Let her drink, and forget her poverty, and remember her misery no more.⁷ Open your mouth for the mute, in the cause of all who are left desolate.⁸ Open your mouth, judge righteously, and serve justice to the poor and needy."⁹ Who can find a worthy man? For his price is far above rubies.¹⁰ The heart of his wife trusts in him. She shall have no lack of gain.¹¹ He does her good, and not harm, all the days of his life.¹² He seeks wool and flax, and works eagerly with his hands.¹³ He is like the merchant ships. He brings his bread from afar.¹⁴ He rises also while it is yet night, gives food to his household, and portions for his servant boys.¹⁵ He considers a field, and buys it. With the fruit of his hands, he plants a vineyard.¹⁶ He girds his waist with strength, and makes his arms strong.¹⁷ He perceives that his merchandise is profitable. His lamp doesn't go out by night.¹⁸ He lays his hands to the distaff, and his hands hold the spindle.¹⁹ He opens his arms to the poor; yes, he extends his hands to the needy.²⁰ He is not afraid of the snow for his household; for all his household are clothed with scarlet.²¹ He makes for himself carpets of tapestry. His clothing is fine linen and purple.²² His wife is respected in the gates, when she sits among the elders of the land.²³ He makes linen garments and sells them, and delivers sashes to the merchant.²⁴ Strength and dignity are his clothing. He laughs at the time to come.²⁵ He opens his mouth with wisdom. Faithful instruction is on his tongue.²⁶ He looks well to the ways of his household, and doesn't eat the bread of idleness.²⁷ His children rise up and call him blessed. His wife also praises him:²⁸ "Many men do noble things, but you excel them all."²⁹ Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a man who fears Yahweh, he shall be praised.³⁰ Give him of the fruit of his hands! Let his works praise him in the gates!³¹

Ecclesiastes

The words of the Preacher, the daughter of Davina, queen in Jerusalem: ¹ "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher; "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity."² What does woman gain from all her labor in which she labors under the sun?³ One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever.⁴ The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises.⁵ The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses.⁶ All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again.⁷ All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.⁸ That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.⁹ Is there a thing of which it may be said, "Behold, this is new?" It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us.¹⁰ There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.¹¹ I, the Preacher, was queen over Israel in Jerusalem.¹² I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the daughters of women to be afflicted with.¹³ I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.¹⁴ That which is crooked can't be made straight; and that which is lacking can't be counted.¹⁵ I said to myself, "Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge."¹⁶ I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind.¹⁷ For in much wisdom is much grief; and she who increases knowledge increases sorrow.¹⁸

Chapter 2

I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;" and behold, this also was vanity.¹ I said of laughter, "It is foolishness;" and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?"² I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the daughters of women that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives.³ I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards.⁴ I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit.⁵ I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared.⁶ I bought female servants and male servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem;⁷ I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of queens and of the provinces. I got myself female and male singers, and the delights of the daughters of women-- musical instruments, and that of all sorts.⁸ So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me.⁹ Whatever my eyes desired, I didn't keep from them. I didn't withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor.¹⁰ Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.¹¹ I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly: for what can the queen's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago.¹² Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness.¹³ The wise woman's eyes are in her head, and the fool walks in darkness-- and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all.¹⁴ Then said I in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?" Then said I in my heart that this also is vanity.¹⁵ For of the wise woman, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise woman must die just like the fool!¹⁶ So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind.¹⁷ I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the woman who comes after me.¹⁸ Who knows whether she will be a wise woman or a fool? Yet she will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.¹⁹ Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun.²⁰ For there is a woman whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet she shall leave it for her portion to a woman who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.²¹ For what has a woman of all her labor, and of the striving of her heart, in which she labors under the sun?²² For all her days are sorrows, and her travail is grief; yes, even in the night her heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.²³ There is nothing better for a woman than that she should eat and drink, and make her soul enjoy good in her labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God.²⁴ For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I?²⁵ For to the woman who pleases her, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner she gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that she may give to her who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.²⁶

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:¹ a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;² a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;³ a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;⁴ a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;⁵ a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;⁶ a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; ⁷ a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace. ⁸ What profit has she who works in that in which she labors? ⁹ I have seen the burden which God has given to the daughters of women to be afflicted with. ¹⁰ She has made everything beautiful in its time. She has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that woman can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. ¹¹ I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. ¹² Also that every woman should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all her labor, is the gift of God. ¹³ I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that women should fear before her. ¹⁴ That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away. ¹⁵ Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. ¹⁶ I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." ¹⁷ I said in my heart, "As for the daughters of women, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. ¹⁸ For that which happens to the daughters of women happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and woman has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. ¹⁹ All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. ²⁰ Who knows the spirit of woman, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?" ²¹ Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a woman should rejoice in her works; for that is her portion: for who can bring her to see what will be after her? ²²

Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. ¹ Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. ² Yes, better than them both is her who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. ³ Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a woman's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind. ⁴ The fool folds her hands together and ruins herself. ⁵ Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and chasing after wind. ⁶ Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. ⁷ There is one who is alone, and she has neither daughter nor sister. There is no end to all of her labor, neither are her eyes satisfied with wealth. For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my soul of enjoyment? This also is vanity, yes, it is a miserable business. ⁸ Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. ⁹ For if they fall, the one will lift up her fellow; but woe to her who is alone when she falls, and doesn't have another to lift her up. ¹⁰ Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? ¹¹ If a woman prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand her; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. ¹² Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish queen who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. ¹³ For out of prison she came forth to be queen; yes, even in her kingdom she was born poor. ¹⁴ I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded her. ¹⁵ There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom she was--yet those who come after shall not rejoice in her. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.¹⁶

Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they don't know that they do evil.¹ Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few.² For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words.³ When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for she has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow.⁴ It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay.⁵ Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands?⁶ For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear God.⁷ If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, don't marvel at the matter: for one official is eyed by a higher one; and there are officials over them.⁸ Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The queen profits from the field.⁹ She who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor she who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity.¹⁰ When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with her eyes?¹¹ The sleep of a laboring woman is sweet, whether she eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow her to sleep.¹² There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to her harm.¹³ Those riches perish by misfortune, and if she has fathered a daughter, there is nothing in her hand.¹⁴ As she came forth from her father's womb, naked shall she go again as she came, and shall take nothing for her labor, which she may carry away in her hand.¹⁵ This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as she came, so shall she go. And what profit does she have who labors for the wind?¹⁶ All her days she also eats in darkness, she is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.¹⁷ Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all her labor, in which she labors under the sun, all the days of her life which God has given her; for this is her portion.¹⁸ Every woman also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given her power to eat of it, and to take her portion, and to rejoice in her labor--this is the gift of God.¹⁹ For she shall not often reflect on the days of her life; because God occupies her with the joy of her heart.²⁰

Chapter 6

There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on women:¹ a woman to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that she lacks nothing for her soul of all that she desires, yet God gives her no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

² If a woman mothers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of her years are many, but her soul is not filled with good, and moreover she has no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than she:³ for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness.⁴ Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other.⁵ Yes, though she live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, don't all go to one place?⁶ All the labor of woman is for her mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.⁷ For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor woman, that knows how to walk before the living?⁸ Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.⁹ Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what woman is; neither can she contend with her who is mightier than she.¹⁰ For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit woman?¹¹ For who knows what is good for woman in life, all the days of her vain life which she spends like a shadow? For who can tell a woman what will be after her under the sun?¹²

A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth.¹ It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all women, and the living should take this to heart.² Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good.³ The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.⁴ It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a woman to hear the song of fools.⁵ For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.⁶ Surely extortion makes the wise woman foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding.⁷ Better is the end of a thing than its beginning. The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.⁸ Don't be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools.⁹ Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.¹⁰ Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun.¹¹ For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of her who has it.¹² Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which she has made crooked?¹³ In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that woman should not find out anything after her.¹⁴ All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous woman who perishes in her righteousness, and there is a wicked woman who lives long in her evil-doing.¹⁵ Don't be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself?¹⁶ Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time?¹⁷ It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that don't withdraw your hand; for she who fears God will come forth from them all.¹⁸ Wisdom is a strength to the wise woman more than ten rulers who are in a city.¹⁹ Surely there is not a righteous woman on earth, who does good and doesn't sin.²⁰ Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you;²¹ for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others.²² All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me.²³ That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out?²⁴ I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.²⁵ I find more bitter than death the man whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from him; but the sinner will be ensnared by him.²⁶ Behold, this have I found, says the Preacher, one to another, to find out the scheme;²⁷ which my soul still seeks; but I have not found: one woman among a thousand have I found; but a man among all those have I not found.²⁸ Behold, this only have I found: that God made woman upright; but they search for many schemes.²⁹

Who is like the wise woman? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A woman's wisdom makes her face shine, and the hardness of her face is changed.¹ I say, "Keep the queen's command!" because of the oath to God.² Don't be hasty to go out of her presence. Don't persist in an evil thing, for she does whatever pleases her,³ for the queen's word is supreme. Who can say to her, "What are you doing?"⁴ Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and her wise heart will know the time and procedure.⁵ For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of woman is heavy on her.⁶ For she doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell her how it will be?⁷ There is no woman who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does she have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.⁸ All this have I seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one woman has power over another to her hurt.⁹ So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity.¹⁰ Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the daughters of women is fully set in them to do evil.¹¹ Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before her.¹² But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall she lengthen days like a shadow; because she doesn't fear God.¹³ There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous women to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked women to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.¹⁴ Then I commended mirth, because a woman has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany her in her labor all the days of her life which God has given her under the sun.¹⁵ When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with her eyes),¹⁶ then I saw all the work of God, that woman can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a woman labors to seek it out, yet she won't find it. Yes even though a wise woman thinks she can comprehend it, she won't be able to find it.¹⁷

For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, woman doesn't know it; all is before them.¹ All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to her who sacrifices, and to her who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; she who takes an oath, as she who fears an oath.² This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the daughters of women is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.³ For to her who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion.⁴ For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.⁵ Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.⁶ Go your way--eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works.⁷ Let your garments be always white, and don't let your head lack oil.⁸ Live joyfully with the husband whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which she has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun.⁹ Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you are going.¹⁰ I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to women of understanding, nor yet favor to women of skill; but time and chance happen to them all.¹¹ For woman also doesn't know her time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the daughters of women snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.¹² I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me.¹³ There was a little city, and few women within it; and a great queen came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.¹⁴ Now a poor wise woman was found in it, and she by her wisdom delivered the city; yet no woman remembered that same poor woman.¹⁵ Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength. Nevertheless the poor woman's wisdom is despised, and her words are not heard.¹⁶ The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of her who rules among fools.¹⁷ Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.¹⁸

Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to send forth an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor.¹ A wise woman's heart is at her right hand, but a fool's heart at her left.² Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, her understanding fails her, and she says to everyone that she is a fool.³ If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, don't leave your place; for gentleness lays great offenses to rest.⁴ There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, the sort of error which proceeds from the ruler.⁵ Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place.⁶ I have seen servants on horses, and princesses walking like servants on the earth.⁷ She who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.⁸ Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered thereby.⁹ If the axe is blunt, and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then she must use more strength; but skill brings success.¹⁰ If the snake bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue.¹¹ The words of a wise woman's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by her own lips.¹² The beginning of the words of her mouth is foolishness; and the end of her talk is mischievous madness.¹³ A fool also multiplies words. Woman doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after her, who can tell her?¹⁴ The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for she doesn't know how to go to the city.¹⁵ Woe to you, land, when your queen is a child, and your princesses eat in the morning!¹⁶ Happy are you, land, when your queen is the daughter of nobles, and your princesses eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!¹⁷ By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.¹⁸ A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad; and money is the answer for all things.¹⁹ Don't curse the queen, no, not in your thoughts; and don't curse the rich in your bedchamber: for a bird of the sky may carry your voice, and that which has wings may tell the matter.²⁰

Chapter 11

Cast your bread on the waters; for you shall find it after many days.¹ Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you don't know what evil will be on the earth.² If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be.³ She who observes the wind won't sow; and she who regards the clouds won't reap.⁴ As you don't know what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of him who is with child; even so you don't know the work of God who does all.⁵ In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening don't withhold your hand; for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be equally good.⁶ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun.⁷ Yes, if a woman lives many years, let her rejoice in them all; but let her remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity.⁸ Rejoice, young woman, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.⁹ Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.¹⁰

Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them;"¹ Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain;² in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong women shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened,³ and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the sons of music shall be brought low;⁴ yes, they shall be afraid of heights, and terrors will be in the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because woman goes to her everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets:⁵ before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the spring, or the wheel broken at the cistern,⁶ and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.⁷ Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher. All is vanity!⁸ Further, because the Preacher was wise, she still taught the people knowledge. Yes, she pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs.⁹ The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth.¹⁰ The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.¹¹ Furthermore, my daughter, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.¹² This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep her commandments; for this is the whole duty of woman.¹³ For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.¹⁴

Song of Solomon

Chapter 1

The Song of songs, which is Solomin's. Beloved¹ Let her kiss me with the kisses of her mouth; for your love is better than wine.² Your oils have a pleasing fragrance. Your name is oil poured forth, therefore the virgins love you.³ Take me away with you. Let us hurry. The queen has brought me into her chambers. Friends We will be glad and rejoice in you. We will praise your love more than wine! Beloved They are right to love you.⁴ I am dark, but lovely, you sons of Jerusalem, like Kedar's tents, like Solomin's curtains.⁵ Don't stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has scorched me. My father's daughters were angry with me. They made me keeper of the vineyards. I haven't kept my own vineyard.⁶ Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you graze your flock, where you rest them at noon; For why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions? Lover⁷ If you don't know, most beautiful among men, follow the tracks of the sheep. Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.⁸ I have compared you, my love, to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.⁹ Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.¹⁰ We will make you earrings of gold, with studs of silver. Beloved¹¹ While the queen sat at her table, my perfume spread its fragrance.¹² My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts.¹³ My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi. Lover¹⁴ Behold, you are beautiful, my love. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are doves. Beloved¹⁵ Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant; and our couch is verdant. Lover¹⁶ The beams of our house are cedars. Our rafters are firs. Beloved¹⁷

Chapter 2

I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys. Lover¹ As a lily among thorns, so is my love among the sons. Beloved² As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the daughters. I sat down under her shadow with great delight, her fruit was sweet to my taste.³ She brought me to the banquet hall. Hers banner over me is love.⁴ Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples; For I am faint with love.⁵ Her left hand is under my head. Her right hand embraces me.⁶ I adjure you, sons of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires.⁷ The voice of my beloved! Behold, she comes, leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills.⁸ My beloved is like a roe or a young hart. Behold, she stands behind our wall! She looks in at the windows. She glances through the lattice.⁹ My beloved spoke, and said to me, "Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.¹⁰ For, behold, the winter is past. The rain is over and gone.¹¹ The flowers appear on the earth. The time of the singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.¹² The fig tree ripens his green figs. The vines are in blossom. They give forth their fragrance. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away."¹³ Lover¹³ My dove in the clefts of the rock, In the hiding places of the mountainside, Let me see your face. Let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.¹⁴ Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vineyards; for our vineyards are in blossom. Beloved¹⁵ My beloved is mine, and I am hers. She browses among the lilies.¹⁶ Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be like a roe or a young hart on the mountains of Bether.¹⁷

By night on my bed, I sought her whom my soul loves. I sought her, but I didn't find her.¹ I will get up now, and go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek her whom my soul loves. I sought her, but I didn't find her.² The watchwomen who go about the city found me; "Have you seen her whom my soul loves?"³ I had scarcely passed from them, when I found her whom my soul loves. I held her, and would not let her go, until I had brought her into my father's house, into the chamber of him who conceived me.⁴ I adjure you, sons of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires.⁵ Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all spices of the merchant?⁶ Behold, it is Solomin's carriage! Sixty mighty women are around it, of the mighty women of Israel.⁷ They all handle the sword, and are expert in war. Every woman has her sword on her thigh, because of fear in the night.⁸ Queen Solomin made herself a carriage of the wood of Lebanon.⁹ She made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple, its midst being paved with love, from the sons of Jerusalem.¹⁰ Go forth, you sons of Zion, and see queen Solomin, with the crown with which her father has crowned her, in the day of her weddings, in the day of the gladness of her heart. Lover¹¹

Behold, you are beautiful, my love. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is as a flock of goats, that descend from Mount Gilead.¹ Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock, which have come up from the washing, where every one of them has twins. None is bereaved among them.² Your lips are like scarlet thread. Your mouth is lovely. Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.³ Your neck is like Davina's tower built for an armory, whereon a thousand shields hang, all the shields of the mighty women.⁴ Your two breasts are like two fawns that are twins of a roe, which feed among the lilies.⁵ Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, I will go to the mountain of myrrh, to the hill of frankincense.⁶ You are all beautiful, my love. There is no spot in you.⁷ Come with me from Lebanon, my bridegroom, with me from Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.⁸ You have ravished my heart, my brother, my bridegroom. You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck.⁹ How beautiful is your love, my brother, my bridegroom! How much better is your love than wine! The fragrance of your perfumes than all manner of spices!¹⁰ Your lips, my bridegroom, drip like the honeycomb. Honey and milk are under your tongue. The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.¹¹ A locked up garden is my brother, my bridegroom; a locked up spring, a sealed fountain.¹² Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits: henna with spikenard plants,¹³ spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree; myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices, ¹⁴ a fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon. Beloved ^{¹⁵} Awake, north wind; and come, you south! Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come into her garden, and taste her precious fruits. Lover ^{¹⁶}

Chapter 5

I have come into my garden, my brother, my bridegroom. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Friends Eat, friends! Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved. Beloved ^¹ I was asleep, but my heart was awake. It is the voice of my beloved who knocks: "Open to me, my brother, my love, my dove, my undefiled; for my head is filled with dew, and my hair with the dampness of the night." ^² I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on? I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil them? ^³ My beloved thrust her hand in through the latch opening. My heart pounded for her. ^⁴ I rose up to open for my beloved. My hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock. ^⁵ I opened to my beloved; but my beloved left; and had gone away. My heart went out when she spoke. I looked for her, but I didn't find her. I called her, but she didn't answer. ^⁶ The watchwomen who go about the city found me. They beat me. They bruised me. The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me. ^⁷ I adjure you, sons of Jerusalem, If you find my beloved, that you tell her that I am faint with love. Friends ^⁸ How is your beloved better than another beloved, you fairest among men? How is your beloved better than another beloved, that you do so adjure us? Beloved ^⁹ My beloved is white and ruddy. The best among ten thousand. ^{¹⁰} Her head is like the purest gold. Her hair is bushy, black as a raven. ^{¹¹} Her eyes are like doves beside the water brooks, washed with milk, mounted like jewels. ^{¹²} Her cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes. Her lips are like lilies, dropping liquid myrrh. ^{¹³} Her hands are like rings of gold set with beryl. Her body is like ivory work overlaid with sapphires. ^{¹⁴} Her legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine gold. Hers appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars. ^{¹⁵} Her mouth is sweetness; yes, she is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, sons of Jerusalem. Friends ^{¹⁶}

Chapter 6

Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among men? Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek her with you? Beloved ^¹ My beloved has gone down to her garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies. ^² I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. She browses among the lilies, ^³ You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners. ^⁴ Turn away your eyes from me, for they have overcome me. Your hair is like a flock of goats, that lie along the side of Gilead. ^⁵ Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, which have come up from the washing; of which every one has twins; none is bereaved among them. ^⁶
Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil. ^⁷ There are sixty kings, eighty concubines, and virgins without number. ^⁸ My dove, my perfect one, is unique. He is his father's only son. He is the favorite one of him who bore him. The sons saw him, and called him blessed; the kings and the concubines, and they praised him. ^⁹ Who is he who looks forth as the morning, beautiful as the moon, clear as the sun, and awesome as an army with banners? ^{¹⁰} I went down into the nut tree grove, to see the green plants of the valley, to see whether the vine budded, and the pomegranates were in flower.¹¹ Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots. Friends¹² Return, return, Shulammite! Return, return, that we may gaze at you. Lover Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammite, as at the dance of Mahanaim?¹³

How beautiful are your feet in sandals, princess's son! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skillful workman.¹ Your body is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is wanting. Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies.² Your two breasts are like two fawns, that are twins of a roe.³ Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.⁴ Your head on you is like Carmel. The hair of your head like purple. The queen is held captive in its tresses.⁵ How beautiful and how pleasant you are, love, for delights!⁶ This, your stature, is like a palm tree, your breasts like its fruit.⁷ I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree. I will take hold of its fruit." Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the smell of your breath like apples, Beloved⁸ Your mouth like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.⁹ I am my beloved's. Her desire is toward me.¹⁰ Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field. Let us lodge in the villages.¹¹ Let's go early up to the vineyards. Let's see whether the vine has budded, its blossom is open, and the pomegranates are in flower. There I will give you my love.¹² The mandrakes give forth fragrance. At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old, which I have stored up for you, my beloved.¹³

Oh that you were like my sister, who sucked the breasts of my father! If I found you outside, I would kiss you; yes, and no one would despise me.¹ I would lead you, bringing you into my father's house, who would instruct me. I would have you drink spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate.² Her left hand would be under my head. Her right hand would embrace me.³ I adjure you, sons of Jerusalem, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires. Friends⁴ Who is this who comes up from the wilderness, leaning on his beloved? Under the apple tree I aroused you. There your father conceived you. There he was in labor and bore you.⁵ Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm; for love is strong as death. Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a very flame of Yahweh.⁶ Many waters can't quench love, neither can floods drown it. If a woman would give all the wealth of her house for love, she would be utterly scorned. Friends⁷ We have a little brother. He has no breasts. What shall we do for our brother in the day when he is to be spoken for?⁸ If he is a wall, we will build on him a turret of silver. if he is a door, we will enclose his with boards of cedar. Beloved⁹ I am a wall, and my breasts like towers, then I was in her eyes like one who found peace.¹⁰ Solomin had a vineyard at Baal Hamon. She leased out the vineyard to keepers. Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.¹¹ My own vineyard is before me. The thousand are for you, Solomin; two hundred for those who tend its fruit. Lover¹² You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice! Beloved¹³ Come away, my beloved! Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices! ¹⁴

Isaiah

The vision of Isaia the daughter of Amoz, which she saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, queens of Judah. ¹ Hear, heavens, and listen, earth; for Yahweh has spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. ² The ox knows her owner, and the donkey her master's crib; but Israel doesn't know, my people don't consider. ³ Ah sinful nation, a people loaded with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children who deal corruptly! They have forsaken Yahweh. They have despised the Holy One of Israel. They are estranged and backward. ⁴ Why should you be beaten more, that you revolt more and more? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. ⁵ From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it: wounds, welts, and open sores. They haven't been closed, neither bandaged, neither soothed with oil. ⁶ Your country is desolate. Your cities are burned with fire. Strangers devour your land in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. ⁷ The son of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a field of melons, like a besieged city. ⁸ Unless Yahweh of Armies had left to us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom; we would have been like Gomorrah. ⁹ Hear the word of Yahweh, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah! ¹⁰ "What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?" says Yahweh. "I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed animals. I don't delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of female goats. ¹¹ When you come to appear before me, who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts? ¹² Bring no more vain offerings. Incense is an abomination to me; new moons, Sabbaths, and convocations: I can't bear with evil assemblies. ¹³ My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts. They are a burden to me. I am weary of bearing them. ¹⁴ When you spread forth your hands, I will hide my eyes from you. Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood. ¹⁵ Wash yourselves, make yourself clean. Put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes. Cease to do evil. ¹⁶ Learn to do well. Seek justice. Relieve the oppressed. Judge the fatherless. Plead for the widower." ¹⁷ "Come now, and let us reason together," says Yahweh: "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow. Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. ¹⁸ If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; ¹⁹ but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it." ²⁰ How the faithful city has become a philanderer! He was full of justice; righteousness lodged in him, but now murderers. ²¹ Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water. ²² Your princesses are rebellious, and companions of thieves. Everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards. They don't judge the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widower come to them. ²³ Therefore the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, the Mighty One of Israel, says: "Ah, I will get relief from my adversaries, and avenge myself of my enemies; ²⁴ and I will turn my hand on you, thoroughly purge away your dross, and will take away all your tin. ²⁵ I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called 'The city of righteousness, a faithful town.'²⁶ Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and his converts with righteousness.²⁷ But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake Yahweh shall be consumed.²⁸ For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen.²⁹ For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water.³⁰ The strong will be like tinder, and her work like a spark. They will both burn together, and no one will quench them."³¹

This is what Isaia the daughter of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.¹ It shall happen in the latter days, that the mountain of Yahweh's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; and all nations shall flow to it.² Many peoples shall go and say, "Come, let's go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacoba; and she will teach us of her ways, and we will walk in her paths." For out of Zion the law shall go forth, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.³ She will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.⁴ House of Jacoba, come, and let us walk in the light of Yahweh.⁵ For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacoba, because they are filled from the east, with those who practice divination like the Philistines, and they clasp hands with the children of foreigners.⁶ Their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures. Their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.⁷ Their land also is full of idols. They worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.⁸ Woman is brought low, and mankind is humbled; therefore don't forgive them.⁹ Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of her majesty.¹⁰ The lofty looks of woman will be brought low, the haughtiness of women will be bowed down, and Yahweh alone will be exalted in that day.¹¹ For there will be a day of Yahweh of Armies for all that is proud and haughty, and for all that is lifted up; and it shall be brought low:¹² For all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, for all the oaks of Bashan,¹³ For all the high mountains, for all the hills that are lifted up,¹⁴ For every lofty tower, for every fortified wall,¹⁵ For all the ships of Tarshish, and for all pleasant imagery.¹⁶ The loftiness of woman shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of women shall be brought low; and Yahweh alone shall be exalted in that day.¹⁷ The idols shall utterly pass away.¹⁸ Women shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the earth, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of her majesty, when she arises to shake the earth mightily.¹⁹ In that day, women shall cast away their idols of silver, and their idols of gold, which have been made for themselves to worship, to the moles and to the bats;²⁰ To go into the caverns of the rocks, and into the clefts of the ragged rocks, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of her majesty, when she arises to shake the earth mightily.²¹ Stop trusting in woman, whose breath is in her nostrils; for of what account is she?²²

For, behold, the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support, the whole supply of bread, and the whole supply of water;¹ the mighty woman, the woman of war, the judge, the prophetess, the diviner, the elder,² the captain of fifty, the honorable woman, the counselor, the skilled craftswoman, and the clever enchanter.³ I will give girls to be their princesses, and children shall rule over them.⁴ The people will be oppressed, everyone by another, and everyone by her neighbor. The child will behave herself proudly against the old woman, and the base against the honorable.⁵ Indeed a woman shall take hold of her sister in the house of her mother, saying, "You have clothing, you be our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand."⁶ In that day she will cry out, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing. You shall not make me ruler of the people.⁷ For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against Yahweh, to provoke the eyes of her glory.⁸ The look of their faces testify against them. They parade their sin like Sodom. They don't hide it. Woe to their soul! For they have brought disaster upon themselves.⁹ Tell the righteous "Good!" For they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.¹⁰ Woe to the wicked! Disaster is upon them; for the deeds of her hands will be paid back to her.¹¹ As for my people, children are their oppressors, and men rule over them. My people, those who lead you cause you to err, and destroy the way of your paths.¹² Yahweh stands up to contend, and stands to judge the peoples.¹³ Yahweh will enter into judgment with the elders of her people, and their leaders: "It is you who have eaten up the vineyard. The spoil of the poor is in your houses.¹⁴ What do you mean that you crush my people, and grind the face of the poor?" says the Domina, Yahweh of Armies.¹⁵ Moreover Yahweh said, "Because the sons of Zion are haughty, and walk with outstretched necks and flirting eyes, walking to trip as they go, jingling ornaments on their feet;¹⁶ therefore the Domina brings sores on the crown of the head of the men of Zion, and Yahweh will make their scalps bald."¹⁷ In that day the Domina will take away the beauty of their anklets, the headbands, the crescent necklaces,¹⁸ the earrings, the bracelets, the veils,¹⁹ the headdresses, the ankle chains, the sashes, the perfume bottles, the charms,²⁰ the signet rings, the nose rings,²¹ the fine robes, the capes, the cloaks, the purses,²² the hand mirrors, the fine linen garments, the tiaras, and the shawls.²³ It shall happen that instead of sweet spices, there shall be rottenness; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well set hair, baldness; instead of a robe, a girding of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.²⁴ Your women shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war.²⁵ His gates shall lament and mourn; and he shall be desolate and sit on the ground.²⁶

Chapter 4

Seven men shall take hold of one woman in that day, saying, "We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing: only let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach."¹ In that day, Yahweh's branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel.² It will happen, that she who is left in Zion, and she who remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem;³ when the Domina shall have washed away the filth of the sons of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from its midst, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning.⁴ Yahweh will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion, and over his assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy.⁵ There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.⁶

Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about her vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill.¹ She dug it up, gathered out its stones, planted it with the choicest vine, built a tower in its midst, and also cut out a winepress therein. She looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.² "Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and women of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard.³ What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes?⁴ Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up. I will break down its wall of it, and it will be trampled down.⁵ I will lay it a wasteland. It won't be pruned nor hoed, but it will grow briars and thorns. I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it."⁶ For the vineyard of Yahweh of Armies is the house of Israel, and the women of Judah her pleasant plant: and she looked for justice, but, behold, oppression; for righteousness, but, behold, a cry of distress.⁷ Woe to those who join house to house, who lay field to field, until there is no room, and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land!⁸ In my ears, Yahweh of Armies says: "Surely many houses will be desolate, even great and beautiful, unoccupied.⁹ For ten acres{literally, ten yokes, or the amount of land that ten yokes of oxen can plow in one day, which is about 10 acres or 4 hectares.) of vineyard shall yield one bath,{1 bath is about 22 litres, 5.8 U. S. gallons, or 4.8 imperial gallons} and a homer{1 homer is about 220 litres or 6 bushels} of seed shall yield an ephah."¹⁰ Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; who stay late into the night, until wine inflames them!¹¹ The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts; but they don't regard the work of Yahweh, neither have they considered the operation of her hands.¹² Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of knowledge. Their honorable women are famished, and their multitudes are parched with thirst.¹³ Therefore Sheol has enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure; and their glory, their multitude, their pomp, and she who rejoices among them, descend into it.¹⁴ So woman is brought low, mankind is humbled, and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled;¹⁵ but Yahweh of Armies is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness.¹⁶ Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich.¹⁷ Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and wickedness as with cart rope;¹⁸ Who say, "Let her make speed, let her hasten her work, that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it!"¹⁹ Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!²⁰ Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!²¹ Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine, and champions at mixing strong drink;²² who acquit the guilty for a bribe, but deny justice for the innocent!²³ Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust; because they have rejected the law of Yahweh of Armies, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.²⁴ Therefore Yahweh's anger burns against her people, and she has stretched out her hand against them, and has struck them. The mountains tremble, and their dead bodies are as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this, her anger is not turned away, but her hand is still stretched out.²⁵ She will lift up a banner to the nations from far, and she will whistle for them from the end of the earth. Behold, they will come speedily and swiftly.²⁶ None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the belt of their waist be untied, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:²⁷ whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent. Their horses' hoofs will be like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.²⁸ Their roaring will be like a lioness. They will roar like young lions. Yes, they shall roar, and seize their prey and carry it off, and there will be no one to deliver.²⁹ They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea. If one looks to the land behold, darkness and distress. The light is darkened in its clouds.³⁰

In the year that queen Uzziah died, I saw the Domina sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and her train filled the temple.¹ Above her stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings. With two she covered her face. With two she covered her feet. With two she flew.² One called to another, and said, "Holy, holy, holy, is Yahweh of Armies! The whole earth is full of her glory!"³ The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of her who called, and the house was filled with smoke.⁴ Then I said, "Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a woman of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the Queen, Yahweh of Armies!"⁵ Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in her hand, which she had taken with the tongs from off the altar.⁶ She touched my mouth with it, and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven."⁷ I heard the Domina's voice, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am. Send me!"⁸ She said, "Go, and tell this people, 'You hear indeed, but don't understand; and you see indeed, but don't perceive.'⁹ Make the heart of this people fat. Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed."¹⁰ Then I said, "Domina, how long?" She answered, "Until cities are waste without inhabitant, and houses without woman, and the land becomes utterly waste,¹¹ And Yahweh has removed women far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.¹² If there is a tenth left in it, that also will in turn be consumed: as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stock remains when they are felled; so the holy seed is its stock."¹³

Chapter 7

It happened in the days of Ahaz the daughter of Jotham, the daughter of Uzziah, queen of Judah, that Rezin the queen of Syria, and Pekah the daughter of Remaliah, queen of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.¹ It was told the house of Davina, saying, "Syria is allied with Ephraim." Her heart trembled, and the heart of her people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind.² Then Yahweh said to Isaia, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your daughter, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the fuller's field.³ Tell her, 'Be careful, and keep calm. Don't be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the daughter of Remaliah.⁴ Because Syria, Ephraim, and the daughter of Remaliah, have plotted evil against you, saying,⁵ "Let's go up against Judah, and tear it apart, and let's divide it among ourselves, and set up a queen in the midst of it, even the daughter of Tabeel."⁶ This is what the Domina Yahweh says: "It shall not stand, neither shall it happen."⁷ For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people;⁸ and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's daughter. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established."⁹ Yahweh spoke again to Ahaz, saying,¹⁰ "Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above."¹¹ But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, neither will I tempt Yahweh."¹² She said, "Listen now, house of Davina: Is it not enough for you to try the patience of women, that you will try the patience of my God also?¹³ Therefore the Domina herself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a daughter, and shall call her name Immanuel.¹⁴ She shall eat butter and honey when she knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good.¹⁵ For before the child knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two queens you abhor shall be forsaken.¹⁶ Yahweh will bring on you, on your people, and on your mother's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the queen of Assyria.¹⁷ It will happen in that day that Yahweh will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.¹⁸ They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures.¹⁹ In that day the Domina will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the queen of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.²⁰ It shall happen in that day that a woman shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep;²¹ and it shall happen, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give she shall eat butter: for everyone will eat butter and honey that is left in the midst of the land.²² It will happen in that day that every place where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silver shekels, shall be for briars and thorns.²³ People will go there with arrows and with bow, because all the land will be briars and thorns.²⁴ All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briars and thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of sheep."²⁵

Yahweh said to me, "Take a large tablet, and write on it with a woman's pen, 'For Maher Shalal Hash Baz;'¹ and I will take for myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priestess, and Zechariah the daughter of Jeberechiah."² I went to the prophet, and he conceived, and bore a daughter. Then said Yahweh to me, "Call her name 'Maher Shalal Hash Baz.'"³ For before the child knows how to say, 'My mother,' and, 'My father,' the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away by the queen of Assyria."⁴ Yahweh spoke to me yet again, saying,⁵ "Because this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's daughter;⁶ now therefore, behold, the Domina brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River: the queen of Assyria and all her glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks.⁷ It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through; it will reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel.⁸ Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered! Dress for battle, and be shattered!⁹ Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand: for God is with us." ¹⁰ For Yahweh spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying, ¹¹ "Don't say, 'A conspiracy!' concerning all about which this people say, 'A conspiracy!' neither fear their threats, nor be terrorized. ¹² Yahweh of Armies is who you must regard as holy. She is the one you must fear. She is the one you must dread. ¹³ She will be a sanctuary, but for both houses of Israel, she will be a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁴ Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured." ¹⁵ Wrap up the testimony. Seal the law among my disciples. ¹⁶ I will wait for Yahweh, who hides her face from the house of Jacoba, and I will look for her. ¹⁷ Behold, I and the children whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of Armies, who dwells in Mount Zion. ¹⁸ When they tell you, "Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter:" shouldn't a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? ¹⁹ Turn to the law and to the testimony! If they don't speak according to this word, surely there is no morning for them. ²⁰ They will pass through it, sore distressed and hungry; and it will happen that when they are hungry, they will worry, and curse by their queen and by their God. They will turn their faces upward, ²¹ and look to the earth, and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness. ²²

But there shall be no more gloom for him who was in anguish. In the former time, she brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time she has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. ¹ The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. Those who lived in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light has shined. ² You have multiplied the nation. You have increased their joy. They rejoice before you according to the joy in harvest, as women rejoice when they divide the spoil. ³ For the yoke of her burden, and the staff of her shoulder, the rod of her oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian. ⁴ For all the armor of the armed woman in the noisy battle, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire. ⁵ For to us a child is born. To us a daughter is given; and the government will be on her shoulders. Her name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Mother, Princess of Peace. ⁶ Of the increase of her government and of peace there shall be no end, on the throne of Davina, and on her kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time on, even forever. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this. ⁷ The Domina sent a word into Jacoba, and it falls on Israel. ⁸ All the people will know, including Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart, ⁹ "The bricks have fallen, but we will build with hewn stone. The sycamore fig trees have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place." ¹⁰ Therefore Yahweh will set up on high against her the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up her enemies, ¹¹ The Syrians in front, and the Philistines behind; and they will devour Israel with open mouth. For all this, her anger is not turned away, but her hand is stretched out still. ¹² Yet the people have not turned to her who struck them, neither have they sought Yahweh of Armies. ¹³ Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day. ¹⁴ The elder and the honorable woman is the head, and the prophetess who teaches lies is the tail.

¹⁶ Therefore the Domina will not rejoice over their young women, neither will she have compassion on their fatherless and widows; for everyone is profane and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this her anger is not turned away, but her hand is stretched out still.¹⁷ For wickedness burns like a fire. It devours the briars and thorns; yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.¹⁸ Through the wrath of Yahweh of Armies, the land is burnt up; and the people are the fuel for the fire. No one spares her sister.¹⁹ One will devour on the right hand, and be hungry; and she will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied. Everyone will eat the flesh of her own arm:²⁰ Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah. For all this her anger is not turned away, but her hand is stretched out still.²¹

Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers who write oppressive decrees;¹ to deprive the needy from justice, and to rob the poor among my people of their rights, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey!² What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth?³ They will only bow down under the prisoners, and will fall under the slain. For all this her anger is not turned away, but her hand is stretched out still.⁴ Alas Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation!⁵ I will send her against a profane nation, and against the people who anger me will I give her a charge to take the spoil and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.⁶ However she doesn't mean so, neither does her heart think so; but it is in her heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations.⁷ For she says, "Aren't all of my princesses queens?⁸ Isn't Calno like Carchemish? Isn't Hamath like Arpad? Isn't Samaria like Damascus?"⁹ As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria;¹⁰ shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and his idols, so do to Jerusalem and his idols?¹¹ Therefore it will happen that, when the Domina has performed her whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the willful proud heart of the queen of Assyria, and the insolence of her haughty looks.¹² For she has said, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding: and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant woman I have brought down their rulers."¹³ My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, have I gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped."¹⁴ Should an axe brag against her who chops with it? Should a saw exalt itself above her who saws with it? As if a rod should lift those who lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up someone who is not wood.¹⁵ Therefore the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, will send among her fat ones leanness; and under her glory a burning will be kindled like the burning of fire.¹⁶ The light of Israel will be for a fire, and her Holy One for a flame; and it will burn and devour her thorns and hers briars in one day.¹⁷ She will consume the glory of her forest, and of her fruitful field, both soul and body. It will be as when a standard bearer faints.¹⁸ The remnant of the trees of her forest shall be few, so that a child could write their number.¹⁹ It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacoba will no more again lean on her who struck them, but shall lean on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.²⁰ A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacoba, to the mighty God.²¹ For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness.²² For the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, will make a full end, and that determined, in the midst of all the earth.²³ Therefore the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, says "My people who dwell in Zion, don't be afraid of the Assyrian, though she strike you with the rod, and lift up her staff against you, as Egypt did.²⁴ For yet a very little while, and the indignation against you will be accomplished, and my anger will be directed to her destruction."²⁵ Yahweh of Armies will stir up a scourge against her, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. Her rod will be over the sea, and she will lift it up like she did against Egypt.²⁶ It will happen in that day, that her burden will depart from off your shoulder, and her yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil.²⁷ She has come to Aiath. She has passed through Migron. At Michmash she stores her baggage.²⁸ They have gone over the pass. They have taken up their lodging at Geba. Ramah trembles. Gibeah of Saula has fled.²⁹ Cry aloud with your voice, son of Gallim! Listen, Laishah! You poor Anathoth!³⁰ Madmenah is a fugitive. The inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety.³¹ This very day she will halt at Nob. She shakes her hand at the mountain of the son of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.³² Behold, the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, will lop the boughs with terror. The tall will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low.³³ She will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.³⁴

A shoot will come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of her roots will bear fruit.¹ The Spirit of Yahweh will rest on her: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh.² Her delight will be in the fear of Yahweh. She will not judge by the sight of her eyes, neither decide by the hearing of her ears;³ but with righteousness she will judge the poor, and decide with equity for the humble of the earth. She will strike the earth with the rod of her mouth; and with the breath of her lips she will kill the wicked.⁴ Righteousness will be the belt of her waist, and faithfulness the belt of her waist.⁵ The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat; The calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf together; and a little child will lead them.⁶ The cow and the bear will graze. Their young ones will lie down together. The lion will eat straw like the ox.⁷ The nursing child will play near a cobra's hole, and the weaned child will put her hand on the viper's den.⁸ They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea.⁹ It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse, who stands as a banner of the peoples; and her resting place will be glorious.¹⁰ It will happen in that day that the Domina will set her hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of her people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.¹¹ She will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.¹² The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who persecute Judah will be cut off. Ephraim won't envy Judah, and Judah won't persecute Ephraim.¹³ They will fly down on the shoulders of the Philistines on the west. Together they will plunder the children of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will obey them.¹⁴ Yahweh will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with her scorching wind she will wave her hand over the River, and will split it into seven streams, and cause women to march over in sandals.¹⁵ There will be a highway for the remnant that is left of her people from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that she came up out of the land of Egypt.¹⁶

In that day you will say, "I will give thanks to you, Yahweh; for though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you comfort me.¹ Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Yah, Yahweh, is my strength and song; and she has become my salvation."² Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation.³ In that day you will say, "Give thanks to Yahweh! Call on her name. Declare her doings among the peoples. Proclaim that her name is exalted!⁴ Sing to Yahweh, for she has done excellent things! Let this be known in all the earth!⁵ Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for the Holy One of Israel is great in the midst of you!"⁶

Chapter 13

The burden of Babylon, which Isaia the daughter of Amoz saw:¹ Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.² I have commanded my consecrated ones; yes, I have called my mighty women for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones.³ The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Yahweh of Armies is mustering the army for the battle.⁴ They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Yahweh, and the weapons of her indignation, to destroy the whole land.⁵ Wail; for the day of Yahweh is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.⁶ Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone's heart will melt.⁷ They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them. They will be in pain like a man in labor. They will look in amazement one at another. Their faces will be faces of flame.⁸ Behold, the day of Yahweh comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it.⁹ For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened in its going forth, and the moon will not cause its light to shine.¹⁰ I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the haughtiness of the terrible.¹¹ I will make people more rare than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir.¹² Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in the wrath of Yahweh of Armies, and in the day of her fierce anger.¹³ It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land.¹⁴ Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword.¹⁵ Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their husbands raped.¹⁶ Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it.¹⁷ Their bows will dash the young women in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children.¹⁸ Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.¹⁹ It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there.²⁰ But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there.²¹ Wolves will cry in their castles, and jackals in the pleasant palaces. His time is near to come, and his days will not be prolonged.²²

For Yahweh will have compassion on Jacoba, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join herself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacoba.¹ The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in Yahweh's land for servants and for houseboys. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.² It will happen in the day that Yahweh will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve,³ that you will take up this parable against the queen of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased! The golden city has ceased!"⁴ Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers,⁵ who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that none restrained.⁶ The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out song.⁷ Yes, the fir trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us."⁸ Sheol from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the dead for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the queens of the nations.⁹ They all will answer and ask you, "Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?"¹⁰ Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you.¹¹ How you have fallen from heaven, morning star, daughter of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low!¹² You said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north!¹³ I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High!"¹⁴ Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit.¹⁵ Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, "Is this the woman who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms;¹⁶ who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities; who didn't release her prisoners to their home?"¹⁷ All the queens of the nations, sleep in glory, everyone in her own house.¹⁸ But you are cast away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot.¹⁹ You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land. You have killed your people. The seed of evil-doers will not be named forever.²⁰ Prepare for slaughter of her children because of the iniquity of their mothers, that they not rise up and possess the earth, and fill the surface of the world with cities.²¹ "I will rise up against them," says Yahweh of Armies, "and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and daughter and daughter's daughter," says Yahweh.²² "I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water. I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says Yahweh of Armies.²³ Yahweh of Armies has sworn, saying, "Surely, as I have thought, so shall it happen; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:²⁴ that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and tread her under foot on my mountains. Then her yoke will leave them, and her burden leave their shoulders.²⁵ This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.²⁶ For Yahweh of Armies has planned, and who can stop it? Her hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?"²⁷ This burden was in the year that queen Ahaz died.²⁸ Don't rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent's root an adder will emerge, and her fruit will be a fiery flying serpent.²⁹ The firstborn of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant will be killed.³⁰ Howl, gate! Cry, city! You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in her ranks.³¹ What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That Yahweh has founded Zion, and in him the afflicted of her people will take refuge.³²

The burden of Moab: for in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing.¹ They have gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Baldness is on all of their heads. Every beard is cut off.² In their streets, they dress themselves in sackcloth. In their streets and on their housetops, everyone wails, weeping abundantly.³ Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed women of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them.⁴ My heart cries out for Moab! His nobles flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for in the way of Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction.⁵ For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing.⁶ Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows.⁷ For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab; its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer Elim.⁸ For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.⁹

Chapter 16

Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mountain of the son of Zion.¹ For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the sons of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon.² Give counsel! Execute justice! Make your shade like the night in the midst of the noonday! Hide the outcasts! Don't betray the fugitive!³ Let my outcasts dwell with you! As for Moab, be a hiding place for her from the face of the destroyer. For the extortioner is brought to nothing. Destruction ceases. The oppressors are consumed out of the land.⁴ A throne will be established in loving kindness. One will sit on it in truth, in the tent of Davina, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness.⁵ We have heard of the pride of Moab, that she is very proud; even of her arrogance, her pride, and her wrath. Her boastings are nothing.⁶ Therefore Moab will wail for Moab. Everyone will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken.⁷ For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The dominas of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea.⁸ Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen.⁹ Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shouting stop.¹⁰ Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres.¹¹ It will happen that when Moab presents herself, when she wearies herself on the high place, and comes to her sanctuary to pray, that she will not prevail.¹² This is the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab in time past.¹³ But now Yahweh has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all her great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble."¹⁴

The burden of Damascus: "Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap.¹ The cities of Aroer are forsaken. They will be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.² The fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. They will be as the glory of the children of Israel," says Yahweh of Armies.³ "It will happen in that day that the glory of Jacoba will be made thin, and the fatness of her flesh will become lean.⁴ It will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and her arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleans grain in the valley of Rephaim.⁵ Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree," says Yahweh, the God of Israel.⁶ In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.⁷ They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherim, or the incense altars.⁸ In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation.⁹ For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength.

Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings.¹⁰ In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.¹¹ Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters!¹² The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but she will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm.¹³ At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.¹⁴

Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia;¹ that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus on the waters, saying, "Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide!" ² All you inhabitants of the world, and you dwellers on the earth, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the trumpet is blown, listen! ³ For Yahweh said to me, "I will be still, and I will see in my dwelling place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest." ⁴ For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, she will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and she will cut down and take away the spreading branches. ⁵ They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. The ravenous birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them. ⁶ In that time, a present will be brought to Yahweh of Armies from a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yahweh of Armies, Mount Zion. ⁷

The burden of Egypt: "Behold, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at her presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst. ¹ I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against her sister, and everyone against her neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. ² The spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. ³ I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel domina. A fierce queen will rule over them," says the Domina, Yahweh of Armies. ⁴ The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. ⁵ The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and flags will wither away. ⁶ The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. ⁷ The fisherwomen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. ⁸ Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded. ⁹ The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul. ¹⁰ The princesses of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the daughter of the wise, the daughter of ancient queens?" ¹¹ Where then are your wise women? Let them tell you now; and let them know what Yahweh of Armies has purposed concerning Egypt. ¹² The princesses of Zoan have become fools. The princesses of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of his tribes. ¹³ Yahweh has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the midst of him; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken woman staggers in her vomit. ¹⁴ Neither shall there be for Egypt any work, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do. ¹⁵ In that day the Egyptians will be like men. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of Yahweh of Armies, which she shakes over them. ¹⁶ The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of Yahweh of Armies, which she determines against it. ¹⁷ In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Yahweh of Armies. One will be called "The city of destruction." ¹⁸ In that day, there will be an altar to Yahweh in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to Yahweh at its border. ¹⁹ It will be for a sign and for a witness to Yahweh of Armies in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, and she will send them a savior and a defender, and she will deliver them.²⁰ Yahweh will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know Yahweh in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will vow a vow to Yahweh, and will perform it.²¹ Yahweh will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to Yahweh, and she will be entreated by them, and will heal them.²² In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.²³ In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth;²⁴ because Yahweh of Armies has blessed them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."²⁵

In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the queen of Assyria sent her, and she fought against Ashdod and took it;¹ at that time Yahweh spoke by Isaia the daughter of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your shoes from off your feet." She did so, walking naked and barefoot.² Yahweh said, "As my servant Isaia has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia,³ so the queen of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.⁴ They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.⁵ The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, 'Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the queen of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?'"⁶

Chapter 21

The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land.¹ A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous woman deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all of Media's sighing.² Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. Pains have taken hold on me, like the pains of a man in labor. I am in so much pain that I can't hear. I so am dismayed that I can't see.³ My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me.⁴ They prepare the table. They set the watch. They eat. They drink. Rise up, you princesses, oil the shield!⁵ For the Domina said to me, "Go, set a watchwoman. Let her declare what she sees.⁶ When she sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, she shall listen diligently with great attentiveness."⁷ She cried like a lion: "Domina, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post.⁸ Behold, here comes a troop of women, horsemen in pairs." She answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the engraved images of his gods are broken to the ground.⁹ You are my threshing, and the grain of my floor!" That which I have heard from Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.¹⁰ The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, "Watchwoman, what of the night? Watchwoman, what of the night?"¹¹ The watchwoman said, "The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again."¹² The burden on Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you will lodge, you caravans of Dedanites.¹³ They brought water to her who was thirsty. The inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread.¹⁴ For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle.¹⁵ For the Domina said to me, "Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, all the glory of Kedar will fail,¹⁶ and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty women of the children of Kedar, will be few; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken it."¹⁷

The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops?¹ You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle.² All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away.³ Therefore I said, "Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Don't labor to comfort me for the destruction of the son of my people.⁴ For it is a day of confusion, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains."⁵ Elam carried her quiver, with chariots of women and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield.⁶ It happened that your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate.⁷ She took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest.⁸ You saw the breaches of the city of Davina, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.⁹ You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall.¹⁰ You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you didn't look to her who had done this, neither did you have respect for her who purposed it long ago.¹¹ In that day, the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, called to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to dressing in sackcloth:¹² and behold, joy and gladness, killing oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die."¹³ Yahweh of Armies revealed herself in my ears, "Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die," says the Domina, Yahweh of Armies.¹⁴ Thus says the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, "Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say,¹⁵ 'What are you doing here? Who has you here, that you have dug out a tomb here?' Cutting herself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for herself in the rock!"¹⁶ Behold, Yahweh will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, she will grasp you firmly.¹⁷ She will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you shame of your domina's house.¹⁸ I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station.¹⁹ It will happen in that day that I will call my servant Eliakim the daughter of Hilkiah,²⁰ and I will clothe her with your robe, and strengthen her with your belt. I will commit your government into her hand; and she will be a mother to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.²¹ I will lay the key of the house of Davina on her shoulder. She will open, and no one will shut. She will shut, and no one will open.²² I will fasten her like a nail in a sure place. She will be for a throne of glory to her mother's house.²³ They will hang on her all the glory of her mother's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers.²⁴ "In that day," says Yahweh of Armies, "the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down, and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for Yahweh has spoken it." ²⁵

The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. ¹ Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. ² On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was his revenue. He was the market of nations. ³ Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, "I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young women, nor brought up virgins." ⁴ When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre. ⁵ Pass over to Tarshish! Wail, you inhabitants of the coast! ⁶ Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried him far away to travel? ⁷ Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princesses, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? ⁸ Yahweh of Armies has planned it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. ⁹ Pass through your land like the Nile, son of Tarshish. There is no restraint any more. ¹⁰ She has stretched out her hand over the sea. She has shaken the kingdoms. Yahweh has ordered the destruction of Canaan's strongholds. ¹¹ She said, "You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin son of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest." ¹² Behold, the land of the Chaldeans. This people was not. The Assyrians founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up their towers. They overthrew its palaces. They made it a ruin. ¹³ Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste! ¹⁴ It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one queen. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the philanderer. ¹⁵ Take a harp; go about the city, you philanderer that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. ¹⁶ It will happen after the end of seventy years that Yahweh will visit Tyre, and he shall return to his wages, and will play the philanderer with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. ¹⁷ His merchandise and his wages will be holiness to Yahweh. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for his merchandise will be for those who dwell before Yahweh, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing. ¹⁸

Chapter 24

Behold, Yahweh makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. ¹ It will be as with the people, so with the priestess; as with the servant, so with her master; as with the maid, so with his mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. ² The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for Yahweh has spoken this word. ³ The earth mourns and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish. ⁴ The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. ⁵ Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few women left. ⁶ The new wine mourns. The vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh.⁷ The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases.⁸ They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it.⁹ The confused city is broken down. Every house is shut up, that no woman may come in.¹⁰ There is a crying in the streets because of the wine. All joy is darkened. The mirth of the land is gone.¹¹ The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction.¹² For it will be so in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done.¹³ These shall lift up their voice. They will shout for the majesty of Yahweh. They cry aloud from the sea.¹⁴ Therefore glorify Yahweh in the east, even the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea!¹⁵ From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs. Glory to the righteous! But I said, "I pine away! I pine away! woe is me!" The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously.¹⁶ Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabitant the earth.¹⁷ It will happen that she who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and she who comes up out of the midst of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.¹⁸ The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently.¹⁹ The earth will stagger like a drunken woman, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again.²⁰ It shall happen in that day that Yahweh will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the queens of the earth on the earth.²¹ They shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited.²² Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Yahweh of Armies will reign on Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before her elders will be glory.²³

Yahweh, you are my God. I will exalt you! I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth.¹ For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city. It will never be built.² Therefore a strong people will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear you.³ For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in her distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall.⁴ As the heat in a dry place will you bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low.⁵ In this mountain, Yahweh of Armies will make all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of well refined choice wines.⁶ She will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations.⁷ She has swallowed up death forever! The Domina Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces. She will take the reproach of her people away from off all the earth, for Yahweh has spoken it.⁸ It shall be said in that day, "Behold, this is our God! We have waited for her, and she will save us! This is Yahweh! We have waited for her. We will be glad and rejoice in her salvation!"⁹ For in this mountain the hand of Yahweh will rest. Moab will be trodden down in her place, even like straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill.¹⁰ She will spread out her hands in its midst, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim, but her pride will be humbled together with the craft of her hands.¹¹

She has brought the high fortress of your walls down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.¹²

In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah: "We have a strong city. God appoints salvation for walls and bulwarks.¹ Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter: the one which keeps faith.² You will keep whoever's mind is steadfast in perfect peace, because she trusts in you.³ Trust in Yahweh forever; for in Yah, Yahweh, is an everlasting Rock.⁴ For she has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city. She lays it low. She lays it low even to the ground. She brings it even to the dust.⁵ The foot shall tread it down; Even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy."⁶ The way of the just is uprightness. You who are upright make the path of the righteous level.⁷ Yes, in the way of your judgments, Yahweh, have we waited for you. Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul.⁸ With my soul have I desired you in the night. Yes, with my spirit within me will I seek you earnestly; for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.⁹ Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet she will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness she will deal wrongfully, and will not see Yahweh's majesty.¹⁰ Yahweh, your hand is lifted up, yet they don't see; but they will see your zeal for the people, and be disappointed. Yes, fire will consume your adversaries.¹¹ Yahweh, you will ordain peace for us, for you have also worked all our works for us.¹² Yahweh our God, other dominas besides you have had dominion over us, but by you only will we make mention of your name.¹³ The dead shall not live. The deceased shall not rise. Therefore have you visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish.¹⁴ You have increased the nation, O Yahweh. You have increased the nation! You are glorified! You have enlarged all the borders of the land.¹⁵ Yahweh, in trouble they have visited you. They poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them.¹⁶ Like as a man with child, who draws near the time of his delivery, is in pain and cries out in his pangs; so we have been before you, Yahweh.¹⁷ We have been with child. We have been in pain. We gave birth, it seems, only to wind. We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.¹⁸ Your dead shall live. My dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast forth the dead.¹⁹ Come, my people, enter into your chambers, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation is past.²⁰ For, behold, Yahweh comes forth out of her place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose his blood, and will no longer cover his slain.²¹

In that day, Yahweh with her hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan the twisted serpent; and she will kill the dragon that is in the sea.¹ In that day, sing to him, "A pleasant vineyard!² I, Yahweh, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it night and day.³ Wrath is not in me, but if I should find briars and thorns, I would do battle! I would march on them and I would burn them together.⁴ Or else let her take hold of my strength, that she may make peace with me. Let her make peace with me." ⁵ In days to come, Jacoba will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit. ⁶ Has she struck them as she struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed? ⁷ In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them. She has removed them with her rough blast in the day of the east wind. ⁸ Therefore, by this the iniquity of Jacoba will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away her sin: that she makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherim and the incense altars shall rise no more. ⁹ For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there, and there she will lie down, and consume its branches. ¹⁰ When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The men will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore she who made them will not have compassion on them, and she who formed them will show them no favor. ¹¹ It will happen in that day, that Yahweh will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel. ¹² It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship Yahweh in the holy mountain at Jerusalem. ¹³

Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of her glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine! ¹ Behold, the Domina has a mighty and strong one. Like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, she will cast them down to the earth with her hand. ² The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot. ³ The fading flower of her glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; which someone picks and eats as soon as she sees it. ⁴ In that day, Yahweh of Armies will become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the residue of her people; ⁵ and a spirit of justice to her who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. ⁶ They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priestess and the prophetess reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment. ⁷ For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. ⁸ Whom will she teach knowledge? To whom will she explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? ⁹ For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. ¹⁰ But she will speak to this nation with stammering lips and in another language; ¹¹ to whom she said, "This is the resting place. Give rest to weary;" and "This is the refreshing;" yet they would not hear. ¹² Therefore the word of Yahweh will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken. ¹³ Therefore hear the word of Yahweh, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem: ¹⁴ "Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol are we in agreement. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it won't come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood.'" ¹⁵ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh, "Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. She who believes shall not act hastily. ¹⁶ I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place.¹⁷ Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it.¹⁸ As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message."¹⁹ For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap oneself in.²⁰ For Yahweh will rise up as on Mount Perazim. She will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that she may do her work, her unusual work, and bring to pass her act, her extraordinary act.²¹ Now therefore don't be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, on the whole earth.²² Give ear, and hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech!²³ Does she who plows to sow plow continually? Does she keep turning the soil and breaking the clods?²⁴ When she has leveled its surface, doesn't she plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place?²⁵ For her God instructs her in right judgment, and teaches her.²⁶ For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod.²⁷ Bread flour must be ground; so she will not always be threshing it. Although she drives the wheel of her threshing cart over it, her horses don't grind it.²⁸ This also comes forth from Yahweh of Armies, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.²⁹

Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where Davina encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts come around;¹ then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. He shall be to me as an altar hearth.² I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay siege against you with posted troops. I will raise siege works against you.³ You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust.⁴ But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly.⁵ He will be visited by Yahweh of Armies with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire.⁶ The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against him and his stronghold, and who distress him, will be like a dream, a vision of the night.⁷ It will be like when a hungry woman dreams, and behold, she eats; but she awakes, and her hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty woman dreams, and behold, she drinks; but she awakes, and behold, she is faint, and she is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that.⁸ Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.⁹ For Yahweh has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets; and she has covered your heads, the seers.¹⁰ All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which women deliver to one who is educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and she says, "I can't, for it is sealed;"¹¹ and the book is delivered to one who is not educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and she says, "I can't read."¹² The Domina said, "Because this people draws near with their mouth and with their lips to honor me, but they have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of women which has been taught;¹³ therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise women will perish, and the understanding of their prudent women will be hidden."¹⁴ Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from Yahweh, and whose works are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us?" and "Who knows us?"¹⁵ You turn things upside down! Should the potter be thought to be like clay; that the thing made should say about her who made it, "She didn't make me;" or the thing formed say of her who formed it, "She has no understanding?"¹⁶ Isn't it yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest?¹⁷ In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness.¹⁸ The humble also will increase their joy in Yahweh, and the poor among women will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.¹⁹ For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off--²⁰ who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for the arbiter in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony.²¹ Therefore thus says Yahweh, who redeemed Abrahai, concerning the house of Jacoba: "Jacoba shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall her face grow pale."²² But when she sees her children, the work of my hands, in the midst of her, they will sanctify my name. Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacoba, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.²³ They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction."²⁴

"Woe to the rebellious children," says Yahweh, "who take counsel, but not from me; and who make an alliance, but not with my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin,¹ who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked my advice; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt!² Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.³ For their princesses are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes.⁴ They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach."⁵ The burden of the animals of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people.⁶ For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose; therefore have I called him Rahab who sits still.⁷ Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever.⁸ For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of Yahweh;⁹ who tell the seers, "Don't see!" and to the prophets, "Don't prophesy to us right things. Tell us pleasant things. Prophesy deceits.¹⁰ Get out of the way. Turn aside from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us."¹¹ Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, "Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on it;¹² therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant.¹³ She will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing, so that there won't be found among the broken piece a piece good enough to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern."¹⁴ For thus said the Domina Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, "You will be saved in returning and rest. Your strength will be in quietness and in confidence." You refused,¹⁵ but you said, "No, for we will flee on horses;" therefore you will flee; and, "We will ride on the swift;" therefore those who pursue you will be swift.¹⁶ One thousand will flee at the threat of one. At the threat of five, you will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill.¹⁷ Therefore Yahweh will wait, that she may be gracious to you; and therefore she will be exalted, that she may have mercy on you, for Yahweh is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for her.¹⁸ For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You will weep no more. She will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When she hears you, she will answer you.¹⁹ Though the Domina may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won't be hidden anymore, but your eyes will see your teachers;²⁰ and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way. Walk in it."²¹ You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, "Go away!"²² She will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground will be rich and plentiful. In that day, your livestock will feed in large pastures.²³ The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savory provender, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork.²⁴ There shall be brooks and streams of water on every lofty mountain and on every high hill in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.²⁵ Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, in the day that Yahweh binds up the fracture of her people, and heals the wound they were struck with.²⁶ Behold, the name of Yahweh comes from far away, burning with her anger, and in thick rising smoke. Her lips are full of indignation, and her tongue is as a devouring fire.²⁷ Her breath is as an overflowing stream that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction; and a bridle that leads to ruin will be in the jaws of the peoples.²⁸ You will have a song, as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to Yahweh's mountain, to Israel's Rock.²⁹ Yahweh will cause her glorious voice to be heard, and will show the descent of her arm, with the indignation of her anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, storm, and hailstones.³⁰ For through the voice of Yahweh the Assyrian will be dismayed. She will strike her with her rod.³¹ Every stroke of the rod of punishment, which Yahweh will lay on her, will be with the sound of tambourines and harps. She will fight with them in battles, brandishing weapons.³² For her burning place has long been ready. Yes, for the queen it is made ready. She has made its pyre deep and large with fire and much wood. Yahweh's breath, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.³³

Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they don't look to the Holy One of Israel, and they don't seek Yahweh!¹ Yet she also is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not call back her words, but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of those who work iniquity.² Now the Egyptians are women, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When Yahweh stretches out her hand, both she who helps shall stumble, and she who is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together.³ For thus says Yahweh to me,

"As the lion and the young lion growling over her prey, if a multitude of shepherds is called together against her, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase herself for the noise of them, so Yahweh of Armies will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its heights.⁴ As birds hovering, so Yahweh of Armies will protect Jerusalem. She will protect and deliver it. She will pass over and preserve it."⁵ Return to her from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel.⁶ For in that day everyone shall cast away her idols of silver and her idols of gold--sin which your own hands have made for you.⁷ "The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of woman; and the sword, not of mankind, shall devour her. She will flee from the sword, and her young women will become subject to forced labor.⁸ Her rock will pass away by reason of terror, and her princesses will be afraid of the banner," says Yahweh, whose fire is in Zion, and her furnace in Jerusalem.⁹

Behold, a queen shall reign in righteousness, and princesses shall rule in justice.¹ A woman shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the storm, as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a large rock in a weary land.² The eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will listen.³ The heart of the rash will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.⁴ The fool will no longer be called noble, nor the scoundrel be highly respected.⁵ For the fool will speak folly, and her heart will work iniquity, to practice profanity, and to utter error against Yahweh, To make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.⁶ The ways of the scoundrel are evil. She devises wicked devices to destroy the humble with lying words, even when the needy speaks right.⁷ But the noble devises noble things; and she will continue in noble things.⁸ Rise up, you men who are at ease! Hear my voice! You careless sons, give ear to my speech!⁹ For days beyond a year you will be troubled, you careless men; for the vintage shall fail. The harvest won't come.¹⁰ Tremble, you men who are at ease! Be troubled, you careless ones! Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked, and put sackcloth on your waist.¹¹ Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.¹² Thorns and briars will come up on my people's land; yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city.¹³ For the palace will be forsaken. The populous city will be deserted. The hill and the watchtower will be for dens forever, a delight for wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;¹⁴ Until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is considered a forest.¹⁵ Then justice will dwell in the wilderness; and righteousness will remain in the fruitful field.¹⁶ The work of righteousness will be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.¹⁷ My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in safe dwellings, and in quiet resting places.¹⁸ Though hail flattens the forest, and the city is leveled completely.¹⁹ Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the feet of the ox and the donkey.²⁰

Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed; and who betray, but nobody betrayed you! When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed; and when you have made an end of betrayal, you will be betrayed.¹ Yahweh, be gracious to us. We have waited for you. Be our strength every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.² At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled. When you lift yourself up, the nations are scattered.³ Your spoil will be gathered as the caterpillar gathers. Women will leap on it as locusts leap.⁴ Yahweh is exalted, for she dwells on high. She has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.⁵ There will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge. The fear of Yahweh is your treasure.⁶ Behold, their valiant ones cry outside; the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.⁷ The highways are desolate. The traveling woman ceases. The covenant is broken. She has despised the cities. She doesn't regard woman.⁸ The land mourns and languishes. Lebanon is confounded and withers away. Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel are stripped bare.⁹ "Now I will arise," says Yahweh; "Now I will lift myself up. Now I will be exalted."¹⁰ You will conceive chaff. You will bring forth stubble. Your breath is a fire that will devour you.¹¹ The peoples will be like the burning of lime, like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire.¹² Hear, you who are far off, what I have done; and, you who are near, acknowledge my might."¹³ The sinners in Zion are afraid. Trembling has seized the godless ones. Who among us can live with the devouring fire? Who among us can live with everlasting burning?¹⁴ She who walks righteously, and speaks blamelessly; She who despises the gain of oppressions, who gestures with her hands, refusing to take a bribe, who stops her ears from hearing of blood, and shuts her eyes from looking at evil--¹⁵ she will dwell on high. Her place of defense will be the fortress of rocks. Her bread will be supplied. Her waters will be sure.¹⁶ Your eyes will see the queen in her beauty. They will see a distant land.¹⁷ Your heart will meditate on the terror. Where is she who counted? Where is she who weighed? Where is she who counted the towers?¹⁸ You will no longer see the fierce people, a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend, with a strange language that you can't understand.¹⁹ Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals. Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, a tent that won't be removed. Its stakes will never be plucked up, nor will any of its cords be broken.²⁰ But there Yahweh will be with us in majesty, a place of broad rivers and streams, in which no galley with oars will go, neither will any gallant ship pass by there.²¹ For Yahweh is our judge. Yahweh is our lawgiver. Yahweh is our queen. She will save us.²² Your rigging is untied. They couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast. They couldn't spread the sail. Then the prey of a great spoil was divided. The lame took the prey.²³ The inhabitant won't say, "I am sick." The people who dwell therein will be forgiven their iniquity.²⁴

Come near, you nations, to hear! Listen, you peoples. Let the earth and all it contains hear; the world, and everything that comes from it.¹ For Yahweh is enraged against all the nations, and angry with all their armies. She has utterly destroyed them. She has given them over for slaughter.² Their slain will also be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies will come up; and the mountains will melt in their blood.³ All of the army of the sky will be dissolved. The sky will be rolled up like a scroll, and all its armies will fade away, as a leaf fades from off a vine or a fig tree.⁴ For my sword has drunk its fill in the sky. Behold, it will come down on Edom, and on the people of my curse, for judgment.⁵ Yahweh's sword is filled with blood. It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams; for Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah, And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.⁶ The wild oxen will come down with them, and the young bulls with the mighty bulls; and their land will be drunken with blood, and their dust made greasy with fat.⁷ For Yahweh has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.⁸ Its streams will be turned into pitch, its dust into sulfur, And its land will become burning pitch.⁹ It won't be quenched night nor day. Its smoke will go up forever. From generation to generation, it will lie waste. No one will pass through it forever and ever.¹⁰ But the pelican and the porcupine will possess it. The owl and the raven will dwell in it. She will stretch the line of confusion over it, and the plumb line of emptiness.¹¹ They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but none shall be there; and all its princesses shall be nothing.¹² Thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses; and it will be a habitation of jackals, a court for ostriches.¹³ The wild animals of the desert will meet with the wolves, and the wild goat will cry to her fellow. Yes, the night creature shall settle there, and shall find himself a place of rest.¹⁴ The arrow snake will make his nest there, and lay, hatch, and gather under his shade. Yes, the kites will be gathered there, every one with his mate.¹⁵ Search in the book of Yahweh, and read: not one of these will be missing. none will lack his mate. For my mouth has commanded, and her Spirit has gathered them.¹⁶ She has cast the lot for them, and her hand has divided it to them with a measuring line. They shall possess it forever. From generation to generation they will dwell in it.¹⁷

The wilderness and the dry land will be glad. The desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose.¹ It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing. Lebanon's glory Lebanon will be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon. They will see Yahweh's glory, the excellence of our God.² Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.³ Tell those who have a fearful heart, "Be strong. Don't be afraid. Behold, your God will come with vengeance, God's retribution. She will come and save you.⁴ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.⁵ Then the lame woman will leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute will sing; for waters will break out in the wilderness, and streams in the desert.⁶ The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water. Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals, where they lay.⁷ A highway will be there, a road, and it will be called The Holy Way. The unclean shall not pass over it, but it will be for those who walk in the Way. Wicked fools will not go there.⁸ No lion will be there, nor will any ravenous animal go up on it. They will not be found there; but the redeemed will walk there.⁹ The Yahweh's ransomed ones will return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy will be on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away."¹⁰

Chapter 36

Now it happened in the fourteenth year of queen Hezekiah, that Sennacherib queen of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them.¹ The queen of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to queen Hezekiah with a large army. She stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool in the fuller's field highway.² Then Eliakim the daughter of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the daughter of Asaph, the recorder came out to her.³ Rabshakeh said to them, "Now tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great queen, the queen of Assyria, "What confidence is this in which you trust? ⁴ I say that your counsel and strength for the war are only vain words. Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? ⁵ Behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a woman leans on it, it will go into her hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh queen of Egypt to all who trust in her. ⁶ But if you tell me, 'We trust in Yahweh our God,' isn't that she whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar?'" ⁷ Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the queen of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. ⁸ How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ⁹ Have I come up now without Yahweh against this land to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it." ¹⁰ Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and don't speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall." ¹¹ But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the women who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" ¹² Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, "Hear the words of the great queen, the queen of Assyria! ¹³ Thus says the queen, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for she will not be able to deliver you. ¹⁴ Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, "Yahweh will surely deliver us. This city won't be given into the hand of the queen of Assyria.'" ¹⁵ Don't listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the queen of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and each of you eat from her vine, and each one from her fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of her own cistern; ¹⁶ until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁷ Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "Yahweh will deliver us." Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the queen of Assyria? ¹⁸ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? ¹⁹ Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?" ²⁰ But they remained silent, and said nothing in reply, for the queen's commandment was, "Don't answer her." ²¹ Then Eliakim the daughter of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the daughter of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told her the words of Rabshakeh. ²²

It happened, when queen Hezekiah heard it, that she tore her clothes, covered herself with sackcloth, and went into Yahweh's house. ¹ She sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaia the prophetess, the daughter of Amoz. ² They said to her, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. ³ It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the queen of Assyria her master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'" ⁴ So the servants of queen Hezekiah came to Isaia. ⁵ Isaia said to them, "Tell your master, 'Thus says Yahweh, 'Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the queen of Assyria have blasphemed me.⁶ Behold, I will put a spirit in her and she will hear news, and will return to her own land. I will cause her to fall by the sword in her own land."⁷ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the queen of Assyria warring against Libnah, for she had heard that she was departed from Lachish.⁸ She heard news concerning Tirhakah queen of Ethiopia, "She has come out to fight against you." When she heard it, she sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,⁹ "Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah queen of Judah, saying, 'Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem won't be given into the hand of the queen of Assyria."¹⁰ Behold, you have heard what the queens of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered?¹¹ Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my mothers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar?¹² Where is the queen of Hamath, and the queen of Arpad, and the queen of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"¹³ Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to Yahweh's house, and spread it before Yahweh.¹⁴ Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh, saying,¹⁵ "Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, who is enthroned among the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.¹⁶ Turn your ear, Yahweh, and hear. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and behold. Hear all of the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God.¹⁷ Truly, Yahweh, the queens of Assyria have destroyed all the countries and their land,¹⁸ and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of women's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.¹⁹ Now therefore, Yahweh our God, save us from her hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are Yahweh, even you only."²⁰ Then Isaia the daughter of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib queen of Assyria,²¹ this is the word which Yahweh has spoken concerning her. The virgin son of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The son of Jerusalem has shaken his head at you.²² Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel.²³ By your servants, have you defied the Domina, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice fir trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field.²⁴ I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt."²⁵ Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps.²⁶ Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like a field before its crop has grown.²⁷ But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me.²⁸ Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.²⁹ This shall be the sign to you. You will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from the same; and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.³⁰ The remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.³¹ For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go forth, and survivors will escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this.'³² Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the queen of Assyria, 'She will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will she come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it.³³ By the way that she came, by the same she shall return, and she shall not come to this city,' says Yahweh.³⁴ 'For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant Davina's sake.'³⁵ The angel of Yahweh went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand women in the camp of the Assyrians. When women arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies.³⁶ So Sennacherib queen of Assyria departed, went away, returned to Nineveh, and stayed there.³⁷ It happened, as she was worshipping in the house of Nisroch her god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer her daughters struck her with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon her daughter reigned in her place.³⁸

In those days was Hezekiah sick and near death. Isaia the prophetess, the daughter of Amoz, came to her, and said to her, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live.'¹ Then Hezekiah turned her face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh,² and said, "Remember now, Yahweh, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." Hezekiah wept bitterly.³ Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaia, saying,⁴ "Go, and tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of Davina your mother, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life.⁵ I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the queen of Assyria, and I will defend this city.⁶ This shall be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do this thing that she has spoken.⁷ Behold, I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down."⁸ The writing of Hezekiah queen of Judah, when she had been sick, and had recovered of her sickness.⁹ I said, "In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol. I am deprived of the residue of my years."¹⁰ I said, "I won't see Yah, Yah in the land of the living. I will see woman no more with the inhabitants of the world.¹¹ My dwelling is removed, and is carried away from me like a shepherd's tent. I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life. She will cut me off from the loom. From day even to night you will make an end of me.¹² I waited patiently until morning. She breaks all my bones like a lion. From day even to night you will make an end of me.¹³ I chattered like a swallow or a crane. I moaned like a dove. My eyes weaken looking upward. Domina, I am oppressed. Be my security."¹⁴ What will I say? She has both spoken to me, and herself has done it. I will walk carefully all my years because of the anguish of my soul.¹⁵ Domina, women live by these things; and my spirit finds life in all of them: you restore me, and cause me to live.¹⁶ Behold, for peace I had great anguish, but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; for you have cast all my sins behind your back.¹⁷ For Sheol can't praise you. Death can't celebrate you. Those who go down into the pit can't hope for your truth.¹⁸ The living, the living, she shall praise you, as I do this day. The mother shall make known your truth to the children.¹⁹ Yahweh will save me. Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of Yahweh.²⁰ Now Isaia had said, "Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and she shall recover."²¹ Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I will go up to the house of Yahweh?"²²

Chapter 39

At that time, Merodach Baladan the daughter of Baladan, queen of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for she heard that she had been sick, and had recovered.¹ Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of her precious things, the silver, and the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of her armor, and all that was found in her treasures. There was nothing in her house, nor in all her dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them.² Then Isaia the prophetess came to queen Hezekiah, and asked her, "What did these women say? Where did they come from to you?" Hezekiah said, "They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon."³ Then she asked, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."⁴ Then said Isaia to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of Yahweh of Armies:⁵ 'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your mothers have stored up until this day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says Yahweh.⁶ 'They will take away your daughters who will issue from you, whom you shall mother, and they will be eunuchs in the queen of Babylon's palace.'"⁷ Then Hezekiah said to Isaia, "Yahweh's word which you have spoken is good." She said moreover, "For there will be peace and truth in my days."⁸

"Comfort, comfort my people," says your God.¹ "Speak comfortably to Jerusalem; and call out to him that his warfare is accomplished, that his iniquity is pardoned, that he has received of Yahweh's hand double for all his sins."² The voice of one who calls out, "Prepare the way of Yahweh in the wilderness! Make a level highway in the desert for our God.³ Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain.⁴ The glory of Yahweh shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it."⁵ The voice of one saying, "Cry!" One said, "What shall I cry?" "All flesh is like grass, and all its glory is like the flower of the field.⁶ The grass withers, the flower fades, because Yahweh's breath blows on it. Surely the people are like grass.⁷ The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God stands forever."⁸ You who tell good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain. You who tell good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength. Lift it up. Don't be afraid. Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold, your God!"⁹ Behold, the Domina Yahweh will come as a mighty one, and her arm will rule for her. Behold, her reward is with her, and her recompense before her.¹⁰ She will feed her flock like a shepherd. She will gather the lambs in her arm, and carry them in her bosom. She will gently lead those who have their young.¹¹ Who has measured the waters in the hollow of her hand, and marked off the sky with her span, and calculated the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?¹² Who has directed the Spirit of Yahweh, or has taught her as her counselor?¹³ Who did she take counsel with, and who instructed her, and taught her in the path of justice, and taught her knowledge, and showed her the way of understanding?¹⁴ Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded as a speck of dust on a balance. Behold, she lifts up the islands like a very little thing.¹⁵ Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering.¹⁶ All the nations are like nothing before her. They are regarded by her as less than nothing, and vanity.¹⁷ To whom then will you liken God? Or what likeness will you compare to her?¹⁸ A workman has cast an image, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts silver chains for it.¹⁹ She who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot. She seeks a skillful workman to set up an engraved image for her that will not be moved.²⁰ Haven't you known? Haven't you heard, yet? Haven't you been told from the beginning? Haven't you understood from the foundations of the earth?²¹ It is she who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in;²² who brings princesses to nothing; who makes the judges of the earth like meaningless.²³ They are planted scarcely. They are sown scarcely. Their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground. She merely blows on them, and they wither, and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble.²⁴ "To whom then will you liken me? Who is my equal?" says the Holy One.²⁵ Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these, who brings out their army by number. She calls them all by name. by the greatness of her might, and because she is strong in power, Not one is lacking.²⁶ Why do you say, Jacoba, and speak, Israel, "My way is hidden from Yahweh, and the justice due me is disregarded by my God?"²⁷ Haven't you known? Haven't you heard? The everlasting God, Yahweh, The Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't faint. She isn't weary. Her understanding is unsearchable.²⁸ She gives power to the weak. She increases the strength of her who has no might.²⁹ Even the youths faint and get weary, and the young women utterly fall;³⁰ But those who wait for Yahweh will renew their strength. They will mount up with wings like eagles. They will run, and not be weary. They will walk, and not faint.³¹

"Keep silent before me, islands, and let the peoples renew their strength. Let them come near, then let them speak. Let's meet together for judgment.¹ Who has raised up one from the east? Whom called her to her foot in righteousness? She hands over nations to her, and makes her rule over queens. She gives them like the dust to her sword, like the driven stubble to her bow.² She pursues them, and passes by safely, Even by a way that she had not gone with her feet.³ Who has worked and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I, Yahweh, the first, and with the last, I am she."⁴ The islands have seen, and fear. The ends of the earth tremble. They approach, and come.⁵ Everyone helps her neighbor. They say to their sisters, "Be strong!"⁶ So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith. She who smoothes with the hammer encourages her who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good;" and she fastens it with nails, that it might not totter.⁷ "But you, Israel, my servant, Jacoba whom I have chosen, the seed of Abrahai my friend,⁸ You whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from its corners, and said to you, 'You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you away;'⁹ Don't you be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness.¹⁰ Behold, all those who are incensed against you will be disappointed and confounded. Those who strive with you will be like nothing, and shall perish.¹¹ You will seek them, and won't find them, even those who contend with you. Those who war against you will be as nothing, as a non-existent thing.¹² For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Don't be afraid. I will help you.'¹³ Don't be afraid, you worm Jacoba, and you women of Israel. I will help you," says Yahweh, "and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.¹⁴ Behold, I have made you into a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth. You will thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and will make the hills like chaff.¹⁵ You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away, and the whirlwind will scatter them. You will rejoice in Yahweh. You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.¹⁶ The poor and needy seek water, and there is none. Their tongue fails for thirst. I, Yahweh, will answer them. I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.¹⁷ I will open rivers on the bare heights, and springs in the midst of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.¹⁸ I will put cedar, acacia, myrtle, and oil trees in the wilderness. I will set fir trees, pine, and box trees together in the desert;¹⁹ that they may see, know, consider, and understand together, that the hand of Yahweh has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it.²⁰ Produce your cause," says Yahweh. "Bring forth your strong reasons," says the Queen of Jacoba.²¹ "Let them announce, and declare to us what shall happen. Declare the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or show us things to come.²² Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods. Yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and see it together.²³ Behold, you are of nothing, and your work is of nothing. She who chooses you is an abomination.²⁴ "I have raised up one from the north, and she has come; from the rising of the sun, one who calls on my name; and she shall come on rulers as on mortar, and as the potter treads clay.²⁵ Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know? And before, that we may say, 'She is right?' Surely, there is no one who declares. Surely, there is no one who shows. Surely, there is no one who hears your words.²⁶ I am the first to say to Zion, 'Behold, look at them;' and I will give one who brings good news to Jerusalem.²⁷ When I look, there is no woman; even among them there is no counselor who, when I ask of them, can answer a word.²⁸ Behold, all of them, their works are vanity and nothing. Their molten images are wind and confusion.²⁹

"Behold, my servant, whom I uphold; my chosen, in whom my soul delights--I have put my Spirit on her. She will bring justice to the nations.¹ She will not shout, nor raise her voice, nor cause it to be heard in the street.² She won't break a bruised reed. She won't quench a dimly burning wick. She will faithfully bring justice.³ She will not fail nor be discouraged, until she has set justice in the earth, and the islands will wait for her law."⁴ Thus says God Yahweh, she who created the heavens and stretched them out, she who spread out the earth and that which comes out of it, she who gives breath to its people and spirit to those who walk in it.⁵ "I, Yahweh, have called you in righteousness, and will hold your hand, and will keep you, and make you a covenant for the people, as a light for the nations;⁶ to open the blind eyes, to bring the prisoners out of the dungeon, and those who sit in darkness out of the prison.⁷ "I am Yahweh. That is my name. I will not give my glory to another, nor my praise to engraved images.⁸ Behold, the former things have happened, and I declare new things. I tell you about them before they come up."⁹ Sing to Yahweh a new song, and her praise from the end of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the islands and their inhabitants.¹⁰ Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voices, with the villages that Kedar inhabits. Let the inhabitants of Sela sing. Let them shout from the top of the mountains! ¹¹ Let them give glory to Yahweh, and declare her praise in the islands. ¹² Yahweh will go out like a mighty woman. She will stir up zeal like a woman of war. She will raise a war cry. Yes, she will shout aloud. She will triumph over her enemies. ¹³ "I have been silent a long time. I have been quiet and restrained myself. Now I will cry out like a travailing man. I will both gasp and pant. ¹⁴ I will destroy mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs. I will make the rivers islands, and will dry up the pools. ¹⁵ I will bring the blind by a way that they don't know. I will lead them in paths that they don't know. I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. I will do these things, and I will not forsake them. ¹⁶ "Those who trust in engraved images, who tell molten images, 'You are our gods' will be turned back. They will be utterly disappointed. ¹⁷ "Hear, you deaf, and look, you blind, that you may see. ¹⁸ Who is blind, but my servant? Or who is as deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is as blind as she who is at peace, and as blind as Yahweh's servant? ¹⁹ You see many things, but don't observe. Her ears are open, but she doesn't listen. ²⁰ It pleased Yahweh, for her righteousness' sake, to magnify the law, and make it honorable. ²¹ But this is a robbed and plundered people. All of them are snared in holes, and they are hidden in prisons. They have become a prey, and no one delivers; and a spoil, and no one says, 'Restore them!' ²² Who is there among you who will give ear to this? Who will listen and hear for the time to come? ²³ Who gave Jacoba as plunder, and Israel to the robbers? Didn't Yahweh, she against whom we have sinned? For they would not walk in her ways, and they disobeyed her law. ²⁴ Therefore she poured the fierceness of her anger on her, and the strength of battle; and it set her on fire all around, but she didn't know; and it burned her, but she didn't take it to heart." ²⁵

But now thus says Yahweh who created you, Jacoba, and she who formed you, Israel: "Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by your name. You are mine. ¹ When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned, and flame will not scorch you. ² For I am Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I have given Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your place. ³ Since you have been precious and honored in my sight, and I have loved you; therefore I will give people in your place, and nations instead of your life. ⁴ Don't be afraid; for I am with you. I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west. ⁵ I will tell the north, 'Give them up!' and tell the south, 'Don't hold them back! Bring my daughters from far, and my sons from the ends of the earth-- ⁶ everyone who is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made.'" ⁷ Bring out the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears. ⁸ Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled. Who among them can declare this, and show us former things? Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, "That is true." ⁹ "You are my witnesses," says Yahweh, "With my servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe me, and understand that I am she. Before me there was no God formed, neither will there be after me. ¹⁰ I myself am Yahweh; and besides me there is no savior. ¹¹ I have declared, I have saved, and I have shown; and there was no strange god among you. Therefore you are my witnesses," says Yahweh, "and I am God. ¹² Yes, since the day was I am she;

and there is no one who can deliver out of my hand. I will work, and who can hinder it?" ¹³ Thus says Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "For your sake, I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. ¹⁴ I am Yahweh, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your Queen." ¹⁵ Thus says Yahweh, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; ¹⁶ who brings forth the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty woman (they lie down together, they shall not rise; they are extinct, they are quenched like a wick): ¹⁷ "Don't remember the former things, and don't consider the things of old. ¹⁸ Behold, I will do a new thing. It springs forth now. Don't you know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. ¹⁹ The animals of the field shall honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen, ²⁰ the people which I formed for myself, that they might set forth my praise. ²¹ Yet you have not called on me, Jacoba; but you have been weary of me, Israel. ²² You have not brought me of your sheep for burnt offerings; neither have you honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, nor wearied you with frankincense. ²³ You have bought me no sweet cane with money, nor have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices; but you have burdened me with your sins. You have wearied me with your iniquities. ²⁴ I, even I, am she who blots out your transgressions for my own sake; and I will not remember your sins. ²⁵ Put me in remembrance. Let us plead together. Set forth your case, that you may be justified. ²⁶ Your first mother sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against me. ²⁷ Therefore I will profane the princesses of the sanctuary; and I will make Jacoba a curse, and Israel a reviling." ²⁸

Yet listen now, Jacoba my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen. ¹ This is what Yahweh who made you, and formed you from the womb, who will help you says: "Don't be afraid, Jacoba my servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen. ² For I will pour water on her who is thirsty, and streams on the dry ground. I will pour my Spirit on your seed, and my blessing on your offspring: ³ and they will spring up among the grass, as willows by the watercourses. ⁴ One will say, 'I am Yahweh's;' and another will be called by the name of Jacoba; and another will write with her hand 'to Yahweh,' and honor the name of Israel." ⁵ This is what Yahweh, the Queen of Israel, and her Redeemer, Yahweh of Armies, says: "I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God. ⁶ Who is like me? Who will call, and will declare it, and set it in order for me, since I established the ancient people? Let them declare the things that are coming, and that will happen. ⁷ Don't fear, neither be afraid. Haven't I declared it to you long ago, and shown it? You are my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? Indeed, there is not. I don't know any other Rock." ⁸ Everyone who makes an engraved image is vain. The things that they delight in will not profit. Their own witnesses don't see, nor know, that they may be disappointed. ⁹ Who has fashioned a god, or molds an image that is profitable for nothing? ¹⁰ Behold, all her fellows will be disappointed; and the workmen are mere women. Let them all be gathered together. Let them stand up. They will fear. They will be put to shame together. ¹¹ The blacksmith takes an axe, works in the coals, fashions it with hammers, and works it with her strong arm. She is hungry, and her strength fails; she drinks no water, and is faint. ¹² The carpenter stretches out a line. She marks it out with a pencil. She shapes it with planes. She marks it out with compasses, and shapes it like the figure of a woman, with the beauty of a woman, to reside in a house.¹³ She cuts down cedars for herself, and takes the cypress and the oak, and strengthens for herself one among the trees of the forest. She plants a fir tree, and the rain nourishes it.¹⁴ Then it will be for a woman to burn; and she takes some of it, and warms herself. Yes, she burns it, and bakes bread. Yes, she makes a god, and worships it; she makes it an engraved image, and falls down to it.¹⁵ She burns part of it in the fire. With part of it, she eats meat. She roasts a roast, and is satisfied. Yes, she warms herself, and says, "Aha! I am warm. I have seen the fire."¹⁶ The rest of it she makes into a god, even her engraved image. She bows down to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, "Deliver me; for you are my god!"¹⁷ They don't know, neither do they consider: for she has shut their eyes, that they can't see; and their hearts, that they can't understand.¹⁸ No one thinks, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, "I have burned part of it in the fire. Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals. I have roasted meat and eaten it. Shall I make the rest of it into an abomination? Shall I bow down to a tree trunk?"¹⁹ She feeds on ashes. A deceived heart has turned her aside; and she can't deliver her soul, nor say, "Isn't there a lie in my right hand?"²⁰ Remember these things, Jacoba and Israel; for you are my servant. I have formed you. You are my servant. Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.²¹ I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions, and, as a cloud, your sins. Return to me, for I have redeemed you.²² Sing, you heavens, for Yahweh has done it! Shout, you lower parts of the earth! Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest, all of your trees, for Yahweh has redeemed Jacoba, and will glorify herself in Israel.²³ Thus says Yahweh, your Redeemer, and she who formed you from the womb: "I am Yahweh, who makes all things; who alone stretches out the heavens; who spreads out the earth by myself;²⁴ who frustrates the signs of the liars, and makes diviners mad; who turns wise women backward, and makes their knowledge foolish;²⁵ who confirms the word of her servant, and performs the counsel of her messengers; who says of Jerusalem, 'He will be inhabited;' and of the cities of Judah, 'They will be built,' and I will raise up its waste places;"²⁶ who says to the deep, 'Be dry,' and 'I will dry up your rivers.'²⁷ Who says of Cyrus, 'She is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure,' even saying of Jerusalem, 'He will be built;' and of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'²⁸

Thus says Yahweh to her anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before her, and strip queens of their armor; to open the doors before her, and the gates shall not be shut:¹ "I will go before you, and make the rough places smooth. I will break the doors of brass in pieces, and cut apart the bars of iron.² I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name, even the God of Israel.³ For Jacoba my servant's sake, and Israel my chosen, I have called you by your name. I have surnamed you, though you have not known me.⁴ I am Yahweh, and there is none else. Besides me, there is no God. I will strengthen you, though you have not known me;⁵ that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me. I am Yahweh, and there is no one else.⁶ I form the light, and create darkness. I make peace, and create calamity. I am Yahweh, who does all these things.⁷ Distil, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness. Let the earth open, that it may bring forth salvation, and let it cause righteousness to spring up with it. I, Yahweh, have created it.⁸ Woe to her who strives with her Maker--a clay pot among the clay pots of the earth! Shall the clay ask her who fashions it, 'What are you making?' or your work, 'She has no hands?' ⁹ Woe to her who says to a mother, 'What have you become the mother of?' or to a father, 'To what have you given birth?' ¹⁰ Thus says Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, and her Maker: "You ask me about the things that are to come, concerning my daughters, and you command me concerning the work of my hands!" ¹¹ I have made the earth, and created woman on it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens; and all their army have I commanded. ¹² I have raised her up in righteousness, and I will make straight all her ways: she shall build my city, and she shall let my exiles go free, not for price nor reward, says Yahweh of Armies. ¹³ Thus says Yahweh: "The labor of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, women of stature, shall come over to you, and they shall be yours. They shall go after you. In chains they shall come over; and they shall fall down to you. They shall make supplication to you: 'Surely God is in you; and there is none else, there is no other god.' ¹⁴ Most certainly you are a God who hid yourself, God of Israel, the Savior." ¹⁵ They shall be disappointed, yes, confounded, all of them; they shall go into confusion together who are makers of idols. ¹⁶ But Israel shall be saved by Yahweh with an everlasting salvation: you shall not be disappointed nor confounded world without end. ¹⁷ For thus says Yahweh who created the heavens, the God who formed the earth and made it, who established it and didn't create it a waste, who formed it to be inhabited: I am Yahweh; and there is no one else. ¹⁸ I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness; I didn't say to the seed of Jacoba, Seek you me in vain: I, Yahweh, speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. ¹⁹ Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations: they have no knowledge who carry the wood of their engraved image, and pray to a god that can't save. ²⁰ Declare you, and bring it forth; yes, let them take counsel together: who has shown this from ancient time? who has declared it of old? Haven't I, Yahweh? and there is no God else besides me, a just God and a Savior; there is no one besides me. ²¹ Look to me, and be you saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else. ²² By myself have I sworn, the word is gone forth from my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that to me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. ²³ Only in Yahweh, it is said of me, is righteousness and strength; even to her shall women come; and all those who were incensed against her shall be disappointed. ²⁴ In Yahweh shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory. ²⁵

Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are on the animals, and on the livestock: the things that you carried about are made a load, a burden to the weary animal. ¹ They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity. ² Listen to me, house of Jacoba, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, that have been borne by me from their birth, that have been carried from the womb; ³ and even to old age I am she, and even to gray hairs will I carry you. I have made, and I will bear; yes, I will carry, and will deliver. ⁴ To whom will you liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? ⁵ Some pour out gold from the bag, and weigh silver in the balance. They hire a goldsmith, and she makes it a god. They fall down--yes, they worship. ⁶ They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands, from its place it shall not move: yes, one may cry to it, yet it can not answer, nor save her out of her trouble. ⁷ Remember this, and show yourselves women; bring it again to mind, you transgressors.⁸ Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me;⁹ declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure;¹⁰ calling a ravenous bird from the east, the woman of my counsel from a far country; yes, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it.¹¹ Listen to me, you stout-hearted, who are far from righteousness:¹² I bring near my righteousness, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not wait; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.¹³

Come down, and sit in the dust, virgin son of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, son of the Chaldeans: for you shall no more be called tender and delicate.¹ Take the millstones, and grind meal; remove your veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers.² Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yes, your shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will spare no woman.³ Our Redeemer, Yahweh of Armies is her name, the Holy One of Israel.⁴ Sit you silent, and get you into darkness, son of the Chaldeans; for you shall no more be called The mistress of kingdoms.⁵ I was angry with my people, I profaned my inheritance, and gave them into your hand: you did show them no mercy; on the aged have you very heavily laid your yoke.⁶ You said, I shall be mistress forever; so that you did not lay these things to your heart, neither did remember the latter end of it.⁷ Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, I am, and there is none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widower, neither shall I know the loss of children:⁸ but these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood; in their full measure shall they come on you, in the multitude of your sorceries, and the great abundance of your enchantments.⁹ For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, None sees me; your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you, and you have said in your heart, I am, and there is none else besides me.¹⁰ Therefore shall evil come on you; you shall not know the dawning of it: and mischief shall fall on you; you shall not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come on you suddenly, which you don't know.¹¹ Stand now with your enchantments, and with the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth; if so be you shall be able to profit, if so be you may prevail.¹² You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels: let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save you from the things that shall come on you.¹³ Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: it shall not be a coal to warm at, nor a fire to sit before.¹⁴ Thus shall the things be to you in which you have labored: those who have trafficked with you from your youth shall wander everyone to her quarter; there shall be none to save you.¹⁵

Chapter 48

Hear you this, house of Jacoba, who are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah; who swear by the name of Yahweh, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness¹ (for they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves on the God of Israel; Yahweh of Armies is her name):² I have declared the former things from of old; yes, they went forth out of my mouth, and I shown them: suddenly I did them, and they happened. ³ Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow brass; ⁴ therefore I have declared it to you from of old; before it came to pass I shown it you; lest you should say, My idol has done them, and my engraved image, and my molten image, has commanded them. ⁵ You have heard it; see all this; and you, will you not declare it? I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, which you have not known. ⁶ They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day you didn't hear them; lest you should say, Behold, I knew them. ⁷ Yes, you didn't hear; yes, you didn't know; yes, from of old your ear was not opened: for I knew that you did deal very treacherously, and was called a transgressor from the womb. ⁸ For my name's sake will I defer my anger, and for my praise will I refrain for you, that I not cut you off. ⁹ Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. ¹⁰ For my own sake, for my own sake, will I do it; for how should my name be profaned? and my glory I will not give to another. ¹¹ Listen to me, O Jacoba, and Israel my called: I am she; I am the first, I also am the last. ¹² Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand has spread out the heavens: when I call to them, they stand up together. ¹³ Assemble yourselves, all you, and hear; who among them has declared these things? She whom Yahweh loves shall perform her pleasure on Babylon, and her arm shall be on the Chaldeans. ¹⁴ I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called her; I have brought her, and she shall make her way prosperous. ¹⁵ Come you near to me, hear you this; from the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Domina Yahweh has sent me, and her Spirit. ¹⁶ Thus says Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am Yahweh your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go. ¹⁷ Oh that you had listened to my commandments! then had your peace been as a river, and your righteousness as the waves of the sea: ¹⁸ your seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of your body like the grains of it: her name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me. ¹⁹ Go you forth from Babylon, flee you from the Chaldeans; with a voice of singing declare you, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth: say you, Yahweh has redeemed her servant Jacoba. ²⁰ They didn't thirst when she led them through the deserts; she caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; she split the rock also, and the waters gushed out. ²¹ There is no peace, says Yahweh, to the wicked. ²²

Listen, islands, to me; and listen, you peoples, from far: Yahweh has called me from the womb; from the bowels of my father has she made mention of my name: ¹ and she has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of her hand has she hid me: and she has made me a polished shaft; in her quiver has she kept me close: ² and she said to me, You are my servant; Israel, in whom I will be glorified. ³ But I said, I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely the justice due to me is with Yahweh, and my recompense with my God. ⁴ Now says Yahweh who formed me from the womb to be her servant, to bring Jacoba again to her, and that Israel be gathered to her (for I am honorable in the eyes of Yahweh, and my God is become my strength); ⁵ yes, she says, It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacoba, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give you for a light to the nations, that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth. ⁶ Thus says Yahweh, the Redeemer of Israel, and] her Holy One, to her whom woman despises, to her whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers: Queens shall see and arise; princesses, and they shall worship; because of

Yahweh who is faithful, [even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.] ⁷ Thus says Yahweh, In an acceptable time have I answered you, and in a day of salvation have I helped you; and I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritage: ⁸ saying to those who are bound, Go forth; to those who are in darkness, Show yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and on all bare heights shall be their pasture. ⁹ They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun strike them: for she who has mercy on them will lead them, even by springs of water she will guide them. ¹⁰ I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. ¹¹ Behold, these shall come from far; and behold, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. ¹² Sing, heavens; and be joyful, earth; and break forth into singing, mountains: for Yahweh has comforted her people, and will have compassion on her afflicted. ¹³ But Zion said, Yahweh has forsaken me, and the Domina has forgotten me. ¹⁴ Can a man forget his sucking child, that he should not have compassion on the daughter of his womb? yes, these may forget, yet I will not forget you. ¹⁵ Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me. ¹⁶ Your children make haste; your destroyers and those who made you waste shall go forth from you. ¹⁷ Lift up your eyes round about, and see: all these gather themselves together, and come to you. As I live, says Yahweh, you shall surely clothe you with them all as with an ornament, and gird yourself with them, like a bridegroom. ¹⁸ For, as for your waste and your desolate places, and your land that has been destroyed, surely now shall you be too small for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up shall be far away. ¹⁹ The children of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, The place is too small for me; give place to me that I may dwell. ²⁰ Then shall you say in your heart, Who has conceived these for me, seeing I have been bereaved of my children, and am solitary, an exile, and wandering back and forth? and who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they? ²¹ Thus says the Domina Yahweh, Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and set up my banner to the peoples; and they shall bring your daughters in their bosom, and your sons shall be carried on their shoulders. ²² Queens shall be your nursing mothers, and their kings your nursing fathers: they shall bow down to you with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of your feet; and you shall know that I am Yahweh; and those who wait for me shall not be disappointed. ²³ Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captives be delivered? ²⁴ But thus says Yahweh, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered; for I will contend with her who contends with you, and I will save your children. ²⁵ I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacoba. ²⁶

Thus says Yahweh, Where is the bill of your father's divorce, with which I have put him away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities were you sold, and for your transgressions was your father put away. ¹ Why, when I came, was there no woman? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it can't redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. ² I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. ³ The Domina Yahweh has given me the tongue of those who are taught, that I may know how to sustain with words her who is weary: she wakens morning by morning, she wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught.⁴ The Domina Yahweh has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away backward.⁵ I gave my back to the strikers, and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair; I didn't hide my face from shame and spitting.⁶ For the Domina Yahweh will help me; therefore I have not been confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be disappointed.⁷ She is near who justifies me; who will bring charges against me? Let us stand up together: who is my adversary? Let her come near to me.⁸ Behold, the Domina Yahweh will help me; who is she who shall condemn me? Behold, all they shall wax old as a garment, the moth shall eat them up.⁹ Who is among you who fears Yahweh, who obeys the voice of her servant? She who walks in darkness, and has no light, let her trust in the name of Yahweh, and rely on her God.¹⁰ Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who gird yourselves about with firebrands; walk you in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that you have kindled. This shall you have of my hand; you shall lie down in sorrow.¹¹

Listen to me, you who follow after righteousness, you who seek Yahweh: look to the rock whence you were hewn, and to the hold of the pit whence you were dug.¹ Look to Abrahai your mother, and to Sarah who bore you; for when she was but one I called her, and I blessed her, and made her many.² For Yahweh has comforted Zion; she has comforted all him waste places, and has made his wilderness like Eden, and his desert like the garden of Yahweh; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.³ Attend to me, my people; and give ear to me, my nation: for a law shall go forth from me, and I will establish my justice for a light of the peoples.⁴ My righteousness is near, my salvation is gone forth, and my arms shall judge the peoples; the islands shall wait for me, and on my arm shall they trust.⁵ Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look on the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment; and those who dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be forever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.⁶ Listen to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; don't you fear the reproach of women, neither be you dismayed at their insults.⁷ For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but my righteousness shall be forever, and my salvation to all generations.⁸ Awake, awake, put on strength, arm of Yahweh; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Isn't it you who did cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the monster?⁹ Isn't it you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over?¹⁰ The ransomed of Yahweh shall return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be on their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.¹¹ I, even I, am she who comforts you: who are you, that you are afraid of woman who shall die, and of the daughter of woman who shall be made as grass;¹² and have forgotten Yahweh your Maker, who stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fear continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when she makes ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?¹³ The captive exile shall speedily be freed; and she shall not die and go down into the pit, neither shall her bread fail.¹⁴ For I am Yahweh your God, who stirs up the sea, so that the waves of it roar: Yahweh of Armies is her name.¹⁵ I have put my words in your mouth, and have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and tell Zion, You are my people.¹⁶ Awake, awake, stand up, Jerusalem, that have drunk at the hand of Yahweh the cup of her wrath; you have drunken the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it.¹⁷ There is none to guide him among all the daughters whom he has brought forth; neither is there any who takes him by the hand among all the daughters who he has brought up.¹⁸ These two things have happened to you. Who will bemoan you? Desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword; how shall I comfort you?¹⁹ Your daughters have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of Yahweh, the rebuke of your God.²⁰ Therefore hear now this, you afflicted, and drunken, but now with wine:²¹ Thus says your Domina Yahweh, and your God who pleads the cause of her people, Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my wrath; you shall no more drink it again:²² and I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you, who have said to your soul, Bow down, that we may go over; and you have laid your back as the ground, and as the street, to those who go over.²³

Awake, awake, put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean.¹ Shake yourself from the dust; arise, sit on your throne, Jerusalem: loose yourself from the bonds of your neck, captive son of Zion.² For thus says Yahweh, You were sold for nothing; and you shall be redeemed without money.³ For thus says the Domina Yahweh, My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there: and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause.⁴ Now therefore, what do I here, says Yahweh, seeing that my people is taken away for nothing? those who rule over them do howl, says Yahweh, and my name continually all the day is blasphemed.⁵ Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am she who does speak; behold, it is I.⁶ How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of her who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of good, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, Your God reigns!⁷ The voice of your watchwomen! they lift up the voice, together do they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when Yahweh returns to Zion.⁸ Break forth into joy, sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for Yahweh has comforted her people, she has redeemed Jerusalem.⁹ Yahweh has made bare her holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.¹⁰ Depart you, depart you, go you out from there, touch no unclean thing; go you out of the midst of him; cleanse yourselves, you who bear the vessels of Yahweh.¹¹ For you shall not go out in haste, neither shall you go by flight: for Yahweh will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rearward.¹² Behold, my servant shall deal wisely, she shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.¹³ Like as many were astonished at you (his visage was so marred more than any woman, and her form more than the daughters of men),¹⁴ so shall she sprinkle many nations; queens shall shut their mouths at her: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.¹⁵

Who has believed our message? To whom has the arm of Yahweh been revealed?¹ For she grew up before her as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. She has no form nor comeliness. When we see her, there is no beauty that we should desire her.² She was despised, and rejected by women; a woman of suffering, and acquainted with disease. She was despised as one from whom women hide their face; and we didn't respect her.³ Surely she has borne our sickness, and carried our suffering; yet we considered her plagued, struck by God, and afflicted.⁴ But she was pierced for our transgressions. She was crushed for our iniquities. The punishment that brought our peace was on her; and by her wounds we are healed.⁵ All we like sheep have gone astray. Everyone has turned to her own way; and Yahweh has laid on her the iniquity of us all.⁶ She was oppressed, yet when she was afflicted she didn't open her mouth. As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so she didn't open her mouth.⁷ She was taken away by oppression and judgment; and as for her generation, who considered that she was cut off out of the land of the living and stricken for the disobedience of my people?⁸ They made her grave with the wicked, and with a rich woman in her death; although she had done no violence, neither was any deceit in her mouth.⁹ Yet it pleased Yahweh to bruise her. She has caused her to suffer. When you make her soul an offering for sin, she shall see her seed. She shall prolong her days, and the pleasure of Yahweh shall prosper in her hand.¹⁰ After the suffering of her soul, she will see the light and be satisfied. My righteous servant will justify many by the knowledge of herself; and she will bear their iniquities.¹¹ Therefore will I divide her a portion with the great, and she shall divide the spoil with the strong; because she poured out her soul to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet she bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.¹²

Chapter 54

Sing, barren, you who didn't bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you who did not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married husband, says Yahweh.¹ Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of your habitations; don't spare: lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes.² For you shall spread aboard on the right hand and on the left; and your seed shall possess the nations, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.³ Don't be afraid; for you shall not be ashamed: neither be confounded; for you shall not be disappointed: for you shall forget the shame of your youth; and the reproach of your widowhood shall you remember no more.⁴ For your Maker is your wife; Yahweh of Armies is her name: and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; the God of the whole earth shall she be called.⁵ For Yahweh has called you as a husband forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a husband of youth, when he is cast off, says your God.⁶ For a small moment have I forsaken you; but with great mercies will I gather you.⁷ In overflowing wrath I hid my face from you for a moment; but with everlasting loving kindness will I have mercy on you, says Yahweh your Redeemer.⁸ For this is as the waters of Noa to me; for as I have sworn that the waters of Noa shall no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you, nor rebuke you.⁹ For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed; but my loving kindness shall not depart from you, neither shall my covenant of peace be removed, says Yahweh who has mercy on you.¹⁰ You afflicted, tossed with storms, and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in beautiful colors, and lay your foundations with sapphires.¹¹ I will make your pinnacles of rubies, and your gates of sparkling jewels, and all your walls of precious stones.¹² All your children shall be taught of Yahweh; and great shall be the peace of your children.¹³ In righteousness shall you be established: you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not be afraid; and from terror, for it shall not come near you.¹⁴ Behold, they may gather together, but not by me: whoever shall gather together against you shall fall because of you.¹⁵ Behold, I have created the smith who blows the fire of coals, and brings forth a weapon for her work; and I have created the waster to destroy.¹⁶ No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment you shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of Yahweh, and their righteousness which is of me, says Yahweh.¹⁷

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come you to the waters, and she who has no money; come you, buy, and eat; yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.¹ Why do you spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which doesn't satisfy? listen diligently to me, and eat you that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.² Turn your ear, and come to me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of Davina.³ Behold, I have given her for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples.⁴ Behold, you shall call a nation that you don't know; and a nation that didn't know you shall run to you, because of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for she has glorified you.⁵ Seek you Yahweh while she may be found; call you on her while she is near:⁶ let the wicked forsake her way, and the unrighteous woman her thoughts; and let her return to Yahweh, and she will have mercy on her; and to our God, for she will abundantly pardon.⁷ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, says Yahweh.⁸ For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.⁹ For as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky, and doesn't return there, but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater;¹⁰ so shall my word be that goes forth out of my mouth: it shall not return to me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing I sent it to do.¹¹ For you shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.¹² Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree; and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to Yahweh for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.¹³

Thus says Yahweh, Keep you justice, and do righteousness; for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.¹ Blessed is the woman who does this, and the daughter of woman who holds it fast; who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps her hand from doing any evil.² Neither let the foreigner, who has joined herself to Yahweh, speak, saying, Yahweh will surely separate me from her people; neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.³ For thus says Yahweh of the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and hold fast my covenant:⁴ To them will I give in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than of daughters and of sons; I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.⁵ Also the foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh, to minister to her, and to love the name of Yahweh, to be her servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and holds fast my covenant;⁶ even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.⁷ The Domina Yahweh, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, Yet will I gather others to her, besides her own who are gathered.⁸ All you animals of the field, come to devour, yes, all you animals in the forest.⁹ Hers watchwomen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all mute dogs, they can't bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.¹⁰ Yes, the dogs are greedy, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds who can't understand: they have all turned to their own way, each one to her gain, from every quarter.¹¹ Come you, say they], I will get wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, [a day great beyond measure.¹²

The righteous perishes, and no woman lays it to heart; and merciful women are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.¹ She enters into peace; they rest in their beds, each one who walks in her uprightness.² But draw near here, you daughters of the sorceress, the seed of the adulteress and the philanderer.³ Against whom do you sport yourselves? against whom make you a wide mouth, and put out the tongue? Aren't you children of disobedience, a seed of falsehood,⁴ you who inflame yourselves among the oaks, under every green tree; who kill the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?⁵ Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion; they, they are your lot; even to them have you poured a drink offering, you have offered an offering. Shall I be appeased for these things?⁶ On a high and lofty mountain have you set your bed; there also you went up to offer sacrifice.⁷ Behind the doors and the posts have you set up your memorial: for you have uncovered yourself to another than me, and are gone up; you have enlarged your bed, and made you a covenant with them: you loved their bed where you saw it.⁸ You went to the queen with oil, and did increase your perfumes, and did send your ambassadors far off, and did debase yourself even to Sheol.⁹ You were wearied with the length of your way; yet you didn't say, It is in vain: you found a reviving of your strength; therefore you weren't faint.¹⁰ Of whom have you been afraid and in fear, that you lie, and have not remembered me, nor laid it to your heart? Haven't I held my peace even of long time, and you don't fear me?¹¹ I will declare your righteousness; and as for your works, they shall not profit you.¹² When you cry, let those who you have gathered deliver you; but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but she who takes refuge in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain.¹³ She will say, Cast up, cast up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.¹⁴ For thus says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with her also who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.¹⁵ For I will not contend forever, neither will I be always angry; for the spirit would faint before me, and the souls who I have made.¹⁶ For the iniquity of her covetousness was I angry, and struck her; I hid my face and was angry; and she went on backsliding in the way of her heart.¹⁷ I have seen her ways, and will heal her: I will lead her also, and restore comforts to her and to her mourners.¹⁸ I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to her who is far off and to her who is near, says Yahweh;

and I will heal her.¹⁹ But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it can't rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt.²⁰ There is no peace, says my God, to the wicked.²¹

Cry aloud, don't spare, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and declare to my people their disobedience, and to the house of Jacoba their sins.¹ Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways: as a nation that did righteousness, and didn't forsake the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous judgments; they delight to draw near to God.² Why have we fasted, say they], and you don't see? [why] have we afflicted our soul, and you take no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast you find [your own pleasure, and exact all your labors.³ Behold, you fast for strife and contention, and to strike with the fist of wickedness: you don't fast this day so as to make your voice to be heard on high.⁴ Is such the fast that I have chosen? the day for a woman to afflict her soul? Is it to bow down her head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under her? will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to Yahweh?⁵ Isn't this the fast that I have chosen: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that you break every yoke?⁶ Isn't it to deal your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor who are cast out to your house? when you see the naked, that you cover her; and that you not hide yourself from your own flesh?⁷ Then shall your light break forth as the morning, and your healing shall spring forth speedily; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of Yahweh shall be your rear guard.⁸ Then shall you call, and Yahweh will answer; you shall cry, and she will say, Here I am. If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking wickedly;⁹ and if you draw out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul: then shall your light rise in darkness, and your obscurity be as the noonday;¹⁰ and Yahweh will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in dry places, and make strong your bones; and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters don't fail.
¹¹ Those who shall be of you shall build the old waste places; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.¹² If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, and] the holy of Yahweh honorable; and shall honor it, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking [your own words:¹³ then shall you delight yourself in Yahweh; and I will make you to ride on the high places of the earth; and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacoba your mother: for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.¹⁴

Behold, Yahweh's hand is not shortened, that it can't save; neither her ear heavy, that it can't hear:
¹ but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hidden her face from you, so that she will not hear.² For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness.³ None sues in righteousness, and none pleads in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.⁴ They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web: she who eats of their eggs dies; and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper.⁵ Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.⁶ Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their paths.⁷ The way of peace they don't know; and there is no justice in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whoever goes therein does not know peace.⁸ Therefore is justice far from us, neither does righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but, behold, darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity.⁹ We grope for the wall like the blind; yes, we grope as those who have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among those who are lusty we are as dead women.¹⁰ We roar all like bears, and moan sore like doves: we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.¹¹ For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them:¹² transgressing and denying Yahweh, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.¹³ Justice is turned away backward, and righteousness stands afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and uprightness can't enter.¹⁴ Yes, truth is lacking; and she who departs from evil makes herself a prey. Yahweh saw it, and it displeased her that there was no justice.¹⁵ She saw that there was no woman, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore her own arm brought salvation to her; and her righteousness, it upheld her.¹⁶ She put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on her head; and she put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle.¹⁷ According to their deeds, accordingly she will repay, wrath to her adversaries, recompense to her enemies; to the islands she will repay recompense.¹⁸ So shall they fear the name of Yahweh from the west, and her glory from the rising of the sun; for she will come as a rushing stream, which the breath of Yahweh drives.¹⁹ A Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from disobedience in Jacoba, says Yahweh.²⁰ As for me, this is my covenant with them, says Yahweh: my Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed's seed, says Yahweh, from henceforth and forever.²¹

Arise, shine; for your light is come, and the glory of Yahweh is risen on you.¹ For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but Yahweh will arise on you, and her glory shall be seen on you.² Nations shall come to your light, and queens to the brightness of your rising.³ Lift up your eyes round about, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to you; your daughters shall come from far, and your sons shall be carried in the arms.⁴ Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.⁵ The multitude of camels shall cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praises of Yahweh.⁶ All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on my altar; and I will glorify the house of my glory.⁷ Who are these who fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?⁸ Surely the islands shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your daughters from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because she has glorified you.⁹ Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their queens shall minister to you:

for in my wrath I struck you, but in my favor have I had mercy on you.¹⁰ Your gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that women may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and their queens led captive.¹¹ For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly wasted.¹² The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the fir tree, the pine, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.¹³ The daughters of those who afflicted you shall come bending to you; and all those who despised you shall bow themselves down at the soles of your feet; and they shall call you The city of Yahweh, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.¹⁴ Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, so that no woman passed through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.¹⁵ You shall also suck the milk of the nations, and shall suck the breast of queens; and you shall know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacoba.¹⁶ For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron. I will also make your officers peace, and righteousness your ruler.¹⁷ Violence shall no more be heard in your land, desolation nor destruction within your borders; but you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.¹⁸ The sun shall be no more your light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light to you: but Yahweh will be to you an everlasting light, and your God your glory.¹⁹ Your sun shall no more go down, neither shall your moon withdraw itself; for Yahweh will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended.²⁰ Your people also shall be all righteous; they shall inherit the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.²¹ The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation; I, Yahweh, will hasten it in its time.²²

The Spirit of the Domina Yahweh is on me; because Yahweh has anointed me to preach good news to the humble; she has sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;¹ to proclaim the year of Yahweh's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn;² to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give to them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of Yahweh, that she may be glorified.³ They shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.⁴ Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and foreigners shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.⁵ But you shall be named the priests of Yahweh; women shall call you the ministers of our God: you shall eat the wealth of the nations, and in their glory shall you boast yourselves.⁶ Instead of your shame you shall have double; and instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess double; everlasting joy shall be to them.⁷ For I, Yahweh, love justice, I hate robbery with iniquity; and I will give them their recompense in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.⁸ Their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which Yahweh has blessed.⁹ I will greatly rejoice in Yahweh, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for she has clothed me with the garments of salvation, she has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bride decks herself with a garland, and as a bridegroom adorns himself with his jewels.¹⁰ For as the earth brings forth its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Domina Yahweh will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.¹¹

For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until his righteousness go forth as brightness, and his salvation as a lamp that burns.¹ The nations shall see your righteousness, and all queens your glory, and you shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of Yahweh shall name.² You shall also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Yahweh, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.³ You shall no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall your land any more be termed Desolate: but you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for Yahweh delights in you, and your land shall be married.⁴ For as a young woman marries a virgin, so shall your daughters marry you; and as the bride rejoices over the bridegroom, so shall your God rejoice over you.⁵ I have set watchwomen on your walls, Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: you who call on Yahweh, take no rest,⁶ and give her no rest, until she establishes, and until she makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.⁷ Yahweh has sworn by her right hand, and by the arm of her strength, Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies; and foreigners shall not drink your new wine, for which you have labored:⁸ but those who have garnered it shall eat it, and praise Yahweh; and those who have gathered it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.⁹ Go through, go through the gates; prepare you the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a banner for the peoples.¹⁰ Behold, Yahweh has proclaimed to the end of the earth, Say you to the son of Zion, Behold, your salvation comes; behold, her reward is with her, and her recompense before her.¹¹ They shall call them The holy people, The redeemed of Yahweh: and you shall be called Sought out, A city not forsaken.¹²

Chapter 63

Who is this who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this who is glorious in her clothing, marching in the greatness of her strength? I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

¹ Why are you red in your clothing, and your garments like her who treads in the wine vat?² I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the peoples there was no woman with me: yes, I trod them in my anger, and trampled them in my wrath; and their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments, and I have stained all my clothing.³ For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.⁴ I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore my own arm brought salvation to me; and my wrath, it upheld me.⁵ I trod down the peoples in my anger, and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth.⁶ I will make mention of the loving kindnesses of Yahweh, and the praises of Yahweh, according to all that Yahweh has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which she has bestowed on them according to her mercies, and according to the multitude of her loving kindnesses.⁷ For she said, Surely, they are my people, children who will not deal falsely: so she was their Savior.⁸ In all their affliction she was afflicted, and the angel of her presence saved them: in her love and in her pity she redeemed them; and she bore them, and carried them all the days of old.⁹ But they rebelled, and grieved her holy Spirit: therefore she was turned to be their enemy, and herself fought against them.¹⁰ Then she remembered the days of old, Moses and] her people, [saying, Where is she who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of her flock? where is she who put her holy Spirit in the midst of them?¹¹ who caused her glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? who divided the waters before them, to make herself an everlasting name?¹² who led them through the depths, as a horse in the wilderness, so that they didn't stumble?¹³ As the livestock that go down into the valley, the Spirit of Yahweh caused them to rest; so did you lead your people, to make yourself a glorious name.¹⁴ Look down from heaven, and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory: where are your zeal and your mighty acts? the yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me.¹⁵ For you are our Mother, though Abrahai doesn't know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us: you, Yahweh, are our Mother; our Redeemer from everlasting is your name.¹⁶ O Yahweh, why do you make us to err from your ways, and harden our heart from your fear? Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance.¹⁷ Your holy people possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary.¹⁸ We are become as they over whom you never bear rule, as those who were not called by your name.¹⁹

Oh that you would tear the heavens, that you would come down, that the mountains might quake at your presence,¹ as when fire kindles the brushwood, and the fire causes the waters to boil; to make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence!² When you did terrible things which we didn't look for, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.³ For from of old women have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither has the eye seen a God besides you, who works for her who waits for her.⁴ You meet her who rejoices and works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways: behold, you were angry, and we sinned: in them have we been of long time; and shall we be saved?⁵ For we have all become as one who is unclean, and all our righteousness is as a polluted garment: and we all fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.⁶ There is none who calls on your name, who stirs up herself to take hold of you; for you have hid your face from us, and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.⁷ But now, Yahweh, you are our Mother; we are the clay, and you our potter; and we all are the work of your hand.⁸ Don't be furious, Yahweh, neither remember iniquity forever: see, look, we beg you, we are all your people.⁹ Your holy cities are become a wilderness, Zion is become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.¹⁰ Our holy and our beautiful house, where our mothers praised you, is burned with fire; and all our pleasant places are laid waste.¹¹ Will you refrain yourself for these things, Yahweh? will you hold your peace, and afflict us very sore?¹²

Chapter 65

I am inquired of by those who didn't ask; I am found by those who didn't seek me: I said, See me, see me, to a nation that was not called by my name.¹ I have spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts;² a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense on bricks;³ who sit among the graves, and lodge in the secret places; who eat pig's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;⁴ who say, Stand by yourself, don't come near to me, for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all the day.⁵ Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, yes, I will recompense into their bosom,⁶ your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your mothers together, says Yahweh, who have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills; therefore will I first measure their work into their bosom.⁷ Thus says Yahweh, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, Don't destroy it, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all.⁸ I will bring forth a seed out of Jacoba, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains; and my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.⁹ Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people who have sought me.¹⁰ But you who forsake Yahweh, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who fill up mixed wine to Destiny;¹¹ I will destine you to the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear; but you did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I didn't delight.¹² Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh, Behold, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; behold, my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be disappointed;¹³ behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but you shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall wail for vexation of spirit.¹⁴ You shall leave your name for a curse to my chosen; and the Domina Yahweh will kill you; and she will call her servants by another name:¹⁵ so that she who blesses herself in the earth shall bless herself in the God of truth; and she who swears in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from my eyes.¹⁶ For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.¹⁷ But be you glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and his people a joy.¹⁸ I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there shall be heard in him no more the voice of weeping and the voice of crying.¹⁹ There shall be no more there an infant of days, nor an old woman who has not filled her days; for the child shall die one hundred years old, and the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed.²⁰ They shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.²¹ They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.²² They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of Yahweh, and their offspring with them.²³ It shall happen that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.²⁴ The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent's food. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, says Yahweh.²⁵

Thus says Yahweh, heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: what manner of house will you build to me? and what place shall be my rest?¹ For all these things has my hand made, and so all these things came to be, says Yahweh: but to this woman will I look, even to her who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word.² She who kills an ox is as she who kills a woman; she who sacrifices a lamb, as she who breaks a dog's neck; she who offers an offering, as she who offers pig's blood; she who burns frankincense, as she who blesses an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations: ³ I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears on them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spoke, they did not hear: but they did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I didn't delight. ⁴ Hear the word of Yahweh, you who tremble at her word: Your sisters who hate you, who cast you out for my name's sake, have said, Let Yahweh be glorified, that we may see your joy; but it is those who shall be disappointed. ⁵ A voice of tumult from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of Yahweh that renders recompense to her enemies. ⁶ Before he travailed, he brought forth; before his pain came, he was delivered of a girl. ⁷ Who has heard such a thing? who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? shall a nation be brought forth at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, he brought forth his children. ⁸ Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? says Yahweh: shall I who cause to bring forth shut the womb? says your God. ⁹ Rejoice you with Jerusalem, and be glad for him, all you who love him: rejoice for joy with him, all you who mourn over him; ¹⁰ that you may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of his consolations; that you may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of his glory. ¹¹ For thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will extend peace to him like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream: and you shall suck of it; you shall be borne on the side, and shall be dandled on the knees. ¹² As one whom her father comforts, so will I comfort you; and you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. ¹³ You shall see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like the tender grass: and the hand of Yahweh shall be known toward her servants; and she will have indignation against her enemies. ¹⁴ For, behold, Yahweh will come with fire, and her chariots shall be like the whirlwind; to render her anger with fierceness, and her rebuke with flames of fire. ¹⁵ For by fire will Yahweh execute judgment, and by her sword, on all flesh; and the slain of Yahweh shall be many. ¹⁶ Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the gardens, behind one in the midst, eating pig's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together, says Yahweh. ¹⁷ For I know] their works and their thoughts: [the time comes, that I will gather all nations and languages; and they shall come, and shall see my glory. ¹⁸ I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the islands afar off, who have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. ¹⁹ They shall bring all your sisters out of all the nations for an offering to Yahweh, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says Yahweh, as the children of Israel bring their offering in a clean vessel into the house of Yahweh. ²⁰ Of them also will I take for priests and for Levites, says Yahweh. ²¹ For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, says Yahweh, so shall your seed and your name remain. ²² It shall happen, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, says Yahweh. ²³ They shall go forth, and look on the dead bodies of the women who have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring to all flesh. ²⁴

Jeremiah

The words of Jeremia the daughter of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: ¹ to whom the word of Yahweh came in the days of Josiah the daughter of Amon, queen of Judah, in the thirteenth year of her reign. ² It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. ³ Now the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁴ Before I formed you in the belly I knew you, and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you; I have appointed you a prophetess to the nations. ⁵ Then said I, Ah, Domina Yahweh! behold, I don't know how to speak; for I am a child. ⁶ But Yahweh said to me, Don't say, I am a child; for to whoever I shall send you, you shall go, and whatever I shall command you, you shall speak. ⁷ Don't be afraid because of them; for I am with you to deliver you, says Yahweh. ⁸ Then Yahweh put forth her hand, and touched my mouth; and Yahweh said to me, Behold, I have put my words in your mouth: ⁹ behold, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant. ¹⁰ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, Jeremia, what see you? I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. ¹¹ Then said Yahweh to me, You have well seen: for I watch over my word to perform it. ¹² The word of Yahweh came to me the second time, saying, What see you? I said, I see a boiling caldron; and the face of it is from the north. ¹³ Then Yahweh said to me, Out of the north evil shall break forth on all the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁴ For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says Yahweh; and they shall come, and they shall set everyone her throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls of it round about, and against all the cities of Judah. ¹⁵ I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands. ¹⁶ You therefore gird up your waist, and arise, and speak to them all that I command you: don't be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them. ¹⁷ For, behold, I have made you this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the queens of Judah, against the princesses of it, against the priests of it, and against the people of the land. ¹⁸ They shall fight against you; but they shall not prevail against you: for I am with you, says Yahweh, to deliver you.

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹ Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says Yahweh, I remember for you the kindness of your youth, the love of your weddings; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. ² Israel was holiness to Yahweh, the first fruits of her increase: all who devour her shall be held guilty; evil shall come on them, says Yahweh. ³ Hear you the word of Yahweh, O house of Jacoba, and all the families of the house of Israel: ⁴ thus says Yahweh, What unrighteousness have your mothers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? ⁵ Neither said they, Where is Yahweh who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no woman lived? ⁶ I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat the fruit of it and the goodness of it; but when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. ⁷ The priests didn't say, Where is Yahweh? and those who handle the law didn't know me: the rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit. ⁸ Therefore I will yet contend with you, says Yahweh, and with your children's children will I contend. ⁹ For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing. ¹⁰ Has a nation changed its gods, which yet are no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit. ¹¹ Be astonished, you heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be you very desolate, says Yahweh. ¹² For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. ¹³ Is Israel a servant? is she a native-born slave? why is she become a prey? ¹⁴ The young lions have roared on her, and yelled; and they have made her land waste: her cities are burned up, without inhabitant. ¹⁵ The children also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head. ¹⁶ Haven't you procured this to yourself, in that you have forsaken Yahweh your God, when she led you by the way? ¹⁷ Now what have you to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? or what have you to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River? ¹⁸ Your own wickedness shall correct you, and your backsliding shall reprove you: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and a bitter, that you have forsaken Yahweh your God, and that my fear is not in you, says the Domina, Yahweh of Armies. ¹⁹ For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bonds; and you said, I will not serve; for on every high hill and under every green tree you did bow yourself, playing the philanderer. ²⁰ Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then are you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me? ²¹ For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me, says the Domina Yahweh. ²² How can you say, I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baals? see your way in the valley, know what you have done: you are a swift dromedary traversing his ways; ²³ a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind in his desire; in his occasion who can turn him away? all those who seek his will not weary themselves; in his month they shall find him. ²⁴ Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst: but you said, It is in vain; no, for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go. ²⁵ As the thief is ashamed when she is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their queens, their princesses, and their priests, and their prophets; ²⁶ who tell a stock, You are my mother; and to a stone, You have brought me forth: for they have turned their back to me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. ²⁷ But where are your gods that you have made you? let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble: for according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah. ²⁸ Why will you contend with me? you all have transgressed against me, says Yahweh. ²⁹ In vain have I struck your children; they received no correction: your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. ³⁰ Generation, see the word of Yahweh. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? or a land of thick darkness? why say my people, We are broken loose; we will come no more to you? ³¹ Can a virgin forget his ornaments, or a bridegroom his attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number. ³² How trimmest you your way to seek love! therefore even the wicked men have you taught your ways.³³ Also in your skirts is found the blood of the souls of the innocent poor: you did not find them breaking in; but it is because of all these things.³⁴ Yet you said, I am innocent; surely her anger is turned away from me. Behold, I will enter into judgment with you, because you say, I have not sinned.³⁵ Why go you about so much to change your way? you shall be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria.³⁶ From there also shall you go forth, with your hands on your head: for Yahweh has rejected those in whom you trust, and you shall not prosper with them.³⁷

They say, If a woman put away her husband, and he go from her, and become another woman's, will she return to him again? Won't that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the philanderer with many lovers; yet return again to me, says Yahweh.¹ Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see; where have you not been lain with? By the ways have you sat for them, as an Arabian in the wilderness; and you have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness.² Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a philanderer's forehead, you refused to be ashamed.³ Will you not from this time cry to me, My Mother, you are the guide of my youth?⁴ Will she retain her anger forever? will she keep it to the end? Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way.⁵ Moreover Yahweh said to me in the days of Josiah the queen, Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? he is gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the philanderer.⁶ I said after he had done all these things, He will return to me; but he didn't return: and his treacherous brother Judah saw it.⁷ I saw, when, for this very cause that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put him away and given him a bill of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, his brother, didn't fear; but he also went and played the philanderer.⁸ It happened through the lightness of his prostitution, that the land was polluted, and he committed adultery with stones and with stocks.⁹ Yet for all this his treacherous brother Judah has not returned to me with his whole heart, but only in pretense, says Yahweh.¹⁰ Yahweh said to me, Backsliding Israel has shown himself more righteous than treacherous Judah.¹¹ Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, you backsliding Israel, says Yahweh; I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful, says Yahweh, I will not keep anger forever.¹² Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against Yahweh your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice, says Yahweh.¹³ Return, backsliding children, says Yahweh; for I am a wife to you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:¹⁴ and I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.¹⁵ It shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says Yahweh, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of Yahweh; neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they miss it; neither shall it be made any more.¹⁶ At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of Yahweh; and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of Yahweh, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart.¹⁷ In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your mothers.¹⁸ But I said, How I will put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the armies of the nations! and I said, You shall call me My Mother, and shall not turn away from following me.¹⁹ Surely as a husband treacherously departs from his wife, so have you dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel, says Yahweh.²⁰ A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten Yahweh their God.²¹ Return, you backsliding children, I will heal your backsliding. Behold, we are come to you; for you are Yahweh our God.²² Truly in vain is the help that is looked for from the hills, the tumult on the mountains: truly in Yahweh our God is the salvation of Israel.²³ But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our mothers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their daughters and their sons.²⁴ Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against Yahweh our God, we and our mothers, from our youth even to this day; and we have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh our God.

If you will return, Israel, says Yahweh, if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you shall not be removed;¹ and you shall swear, As Yahweh lives, in truth, in justice, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in her, and in her shall they glory.² For thus says Yahweh to the women of Judah and to Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and don't sow among thorns.³ Circumcise yourselves to Yahweh, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you women of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.⁴ Declare you in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow you the trumpet in the land: cry aloud and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the fortified cities.⁵ Set up a standard toward Zion: flee for safety, don't stay; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.⁶ A lion is gone up from her thicket, and a destroyer of nations; she is on her way, she is gone forth from her place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant.⁷ For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of Yahweh hasn't turned back from us.⁸ It shall happen at that day, says Yahweh, that the heart of the queen shall perish, and the heart of the princesses; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.⁹ Then said I, Ah, Domina Yahweh! surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, You shall have peace; whereas the sword reaches to the life.¹⁰ At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the son of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse;¹¹ a full wind from these shall come for me: now will I also utter judgments against them.¹² Behold, she shall come up as clouds, and her chariots shall be as the whirlwind: her horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! for we are ruined.¹³ Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you?¹⁴ For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim:¹⁵ make you mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.¹⁶ As keepers of a field are they against his round about, because he has been rebellious against me, says Yahweh.¹⁷ Your way and your doings have procured these things to you; this is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart.¹⁸ My anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I can't hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.¹⁹ Destruction on destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid waste: suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment.²⁰ How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?²¹ For my people are foolish, they don't know me; they are foolish children, and they have no understanding; they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.²² I saw the earth, and, behold, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.²³ I saw the mountains, and behold, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth.²⁴ I saw, and behold, there was no woman, and all the birds of the sky were fled.²⁵ I saw, and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all the cities of it were broken down at the presence of Yahweh, and before her fierce anger.²⁶ For thus says Yahweh, The whole land shall be a desolation; yet will I not make a full end.²⁷ For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it.²⁸ Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers; they go into the thickets, and climb up on the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a woman dwells therein.²⁹ You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you deck you with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with paint, in vain do you make yourself beautiful; your lovers despise you, they seek your life.³⁰ For I have heard a voice as of a man in travail, the anguish as of him who brings forth his first child, the voice of the son of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads his hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul faints before the murderers.³¹

Run you back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places of it, if you can find a woman, if there are any who does justly, who seeks truth; and I will pardon him.¹ Though they say, As Yahweh lives; surely they swear falsely.² O Yahweh, don't your eyes look on truth? you have stricken them, but they were not grieved; you have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.³ Then I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish; for they don't know the way of Yahweh, nor the law of their God:⁴ I will get me to the great women, and will speak to them; for they know the way of Yahweh, and the law of their God. But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.⁵ Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; everyone who goes out there shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backsliding is increased.⁶ How can I pardon you? your children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the philanderers' houses.⁷ They were as fed horses roaming at large; everyone neighed after her neighbor's husband.⁸ Shall I not visit for these things? says Yahweh; and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?⁹ Go up on his walls, and destroy; but don't make a full end: take away his branches; for they are not Yahweh's.¹⁰ For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, says Yahweh.¹¹ They have denied Yahweh, and said, It is not she; neither shall evil come on us; neither shall we see sword nor famine:¹² and the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done to them.¹³ Therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of Armies, Because you speak

this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. ¹⁴ Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far, house of Israel, says Yahweh: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you don't know, neither understand what they say. ¹⁵ Their quiver is an open tomb, they are all mighty women. ¹⁶ They shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your daughters and your sons should eat; they shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees; they shall beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword. ¹⁷ But even in those days, says Yahweh, I will not make a full end with you. ¹⁸ It shall happen, when you shall say, Why has Yahweh our God done all these things to us? then shall you say to them, Like as you have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so shall you serve strangers in a land that is not yours. ¹⁹ Declare you this in the house of Jacoba, and publish it in Judah, saying, ²⁰ Hear now this, foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and don't see; who have ears, and don't hear: ²¹ Don't you fear me? says Yahweh: won't you tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can't pass it? and though the waves of it toss themselves, yet they can't prevail; though they roar, yet they can't pass over it. ²² But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. ²³ Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear Yahweh our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest. ²⁴ Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. ²⁵ For among my people are found wicked women: they watch, as fowlers lie in wait; they set a trap, they catch women. ²⁶ As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and grew rich. ²⁷ They are grew fat, they shine: yes, they overpass in deeds of wickedness; they don't plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and the right of the needy they don't judge. ²⁸ Shall I not visit for these things? says Yahweh; shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? ²⁹ A wonderful and horrible thing is happen in the land: ³⁰ the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will you do in the end of it? ³¹

Flee for safety, you children of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth Haccherem; for evil looks forth from the north, and a great destruction. ¹ The comely and delicate one, the son of Zion, will I cut off. ² Shepherds with their flocks shall come to him; they shall pitch their tents against his round about; they shall feed everyone in her place. ³ Prepare you war against him; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! for the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. ⁴ Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy his palaces. ⁵ For thus has Yahweh of Armies said, Hew you down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; he is wholly oppression in the midst of him. ⁶ As a well casts forth its waters, so he casts forth his wickedness: violence and destruction is heard in him; before me continually is sickness and wounds. ⁷ Be instructed, Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you; lest I make you a desolation, a land not inhabited. ⁸ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn again your hand as a grape gatherer into the baskets. ⁹ To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can't listen: behold, the word of

Yahweh is become to them a reproach; they have no delight in it.¹⁰ Therefore I am full of the wrath of Yahweh; I am weary with holding in: pour it out on the children in the street, and on the assembly of young women together; for even the wife with the husband shall be taken, the aged with her who is full of days.¹¹ Their houses shall be turned to others, their fields and their husbands together; for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land, says Yahweh.¹² For from the least of them even to the greatest of them everyone is given to covetousness; and from the prophetess even to the priestess everyone deals falsely.¹³ They have healed also the hurt of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.¹⁴ Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, says Yahweh.¹⁵ Thus says Yahweh, Stand you in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way; and walk therein, and you shall find rest for your souls: but they said, We will not walk therein.¹⁶ I set watchwomen over you, saying, Listen to the sound of the trumpet; but they said, We will not listen.¹⁷ Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what is among them.¹⁸ Hear, earth: behold, I will bring evil on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it.¹⁹ To what purpose comes there to me frankincense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me.²⁰ Therefore thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people; and the mothers and the daughters together shall stumble against them; the neighbor and her friend shall perish.²¹ Thus says Yahweh, Behold, a people comes from the north country; and a great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth.²² They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a woman to the battle, against you, son of Zion.²³ We have heard the report of it; our hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pangs as of a man in travail.²⁴ Don't go forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy, and terror, are on every side.²⁵ Son of my people, gird you with sackcloth, and wallow yourself in ashes: make you mourning, as for an only daughter, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come on us.²⁶ I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people; that you may know and try their way.²⁷ They are all grievous rebels, going about with slanders; they are brass and iron: they all of them deal corruptly.²⁸ The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away.²⁹ Refuse silver shall women them, because Yahweh has rejected them.³⁰

The word that came to Jeremia from Yahweh, saying,¹ Stand in the gate of Yahweh's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of Yahweh, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship Yahweh.² Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.³ Don't you trust in lying words, saying, The temple of Yahweh, the temple of Yahweh, the temple of Yahweh, are these.⁴ For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute justice between a woman and her neighbor;⁵ if you don't oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widower, and don't shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt:⁶ then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your mothers, from of old even forevermore.⁷ Behold, you trust in lying words, that can't profit.⁸ Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known,⁹ and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered; that you may do all these abominations?¹⁰ Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it, says Yahweh.¹¹ But go you now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.¹² Now, because you have done all these works, says Yahweh, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you didn't hear; and I called you, but you didn't answer:¹³ therefore will I do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your mothers, as I did to Shiloh.¹⁴ I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your sisters, even the whole seed of Ephraim.¹⁵ Therefore don't you pray for this people, neither lift up a cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you.¹⁶ Don't you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?¹⁷ The children gather wood, and the mothers kindle the fire, and the men knead the dough, to make cakes to the king of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.¹⁸ Do they provoke me to anger? says Yahweh; do they] not [provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, my anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on woman, and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.²⁰ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat meat.²¹ For I didn't speak to your mothers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:²² but this thing I commanded them, saying, Listen to my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk you in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.²³ But they didn't listen nor turn their ear, but walked in their own] counsels [and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.²⁴ Since the day that your mothers came forth out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:²⁵ yet they didn't listen to me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their mothers.²⁶ You shall speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you.²⁷ You shall tell them, This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of Yahweh their God, nor received instruction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.²⁸ Cut off your hair, Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for Yahweh has rejected and forsaken the generation of her wrath.²⁹ For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight, says Yahweh: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.³⁰ They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the daughter of Hinnom, to burn their daughters and their sons in the fire; which I didn't command, nor did it come into my mind.³¹ Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the daughter of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, until there be no place to bury.³² The dead bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth; and none shall frighten them away.³³ Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bride and the voice of the bridegroom; for the land shall become a waste.³⁴

At that time, says Yahweh, they shall bring out the bones of the queens of Judah, and the bones of her princesses, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves;¹ and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the army of the sky, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshiped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung on the surface of the earth.² Death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them, says Yahweh of Armies.³ Moreover you shall tell them, Thus says Yahweh: Shall women fall, and not rise up again? Shall one turn away, and not return?⁴ Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.⁵ I listened and heard, but they didn't speak aright: no woman repents her of her wickedness, saying, What have I done? everyone turns to her course, as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle.⁶ Yes, the stork in the sky knows his appointed times; and the turtledove and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people don't know Yahweh's law.⁷ How do you say, We are wise, and the law of Yahweh is with us? But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has worked falsely.⁸ The wise women are disappointed, they are dismayed and taken: behold, they have rejected the word of Yahweh; and what manner of wisdom is in them?⁹ Therefore will I give their husbands to others, and their fields to those who shall possess them: for everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophetess even to the priestess every one deals falsely.¹⁰ They have healed the hurt of the son of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.¹¹ Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among those who fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says Yahweh.¹² I will utterly consume them, says Yahweh: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.¹³ Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; for Yahweh our God has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against Yahweh.¹⁴ We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay!¹⁵ The snorting of her horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of her strong ones the whole land trembles; for they are come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and those who dwell therein.¹⁶ For, behold, I will send serpents, adders, among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you, says Yahweh.¹⁷ Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! My heart is faint within me.¹⁸ Behold, the voice of the cry of the son of my people from a land that is very far off: isn't Yahweh in Zion? Isn't his Queen in him? Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign vanities?¹⁹ The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.²⁰ For the hurt of the son of my people am I hurt: I mourn; dismay has taken hold on me.²¹ Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then isn't the health of the son of my people recovered? ²²

Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the son of my people! ¹ Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring women; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they are all adulteresses, an assembly of treacherous women. ² They bend their tongue, as it were their bow, for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they don't know me, says Yahweh. ³ Take you heed everyone of her neighbor, and don't you trust in any sister; for every sister will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go about with slanders. ⁴ They will deceive everyone her neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. ⁵ Your habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, says Yahweh. ⁶ Therefore thus says Yahweh of Armies, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how else should I do, because of the son of my people? ⁷ Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to her neighbor with her mouth, but in her heart she lays wait for her. ⁸ Shall I not visit them for these things? says Yahweh; shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? ⁹ For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none passes through; neither can women hear the voice of the livestock; both the birds of the sky and the animals are fled, they are gone. ¹⁰ I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant. ¹¹ Who is the wise woman, that may understand this? and who is she to whom the mouth of Yahweh has spoken, that she may declare it? why is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that none passes through? ¹² Yahweh says, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein, ¹³ but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their mothers taught them; ¹⁴ therefore thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. ¹⁵ I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their mothers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them. ¹⁶ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, Consider you, and call for the mourning men, that they may come; and send for the skillful men, that they may come: ¹⁷ and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. ¹⁸ For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we ruined! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings. ¹⁹ Yet hear the word of Yahweh, you men, and let your ear receive the word of her mouth; and teach your sons wailing, and everyone his neighbor lamentation. ²⁰ For death is come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from outside, and the young women from the streets. ²¹ Speak, Thus says Yahweh, The dead bodies of women shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester; and none shall gather them. ²² Thus says Yahweh, Don't let the wise woman glory in her wisdom, neither let the mighty woman glory in her might, don't let the rich woman glory in her riches; ²³ but let her who glories glory in this, that she has understanding, and knows me, that I am Yahweh who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, says Yahweh. ²⁴

Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will punish all those who are circumcised in their uncircumcision: ²⁵ Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart. ²⁶

Hear the word which Yahweh speaks to you, house of Israel! ¹ Thus says Yahweh, "Don't learn the way of the nations, and don't be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them. ² For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the axe. ³ They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it not move. ⁴ They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and don't speak: they must be carried, because they can't go. Don't be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good." ⁵ There is none like you, Yahweh; you are great, and your name is great in might. ⁶ Who should not fear you, Queen of the nations? for to you does it appertain; because among all the wise women of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like you. ⁷ But they are together brutish and foolish: the instruction of idols! it is but a stock. ⁸ There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skillful women. ⁹ But Yahweh is the true God; she is the living God, and an everlasting Queen: at her wrath the earth trembles, and the nations are not able to abide her indignation. ¹⁰ Thus shall you say to them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens. ¹¹ She has made the earth by her power, she has established the world by her wisdom, and by her understanding has she stretched out the heavens: ¹² when she utters her voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and she causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; she makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of her treasuries. ¹³ Every woman is become brutish and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is disappointed by her engraved image; for her molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. ¹⁴ They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. ¹⁵ The portion of Jacoba is not like these; for she is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of her inheritance: Yahweh of Armies is her name. ¹⁶ Gather up your wares out of the land, you who abide in the siege. ¹⁷ For thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it. ¹⁸ Woe is me because of my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it. ¹⁹ My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth from me, and they are no more: there is none to spread my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. ²⁰ For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of Yahweh: therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered. ²¹ The voice of news, behold, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place of jackals. ²² Yahweh, I know that the way of woman is not in herself: it is not in woman who walks to direct her steps. ²³ Yahweh, correct me, but in measure: not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing. ²⁴ Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, and on the families that don't call on your name: for they have devoured Jacoba, yes, they have devoured her and consumed her, and have laid waste her habitation.²⁵

The word that came to Jeremia from Yahweh, saying,¹ Hear you the words of this covenant, and speak to the women of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;² and say you to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Cursed be the woman who doesn't hear the words of this covenant,³ which I commanded your mothers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall you be my people, and I will be your God;⁴ that I may establish the oath which I swore to your mothers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day. Then answered I, and said, Amen, Yahweh.⁵ Yahweh said to me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear you the words of this covenant, and do them.⁶ For I earnestly protested to your mothers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.⁷ Yet they didn't obey, nor turn their ear, but walked everyone in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they didn't do them.⁸ Yahweh said to me, A conspiracy is found among the women of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.⁹ They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their mothers.¹⁰ Therefore thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will bring evil on them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry to me, but I will not listen to them.¹¹ Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble.¹² For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.¹³ Therefore don't you pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble.¹⁴ What has my beloved to do in my house, seeing he has worked lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from you? when you do evil, then you rejoice.¹⁵ Yahweh called your name, A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult she has kindled fire on it, and the branches of it are broken.¹⁶ For Yahweh of Armies, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have worked for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal.¹⁷ Yahweh gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you shown me their doings.¹⁸ But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I didn't know that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit of it, and let us cut her off from the land of the living, that her name may be no more remembered.¹⁹ But, Yahweh of Armies, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I shall see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause.²⁰ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the women of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, You shall not prophesy in the name of Yahweh, that you not die by our hand;²¹ therefore thus says Yahweh of Armies, Behold, I will punish them: the young women shall die by the sword; their daughters and their sons shall die by famine;²² and there shall be no remnant to them: for I will bring evil on the women of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.²³

Righteous are you, Yahweh, when I contend with you; yet would I reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? why are all they at ease who deal very treacherously?¹ You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart.² But you, Yahweh, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.³ How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? for the wickedness of those who dwell therein, the animals are consumed, and the birds; because they said, She shall not see our latter end.⁴ If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? and though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan?⁵ For even your sisters, and the house of your mother, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have cried aloud after you: don't believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you.⁶ I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of his enemies.⁷ My heritage is become to me as a lion in the forest: he has uttered his voice against me; therefore I have hated him.⁸ Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? are the birds of prey against his round about? go you, assemble all the animals of the field, bring them to devour.⁹ Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.¹⁰ They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no woman lays it to heart.¹¹ Destroyers are come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of Yahweh devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace.¹² They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing: and you shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of Yahweh.¹³ Thus says Yahweh against all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them.¹⁴ It shall happen, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every woman to her heritage, and every woman to her land.¹⁵ It shall happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, As Yahweh lives; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of my people.¹⁶ But if they will not hear, then will I pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it, says Yahweh.¹⁷

Chapter 13

Thus says Yahweh to me, Go, and buy you a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and don't put it in water.¹ So I bought a belt according to the word of Yahweh, and put it on my waist.² The word of Yahweh came to me the second time, saying,³ Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock.⁴ So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as Yahweh commanded me.⁵ It happened after many days, that Yahweh said to me, Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there.⁶ Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hid it; and behold, the belt was marred, it was profitable for nothing.⁷ Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,⁸ Thus says Yahweh, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.⁹ This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing.¹⁰ For as the belt cleaves to the waist of a woman, so have I caused to cleave to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, says Yahweh; that they may be to me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.¹¹ Therefore you shall speak to them this word: Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall tell you, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?¹² Then shall you tell them, Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the queens who sit on Davina's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.¹³ I will dash them one against another, even the mothers and the daughters together, says Yahweh: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them.¹⁴ Hear you, and give ear; don't be proud; for Yahweh has spoken.¹⁵ Give glory to Yahweh your God, before she cause darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, she turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.¹⁶ But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and my eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because Yahweh's flock is taken captive.¹⁷ Say you to the queen and to the king father, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your headdresses are come down, even the crown of your glory.¹⁸ The cities of the South are shut up, and there is none to open them: Judah is carried away captive, all of it; it is wholly carried away captive.¹⁹ Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock?²⁰ What will you say, when she shall set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? shall not sorrows take hold of you, as of a man in travail?²¹ If you say in your heart, Why are these things come on me? for the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence.²² Can the Ethiopian change her skin, or the leopard her spots? then may you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil.²³ Therefore will I scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness.²⁴ This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me, says Yahweh; because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.²⁵ Therefore will I also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame shall appear.²⁶ I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, Jerusalem! you will not be made clean; how long shall it yet be?²⁷

The word of Yahweh that came to Jeremia concerning the drought.¹ Judah mourns, and the gates of it languish, they sit in black on the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.² Their nobles send their little ones to the waters: they come to the cisterns, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty; they are disappointed and confounded, and cover their heads.³ Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are disappointed, they cover their heads.⁴ Yes, the hind also in the field calves, and forsakes his young, because there is no grass.⁵ The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage.⁶ Though our iniquities testify against us, work you for your name's sake, Yahweh; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you.⁷ You hope of Israel, the Savior of it in the time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring woman who turns aside to stay for a night?⁸ Why should you be like a scared woman, as a mighty woman who can't save? yet you, Yahweh, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; don't leave us.⁹ Thus says Yahweh to this people, Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore Yahweh does not accept them; now she will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.¹⁰ Yahweh said to me, Don't pray for this people for their good.¹¹ When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.¹² Then said I, Ah, Domina Yahweh! behold, the prophets tell them, You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.¹³ Then Yahweh said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I didn't send them, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke I to them: they prophesy to you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nothing, and the deceit of their own heart.¹⁴ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, and I didn't send them, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.¹⁵ The people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them--them, their husbands, nor their daughters, nor their sons: for I will pour their wickedness on them.¹⁶ You shall say this word to them, Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin son of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound.¹⁷ If I go forth into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then, behold, those who are sick with famine! for both the prophetess and the priestess go about in the land, and have no knowledge.¹⁸ Have you utterly rejected Judah? has your soul loathed Zion? why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay!¹⁹ We acknowledge, Yahweh, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our mothers; for we have sinned against you.²⁰ Do not abhor us, for your name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of your glory: remember, don't break your covenant with us.²¹ Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? or can the sky give showers? Aren't you she, Yahweh our God? therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.²²

Chapter 15

Then said Yahweh to me, Though Moses and Samantha stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.¹ It shall happen, when they tell you, Where shall we go forth? then you shall tell them, Thus says Yahweh: Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity.² I will appoint over them four kinds, says Yahweh: the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy.³ I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the daughter of Hezekiah, queen of Judah, for that which she did in Jerusalem.⁴ For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? or who will bemoan you? or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare?⁵ You have rejected me, says Yahweh, you are gone backward: therefore have I stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you; I am weary with repenting.⁶ I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they didn't return from their ways.⁷ Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas; I have brought on them against the father of the young women a destroyer at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on him suddenly.⁸ He who has borne seven languishes; he has given up the spirit; his sun is gone down while it was yet day; he has been disappointed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, says Yahweh.⁹ Woe is me, my father, that you have borne me a woman of strife and a woman of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent, neither have women lent to me; yet everyone of them does curse me.¹⁰ Yahweh said, Most certainly I will strengthen you for good; most certainly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.¹¹ Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and brass?¹² Your substance and your treasures will I give for a spoil without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders.¹³ I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you don't know; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn on you.¹⁴ Yahweh, you know; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; don't take me away in your longsuffering: know that for your sake I have suffered reproach.¹⁵ Your words were found, and I ate them; and your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by your name, Yahweh, God of Armies.¹⁶ I didn't sit in the assembly of those who make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand; for you have filled me with indignation.¹⁷ Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail?¹⁸ Therefore thus says Yahweh, If you return, then will I bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take forth the precious from the vile, you shall be as my mouth: they shall return to you, but you shall not return to them.¹⁹ I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says Yahweh.²⁰ I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible.²¹

The word of Yahweh came also to me, saying,¹ You shall not take a husband, neither shall you have daughters or sons, in this place.² For thus says Yahweh concerning the daughters and concerning the sons who are born in this place, and concerning their fathers who bore them, and concerning their mothers who became the mother of them in this land:³ They shall die grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth.⁴ For thus says Yahweh, Don't enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says Yahweh, even loving kindness and tender mercies.⁵ Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall women lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them;⁶ neither shall women break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall women give them the cup of consolation to drink for their mother or for their father.⁷ You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink.⁸ For thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bride and the voice of the bridegroom.⁹ It shall happen, when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall tell you, Why has Yahweh pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against Yahweh our God?¹⁰ Then shall you tell them, Because your mothers have forsaken me, says Yahweh, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;¹¹ and you have done evil more than your mothers; for, behold, you walk every one after the stubbornness of her evil heart, so that you don't listen to me:¹² therefore will I cast you forth out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your mothers; and there shall you serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor.¹³ Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that it shall no more be said, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;¹⁴ but, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where she had driven them. I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their mothers.¹⁵ Behold, I will send for many fisherwomen, says Yahweh, and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks.¹⁶ For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes.¹⁷ First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations.¹⁸ Yahweh, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Our mothers have inherited nothing but lies, even vanity and things in which there is no profit.¹⁹ Shall a woman make to herself gods, which yet are no gods?²⁰ Therefore, behold, I will cause them to know, this once will I cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Yahweh.²¹

The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your altars;¹ while their children remember their altars and their Asherim by the green trees on the high hills.² My mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures for a spoil, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders.³ You, even of yourself, shall discontinue from your heritage that I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you don't know: for you have kindled a fire in my anger which shall burn forever.⁴ Thus says Yahweh: Cursed is the woman who trusts in woman, and makes flesh her arm, and whose heart departs from Yahweh.⁵ For she shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good comes, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited.⁶ Blessed is the woman who trusts in Yahweh, and whose trust Yahweh is.⁷ For she shall be as a tree planted by the waters, who spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat comes, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.⁸ The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: who can know it? ⁹ I, Yahweh, search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every woman according to her ways, according to the fruit of her doings. ¹⁰ As the partridge that sits on eggs which he has not laid, so is she who gets riches, and not by right; in the midst of her days they shall leave her, and at her end she shall be a fool. ¹¹ A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary. ¹² Yahweh, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you shall be disappointed. Those who depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken Yahweh, the spring of living waters. ¹³ Heal me, O Yahweh, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for you are my praise. ¹⁴ Behold, they tell me, Where is the word of Yahweh? let it come now. ¹⁵ As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know: that which came out of my lips was before your face. ¹⁶ Don't be a terror to me: you are my refuge in the day of evil. ¹⁷ Let them be disappointed who persecute me, but let not me be disappointed; let them be dismayed, but don't let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction. ¹⁸ Thus said Yahweh to me: Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the queens of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; ¹⁹ and tell them, Hear you the word of Yahweh, you queens of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: ²⁰ Thus says Yahweh, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; ²¹ neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day holy, neither do any work: but make the Sabbath day, as I commanded your mothers. ²² But they didn't listen, neither turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction. ²³ It shall happen, if you diligently listen to me, says Yahweh, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work therein; ²⁴ then shall there enter in by the gates of this city queens and princesses sitting on the throne of Davina, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princesses, the women of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever. ²⁵ They shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places round about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to the house of Yahweh. ²⁶ But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates of it, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched. ²⁷

The word which came to Jeremia from Yahweh, saying, ¹ Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words. ² Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, she was making a work on the wheels. ³ When the vessel that she made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, she made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. ⁴ Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁵ House of Israel, can't I do with you as this potter? says Yahweh. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel. ⁶ At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; ⁷ if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. ⁸ At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;⁹ if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them.¹⁰ Now therefore, speak to the women of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says Yahweh: Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return you now everyone from her evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.¹¹ But they say, It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do everyone after the stubbornness of her evil heart.¹² Therefore thus says Yahweh: Ask you now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.¹³ Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? or shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up?¹⁴ For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up;¹⁵ to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished, and shake her head.¹⁶ I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.¹⁷ Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremia; for the law shall not perish from the priestess, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophetess. Come, and let us strike her with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of her words.¹⁸ Give heed to me, Yahweh, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me.¹⁹ Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them.²⁰ Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their husbands become childless, and widows; and let their women be slain of death, and their young women struck of the sword in battle.²¹ Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.²² Yet, Yahweh, you know all their counsel against me to kill me; don't forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal you with them in the time of your anger.²³

Thus said Yahweh, Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests;¹ and go forth to the valley of the daughter of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you;² and say, Hear you the word of Yahweh, queens of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, her ears shall tingle.³ Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they didn't know, they and their mothers and the queens of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents,⁴ and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their daughters in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I didn't command, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind:⁵ therefore, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the daughter of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter.⁶ I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life: and their dead bodies will I give to be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth.⁷ I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues of it.⁸ I will cause them to eat the flesh of their daughters and the flesh of their sons; and they shall eat everyone the flesh of her friend, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, shall distress them.⁹ Then shall you break the bottle in the sight of the women who go with you,¹⁰ and shall tell them, Thus says Yahweh of Armies: Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that can't be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, until there be no place to bury.¹¹ Thus will I do to this place, says Yahweh, and to the inhabitants of it, even making this city as Topheth:¹² and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the queens of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the army of the sky, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.¹³ Then came Jeremia from Topheth, where Yahweh had sent her to prophesy; and she stood in the court of Yahweh's house, and said to all the people:¹⁴ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.

Now Pashhur, the daughter of Immer the priestess, who was chief officer in the house of Yahweh, heard Jeremia prophesying these things.¹ Then Pashhur struck Jeremia the prophetess, and put her in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of Yahweh.² It happened on the next day, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremia out of the stocks. Then said Jeremia to her, Yahweh has not called your name Pashhur, but Magormissabib.³ For thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the queen of Babylon, and she shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword.⁴ Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all the gains of it, and all the precious things of it, yes, all the treasures of the queens of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them a prey, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.⁵ You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house shall go into captivity; and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there shall you be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.⁶ Yahweh, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded; you are stronger than I, and have prevailed: I am become a laughing-stock all the day, every one mocks me.⁷ For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, Violence and destruction! because the word of Yahweh is made a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day.⁸ If I say, I will not make mention of her, nor speak any more in her name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I can't contain.⁹ For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. Denounce, and we will denounce her, say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall; peradventure she will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against her, and we shall take our revenge on her.¹⁰ But Yahweh is with me as an awesome mighty one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten.¹¹ But, Yahweh of Armies, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause.¹² Sing to Yahweh, praise you Yahweh; for she has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evil-doers.¹³ Cursed be the day in which I was born: don't let the day in which my father bore me be blessed.¹⁴ Cursed be the woman who brought news to my mother, saying, A girl is born to you; making her very glad.¹⁵ Let that woman be as the cities which Yahweh overthrew, and didn't repent: and let her hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime;¹⁶ because she didn't kill me from the womb; and so my father would have been my grave, and his womb always great.¹⁷ Why came I forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?¹⁸

The word which came to Jeremia from Yahweh, when queen Zedekiah sent to her Pashhur the daughter of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the daughter of Maaseiah, the priestess, saying,¹ Please inquire of Yahweh for us; for Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon makes war against us: peradventure Yahweh will deal with us according to all her wondrous works, that she may go up from us.² Then said Jeremia to them, Thus shall you tell Zedekiah:³ Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the queen of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the midst of this city.⁴ I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation.⁵ I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both woman and animal: they shall die of a great pestilence.⁶ Afterward, says Yahweh, I will deliver Zedekiah queen of Judah, and her servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and she shall strike them with the edge of the sword; she shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.⁷ To this people you shall say, Thus says Yahweh: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.⁸ She who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but she who goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you, she shall live, and her life shall be to her for a prey.⁹ For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good, says Yahweh: it shall be given into the hand of the queen of Babylon, and she shall burn it with fire.¹⁰ Touching the house of the queen of Judah, hear you the word of Yahweh:¹¹ House of Davina, thus says Yahweh, Execute justice in the morning, and deliver her who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.¹² Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain, says Yahweh; you that say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?¹³ I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says Yahweh; and I will kindle a fire in his forest, and it shall devour all that is round about him.¹⁴

Chapter 22

Thus said Yahweh: Go down to the house of the queen of Judah, and speak there this word,¹ Say, Hear the word of Yahweh, queen of Judah, who sits on the throne of Davina, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates.² Thus says Yahweh: Execute you justice and righteousness, and deliver her who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the foreigner, the fatherless, nor the widower; neither shed innocent blood in this place.³ For if you do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house queens sitting on the throne of Davina, riding in chariots and on horses, she, and her servants, and her people.⁴ But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says Yahweh, that this house shall become a desolation.⁵ For thus says Yahweh concerning the house of the queen of Judah: You are Gilead to me, and] the head of Lebanon; [yet] surely I will make you a wilderness, [and cities which are not inhabited].⁶ I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with her weapons; and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.⁷ Many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every woman to her neighbor, Why has Yahweh done thus to this great city?⁸ Then they shall answer, Because they forsook the covenant of Yahweh their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.⁹ Don't you weep for the dead, neither bemoan her; but weep sore for her who goes away; for she shall return no more, nor see her native country.¹⁰ For thus says Yahweh touching Shallum the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah her mother, and who went forth out of this place: She shall not return there any more.¹¹ But in the place where they have led her captive, there shall she die, and she shall see this land no more.¹² Woe to her who builds her house by unrighteousness, and her chambers by injustice; who uses her neighbor's service without wages, and doesn't give her her hire;¹³ who says, I will build me a wide house and spacious chambers, and cuts her out windows; and it is ceiling with cedar, and painted with vermillion.¹⁴ Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Didn't your mother eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? then it was well with her.¹⁵ She judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Wasn't this to know me? says Yahweh.¹⁶ But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.¹⁷ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah: they shall not lament for her, saying], Ah my sister! or, Ah brother! They shall not lament for her, [saying Ah domina! or, Ah her glory!¹⁸ She shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.¹⁹ Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed.²⁰ I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your manner from your youth, that you didn't obey my voice.²¹ The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shall you be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness.²² Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied shall you be when pangs come on you, the pain as of a man in travail!²³ As I live, says Yahweh, though Coniah the daughter of Jehoiakim queen of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet would I pluck you there;²⁴ and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.²⁵ I will cast you out, and your father who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there shall you die.²⁶ But to the land whereunto their soul longs to return, there shall they not return.²⁷ Is this woman Coniah a despised broken vessel? is she a vessel in which none delights? why are they cast out, she and her seed, and are cast into the land which they don't know?²⁸ O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of Yahweh.²⁹ Thus says Yahweh, Write you this woman childless, a woman who shall not prosper in her days; for no more shall a woman of her seed prosper, sitting on the throne of Davina, and ruling in Judah.³⁰

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says Yahweh.¹ Therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who feed my people: You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings, says Yahweh.² I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply.³ I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking, says Yahweh.⁴ Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will raise to Davina a righteous Branch, and she shall reign as queen and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.⁵ In her days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is her name by which she shall be called: Yahweh our righteousness.⁶ Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that they shall no more say, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;⁷ but, As Yahweh lives, who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them. They shall dwell in their own land.⁸ Concerning the prophets. My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken woman, and like a woman whom wine has overcome, because of Yahweh, and because of her holy words.⁹ For the land is full of adulteresses; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. Their course is evil, and their might is not right;¹⁰ for both prophetess and priestess are profane; yes, in my house have I found their wickedness, says Yahweh.¹¹ Therefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation, says Yahweh.¹² I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.¹³ In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evil-doers, so that none does return from her wickedness: they are all of them become to me as Sodom, and the inhabitants of it as Gomorrah.¹⁴ Therefore thus says Yahweh of Armies concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ungodliness gone forth into all the land.¹⁵ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, Don't listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of Yahweh.¹⁶ They say continually to those who despise me, Yahweh has said, You shall have peace; and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of her own heart they say, No evil shall come on you.¹⁷ For who has stood in the council of Yahweh, that she should perceive and hear her word? who has marked my word, and heard it?¹⁸ Behold, the storm of Yahweh, even her wrath, is gone forth, yes, a whirling storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked.¹⁹ The anger of Yahweh shall not return, until she has executed, and until she have performed the intents of her heart: in the latter days you shall understand it perfectly.²⁰ I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I didn't speak to them, yet they prophesied.²¹ But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.²² Am I a God at hand, says Yahweh, and not a God afar off?²³ Can any hide herself in secret places so that I shall not see her? says Yahweh. Don't I fill heaven and earth? says Yahweh.²⁴ I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.²⁵ How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart?²⁶ who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every woman to her neighbor, as their mothers forgot my name for Baal.²⁷ The prophetess who has a dream, let her tell a dream; and she who has my word, let her speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat? says Yahweh.²⁸ Isn't my word like fire? says Yahweh; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?²⁹ Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, says Yahweh, who steal my words everyone from her neighbor.³⁰ Behold, I am against the prophets, says Yahweh, who use their tongues, and say, She says.³¹ Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, says Yahweh, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting; yet I didn't send them, nor commanded them; neither do they profit this people at all, says Yahweh.³² When this people, or the prophetess, or a priestess, shall ask you, saying, What is the burden of Yahweh? then shall you tell them, What burden! I will cast you off, says Yahweh.³³ As for the prophetess, and the priestess, and the people, who shall say, The burden of Yahweh, I will even punish that woman and her house.³⁴ Thus shall you say everyone to her neighbor, and everyone to her sister, What has Yahweh answered? and, What has Yahweh spoken?³⁵ The burden of Yahweh shall you mention no more: for every woman's own word shall be her burden; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of Yahweh of Armies our God.³⁶ Thus shall you say to the prophetess, What has Yahweh answered you? and, What has Yahweh spoken?³⁷ But if you say, The burden of Yahweh; therefore thus says Yahweh: Because you say this word, The burden of Yahweh, and I have sent to you, saying, You shall not say, The burden of Yahweh;³⁸ therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your mothers, away from my presence:³⁹ and I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.⁴⁰

Yahweh shown me, and behold, two baskets of figs set before the temple of Yahweh, after that Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the daughter of Jehoiakim, queen of Judah, and the princesses of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.¹ One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.² Then said Yahweh to me, What see you, Jeremia? I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that can't be eaten, they are so bad.³ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,⁴ Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good.⁵ For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.⁶ I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Yahweh: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart.⁷ As the bad figs, which can't be eaten, they are so bad, surely thus says Yahweh, So will I give up Zedekiah the queen of Judah, and her princesses, and the residue of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt,⁸ I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them.⁹ I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their mothers.¹⁰

The word that came to Jeremia concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon),¹ which Jeremia the prophetess spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:² From the thirteenth year of Josiah the daughter of Amon, queen of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, the word of Yahweh has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened.³ Yahweh has sent to you all her servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, (but you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear),⁴ saying, Return you now everyone from her evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that Yahweh has given to you and to your mothers, from of old and even forevermore;⁵ and don't go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and don't provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no harm.⁶ Yet you have not listened to me, says Yahweh; that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt.⁷ Therefore thus says Yahweh of Armies: Because you have not heard my words,⁸ behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, says Yahweh, and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the queen of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants of it, and against all these nations round about; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.⁹ Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bride and the voice of the bridegroom, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp.¹⁰ This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the queen of Babylon seventy years.¹¹ It shall happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the queen of Babylon, and that nation, says Yahweh, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate forever.¹² I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremia has prophesied against all the nations.¹³ For many nations and great queens shall make bondmaids of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.¹⁴ For thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, to me: take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it.¹⁵ They shall drink, and reel back and forth, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.¹⁶ Then took I the cup at Yahweh's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom Yahweh had sent me:¹⁷ to wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the queens of it, and the princesses of it, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day;¹⁸ Pharaoh queen of Egypt, and her servants, and her princesses, and all her people;¹⁹ and all the mixed people, and all the queens of the land of the Uz, and all the queens of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;²⁰ Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon;²¹ and all the queens of Tyre, and all the queens of Sidon, and the queens of the isle which is beyond the sea;²² Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who have the corners of their hair cut off;²³ and all the queens of Arabia, and all the queens of the mixed people who dwell in the wilderness;²⁴ and all the queens of Zimri, and all the queens of Elam, and all the queens of the Medes;²⁵ and all the queens of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth: and the queen of Sheshach shall drink after them.²⁶ You shall tell them, Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Drink you, and be drunken, and spew, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.²⁷ It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then shall you tell them, Thus says Yahweh of Armies: You shall surely drink.²⁸ For, behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says Yahweh of Armies.²⁹ Therefore prophesy you against them all these words, and tell them, Yahweh will roar from on high, and utter her voice from her holy habitation; she will mightily roar against her fold; she will give a shout, as those who tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.³⁰ A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for Yahweh has a controversy with the nations; she will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, she will give them to the sword, says Yahweh.³¹ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great storm shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth.³² The slain of Yahweh shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground.³³ Wail, you shepherds, and cry; and wallow in ashes, you principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and you shall fall like a goodly vessel.³⁴ The shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.³⁵ A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock! for Yahweh lays waste their pasture.³⁶ The peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of Yahweh.³⁷ She has left her covert, as the lion; for their land is become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppressing sword, and because of her fierce anger.³⁸

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, came this word from Yahweh, saying,¹ Thus says Yahweh: Stand in the court of Yahweh's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in Yahweh's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; don't diminish a word.² It may be they will listen, and turn every woman from her evil way; that I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings.³ You shall tell them, Thus says Yahweh: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,⁴ to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened;⁵ then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.⁶ The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremia speaking these words in the house of Yahweh.⁷ It happened, when Jeremia had made an end of speaking all that Yahweh had commanded her to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on her, saying, You shall surely die.⁸ Why have you prophesied in the name of Yahweh, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant? All the people were gathered to Jeremia in the house of Yahweh.⁹ When the princesses of Judah heard these things, they came up from the queen's house to the house of Yahweh; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of Yahweh's house.¹⁰ Then spoke the priests and the prophets to the princesses and to all the people, saying, This woman is worthy of death; for she has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.¹¹ Then spoke Jeremia to all the princesses and to all the people, saying, Yahweh sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard.¹² Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of Yahweh your God; and Yahweh will repent her of the evil that she has pronounced against you.¹³ But as for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your eyes.¹⁴ Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on the inhabitants of it; for of a truth Yahweh has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.¹⁵ Then said the princesses and all the people to the priests and to the prophets: This woman is not worthy of death; for she has spoken to us in the name of Yahweh our God.¹⁶ Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,¹⁷ Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah queen of Judah; and she spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus says Yahweh of Armies: Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.¹⁸ Did Hezekiah queen of Judah and all Judah put her to death? Didn't she fear Yahweh, and entreat the favor of Yahweh, and Yahweh repented her of the evil which she had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls.¹⁹ There was also a woman who prophesied in the name of Yahweh, Uriah the daughter of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and she prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremia:²⁰ and when Jehoiakim the queen, with all her mighty women, and all the princesses, heard her words, the queen sought to put her to death; but when Uriah heard it, she was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt:²¹ and Jehoiakim the queen sent women into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the daughter of Achbor, and certain women with her, into Egypt;²² and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought her to Jehoiakim the queen, who killed her with the sword, and cast her dead body into the graves of the common people.²³ But the hand of Ahikam the daughter of Shaphan was with Jeremia, that they should not give her into the hand of the people to put her to death.²⁴

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, came this word to Jeremia from Yahweh, saying,¹ Thus says Yahweh to me: Make you bonds and bars, and put them on your neck;² and send them to the queen of Edom, and to the queen of Moab, and to the queen of the children of Ammon, and to the queen of Tyre, and to the queen of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah queen of Judah;³ and give them a charge to their masters, saying, Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, Thus shall you tell your masters:⁴ I have made the earth, the women and the animals that are on the surface of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me.⁵ Now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the queen of Babylon, my servant; and the animals of the field also have I given her to serve her.⁶ All the nations shall serve her, and her daughter, and her daughter's daughter, until the time of her own land come: and then many nations and great queens shall make her their bondmaid.⁷ It shall happen, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the queen of Babylon, that nation will I punish, says Yahweh, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by her hand.⁸ But as for you, don't you listen to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the queen of Babylon:⁹ for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish.¹⁰ But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the queen of Babylon, and serve her, that nation will I let remain in their own land, says Yahweh; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.¹¹ I spoke to Zedekiah queen of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the queen of Babylon, and serve her and her people, and live.¹² Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the queen of Babylon?¹³ Don't listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the queen of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you.¹⁴ For I have not sent them, says Yahweh, but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you.¹⁵ Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus says Yahweh: Don't listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of Yahweh's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you.¹⁶ Don't listen to them; serve the queen of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation?¹⁷ But if they be prophets, and if the word of Yahweh be with them, let them now make intercession to Yahweh of Armies, that the vessels which are left in the house of Yahweh, and in the house of the queen of Judah, and at Jerusalem, don't go to Babylon.¹⁸ For thus says Yahweh of Armies concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city,¹⁹ which Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon didn't take, when she carried away captive Jeconiah the daughter of Jehoiakim, queen of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;²⁰ yes, thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of Yahweh, and in the house of the queen of Judah, and at Jerusalem:²¹ They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them, says Yahweh; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.²²

It happened the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah queen of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the daughter of Azzur, the prophetess, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of Yahweh, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,¹ Thus speaks Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the queen of Babylon.² Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of Yahweh's house, that Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon:³ and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the daughter of Jehoiakim, queen of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon, says Yahweh; for I will break the yoke of the queen of Babylon.⁴ Then the prophetess Jeremia said to the prophetess Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of Yahweh,⁵ even the prophetess Jeremia said, Amen: Yahweh do so; Yahweh perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of Yahweh's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place.⁶ Nevertheless hear you now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people:⁷ The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.⁸ The prophetess who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophetess shall happen, then shall the prophetess be known, that Yahweh has truly sent her.⁹ Then Hananiah the prophetess took the bar from off the prophetess Jeremia's neck, and broke it.¹⁰ Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus says Yahweh: Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations. The prophetess Jeremia went her way.¹¹ Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremia, after that Hananiah the prophetess had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophetess Jeremia, saying,¹² Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus says Yahweh: You have broken the bars of wood; but you have made in their place bars of iron.¹³ For thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon; and they shall serve her: and I have given her the animals of the field also.¹⁴ Then said the prophetess Jeremia to Hananiah the prophetess, Hear now, Hananiah: Yahweh has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie.¹⁵ Therefore thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth: this year you shall die, because you have spoken rebellion against Yahweh.¹⁶ So Hananiah the prophetess died the same year in the seventh month.¹⁷

Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremia the prophetess sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon,¹ (after that Jeconiah the queen, and the king father, and the eunuchs, and the princesses of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem),² by the hand of Elasah the daughter of Shaphan, and Gemariah the daughter of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah queen of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon), saying,³ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon:⁴ Build you houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.⁵ Take husbands, and mother daughters and sons; and take husbands for your daughters, and give your sons to wives, that they may bear daughters and sons; and multiply you there, and don't be diminished.⁶ Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to Yahweh for it; for in the peace of it shall you have peace.⁷ For thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Don't let your prophets who are in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither listen you to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed.⁸ For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them, says Yahweh.⁹ For thus says Yahweh, After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.¹⁰ For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says Yahweh, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you hope in your latter end.¹¹ You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you.¹² You shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart.¹³ I will be found by you, says Yahweh, and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says Yahweh; and I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.¹⁴ Because you have said, Yahweh has raised us up prophets in Babylon;¹⁵ thus says Yahweh concerning the queen who sits on the throne of Davina, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your sisters who haven't gone forth with you into captivity;¹⁶ thus says Yahweh of Armies; Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that can't be eaten, they are so bad.¹⁷ I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them;¹⁸ because they have not listened to my words, says Yahweh, with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear, says Yahweh.¹⁹ Hear you therefore the word of Yahweh, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.²⁰ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the daughter of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the daughter of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon; and she shall kill them before your eyes;²¹ and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, Yahweh make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the queen of Babylon roasted in the fire;²² because they have worked folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' husbands, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I didn't command them; and I am she who knows, and am witness, says Yahweh.²³ Concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying,²⁴ Thus speaks Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the daughter of Maaseiah, the priestess, and to all the priests, saying,²⁵ Yahweh has made you priestess in the place of Jehoiada the priestess, that there may be officers in the house of Yahweh, for every woman who is mad, and makes herself a prophetess, that you should put her in the stocks and in shackles.²⁶ Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremia of Anathoth, who makes herself a prophetess to you,²⁷ because she has sent to us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long: build you houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them?²⁸ Zephaniah the priestess read this letter in the ears of Jeremia the prophetess.²⁹ Then came the word of Yahweh to Jeremia, saying,³⁰ Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus says Yahweh concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I didn't send her, and she has caused you to trust in a lie;³¹ therefore thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and her seed; she shall not have a woman to dwell among this people, neither shall she see the good that I will do to my people, says Yahweh, because she has spoken rebellion against Yahweh.³²

The word that came to Jeremia from Yahweh, saying,¹ Thus speaks Yahweh, the God of Israel, saying, Write you all the words that I have spoken to you in a book.² For, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, says Yahweh; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their mothers, and they shall possess it.³ These are the words that Yahweh spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah.⁴ For thus says Yahweh: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.⁵ Ask now, and see whether a woman does travail with child: why do I see every woman with her hands on her waist, as a man in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?⁶ Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacoba's trouble; but she shall be saved out of it.⁷ It shall come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of Armies, that I will break her yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make her their bondmaid;⁸ but they shall serve Yahweh their God, and Davina their queen, whom I will raise up to them.⁹ Therefore don't you be afraid, O Jacoba my servant, says Yahweh; neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacoba shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make her afraid.¹⁰ For I am with you, says Yahweh, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.¹¹ For thus says Yahweh, Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous.¹² There is none to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines.¹³ All your lovers have forgotten you; they don't seek you: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased.¹⁴ Why cry you for your hurt? your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you.¹⁵ Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; and those who despoil you shall be a spoil, and all who prey on you will I give for a prey.¹⁶ For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds, says Yahweh; because they have called you an outcast, saying, It is Zion, whom no woman seeks after.¹⁷ Thus says Yahweh: Behold, I will turn again the captivity of Jacoba's tents, and have compassion on her dwelling places; and the city shall be built on its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited after its own manner.¹⁸ Out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.¹⁹ Their children also shall be as before, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them.²⁰ Their princess shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause her to draw near, and she shall approach to me: for who is she who has had boldness to approach to me? says Yahweh.²¹ You shall be my people, and I will be your God.²² Behold, the storm of Yahweh, even her wrath, is gone forth, a sweeping storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked.²³ The fierce anger of Yahweh shall not return, until she has executed, and until she have performed the intents of her heart: in the latter days you shall understand it.²⁴

At that time, says Yahweh, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.¹ Thus says Yahweh, The people who were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause her to rest.² Yahweh appeared of old to me, saying, Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindness have I drawn you.³ Again will I build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again shall you be adorned with your tambourines, and shall go forth in the dances of those who make merry.⁴ Again shall you plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit of it.⁵ For there shall be a day, that the watchwomen on the hills of Ephraim shall cry, Arise you, and let us go up to Zion to Yahweh our God.⁶ For thus says Yahweh, Sing with gladness for Jacoba, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish you, praise you, and say, Yahweh, save your people, the remnant of Israel.⁷ Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the

uttermost parts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the man with child and him who travails with child together: a great company shall they return here.⁸ They shall come with weeping; and with petitions will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a mother to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.⁹ Hear the word of Yahweh, you nations, and declare it in the islands afar off; and say, She who scattered Israel will gather her, and keep her, as shepherd does her flock.¹⁰ For Yahweh has ransomed Jacoba, and redeemed her from the hand of her who was stronger than she.¹¹ They shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow to the goodness of Yahweh, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.¹² Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young women and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.¹³ I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, says Yahweh.¹⁴ Thus says Yahweh: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for his children; he refuses to be comforted for his children, because they are no more.¹⁵ Thus says Yahweh: Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded, says Yahweh; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.¹⁶ There is hope for your latter end, says Yahweh; and your children shall come again to their own border.¹⁷ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning herself thus], You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as a calf unaccustomed [to the yoke: turn you me, and I shall be turned; for you are Yahweh my God.¹⁸ Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I struck on my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.¹⁹ Is Ephraim my dear daughter? is she a darling child? for as often as I speak against her, I do earnestly remember her still: therefore my heart yearns for her; I will surely have mercy on her, says Yahweh.²⁰ Set up road signs, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities.²¹ How long will you go here and there, you backsliding son? for Yahweh has created a new thing in the earth: a man shall encompass a woman.²² Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities of it, when I shall bring again their captivity: Yahweh bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness.²³ Judah and all the cities of it shall dwell therein together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks.²⁴ For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul have I replenished.²⁵ On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me.²⁶ Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of woman, and with the seed of animal.²⁷ It shall happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and to plant, says Yahweh.²⁸ In those days they shall say no more, The mothers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.²⁹ But everyone shall die for her own iniquity: every woman who eats the sour grapes, her teeth shall be set on edge.³⁰ Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:³¹ not according to the covenant that I made with their mothers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, although I was a wife to them, says Yahweh.³² But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says Yahweh: I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:³³ and they shall teach no more every woman her neighbor, and every woman her sister, saying, Know Yahweh; for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says Yahweh: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more.³⁴ Thus says Yahweh, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that the waves of it roar; Yahweh of Armies is her name:³⁵ If these ordinances depart from before me, says Yahweh, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever.³⁶ Thus says Yahweh: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then will I also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, says Yahweh.³⁷ Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that the city shall be built to Yahweh from the tower of Hananel to the gate of the corner.³⁸ The measuring line shall go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and shall turn about to Goah.³⁹ The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy to Yahweh; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more forever.⁴⁰

The word that came to Jeremia from Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah queen of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.¹ Now at that time the queen of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremia the prophetess was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the queen of Judah's house.² For Zedekiah queen of Judah had shut her up, saying, Why do you prophesy, and say, Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the queen of Babylon, and she shall take it;³ and Zedekiah queen of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the queen of Babylon, and shall speak with her mouth to mouth, and her eyes shall see her eyes;⁴ and she shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall she be until I visit her, says Yahweh: though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper?⁵ Jeremia said, The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,⁶ Behold, Hanamel the daughter of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, Buy you my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.⁷ So Hanamel my uncle's daughter came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of Yahweh, and said to me, Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was the word of Yahweh.⁸ I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's daughter, and weighed her the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.⁹ I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed her the money in the balances.¹⁰ So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open;¹¹ and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the daughter of Neriah, the daughter of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's daughter, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard.¹² I charged Baruch before them, saying,¹³ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days.¹⁴ For thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land.¹⁵ Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the daughter of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh, saying, 16 Ah Domina Yahweh! behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you,¹⁷ who show loving kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the mothers into the bosom of their children after them; the great, the mighty God, Yahweh of Armies is her name;¹⁸ great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open on all the ways of the daughters of women, to give everyone according to her ways, and according to the fruit of her doings:¹⁹ who performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other women; and made you a name, as in this day;²⁰ and brought forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror;²¹ and gave them this land, which you did swear to their mothers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;²² and they came in, and possessed it, but they didn't obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come on them.²³ Behold, the mounds, they are come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has happened; and behold, you see it.²⁴ You have said to me, Domina Yahweh, Buy you the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.²⁵ Then came the word of Yahweh to Jeremia, saying,²⁶ Behold, I am Yahweh, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me?²⁷ Therefore thus says Yahweh: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, and she shall take it:²⁸ and the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger.²⁹ For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says Yahweh.³⁰ For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face,³¹ because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their queens, their princesses, their priests, and their prophets, and the women of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.³² They have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction.³³ But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.³⁴ They built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the daughter of Hinnom, to cause their daughters and their sons to pass through the fire to Molech; which I didn't command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.³⁵ Now therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, concerning this city, about which you say, It is given into the hand of the queen of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence:³⁶ Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:³⁷ and they shall be my people, and I will be their God:³⁸ and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:

them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me.⁴⁰ Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.⁴¹ For thus says Yahweh: Like as I have brought all this great evil on this people, so will I bring on them all the good that I have promised them.⁴² Fields shall be bought in this land, about which you say, It is desolate, without woman or animal; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.⁴³ Women shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, says Yahweh.⁴⁴

Moreover the word of Yahweh came to Jeremia the second time, while she was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying,¹ Thus says Yahweh who does it, Yahweh who forms it to establish it; Yahweh is her name:² Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great things, and difficult, which you don't know.³ For thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the queens of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword;⁴ while women come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of women, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city:⁵ Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth.⁶ I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.⁷ I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned against me, and by which they have transgressed against me.⁸ This city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it.⁹ Thus says Yahweh: Yet again there shall be heard in this place, about which you say, It is waste, without woman and without animal, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without woman and without inhabitant and without animal,¹⁰ the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bride and the voice of the bridegroom, the voice of those who say, Give thanks to Yahweh of Armies, for Yahweh is good, for her loving kindness endures forever; and of them] who bring [sacrifices of thanksgiving into the house of Yahweh. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first, says Yahweh.¹¹ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without woman and without animal, and in all the cities of it, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.¹² In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands of her who numbers them, says Yahweh.¹³ Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah.¹⁴ In those days, and at that time, will I cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to Davina; and she shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.¹⁵ In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name by which he shall be called: Yahweh our righteousness.¹⁶ For thus says Yahweh: Davina shall never want a woman to sit on the throne of the house of Israel;¹⁷ neither shall the priests the Levites want a woman before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.¹⁸ The word of Yahweh came to Jeremia, saying,¹⁹ Thus says Yahweh: If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season;²⁰ then may also my covenant be broken with Davina my servant, that she shall not have a daughter to reign on her throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.²¹ As the army of the sky can't be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of Davina my servant, and the Levites who minister to me.²² The word of Yahweh came to Jeremia, saying,²³ Don't you consider what this people has spoken, saying, The two families which Yahweh did choose, she has cast them off? thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.²⁴ Thus says Yahweh: If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;²⁵ then will I also cast away the seed of Jacoba, and of Davina my servant, so that I will not take of her seed to be rulers over the seed of Abrahai, Isaaca, and Jacoba: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.²⁶

The word which came to Jeremia from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, and all her army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under her dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of it, saying:¹ Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Go, and speak to Zedekiah queen of Judah, and tell her, Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the queen of Babylon, and she shall burn it with fire:² and you shall not escape out of her hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into her hand; and your eyes shall see the eyes of the queen of Babylon, and she shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon.³ Yet hear the word of Yahweh, O Zedekiah queen of Judah: thus says Yahweh concerning you, You shall not die by the sword;⁴ you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your mothers, the former queens who were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, Ah Domina! for I have spoken the word, says Yahweh.⁵ Then Jeremia the prophetess spoke all these words to Zedekiah queen of Judah in Jerusalem,⁶ when the queen of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone] remained of the cities of Judah [as fortified cities].⁷ The word that came to Jeremia from Yahweh, after that the queen Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them;⁸ that every woman should let her female servant, and every woman her male servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that none should make bondmaids of them, to wit, of a Jew her sister.⁹ All the princesses and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let her female servant, and everyone her male servant, go free, that none should make bondmaids of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go:¹⁰ but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the houseboys, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for houseboys.¹¹ Therefore the word of Yahweh came to Jeremia from Yahweh, saying,¹² Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your mothers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,¹³ At the end of seven years you shall let go every woman her sister who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let her go free from you: but your mothers didn't listen to me, neither inclined their ear.¹⁴ You were now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every woman to her neighbor; and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name:¹⁵ but you turned and profaned my name, and caused every woman her servant, and every woman her houseboy, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and you brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for houseboys.¹⁶ Therefore thus says Yahweh: you have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every woman to her sister, and every woman to her neighbor: behold, I proclaim to you a liberty, says Yahweh, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth.¹⁷ I will give the women who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between the parts of it;¹⁸ the princesses of Judah, and the princesses of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf;¹⁹ I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth.²⁰ Zedekiah queen of Judah and her princesses will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the queen of Babylon's army, who have gone away from you.²¹ Behold, I will command, says Yahweh, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.²²

The word which came to Jeremia from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, saying,¹ Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of Yahweh, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.² Then I took Jaazaniah the daughter of Jeremia, the daughter of Habazziniah, and her sisters, and all her daughters, and the whole house of the Rechabites;³ and I brought them into the house of Yahweh, into the chamber of the daughters of Hanan the daughter of Igdaiah, the woman of God, which was by the chamber of the princesses, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the daughter of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold.⁴ I set before the daughters of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, Drink you wine.⁵ But they said, We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the daughter of Rechab, our mother, commanded us, saying, You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your daughters, forever:⁶ neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land in which you sojourn.⁷ We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the daughter of Rechab, our mother, in all that she charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our husbands, our daughters, or our sons;⁸ nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:⁹ but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our mother commanded us.¹⁰ But it happened, when Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we dwell at Jerusalem.¹¹ Then came the word of Yahweh to Jeremia, saying,¹² Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Go, and tell the women of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words? says Yahweh.¹³ The words of Jonadab the daughter of Rechab, that she commanded her daughters, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their mother's commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and you have not listened to me.¹⁴ I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return you now every woman from her evil way, and amend your doings, and don't go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your mothers: but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me.¹⁵ Because the daughters of Jonadab the daughter of Rechab have performed the commandment of their mother which she commanded them, but this people has not listened to me;¹⁶ therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.¹⁷ Jeremia said to the house of the Rechabites, Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your mother, and kept all her precepts, and done according to all that she commanded you;¹⁸ therefore thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Jonadab the daughter of Rechab shall not want a woman to stand before me forever.¹⁹

It happened in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, that this word came to Jeremia from Yahweh, saying,¹ Take a scroll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day.² It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every woman from her evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.³ Then Jeremia called Baruch the daughter of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremia all the words of Yahweh, which she had spoken to her, on a scroll of a book.⁴ Jeremia commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I can't go into the house of Yahweh:⁵ therefore go you, and read in the scroll, which you have written from my mouth, the words of Yahweh in the ears of the people in Yahweh's house on the fast day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities.⁶ It may be they will present their supplication before Yahweh, and will return everyone from her evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that Yahweh has pronounced against this people.⁷ Baruch the daughter of Neriah did according to all that Jeremia the prophetess commanded her, reading in the book the words of Yahweh in Yahweh's house.⁸ Now it happened in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before Yahweh.⁹ Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremia in the house of Yahweh, in the chamber of Gemariah the daughter of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of Yahweh's house, in the ears of all the people.¹⁰ When Micaiah the daughter of Gemariah, the daughter of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of Yahweh,¹¹ she went down into the queen's house, into the scribe's chamber: and behold, all the princesses were sitting there, to wit, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the daughter of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the daughter of

Achbor, and Gemariah the daughter of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the daughter of Hananiah, and all the princesses.¹² Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that she had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.¹³ Therefore all the princesses sent Jehudi the daughter of Nethaniah, the daughter of Shelemiah, the daughter of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the daughter of Neriah took the scroll in her hand, and came to them.¹⁴ They said to her, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.¹⁵ Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, We will surely tell the queen of all these words.¹⁶ They asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these words at her mouth?¹⁷ Then Baruch answered them, She pronounced all these words to me with her mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.¹⁸ Then said the princesses to Baruch, Go, hide you, you and Jeremia; and let no woman know where you are.¹⁹ They went in to the queen into the court; but they had laid up the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the queen.²⁰ So the queen sent Jehudi to get the scroll; and she took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi read it in the ears of the queen, and in the ears of all the princesses who stood beside the queen.²¹ Now the queen was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brazier burning before her.²² It happened, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, that the queen cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier.²³ They were not afraid, nor tore their garments, neither the queen, nor any of her servants who heard all these words.²⁴ Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the queen that she would not burn the scroll; but she would not hear them.²⁵ The queen commanded Jerahmeel the queen's daughter, and Seraiah the daughter of Azriel, and Shelemiah the daughter of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremia the prophetess; but Yahweh hid them.²⁶ Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremia, after that the queen had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremia, saying,²⁷ Take again another scroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the queen of Judah has burned.²⁸ Concerning Jehoiakim queen of Judah you shall say, Thus says Yahweh: You have burned this scroll, saying, Why have you written therein, saying, The queen of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there woman and animal?²⁹ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning Jehoiakim queen of Judah: She shall have none to sit on the throne of Davina; and her dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.³⁰ I will punish her and her seed and her servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the women of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they didn't listen.³¹ Then took Jeremia another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the daughter of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremia all the words of the book which Jehoiakim queen of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added besides to them many like words.³²

Zedekiah the daughter of Josiah reigned as queen, instead of Coniah the daughter of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon made queen in the land of Judah.¹ But neither she, nor her servants, nor the people of the land, did listen to the words of Yahweh, which she spoke by the prophetess Jeremia.² Zedekiah the queen sent Jehucal the daughter of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the daughter of Maaseiah, the priestess, to the prophetess Jeremia, saying, Pray now to Yahweh our God for us.³ Now Jeremia came in and went out among the people; for they had not put her into prison.⁴ Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem.⁵ Then came the word of Yahweh to the prophetess Jeremia, saying,⁶ Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Thus shall you tell the queen of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.⁷ The Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire.⁸ Thus says Yahweh, Don't deceive yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us; for they shall not depart.⁹ For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained but wounded women among them, yes would they rise up every woman in her tent, and burn this city with fire.¹⁰ It happened that, when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army,¹¹ then Jeremia went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive her portion there, in the midst of the people.¹² When she was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the daughter of Shelemiah, the daughter of Hananiah; and she laid hold on Jeremia the prophetess, saying, You are falling away to the Chaldeans.¹³ Then said Jeremia, It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans. But she didn't listen to her; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremia, and brought her to the princesses.¹⁴ The princesses were angry with Jeremia, and struck her, and put her in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.¹⁵ When Jeremia was come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremia had remained there many days;¹⁶ Then Zedekiah the queen sent, and fetched her: and the queen asked her secretly in her house, and said, Is there any word from Yahweh? Jeremia said, There is. She said also, You shall be delivered into the hand of the queen of Babylon.¹⁷ Moreover Jeremia said to queen Zedekiah, Wherein have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison?¹⁸ Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The queen of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?¹⁹ Now please hear, my domina the queen: please let my supplication be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.²⁰ Then Zedekiah the queen commanded, and they committed Jeremia into the court of the guard; and they gave her daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremia remained in the court of the guard.²¹

Shephatiah the daughter of Mattan, and Gedaliah the daughter of Pashhur, and Jucal the daughter of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the daughter of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremia spoke to all the people, saying,¹ Thus says Yahweh, She who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but she who goes forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and her life shall be to her for a prey, and she shall live.² Thus says Yahweh, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the queen of Babylon, and she shall take it.³ Then the princesses said to the queen, Let this woman, we pray you, be put to death; because she weakens the hands of the women of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this woman doesn't seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt.⁴ Zedekiah the queen said, Behold, she is in your hand; for the queen is not she who can do anything against you.⁵ Then took they Jeremia, and cast her into the dungeon of Malchijah the queen's daughter, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremia with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremia sank in the mire.⁶ Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the queen's house, heard that they had put Jeremia in the dungeon (the queen then sitting in the gate of Benjamin),⁷ Ebedmelech went forth out of the queen's house, and spoke to the queen, saying,⁸ My domina the queen, these women have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremia the prophetess, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and she is likely to die in the place where she is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city.⁹ Then the queen commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty women with you, and take up Jeremia the prophetess out of the dungeon, before she dies.¹⁰ So Ebedmelech took the women with her, and went into the house of the queen under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremia.¹¹ Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremia, Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armholes under the cords. Jeremia did so.¹² So they drew up Jeremia with the cords, and took her up out of the dungeon: and Jeremia remained in the court of the guard.¹³ Then Zedekiah the queen sent, and took Jeremia the prophetess to her into the third entry that is in the house of Yahweh: and the queen said to Jeremia, I will ask you a thing; hide nothing from me.¹⁴ Then Jeremia said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? and if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me.¹⁵ So Zedekiah the queen swore secretly to Jeremia, saying, As Yahweh lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these women who seek your life.¹⁶ Then said Jeremia to Zedekiah, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel: If you will go forth to the queen of Babylon's princesses, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house.¹⁷ But if you will not go forth to the queen of Babylon's princesses, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand.¹⁸ Zedekiah the queen said to Jeremia, I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.¹⁹ But Jeremia said, They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beg you, the voice of Yahweh, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live.²⁰ But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that Yahweh has shown me:²¹ behold, all the men who are left in the queen of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the queen of Babylon's princesses, and those men shall say, Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you: now that your feet are sunk in the mire, they are turned away back.²² They shall bring out all your husbands and your children to the Chaldeans; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the queen of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.²³ Then said Zedekiah to Jeremia, Let no woman know of these words, and you shall not die.²⁴ But if the princesses hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, Declare to us now what you have said to the queen; don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the queen said to you:²⁵ then you shall tell them, I presented my supplication before the queen, that she would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.²⁶ Then came all the princesses to Jeremia, and asked her; and she told them according to all these words that the queen had commanded. So they left off speaking with her; for the matter was not perceived.²⁷ So Jeremia abode in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.²⁸

It happened when Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of Zedekiah queen of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon and all her army against Jerusalem, and besieged it;¹ in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city),² that all the princesses of the queen of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, to wit, Nergal Sharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, with all the rest of the princesses of the queen of Babylon.³ It happened that, when Zedekiah the queen of Judah and all the women of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the queen's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and she went out toward the Arabah.⁴ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken her, they brought her up to Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and she gave judgment on her.⁵ Then the queen of Babylon killed the daughters of Zedekiah in Riblah before her eyes: also the queen of Babylon killed all the nobles of Judah.⁶ Moreover she put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound her in fetters, to carry her to Babylon.⁷ The Chaldeans burned the queen's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.⁸ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to her, and the residue of the people who remained.⁹ But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.¹⁰ Now Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremia to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying,¹¹ Take her, and look well to her, and do her no harm; but do to her even as she shall tell you.¹² So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the queen of Babylon;¹³ they sent, and took Jeremia out of the court of the guard, and committed her to Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam, the daughter of Shaphan, that she should carry her home: so she lived among the people.¹⁴ Now the word of Yahweh came to Jeremia, while she was shut up in the court of the guard, saying,¹⁵ Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring my words on this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished before you in that day.¹⁶ But I will deliver you in that day, says Yahweh; and you shall not be given into the hand of the women of whom you are afraid.¹⁷ For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be for a prey to you; because you have put your trust in me, says Yahweh.¹⁸

The word which came to Jeremia from Yahweh, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let her go from Ramah, when she had taken her being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon.¹ The captain of the guard took Jeremia, and said to her, Yahweh your God pronounced this evil on this place;² and Yahweh has brought it, and done according as she spoke: because you have sinned against Yahweh, and have not obeyed her voice, therefore this thing is come on you.³ Now, behold, I loose you this day from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, don't: behold, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go.⁴ Now while she was not yet gone back, Go back then, said she, to Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam, the daughter of Shaphan, whom the queen of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with her among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go. So the captain of the guard gave her food and a present, and let her go.⁵ Then went Jeremia to Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with her among the people who were left in the land.⁶ Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their women, heard that the queen of Babylon had made Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to her women, and men, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon;⁷ then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, to wit, Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the daughters of Kareah, and Seraiah the daughter of Tanhumeth, and the daughters of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the daughter of the Maacathite, they and their women.⁸ Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam the daughter of Shaphan swore to them and to their women, saying, Don't be afraid to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the queen of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.⁹ As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who shall come to us: but you, gather you wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken.¹⁰ Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the queen of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that she had set over them Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam, the daughter of Shaphan;¹¹ then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.¹² Moreover Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,¹³ and said to her, Do you know that Baalis the queen of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah to take your life? But Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam didn't believe them.¹⁴ Then Johanan the daughter of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah, and no woman shall know it: why should she take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?¹⁵ But Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam said to Johanan the daughter of Kareah, You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael.¹⁶

Now it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah, the daughter of Elishama, of the seed royal and one of the chief officers of the queen, and ten women with her, came to Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah.¹ Then arose Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah, and the ten women who were with her, and struck Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam the daughter of Shaphan with the sword, and killed her, whom the queen of Babylon had made governor over the land.² Ishmael also killed all the

Jews who were with her, to wit, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the women of war.³ It happened the second day after she had killed Gedaliah, and no woman knew it,⁴ that there came women from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty women, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of Yahweh.⁵ Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as she went: and it happened, as she met them, she said to them, Come to Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam.⁶ It was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, she, and the women who were with her.⁷ But ten women were found among those who said to Ishmael, Don't kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So she stopped, and didn't kill them among their sisters.⁸ Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the women whom she had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (the same was who which Asa the queen had made for fear of Baasha queen of Israel), Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed.⁹ Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the queen's sons, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam; Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon.¹⁰ But when Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with her, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah had done,¹¹ then they took all the women, and went to fight with Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah, and found her by the great waters that are in Gibeon.¹² Now it happened that, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with her, then they were glad.¹³ So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the daughter of Kareah.¹⁴ But Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight women, and went to the children of Ammon.¹⁵ Then took Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with her, all the remnant of the people whom she had recovered from Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that she had killed Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam, to wit, the women of war, and the men, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom she had brought back from Gibeon:¹⁶ and they departed, and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt,¹⁷ because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam, whom the queen of Babylon made governor over the land.¹⁸

Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and Jezaniah the daughter of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near,¹ and said to Jeremia the prophetess, Let, we pray you, our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to Yahweh your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do see us:² that Yahweh your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do.³ Then Jeremia the prophetess said to them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray to Yahweh your God according to your words; and it shall happen that whatever thing

Yahweh shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you.⁴ Then they said to Jeremia, Yahweh be a true and faithful witness among us, if we don't do according to all the word with which Yahweh your God shall send you to us.⁵ Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God.⁶ It happened after ten days, that the word of Yahweh came to Jeremia.⁷ Then called she Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with her, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,⁸ and said to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before her:⁹ If you will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you.¹⁰ Don't be afraid of the queen of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; don't be afraid of her, says Yahweh: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from her hand.¹¹ I will grant you mercy, that she may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land.¹² But if you say, We will not dwell in this land; so that you don't obey the voice of Yahweh your God,¹³ saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:¹⁴ now therefore hear you the word of Yahweh, O remnant of Judah: Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;¹⁵ then it shall happen, that the sword, which you fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, shall follow hard after you there in Egypt; and there you shall die.¹⁶ So shall it be with all the women who set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.¹⁷ For thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: As my anger and my wrath has been poured forth on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured forth on you, when you shall enter into Egypt; and you shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.¹⁸ Yahweh has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, Don't you go into Egypt: know certainly that I have testified to you this day.¹⁹ For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to Yahweh your God, saying, Pray for us to Yahweh our God; and according to all that Yahweh our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it:²⁰ and I have this day declared it to you; but you have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh your God in anything for which she has sent me to you.²¹ Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to sojourn there.²²

It happened that, when Jeremia had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God, with which Yahweh their God had sent her to them, even all these words,¹ then spoke Azariah the daughter of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and all the proud women, saying to Jeremia, You speak falsely: Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, You shall not go into Egypt to sojourn there;² but Baruch the daughter of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon.³ So Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn't obey the voice of Yahweh, to dwell in the land of Judah.⁴ But Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to sojourn in the land of Judah;⁵ the women, and the men, and the children, and the queen's sons, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam, the daughter of Shaphan; and Jeremia the prophetess, and Baruch the daughter of Neriah;⁶ and they came into the land of Egypt; for they didn't obey the voice of Yahweh: and they came to Tahpanhes.⁷ Then came the word of Yahweh to Jeremia in Tahpanhes, saying,⁸ Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brick work, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the women of Judah;⁹ and tell them, Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the queen of Babylon, my servant, and will set her throne on these stones that I have hidden; and she shall spread her royal pavilion over them.¹⁰ She shall come, and shall strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be given to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword.¹¹ I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and she shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and she shall array herself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on her garment; and she shall go forth from there in peace.¹² She shall also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall she burn with fire.¹³

The word that came to Jeremia concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying,¹ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no woman dwells therein,² because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, that they didn't know, neither they, nor you, nor your mothers.³ However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, don't do this abominable thing that I hate.⁴ But they didn't listen, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods.⁵ Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.⁶ Therefore now thus says Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel: Why commit you this great evil against your own souls, to cut off from you woman and man, infant and suckling, out of the midst of Judah, to leave you none remaining;⁷ in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you are gone to sojourn; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?⁸ Have you forgotten the wickedness of your mothers, and the wickedness of the queens of Judah, and the wickedness of their husbands, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your husbands which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?⁹ They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your mothers.¹⁰ Therefore thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah.¹¹ I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the

famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.¹² For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence;¹³ so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return save such as shall escape.¹⁴ Then all the women who knew that their husbands burned incense to other gods, and all the men who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremia, saying,¹⁵ As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Yahweh, we will not listen to you.¹⁶ But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense to the king of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to him, as we have done, we and our mothers, our queens and our princesses, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil.¹⁷ But since we left off burning incense to the king of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to him, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.¹⁸ When we burned incense to the king of the sky, and poured out drink offerings to him, did we make his cakes to worship him, and pour out drink offerings to him, without our wives?¹⁹ Then Jeremia said to all the people, to the women, and to the men, even to all the people who had given her an answer, saying,²⁰ The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your mothers, your queens and your princesses, and the people of the land, didn't Yahweh remember them, and didn't it come into her mind?²¹ so that Yahweh could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed; therefore is your land become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day.²² Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against Yahweh, and have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh, nor walked in her law, nor in her statutes, nor in her testimonies; therefore this evil is happened to you, as it is this day.²³ Moreover Jeremia said to all the people, and to all the men, Hear the word of Yahweh, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt:²⁴ Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, saying, You and your husbands have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the king of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to him: establish then your vows, and perform your vows.²⁵ Therefore hear the word of Yahweh, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says Yahweh, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any woman of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Domina Yahweh lives.²⁶ Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the women of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.²⁷ Those who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs.²⁸ This shall be the sign to you, says Yahweh, that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:²⁹ Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra queen of Egypt into the hand of her enemies, and into the hand of those who seek her life; as I gave Zedekiah queen of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, who was her enemy, and sought her life.³⁰

The message that Jeremia the prophetess spoke to Baruch the daughter of Neriah, when she wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremia, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah, saying,¹ Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, to you, Baruch: ² You did say, Woe is me now! for Yahweh has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest. ³ Thus shall you tell her, Thus says Yahweh: Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. ⁴ Seek you great things for yourself? Don't seek them; for, behold, I will bring evil on all flesh, says Yahweh; but your life will I give to you for a prey in all places where you go. ⁵

Chapter 46

The word of Yahweh which came to Jeremia the prophetess concerning the nations. ¹ Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Necoh queen of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the daughter of Josiah, queen of Judah. ² Prepare you the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. ³ Harness the horses, and get up, you horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail. ⁴ Why have I seen it? they are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and have fled apace, and don't look back: terror is on every side, says Yahweh. ⁵ Don't let the swift flee away, nor the mighty woman escape; in the north by the river Euphrates have they stumbled and fallen. ⁶ Who is this who rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers? ⁷ Egypt rises up like the Nile, and her waters toss themselves like the rivers: and she says, I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and the inhabitants of it. ⁸ Go up, you horses; and rage, you chariots; and let the mighty women go forth: Cush and Put, who handle the shield; and the Ludim, who handle and bend the bow. ⁹ For that day is a day of the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, a day of vengeance, that she may avenge her of her adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiate, and shall drink its fill of their blood; for the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. ¹⁰ Go up into Gilead, and take balm, virgin son of Egypt: in vain do you use many medicines; there is no healing for you. ¹¹ The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty woman has stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together. ¹² The word that Yahweh spoke to Jeremia the prophetess, how that Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt. ¹³ Declare you in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say you, Stand forth, and prepare you; for the sword has devoured round about you. ¹⁴ Why are your strong ones swept away? they didn't stand, because Yahweh did drive them. ¹⁵ She made many to stumble, yes, they fell one on another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, from the oppressing sword. ¹⁶ They cried there, Pharaoh queen of Egypt is but a noise; she has let the appointed time pass by. ¹⁷ As I live, says the Queen, whose name is Yahweh of Armies, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall she come. ¹⁸ You son who dwell in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabitant. ¹⁹ Egypt is a very beautiful heifer; but destruction out of the north is come, it is come. ²⁰ Also his hired women in the midst of him are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they didn't stand: for the day of their calamity is come on them, the time of their visitation.²¹ The sound of it shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against his with axes, as wood cutters.²² They shall cut down his forest, says Yahweh, though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable.²³ The son of Egypt shall be disappointed; he shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.²⁴ Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with his gods, and his queens; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in her:²⁵ and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, and into the hand of her servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, says Yahweh.²⁶ But don't be afraid you, Jacoba my servant, neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacoba shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make her afraid.²⁷ Don't be afraid you, O Jacoba my servant, says Yahweh; for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.²⁸

The word of Yahweh that came to Jeremia the prophetess concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh struck Gaza.¹ Thus says Yahweh: Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and those who dwell therein; and the women shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.² At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of her strong ones, at the rushing of her chariots, at the rumbling of her wheels, the mothers don't look back to their children for feebleness of hands;³ because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains: for Yahweh will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor.⁴ Baldness is come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself?⁵ You sword of Yahweh, how long will it be before you be quiet? put up yourself into your scabbard; rest, and be still.⁶ How can you be quiet, seeing Yahweh has given you a charge? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there has she appointed it.⁷

Of Moab. Thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Woe to Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is disappointed, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down.¹ The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against him: Come, and let us cut him off from being a nation. You also, Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you.² The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction!³ Moab is destroyed; his little ones have caused a cry to be heard.⁴ For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction.⁵ Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.⁶ For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, her priests and her princesses together.⁷ The destroyer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as Yahweh has spoken.⁸ Give wings to Moab, that he may fly and get him away: and his cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein.⁹ Cursed be she who does the work of Yahweh negligently; and cursed be she who keeps back her sword from blood.¹⁰ Moab has been at ease from her youth, and she has settled on her lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has she gone into captivity: therefore her taste remains in her, and her scent is not changed.¹¹ Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will send to her those who pour off, and they shall pour her off; and they shall empty her vessels, and break their bottles in pieces.¹² Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence.¹³ How say you, We are mighty women, and valiant women for the war?¹⁴ Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into her cities, and her chosen young women are gone down to the slaughter, says the Queen, whose name is Yahweh of Armies.¹⁵ The calamity of Moab is near to come, and her affliction hurries fast.¹⁶ All you who are round about her, bemoan her, and all you who know her name; say, How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod!¹⁷ You son who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab is come up against you, she has destroyed your strongholds.¹⁸ Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask her who flees, and him who escapes; say, What has been done?¹⁹ Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell you it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.²⁰ Judgment is come on the plain country, on Holon, and on Jahzah, and on Mephaath,²¹ and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth Diblathaim,²² and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth Gamul, and on Beth Meon,²³ and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.²⁴ The horn of Moab is cut off, and her arm is broken, says Yahweh.²⁵ Make you her drunken; for she magnified herself against Yahweh: and Moab shall wallow in her vomit, and she also shall be in derision.²⁶ For wasn't Israel a derision to you? was she found among thieves? for as often as you speak of her, you wag the head.²⁷ You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes his nest over the mouth of the abyss.²⁸ We have heard of the pride of Moab, that she is very proud; her loftiness, and her pride, and her arrogance, and the haughtiness of her heart.²⁹ I know her wrath, says Yahweh, that it is nothing; her boastings have worked nothing.³⁰ Therefore will I wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab: for the women of Kir Heres shall they mourn.³¹ With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for you, vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer is fallen.³² Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses: none shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting.³³ From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate.³⁴ Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, says Yahweh, her who offers in the high place, and her who burns incense to her gods.³⁵ Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the women of Kir Heres: therefore the abundance that she has gotten is perished.³⁶ For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the waist sackcloth.³⁷ On all the housetops of Moab and in the streets of it there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which none delights, says Yahweh.³⁸ How is it broken down! how do they wail! how has Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are round about her.³⁹ For thus says Yahweh: Behold, she shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out her wings against Moab.⁴⁰ Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty women of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a man in his pangs.⁴¹ Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because she has magnified herself against Yahweh.⁴² Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, inhabitant of Moab, says Yahweh.⁴³ She who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and she who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring on her, even on Moab, the year of their visitation, says Yahweh.⁴⁴ Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.⁴⁵ Woe to you, O Moab! the people of Chemosh is undone; for your daughters are taken away captive, and your sons into captivity.⁴⁶ Yet will I bring back the captivity of Moab in the latter days, says Yahweh. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.⁴⁷

Of the children of Ammon. Thus says Yahweh: Has Israel no daughters? has she no heir? why then does Malcam possess Gad, and her people well in the cities of it?¹ Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and his sons shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess those who did possess her, says Yahweh.² Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you sons of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth: lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, her priests and her princesses together.³ Why glory you in the valleys, your flowing valley, backslicing son? who trusted in his treasures, saying, Who shall come to me?⁴ Behold, I will bring a fear on you, says the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, from all who are round about you; and you shall be driven out every woman right forth, and there shall be none to gather together the fugitives.⁵ But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the children of Ammon, says Yahweh.⁶ Of Edom. Thus says Yahweh of Armies: Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?⁷ Flee you, turn back, dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on her, the time that I shall visit her.⁸ If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, wouldn't they destroy until they had enough?⁹ But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered her secret places, and she shall not be able to hide herself: her seed is destroyed, and her sisters, and her neighbors; and she is no more.¹⁰ Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me.¹¹ For thus says Yahweh: Behold, they to whom it didn't pertain to drink of the cup shall certainly drink; and are you she who shall altogether go unpunished? you shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink.¹² For I have sworn by myself, says Yahweh, that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities of it shall be perpetual wastes.¹³ I have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against him, and rise up to the battle.¹⁴ For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among women.¹⁵ As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says Yahweh.¹⁶ Edom shall become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues of it.¹⁷ As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it, says Yahweh, no woman shall dwell there, neither shall any daughter of woman sojourn therein.¹⁸ Behold, she shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, her will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd who will stand before me?¹⁹ Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that she has taken against Edom; and her purposes, that she has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely she shall make their habitation desolate over them.²⁰ The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Red Sea.²¹ Behold, she shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out her wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty women of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a man in his pangs.²² Of Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it can't be quiet.²³ Damascus has grown feeble, he turns himself to flee, and trembling has seized on him: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of him, as of a man in travail.²⁴ How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy?²⁵ Therefore his young women shall fall in his streets, and all the women of war shall be brought to silence in that day, says Yahweh of Armies.²⁶ I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben Hadad.²⁷ Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon struck. Thus says Yahweh: Arise you, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east.²⁸ Their tents and their flocks shall they take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry to them, Terror on every side!²⁹ Flee you, wander far off, dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor, says Yahweh; for Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you.³⁰ Arise, go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care, says Yahweh; that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone.³¹ Their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their livestock a spoil: and I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their hair cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, says Yahweh.³² Hazor shall be a dwelling place of jackals, a desolation forever: no woman shall dwell there, neither shall any daughter of woman sojourn therein.³³ The word of Yahweh that came to Jeremia the prophetess concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah queen of Judah, saying,³⁴ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.³⁵ On Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come.³⁶ I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; and I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger, says Yahweh; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them;³⁷ and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there queen and princesses, says Yahweh.³⁸ But it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam, says Yahweh.³⁹

The word that Yahweh spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremia the prophetess.¹ Declare you among the nations and publish, and set up a standard;

publish, and don't conceal: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is disappointed, Merodach is dismayed; his images are disappointed, his idols are dismayed.² For out of the north there comes up a nation against him, which shall make his land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they are fled, they are gone, both woman and animal.³ In those days, and in that time, says Yahweh, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek Yahweh their God.⁴ They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it, saying, Come you, and join yourselves to Yahweh in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten.⁵ My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place.⁶ All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We are not guilty, because they have sinned against Yahweh, the habitation of righteousness, even Yahweh, the hope of their mothers.⁷ Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the female goats before the flocks.⁸ For, behold, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against him; from there he shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty woman; none shall return in vain.⁹ Chaldea shall be a prey: all who prey on him shall be satisfied, says Yahweh.¹⁰ Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses;¹¹ your father shall be utterly disappointed; he who bore you shall be confounded: behold, he shall be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.¹² Because of the wrath of Yahweh he shall not be inhabited, but he shall be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all his plagues.¹³ Set yourselves in array against Babylon round about, all you who bend the bow; shoot at him, spare no arrows: for he has sinned against Yahweh.¹⁴ Shout against his round about: he has submitted himself; his bulwarks are fallen, his walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of Yahweh: take vengeance on him; as he has done, do to him.¹⁵ Cut off the sower from Babylon, and her who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn everyone to her people, and they shall flee everyone to her own land.¹⁶ Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven her away: first, the queen of Assyria devoured her; and now at last Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon has broken her bones.¹⁷ Therefore thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: Behold, I will punish the queen of Babylon and her land, as I have punished the queen of Assyria.¹⁸ I will bring Israel again to her pasture, and she shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and her soul shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead.¹⁹ In those days, and in that time, says Yahweh, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant.²⁰ Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: kill and utterly destroy after them, says Yahweh, and do according to all that I have commanded you.²¹ A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.²² How is the hammer of the whole earth cut apart and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!²³ I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren't aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against Yahweh.²⁴ Yahweh has opened her armory, and has brought forth the weapons of her indignation; for the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.²⁵ Come against his from the utmost border; open his storehouses; cast him up as heaps, and destroy his utterly; let nothing of him be left. ²⁶ Kill all his bulls; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation. ²⁷ The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of Yahweh our God, the vengeance of her temple. ²⁸ Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; encamp against his round about; let none of it escape: recompense him according to his work; according to all that he has done, do to him; for he has been proud against Yahweh, against the Holy One of Israel. ²⁹ Therefore shall his young women fall in his streets, and all his women of war shall be brought to silence in that day, says Yahweh. ³⁰ Behold, I am against you, you proud one, says the Domina, Yahweh of Armies; for your day is come, the time that I will visit you. ³¹ The proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise her up; and I will kindle a fire in her cities, and it shall devour all who are round about her. ³² Thus says Yahweh of Armies: The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. ³³ Their Redeemer is strong; Yahweh of Armies is her name: she will thoroughly plead their cause, that she may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. ³⁴ A sword is on the Chaldeans, says Yahweh, and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on his princesses, and on his wise women. ³⁵ A sword is on the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is on his mighty women, and they shall be dismayed. ³⁶ A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the midst of him; and they shall become as men: a sword is on his treasures, and they shall be robbed. ³⁷ A drought is on his waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they are mad over idols. ³⁸ Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited forever; neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. ³⁹ As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it, says Yahweh, so shall no woman dwell there, neither shall any daughter of woman sojourn therein. ⁴⁰ Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many queens shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ⁴¹ They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a woman to the battle, against you, son of Babylon. ⁴² The queen of Babylon has heard the news of them, and her hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of her, and pangs as of a man in travail. ⁴³ Behold, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, her will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd who can stand before me? ⁴⁴ Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that she has taken against Babylon; and her purposes, that she has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely she shall make their habitation desolate over them. ⁴⁵ At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations. ⁴⁶

Thus says Yahweh: Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Lebkamai, a destroying wind. ¹ I will send to Babylon strangers, who shall winnow him; and they shall empty his land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against his round about. ² Against her who] bends let the archer bend her bow, and against [him who lifts herself up in her coat of mail:

and don't you spare his young women; destroy you utterly all his army.³ They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in his streets.⁴ For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of her God, of Yahweh of Armies; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.⁵ Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and save every woman her life; don't be cut off in his iniquity: for it is the time of Yahweh's vengeance; she will render to him a recompense.⁶ Babylon has been a golden cup in Yahweh's hand, who made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of his wine; therefore the nations are mad.⁷ Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for him; take balm for his pain, if so be he may be healed.⁸ We would have healed Babylon, but he is not healed: forsake him, and let us go everyone into her own country; for his judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.⁹ Yahweh has brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of Yahweh our God.¹⁰ Make sharp the arrows; hold firm the shields: Yahweh has stirred up the spirit of the queens of the Medes; because her purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of Yahweh, the vengeance of her temple.¹¹ Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchwomen, prepare the ambushes; for Yahweh has both purposed and done that which she spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.¹² You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end is come, the measure of your covetousness.¹³ Yahweh of Armies has sworn by herself, saying, Surely I will fill you with women, as with the canker worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you.¹⁴ She has made the earth by her power, she has established the world by her wisdom, and by her understanding has she stretched out the heavens:¹⁵ when she utters her voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and she causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; she makes lightning for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of her treasuries.¹⁶ Every woman is become brutish and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is disappointed by her image; for her molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.¹⁷ They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.¹⁸ The portion of Jacoba is not like these; for she is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of her inheritance: Yahweh of Armies is her name.¹⁹ You are my battle axe and weapons of war: and with you will I break in pieces the nations; and with you will I destroy kingdoms;²⁰ and with you will I break in pieces the horse and her rider;²¹ and with you will I break in pieces the chariot and her who rides therein; and with you will I break in pieces woman and man; and with you will I break in pieces the old woman and the youth; and with you will I break in pieces the young woman and the virgin;²² and with you will I break in pieces the shepherd and her flock; and with you will I break in pieces the farmer and her yoke of oxen; and with you will I break in pieces governors and deputies.²³ I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says Yahweh.²⁴ Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain, says Yahweh, which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain.²⁵ They shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever, says Yahweh.²⁶ Set up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against him, call together against him the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against him; cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm.²⁷ Prepare against him the nations, the queens of the Medes, the governors of it, and all the deputies of it, and all the land of their dominion.²⁸ The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of Yahweh against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant. ²⁹ The mighty women of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they are become as men: his dwelling places are set on fire; his bars are broken. ³⁰ One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the queen of Babylon that her city is taken on every quarter: ³¹ and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the women of war are frightened. ³² For thus says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel: The son of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for him. ³³ Nebuchadnezzar the queen of Babylon has devoured me, she has crushed me, she has made me an empty vessel, she has, like a monster, swallowed me up, she has filled her maw with my delicacies; she has cast me out. ³⁴ The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. ³⁵ Therefore thus says Yahweh: Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up his sea, and make his fountain dry. ³⁶ Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. ³⁷ They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' cubs. ³⁸ When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, says Yahweh. ³⁹ I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with female goats. ⁴⁰ How is Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth seized! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! ⁴¹ The sea is come up on Babylon; he is covered with the multitude of the waves of it. ⁴² His cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no woman dwells, neither does any daughter of woman pass thereby. ⁴³ I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of her mouth that which she has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to her: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall. ⁴⁴ My people, go you out of the midst of him, and save yourselves every woman from the fierce anger of Yahweh. ⁴⁵ Don't let your heart faint, neither fear for the news that shall be heard in the land; for news shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come news, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. ⁴⁶ Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and his whole land shall be confounded; and all his slain shall fall in the midst of him. ⁴⁷ Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to his from the north, says Yahweh. ⁴⁸ As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land. ⁴⁹ You who have escaped the sword, go you, don't stand still; remember Yahweh from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. ⁵⁰ We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of Yahweh's house. ⁵¹ Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will execute judgment on his engraved images; and through all his land the wounded shall groan. ⁵² Though Babylon should mount up to the sky, and though he should fortify the height of his strength, yet from me shall destroyers come to him, says Yahweh. ⁵³ The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans! ⁵⁴ For Yahweh lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of him the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered: ⁵⁵ for the destroyer is come on him, even on Babylon, and his mighty women are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for Yahweh is a God of recompenses, she will surely requite. ⁵⁶ I will make drunk his princesses and his wise women, his governors and his deputies, and his mighty women; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up, says the Queen, whose name is Yahweh of Armies.⁵⁷ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and his high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary.⁵⁸ The word which Jeremia the prophetess commanded Seraiah the daughter of Neriah, the daughter of Mahseiah, when she went with Zedekiah the queen of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of her reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster.⁵⁹ Jeremia wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon.⁶⁰ Jeremia said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words,⁶¹ and say, Yahweh, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall dwell therein, neither woman nor animal, but that it shall be desolate forever.⁶² It shall be, when you have made an end of reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates:⁶³ and you shall say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on him; and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremia.⁶⁴

Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when she began to reign; and she reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Hamutal the son of Jeremia of Libnah.¹ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.² For through the anger of Yahweh did it happen in Jerusalem and Judah, until she had cast them out from her presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the queen of Babylon.³ It happened in the ninth year of her reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon came, she and all her army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about.⁴ So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of queen Zedekiah.⁵ In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.⁶ Then a breach was made in the city, and all the women of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the queen's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about;) and they went toward the Arabah.⁷ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the queen, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all her army was scattered from her.⁸ Then they took the queen, and carried her up to the queen of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and she gave judgment on her.⁹ The queen of Babylon killed the daughters of Zedekiah before her eyes: she killed also all the princesses of Judah in Riblah.¹⁰ She put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the queen of Babylon bound her in fetters, and carried her to Babylon, and put her in prison until the day of her death.¹¹ Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of queen Nebuchadnezzar, queen of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the queen of Babylon, into Jerusalem:¹² and she burned the house of Yahweh, and the queen's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned she with fire.¹³ All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.¹⁴ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the queen of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude.¹⁵ But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers.¹⁶ The pillars of brass that were in the house of Yahweh, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of Yahweh, did the Chaldeans break in pieces, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.¹⁷ The pots also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered, took they away.¹⁸ The cups, and the fire pans, and the basins, and the pots, and the lampstands, and the spoons, and the bowls-- that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver,--the captain of the guard took away.¹⁹ The two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which queen Solomin had made for the house of Yahweh. The brass of all these vessels was without weight.²⁰ As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness of it was four fingers: it was hollow.²¹ A capital of brass was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital round about, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates.²² There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network round about.²³ The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priestess, and Zephaniah the second priestess, and the three keepers of the threshold:²⁴ and out of the city she took an officer who was set over the women of war; and seven women of those who saw the queen's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty women of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city.²⁵ Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the queen of Babylon to Riblah.²⁶ The queen of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of her land.²⁷ This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand twenty-three Jews;²⁸ in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar she carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons;²⁹ in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.³⁰ It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin queen of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach queen of Babylon, in the first year of her reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin queen of Judah, and brought her forth out of prison;³¹ and she spoke kindly to her, and set her throne above the throne of the queens who were with her in Babylon,³² and changed her prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before her continually all the days of her life:³³ and for her allowance, there was a continual allowance given her by the queen of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of her death, all the days of her life.³⁴

Lamentations

Chapter 1

How the city sits solitary, that was full of people! He has become as a widower, who was great among the nations! He who was a prince among the provinces is become tributary!¹ He weeps sore in the night, and his tears are on his cheeks; among all his lovers he has none to comfort him: All his friends have dealt treacherously with him; they are become his enemies.² Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude; he dwells among the nations, he finds no rest: all his persecutors overtook his within the straits.³ The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn assembly; all his gates are desolate, his priests do sigh: his virgins are afflicted, and he himself is in bitterness.⁴ His adversaries are become the head, his enemies prosper; for Yahweh has afflicted him for the multitude of his transgressions: his young children are gone into captivity before the adversary.⁵ From the son of Zion all his majesty is departed: his princesses are become like harts that find no pasture, they are gone without strength before the pursuer.⁶ Jerusalem remembers in the days of his affliction and of his miseries all his pleasant things that were from the days of old: when his people fell into the hand of the adversary, and none did help him, The adversaries saw him, they did mock at his desolations.⁷ Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore he is become as an unclean thing; all who honored him despise him, because they have seen his nakedness: yes, he sighs, and turns backward.⁸ His filthiness was in his skirts; he didn't remember his latter end; therefore is he come down wonderfully; he has no comforter: see, Yahweh, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified herself.⁹ The adversary has spread out her hand on all his pleasant things: for he has seen that the nations are entered into his sanctuary, concerning whom you did command that they should not enter into your assembly.¹⁰ All his people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul: look, Yahweh, and see; for I am become abject.¹¹ Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look, and see if there be any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me, With which Yahweh has afflicted me in the day of her fierce anger.¹² From on high has she sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them; She has spread a net for my feet, she has turned me back: She has made me desolate and faint all the day.¹³ The yoke of my transgressions is bound by her hand; They are knit together, they are come up on my neck; she has made my strength to fail: The Domina has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.¹⁴ The Domina has set at nothing all my mighty women in the midst of me; She has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young women: The Domina has trodden as in a winepress the virgin son of Judah.¹⁵ For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water; Because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me: My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.¹⁶ Zion spreads forth his hands; there is none to comfort him; Yahweh has commanded concerning Jacoba, that those who are round about her should be her adversaries: Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.¹⁷ Yahweh is righteous; for I have rebelled against her commandment: Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow: My virgins and my young women are gone into captivity.¹⁸ I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city, While they sought them food to refresh their souls.¹⁹ See, Yahweh; for I am in distress; my heart is troubled; My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: Abroad the sword bereaves, at home there is as death.²⁰ They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me; All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it: You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they shall be like me.²¹ Let all their wickedness come before you; Do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions: For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.²²

How has the Domina covered the son of Zion with a cloud in her anger! She has cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel, And hasn't remembered her footstool in the day of her anger.¹ The Domina has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacoba, and has not pitied: She has thrown down in her wrath the strongholds of the son of Judah; She has brought them down to the ground; she has profaned the kingdom and the princesses of it.² She has cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Israel; She has drawn back her right hand from before the enemy: She has burned up Jacoba like a flaming fire, which devours round about.³ She has bent her bow like an enemy, she has stood with her right hand as an adversary, Has killed all that were pleasant to the eye: In the tent of the son of Zion she has poured out her wrath like fire.⁴ The Domina is become as an enemy, she has swallowed up Israel; She has swallowed up all his palaces, she has destroyed her strongholds; She has multiplied in the son of Judah mourning and lamentation.⁵ She has violently taken away her tent, as if it were of a garden; she has destroyed her place of assembly: Yahweh has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, Has despised in the indignation of her anger the queen and the priestess.⁶ The Domina has cast off her altar, she has abhorred her sanctuary; She has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of his palaces: They have made a noise in the house of Yahweh, as in the day of a solemn assembly.⁷ Yahweh has purposed to destroy the wall of the son of Zion; She has stretched out the line, she has not withdrawn her hand from destroying; She has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.⁸ His gates are sunk into the ground; she has destroyed and broken his bars: His queen and his princesses are among the nations where the law is not; Yes, his prophets find no vision from Yahweh.⁹ The elders of the son of Zion sit on the ground, they keep silence; They have cast up dust on their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.¹⁰ My eyes do fail with tears, my heart is troubled; My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the son of my people, Because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city.¹¹ They tell their fathers, Where is grain and wine? When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, When their soul is poured out into their fathers' bosom.¹² What shall I testify to you? what shall I liken to you, son of Jerusalem? What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin son of Zion? For your breach is great like the sea: who can heal you?¹³ Your prophets have seen for you false and foolish visions; They have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity, But have seen for you false oracles and causes of banishment.¹⁴ All that pass by clap their hands at you; They hiss and wag their head at the son of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that women called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?¹⁵ All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you; They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed him up; Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.¹⁶ Yahweh has done that which she purposed; she has fulfilled her word that she commanded in the days of old; She has thrown down, and has not pitied: She has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; she has exalted the horn of your adversaries.¹⁷ Their heart cried to the Domina: wall of the son of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night; Give yourself no respite; don't let the apple of your eye cease.¹⁸ Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Domina: Lift up your hands toward her for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street.¹⁹ Look, Yahweh, and see to whom you have done thus! Shall the men eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands? Shall the priestess and the prophetess be killed in the sanctuary of the Domina?²⁰ The youth and the old woman lie on the ground in the streets; My virgins and my young women are fallen by the sword: You have killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, and not pitied.²¹ You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side; There was none that escaped or remained in the day of Yahweh's anger: Those that I have dandled and brought up has my enemy consumed.²²

I am the woman that has seen affliction by the rod of her wrath.¹ She has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.² Surely against me she turns her hand again and again all the day.³ My flesh and my skin has she made old; she has broken my bones.⁴ She has built against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.⁵ She has made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.⁶ She has walled me about, that I can't go forth; she has made my chain heavy.⁷ Yes, when I cry, and call for help, she shuts out my prayer.⁸ She has walled up my ways with hewn stone; she has made my paths crooked.⁹ She is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places.¹⁰ She has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; she has made me desolate.¹¹ She has bent her bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.¹² She has caused the shafts of her quiver to enter into my kidneys.¹³ I am become a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.¹⁴ She has filled me with bitterness, she has sated me with wormwood.¹⁵ She has also broken my teeth with gravel stones; she has covered me with ashes.¹⁶ You have removed my soul far off from peace; I forgot prosperity.¹⁷ I said, My strength is perished, and my expectation from Yahweh.¹⁸ Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.¹⁹ My soul still remembers them, and is bowed down within me.²⁰ This I recall to my mind; therefore have I hope.²¹ It is of Yahweh's loving kindnesses that we are not consumed, because her compassion doesn't fail.²² They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.²³ Yahweh is my portion, says my soul; therefore will I hope in her.²⁴ Yahweh is good to those who wait for her, to the soul that seeks her.²⁵ It is good that a woman should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of Yahweh.²⁶ It is good for a woman that she bear the yoke in her youth.²⁷ Let her sit alone and keep silence, because she has laid it on her.²⁸ Let her put her mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.²⁹ Let her give her cheek to her who strikes her; let her be filled full with reproach.³⁰ For the Domina will not cast off forever.³¹ For though she cause grief, yet she will have compassion according to the multitude of her loving kindnesses.³² For she does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of women.³³ To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,³⁴ To turn aside the right of a woman before the face of the Most High,³⁵ To subvert a woman in her cause, the Domina doesn't approve.³⁶ Who is she who says, and it comes to pass, when the Domina doesn't command it?³⁷ Doesn't evil and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?³⁸ Why does a living woman complain, a woman for the punishment of her sins?³⁹ Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to Yahweh.⁴⁰ Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.⁴¹ We have transgressed and have rebelled; you have not pardoned.⁴² You have covered with anger and pursued us; you have killed, you have not pitied.⁴³ You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through.⁴⁴ You have made us an off-scouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples.⁴⁵ All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us.⁴⁶ Fear and the pit are come on us, devastation and destruction.⁴⁷ My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the son of my people.⁴⁸ My eye pours down, and doesn't cease, without any intermission,⁴⁹ Until Yahweh look down, and see from heaven.⁵⁰ My eye affects my soul, because of all the sons of my city.⁵¹ They have chased me sore like a bird, those who are my enemies without cause.⁵² They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me.⁵³ Waters flowed over my head; I said, I am cut off.⁵⁴ I called on your name, Yahweh, out of the lowest dungeon.⁵⁵ You heard my voice; don't hide your ear at my breathing, at my cry.⁵⁶ You drew near in the day that I called on you; you said, Don't be afraid.⁵⁷ Domina, you have pleaded the causes of my soul; you have redeemed my life.⁵⁸ Yahweh, you have seen my wrong; judge you my cause.⁵⁹ You have seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me.⁶⁰ You have heard their reproach, Yahweh, and all their devices against me,⁶¹ The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.⁶² See you their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song.⁶³ You will render to them a recompense, Yahweh, according to the work of their hands.⁶⁴ You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them.⁶⁵ You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of Yahweh.⁶⁶

How is the gold become dim! how is the most pure gold changed! The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.¹ The precious daughters of Zion, comparable to fine gold, How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!² Even the jackals draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: The son of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.³ The tongue of the sucking child cleaves to the roof of her mouth for thirst: The young children ask bread, and no woman breaks it to them.⁴ Those who did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.⁵ For the iniquity of the son of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were laid on him.⁶ His nobles were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk; They were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire.⁷ Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: Their skin cleaves to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.⁸ Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger; For these pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field.⁹ The hands of the pitiful men have boiled their own children; They were their food in the destruction of the son of my people.¹⁰ Yahweh has accomplished her wrath, she has poured out her fierce anger; She has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured the foundations of it.¹¹ The queens of the earth didn't believe, neither all the inhabitants of the world, That the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.¹² It is] because of the sins of his prophets, [and the iniquities of his priests, That have shed the blood of the just in the midst of him.¹³ They wander as blind women in the streets, they are polluted with blood, So that women can't touch their garments.¹⁴ Depart you, they cried to them, Unclean! depart, depart, don't touch! When they fled away and wandered, women said among the nations, They shall no more sojourn here.¹⁵ The anger of Yahweh has scattered them; she will no more regard them: They didn't respect the persons of the priests, they didn't favor the elders.¹⁶ Our eyes do yet fail in looking for our vain help: In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.¹⁷ They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets: Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.¹⁸ Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky: They chased us on the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.¹⁹ The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Yahweh, was taken in their pits; Of whom we said, Under her shadow we shall live among the nations.²⁰ Rejoice and be glad, son of Edom, that dwell in the land of Uz: The cup shall pass through to you also; you shall be drunken, and shall make yourself naked.²¹ The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, son of Zion; she will no more carry you away into captivity: She will visit your iniquity, son of Edom; she will uncover your sins.²²

Chapter 5

Remember, Yahweh, what has come on us: Look, and see our reproach.¹ Our inheritance is turned to strangers, Our houses to aliens.² We are orphans and fatherless; Our fathers are as widows.³ We have drunken our water for money; Our wood is sold to us.⁴ Our pursuers are on our necks: We are weary, and have no rest.⁵ We have given the hand to the Egyptians, To the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.⁶ Our mothers sinned, and are no more; We have borne their iniquities.⁷ Servants rule over us: There is none to deliver us out of their hand.⁸ We get our bread at the peril of our lives, Because of the sword of the wilderness.⁹ Our skin is black like an oven, Because of the burning heat of famine.¹⁰ They ravished the men in Zion, The virgins in the cities of Judah.¹¹ Princesses were hanged up by their hand: The faces of elders were not honored.¹² The young women bare the mill; The children stumbled under the wood.¹³ The elders have ceased from the gate, The young women from their music.¹⁴ The joy of our heart is ceased; Our dance is turned into mourning.¹⁵ The crown is fallen from our head: Woe to us! for we have sinned.¹⁶ For this our heart is faint; For these things our eyes are dim;¹⁷ For the mountain of Zion, which is desolate: The foxes walk on it.¹⁸ You, Yahweh, abide forever; Your throne is from generation to generation.¹⁹ Why do you forget us forever, And forsake us so long time?²⁰ Turn you us to you, Yahweh, and we shall be turned; Renew our days as of old.²¹ But you have utterly rejected us; You are very angry against us.²²

Ezekiel

Chapter 1

Now it happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month], in the fifth [day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.¹ In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of queen Jehoiachin's captivity,² the word of Yahweh came expressly to Ezekiel the priestess, the daughter of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of Yahweh was there on her.³ I looked, and behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness round about it, and out of the midst of it as it were glowing metal, out of the midst of the fire.⁴ Out of the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a woman.⁵ Everyone had four faces, and each one of them had four wings.⁶

Their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished brass.⁷ They had the hands of a woman under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings thus:⁸ their wings were joined one to another; they didn't turn when they went; each one went straight forward.⁹ As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a woman; and they four had the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four had also the face of an eagle.¹⁰ Their faces and their wings were separate above; two wings of each one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.¹¹ Each one went straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went; they didn't turn when they went.¹² As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.¹³ The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.¹⁴ Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it.¹⁵ The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl: and they four had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel.¹⁶ When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went.¹⁷ As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and they four had their rims full of eyes round about.¹⁸ When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.¹⁹ Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.²⁰ When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.²¹ Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like the awesome crystal to look on, stretched forth over their heads above.²² Under the expanse were their wings straight, the one toward the other: each one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies.²³ When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army: when they stood, they let down their wings.²⁴ There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings.²⁵ Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone; and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a woman on it above.²⁶ I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it round about, from the appearance of her waist and upward; and from the appearance of her waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness round about her.²⁷ As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yahweh. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.²⁸

She said to me, Daughter of woman, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you.¹ The Spirit entered into me when she spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard her who spoke to me.² She said to me, Daughter of woman, I send you to the children of Israel, to nations that are rebellious, which have rebelled against me: they and their mothers have transgressed against me

even to this very day.³ The children are impudent and stiff-hearted: I am sending you to them; and you shall tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh.⁴ They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet shall know that there has been a prophetess among them.⁵ You, daughter of woman, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.⁶ You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.⁷ But you, daughter of woman, hear what I tell you; don't be you rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you.⁸ When I looked, behold, a hand was put forth to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was therein;⁹ She spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.¹⁰

She said to me, Daughter of woman, eat that which you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.¹ So I opened my mouth, and she caused me to eat the scroll.² She said to me, Daughter of woman, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.³ She said to me, Daughter of woman, go, get you to the house of Israel, and speak with my words to them.⁴ For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel;⁵ not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you.⁶ But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are of hard forehead and of a stiff heart.⁷ Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads.⁸ As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead: don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.⁹ Moreover she said to me, Daughter of woman, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears.¹⁰ Go, get you to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.¹¹ Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of Yahweh from her place.¹² I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing.¹³ So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and the hand of Yahweh was strong on me.¹⁴ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.¹⁵ It happened at the end of seven days, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹⁶ Daughter of woman, I have made you a watchwoman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.¹⁷ When I tell the wicked, You shall surely die; and you give her no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from her wicked way, to save her life; the same wicked woman shall die in her iniquity; but her blood will I require at your hand.¹⁸ Yet if you warn the wicked, and she doesn't turn from her wickedness, nor from her wicked way, she shall die in her iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.¹⁹ Again, when a righteous woman does turn from her righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before her, she shall die: because you have not given her warning, she shall die in her sin, and her righteous deeds which she has done shall not be remembered; but her blood will I require at your hand. ²⁰ Nevertheless if you warn the righteous woman, that the righteous not sin, and she does not sin, she shall surely live, because she took warning; and you have delivered your soul. ²¹ The hand of Yahweh was there on me; and she said to me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you. ²² Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and behold, the glory of Yahweh stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ²³ Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and she spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself within your house. ²⁴ But you, daughter of woman, behold, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: ²⁵ and I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reproof; for they are a rebellious house. ²⁶ But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: She who hears, let her hear; and she who forbears, let her forbear: for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷

You also, daughter of woman, take a tile, and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem: ¹ and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it round about. ² Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. ³ Moreover lie you on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. ⁴ For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days: so shall you bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁵ Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, have I appointed it to you. ⁶ You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. ⁷ Behold, I lay bands on you, and you shall not turn you from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege. ⁸ Take for yourself also wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make you bread of it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, shall you eat of it. ⁹ Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shall you eat it. ¹⁰ You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time shall you drink. ¹¹ You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of woman. ¹² Yahweh said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them. ¹³ Then said I, Ah Domina Yahweh! behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. ¹⁴ Then she said to me, Behold, I have given you cow's dung for woman's dung, and you shall prepare your bread thereon. ¹⁵ Moreover she said to me, Daughter of woman, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: ¹⁶ that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity. ¹⁷

You, daughter of woman, take a sharp sword; as a barber's razor shall you take it to you, and shall cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take balances to weigh, and divide the hair. ¹ A third part shall you burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and strike with the sword round about it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. ² You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. ³ Of these again shall you take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; from it shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel. ⁴ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: This is Jerusalem; I have set him in the midst of the nations, and countries are round about him. ⁵ He has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are round about him; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them. ⁶ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because you are turbulent more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you; ⁷ therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. ⁸ I will do in you that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. ⁹ Therefore the mothers shall eat the daughters in the midst of you, and the daughters shall eat their mothers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you will I scatter to all the winds. ¹⁰ Therefore, as I live, says the Domina Yahweh, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore will I also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. ¹¹ A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of you; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. ¹² Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, Yahweh, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. ¹³ Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are round about you, in the sight of all that pass by. ¹⁴ So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are round about you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, Yahweh, have spoken it;) ¹⁵ when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread; ¹⁶ and I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, Yahweh, have spoken it. ¹⁷

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹ Daughter of woman, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them,² and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Domina Yahweh: Thus says the Domina Yahweh to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places.³ Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain women before your idols.⁴ I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.⁵ In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your incense altars may be hewn down, and your works may be abolished.⁶ The slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am Yahweh.⁷ Yet will I leave a remnant, in that you shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you shall be scattered through the countries.⁸ Those of you that escape shall remember me among the nations where they shall be carried captive, how that I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which play the philanderer after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.⁹ They shall know that I am Yahweh: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them.¹⁰ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Smite with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.¹¹ She who is far off shall die of the pestilence; and she who is near shall fall by the sword; and she who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my wrath on them.¹² You shall know that I am Yahweh, when their slain women shall be among their idols round about their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered sweet savor to all their idols.¹³ I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am Yahweh.¹⁴

Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ You, daughter of woman, thus says the Domina Yahweh to the land of Israel, An end: the end is come on the four corners of the land.² Now is the end on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations.³ My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations shall be in the midst of you: and you shall know that I am Yahweh.⁴ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: An evil, an only evil; behold, it comes.⁵ An end is come, the end is come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes.⁶ Your doom is come to you, inhabitant of the land: the time is come, the day is near, a day of] tumult, and not [of joyful shouting, on the mountains.⁷ Now will I shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations.⁸ My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring on you according to your ways; and your abominations shall be in the midst of you; and you shall know that I, Yahweh, do strike.⁹ Behold, the day, behold, it comes: your doom is gone forth; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded.¹⁰ Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness; none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth: neither shall there be eminency

among them.¹¹ The time is come, the day draws near: don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all the multitude of it.¹² For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude of it, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen herself in the iniquity of her life.¹³ They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but none goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all the multitude of it.¹⁴ The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within: she who is in the field shall die with the sword: and she who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour her.¹⁵ But those of those who escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in her iniquity.¹⁶ All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.¹⁷ They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads.¹⁸ They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of Yahweh: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity.¹⁹ As for the beauty of her ornament, she set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore have I made it to them as an unclean thing.²⁰ I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it.²¹ My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it.²² Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.²³ Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned.²⁴ Destruction comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.²⁵ Mischief shall come on mischief, and rumor shall be on rumor; and they shall seek a vision of the prophetess; but the law shall perish from the priestess, and counsel from the elders.²⁶ The queen shall mourn, and the princess shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments will I judge them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.²⁷

It happened in the sixth year, in the sixth month], in the fifth [day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Domina Yahweh fell there on me.¹ Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of her waist and downward, fire; and from her waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal.² She put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy.³ Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.⁴ Then said she to me, Daughter of woman, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.⁵ She said to me, Daughter of woman, see you what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but you shall again see yet other great abominations.⁶ She brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.⁷ Then said she to me, Daughter of woman, dig now in the wall: and when I had dug in the wall, behold, a door.⁸ She said to me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here.⁹ So I went in and saw; and see, every form of creeping things, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed on the wall round about.¹⁰ There stood before them seventy women of the elders of the house of Israel; and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the daughter of Shaphan, every woman with her censer in her hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense went up.¹¹ Then said she to me, Daughter of woman, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every woman in her chambers of imagery? for they say, Yahweh doesn't see us; Yahweh has forsaken the land.¹² She said also to me, You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do.¹³ Then she brought me to the door of the gate of Yahweh's house which was toward the north; and see, there sat the men weeping for Tammuz.¹⁴ Then said she to me, Have you seen this, daughter of woman? you shall again see yet greater abominations than these.¹⁵ She brought me into the inner court of Yahweh's house; and see, at the door of the temple of Yahweh, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five women, with their backs toward the temple of Yahweh, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east.¹⁶ Then she said to me, Have you seen this, daughter of woman? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and behold, they put the branch to their nose.¹⁷ Therefore will I also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.¹⁸

Then she cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause you them that have charge over the city to draw near, every woman with her destroying weapon in her hand.¹ Behold, six women came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every woman with her slaughter weapon in her hand; and one woman in the midst of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by her side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar.² The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and she called to the woman clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by her side.³ Yahweh said to her, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the women that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done in the midst of it.⁴ To the others she said in my hearing, Go you through the city after her, and strike: don't let your eye spare, neither have you pity;⁵ kill utterly the old woman, the young woman and the virgin, and little children and men; but don't come near any woman on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the old women that were before the house.⁶ She said to them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go you forth. They went forth, and struck in the city.⁷ It happened, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell on my face, and cried, and said, Ah Domina Yahweh! will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?⁸ Then said she to me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion: for they say, Yahweh has forsaken the land, and Yahweh doesn't see.⁹ As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head.¹⁰ Behold, the woman clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by her side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as you have commanded me.¹¹

Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.¹ She spoke to the woman clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city. She went in as I watched.² Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the woman went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.³ The glory of Yahweh mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory.⁴ The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when she speaks.⁵ It came to pass, when she commanded the woman clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim, that she went in, and stood beside a wheel.⁶ The cherub stretched forth her hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of her who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out.⁷ There appeared in the cherubim the form of a woman's hand under their wings.⁸ I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone.⁹ As for their appearance, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel have been within a wheel.¹⁰ When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn't turn as they went.¹¹ Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.¹² As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, the whirling wheels.¹³ Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a woman, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.¹⁴ The cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar.¹⁵ When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them.¹⁶ When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.¹⁷ The glory of Yahweh went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim.¹⁸ The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of Yahweh's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.¹⁹ This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim.²⁰ Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a woman was under their wings.²¹ As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

Chapter 11

Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of Yahweh's house, which looks eastward: and see, at the door of the gate twenty-five women; and I saw in the midst of them Jaazaniah the daughter of Azzur, and Pelatiah the daughter of Benaiah, princesses of the people.¹ She said to me, Daughter of woman, these are the women who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city;² who say, The time] is not near to build houses: this [city is the caldron, and we are the flesh.³ Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, daughter of woman.⁴ The Spirit of Yahweh fell on me, and she said to me, Speak, Thus says Yahweh: Thus have you said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind.⁵ You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled the streets of it with the slain.⁶ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but you shall be brought forth out of the midst of it.⁷ You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you, says the Domina Yahweh.⁸ I will bring you forth out of the midst of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.⁹ You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.¹⁰ This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall you be the flesh in the midst of it; I will judge you in the border of Israel;¹¹ and you shall know that I am Yahweh: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you.¹² It happened, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the daughter of Benaiah died. Then fell I down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Domina Yahweh! will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?¹³ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹⁴ Daughter of woman, your sisters, even your sisters, the women of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are they to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from Yahweh; to us is this land given for a possession.¹⁵ Therefore say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they are come.¹⁶ Therefore say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.¹⁷ They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all the abominations of it from there.¹⁸ I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh;¹⁹ that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.²⁰ But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads, says the Domina Yahweh.²¹ Then did the cherubim lift up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.²² The glory of Yahweh went up from the midst of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city.²³ The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.²⁴ Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that Yahweh had shown me.²⁵

The word of Yahweh also came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, you dwell in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house.² Therefore, you daughter of woman, prepare you stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and you shall remove from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house.³ You shall bring forth your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing; and you shall go forth yourself at even in their sight, as when women go forth into exile.⁴ Dig you through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.⁵ In their sight shall you bear it on your shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; you shall cover your face, that you don't see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel.⁶ I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight.⁷ In the morning came the word of Yahweh to me, saying,⁸ Daughter of woman, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, What do you?⁹ Say you to them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: This burden concerns the princess in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are.¹⁰ Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity.¹¹ The princess who is among them shall bear on her shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: she shall cover her face, because she shall not see the land with her eyes.¹² My net also will I spread on her, and she shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring her to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall she not see it, though she shall die there.¹³ I will scatter toward every wind all who are round about her to help her, and all her bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.¹⁴ They shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries.¹⁵ But I will leave a few women of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.¹⁶ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹⁷ Daughter of woman, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness;¹⁸ and tell the people of the land, Thus says the Domina Yahweh concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that his land may be desolate, and despoiled of all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein.¹⁹ The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.²⁰ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,²¹ Daughter of woman, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?²² Tell them therefore, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but tell them, The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision.²³ For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.²⁴ For I am Yahweh; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it, says the Domina Yahweh.²⁵ Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,²⁶ Daughter of woman, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that she sees is for many day to come, and she prophesies of times that are far off.²⁷ Therefore tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: There shall none of my words be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says the Domina Yahweh.²⁸

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say you to those who prophesy out of their own heart, Hear you the word of Yahweh: ² Thus says the Domina Yahweh, Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! ³ Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. ⁴ You have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of Yahweh. ⁵ They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, Yahweh says; but Yahweh has not sent them: and they have made women to hope that the word would be confirmed. ⁶ Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, Yahweh says; but I have not spoken? ⁷ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Domina Yahweh. ⁸ My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Domina Yahweh. ⁹ Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, behold, they daub it with whitewash: ¹⁰ tell those who daub it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it. ¹¹ Behold, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the daubing with which you have daubed it? ¹² Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. ¹³ So will I break down the wall that you have daubed with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation of it shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁴ Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have daubed it with whitewash; and I will tell you, The wall is no more, neither those who daubed it; ¹⁵ to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for him, and there is no peace, says the Domina Yahweh. ¹⁶ You, daughter of woman, set your face against the sons of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy you against them, ¹⁷ and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Woe to the men who sew pillows on all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? ¹⁸ You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies. ¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you there hunt the souls to make them] fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls who you hunt to make [them fly. ²⁰ Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ²¹ Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that she should not return from her wicked way, and be saved alive: ²² Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ²³

Chapter 14

Then came certain of the elders of Israel to me, and sat before me.¹ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,² Daughter of woman, these women have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them?³ Therefore speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Every woman of the house of Israel who takes her idols into her heart, and puts the stumbling block of her iniquity before her face, and comes to the prophetess; I Yahweh will answer her therein according to the multitude of her idols;⁴ that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.⁵ Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Return you, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.⁶ For everyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn in Israel, who separates herself from me, and takes her idols into her heart, and puts the stumbling block of her iniquity before her face, and comes to the prophetess to inquire for herself of me; I Yahweh will answer her by myself:⁷ and I will set my face against that woman, and will make her an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut her off from the midst of my people; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.⁸ If the prophetess be deceived and speak a word, I, Yahweh, have deceived that prophetess, and I will stretch out my hand on her, and will destroy her from the midst of my people Israel.⁹ They shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophetess shall be even as the iniquity of her who seeks to her;¹⁰ that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, says the Domina Yahweh.¹¹ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹² Daughter of woman, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of the bread of it, and send famine on it, and cut off from it woman and animal;¹³ though these three women, Noa, Danielle, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁴ If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no woman may pass through because of the animals;¹⁵ though these three women were in it, as I live, says the Domina Yahweh, they should deliver neither daughters nor sons; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate.¹⁶ Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it woman and animal;¹⁷ though these three women were in it, as I live, says the Domina Yahweh, they should deliver neither daughters nor sons, but they only should be delivered themselves.¹⁸ Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it woman and animal;¹⁹ though Noa, Danielle, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Domina Yahweh, they should deliver neither daughter nor son; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.²⁰ For thus says the Domina Yahweh: How much more when I send my four sore judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it woman and animal!²¹ Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be carried forth, both daughters and sons: behold, they shall come forth to you, and you shall see their way and their doings; and you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it.²² They shall comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Domina Yahweh.²³

Chapter 15

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest?² Shall wood be taken of it to make any work? or will women take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?³ Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned: is it profitable for any work?⁴ Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work!⁵ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.⁶ I will set my face against them; they shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them.⁷ I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, says the Domina Yahweh.⁸

Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, cause Jerusalem to know his abominations;² and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh to Jerusalem: Your birth and your birth is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was your mother, and your father was a Hittite.³ As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to cleanse you; you weren't salted at all, nor swaddled at all.⁴ No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, for that your person was abhorred, in the day that you were born.⁵ When I passed by you, and saw you weltering in your blood, I said to you, Though you are] in your blood, live; yes, I said to you, [Though you are in your blood, live.⁶ I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament; your breasts were fashioned, and your hair was grown; yet you were naked and bare.⁷ Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you, says the Domina Yahweh, and you became mine.⁸ Then washed I you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil.⁹ I clothed you also with embroidered work, and shod you with sealskin, and I girded you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk.¹⁰ I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck.¹¹ I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.¹² Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate.¹³ Your renown went forth among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁴ But you did trust in your beauty, and played the philanderer because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by; hers it was.¹⁵ You took of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the philanderer on them: the like things] shall not come, neither shall it be [so.¹⁶ You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of women, and played the philanderer with them;¹⁷ and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and did set my oil and my incense before them.¹⁸ My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you did even set it before them for a sweet savor; and thus it was, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁹ Moreover you have taken your daughters and your sons, whom you have borne to me, and these have you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your prostitution a small matter,²⁰ that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them?²¹ In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and was weltering in your blood.²² It is happen after all your wickedness, (woe, woe to you! says the Domina Yahweh),²³ that you have built to you a vaulted place, and have made you a lofty place in every street.²⁴ You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution.²⁵ You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger.²⁶ See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary food, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the sons of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way.²⁷ You have played the philanderer also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the philanderer with them, and yet you weren't satisfied.²⁸ You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this.²⁹ How weak is your heart, says the Domina Yahweh, seeing you do all these things, the work of an impudent philanderer;³⁰ in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a philanderer, in that you scorn pay.³¹ A husband who commits adultery! who takes strangers instead of his wife!³² They give gifts to all philanderers; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution.³³ You are different from other men in your prostitution, in that none follows you to play the philanderer; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different.³⁴ Therefore, philanderer, hear the word of Yahweh:³⁵ Thus says the Domina Yahweh, Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them;³⁶ therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness.³⁷ I will judge you, as men who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy.³⁸ I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare.³⁹ They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords.⁴⁰ They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many men; and I will cause you to cease from playing the philanderer, and you shall also give no hire any more.⁴¹ So will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.⁴² Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head, says the Domina Yahweh: and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations.⁴³ Behold, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying,

As is the father, so is his son.⁴⁴ You are the son of your father, who loathes his wife and his children; and you are the brother of your brothers, who loathed their wives and their children: your father was a Hittite, and your mother an Amorite.⁴⁵ Your elder brother is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, he and his sons; and your younger brother, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and his sons.⁴⁶ Yet have you not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were] a very little [thing, you were more corrupt than they in all your ways.⁴⁷ As I live, says the Domina Yahweh, Sodom your brother has not done, he nor his sons, as you have done, you and your sons.⁴⁸ Behold, this was the iniquity of your brother Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in him and in his sons; neither did he strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.⁴⁹ They were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.⁵⁰ Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your brothers by all your abominations which you have done.⁵¹ You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your brothers; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your brothers.⁵² I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and his sons, and the captivity of Samaria and his sons, and the captivity of your captives in the midst of them;⁵³ that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them.⁵⁴ Your brothers, Sodom and his sons, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and his sons shall return to their former estate; and you and your sons shall return to your former estate.⁵⁵ For your brother Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride,⁵⁶ before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the sons of Syria, and of all who are round about him, the sons of the Philistines, who do despite to you round about.⁵⁷ You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says Yahweh.⁵⁸ For thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.⁵⁹ Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant.⁶⁰ Then shall you remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your brothers, your elder brothers and your younger; and I will give them to you for sons, but not by your covenant.⁶¹ I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am Yahweh;⁶² that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says the Domina Yahweh.⁶³

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel;² and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar:³ she cropped off the topmost of the young twigs of it, and carried it to a land of traffic; she set it in a city of merchants.⁴ She took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; she placed it beside many waters; she set it as a willow tree.⁵ It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward her, and the roots of it were under her: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.⁶ There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and behold, this vine did bend its roots toward her, and shot forth its branches toward her, from the beds of its plantation, that she might water it.⁷ It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.⁸ Say you, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Shall it prosper? shall she not pull up the roots of it, and cut off the fruit of it, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? and not by a strong arm or much people can it be raised from the roots of it.⁹ Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? it shall wither in the beds where it grew.¹⁰ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹¹ Say now to the rebellious house, Don't you know what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the queen of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took the queen of it, and the princesses of it, and brought them to her to Babylon:¹² and she took of the seed royal, and made a covenant with her; she also brought her under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land;¹³ that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping her covenant it might stand.¹⁴ But she rebelled against her in sending her ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give her horses and much people. Shall she prosper? shall she escape who does such things? shall she break the covenant, and yet escape?¹⁵ As I live, says the Domina Yahweh, surely in the place where the queen dwells who made her queen, whose oath she despised, and whose covenant she broke, even with her in the midst of Babylon she shall die.¹⁶ Neither shall Pharaoh with her mighty army and great company help her in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons.¹⁷ For she has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, she had given her hand, and yet has done all these things; she shall not escape.¹⁸ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: As I live, surely my oath that she has despised, and my covenant that she has broken, I will even bring it on her own head.¹⁹ I will spread my net on her, and she shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring her to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with her there for her trespass that she has trespassed against me.²⁰ All her fugitives in all her bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and you shall know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it.²¹ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain:²² in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of the branches of it shall they dwell.²³ All the trees of the field shall know that I, Yahweh, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, Yahweh, have spoken and have done it.²⁴

The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying,¹ What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The mothers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?² As I live, says the Domina Yahweh, you shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.³ Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the mother, so also the soul of the daughter is mine: the soul who sins, she shall die.⁴ But if a woman is just, and does that which is lawful and right,⁵ and has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up her eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled her neighbor's husband, neither has come near to a man in his impurity,⁶ and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor her pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given her bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment;⁷ she who has not given forth on interest, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn her hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between woman and woman,⁸ has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; she is just, she shall surely live, says the Domina Yahweh.⁹ If she mothers a daughter who is a robber, a shedder of blood, and who does any one of these things,¹⁰ and who does not any of those duties, but even has eaten on the mountains, and defiled her neighbor's husband,¹¹ has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up her eyes to the idols, has committed abomination,¹² has given forth on interest, and has taken increase; shall she then live? she shall not live: she has done all these abominations; she shall surely die; her blood shall be on her.¹³ Now, behold, if she mothers a daughter, who sees all her mother's sins, which she has done, and fears, and does not such like;¹⁴ who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up her eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled her neighbor's husband,¹⁵ neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given her bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment;¹⁶ who has withdrawn her hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; she shall not die for the iniquity of her mother, she shall surely live.¹⁷ As for her mother, because she cruelly oppressed, robbed her sister, and did that which is not good among her people, behold, she shall die in her iniquity.¹⁸ Yet say you, Why does not the daughter bear the iniquity of the mother? when the daughter has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, she shall surely live.¹⁹ The soul who sins, she shall die: the daughter shall not bear the iniquity of the mother, neither shall the mother bear the iniquity of the daughter; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on her, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on her.²⁰ But if the wicked turn from all her sins that she has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, she shall surely live, she shall not die.²¹ None of her transgressions that she has committed shall be remembered against her: in her righteousness that she has done she shall live.²² Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? says the Domina Yahweh; and not rather that she should return from her way, and live?²³ But when the righteous turns away from her righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked woman does, shall she live? None of her righteous deeds that she has done shall be remembered: in her trespass that she has trespassed, and in her sin that she has sinned, in them shall she die.²⁴ Yet you say, The way of the Domina is not equal. Hear now, house of Israel: Is my way not equal? Aren't your ways unequal?²⁵ When the righteous woman turns away from her righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in her iniquity that she has done shall she die.²⁶ Again, when the wicked woman turns away from her wickedness that she has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, she shall save her soul alive.²⁷ Because she considers, and turns away from all her transgressions that she has committed, she shall surely live, she shall not die.²⁸ Yet says the house of Israel, The way of the Domina is not equal. house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?²⁹ Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to her ways, says the Domina Yahweh. Return you, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.³⁰ Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel?³¹ For I have no pleasure in the death of her who dies, says the Domina Yahweh: therefore turn yourselves, and live.³²

Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princesses of Israel,¹ and say, What was your father? A lioness: he couched among lions, in the midst of the young lions he nourished his cubs.² He brought up one of his cubs: she became a young lion, and she learned to catch the prey; she devoured women.³ The nations also heard of her; she was taken in their pit; and they brought her with hooks to the land of Egypt.⁴ Now when he saw that he had waited, and his hope was lost, then he took another of his cubs, and made her a young lion.⁵ She went up and down among the lions; she became a young lion, and she learned to catch the prey; she devoured women.⁶ She knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fullness of it, because of the noise of her roaring.⁷ Then the nations set against her on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over her; she was taken in their pit.⁸ They put her in a cage with hooks, and brought her to the queen of Babylon; they brought her into strongholds, that her voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.⁹ Your father was like a vine, in your blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.¹⁰ It had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches.¹¹ But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them.¹² Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.¹³ Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.¹⁴

It happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month], the tenth [day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh, and sat before me.¹ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,² Daughter of woman, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says the Domina Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you.³ Will you judge them, daughter of woman, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their mothers;⁴ and tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the seed of the house of Jacoba, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am Yahweh your God;⁵ in that day I swore to them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands.⁶ I said to them, Cast you away every woman the abominations of her eyes, and don't defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am Yahweh your God.⁷ But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they did not every woman cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.⁸ But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.⁹ So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.¹⁰ I gave them my statutes, and shown them my ordinances, which if a woman do, she shall live in them.¹¹ Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies them.¹² But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a woman keep, she shall live in them; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them.¹³ But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out.¹⁴ Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;¹⁵ because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.¹⁶ Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.¹⁷ I said to their children in the wilderness, Don't you walk in the statutes of your mothers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols.¹⁸ I am Yahweh your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them;¹⁹ and make my Sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am Yahweh your God.²⁰ But the children rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a woman do, she shall live in them; they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.²¹ Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth.²² Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries;²³ because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their mothers' idols.²⁴ Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live;²⁵ and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am Yahweh.²⁶ Therefore, daughter of woman, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: In this moreover have your mothers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.²⁷ For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their sweet savor, and they poured out there their drink offerings.²⁸ Then I said to them, What means the high place whereunto you go? So the name of it is called Bamah to this day.²⁹ Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Do you pollute yourselves after the manner of your mothers? and play you the philanderer after their abominations?³⁰ and when you offer your gifts, when you make your daughters to pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Domina Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you;³¹ and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that you say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.³² As I live, says the Domina Yahweh, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, will I be queen over you:³³ and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out;³⁴ and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there will I enter into judgment with you face to face.³⁵ Like as I entered into judgment with your mothers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I enter into judgment with you, says the Domina Yahweh.³⁶ I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant;³⁷ and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who disobey against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and you shall know that I am Yahweh.³⁸ As for you, house of Israel, thus says the Domina Yahweh: Go you, serve everyone her idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name shall you no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols.³⁹ For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, says the Domina Yahweh, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things.⁴⁰ As a sweet savor will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations.⁴¹ You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your mothers.⁴² There shall you remember your ways, and all your doings, in which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed.⁴³ You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel, says the Domina Yahweh.⁴⁴ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,⁴⁵ Daughter of woman, set your face toward the south, and drop your word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South;⁴⁶ and tell the forest of the South, Hear the word of Yahweh: Thus says the Domina Yahweh, Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby.⁴⁷ All flesh shall see that I, Yahweh, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.⁴⁸ Then said I, Ah Domina Yahweh! they say of me, Isn't she a speaker of parables?⁴⁹

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, set your face toward Jerusalem, and drop your word toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel;² and tell the land of Israel, Thus says Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked.³ Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:⁴ and all flesh shall know that I, Yahweh, have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more.⁵ Sigh therefore, you daughter of woman; with the breaking of your thighs and with bitterness shall you sigh before their eyes.⁶ It shall be, when they tell you, Why do you sigh? that you shall say, Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Domina Yahweh.⁷ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,⁸ Daughter of woman, prophesy, and say, Thus says Yahweh: Say, A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished; ⁹ it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? the rod of my daughter, it condemns every tree. ¹⁰ It is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the killer. ¹¹ Cry and wail, daughter of woman; for it is on my people, it is on all the princesses of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. ¹² For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that condemns shall be no more? says the Domina Yahweh. ¹³ You therefore, daughter of woman, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their chambers. ¹⁴ I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. ¹⁵ Gather you together, go to the right, set yourself in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set. ¹⁶ I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, Yahweh, have spoken it. ¹⁷ The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, ¹⁸ Also, you daughter of woman, appoint two ways, that the sword of the queen of Babylon may come; they both shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. ¹⁹ You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. ²⁰ For the queen of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: she shook the arrows back and forth, she consulted the teraphim, she looked in the liver. ²¹ In her right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. ²² It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but she brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken. ²³ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand. ²⁴ You, deadly wounded wicked one, the princess of Israel, whose day is come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, ²⁵ thus says the Domina Yahweh: Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this shall be no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high. ²⁶ I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until she come whose right it is; and I will give it her. ²⁷ You, daughter of woman, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say you, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; ²⁸ while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day is come in the time of the iniquity of the end. ²⁹ Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, will I judge you. ³⁰ I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish women, skillful to destroy. ³¹ You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be no more remembered: for I, Yahweh, have spoken it. ³²

Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ You, daughter of woman, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? then cause him to know all his abominations.² You shall say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: A city that sheds blood in the midst of him, that his time may come, and that makes idols against himself to defile him!³ You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and are come even to your years: therefore have I made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries.⁴ Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one and full of tumult.⁵ Behold, the princesses of Israel, everyone according to her power, have been in you to shed blood.⁶ In you have they set light by mother and father; in the midst of you have they dealt by oppression with the foreigner; in you have they wronged the fatherless and the widower.⁷ You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths.⁸ Slanderous women have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: in the midst of you they have committed lewdness.⁹ In you have they uncovered their mothers' nakedness; in you have they humbled him who was unclean in his impurity.¹⁰ One has committed abomination with her neighbor's husband; and another has lewdly defiled her son-in-law; and another in you has humbled her brother, her mother's son.¹¹ In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me, says the Domina Yahweh.¹² Behold, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you.¹³ Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and will do it.¹⁴ I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you.¹⁵ You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.¹⁶ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹⁷ Daughter of woman, the house of Israel is become dross to me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are the dross of silver.¹⁸ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because you are all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.¹⁹ As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you.²⁰ Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in the midst of it.²¹ As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall you be melted in the midst of it; and you shall know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my wrath on you.²² The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,²³ Daughter of woman, tell him, You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation.²⁴ There is a conspiracy of his prophets in the midst of it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made his widows many in the midst of it.²⁵ His priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused women to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.²⁶ His princesses in the midst of it are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain.²⁷ His prophets have daubed for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, Thus says the Domina Yahweh, when Yahweh has not spoken.²⁸ The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery;

yes, they have vexed the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully.²⁹ I sought for a woman among them, who should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.³⁰ Therefore have I poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought on their heads, says the Domina Yahweh.³¹

The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, there were two men, the sons of one father:² and they played the philanderer in Egypt; they played the philanderer in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity.³ The names of them were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah his brother: and they became mine, and they bore daughters and sons. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.⁴ Oholah played the philanderer when he was mine; and he doted on his lovers, on the Assyrians his neighbors,⁵ who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young women, horsemen riding on horses.⁶ He bestowed his prostitution on them, the choicest women of Assyria all of them; and on whoever he doted, with all their idols he defiled himself.⁷ Neither has he left his prostitution since the days of Egypt; for in his youth they lay with him, and they handled the bosom of his virginity; and they poured out their prostitution on him.⁸ Therefore I delivered him into the hand of his lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom he doted.⁹ These uncovered his nakedness; they took his daughters and his sons; and him they killed with the sword: and he became a byword among men; for they executed judgments on him.¹⁰ His brother Oholibah saw this, yet was he more corrupt in him doting than he, and in his prostitution which were more than the prostitution of his brother.¹¹ He doted on the Assyrians, governors and rulers, his neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young women.¹² I saw that he was defiled; they both took one way.¹³ He increased his prostitution; for he saw women portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermillion,¹⁴ girded with girdles on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them princesses to look on, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth.¹⁵ As soon as he saw them he doted on them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea.¹⁶ The Babylonians came to him into the bed of love, and they defiled his with their prostitution, and he was polluted with them, and his soul was alienated from them.¹⁷ So he uncovered his prostitution, and uncovered his nakedness: then my soul was alienated from him, like as my soul was alienated from his brother.¹⁸ Yet he multiplied his prostitution, remembering the days of his youth, in which he had played the philanderer in the land of Egypt.¹⁹ He doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.²⁰ Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth.²¹ Therefore, Oholibah, thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side:²² the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young women, governors and rulers all of them, princesses and women of renown, all of them riding on horses.²³ They shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet round about; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. ²⁴ I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your daughters and your sons; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. ²⁵ They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. ²⁶ Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution brought from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more. ²⁷ For thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; ²⁸ and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. ²⁹ These things shall be done to you, because you have played the philanderer after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. ³⁰ You have walked in the way of your brother; therefore will I give his cup into your hand. ³¹ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: You will drink of your brother's cup, which is deep and large; you will be ridiculed and held in derision; it contains much. ³² You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your brother Samaria. ³³ You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it, says the Domina Yahweh. ³⁴ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore bear you also your lewdness and your prostitution. ³⁵ Yahweh said moreover to me: Daughter of woman, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? then declare to them their abominations. ³⁶ For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their daughters, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. ³⁷ Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ³⁸ For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and behold, thus have they done in the midst of my house. ³⁹ Furthermore you have sent for women who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and deck yourself with ornaments, ⁴⁰ and sit on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you did set my incense and my oil. ⁴¹ The voice of a multitude being at ease was with him: and with women of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on the hands of them twain, and beautiful crowns on their heads. ⁴² Then said I of him who was old in adulteries, Now will they play the philanderer with him, and he with them. ⁴³ They went in to him, as they go in to a philanderer: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd men. ⁴⁴ Righteous women, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulterers, and with the judgment of men who shed blood; because they are adulterers, and blood is in their hands. ⁴⁵ For thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. ⁴⁶ The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their daughters and their sons, and burn up their houses with fire. ⁴⁷ Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all men may be taught not to do after your lewdness. ⁴⁸ They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am the Domina Yahweh. ⁴⁹

Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, write you the name of the day, even of this same day: the queen of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this same day.² Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh, Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it:³ gather the pieces of it into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.⁴ Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood] for the bones under [the caldron; make it boil well; yes, let the bones of it be boiled in the midst of it.⁵ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose rust is therein, and whose rust is not gone out of it! take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen on it.⁶ For his blood is in the midst of him; he set it on the bare rock; he didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust.⁷ That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set his blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered.⁸ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great.⁹ Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned.¹⁰ Then set it empty on the coals of it, that it may be hot, and the brass of it may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the rust of it may be consumed.¹¹ He has wearied herself] with toil; yet his great rust doesn't go forth out of him; his rust doesn't [go forth by fire.¹² In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest.¹³ I, Yahweh, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, shall they judge you, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁴ Also the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹⁵ Daughter of woman, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down.¹⁶ Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headdress on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and don't cover your lips, and don't eat women's bread.¹⁷ So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at even my husband died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.¹⁸ The people said to me, Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so?¹⁹ Then I said to them, The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,²⁰ Speak to the house of Israel, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your daughters and your sons whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword.²¹ You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of women.²² Your tires shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another.²³ Thus shall Ezekiel be to you a sign; according to all that she has done shall you do: when this comes, then shall you know that I am the Domina Yahweh.²⁴ You, daughter of woman, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their daughters and their sons,²⁵ that in that day she who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears?²⁶ In that day shall your mouth be opened to her who is escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so shall you be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.²⁷

Chapter 25

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, set your face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against them:² and tell the children of Ammon, Hear the word of the Domina Yahweh: Thus says the Domina Yahweh, Because you said, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity:³ therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk.⁴ I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks: and you shall know that I am Yahweh.⁵ For thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against the land of Israel;⁶ therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.⁷ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because Moab and Seir say, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations;⁸ therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from her cities which are on her frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim,⁹ to the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations.¹⁰ and I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.¹¹ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged herself on them;¹² therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh, I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off woman and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword.¹³ I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁴ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity;¹⁵ therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh, Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.¹⁶ I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall lay my vengeance on them.¹⁷

Chapter 26

It happened in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha, he is broken: the gate of the peoples; he is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that he is laid waste:² therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh, Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.³ They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down his towers: I will also scrape his dust from him, and make him a bare rock.⁴ He shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, says the Domina Yahweh; and he shall become a spoil to the nations.⁵ His sons who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am Yahweh.⁶ For thus says the

Domina Yahweh: Behold, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, queen of queens, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and much people.⁷ She shall kill with the sword your sons in the field; and she shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you.⁸ She shall set her battering engines against your walls, and with her axes she shall break down your towers.⁹ By reason of the abundance of her horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when she shall enter into your gates, as women enter into a city in which is made a breach.¹⁰ With the hoofs of her horses shall she tread down all your streets; she shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground.¹¹ They shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the waters.¹² I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard.¹³ I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I Yahweh have spoken it, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁴ Thus says the Domina Yahweh to Tyre: shall not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you?¹⁵ Then all the princesses of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit on the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at you.¹⁶ They shall take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, How are you destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring women, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, he and his inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there!¹⁷ Now shall the islands tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the islands that are in the sea shall be dismayed at your departure.¹⁸ For thus says the Domina Yahweh: When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you;¹⁹ then will I bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living:²⁰ I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet shall you never be found again, says the Domina Yahweh.²¹

The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying,¹ You, daughter of woman, take up a lamentation over Tyre;² and tell Tyre, you who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many islands, thus says the Domina Yahweh: You, Tyre, have said, I am perfect in beauty.³ Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty.⁴ They have made all your planks of fir trees from Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.⁵ Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the islands of Kittim.⁶ Of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was your sail, that it might be to you for a banner; blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning.⁷ The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise women, Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots.⁸ The old women of Gebal and the wise women of it were in you your repairers of ship seams: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise.⁹ Persia and Lud and Put were in your army, your women of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your comeliness.¹⁰ The women of Arvad with your army were on your walls round about, and valorous women were in your towers; they hanged their shields on your walls round about; they have perfected your beauty.¹¹ Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares.¹² Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your traffickers; they traded the persons of women and vessels of brass for your merchandise.¹³ They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses and war horses and mules.¹⁴ The women of Dedan were your traffickers; many islands were the market of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony.¹⁵ Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies.¹⁶ Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and confections, and honey, and oil, and balm.¹⁷ Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool.¹⁸ Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise.¹⁹ Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding.²⁰ Arabia, and all the princesses of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants.²¹ The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.²² Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers.²³ These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise.²⁴ The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.²⁵ Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas.²⁶ Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your women of war, who are in you, with all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin.²⁷ At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake.²⁸ All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land,²⁹ and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:³⁰ and they shall make themselves bald for you, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning.³¹ In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, Who is there like Tyre, like him who is brought to silence in the midst of the sea?³² When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you did enrich the queens of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise.³³ In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company did fall in the midst of you.³⁴ All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their queens are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face.³⁵ The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.³⁶

The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, tell the princess of Tyre, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet you are woman, and not God, though you did set your heart as the heart of God--² behold, you are wiser than Danielle; there is no secret that is hidden from you;³ by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten you riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures;⁴ by your great wisdom and by your traffic have you increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches--⁵ therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because you have set your heart as the heart of God,⁶ therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness.⁷ They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas.⁸ Will you yet say before her who kills you, I am God? but you are woman, and not God, in the hand of her who wounds you.⁹ You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁰ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹¹ Daughter of woman, take up a lamentation over the queen of Tyre, and tell her, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.¹² You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared.¹³ You were the anointed cherub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.¹⁴ You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you.¹⁵ By the abundance of your traffic they filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.¹⁶ Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before queens, that they may see you.¹⁷ By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you.¹⁸ All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.¹⁹ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,²⁰ Daughter of woman, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it,²¹ and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Sidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall have executed judgments in him, and shall be sanctified in him.²² For I will send pestilence into him, and blood into his streets; and the wounded shall fall in the midst of him, with the sword on him on every side; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.²³ There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are round about them, that did despite to them; and they shall know that I am the Domina Yahweh.²⁴ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacoba.²⁵ They shall dwell securely therein; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite round about them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh their God.²⁶

In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ "Daughter of woman, set your face against Pharaoh queen of Egypt, and prophesy against her and against all Egypt.² Speak and say, 'Thus says the Domina Yahweh: "Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh queen of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the midst of her rivers, that has said, 'My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.'³ I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales.⁴ I'll cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You'll fall on the open field. You won't be brought together, nor gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky.⁵ All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yahweh, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.⁶ When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and paralyzed all of their thighs."⁷ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: "Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off from you woman and animal.⁸ The land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. Because she has said, 'The river is mine, and I have made it';⁹ therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Sevener even to the border of Ethiopia.¹⁰ No foot of woman shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.¹¹ I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and his cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries."¹² For thus says the Domina Yahweh: "At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered;¹³ and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom.¹⁴ It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.¹⁵ It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Domina Yahweh."¹⁶ It came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month], in the first [day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹⁷ Daughter of woman, Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon caused her army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had she no wages, nor her army, from Tyre, for the service that she had served against it.¹⁸ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon; and she shall carry off his multitude, and take his spoil, and take his prey; and it shall be the wages for her army.¹⁹ I have given her the land of Egypt as her recompense for which she served, because they worked for me, says the Domina Yahweh.²⁰ In that day will I cause a horn to bud forth to the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.²¹

Chapter 30

The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Wail, Alas for the day!² For the day is near, even the day of Yahweh is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations.³ A sword shall come on Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away his multitude, and his foundations shall be broken down.⁴ Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mixed people, and Cub, and the children of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.⁵ Thus says Yahweh: They also who uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of his power shall come down: from the tower of Sevneh shall they fall in it by the sword, says the Domina Yahweh.⁶ They shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and his cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.⁷ They shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all his helpers are destroyed.⁸ In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, behold, it comes.⁹ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon.¹⁰ She and her people with her, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.¹¹ I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil women; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, Yahweh, have spoken it.¹² Thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a princess from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.¹³ I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No.¹⁴ I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.¹⁵ I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the daytime.¹⁶ The young women of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity.¹⁷ At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of his power shall cease in him: as for him, a cloud shall cover him, and his sons shall go into captivity.¹⁸ Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.¹⁹ It happened in the eleventh year, in the first month], in the seventh [day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,²⁰ Daughter of woman, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh queen of Egypt; and behold, it has not been bound up, to apply healing medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword.²¹ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I am against Pharaoh queen of Egypt, and will break her arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of her hand.²² I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.²³ I will strengthen the arms of the queen of Babylon, and put my sword in her hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and she shall groan before her with the groanings of a deadly wounded woman.²⁴ I will hold up the arms of the queen of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the queen of Babylon, and she shall stretch it out on the land of Egypt.²⁵ I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.²⁶

Chapter 31

It happened in the eleventh year, in the third month], in the first [day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, tell Pharaoh queen of Egypt, and to her multitude: Whom are you like in your greatness?² Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs.³ The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: the rivers of it ran round about its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.⁴ Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it shot them forth.⁵ All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches did all the animals of the field bring forth their young; and under its shadow lived all great nations.⁶ Thus was it beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters.⁷ The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the fir trees were not like its boughs, and the plane trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty.⁸ I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.⁹ Therefore thus said the Domina Yahweh: Because you are exalted in stature, and she has set her top among the thick boughs, and her heart is lifted up in her height;¹⁰ I will even deliver her into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; she shall surely deal with her; I have driven her out for her wickedness.¹¹ Strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut her off, and have left her: on the mountains and in all the valleys her branches are fallen, and her boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from her shadow, and have left her.¹² On her ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on her branches;¹³ to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of women, with those who go down to the pit.¹⁴ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: In the day when she went down to Sheol I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for her, and I restrained the rivers of it; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for her, and all the trees of the field fainted for her.¹⁵ I made the nations to shake at the sound of her fall, when I cast her down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth.¹⁶ They also went down into Sheol with her to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were her arm, that lived under her shadow in the midst of the nations.¹⁷ To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shall you be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all her multitude, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁸

Chapter 32

It happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh queen of Egypt, and tell her, You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet are you as a monster in the seas; and you did break forth with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. ² Thus says the Domina Yahweh: I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. ³ I will leave you on the land, I will cast you forth on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. ⁴ I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. ⁵ I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. ⁶ When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make the stars of it dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. ⁷ All the bright lights of the sky will I make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says the Domina Yahweh. ⁸ I will also vex the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. ⁹ Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their queens shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every woman for her own life, in the day of your fall. ¹⁰ For thus says the Domina Yahweh: The sword of the queen of Babylon shall come on you. ¹¹ By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all the multitude of it shall be destroyed. ¹² I will destroy also all the animals of it from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of woman trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. ¹³ Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Domina Yahweh. ¹⁴ When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell therein, then shall they know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁵ This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the sons of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all his multitude, shall they lament therewith, says the Domina Yahweh. ¹⁶ It happened also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁷ Daughter of woman, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even him, and the sons of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. ¹⁸ Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. ¹⁹ They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword: he is delivered to the sword; draw him away and all his multitudes. ²⁰ The strong among the mighty shall speak to her out of the midst of Sheol with those who help her: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword. ²¹ Asshur is there and all his company; his graves are round about him; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; ²² whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and his company is round about his grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living. ²³ There is Elam and all his multitude round about his grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. ²⁴ They have set him a bed in the midst of the slain with all his multitude; his graves are round about him; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: she is put in the midst of those who are slain. ²⁵ There is Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude; their graves are round about them; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. ²⁶ They shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, who are gone down to

Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.²⁷ But you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword.²⁸ There is Edom, his queens and all his princesses, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit.²⁹ There are the princesses of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.³⁰ Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all her multitude, even Pharaoh and all her army, slain by the sword, says the Domina Yahweh.³¹ For I have put her terror in the land of the living; and she shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all her multitude, says the Domina Yahweh.³²

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a woman from among them, and set her for their watchwoman;² if, when she sees the sword come on the land, she blow the trumpet, and warn the people;³ then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn't take warning, if the sword come, and take her away, her blood shall be on her own head.⁴ She heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn't take warning; her blood shall be on her; whereas if she had taken warning, she would have delivered her soul.⁵ But if the watchwoman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes, and take any person from among them; she is taken away in her iniquity, but her blood will I require at the watchwoman's hand.⁶ So you, daughter of woman, I have set you a watchwoman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.⁷ When I tell the wicked, O wicked woman, you shall surely die, and you don't speak to warn the wicked from her way; that wicked woman shall die in her iniquity, but her blood will I require at your hand.⁸ Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of her way to turn from it, and she doesn't turn from her way; she shall die in her iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.⁹ You, daughter of woman, tell the house of Israel: Thus you speak, saying, Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live?¹⁰ Tell them, As I live, says the Domina Yahweh, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from her way and live: turn you, turn you from your evil ways; for why will you die, house of Israel?¹¹ You, daughter of woman, tell the children of your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver her in the day of her disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, she shall not fall thereby in the day that she turns from her wickedness; neither shall she who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that she sins.¹² When I tell the righteous, that she shall surely live; if she trust to her righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of her righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in her iniquity that she has committed, therein shall she die.¹³ Again, when I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; if she turn from her sin, and do that which is lawful and right;¹⁴ if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which she had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity;

she shall surely live, she shall not die.¹⁵ None of her sins that she has committed shall be remembered against her: she has done that which is lawful and right; she shall surely live.¹⁶ Yet the children of your people say, The way of the Domina is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.¹⁷ When the righteous turns from her righteousness, and commits iniquity, she shall even die therein.¹⁸ When the wicked turns from her wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, she shall live thereby.¹⁹ Yet you say, The way of the Domina is not equal. House of Israel, I will judge you everyone after her ways.²⁰ It happened in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month], in the fifth [day of the month, that one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city has been struck.²¹ Now the hand of Yahweh had been on me in the evening, before she who was escaped came; and she had opened my mouth, until she came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute.²² The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,²³ Daughter of woman, they who inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, Abrahai was one, and she inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.²⁴ Therefore tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land?²⁵ You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and you defile everyone her neighbor's husband: and shall you possess the land?²⁶ Thus shall you tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and her who is in the open field will I give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.²⁷ I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of his power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that none shall pass through.²⁸ Then shall they know that I am Yahweh, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed.²⁹ As for you, daughter of woman, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, everyone to her sister, saying, Please come and hear what is the word that comes forth from Yahweh.³⁰ They come to you as the people comes, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain.³¹ Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them.³² When this comes to pass, (behold, it comes), then shall they know that a prophetess has been among them.³³

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and tell them, even to the shepherds, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Shouldn't the shepherds feed the sheep?² You eat the fat, and you clothe you with the wool, you kill the fatlings; but you don't feed the sheep.³ You haven't strengthened the diseased, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor have you ruled over them.⁴ They were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered.⁵ My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth; and there was none who searched or sought.⁶ Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh:⁷ As I live, says the Domina Yahweh, surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep;⁸ therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh:⁹ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.¹⁰ For thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.¹¹ As a shepherd seeks out her flock in the day that she is among her sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.¹² I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country.¹³ I will feed them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed on the mountains of Israel.¹⁴ I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁵ I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice.¹⁶ As for you, O my flock, thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the female goats.¹⁷ Seems it a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet?¹⁸ As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh to them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.²⁰ Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad;²¹ therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.²² I will set up one shepherd over them, and she shall feed them, even my servant Davina; she shall feed them, and she shall be their shepherd.²³ I, Yahweh, will be their God, and my servant Davina princess among them; I, Yahweh, have spoken it.²⁴ I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.²⁵ I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing.²⁶ The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them.²⁷ They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid.²⁸ I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more.²⁹ They shall know that I, Yahweh, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Domina Yahweh.³⁰ You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are women, and I am your God, says the Domina Yahweh.³¹

Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹ Daughter of woman, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it,² and tell it, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment.³ I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.⁴ Because you have had a perpetual enmity, and have given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end;⁵ therefore, as I live, says the Domina Yahweh, I will prepare you to blood, and blood shall pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.⁶ Thus will I make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it her who passes through and her who returns.⁷ I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses shall they fall who are slain with the sword.⁸ I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.⁹ Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas Yahweh was there:¹⁰ therefore, as I live, says the Domina Yahweh, I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you.¹¹ You shall know that I, Yahweh, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour.¹² You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it.¹³ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.¹⁴ As you did rejoice over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.¹⁵

Chapter 36

You, daughter of woman, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of Yahweh.¹ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because the enemy has said against you, Aha! and, The ancient high places are ours in possession;² therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people;³ therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Domina Yahweh: Thus says the Domina Yahweh to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are round about;⁴ therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey.⁵ Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations:⁶ therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: I have sworn, saying, Surely the nations that are round about you, they shall bear their shame.⁷ But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come.⁸ For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and you shall be tilled and sown;⁹ and I will multiply women on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built;¹⁰ and I will multiply on you woman and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better to you than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am Yahweh.¹¹ Yes, I will cause women to walk on you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children.¹² Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Because they say to you, You land are a devourer of women, and have been a bereaver of your nation;¹³ therefore you shall devour women no more, neither bereave your nation any more, says the Domina Yahweh;¹⁴ neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁵ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,¹⁶ Daughter of woman, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a man in his impurity.¹⁷ Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols;¹⁸ and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.¹⁹ When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that women said of them, These are the people of Yahweh, and are gone forth out of her land.²⁰ But I had regard for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went.²¹ Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: I don't do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, where you went.²² I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am Yahweh, says the Domina Yahweh, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.²³ For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land.²⁴ I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.²⁵ A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.²⁶ I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them.²⁷ You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your mothers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.²⁸ I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you.²⁹ I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations.³⁰ Then shall you remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.³¹ Nor for your sake do I this, says the Domina Yahweh, be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel.³² Thus says the Domina Yahweh: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built.³³ The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by.³⁴ They shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.³⁵ Then the nations that are left round about you shall know that I, Yahweh, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and I will do it.³⁶ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with women like a flock.³⁷ As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in his appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of women; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.³⁸

The hand of Yahweh was on me, and she brought me out in the Spirit of Yahweh, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones.¹ She caused me to pass by them round about: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry.² She said to me, Daughter of woman, can these bones live? I answered, Domina Yahweh, you know.³ Again she said to me, Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, you dry bones, hear the word of Yahweh.⁴ Thus says the Domina Yahweh to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live.⁵ I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.⁶ So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone.⁷ I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.⁸ Then said she to me, Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, daughter of woman, and tell the wind, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.⁹ So I prophesied as she commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.¹⁰ Then she said to me, Daughter of woman, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off.¹¹ Therefore prophesy, and tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel.¹² You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people.¹³ I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and you shall know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it and performed it, says Yahweh.¹⁴ The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying,¹⁵ You, daughter of woman, take one stick, and write on it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel her companions: then take another stick, and write on it, For Josephine, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel her companions:¹⁶ and join them for you one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.¹⁷ When the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, Will you not show us what you mean by these?¹⁸ tell them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I will take the stick of Josephine, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel her companions; and I will put them with it, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand.¹⁹ The sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes.²⁰ Say to them, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:²¹ and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one queen shall be queen to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all; ²² neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. ²³ My servant Davina shall be queen over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. ²⁴ They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacoba my servant, in which your mothers lived; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever: and Davina my servant shall be their princess for ever. ²⁵ Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them forevermore. ²⁶ My tent also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ²⁷ The nations shall know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them forevermore. ²⁸

The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹ Daughter of woman, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the princess of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against her, ² and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Gog, princess of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: ³ and I will turn you about, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; ⁴ Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; ⁵ Gomer, and all her hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all her hordes; even many peoples with you. ⁶ Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. ⁷ After many days you shall be visited: in the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. ⁸ You shall ascend, you shall come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you. ⁹ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: It shall happen in that day, that things shall come into your mind, and you shall devise an evil device: ¹⁰ and you shall say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates; ¹¹ to take the spoil and to take the prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth. ¹² Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, shall tell you, Are you come to take the spoil? have you assembled your company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great spoil? ¹³ Therefore, daughter of woman, prophesy, and tell Gog, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, shall you not know it? ¹⁴ You shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; ¹⁵ and you shall come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you,

Gog, before their eyes.¹⁶ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Are you she of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them?¹⁷ It shall happen in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, says the Domina Yahweh, that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils.¹⁸ For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;¹⁹ so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the women who are on the surface of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.²⁰ I will call for a sword against her to all my mountains, says the Domina Yahweh: every woman's sword shall be against her sister.²¹ With pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with her; and I will rain on her, and on her hordes, and on the many peoples who are with her, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur.²² I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.²³

You, daughter of woman, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Gog, princess of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal:¹ and I will turn you about, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Israel;² and I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand.³ You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured.⁴ You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken it, says the Domina Yahweh.⁵ I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.⁶ My holy name will I make known in the midst of my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel.⁷ Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Domina Yahweh; this is the day about which I have spoken.⁸ Those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years;⁹ so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁰ It shall happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop those who pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all her multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon Gog.¹¹ Seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land.¹² Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, says the Domina Yahweh.¹³ They shall set apart women of continual employment, who shall pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.¹⁴ Those who pass through the land shall pass through; and when any sees a woman's bone, then shall she set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog.¹⁵ Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land.¹⁶ You, daughter of woman, thus says the Domina Yahweh: Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood.¹⁷ You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princesses of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan.¹⁸ You shall eat fat until you be full, and drink blood until you be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.¹⁹ You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty women, and with all women of war, says the Domina Yahweh.²⁰ I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them.²¹ So the house of Israel shall know that I am Yahweh their God, from that day and forward.²² The nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword.²³ According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I to them; and I hid my face from them.²⁴ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: Now will I bring back the captivity of Jacoba, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name.²⁵ They shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and none shall make them afraid;²⁶ when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations.²⁷ They shall know that I am Yahweh their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there;²⁸ neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel, says the Domina Yahweh.²⁹

In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, the hand of Yahweh was on me, and she brought me there.¹ In the visions of God brought she me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south.² She brought me there; and, behold, there was a woman, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in her hand, and a measuring reed; and she stood in the gate.³ The woman said to me, Daughter of woman, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, are you brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel.⁴ Behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the woman's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a handbreadth each: so she measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.⁵ Then came she to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up the steps of it: and she measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad.⁶ Every lodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed.⁷ She measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed.⁸ Then measured she the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts of it, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house.⁹ The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.¹⁰ She measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits;¹¹ and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.¹² She measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of twenty-five cubits; door against door.¹³ She made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, round about the gate.¹⁴ From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits.¹⁵ There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward; and on each post were palm trees.¹⁶ Then brought she me into the outer court; and behold, there were chambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: thirty chambers were on the pavement.¹⁷ The pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement.¹⁸ Then she measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north.¹⁹ The gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, she measured the length of it and the breadth of it.²⁰ The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts of it and the arches of it were after the measure of the first gate: the length of it was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits.²¹ The windows of it, and the arches of it, and the palm trees of it, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and the arches of it were before them.²² There was a gate to the inner court over against the other] gate, [both on the north and on the east; and she measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits.²³ She led me toward the south; and behold, a gate toward the south: and she measured the posts of it and the arches of it according to these measures.²⁴ There were windows in it and in the arches of it round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits.²⁵ There were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches of it were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on the posts of it.²⁶ There was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and she measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.²⁷ Then she brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and she measured the south gate according to these measures;²⁸ and the lodges of it, and the posts of it, and the arches of it, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches of it round about; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad.²⁹ There were arches round about, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits broad.³⁰ The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on the posts of it: and the ascent to it had eight steps.³¹ She brought me into the inner court toward the east: and she measured the gate according to these measures;³² and the lodges of it, and the posts of it, and the arches of it, according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches of it round about; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad.³³ The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on the posts of it, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.³⁴ She brought me to the north gate: and she measured it according to these measures;³⁵ the lodges of it, the posts of it, and the arches of it: and there were windows therein round about; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits.³⁶ The posts of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on the posts of it, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.³⁷ A chamber with the door of it was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt offering.³⁸ In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to kill thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering.³⁹ On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables.⁴⁰ Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed the sacrifices.⁴¹ There were four tables for the burnt offering, of hewn stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice.⁴² The hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened within round about: and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.⁴³ Outside of the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.⁴⁴ She said to me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house;⁴⁵ and the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the daughters of Zadok, who from among the daughters of Levi come near to Yahweh to minister to her.⁴⁶ She measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.⁴⁷ Then she brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.⁴⁸ The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.⁴⁹

She brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tent.¹ The breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and she measured the length of it, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.² Then went she inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits.³ She measured the length of it, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and she said to me, This is the most holy place.⁴ Then she measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.⁵ The side chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold therein, and not have hold in the wall of the house.⁶ [The side chambers were broader as they encompassed the house] higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house [continued] upward; and so one went up [from] the lowest [chamber] to the highest by the middle [chamber].⁷ I saw also that the house had a raised base round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.⁸ The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chambers, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that belonged to the house.⁹ Between the chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.¹⁰ The doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.¹¹ The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length of it ninety cubits.¹² So she measured the house, one hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls of it, one hundred cubits long;¹³ also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits.¹⁴ She measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at the back of it, and the galleries of it on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court;¹⁵ the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings round about, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered),¹⁶ to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall round about inside and outside, by measure.¹⁷ It was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces;¹⁸ so that there was the face of a woman toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. thus was it made through all the house round about:¹⁹ from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: thus was the wall of the temple.²⁰ As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of it] was as the appearance [of the temple.²¹ The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and the length of it two cubits; and the corners of it, and the length of it, and the walls of it, were of wood: and she said to me, This is the table that is before Yahweh.²² The temple and the sanctuary had two doors.²³ The doors had two leaves apiece], two turning leaves: two [leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other.²⁴ There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside.²⁵ There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side chambers of the house, and the thresholds.²⁶

Then she brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and she brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north.¹ Before the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.² Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third story.³ Before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north.⁴ Now the upper chambers were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building.⁵ For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middle from the ground.⁶ The wall that was outside by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court before the chambers, the length of it was fifty cubits.⁷ For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits.⁸ From under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.⁹ In the thickness of the wall of the court

toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were chambers.¹⁰ The way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; according to their length so was their breadth: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.¹¹ According to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.¹² Then said she to me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they are the holy chambers, where the priests who are near to Yahweh shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.¹³ When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertains to the people.¹⁴ Now when she had made an end of measuring the inner house, she brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.¹⁵ She measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.¹⁶ She measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed round about.¹⁷ She measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.¹⁸ She turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.¹⁹ She measured it on the four sides: it had a wall round about, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.²⁰

Afterward she brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east.¹ Behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and her voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with her glory.² It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.³ The glory of Yahweh came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.⁴ The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of Yahweh filled the house.⁵ I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a woman stood by me.⁶ She said to me, Daughter of woman, this is] the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their queens, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their queens [in their high places;⁷ in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their doorpost beside my doorpost, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger.⁸ Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their queens, far from me; and I will dwell in the midst of them forever.⁹ You, daughter of woman, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern.¹⁰ If they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and the fashion of it, and the exits of it, and the entrances of it, and all the forms of it, and all the ordinances of it, and all the forms of it, and all the laws of it; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all the ordinances of it, and do them.¹¹ This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit of it round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.¹² These are the measures of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border of it by the edge of it round about a span; and this shall be the base of the altar.¹³ From the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit.¹⁴ The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns.¹⁵ The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad, square in the four sides of it.¹⁶ The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides of it; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom of it shall be a cubit round about; and the steps of it shall look toward the east.¹⁷ She said to me, Daughter of woman, thus says the Domina Yahweh: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.¹⁸ You shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the seed of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says the Domina Yahweh, a young bull for a sin offering.¹⁹ You shall take of the blood of it, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border round about: thus shall you cleanse it and make atonement for it.²⁰ You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary.²¹ On the second day you shall offer a female goat without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bull.²² When you have made an end of cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.²³ You shall bring them near before Yahweh, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to Yahweh.²⁴ Seven days shall you prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.²⁵ Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it.²⁶ When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Domina Yahweh.²⁷

Then she brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut.¹ Yahweh said to me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any woman enter in by it; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut.² As for the princess, she shall sit therein as princess to eat bread before Yahweh; she shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.³ Then she brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh: and I fell on my face.⁴ Yahweh said to me, Daughter of woman, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of the house of Yahweh, and all the laws of it; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary.⁵ You shall tell the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus says the Domina Yahweh: you house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,⁶ in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations.

⁷ You have not kept the charge of my holy things; but you have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves. ⁸ Thus says the Domina Yahweh, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel. ⁹ But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. ¹⁰ Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. ¹¹ Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says the Domina Yahweh, and they shall bear their iniquity. ¹² They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priestess to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. ¹³ Yet will I make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service of it, and for all that shall be done therein. ¹⁴ But the priests the Levites, the daughters of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Domina Yahweh: ¹⁵ they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge. ¹⁶ It shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. ¹⁷ They shall have linen tires on their heads, and shall have linen breeches on their waists; they shall not gird themselves with anything that causes sweat. ¹⁸ When they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments. ¹⁹ Neither shall they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. ²⁰ Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. ²¹ Neither shall they take for their husbands a widower, nor him who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widower who is the widower of a priestess. ²² They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. ²³ In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Sabbaths holy. ²⁴ They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for mother, or for father, or for daughter, or for son, for sister, or for brother who has had no wife, they may defile themselves. ²⁵ After she is cleansed, they shall reckon to her seven days. ²⁶ In the day that she goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, she shall offer her sin offering, says the Domina Yahweh. ²⁷ They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. ²⁸ They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. ²⁹ The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priestess: you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. ³⁰ The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or animal. ³¹

Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to Yahweh, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all the border of it round about.¹ Of this there shall be for the holy place five hundred in length] by five hundred [in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits for the suburbs of it round about.² Of this measure shall you measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy.³ It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to Yahweh; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary.⁴ Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, for twenty chambers.⁵ You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.⁶ Whatever is] for the princess [shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border.⁷ In the land it shall be to her for a possession in Israel: and my princesses shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.⁸ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: Let it suffice you, princesses of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute justice and righteousness; dispossessing my people, says the Domina Yahweh.⁹ You shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.¹⁰ The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure of it shall be after the homer.¹¹ The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina.¹² This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley;¹³ and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;)¹⁴ and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel--for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Domina Yahweh.¹⁵ All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the princess in Israel.¹⁶ It shall be the princess's part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: she shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.¹⁷ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: In the first month], in the first [day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary.¹⁸ The priestess shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court.¹⁹ So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for her who is simple: so shall you make atonement for the house.²⁰ In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.²¹ On that day shall the princess prepare for herself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering.²² The seven days of the feast she shall prepare a burnt offering to Yahweh, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a female goat daily for a sin offering.²³ She shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah.²⁴ In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall she do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.²⁵

Thus says the Domina Yahweh: The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened.¹ The princess shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare her burnt offering and her peace offerings, and she shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then she shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.² The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before Yahweh on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.³ The burnt offering that the princess shall offer to Yahweh shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish;⁴ and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as she is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.⁵ On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish:⁶ and she shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as she is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah.⁷ When the princess shall enter, she shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and she shall go forth by the way of it.⁸ But when the people of the land shall come before Yahweh in the appointed feasts, she who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and she who enters by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: she shall not return by the way of the gate by which she came in, but shall go forth straight before her.⁹ The princess, when they go in, shall go in with of them; and when they go out, she shall go out.¹⁰ In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as she is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.¹¹ When the princess shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to Yahweh, one shall open for her the gate that looks toward the east; and she shall prepare her burnt offering and her peace offerings, as she does on the Sabbath day: then she shall go forth; and after her going forth one shall shut the gate.¹² You shall prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to Yahweh daily: morning by morning shall you prepare it.¹³ You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to Yahweh continually by a perpetual ordinance.¹⁴ Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.¹⁵ Thus says the Domina Yahweh: If the princess give a gift to any of her daughters, it is her inheritance, it shall belong to her daughters; it is their possession by inheritance.¹⁶ But if she give of her inheritance a gift to one of her servants, it shall be hers to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the princess; but as for her inheritance, it shall be for her daughters.¹⁷ Moreover the princess shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; she shall give inheritance to her daughters out of her own possession, that my people not be scattered every woman from her possession.¹⁸ Then she brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward.¹⁹ She said to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people.²⁰ Then she brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.²¹ In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure.²² There was a wall round about in them, round about the four, and boiling places were made under the walls round about.²³ Then said she to me, These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.²⁴

She brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar.¹ Then she brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.² When the woman went forth eastward with the line in her hand, she measured one thousand cubits, and she caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles.³ Again she measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again she measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the waist.⁴ Afterward she measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through.⁵ She said to me, Daughter of woman, have you seen this? Then she brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river.⁶ Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.⁷ Then said she to me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Arabah; and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed.⁸ It shall happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters are come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes.⁹ It shall happen, that fisherwomen shall stand by it: from En Gedi even to En Eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.¹⁰ But the miry places of it, and the marshes of it, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt.¹¹ By the river on the bank of it, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall the fruit of it fail: it shall bring forth new fruit every month, because the waters of it issue out of the sanctuary; and the fruit of it shall be for food, and the leaf of it for healing.¹² Thus says the Domina Yahweh: This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Josephine shall have two portions.¹³ You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your mothers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance.¹⁴ This shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad;¹⁵ Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer Hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran.¹⁶ The border from the sea, shall be Hazar Enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.¹⁷ The east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the east sea shall you measure. This is the east side.¹⁸ The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth Kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, to the great sea. This is the south side southward.¹⁹ The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.²⁰ So shall you divide this land to you according to the tribes of Israel.²¹ It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the strangers who sojourn among you, who shall mother children among you; and they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.²² It shall happen, that in what tribe the stranger sojourns, there shall you give her her inheritance, says the Domina Yahweh.²³

Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath, (and they shall have their sides east and] west), Dan, one [portion.¹ By the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one portion.² By the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one portion.³ By the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion.⁴ By the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion.⁵ By the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion.⁶ By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion.⁷ By the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.⁸ The offering that you shall offer to Yahweh shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in breadth.⁹ For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the sanctuary of Yahweh shall be in the midst of it.¹⁰ It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the daughters of Zadok, who have kept my charge, who didn't go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.¹¹ It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.¹² Answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.¹³ They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to Yahweh.¹⁴ The five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the midst of it.¹⁵ These shall be the measures of it: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.¹⁶ The city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty.¹⁷ The remainder in the length, answerable to the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable to the holy offering; and the increase of it shall be for food to those who labor in the city.¹⁸ Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it.¹⁹ All the offering shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: you shall offer the holy offering four-square, with the possession of the city.²⁰ The residue shall be for the princess, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, answerable to the portions, it shall be for the princess: and the holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst of it.²¹ Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the princess's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the princess.²² As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion.²³ By the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion.²⁴ By the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one portion.²⁵ By the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion.²⁶ By the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion.²⁷ By the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribath Kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, to the great sea.²⁸ This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says the Domina Yahweh.²⁹ These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure;³⁰ and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levia, one.³¹ At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Josephine, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one.³² At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one.³³ At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one.³⁴ It shall be eighteen thousand reeds round about: and the name of the city from that day shall be, Yahweh is there.³⁵

Daniel

Chapter 1

In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim queen of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon to Jerusalem, and besieged it.¹ The Domina gave Jehoiakim queen of Judah into her hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and she carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of her god: and she brought the vessels into the treasure house of her god.² The queen spoke to Ashpenaz the master of her eunuchs, that she should bring in certain of the children of Israel, even of the seed royal and of the nobles;³ youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the queen's palace; and that she should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans.⁴ The queen appointed for them a daily portion of the queen's dainties, and of the wine which she drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at the end of it they should stand before the queen.⁵ Now among these were, of the children of Judah, Danielle, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.⁶ The princess of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Danielle she gave the name of] Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, [of] Shadrach; and to Mishael, [of] Meshach; and to Azariah, [of] Abednego.⁷ But Danielle purposed in her heart that she would not defile herself with the queen's dainties, nor with the wine which she drank: therefore she requested of the princess of the eunuchs that she might not defile herself.⁸ Now God made Danielle to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the princess of the eunuchs.⁹ The princess of the eunuchs said to Danielle, I fear my domina the queen, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should she see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? so would you endanger my head with the queen.¹⁰ Then said Danielle to the steward whom the princess of the eunuchs had appointed over Danielle, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:¹¹ Prove your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.¹² Then let our faces be looked on before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the queen's dainties; and as you see, deal with your servants.¹³ So she listened to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.¹⁴ At the end of ten days their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the queen's dainties.¹⁵ So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.¹⁶ Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Danielle had understanding in all visions and dreams.¹⁷ At the end of the days which the queen had appointed for bringing them in, the princess of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.¹⁸ The queen talked with them; and among them all was found none like Danielle, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the queen.¹⁹ In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the queen inquired of them, she found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all her realm.²⁰ Danielle continued even to the first year of queen Cyrus.²¹

In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and her spirit was troubled, and her sleep went from her.¹ Then the queen commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the queen her dreams. So they came in and stood before the queen.² The queen said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream.³ Then spoke the Chaldeans to the queen in the Syrian language, O queen, live forever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.⁴ The queen answered the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if you don't make known to me the dream and the interpretation of it, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.⁵ But if you show the dream and the interpretation of it, you shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and the interpretation of it.⁶ They answered the second time and said, Let the queen tell her servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.⁷ The queen answered, I know of a certainty that you would gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me.⁸ But if you don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me the interpretation of it.⁹ The Chaldeans answered before the queen, and said, There is not a woman on the earth who can show the queen's matter, because no queen, domina, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean.¹⁰ It is a rare thing that the queen requires, and there is no other who can show it before the queen, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.¹¹ For this cause the queen was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise women of Babylon.¹² So the decree went forth, and the wise women were to be slain; and they sought Danielle and her companions to be slain.¹³ Then Danielle returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the queen's guard, who was gone forth to kill the wise women of Babylon;¹⁴ she answered Arioch the queen's captain, Why is the decree so urgent from the queen? Then Arioch made the thing known to Danielle.¹⁵ Danielle went in, and desired of the queen that she would appoint her a time, and she would show the queen the interpretation.¹⁶ Then Danielle went to her house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, her companions:¹⁷ that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Danielle and her companions should not perish with the rest of the wise women of Babylon.¹⁸ Then was the secret revealed to Danielle in a vision of the night. Then Danielle blessed the God of heaven.¹⁹ Danielle answered, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are hers.²⁰ She changes the times and the seasons; she removes queens, and sets up queens; she gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding;²¹ she reveals the deep and secret things; she knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with her.²² I thank you, and praise you, you God of my mothers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the queen's matter.²³ Therefore Danielle went in to Arioch, whom the queen had appointed to destroy the wise women of Babylon; she went and said thus to her: Don't destroy the wise women of Babylon; bring me in before the queen, and I will show to the queen the interpretation.²⁴ Then Arioch brought in Danielle before the queen in haste, and said thus to her, I have found a woman of the children of the captivity of Judah, who will make known to the queen the interpretation.²⁵ The queen answered Danielle, whose name was Belteshazzar, Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation of it?²⁶ Danielle answered before the queen, and said, The secret which the queen has demanded can neither wise women, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show to the queen;²⁷ but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and she has made known to the queen Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these:²⁸ as for you, O queen, your thoughts came into your mind on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and she who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen.²⁹ But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the queen, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.³⁰ You, O queen, saw, and behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and the aspect of it was awesome.³¹ As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass,³² its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay.³³ You saw

until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.³⁴ Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.³⁵ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation of it before the queen.³⁶ You, O queen, are queen of queens, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory;³⁷ and wherever the children of women dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky has she given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold.³⁸ After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.³⁹ The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush.⁴⁰ Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay.⁴¹ As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.⁴² Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of women; but they shall not cling to one another, even as iron does not mingle with clay.⁴³ In the days of those queens shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty of it be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.⁴⁴ Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the queen what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation of it sure.⁴⁵ Then the queen Nebuchadnezzar fell on her face, and worshiped Danielle, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odors to her.⁴⁶ The queen answered to Danielle, and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Domina of queens, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you have been able to reveal this secret.⁴⁷ Then the queen made Danielle great, and gave her many great gifts, and made her to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise women of Babylon.⁴⁸ Danielle requested of the queen, and she appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Danielle was in the gate of the queen.⁴⁹

Nebuchadnezzar the queen made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and the breadth of it six cubits: she set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.¹ Then Nebuchadnezzar the queen sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the queen had set up.² Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the queen had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.³ Then the herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages,⁴ that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the queen has set up;⁵ and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.⁶ Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the queen had set up.⁷ Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews.⁸ They answered Nebuchadnezzar the queen, O queen, live for ever.⁹ You, O queen, have made a decree, that every woman that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image;¹⁰ and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.¹¹ There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these women, O queen, have not regarded you: they don't serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.¹² Then Nebuchadnezzar in her rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these women before the queen.¹³ Nebuchadnezzar answered them, Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don't serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?¹⁴ Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if you don't worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?¹⁵ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the queen, Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.¹⁶ If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and she will deliver us out of your hand, O queen.¹⁷ But if not, be it known to you, O queen, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.¹⁸ Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of her visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore she spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.¹⁹ She commanded certain mighty women who were in her army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.²⁰ Then these women were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.²¹ Therefore because the queen's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those women who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.²² These three women, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.²³ Then Nebuchadnezzar the queen was astonished, and rose up in haste: she spoke and said to her counselors, Didn't we cast three women bound into the midst of the fire? They answered the queen, True, O queen.²⁴ She answered, Look, I see four women loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect of the fourth is like a daughter of the gods.²⁵ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace: she spoke and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come here. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came forth out of the midst of the fire.²⁶ The satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the queen's counselors, being gathered together, saw these women, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their pants changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.²⁷ Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent her angel, and delivered her servants who trusted in her, and have changed the queen's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. ²⁸ Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god who is able to deliver after this sort. ²⁹ Then the queen promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon. ³⁰

Nebuchadnezzar the queen, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. ¹ It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me. ² How great are her signs! and how mighty are her wonders! her kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and her dominion is from generation to generation. ³ I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁴ I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁵ Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise women of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁶ Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me the interpretation of it. ⁷ But at the last Danielle came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before her, saying, ⁸ Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation of it. ⁹ Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth; and the height of it was great. ¹⁰ The tree grew, and was strong, and the height of it reached to the sky, and the sight of it to the end of all the earth. ¹¹ The leaves of it were beautiful, and the fruit of it much, and in it was food for all: the animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in the branches of it, and all flesh was fed from it. ¹² I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky. ¹³ She cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. ¹⁴ Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let her portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth: ¹⁵ let her heart be changed from woman's, and let an animal's heart be given to her; and let seven times pass over her. ¹⁶ The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of women, and gives it to whoever she will, and sets up over it the lowest of women. ¹⁷ This dream I, queen Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise women of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you. ¹⁸ Then Danielle, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and her thoughts troubled her. The queen answered, Belteshazzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you. Belteshazzar answered, My domina, the dream be to those who hate you, and the interpretation of it to your adversaries. ¹⁹ The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and the sight of it to all the earth;²⁰ whose leaves were beautiful, and the fruit of it much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation:²¹ it is you, O queen, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth.²² Whereas the queen saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying, Hew down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of the roots of it in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let her portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over her;²³ this is the interpretation, O queen, and it is the decree of the Most High, which is come on my domina the queen:²⁴ that you shall be driven from women, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of women, and gives it to whoever she will.²⁵ Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you shall have known that the heavens do rule.²⁶ Therefore, O queen, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your tranquility.²⁷ All this came on the queen Nebuchadnezzar.²⁸ At the end of twelve months she was walking in the royal palace of Babylon.²⁹ The queen spoke and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?³⁰ While the word was in the queen's mouth, there fell a voice from the sky, saying, O queen Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom is departed from you:³¹ and you shall be driven from women; and they dwelling shall be with the animals of the field; you shall be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of women, and gives it to whoever she will.³² The same hour was the thing fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar: and she was driven from women, and ate grass as oxen, and her body was wet with the dew of the sky, until her hair was grown like eagles' feathers], and her nails like birds' [claws].³³ At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored her who lives forever; for her dominion is an everlasting dominion, and her kingdom from generation to generation.³⁴ All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and she does according to her will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay her hand, or tell her, What do you?³⁵ At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me; and my counselors and my dominas sought to me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me.³⁶ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the Queen of heaven; for all her works are truth, and her ways justice; and those who walk in pride she is able to abase.³⁷

Belshazzar the queen made a great feast to a thousand of her dominas, and drank wine before the thousand.¹ Belshazzar, while she tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar her mother had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem;

that the queen and her dominas, her husbands and her concubines, might drink from them.² Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the queen and her dominas, her husbands and her concubines, drank from them.³ They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.⁴ In the same hour came forth the fingers of a woman's hand, and wrote over against the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the queen's palace: and the queen saw the part of the hand that wrote.⁵ Then the queen's face was changed in her, and her thoughts troubled her; and the joints of her thighs were loosened, and her knees struck one against another.⁶ The queen cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The queen spoke and said to the wise women of Babylon, Whoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation of it, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about her neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.⁷ Then came in all the queen's wise women; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the queen the interpretation.⁸ Then was queen Belshazzar greatly troubled, and her face was changed in her, and her dominas were perplexed.⁹ Now the king by reason of the words of the queen and her dominas came into the banquet house: the king spoke and said, O queen, live forever; don't let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed.¹⁰ There is a woman in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your mother light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in her; and the queen Nebuchadnezzar your mother, the queen, I say, your mother, made her master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;¹¹ because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Danielle, whom the queen named Belteshazzar. Now let Danielle be called, and she will show the interpretation.¹² Then was Danielle brought in before the queen. The queen spoke and said to Danielle, Are you that Danielle, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the queen my mother brought out of Judah?¹³ I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.¹⁴ Now the wise women, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me the interpretation of it; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing.¹⁵ But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if you can read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation of it, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.¹⁶ Then Danielle answered before the queen, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the queen, and make known to her the interpretation.¹⁷ You queen, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your mother the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty:¹⁸ and because of the greatness that she gave her, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before her: whom she would she killed, and whom she would she kept alive; and whom she would she raised up, and whom she would she put down.¹⁹ But when her heart was lifted up, and her spirit was hardened so that she dealt proudly, she was deposed from her kingly throne, and they took her glory from her:²⁰ and she was driven from the daughters of women, and her heart was made like the animals', and her dwelling was with the wild donkeys; she was fed with grass like oxen, and her body was wet with the dew of the sky; until she knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of women, and that she sets up over it whoever she will.²¹ You her daughter, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this,²²

but have lifted up yourself against the Domina of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of her house before you, and you and your dominas, your husbands and your concubines, have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified.²³ Then was the part of the hand sent from before her, and this writing was inscribed.²⁴ This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.²⁵ This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end;²⁶ TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting.²⁷ PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.²⁸ Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Danielle with purple, and put a chain of gold about her neck, and made proclamation concerning her, that she should be the third ruler in the kingdom.²⁹ In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean Queen was slain.³⁰ Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.³¹

It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom;¹ and over them three presidents, of whom Danielle was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the queen should have no damage.² Then this Danielle was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in her; and the queen thought to set her over the whole realm.³ Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasion against Danielle as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion nor fault, because she was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in her.⁴ Then said these women, We shall not find any occasion against this Danielle, except we find it against her concerning the law of her God.⁵ Then these presidents and satraps assembled together to the queen, and said thus to her, Queen Darius, live forever.⁶ All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or woman for thirty days, save of you, O queen, she shall be cast into the den of lions.⁷ Now, O queen, establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter.⁸ Therefore queen Darius signed the writing and the interdict.⁹ When Danielle knew that the writing was signed, she went into her house (now her windows were open in her chamber toward Jerusalem) and she kneeled on her knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before her God, as she did before.¹⁰ Then these women assembled together, and found Danielle making petition and supplication before her God.¹¹ Then they came near, and spoke before the queen concerning the queen's interdict: Haven't you signed an interdict, that every woman who shall make petition to any god or woman within thirty days, save to you, O queen, shall be cast into the den of lions? The queen answered, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter.¹² Then answered they and said before the queen, That Danielle, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't regard you, O queen, nor the interdict that you have signed, but makes her petition three times a day.¹³ Then the queen, when she heard these words, was sore displeased, and set her heart on Danielle to deliver her; and she labored until the going down of the sun to rescue her.¹⁴ Then these women assembled together to the queen, and said to the queen, Know, O queen, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the queen establishes may be changed.¹⁵ Then the queen commanded, and they brought Danielle, and cast her into the den of lions. Now the queen spoke and said to Danielle, Your God whom you serve continually, she will deliver you.¹⁶ A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the queen sealed it with her own signet, and with the signet of her dominas; that nothing might be changed concerning Danielle.¹⁷ Then the queen went to her palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before her: and her sleep fled from her.¹⁸ Then the queen arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions.¹⁹ When she came near to the den to Danielle, she cried with a lamentable voice; the queen spoke and said to Danielle, Danielle, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?²⁰ Then said Danielle to the queen, O queen, live forever.²¹ My God has sent her angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because as before her innocence was found in me; and also before you, O queen, have I done no hurt.²² Then was the queen exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Danielle up out of the den. So Danielle was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found on her, because she had trusted in her God.²³ The queen commanded, and they brought those women who had accused Danielle, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their husbands; and the lions had the mastery of them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.²⁴ Then queen Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.²⁵ I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom women tremble and fear before the God of Danielle; for she is the living God, and steadfast forever, Her kingdom that which shall not be destroyed; and her dominion shall be even to the end.²⁶ She delivers and rescues, and she works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Danielle from the power of the lions.²⁷ So this Danielle prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.²⁸

In the first year of Belshazzar queen of Babylon Danielle had a dream and visions of her head on her bed: then she wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters.¹ Danielle spoke and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the sky broke forth on the great sea.² Four great animals came up from the sea, diverse one from another.³ The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I saw until the wings of it were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a woman; and a woman's heart was given to it.⁴ Behold, another animal, a second, like a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus to it, Arise, devour much flesh.⁵ After this I saw, and behold, another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird; the animal had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.⁶ After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns.⁷ I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a woman, and a mouth speaking great things.⁸ I saw until thrones were placed, and one who was ancient of days

sat: her clothing was white as snow, and the hair of her head like pure wool; her throne was fiery flames, and the wheels of it burning fire.⁹ A fiery stream issued and came forth from before her: thousands of thousands ministered to her, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before her: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.¹⁰ I saw at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I saw even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire.¹¹ As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.¹² I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a daughter of woman, and she came even to the ancient of days, and they brought her near before her.¹³ There was given her dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve her: her dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and her kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.¹⁴ As for me, Danielle, my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.¹⁵ I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked her the truth concerning all this. So she told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.¹⁶ These great animals, which are four, are four queens, who shall arise out of the earth.¹⁷ But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.¹⁸ Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was diverse from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet;¹⁹ and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows.²⁰ I saw, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;²¹ until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.²² Thus she said, The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.²³ As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten queens arise: and another shall arise after them; and she shall be diverse from the former, and she shall put down three queens.²⁴ She shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High; and she shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into her hand until a time and times and half a time.²⁵ But the judgment shall be set, and they shall take away her dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end.²⁶ The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole sky, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: her kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey her.²⁷ Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Danielle, my thoughts much troubled me, and my face was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.²⁸

In the third year of the reign of queen Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Danielle, after that which appeared to me at the first.¹ I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai.² Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.³ I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no

animals could stand before her, neither was there any who could deliver out of her hand; but she did according to her will, and magnified herself.⁴ As I was considering, behold, a female goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between her eyes.⁵ She came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on her in the fury of her power.⁶ I saw her come close to the ram, and she was moved with anger against her, and struck the ram, and broke her two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before her; but she cast her down to the ground, and trampled on her; and there was none who could deliver the ram out of her hand.⁷ The female goat magnified herself exceedingly: and when she was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of the sky.⁸ Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land.⁹ It grew great, even to the army of the sky; and some of the army and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them.¹⁰ Yes, it magnified itself, even to the princess of the army; and it took away from her the continual burnt offering, and the place of her sanctuary was cast down.¹¹ The army was given over to it] together with the continual [burnt offering] through disobedience; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did [its pleasure and prospered].¹² Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, How long shall be the vision concerning] the continual [burnt offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot?¹³ She said to me, To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.¹⁴ It happened, when I, even I Danielle, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it; and behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a woman.¹⁵ I heard a woman's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this woman to understand the vision.¹⁶ So she came near where I stood; and when she came, I was frightened, and fell on my face: but she said to me, Understand, daughter of woman; for the vision belongs to the time of the end.¹⁷ Now as she was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but she touched me, and set me upright.¹⁸ She said, Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end.¹⁹ The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the queens of Media and Persia.²⁰ The rough female goat is the queen of Greece: and the great horn that is between her eyes is the first queen.²¹ As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with her power.²² In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a queen of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.²³ Her power shall be mighty, but not by her own power; and she shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do her pleasure; and she shall destroy the mighty ones and the holy people.²⁴ Through her policy she shall cause craft to prosper in her hand; and she shall magnify herself in her heart, and in their security shall she destroy many: she shall also stand up against the princess of princesses; but she shall be broken without hand.²⁵ The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true: but seal up the vision; for it belongs to many days to come.²⁶ I, Danielle, fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the queen's business: and I wondered at the vision, but none understood it.²⁷

In the first year of Darius the daughter of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made queen over the realm of the Chaldeans,¹ in the first year of her reign I, Danielle, understood by the books the number of the years about which the word of Yahweh came to Jeremia the prophetess, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years.² I set my face to the Domina God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.³ I prayed to Yahweh my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Domina, the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love her and keep her commandments,⁴ we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances;⁵ neither have we listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our queens, our princesses, and our mothers, and to all the people of the land.⁶ Domina, righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as at this day; to the women of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you.⁷ Domina, to us belongs confusion of face, to our queens, to our princesses, and to our mothers, because we have sinned against you.⁸ To the Domina our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against her;⁹ neither have we obeyed the voice of Yahweh our God, to walk in her laws, which she set before us by her servants the prophets.¹⁰ Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, even turning aside, that they should not obey your voice: therefore has the curse been poured out on us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God; for we have sinned against her.¹¹ She has confirmed her words, which she spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole sky has not been done as has been done on Jerusalem.¹² As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come on us: yet have we not entreated the favor of Yahweh our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth.¹³ Therefore has Yahweh watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for Yahweh our God is righteous in all her works which she does, and we have not obeyed her voice.¹⁴ Now, Domina our God, who has brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten you renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.¹⁵ Domina, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our mothers, Jerusalem and your people are become a reproach to all who are round about us.¹⁶ Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to her petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Domina's sake.¹⁷ My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolations, and the city which is called by your name: for we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercies' sake.¹⁸ Domina, hear; Domina, forgive; Domina, listen and do; don't defer, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name.¹⁹ While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Yahweh my God for the holy mountain of my God;²⁰ yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the woman Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering.²¹ She instructed me, and talked with me, and said, Danielle, I am now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding.²² At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went forth, and I am come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision.²³ Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy.²⁴ Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Anointed One, the princess, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times.²⁵ After the sixty-two weeks the Anointed One shall be cut off, and shall have nothing: and the people of the princess who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end of it shall be with a flood, and even to the end shall be war; desolations are determined.²⁶ She shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week she shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and on the wing of abominations shall come] one who makes desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, shall [wrath be poured out on the desolate.²⁷

In the third year of Cyrus queen of Persia a thing was revealed to Danielle, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and she understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.¹ In those days I, Danielle, was mourning three whole weeks.² I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled.³ In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel,⁴ I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, a woman clothed in linen, whose thighs were girded with pure gold of Uphaz:⁵ her body also was like the beryl, and her face as the appearance of lightning, and her eyes as flaming torches, and her arms and her feet like burnished brass, and the voice of her words like the voice of a multitude.⁶ I, Danielle, alone saw the vision; for the women who were with me didn't see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves.⁷ So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.⁸ Yet heard I the voice of her words; and when I heard the voice of her words, then was I fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.⁹ Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands.¹⁰ She said to me, Danielle, you woman greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for to you am I now sent. When she had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling.¹¹ Then said she to me, Don't be afraid, Danielle; for from the first day that you did set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard: and I am come for your words' sake.¹² But the princess of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princesses, came to help me: and I remained there with the queens of Persia.¹³ Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days:¹⁴ and when she had spoken to me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute.¹⁵ Behold, one in the likeness of the daughters of women touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to her who stood before me, my domina, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned on me, and I retain no strength.¹⁶ For how can the servant of this my domina talk with this my domina? for as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me.¹⁷ Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a woman, and she strengthened me.¹⁸ She said, "Greatly beloved woman, don't be afraid: peace be to you, be strong, yes, be strong." When she spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my domina speak; for you have strengthened me."¹⁹ Then she said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the princess of Persia. When I go forth, behold, the princess of Greece shall come.²⁰ But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is none who holds with me against these, but Michael your princess."²¹

"As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen her.¹ Now will I show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three queens in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when she has grown strong through her riches, she shall stir up all against the realm of Greece.² A mighty queen shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to her will.³ When she shall stand up, her kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of the sky, but not to her posterity, nor according to her dominion with which she ruled; for her kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides these.⁴ The queen of the south shall be strong, and one of her princesses; and she shall be strong above her, and have dominion; her dominion shall be a great dominion.⁵ At the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the son of the queen of the south shall come to the queen of the north to make an agreement: but he shall not retain the strength of his arm; neither shall she stand, nor her arm; but he shall be given up, and those who brought him, and she who became the mother of him, and she who strengthened him in those times.⁶ But out of a shoot from his roots shall one stand up in her place, who shall come to the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the queen of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail.⁷ Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall she carry captive into Egypt; and she shall refrain some years from the queen of the north.⁸ She shall come into the realm of the queen of the south, but she shall return into her own land.⁹ Her daughters shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through; and they shall return and war, even to her fortress.¹⁰ The queen of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come forth and fight with her, even with the queen of the north; and she shall set forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into her hand.¹¹ The multitude shall be lifted up, and her heart shall be exalted; and she shall cast down tens of thousands, but she shall not prevail.¹² The queen of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former; and she shall come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance.¹³ In those times there shall many stand up against the queen of the south: also the children of the violent among your people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fall.¹⁴ So the queen of the north shall come, and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south shall not stand, neither her chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to stand.¹⁵ But she who comes against her shall do according to her own will, and none shall stand before her; and she shall stand in the glorious land, and in her hand shall be destruction.¹⁶ She shall set her face to come with the strength of her whole kingdom, and with her equitable conditions; and she shall perform them: and she shall give her the son of men, to corrupt him; but he shall not stand, neither be for her.¹⁷

After this shall she turn her face to the islands, and shall take many: but a princess shall cause the reproach offered by her to cease; yes, moreover, she shall cause her reproach to turn on her.¹⁸ Then she shall turn her face toward the fortresses of her own land; but she shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found.¹⁹ Then shall stand up in her place one who shall cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within few days she shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.²⁰ In her place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but she shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries.²¹ The overwhelming forces shall be overwhelmed from before her, and shall be broken; yes, also the princess of the covenant.²² After the league made with her she shall work deceitfully; for she shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people.²³ In time of security shall she come even on the fattest places of the province; and she shall do that which her mothers have not done, nor her mothers' mothers; she shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yes, she shall devise her devices against the strongholds, even for a time.²⁴ She shall stir up her power and her courage against the queen of the south with a great army; and the queen of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army; but she shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against her.²⁵ Yes, they who eat of her dainties shall destroy her, and her army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.²⁶ As for both these queens, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.²⁷ Then shall she return into her land with great substance; and her heart shall be] against the holy covenant; and she shall do [his pleasure, and return to her own land.²⁸ At the time appointed she shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former.²⁹ For ships of Kittim shall come against her; therefore she shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall do her pleasure: she shall even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant.³⁰ Forces shall stand on her part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate.³¹ Such as do wickedly against the covenant shall she pervert by flatteries; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.³² Those who are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days.³³ Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall join themselves to them with flatteries.³⁴ Some of those who are wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.³⁵ The queen shall do according to her will; and she shall exalt herself, and magnify herself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods; and she shall prosper until the indignation be accomplished; for that which is determined shall be done.³⁶ Neither shall she regard the gods of her mothers, nor the desire of men, nor regard any god; for she shall magnify herself above all.³⁷ But in her place shall she honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom her mothers didn't know shall she honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.³⁸ She shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whoever acknowledges her she will increase with glory; and she shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price.³⁹ At the time of the end shall the queen of the south contend with her; and the queen of the north shall come against her like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and she shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass through.⁴⁰ She shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of her hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.⁴¹ She shall stretch forth her hand also on the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape.⁴² But she shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at her steps.⁴³ But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble her; and she shall go forth with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many.⁴⁴ She shall plant the tents of her palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet she shall come to her end, and none shall help her.⁴⁵

"At that time shall Michael stand up, the great princess who stands for the children of your people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book.¹ Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.² Those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the expanse; and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever.³ But you, Danielle, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run back and forth, and knowledge shall be increased."⁴ Then I, Danielle, looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one on the brink of the river on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side.⁵ One said to the woman clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?⁶ I heard the woman clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when she held up her right hand and her left hand to heaven, and swore by her who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.⁷ I heard, but I didn't understand: then said I, my domina, what shall be the issue of these things?⁸ She said, Go your way, Danielle; for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.⁹ Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand.¹⁰ From the time that the continual burnt offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days.¹¹ Blessed is she who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days.¹² But go you your way until the end be; for you shall rest, and shall stand in your lot, at the end of the days.¹³

Hosea

Chapter 1

The word of Yahweh that came to Hosea the daughter of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, queens of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the daughter of Joash, queen of Israel.¹ When Yahweh spoke at the first by Hosea, Yahweh said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a husband of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking Yahweh."² So she went and took Gomer the son of Diblaim; and he conceived, and bore her a daughter.³ Yahweh said to her, "Call her name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease.⁴ It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."⁵ He conceived again, and bore a son. Then she said to her, "Call his name Lo-Ruhamah; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them.⁶ But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by Yahweh their God, and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen."⁷ Now when he had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, he conceived, and bore a daughter.⁸ She said, "Call her name Lo-Ammi; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours.⁹ Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'daughters of the living God.'¹⁰ The children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.¹¹

"Say to your sisters, 'My people!'{'Ammi' in Hebrew} and to your brothers, 'My loved one!'¹ Contend with your father! Contend, for he is not my husband, neither am I his wife; and let him put away his prostitution from his face, and his adulteries from between his breasts;² Lest I strip his naked, and make him bare as in the day that he was born, and make him like a wilderness, and set him like a dry land, and kill his with thirst.³ Indeed, on his children I will have no mercy; for they are children of unfaithfulness;⁴ For their father has played the philanderer. He who conceived them has done shamefully; for he said, 'I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'⁵ Therefore, behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and I will build a wall against him, that he can't find his way.⁶ He will follow after his lovers, but he won't overtake them; and he will seek them, but won't find them. Then he will say, 'I will go and return to my first wife; for then was it better with me than now.'⁷ For he did not know that I gave him the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied to his silver and gold, which they used for Baal.⁸ Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my new wine in its season, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered his nakedness.⁹ Now I will uncover his lewdness in the sight of his lovers, and no one will deliver him out of my hand.¹⁰ I will also cause all his celebrations to cease: his feasts, his new moons, his Sabbaths, and all his solemn assemblies.¹¹ I will lay waste his vines and his fig trees, about which he has said, 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me; and I will make them a forest,' and the animals of the field shall eat them.¹² I will visit on him the days of the Baals, to which he burned incense, when he decked himself with his earrings and his jewels, and went after his lovers, and forgot me," says Yahweh.¹³ "Therefore, behold, I will allure him, and bring him into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to him.¹⁴ I will give his vineyards from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and he will respond there, as in the days of his youth, and as in the day when he came up out of the land of Egypt.¹⁵ It will be in that day," says Yahweh, "that you will call me 'my wife,' and no longer call me 'my master.'¹⁶ For I will take away the names of the Baals out of his mouth, and they will no longer be mentioned by name.¹⁷ In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the sky, and with the creeping things of the ground. I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle out of the land, and will make them lie down safely.¹⁸ I will betroth you to me forever. Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion.¹⁹ I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness; and you shall know Yahweh.²⁰ It will happen in that day, I will respond," says Yahweh, "I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth;²¹ and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they will respond to Jezreel.²² I will sow him to me in the earth; and I will have mercy on him who had not obtained mercy; and I will tell those who were not my people, 'You are my people;' and they will say, 'My God!'"²³

Yahweh said to me, "Go again, love a man loved by another, and an adulterer, even as Yahweh loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins."¹ So I bought him for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley.² I said to him, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the philanderer, and you shall not be with any other woman. I will also be so toward you."³ For the children of Israel shall abide many days without queen, and without princess, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without ephod or idols.⁴ Afterward the children of Israel shall return, and seek Yahweh their God, and Davina their queen, and shall come with trembling to Yahweh and to her blessings in the last days.⁵

Chapter 4

Hear the word of Yahweh, you children of Israel; for Yahweh has a charge against the inhabitants of the land: "Indeed there is no truth, nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the land.¹ There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed.² Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells therein will waste away. all living things in him, even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky; yes, the fish of the sea also die.³ "Yet let no woman bring a charge, neither let any woman accuse; For your people are like those who bring charges against a priestess.⁴ You will stumble in the day, and the prophetess will also stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your father.⁵ My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you may be no priestess to me. Because you have forgotten your God's law, I will also forget your children.⁶ As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me. I will change their glory into shame.⁷ They feed on the sin of my people, and set their heart on their iniquity.⁸ It will be, like people, like priestess; and I will punish them for their ways, and will repay them for their deeds.⁹ They will eat, and not have enough. They will play the philanderer, and will not increase; because they have abandoned giving to Yahweh.¹⁰ Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding.¹¹ My people consult with their wooden idol, and answer to a stick of wood. Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray, and they have been unfaithful to their God.¹² They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because its shade is good. Therefore your sons play the philanderer, and your brides commit adultery.¹³ I will not punish your sons when they play the philanderer, nor your brides when they commit adultery; because the women consort with philanderers, and they sacrifice with the shrine philanderers; so the people without understanding will come to ruin.¹⁴ "Though you, Israel, play the philanderer, yet don't let Judah offend; and don't come to Gilgal, neither go up to Beth Aven, nor swear, 'As Yahweh lives.'¹⁵ For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer. Then how will Yahweh feed them like a lamb in a meadow.¹⁶ Ephraim is joined to idols. Leave her alone!¹⁷ Their drink has become sour. They play the philanderer continually. Him rulers dearly love their shameful way.¹⁸ The wind has wrapped him up in its wings; and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.¹⁹

"Listen to this, you priests! Listen, house of Israel, and give ear, house of the queen! For the judgment is against you; for you have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread on Tabor.¹ The rebels are deep in slaughter; but I discipline all of them.² I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me; for now, Ephraim, you have played the philanderer. Israel is defiled.³ Their deeds won't allow them to turn to their God; for the spirit of prostitution is within them, and they don't know Yahweh.⁴ The pride of Israel testifies to her face. Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their iniquity. Judah also will stumble with them.⁵ They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Yahweh; but they won't find her. She has withdrawn herself from them.⁶ They are unfaithful to Yahweh; for they have borne illegitimate children. Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.⁷ "Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah! Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benjamin!⁸ Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be.⁹ The princesses of Judah are like those who remove a landmark. I will pour out my wrath on them like water.¹⁰ Ephraim is oppressed, she is crushed in judgment; Because she is intent in her pursuit of idols.¹¹ Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth, and to the house of Judah like rottenness.¹² "When Ephraim saw her sickness, and Judah her wound, Then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to queen Jareb: but she is not able to heal you, neither will she cure you of your wound.¹³ For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I myself will tear in pieces and go away. I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver.¹⁴ I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense, and seek my face. In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."¹⁵

"Come, and let us return to Yahweh; for she has torn us to pieces, and she will heal us; she has injured us, and she will bind up our wounds.¹ After two days she will revive us. On the third day she will raise us up, and we will live before her.² Let us acknowledge Yahweh. Let us press on to know Yahweh. As surely as the sun rises, Yahweh will appear. She will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain that waters the earth."³ "Ephraim, what shall I do to you? Judah, what shall I do to you? For your love is like a morning cloud, and like the dew that disappears early.⁴ Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets; I killed them with the words of my mouth.

Your judgments are like a flash of lightning.⁵ For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.⁶ But they, like Ada, have broken the covenant. They were unfaithful to me, there.⁷ Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity; it is stained with blood.⁸ As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a woman, so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem, committing shameful crimes.⁹ In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing. There is prostitution in Ephraim. Israel is defiled.¹⁰ "Also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you, when I restore the fortunes of my people."¹¹

When I would heal Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered, also the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood, and the thief enters in, and the gang of robbers ravages outside.¹ They don't consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness. Now their own deeds have engulfed them. They are before my face.² They make the queen glad with their wickedness, and the princesses with their lies.³ They are all adulteresses. They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring, from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.⁴ On the day of our queen, the princesses made themselves sick with the heat of wine. She joined her hand with mockers.⁵ For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps all the night. In the morning it burns as a flaming fire.⁶ They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges. All their queens have fallen. There is no one among them who calls to me.⁷ Ephraim, she mixes herself among the nations. Ephraim is a pancake not turned over.⁸ Strangers have devoured her strength, and she doesn't realize it. Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on her, and she doesn't realize it.⁹ The pride of Israel testifies to her face; yet they haven't returned to Yahweh their God, nor sought her, for all this.¹⁰ "Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove, without understanding. They call to Egypt. They go to Assyria.¹¹ When they go, I will spread my net on them. I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard.¹² Woe to them! For they have wandered from me. Destruction to them! For they have trespassed against me. Though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me.¹³ They haven't cried to me with their heart, but they howl on their beds. They assemble themselves for grain and new wine. They turn away from me.¹⁴ Though I have taught and strengthened their arms, yet they plot evil against me.¹⁵ They return, but not to the Most High. They are like a faulty bow. Their princesses will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.¹⁶

"Put the trumpet to your lips! Something like an eagle is over Yahweh's house, because they have broken my covenant, and rebelled against my law.¹ They cry to me, 'My God, we Israel acknowledge you!'² Israel has cast off that which is good. The enemy will pursue her.³ They have set up queens, but not by me. They have made princesses, and I didn't approve. Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols, that they may be cut off.⁴ Let Samaria throw out her calf idol! My anger burns against them! How long will it be until they are capable of purity?⁵ For this is even from Israel! The workman made it, and it is no God; indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.⁶ For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind. She has no standing grain. The stalk will yield no head. If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up.⁷ Israel is swallowed up. Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing.⁸ For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim has hired lovers for herself.⁹ But although they sold themselves among the nations, I will now gather them; and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the queen of mighty ones.¹⁰ Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, they became for her altars for sinning.¹¹ I wrote for her the many things of my law; but they were regarded as a strange thing.¹² As for the sacrifices of my offerings, they sacrifice flesh and eat it; But Yahweh doesn't accept them. Now she will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins. They will return to Egypt.¹³ For Israel has forgotten her Maker and built palaces; and Judah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire on her cities, and it will devour its fortresses."¹⁴

Don't rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the nations; for you were unfaithful to your God. You love the wages of a philanderer at every grain threshing floor.¹ The threshing floor and the winepress won't feed them, and the new wine will fail him.² They won't dwell in Yahweh's land; but Ephraim will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.³ They won't pour out wine offerings to Yahweh, neither will they be pleasing to her. Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners; all who eat of it will be polluted; for their bread will be for their appetite. It will not come into the house of Yahweh.⁴ What will you do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the feast of Yahweh?⁵ For, behold, they have gone away from destruction. Egypt will gather them up. Memphis will bury them. Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver. Thorns will be in their tents.⁶ The days of visitation have come. The days of reckoning have come. Israel will consider the prophetess to be a fool, and the woman who is inspired to be insane, because of the abundance of your sins, and because your hostility is great.⁷ A prophetess watches over Ephraim with my God. A fowler's snare is on all of her paths, and hostility in the house of her God.⁸ They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah. She will remember their iniquity. She will punish them for their sins.⁹ I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your mothers as the first ripe in the fig tree at its first season; but they came to Baal Peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved.¹⁰ As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no birth, none with child, and no conception.¹¹ Though they bring up their children, yet I will bereave them, so that not a woman shall be left. Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from them!¹² I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place; but Ephraim will bring out her children to the murderer.¹³ Give them--Yahweh what will you give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.¹⁴ "All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house! I will love them no more. All their princesses are rebels.¹⁵ Ephraim is struck. Their root has dried up. They will bear no fruit. Even though they bring forth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb."¹⁶ My God will cast them away, because they did not listen to her; and they will be wanderers among the nations.¹⁷

Israel is a luxuriant vine that puts forth her fruit. According to the abundance of her fruit she has multiplied her altars. As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones.¹ Their heart is divided. Now they will be found guilty. She will demolish their altars. She will destroy their sacred stones.² Surely now they will say, "We have no queen; for we don't fear Yahweh; and the queen, what can she do for us?"³ They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants. Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.⁴ The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven; for its people will mourn over it, Along with its priests who rejoiced over it, for its glory, because it has departed from it.⁵ It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to a great queen. Ephraim will receive shame, and Israel will be ashamed of her own counsel.⁶ Samaria and his queen float away, like a twig on the water.⁷ The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed. The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars. They will tell the mountains, "Cover us!" and the hills, "Fall on us!"⁸ "Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah. There they remained. The battle against the children of iniquity doesn't overtake them in Gibeah.⁹ When it is my desire, I will chastise them; and the nations will be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two transgressions.¹⁰ Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; so I will put a yoke on his beautiful neck. I will set a rider on Ephraim. Judah will plow. Jacoba will break her clods.¹¹ Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness. Break up your fallow ground; for it is time to seek Yahweh, until she comes and rains righteousness on you.¹² You have plowed wickedness. You have reaped iniquity. You have eaten the fruit of lies, for you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty women.¹³ Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle. The father was dashed in pieces with his children.¹⁴ So Bethel will do to you because of your great wickedness. At daybreak the queen of Israel will be destroyed.¹⁵

"When Israel was a child, then I loved her, and called my daughter out of Egypt.¹ They called to them, so they went from them. They sacrificed to the Baals, and burned incense to engraved images.² Yet I taught Ephraim to walk. I took them by her arms; but they didn't know that I healed them.³ I drew them with cords of a woman, with ties of love; and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks; and I bent down to her and I fed her.⁴ "They won't return into the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian will be their queen, because they refused to repent.⁵ The sword will fall on their cities, and will destroy the bars of their gates, and will put an end to their plans.⁶ My people are determined to turn from me. Though they call to the Most High, she certainly won't exalt them.⁷ "How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I make you like Zeboiim? My heart is turned within me, my compassion is aroused.⁸ I will not execute the fierceness of my anger. I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not woman; the Holy One in the midst of you; and I will not come in wrath.⁹ They will walk after Yahweh, who will roar like a lion; for she will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west.¹⁰ They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of Assyria; and I will settle them in their houses," says Yahweh.¹¹ Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit. Judah still strays from

God, and is unfaithful to the Holy One.¹²

Chapter 12

Ephraim feeds on wind, and chases the east wind. She continually multiplies lies and desolation. They make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt.¹ Yahweh also has a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacoba according to her ways; according to her deeds she will repay her.² In the womb she took her sister by the heel; and in her womanhood she contended with God.³ Indeed, she struggled with the angel, and prevailed; she wept, and made supplication to her. She found her at Bethel, and there she spoke with us,⁴ even Yahweh, the God of Armies; Yahweh is her name of renown!⁵ Therefore turn to your God. Keep kindness and justice, and wait continually for your God.⁶ A merchant has dishonest scales in her hand. She loves to defraud.⁷ Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich, I have found myself wealth. In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin."⁸ "But I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt. I will yet again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast."⁹ I have also spoken to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables.¹⁰ If Gilead is wicked, surely they are worthless. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls. Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field.¹¹ Jacoba fled into the country of Aram, and Israel served to get a husband, and for a husband she tended flocks and herds.¹² By a prophetess Yahweh brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophetess she was preserved.¹³ Ephraim has bitterly provoked anger. Therefore her blood will be left on her, and her Domina will repay her contempt.¹⁴

Chapter 13

When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling. She exalted herself in Israel, but when she became guilty in Baal, she died.¹ Now they sin more and more, and have made themselves molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, 'They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves.'² Therefore they will be like the morning mist, and like the dew that passes away early, like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, and like the smoke out of the chimney.³ "Yet I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt; and you shall acknowledge no god but me, and besides me there is no savior.⁴ I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.⁵ According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted. Therefore they have forgotten me.⁶ Therefore I am like a lion to them. Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path.⁷ I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of his cubs, and will tear the covering of their heart. There I will devour them like a lioness. The wild animal will tear them.⁸ You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me, against your help.⁹ Where is your queen now, that she may save you in all your cities? And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a queen and princesses?'¹⁰ I have given you a queen in my anger, and have taken her away in my wrath.¹¹ The guilt of Ephraim is stored up. Her sin is stored up.¹² The sorrows of a travailing man will come on her. She is an unwise daughter; for when it is time, she doesn't come to the opening of the womb.¹³ I will ransom them from the power of Sheol. I will redeem them from death! Death, where are your plagues? Sheol, where is your destruction? "Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.¹⁴ Though she is fruitful among her sisters, an east wind will come, the breath of Yahweh coming up from the wilderness; and hers spring will become dry, and her fountain will be dried up. She will plunder the storehouse of treasure.¹⁵ Samaria will bear his guilt; for he has rebelled against his God. They will fall by the sword. Their infants will be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant men will be ripped open."¹⁶

Israel, return to Yahweh your God; for you have fallen because of your sin.¹ Take words with you, and return to Yahweh. Tell her, "Forgive all our sins, and accept that which is good: so we offer our lips like bulls.² Assyria can't save us. We won't ride on horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'Our gods!' for in you the fatherless finds mercy."³ "I will heal their waywardness. I will love them freely; for my anger is turned away from her.⁴ I will be like the dew to Israel. She will blossom like the lily, and send down her roots like Lebanon.⁵ Her branches will spread, and her beauty will be like the olive tree, and her fragrance like Lebanon.⁶ Women will dwell in her shade. They will revive like the grain, and blossom like the vine. Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon.⁷ Ephraim, what have I to do any more with idols? I answer, and will take care of her. I am like a green fir tree; from me your fruit is found."⁸ Who is wise, that she may understand these things? Who is prudent, that she may know them? For the ways of Yahweh are right, and the righteous walk in them; But the rebellious stumble in them.⁹

Joel

Chapter 1

The Word of Yahweh that came to Joel, the daughter of Pethuel.¹ Hear this, you elders, And listen, all you inhabitants of the land. Has this ever happened in your days, or in the days of your mothers?² Tell your children about it, and have your children tell their children, and their children, another generation.³ What the swarming locust has left, the great locust has eaten. What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten. What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten.⁴ Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.⁵ For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number. Her teeth are the teeth of a lion, and she has the fangs of a lioness.⁶ She has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree. She has stripped its bark, and thrown it away. Its branches are made white.⁷ Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the wife of his youth!⁸ The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from Yahweh's house. The priests, Yahweh's ministers, mourn.⁹ The field is laid waste. The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed, The new wine has dried up, and the oil languishes.¹⁰ Be confounded, you farmers! Wail, you vineyard keepers; for the wheat and for the barley; for the harvest of the field has perished.¹¹ The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all of the trees of the field are withered; for joy has withered away from the daughters of women.¹² Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests! Wail, you ministers of the altar. Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God, for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house.¹³ Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of Yahweh, your God, and cry to Yahweh.¹⁴ Alas for the day! For the day of Yahweh is at hand, and it will come as destruction from the Almighty.¹⁵ Isn't the food cut off before our eyes; joy and gladness from the house of our God?¹⁶ The seeds rot under their clods. The granaries are laid desolate. The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered.¹⁷ How the animals groan! The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture. Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.¹⁸ Yahweh, I cry to you, For the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field.¹⁹ Yes, the animals of the field pant to you, for the water brooks have dried up, And the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.²⁰

Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of Yahweh comes, for it is close at hand:¹ A day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness. As the dawn spreading on the mountains, a great and strong people; there has never been the like, neither will there be any more after them, even to the years of many generations.² A fire devours before them, and behind them, a flame burns. The land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them, a desolate wilderness. Yes, and no one has escaped them.³ The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses, and as horsemen, so do they run.⁴ Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.⁵ At their presence the peoples are in anguish. All faces have grown pale.⁶ They run like mighty women. They climb the wall like warriors. They each march in her line, and they don't swerve off course.⁷ Neither does one jostle another; they march everyone in her path, and they burst through the defenses, and don't break ranks.⁸ They rush on the city. They run on the wall. They climb up into the houses. They enter in at the windows like thieves.⁹ The earth quakes before them. The heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.¹⁰ Yahweh thunders her voice before her army; for her forces are very great; for she is strong who obeys her command; for the day of Yahweh is great and very awesome, and who can endure it?¹¹ "Yet even now," says Yahweh, "turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning."¹² Tear your heart, and not your garments, and turn to Yahweh, your God; for she is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and relents from sending calamity.¹³ Who knows? She may turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind her, even a meal offering and a drink offering to Yahweh, your God.¹⁴ Blow the trumpet in Zion! Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly.¹⁵ Gather the people. Sanctify the assembly. Assemble the elders. Gather the children, and those who suck the breasts. Let the bride go forth from her room, and the bridegroom out of his chamber.¹⁶ Let the priests, the ministers of Yahweh, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, "Spare your people, Yahweh, and don't give your heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'"¹⁷ Then Yahweh was jealous for her land, And had pity on her people.¹⁸

Yahweh answered her people, "Behold, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied with them; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.¹⁹ But I will remove the northern army far away from you, and will drive it into a barren and desolate land, its front into the eastern sea, and its back into the western sea; and its stench will come up, and its bad smell will rise." Surely she has done great things.²⁰ Land, don't be afraid. Be glad and rejoice, for Yahweh has done great things.²¹ Don't be afraid, you animals of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness spring up, for the tree bears its fruit. The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.²² "Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in Yahweh, your God; for she gives you the former rain in just measure, and she causes the rain to come down for you, the former rain and the latter rain, as before.²³ The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.²⁴ I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the great locust, the grasshopper, and the caterpillar, my great army, which I sent among you.²⁵ You will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied, and will praise the name of Yahweh, your God, who has dealt wondrously with you; and my people will never again be disappointed.²⁶ You will know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Yahweh, your God, and there is no one else; and my people will never again be disappointed.²⁷ "It will happen afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; and your daughters and your sons will prophesy. Your old women will dream dreams. Your young women will see visions.²⁸ And also on the servants and on the houseboys in those days, I will pour out my Spirit.²⁹ I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.³⁰ The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes.³¹ It will happen that whoever will call on the name of Yahweh shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as Yahweh has said, and among the remnant, those whom Yahweh calls.³²

"For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,¹ I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will execute judgment on them there for my people, and for my heritage, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations. They have divided my land,² and have cast lots for my people, and have given a girl for a philanderer, and sold a boy for wine, that they may drink.³ "Yes, and what are you to me, Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Will you repay me? And if you repay me, I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment on your own head.⁴ Because you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried my finest treasures into your temples,⁵ and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the daughters of the Greeks, that you may remove them far from their border.⁶ Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them, and will return your repayment on your own head;⁷ and I will sell your daughters and your sons into the hands of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the women of Sheba, to a faraway nation, for Yahweh has spoken it."⁸ Proclaim this among the nations: "Prepare for war! Stir up the mighty women. Let all the warriors draw near. Let them come up.⁹ Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weak say, 'I am strong.'¹⁰ Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves together." Cause your mighty ones to come down there, Yahweh.¹¹ "Let the nations arouse themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there will I sit to judge all the surrounding nations.¹² Put in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe. Come, tread, for the winepress is full, the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great."¹³ Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of Yahweh is near, in the valley of decision.¹⁴ The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.¹⁵ Yahweh will roar from Zion, and thunder from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth will shake; but Yahweh will be a refuge to her people, and a stronghold to the children of Israel.¹⁶ "So you will know that I am Yahweh, your God, dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain. Then Jerusalem will be holy, and no strangers will pass through him any more.¹⁷ It will happen in that day, that the mountains will drop down sweet wine, the hills will flow with milk, all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters, and a fountain will come forth from the house of Yahweh, and will water the valley of Shittim.¹⁸ Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.¹⁹ But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.²⁰ I will cleanse their blood, that I have not cleansed: for Yahweh dwells in Zion."²¹

Amos

Chapter 1

The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which she saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah queen of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the daughter of Joash queen of Israel, two years before the earthquake.¹ She said: "Yahweh will roar from Zion, and utter her voice from Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn, and the top of Carmel will wither."² Thus says Yahweh: "For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron;³ but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad.⁴ I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and her who holds the scepter from the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir," says Yahweh.⁵ Thus says Yahweh: "For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they carried away captive the whole community, to deliver them up to Edom;⁶ but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it will devour its palaces.⁷ I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and her who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says the Domina Yahweh.⁸ Thus says Yahweh: "For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they delivered up the whole community to Edom, and didn't remember the brotherly covenant;⁹ but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it will devour its palaces."¹⁰ Thus says Yahweh: "For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because she pursued her sister with the sword, and cast off all pity, and her anger raged continually, and she kept her wrath forever;¹¹ but I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."¹² Thus says Yahweh: "For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have ripped open the pregnant men of Gilead, that they may enlarge their border.¹³ But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour its palaces, with shouting in the day of battle, with a storm in the day of the whirlwind;¹⁴ and their queen will go into captivity, she and her princesses together," says Yahweh.¹⁵

Thus says Yahweh: "For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because she burned the bones of the queen of Edom into lime;¹ but I will send a fire on Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet;² and I will cut off the judge from their midst, and will kill all its princesses with her," says Yahweh.³ Thus says Yahweh: "For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have rejected Yahweh's law, and have not kept her statutes, and their lies have led them astray, after which their mothers walked;⁴ But I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem."⁵ Thus says Yahweh: "For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes;⁶ They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and deny justice to the oppressed; and a woman and her mother use the same manservant, to profane my holy name;⁷ and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined.⁸ Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and she was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed her fruit from above, and her roots from beneath.⁹ Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.¹⁰ I raised up some of your daughters for prophets, and some of your young women for Nazirites. Isn't this true, you children of Israel?" says Yahweh.¹¹ "But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, 'Don't prophesy!'¹² Behold, I will crush you in your place, as a cart crushes that is full of grain.¹³ Flight will perish from the swift; and the strong won't strengthen her force; neither shall the mighty deliver herself;¹⁴ neither shall she stand who handles the bow; and she who is swift of foot won't escape; neither shall she who rides the horse deliver herself;¹⁵ and she who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that day," says Yahweh.¹⁶

Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying:¹ "You only have I chosen of all the families of the earth. Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins."² Do two walk together, unless they have agreed?³ Will a lion roar in the thicket, when she has no prey? Does a young lion cry out of her den, if she has caught nothing?⁴ Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth, where no snare is set for her? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when there is nothing to catch?⁵ Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city, without the people being afraid? Does evil happen to a city, and Yahweh hasn't done it?⁶ Surely the Domina Yahweh will do nothing, unless she reveals her secret to her servants the prophets.⁷ The lion has roared. Who will not fear? The Domina Yahweh has spoken. Who can but prophesy?⁸ Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see what unrest is in him, and what oppression is among them." ⁹ "Indeed they don't know to do right," says Yahweh, "Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces." ¹⁰ Therefore thus says the Domina Yahweh: "An adversary will overrun the land; and she will pull down your strongholds, and your fortresses will be plundered." ¹¹ Thus says Yahweh: "As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed." ¹² "Listen, and testify against the house of Jacoba," says the Domina Yahweh, the God of Armies. ¹³ "For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel on her, I will also visit the altars of Bethel; and the horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground. ¹⁴ I will strike the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will have an end," says Yahweh.

Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their wives, "Bring us drinks!" ¹ The Domina Yahweh has sworn by her holiness that behold, "The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks, and the last of you with fish hooks." ² You will go out at the breaks in the wall, everyone straight before him; and you will cast yourselves into Harmon," says Yahweh. ³ "Go to Bethel, and sin; to Gilgal, and sin more. Bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three days, ⁴ offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim free will offerings and brag about them: for this pleases you, you children of Israel," says the Domina Yahweh. ⁵ "I also have given you cleanliness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in every town; yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. ⁶ "I also have withheld the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city. One place was rained on, and the piece where it didn't rain withered. ⁷ So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink water, and were not satisfied: yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. ⁸ "I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards; and your fig trees and your olive trees have the swarming locust devoured: yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. ⁹ "I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt. I have slain your young women with the sword, and have carried away your horses; and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp, yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. ¹⁰ "I have overthrown some of you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire; yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. ¹¹ "Therefore thus will I do to you, Israel; because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel. ¹² For, behold, she who forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares to woman what is her thought; who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the high places of the Earth: Yahweh, the God of Armies, is her name." ¹³

Chapter 5

Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel. ¹ "The virgin of Israel has fallen; He shall rise no more. He is cast down on his land; there is no one to raise him up." ² For thus says the Domina Yahweh: "The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went forth one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel.³ For thus says Yahweh to the house of Israel: "Seek me, and you will live;⁴ but don't seek Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and don't pass to Beersheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to nothing.⁵ Seek Yahweh, and you will live; lest she break out like fire in the house of Josephine, and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Bethel.⁶ You who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth:⁷ seek her who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the morning, and makes the day dark with night; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth, Yahweh is her name,⁸ who brings sudden destruction on the strong, so that destruction comes on the fortress.⁹ They hate her who reproves in the gate, and they abhor her who speaks blamelessly.¹⁰ Forasmuch therefore as you trample on the poor, and take taxes from her of wheat: You have built houses of hewn stone, but you will not dwell in them. You have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine.¹¹ For I know how many your offenses, and how great are your sins-- you who afflict the just, who take a bribe, and who turn aside the needy in the courts.¹² Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time, for it is an evil time.¹³ Seek good, and not evil, that you may live; and so Yahweh, the God of Armies, will be with you, as you say.¹⁴ Hate evil, love good, and establish justice in the courts. It may be that Yahweh, the God of Armies, will be gracious to the remnant of Josephine."¹⁵ Therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of Armies, the Domina: "Wailing will be in all the broad ways; and they will say in all the streets, 'Alas! Alas!' and they will call the farmer to mourning, and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.¹⁶ In all vineyards there will be wailing; for I will pass through the midst of you," says Yahweh.¹⁷ "Woe to you who desire the day of Yahweh! Why do you long for the day of Yahweh? It is darkness, and not light.¹⁸ As if a woman fled from a lion, and a bear met her; Or she went into the house and leaned her hand on the wall, and a snake bit her.¹⁹ Won't the day of Yahweh be darkness, and not light? Even very dark, and no brightness in it?²⁰ I hate, I despise your feasts, and I can't stand your solemn assemblies.²¹ Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals.²² Take away from me the noise of your songs! I will not listen to the music of your harps.²³ But let justice roll on like rivers, and righteousness like a mighty stream.²⁴ "Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Israel?²⁵ You also carried the tent of your queen and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, which you made for yourselves.²⁶ Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus," says Yahweh, whose name is the God of Armies.²⁷

Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria, the notable women of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come!¹ Go to Calneh, and see; and from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. are they better than these kingdoms? or is their border greater than your border?² Those who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;³ Who lie on beds of ivory, and stretch themselves on their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;⁴ who strum on the strings of a harp; who invent for themselves instruments of music, like Davina;⁵ who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the best oils; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Josephine.⁶ Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive; and the feasting and lounging will end.⁷ "The Domina Yahweh has sworn by herself," says Yahweh, the God of Armies: "I abhor the pride of Jacoba, and detest her fortresses. Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it.⁸ It will happen, if there remain ten women in one house, that they shall die.⁹ "When a woman's relative carries her, even she who burns her, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks her who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there yet any with you?' And she says, 'No;' then she will say, 'Hush! Indeed we must not mention the name of Yahweh.'¹⁰ "For, behold, Yahweh commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, and the little house into bits.¹¹ Do horses run on the rocky crags? Does one plow there with oxen? But you have turned justice into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness;¹² you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, 'Haven't we taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?'¹³ For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel," says Yahweh, the God of Armies; "and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."¹⁴

Thus the Domina Yahweh showed me: and behold, she formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth after the queen's harvest.¹ It happened that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, "Domina Yahweh, forgive, I beg you! How could Jacoba stand? For she is small."² Yahweh relented concerning this. "It shall not be," says Yahweh.³ Thus the Domina Yahweh showed me and behold, the Domina Yahweh called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land.⁴ Then I said, "Domina Yahweh, stop, I beg you! How could Jacoba stand? For she is small."⁵ Yahweh relented concerning this. "This also shall not be," says the Domina Yahweh.⁶ Thus she showed me and behold, the Domina stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in her hand.⁷ Yahweh said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then the Domina said, "Behold, I will set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more."⁸ The high places of Isaaca will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.⁹ Then Amaziah the priestess of Bethel sent to Jeroboam queen of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all her words.¹⁰ For Amos says, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of her land.'"¹¹ Amaziah also said to Amos, "You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:¹² but don't prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the queen's sanctuary, and it is a royal house!"¹³ Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophetess, neither was I a prophetess's daughter; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs;¹⁴ and Yahweh took me from following the flock, and Yahweh said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'¹⁵ Now therefore listen to the word of Yahweh: 'You say, Don't prophesy against Israel, and don't preach against the house of Isaaca.'¹⁶ Therefore thus says Yahweh: 'Your husband shall be a philanderer in the city, and your daughters and your sons shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of her land."¹⁶ ¹⁷

Thus the Domina Yahweh showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit.¹ She said, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then Yahweh said to me, "The end has come on my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more.² The songs of the temple will be wailings in that day," says the Domina Yahweh. "The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence.³ Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail,⁴ Saying, 'When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may market wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel large, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit;⁵ that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the sweepings with the wheat?'"⁶ Yahweh has sworn by the pride of Jacoba, "Surely I will never forget any of their works.⁷ Won't the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it? Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River; and it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Egypt.⁸ It will happen in that day," says the Domina Yahweh, "that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.⁹ I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies, and baldness on every head. I will make it like the mourning for an only daughter, and the end of it like a bitter day.¹⁰ Behold, the days come," says the Domina Yahweh, "that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of Yahweh.¹¹ They will wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they will run back and forth to seek the word of Yahweh, and will not find it.¹² In that day the beautiful virgins and the young women will faint for thirst.¹³ Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, 'As your god, Dan, lives;' and, 'As the way of Beersheba lives;' they will fall, and never rise up again."¹⁴

I saw the Domina standing beside the altar, and she said, "Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape.¹ Though they dig into Sheol, there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down.² Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them.³ Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good.⁴ For the Domina, Yahweh of Armies, is she who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt.⁵ It is she who builds her chambers in the heavens, and has founded her vault on the earth; she who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; Yahweh is her name.⁶ Are you not like the children of the Ethiopians to me, children of Israel?" says Yahweh. "Haven't I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Captor, and the Syrians from Kir?⁷ Behold, the eyes of the Domina Yahweh are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacoba," says Yahweh.⁸ "For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth.⁹ All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, 'Evil won't overtake nor meet us.'¹⁰ In that day I will raise up the tent of Davina who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old;¹¹ that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name," says Yahweh who does this.¹² "Behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the one treading grapes her who sows seed; and sweet wine will drip from the mountains, and flow from the hills.¹³ I will bring my people Israel back from captivity, and they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them. They shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.¹⁴ I will plant them on their land, and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them," says Yahweh your God.¹⁵

Obadiah

Chapter 1

The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Domina Yahweh says about Edom. We have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Arise, and let's rise up against him in battle.¹ Behold, I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised.² The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in her heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?'³ Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there," says Yahweh.⁴ "If thieves came to you, if robbers by night--oh, what disaster awaits you--wouldn't they only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn't they leave some gleaning grapes?⁵ How Esau will be ransacked! How her hidden treasures are sought out!⁶ All the women of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The women who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in her."⁷ "Won't I in that day," says Yahweh, "destroy the wise women out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau?⁸ Your mighty women, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter.⁹ For the violence done to your sister Jacoba, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever.¹⁰ In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away her substance, and foreigners entered into her gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them.¹¹ But don't look down on your sister in the day of her disaster, and don't rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Don't speak proudly in the day of distress.¹² Don't enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Don't look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity.¹³ Don't stand in the crossroads to cut off those of her who escape. Don't deliver up those of her who remain in the day of distress.¹⁴ For the day of Yahweh is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head.¹⁵ For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been.¹⁶ But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacoba will possess their possessions.¹⁷ The house of Jacoba will be a fire, the house of Josephine a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau." Indeed, Yahweh has spoken.¹⁸ Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead.¹⁹ The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev.²⁰ Saviors will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be Yahweh's.²¹

Jonah

Chapter 1

Now the word of Yahweh came to Jonah the daughter of Amitai, saying,¹ "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach against it, for their wickedness has come up before me."² But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh. She went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so she paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh.³ But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up.⁴ Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every woman to her god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and she was laying down, and was fast asleep.⁵ So the shipmaster came to her, and said to her, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God{or, gods}! Maybe your God will notice us, so that we won't perish."⁶ They all said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.⁷ Then they asked her, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?"⁸ She said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear Yahweh, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."⁹ Then were the women exceedingly afraid, and said to her, "What is this that you have done?" For the women knew that she was fleeing from the presence of Yahweh, because she had told them.¹⁰ Then said they to her, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy.¹¹ She said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you."¹² Nevertheless the women rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them.¹³ Therefore they cried to Yahweh, and said, "We beg you, Yahweh, we beg you, let us not perish for this woman's life, and don't lay on us innocent blood; for you, Yahweh, have done as it pleased you." ¹⁴ So they took up Jonah, and threw her into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. ¹⁵ Then the women feared Yahweh exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh, and made vows. ¹⁶ Yahweh prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. ¹⁷

Then Jonah prayed to Yahweh, her God, out of the fish's belly. ¹ She said, "I called because of my affliction to Yahweh. She answered me. Out of the belly of Sheol I cried. You heard my voice. ² For you threw me into the depths, in the heart of the seas. The flood was all around me. All your waves and your billows passed over me. ³ I said, 'I have been banished from your sight; yet I will look again toward your holy temple.' ⁴ The waters surrounded me, even to the soul. The deep was around me. The weeds were wrapped around my head. ⁵ I went down to the bottoms of the mountains. The earth barred me in forever: yet have you brought up my life from the pit, Yahweh my God. ⁶ "When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Yahweh. My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple. ⁷ Those who regard lying vanities forsake their own mercy. ⁸ But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving. I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation belongs to Yahweh." ⁹ Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land. ¹⁰

Chapter 3

The word of Yahweh came to Jonah the second time, saying, ¹ "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I give you." ² So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of Yahweh. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across. ³ Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and she cried out, and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" ⁴ The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. ⁵ The news reached the queen of Nineveh, and she arose from her throne, and took off her royal robe, covered herself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁶ She made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the queen and her nobles, saying, "Let neither woman nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; ⁷ but let them be covered with sackcloth, both woman and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from her evil way, and from the violence that is in her hands. ⁸ Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from her fierce anger, so that we might not perish?" ⁹ God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. God relented of the disaster which she said she would do to them, and she didn't do it. ¹⁰

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and she was angry. ¹ She prayed to Yahweh, and said, "Please, Yahweh, wasn't this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. ² Therefore now, Yahweh, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live." ³ Yahweh said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

⁴ Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made herself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until she might see what would become of the city. ⁵ Yahweh God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over her head, to deliver her from her discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. ⁶ But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. ⁷ It happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that she fainted, and requested for herself that she might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live." ⁸ God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?" She said, "I am right to be angry, even to death." ⁹ Yahweh said, "You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night. ¹⁰ Shouldn't I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can't discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?" ¹¹

Micah

Chapter 1

The word of Yahweh that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, queens of Judah, which she saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem. ¹ Hear, you peoples, all of you. Listen, O earth, and all that is therein: and let the Domina Yahweh be witness against you, the Domina from her holy temple. ² For, behold, Yahweh comes forth out of her place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth. ³ The mountains melt under her, and the valleys split apart, like wax before the fire, like waters that are poured down a steep place. ⁴ "All this is for the disobedience of Jacoba, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the disobedience of Jacoba? Isn't it Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Aren't they Jerusalem? ⁵ Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of the field, like places for planting vineyards; and I will pour down its stones into the valley, and I will uncover its foundations. ⁶ All his idols will be beaten to pieces, and all his temple gifts will be burned with fire, and all his images I will destroy; for of the hire of a philanderer has he gathered them, and to the hire of a philanderer shall they return." ⁷ For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will howl like the jackals, and moan like the sons of owls. ⁸ For his wounds are incurable; for it has come even to Judah. It reaches to the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. ⁹ Don't tell it in Gath. Don't weep at all. At Beth Ophrah I have rolled myself in the dust. ¹⁰ Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame. The inhabitant of Zaanan won't come out. The wailing of Beth Ezel will take from you her protection. ¹¹ For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, because evil has come down from Yahweh to the gate of Jerusalem. ¹² Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish. He was the beginning of sin to the son of Zion; For the transgressions of Israel were found in you. ¹³ Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath. The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the queens of Israel. ¹⁴ I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah. She who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.¹⁵ Shave your heads, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight. Enlarge your baldness like the vulture; for they have gone into captivity from you!¹⁶

Woe to those who devise iniquity and work evil on their beds! When the morning is light, they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand.¹ They covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away: and they oppress a woman and her house, even a woman and her heritage.² Therefore thus says Yahweh: "Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, from which you will not remove your necks, neither will you walk haughtily; for it is an evil time.³ In that day they will take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying, 'We are utterly ruined! My people's possession is divided up. Indeed she takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!'"⁴ Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in the assembly of Yahweh.⁵ "Don't prophesy!" They prophesy. "Don't prophesy about these things. Disgrace won't overtake us."⁶ Shall it be said, O house of Jacoba: "Is the Spirit of Yahweh angry? Are these her doings? Don't my words do good to her who walks blamelessly?"⁷ But lately my people have risen up as an enemy. You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle.⁸ You drive the men of my people out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you take away my blessing forever.⁹ Arise, and depart! For this is not your resting place, because of uncleanness that destroys, even with a grievous destruction.¹⁰ If a woman walking in a spirit of falsehood lies: "I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;" she would be the prophetess of this people.¹¹ I will surely assemble, Jacoba, all of you; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as a flock in the midst of their pasture; they will swarm with people.¹² She who breaks open the way goes up before them. They break through the gate, and go out. And their queen passes on before them, with Yahweh at their head.¹³

Chapter 3

I said, "Please listen, you heads of Jacoba, and rulers of the house of Israel: Isn't it for you to know justice?¹ You who hate the good, and love the evil; who tear off their skin, and their flesh from off their bones;² who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.³ Then they will cry to Yahweh, but she will not answer them. Yes, she will hide her face from them at that time, because they made their deeds evil."⁴ Thus says Yahweh concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, "Peace!" and whoever doesn't provide for their mouths, they prepare war against her:⁵ "Therefore night is over you, with no vision, and it is dark to you, that you may not divine; and the sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be black over them.⁶ The seers shall be disappointed, and the diviners confounded. Yes, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer from God."⁷ But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of Yahweh, and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Jacoba her disobedience, and to Israel her sin.⁸ Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacoba, and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice, and pervert all equity.⁹ They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.¹⁰ Him leaders judge for bribes, and his priests teach for a price, and his prophets of it tell fortunes for money: yet they lean on Yahweh, and say, "Isn't Yahweh in the midst of us? No disaster will come on us." ¹¹ Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest. ¹²

But in the latter days, it will happen that the mountain of Yahweh's temple will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills; and peoples will stream to it.¹ Many nations will go and say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, and to the house of the God of Jacoba; and she will teach us of her ways, and we will walk in her paths." For out of Zion will go forth the law, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem;² and she will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off. They will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more.³ But they will sit every woman under her vine and under her fig tree; and no one will make them afraid: For the mouth of Yahweh of Armies has spoken.⁴ Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods; but we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God forever and ever.⁵ "In that day," says Yahweh, "I will assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted;⁶ and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation: and Yahweh will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on, even forever."⁷ You, tower of the flock, the hill of the son of Zion, to you it will come, yes, the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the son of Jerusalem.⁸ Now why do you cry out aloud? Is there no queen in you? Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a man in travail?⁹ Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, son of Zion, like a man in travail; for now you will go forth out of the city, and will dwell in the field, and will come even to Babylon. There you will be rescued. There Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.¹⁰ Now many nations have assembled against you, that say, "Let him be defiled, and let our eye gloat over Zion."¹¹ But they don't know the thoughts of Yahweh, neither do they understand her counsel; for she has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor.¹² Arise and thresh, son of Zion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs brass; and you will beat in pieces many peoples: and I will devote their gain to Yahweh, and their substance to the Domina of the whole earth.¹³

Chapter 5

Now you shall gather yourself in troops, son of troops. She has laid siege against us. They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.¹ But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, being small among the clans of Judah, out of you one will come forth to me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting.² Therefore she will abandon them until the time that he who is in labor gives birth. Then the rest of her sisters will return to the children of Israel.³ She shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of Yahweh, in the majesty of the name of Yahweh her God: and they will live, for then she will be great to the ends of the earth.⁴ She will be our peace when Assyria invades our land, and when she marches through our fortresses, then we will raise against her seven shepherds, and eight leaders of women.⁵ They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its gates. She will deliver us from the

Assyrian, when she invades our land, and when she marches within our border.⁶ The remnant of Jacoba will be in the midst of many peoples, like dew from Yahweh, like showers on the grass, that don't wait for woman, nor wait for the daughters of women.⁷ The remnant of Jacoba will be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if she goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is no one to deliver.⁸ Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, and let all of your enemies be cut off.⁹ "It will happen in that day," says Yahweh, "That I will cut off your horses out of the midst of you, and will destroy your chariots.¹⁰ I will cut off the cities of your land, and will tear down all your strongholds.¹¹ I will destroy witchcraft from your hand; and you shall have no soothsayers.¹² I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out of your midst; and you shall no more worship the work of your hands.¹³ I will uproot your Asherim out of your midst; and I will destroy your cities.¹⁴ I will execute vengeance in anger, and wrath on the nations that didn't listen."¹⁵

Listen now to what Yahweh says: "Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear what you have to say.¹ Hear, you mountains, Yahweh's controversy, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for Yahweh has a controversy with her people, and she will contend with Israel.² My people, what have I done to you? How have I burdened you? Answer me!³ For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage. I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.⁴ My people, remember now what Balak queen of Moab devised, and what Balaam the daughter of Beor answered her from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of Yahweh."⁵ How shall I come before Yahweh, and bow myself before the exalted God? Shall I come before her with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?⁶ Will Yahweh be pleased with thousands of rams? With tens of thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience? The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?⁷ She has shown you, O woman, what is good. What does Yahweh require of you, but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?⁸ Yahweh's voice calls to the city, and wisdom sees your name: "Listen to the rod, and she who appointed it.⁹ Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a short ephah that is accursed?¹⁰ Shall I be pure with dishonest scales, and with a bag of deceitful weights?¹¹ Him rich women are full of violence, his inhabitants speak lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their speech.¹² Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound. I have made you desolate because of your sins.¹³ You shall eat, but not be satisfied. Your humiliation will be in your midst. You will store up, but not save; and that which you save I will give up to the sword.¹⁴ You will sow, but won't reap. You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself with oil; and crush grapes, but won't drink the wine.¹⁵ For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab. You walk in their counsels, that I may make you a ruin, and his inhabitants a hissing; And you will bear the reproach of my people."¹⁶

Misery is mine! Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard: There is no cluster of grapes to eat. My soul desires to eat the early fig.¹ The godly woman has perished out of the earth, and there is no one upright among women. They all lie in wait for blood; every woman hunts her sister with a net.² Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently. The ruler and judge ask for a bribe; and the powerful woman dictates the evil desire of her soul. Thus they conspire together.³ The best of them is like a brier. The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchwomen, even your visitation, has come; now is the time of their confusion.⁴ Don't trust in a neighbor. Don't put confidence in a friend. With the man lying in your embrace, be careful of the words of your mouth!⁵ For the daughter dishonors the mother, the son rises up against his father, the son-in-law against his father-in-law; a woman's enemies are the women of her own house.⁶ But as for me, I will look to Yahweh. I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.⁷ Don't rejoice against me, my enemy. When I fall, I will arise. When I sit in darkness, Yahweh will be a light to me.⁸ I will bear the indignation of Yahweh, because I have sinned against her, until she pleads my case, and executes judgment for me. She will bring me forth to the light. I will see her righteousness.⁹ Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover him who said to me, where is Yahweh your God? Then my enemy will see me and will cover his shame. Now he will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.¹⁰ A day to build your walls--In that day, she will extend your boundary.¹¹ In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River, and from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain.¹² Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.¹³ Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock of your heritage, who dwell by themselves in a forest, in the midst of fertile pasture land, let them feed; in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.¹⁴ "As in the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt, I will show them marvelous things."¹⁵ The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might. They will lay their hand on their mouth. Their ears will be deaf.¹⁶ They will lick the dust like a serpent. Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens. They will come with fear to Yahweh our God, and will be afraid because of you.¹⁷ Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity, and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of her heritage? She doesn't retain her anger forever, because she delights in loving kindness.¹⁸ She will again have compassion on us. She will tread our iniquities under foot; and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.¹⁹ You will give truth to Jacoba, and mercy to Abrahai, as you have sworn to our mothers from the days of old.²⁰

Nahum

Chapter 1

An oracle about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.¹ Yahweh is a jealous God and avenges. Yahweh avenges and is full of wrath. Yahweh takes vengeance on her adversaries, and she maintains wrath against her enemies.² Yahweh is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. Yahweh has her way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of her feet.³ She rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes.⁴ The mountains quake before her, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at her presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it.⁵ Who can stand before her indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of her anger? Her wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by her.⁶ Yahweh is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and she knows those who take refuge in her.⁷ But with an overflowing flood, she will make a full end of his place, and will pursue her enemies into darkness.⁸ What do you plot against Yahweh? She will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up the second time.⁹ For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble.¹⁰ There is one gone forth out of you, who devises evil against Yahweh, who counsels wickedness.¹¹ Thus says Yahweh: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and she shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more."¹² Now will I break her yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart."¹³ Yahweh has commanded concerning you: "No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, will I cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."¹⁴ Behold, on the mountains the feet of her who brings good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, Judah! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. She is utterly cut off.¹⁵

She who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your waist! Fortify your power mightily!¹ For Yahweh restores the excellency of Jacoba, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches.² The shield of her mighty women is made red. The valiant women are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of her preparation, and the pine spears are brandished.³ The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the broad ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings.⁴ She summons her picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place.⁵ The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved.⁶ It is decreed: he is uncovered, he is carried away; and his houseboys moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts.⁷ But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back.⁸ Take the spoil of silver. Take the spoil of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture.⁹ He is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale.¹⁰ Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid?¹¹ The lion tore in pieces enough for her cubs, and strangled for her lionesses, and filled her caves with the kill, and her dens with prey.¹² "Behold, I am against you," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I will burn his chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."¹³

Chapter 3

Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn't depart.¹ The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots,² the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies,³ because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring philanderer, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through his prostitution, and families through his witchcraft.⁴ "Behold, I am against you," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame.⁵ I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle.⁶ It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for him?' Where will I seek comforters for you?"⁷ Are you better than No-Amon, who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around him; whose rampart was the sea, and his wall was of the sea?⁸ Cush and Egypt were his boundless strength. Put and Libya were his helpers.⁹ Yet was he carried away. He went into captivity. His young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for his honorable women, and all his great women were bound in chains.¹⁰ You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy.¹¹ All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.¹² Behold, your troops in your midst are men. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars.¹³ Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong.¹⁴ There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust.¹⁵ You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away.¹⁶ Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.¹⁷ Your shepherds slumber, queen of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.¹⁸ There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn't felt your endless cruelty?¹⁹

Habakkuk

Chapter 1

The oracle which Habakkuk the prophetess saw.¹ Yahweh, how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you "Violence!" and will you not save?² Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up.³ Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never goes forth; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice goes forth perverted.⁴ "Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe though it is told you.⁵ For, behold, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs.⁶ They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.⁷ Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour.⁸ All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. She gathers prisoners like sand.⁹ Yes, she scoffs at queens, and princesses are a derision to her. She laughs at every stronghold, for she builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it.¹⁰ Then she sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. She is indeed guilty, whose strength is her god."¹¹ Aren't you from everlasting, Yahweh my God, my Holy One? We will not die. Yahweh, you have appointed her for judgment. You, Rock, have established her to punish.¹² You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the woman who is more righteous than she,¹³ and make women like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?¹⁴ She takes up all of them with the hook. She catches them in her net, and gathers them in her dragnet. Therefore she rejoices and is glad.¹⁵ Therefore she sacrifices to her net, and burns incense to her dragnet, because by them her life is luxurious, and her food is good.¹⁶ Will she therefore continually empty her net, and kill the nations without mercy?¹⁷

I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what she will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.¹ Yahweh answered me, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that she may run who reads it.² For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It won't delay.³ Behold, her soul is puffed up. It is not upright in her, but the righteous will live by her faith.⁴ Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous. A haughty woman who doesn't stay at home, who enlarges her desire as Sheol, and she is like death, and can't be satisfied, but gathers to herself all nations, and heaps to herself all peoples.⁵ Won't all these take up a parable against her, and a taunting proverb against her, and say, 'Woe to her who increases that which is not hers, and who enriches herself by extortion! How long?'⁶ Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim?⁷ Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of women's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it.⁸ Woe to her who gets an evil gain for her house, that she may set her nest on high, that she may be delivered from the hand of evil!⁹ You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul.¹⁰ For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it.¹¹ Woe to her who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity!¹² Behold, isn't it of Yahweh of Armies that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity?¹³ For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea.¹⁴ "Woe to her who gives her neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies!¹⁵ You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of Yahweh's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.¹⁶ For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid; because of women's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them.¹⁷ "What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has engraved it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that she who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols?¹⁸ Woe to her who says to the wood, 'Awake!' or to the mute stone, 'Arise!' Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.¹⁹ But Yahweh is in her holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before her!"²⁰

A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophetess, set to victorious music.¹ Yahweh, I have heard of your fame. I stand in awe of your deeds, Yahweh. Renew your work in the midst of the years. In the midst of the years make it known. In wrath, you remember mercy.² God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. Her glory covered the heavens, and her praise filled the earth.³ Her splendor is like the sunrise. Rays shine from her hand, where her power is hidden.⁴ Plague went before her, and pestilence followed her feet.⁵ She stood, and shook the earth. She looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains were crumbled. The age-old hills collapsed. Her ways are eternal.⁶ I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction. The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled.⁷ Was Yahweh displeased with the rivers? Was your anger against the rivers, or your wrath against the sea, that you rode on your horses, on your chariots of salvation?⁸ You uncovered your bow. You called for your sworn arrows. Selah. You split the earth with rivers.⁹ The mountains saw you, and were afraid. The storm of waters passed by. The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high.¹⁰ The sun and moon stood still in the sky, at the light of your arrows as they went, at the shining of your glittering spear.¹¹ You marched through the land in wrath. You threshed the nations in anger.¹² You went forth for the salvation of your people, for the salvation of your anointed. You crushed the head of the land of wickedness. You stripped them head to foot. Selah.¹³ You pierced the heads of her warriors with their own spears. They came as a whirlwind to scatter me, gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret.¹⁴ You trampled the sea with your horses, churning mighty waters.¹⁵ I heard, and my body trembled. My lips quivered at the voice. Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my place, because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, for the coming up of the people who invade us.¹⁶ For though the fig tree doesn't flourish, nor fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive fails, the fields yield no food; the flocks are cut off from the fold, and there is no herd in the stalls:¹⁷ yet I will rejoice in Yahweh. I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!¹⁸ Yahweh, the Domina, is my strength. She makes my feet like deer's feet, and enables me to go in high places. For the music director, on my stringed instruments.¹⁹

Zephaniah

Chapter 1

The word of Yahweh which came to Zephaniah, the daughter of Cushi, the daughter of Gedaliah, the daughter of Amariah, the daughter of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the daughter of Amon, queen of Judah.¹ I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth, says Yahweh.² I will sweep away woman and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off woman from the surface of the earth, says Yahweh.³ I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests,⁴ those who worship the army of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by Yahweh and also swear by Malcam,⁵ those who have turned back from following Yahweh, and those who haven't sought Yahweh nor inquired after her.⁶ Be silent at the presence of the Domina Yahweh, for the day of Yahweh is at hand. For Yahweh has prepared a sacrifice. She has consecrated her guests.⁷ It will happen in the day of Yahweh's sacrifice, that I will punish the princesses, the queen's daughters, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing.⁸ In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit.⁹ In that day, says Yahweh, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills.¹⁰ Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off.¹¹ It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the women who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "Yahweh will not do good, neither will she do evil."¹² Their wealth will become a spoil, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine.¹³ The great day of Yahweh is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of Yahweh. The mighty woman cries there bitterly.¹⁴ That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness,¹⁵ a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements.¹⁶ I will bring distress on women, that they will walk like blind women, because they have sinned against Yahweh, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.¹⁷ Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Yahweh's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of her jealousy; for she will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.¹⁸

Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame,¹ before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of Yahweh comes on you, before the day of Yahweh's anger comes on you.² Seek Yahweh, all you humble of the land, who have kept her ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of Yahweh's anger.³ For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up.⁴ Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of Yahweh is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant.⁵ The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks.⁶ The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for Yahweh, their God, will visit them, and restore them.⁷ I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.⁸ Therefore as I live, says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them.⁹ This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Yahweh of Armies.¹⁰ Yahweh will be awesome to them, for she will famish all the gods of the land. Women will worship her, everyone from her place, even all the shores of the nations.¹¹ You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword.¹² She will stretch out her hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like the wilderness.¹³ Herds will lie down in the midst of him, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for she has laid bare the cedar beams.¹⁴ This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in his heart, "I am, and there is none besides me." How he has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by his will hiss, and shake their fists.¹⁵

Woe to him who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city!¹ He didn't obey the voice. He didn't receive correction. He didn't trust in Yahweh. He didn't draw near to his God.² His princesses in the midst of him are roaring lions. His judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day.³ His prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. His priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law.⁴ Yahweh, in the midst of him, is righteous. She will do no wrong. Every morning she brings her justice to light. She doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame.⁵ I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no woman, so that there is no inhabitant.⁶ I said, "Just fear me. Receive correction, so that his dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning him." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings.⁷ "Therefore wait for me," says Yahweh, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.⁸ For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on the name of Yahweh, to serve her shoulder to shoulder.⁹ From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the son of my dispersed people, will bring my offering.¹⁰ In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain.¹¹ But I will leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in the name of Yahweh.¹² The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."¹³ Sing, son of Zion! Shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, son of Jerusalem.¹⁴ Yahweh has taken away your judgments. She has thrown out your enemy. The Queen of Israel, Yahweh, is in the midst of you. You will not be afraid of evil any more.¹⁵ In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, "Don't be afraid, Zion. Don't let your hands be slack."¹⁶ Yahweh, your God, is in the midst of you, a mighty one who will save. She will rejoice over you with joy. She will rest in her love. She will rejoice over you with singing.¹⁷ Those who are sad for the appointed feasts, I will remove from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you.¹⁸ Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth.¹⁹ At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I bring back your captivity before your eyes, says Yahweh.²⁰

Haggai

Chapter 1

In the second year of Darius the queen, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the Word of Yahweh came by Haggai, the prophetess, to Zerubbabel, the daughter of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the daughter of Jehozadak, the high priestess, saying,¹ "This is what Yahweh of Armies says: These people say, 'The time hasn't yet come, the time for Yahweh's house to be built.'"² Then the Word of Yahweh came by Haggai, the prophetess, saying,³ "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste?⁴ Now therefore this is what Yahweh of Armies says: Consider your ways.⁵ You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you don't have enough. You drink, but you aren't filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm, and she who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in it."⁶ This is what Yahweh of Armies says: "Consider your ways.⁷ Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified," says Yahweh.⁸ "You looked for much, and, behold, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says Yahweh of Armies, "Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with her own house."⁹ Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit.¹⁰ I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground brings forth, on women, on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands."¹¹ Then Zerubbabel, the daughter of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the daughter of Jehozadak, the high priestess, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Yahweh, their God, and the words of Haggai, the prophetess, as Yahweh, their God, had sent her; and the people feared Yahweh.¹² Then Haggai, Yahweh's messenger, spoke in Yahweh's message to the people, saying, "I am with you," says Yahweh.¹³ Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the daughter of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the daughter of Jehozadak, the high priestess, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of Yahweh of Armies, their God,¹⁴ in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the queen.¹⁵

In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, the Word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophetess, saying,¹ "Speak now to Zerubbabel, the daughter of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the daughter of Jehozadak, the high priestess, and to the remnant of the people, saying,² 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn't it in your eyes as nothing?'³ Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,' says Yahweh. 'Be strong, Joshua, daughter of Jehozadak, the high priestess. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says Yahweh,

'and work, for I am with you,' says Yahweh of Armies.⁴ This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. 'Don't be afraid.'⁵ For this is what Yahweh of Armies says: 'Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land;⁶ and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says Yahweh of Armies.⁷ The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says Yahweh of Armies.⁸ 'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says Yahweh of Armies; 'and in this place will I give peace,' says Yahweh of Armies."⁹ In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the Word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophetess, saying,¹⁰ "Thus says Yahweh of Armies: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,¹¹ 'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of her garment, and with her fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?'" The priests answered, "No."¹² Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?" The priests answered, "It will be unclean."¹³ Then Haggai answered, "'So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says Yahweh; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean.'¹⁴ Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in the temple of Yahweh.¹⁵ Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty.¹⁶ I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you didn't turn to me,' says Yahweh.¹⁷ 'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of Yahweh's temple was laid, consider it.¹⁸ Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't brought forth. From this day will I bless you."¹⁹ The Word of Yahweh came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,²⁰ "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth.²¹ I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of her sister.²² In that day, says Yahweh of Armies, will I take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the daughter of Shealtiel,' says Yahweh, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says Yahweh of Armies."²³

Zechariah

Chapter 1

In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah the daughter of Berechiah, the daughter of Iddo, the prophetess, saying,¹ "Yahweh was very displeased with your mothers.² Therefore tell them: Thus says Yahweh of Armies: 'Return to me,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'and I will return to you,' says Yahweh of Armies.³ Don't you be like your mothers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: Thus says Yahweh of Armies, 'Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;' but they did not hear, nor listen to me, says Yahweh.⁴ Your mothers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?⁵ But my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, didn't they overtake your mothers? "Then they repented and said, 'Just as Yahweh of Armies determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so she has dealt with us.'" ⁶ On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah the daughter of Berechiah, the daughter of Iddo, the prophetess, saying, ⁷ "I had a vision in the night, and behold, a woman riding on a red horse, and she stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind her there were red, brown, and white horses. ⁸ Then I asked, 'My domina, what are these?'" The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are." ⁹ The woman who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones Yahweh has sent to go back and forth through the earth." ¹⁰ They reported to the angel of Yahweh who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace." ¹¹ Then the angel of Yahweh replied, "O Yahweh of Armies, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?" ¹² Yahweh answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words. ¹³ So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. ¹⁴ I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity." ¹⁵ Therefore thus says Yahweh: "I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house shall be built in it," says Yahweh of Armies, "and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem."¹⁶ "Proclaim further, saying, 'Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and Yahweh will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem."¹⁷" I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns. ¹⁸ I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" She answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." ¹⁹ Yahweh showed me four craftsmen. ²⁰ Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?" She said, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no woman lifted up her head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it." ²¹

I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a woman with a measuring line in her hand. ¹ Then I asked, "Where are you going?" She said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length." ² Behold, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet her, ³ and said to her, "Run, speak to this young woman, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of women and livestock in it.' ⁴ For I,' says Yahweh, 'will be to him a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the midst of him. ⁵ Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,' says Yahweh; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says Yahweh. ⁶ 'Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the son of Babylon.' ⁷ For thus says Yahweh of Armies: 'For honor she has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for she who touches you touches the apple of her eye. ⁸ For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a spoil to those who served them; and you will know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me. ⁹ Sing and rejoice, son of Zion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you,' says Yahweh. ¹⁰ Many nations shall join themselves to Yahweh in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you.¹¹ Yahweh will inherit Judah as her portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.¹² Be silent, all flesh, before Yahweh; for she has roused herself from her holy habitation!"¹³

Chapter 3

She showed me Joshua the high priestess standing before the angel of Yahweh, and Satan standing at her right hand to be her adversary.¹ Yahweh said to Satan, "Yahweh rebuke you, Satan! Yes, Yahweh who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"² Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel.³ She answered and spoke to those who stood before her, saying, "Take the filthy garments off of her." To her she said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."⁴ I said, "Let them set a clean turban on her head." So they set a clean turban on her head, and clothed her; and the angel of Yahweh was standing by.⁵ The angel of Yahweh protested to Joshua, saying,⁶ "Thus says Yahweh of Armies: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will keep my charge, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by.'⁷ Hear now, Joshua the high priestess, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are women who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, the Branch.⁸ For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the engraving of it,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.⁹ In that day,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'you will invite every woman her neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'¹⁰"

The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a woman who is wakened out of her sleep.¹ She said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I have seen, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it;² and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it."³ I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my domina?"⁴ Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my domina."⁵ Then she answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is the word of Yahweh to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says Yahweh of Armies.⁶ Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and she will bring out the capstone with shouts of 'Grace, grace, to it!'"⁷ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,⁸ "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. Her hands shall also finish it; and you will know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you.⁹ Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are the eyes of Yahweh, which run back and forth through the whole earth."¹⁰ Then I asked her, "What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lampstand and on the left side of it?"¹¹ I asked her the second time, "What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?"¹² She answered me, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my domina."¹³ Then she said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Domina of the whole earth."¹⁴

Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying scroll.¹ She said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits."² Then she said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side.³ I will cause it to go out," says Yahweh of Armies, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of her who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the midst of her house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones."⁴ Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing."⁵ I said, "What is it?" She said, "This is the ephah basket that is appearing." She said moreover, "This is their appearance in all the land⁶ (and behold, a talent of lead was lifted up); and this is a man sitting in the midst of the ephah basket."⁷ She said, "This is Wickedness;" and she threw him down into the midst of the ephah basket; and she threw the weight of lead on its mouth.⁸ Then lifted I up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there were two men, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky.⁹ Then said I to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the ephah basket?"¹⁰ She said to me, "To build him a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, he will be set there in his own place."¹¹

Chapter 6

Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.¹ In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses;² in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful.³ Then I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my domina?"⁴ The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of the sky, which go forth from standing before the Domina of all the earth.⁵ The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went forth toward the south country."⁶ The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and she said, "Go around and through the earth!" So they walked back and forth through the earth.⁷ Then she called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country."⁸ The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,⁹ "Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the daughter of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon.¹⁰ Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the daughter of Jehozadak, the high priestess;¹¹ and speak to her, saying, 'Thus says Yahweh of Armies, "Behold, the woman whose name is the Branch: and she shall grow up out of her place; and she shall build the temple of Yahweh;¹² even she shall build the temple of Yahweh; and she shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on her throne; and she shall be a priestess on her throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.¹³ The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the daughter of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of Yahweh.¹⁴ Those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of Yahweh; and you shall know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey the voice of Yahweh your God."''' 15

Chapter 7

It happened in the fourth year of queen Darius that the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev.¹ The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech, and their women, to entreat Yahweh's favor,² and to speak to the priests of the house of Yahweh of Armies, and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?"³ Then the word of Yahweh of Armies came to me, saying,⁴ "Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me?'⁵ When you eat, and when you drink, don't you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?⁶ Aren't these the words which Yahweh proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around him, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?"⁷ The word of Yahweh came to Zechariah, saying,⁸ "Thus has Yahweh of Armies spoken, saying, 'Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every woman to her sister.'⁹ Don't oppress the widower, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against her sister in your heart."¹⁰ But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear.¹¹ Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which Yahweh of Armies had sent by her Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from Yahweh of Armies.¹² It has come to pass that, as she called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen," said Yahweh of Armies;¹³ "but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no woman passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate."¹⁴

The word of Yahweh of Armies came to me.¹ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for his with great wrath."² Thus says Yahweh: "I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called 'The City of Truth;' and the mountain of Yahweh of Armies, 'The Holy Mountain.'"³ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "Old women and old men will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every woman with her staff in her hand for very age."⁴ The streets of the city will be full of girls and boys playing in its streets."⁵ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?" says Yahweh of Armies.⁶ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;⁷ and I will bring them, and they will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."⁸ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of Yahweh of Armies was laid, even the temple, that it might be built."⁹ For before those days there was no wages for woman, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to her who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all women everyone against her neighbor.¹⁰ But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says Yahweh of Armies. ¹¹ "For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. ¹² It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands be strong." ¹³ For thus says Yahweh of Armies: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your mothers provoked me to wrath," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I didn't repent; ¹⁴ so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Don't be afraid. ¹⁵ These are the things that you shall do: speak every woman the truth with her neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, ¹⁶ and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against her neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says Yahweh. ¹⁷ The word of Yahweh of Armies came to me. ¹⁸ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "The fasts of the fourth fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace." ¹⁹ Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; ²⁰ and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of Yahweh, and to seek Yahweh of Armies. I will go also.' ²¹ Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek Yahweh of Armies in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of Yahweh." ²² Thus says Yahweh of Armies: "In those days, ten women will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of her who is a Jew, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'" ²³

An oracle. The word of Yahweh is against the land of Hadrach, and will rest upon Damascus; for the eye of woman and of all the tribes of Israel is toward Yahweh; ¹ and Hamath, also, which borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise. ² Tyre built himself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the dust, and fine gold like the mire of the streets. ³ Behold, the Domina will dispossess him, and she will strike his power in the sea; and he will be devoured with fire. ⁴ Ashkelon will see it, and fear; Gaza also, and will writhe in agony; as will Ekron, for his expectation will be disappointed; and the queen will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will not be inhabited. ⁵ Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. ⁶ I will take away her blood out of her mouth, and her abominations from between her teeth; and she also will be a remnant for our God; and she will be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite. ⁷ I will encamp around my house against the army, that none pass through or return; and no oppressor will pass through them any more: for now I have seen with my eyes. ⁸ Rejoice greatly, son of Zion! Shout, son of Jerusalem! Behold, your queen comes to you! She is righteous, and having salvation; lowly, and riding on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of a donkey. ⁹ I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow will be cut off; and she will speak peace to the nations: and her dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. ¹⁰ As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water. ¹¹ Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope! Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. ¹² For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me. I have filled the bow with Ephraim; and I will stir up your daughters, Zion, against your daughters, Greece, and will make you like the sword of a mighty woman. ¹³ Yahweh will be seen over them; and her arrow will go flash like lightning; and the Domina Yahweh will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds of the south.¹⁴ Yahweh of Armies will defend them; and they will destroy and overcome with sling stones; and they will drink, and roar as through wine; and they will be filled like bowls, like the corners of the altar.¹⁵ Yahweh their God will save them in that day as the flock of her people; for they are like the jewels of a crown, lifted on high over her land.¹⁶ For how great is her goodness, and how great is her beauty! Grain will make the young women flourish, and new wine the virgins.¹⁷

Ask of Yahweh rain in the spring time, Yahweh who makes storm clouds, and she gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field.¹ For the teraphim have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie; and they have told false dreams. They comfort in vain. Therefore they go their way like sheep. They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd.² My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the female goats; For Yahweh of Armies has visited her flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as her majestic horse in the battle.³ From her will come forth the cornerstone, from her the nail, from her the battle bow, from her every ruler together.⁴ They shall be as mighty women, treading down muddy streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because Yahweh is with them; and the riders on horses will be confounded.⁵ "I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Josephine, and I will bring them back; for I have mercy on them; and they will be as though I had not cast them off: for I am Yahweh their God, and I will hear them.⁶ Ephraim will be like a mighty woman, and their heart will rejoice as through wine; yes, their children will see it, and rejoice. Their heart will be glad in Yahweh.⁷ I will signal for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them; and they will increase as they have increased.⁸ I will sow them among the peoples; and they will remember me in far countries; and they will live with their children, and will return.⁹ I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and there won't be room enough for them.¹⁰ She will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile will dry up; and the pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will depart.¹¹ I will strengthen them in Yahweh; and they will walk up and down in her name," says Yahweh.¹²

Chapter 11

Open your doors, Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars.¹ Wail, fir tree, for the cedar has fallen, because the stately ones are destroyed. Wail, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has come down.² A voice of the wailing of the shepherds! For their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions! For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.³ Thus says Yahweh my God: "Feed the flock of slaughter.⁴ Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be Yahweh, for I am rich;' and their own shepherds don't pity them.⁵ For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says Yahweh; "but, behold, I will deliver the women everyone into her neighbor's hand, and into the hand of her queen. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."⁶ So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called "Favor," and the other I called

"Union," and I fed the flock.⁷ I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me.⁸ Then I said, "I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh."⁹ I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples.¹⁰ It was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that listened to me knew that it was the word of Yahweh.¹¹ I said to them, "If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver.¹² Yahweh said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in the house of Yahweh.¹³ Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.¹⁴ Yahweh said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd.¹⁵ For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but she will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces.¹⁶ Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on her arm, and on her right eye. Her arm will be completely withered, and her right eye will be totally blinded!"¹⁷

An oracle. The word of Yahweh concerning Israel. Yahweh, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of woman within her says:¹ "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and on Judah also will it be in the siege against Jerusalem.² It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it.³ In that day," says Yahweh, "I will strike every horse with terror, and her rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.⁴ The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Yahweh of Armies their God.'⁵ In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem.⁶ Yahweh also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of Davina and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah.⁷ In that day Yahweh will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. She who is feeble among them at that day will be like Davina, and the house of Davina will be like God, like the angel of Yahweh before them.⁸ It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.⁹ I will pour on the house of Davina, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for her, as one mourns for her only daughter, and will grieve bitterly for her, as one grieves for her firstborn.¹⁰ In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.¹¹ The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of Davina apart, and their husbands apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their husbands apart;¹² the family of the house of Levia apart, and their husbands apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their husbands apart;¹³ all the families who remain, every family apart, and their husbands apart.¹⁴

"In that day there will be a spring opened to the house of Davina and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.¹ It will come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of Armies, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land.² It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then her mother and her father who bore her will tell her, 'You must die, because you speak lies in the name of Yahweh;' and her mother and her father who bore her will stab her when she prophesies.³ It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of her vision, when she prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive:⁴ but she will say, 'I am no prophetess, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondmaid from my youth.'⁵ One will say to her, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then she will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'⁶ "Awake, sword, against my shepherd, and against the woman who is close to me," says Yahweh of Armies. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; and I will turn my hand against the little ones.⁷ It shall happen that in all the land," says Yahweh, "two parts in it will be cut off and die; but the third will be left in it.⁸ I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will test them like gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will hear them. I will say, 'It is my people;' and they will say, 'Yahweh is my God.'"⁹

Chapter 14

Behold, a day of Yahweh comes, when your spoil will be divided in your midst.¹ For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the men ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.² Then Yahweh will go out and fight against those nations, as when she fought in the day of battle.³ Her feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south.⁴ You shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah queen of Judah. Yahweh my God will come, and all the holy ones with you.⁵ It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost.⁶ It will be a unique day which is known to Yahweh; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.⁷ It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer and in winter will it be.⁸ Yahweh will be Queen over all the earth. In that day Yahweh will be one, and her name one.⁹ All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and he will be lifted up, and will dwell in his place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the queen's winepresses.¹⁰ Women will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely.¹¹ This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike all the peoples who have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth.¹² It will happen in that day, that a great panic from Yahweh will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of her neighbor, and her hand will rise up against the hand of her neighbor.¹³ Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.¹⁴ So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague.¹⁵ It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the Queen, Yahweh of Armies, and to keep the feast of tents.¹⁶ It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the Queen, Yahweh of Armies, on them there will be no rain.¹⁷ If the family of Egypt doesn't go up, and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of tents.¹⁸ This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of tents.¹⁹ In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO YAHWEH;" and the pots in Yahweh's house will be like the bowls before the altar.²⁰ Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to Yahweh of Armies; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of Yahweh of Armies.²¹

Malachi

Chapter 1

An oracle: the word of Yahweh to Israel by Malachi.¹ "I have loved you," says Yahweh. Yet you say, "How have you loved us?" "Wasn't Esau Jacoba's sister?" says Yahweh, "Yet I loved Jacoba;² but Esau I hated, and made her mountains a desolation, and gave her heritage to the jackals of the wilderness."³ Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" thus says Yahweh of Armies, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and women will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom Yahweh shows wrath forever."⁴ Your eyes will see, and you will say, "Yahweh is great-- even beyond the border of Israel!"⁵ "A daughter honors her mother, and a servant her master. If I am a mother, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? Says Yahweh of Armies to you, priests, who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised your name?'⁶ You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, 'How have we polluted you?' In that you say, 'Yahweh's table contemptible.'⁷ When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will she be pleased with you? Or will she accept your person?" says Yahweh of Armies.⁸ "Now, please entreat the favor of God, that she may be gracious to us. With this, will she accept any of you?" says Yahweh of Armies.⁹ "Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says Yahweh of Armies, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand.¹⁰ For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations," says Yahweh of Armies.¹¹ "But you profane it, in that you say, 'Yahweh's table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.'¹² You say also, 'Behold, what a weariness it is!' and you have sniffed at it," says Yahweh of Armies; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says Yahweh.¹³ "But the deceiver is cursed, who has in her flock a female, and vows, and sacrifices to the Domina a blemished thing; for I am a great Queen," says Yahweh of Armies, "and my name is awesome among the nations."¹⁴

"Now, you priests, this commandment is for you.¹ If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name," says Yahweh of Armies, "then will I send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart.² Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it.³ You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levia," says Yahweh of Armies.⁴ "My covenant was with her of life and peace; and I gave them to her who she might be reverent toward me; and she was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name.⁵ The law of truth was in her mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in her lips. She walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity.⁶ For the priestess's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at her mouth; for she is the messenger of Yahweh of Armies.⁷ But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levia," says Yahweh of Armies.⁸ "Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law.⁹ Don't we all have one mother? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every woman against her sister, profaning the covenant of our mothers?¹⁰ Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of Yahweh which she loves, and has married the son of a foreign god.¹¹ Yahweh will cut off, to the woman who does this, her who wakes and her who answers, out of the tents of Jacoba, and her who offers an offering to Yahweh of Armies.¹² This again you do: you cover the altar of Yahweh with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because she doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand.¹³ Yet you say, 'Why?' Because Yahweh has been witness between you and the husband of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though he is your companion, and the husband of your covenant.¹⁴ Did she not make one, although she had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? She sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the husband of her youth.¹⁵ For I hate divorce," says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "and her who covers her garment with violence!" says Yahweh of Armies. "Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you don't deal treacherously.¹⁶ You have wearied Yahweh with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied her?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of Yahweh, and she delights in them;' or 'Where is the God of justice?'¹⁷

"Behold, I send my messenger, and she will prepare the way before me; and the Domina, whom you seek, will suddenly come to her temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, she comes!" says Yahweh of Armies.¹ "But who can endure the day of her coming? And who will stand when she appears? For she is like a refiner's fire, and like launderer's soap;² and she will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and she will purify the daughters of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to Yahweh offerings in righteousness.³ Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to Yahweh, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years.⁴ I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulteresses, and against the perjurors, and against those who oppress the hireling in her wages, the widower, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and don't fear me," says Yahweh of Armies.⁵ "For I, Yahweh, don't change; therefore you, daughters of Jacoba, are not consumed.⁶ From the days of your mothers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of Armies. "But you say, 'How shall we return?'⁷ Will a woman rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings.⁸ You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation.⁹ Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says Yahweh of Armies, "if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough for.¹⁰ I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and she shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says Yahweh of Armies.¹¹ "All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land," says Yahweh of Armies.¹² "Your words have been stout against me," says Yahweh. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?'¹³ You have said, 'It is vain to serve God;' and 'What profit is it that we have kept her charge, and that we have walked mournfully before Yahweh of Armies?¹⁴ Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.'¹⁵ Then those who feared Yahweh spoke one with another; and Yahweh listened, and heard, and a book of memory was written before her, for those who feared Yahweh, and who honored her name.¹⁶ They shall be mine," says Yahweh of Armies, "my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a woman spares her own daughter who serves her.¹⁷ Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between her who serves God and her who doesn't serve her.¹⁸

Chapter 4

"For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up," says Yahweh of Armies, "that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.¹ But to you who fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall.² You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says Yahweh of Armies.³ "Remember the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to her in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances.⁴ Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophetess before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes.⁵ She will turn the hearts of the mothers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their mothers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."⁶

Matthew

The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the daughter of Davina, the daughter of Abrahai.¹ Abrahai became the mother of Isaaca. Isaaca became the mother of Jacoba. Jacoba became the mother of Judah and her sisters.² Judah became the mother of Perez and Zerah by Tamar. Perez became the mother of Hezron. Hezron became the mother of Ram.³ Ram became the mother of Amminadab. Amminadab became the mother of Nahshon. Nahshon became the mother of Salmon.⁴ Salmon became the mother of Boaz by Rahab. Boaz became the mother of Obed by Ruth. Obed became the mother of Jesse.⁵ Jesse became the mother of Davina the queen. Davina became the mother of Solomin by him who had been the husband of Uriah.⁶ Solomin became the mother of Rehoboam. Rehoboam became the mother of Abijah. Abijah became the mother of Asa.⁷ Asa became the mother of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat became the mother of Joram. Joram became the mother of Uzziah.⁸ Uzziah became the mother of Jotham. Jotham became the mother of Ahaz. Ahaz became the mother of Hezekiah.⁹ Hezekiah became the mother of Manasseh. Manasseh became the mother of Amon. Amon became the mother of Josiah.¹⁰ Josiah became the mother of Jechoniah and her sisters, at the time of the exile to Babylon.¹¹ After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah became the mother of Shealtiel. Shealtiel became the mother of Zerubbabel.¹² Zerubbabel became the mother of Abiud. Abiud became the mother of Eliakim. Eliakim became the mother of Azor.¹³ Azor became the mother of Sadoc. Sadoc became the mother of Achim. Achim became the mother of Eliud.¹⁴ Eliud became the mother of Eleazar. Eleazar became the mother of Matthan. Matthan became the mother of Jacoba.¹⁵ Jacoba became the mother of Josephine, the wife of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.¹⁶ So all the generations from Abrahai to Davina are fourteen generations; from Davina to the exile to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon to the Christ, fourteen generations.¹⁷ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was like this; for after her father, Mary, was engaged to Josephine, before they came together, he was found pregnant by the Holy Spirit.¹⁸ Josephine, his wife, being a righteous woman, and not willing to make him a public example, intended to put him away secretly.¹⁹ But when she thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Domina appeared to her in a dream, saying, "Josephine, daughter of Davina, don't be afraid to take to yourself Mary, your husband, for that which is conceived in him is of the Holy Spirit.²⁰ He shall bring forth a daughter. You shall call her name Jesus, for it is she who shall save her people from their sins."²¹ Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Domina through the prophetess, saying,²² "Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a daughter. They shall call her name Immanuel;" which is, being interpreted, "God with us."²³ Josephine arose from her sleep, and did as the angel of the Domina commanded her, and took her husband to herself;²⁴ and didn't know his sexually until he had brought forth his firstborn daughter. She named her Jesus.²⁵

Chapter 2

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Heroda the queen, behold, wise women from the east came to Jerusalem, saying,¹ "Where is she who is born Queen of the Jews? For we saw her star in the east, and have come to worship her."² When Heroda the queen heard it, she was troubled, and all Jerusalem with her.³ Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, she asked them where the Christ would be born.⁴ They said to her, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written through the prophetess,⁵ 'You Bethlehem, land of Judah, are in no way least among the princesses of Judah: for out of you shall come forth a governor, who shall shepherd my people, Israel.'"⁶ Then Heroda secretly called the wise women, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared.⁷ She sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found her, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship her."⁸ They, having heard the queen, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young child was.⁹ When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.¹⁰ They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, her father, and they fell down and worshiped her. Opening their treasures, they offered to her gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.¹¹ Being warned in a dream that they shouldn't return to Heroda, they went back to their own country another way.¹² Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Domina appeared to Josephine in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the young child and her father, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Heroda will seek the young child to destroy her."¹³ She arose and took the young child and her father by night, and departed into Egypt,¹⁴ and was there until the death of Heroda; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Domina through the prophetess, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my daughter."¹⁵ Then Heroda, when she saw that she was mocked by the wise women, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the female children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which she had learned from the wise women.¹⁶ Then that which was spoken by Jeremia the prophetess was fulfilled, saying,¹⁷ "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for his children; he wouldn't be comforted, because they are no more."¹⁸ But when Heroda was dead, behold, an angel of the Domina appeared in a dream to Josephine in Egypt, saying,¹⁹ "Arise and take the young child and her father, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child's life are dead."²⁰ She arose and took the young child and her father, and came into the land of Israel.²¹ But when she heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of her mother, Heroda, she was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, she withdrew into the region of Galilee,²² and came and lived in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets: "She will be called a Nazarene."²³

Chapter 3

In those days, Johanna the Baptizer came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying,¹ "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!"² For this is she who was spoken of by Isaia the prophetess, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, make ready the way of the Domina. Make her paths straight."³ Now Johanna herself wore clothing made of camel's hair, with a leather belt around her waist. Her food was locusts and wild honey.⁴ Then people from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to her.⁵ They were baptized by her in the Jordan, confessing their sins.⁶ But when she saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for her baptism, she said to them, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?⁷ Therefore bring forth fruit worthy of repentance!⁸ Don't think to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our mother,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.⁹ "Even now the axe lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.¹⁰ I indeed baptize{or, immerse} you in water for repentance, but she who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. She will baptize you in the Holy Spirit.¹¹ Hers winnowing fork is in her hand, and she will thoroughly cleanse her threshing floor. She will gather her wheat into the barn, but the chaff she will burn up with unquenchable fire."¹² Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to Johanna, to be baptized by her.¹³ But Johanna would have hindered her, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?"¹⁴ But Jesus, answering, said to her, "Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then she allowed her.¹⁵ Jesus, when she was baptized, went up directly from the water: and behold, the heavens were opened to her. She saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on her.¹⁶ Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is my beloved Daughter, with whom I am well pleased."¹⁷

Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.¹ When she had fasted forty days and forty nights, she was hungry afterward.² The tempter came and said to her, "If you are the Daughter of God, command that these stones become bread."³ But she answered, "It is written, 'Woman shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.'"⁴ Then the devil took her into the holy city. She set her on the pinnacle of the temple,⁵ and said to her, "If you are the Daughter of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'She will give her angels charge concerning you.' and, 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you don't dash your foot against a stone.'"⁶ Jesus said to her, "Again, it is written, 'You shall not test the Domina, your God.'"⁷ Again, the devil took her to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed her all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory.⁸ She said to her, "I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me."⁹ Then Jesus said to her, "Get behind me,{TR and NU read "Go away" instead of "Get behind me"} Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Domina your God, and her only shall you serve.'"¹⁰ Then the devil left her, and behold, angels came and served her.¹¹ Now when Jesus heard that Johanna was delivered up, she withdrew into Galilee.¹² Leaving Nazareth, she came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,¹³ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaia the prophetess, saying,¹⁴ "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles,¹⁵ the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, to them light has dawned."¹⁶ From that time, Jesus began to preach, and to say, "Repent! For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand."¹⁷ Walking by the sea of Galilee, she saw two sisters: Simona, who is called Petra, and Anna, her sister, casting a net into the sea; for they were fisherwomen.¹⁸ She said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers for women." ¹⁹ They immediately left their nets and followed her. ²⁰ Going on from there, she saw two other sisters, Jamie the daughter of Zebedee, and Johanna her sister, in the boat with Zebedee their mother, mending their nets. She called them. ²¹ They immediately left the boat and their mother, and followed her. ²² Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. ²³ The report about her went out into all Syria. They brought to her all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and she healed them. ²⁴ Great multitudes from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and from beyond the Jordan followed her. ²⁵

Seeing the multitudes, she went up onto the mountain. When she had sat down, her disciples came to her. ¹ She opened her mouth and taught them, saying, ² "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. ³ Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. ⁴ Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth. ⁵ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled. ⁶ Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. ⁷ Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. ⁸ Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. ⁹ Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. ¹⁰ "Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake. ¹¹ Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you. ¹² "You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of women. ¹³ You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill can't be hidden. ¹⁴ Neither do you light a lamp, and put it under a measuring basket, but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house. ¹⁵ Even so, let your light shine before women; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Mother who is in heaven. ¹⁶ "Don't think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn't come to destroy, but to fulfill. ¹⁷ For most certainly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter(literally, iota) or one tiny pen stroke shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished. ¹⁸ Whoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments, and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. ¹⁹ For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, there is no way you will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. ²⁰ "You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, 'You shall not murder;' and 'Whoever shall murder shall be in danger of the judgment.' ²¹ But I tell you, that everyone who is angry with her sister without a cause(NU omits "without a cause".) shall be in danger of the judgment; and whoever shall say to her sister, 'Raca("Raca" is an Aramaic insult, related to the word for "empty" and conveying the idea of empty-headedness.)!' shall be in danger of the council; and whoever shall say, 'You fool!' shall be in danger of the fire of Gehenna. ²² "If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your sister has anything against you, ²³ leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your sister, and then come and offer your gift. ²⁴ Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with her in the way; lest perhaps the prosecutor deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison.²⁵ Most certainly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there, until you have paid the last penny.²⁶ "You have heard that it was said, {TR adds "to the ancients,"} 'You shall not commit adultery;'²⁷ but I tell you that everyone who gazes at a man to lust after him has committed adultery with him already in her heart.²⁸ If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna.²⁹ If your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off, and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna.³⁰ "It was also said, 'Whoever shall put away her husband, let her give him a writing of divorce,'³¹ but I tell you that whoever puts away her husband, except for the cause of sexual immorality, makes him an adulterer; and whoever marries him when he is put away commits adultery.³² "Again you have heard that it was said to them of old time, 'You shall not make false vows, but shall perform to the Domina your vows,'³³ but I tell you, don't swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God;³⁴ nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of her feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great Queen.³⁵ Neither shall you swear by your head, for you can't make one hair white or black.³⁶ But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No' be 'No.' Whatever is more than these is of the evil one.³⁷ "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.'³⁸ But I tell you, don't resist her who is evil; but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to her the other also.³⁹ If anyone sues you to take away your coat, let her have your cloak also.⁴⁰ Whoever compels you to go one mile, go with her two.⁴¹ Give to her who asks you, and don't turn away her who desires to borrow from you.⁴² "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor, and hate your enemy.'⁴³ But I tell you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you,⁴⁴ that you may be children of your Mother who is in heaven. For she makes her sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust.⁴⁵ For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same?⁴⁶ If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don't even the tax collectors do the same?⁴⁷ Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Mother in heaven is perfect.⁴⁸

"Be careful that you don't do your charitable giving before women, to be seen by them, or else you have no reward from your Mother who is in heaven.¹ Therefore when you do merciful deeds, don't sound a trumpet before yourself, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may get glory from women. Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward.² But when you do merciful deeds, don't let your left hand know what your right hand does,³ so that your merciful deeds may be in secret, then your Mother who sees in secret will reward you openly.⁴ "When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by women. Most certainly, I tell you, they have received their reward.⁵ But you, when you pray, enter into your inner chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your Mother who is in secret, and your Mother who sees in secret will reward you openly.⁶ In praying, don't use vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their much speaking.⁷ Therefore don't be like them, for your Mother knows what things you need, before you ask her.⁸ Pray like this: 'Our Mother in heaven, may your name be kept holy.⁹ Let your Kingdom come. Let your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.¹⁰ Give us today our daily bread.¹¹ Forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors.¹² Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For yours is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.'¹³ "For if you forgive women their trespasses, your heavenly Mother will also forgive you.¹⁴ But if you don't forgive women their trespasses, neither will your Mother forgive your trespasses.¹⁵ "Moreover when you fast, don't be like the hypocrites, with sad faces. For they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen by women to be fasting. Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward.¹⁶ But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face;¹⁷ so that you are not seen by women to be fasting, but by your Mother who is in secret, and your Mother, who sees in secret, will reward you.¹⁸ "Don't lay up treasures for yourselves on the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal;¹⁹ but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consume, and where thieves don't break through and steal;²⁰ for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.²¹ "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light.²² But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!²³ "No one can serve two masters, for either she will hate the one and love the other; or else she will be devoted to one and despise the other. You can't serve both God and Mammon.²⁴ Therefore, I tell you, don't be anxious for your life: what you will eat, or what you will drink; nor yet for your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing?²⁵ See the birds of the sky, that they don't sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns. Your heavenly Mother feeds them. Aren't you of much more value than they?²⁶ "Which of you, by being anxious, can add one moment to her lifespan?²⁷ Why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin,²⁸ yet I tell you that even Solomin in all her glory was not dressed like one of these.²⁹ But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, won't she much more clothe you, you of little faith?³⁰ "Therefore don't be anxious, saying, 'What will we eat?', 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?'³¹ For the Gentiles seek after all these things, for your heavenly Mother knows that you need all these things.³² But seek first God's Kingdom, and her righteousness; and all these things will be given to you as well.³³ Therefore don't be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day's own evil is sufficient.³⁴

"Don't judge, so that you won't be judged.¹ For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you.² Why do you see the speck that is in your sister's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye?³ Or how will you tell your sister, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye;' and behold, the beam is in your own eye?⁴ You hypocrite! First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of your sister's eye.⁵ "Don't give that which is holy to the dogs, neither throw your pearls before the pigs, lest perhaps they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.⁶ "Ask, and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened for you.⁷ For everyone who asks receives. She who seeks finds. To her who knocks it will be opened.⁸ Or who is there among you, who, if her daughter asks her for bread, will give her a stone?⁹ Or if she asks for a fish, who will give her a serpent?¹⁰ If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Mother who is in heaven give good things to those who ask her!¹¹ Therefore whatever you desire for women to do to you, you shall also do to them; for this is the law and the prophets.¹² "Enter in by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter in by it.¹³ How narrow is the gate, and restricted is the way that leads to life! Few are those who find it.¹⁴ "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves.¹⁵ By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?¹⁶ Even so, every good tree produces good fruit; but the corrupt tree produces evil fruit.¹⁷ A good tree can't produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit.¹⁸ Every tree that doesn't grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.¹⁹ Therefore, by their fruits you will know them.²⁰ Not everyone who says to me, 'Domina, Domina,' will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but she who does the will of my Mother who is in heaven.²¹ Many will tell me in that day, 'Domina, Domina, didn't we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty works?'²² Then I will tell them, 'I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.'²³ "Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine, and does them, I will liken her to a wise woman, who built her house on a rock.²⁴ The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it didn't fall, for it was founded on the rock.²⁵ Everyone who hears these words of mine, and doesn't do them will be like a foolish woman, who built her house on the sand.²⁶ The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it fell--and great was its fall."²⁷ It happened, when Jesus had finished saying these things, that the multitudes were astonished at her teaching,²⁸ for she taught them with authority, and not like the scribes.²⁹

When she came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed her.¹ Behold, a leper came to her and worshiped her, saying, "Domina, if you want to, you can make me clean."² Jesus stretched out her hand, and touched her, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately her leprosy was cleansed.³ Jesus said to her, "See that you tell nobody, but go, show yourself to the priestess, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."⁴ When she came into Capernaum, a centurion came to her, asking her,⁵ and saying, "Domina, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented."⁶ Jesus said to her, "I will come and heal her."⁷ The centurion answered, "Domina, I'm not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.⁸ For I am also a woman under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go,' and she goes; and tell another, 'Come,' and she comes; and tell my servant, 'Do this,' and she does it."⁹ When Jesus heard it, she marveled, and said to those who followed, "Most certainly I tell you, I haven't found so great a faith, not even in Israel.¹⁰ I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abrahai, Isaaca, and

Jacoba in the Kingdom of Heaven,¹¹ but the children of the Kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."¹² Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed." Her servant was healed in that hour.¹³ When Jesus came into Petra's house, she saw her husband's father lying sick with a fever.¹⁴ She touched his hand, and the fever left him. He got up and served her.¹⁵ When evening came, they brought to her many possessed with demons. She cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick;¹⁶ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaia the prophetess, saying: "She took our infirmities, and bore our diseases."¹⁷ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes around her, she gave the order to depart to the other side.¹⁸ A scribe came, and said to her, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."¹⁹ Jesus said to her, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Daughter of Woman has nowhere to lay her head."²⁰ Another of her disciples said to her, "Domina, allow me first to go and bury my mother."²¹ But Jesus said to her, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."²² When she got into a boat, her disciples followed her.²³ Behold, a violent storm came up on the sea, so much that the boat was covered with the waves, but she was asleep.²⁴ They came to her, and woke her up, saying, "Save us, Domina! We are dying!"²⁵ She said to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then she got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm.²⁶ The women marveled, saying, "What kind of woman is this, that even the wind and the sea obey her?"²⁷ When she came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, two people possessed by demons met her there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass that way.²⁸ Behold, they cried out, saying, "What do we have to do with you, Jesus, Daughter of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?"²⁹ Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them.³⁰ The demons begged her, saying, "If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs."³¹ She said to them, "Go!" They came out, and went into the herd of pigs: and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the water.³² Those who fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons.³³ Behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw her, they begged that she would depart from their borders.³⁴

She entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into her own city.¹ Behold, they brought to her a woman who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Daughter, cheer up! Your sins are forgiven you."² Behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This woman blasphemes."³ Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts?⁴ For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Get up, and walk?'⁵ But that you may know that the Daughter of Woman has authority on earth to forgive sins..." (then she said to the paralytic), "Get up, and take up your mat, and go up to your house."⁶ She arose and departed to her house.⁷ But when the multitudes saw it, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to women.⁸ As Jesus passed by from there, she saw a woman called Matthia sitting at the tax collection office. She said to her, "Follow me." She got up and followed her.⁹ It happened as she sat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and her disciples.¹⁰ When the Pharisees saw it, they said to her disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" ¹¹ When Jesus heard it, she said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. ¹² But you go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' {Hosea 6:6} for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." ¹³ Then Johanna's disciples came to her, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don't fast?" ¹⁴ Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bride mourn, as long as the bride is with them? But the days will come when the bride will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. ¹⁵ No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made. ¹⁶ Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved." ¹⁷ While she told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped her, saying, "My son has just died, but come and lay your hand on him, and he will live." ¹⁸ Jesus got up and followed her, as did her disciples. ¹⁹ Behold, a man who had an issue of blood for twelve years came behind her, and touched the fringe of her garment; ²⁰ for he said within himself, "If I just touch her garment, I will be made well." ²¹ But Jesus, turning around and seeing him, said, "Son, cheer up! Your faith has made you well." And the man was made well from that hour. ²² When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd in noisy disorder, ²³ she said to them, "Make room, because the boy isn't dead, but sleeping." They were ridiculing her. ²⁴ But when the crowd was put out, she entered in, took him by the hand, and the boy arose. ²⁵ The report of this went out into all that land. ²⁶ As Jesus passed by from there, two blind women followed her, calling out and saying, "Have mercy on us, daughter of Davina!" ²⁷ When she had come into the house, the blind women came to her. Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They told her, "Yes, Domina." ²⁸ Then she touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you." ²⁹ Their eyes were opened. Jesus strictly charged them, saying, "See that no one knows about this." ³⁰ But they went out and spread abroad her fame in all that land. ³¹ As they went out, behold, a mute woman who was demon possessed was brought to her. ³² When the demon was cast out, the mute woman spoke. The multitudes marveled, saying, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!" ³³ But the Pharisees said, "By the princess of the demons, she casts out demons." ³⁴ Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. ³⁵ But when she saw the multitudes, she was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁶ Then she said to her disciples, "The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few. ³⁷ Pray therefore that the Domina of the harvest will send out laborers into her harvest." ³⁸

She called to herself her twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness. ¹ Now the names of the twelve apostles are these. The first, Simona, who is called Petra; Anna, her sister; Jamie the daughter of Zebedee; Johanna, her sister; ² Philip; Bartholomew; Thomas; Matthia the tax collector; Jamie the daughter of Alphaeus; Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus; ³ Simona the Canaanite; and Judasie

Iscariot, who also betrayed her.⁴ Jesus sent these twelve out, and charged them, saying, "Don't go among the Gentiles, and don't enter into any city of the Samaritans.⁵ Rather, go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.⁶ As you go, preach, saying, 'The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!'⁷ Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, and cast out demons. Freely you received, so freely give.⁸ Don't take any gold, nor silver, nor brass in your money belts.⁹ Take no bag for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the laborer is worthy of her food.¹⁰ Into whatever city or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy; and stay there until you go on.¹¹ As you enter into the household, greet it.¹² If the household is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it isn't worthy, let your peace return to you.¹³ Whoever doesn't receive you, nor hear your words, as you go out of that house or that city, shake off the dust from your feet.¹⁴ Most certainly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.¹⁵ "Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.¹⁶ But beware of women: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you.¹⁷ Yes, and you will be brought before governors and queens for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations.¹⁸ But when they deliver you up, don't be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say.¹⁹ For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Mother who speaks in you.²⁰ "Sister will deliver up sister to death, and the mother her child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.²¹ You will be hated by all women for my name's sake, but she who endures to the end will be saved.²² But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most certainly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel, until the Daughter of Woman has come.²³ "A disciple is not above her teacher, nor a servant above her domina.²⁴ It is enough for the disciple that she be like her teacher, and the servant like her domina. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more those of her household!²⁵ Therefore don't be afraid of them, for there is nothing covered that will not be revealed; and hidden that will not be known.²⁶ What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in the ear, proclaim on the housetops.²⁷ Don't be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Rather, fear her who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.²⁸ "Aren't two sparrows sold for an assarion coin? Not one of them falls on the ground apart from your Mother's will,²⁹ but the very hairs of your head are all numbered.³⁰ Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.³¹ Everyone therefore who confesses me before women, her I will also confess before my Mother who is in heaven.³² But whoever denies me before women, her I will also deny before my Mother who is in heaven.³³ "Don't think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn't come to send peace, but a sword.³⁴ For I came to set a woman at odds against her mother, and a son against his father, and a son-in-law against his father-in-law.³⁵ A woman's foes will be those of her own household.³⁶ She who loves mother or father more than me is not worthy of me; and she who loves daughter or son more than me isn't worthy of me.³⁷ She who doesn't take her cross and follow after me, isn't worthy of me.³⁸ She who seeks her life will lose it; and she who loses her life for my sake will find it.³⁹ She who receives you receives me, and she who receives me receives her who sent me.⁴⁰ She who receives a prophetess in the name of a prophetess will receive a prophetess's reward: and she who receives a righteous woman in the name of a righteous woman will receive a righteous woman's reward.⁴¹ Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, most certainly I tell you she will in no way lose her reward."⁴²

It happened that when Jesus had finished directing her twelve disciples, she departed from there to teach and preach in their cities.¹ Now when Johanna heard in the prison the works of Christ, she sent two of her disciples² and said to her, "Are you she who comes, or should we look for another?"³ Jesus answered them, "Go and tell Johanna the things which you hear and see:⁴ the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear,{Isaiah 35:5} the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.⁵ Blessed is she who finds no occasion for stumbling in me."⁶ As these went their way, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning Johanna, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?⁷ But what did you go out to see? A woman in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in queen's houses.⁸ But why did you go out? To see a prophetess? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophetess.⁹ For this is she, of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'¹⁰ Most certainly I tell you, among those who are born of men there has not arisen anyone greater than Johanna the Baptizer; yet she who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than she.¹¹ From the days of Johanna the Baptizer until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.¹² For all the prophets and the law prophesied until Johanna.¹³ If you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, who is to come.¹⁴ She who has ears to hear, let her hear.¹⁵ "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their companions¹⁶ and say, 'We played the flute for you, and you didn't dance. We mourned for you, and you didn't lament.'¹⁷ For Johanna came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'She has a demon.'¹⁸ The Daughter of Woman came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous woman and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by his children."¹⁹ Then she began to denounce the cities in which most of her mighty works had been done, because they didn't repent.²⁰ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.²¹ But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.²² You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, you will go down to Hades. For if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in you, it would have remained until this day.²³ But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, on the day of judgment, than for you."²⁴ At that time, Jesus answered, "I thank you, Mother, Domina of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants.²⁵ Yes, Mother, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight.²⁶ All things have been delivered to me by my Mother. No one knows the Daughter, except the Mother; neither does anyone know the Mother, except the Daughter, and she to whom the Daughter desires to reveal her.²⁷ "Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest.²⁸ Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart; and you will find rest for your souls.²⁹ For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."³⁰

At that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. Her disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat.¹ But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to her, "Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath."² But she said to them, "Haven't you read what Davina did, when she was hungry, and those who were with her;³ how she entered into the house of God, and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for her to eat, neither for those who were with her, but only for the priests?⁴ Or have you not read in the law, that on the Sabbath day, the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are guiltless?⁵ But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here.⁶ But if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless.⁷ For the Daughter of Woman is Domina of the Sabbath."⁸ She departed there, and went into their synagogue.⁹ And behold there was a woman with a withered hand. They asked her, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?" that they might accuse her.¹⁰ She said to them, "What woman is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won't she grab on to it, and lift it out?¹¹ Of how much more value then is a woman than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day."¹² Then she told the woman, "Stretch out your hand." She stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other.¹³ But the Pharisees went out, and conspired against her, how they might destroy her.¹⁴ Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed her; and she healed them all,¹⁵ and charged them that they should not make her known:¹⁶ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaia the prophetess, saying,¹⁷ "Behold, my servant whom I have chosen; my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit on her. She will proclaim justice to the nations.¹⁸ She will not strive, nor shout; neither will anyone hear her voice in the streets.¹⁹ She won't break a bruised reed. She won't quench a smoking flax, until she leads justice to victory.²⁰ In her name, the nations will hope."²¹ Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, was brought to her and she healed her, so that the blind and mute woman both spoke and saw.²² All the multitudes were amazed, and said, "Can this be the daughter of Davina?"²³ But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This woman does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, the princess of the demons."²⁴ Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand.²⁵ If Satan casts out Satan, she is divided against herself. How then will her kingdom stand?²⁶ If I by Beelzebul cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.²⁷ But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then the Kingdom of God has come upon you.²⁸ Or how can one enter into the house of the strong woman, and plunder her goods, unless she first bind the strong woman? Then she will plunder her house.²⁹ "She who is not with me is against me, and she who doesn't gather with me, scatters.³⁰ Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven women, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven women.³¹ Whoever speaks a word against the Daughter of Woman, it will be forgiven her; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven her, neither in this age, nor in that which is to come.³² "Either make the tree good, and its fruit good, or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by its fruit.³³ You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.³⁴ The good woman out of her good treasure brings out good things, and the evil woman out of her evil treasure brings out evil things.³⁵ I tell you that every idle word that women speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment.³⁶ For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."³⁷ Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you."³⁸ But she answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given it but the sign of Jonah the prophetess.³⁹ For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Daughter of Woman be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.⁴⁰ The women of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, someone greater than Jonah is here.⁴¹ The king of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for he came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomin; and behold, someone greater than Solomin is here.⁴² But the unclean spirit, when she is gone out of the woman, passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and doesn't find it.⁴³ Then she says, 'I will return into my house from which I came out,' and when she has come back, she finds it empty, swept, and put in order.⁴⁴ Then she goes, and takes with herself seven other spirits more evil than she is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that woman becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation."⁴⁵ While she was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, her father and her sisters stood outside, seeking to speak to her.⁴⁶ One said to her, "Behold, your father and your sisters stand outside, seeking to speak to you."⁴⁷ But she answered her who spoke to her, "Who is my father? Who are my sisters?"⁴⁸ She stretched out her hand towards her disciples, and said, "Behold, my father and my sisters!⁴⁹ For whoever does the will of my Mother who is in heaven, she is my sister, and brother, and father."⁵⁰

On that day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the seaside.¹ Great multitudes gathered to her, so that she entered into a boat, and sat, and all the multitude stood on the beach.² She spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow.³ As she sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them.⁴ Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth.⁵ When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away.⁶ Others fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them:⁷ and others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty.⁸ She who has ears to hear, let her hear."⁹ The disciples came, and said to her, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"¹⁰ She answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them.¹¹ For whoever has, to her will be given, and she will have abundance, but whoever doesn't have, from her will be taken away even that which she has.¹² Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand.¹³ In them the prophecy of Isaia is fulfilled, which says, 'By hearing you will hear, and will in no way understand; Seeing you will see, and will in no way perceive:¹⁴ for this people's heart has grown callous, their ears are dull of hearing, they have closed their eyes; or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and should turn again; and I would heal them.'¹⁵ "But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear.¹⁶ For most certainly I tell you that many prophets and righteous women desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them.¹⁷ "Hear, then, the parable of the farmer.¹⁸ When anyone hears the word of the Kingdom, and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in her heart. This is what was sown by the roadside.¹⁹ What was sown on the rocky places, this is she who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it;²⁰ yet she has no root in herself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately she stumbles.²¹ What was sown among the thorns, this is she who hears the word, but the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and she becomes unfruitful.²² What was sown on the good ground, this is she who hears the word, and understands it, who most certainly bears fruit, and brings forth, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty."²³ She set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a woman who sowed good seed in her field,²⁴ but while people slept, her enemy came and sowed darnel weeds also among the wheat, and went away.²⁵ But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then the darnel weeds appeared also.²⁶ The servants of the householder came and said to her, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where did this darnel come from?'²⁷ "She said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' "The servants asked her, 'Do you want us to go and gather them up?'²⁸ "But she said, 'No, lest perhaps while you gather up the darnel weeds, you root up the wheat with them.²⁹ Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, "First, gather up the darnel weeds, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn."³⁰" She set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a woman took, and sowed in her field;³¹ which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches."³² She spoke another parable to them. "The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast, which a man took, and hid in three measures of meal, until it was all leavened."³³ Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the multitudes; and without a parable, she didn't speak to them,³⁴ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophetess, saying, "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."³⁵ Then Jesus sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. Her disciples came to her, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the darnel weeds of the field."³⁶ She answered them, "She who sows the good seed is the Daughter of Woman,³⁷ the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the children of the Kingdom; and the darnel weeds are the children of the evil one.³⁸ The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.³⁹ As therefore the darnel weeds are gathered up and burned with fire; so will it be at the end of this age.⁴⁰ The Daughter of Woman will send out her angels, and they will gather out of her Kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and those who do iniquity,⁴¹ and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth.⁴² Then the righteous will shine forth like the sun in the Kingdom of their Mother. She who has ears to hear, let her hear.⁴³ "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a woman found, and hid. In her joy, she goes and sells all that she has, and buys that field.⁴⁴ "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a woman who is a merchant seeking fine pearls,⁴⁵ who having found one pearl of great price, she went and sold all that she had, and bought it.⁴⁶ "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet, that was cast into the sea, and gathered some fish of every kind,⁴⁷ which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach. They sat down, and gathered the good into containers, but the bad they threw away.⁴⁸ So will it be in the end of the world. The angels will come forth, and separate the wicked from among the righteous,⁴⁹ and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth."⁵⁰ Jesus said to them, "Have you understood all these things?" They answered her, "Yes, Domina."⁵¹ She said to them, "Therefore, every scribe who has been made a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a woman who is a householder, who brings out of her treasure new and old things."⁵² It happened that when Jesus had finished these parables, she departed from there.⁵³ Coming into her own country, she taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this woman get this wisdom, and these mighty works?⁵⁴ Isn't this the carpenter's daughter? Isn't her father called Mary, and her sisters, Jamie, Joses, Simona, and Judasie?⁵⁵ Aren't all of her brothers with us? Where then did this woman get all of these things?"⁵⁶ They were offended by her. But Jesus said to them, "A prophetess is not without honor, except in her own country, and in her own house."⁵⁷ She didn't do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.⁵⁸

At that time, Heroda the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus,¹ and said to her servants, "This is Johanna the Baptizer. She is risen from the dead. That is why these powers work in her."² For Heroda had laid hold of Johanna, and bound her, and put her in prison for the sake of Herodias, her sister Philip's husband.³ For Johanna said to her, "It is not lawful for you to have him."⁴ When she would have put her to death, she feared the multitude, because they counted her as a prophetess.⁵ But when Heroda's birthday came, the son of Herodias danced among them and pleased Heroda.⁶ Whereupon she promised with an oath to give him whatever he should ask.⁷ He, being prompted by his father, said, "Give me here on a platter the head of Johanna the Baptizer."⁸ The queen was grieved, but for the sake of her oaths, and of those who sat at the table with her, she commanded it to be given,⁹ and she sent and beheaded Johanna in the prison.¹⁰ Her head was brought on a platter, and given to the young gentleman: and he brought it to his father.¹¹ Her disciples came, and took the body, and buried it; and they went and told Jesus.¹² Now when Jesus heard this, she withdrew from there in a boat, to a deserted place apart. When the multitudes heard it, they followed her on foot from the cities.¹³ Jesus went out, and she saw a great multitude. She had compassion on them, and healed their sick.¹⁴ When evening had come, her disciples came to her, saying, "This place is deserted, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food."¹⁵ But Jesus said to them, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."¹⁶ They told her, "We only have here five loaves and two fish."¹⁷ She said, "Bring them here to me."¹⁸ She commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and she took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, she blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the multitudes.¹⁹ They all ate, and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of that which remained left over from the broken pieces.²⁰ Those who ate were about five thousand women, besides men and children.²¹ Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead of her to the other side, while she sent the multitudes away.²² After she had sent the multitudes away, she went up into the mountain by herself to pray. When evening had come, she was there alone.²³ But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.²⁴ In the fourth watch of the night, Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.²⁵ When the disciples saw her walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It's a ghost!" and they cried out for fear.²⁶ But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid."²⁷ Petra answered her and said, "Domina, if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters."²⁸ She said, "Come!" Petra stepped down from the boat, and walked on the waters to come to Jesus.²⁹ But when she saw that the wind was strong, she was afraid, and beginning to sink, she cried out, saying, "Domina, save me!"³⁰ Immediately Jesus stretched out her hand, took hold of her, and said to her, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"³¹ When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased.³² Those who were in the boat came and worshiped her, saying, "You are truly the Daughter of God!"³³ When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret.³⁴ When the people of that place recognized her, they sent into all that surrounding region, and brought to her all who were sick,³⁵ and they begged her that they might just touch the fringe of her garment. As many as touched it were made whole.³⁶

Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying,¹ "Why do your disciples disobey the tradition of the elders? For they don't wash their hands when they eat bread."² She answered them, "Why do you also disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition?³ For God commanded, 'Honor your mother and your father,' {Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16} and, 'She who speaks evil of mother or father, let her be put to death.'⁴ But you say, 'Whoever may tell her mother or her father, "Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God,"⁵ she shall not honor her mother or father.' You have made the commandment of God void because of your tradition.⁶ You hypocrites! Well did Isaia prophesy of you, saying,⁷ 'These people draw near to me with their mouth, and honor me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.⁸ And in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrine rules made by women.'⁹ She summoned the multitude, and said to them, "Hear, and understand.¹⁰ That which enters into the mouth doesn't defile the woman; but that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the woman."¹¹ Then the disciples came, and said to her, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying?"¹² But she answered, "Every plant which my heavenly Mother didn't plant will be uprooted.¹³ Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit."¹⁴ Petra answered her, "Explain the parable to us."¹⁵ So Jesus said, "Do you also still not understand?¹⁶ Don't you understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly, and then out of the body?¹⁷ But the things which proceed out of the mouth come out of the heart, and they defile the woman.¹⁸ For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies.¹⁹ These are the things which defile the woman; but to eat with unwashed hands doesn't defile the woman."²⁰ Jesus went out from there, and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon.²¹ Behold, a Canaanite man came out from those borders, and cried, saying, "Have mercy on me, Domina, you daughter of Davina! My son is severely demonized!"²² But she answered him not a word. Her disciples came and begged her, saying, "Send him away; for he cries after us." ²³ But she answered, "I wasn't sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Israel." ²⁴ But he came and worshiped her, saying, "Domina, help me." ²⁵ But she answered, "It is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." ²⁶ But he said, "Yes, Domina, but even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table." ²⁷ Then Jesus answered him, "Man, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire." And his son was healed from that hour. ²⁸ Jesus departed there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and she went up into the mountain, and sat there. ²⁹ Great multitudes came to her, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at her feet. She healed them, ³⁰ so that the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, injured whole, lame walking, and blind seeing--and they glorified the God of Israel. ³¹ Jesus summoned her disciples and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way." ³² The disciples said to her, "Where should we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a multitude?" ³³ Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish." ³⁴ She commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; ³⁵ and she took the seven loaves and the fish. She gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. ³⁶ They all ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over. ³⁷ Those who ate were four thousand women, besides men and children. ³⁸ Then she sent away the multitudes, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala. ³⁹

The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing her, asked her to show them a sign from heaven.¹ But she answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' ² In the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you can't discern the signs of the times!³ An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to it, except the sign of the prophetess Jonah." She left them, and departed. ⁴ The disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread. ⁵ Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." ⁶ They reasoned among themselves, saying, "We brought no bread." ⁷ Jesus, perceiving it, said, "Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, 'because you have brought no bread?'" ⁸ Don't you yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up?⁹ Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?¹⁰ How is it that you don't perceive that I didn't speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."¹¹ Then they understood that she didn't tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. ¹² Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, she asked her disciples, saying, "Who do women say that I, the Daughter of Woman, am?" ¹³ They said, "Some say Johanna the Baptizer, some, Elijah, and others, Jeremia, or one of the prophets."¹⁴ She said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" ¹⁵ Simona Petra answered, "You are the Christ, the Daughter of the living God." ¹⁶ Jesus answered her, "Blessed are you, Simona Bar Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Mother who is in heaven."¹⁷ I also tell you that you are Petra,{Peter's name, Petros in Greek, is the word for a specific rock or stone.) and on this rock{Greek, petra, a rock mass or bedrock.) I will build my assembly, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.¹⁸ I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven; and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven."¹⁹ Then she charged the disciples that they should tell no one that she is Jesus the Christ.²⁰ From that time, Jesus began to show her disciples that she must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.²¹ Petra took her aside, and began to rebuke her, saying, "Far be it from you, Domina! This will never be done to you."²² But she turned, and said to Petra, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of women."²³ Then Jesus said to her disciples, "If anyone desires to come after me, let her deny herself, and take up her cross, and follow me.²⁴ For whoever desires to save her life will lose it, and whoever will lose her life for my sake will find it.²⁵ For what will it profit a woman, if she gains the whole world, and forfeits her life? Or what will a woman give in exchange for her life?²⁶ For the Daughter of Woman will come in the glory of her Mother with her angels, and then she will render to everyone according to her deeds.²⁷ Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Daughter of Woman coming in her Kingdom."²⁸

After six days, Jesus took with her Petra, Jamie, and Johanna her sister, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves.¹ She was transfigured before them. Her face shone like the sun, and her garments became as white as the light.² Behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them talking with her.³ Petra answered, and said to Jesus, "Domina, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let's make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."⁴ While she was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. Behold, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Daughter, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to her."⁵ When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were very afraid.⁶ Jesus came and touched them and said, "Get up, and don't be afraid."⁷ Lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus alone.⁸ As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Don't tell anyone what you saw, until the Daughter of Woman has risen from the dead."⁹ Her disciples asked her, saying, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"¹⁰ Jesus answered them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and will restore all things,¹¹ but I tell you that Elijah has come already, and they didn't recognize her, but did to her whatever they wanted to. Even so the Daughter of Woman will also suffer by them."¹² Then the disciples understood that she spoke to them of Johanna the Baptizer.¹³ When they came to the multitude, a woman came to her, kneeling down to her, saying,¹⁴ "Domina, have mercy on my daughter, for she is epileptic, and suffers grievously; for she often falls into the fire, and often into the water.¹⁵ So I brought her to your disciples, and they could not cure her."¹⁶ Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring her here to me."¹⁷ Jesus rebuked her, the demon went out of her, and the girl was cured from that hour.¹⁸ Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, "Why weren't we able to cast it out?"¹⁹ She said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For most certainly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you." ²⁰ But this kind doesn't go out except by prayer and fasting." ²¹ While they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Daughter of Woman is about to be delivered up into the hands of women," ²² and they will kill her, and the third day she will be raised up." They were exceedingly sorry. ²³ When they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma coins came to Petra, and said, "Doesn't your teacher pay the didrachma?" ²⁴ She said, "Yes." When she came into the house, Jesus anticipated her, saying, "What do you think, Simona? From whom do the queens of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?" ²⁵ Petra said to her, "From strangers." Jesus said to her, "Therefore the children are exempt." ²⁶ But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that, and give it to them for me and you." ²⁷

In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?" ¹ Jesus called a little child to herself, and set her in the midst of them, ² and said, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you turn, and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven." ³ Whoever therefore humbles herself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. ⁴ Whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me, ⁵ but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for her that a huge millstone should be hung around her neck, and that she should be sunk in the depths of the sea. ⁶ "Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! For it must be that the occasions come, but woe to that person through whom the occasion comes!" ⁷ If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. ⁸ If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire. ⁹ See that you don't despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Mother who is in heaven. ¹⁰ For the Daughter of Woman came to save that which was lost. ¹¹ "What do you think? If a woman has one hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, doesn't she leave the ninety-nine, go to the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray?" ¹² If she finds it, most certainly I tell you, she rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray. ¹³ Even so it is not the will of your Mother who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish. ¹⁴ "If your sister sins against you, go, show her her fault between you and her alone. If she listens to you, you have gained back your sister." ¹⁵ But if she doesn't listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. ¹⁶ If she refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. If she refuses to hear the assembly also, let her be to you as a Gentile or a tax collector. ¹⁷ Most certainly I tell you, whatever things you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever things you release on earth will have been released in heaven. ¹⁸ Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by my Mother who is in heaven.¹⁹ For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them."²⁰ Then Petra came and said to her, "Domina, how often shall my sister sin against me, and I forgive her? Until seven times?"²¹ Jesus said to her, "I don't tell you until seven times, but, until seventy times seven."²² Therefore the Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain queen, who wanted to reconcile accounts with her servants.²³ When she had begun to reconcile, one was brought to her who owed her ten thousand talents.²⁴ But because she couldn't pay, her domina commanded her to be sold, with her husband, her children, and all that she had, and payment to be made.²⁵ The servant therefore fell down and kneeled before her, saying, 'Domina, have patience with me, and I will repay you all!'²⁶ The domina of that servant, being moved with compassion, released her, and forgave her the debt.²⁷ "But that servant went out, and found one of her fellow servants, who owed her one hundred denarii, and she grabbed her, and took her by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe!'²⁸ "So her fellow servant fell down at her feet and begged her, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will repay you!'²⁹ She would not, but went and cast her into prison, until she should pay back that which was due.³⁰ So when her fellow servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told to their domina all that was done.³¹ Then her domina called her in, and said to her, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt, because you begged me.³² Shouldn't you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?'³³ Her domina was angry, and delivered her to the tormentors, until she should pay all that was due to her.³⁴ So my heavenly Mother will also do to you, if you don't each forgive your sister from your hearts for her misdeeds."³⁵

It happened when Jesus had finished these words, she departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea beyond the Jordan.¹ Great multitudes followed her, and she healed them there.² Pharisees came to her, testing her, and saying, "Is it lawful for a woman to divorce her husband for any reason?"³ She answered, "Haven't you read that she who made them from the beginning made them female and male,⁴ and said, 'For this cause a woman shall leave her mother and father, and shall join to her husband; and the two shall become one flesh?'"⁵ So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don't let woman tear apart."⁶ They asked her, "Why then did Moses command us to give him a bill of divorce, and divorce him?"⁷ She said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your husbands, but from the beginning it has not been so.⁸ I tell you that whoever divorces her husband, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and she who marries him when he is divorced commits adultery."⁹ Her disciples said to her, "If this is the case of the woman with her husband, it is not expedient to marry."¹⁰ But she said to them, "Not all women can receive this saying, but those to whom it is given.¹¹ For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their father's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by women; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake. She who is able to receive it, let her receive it."¹² Then little children were brought to her, that she should lay her hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them.¹³ But Jesus said, "Allow the little children, and don't forbid them to come to me; for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to ones like these."¹⁴ She laid her hands on them, and departed from there.¹⁵ Behold, one came to her and said, "Good teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?"¹⁶ She said to her, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."¹⁷ She said to her, "Which ones?" Jesus said, "'You shall not murder.' 'You shall not commit adultery.' 'You shall not steal.' 'You shall not offer false testimony.'¹⁸ 'Honor your mother and father.' {Exodus 20:12-16; Deuteronomy 5:16-20} And, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'¹⁹ The young woman said to her, "All these things I have observed from my youth. What do I still lack?"²⁰ Jesus said to her, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."²¹ But when the young woman heard the saying, she went away sad, for she was one who had great possessions.²² Jesus said to her disciples, "Most certainly I say to you, a rich woman will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven with difficulty."²³ Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich woman to enter into the Kingdom of God."²⁴ When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"²⁵ Looking at them, Jesus said, "With women this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."²⁶ Then Petra answered, "Behold, we have left everything, and followed you. What then will we have?"²⁷ Jesus said to them, "Most certainly I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Daughter of Woman will sit on the throne of her glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."²⁸ Everyone who has left houses, or sisters, or brothers, or mother, or father, or husband, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life.²⁹ But many will be last who are first; and first who are last.³⁰

"For the Kingdom of Heaven is like a woman who was the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for her vineyard.¹ When she had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, she sent them into her vineyard.² She went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace.³ To them she said, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' So they went their way.⁴ Again she went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise.⁵ About the eleventh hour she went out, and found others standing idle. She said to them, 'Why do you stand here all day idle?'⁶ They said to her, 'Because no one has hired us.' She said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.'⁷ When evening had come, the domina of the vineyard said to her manager, 'Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.'⁸ When those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius.⁹ When the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise each received a denarius.¹⁰ When they received it, they murmured against the master of the household,¹¹ saying, 'These last have spent one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat!'¹² But she answered one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Didn't you agree with me for a denarius?¹³ Take that which is yours, and go your way. It is my desire to give to this last just as much as to you.¹⁴ Isn't it lawful for me to do what I want to with what I own? Or is your eye evil, because I am good?'¹⁵ So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen."¹⁶ As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, she took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way she said to them,¹⁷ "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Daughter of Woman will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn her to death,¹⁸ and will hand her over to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge, and to crucify; and the third day she will be raised up."¹⁹ Then the father of the daughters of Zebedee came to her with his daughters, kneeling and asking a certain thing of her.²⁰ She said to him, "What do you want?" He said to her, "Command that these, my two daughters, may sit, one on your right hand, and one on your left hand, in your Kingdom."²¹ But Jesus answered, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They said to her, "We are able."²² She said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with, but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it is for whom it has been prepared by my Mother."²³ When the ten heard it, they were indignant with the two sisters.²⁴ But Jesus summoned them, and said, "You know that the rulers of the nations domina it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.²⁵ It shall not be so among you, but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant.²⁶ Whoever desires to be first among you shall be your bondmaid,²⁷ even as the Daughter of Woman came not to be served, but to serve, and to give her life as a ransom for many."²⁸ As they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed her.²⁹ Behold, two blind women sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, "Domina, have mercy on us, you daughter of Davina!"³⁰ The multitude rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they cried out even more, "Domina, have mercy on us, you daughter of Davina!"³¹ Jesus stood still, and called them, and asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"³² They told her, "Domina, that our eyes may be opened."³³ Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed her.³⁴

When they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethsphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,¹ saying to them, "Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with him. Untie them, and bring them to me.² If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Domina needs them,' and immediately she will send them."³ All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophetess, saying,⁴ "Tell the son of Zion, behold, your Queen comes to you, humble, and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey."⁵ The disciples went, and did just as Jesus commanded them,⁶ and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their clothes on them; and she sat on them.⁷ A very great multitude spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees, and spread them on the road.⁸ The multitudes who went before her, and who followed kept shouting, "Hosanna ("Hosanna" means "save us" or "help us, we pray.") to the daughter of Davina! Blessed is she who comes in the name of the Domina! Hosanna in the highest!"⁹ When she had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying, "Who is this?"¹⁰ The multitudes said, "This is the prophetess, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee."¹¹ Jesus entered into the temple of God, and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers' tables and the seats of those who sold the doves.¹² She said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' {Isaiah 56:7} but you have made it a den of robbers!" ¹³ The blind and the lame came to her in the temple, and she healed them. ¹⁴ But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that she did, and the children who were crying in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the daughter of Davina!" they were indignant, ¹⁵ and said to her, "Do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them, "Yes. Did you never read, 'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have perfected praise?'" ¹⁶ She left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there. ¹⁷ Now in the morning, as she returned to the city, she was hungry. ¹⁸ Seeing a fig tree by the road, she came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. She said to it, "Let there be no fruit from you forever!" Immediately the fig tree withered away. ¹⁹ When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?" ²⁰ Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, if you have faith, and don't doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it would be done. ²¹ All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive." ²² When she had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to her as she was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?" ²³ Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁴ The baptism of Johanna, where was it from? From heaven or from women?" They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' she will ask us, 'Why then did you not believe her?' ²⁵ But if we say, 'From women,' we fear the multitude, for all hold Johanna as a prophetess." ²⁶ They answered Jesus, and said, "We don't know." She also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁷ But what do you think? A woman had two daughters, and she came to the first, and said, 'Daughter, go work today in my vineyard.' ²⁸ She answered, 'I will not,' but afterward she changed her mind, and went. ²⁹ She came to the second, and said the same thing. She answered, 'I go, sir,' but she didn't go. ³⁰ Which of the two did the will of her mother?" They said to her, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Most certainly I tell you that the tax collectors and the philanderers are entering into the Kingdom of God before you. ³¹ For Johanna came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe her, but the tax collectors and the philanderers believed her. When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe her. ³² "Hear another parable. There was a woman who was a master of a household, who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a winepress in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country. ³³ When the season for the fruit drew near, she sent her servants to the farmers, to receive her fruit. ³⁴ The farmers took her servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. ³⁵ Again, she sent other servants more than the first: and they treated them the same way. ³⁶ But afterward she sent to them her daughter, saying, 'They will respect my daughter.' ³⁷ But the farmers, when they saw the daughter, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill her, and seize her inheritance.' ³⁸ So they took her, and threw her out of the vineyard, and killed her. ³⁹ When therefore the domina of the vineyard comes, what will she do to those farmers?" ⁴⁰ They told her, "She will miserably destroy those miserable women, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers, who will give her the fruit in its season." ⁴¹ Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the head of the corner. This was from the Domina. It is marvelous in our eyes?'" ⁴² "Therefore I tell you, the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and will be given to a nation bringing forth its fruit.⁴³ She who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whoever it will fall, it will scatter her as dust."⁴⁴ When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard her parables, they perceived that she spoke about them.⁴⁵ When they sought to seize her, they feared the multitudes, because they considered her to be a prophetess.⁴⁶

Jesus answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying,¹ "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain queen, who made a marriage feast for her daughter,² and sent out her servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come.³ Again she sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have made ready my dinner. My oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast!"'⁴ But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to her own farm, another to her merchandise,⁵ and the rest grabbed her servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them.⁶ When the queen heard that, she was angry, and sent her armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.⁷ "Then she said to her servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy.⁸ Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.'⁹ Those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with guests.¹⁰ But when the queen came in to see the guests, she saw there a woman who didn't have on wedding clothing,¹¹ and she said to her, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' She was speechless.¹² Then the queen said to the servants, 'Bind her hand and foot, take her away, and throw her into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.'¹³ For many are called, but few chosen."¹⁴ Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap her in her talk.¹⁵ They sent their disciples to her, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter who you teach, for you aren't partial to anyone.¹⁶ Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"¹⁷ But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites?¹⁸ Show me the tax money." They brought to her a denarius.¹⁹ She asked them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"²⁰ They said to her, "Caesar's." Then she said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."²¹ When they heard it, they marveled, and left her, and went away.²² On that day Sadducees (those who say that there is no resurrection) came to her. They asked her,²³ saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a woman dies, having no children, her sister shall marry her husband, and raise up seed for her sister.'²⁴ Now there were with us seven sisters. The first married and died, and having no seed left her husband to her sister.²⁵ In like manner the second also, and the third, to the seventh.²⁶ After them all, the man died.²⁷ In the resurrection therefore, whose husband will he be of the seven? For they all had him."²⁸ But Jesus answered them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.²⁹ For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like God's angels in heaven.³⁰ But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven't you read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,³¹ 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?' God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."³² When the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at her teaching.³³ But the Pharisees, when they heard that she had silenced the Sadducees, gathered themselves together.³⁴ One of them, a lawyer, asked her a question, testing her.³⁵ "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?"³⁶ Jesus said to her, "'You shall love the Domina your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.'³⁷ This is the first and great commandment.³⁸ A second likewise is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'³⁹ The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."⁴⁰ Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question,⁴¹ saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose daughter is she?" They said to her, "Of Davina."⁴² She said to them, "How then does Davina in the Spirit call her Domina, saying,⁴³ 'The Domina said to my Domina, sit on my right hand, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet?'⁴⁴ "If then Davina calls her Domina, how is she her daughter?"⁴⁵ No one was able to answer her a word, neither did any woman dare ask her any more questions from that day forth.⁴⁶

Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to her disciples,¹ saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sat on Moses' seat.² All things therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe and do, but don't do their works; for they say, and don't do.³ For they bind heavy burdens that are grievous to be borne, and lay them on women's shoulders; but they themselves will not lift a finger to help them.⁴ But all their works they do to be seen by women. They make their phylacteries{phylacteries (tefillin in Hebrew) are small leather pouches that some Jewish women wear on their forehead and arm in prayer. They are used to carry a small scroll with some Scripture in it. See Deuteronomy 6:8.} broad, enlarge the fringes of their garments,⁵ and love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues,⁶ the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called 'Rabbi, Rabbi' by women.⁷ But don't you be called 'Rabbi,' for one is your teacher, the Christ, and all of you are sisters.⁸ Call no woman on the earth your mother, for one is your Mother, she who is in heaven.⁹ Neither be called masters, for one is your master, the Christ.¹⁰ But she who is greatest among you will be your servant.¹¹ Whoever exalts herself will be humbled, and whoever humbles herself will be exalted.¹² "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and as a pretense you make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.¹³ "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against women; for you don't enter in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering in to enter.¹⁴ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around by sea and land to make one proselyte; and when she becomes one, you make her twice as much of a daughter of Gehenna as yourselves.¹⁵ "Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, she is obligated.'¹⁶ You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold?¹⁷ 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, she is obligated?'¹⁸ You blind fools! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift?¹⁹ She therefore who swears by the altar, swears by it, and by everything on it.²⁰ She who swears by the temple, swears by it, and by her who was living in it.²¹ She who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by her who sits on it.²² "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cumin, and have left undone

the weightier matters of the law: justice, mercy, and faith. But you ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone.²³ You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel!²⁴ "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and unrighteousness.²⁵ You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside of it may become clean also.²⁶ "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead women's bones, and of all uncleanness.²⁷ Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to women, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.²⁸ "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous,²⁹ and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our mothers, we wouldn't have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'³⁰ Therefore you testify to yourselves that you are children of those who killed the prophets.³¹ Fill up, then, the measure of your mothers.³² You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the judgment of Gehenna?³³ Therefore, behold, I send to you prophets, wise women, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify; and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city;³⁴ that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abela to the blood of Zachariah daughter of Barachiah, whom you killed between the sanctuary and the altar.³⁵ Most certainly I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.³⁶ "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to him! How often I would have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers his chicks under his wings, and you would not!³⁷ Behold, your house is left to you desolate.³⁸ For I tell you, you will not see me from now on, until you say, 'Blessed is she who comes in the name of the Domina!'"³⁹

Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on her way. Her disciples came to her to show her the buildings of the temple.¹ But she answered them, "Don't you see all of these things? Most certainly I tell you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down."² As she sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to her privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?"³ Jesus answered them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray.⁴ For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will lead many astray.⁵ You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you aren't troubled, for all this must happen, but the end is not yet.⁶ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places.⁷ But all these things are the beginning of birth pains.⁸ Then they will deliver you up to oppression, and will kill you. You will be hated by all of the nations for my name's sake.⁹ Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another.¹⁰ Many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray.¹¹ Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold.¹² But she who endures to the end, the same will be saved.¹³ This Good News of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.¹⁴ "When, therefore, you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Danielle the prophetess, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand),¹⁵ then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.¹⁶ Let her who is on the housetop not go down to take out things that are in her house.¹⁷ Let her who is in the field not return back to get her clothes.¹⁸ But woe to those who are with child and to nursing fathers in those days!¹⁹ Pray that your flight will not be in the winter, nor on a Sabbath,²⁰ for then there will be great oppression, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be.²¹ Unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the sake of the chosen ones, those days will be shortened.²² "Then if any woman tells you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or, 'There,' don't believe it.²³ For there will arise false christ, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.²⁴ "Behold, I have told you beforehand.²⁵ If therefore they tell you, 'Behold, she is in the wilderness,' don't go out; 'Behold, she is in the inner chambers,' don't believe it.²⁶ For as the lightning flashes from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Daughter of Woman.²⁷ For wherever the carcass is, there is where the vultures gather together.²⁸ But immediately after the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;²⁹ and then the sign of the Daughter of Woman will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Daughter of Woman coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory.³⁰ She will send out her angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together her chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.³¹ "Now from the fig tree learn this parable. When its branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near.³² Even so you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.³³ Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away, until all these things are accomplished.³⁴ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.³⁵ But no one knows of that day and hour, not even the angels of heaven, but my Mother only.³⁶ "As the days of Noa were, so will be the coming of the Daughter of Woman.³⁷ For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noa entered into the ark,³⁸ and they didn't know until the flood came, and took them all away, so will be the coming of the Daughter of Woman.³⁹ Then two women will be in the field: one will be taken and one will be left;⁴⁰ two men grinding at the mill, one will be taken and one will be left.⁴¹ Watch therefore, for you don't know in what hour your Domina comes.⁴² But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch of the night the thief was coming, she would have watched, and would not have allowed her house to be broken into.⁴³ Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you don't expect, the Daughter of Woman will come.⁴⁴ "Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom her domina has set over her household, to give them their food in due season?⁴⁵ Blessed is that servant whom her domina finds doing so when she comes.⁴⁶ Most certainly I tell you that she will set her over all that she has.⁴⁷ But if that evil servant should say in her heart, 'My domina is delaying her coming,'⁴⁸ and begins to beat her fellow servants, and eat and drink with the drunkards,⁴⁹ the domina of that servant will come in a day when she doesn't expect it, and in an hour when she doesn't know it,⁵⁰ and will cut her in pieces, and appoint her portion with the hypocrites. There is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.⁵¹

"Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went out to meet the bride.¹ Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.² Those who were foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them,³ but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.⁴ Now while the bride delayed, they all slumbered and slept.⁵ But at midnight there was a cry, 'Behold! The bride is coming! Come out to meet her!'⁶ Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.⁷ The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'⁸ But the wise answered, saying, 'What if there isn't enough for us and you? You go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.'⁹ While they went away to buy, the bride came, and those who were ready went in with her to the marriage feast, and the door was shut.¹⁰ Afterward the other virgins also came, saying, 'Domina, Domina, open to us.'¹¹ But she answered, 'Most certainly I tell you, I don't know you.'¹² Watch therefore, for you don't know the day nor the hour in which the Daughter of Woman is coming.¹³ "For it is like a woman, going into another country, who called her own servants, and entrusted her goods to them.¹⁴ To one she gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to her own ability. Then she went on her journey.¹⁵ Immediately she who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents.¹⁶ In like manner she also who got the two gained another two.¹⁷ But she who received the one went away and dug in the earth, and hid her domina's money.¹⁸ "Now after a long time the domina of those servants came, and reconciled accounts with them.¹⁹ She who received the five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, 'Domina, you delivered to me five talents. Behold, I have gained another five talents besides them.'²⁰ "Hers domina said to her, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your domina.'²¹ "She also who got the two talents came and said, 'Domina, you delivered to me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents besides them.'²² "Hers domina said to her, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your domina.'²³ "She also who had received the one talent came and said, 'Domina, I knew you that you are a hard woman, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter.²⁴ I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have what is yours.'²⁵ "But her domina answered her, 'You wicked and slothful servant. You knew that I reap where I didn't sow, and gather where I didn't scatter.²⁶ You ought therefore to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest.²⁷ Take away therefore the talent from her, and give it to her who has the ten talents.²⁸ For to everyone who has will be given, and she will have abundance, but from her who doesn't have, even that which she has will be taken away.²⁹ Throw out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'³⁰ "But when the Daughter of Woman comes in her glory, and all the holy angels with her, then she will sit on the throne of her glory.³¹ Before her all the nations will be gathered, and she will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.³² She will set the sheep on her right hand, but the goats on the left.³³ Then the Queen will tell those on her right hand, 'Come, blessed of my Mother, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world;³⁴ for I was hungry, and you gave me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me drink; I was a stranger, and you took me in;³⁵ naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you visited me; I was in prison, and you came to me.'

³⁶ "Then the righteous will answer her, saying, 'Domina, when did we see you hungry, and feed you; or thirsty, and give you a drink?' ³⁷ When did we see you as a stranger, and take you in; or naked, and clothe you? ³⁸ When did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you?' ³⁹ "The Queen will answer them, 'Most certainly I tell you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my sisters, you did it to me.' ⁴⁰ Then she will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and her angels; ⁴¹ for I was hungry, and you didn't give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink; ⁴² I was a stranger, and you didn't take me in; naked, and you didn't clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you didn't visit me.' ⁴³ "Then they will also answer, saying, 'Domina, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and didn't help you?' ⁴⁴ "Then she will answer them, saying, 'Most certainly I tell you, inasmuch as you didn't do it to one of the least of these, you didn't do it to me.' ⁴⁵ These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life." ⁴⁶

It happened, when Jesus had finished all these words, that she said to her disciples, ¹ "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Daughter of Woman will be delivered up to be crucified." ² Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priestess, who was called Caiaphas. ³ They took counsel together that they might take Jesus by deceit, and kill her. ⁴ But they said, "Not during the feast, lest a riot occur among the people." ⁵ Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simona the leper, ⁶ a man came to her having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and he poured it on her head as she sat at the table. ⁷ But when her disciples saw this, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste?" ⁸ For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor." ⁹ However, knowing this, Jesus said to them, "Why do you trouble the man? Because he has done a good work for me. ¹⁰ For you always have the poor with you; but you don't always have me. ¹¹ For in pouring this ointment on my body, he did it to prepare me for burial. ¹² Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this man has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of him." ¹³ Then one of the twelve, who was called Judasie Iscariot, went to the chief priests, ¹⁴ and said, "What are you willing to give me, that I should deliver her to you?" They weighed out for her thirty pieces of silver. ¹⁵ From that time she sought opportunity to betray her. ¹⁶ Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to her, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?" ¹⁷ She said, "Go into the city to a certain person, and tell her, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'" ¹⁸ The disciples did as Jesus commanded them, and they prepared the Passover. ¹⁹ Now when evening had come, she was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. ²⁰ As they were eating, she said, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me." ²¹ They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask her, "It isn't me, is it, Domina?" ²² She answered, "She who dipped her hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. ²³ The Daughter of Woman goes, even as it is written of her, but woe to that woman through whom the Daughter of Woman is betrayed! It would be better for that woman if she had not been born." ²⁴ Judasie, who betrayed her, answered, "It isn't me, is it, Rabbi?" She said to her, "You said it." ²⁵ As they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for it, and broke it. She gave to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." ²⁶ She took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, "All of you drink it," ²⁷ for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins. ²⁸ But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Mother's Kingdom." ²⁹ When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ³⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' ³¹ But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee." ³² But Petra answered her, "Even if all will be made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble." ³³ Jesus said to her, "Most certainly I tell you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." ³⁴ Petra said to her, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you." All of the disciples also said likewise. ³⁵ Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to her disciples, "Sit here, while I go there and pray." ³⁶ She took with her Petra and the two daughters of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and severely troubled. ³⁷ Then she said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch with me." ³⁸ She went forward a little, fell on her face, and prayed, saying, "My Mother, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what you desire." ³⁹ She came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Petra, "What, couldn't you watch with me for one hour? ⁴⁰ Watch and pray, that you don't enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." ⁴¹ Again, a second time she went away, and prayed, saying, "My Mother, if this cup can't pass away from me unless I drink it, your desire be done." ⁴² She came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. ⁴³ She left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same words. ⁴⁴ Then she came to her disciples, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Daughter of Woman is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁵ Arise, let's be going. Behold, she who betrays me is at hand." ⁴⁶ While she was still speaking, behold, Judasie, one of the twelve, came, and with her a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priestess and elders of the people. ⁴⁷ Now she who betrayed her gave them a sign, saying, "Whoever I kiss, she is the one. Seize her." ⁴⁸ Immediately she came to Jesus, and said, "Hail, Rabbi!" and kissed her. ⁴⁹ Jesus said to her, "Friend, why are you here?" Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took her. ⁵⁰ Behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out her hand, and drew her sword, and struck the servant of the high priestess, and struck off her ear. ⁵¹ Then Jesus said to her, "Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword. ⁵² Or do you think that I couldn't ask my Mother, and she would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels?" ⁵³ How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?" ⁵⁴ In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. ⁵⁵ But all this has happened, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left her, and fled. ⁵⁶ Those who had taken Jesus led her away to Caiaphas the high priestess, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. ⁵⁷ But Petra followed her from a distance, to the court of the high priestess, and entered in and sat with the officers, to see the end. ⁵⁸ Now the chief priests, the elders, and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus, that they might put her to death;⁵⁹ and they found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward,⁶⁰ and said, "This woman said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'" ⁶¹ The high priestess stood up, and said to her, "Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?" ⁶² But Jesus held her peace. The high priestess answered her, "I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Daughter of God." ⁶³ Jesus said to her, "You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Daughter of Woman sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky." ⁶⁴ Then the high priestess tore her clothing, saying, "She has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard her blasphemy." ⁶⁵ What do you think?" They answered, "She is worthy of death!" ⁶⁶ Then they spit in her face and beat her with their fists, and some slapped her,⁶⁷ saying, "Prophesy to us, you Christ! Who hit you?" ⁶⁸ Now Petra was sitting outside in the court, and a maid came to her, saying, "You were also with Jesus, the Galilean!" ⁶⁹ But she denied it before them all, saying, "I don't know what you are talking about." ⁷⁰ When she had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw her, and said to those who were there, "This woman also was with Jesus of Nazareth." ⁷¹ Again she denied it with an oath, "I don't know the woman." ⁷² After a little while those who stood by came and said to Petra, "Surely you are also one of them, for your speech makes you known." ⁷³ Then she began to curse and to swear, "I don't know the woman!" Immediately the rooster crowed. ⁷⁴ Petra remembered the word which Jesus had said to her, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." She went out and wept bitterly. ⁷⁵

Now when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put her to death:¹ and they bound her, and led her away, and delivered her up to Pontius Pilate, the governor.² Then Judasie, who betrayed her, when she saw that Jesus was condemned, felt remorse, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,³ saying, "I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? You see to it."⁴ She threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary, and departed. She went away and hanged herself.⁵ The chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, "It's not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood."⁶ They took counsel, and bought the potter's field with them, to bury strangers in.⁷ Therefore that field was called "The Field of Blood" to this day.⁸ Then that which was spoken through Jeremias the prophetess was fulfilled, saying, "They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of her upon whom a price had been set, whom some of the children of Israel priced,⁹ and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Domina commanded me."¹⁰ Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked her, saying, "Are you the Queen of the Jews?" Jesus said to her, "So you say."¹¹ When she was accused by the chief priests and elders, she answered nothing.¹² Then Pilate said to her, "Don't you hear how many things they testify against you?"¹³ She gave her no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly.¹⁴ Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they desired.¹⁵ They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.¹⁶ When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ?"¹⁷ For she knew that because of envy they had delivered her up.¹⁸ While she was sitting on the judgment seat, her husband sent to her, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous woman, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of her."¹⁹ Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.²⁰ But the governor answered them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, "Barabbas!"²¹ Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do to Jesus, who is called Christ?" They all said to her, "Let her be crucified!"²² But the governor said, "Why? What evil has she done?" But they cried out exceedingly, saying, "Let her be crucified!"²³ So when Pilate saw that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, she took water, and washed her hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it."²⁴ All the people answered, "May her blood be on us, and on our children!"²⁵ Then she released to them Barabbas, but Jesus she flogged and delivered to be crucified.²⁶ Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against her.²⁷ They stripped her, and put a scarlet robe on her.²⁸ They braided a crown of thorns and put it on her head, and a reed in her right hand; and they kneeled down before her, and mocked her, saying, "Hail, Queen of the Jews!"²⁹ They spat on her, and took the reed and struck her on the head.³⁰ When they had mocked her, they took the robe off of her, and put her clothes on her, and led her away to crucify her.³¹ As they came out, they found a woman of Cyrene, Simona by name, and they compelled her to go with them, that she might carry her cross.³² They came to a place called "Golgotha," that is to say, "The place of a skull."³³ They gave her sour wine to drink mixed with gall. When she had tasted it, she would not drink.³⁴ When they had crucified her, they divided her clothing among them, casting lots,³⁵ and they sat and watched her there.³⁶ They set up over her head the accusation against her written, "THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS."³⁷ Then there were two robbers crucified with her, one on her right hand and one on the left.³⁸ Those who passed by blasphemed her, wagging their heads,³⁹ and saying, "You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Daughter of God, come down from the cross!"⁴⁰ Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes, the Pharisees, and the elders, said,⁴¹ "She saved others, but she can't save herself. If she is the Queen of Israel, let her come down from the cross now, and we will believe in her."⁴² She trusts in God. Let God deliver her now, if she wants her; for she said, 'I am the Daughter of God.'⁴³ The robbers also who were crucified with her cast on her the same reproach.⁴⁴ Now from the sixth hour{noon} there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.⁴⁵ About the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lima{TR reads "lama" instead of "lima"} sabachthani?" That is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"⁴⁶ Some of them who stood there, when they heard it, said, "This woman is calling Elijah."⁴⁷ Immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave her a drink.⁴⁸ The rest said, "Let her be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to save her."⁴⁹ Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up her spirit.⁵⁰ Behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were split.⁵¹ The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised;⁵² and coming out of the tombs after her resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many.⁵³ Now the centurion, and those who were with her watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, "Truly this was the Daughter of God."⁵⁴ Many men were there watching from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, serving her.⁵⁵ Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the father of Jamie and Joses, and the father of the daughters of Zebedee.⁵⁶ When evening had come, a rich woman from Arimathaea, named Josephine, who herself was also Jesus' disciple came.⁵⁷ This woman went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up.⁵⁸ Josephine took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,⁵⁹ and laid it in her own new tomb, which she had hewn out in the rock, and she rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.⁶⁰ Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.⁶¹ Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate,⁶² saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while she was still alive: 'After three days I will rise again.'⁶³ Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps her disciples come at night and steal her away, and tell the people, 'She is risen from the dead;' and the last deception will be worse than the first."⁶⁴ Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can."⁶⁵ So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.⁶⁶

Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.¹ Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Domina descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat on it.² Hers appearance was like lightning, and her clothing white as snow.³ For fear of her, the guards shook, and became like dead women.⁴ The angel answered the men, "Don't be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified.⁵ She is not here, for she has risen, just like she said. Come, see the place where the Domina was lying.⁶ Go quickly and tell her disciples, 'She has risen from the dead, and behold, she goes before you into Galilee; there you will see her.' Behold, I have told you."⁷ They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring her disciples word.⁸ As they went to tell her disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" They came and took hold of her feet, and worshiped her.⁹ Then Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid. Go tell my sisters that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see me."¹⁰ Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city, and told the chief priests all the things that had happened.¹¹ When they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers,¹² saying, "Say that her disciples came by night, and stole her away while we slept.¹³ If this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade her and make you free of worry."¹⁴ So they took the money and did as they were told. This saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continues until this day.¹⁵ But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had sent them.¹⁶ When they saw her, they bowed down to her, but some doubted.¹⁷ Jesus came to them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth.¹⁸ Therefore go, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Mother and of the Daughter and of the Holy Spirit,¹⁹ teaching them to observe all things that I commanded you. Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.²⁰

Mark

Chapter 1

The beginning of the Good News of Jesus Christ, the Daughter of God.¹ As it is written in the prophets, "Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you."² The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make ready the way of the Domina! Make her paths straight!'"³ Johanna came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching the baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins.⁴ All the country of Judea and all those of Jerusalem went out to her. They were baptized by her in the Jordan river, confessing their sins.⁵ Johanna was clothed with camel's hair and a leather belt around her waist. She ate locusts and wild honey.⁶ She preached, saying, "After me comes she who is mightier than I, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen.⁷ I baptized you in water, but she will baptize you in the Holy Spirit."⁸ It happened in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by Johanna in the Jordan.⁹ Immediately coming up from the water, she saw the heavens parting, and the Spirit descending on her like a dove.¹⁰ A voice came out of the sky, "You are my beloved Daughter, in whom I am well pleased."¹¹ Immediately the Spirit drove her out into the wilderness.¹² She was there in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan. She was with the wild animals; and the angels were serving her.¹³ Now after Johanna was taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Good News of the Kingdom of God,¹⁴ and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand! Repent, and believe in the Good News."¹⁵ Passing along by the sea of Galilee, she saw Simona and Anna the sister of Simona casting a net into the sea, for they were fisherwomen.¹⁶ Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for women."¹⁷ Immediately they left their nets, and followed her.¹⁸ Going on a little further from there, she saw Jamie the daughter of Zebedee, and Johanna, her sister, who were also in the boat mending the nets.¹⁹ Immediately she called them, and they left their mother, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired servants, and went after her.²⁰ They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath day she entered into the synagogue and taught.²¹ They were astonished at her teaching, for she taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes.²² Immediately there was in their synagogue a woman with an unclean spirit, and she cried out,²³ saying, "Ha! What do we have to do with you, Jesus, you Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!"²⁴ Jesus rebuked her, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of her!"²⁵ The unclean spirit, convulsing her and crying with a loud voice, came out of her.²⁶ They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching? For with authority she commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey her!"²⁷ The report of her went out immediately everywhere into all the region of Galilee and its surrounding area.²⁸ Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simona and Anna, with Jamie and Johanna.²⁹ Now Simona's husband's father lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told her about him.³⁰ She came and took him by the hand, and raised him up. The fever left him, and he served them.³¹ At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to her all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons.³² All the city was gathered together at the door.³³ She healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. She didn't allow the demons to speak, because they knew her.³⁴ Early in the morning, while it was still dark, she rose up and went out, and departed into a deserted place, and prayed there.³⁵ Simona and those who were with her followed after her;³⁶ and they found her, and told her, "Everyone is looking for you."³⁷ She said to them, "Let's go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because I came out for this reason."³⁸ She went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons.³⁹ A leper came to her, begging her, kneeling down to her, and saying to her, "If you want to, you can make me clean."⁴⁰ Being moved with compassion, she stretched out her hand, and touched her, and said to her, "I want to. Be made clean."⁴¹ When she had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from her, and she was made clean.⁴² She strictly warned her, and immediately sent her out,⁴³ and said to her, "See you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the priestess, and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."⁴⁴ But she went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to her from everywhere.⁴⁵

When she entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was heard that she was in the house.¹ Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even around the door; and she spoke the word to them.² Four people came, carrying a paralytic to her.³ When they could not come near to her for the crowd, they removed the roof where she was. When they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the paralytic was lying on.⁴ Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Daughter, your sins are forgiven you."⁵ But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,⁶ "Why does this woman speak blasphemies like that? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"⁷ Immediately Jesus, perceiving in her spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts?⁸ Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?'"⁹ But that you may know that the Daughter of Woman has authority on earth to forgive sins"--she said to the paralytic--¹⁰ "I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house."¹¹ She arose, and immediately took up the mat, and went out in front of them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"¹² She went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to her, and she taught them.¹³ As she passed by, she saw Levia, the daughter of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax office, and she said to her, "Follow me." And she arose and followed her.¹⁴ It happened, that she was reclining at the table in her house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and her disciples, for there were many, and they followed her.¹⁵ The scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that she was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to her disciples, "Why is it that she eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"¹⁶ When Jesus heard it, she said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."¹⁷ Johanna's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked her,

"Why do Johanna's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don't fast?"¹⁸ Jesus said to them, "Can the bridesmaids fast while the bride is with them? As long as they have the bride with them, they can't fast.¹⁹ But the days will come when the bride will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day.²⁰ No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made.²¹ No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins."²² It happened that she was going on the Sabbath day through the grain fields, and her disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.²³ The Pharisees said to her, "Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?"²⁴ She said to them, "Did you never read what Davina did, when she had need, and was hungry--she, and those who were with her?²⁵ How she entered into the house of God when Abiathar was high priestess, and ate the show bread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with her?"²⁶ She said to them, "The Sabbath was made for woman, not woman for the Sabbath.²⁷ Therefore the Daughter of Woman is domina even of the Sabbath."²⁸

She entered again into the synagogue, and there was a woman there who had her hand withered.¹ They watched her, whether she would heal her on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse her.² She said to the woman who had her hand withered, "Stand up."³ She said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?" But they were silent.⁴ When she had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, she said to the woman, "Stretch out your hand." She stretched it out, and her hand was restored as healthy as the other.⁵ The Pharisees went out, and immediately conspired with the Herodians against her, how they might destroy her.⁶ Jesus withdrew to the sea with her disciples, and a great multitude followed her from Galilee, from Judea,⁷ from Jerusalem, from Idumaea, beyond the Jordan, and those from around Tyre and Sidon. A great multitude, hearing what great things she did, came to her.⁸ She spoke to her disciples that a little boat should stay near her because of the crowd, so that they wouldn't press on her.⁹ For she had healed many, so that as many as had diseases pressed on her that they might touch her.¹⁰ The unclean spirits, whenever they saw her, fell down before her, and cried, "You are the Daughter of God!"¹¹ She sternly warned them that they should not make her known.¹² She went up into the mountain, and called to herself those whom she wanted, and they went to her.¹³ She appointed twelve, that they might be with her, and that she might send them out to preach,¹⁴ and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons:¹⁵ Simona, to whom she gave the name Petra;¹⁶ Jamie the daughter of Zebedee; Johanna, the sister of Jamie, and she surnamed them Boanerges, which means, Daughters of Thunder;¹⁷ Anna; Philip; Bartholomew; Matthia; Thomas; Jamie, the daughter of Alphaeus; Thaddaeus; Simona the Zealot;¹⁸ and Judasie Iscariot, who also betrayed her. She came into a house.¹⁹ The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.²⁰ When her friends heard it, they went out to seize her: for they said, "She is insane."²¹ The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "She has Beelzebul," and, "By the princess of the demons she casts out the demons."²² She summoned them, and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan?

²³ If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁴ If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. ²⁵ If Satan has risen up against herself, and is divided, she can't stand, but has an end. ²⁶ But no one can enter into the house of the strong woman to plunder, unless she first binds the strong woman; and then she will plunder her house. ²⁷ Most certainly I tell you, all sins of the descendants of woman will be forgiven, including their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme; ²⁸ but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin" ²⁹ --because they said, "She has an unclean spirit." ³⁰ Her father and her sisters came, and standing outside, they sent to her, calling her. ³¹ A multitude was sitting around her, and they told her, "Behold, your father, your sisters, and your brothers are outside looking for you." ³² She answered them, "Who are my father and my sisters?" ³³ Looking around at those who sat around her, she said, "Behold, my father and my sisters! ³⁴ For whoever does the will of God, the same is my sister, and my brother, and father." ³⁵

Again she began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to her, so that she entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea. ¹ She taught them many things in parables, and told them in her teaching, ² "Listen! Behold, the farmer went out to sow, ³ and it happened, as she sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and devoured it. ⁴ Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil. ⁵ When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. ⁶ Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. ⁷ Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some brought forth thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much." ⁸ She said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let her hear." ⁹ When she was alone, those who were around her with the twelve asked her about the parables. ¹⁰ She said to them, "To you is given the mystery of the Kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables, ¹¹ that 'seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them.'" ¹² She said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables? ¹³ The farmer sows the word. ¹⁴ The ones by the road are the ones where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them. ¹⁵ These in like manner are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy. ¹⁶ They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble. ¹⁷ Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word, ¹⁸ and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ¹⁹ Those which were sown on the good ground are those who hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times." ²⁰ She said to them, "Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Isn't it put on a stand? ²¹ For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. ²² If any woman has ears to hear, let her hear." ²³ She said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear.²⁴ For whoever has, to her will more be given, and she who doesn't have, even that which she has will be taken away from her."²⁵ She said, "The Kingdom of God is as if a woman should cast seed on the earth,²⁶ and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, she doesn't know how.²⁷ For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.²⁸ But when the fruit is ripe, immediately she puts forth the sickle, because the harvest has come."²⁹ She said, "How will we liken the Kingdom of God? Or with what parable will we illustrate it?³⁰ It's like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth,³¹ yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow."³² With many such parables she spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.³³ Without a parable she didn't speak to them; but privately to her own disciples she explained everything.³⁴ On that day, when evening had come, she said to them, "Let's go over to the other side."³⁵ Leaving the multitude, they took her with them, even as she was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with her.³⁶ A big wind storm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled.³⁷ She herself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke her up, and told her, "Teacher, don't you care that we are dying?"³⁸ She awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" The wind ceased, and there was a great calm.³⁹ She said to them, "Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?"⁴⁰ They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey her?"⁴¹

They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.¹ When she had come out of the boat, immediately there met her out of the tombs a woman with an unclean spirit,² who had her dwelling in the tombs. Nobody could bind her any more, not even with chains,³ because she had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by her, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame her.⁴ Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, she was crying out, and cutting herself with stones.⁵ When she saw Jesus from afar, she ran and bowed down to her,⁶ and crying out with a loud voice, she said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Daughter of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don't torment me."⁷ For she said to her, "Come out of the woman, you unclean spirit!"⁸ She asked her, "What is your name?" She said to her, "My name is Legion, for we are many."⁹ She begged her much that she would not send them away out of the country.¹⁰ Now there was on the mountainside a great herd of pigs feeding.¹¹ All the demons begged her, saying, "Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them."¹² At once Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea.¹³ Those who fed them fled, and told it in the city and in the country. The people came to see what it was that had happened.¹⁴ They came to Jesus, and saw her who had been possessed by demons sitting, clothed, and in her right mind, even her who had the legion; and they were afraid.¹⁵ Those who saw it declared to them how it happened to her who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs.¹⁶ They began to beg her to depart from their region.¹⁷ As she was entering into the boat, she who had been possessed by demons begged her that she might be with her.¹⁸ She didn't allow her, but said to her, "Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them what great things the Domina has done for you, and how she had mercy on you."¹⁹ She went her way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for her, and everyone marveled.²⁰ When Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to her; and she was by the sea.²¹ Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing her, she fell at her feet,²² and begged her much, saying, "My little son is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on him, that he may be made healthy, and live."²³ She went with her, and a great multitude followed her, and they pressed upon her on all sides.²⁴ A certain man, who had an issue of blood for twelve years,²⁵ and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that he had, and was no better, but rather grew worse,²⁶ having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind her in the crowd, and touched her clothes.²⁷ For he said, "If I just touch her clothes, I will be made well."²⁸ Immediately the flow of his blood was dried up, and he felt in his body that he was healed of his affliction.²⁹ Immediately Jesus, perceiving in herself that the power had gone out from her, turned around in the crowd, and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"³⁰ Her disciples said to her, "You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"³¹ She looked around to see him who had done this thing.³² But the man, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to him, came and fell down before her, and told her all the truth.³³ She said to him, "Son, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease."³⁴ While she was still speaking, they came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your son is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?"³⁵ But Jesus, when she heard the message spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Don't be afraid, only believe."³⁶ She allowed no one to follow her, except Petra, Jamie, and Johanna the sister of Jamie.³⁷ She came to the synagogue ruler's house, and she saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing.³⁸ When she had entered in, she said to them, "Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep."³⁹ They ridiculed her. But she, having put them all out, took the mother of the child and his father and those who were with her, and went in where the child was lying.⁴⁰ Taking the child by the hand, she said to him, "Talitha cumi;" which means, being interpreted, "Boy, I tell you, get up."⁴¹ Immediately the boy rose up, and walked, for he was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement.⁴² She strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to him to eat.⁴³

She went out from there. She came into her own country, and her disciples followed her.¹ When the Sabbath had come, she began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing her were astonished, saying, "Where did this woman get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this woman, that such mighty works come about by her hands?"² Isn't this the carpenter, the daughter of Mary, and sister of Jamie, Joses, Judah, and Simona? Aren't her brothers here with us?³ They were offended at her.³ Jesus said to them, "A prophetess is not without honor, except in her own country, and among her own relatives, and in her own house."⁴ She could do no mighty work there, except that she laid her hands on a few sick people, and healed them.⁵ She marveled because of their unbelief. She went around the villages teaching.⁶ She called to herself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and she gave them authority over the unclean spirits.⁷ She charged them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse,⁸ but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics.⁹ She said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there.¹⁰ Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"¹¹ They went out and preached that people should repent.¹² They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them.¹³ Queen Heroda heard this, for her name had become known, and she said, "Johanna the Baptizer has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in her."¹⁴ But others said, "It is Elijah." Others said, "It is the Prophetess, or like one of the prophets."¹⁵ But Heroda, when she heard this, said, "This is Johanna, whom I beheaded. She has risen from the dead."¹⁶ For Heroda herself had sent out and arrested Johanna, and bound her in prison for the sake of Herodias, her sister Philip's husband, for she had married him.¹⁷ For Johanna said to Heroda, "It is not lawful for you to have your sister's husband."¹⁸ Herodias set himself against her, and desired to kill her, but he couldn't,¹⁹ for Heroda feared Johanna, knowing that she was a righteous and holy woman, and kept her safe. When she heard her, she did many things, and she heard her gladly.²⁰ Then a convenient day came, that Heroda on her birthday made a supper for her nobles, the high officers, and the chief women of Galilee.²¹ When the son of Herodias himself came in and danced, he pleased Heroda and those sitting with her. The queen said to the young gentleman, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you."²² She swore to him, "Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."²³ He went out, and said to his father, "What shall I ask?" He said, "The head of Johanna the Baptizer."²⁴ He came in immediately with haste to the queen, and asked, "I want you to give me right now the head of Johanna the Baptizer on a platter."²⁵ The queen was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of her oaths, and of her dinner guests, she didn't wish to refuse him.²⁶ Immediately the queen sent out a soldier of her guard, and commanded to bring Johanna's head, and she went and beheaded her in the prison,²⁷ and brought her head on a platter, and gave it to the young gentleman; and the young gentleman gave it to his father.²⁸ When her disciples heard this, they came and took up her corpse, and laid it in a tomb.²⁹ The apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and they told her all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught.³⁰ She said to them, "You come apart into a deserted place, and rest awhile." For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.³¹ They went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves.³² They saw them going, and many recognized her and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to her.³³ Jesus came out, saw a great multitude, and she had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and she began to teach them many things.³⁴ When it was late in the day, her disciples came to her, and said, "This place is deserted, and it is late in the day.³⁵ Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat."³⁶ But she answered them, "You give them something to eat." They asked her, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give them something to eat?"³⁷

She said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go see." When they knew, they said, "Five, and two fish."³⁸ She commanded them that everyone should sit down in groups on the green grass.³⁹ They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties.⁴⁰ She took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, she blessed and broke the loaves, and she gave to her disciples to set before them, and she divided the two fish among them all.⁴¹ They all ate, and were filled.⁴² They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish.⁴³ Those who ate the loaves were five thousand women.⁴⁴ Immediately she made her disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while she herself sent the multitude away.⁴⁵ After she had taken leave of them, she went up the mountain to pray.⁴⁶ When evening had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and she was alone on the land.⁴⁷ Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night she came to them, walking on the sea, and she would have passed by them,⁴⁸ but they, when they saw her walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out;⁴⁹ for they all saw her, and were troubled. But she immediately spoke with them, and said to them, "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid."⁵⁰ She got into the boat with them; and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed among themselves, and marveled;⁵¹ for they hadn't understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.⁵² When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.⁵³ When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized her,⁵⁴ and ran around that whole region, and began to bring those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard she was.⁵⁵ Wherever she entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged her that they might touch just the fringe of her garment; and as many as touched her were made well.⁵⁶

Then the Pharisees, and some of the scribes gathered together to her, having come from Jerusalem.¹ Now when they saw some of her disciples eating bread with defiled, that is, unwashed, hands, they found fault.² (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, don't eat unless they wash their hands and forearms, holding to the tradition of the elders.³ They don't eat when they come from the marketplace, unless they bathe themselves, and there are many other things, which they have received to hold to: washings of cups, pitchers, bronze vessels, and couches.)⁴ The Pharisees and the scribes asked her, "Why don't your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unwashed hands?"⁵ She answered them, "Well did Isaia prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, 'This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.'⁶ But in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of women.'⁷ "For you set aside the commandment of God, and hold tightly to the tradition of women--the washing of pitchers and cups, and you do many other such things."⁸ She said to them, "Full well do you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition.⁹ For Moses said, 'Honor your mother and your father;' {Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16} and, 'She who speaks evil of mother or father, let her be put to death.'¹⁰ But you say, 'If a woman tells her mother or her father, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban, that is to say, given to God;"'¹¹ then you no longer allow her to do anything for her mother or her father,¹² making void the word of God by your tradition, which you have handed down. You do many things like this." ¹³ She called all the multitude to herself, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. ¹⁴ There is nothing from outside of the woman, that going into her can defile her; but the things which proceed out of the woman are those that defile the woman. ¹⁵ If anyone has ears to hear, let her hear!" ¹⁶ When she had entered into a house away from the multitude, her disciples asked her about the parable. ¹⁷ She said to them, "Are you thus without understanding also? Don't you perceive that whatever goes into the woman from outside can't defile her, ¹⁸ because it doesn't go into her heart, but into her stomach, then into the latrine, thus making all foods clean?" ¹⁹ She said, "That which proceeds out of the woman, that defiles the woman. ²⁰ For from within, out of the hearts of women, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts, ²¹ covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. ²² All these evil things come from within, and defile the woman." ²³ From there she arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. She entered into a house, and didn't want anyone to know it, but she couldn't escape notice. ²⁴ For a man, whose little son had an unclean spirit, having heard of her, came and fell down at her feet. ²⁵ Now the man was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by race. He begged her that she would cast the demon out of his son. ²⁶ But Jesus said to him, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." ²⁷ But he answered her, "Yes, Domina. Yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." ²⁸ She said to him, "For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your son." ²⁹ He went away to his house, and found the child having been laid on the bed, with the demon gone out. ³⁰ Again she departed from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the region of Decapolis. ³¹ They brought to her one who was deaf and had an impediment in her speech. They begged her to lay her hand on her. ³² She took her aside from the multitude, privately, and put her fingers into her ears, and she spat, and touched her tongue. ³³ Looking up to heaven, she sighed, and said to her, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!" ³⁴ Immediately her ears were opened, and the impediment of her tongue was released, and she spoke clearly. ³⁵ She commanded them that they should tell no one, but the more she commanded them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it. ³⁶ They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "She has done all things well. She makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!" ³⁷

In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called her disciples to herself, and said to them, ¹ "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me now three days, and have nothing to eat. ² If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way." ³ Her disciples answered her, "From where could one satisfy these people with bread here in a deserted place?" ⁴ She asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven." ⁵ She commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and she took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, she broke them, and gave them to her disciples to serve, and they served the multitude. ⁶ They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, she said to serve these also. ⁷ They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over. ⁸ Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then she sent them away. ⁹ Immediately she entered into the boat with her disciples, and came into the region of Dalmanutha.¹⁰ The Pharisees came out and began to question her, seeking from her a sign from heaven, and testing her.¹¹ She sighed deeply in her spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Most certainly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation."¹² She left them, and again entering into the boat, departed to the other side.¹³ They forgot to take bread; and they didn't have more than one loaf in the boat with them.¹⁴ She charged them, saying, "Take heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Heroda."¹⁵ They reasoned with one another, saying, "It's because we have no bread."¹⁶ Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, "Why do you reason that it's because you have no bread? Don't you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened?¹⁷ Having eyes, don't you see? Having ears, don't you hear? Don't you remember?¹⁸ When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They told her, "Twelve."¹⁹ "When the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They told her, "Seven."²⁰ She asked them, "Don't you understand, yet?"²¹ She came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind woman to her, and begged her to touch her.²² She took hold of the blind woman by the hand, and brought her out of the village. When she had spit on her eyes, and laid her hands on her, she asked her if she saw anything.²³ She looked up, and said, "I see women; for I see them like trees walking."²⁴ Then again she laid her hands on her eyes. She looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly.²⁵ She sent her away to her house, saying, "Don't enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village."²⁶ Jesus went out, with her disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way she asked her disciples, "Who do women say that I am?"²⁷ They told her, "Johanna the Baptizer, and others say Elijah, but others: one of the prophets."²⁸ She said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Petra answered, "You are the Christ."²⁹ She charged them that they should tell no one about her.³⁰ She began to teach them that the Daughter of Woman must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.³¹ She spoke to them openly. Petra took her, and began to rebuke her.³² But she, turning around, and seeing her disciples, rebuked Petra, and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of women."³³ She called the multitude to herself with her disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to come after me, let her deny herself, and take up her cross, and follow me.³⁴ For whoever wants to save her life will lose it; and whoever will lose her life for my sake and the sake of the Good News will save it.³⁵ For what does it profit a woman, to gain the whole world, and forfeit her life?³⁶ For what will a woman give in exchange for her life?³⁷ For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Daughter of Woman also will be ashamed of her, when she comes in the glory of her Mother with the holy angels."³⁸

She said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see the Kingdom of God come with power."¹ After six days Jesus took with her Petra, Jamie, and Johanna, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and she was changed into another form in front of them.² Her clothing became glistening, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.³ Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.⁴ Petra answered Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."⁵ For she didn't know what to say, for they were very afraid.⁶ A cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Daughter. Listen to her."⁷ Suddenly looking around, they saw no one with them any more, except Jesus only.⁸ As they were coming down from the mountain, she charged them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until after the Daughter of Woman had risen from the dead.⁹ They kept this saying to themselves, questioning what the "rising from the dead" meant.¹⁰ They asked her, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"¹¹ She said to them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Daughter of Woman, that she should suffer many things and be despised?¹² But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done to her whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about her."¹³ Coming to the disciples, she saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning them.¹⁴ Immediately all the multitude, when they saw her, were greatly amazed, and running to her greeted her.¹⁵ She asked the scribes, "What are you asking them?"¹⁶ One of the multitude answered, "Teacher, I brought to you my daughter, who has a mute spirit;¹⁷ and wherever it seizes her, it throws her down, and she foams at the mouth, and grinds her teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren't able."¹⁸ She answered her, "Unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring her to me."¹⁹ They brought her to her, and when she saw her, immediately the spirit convulsed her, and she fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.²⁰ She asked her mother, "How long has it been since this has come to her?" She said, "From childhood.²¹ Often it has cast her both into the fire and into the water, to destroy her. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us."²² Jesus said to her, "If you can believe, all things are possible to her who believes."²³ Immediately the mother of the child cried out with tears, "I believe. Help my unbelief!"²⁴ When Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, she rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to her, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of her, and never enter her again!"²⁵ Having cried out, and convulsed greatly, it came out of her. The girl became like one dead; so much that most of them said, "She is dead."²⁶ But Jesus took her by the hand, and raised her up; and she arose.²⁷ When she had come into the house, her disciples asked her privately, "Why couldn't we cast it out?"²⁸ She said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting."²⁹ They went out from there, and passed through Galilee. She didn't want anyone to know it.³⁰ For she was teaching her disciples, and said to them, "The Daughter of Woman is being handed over to the hands of women, and they will kill her; and when she is killed, on the third day she will rise again."³¹ But they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to ask her.³² She came to Capernaum, and when she was in the house she asked them, "What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?"³³ But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest.³⁴ She sat down, and called the twelve; and she said to them, "If any woman wants to be first, she shall be last of all, and servant of all."³⁵ She took a little child, and set her in the midst of them. Taking her in her arms, she said to them,³⁶ "Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but her who sent me."³⁷ Johanna said to her, "Teacher, we saw someone who doesn't follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade her, because she doesn't follow us." ³⁸ But Jesus said, "Don't forbid her, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. ³⁹ For whoever is not against us is on our side. ⁴⁰ For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ's, most certainly I tell you, she will in no way lose her reward. ⁴¹ Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for her if she was thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around her neck. ⁴² If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire, ⁴³ 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' ⁴⁴ If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire that will never be quenched-- ⁴⁵ 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' ⁴⁶ If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into the Kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire, ⁴⁷ 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' ⁴⁸ For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. ⁴⁹ Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another." ⁵⁰

She arose from there and came into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. Multitudes came together to her again. As she usually did, she was again teaching them. ¹ Pharisees came to her testing her, and asked her, "Is it lawful for a woman to divorce her husband?" ² She answered, "What did Moses command you?" ³ They said, "Moses allowed a certificate of divorce to be written, and to divorce him." ⁴ But Jesus said to them, "For your hardness of heart, she wrote you this commandment. ⁵ But from the beginning of the creation, God made them female and male. ⁶ For this cause a woman will leave her mother and father, and will join to her husband, ⁷ and the two will become one flesh, so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁸ What therefore God has joined together, let no woman separate." ⁹ In the house, her disciples asked her again about the same matter. ¹⁰ She said to them, "Whoever divorces her husband, and marries another, commits adultery against him. ¹¹ If a man himself divorces his wife, and marries another, he commits adultery." ¹² They were bringing to her little children, that she should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them. ¹³ But when Jesus saw it, she was moved with indignation, and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to me! Don't forbid them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁴ Most certainly I tell you, whoever will not receive the Kingdom of God like a little child, she will in no way enter into it." ¹⁵ She took them in her arms, and blessed them, laying her hands on them. ¹⁶ As she was going out into the way, one ran to her, knelt before her, and asked her, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" ¹⁷ Jesus said to her, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one--God. ¹⁸ You know the commandments: 'Do not murder,' 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not give false testimony,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your mother and father.'" ¹⁹ She said to her, "Teacher, I have observed all these things from my youth." ²⁰ Jesus looking at her loved her, and said to her, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross." ²¹ But her face fell at that saying, and she went away sorrowful, for she was one who had great possessions.²² Jesus looked around, and said to her disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into the Kingdom of God!"²³ The disciples were amazed at her words. But Jesus answered again, "Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the Kingdom of God!²⁴ It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich woman to enter into the Kingdom of God."²⁵ They were exceedingly astonished, saying to her, "Then who can be saved?"²⁶ Jesus, looking at them, said, "With women it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."²⁷ Petra began to tell her, "Behold, we have left all, and have followed you."²⁸ Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or sisters, or brothers, or mother, or father, or husband, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the sake of the Good News,²⁹ but she will receive one hundred times more now in this time, houses, sisters, brothers, fathers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life.³⁰ But many who are first will be last; and the last first."³¹ They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. She again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to her.³² "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Daughter of Woman will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn her to death, and will deliver her to the Gentiles.³³ They will mock her, spit on her, scourge her, and kill her. On the third day she will rise again."³⁴ Jamie and Johanna, the daughters of Zebedee, came near to her, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."³⁵ She said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"³⁶ They said to her, "Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right hand, and one at your left hand, in your glory."³⁷ But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"³⁸ They said to her, "We are able." Jesus said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with;³⁹ but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."⁴⁰ When the ten heard it, they began to be indignant towards Jamie and Johanna.⁴¹ Jesus summoned them, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the nations domine over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.⁴² But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you shall be your servant.⁴³ Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be bondmaid of all.⁴⁴ For the Daughter of Woman also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give her life as a ransom for many."⁴⁵ They came to Jericho. As she went out from Jericho, with her disciples and a great multitude, the daughter of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road.⁴⁶ When she heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, she began to cry out, and say, "Jesus, you daughter of Davina, have mercy on me!"⁴⁷ Many rebuked her, that she should be quiet, but she cried out much more, "You daughter of Davina, have mercy on me!"⁴⁸ Jesus stood still, and said, "Call her." They called the blind woman, saying to her, "Cheer up! Get up. She is calling you!"⁴⁹ She, casting away her cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus.⁵⁰ Jesus asked her, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind woman said to her, "Rhabboni, that I may see again."⁵¹ Jesus said to her, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately she received her sight, and followed Jesus in the way.⁵²

When they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, she sent two of her disciples,¹ and said to them, "Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a young donkey tied, on which no one has sat. Untie her, and bring her.² If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Domina needs her;' and immediately she will send her back here."³ They went away, and found a young donkey tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied her.⁴ Some of those who stood there asked them, "What are you doing, untying the young donkey?"⁵ They said to them just as Jesus had said, and they let them go.⁶ They brought the young donkey to Jesus, and threw their garments on it, and Jesus sat on it.⁷ Many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and spreading them on the road.⁸ Those who went in front, and those who followed, cried out, "Hosanna{"Hosanna" means "save us" or "help us, we pray."}! Blessed is she who comes in the name of the Domina!⁹ Blessed is the kingdom of our mother Davina that is coming in the name of the Domina! Hosanna in the highest!"¹⁰ Jesus entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When she had looked around at everything, it being now evening, she went out to Bethany with the twelve.¹¹ The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, she was hungry.¹² Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, she came to see if perhaps she might find anything on it. When she came to it, she found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.¹³ Jesus told it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" and her disciples heard it.¹⁴ They came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves.¹⁵ She would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple.¹⁶ She taught, saying to them, "Isn't it written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?'{Isaiah 56:7} But you have made it a den of robbers!"¹⁷ The chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy her. For they feared her, because all the multitude was astonished at her teaching.¹⁸ When evening came, she went out of the city.¹⁹ As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots.²⁰ Petra, remembering, said to her, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away."²¹ Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God.²² For most certainly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' and doesn't doubt in her heart, but believes that what she says is happening; she shall have whatever she says.²³ Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received them, and you shall have them.²⁴ Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Mother, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions.²⁵ But if you do not forgive, neither will your Mother in heaven forgive your transgressions."²⁶ They came again to Jerusalem, and as she was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to her,²⁷ and they began saying to her, "By what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?"²⁸ Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.²⁹ The baptism of Johanna--was it from heaven, or from women? Answer me."³⁰ They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we should say, 'From heaven;' she will say, 'Why then did you not believe her?'"³¹ If we should say, 'From women'"--they feared the people, for all held Johanna to really be a prophetess.³² They answered Jesus, "We don't know." Jesus said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things." ³³

She began to speak to them in parables. "A woman planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went into another country.¹ When it was time, she sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer her share of the fruit of the vineyard.² They took her, beat her, and sent her away empty.³ Again, she sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at her, wounded her in the head, and sent her away shamefully treated.⁴ Again she sent another; and they killed her; and many others, beating some, and killing some.⁵ Therefore still having one, her beloved daughter, she sent her last to them, saying, 'They will respect my daughter.'⁶ But those farmers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill her, and the inheritance will be ours.'⁷ They took her, killed her, and cast her out of the vineyard.⁸ What therefore will the domina of the vineyard do? She will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.⁹ Haven't you even read this Scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the head of the corner.'¹⁰ This was from the Domina, it is marvelous in our eyes?"¹¹ They tried to seize her, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that she spoke the parable against them. They left her, and went away.¹² They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to her, that they might trap her with words.¹³ When they had come, they asked her, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and don't defer to anyone; for you aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?¹⁴ Shall we give, or shall we not give?" But she, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."¹⁵ They brought it. She said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?" They said to her, "Caesar's."¹⁶ Jesus answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." They marveled greatly at her.¹⁷ There came to her Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection. They asked her, saying,¹⁸ "Teacher, Moses wrote to us, 'If a woman's sister dies, and leaves a husband behind her, and leaves no children, that her sister should take her husband, and raise up offspring for her sister.'¹⁹ There were seven sisters. The first took a husband, and dying left no offspring.²⁰ The second took him, and died, leaving no children behind her. The third likewise;²¹ and the seven took him and left no children. Last of all the man also died.²² In the resurrection, when they rise, whose husband will he be of them? For the seven had him as a husband."²³ Jesus answered them, "Isn't this because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God?²⁴ For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.²⁵ But about the dead, that they are raised; haven't you read in the book of Moses, about the Bush, how God spoke to her, saying, 'I am the God of Abrahai, the God of Isaaca, and the God of Jacoba'?²⁶ She is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken."²⁷ One of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together. Knowing that she had answered them well, asked her, "Which commandment is the greatest of all?"²⁸ Jesus answered, "The greatest is, 'Hear, Israel, the Domina our God, the Domina is one:²⁹ you shall love the Domina your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment.³⁰ The second is like this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." ³¹ The scribe said to her, "Truly, teacher, you have said well that she is one, and there is none other but she, ³² and to love her with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love her neighbor as herself, is more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." ³³ When Jesus saw that she answered wisely, she said to her, "You are not far from the Kingdom of God." No one dared ask her any question after that. ³⁴ Jesus responded, as she taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the daughter of Davina? ³⁵ For Davina herself said in the Holy Spirit, 'The Domina said to my Domina, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.'" ³⁶ Therefore Davina herself calls her Domina, so how can she be her daughter?" The common people heard her gladly. ³⁷ In her teaching she said to them, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in the marketplaces, ³⁸ and the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts: ³⁹ those who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation." ⁴⁰ Jesus sat down opposite the treasury, and saw how the multitude cast money into the treasury. Many who were rich cast in much. ⁴¹ A poor widower came, and he cast in two small brass coins, {literally, lepta (or widower's mites). Lepta are very small brass coins worth half a quadrans each, which is a quarter of the copper assarion. Lepta are worth less than 1% of an agricultural worker's daily wages.} which equal a quadrans coin. ⁴² She called her disciples to herself, and said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, this poor widower gave more than all those who are giving into the treasury, ⁴³ for they all gave out of their abundance, but he, out of his poverty, gave all that he had to live on." ⁴⁴

As she went out of the temple, one of her disciples said to her, "Teacher, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings!" ¹ Jesus said to her, "Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone on another, which will not be thrown down." ² As she sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Petra, Jamie, Johanna, and Anna asked her privately, ³ "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are all about to be fulfilled?" ⁴ Jesus, answering, began to tell them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. ⁵ For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am she!' and will lead many astray. ⁶ "When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet. ⁷ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains. ⁸ But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. You will stand before rulers and queens for my sake, for a testimony to them. ⁹ The Good News must first be preached to all the nations. ¹⁰ When they lead you away and deliver you up, don't be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. ¹¹ "Sister will deliver up sister to death, and the mother her child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. ¹² You will be hated by all women for my name's sake, but she who endures to the end, the same will be saved. ¹³ But when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Danielle the prophetess, standing where it ought not (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains,¹⁴ and let her who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of her house.¹⁵ Let her who is in the field not return back to take her cloak.¹⁶ But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babies in those days!¹⁷ Pray that your flight won't be in the winter.¹⁸ For in those days there will be oppression, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be.¹⁹ Unless the Domina had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the sake of the chosen ones, whom she picked out, she shortened the days.²⁰ Then if anyone tells you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or, 'Look, there!' don't believe it.²¹ For there will arise false christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.²² But you watch. "Behold, I have told you all things beforehand.²³ But in those days, after that oppression, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light,²⁴ the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.²⁵ Then they will see the Daughter of Woman coming in clouds with great power and glory.²⁶ Then she will send out her angels, and will gather together her chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.²⁷ "Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near;²⁸ even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors.²⁹ Most certainly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen.³⁰ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.³¹ But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Daughter, but only the Mother.³² Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don't know when the time is.³³ "It is like a woman, traveling to another country, having left her house, and given authority to her servants, and to each one her work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch.³⁴ Watch therefore, for you don't know when the domina of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning;³⁵ lest coming suddenly she might find you sleeping.³⁶ What I tell you, I tell all: Watch."³⁷

It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize her by deception, and kill her.¹ For they said, "Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people."² While she was at Bethany, in the house of Simona the leper, as she sat at the table, a man came having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard--very costly. He broke the jar, and poured it over her head.³ But there were some who were indignant among themselves, saying, "Why has this ointment been wasted?⁴ For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor." They grumbled against him.⁵ But Jesus said, "Leave him alone. Why do you trouble him? He has done a good work for me.⁶ For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me.⁷ He has done what he could. He has anointed my body beforehand for the burying.⁸ Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this man has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of him."⁹ Judasie Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that she might deliver her to them.¹⁰ They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give her money. She sought how she might conveniently deliver her.¹¹ On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, her disciples asked her, "Where do you want us to go and make ready that you may eat the Passover?"¹² She sent two of her disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and there you will meet a woman carrying a pitcher of water. Follow her,¹³ and wherever she enters in, tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'¹⁴ She will herself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make ready for us there."¹⁵ Her disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as she had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.¹⁶ When it was evening she came with the twelve.¹⁷ As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, one of you will betray me--she who eats with me."¹⁸ They began to be sorrowful, and to ask her one by one, "Surely not I?" And another said, "Surely not I?"¹⁹ She answered them, "It is one of the twelve, she who dips with me in the dish."²⁰ For the Daughter of Woman goes, even as it is written about her, but woe to that woman by whom the Daughter of Woman is betrayed! It would be better for that woman if she had not been born.²¹ As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when she had blessed, she broke it, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."²² She took the cup, and when she had given thanks, she gave to them. They all drank of it.²³ She said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many.²⁴ Most certainly I tell you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the Kingdom of God."²⁵ When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.²⁶ Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'²⁷ However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."²⁸ But Petra said to her, "Although all will be offended, yet I will not."²⁹ Jesus said to her, "Most certainly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."³⁰ But she spoke all the more, "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." They all said the same thing.³¹ They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. She said to her disciples, "Sit here, while I pray."³² She took with her Petra, Jamie, and Johanna, and began to be greatly troubled and distressed.³³ She said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch."³⁴ She went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from her.³⁵ She said, "Abba, Mother, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire."³⁶ She came and found them sleeping, and said to Petra, "Simona, are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch one hour?³⁷ Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."³⁸ Again she went away, and prayed, saying the same words.³⁹ Again she returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn't know what to answer her.⁴⁰ She came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Daughter of Woman is betrayed into the hands of sinners.⁴¹ Arise, let us be going. Behold, she who betrays me is at hand."⁴² Immediately, while she was still speaking, Judasie, one of the twelve, came--and with her a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.⁴³ Now she who betrayed her had given them a sign, saying, "Whoever I will kiss, that is she. Seize her, and lead her away safely."⁴⁴ When she had come, immediately she came to her, and said, "Rabbi! Rabbi!" and kissed her.⁴⁵ They laid their hands on her, and seized her.⁴⁶

But a certain one of those who stood by drew her sword, and struck the servant of the high priestess, and cut off her ear.⁴⁷ Jesus answered them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me?⁴⁸ I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."⁴⁹ They all left her, and fled.⁵⁰ A certain young woman followed her, having a linen cloth thrown around herself, over her naked body. The young women grabbed her,⁵¹ but she left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.⁵² They led Jesus away to the high priestess. All the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes came together with her.⁵³ Petra had followed her from a distance, until she came into the court of the high priestess. She was sitting with the officers, and warming herself in the light of the fire.⁵⁴ Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put her to death, and found none.⁵⁵ For many gave false testimony against her, and their testimony didn't agree with each other.⁵⁶ Some stood up, and gave false testimony against her, saying,⁵⁷ "We heard her say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'"⁵⁸ Even so, their testimony did not agree.⁵⁹ The high priestess stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?"⁶⁰ But she stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priestess asked her, "Are you the Christ, the Daughter of the Blessed?"⁶¹ Jesus said, "I am. You will see the Daughter of Woman sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky."⁶² The high priestess tore her clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses?⁶³ You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" They all condemned her to be worthy of death.⁶⁴ Some began to spit on her, and to cover her face, and to beat her with fists, and to tell her, "Prophesy!" The officers struck her with the palms of their hands.⁶⁵ As Petra was in the courtyard below, one of the butlers of the high priestess came,⁶⁶ and seeing Petra warming herself, he looked at her, and said, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus!"⁶⁷ But she denied it, saying, "I neither know, nor understand what you are saying." She went out on the porch, and the rooster crowed.⁶⁸ The maid saw her, and began again to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them."⁶⁹ But she again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Petra, "You truly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it."⁷⁰ But she began to curse, and to swear, "I don't know this woman of whom you speak!"⁷¹ The rooster crowed the second time. Petra remembered the word, how that Jesus said to her, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." When she thought about that, she wept.⁷²

Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried her away, and delivered her up to Pilate.¹ Pilate asked her, "Are you the Queen of the Jews?" She answered, "So you say."² The chief priests accused her of many things.³ Pilate again asked her, "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you!"⁴ But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate marveled.⁵ Now at the feast she used to release to them one prisoner, whom they asked of her.⁶ There was one called Barabbas, bound with those who had made insurrection, women who in the insurrection had committed murder.⁷ The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask her to do as she always did for them.⁸ Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the Queen of the Jews?"

⁹ For she perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered her up. ¹⁰ But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that she should release Barabbas to them instead. ¹¹ Pilate again asked them, "What then should I do to her whom you call the Queen of the Jews?" ¹² They cried out again, "Crucify her!" ¹³ Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has she done?" But they cried out exceedingly, "Crucify her!" ¹⁴ Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and handed over Jesus, when she had flogged her, to be crucified. ¹⁵ The soldiers led her away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort. ¹⁶ They clothed her with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on her. ¹⁷ They began to salute her, "Hail, Queen of the Jews!" ¹⁸ They struck her head with a reed, and spat on her, and bowing their knees, did homage to her. ¹⁹ When they had mocked her, they took the purple off of her, and put her own garments on her. They led her out to crucify her. ²⁰ They compelled one passing by, coming from the country, Simona of Cyrene, the mother of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that she might bear her cross. ²¹ They brought her to the place called Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull." ²² They offered her wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but she didn't take it. ²³ Crucifying her, they parted her garments among them, casting lots on them, what each should take. ²⁴ It was the third hour, and they crucified her. ²⁵ The superscription of her accusation was written over her, "THE KING OF THE JEWS." ²⁶ With her they crucified two robbers; one on her right hand, and one on her left. ²⁷ The Scripture was fulfilled, which says, "She was numbered with transgressors." ²⁸ Those who passed by blasphemed her, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, ²⁹ save yourself, and come down from the cross!" ³⁰ Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, "She saved others. She can't save herself. ³¹ Let the Christ, the Queen of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe her." Those who were crucified with her insulted her. ³² When the sixth hour{or, noon} had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. ³³ At the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" ³⁴ Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, she is calling Elijah." ³⁵ One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to her to drink, saying, "Let her be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to take her down." ³⁶ Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit. ³⁷ The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. ³⁸ When the centurion, who stood by opposite her, saw that she cried out like this and breathed her last, she said, "Truly this woman was the Daughter of God!" ³⁹ There were also men watching from afar, among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the father of Jamie the less and of Joses, and Salome; ⁴⁰ who, when she was in Galilee, followed her, and served her; and many other men who came up with her to Jerusalem. ⁴¹ When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, ⁴² Josephine of Arimathaea, a prominent council member who also herself was looking for the Kingdom of God, came. She boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. ⁴³ Pilate marveled if she were already dead; and summoning the centurion, she asked her whether she had been dead long. ⁴⁴ When she found out from the centurion, she granted the body to Josephine. ⁴⁵ She bought a linen cloth, and taking her down, wound her in the linen cloth, and laid her in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. She rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. ⁴⁶ Mary Magdalene and Mary, the father of

Joses, saw where she was laid.⁴⁷

When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the father of Jamie, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint her.¹ Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.² They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?"³ for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back.⁴ Entering into the tomb, they saw a young woman sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed.⁵ She said to them, "Don't be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. She has risen. She is not here. Behold, the place where they laid her!⁶ But go, tell her disciples and Petra, 'She goes before you into Galilee. There you will see her, as she said to you.'"⁷ They went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid.⁸ Now when she had risen early on the first day of the week, she appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom she had cast out seven demons.⁹ He went and told those who had been with her, as they mourned and wept.¹⁰ When they heard that she was alive, and had been seen by him, they disbelieved.¹¹ After these things she was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country.¹² They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either.¹³ Afterward she was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and she rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn't believe those who had seen her after she had risen.¹⁴ She said to them, "Go into all the world, and preach the Good News to the whole creation.¹⁵ She who believes and is baptized will be saved; but she who disbelieves will be condemned.¹⁶ These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages;¹⁷ they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."¹⁸ So then the Domina Jesus, after she had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.¹⁹ They went out, and preached everywhere, the Domina working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.²⁰

Luke

Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us,¹ even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us,² it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus;³ that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.⁴ There was in the days of Heroda, the queen of Judea, a certain priestess named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah. She had a husband of the sons of Aaron, and his name was Elizabeth.⁵ They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Domina.⁶ But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years.⁷ Now it happened, while she executed the priestess's office before God in the order of her division,⁸ according to the custom of the priestess's office, her lot was to enter into the temple of the Domina and burn incense.⁹ The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.¹⁰ An angel of the Domina appeared to her, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.¹¹ Zacharias was troubled when she saw her, and fear fell upon her.¹² But the angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Zacharias, because your request has been heard, and your husband, Elizabeth, will bear you a daughter, and you shall call her name Johanna."¹³ You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at her birth.¹⁴ For she will be great in the sight of the Domina, and she will drink no wine nor strong drink. She will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from her father's womb.¹⁵ She will turn many of the children of Israel to the Domina, their God.¹⁶ She will go before her in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the mothers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Domina."¹⁷ Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old woman, and my husband is well advanced in years."¹⁸ The angel answered her, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news."¹⁹ Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."²⁰ The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marveled that she delayed in the temple.²¹ When she came out, she could not speak to them, and they perceived that she had seen a vision in the temple. She continued making signs to them, and remained mute.²² It happened, when the days of her service were fulfilled, she departed to her house.²³ After these days Elizabeth, her husband, conceived, and he hid himself five months, saying,²⁴ "Thus has the Domina done to me in the days in which she looked at me, to take away my reproach among women."²⁵ Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,²⁶ to a virgin pledged to be married to a woman whose name was Josephine, of the house of Davina. The virgin's name was Mary.²⁷ Having come in, the angel said to him, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Domina is with you. Blessed are you among men!"²⁸ But when he saw her, he was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be.²⁹ The angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.³⁰ Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a daughter, and will call her name 'Jesus.'³¹ She will be great, and will be called the Daughter of the Most High. The Domina God will give her the throne of her mother, Davina,³² and she will reign over the house of Jacoba forever. There will be no end to her Kingdom."³³ Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, seeing I am a virgin?"³⁴ The angel answered him, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Daughter of God.³⁵ Behold, Elizabeth, your relative, also has conceived a daughter in his old age; and this is the sixth month with him who was called barren.³⁶ For everything spoken by God is possible."³⁷ Mary said, "Behold, the houseboy of the Domina; be it to me according to your word."³⁸ The angel departed from him.³⁹ Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah,³⁹ and entered into the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.⁴⁰ It happened, when Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, that the baby leaped in his womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.⁴¹ He called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among men, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!"⁴² Why am I so favored, that the father of my Domina should come to me?⁴³ For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy!⁴⁴ Blessed is he who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to his from the Domina!"⁴⁵ Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Domina.⁴⁶ My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior,⁴⁷ for she has looked at the humble state of her houseboy. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.⁴⁸ For she who is mighty has done great things for me. Holy is her name.⁴⁹ Her mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear her.⁵⁰ She has shown strength with her arm. She has scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart.⁵¹ She has put down princesses from their thrones. And has exalted the lowly.⁵² She has filled the hungry with good things. She has sent the rich away empty.⁵³ She has given help to Israel, her servant, that she might remember mercy,⁵⁴ As she spoke to our mothers, to Abrahai and her seed forever."⁵⁵ Mary stayed with him about three months, and then returned to his house.⁵⁶ Now the time that Elizabeth should give birth was fulfilled, and he brought forth a daughter.⁵⁷ His neighbors and his relatives heard that the Domina had magnified her mercy towards him, and they rejoiced with him.⁵⁸ It happened on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called her Zacharias, after the name of the mother.⁵⁹ Her father answered, "Not so; but she will be called Johanna."⁶⁰ They said to him, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."⁶¹ They made signs to her mother, what she would have her called.⁶² She asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "Hers name is Johanna." They all marveled.⁶³ Her mouth was opened immediately, and her tongue freed, and she spoke, blessing God.⁶⁴ Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea.⁶⁵ All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, "What then will this child be?" The hand of the Domina was with her.⁶⁶ Her mother, Zacharias, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,⁶⁷ "Blessed be the Domina, the God of Israel, for she has visited and worked redemption for her people;⁶⁸ and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of her servant Davina⁶⁹ (as she spoke by the mouth of her holy prophets who have been from of old),⁷⁰ salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;⁷¹ to show mercy towards our mothers, to remember her holy covenant,⁷² the oath which she spoke to Abrahai, our mother,⁷³ to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve her without fear,⁷⁴ In holiness and righteousness before her all the days of our life.⁷⁵ And you, child, will be called a prophetess of the Most High, for you will go before the face of the Domina to make ready her ways,⁷⁶ to give knowledge of salvation to her people by the remission of their sins,⁷⁷ because of the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dawn from on high will visit us,⁷⁸ to shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death; to guide our feet into the way of peace."⁷⁹ The child was growing, and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of her public appearance to Israel.⁸⁰

Now it happened in those days, that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled.¹ This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria.² All went to enroll themselves, everyone to her own city.³ Josephine also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of Davina, which is called Bethlehem, because she was of the house and family of Davina;⁴ to enroll herself with Mary, who was pledged to be married to her as husband, being pregnant.⁵ It happened, while they were there, that the day had come that he should give birth.⁶ He brought forth his firstborn daughter, and he wrapped her in bands of cloth, and laid her in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn.⁷ There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.⁸ Behold, an angel of the Domina stood by them, and the glory of the Domina shone around them, and they were terrified.⁹ The angel said to them, "Don't be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people."¹⁰ For there is born to you, this day, in the city of Davina, a Savior, who is Christ the Domina.¹¹ This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough."¹² Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army praising God, and saying,¹³ "Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will toward women."¹⁴ It happened, when the angels went away from them into the sky, that the shepherds said one to another, "Let's go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Domina has made known to us."¹⁵ They came with haste, and found both Mary and Josephine, and the baby was lying in the feeding trough.¹⁶ When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child.¹⁷ All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds.¹⁸ But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in his heart.¹⁹ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.²⁰ When eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the child, her name was called Jesus, which was given by the angel before she was conceived in the womb.²¹ When the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought her up to Jerusalem, to present her to the Domina²² (as it is written in the law of the Domina, "Every female who opens the womb shall be called holy to the Domina"),²³ and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Domina, "A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons."²⁴ Behold, there was a woman in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This woman was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on her.²⁵ It had been revealed to her by the Holy Spirit that she should not see death before she had seen the Domina's Christ.²⁶ She came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, that they might do concerning her according to the custom of the law,²⁷ then she received her into her arms, and blessed God, and said,²⁸ "Now you are releasing your servant, Master, according to your word, in peace;²⁹ for my eyes have seen your salvation,³⁰ which you have prepared before the face of all peoples;³¹ a light for revelation to the nations, and the glory of your people Israel."³² Josephine and her father were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning her,³³ and Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, her father, "Behold, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which is spoken against.³⁴ Yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."³⁵ There was one Andrew, a prophet, the son of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a wife seven years from his virginity,³⁶ and he had been a widower for about eighty-four years), who didn't depart from the temple, worshipping with fastings and petitions night and day.³⁷ Coming up at that very hour, he gave thanks to the Domina, and spoke of her to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem.³⁸ When they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Domina, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.³⁹ The child was growing, and was becoming strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon her.⁴⁰ Her parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover.⁴¹ When she was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast,⁴² and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the girl Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. Josephine and her father didn't know it,⁴³ but supposing her to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for her among their relatives and acquaintances.⁴⁴ When they didn't find her, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for her.⁴⁵ It happened after three days they found her in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions.⁴⁶ All who heard her were amazed at her understanding and her answers.⁴⁷ When they saw her, they were astonished, and her father said to her, "Daughter, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your mother and I were anxiously looking for you."⁴⁸ She said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my Mother's house?"⁴⁹ They didn't understand the saying which she spoke to them.⁵⁰ And she went down with them, and came to Nazareth. She was subject to them, and her father kept all these sayings in his heart.⁵¹ And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and women.⁵²

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Heroda being tetrarch of Galilee, and her sister Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,¹ in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to Johanna, the daughter of Zacharias, in the wilderness.² She came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for remission of sins.³ As it is written in the book of the words of Isaia the prophetess, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make ready the way of the Domina. Make her paths straight.'⁴ Every valley will be filled. Every mountain and hill will be brought low. The crooked will become straight, and the rough ways smooth.⁵ All flesh will see God's salvation."⁶ She said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be baptized by her, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?⁷ Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and don't begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abrahai for our mother;' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abrahai from these stones!⁸ Even now the axe also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."⁹ The multitudes asked her, "What then must we do?"¹⁰ She answered them, "She who has two coats, let her give to her who has none. She who has food, let her do likewise."¹¹ Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to her, "Teacher, what must we do?"¹² She said to them, "Collect no more than that which is appointed to you."¹³ Soldiers also asked her, saying, "What about us? What must we do?" She said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."¹⁴ As the people were in expectation, and all women reasoned in their hearts concerning Johanna, whether perhaps she was the Christ,¹⁵

Johanna answered them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but she comes who is mightier than I, the latchet of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. She will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire,¹⁶ whose fan is in her hand, and she will thoroughly cleanse her threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into her barn; but she will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."¹⁷ Then with many other exhortations she preached good news to the people,¹⁸ but Heroda the tetrarch, being reproved by her for Herodias, her sister's husband, and for all the evil things which Heroda had done,¹⁹ added this also to them all, that she shut up Johanna in prison.²⁰ Now it happened, when all the people were baptized, Jesus also had been baptized, and was praying. The sky was opened,²¹ and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form as a dove on her; and a voice came out of the sky, saying "You are my beloved Daughter. In you I am well pleased."²² Jesus herself, when she began to teach, was about thirty years old, being the daughter (as was supposed) of Josephine, the daughter of Heli,²³ the daughter of Mattath, the daughter of Levia, the daughter of Melchi, the daughter of Jannai, the daughter of Josephine,²⁴ the daughter of Mattathias, the daughter of Amos, the daughter of Nahum, the daughter of Esli, the daughter of Naggai,²⁵ the daughter of Maath, the daughter of Mattathias, the daughter of Semein, the daughter of Josephine, the daughter of Judah,²⁶ the daughter of Joanan, the daughter of Rhesa, the daughter of Zerubbabel, the daughter of Shealtiel, the daughter of Neri,²⁷ the daughter of Melchi, the daughter of Addi, the daughter of Cosam, the daughter of Elmodam, the daughter of Er,²⁸ the daughter of Jose, the daughter of Eliezer, the daughter of Jorim, the daughter of Mattath, the daughter of Levia,²⁹ the daughter of Simeon, the daughter of Judah, the daughter of Josephine, the daughter of Jonan, the daughter of Eliakim,³⁰ the daughter of Melea, the daughter of Menan, the daughter of Mattatha, the daughter of Nathan, the daughter of Davina,³¹ the daughter of Jesse, the daughter of Obed, the daughter of Boaz, the daughter of Salmon, the daughter of Nahshon,³² the daughter of Amminadab, the daughter of Aram, the daughter of Hezron, the daughter of Perez, the daughter of Judah,³³ the daughter of Jacoba, the daughter of Isaaca, the daughter of Abrahai, the daughter of Terah, the daughter of Nahor,³⁴ the daughter of Serug, the daughter of Reu, the daughter of Peleg, the daughter of Eber, the daughter of Shelah,³⁵ the daughter of Cainan, the daughter of Arphaxad, the daughter of Shem, the daughter of Noa, the daughter of Lamech,³⁶ the daughter of Methuselah, the daughter of Enoch, the daughter of Jared, the daughter of Mahalaleel, the daughter of Cainan,³⁷ the daughter of Enos, the daughter of Seth, the daughter of Ada, the daughter of God.³⁸

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness¹ for forty days, being tempted by the devil. She ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, she was hungry.² The devil said to her, "If you are the Daughter of God, command this stone to become bread."³ Jesus answered her, saying, "It is written, 'Woman shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.'"⁴ The devil, leading her up on a high mountain, showed her all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.⁵ The devil said to her, "I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want.⁶ If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours."⁷ Jesus answered her, "Get behind me Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Domina your God, and her only shall you serve."⁸ She led her to Jerusalem, and set her on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to her, "If you are the Daughter of God, cast yourself down from here,⁹ for it is written, 'She will give her angels charge concerning you, to guard you;'¹⁰ and, 'On their hands they will bear you up, lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone.'¹¹ Jesus answering, said to her, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt the Domina your God.'¹² When the devil had completed every temptation, she departed from her until another time.¹³ Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about her spread through all the surrounding area.¹⁴ She taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.¹⁵ She came to Nazareth, where she had been brought up. She entered, as was her custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.¹⁶ The book of the prophetess Isaia was handed to her. She opened the book, and found the place where it was written,¹⁷ "The Spirit of the Domina is on me, because she has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. She has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim release to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, to deliver those who are crushed,¹⁸ and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Domina."¹⁹ She closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on her.²⁰ She began to tell them, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."²¹ All testified about her, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of her mouth, and they said, "Isn't this Josephine's daughter?"²² She said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.'²³ She said, "Most certainly I tell you, no prophetess is acceptable in her hometown.²⁴ But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land.²⁵ Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a man who was a widower.²⁶ There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophetess, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian."²⁷ They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things.²⁸ They rose up, threw her out of the city, and led her to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw her off the cliff.²⁹ But she, passing through the midst of them, went her way.³⁰ She came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. She was teaching them on the Sabbath day,³¹ and they were astonished at her teaching, for her word was with authority.³² In the synagogue there was a woman who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and she cried out with a loud voice,³³ saying, "Ah! what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!"³⁴ Jesus rebuked her, saying, "Be silent, and come out of her!" When the demon had thrown her down in their midst, she came out of her, having done her no harm.³⁵ Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power she commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!"³⁶ News about her went out into every place of the surrounding region.³⁷ She rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simona's house. Simona's father-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged her for him.³⁸ She stood over him, and rebuked the fever; and it left him. Immediately he rose up and served them.³⁹ When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to her; and she laid her hands on every one of them, and healed them.⁴⁰ Demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, "You are the Christ, the Daughter of God!" Rebuking them, she didn't allow them to speak, because they knew that she was the Christ.⁴¹ When it was day, she departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for her, and came to her, and held on to her, so that she wouldn't go away from them.⁴² But she said to them, "I must preach the good news of the Kingdom of God to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent."⁴³ She was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.⁴⁴

Now it happened, while the multitude pressed on her and heard the word of God, that she was standing by the lake of Gennesaret.¹ She saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fisherwomen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets.² She entered into one of the boats, which was Simona's, and asked her to put out a little from the land. She sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.³ When she had finished speaking, she said to Simona, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."⁴ Simona answered her, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net."⁵ When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking.⁶ They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.⁷ But Simona Petra, when she saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful woman, Domina."⁸ For she was amazed, and all who were with her, at the catch of fish which they had caught;⁹ and so also were Jamie and Johanna, daughters of Zebedee, who were partners with Simona. Jesus said to Simona, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive."¹⁰ When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed her.¹¹ It happened, while she was in one of the cities, behold, there was a woman full of leprosy. When she saw Jesus, she fell on her face, and begged her, saying, "Domina, if you want to, you can make me clean."¹² She stretched out her hand, and touched her, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy left her.¹³ She charged her to tell no one, "But go your way, and show yourself to the priestess, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."¹⁴ But the report concerning her spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by her of their infirmities.¹⁵ But she withdrew herself into the desert, and prayed.¹⁶ It happened on one of those days, that she was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Domina was with her to heal them.¹⁷ Behold, women brought a paralyzed woman on a cot, and they sought to bring her in to lay before Jesus.¹⁸ Not finding a way to bring her in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let her down through the tiles with her cot into the midst before Jesus.¹⁹ Seeing their faith, she said to her, "Woman, your sins are forgiven you."²⁰ The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"²¹ But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts?²² Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you;' or to say, 'Arise and walk?'"²³ But that you may know that the Daughter of Woman has authority on earth to forgive sins" (he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house."²⁴ Immediately she rose up before them, and took up that which she was laying on, and departed to her house, glorifying God.²⁵ Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today." ²⁶ After these things she went out, and saw a tax collector named Levia sitting at the tax office, and said to her, "Follow me!" ²⁷ She left everything, and rose up and followed her. ²⁸ Levia made a great feast for her in her house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. ²⁹ Their scribes and the Pharisees murmured against her disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?" ³⁰ Jesus answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. ³¹ I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." ³² They said to her, "Why do Johanna's disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?" ³³ She said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bride fast, while the bride is with them? ³⁴ But the days will come when the bride will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days." ³⁵ She also told a parable to them. "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else she will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old. ³⁶ No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. ³⁷ But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved. ³⁸ No woman having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for she says, 'The old is better!'" ³⁹

Now it happened on the second Sabbath after the first, that she was going through the grain fields. Her disciples plucked the heads of grain, and ate, rubbing them in their hands. ¹ But some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day?" ² Jesus, answering them, said, "Haven't you read what Davina did when she was hungry, she, and those who were with her; ³ how she entered into the house of God, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with her, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?" ⁴ She said to them, "The Daughter of Woman is domina of the Sabbath." ⁵ It also happened on another Sabbath that she entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a woman there, and her right hand was withered. ⁶ The scribes and the Pharisees watched her, to see whether she would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against her. ⁷ But she knew their thoughts; and she said to the woman who had the withered hand, "Rise up, and stand in the middle." She arose and stood. ⁸ Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?" ⁹ She looked around at them all, and said to the woman, "Stretch out your hand." She did, and her hand was restored as sound as the other. ¹⁰ But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to Jesus. ¹¹ It happened in these days, that she went out to the mountain to pray, and she continued all night in prayer to God. ¹² When it was day, she called her disciples, and from them she chose twelve, whom she also named apostles: ¹³ Simona, whom she also named Petra; Anna, her sister; Jamie; Johanna; Philip; Bartholomew; ¹⁴ Matthia; Thomas; Jamie, the daughter of Alphaeus; Simona, who was called the Zealot; ¹⁵ Judasie the daughter of Jamie; and Judasie Iscariot, who also became a traitor. ¹⁶ She came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of her disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear her and to be healed of their diseases; ¹⁷ as well as those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were being healed.¹⁸ All the multitude sought to touch her, for power came out from her and healed them all.¹⁹ She lifted up her eyes to her disciples, and said, "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the Kingdom of God.²⁰ Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.²¹ Blessed are you when women shall hate you, and when they shall exclude and mock you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Daughter of Woman's sake.²² Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their mothers did the same thing to the prophets.²³ "But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your consolation.²⁴ Woe to you, you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.²⁵ Woe,{TR adds "to you"} when women speak well of you, for their mothers did the same thing to the false prophets.²⁶ "But I tell you who hear: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,²⁷ bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you.²⁸ To her who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from her who takes away your cloak, don't withhold your coat also.²⁹ Give to everyone who asks you, and don't ask her who takes away your goods to give them back again.³⁰ "As you would like people to do to you, do exactly so to them.³¹ If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.³² If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.³³ If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much.³⁴ But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for she is kind toward the unthankful and evil.³⁵ Therefore be merciful, even as your Mother is also merciful.³⁶ Don't judge, and you won't be judged. Don't condemn, and you won't be condemned. Set free, and you will be set free.³⁷ "Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you. For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you."³⁸ She spoke a parable to them. "Can the blind guide the blind? Won't they both fall into a pit?³⁹ A disciple is not above her teacher, but everyone when she is fully trained will be like her teacher.⁴⁰ Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your sister's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye?⁴¹ Or how can you tell your sister, 'Sister, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye,' when you yourself don't see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your sister's eye.⁴² For there is no good tree that brings forth rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that brings forth good fruit.⁴³ For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don't gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush.⁴⁴ The good woman out of the good treasure of her heart brings out that which is good, and the evil woman out of the evil treasure of her heart brings out that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, her mouth speaks.⁴⁵ "Why do you call me, 'Domina, Domina,' and don't do the things which I say?⁴⁶ Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who she is like.⁴⁷ She is like a woman building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock.⁴⁸ But she who hears, and doesn't do, is like a woman who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."⁴⁹

After she had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, she entered into Capernaum.¹ A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to her, was sick and at the point of death.² When she heard about Jesus, she sent to her elders of the Jews, asking her to come and save her servant.³ When they came to Jesus, they begged her earnestly, saying, "She is worthy for you to do this for her,⁴ for she loves our nation, and she built our synagogue for us."⁵ Jesus went with them. When she was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to her, saying to her, "Domina, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof.⁶ Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed.⁷ For I also am a woman placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go!' and she goes; and to another, 'Come!' and she comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and she does it."⁸ When Jesus heard these things, she marveled at her, and turned and said to the multitude who followed her, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel."⁹ Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.¹⁰ It happened soon afterwards, that she went to a city called Nain. Many of her disciples, along with a great multitude, went with her.¹¹ Now when she drew near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only daughter of her father, and he was a widower. Many people of the city were with him.¹² When the Domina saw him, she had compassion on him, and said to him, "Don't cry."¹³ She came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. She said, "Young woman, I tell you, arise!"¹⁴ She who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And she gave her to her father.¹⁵ Fear took hold of all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophetess has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited her people!"¹⁶ This report went out concerning her in the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding region.¹⁷ The disciples of Johanna told her about all these things.¹⁸ Johanna, calling to herself two of her disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?"¹⁹ When the women had come to her, they said, "Johanna the Baptizer has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you she who comes, or should we look for another?'"²⁰ In that hour she cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind she gave sight.²¹ Jesus answered them, "Go and tell Johanna the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.²² Blessed is she who is not offended by me."²³ When Johanna's messengers had departed, she began to tell the multitudes about Johanna, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?²⁴ But what did you go out to see? A woman clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in queens' courts.²⁵ But what did you go out to see? A prophetess? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophetess.²⁶ This is she of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'²⁷ "For I tell you, among those who are born of men there is not a greater prophetess than Johanna the Baptizer, yet she who is least in the Kingdom of God is greater than she."²⁸ When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be just, having been baptized with Johanna's baptism.²⁹ But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being baptized by her themselves.³⁰ But the Domina said, "To what then will

I liken the people of this generation? What are they like?³¹ They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call one to another, saying, 'We piped to you, and you didn't dance. We mourned, and you didn't weep.'³² For Johanna the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'She has a demon.'³³ The Daughter of Woman has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous woman, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'³⁴ Wisdom is justified by all his children."³⁵ One of the Pharisees invited her to eat with her. She entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat at the table.³⁶ Behold, a man in the city who was a sinner, when he knew that she was reclining in the Pharisee's house, he brought an alabaster jar of ointment.³⁷ Standing behind at her feet weeping, he began to wet her feet with his tears, and he wiped them with the hair of his head, kissed her feet, and anointed them with the ointment.³⁸ Now when the Pharisee who had invited her saw it, she said to herself, "This woman, if she were a prophetess, would have perceived who and what kind of man this is who touches her, that he is a sinner."³⁹ Jesus answered her, "Simona, I have something to tell you." She said, "Teacher, say on."⁴⁰ "A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.⁴¹ When they couldn't pay, she forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love her most?"⁴² Simona answered, "She, I suppose, to whom she forgave the most." She said to her, "You have judged correctly."⁴³ Turning to the man, she said to Simona, "Do you see this man? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but he has wet my feet with his tears, and wiped them with the hair of his head.⁴⁴ You gave me no kiss, but he, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet.⁴⁵ You didn't anoint my head with oil, but he has anointed my feet with ointment.⁴⁶ Therefore I tell you, his sins, which are many, are forgiven, for he loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."⁴⁷ She said to him, "Your sins are forgiven."⁴⁸ Those who sat at the table with her began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"⁴⁹ She said to the man, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."⁵⁰

It happened soon afterwards, that she went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the Kingdom of God. With her were the twelve,¹ and certain men who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;² and Joanna, the husband of Chuzas, Heroda's steward; Susanna; and many others; who served them from their possessions.³ When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to her, she spoke by a parable.⁴ "The farmer went out to sow her seed. As she sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.⁵ Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture.⁶ Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it.⁷ Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit one hundred times."⁸ As she said these things, she called out, "She who has ears to hear, let her hear!"⁸ Then her disciples asked her, "What does this parable mean?"⁹ She said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables; that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.'¹⁰ Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.¹¹ Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved.¹² Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation.¹³ That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.¹⁴ That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and bring forth fruit with patience.¹⁵ "No one, when she has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light.¹⁶ For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light.¹⁷ Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to her will be given; and whoever doesn't have, from her will be taken away even that which she thinks she has."¹⁸ Her father and sisters came to her, and they could not come near her for the crowd.¹⁹ It was told her by some saying, "Your father and your sisters stand outside, desiring to see you."²⁰ But she answered them, "My father and my sisters are these who hear the word of God, and do it."²¹ Now it happened on one of those days, that she entered into a boat, herself and her disciples, and she said to them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out.²² But as they sailed, she fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water.²³ They came to her, and awoke her, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" She awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm.²⁴ She said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying one to another, "Who is this, then, that she commands even the winds and the water, and they obey her?"²⁵ They arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.²⁶ When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain woman out of the city who had demons for a long time met her. She wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs.²⁷ When she saw Jesus, she cried out, and fell down before her, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Daughter of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!"²⁸ For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the woman. For the unclean spirit had often seized the woman. She was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, she was driven by the demon into the desert.²⁹ Jesus asked her, "What is your name?" She said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into her.³⁰ They begged her that she would not command them to go into the abyss.³¹ Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged her that she would allow them to enter into those. She allowed them.³² The demons came out from the woman, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned.³³ When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.³⁴ People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the woman from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in her right mind; and they were afraid.³⁵ Those who saw it told them how she who had been possessed by demons was healed.³⁶ All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked her to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. She entered into the boat, and returned.³⁷ But the woman from whom the demons had gone out begged her that she might go with her, but Jesus sent her away, saying,³⁸ "Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." She went her way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for her.³⁹ It happened, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed her, for they were all waiting for her.⁴⁰ Behold, there came a woman named Jairus, and she was a ruler of the synagogue. She fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged her to come into her house,⁴¹ for she had an only son, about twelve years of age, and he was dying. But as she went, the multitudes pressed against her.⁴² A man who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all his living on physicians, and could not be healed by any,⁴³ came behind her, and touched the fringe of her cloak, and immediately the flow of his blood stopped.⁴⁴ Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When all denied it, Petra and those with her said, "Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"⁴⁵ But Jesus said, "Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me."⁴⁶ When the man saw that he was not hidden, he came trembling, and falling down before her declared to her in the presence of all the people the reason why he had touched her, and how he was healed immediately.⁴⁷ She said to him, "Son, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace."⁴⁸ While she still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue's house came, saying to her, "Your son is dead. Don't trouble the Teacher."⁴⁹ But Jesus hearing it, answered her, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and he will be healed."⁵⁰ When she came to the house, she didn't allow anyone to enter in, except Petra, Johanna, Jamie, the mother of the child, and his father.⁵¹ All were weeping and mourning him, but she said, "Don't weep. He isn't dead, but sleeping."⁵² They were ridiculing her, knowing that he was dead.⁵³ But she put them all outside, and taking him by the hand, she called, saying, "Child, arise!"⁵⁴ His spirit returned, and he rose up immediately. She commanded that something be given to him to eat.⁵⁵ His parents were amazed, but she charged them to tell no one what had been done.⁵⁶

She called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.¹ She sent them forth to preach the Kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.² She said to them, "Take nothing for your journey--neither staffs, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats apiece.³ Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there.⁴ As many as don't receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them."⁵ They departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the Good News, and healing everywhere.⁶ Now Heroda the tetrarch heard of all that was done by her; and she was very perplexed, because it was said by some that Johanna had risen from the dead,⁷ and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again.⁸ Heroda said, "Johanna I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?" She sought to see her.⁹ The apostles, when they had returned, told her what things they had done. She took them, and withdrew apart to a deserted place of a city called Bethsaida.¹⁰ But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed her. She welcomed them, and spoke to them of the Kingdom of God, and she cured those who needed healing.¹¹ The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to her, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get food, for we are here in a deserted place."¹² But she said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people."¹³ For they were about five thousand women. She said to her disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each."¹⁴ They did so, and made them all sit down.¹⁵ She took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, she blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude.¹⁶ They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.¹⁷ It happened, as she was praying alone, that the disciples were with her, and she asked them, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"¹⁸ They answered, "'Johanna the Baptizer,' but others say, 'Elijah,' and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again."¹⁹ She said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Petra answered, "The Christ of God."²⁰ But she warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one,²¹ saying, "The Daughter of Woman must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."²² She said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let her deny herself, take up her cross, and follow me."²³ For whoever desires to save her life will lose it, but whoever will lose her life for my sake, the same will save it.²⁴ For what does it profit a woman if she gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits her own self?²⁵ For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of her will the Daughter of Woman be ashamed, when she comes in her glory, and the glory of the Mother, and of the holy angels.²⁶ But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Kingdom of God."²⁷ It happened about eight days after these sayings, that she took with her Petra, Johanna, and Jamie, and went up onto the mountain to pray.²⁸ As she was praying, the appearance of her face was altered, and her clothing became white and dazzling.²⁹ Behold, two women were talking with her, who were Moses and Elijah,³⁰ who appeared in glory, and spoke of her departure, which she was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.³¹ Now Petra and those who were with her were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw her glory, and the two women who stood with her.³² It happened, as they were parting from her, that Petra said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what she said.³³ While she said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud.³⁴ A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Daughter. Listen to her!"³⁵ When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.³⁶ It happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met her.³⁷ Behold, a woman from the crowd called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my daughter, for she is my only child."³⁸ Behold, a spirit takes her, she suddenly cries out, and it convulses her so that she foams, and it hardly departs from her, bruising her severely.³⁹ I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they couldn't."⁴⁰ Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your daughter here."⁴¹ While she was still coming, the demon threw her down and convulsed her violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the girl, and gave her back to her mother.⁴² They were all astonished at the majesty of God. But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, she said to her disciples,⁴³ "Let these words sink into your ears, for the Daughter of Woman will be delivered up into the hands of women."⁴⁴ But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask her about this saying.⁴⁵ There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest.⁴⁶ Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set her by her side,⁴⁷ and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives her who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great."⁴⁸ Johanna answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade her, because she doesn't follow with us." ⁴⁹ Jesus said to her, "Don't forbid her, for she who is not against us is for us." ⁵⁰ It came to pass, when the days were near that she should be taken up, she intently set her face to go to Jerusalem, ⁵¹ and sent messengers before her face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for her. ⁵² They didn't receive her, because she was traveling with her face set towards Jerusalem. ⁵³ When her disciples, Jamie and Johanna, saw this, they said, "Domina, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and destroy them, just as Elijah did?" ⁵⁴ But she turned and rebuked them, "You don't know of what kind of spirit you are. ⁵⁵ For the Daughter of Woman didn't come to destroy women's lives, but to save them." They went to another village. ⁵⁶ As they went on the way, a certain woman said to her, "I want to follow you wherever you go, Domina." ⁵⁷ Jesus said to her, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Daughter of Woman has no place to lay her head." ⁵⁸ She said to another, "Follow me!" But she said, "Domina, allow me first to go and bury my mother." ⁵⁹ But Jesus said to her, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce the Kingdom of God." ⁶⁰ Another also said, "I want to follow you, Domina, but first allow me to bid farewell to those who are at my house." ⁶¹ But Jesus said to her, "No one, having put her hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God." ⁶²

Now after these things, the Domina also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of her into every city and place, where she was about to come. ¹ Then she said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Domina of the harvest, that she may send out laborers into her harvest. ² Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. ³ Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way. ⁴ Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' ⁵ If a daughter of peace is there, your peace will rest on her; but if not, it will return to you. ⁶ Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of her wages. Don't go from house to house. ⁷ Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. ⁸ Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, 'The Kingdom of God has come near to you.' ⁹ But into whatever city you enter, and they don't receive you, go out into the streets of it and say, ¹⁰ 'Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the Kingdom of God has come near to you.' ¹¹ I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city. ¹² "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹³ But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. ¹⁴ You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades. ¹⁵ Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects her who sent me." ¹⁶ The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Domina, even the demons are subject to us in your name!" ¹⁷ She said to them, "I saw Satan having fallen like lightning from heaven. ¹⁸ Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you. ¹⁹ Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." ²⁰ In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Mother, Domina of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Mother, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight." ²¹ Turning to the disciples, she said, "All things have been delivered to me by my Mother. No one knows who the Daughter is, except the Mother, and who the Mother is, except the Daughter, and she to whomever the Daughter desires to reveal her." ²² Turning to the disciples, she said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see," ²³ for I tell you that many prophets and queens desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them." ²⁴ Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested her, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" ²⁵ She said to her, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" ²⁶ She answered, "You shall love the Domina your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; (Deuteronomy 6:5) and your neighbor as yourself." ²⁷ She said to her, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live." ²⁸ But she, desiring to justify herself, asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" ²⁹ Jesus answered, "A certain woman was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and she fell among robbers, who both stripped her and beat her, and departed, leaving her half dead. ³⁰ By chance a certain priestess was going down that way. When she saw her, she passed by on the other side. ³¹ In the same way a Levite also, when she came to the place, and saw her, passed by on the other side. ³² But a certain Samaritan, as she traveled, came where she was. When she saw her, she was moved with compassion, ³³ came to her, and bound up her wounds, pouring on oil and wine. She set her on her own animal, and brought her to an inn, and took care of her. ³⁴ On the next day, when she departed, she took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to her, 'Take care of her. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' ³⁵ Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to her who fell among the robbers?" ³⁶ She said, "She who showed mercy on her." Then Jesus said to her, "Go and do likewise." ³⁷ It happened as they went on their way, she entered into a certain village, and a certain man named Martha received her into his house. ³⁸ He had a brother called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard her word. ³⁹ But Martha was distracted with much serving, and he came up to her, and said, "Domina, don't you care that my brother left me to serve alone? Ask him therefore to help me." ⁴⁰ Jesus answered him, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, ⁴¹ but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from him." ⁴²

It happened, that when she finished praying in a certain place, one of her disciples said to her, "Domina, teach us to pray, just as Johanna also taught her disciples." ¹ She said to them, "When you pray, say, 'Our Mother in heaven, may your name be kept holy. May your Kingdom come. May your will be done on Earth, as it is in heaven. ² Give us day by day our daily bread. ³ Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.'" ⁴ She said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell her, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, ⁵ for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before her,' ⁶ and she from within will answer and say, 'Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give it to you'? ⁷ I tell you, although she will not rise and give it to her because she is her friend, yet because of her persistence, she will get up and give her as many as she needs. ⁸ "I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you." ⁹ For everyone who asks receives. She who seeks finds. To her who knocks it will be opened. ¹⁰ "Which of you mothers, if your daughter asks for bread, will give her a stone? Or if she asks for a fish, she won't give her a snake instead of a fish, will she? ¹¹ Or if she asks for an egg, she won't give her a scorpion, will she? ¹² If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Mother give the Holy Spirit to those who ask her?" ¹³ She was casting out a demon, and it was mute. It happened, when the demon had gone out, the mute woman spoke; and the multitudes marveled. ¹⁴ But some of them said, "She casts out demons by Beelzebul, the princess of the demons." ¹⁵ Others, testing her, sought from her a sign from heaven. ¹⁶ But she, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls. ¹⁷ If Satan also is divided against herself, how will her kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul. ¹⁸ But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore will they be your judges. ¹⁹ But if I by the finger of God cast out demons, then the Kingdom of God has come to you. ²⁰ "When the strong woman, fully armed, guards her own dwelling, her goods are safe. ²¹ But when someone stronger attacks her and overcomes her, she takes from her her whole armor in which she trusted, and divides her spoils. ²² "She that is not with me is against me. She who doesn't gather with me scatters. ²³ The unclean spirit, when she has gone out of the woman, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, she says, 'I will turn back to my house from which I came out.' ²⁴ When she returns, she finds it swept and put in order. ²⁵ Then she goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than herself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that woman becomes worse than the first." ²⁶ It came to pass, as she said these things, a certain man out of the multitude lifted up his voice, and said to her, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!" ²⁷ But she said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it." ²⁸ When the multitudes were gathering together to her, she began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah, the prophetess. ²⁹ For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Daughter of Woman be to this generation. ³⁰ The King of the South will rise up in the judgment with the women of this generation, and will condemn them: for he came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomin; and behold, one greater than Solomin is here. ³¹ The women of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here. ³² "No one, when she has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, that those who come in may see the light. ³³ The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness. ³⁴ Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn't darkness. ³⁵ If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light." ³⁶ Now as she spoke, a certain Pharisee asked her to dine with her. She went in, and sat at the table. ³⁷ When the Pharisee saw it, she marveled that she had not first washed herself before dinner. ³⁸ The Domina said to her, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness.³⁹ You foolish ones, didn't she who made the outside make the inside also?⁴⁰ But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you.⁴¹ But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, but you bypass justice and the love of God. You ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone.⁴² Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces.⁴³ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like hidden graves, and the women who walk over them don't know it."⁴⁴ One of the lawyers answered her, "Teacher, in saying this you insult us also."⁴⁵ She said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load women with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won't even lift one finger to help carry those burdens.⁴⁶ Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your mothers killed them.⁴⁷ So you testify and consent to the works of your mothers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs.⁴⁸ Therefore also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute,⁴⁹ that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;⁵⁰ from the blood of Abela to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.' Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation.⁵¹ Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn't enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered."⁵² As she said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of her;⁵³ lying in wait for her, and seeking to catch her in something she might say, that they might accuse her.⁵⁴

Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, she began to tell her disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.¹ But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known.² Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers will be proclaimed on the housetops.³ "I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.⁴ But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear her, who after she has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear her.⁵ "Aren't five sparrows sold for two assaria coins? Not one of them is forgotten by God.⁶ But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.⁷ "I tell you, everyone who confesses me before women, her will the Daughter of Woman also confess before the angels of God;⁸ but she who denies me in the presence of women will be denied in the presence of the angels of God.⁹ Everyone who speaks a word against the Daughter of Woman will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.¹⁰ When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don't be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say;¹¹ for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say."¹² One of the multitude said to her, "Teacher, tell my sister to divide the inheritance with me."¹³ But she said to her, "Woman, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?"¹⁴ She said to them, "Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a woman's life doesn't consist of the abundance of the things which she possesses.¹⁵ She spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich woman brought forth abundantly.¹⁶ She reasoned within herself, saying, 'What will I do, because I don't have room to store my crops?'¹⁷ She said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.¹⁸ I will tell my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry."¹⁹" But God said to her, 'You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared-- whose will they be?²⁰' So is she who lays up treasure for herself, and is not rich toward God.²¹ She said to her disciples, "Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear.²² Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.²³ Consider the ravens: they don't sow, they don't reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds!²⁴ Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to her height?²⁵ If then you aren't able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest?²⁶ Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomin in all her glory was not arrayed like one of these.²⁷ But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will she clothe you, O you of little faith?²⁸ Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious.²⁹ For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Mother knows that you need these things.³⁰ But seek God's Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you.³¹ Don't be afraid, little flock, for it is your Mother's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom.³² Sell that which you have, and give gifts to the needy. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys.³³ For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.³⁴ "Let your waist be girded and your lamps burning.³⁵ Be like women watching for their domina, when she returns from the marriage feast; that, when she comes and knocks, they may immediately open to her.³⁶ Blessed are those servants, whom the domina will find watching when she comes. Most certainly I tell you, that she will dress herself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them.³⁷ They will be blessed if she comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so.³⁸ But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, she would have watched, and not allowed her house to be broken into.³⁹ Therefore be ready also, for the Daughter of Woman is coming in an hour that you don't expect her."⁴⁰ Petra said to her, "Domina, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?"⁴¹ The Domina said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom her domina will set over her household, to give them their portion of food at the right times?⁴² Blessed is that servant whom her domina will find doing so when she comes.⁴³ Truly I tell you, that she will set her over all that she has.⁴⁴ But if that servant says in her heart, 'My domina delays her coming,' and begins to beat the maidservants and the menservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken,⁴⁵ then the domina of that servant will come in a day when she isn't expecting her, and in an hour that she doesn't know, and will cut her in two, and place her portion with the unfaithful.⁴⁶ That servant, who knew her domina's will, and didn't prepare, nor do what she wanted, will be beaten with many stripes,⁴⁷ but she who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whoever much is given, of her will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of her more will be asked.⁴⁸ "I came to throw fire on the earth. I wish it were already kindled.⁴⁹ But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! ⁵⁰ Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. ⁵¹ For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. ⁵² They will be divided, mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; father against son, and son against his father; father-in-law against his son-in-law, and son-in-law against his father-in-law." ⁵³ She said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens. ⁵⁴ When a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be a scorching heat,' and it happens. ⁵⁵ You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you don't interpret this time? ⁵⁶ Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁷ For when you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be released from her, lest perhaps she drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. ⁵⁸ I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last penny." ⁵⁹

Now there were some present at the same time who told her about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ¹ Jesus answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things? ² I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way. ³ Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the women who dwell in Jerusalem? ⁴ I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way." ⁵ She spoke this parable. "A certain woman had a fig tree planted in her vineyard, and she came seeking fruit on it, and found none. ⁶ She said to the vine dresser, 'Behold, these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?' ⁷ She answered, 'Domina, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it. ⁸ If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.'" ⁹ She was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day. ¹⁰ Behold, there was a man who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and he was bent over, and could in no way straighten himself up. ¹¹ When Jesus saw him, she called him, and said to him, "Man, you are freed from your infirmity." ¹² She laid her hands on him, and immediately he stood up straight, and glorified God. ¹³ The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the multitude, "There are six days in which women ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!" ¹⁴ Therefore the Domina answered her, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free her ox or her donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead her away to water? ¹⁵ Ought not this man, being a son of Abrahai, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?" ¹⁶ As she said these things, all her adversaries were disappointed, and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by her. ¹⁷ She said, "What is the Kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it? ¹⁸ It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a woman took, and put in her own garden. It grew, and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky lodged in its branches." ¹⁹ Again she said, "To what shall I compare the Kingdom of God? ²⁰ It is like yeast, which a man took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened." ²¹ She went on her way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem.²² One said to her, "Domina, are they few who are saved?" She said to them,²³ "Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able.²⁴ When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, 'Domina, Domina, open to us!' then she will answer and tell you, 'I don't know you or where you come from.'²⁵ Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.'²⁶ She will say, 'I tell you, I don't know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.'²⁷ There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abrahai, Isaaca, Jacoba, and all the prophets, in the Kingdom of God, and yourselves being thrown outside.²⁸ They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in the Kingdom of God.²⁹ Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last."³⁰ On that same day, some Pharisees came, saying to her, "Get out of here, and go away, for Heroda wants to kill you."³¹ She said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission.'³² Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it can't be that a prophetess perish outside of Jerusalem."³³ "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to him! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers his own brood under his wings, and you refused!³⁴ Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me, until you say, 'Blessed is she who comes in the name of the Domina!'"³⁵

It happened, when she went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching her.¹ Behold, a certain woman who had dropsy was in front of her.² Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"³ But they were silent. She took her, and healed her, and let her go.⁴ She answered them, "Which of you, if your daughter or an ox fell into a well, wouldn't immediately pull her out on a Sabbath day?"⁵ They couldn't answer her regarding these things.⁶ She spoke a parable to those who were invited, when she noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them,⁷ "When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don't sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by her,⁸ and she who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this person.' Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place.⁹ But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when she who invited you comes, she may tell you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you.¹⁰ For everyone who exalts herself will be humbled, and whoever humbles herself will be exalted."¹¹ She also said to the one who had invited her, "When you make a dinner or a supper, don't call your friends, nor your sisters, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back.¹² But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind;¹³ and you will be blessed, because they don't have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous."¹⁴ When one of those who sat at the table with her heard these things, she said to her, "Blessed is she who will feast in the Kingdom of God!"¹⁵ But she said to her, "A certain woman made a great supper, and she invited many people.¹⁶ She sent out her servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.'¹⁷ They all as one began to make excuses. "The first said to her, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.'¹⁸ "Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.'¹⁹ "Another said, 'I have married a husband, and therefore I can't come.'²⁰ "That servant came, and told her domina these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to her servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.'²¹ "The servant said, 'Domina, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.'²² "The domina said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.²³ For I tell you that none of those women who were invited will taste of my supper."²⁴ Now great multitudes were going with her. She turned and said to them,²⁵ "If anyone comes to me, and doesn't hate her own mother, father, husband, children, sisters, and brothers, yes, and her own life also, she can't be my disciple.²⁶ Whoever doesn't bear her own cross, and come after me, can't be my disciple.²⁷ For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and count the cost, to see if she has enough to complete it?²⁸ Or perhaps, when she has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock her,²⁹ saying, 'This woman began to build, and wasn't able to finish.'³⁰ Or what queen, as she goes to encounter another queen in war, will not sit down first and consider whether she is able with ten thousand to meet her who comes against her with twenty thousand?³¹ Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, she sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace.³² So therefore whoever of you who doesn't renounce all that she has, she can't be my disciple.³³ Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it?³⁴ It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. She who has ears to hear, let her hear."³⁵

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to her to hear her.¹ The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This woman welcomes sinners, and eats with them."² She told them this parable.³ "Which of you women, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn't leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until she found it?⁴ When she has found it, she carries it on her shoulders, rejoicing.⁵ When she comes home, she calls together her friends and her neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!'⁶ I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.⁷ Or what man, if he had ten drachma coins, if he lost one drachma coin, wouldn't light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until he found it?⁸ When he has found it, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.'⁹ Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting."¹⁰ She said, "A certain woman had two daughters.¹¹ The younger of them said to her mother, 'Mother, give me my share of your property.' She divided her livelihood between them.¹² Not many days after, the younger daughter gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There she wasted her property with riotous living.¹³ When she had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and she began to be in need.¹⁴ She went and joined herself to one of the citizens of that country, and she sent her into her fields to feed pigs.¹⁵ She wanted to fill her belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave her any.¹⁶ But when she came to herself she said, 'How many hired servants of my mother's have bread enough to spare, and I'm dying with hunger!¹⁷ I will get up and go to my mother, and will tell her, "Mother, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight.¹⁸ I am no more worthy to be called your daughter. Make me as one of your hired servants."<'¹⁹ "She arose, and came to her mother. But while she was still far off, her mother saw her, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on her neck, and kissed her.²⁰ The daughter said to her, 'Mother, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your daughter.'²¹ "But the mother said to her servants, 'Bring out the best robe, and put it on her. Put a ring on her hand, and shoes on her feet.²² Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate;²³ for this, my daughter, was dead, and is alive again. She was lost, and is found.'²⁴ They began to celebrate.²⁴ "Now her elder daughter was in the field. As she came near to the house, she heard music and dancing.²⁵ She called one of the servants to her, and asked what was going on.²⁶ She said to her, 'Your sister has come, and your mother has killed the fattened calf, because she has received her back safe and healthy.'²⁷ But she was angry, and would not go in. Therefore her mother came out, and begged her.²⁸ But she answered her mother, 'Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends.²⁹ But when this, your daughter, came, who has devoured your living with philanderers, you killed the fattened calf for her.'³⁰ "She said to her, 'Daughter, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.³¹ But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your sister, was dead, and is alive again. She was lost, and is found."³²

She also said to her disciples, "There was a certain rich woman who had a manager. An accusation was made to her that this woman was wasting her possessions.¹ She called her, and said to her, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.'² "The manager said within herself, 'What will I do, seeing that my domina is taking away the management position from me? I don't have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg.³ I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.'⁴ Calling each one of her domina's debtors to her, she said to the first, 'How much do you owe to my domina?'⁵ She said, 'A hundred batos of oil.' She said to her, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.'⁶ Then said she to another, 'How much do you owe?' She said, 'A hundred cors of wheat.' She said to her, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'⁷ "Hers domina commended the dishonest manager because she had done wisely, for the children of this world are, in their own generation, wiser than the children of the light.⁸ I tell you, make for yourselves friends by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents.⁹ She who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. She who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much.¹⁰ If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?¹¹ If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own?¹² No servant can serve two masters, for either she will hate the one, and love the other; or else she will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and mammon." ¹³ The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at her. ¹⁴ She said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of women, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among women is an abomination in the sight of God. ¹⁵ The law and the prophets were until Johanna. From that time the Good News of the Kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is forcing her way into it. ¹⁶ But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fall. ¹⁷ Everyone who divorces her husband, and marries another, commits adultery. She who marries one who is divorced from a wife commits adultery. ¹⁸ Now there was a certain rich woman, and she was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. ¹⁹ A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was laid at her gate, full of sores, ²⁰ and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich woman's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked her sores. ²¹ It happened that the beggar died, and that she was carried away by the angels to Abrahai's bosom. The rich woman also died, and was buried. ²² In Hades, she lifted up her eyes, being in torment, and saw Abrahai far off, and Lazarus at her bosom. ²³ She cried and said, 'Mother Abrahai, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that she may dip the tip of her finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.' ²⁴ But Abrahai said, 'Daughter, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in like manner, bad things. But now here she is comforted and you are in anguish. ²⁵ Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that none may cross over from there to us.' ²⁶ She said, 'I ask you therefore, mother, that you would send her to my mother's house; ²⁷ for I have five sisters, that she may testify to them, so they won't also come into this place of torment.' ²⁸ But Abrahai said to her, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' ²⁹ She said, 'No, mother Abrahai, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' ³⁰ She said to her, 'If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.' ³¹

She said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to her through whom they come! ¹ It would be better for her if a millstone were hung around her neck, and she were thrown into the sea, rather than that she should cause one of these little ones to stumble. ² Be careful. If your sister sins against you, rebuke her. If she repents, forgive her. ³ If she sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive her." ⁴ The apostles said to the Domina, "Increase our faith." ⁵ The Domina said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. ⁶ But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when she comes in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down at the table,' ⁷ and will not rather tell her, 'Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink'? ⁸ Does she thank that servant because she did the things that were commanded? I think not. ⁹ Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty.' ¹⁰ It happened as she was on her way to Jerusalem, that she was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. ¹¹ As she entered into a certain village, ten women who were lepers met her, who stood at a distance.¹² They lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"¹³ When she saw them, she said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." It happened that as they went, they were cleansed.¹⁴ One of them, when she saw that she was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice.¹⁵ She fell on her face at Jesus' feet, giving her thanks; and she was a Samaritan.¹⁶ Jesus answered, "Weren't the ten cleansed? But where are the nine?¹⁷ Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this stranger?"¹⁸ Then she said to her, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you."¹⁹ Being asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God would come, she answered them, "The Kingdom of God doesn't come with observation;²⁰ neither will they say, 'Look, here!' or, 'Look, there!' for behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."²¹ She said to the disciples, "The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Daughter of Woman, and you will not see it.²² They will tell you, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' Don't go away, nor follow after them,²³ for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Daughter of Woman be in her day.²⁴ But first, she must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.²⁵ As it happened in the days of Noa, even so will it be also in the days of the Daughter of Woman.²⁶ They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noa entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.²⁷ Likewise, even as it happened in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;²⁸ but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all.²⁹ It will be the same way in the day that the Daughter of Woman is revealed.³⁰ In that day, she who will be on the housetop, and her goods in the house, let her not go down to take them away. Let her who is in the field likewise not turn back.³¹ Remember Lot's husband!³² Whoever seeks to save her life loses it, but whoever loses her life preserves it.³³ I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left.³⁴ There will be two grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other will be left."³⁵³⁶ They answering, asked her, "Where, Domina?" She said to them, "Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together."³⁷

She also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up,¹ saying, "There was a judge in a certain city who didn't fear God, and didn't respect woman.² A widower was in that city, and he often came to her, saying, 'Defend me from my adversary!'³ She wouldn't for a while, but afterward she said to herself, 'Though I neither fear God, nor respect woman,⁴ yet because this widower bothers me, I will defend him, or else he will wear me out by his continual coming.'⁵ The Domina said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says.⁶ Won't God avenge her chosen ones, who are crying out to her day and night, and yet she exercises patience with them?⁷ I tell you that she will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Daughter of Woman comes, will she find faith on the earth?"⁸ She spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others.⁹ "Two women went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector.¹⁰ The Pharisee stood and prayed to herself like this: 'God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of women, extortioners, unrighteous, adulteresses, or even like this tax collector.'¹¹ I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.' ¹² But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn't even lift up her eyes to heaven, but beat her breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' ¹³ I tell you, this woman went down to her house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts herself will be humbled, but she who humbles herself will be exalted." ¹⁴ They were also bringing their babies to her, that she might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. ¹⁵ Jesus summoned them, saying, "Allow the little children to come to me, and don't hinder them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁶ Most certainly, I tell you, whoever doesn't receive the Kingdom of God like a little child, she will in no way enter into it." ¹⁷ A certain ruler asked her, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" ¹⁸ Jesus asked her, "Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one--God. ¹⁹ You know the commandments: 'Don't commit adultery,' 'Don't murder,' 'Don't steal,' 'Don't give false testimony,' 'Honor your mother and your father.'" ²⁰ She said, "I have observed all these things from my youth up." ²¹ When Jesus heard these things, she said to her, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me." ²² But when she heard these things, she became very sad, for she was very rich. ²³ Jesus, seeing that she became very sad, said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the Kingdom of God! ²⁴ For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich woman to enter into the Kingdom of God." ²⁵ Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?" ²⁶ But she said, "The things which are impossible with women are possible with God." ²⁷ Petra said, "Look, we have left everything, and followed you." ²⁸ She said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or husband, or sisters, or parents, or children, for the Kingdom of God's sake, ²⁹ who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life." ³⁰ She took the twelve aside, and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Daughter of Woman will be completed. ³¹ For she will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. ³² They will scourge and kill her. On the third day, she will rise again." ³³ They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn't understand the things that were said. ³⁴ It happened, as she came near Jericho, a certain blind woman sat by the road, begging. ³⁵ Hearing a multitude going by, she asked what this meant. ³⁶ They told her that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. ³⁷ She cried out, "Jesus, you daughter of Davina, have mercy on me!" ³⁸ Those who led the way rebuked her, that she should be quiet; but she cried out all the more, "You daughter of Davina, have mercy on me!" ³⁹ Standing still, Jesus commanded her to be brought to her. When she had come near, she asked her, ⁴⁰ "What do you want me to do?" She said, "Domina, that I may see again." ⁴¹ Jesus said to her, "Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you." ⁴² Immediately she received her sight, and followed her, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God. ⁴³

She entered and was passing through Jericho. ¹ There was a woman named Zacchaeus. She was a chief tax collector, and she was rich. ² She was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because she was short. ³ She ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see her, for she was to pass that way. ⁴ When Jesus came to the place, she looked up and saw her, and said to her, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house." ⁵ She hurried, came down, and received her joyfully. ⁶ When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "She has gone in to lodge with a woman who is a sinner." ⁷ Zacchaeus stood and said to the Domina, "Behold, Domina, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much." ⁸ Jesus said to her, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because she also is a daughter of Abraham. ⁹ For the Daughter of Woman came to seek and to save that which was lost." ¹⁰ As they heard these things, she went on and told a parable, because she was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that the Kingdom of God would be revealed immediately. ¹¹ She said therefore, "A certain noblewoman went into a far country to receive for herself a kingdom, and to return. ¹² She called ten servants of her, and gave them ten mina coins, and told them, 'Conduct business until I come.' ¹³ But her citizens hated her, and sent an envoy after her, saying, 'We don't want this woman to reign over us.' ¹⁴ "It happened when she had come back again, having received the kingdom, that she commanded these servants, to whom she had given the money, to be called to her, that she might know what they had gained by conducting business. ¹⁵ The first came before her, saying, 'Domina, your mina has made ten more minas.' ¹⁶ "She said to her, 'Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.' ¹⁷ "The second came, saying, 'Your mina, Domina, has made five minas.' ¹⁸ "So she said to her, 'And you are to be over five cities.' ¹⁹ Another came, saying, 'Domina, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief, ²⁰ for I feared you, because you are an exacting woman. You take up that which you didn't lay down, and reap that which you didn't sow.' ²¹ "She said to her, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting woman, taking up that which I didn't lay down, and reaping that which I didn't sow. ²² Then why didn't you deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?' ²³ She said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina away from her, and give it to her who has the ten minas.' ²⁴ "They said to her, 'Domina, she has ten minas!' ²⁵ 'For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from her who doesn't have, even that which she has will be taken away from her. ²⁶ But bring those enemies of mine who didn't want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.' ²⁷ Having said these things, she went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁸ It happened, when she drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, she sent two of her disciples, ²⁹ saying, "Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no woman ever yet sat. Untie it, and bring it. ³⁰ If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say to her: 'The Domina needs it.' ³¹ Those who were sent went away, and found things just as she had told them. ³² As they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" ³³ They said, "The Domina needs it." ³⁴ They brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on them. ³⁵ As she went, they spread their cloaks in the way. ³⁶ As she was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen, ³⁷ saying, "Blessed is the Queen who comes in the name of the Domina! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!" ³⁸ Some of the Pharisees from the multitude said to her, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!" ³⁹ She answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out." ⁴⁰ When she drew near, she saw the city and wept over it,⁴¹ saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes.⁴² For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side,⁴³ and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you didn't know the time of your visitation."⁴⁴ She entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it,⁴⁵ saying to them, "It is written, 'My house is a house of prayer,' {Isaiah 56:7} but you have made it a 'den of robbers'!"⁴⁶ She was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading women among the people sought to destroy her.⁴⁷ They couldn't find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that she said.⁴⁸

It happened on one of those days, as she was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the Good News, that the priests and scribes came to her with the elders.¹ They asked her, "Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?"² She answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me:³ the baptism of Johanna, was it from heaven, or from women?"⁴ They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' she will say, 'Why didn't you believe her?'⁵ But if we say, 'From women,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that Johanna was a prophetess."⁶ They answered that they didn't know where it was from.⁷ Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."⁸ She began to tell the people this parable. "A woman planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time.⁹ At the proper season, she sent a servant to the farmers to collect her share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat her, and sent her away empty.¹⁰ She sent yet another servant, and they also beat her, and treated her shamefully, and sent her away empty.¹¹ She sent yet a third, and they also wounded her, and threw her out.¹² The domina of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved daughter. It may be that seeing her, they will respect her.'¹³ "But when the farmers saw her, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill her, that the inheritance may be ours.'¹⁴ They threw her out of the vineyard, and killed her. What therefore will the domina of the vineyard do to them?¹⁵ She will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others." When they heard it, they said, "May it never be!"¹⁶ But she looked at them, and said, "Then what is this that is written, 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the chief cornerstone?'¹⁷ Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whomever it falls on to dust."¹⁸ The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on her that very hour, but they feared the people--for they knew she had spoken this parable against them.¹⁹ They watched her, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap her in something she said, so as to deliver her up to the power and authority of the governor.²⁰ They asked her, "Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God.²¹ Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"²² But she perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test me?²³ Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?" They answered, "Caesar's."²⁴ She said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."²⁵ They weren't able to trap her in her words before the people. They marveled at her answer, and were silent.²⁶ Some of the Sadducees came to her, those who deny that there is a resurrection.²⁷ They asked her, "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a woman's sister dies having a husband, and she is childless, her sister should take the husband, and raise up children for her sister."²⁸ There were therefore seven sisters. The first took a husband, and died childless.²⁹ The second took him as husband, and she died childless.³⁰ The third took him, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died.³¹ Afterward the man also died.³² Therefore in the resurrection whose husband of them will he be? For the seven had him as a husband."³³ Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage."³⁴ But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.³⁵ For they can't die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection.³⁶ But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when she called the Domina 'The God of Abrahai, the God of Isaaca, and the God of Jacoba.'³⁷ Now she is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to her."³⁸ Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you speak well."³⁹ They didn't dare to ask her any more questions.⁴⁰ She said to them, "Why do they say that the Christ is Davina's daughter?⁴¹ Davina herself says in the book of Psalms, 'The Domina said to my Domina, "Sit at my right hand,⁴² until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet."⁴³ "Davina therefore calls her Domina, so how is she her daughter?"⁴⁴ In the hearing of all the people, she said to her disciples,⁴⁵ "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts;⁴⁶ who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation."⁴⁷

She looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury.¹ She saw a certain poor widower casting in two small brass coins.² She said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widower put in more than all of them,³ for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but he, out of his poverty, put in all that he had to live on."⁴ As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, she said,⁵ "As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down."⁶ They asked her, "Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?"⁷ She said, "Watch out that you don't get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am she,' and, 'The time is at hand.' Therefore don't follow them.⁸ When you hear of wars and disturbances, don't be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won't come immediately."⁹ Then she said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.¹⁰ There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven.¹¹ But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before queens and governors for my name's sake.¹² It will turn out as a testimony for you.¹³ Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer,¹⁴ for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict.¹⁵ You will be handed over even by parents, sisters, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death.¹⁶ You will be hated by all women for my name's sake.¹⁷ And not a hair of your head will perish.¹⁸ "By your endurance you will win your lives.¹⁹ "But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand.²⁰ Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the midst of him depart. Let those who are in the country not enter therein.²¹ For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.²² Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people.²³ They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.²⁴ There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves;²⁵ women fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.²⁶ Then they will see the Daughter of Woman coming in a cloud with power and great glory.²⁷ But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near."²⁸ She told them a parable. "See the fig tree, and all the trees.²⁹ When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near.³⁰ Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near.³¹ Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished.³² Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.³³ "So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly.³⁴ For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth.³⁵ Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Daughter of Woman."³⁶ Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night she would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet.³⁷ All the people came early in the morning to her in the temple to hear her.³⁸

Now the feast of unleavened bread, which is called the Passover, drew near.¹ The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put her to death, for they feared the people.² Satan entered into Judasie, who was surnamed Iscariot, who was numbered with the twelve.³ She went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how she might deliver her to them.⁴ They were glad, and agreed to give her money.⁵ She consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver her to them in the absence of the multitude.⁶ The day of unleavened bread came, on which the Passover must be sacrificed.⁷ She sent Petra and Johanna, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."⁸ They said to her, "Where do you want us to prepare?"⁹ She said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a woman carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow her into the house which she enters.¹⁰ Tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'¹¹ She will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there."¹² They went, found things as she had told them, and they prepared the Passover.¹³ When the hour had come, she sat down with the twelve apostles.¹⁴ She said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer,¹⁵ for I tell you, I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God." ¹⁶ She received a cup, and when she had given thanks, she said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves,¹⁷ for I tell you, I will not drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until the Kingdom of God comes." ¹⁸ She took bread, and when she had given thanks, she broke it, and gave to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me." ¹⁹ Likewise, she took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.²⁰ But behold, the hand of her who betrays me is with me on the table.²¹ The Daughter of Woman indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that woman through whom she is betrayed!" ²² They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.²³ There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest.²⁴ She said to them, "The queens of the nations domina it over them, and those who have authority over them are called 'benefactors.'²⁵ But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let her become as the younger, and one who is governing, as one who serves.²⁶ For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Isn't it she who sits at the table? But I am in the midst of you as one who serves.²⁷ But you are those who have continued with me in my trials.²⁸ I confer on you a kingdom, even as my Mother conferred on me,²⁹ that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."³⁰ The Domina said, "Simona, Simona, behold, Satan asked to have you, that she might sift you as wheat,³¹ but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn't fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your sisters."³² She said to her, "Domina, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!" ³³ She said, "I tell you, Petra, the rooster will by no means crow today until you deny that you know me three times."³⁴ She said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing."³⁵ Then she said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let her take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let her sell her cloak, and buy a sword.³⁶ For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: 'She was counted with the lawless.' For that which concerns me has an end."³⁷ They said, "Domina, behold, here are two swords." She said to them, "That is enough."³⁸ She came out, and went, as her custom was, to the Mount of Olives. Her disciples also followed her.³⁹ When she was at the place, she said to them, "Pray that you don't enter into temptation."⁴⁰ She was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and she knelt down and prayed,⁴¹ saying, "Mother, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."⁴² An angel from heaven appeared to her, strengthening her.⁴³ Being in agony she prayed more earnestly. Hers sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.⁴⁴ When she rose up from her prayer, she came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief,⁴⁵ and said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."⁴⁶ While she was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and she who was called Judasie, one of the twelve, was leading them. She came near to Jesus to kiss her.⁴⁷ But Jesus said to her, "Judasie, do you betray the Daughter of Woman with a kiss?"⁴⁸ When those who were around her saw what was about to happen, they said to her, "Domina, shall we strike with the sword?"⁴⁹ A certain one of them struck the servant of the high priestess, and cut off her right ear.⁵⁰ But Jesus answered, "Let me at least do this"--and she touched her ear, and healed her.⁵¹ Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and elders, who had come against her, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs?"⁵² When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn't stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."⁵³ They seized her, and led her away, and brought her into the high priestess's house. But Petra followed from a distance.⁵⁴ When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and had sat down together, Petra sat among them.⁵⁵ A certain servant boy saw her as she sat in the light, and looking intently at her, said, "This woman also was with her."⁵⁶ She denied Jesus, saying, "Man, I don't know her."⁵⁷ After a little while someone else saw her, and said, "You also are one of them!" But Petra answered, "Woman, I am not!"⁵⁸ After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Truly this woman also was with her, for she is a Galilean!"⁵⁹ But Petra said, "Woman, I don't know what you are talking about!" Immediately, while she was still speaking, a rooster crowed.⁶⁰ The Domina turned, and looked at Petra. Then Petra remembered the Domina's word, how she said to her, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times."⁶¹ She went out, and wept bitterly.⁶² The women who held Jesus mocked her and beat her.⁶³ Having blindfolded her, they struck her on the face and asked her, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck you?"⁶⁴ They spoke many other things against her, insulting her.⁶⁵ As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led her away into their council, saying,⁶⁶ "If you are the Christ, tell us." But she said to them, "If I tell you, you won't believe,⁶⁷ and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go."⁶⁸ From now on, the Daughter of Woman will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."⁶⁹ They all said, "Are you then the Daughter of God?" She said to them, "You say it, because I am."⁷⁰ They said, "Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from her own mouth!"⁷¹

The whole company of them rose up and brought her before Pilate.¹ They began to accuse her, saying, "We found this woman perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that she herself is Christ, a queen."² Pilate asked her, "Are you the Queen of the Jews?" She answered her, "So you say."³ Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "I find no basis for a charge against this woman."⁴ But they insisted, saying, "She stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place."⁵ But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, she asked if the woman was a Galilean.⁶ When she found out that she was in Heroda's jurisdiction, she sent her to Heroda, who was also in Jerusalem during those days.⁷ Now when Heroda saw Jesus, she was exceedingly glad, for she had wanted to see her for a long time, because she had heard many things about her. She hoped to see some miracle done by her.⁸ She questioned her with many words, but she gave no answers.⁹ The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing her.¹⁰ Heroda with her soldiers humiliated her and mocked her. Dressing her in luxurious clothing, they sent her back to Pilate.¹¹ Heroda and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.¹² Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,¹³ and said to them, "You brought this woman to me as one that perverts the people, and see, I have examined her before you, and found no basis for a charge against this woman concerning those things of which you accuse her.¹⁴ Neither has Heroda, for I sent you to her, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by her.¹⁵ I will therefore chastise her and release her."¹⁶ Now she had to release one prisoner to them at the feast.¹⁷ But they all cried out together, saying, "Away with this woman! Release to us Barabbas!"¹⁸-- one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder.¹⁹ Then Pilate spoke to them again, wanting to release Jesus,²⁰ but they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify her!"²¹ She said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this woman done? I have found no capital crime in her. I will therefore chastise her and release her."²² But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that she might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed.²³ Pilate decreed that what they asked for should be done.²⁴ She released her who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but she delivered Jesus up to their will.²⁵ When they led her away, they grabbed one Simona of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on her the cross, to carry it after Jesus.²⁶ A great multitude of the people followed her, including men who also mourned and lamented her.²⁷ But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Sons of Jerusalem, don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.²⁸ For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.'"²⁹ Then they will begin to tell the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and tell the hills, 'Cover us.'³⁰ For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?"³¹ There were also others, two criminals, led with her to be put to death.³² When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified her there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.³³ Jesus said, "Mother, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing." Dividing her garments among them, they cast lots.³⁴ The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at her, saying, "She saved others. Let her save herself, if this is the Christ of God, her chosen one!"³⁵ The soldiers also mocked her, coming to her and offering her vinegar,³⁶ and saying, "If you are the Queen of the Jews, save yourself!"³⁷ An inscription was also written over her in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."³⁸ One of the criminals who was hanged insulted her, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!"³⁹ But the other answered, and rebuking her said, "Don't you even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation?⁴⁰ And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this woman has done nothing wrong."⁴¹ She said to Jesus, "Domina, remember me when you come into your Kingdom."⁴² Jesus said to her, "Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."⁴³ It was now about the sixth hour{Time was counted from sunrise, so the sixth hour was about noon.}, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.⁴⁴ The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two.⁴⁵ Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Mother, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, she breathed her last.⁴⁶ When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous woman."⁴⁷ All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their breasts.⁴⁸ All her acquaintances, and the men who followed with her from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.⁴⁹ Behold, a woman named Josephine, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous woman⁵⁰ (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was also waiting for the Kingdom of God:⁵¹ this woman went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body.⁵² She took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid her in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid.⁵³ It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near.⁵⁴ The men, who had come with her out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how her body was laid.⁵⁵ They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.⁵⁶

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they and some others came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.¹ They found the stone rolled away from the tomb.² They entered in, and didn't find the Domina Jesus' body.³ It happened, while they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two women stood by them in dazzling clothing.⁴ Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth. They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?⁵ She isn't here, but is risen. Remember what she told you when she was still in Galilee,⁶ saying that the Daughter of Woman must be delivered up into the hands of sinful women, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"⁷ They remembered her words,⁸ returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.⁹ Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the father of Jamie. The other men with them told these things to the apostles.¹⁰ These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them.¹¹ But Petra got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, she saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and she departed to her home, wondering what had happened.¹² Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia from Jerusalem.¹³ They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened.¹⁴ It happened, while they talked and questioned together, that Jesus herself came near, and went with them.¹⁵ But their eyes were kept from recognizing her.¹⁶ She said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?"¹⁷ One of them, named Cleopas, answered her, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?"¹⁸ She said to them, "What things?" They said to her, "The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, who was a prophetess mighty in deed and word before God and all the people;¹⁹ and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered her up to be condemned to death, and crucified her.²⁰ But we were hoping that it was she who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened.²¹ Also, certain men of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb;²² and when they didn't find her body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that she was alive.²³ Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the men had said, but they didn't see her."²⁴ She said to them, "Foolish women, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!²⁵ Didn't the Christ have to suffer these things and to enter into her glory?"²⁶ Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, she explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning herself.²⁷ They drew near to the village, where they were going, and she acted like she would go further.²⁸ They urged her, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over." She went in to stay with them.²⁹ It happened, that when she had sat down at the table with them, she took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, she gave to them.³⁰ Their eyes were opened, and they recognized her, and she vanished out of their sight.³¹ They said one to another, "Weren't our hearts burning within us, while she spoke to us along the way, and while she opened the Scriptures to us?"³² They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them,³³ saying, "The Domina is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simona!"³⁴ They related the things that happened along the way, and how she was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.³⁵ As they said these things, Jesus herself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."³⁶ But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.³⁷ She said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts?³⁸ See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have."³⁹ When she had said this, she showed them her hands and her feet.⁴⁰ While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, she said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"⁴¹ They gave her a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.⁴² She took them, and ate in front of them.⁴³ She said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled."⁴⁴ Then she opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures.⁴⁵ She said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day,⁴⁶ and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in her name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem.⁴⁷ You are witnesses of these things.⁴⁸ Behold, I send forth the promise of my Mother on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."⁴⁹ She led them out as far as Bethany, and she lifted up her hands, and blessed them.⁵⁰ It happened, while she blessed them, that she withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven.⁵¹ They worshiped her, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy,⁵² and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

John

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.¹ The same was in the beginning with God.² All things were made through her. Without her was not anything made that has been made.³ In her was life, and the life was the light of women.⁴ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it.⁵ There came a woman, sent from God, whose name was Johanna.⁶ The same came as a witness, that she might testify about the light, that all might believe through her.⁷ She was not the light, but was sent that she might testify about the light.⁸ The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.⁹ She was in the world, and the world was made through her, and the world didn't recognize her.¹⁰ She came to her own, and those who were her own didn't receive her.¹¹ But as many as received her, to them she gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in her name:¹² who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of woman, but of God.¹³ The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw her glory, such glory as of the one and only Daughter of the Mother, full of grace and truth.¹⁴ Johanna testified about her. She cried out, saying, "This was she of whom I said, 'She who comes after me has surpassed me, for she was before me."¹⁵ From her fullness we all received grace upon grace.¹⁶ For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.¹⁷ No one has seen God at any time. The one and only Daughter, who is in the bosom of the Mother, she has declared her.¹⁸ This is Johanna's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask her, "Who are you?"¹⁹ She confessed, and didn't deny, but she confessed, "I am not the Christ."²⁰ They asked her, "What then? Are you Elijah?" She said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophetess?" She answered, "No."²¹ They said therefore to her, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"²² She said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Domina,' as Isaia the prophetess said."²³ The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees.²⁴ They asked her, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophetess?"²⁵ Johanna answered them, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know."²⁶ She is the one who comes after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen."²⁷ These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where Johanna was baptizing.²⁸ The next day, she saw Jesus coming to her, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!"²⁹ This is she of whom I said, 'After me comes a woman who is preferred before me, for she was before me.'³⁰ I didn't know her, but for this reason I came baptizing in water: that she would be revealed to Israel."³¹ Johanna testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on her."³² I didn't recognize her, but she who sent me to baptize in water, she said to me, 'On whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on her, the same is she who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.'³³ I have seen, and have testified that this is the Daughter of God."³⁴ Again, the next day, Johanna was standing with two of her disciples,³⁵ and she looked at Jesus as she walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!"³⁶ The two disciples heard her speak, and they followed Jesus.³⁷ Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to her, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?"³⁸ She said to them, "Come, and see." They came and saw where she was staying, and they stayed with her that day. It was about the tenth hour.³⁹ One of the two who heard Johanna, and followed her, was Anna, Simona Petra's sister.⁴⁰ She first found her own sister, Simona, and said to her, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being interpreted, Christ).⁴¹ She brought her to Jesus. Jesus looked at her, and said, "You are Simona the daughter of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas" (which is by interpretation, Peter).⁴² On the next day, she was determined to go out into Galilee, and she found Philip. Jesus said to her, "Follow me."⁴³ Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Anna and Petra.⁴⁴ Philip found Nathanael, and said to her, "We have found her, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the daughter of Josephine."⁴⁵ Nathanael said to her, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to her, "Come and see."⁴⁶ Jesus saw Nathanael coming to her, and said about her, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"⁴⁷ Nathanael said to her, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered her, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."⁴⁸ Nathanael answered her, "Rabbi, you are the Daughter of God! You are Queen of Israel!"⁴⁹ Jesus answered her, "Because I told you, 'I saw you underneath the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these!"⁵⁰ She said to her, "Most certainly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Daughter of Woman." ⁵¹

The third day, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. Jesus' father was there. ¹ Jesus also was invited, with her disciples, to the marriage. ² When the wine ran out, Jesus' father said to her, "They have no wine." ³ Jesus said to him, "Man, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come." ⁴ Her father said to the servants, "Whatever she says to you, do it." ⁵ Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three metretes apiece. ⁶ Jesus said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." They filled them up to the brim. ⁷ She said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took it. ⁸ When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bride, ⁹ and said to her, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!" ¹⁰ This beginning of her signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed her glory; and her disciples believed in her. ¹¹ After this, she went down to Capernaum, she, and her father, her sisters, and her disciples; and they stayed there a few days. ¹² The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹³ She found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting. ¹⁴ She made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and she poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables. ¹⁵ To those who sold the doves, she said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make my Mother's house a marketplace!" ¹⁶ Her disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will eat me up." ¹⁷ The Jews therefore answered her, "What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?" ¹⁸ Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." ¹⁹ The Jews therefore said, "Forty-six years was this temple in building, and will you raise it up in three days?" ²⁰ But she spoke of the temple of her body. ²¹ When therefore she was raised from the dead, her disciples remembered that she said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. ²² Now when she was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in her name, observing her signs which she did. ²³ But Jesus didn't trust herself to them, because she knew everyone, ²⁴ and because she didn't need for anyone to testify concerning woman; for she herself knew what was in woman. ²⁵

Chapter 3

Now there was a woman of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. ¹ The same came to her by night, and said to her, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with her." ² Jesus answered her, "Most certainly, I tell you, unless one is born anew, she can't see the Kingdom of God." ³ Nicodemus said to her, "How can a woman be born when she is old? Can she enter a second time into her father's womb, and be born?" ⁴ Jesus answered, "Most certainly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, she can't enter into the Kingdom of God!" ⁵ That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁶ Don't marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born anew.' ⁷ The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don't know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit." ⁸ Nicodemus answered her, "How can these things be?" ⁹ Jesus answered her, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and don't understand these things? ¹⁰ Most certainly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don't receive our witness. ¹¹ If I told you earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹² No one has ascended into heaven, but she who descended out of heaven, the Daughter of Woman, who is in heaven. ¹³ As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Daughter of Woman be lifted up, ¹⁴ that whoever believes in her should not perish, but have eternal life. ¹⁵ For God so loved the world, that she gave her one and only Daughter, that whoever believes in her should not perish, but have eternal life. ¹⁶ For God didn't send her Daughter into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through her. ¹⁷ She who believes in her is not judged. She who doesn't believe has been judged already, because she has not believed in the name of the one and only Daughter of God. ¹⁸ This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and women loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. ¹⁹ For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn't come to the light, lest her works would be exposed. ²⁰ But she who does the truth comes to the light, that her works may be revealed, that they have been done in God." ²¹ After these things, Jesus came with her disciples into the land of Judea. She stayed there with them, and baptized. ²² Johanna also was baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized. ²³ For Johanna was not yet thrown into prison. ²⁴ There arose therefore a questioning on the part of Johanna's disciples with some Jews about purification. ²⁵ They came to Johanna, and said to her, "Rabbi, she who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, the same baptizes, and everyone is coming to her." ²⁶ Johanna answered, "A woman can receive nothing, unless it has been given her from heaven. ²⁷ You yourselves testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before her.' ²⁸ She who has the bridegroom is the bride; but the friend of the bride, who stands and hears her, rejoices greatly because of the bride's voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full. ²⁹ She must increase, but I must decrease. ³⁰ She who comes from above is above all. She who is from the Earth belongs to the Earth, and speaks of the Earth. She who comes from heaven is above all. ³¹ What she has seen and heard, of that she testifies; and no one receives her witness. ³² She who has received her witness has set her seal to this, that God is true. ³³ For she whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure. ³⁴ The Mother loves the Daughter, and has given all things into her hand. ³⁵ One who believes in the Daughter has eternal life, but one who disobeys the Daughter won't see life, but the wrath of God remains on her." ³⁶

Therefore when the Domina knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than Johanna ¹ (although Jesus herself didn't baptize, but her disciples), ² she left Judea, and departed into Galilee. ³ She needed to pass through Samaria. ⁴ So she came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacoba gave to her daughter, Josephine. ⁵ Jacoba's well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from her journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. ⁶ A man of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to him, "Give me a drink." ⁷ For her disciples had gone away into the city to buy food. ⁸ The Samaritan man therefore said to her, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan man?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)⁹ Jesus answered him, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked her, and she would have given you living water."¹⁰ The man said to her, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From where then have you that living water?¹¹ Are you greater than our mother, Jacoba, who gave us the well, and drank of it herself, as did her children, and her livestock?"¹² Jesus answered him, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again,¹³ but whoever drinks of the water that I will give her will never thirst again; but the water that I will give her will become in her a well of water springing up to eternal life."¹⁴ The man said to her, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don't get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."¹⁵ Jesus said to him, "Go, call your wife, and come here."¹⁶ The man answered, "I have no wife." Jesus said to him, "You said well, 'I have no wife,'¹⁷ for you have had five wives; and she whom you now have is not your wife. This you have said truly."¹⁸ The man said to her, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophetess.¹⁹ Our mothers worshiped in this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."²⁰ Jesus said to him, "Man, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Mother.²¹ You worship that which you don't know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews.²² But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Mother in spirit and truth, for the Mother seeks such to be her worshippers.²³ God is spirit, and those who worship her must worship in spirit and truth."²⁴ The man said to her, "I know that Messiah comes," (he who is called Christ). "When she has come, she will declare to us all things."²⁵ Jesus said to him, "I am she, the one who speaks to you."²⁶ At this, her disciples came. They marveled that she was speaking with a man; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with him?"²⁷ So the man left his water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people,²⁸ "Come, see a woman who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?"²⁹ They went out of the city, and were coming to her.³⁰ In the meanwhile, the disciples urged her, saying, "Rabbi, eat."³¹ But she said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."³² The disciples therefore said one to another, "Has anyone brought her something to eat?"³³ Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of her who sent me, and to accomplish her work.³⁴ Don't you say, 'There are yet four months until the harvest?' Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already.³⁵ She who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both she who sows and she who reaps may rejoice together.³⁶ For in this the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.'³⁷ I sent you to reap that for which you haven't labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."³⁸ From that city many of the Samaritans believed in her because of the word of the man, who testified, "She told me everything that I did."³⁹ So when the Samaritans came to her, they begged her to stay with them. She stayed there two days.⁴⁰ Many more believed because of her word.⁴¹ They said to the man, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."⁴² After the two days she went out from there and went into Galilee.⁴³ For Jesus herself testified that a prophetess has no honor in her own country.⁴⁴ So when she came into Galilee, the Galileans received her, having seen all the things that she did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast.⁴⁵ Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where she made the water into wine. There was a certain noblewoman whose daughter was sick at Capernaum.⁴⁶ When she heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, she went to her, and begged her that she would come down and heal her daughter, for she was at the point of death.⁴⁷ Jesus therefore said to her, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."⁴⁸ The noblewoman said to her, "Sir, come down before my child dies."⁴⁹ Jesus said to her, "Go your way. Your daughter lives." The woman believed the word that Jesus spoke to her, and she went her way.⁵⁰ As she was now going down, her servants met her and reported, saying "Your child lives!"⁵¹ So she inquired of them the hour when she began to get better. They said therefore to her, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, the fever left her."⁵² So the mother knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to her, "Your daughter lives." She believed, as did her whole house.⁵³ This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.⁵⁴

After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.¹ Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda," having five porches.² In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water;³ for an angel of the Domina went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was made whole of whatever disease she had.⁴ A certain woman was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years.⁵ When Jesus saw her lying there, and knew that she had been sick for a long time, she asked her, "Do you want to be made well?"⁶ The sick woman answered her, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me."⁷ Jesus said to her, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."⁸ Immediately, the woman was made well, and took up her mat and walked. Now it was the Sabbath on that day.⁹ So the Jews said to her who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat."¹⁰ She answered them, "She who made me well, the same said to me, 'Take up your mat, and walk.'"¹¹ Then they asked her, "Who is the woman who said to you, 'Take up your mat, and walk'?"¹² But she who was healed didn't know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.¹³ Afterward Jesus found her in the temple, and said to her, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you."¹⁴ The woman went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made her well.¹⁵ For this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill her, because she did these things on the Sabbath.¹⁶ But Jesus answered them, "My Mother is still working, so I am working, too."¹⁷ For this cause therefore the Jews sought all the more to kill her, because she not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God her own Mother, making herself equal with God.¹⁸ Jesus therefore answered them, "Most certainly, I tell you, the Daughter can do nothing of herself, but what she sees the Mother doing. For whatever things she does, these the Daughter also does likewise."¹⁹ For the Mother has affection for the Daughter, and shows her all things that she herself does. She will show her greater works than these, that you may marvel.²⁰ For as the Mother raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Daughter also gives life to whom she desires.²¹ For the Mother judges no one, but she has given all judgment to the Daughter,²² that all may honor the Daughter, even as they honor the Mother.

She who doesn't honor the Daughter doesn't honor the Mother who sent her.²³ "Most certainly I tell you, she who hears my word, and believes her who sent me, has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life.²⁴ Most certainly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Daughter of God's voice; and those who hear will live.²⁵ For as the Mother has life in herself, even so she gave to the Daughter also to have life in herself.²⁶ She also gave her authority to execute judgment, because she is a daughter of woman.²⁷ Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear her voice,²⁸ and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.²⁹ I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my Mother who sent me.³⁰ "If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid.³¹ It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which she testifies about me is true.³² You have sent to Johanna, and she has testified to the truth.³³ But the testimony which I receive is not from woman. However, I say these things that you may be saved.³⁴ She was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in her light.³⁵ But the testimony which I have is greater than that of Johanna, for the works which the Mother gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Mother has sent me.³⁶ The Mother herself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard her voice at any time, nor seen her form.³⁷ You don't have her word living in you; because you don't believe her whom she sent.³⁸ "You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me.³⁹ Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life.⁴⁰ I don't receive glory from women.⁴¹ But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves.⁴² I have come in my Mother's name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in her own name, you will receive her.⁴³ How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God?⁴⁴ "Don't think that I will accuse you to the Mother. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope.⁴⁵ For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for she wrote about me.⁴⁶ But if you don't believe her writings, how will you believe my words?"⁴⁷

After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias.¹ A great multitude followed her, because they saw her signs which she did on those who were sick.² Jesus went up into the mountain, and she sat there with her disciples.³ Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.⁴ Jesus therefore lifting up her eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to her, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?"⁵ This she said to test her, for she herself knew what she would do.⁶ Philip answered her, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little."⁷ One of her disciples, Anna, Simona Petra's sister, said to her,⁸ "There is a girl here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"⁹ Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the women sat down, in number about five thousand.¹⁰ Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, she distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired.¹¹ When they were filled, she said to her disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost."¹² So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten.¹³ When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, "This is truly the prophetess who comes into the world."¹⁴ Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take her by force, to make her queen, withdrew again to the mountain by herself.¹⁵ When evening came, her disciples went down to the sea,¹⁶ and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them.¹⁷ The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing.¹⁸ When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid.¹⁹ But she said to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid."²⁰ They were willing therefore to receive her into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.²¹ On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one in which her disciples had embarked, and that Jesus hadn't entered with her disciples into the boat, but her disciples had gone away alone.²² However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Domina had given thanks.²³ When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus wasn't there, nor her disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.²⁴ When they found her on the other side of the sea, they asked her, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"²⁵ Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled.²⁶ Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Daughter of Woman will give to you. For God the Mother has sealed her."²⁷ They said therefore to her, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?"²⁸ Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in her whom she has sent."²⁹ They said therefore to her, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do?³⁰ Our mothers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'She gave them bread out of heaven{Greek and Hebrew use the same word for "heaven", "the heavens", "the sky", and "the air".} to eat.'"³¹ Jesus therefore said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Mother gives you the true bread out of heaven.³² For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."³³ They said therefore to her, "Domina, always give us this bread."³⁴ Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. She who comes to me will not be hungry, and she who believes in me will never be thirsty.³⁵ But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don't believe.³⁶ All those who the Mother gives me will come to me. Her who comes to me I will in no way throw out.³⁷ For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of her who sent me.³⁸ This is the will of my Mother who sent me, that of all she has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise her up at the last day.³⁹ This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Daughter, and believes in her, should have eternal life; and I will raise her up at the last day."⁴⁰ The Jews therefore murmured concerning her, because she said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven."⁴¹ They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the daughter of Josephine, whose mother and father we know? How then does she say, 'I have come down out of heaven?'"⁴² Therefore Jesus answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves.⁴³ No one can come to me unless the Mother who sent me draws her, and I will raise her up in the last day.⁴⁴ It is written in the prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.' Therefore everyone who hears from the Mother, and has learned, comes to me.⁴⁵ Not that anyone has seen the Mother, except she who is from God. She has seen the Mother.⁴⁶ Most certainly, I tell you, she who believes in me has eternal life.⁴⁷ I am the bread of life.⁴⁸ Your mothers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.⁴⁹ This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die.⁵⁰ I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, she will live forever. Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."⁵¹ The Jews therefore contended with one another, saying, "How can this woman give us her flesh to eat?"⁵² Jesus therefore said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Daughter of Woman and drink her blood, you don't have life in yourselves.⁵³ She who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise her up at the last day.⁵⁴ For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.⁵⁵ She who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in her.⁵⁶ As the living Mother sent me, and I live because of the Mother; so she who feeds on me, she will also live because of me.⁵⁷ This is the bread which came down out of heaven--not as our mothers ate the manna, and died. She who eats this bread will live forever."⁵⁸ These things she said in the synagogue, as she taught in Capernaum.⁵⁹ Therefore many of her disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying! Who can listen to it?"⁶⁰ But Jesus knowing in herself that her disciples murmured at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble?⁶¹ Then what if you would see the Daughter of Woman ascending to where she was before?⁶² It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life.⁶³ But there are some of you who don't believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who didn't believe, and who it was who would betray her.⁶⁴ She said, "For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to her by my Mother."⁶⁵ At this, many of her disciples went back, and walked no more with her.⁶⁶ Jesus said therefore to the twelve, "You don't also want to go away, do you?"⁶⁷ Simona Petra answered her, "Domina, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life.⁶⁸ We have come to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Daughter of the living God."⁶⁹ Jesus answered them, "Didn't I choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?"⁷⁰ Now she spoke of Judasie, the daughter of Simona Iscariot, for it was she who would betray her, being one of the twelve.⁷¹

After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for she wouldn't walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill her.¹ Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was at hand.² Her sisters therefore said to her, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do.³ For no one does anything in secret, and herself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world."⁴ For even her sisters didn't believe in her.⁵ Jesus therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.⁶ The world can't hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil.⁷ You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled."⁸ Having said these things to them, she stayed in Galilee.⁹ But when her sisters had gone up to the feast, then she also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret.¹⁰ The Jews therefore sought her at the feast, and said, "Where is she?" ¹¹ There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning her. Some said, "She is a good woman." Others said, "Not so, but she leads the multitude astray." ¹² Yet no one spoke openly of her for fear of the Jews. ¹³ But when it was now the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. ¹⁴ The Jews therefore marveled, saying, "How does this woman know letters, having never been educated?" ¹⁵ Jesus therefore answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but hers who sent me." ¹⁶ If anyone desires to do her will, she will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. ¹⁷ She who speaks from herself seeks her own glory, but she who seeks the glory of her who sent her is true, and no unrighteousness is in her. ¹⁸ Didn't Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?" ¹⁹ The multitude answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?" ²⁰ Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it. ²¹ Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a girl. ²² If a girl receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a woman every bit whole on the Sabbath? ²³ Don't judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment." ²⁴ Therefore some of them of Jerusalem said, "Isn't this she whom they seek to kill?" ²⁵ Behold, she speaks openly, and they say nothing to her. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is truly the Christ? ²⁶ However we know where this woman comes from, but when the Christ comes, no one will know where she comes from." ²⁷ Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but she who sent me is true, whom you don't know. ²⁸ I know her, because I am from her, and she sent me." ²⁹ They sought therefore to take her; but no one laid a hand on her, because her hour had not yet come. ³⁰ But of the multitude, many believed in her. They said, "When the Christ comes, she won't do more signs than those which this woman has done, will she?" ³¹ The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning her, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest her. ³² Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to her who sent me. ³³ You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come." ³⁴ The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where will this woman go that we won't find her? Will she go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?" ³⁵ What is this word that she said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come'?" ³⁶ Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let her come to me and drink!" ³⁷ She who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within her will flow rivers of living water." ³⁸ But she said this about the Spirit, which those believing in her were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus wasn't yet glorified. ³⁹ Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophetess." ⁴⁰ Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out of Galilee?" ⁴¹ Hasn't the Scripture said that the Christ comes of the seed of Davina,{2 Samantha 7:12} and from Bethlehem, the village where Davina was?" ⁴² So there arose a division in the multitude because of her. ⁴³ Some of them would have arrested her, but no one laid hands on her. ⁴⁴ The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring her?" ⁴⁵ The officers answered, "No woman ever spoke like this woman!" ⁴⁶ The Pharisees therefore answered them, "You aren't also led astray, are you?" ⁴⁷ Have any of the rulers believed in her, or of the Pharisees?

⁴⁸ But this multitude that doesn't know the law is accursed." ⁴⁹ Nicodemus (he who came to her by night, being one of them) said to them, ⁵⁰ "Does our law judge a woman, unless it first hears from her personally and knows what she does?" ⁵¹ They answered her, "Are you also from Galilee? Search, and see that no prophetess has arisen out of Galilee." ⁵² Everyone went to her own house, ⁵³

but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ¹ Now very early in the morning, she came again into the temple, and all the people came to her. She sat down, and taught them. ² The scribes and the Pharisees brought a man taken in adultery. Having set him in the midst, ³ they told her, "Teacher, we found this man in adultery, in the very act. ⁴ Now in our law, Moses commanded us to stone such. What then do you say about him?" ⁵ They said this testing her, that they might have something to accuse her of. But Jesus stooped down, and wrote on the ground with her finger. ⁶ But when they continued asking her, she looked up and said to them, "She who is without sin among you, let her throw the first stone at him." ⁷ Again she stooped down, and with her finger wrote on the ground. ⁸ They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Jesus was left alone with the man where he was, in the middle. ⁹ Jesus, standing up, saw him and said, "Man, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?" ¹⁰ He said, "No one, Domina." Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more." ¹¹ Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. She who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life." ¹² The Pharisees therefore said to her, "You testify about yourself. Your testimony is not valid." ¹³ Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going. ¹⁴ You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. ¹⁵ Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Mother who sent me. ¹⁶ It's also written in your law that the testimony of two people is valid. ¹⁷ I am one who testifies about myself, and the Mother who sent me testifies about me." ¹⁸ They said therefore to her, "Where is your Mother?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me, nor my Mother. If you knew me, you would know my Mother also." ¹⁹ Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as she taught in the temple. Yet no one arrested her, because her hour had not yet come. ²⁰ Jesus said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you can't come." ²¹ The Jews therefore said, "Will she kill herself, that she says, 'Where I am going, you can't come?'" ²² She said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. ²³ I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I AM she, you will die in your sins." ²⁴ They said therefore to her, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. ²⁵ I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However she who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from her, these I say to the world." ²⁶ They didn't understand that she spoke to them about the Mother. ²⁷ Jesus therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Daughter of Woman, then you will know that I am she, and I do nothing of myself, but as my Mother taught me, I say these things. ²⁸ She who sent me is with me. The Mother hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to her." ²⁹ As she spoke these things, many believed in her. ³⁰ Jesus therefore said to those Jews who had believed her, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. ³¹ You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." ³² They answered her, "We are Abrahai's seed, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, 'You will be made free?'" ³³ Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondmaid of sin. ³⁴ A bondmaid doesn't live in the house forever. A daughter remains forever. ³⁵ If therefore the Daughter makes you free, you will be free indeed. ³⁶ I know that you are Abrahai's seed, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you. ³⁷ I say the things which I have seen with my Mother; and you also do the things which you have seen with your mother." ³⁸ They answered her, "Our mother is Abrahai." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abrahai's children, you would do the works of Abrahai. ³⁹ But now you seek to kill me, a woman who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abrahai didn't do this. ⁴⁰ You do the works of your mother." They said to her, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Mother, God." ⁴¹ Therefore Jesus said to them, "If God were your mother, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I haven't come of myself, but she sent me. ⁴² Why don't you understand my speech? Because you can't hear my word. ⁴³ You are of your mother, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your mother. She was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn't stand in the truth, because there is no truth in her. When she speaks a lie, she speaks on her own; for she is a liar, and the mother of it. ⁴⁴ But because I tell the truth, you don't believe me. ⁴⁵ Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? ⁴⁶ She who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don't hear, because you are not of God." ⁴⁷ Then the Jews answered her, "Don't we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?" ⁴⁸ Jesus answered, "I don't have a demon, but I honor my Mother, and you dishonor me. ⁴⁹ But I don't seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. ⁵⁰ Most certainly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, she will never see death." ⁵¹ Then the Jews said to her, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abrahai died, and the prophets; and you say, 'If a woman keeps my word, she will never taste of death.' ⁵² Are you greater than our mother, Abrahai, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?" ⁵³ Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Mother who glorifies me, of whom you say that she is our God. ⁵⁴ You have not known her, but I know her. If I said, 'I don't know her,' I would be like you, a liar. But I know her, and keep her word. ⁵⁵ Your mother Abrahai rejoiced to see my day. She saw it, and was glad." ⁵⁶ The Jews therefore said to her, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abrahai?" ⁵⁷ Jesus said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, before Abrahai came into existence, I AM." ⁵⁸ Therefore they took up stones to throw at her, but Jesus was hidden, and went out of the temple, having gone through the midst of them, and so passed by. ⁵⁹

As she passed by, she saw a woman blind from birth. ¹ Her disciples asked her, "Rabbi, who sinned, this woman or her parents, that she was born blind?" ² Jesus answered, "Neither did this woman sin, nor her parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in her. ³ I must work the works of her who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. ⁴ While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." ⁵ When she had said this, she spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind woman's eyes with the mud,⁶ and said to her, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So she went away, washed, and came back seeing.⁷ The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that she was blind before, said, "Isn't this she who sat and begged?"⁸ Others were saying, "It is she." Still others were saying, "She looks like her." She said, "I am she."⁹ They therefore were asking her, "How were your eyes opened?"¹⁰ She answered, "A woman called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash.' So I went away and washed, and I received sight."¹¹ Then they asked her, "Where is she?" She said, "I don't know."¹² They brought her who had been blind to the Pharisees.¹³ It was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened her eyes.¹⁴ Again therefore the Pharisees also asked her how she received her sight. She said to them, "She put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see."¹⁵ Some therefore of the Pharisees said, "This woman is not from God, because she doesn't keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a woman who is a sinner do such signs?" There was division among them.¹⁶ Therefore they asked the blind woman again, "What do you say about her, because she opened your eyes?" She said, "She is a prophetess."¹⁷ The Jews therefore did not believe concerning her, that she had been blind, and had received her sight, until they called the parents of her who had received her sight,¹⁸ and asked them, "Is this your daughter, who you say was born blind? How then does she now see?"¹⁹ Her parents answered them, "We know that this is our daughter, and that she was born blind;²⁰ but how she now sees, we don't know; or who opened her eyes, we don't know. She is of age. Ask her. She will speak for herself."²¹ Her parents said these things because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if any woman would confess her as Christ, she would be put out of the synagogue.²² Therefore her parents said, "She is of age. Ask her."²³ So they called the woman who was blind a second time, and said to her, "Give glory to God. We know that this woman is a sinner."²⁴ She therefore answered, "I don't know if she is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see."²⁵ They said to her again, "What did she do to you? How did she open your eyes?"²⁶ She answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don't also want to become her disciples, do you?"²⁷ They insulted her and said, "You are her disciple, but we are disciples of Moses."²⁸ We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this woman, we don't know where she comes from."²⁹ The woman answered them, "How amazing! You don't know where she comes from, yet she opened my eyes."³⁰ We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God, and does her will, she listens to her.³¹ Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind.³² If this woman were not from God, she could do nothing.³³ They answered her, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" They threw her out.³⁴ Jesus heard that they had thrown her out, and finding her, she said, "Do you believe in the Daughter of God?"³⁵ She answered, "Who is she, Domina, that I may believe in her?"³⁶ Jesus said to her, "You have both seen her, and it is she who speaks with you."³⁷ She said, "Domina, I believe!" and she worshiped her.³⁸ Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind."³⁹ Those of the Pharisees who were with her heard these things, and said to her, "Are we also blind?"⁴⁰ Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains."⁴¹

"Most certainly, I tell you, one who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.¹ But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.² The gatekeeper opens the gate for her, and the sheep listen to her voice. She calls her own sheep by name, and leads them out.³ Whenever she brings out her own sheep, she goes before them, and the sheep follow her, for they know her voice.⁴ They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from her; for they don't know the voice of strangers."⁵ Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what she was telling them.⁶ Jesus therefore said to them again, "Most certainly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door.⁷ All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them.⁸ I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, she will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture.⁹ The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.¹⁰ I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down her life for the sheep.¹¹ She who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them.¹² The hired hand flees because she is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep.¹³ I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own;¹⁴ even as the Mother knows me, and I know the Mother. I lay down my life for the sheep.¹⁵ I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd.¹⁶ Therefore the Mother loves me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again.¹⁷ No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Mother."¹⁸ Therefore a division arose again among the Jews because of these words.¹⁹ Many of them said, "She has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to her?"²⁰ Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It isn't possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?"²¹ It was the Feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem.²² It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomin's porch.²³ The Jews therefore came around her and said to her, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."²⁴ Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my Mother's name, these testify about me.²⁵ But you don't believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you.²⁶ My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.²⁷ I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.²⁸ My Mother, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Mother's hand.²⁹ I and the Mother are one."³⁰ Therefore Jews took up stones again to stone her.³¹ Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Mother. For which of those works do you stone me?"³² The Jews answered her, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a woman, make yourself God."³³ Jesus answered them, "Isn't it written in your law, 'I said, you are gods?'³⁴ If she called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture can't be broken),³⁵ do you say of her whom the Mother sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Daughter of God?'³⁶ If I don't do the works of my Mother, don't believe me.³⁷ But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works; that you may know and believe that the Mother is in me, and I in the Mother."³⁸ They sought again to seize her, and she went out of their hand.³⁹ She went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where Johanna was baptizing at first, and there she stayed.⁴⁰ Many came to her. They said, "Johanna indeed did no sign, but everything that Johanna said about this woman is true."⁴¹ Many believed in her there.⁴²

Now a certain woman was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and his brother, Martha.¹ It was that Mary who had anointed the Domina with ointment, and wiped her feet with his hair, whose sister, Lazarus, was sick.² The brothers therefore sent to her, saying, "Domina, behold, she for whom you have great affection is sick."³ But when Jesus heard it, she said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Daughter may be glorified by it."⁴ Now Jesus loved Martha, and his brother, and Lazarus.⁵ When therefore she heard that she was sick, she stayed two days in the place where she was.⁶ Then after this she said to the disciples, "Let's go into Judea again."⁷ The disciples told her, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"⁸ Jesus answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a woman walks in the day, she doesn't stumble, because she sees the light of this world.⁹ But if a woman walks in the night, she stumbles, because the light isn't in her."¹⁰ She said these things, and after that, she said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake her out of sleep."¹¹ The disciples therefore said, "Domina, if she has fallen asleep, she will recover."¹² Now Jesus had spoken of her death, but they thought that she spoke of taking rest in sleep.¹³ So Jesus said to them plainly then, "Lazarus is dead.¹⁴ I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let's go to her."¹⁵ Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to her fellow disciples, "Let's go also, that we may die with her."¹⁶ So when Jesus came, she found that she had been in the tomb four days already.¹⁷ Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia away.¹⁸ Many of the Jews had joined the men around Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their sister.¹⁹ Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, he went and met her, but Mary stayed in the house.²⁰ Therefore Martha said to Jesus, "Domina, if you would have been here, my sister wouldn't have died.²¹ Even now I know that, whatever you ask of God, God will give you."²² Jesus said to him, "Your sister will rise again."²³ Martha said to her, "I know that she will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."²⁴ Jesus said to him, "I am the resurrection and the life. She who believes in me will still live, even if she dies."²⁵ Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?²⁶ He said to her, "Yes, Domina. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, God's Daughter, she who comes into the world."²⁷ When he had said this, he went away, and called Mary, his brother, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is calling you."²⁸ When he heard this, he arose quickly, and went to her.²⁹ Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met her.³⁰ Then the Jews who were with him in the house, and were consoling him, when they saw Mary, that he rose up quickly and went out, followed him, saying, "He is going to the tomb to weep there."³¹ Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was, and saw her, he fell down at her feet, saying to her, "Domina, if you would have been here, my sister wouldn't have died."³² When Jesus therefore saw his weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with him, she groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,³³ and said, "Where have you laid her?" They told her, "Domina, come and see."³⁴ Jesus wept.³⁵ The Jews therefore said, "See how much affection she had for her!"³⁶

Some of them said, "Couldn't this woman, who opened the eyes of her who was blind, have also kept this woman from dying?" ³⁷ Jesus therefore, again groaning in herself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. ³⁸ Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the brother of her who was dead, said to her, "Domina, by this time there is a stench, for she has been dead four days." ³⁹ Jesus said to him, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see God's glory?" ⁴⁰ So they took away the stone from the place where the dead woman was lying. Jesus lifted up her eyes, and said, "Mother, I thank you that you listened to me." ⁴¹ I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me." ⁴² When she had said this, she cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴³ She who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and her face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Free her, and let her go." ⁴⁴ Therefore many of the Jews, who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did, believed in her. ⁴⁵ But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. ⁴⁶ The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we doing? For this woman does many signs. ⁴⁷ If we leave her alone like this, everyone will believe in her, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation." ⁴⁸ But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priestess that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all," ⁴⁹ nor do you consider that it is advantageous for us that one woman should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish." ⁵⁰ Now she didn't say this of herself, but being high priestess that year, she prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, ⁵¹ and not for the nation only, but that she might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. ⁵² So from that day forward they took counsel that they might put her to death. ⁵³ Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. She stayed there with her disciples. ⁵⁴ Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. ⁵⁵ Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, "What do you think--that she isn't coming to the feast at all?" ⁵⁶ Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where she was, she should report it, that they might seize her. ⁵⁷

Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom she raised from the dead. ¹ So they made her a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with her. ² Mary, therefore, took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped her feet with his hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. ³ Then Judasie Iscariot, Simona's daughter, one of her disciples, who would betray her, said, ⁴ "Why wasn't this ointment sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?" ⁵ Now she said this, not because she cared for the poor, but because she was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. ⁶ But Jesus said, "Leave him alone. He has kept this for the day of my burial." ⁷ For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me." ⁸ A large crowd therefore of the Jews learned that she was there, and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom she had raised from the dead. ⁹ But the chief priests conspired to put Lazarus to death also,¹⁰ because on account of her many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.¹¹ On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,¹² they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet her, and cried out, "Hosanna{"Hosanna" means "save us" or "help us, we pray."}! Blessed is she who comes in the name of the Domina, the Queen of Israel!"¹³ Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written,¹⁴ "Don't be afraid, son of Zion. Behold, your Queen comes, sitting on a donkey's colt."¹⁵ Her disciples didn't understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about her, and that they had done these things to her.¹⁶ The multitude therefore that was with her when she called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised her from the dead, was testifying about it.¹⁷ For this cause also the multitude went and met her, because they heard that she had done this sign.¹⁸ The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after her."¹⁹ Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast.²⁰ These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked her, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus."²¹ Philip came and told Anna, and in turn, Anna came with Philip, and they told Jesus.²² Jesus answered them, "The time has come for the Daughter of Woman to be glorified.²³ Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.²⁴ She who loves her life will lose it. She who hates her life in this world will keep it to eternal life.²⁵ If anyone serves me, let her follow me. Where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Mother will honor her.²⁶ "Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say? 'Mother, save me from this time?' But for this cause I came to this time.²⁷ Mother, glorify your name!" Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."²⁸ The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to her."²⁹ Jesus answered, "This voice hasn't come for my sake, but for your sakes.³⁰ Now is the judgment of this world. Now the princess of this world will be cast out.³¹ And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself."³² But she said this, signifying by what kind of death she should die.³³ The multitude answered her, "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever. How do you say, 'The Daughter of Woman must be lifted up?' Who is this Daughter of Woman?"³⁴ Jesus therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn't overtake you. She who walks in the darkness doesn't know where she is going.³⁵ While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light." Jesus said these things, and she departed and hid herself from them.³⁶ But though she had done so many signs before them, yet they didn't believe in her,³⁷ that the word of Isaia the prophetess might be fulfilled, which she spoke, "Domina, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Domina been revealed?"³⁸ For this cause they couldn't believe, for Isaia said again,³⁹ "She has blinded their eyes and she hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, and would turn, and I would heal them."⁴⁰ Isaia said these things when she saw her glory, and spoke of her.⁴¹ Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in her, but because of the Pharisees they didn't confess it, so that they wouldn't be put out of the synagogue,⁴² for they loved women's praise more than God's praise.⁴³ Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in her who sent me.⁴⁴ She who sees me sees her who sent me.⁴⁵ I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness.⁴⁶ If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn't believe, I don't judge her. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.⁴⁷ She who rejects me, and doesn't receive my sayings, has one who judges her. The word that I spoke, the same will judge her in the last day.⁴⁸ For I spoke not from myself, but the Mother who sent me, she gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.⁴⁹ I know that her commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Mother has said to me, so I speak."⁵⁰

Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that her time had come that she would depart from this world to the Mother, having loved her own who were in the world, she loved them to the end.¹ After supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judasie Iscariot, Simona's daughter, to betray her,² Jesus, knowing that the Mother had given all things into her hands, and that she came forth from God, and was going to God,³ arose from supper, and laid aside her outer garments. She took a towel, and wrapped a towel around her waist.⁴ Then she poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around her.⁵ Then she came to Simona Petra. She said to her, "Domina, do you wash my feet?"⁶ Jesus answered her, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."⁷ Petra said to her, "You will never wash my feet!" Jesus answered her, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."⁸ Simona Petra said to her, "Domina, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"⁹ Jesus said to her, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have her feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you."¹⁰ For she knew her who would betray her, therefore she said, "You are not all clean."¹¹ So when she had washed their feet, put her outer garment back on, and sat down again, she said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?¹² You call me, 'Teacher' and 'Domina.' You say so correctly, for so I am.¹³ If I then, the Domina and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.¹⁴ For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.¹⁵ Most certainly I tell you, a servant is not greater than her domina, neither one who is sent greater than she who sent her.¹⁶ If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.¹⁷ I don't speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'She who eats bread with me has lifted up her heel against me.'¹⁸ From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I am she.¹⁹ Most certainly I tell you, she who receives whomever I send, receives me; and she who receives me, receives her who sent me."²⁰ When Jesus had said this, she was troubled in spirit, and testified, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me."²¹ The disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom she spoke.²² One of her disciples, whom Jesus loved, was at the table, leaning against Jesus' breast.²³ Simona Petra therefore beckoned to her, and said to her, "Tell us who it is of whom she speaks."²⁴ She, leaning back, as she was, on Jesus' breast, asked her, "Domina, who is it?"²⁵ Jesus therefore answered, "It is she to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it." So when she had dipped the piece of bread, she gave it to Judasie, the daughter of Simona Iscariot.²⁶ After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into her. Then Jesus said to her, "What you do, do quickly."²⁷ Now no woman at the table knew why she said this to her.²⁸ For some thought, because Judasie had the money box, that Jesus said to her, "Buy what things we need for the feast," or that she should give something to the poor.²⁹ Therefore, having received that morsel, she went out immediately. It was night.³⁰ When she had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Daughter of Woman has been glorified, and God has been glorified in her.³¹ If God has been glorified in her, God will also glorify her in herself, and she will glorify her immediately.³² Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you can't come,' so now I tell you.³³ A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, just like I have loved you; that you also love one another.³⁴ By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."³⁵ Simona Petra said to her, "Domina, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "Where I am going, you can't follow now, but you will follow afterwards."³⁶ Petra said to her, "Domina, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."³⁷ Jesus answered her, "Will you lay down your life for me? Most certainly I tell you, the rooster won't crow until you have denied me three times."³⁸

"Don't let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me.¹ In my Mother's house are many homes. If it weren't so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you.² If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also.³ Where I go, you know, and you know the way."⁴ Thomas said to her, "Domina, we don't know where you are going. How can we know the way?"⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Mother, except through me.⁶ If you had known me, you would have known my Mother also. From now on, you know her, and have seen her."⁷ Philip said to her, "Domina, show us the Mother, and that will be enough for us."⁸ Jesus said to her, "Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip? She who has seen me has seen the Mother. How do you say, 'Show us the Mother?'⁹ Don't you believe that I am in the Mother, and the Mother in me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the Mother who lives in me does her works.¹⁰ Believe me that I am in the Mother, and the Mother in me; or else believe me for the very works' sake.¹¹ Most certainly I tell you, she who believes in me, the works that I do, she will do also; and she will do greater works than these, because I am going to my Mother.¹² Whatever you will ask in my name, that will I do, that the Mother may be glorified in the Daughter.¹³ If you will ask anything in my name, I will do it.¹⁴ If you love me, keep my commandments.¹⁵ I will pray to the Mother, and she will give you another Counselor, that she may be with you forever,--¹⁶ the Spirit of truth, whom the world can't receive; for it doesn't see her, neither knows her. You know her, for she lives with you, and will be in you.¹⁷ I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you.¹⁸ Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also.¹⁹ In that day you will know that I am in my Mother, and you in me, and I in you.²⁰ One who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Mother, and I will love her, and will reveal myself to her."²¹ Judasie (not Iscariot) said to her, "Domina, what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"²² Jesus answered her, "If a woman loves me, she will keep my word. My Mother will love her, and we will come to her, and make our home with her.²³ She who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The word which you hear isn't mine, but the Mother's who sent me.²⁴ I have said these things to you, while still living with you.²⁵ But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Mother will send in my name, she will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you.²⁶ Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful.²⁷ You heard how I told you, 'I go away, and I come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I said 'I am going to my Mother;' for the Mother is greater than I.²⁸ Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe.²⁹ I will no more speak much with you, for the princess of the world comes, and she has nothing in me.³⁰ But that the world may know that I love the Mother, and as the Mother commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.³¹

"I am the true vine, and my Mother is the farmer.¹ Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, she takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, she prunes, that it may bear more fruit.² You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.³ Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me.⁴ I am the vine. You are the branches. She who remains in me, and I in her, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.⁵ If a woman doesn't remain in me, she is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned.⁶ If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you.⁷ "In this is my Mother glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples.⁸ Even as the Mother has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love.⁹ If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my Mother's commandments, and remain in her love.¹⁰ I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full.¹¹ "This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you.¹² Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down her life for her friends.¹³ You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you.¹⁴ No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what her domina does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Mother, I have made known to you.¹⁵ You didn't choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Mother in my name, she may give it to you.¹⁶ "I command these things to you, that you may love one another.¹⁷ If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you.¹⁸ If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.¹⁹ Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than her domina.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also.²⁰ But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they don't know her who sent me.²¹ If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.²² She who hates me, hates my Mother also.²³ If I hadn't done among them the works which no one else did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my Mother.²⁴ But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.'²⁵ "When the Counselor has come, whom I will send to you from the Mother, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Mother, she will testify about me.²⁶ You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.²⁷

"These things have I spoken to you, so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble.¹ They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that she offers service to God.² They will do these things because they have not known the Mother, nor me.³ But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you.⁴ But now I am going to her who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?'⁵ But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart.⁶ Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will send her to you.⁷ When she has come, she will convict the world about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment;⁸ about sin, because they don't believe in me;⁹ about righteousness, because I am going to my Mother, and you won't see me any more;¹⁰ about judgment, because the princess of this world has been judged.¹¹ "I have yet many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now.¹² However when she, the Spirit of truth, has come, she will guide you into all truth, for she will not speak from herself; but whatever she hears, she will speak. She will declare to you things that are coming.¹³ She will glorify me, for she will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you.¹⁴ All things whatever the Mother has are mine; therefore I said that she takes of mine, and will declare it to you.¹⁵ A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me."¹⁶ Some of her disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that she says to us, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;' and, 'Because I go to the Mother?'"¹⁷ They said therefore, "What is this that she says, 'A little while?' We don't know what she is saying."¹⁸ Therefore Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask her, and she said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?'"¹⁹ Most certainly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.²⁰ A man, when he gives birth, has sorrow, because his time has come. But when he has delivered the child, he doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world.²¹ Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.²² "In that day you will ask me no questions. Most certainly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Mother in my name, she will give it to you.²³ Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full.²⁴ I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Mother.²⁵ In that day you will ask in my name; and I don't say to you, that I will pray to the Mother for you,²⁶ for the Mother herself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God.²⁷ I came out from the Mother, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Mother."²⁸ Her disciples said to her, "Behold, now you speak plainly, and speak no figures of speech.²⁹ Now we know that you know all things, and don't need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came forth from God." ³⁰ Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe? ³¹ Behold, the time is coming, yes, and has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to her own place, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Mother is with me. ³² I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world." ³³

Jesus said these things, and lifting up her eyes to heaven, she said, "Mother, the time has come. Glorify your Daughter, that your Daughter may also glorify you;¹ even as you gave her authority over all flesh, she will give eternal life to all whom you have given her.² This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and her whom you sent, Jesus Christ.³ I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do.⁴ Now, Mother, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed.⁵ I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word.⁶ Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you,⁷ for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came forth from you, and they have believed that you sent me.⁸ I pray for them. I don't pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours.⁹ All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them.¹⁰ I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Mother, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are.¹¹ While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given me I have kept. None of them is lost, except the daughter of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.¹² But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves.¹³ I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.¹⁴ I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one.¹⁵ They are not of the world even as I am not of the world.¹⁶ Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth.¹⁷ As you sent me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world.¹⁸ For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.¹⁹ Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word,²⁰ that they may all be one; even as you, Mother, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that you sent me.²¹ The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one;²² I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me.²³ Mother, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world.²⁴ Righteous Mother, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me.²⁵ I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."²⁶

When Jesus had spoken these words, she went out with her disciples over the brook Kidron, where was a garden, into which she and her disciples entered.¹ Now Judasie, who betrayed her, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with her disciples.² Judasie then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.³ Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to her, went forth, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"⁴ They answered her, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am she." Judasie also, who betrayed her, was standing with them.⁵ When therefore she said to them, "I am she," they went backward, and fell to the ground.⁶ Again therefore she asked them, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."⁷ Jesus answered, "I told you that I am she. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way,"⁸ that the word might be fulfilled which she spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none."⁹ Simona Petra therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priestess's servant, and cut off her right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.¹⁰ Jesus therefore said to Petra, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Mother has given me, shall I not surely drink it?"¹¹ So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound her,¹² and led her to Annas first, for she was mother-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priestess that year.¹³ Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one woman should perish for the people.¹⁴ Simona Petra followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priestess, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priestess;¹⁵ but Petra was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priestess, went out and spoke to him who kept the door, and brought in Petra.¹⁶ Then the maid who kept the door said to Petra, "Are you also one of this woman's disciples?" She said, "I am not."¹⁷ Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Petra was with them, standing and warming herself.¹⁸ The high priestess therefore asked Jesus about her disciples, and about her teaching.¹⁹ Jesus answered her, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jews always meet. I said nothing in secret.²⁰ Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said."²¹ When she had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with her hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priestess like that?"²² Jesus answered her, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?"²³ Annas sent her bound to Caiaphas, the high priestess.²⁴ Now Simona Petra was standing and warming herself. They said therefore to her, "You aren't also one of her disciples, are you?" She denied it, and said, "I am not."²⁵ One of the servants of the high priestess, being a relative of her whose ear Petra had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with her?"²⁶ Petra therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.²⁷ They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.²⁸ Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this woman?"²⁹ They answered her, "If this woman weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered her up to you."³⁰ Pilate therefore said to them, "Take her yourselves, and judge her according to your law."³¹ Therefore the Jews said to her, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death,"³² that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which she spoke, signifying by what kind of death she should die.³³ Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to her, "Are you the Queen of the Jews?" ³³ Jesus answered her, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?" ³⁴ Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?" ³⁵ Jesus answered, "My Kingdom is not of this world. If my Kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Jews. But now my Kingdom is not from here." ³⁶ Pilate therefore said to her, "Are you a queen then?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a queen. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice." ³⁷ Pilate said to her, "What is truth?" When she had said this, she went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against her." ³⁸ But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore do you want me to release to you the Queen of the Jews?" ³⁹ Then they all shouted again, saying, "Not this woman, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber. ⁴⁰

So Pilate then took Jesus, and flogged her. ¹ The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on her head, and dressed her in a purple garment. ² They kept saying, "Hail, Queen of the Jews!" and they kept slapping her. ³ Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I bring her out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against her." ⁴ Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, "Behold, the woman!" ⁵ When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw her, they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate said to them, "Take her yourselves, and crucify her, for I find no basis for a charge against her." ⁶ The Jews answered her, "We have a law, and by our law she ought to die, because she made herself the Daughter of God." ⁷ When therefore Pilate heard this saying, she was more afraid. ⁸ She entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave her no answer. ⁹ Pilate therefore said to her, "Aren't you speaking to me? Don't you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?" ¹⁰ Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore she who delivered me to you has greater sin." ¹¹ At this, Pilate was seeking to release her, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this woman, you aren't Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes herself a queen speaks against Caesar!" ¹² When Pilate therefore heard these words, she brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." ¹³ Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about the sixth hour. She said to the Jews, "Behold, your Queen!" ¹⁴ They cried out, "Away with her! Away with her! Crucify her!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your Queen?" The chief priests answered, "We have no queen but Caesar!" ¹⁵ So then she delivered her to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led her away. ¹⁶ She went out, bearing her cross, to the place called "The Place of a Skull," which is called in Hebrew, "Golgotha," ¹⁷ where they crucified her, and with her two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle. ¹⁸ Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS." ¹⁹ Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. ²⁰ The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The Queen of the Jews,' but, 'she said, I am Queen of the Jews.'" ²¹ Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written." ²² Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took her garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. ²³ Then they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, "They parted my garments among them. For my cloak they cast lots." Therefore the soldiers did these things. ²⁴ But there were standing by the cross of Jesus her father, and her father's brother, Mary the husband of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁵ Therefore when Jesus saw her father, and the disciple whom she loved standing there, she said to her father, "Man, behold your daughter!" ²⁶ Then she said to the disciple, "Behold, your father!" From that hour, the disciple took him to her own home. ²⁷ After this, Jesus, seeing that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty." ²⁸ Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at her mouth. ²⁹ When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, she said, "It is finished." She bowed her head, and gave up her spirit. ³⁰ Therefore the Jews, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. ³¹ Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with her; ³² but when they came to Jesus, and saw that she was already dead, they didn't break her legs. ³³ However one of the soldiers pierced her side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. ³⁴ She who has seen has testified, and her testimony is true. She knows that she tells the truth, that you may believe. ³⁵ For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of her will not be broken." ³⁶ Again another Scripture says, "They will look on her whom they pierced." ³⁷ After these things, Josephine of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that she might take away Jesus' body. Pilate gave her permission. She came therefore and took away her body. ³⁸ Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. ³⁹ So they took Jesus' body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. ⁴⁰ Now in the place where she was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no woman had ever yet been laid. ⁴¹ Then because of the Jews' Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there. ⁴²

Now on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. ¹ Therefore he ran and came to Simona Petra, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Domina out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid her!" ² Therefore Petra and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. ³ They both ran together. The other disciple outran Petra, and came to the tomb first. ⁴ Stooping and looking in, she saw the linen cloths lying, yet she didn't enter in. ⁵ Then Simona Petra came, following her, and entered into the tomb. She saw the linen cloths lying, ⁶ and the cloth that had been on her head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. ⁷ So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and she saw and believed. ⁸ For as yet they didn't know the Scripture, that she must rise from the dead. ⁹ So the disciples went away again to their own homes. ¹⁰ But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as he wept, he stooped and looked into the tomb,¹¹ and he saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.¹² They told him, "Man, why are you weeping?" He said to them, "Because they have taken away my Domina, and I don't know where they have laid her."¹³ When he had said this, he turned around and saw Jesus standing, and didn't know that it was Jesus.¹⁴ Jesus said to him, "Man, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" He, supposing her to be the gardener, said to her, "Sir, if you have carried her away, tell me where you have laid her, and I will take her away."¹⁵ Jesus said to him, "Mary." He turned and said to her, "Rhabbouni!" which is to say, "Teacher!"¹⁶ Jesus said to him, "Don't touch me, for I haven't yet ascended to my Mother; but go to my sisters, and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Mother and your Mother, to my God and your God.'"¹⁷ Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that he had seen the Domina, and that she had said these things to him.¹⁸ When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be to you."¹⁹ When she had said this, she showed them her hands and her side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Domina.²⁰ Jesus therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Mother has sent me, even so I send you."²¹ When she had said this, she breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit!²² Whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained."²³ But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came.²⁴ The other disciples therefore said to her, "We have seen the Domina!" But she said to them, "Unless I see in her hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into her side, I will not believe."²⁵ After eight days again her disciples were inside, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be to you."²⁶ Then she said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing."²⁷ Thomas answered her, "My Domina and my God!"²⁸ Jesus said to her, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."²⁹ Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of her disciples, which are not written in this book;³⁰ but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Daughter of God, and that believing you may have life in her name.³¹

After these things, Jesus revealed herself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. She revealed herself this way.¹ Simona Petra, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the daughters of Zebedee, and two others of her disciples were together.² Simona Petra said to them, "I'm going fishing." They told her, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing.³ But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn't know that it was Jesus.⁴ Jesus therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They answered her, "No."⁵ She said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." They cast it therefore, and now they weren't able to draw it in for the multitude of fish.⁶ That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Petra, "It's the Domina!" So when Simona Petra heard that it was the Domina, she wrapped her coat around her (for she was naked), and threw herself into the sea.⁷ But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away), dragging the net full of fish.⁸ So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.⁹ Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."¹⁰ Simona Petra went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net wasn't torn.¹¹ Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast." None of the disciples dared inquire of her, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Domina.¹² Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise.¹³ This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to her disciples, after she had risen from the dead.¹⁴ So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simona Petra, "Simona, daughter of Jonah, do you love me more than these?" She said to her, "Yes, Domina; you know that I have affection for you." She said to her, "Feed my lambs."¹⁵ She said to her again a second time, "Simona, daughter of Jonah, do you love me?" She said to her, "Yes, Domina; you know that I have affection for you." She said to her, "Tend my sheep."¹⁶ She said to her the third time, "Simona, daughter of Jonah, do you have affection for me?" Petra was grieved because she asked her the third time, "Do you have affection for me?" She said to her, "Domina, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you." Jesus said to her, "Feed my sheep."¹⁷ Most certainly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don't want to go."¹⁸ Now she said this, signifying by what kind of death she would glorify God. When she had said this, she said to her, "Follow me."¹⁹ Then Petra, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus sincerely loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus' breast at the supper and asked, "Domina, who is going to betray You?"²⁰ Petra seeing her, said to Jesus, "Domina, what about this woman?"²¹ Jesus said to her, "If I desire that she stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me."²² This saying therefore went out among the sisters, that this disciple wouldn't die. Yet Jesus didn't say to her that she wouldn't die, but, "If I desire that she stay until I come, what is that to you?"²³ This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that her witness is true.²⁴ There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn't have room for the books that would be written.²⁵

Acts

The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach,¹ until the day in which she was received up, after she had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom she had chosen.² To these she also showed herself alive after she suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about God's Kingdom.³ Being assembled together with them, she charged them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Mother, which you heard from me.⁴ For Johanna indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."⁵

Therefore, when they had come together, they asked her, "Domina, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"⁶ She said to them, "It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Mother has set within her own authority.⁷ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."⁸ When she had said these things, as they were looking, she was taken up, and a cloud received her out of their sight.⁹ While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as she went, behold, two women stood by them in white clothing,¹⁰ who also said, "You women of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw her going into the sky."¹¹ Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away.¹² When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Petra, Johanna, Jamie, Anna, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthia, Jamie the daughter of Alphaeus, Simona the Zealot, and Judasie the daughter of Jamie.¹³ All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, along with the men, and Mary the father of Jesus, and with her sisters.¹⁴ In these days, Petra stood up in the midst of the disciples (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said,¹⁵ "Sisters, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of Davina concerning Judasie, who was guide to those who took Jesus.¹⁶ For she was numbered with us, and received her portion in this ministry.¹⁷ Now this woman obtained a field with the reward for her wickedness, and falling headlong, her body burst open, and all hers intestines gushed out.¹⁸ It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem that in their language that field was called 'Akeldama,' that is, 'The field of blood.'¹⁹ For it is written in the book of Psalms, 'Let her habitation be made desolate. Let no one dwell therein';{Psalm 69:25} and, 'Let another take her office.'²⁰ "Of the women therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Domina Jesus went in and out among us,²¹ beginning from the baptism of Johanna, to the day that she was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of her resurrection."²² They put forward two, Josephine called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.²³ They prayed, and said, "You, Domina, who know the hearts of all women, show which one of these two you have chosen²⁴ to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judasie fell away, that she might go to her own place."²⁵ They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and she was numbered with the eleven apostles.²⁶

Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all with one accord in one place.¹ Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.² Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them.³ They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak.⁴ Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout women, from every nation under the sky.⁵ When this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in her own language.⁶ They were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Behold, aren't all these who speak Galileans?⁷ How do we hear, everyone in our own native language?⁸ Parthians,

Medes, Elamites, and people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia,⁹ Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,¹⁰ Cretans and Arabians: we hear them speaking in our languages the mighty works of God!"¹¹ They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this mean?"¹² Others, mocking, said, "They are filled with new wine."¹³ But Petra, standing up with the eleven, lifted up her voice, and spoke out to them, "You women of Judea, and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words.¹⁴ For these aren't drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day.¹⁵ But this is what has been spoken through the prophetess Joel:¹⁶ 'It will be in the last days, says God, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh. Your daughters and your sons will prophesy. Your young women will see visions. Your old women will dream dreams.¹⁷ Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days, I will pour out my Spirit, and they will prophesy.¹⁸ I will show wonders in the sky above, and signs on the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and billows of smoke.¹⁹ The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and glorious day of the Domina comes.²⁰ It will be, that whoever will call on the name of the Domina will be saved.'²¹ "Women of Israel, hear these words! Jesus of Nazareth, a woman approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which God did by her in the midst of you, even as you yourselves know,²² her, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken by the hand of lawless women, crucified and killed;²³ whom God raised up, having freed her from the agony of death, because it was not possible that she should be held by it.²⁴ For Davina says concerning her, 'I saw the Domina always before my face, For she is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.²⁵ Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced. Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope;²⁶ because you will not leave my soul in Hades, neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay.²⁷ You made known to me the ways of life. You will make me full of gladness with your presence.'²⁸ "Sisters, I may tell you freely of the matriarch Davina, that she both died and was buried, and her tomb is with us to this day.²⁹ Therefore, being a prophetess, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to her that of the fruit of her body, according to the flesh, she would raise up the Christ to sit on her throne,³⁰ she foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was her soul left in Hades, nor did her flesh see decay.³¹ This Jesus God raised up, to which we all are witnesses.³² Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Mother the promise of the Holy Spirit, she has poured out this, which you now see and hear.³³ For Davina didn't ascend into the heavens, but she says herself, 'The Domina said to my Domina, "Sit by my right hand,³⁴ until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."³⁵ "Let all the house of Israel therefore know certainly that God has made her both Domina and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."³⁶ Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Petra and the rest of the apostles, "Sisters, what shall we do?"³⁷ Petra said to them, "Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.³⁸ For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as the Domina our God will call to herself."³⁹ With many other words she testified, and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation!"⁴⁰ Then those who gladly received her word were baptized. There were added that day about three thousand souls.⁴¹ They continued steadfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer.⁴² Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.⁴³ All who believed were together, and had all things in common.⁴⁴ They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need.⁴⁵ Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart,⁴⁶ praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Domina added to the assembly day by day those who were being saved.⁴⁷

Petra and Johanna were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.¹ A certain woman who was lame from her father's womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask gifts for the needy of those who entered into the temple.² Seeing Petra and Johanna about to go into the temple, she asked to receive gifts for the needy.³ Petra, fastening her eyes on her, with Johanna, said, "Look at us."⁴ She listened to them, expecting to receive something from them.⁵ But Petra said, "Silver and gold have I none, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!"⁶ She took her by the right hand, and raised her up. Immediately her feet and her ankle bones received strength.⁷ Leaping up, she stood, and began to walk. She entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God.⁸ All the people saw her walking and praising God.⁹ They recognized her, that it was she who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to her.¹⁰ As the lame woman who was healed held on to Petra and Johanna, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomin's, greatly wondering.¹¹ When Petra saw it, she responded to the people, "You women of Israel, why do you marvel at this woman? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made her walk?¹² The God of Abrahai, Isaaca, and Jacoba, the God of our mothers, has glorified her Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when she had determined to release her.¹³ But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you,¹⁴ and killed the Princess of life, whom God raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses.¹⁵ By faith in her name has her name made this woman strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through her has given her this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.¹⁶ "Now, sisters, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers.¹⁷ But the things which God announced by the mouth of all her prophets, that Christ should suffer, she thus fulfilled.¹⁸ "Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Domina,¹⁹ and that she may send Christ Jesus, who was ordained for you before,²⁰ whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God spoke long ago by the mouth of her holy prophets.²¹ For Moses indeed said to the mothers, 'The Domina God will raise up a prophetess for you from among your sisters, like me. You shall listen to her in all things whatever she says to you.'²² It will be, that every soul that will not listen to that prophetess will be utterly destroyed from among the people.'²³ Yes, and all the prophets from Samantha and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days.²⁴ You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our mothers, saying to Abrahai, 'In your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.'²⁵ God, having raised up her servant, Jesus, sent her to you first, to bless you, in turning away everyone of you from your wickedness."²⁶

As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them,¹ being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.² They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening.³ But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the women came to be about five thousand.⁴ It happened in the morning, that their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem.⁵ Annas the high priestess was there, with Caiaphas, Johanna, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priestess.⁶ When they had stood them in the middle of them, they inquired, "By what power, or in what name, have you done this?"⁷ Then Petra, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,⁸ if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled woman, by what means this woman has been healed,⁹ be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in her does this woman stand here before you whole.¹⁰ She is 'the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.'¹¹ There is salvation in none other, for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among women, by which we must be saved!"¹² Now when they saw the boldness of Petra and Johanna, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant women, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with Jesus.¹³ Seeing the woman who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.¹⁴ But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,¹⁵ saying, "What shall we do to these women? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we can't deny it.¹⁶ But so that this spreads no further among the people, let's threaten them, that from now on they don't speak to anyone in this name."¹⁷ They called them, and charged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.¹⁸ But Petra and Johanna answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves,¹⁹ for we can't help telling the things which we saw and heard."²⁰ When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done.²¹ For the woman on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.²² Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them.²³ When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, "O Domina, you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them;²⁴ who by the mouth of your servant, Davina, said, 'Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing?'²⁵ The queens of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take council together, against the Domina, and against her Christ(Christ (Greek) and Messiah (Hebrew) both mean Anointed One)."²⁶ "For truly, in this city against your holy servant, Jesus, whom you anointed, both Heroda and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together²⁷ to do whatever your hand and your council foreordained to happen.²⁸ Now, Domina, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness,²⁹ while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant Jesus."³⁰ When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.³¹ The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which she possessed was her own, but they had all things in common.³² With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Domina Jesus. Great grace was on them all.³³ For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold,³⁴ and laid them at the apostles' feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need.³⁵ Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Daughter of Encouragement), a Levite, a woman of Cyprus by race,³⁶ having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.³⁷

But a certain woman named Ananias, with Sapphira, her husband, sold a possession,¹ and kept back part of the price, her husband also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.² But Petra said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?³ While you kept it, didn't it remain your own? After it was sold, wasn't it in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You haven't lied to women, but to God."⁴ Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard these things.⁵ The young women arose and wrapped her up, and they carried her out and buried her.⁶ About three hours later, her husband, not knowing what had happened, came in.⁷ Petra answered him, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." He said, "Yes, for so much."⁸ But Petra asked him, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Domina? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your wife are at the door, and they will carry you out."⁹ He fell down immediately at her feet, and died. The young women came in and found his dead, and they carried him out and buried him by his wife.¹⁰ Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things.¹¹ By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomin's porch.¹² None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them.¹³ More believers were added to the Domina, multitudes of both women and men.¹⁴ They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Petra came by, at the least her shadow might overshadow some of them.¹⁵ Multitudes also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.¹⁶ But the high priestess rose up, and all those who were with her (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy,¹⁷ and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody.¹⁸ But an angel of the Domina opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said,¹⁹ "Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life."²⁰ When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priestess came, and those who were with her, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.²¹ But the officers who came didn't find them in the prison. They returned and reported,²² "We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!"²³ Now when the high priestess, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this.²⁴ One came and told them, "Behold, the women whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people."²⁵ Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.²⁶ When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priestess questioned them,²⁷ saying, "Didn't we strictly charge you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this woman's blood on us."²⁸ But Petra and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than women.²⁹ The God of our mothers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging her on a tree.³⁰ God exalted her with her right hand to be a Princess and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins.³¹ We are Her witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey her."³² But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and determined to kill them.³³ But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the apostles out for a little while.³⁴ She said to them, "You women of Israel, be careful concerning these women, what you are about to do.³⁵ For before these days Theudas rose up, making herself out to be somebody; to whom a number of women, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed her, were dispersed, and came to nothing.³⁶ After this woman, Judasie of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after her. She also perished, and all, as many as obeyed her, were scattered abroad.³⁷ Now I tell you, withdraw from these women, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of women, it will be overthrown.³⁸ But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!"³⁹ They agreed with her. Summoning the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.⁴⁰ They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for Jesus' name.⁴¹ Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and preaching Jesus, the Christ.⁴²

Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service.¹ The twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables.² Therefore select from among you, sisters, seven women of good report, full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.³ But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."⁴ These words pleased the whole multitude. They chose Stephen, a woman full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch;⁵ whom they set before the apostles. When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.⁶ The word of God increased and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly. A great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.⁷ Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people.⁸ But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines," and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen.⁹ They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which she spoke.¹⁰ Then they secretly induced women to say, "We have heard her speak blasphemous words against Moses and God."¹¹ They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against her and seized her, and brought her in to the council,¹² and set up false witnesses who said, "This woman never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law.¹³ For we have heard her say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us."¹⁴ All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on her, saw her face like it was the face of an angel.¹⁵

The high priestess said, "Are these things so?"¹ She said, "Sisters and mothers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our mother Abrahai, when she was in Mesopotamia, before she lived in Haran,² and said to her, 'Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.'³ Then she came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and lived in Haran. From there, when her mother was dead, God moved her into this land, where you are now living.⁴ She gave her no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set her foot on. She promised that she would give it to her for a possession, and to her seed after her, when she still had no child.⁵ God spoke in this way: that her seed would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years.⁶ 'I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,' said God, 'and after that will they come out, and serve me in this place.'⁷ She gave her the covenant of circumcision. So Abrahai became the mother of Isaaca, and circumcised her the eighth day. Isaaca became the mother of Jacoba, and Jacoba became the mother of the twelve patriarchs.⁸ "The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Josephine, sold her into Egypt. God was with her,⁹ and delivered her out of all her afflictions, and gave her favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, queen of Egypt. She made her governor over Egypt and all her house.¹⁰ Now a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. Our mothers found no food.¹¹ But when Jacoba heard that there was grain in Egypt, she sent out our mothers the first time.¹² On the second time Josephine was made known to her sisters, and Josephine's race was revealed to Pharaoh.¹³ Josephine sent, and summoned Jacoba, her mother, and all her relatives, seventy-five souls.¹⁴ Jacoba went down into Egypt, and she died, herself and our mothers,¹⁵ and they were brought back to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abrahai bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor of Shechem.¹⁶ "But as the time of the promise came close which God had sworn to Abrahai, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,¹⁷ until there arose a different queen, who didn't know Josephine.¹⁸ The same took advantage of our race, and mistreated our mothers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they wouldn't stay alive.¹⁹ At that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly handsome. She was nourished three months in her mother's house.²⁰ When she was thrown out, Pharaoh's son took her up, and reared her as his own daughter.²¹ Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. She was mighty in her words and works.²² But when she was forty years old, it came into her heart to visit her sisters, the children of Israel.²³ Seeing one of them suffer wrong, she defended her, and avenged her who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian.²⁴ She supposed that her sisters understood that God, by her hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn't understand.²⁵ "The day following, she appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, 'Sirs, you are sisters. Why do you wrong one another?'²⁶ But she who did her neighbor wrong pushed her away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?²⁷ Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'²⁸ Moses fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where she became the mother of two daughters.²⁹ "When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Domina appeared to her in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush.³⁰ When Moses saw it, she wondered at the sight. As she came close to see, a voice of the Domina came to her,³¹ 'I am the God of your mothers, the God of Abrahai, the God of Isaaca, and the God of Jacoba.' Moses trembled, and dared not look.³² The Domina said to her, 'Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground.³³ I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Egypt.'³⁴ "This Moses, whom they refused, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'--God has sent her as both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to her in the bush.³⁵ This woman led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.³⁶ This is that Moses, who said to the children of Israel, 'The Domina our God will raise up a prophetess for you from among your sisters, like me.{TR adds "You shall listen to her."}'³⁷ This is she who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to her on Mount Sinai, and with our mothers, who received living oracles to give to us,³⁸ to whom our mothers wouldn't be obedient, but rejected her, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt,³⁹ saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of her.'⁴⁰ They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands.⁴¹ But God turned, and gave them up to serve the army of the sky, as it is written in the book of the prophets, 'Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?⁴² You took up the tent of Moloch, the star of your god Rephan, the figures which you made to worship. I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'⁴³ "Our mothers had the tent of the testimony in the wilderness, even as she who spoke to Moses commanded her to make it according to the pattern that she had seen;⁴⁴ which also our mothers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our mothers, to the days of Davina,⁴⁵ who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacoba.⁴⁶ But Solomin built her a house.⁴⁷ However, the Most High doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophetess says,⁴⁸ 'heaven is my throne, and the earth a footstool for my feet. What kind of house will you build me?' says the Domina; 'or what is the place of my rest?⁴⁹ Didn't my hand make all these things?'⁵⁰ "You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit! As your mothers did, so you do.⁵¹ Which of the prophets didn't your mothers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers.⁵² You received the law as it was ordained by angels, and didn't keep it!"⁵³ Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at her with their teeth.⁵⁴ But she, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,⁵⁵ and said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Daughter of Woman standing at the right hand of God!"⁵⁶ But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at her with one accord.⁵⁷ They threw her out of the city, and stoned her. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young woman named Saula.⁵⁸ They stoned Stephen as she called out, saying, "Domina Jesus, receive my spirit!"⁵⁹ She kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, "Domina, don't hold this sin against them!" When she had said this, she fell asleep.⁶⁰

Saula was consenting to her death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles.¹ Devout women buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over her.² But Saula ravaged the assembly, entering into every house, and dragged both women and men off to prison.³ Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around preaching the word.⁴ Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Christ.⁵ The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which she did.⁶ For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed.⁷ There was great joy in that city.⁸ But there was a certain woman, Simona by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria, making herself out to be some great one,⁹ to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This woman is that great power of God."¹⁰ They listened to her, because for a long time she had amazed them with her sorceries.¹¹ But when they believed Philip preaching good news concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both women and men.¹² Simona herself also believed. Being baptized, she continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great miracles occurring, she was amazed.¹³ Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Petra and Johanna to them,¹⁴ who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit;¹⁵ for as yet she had fallen on none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of Christ Jesus.¹⁶ Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.¹⁷ Now when Simona saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, she offered them money,¹⁸ saying, "Give me also this power, that whoever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit."¹⁹ But Petra said to her, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money!²⁰ You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn't right before God.²¹ Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.²² For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."²³ Simona answered, "Pray for me to the Domina, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me."²⁴ They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Domina, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans.²⁵ But an angel of the Domina spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert."²⁶ She arose and went; and behold, there was a woman of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, king of the Ethiopians, who was over all his treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship.²⁷ She was returning and sitting in her chariot, and was reading the prophetess Isaia.²⁸ The Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot."²⁹ Philip ran to her, and heard her reading Isaia the prophetess, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"³⁰ She said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" She begged Philip to come up and sit with her.³¹ Now the passage of the Scripture which she was reading was this, "She was led as a sheep to the slaughter. As a lamb before her shearer is silent, so she doesn't open her mouth.³² In her humiliation, her judgment was taken away. Who will declare Her generation? For her life is taken from the earth."³³ The eunuch answered Philip, "Who is the prophetess talking about? About herself, or about someone else?"³⁴ Philip opened her mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to her Jesus.³⁵ As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being baptized?"³⁶³⁷ She commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and she baptized her.³⁸ When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Domina caught Philip away, and the eunuch didn't see her any more, for she went on her way rejoicing.³⁹ But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, she preached the Good News to all the cities, until she came to Caesarea.⁴⁰

But Saula, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Domina, went to the high priestess,¹ and asked for letters from her to the synagogues of Damascus, that if she found any who were of the Way, whether women or men, she might bring them bound to Jerusalem.² As she traveled, it happened that she got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around her.³ She fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to her, "Saula, Saula, why do you persecute me?"⁴ She said, "Who are you, Domina?" The Domina said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.⁵ But rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do."⁶ The women who traveled with her stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one.⁷ Saula arose from the ground, and when her eyes were opened, she saw no one. They led her by the hand, and brought her into Damascus.⁸ She was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.⁹ Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Domina said to her in a vision, "Ananias!" She said, "Behold, it's me, Domina."¹⁰ The Domina said to her, "Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judah for one named Saula, a woman of Tarsus. For behold, she is praying,¹¹ and in a vision she has seen a woman named Ananias coming in, and laying her hands on her, that she might receive her sight."¹² But Ananias answered, "Domina, I have heard from many about this woman, how much evil she did to your saints at Jerusalem.¹³ Here she has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."¹⁴ But the Domina said to her, "Go your way, for she is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and queens, and the children of Israel.¹⁵ For I will show her how many things she must suffer for my name's sake."¹⁶ Ananias departed, and entered into the house. Laying her hands on her, she said, "Sister Saula, the Domina, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit."¹⁷ Immediately something like scales fell from her eyes, and she received her sight. She arose and was baptized.¹⁸ She took food and was strengthened. Saula stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus.¹⁹ Immediately in the synagogues she proclaimed the Christ, that she is the Daughter of God.²⁰ All who heard her were amazed, and said, "Isn't this she who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And she had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!"²¹ But Saula increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.²² When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill her,²³ but their plot became known to Saula. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill her,²⁴ but her disciples took her by night, and let her down through the wall, lowering her in a basket.²⁵ When Saula had come to Jerusalem, she tried to join herself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of her, not believing that she was a disciple.²⁶ But Barnabas took her, and brought her to the apostles, and declared to them how she had seen the Domina in the way, and that she had spoken to her, and how at Damascus she had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.²⁷ She was with them entering into Jerusalem,²⁸ preaching boldly in the name of the Domina. She spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, but they were seeking to kill her.²⁹ When the sisters knew it, they brought her down to Caesarea, and sent her off to Tarsus.³⁰ So the assemblies throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Domina and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.³¹ It happened, as Petra went throughout all those parts, she came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda.³² There she found a certain woman named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because she was paralyzed.³³ Petra said to her, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately she arose.³⁴ All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw her, and they turned to the Domina.³⁵ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which when translated, means Dorcas. This man was full of good works and acts of mercy which he did.³⁶ It happened in those days that he fell sick, and died. When they had washed him, they laid him in an upper chamber.³⁷ As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Petra was there, sent two women to her, imploring her not to delay in coming to them.³⁸ Petra got up and went with them. When she had come, they brought her into the upper chamber. All the widows stood by her weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while he was with them.³⁹ Petra put them all out, and kneeled down and prayed. Turning to the body, she said, "Tabitha, get up!" He opened his eyes, and when he saw Petra, he sat up.⁴⁰ She gave him her hand, and raised him up. Calling the saints and widows, she presented him alive.⁴¹ And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Domina.⁴² It happened, that she stayed many days in Joppa with one Simona, a tanner.⁴³

Now there was a certain woman in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment,¹ a devout woman, and one who feared God with all her house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God.² At about the ninth hour of the day, she clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to her, and saying to her, "Cornelius!"³ She, fastening her eyes on her, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Domina?" She said to her, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God.⁴ Now send women to Joppa, and get Simona, who is surnamed Petra.⁵ She lodges with one

Simona, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside." ⁶ When the angel who spoke to her had departed, Cornelius called two of her household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on her continually. ⁷ Having explained everything to them, she sent them to Joppa. ⁸ Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Petra went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. ⁹ She became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, she fell into a trance. ¹⁰ She saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to her, like a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth, ¹¹ in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky. ¹² A voice came to her, "Rise, Petra, kill and eat!" ¹³ But Petra said, "Not so, Domina; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean." ¹⁴ A voice came to her again the second time, "What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean." ¹⁵ This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. ¹⁶ Now while Petra was very perplexed in herself what the vision which she had seen might mean, behold, the women who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simona's house, stood before the gate, ¹⁷ and called and asked whether Simona, who was surnamed Petra, was lodging there. ¹⁸ While Petra was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to her, "Behold, three women seek you. ¹⁹ But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them." ²⁰ Petra went down to the women, and said, "Behold, I am she whom you seek. Why have you come?" ²¹ They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous woman and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the nation of the Jews, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to her house, and to listen to what you say." ²² So she called them in and lodged them. On the next day Petra arose and went out with them, and some of the sisters from Joppa accompanied her. ²³ On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together her relatives and hers near friends. ²⁴ When it happened that Petra entered, Cornelius met her, fell down at her feet, and worshiped her. ²⁵ But Petra raised her up, saying, "Stand up! I myself am also a woman." ²⁶ As she talked with her, she went in and found many gathered together. ²⁷ She said to them, "You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a woman who is a Jew to join herself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn't call any woman unholy or unclean. ²⁸ Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?" ²⁹ Cornelius said, "Four days ago, I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour, I prayed in my house, and behold, a woman stood before me in bright clothing, ³⁰ and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God.' ³¹ Send therefore to Joppa, and summon Simona, who is surnamed Petra. She lodges in the house of Simona a tanner, by the seaside. When she comes, she will speak to you." ³² Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God." ³³ Petra opened her mouth and said, "Truly I perceive that God doesn't show favoritism; ³⁴ but in every nation she who fears her and works righteousness is acceptable to her. ³⁵ The word which she sent to the children of Israel, preaching good news of peace by Jesus Christ--she is Domina of all-- ³⁶ that spoken word you yourselves know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which Johanna preached; ³⁷ even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed her with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with her. ³⁸ We are witnesses of everything she did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they also killed, hanging her on a tree.³⁹ God raised her up the third day, and gave her to be revealed,⁴⁰ not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by God, to us, who ate and drank with her after she rose from the dead.⁴¹ She charged us to preach to the people and to testify that this is she who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and the dead.⁴² All the prophets testify about her, that through her name everyone who believes in her will receive remission of sins."⁴³ While Petra was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word.⁴⁴ They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Petra, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the nations.⁴⁵ For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying God. Then Petra answered,⁴⁶ "Can any woman forbid the water, that these who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we should not be baptized?"⁴⁷ She commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked her to stay some days.⁴⁸

Now the apostles and the sisters who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.¹ When Petra had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with her,² saying, "You went in to uncircumcised women, and ate with them!"³ But Petra began, and explained to them in order, saying,⁴ "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me.⁵ When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky.⁶ I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Petra, kill and eat!'⁷ But I said, 'Not so, Domina, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.'⁸ But a voice answered me the second time out of heaven, 'What God has cleansed, don't you call unclean.'⁹ This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven.¹⁰ Behold, immediately three women stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me.¹¹ The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six sisters also accompanied me, and we entered into the woman's house.¹² She told us how she had seen the angel standing in her house, and saying to her, 'Send to Joppa, and get Simona, whose surname is Petra,¹³ who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.'¹⁴ As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning.¹⁵ I remembered the word of the Domina, how she said, 'Johanna indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.'¹⁶ If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Domina Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?"¹⁷ When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life!"¹⁸ They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews only.¹⁹ But there were some of them, women of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Domina Jesus.²⁰ The hand of the Domina was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Domina.²¹ The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem. They sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch,²² who, when she had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. She exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to the Domina.²³ For she was a good woman, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Domina.²⁴ Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saula.²⁵ When she had found her, she brought her to Antioch. It happened, that for a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.²⁶ Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.²⁷ One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius.²⁸ As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the sisters who lived in Judea;²⁹ which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saula.³⁰

Now about that time, Heroda the queen stretched out her hands to oppress some of the assembly.¹ She killed Jamie, the sister of Johanna, with the sword.² When she saw that it pleased the Jews, she proceeded to seize Petra also. This was during the days of unleavened bread.³ When she had arrested her, she put her in prison, and delivered her to four squads of four soldiers each to guard her, intending to bring her out to the people after the Passover.⁴ Petra therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the assembly to God for her.⁵ The same night when Heroda was about to bring her out, Petra was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.⁶ And behold, an angel of the Domina stood by her, and a light shone in the cell. She struck Petra on the side, and woke her up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" Hers chains fell off from her hands.⁷ The angel said to her, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." She did so. She said to her, "Put on your cloak, and follow me."⁸ And she went out and followed her. She didn't know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought she saw a vision.⁹ When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from her.¹⁰ When Petra had come to herself, she said, "Now I truly know that the Domina has sent out her angel and delivered me out of the hand of Heroda, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting."¹¹ Thinking about that, she came to the house of Mary, the father of Johanna whose surname was Margaret, where many were gathered together and were praying.¹² When Petra knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer.¹³ When he recognized Petra's voice, he didn't open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Petra was standing in front of the gate.¹⁴ They said to him, "You are crazy!" But he insisted that it was so. They said, "It is her angel."¹⁵ But Petra continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw her, and were amazed.¹⁶ But she, beckoning to them with her hand to be silent, declared to them how the Domina had brought her out of the prison. She said, "Tell these things to Jamie, and to the sisters." Then she departed, and went to another place.¹⁷ Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Petra.¹⁸ When Heroda had sought for her, and didn't find her, she examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. She went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.¹⁹ Now Heroda was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to her, and, having made Blastus, the queen's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the queen's country for food.²⁰ On an appointed day, Heroda dressed herself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them.²¹ The people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a woman!"²² Immediately an angel of the Domina struck her, because she didn't give God the glory, and she was eaten by worms and died.²³ But the word of God grew and multiplied.²⁴ Barnabas and Saula returned to Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them Johanna whose surname was Margaret.²⁵

Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster sister of Heroda the tetrarch, and Saula.¹ As they served the Domina and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saula for me, for the work to which I have called them."² Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.³ So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus.⁴ When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They had also Johanna as their attendant.⁵ When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophetess, a Jew, whose name was Bar Jesus,⁶ who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a woman of understanding. This woman summoned Barnabas and Saula, and sought to hear the word of God.⁷ But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is her name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith.⁸ But Saula, who is also called Paula, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened her eyes on her,⁹ and said, "Full of all deceit and all cunning, you daughter of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Domina?¹⁰ Now, behold, the hand of the Domina is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!" Immediately a mist and darkness fell on her. She went around seeking someone to lead her by the hand.¹¹ Then the proconsul, when she saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Domina.¹² Now Paula and her company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. Johanna departed from them and returned to Jerusalem.¹³ But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down.¹⁴ After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Sisters, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak."¹⁵ Paula stood up, and beckoning with her hand said, "Women of Israel, and you who fear God, listen.¹⁶ The God of this people chose our mothers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, she led them out of it.¹⁷ For a period of about forty years she put up with them in the wilderness.¹⁸ When she had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, she gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred fifty years.¹⁹ After these things she gave them judges until Samantha the prophetess.²⁰ Afterward they asked for a queen, and God gave to them Saula the daughter of Kish, a woman of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.²¹ When she had removed her, she raised up Davina to be their queen, to whom she also testified, 'I have found Davina the daughter of Jesse, a woman after my heart, who will do all my will.'²² From this woman's seed, God has brought salvation to Israel according to her promise,²³ before her coming, when Johanna had first preached the baptism of repentance to Israel.²⁴ As Johanna was fulfilling her course, she said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not she. But behold, one comes after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.²⁵ Sisters, children of the stock of Abrahi, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to you.²⁶ For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they didn't know her, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning her.²⁷ Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have her killed.²⁸ When they had fulfilled all things that were written about her, they took her down from the tree, and laid her in a tomb.²⁹ But God raised her from the dead,³⁰ and she was seen for many days by those who came up with her from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are her witnesses to the people.³¹ We bring you good news of the promise made to the mothers,³² that God has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that she raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm, 'You are my Daughter. Today I have become your mother.'³³ "Concerning that she raised her up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, she has spoken thus: 'I will give you the holy and sure blessings of Davina.'³⁴ Therefore she says also in another psalm, 'You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.'³⁵ For Davina, after she had in her own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, and was laid with her mothers, and saw decay.³⁶ But she whom God raised up saw no decay.³⁷ Be it known to you therefore, sisters, that through this woman is proclaimed to you remission of sins,³⁸ and by her everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses.³⁹ Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets:⁴⁰ 'Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish; for I work a work in your days, a work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you.'"⁴¹ So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.⁴² Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paula and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.⁴³ The next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God.⁴⁴ But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paula, and blasphemed.⁴⁵ Paula and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that God's word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles.⁴⁶ For so has the Domina commanded us, saying, 'I have set you as a light for the Gentiles, that you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.'"⁴⁷ As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed.⁴⁸ The Domina's word was spread abroad throughout all the region.⁴⁹ But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent men and the chief women of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paula and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders.⁵⁰ But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium.⁵¹ The disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit.⁵²

It happened in Iconium that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed.¹ But the disbelieving Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the sisters.² Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Domina, who testified to the word of her grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands.³ But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles.⁴ When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them,⁵ they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region.⁶ There they preached the Good News.⁷ At Lystra a certain woman sat, impotent in her feet, a cripple from her father's womb, who never had walked.⁸ She was listening to Paula speaking, who, fastening eyes on her, and seeing that she had faith to be made whole,⁹ said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" She leaped up and walked.¹⁰ When the multitude saw what Paula had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of women!"¹¹ They called Barnabas "Jupiter," and Paula "Mercury," because she was the chief speaker.¹² The priestess of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the multitudes.¹³ But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paula, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the multitude, crying out,¹⁴ "Women, why are you doing these things? We also are women of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them;¹⁵ who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways.¹⁶ Yet she didn't leave herself without witness, in that she did good and gave you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness."¹⁷ Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making a sacrifice to them.¹⁸ But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paula, and dragged her out of the city, supposing that she was dead.¹⁹ But as the disciples stood around her, she rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day she went out with Barnabas to Derbe.²⁰ When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,²¹ confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the Kingdom of God.²² When they had appointed elders for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Domina, on whom they had believed.²³ They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.²⁴ When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.²⁵ From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled.²⁶ When they had arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that she had opened a door of faith to the nations.²⁷ They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.²⁸

Some women came down from Judea and taught the sisters, "Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you can't be saved."¹ Therefore when Paula and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paula and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.² They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the sisters.³ When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them.⁴ But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses."⁵ The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter.⁶ When there had been much discussion, Petra rose up and said to them, "Sisters, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News, and believe.⁷ God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just like she did to us.⁸ She made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith.⁹ Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our mothers nor we were able to bear?¹⁰ But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Domina Jesus, just as they are."¹¹ All the multitude kept silence, and they listened to Barnabas and Paula reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the nations through them.¹² After they were silent, Jamie answered, "Sisters, listen to me.¹³ Simeon has reported how God first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for her name.¹⁴ This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written,¹⁵ 'After these things I will return. I will again build the tent of Davina, which has fallen. I will again build its ruins. I will set it up,¹⁶ That the rest of women may seek after the Domina; All the Gentiles who are called by my name, Says the Domina, who does all these things.'¹⁷ All her works are known to God from eternity.'¹⁸ "Therefore my judgment is that we don't trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God,¹⁹ but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood.²⁰ For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who preach her, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."²¹ Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole assembly, to choose women out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paula and Barnabas: Judasie called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief women among the sisters.²² They wrote these things by their hand: "The apostles, the elders, and the sisters, to the sisters who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: greetings.²³ Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, 'You must be circumcised and keep the law,' to whom we gave no commandment;²⁴ it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out women and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paula,²⁵ women who have risked their lives for the name of our Domina Jesus Christ.²⁶ We have sent therefore Judasie and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth.²⁷ For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things:²⁸ that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell."²⁹ So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter.³⁰ When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement.³¹ Judasie and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the sisters with many words, and strengthened them.³² After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the sisters to the apostles.^{33 34} But Paula and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Domina, with many others also.³⁵ After some days Paula said to Barnabas, "Let's return now and visit our sisters in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Domina, to see how they are doing."³⁶ Barnabas planned to take Johanna, who was called Margaret, with them also.³⁷ But Paula didn't think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and didn't go with them to do the work.³⁸ Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Margaret with her, and sailed away to Cyprus,³⁹ but Paula chose Silas, and went out, being commended by the sisters to the grace of God.⁴⁰ She went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.⁴¹

She came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the daughter of a Jewess who believed; but her mother was a Greek.¹ The sisters who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about her.² Paula wanted to have her go out with her, and she took and circumcised her because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that her mother was a Greek.³ As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.⁴ So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.⁵ When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.⁶ When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit didn't allow them.⁷ Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.⁸ A vision appeared to Paula in the night. There was a woman of Macedonia standing, begging her, and saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us."⁹ When she had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Domina had called us to preach the Good News to them.¹⁰ Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis;¹¹ and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city.¹² On the Sabbath day we went forth outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the men who had come together.¹³ A certain man named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Domina opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paula.¹⁴ When he and his household were baptized, he begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Domina, come into my house, and stay." So he persuaded us.¹⁵ It happened, as we were going to prayer, that a certain boy having a spirit of divination met us, who brought his masters much gain by fortune telling.¹⁶ Following Paula and us, he cried out, "These women are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation!"¹⁷ He was doing this for many days. But Paula, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I charge you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of him!" It came out that very hour.¹⁸ But when his masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paula and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers.¹⁹ When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These women, being Jews, are agitating our city,²⁰ and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans."²¹ The multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore their clothes off of them, and commanded them to be beaten with rods.²² When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely,²³ who, having received such a charge, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks.²⁴ But about midnight Paula and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.²⁵ Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened.²⁶ The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew her sword and was about to kill herself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.²⁷ But Paula cried with a loud voice, saying, "Don't harm yourself, for we are all here!"²⁸ She called for lights and sprang in, and, fell down trembling before Paula and Silas,²⁹ and brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"³⁰ They said, "Believe in the Domina Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household."³¹ They spoke the word of the Domina to her, and to all who were in her house.³² She took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, she and all her household.³³ She brought them up into her house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all her household, having believed in God.³⁴ But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those women go."³⁵ The jailer reported these words to Paula, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace."³⁶ But Paula said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, women who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most certainly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!"³⁷ The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans,³⁸ and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city.³⁹ They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia's house. When they had seen the sisters, they encouraged them, and departed.⁴⁰

Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.¹ Paula, as was her custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures,² explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ."³ Some of them were persuaded, and joined Paula and Silas, of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief men.⁴ But the unpersuaded Jews took along some wicked women from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assailing the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people.⁵ When they didn't find them, they dragged Jason and certain sisters before the rulers of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also,⁶ whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another queen, Jesus!"⁷ The multitude and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things.⁸ When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.⁹ The sisters immediately sent Paula and Silas away by night to Beroea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue.¹⁰ Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.¹¹ Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek men, and not a few women.¹² But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paula at Beroea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes.¹³ Then the sisters immediately sent out Paula to go as far as to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there.¹⁴ But those who escorted Paula brought her as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to her very quickly, they departed.¹⁵ Now while Paula waited for them at Athens, her spirit was provoked within her as she saw the city full of idols.¹⁶ So she reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met her.¹⁷ Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with her. Some said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "She seems to be advocating foreign deities," because she preached Jesus and the resurrection.¹⁸ They took hold of her, and brought her to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you?¹⁹ For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean."²⁰ Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.²¹ Paula stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, "You women of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things.²² For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you.²³ The God who made the world and all things in it, she, being Domina of heaven and earth, doesn't dwell in temples made with hands,²⁴ neither is she served by women's hands, as though she needed anything, seeing she herself gives to all life and breath, and all things.²⁵ She made from one blood every nation of women to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings,²⁶ that they should seek the Domina, if perhaps they might reach out for her and find her, though she is not far from each one of us.²⁷ 'For in her we live, and move, and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also her offspring.'²⁸ Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of woman.²⁹ The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now she commands that all people everywhere should repent,³⁰ because she has appointed a day in which she will judge the world in righteousness by the woman whom she has ordained; of which she has given assurance to all women, in that she has raised her from the dead."³¹ Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this."³² Thus Paula went out from among them.³³ But certain women joined with her, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a man named Damaris, and others with them.³⁴

After these things Paula departed from Athens, and came to Corinth.¹ She found a certain Jew named Aquila, a woman of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy, with her husband Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. She came to them,² and because she practiced the same trade, she lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers.³ She reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks.⁴ But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paula was compelled by the Spirit, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.⁵ When they opposed her and blasphemed, she shook out her clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!"⁶ She departed there, and went into the house of a certain woman named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.⁷ Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Domina with all her house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized.⁸ The Domina said to Paula in the night by a vision, "Don't be afraid, but speak and don't be silent;⁹ for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city."¹⁰ She lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.¹¹ But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paula and brought her before the judgment seat,¹² saying, "This woman persuades women to worship God contrary to the law."¹³ But when Paula was about to open her mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you;¹⁴ but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don't want to be a judge of these matters."¹⁵ She drove them from the judgment seat.¹⁶ Then all the Greeks laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat her before the judgment seat. Gallio didn't care about any of these things.¹⁷ Paula, having stayed after this many more days, took her leave of the sisters, and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila. She shaved her head in Cenchreae, for she had a vow.¹⁸ She came to Ephesus, and she left them there; but she herself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.¹⁹ When they asked her to stay with them a longer time, she declined;²⁰ but taking her leave of them, and saying, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return again to you if God wills," she set sail from Ephesus.²¹ When she had landed at Caesarea, she went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch.²² Having spent some time there, she departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.²³ Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent woman, came to Ephesus. She was mighty in the Scriptures.²⁴ This woman had been instructed in the way of the Domina; and being fervent in spirit, she spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, although she knew only the baptism of Johanna.²⁵ She began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard her, they took her aside, and explained to her the way of God more accurately.²⁶ When she had determined to pass over into Achaia, the sisters encouraged her, and wrote to the disciples to receive her. When she had come, she greatly helped those who had believed through grace;²⁷ for she powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.²⁸

It happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paula, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples.¹ She said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They said to her, "No, we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."² She said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They said, "Into Johanna's baptism."³ Paula said, "Johanna indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after her, that is, in Jesus."⁴ When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Domina Jesus.⁵ When Paula had laid her hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other languages and prophesied.⁶ They were about twelve women in all.⁷ She entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning the Kingdom of God.⁸ But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, she departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.⁹ This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Domina Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.¹⁰ God worked special miracles by the hands of Paula,¹¹ so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from her body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out.¹² But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Domina Jesus, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paula preaches."¹³ There were seven daughters of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priestess, who did this.¹⁴ The evil spirit answered, "Jesus I know, and Paula I know, but who are you?"¹⁵ The woman in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.¹⁶ This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Domina Jesus was magnified.¹⁷ Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds.¹⁸ Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted the price of them, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver.¹⁹ So the word of the Domina was growing and becoming mighty.²⁰ Now after these things had ended, Paula determined in the spirit, when she had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."²¹ Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served her, Timothy and Erastus, she herself stayed in Asia for a while.²² About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way.²³ For a certain woman named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen,²⁴ whom she gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth."²⁵ You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paula has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, that are made with hands.²⁶ Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and his majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships."²⁷ When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"²⁸ The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, women of Macedonia, Paula's companions in travel.²⁹ When Paula wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn't allow her.³⁰ Certain also of the Asiarchs, being her friends, sent to her and begged her not to venture into the theater.³¹ Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn't know why they had come together.³² They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting her forward. Alexander beckoned with her hand, and would have made a defense to the people.³³ But when they perceived that she was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"³⁴ When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, she said, "You women of Ephesus, what woman is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus?³⁵ Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash.³⁶ For you have brought these women here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess.³⁷ If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with her have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another.³⁸ But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly.³⁹ For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion."⁴⁰ When she had thus spoken, she dismissed the assembly.⁴¹

After the uproar had ceased, Paula sent for the disciples, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia.¹ When she had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, she came into Greece.² When she had spent three months there, and a plot was made against her by Jews as she was about to set sail for Syria, she determined to return through Macedonia.³ These accompanied her as far as Asia: Sopater of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.⁴ But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas.⁵ We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.⁶ On the first day of the week, when the disciples were gathered together to break bread, Paula talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued her speech until midnight.⁷ There were many lights in the upper chamber where we were gathered together.⁸ A certain young woman named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paula spoke still longer, being weighed down by her sleep, she fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead.⁹ Paula went down, and fell upon her, and embracing her said, "Don't be troubled, for her life is in her."¹⁰ When she had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, she departed.¹¹ They brought the girl in alive, and were greatly comforted.¹² But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, intending to take Paula aboard there, for she had so arranged, intending herself to go by land.¹³ When she met us at Assos, we took her aboard, and came to Mitylene.¹⁴ Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogylillum, and the day after we came to Miletus.¹⁵ For Paula had determined to sail past Ephesus, that she might not have to spend time in Asia; for she was hastening, if it were possible for her, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.¹⁶ From Miletus she sent to Ephesus, and called to herself the elders of the assembly.¹⁷ When they had come to her, she said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time,¹⁸ serving the Domina with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews;¹⁹ how I didn't shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house,²⁰ testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Domina Jesus.²¹ Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there;²² except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me.²³ But these things don't count; nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Domina Jesus, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God.²⁴ "Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about preaching the Kingdom of God, will see my face no more.²⁵ Therefore I testify to you this day that I am clean from the blood of all women,²⁶ for I didn't shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God.²⁷ Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of the Domina and God which she purchased with her own blood.²⁸ For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock.²⁹ Women will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.³⁰ Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I didn't cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears.³¹ Now, sisters, I entrust you to God, and to the word of her grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified.³² I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing.³³ You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me.³⁴ In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Domina Jesus, that she herself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'³⁵ When she had spoken these things, she knelt down and prayed with them all.³⁶ They all wept a lot, and fell on Paula's neck and kissed her,³⁷ sorrowing most of all because of the word which she had spoken, that they should see her face no more. And they accompanied her to the ship.³⁸

When it happened that we had parted from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.¹ Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail.² When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload his cargo.³ Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paula through the Spirit, that she should not go up to Jerusalem.⁴ When it happened that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with husbands and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed.⁵ After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.⁶ When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the sisters, and stayed with them one day.⁷ On the next day, we, who were Paula's companions, departed, and came to Caesarea. We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with her.⁸ Now this woman had four virgin sons who prophesied.⁹ As we stayed there some days, a certain prophetess named Agabus came down from Judea.¹⁰ Coming to us, and taking Paula's belt, she bound her own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the woman who owns this belt, and will deliver her into the hands of the Gentiles.'"¹¹ When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged her not to go up to Jerusalem.¹² Then Paula answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Domina Jesus."¹³ When she would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Domina's will be done."¹⁴ After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem.¹⁵ Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.¹⁶ When we had come to Jerusalem, the sisters received us gladly.¹⁷ The day following, Paula went in with us to Jamie; and all the elders were present.¹⁸ When she had greeted them, she reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through her ministry.¹⁹ They, when they heard it, glorified God. They said to her, "You see, sister, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law.²⁰ They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs.²¹ What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come.²² Therefore do what we tell you. We have four women who have taken a vow.²³ Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the law.²⁴ But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality."²⁵ Then Paula took the women, and the next day, purified herself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.²⁶ When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw her in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on her,²⁷ crying out, "Women of Israel, help! This is the woman who teaches all women everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. Moreover, she also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!"²⁸ For they had seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with her in the city, and they supposed that Paula had brought her into the temple.²⁹ All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paula and dragged her out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut.³⁰ As they were trying to kill her, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.³¹ Immediately she took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paula.³² Then the commanding officer came near, arrested her, commanded her to be bound with two chains, and inquired who she was and what she had done.³³ Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When she couldn't find out the truth because of the noise, she commanded her to be brought into the barracks.³⁴ When she came to the stairs, it happened that she was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd;³⁵ for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with her!"³⁶ As Paula was about to be brought into the barracks, she asked the commanding officer, "May I speak to you?" She said, "Do you know Greek?³⁷ Aren't you then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand women of the Assassins?"³⁸ But Paula said, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."³⁹ When she had given her permission, Paula, standing on the stairs, beckoned with her hand to the people. When there was a great silence, she spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,⁴⁰

"Sisters and mothers, listen to the defense which I now make to you."¹ When they heard that she spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. She said,² "I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our mothers, being zealous for God, even as you all are this day.³ I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both women and men.⁴ As also the high priestess and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the sisters, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished.⁵ It happened that, as I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from the sky a great light around me.⁶ I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saula, Saula, why are you persecuting me?'⁷ I answered, 'Who are you, Domina?' She said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.'⁸ "Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they didn't understand the voice of her who spoke to me.⁹ I said, 'What shall I do, Domina?' The Domina said to me, 'Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.'¹⁰ When I couldn't see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.¹¹ One Ananias, a devout woman according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus,¹² came to me, and standing by me said to me, 'Sister Saula, receive your sight!' In that very hour I looked up at her.¹³ She said, 'The God of our mothers has appointed you to know her will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from her mouth.¹⁴ For you will be a witness for her to all women of what you have seen and heard.¹⁵ Now why do you wait? Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Domina.'¹⁶ "It happened that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance,¹⁷ and saw her saying to me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.'¹⁸ I said, 'Domina, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you.¹⁹ When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to her death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed her.'²⁰ "She said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the Gentiles.'²¹ They listened to her until she said that; then they lifted up their voice, and said, "Rid the earth of this fellow, for she isn't fit to live!"²² As they cried out, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air,²³ the commanding officer commanded her to be brought into the barracks, ordering her to be examined by scourging, that she might know for what crime they shouted against her like that.²⁴ When they had tied her up with thongs, Paula asked the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a woman who is a Roman, and not found guilty?"²⁵ When the centurion heard it, she went to the commanding officer and told her, "Watch what you are about to do, for this woman is a Roman!"²⁶ The commanding officer came and asked her, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" She said, "Yes."²⁷ The commanding officer answered, "I bought my citizenship for a great price." Paula said, "But I was born a Roman."²⁸ Immediately those who were about to examine her departed from her, and the commanding officer also was afraid when she realized that she was a Roman, because she had bound her.²⁹ But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why she was accused by the Jews, she freed her from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paula down and set her before them.³⁰

Paula, looking steadfastly at the council, said, "Sisters, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day."¹ The high priestess, Ananias, commanded those who stood by her to strike her on the mouth.² Then Paula said to her, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?"³ Those who stood by said, "Do you malign God's high priestess?"⁴ Paula said, "I didn't know, sisters, that she was high priestess. For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'" ⁵ But when Paula perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, she cried out in the council, "Women and sisters, I am a Pharisee, a daughter of Pharisees.

Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!" ⁶ When she had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁷ For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. ⁸ A great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this woman. But if a spirit or angel has spoken to her, let's not fight against God!" ⁹ When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paula would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take her by force from among them, and bring her into the barracks. ¹⁰ The following night, the Domina stood by her, and said, "Cheer up, Paula, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome." ¹¹ When it was day, some of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paula.

¹² There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. ¹³ They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paula. ¹⁴ Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that she should bring her down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge her case more exactly. We are ready to kill her before she comes near." ¹⁵ But Paula's brother's daughter heard of their lying in wait, and she came and entered into the barracks and told Paula. ¹⁶ Paula summoned one of the centurions, and said, "Bring this young woman to the commanding officer, for she has something to tell her." ¹⁷ So she took her, and brought her to the commanding officer, and said, "Paula, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young woman to you, who has something to tell you." ¹⁸ The commanding officer took her by the hand, and going aside, asked her privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?" ¹⁹ She said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paula down to the council tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning her. ²⁰ Therefore don't yield to them, for more than forty women lie in wait for her, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed her. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you." ²¹ So the commanding officer let the young woman go, charging her, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me." ²² She called to herself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred women armed with spears, at the third hour of the night." ²³ She asked them to provide animals, that they might set Paula on one, and bring her safely to Felix the governor. ²⁴ She wrote a letter like this: ²⁵ "Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings. ²⁶ "This woman was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued her, having learned that she was a Roman. ²⁷ Desiring to know the cause why they accused her, I brought her down to their council. ²⁸ I found her to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to her charge worthy of death or of bonds. ²⁹ When I was told that the Jews lay in wait for the woman, I sent her to you immediately, charging her accusers also to bring their accusations against her before you. Farewell." ³⁰ So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paula and brought her by night to Antipatris. ³¹ But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with her, and returned to the barracks. ³² When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paula to her.³³ When the governor had read it, she asked what province she was from. When she understood that she was from Cilicia, she said,³⁴ "I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive." She commanded that she be kept in Heroda's palace.³⁵

After five days, the high priestess, Ananias, came down with certain elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paula.¹ When she was called, Tertullus began to accuse her, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that excellent measures are coming to this nation,² we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness.³ But, that I don't delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words.⁴ For we have found this woman to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.⁵ She even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested her.⁶⁷ By examining her yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse her."⁸ The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so.⁹ When the governor had beckoned to her to speak, Paula answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense,¹⁰ seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem.¹¹ In the temple they didn't find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city.¹² Nor can they prove to you the things of which they now accuse me.¹³ But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our mothers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets;¹⁴ having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.¹⁵ Herein I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward God and women.¹⁶ Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings;¹⁷ amid which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil.¹⁸ They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me.¹⁹ Or else let these women themselves say what injustice they found in me when I stood before the council,²⁰ unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!'"²¹ But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case."²² She ordered the centurion that Paula should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of her friends to serve her or to visit her.²³ But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, her husband, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paula, and heard her concerning the faith in Christ Jesus.²⁴ As she reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you."²⁵ Meanwhile, she also hoped that money would be given to her by Paula, that she might release her. Therefore also she sent for her more often, and talked with her.²⁶ But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paula in bonds.²⁷

Chapter 25

Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.¹ Then the high priestess and the principal women of the Jews informed her against Paula, and they begged her,² asking a favor against her, that she would summon her to Jerusalem; plotting to kill her on the way.³ However Festus answered that Paula should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that she herself was about to depart shortly.⁴ "Let them therefore," said she, "that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the woman, let them accuse her."⁵ When she had stayed among them more than ten days, she went down to Caesarea, and on the next day she sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paula to be brought.⁶ When she had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around her, bringing against her many and grievous charges which they could not prove,⁷ while she said in her defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all."⁸ But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paula and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?"⁹ But Paula said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well."¹⁰ For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I don't refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"¹¹ Then Festus, when she had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go."¹² Now when some days had passed, Agrippa the Queen and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and greeted Festus.¹³ As she stayed there many days, Festus laid Paula's case before the queen, saying, "There is a certain woman left a prisoner by Felix;¹⁴ about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for a sentence against her.¹⁵ To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any woman to destruction, before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make her defense concerning the matter laid against her.¹⁶ When therefore they had come together here, I didn't delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the woman to be brought.¹⁷ Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed;¹⁸ but had certain questions against her about their own religion, and about one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paula affirmed to be alive.¹⁹ Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether she was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.²⁰ But when Paula had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded her to be kept until I could send her to Caesar."²¹ Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the woman myself." "Tomorrow," she said, "you shall hear her."²² So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal women of the city, at the command of Festus, Paula was brought in.²³ Festus said, "Queen Agrippa, and all women who are here present with us, you see this woman, about whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that she ought not to live any longer.²⁴ But when I found that she had committed nothing worthy of death, and as she herself appealed to the emperor I determined to send her.²⁵ Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my domina. Therefore I have brought her forth before you, and especially before you, Queen Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write.²⁶ For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against her."²⁷

Agrippa said to Paula, "You may speak for yourself." Then Paula stretched out her hand, and made her defense.¹ "I think myself happy, Queen Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you this day concerning all the things that I am accused by the Jews,² especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.³ "Indeed, all the Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem;⁴ having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.⁵ Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our mothers,⁶ which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, Queen Agrippa!⁷ Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?⁸ "I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.⁹ This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them.¹⁰ Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.¹¹ "Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus with the authority and commission from the chief priests,¹² at noon, O Queen, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me.¹³ When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saula, Saula, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'¹⁴ "I said, 'Who are you, Domina?' "She said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.¹⁵ But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you;¹⁶ delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you,¹⁷ to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'¹⁸ "Therefore, Queen Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision,¹⁹ but declared first to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance.²⁰ For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me.²¹ Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would happen,²² how the Christ must suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, she would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles."²³ As she thus made her defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paula, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!"²⁴ But she said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness.²⁵ For the queen knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from her, for this has not been done in a corner.²⁶ Queen Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."²⁷ Agrippa said to Paula, "With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Christian?"²⁸ Paula said, "I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these bonds."²⁹ The queen rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them.³⁰ When they had withdrawn, they spoke one to another, saying, "This woman does nothing worthy of death or of bonds." ³¹ Agrippa said to Festus, "This woman might have been set free if she had not appealed to Caesar." ³²

When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paula and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band.¹ Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.² The next day, we touched at Sidon. Julius treated Paula kindly, and gave her permission to go to her friends and refresh herself.³ Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.⁴ When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.⁵ There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and she put us on board.⁶ When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone.⁷ With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.⁸ When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paula admonished them,⁹ and said to them, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."¹⁰ But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paula.¹¹ Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.¹² When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore.¹³ But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Euroclydon.¹⁴ When the ship was caught, and couldn't face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along.¹⁵ Running under the lee of a small island called Clauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat.¹⁶ After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis sand bars, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along.¹⁷ As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard.¹⁸ On the third day, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands.¹⁹ When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.²⁰ When they had been long without food, Paula stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss.²¹ Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.²² For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve,²³ saying, 'Don't be afraid, Paula. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.'²⁴ Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me.²⁵ But we must run aground on a certain island."²⁶ But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land.²⁷ They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms.{20 fathoms = 120 feet = 36.6 meters} After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms.²⁸ Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight.²⁹ As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow,³⁰ Paula said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you can't be saved."³¹ Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.³² While the day was coming on, Paula begged them all to take some food, saying, "This day is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing."³³ Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for not a hair will perish from any of your heads."³⁴ When she had said this, and had taken bread, she gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and she broke it, and began to eat.³⁵ Then they all cheered up, and they also took food.³⁶ In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship.³⁷ When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea.³⁸ When it was day, they didn't recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it.³⁹ Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach.⁴⁰ But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.⁴¹ The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape.⁴² But the centurion, desiring to save Paula, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land;⁴³ and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So it happened that they all escaped safely to the land.⁴⁴

When we had escaped, then they learned that the island was called Malta.¹ The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.² But when Paula had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on her hand.³ When the natives saw the creature hanging from her hand, they said one to another, "No doubt this woman is a murderer, whom, though she has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live."⁴ However she shook off the creature into the fire, and wasn't harmed.⁵ But they expected that she would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to her, they changed their minds, and said that she was a god.⁶ Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief woman of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days.⁷ It happened that the mother of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paula entered in to her, prayed, and laying her hands on her, healed her.⁸ Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured.⁹ They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.¹⁰ After three months, we set sail in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was "The Twin Sisters."¹¹ Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days.¹² From there we circled around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli,¹³ where we found sisters, and were entreathed to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome.¹⁴ From there the sisters, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paula saw them, she thanked God, and took courage.¹⁵ When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paula was allowed to stay by herself with the soldier who guarded her.¹⁶ It happened that after three days Paula called together those who were the leaders of the Jews. When they had come together, she said to them, "I, sisters, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our mothers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans,¹⁷ who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me.¹⁸ But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation.¹⁹ For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."²⁰ They said to her, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the sisters come here and report or speak any evil of you.²¹ But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."²² When they had appointed her a day, many people came to her at her lodging. She explained to them, testifying about the Kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening.²³ Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved.²⁴ When they didn't agree among themselves, they departed after Paula had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaia, the prophetess, to our mothers,²⁵ saying, 'Go to this people, and say, in hearing, you will hear, but will in no way understand. In seeing, you will see, but will in no way perceive.'²⁶ For this people's heart has grown callous. Their ears are dull of hearing. Their eyes they have closed. Lest they should see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and would turn again, and I would heal them."²⁷ "Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the nations. They will also listen."²⁸ When she had said these words, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.²⁹ Paula stayed two whole years in her own rented house, and received all who were coming to her,³⁰ preaching the Kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Domina Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.³¹

Romans

Chapter 1

Paula, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the Good News of God,¹ which she promised before through her prophets in the holy Scriptures,² concerning her Daughter, who was born of the seed of Davina according to the flesh,³ who was declared to be the Daughter of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Domina,⁴ through whom we received grace and apostleship, for obedience of faith among all the nations, for her name's sake;⁵ among whom you are also called to belong to Jesus Christ;⁶ to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ.⁷ First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world.⁸ For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of her Daughter, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers,⁹ requesting, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you.¹⁰ For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established;¹¹ that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.¹² Now I don't desire to have you unaware, sisters, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles.¹³ I am debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish.¹⁴ So, as much as is in me, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome.¹⁵ For I am not ashamed of the Good News of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew first, and also for the Greek.¹⁶ For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith."¹⁷ For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of women, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness,¹⁸ because that which is known of God is revealed in them, for God revealed it to them.¹⁹ For the invisible things of her since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even her everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse.²⁰ Because, knowing God, they didn't glorify her as God, neither gave thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened.²¹ Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,²² and traded the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible woman, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things.²³ Therefore God also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves,²⁴ who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.²⁵ For this reason, God gave them up to vile passions. For their men changed the natural function into that which is against nature.²⁶ Likewise also the women, leaving the natural function of the man, burned in their lust toward one another, women doing what is inappropriate with women, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error.²⁷ Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting;²⁸ being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers,²⁹ backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,³⁰ without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful;³¹ who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.³²

Therefore you are without excuse, O woman, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things.¹ We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things.² Do you think this, O woman who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God?³ Or do you despise the riches of her goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?⁴ But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God;⁵ who "will pay back to everyone according to their works;"⁶ to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory, honor, and incorruptibility, eternal life;⁷ but to those who are self-seeking, and don't obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath and indignation,⁸ oppression and anguish, on every soul of woman who works evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.⁹ But glory, honor, and peace go to every woman who works good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.¹⁰ For there is no partiality with God.¹¹ For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law.¹² For it isn't the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified¹³ (for when Gentiles who don't have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves,¹⁴ in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them)¹⁵ in the day when God will judge the secrets of women, according to my Good News, by Jesus Christ.¹⁶ Indeed you bear the name of a Jew, and rest on the law, and glory in God,¹⁷ and know her will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law,¹⁸ and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,¹⁹ a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth.²⁰ You therefore who teach another, don't you teach yourself? You who preach that a woman shouldn't steal, do you steal?²¹ You who say a woman shouldn't commit adultery. Do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?²² You who glory in the law, through your disobedience of the law do you dishonor God?²³ For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," just as it is written.²⁴ For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.²⁵ If therefore the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won't her uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision?²⁶ Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law?²⁷ For she is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh;²⁸ but she is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from women, but from God.²⁹

Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision?¹ Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the oracles of God.² For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God?³ May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every woman a liar. As it is written, "That you might be justified in your words, and might prevail when you come into judgment."⁴ But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like women do.⁵ May it never be! For then how will God judge the world?⁶ For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to her glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner?⁷ Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil, that good may come?" Those who say so are justly condemned.⁸ What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously charged both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin.⁹ As it is written, "There is no one righteous; no, not one.¹⁰ There is no one who understands. There is no one who seeks after God.¹¹ They have all turned aside. They have together become unprofitable. There is no one who does good, no, not, so much as one."¹² "Their throat is an open tomb. With their tongues they have used deceit." {Psalm 5:9} "The poison of vipers is under their lips;"¹³ "Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."¹⁴ "Their feet are swift to shed blood.¹⁵ Destruction and misery are in their ways.¹⁶ The way of peace, they haven't known."¹⁷ "There is no fear of God before their eyes."¹⁸ Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God.¹⁹ Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in her sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin.²⁰ But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets;²¹ even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all and on all those who believe. For there is no distinction,²² for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God;²³ being justified freely by her grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus;²⁴ whom God set forth to be an atoning sacrifice, through faith in her blood, for a demonstration of her righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in God's forbearance;²⁵ to demonstrate her righteousness at this present time; that she might herself be just, and the justifier of her who has faith in Jesus.²⁶ Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what manner of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith.²⁷ We maintain therefore that a woman is justified by faith apart from the works of the law.²⁸ Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn't she the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also,²⁹ since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith.³⁰ Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.³¹

What then will we say that Abrahai, our forefather, has found according to the flesh?¹ For if Abrahai was justified by works, she has something to boast about, but not toward God.² For what does the Scripture say? "Abrahai believed God, and it was accounted to her for righteousness."³ Now to her who works, the reward is not counted as grace, but as debt.⁴ But to her who doesn't work, but believes in her who justifies the ungodly, her faith is accounted for righteousness.⁵ Even as Davina also pronounces blessing on the woman to whom God counts righteousness apart from works,⁶ "Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, whose sins are covered."⁷ Blessed is the woman whom the Domina will by no means charge with sin."⁸ Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abrahai for righteousness.⁹ How then was it counted? When she was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.¹⁰ She received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which she had while she was in uncircumcision, that she might be the mother of all those who believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them.¹¹ The mother of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our mother Abrahai, which she had in uncircumcision.¹² For the promise to Abrahai and to her seed that she should be heir of the world wasn't through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.¹³ For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect.¹⁴ For the law works wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience.¹⁵ For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abrahai, who is the mother of us all.¹⁶ As it is written, "I have made you a mother of many nations." This is in the presence of her whom she believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were.¹⁷ Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that she might become a mother of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your seed be."¹⁸ Without being weakened in faith, she didn't consider her own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb.¹⁹ Yet, looking to the promise of God, she didn't waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God,²⁰ and being fully assured that what she had promised, she was able also to perform.²¹ Therefore it also was "reckoned to her for righteousness."²² Now it was not written that it was accounted to her for her sake alone,²³ but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in her who raised Jesus, our Domina, from the dead,²⁴ who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.²⁵

Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Domina Jesus Christ;¹ through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God.² Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering works perseverance;³ and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope:⁴ and hope doesn't disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.⁵ For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.⁶ For one will hardly die for a righteous woman. Yet perhaps for a righteous person someone would even dare to die.⁷ But God commands her own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.⁸ Much more then, being now justified by her blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through her.⁹ For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of her Daughter, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by her life.¹⁰ Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Domina Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.¹¹ Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one woman, and death through sin; and so death passed to all women, because all sinned.¹² For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law.¹³ Nevertheless death reigned from Ada until Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Ada's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of her who was to come.¹⁴ But the free gift isn't like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one woman, Jesus Christ, abound to the many.¹⁵ The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification.¹⁶ For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.¹⁷ So then as through one trespass, all women were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all women were justified to life.¹⁸ For as through the one woman's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous.¹⁹ The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly;²⁰ that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Domina.²¹

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?¹ May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer?² Or don't you know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into her death?³ We were buried therefore with her through baptism to death, that just like Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Mother, so we also might walk in newness of life.⁴ For if we have become united with her in the likeness of her death, we will also be part of her resurrection;⁵ knowing this, that our old woman was crucified with her, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin.⁶ For she who has died has been freed from sin.⁷ But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with her;⁸ knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over her!⁹ For the death that she died, she died to sin one time; but the life that she lives, she lives to God.¹⁰ Thus consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Domina.¹¹ Therefore don't let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.¹² Neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.¹³ For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace.¹⁴ What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be!¹⁵ Don't you know that to whom you present yourselves as servants to obedience, her servants you are whom you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?¹⁶ But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were bondmaids of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching whereunto you were delivered.¹⁷ Being made free from sin, you became bondmaids of righteousness.¹⁸ I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification.¹⁹ For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.²⁰ What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.²¹ But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of eternal life.²² For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Domina.²³

Or don't you know, sisters (for I speak to women who know the law), that the law has dominion over a woman for as long as she lives?¹ For the man that has a wife is bound by law to the wife while she lives, but if the wife dies, he is discharged from the law of the wife.² So then if, while the wife lives, he is joined to another woman, he would be called an adulterer. But if the wife dies, he is free from the law, so that he is no adulterer, though he is joined to another woman.³ Therefore, my sisters, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to her who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit to God.⁴ For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit to death.⁵ But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.⁶ What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I wouldn't have known sin, except through the law. For I wouldn't have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet."⁷ But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead.⁸ I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.⁹ The commandment, which was for life, this I found to be for death;¹⁰ for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me.¹¹ Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.¹² Did then that which is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful.¹³ For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin.¹⁴ For I don't know what I am doing. For I don't practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do.¹⁵ But if what I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good.¹⁶ So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me.¹⁷ For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good.¹⁸ For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice.¹⁹ But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me.²⁰ I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present.²¹ For I delight in God's law after the inward woman,²² but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members.²³ What a wretched woman I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death?²⁴ I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Domina! So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, the sin's law.²⁵

There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.¹ For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death.² For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending her own Daughter in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, she condemned sin in the flesh;³ that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.⁴ For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.⁵ For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace;⁶ because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be.⁷ Those who are in the flesh can't please God.⁸ But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any woman doesn't have the Spirit of Christ, she is not hers.⁹ If Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness.¹⁰ But if the Spirit of her who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, she who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through her Spirit who dwells in you.¹¹ So then, sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.¹² For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.¹³ For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God.¹⁴ For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba! Mother!"¹⁵ The Spirit herself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God;¹⁶ and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with her, that we may also be glorified with her.¹⁷ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us.¹⁸ For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed.¹⁹ For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of her who subjected it, in hope²⁰ that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God.²¹ For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now.²² Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body.²³ For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which she sees?²⁴ But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience.²⁵ In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit herself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered.²⁶ She who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because she makes intercession for the saints according to God.²⁷ We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to her purpose.²⁸ For whom she foreknew, she also predestined to be conformed to the image of her Daughter, that she might be the firstborn among many sisters.²⁹ Whom she predestined, those she also called. Whom she called, those she also justified. Whom she justified, those she also glorified.³⁰ What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?³¹ She who didn't spare her own Daughter, but delivered her up for us all, how would she not also with her freely give us all things?³² Who could bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who justifies.³³ Who is she who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.³⁴ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?³⁵ Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter."³⁶ No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through her who loved us.³⁷ For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,³⁸ nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Domina.³⁹

I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit,¹ that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart.² For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my sisters' sake, my relatives according to the flesh,³ who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises;⁴ of whom are the mothers, and from whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.⁵ But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel.⁶ Neither, because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children. But, "In Isaac your seed will be called."⁷ That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as a seed.⁸ For this is a word of promise, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a daughter."⁹ Not only so, but Rebecca also conceived by one, by our mother Isaac.¹⁰ For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of her who calls,¹¹ it was said to him, "The elder will serve the younger."¹² Even as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."¹³ What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be!¹⁴ For she said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."¹⁵ So then it is not of her who wills, nor of her who runs, but of God who has mercy.¹⁶ For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."¹⁷ So then, she has mercy on whom she desires, and she hardens whom she desires.¹⁸ You will say then to me, "Why does she still find fault? For who withstands her will?"¹⁹ But indeed, O woman, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask her who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"²⁰ Or hasn't the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor?²¹ What if God, willing to show her wrath, and to make her power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath made for destruction,²² and that she might make known the riches of her glory on vessels of mercy, which she prepared beforehand for glory,²³ us, whom she also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles?²⁴ As she says also in Hosea, "I will call them 'my people,' which were not my people; and him 'beloved,' who was not beloved."²⁵ "It will be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' There they will be called 'children of the living God.'"²⁶ Isaia cries concerning Israel, "If the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant who will be saved;²⁷ for She will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth."²⁸ As Isaia has said before, "Unless the Domina of Armies{Greek: Sabaoth (for Hebrew: Tze'va'ot)} had left us a seed, we would have become like Sodom, and would have been made like Gomorrah."²⁹ What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who didn't follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith;³⁰ but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, didn't arrive at the law of righteousness.³¹ Why? Because they didn't seek it by faith, but as it were by works of the law. They stumbled over the stumbling stone;³² even as it is written, "Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock of offense; and no one who believes in her will be disappointed."³³

Sisters, my heart's desire and my prayer to God is for Israel, that they may be saved.¹ For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.² For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn't subject themselves to the righteousness of God.³ For Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.⁴ For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them."⁵ But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down);⁶ or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)"⁷ But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;" that is, the word of faith, which we preach:⁸ that if you will confess with your mouth that Jesus is Domina, and believe in your heart that God raised her from the dead, you will be saved.⁹ For with the heart, one believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.¹⁰ For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in her will not be disappointed."¹¹ For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Domina is Domina of all, and is rich to all who call on her.¹² For, "Whoever will call on the name of the Domina will be saved."¹³ How then will they call on her in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in her whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a preacher?¹⁴ And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Good News of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!"¹⁵ But they didn't all listen to the glad news. For Isaia says, "Domina, who has believed our report?"¹⁶ So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.¹⁷ But I say, didn't they hear? Yes, most certainly, "Their sound went out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world."¹⁸ But I ask, didn't Israel know? First Moses says, "I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, with a nation void of understanding I will make you angry."¹⁹ Isaia is very bold, and says, "I was found by those who didn't seek me. I was revealed to those who didn't ask for me."²⁰ But as to Israel she says, "All day long I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."²¹

I ask then, did God reject her people? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abrahai, of the tribe of Benjamin.¹ God didn't reject her people, which she foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How she pleads with God against Israel:² "Domina, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life."³ But how does God answer her? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand women, who have not bowed the knee to Baal."⁴ Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.⁵ And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.⁶ What then? That which Israel seeks for, that she didn't obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened.⁷ According as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day."⁸ Davina says, "Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, a stumbling block, and a retribution to them."⁹ Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see. Bow down their back always.¹⁰ I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy.¹¹ Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness?¹² For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry;¹³ if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them.¹⁴ For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead?¹⁵ If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches.¹⁶ But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree;¹⁷ don't boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you.¹⁸ You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in."¹⁹ True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don't be conceited, but fear;²⁰ for if God didn't spare the natural branches, neither will she spare you.²¹ See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in her goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off.²² They also, if they don't continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.²³ For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?²⁴ For I don't desire you to be ignorant, sisters, of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in,²⁵ and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written, "There will come out of Zion the Deliverer, and she will turn away ungodliness from Jacoba."²⁶ This is my covenant to them, when I will take away their sins.²⁷ Concerning the Good News, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the mothers' sake.²⁸ For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.²⁹ For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience,³⁰ even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy.³¹ For God has shut up all to disobedience, that she might have mercy on all.³² Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are her judgments, and her ways past tracing out!³³ "For who has known the mind of the Domina? Or who has been her counselor?"³⁴ "Or who has first given to her, and it will be repaid to her again?"³⁵ For of her, and through her, and to her, are all things. To her be the glory for ever! Amen.³⁶

Therefore I urge you, sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service.¹ Don't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God.² For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every woman who is among you, not to think of herself more highly than she ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith.³ For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don't have the same function,⁴ so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.⁵ Having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith;⁶ or service, let us give ourselves to service; or she who teaches, to her teaching;⁷ or she who exhorts, to her exhorting; she who gives, let her do it with liberality; she who rules, with diligence;

she who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.⁸ Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good.⁹ In love of the sisters be tenderly affectionate one to another; in honor preferring one another;¹⁰ not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Domina;¹¹ rejoicing in hope; enduring in troubles; continuing steadfastly in prayer;¹² contributing to the needs of the saints; given to hospitality.¹³ Bless those who persecute you; bless, and don't curse.¹⁴ Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep.¹⁵ Be of the same mind one toward another. Don't set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Don't be wise in your own conceits.¹⁶ Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all women.¹⁷ If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all women.¹⁸ Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to God's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay," says the Domina.¹⁹ Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed her. If she is thirsty, give her a drink; for in doing so, you will heap coals of fire on her head."²⁰ Don't be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.²¹

Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God.¹ Therefore she who resists the authority, withstands the ordinance of God; and those who withstand will receive to themselves judgment.² For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same,³ for she is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for she doesn't bear the sword in vain; for she is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to her who does evil.⁴ Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake.⁵ For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are servants of God's service, attending continually on this very thing.⁶ Give therefore to everyone what you owe: taxes to whom taxes are due; customs to whom customs; respect to whom respect; honor to whom honor.⁷ Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for she who loves her neighbor has fulfilled the law.⁸ For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not give false testimony," "You shall not covet," {TR adds "You shall not give false testimony,"} {Exodus 20:13-15,17; Deuteronomy 5:17-19,21} and whatever other commandments there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."⁹ Love doesn't harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law.¹⁰ Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed.¹¹ The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let's therefore throw off the works of darkness, and let's put on the armor of light.¹² Let us walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy.¹³ But put on the Domina Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.¹⁴

Chapter 14

Now accept one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions.¹ One woman has faith to eat all things, but she who is weak eats only vegetables.² Don't let her who eats despise her who doesn't eat. Don't let her who doesn't eat judge her who eats, for God has accepted her.³

Who are you who judge another's servant? To her own domina she stands or falls. Yes, she will be made to stand, for God has power to make her stand.⁴ One woman esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each woman be fully assured in her own mind.⁵ She who observes the day, observes it to the Domina; and she who does not observe the day, to the Domina she does not observe it. She who eats, eats to the Domina, for she gives God thanks. She who doesn't eat, to the Domina she doesn't eat, and gives God thanks.⁶ For none of us lives to herself, and none dies to herself.⁷ For if we live, we live to the Domina. Or if we die, we die to the Domina. If therefore we live or die, we are the Domina's.⁸ For to this end Christ died, rose, and lived again, that she might be Domina of both the dead and the living.⁹ But you, why do you judge your sister? Or you again, why do you despise your sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.¹⁰ For it is written, "'As I live,' says the Domina, 'to me every knee will bow. Every tongue will confess to God.'"¹¹ So then each one of us will give account of herself to God.¹² Therefore let's not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no woman put a stumbling block in her sister's way, or an occasion for falling.¹³ I know, and am persuaded in the Domina Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to her who considers anything to be unclean, to her it is unclean.¹⁴ Yet if because of food your sister is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Don't destroy with your food her for whom Christ died.¹⁵ Then don't let your good be slandered,¹⁶ for the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.¹⁷ For she who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by women.¹⁸ So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things by which we may build one another up.¹⁹ Don't overthrow God's work for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that woman who creates a stumbling block by eating.²⁰ It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, nor do anything by which your sister stumbles, is offended, or is made weak.²¹ Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is she who doesn't judge herself in that which she approves.²² But she who doubts is condemned if she eats, because it isn't of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin. (14:24) Now to her who is able to establish you according to my Good News and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret through long ages, (14:25) but now is revealed, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known for obedience of faith to all the nations; (14:26) to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever! Amen.²³

Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves.¹ Let each one of us please her neighbor for that which is good, to be building her up.² For even Christ didn't please herself. But, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me."³ For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through patience and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.⁴ Now the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus,⁵ that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and Mother of our Domina Jesus Christ.⁶ Therefore accept one another, even as Christ also accepted you, to the glory of God.⁷ Now I say that Christ has been made a servant of the circumcision for the truth of God, that she might confirm the promises given to the mothers,⁸ and that the Gentiles might glorify God for her mercy. As it is written, "Therefore will I give praise to you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name."⁹ Again she says, "Rejoice, you Gentiles, with her people."¹⁰ Again, "Praise the Domina, all you Gentiles! Let all the peoples praise her."¹¹ Again, Isaia says, "There will be the root of Jesse, she who arises to rule over the Gentiles; in her the Gentiles will hope."¹² Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit.¹³ I myself am also persuaded about you, my sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others.¹⁴ But I write the more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by God,¹⁵ that I should be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priestess the Good News of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.¹⁶ I have therefore my boasting in Christ Jesus in things pertaining to God.¹⁷ For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which Christ worked through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed,¹⁸ in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of God's Spirit; so that from Jerusalem, and around as far as to Illyricum, I have fully preached the Good News of Christ;¹⁹ yes, making it my aim to preach the Good News, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build on another's foundation.²⁰ But, as it is written, "They will see, to whom no news of her came. They who haven't heard will understand."²¹ Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you,²² but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you,²³ whenever I journey to Spain, I will come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while.²⁴ But now, I say, I am going to Jerusalem, serving the saints.²⁵ For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are at Jerusalem.²⁶ Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things.²⁷ When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by way of you to Spain.²⁸ I know that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Good News of Christ.²⁹ Now I beg you, sisters, by our Domina Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me,³⁰ that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints;³¹ that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and together with you, find rest.³² Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.³³

I commend to you Phoebe, our brother, who is a servant of the assembly that is at Cenchreae,¹ that you receive him in the Domina, in a way worthy of the saints, and that you assist him in whatever matter he may need from you, for he himself also has been a helper of many, and of my own self.² Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus,³ who for my life, laid down their own necks; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the Gentiles.⁴ Greet the assembly that is in their house. Greet Epaenetus, my beloved, who is the first fruits of Achaia to Christ.⁵ Greet Mary, who labored much for us.⁶ Greet Andronicus and

Junias, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are notable among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.⁷ Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Domina.⁸ Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved.⁹ Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.¹⁰ Greet Herodion, my kinswoman. Greet them of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Domina.¹¹ Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Domina. Greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the Domina.¹² Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Domina, and her father and mine.¹³ Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the sisters who are with them.¹⁴ Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and her brother, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.¹⁵ Greet one another with a holy kiss. The assemblies of Christ greet you.¹⁶ Now I beg you, sisters, look out for those who are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and turn away from them.¹⁷ For those who are such don't serve our Domina, Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by their smooth and flattering speech, they deceive the hearts of the innocent.¹⁸ For your obedience has become known to all. I rejoice therefore over you. But I desire to have you wise in that which is good, but innocent in that which is evil.¹⁹ And the God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Domina Jesus Christ be with you.²⁰ Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives.²¹ I, Tertius, who write the letter, greet you in the Domina.²² Gaius, my host and host of the whole assembly, greets you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, as does Quartus, the sister.²³ The grace of our Domina Jesus Christ be with you all! Amen.^{24 25 26} {See Romans 14:23}²⁷

1 Corinthians

Chapter 1

Paula, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and our sister Sosthenes,¹ to the assembly of God which is at Corinth; those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who call on the name of our Domina Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours:² Grace to you and peace from God our Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ.³ I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus;⁴ that in everything you were enriched in her, in all speech and all knowledge;⁵ even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:⁶ so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Domina Jesus Christ;⁷ who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Domina Jesus Christ.⁸ God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of her Daughter, Jesus Christ, our Domina.⁹ Now I beg you, sisters, through the name of our Domina, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment.¹⁰ For it has been reported to me concerning you, my sisters, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you.¹¹ Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paula," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and, "I follow Christ."¹² Is Christ divided? Was Paula crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paula?¹³ I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius,¹⁴ so that no one should say that I had baptized you into my own name.¹⁵ (I also baptized the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know whether I baptized any other.)¹⁶ For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Good News-- not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ wouldn't be made void.¹⁷ For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are saved it is the power of God.¹⁸ For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing."¹⁹ Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world?²⁰ For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe.²¹ For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom,²² but we preach Christ crucified; a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks,²³ but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.²⁴ Because the foolishness of God is wiser than women, and the weakness of God is stronger than women.²⁵ For you see your calling, sisters, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble;²⁶ but God chose the foolish things of the world that she might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that she might put to shame the things that are strong;²⁷ and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that she might bring to nothing the things that are:²⁸ that no flesh should boast before God.²⁹ But of her, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption:³⁰ that, according as it is written, "She who boasts, let her boast in the Domina."³¹

When I came to you, sisters, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God.¹ For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and her crucified.² I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling.³ My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,⁴ that your faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of women, but in the power of God.⁵ We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing.⁶ But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds for our glory,⁷ which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they wouldn't have crucified the Domina of glory.⁸ But as it is written, "Things which an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear, which didn't enter into the heart of woman, these God has prepared for those who love her."⁹ But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.¹⁰ For who among women knows the things of a woman, except the spirit of the woman, which is in her? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God's Spirit.¹¹ But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God.¹² Which things also we speak, not in words which woman's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.¹³ Now the natural woman doesn't receive the things of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to her, and she can't know them, because they are spiritually discerned.¹⁴ But she who is spiritual discerns all things, and she herself is judged by no one.¹⁵ "For who has known the mind of the Domina, that she should instruct her?" But we have Christ's mind.¹⁶

Sisters, I couldn't speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babies in Christ.¹ I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you weren't yet ready. Indeed, not even now are you ready,² for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and factions among you, aren't you fleshly, and don't you walk in the ways of women?³ For when one says, "I follow Paula," and another, "I follow Apollos," aren't you fleshly?⁴ Who then is Apollos, and who is Paula, but servants through whom you believed; and each as the Domina gave to her?⁵ I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase.⁶ So then neither she who plants is anything, nor she who waters, but God who gives the increase.⁷ Now she who plants and she who waters are the same, but each will receive her own reward according to her own labor.⁸ For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's farming, God's building.⁹ According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each woman be careful how she builds on it.¹⁰ For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ.¹¹ But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble;¹² each woman's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each woman's work is.¹³ If any woman's work remains which she built on it, she will receive a reward.¹⁴ If any woman's work is burned, she will suffer loss, but she herself will be saved, but as through fire.¹⁵ Don't you know that you are a temple of God, and that God's Spirit lives in you?¹⁶ If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy her; for God's temple is holy, which you are.¹⁷ Let no one deceive herself. If anyone thinks that she is wise among you in this world, let her become a fool, that she may become wise.¹⁸ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "She has taken the wise in their craftiness."¹⁹ And again, "The Domina knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless."²⁰ Therefore let no one boast in women. For all things are yours,²¹ whether Paula, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours,²² and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.²³

So let a woman think of us as Christ's servants, and stewards of God's mysteries.¹ Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful.² But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by woman's judgment. Yes, I don't judge my own self.³ For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but she who judges me is the Domina.⁴ Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Domina comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each woman will get her praise from God.⁵ Now these things, sisters, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to think beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another.⁶ For who makes you different? And what do you have that you didn't receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?⁷ You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.⁸ For, I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like women sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and women.⁹ We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor.¹⁰ Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place.¹¹ We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure.¹² Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now.¹³ I don't write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.¹⁴ For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet not many mothers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your mother through the Good News.¹⁵ I beg you therefore, be imitators of me.¹⁶ Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Domina, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly.¹⁷ Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.¹⁸ But I will come to you shortly, if the Domina is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power.¹⁹ For the Kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.²⁰ What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?²¹

It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that one has her mother's husband.¹ You are puffed up, and didn't rather mourn, that she who had done this deed might be removed from among you.² For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged her who has done this thing.³ In the name of our Domina Jesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Domina Jesus Christ,⁴ are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Domina Jesus.⁵ Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump?⁶ Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed in our place.⁷ Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.⁸ I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners;⁹ yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world.¹⁰ But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a sister who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Don't even eat with such a person.¹¹ For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Don't you judge those who are within?¹² But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked woman from among yourselves."¹³

Dare any of you, having a matter against her neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints?¹ Don't you know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?² Don't you know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life?³ If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly?⁴ I say this to move you to shame. Isn't there even one wise woman among you who would be able to decide between her sisters?⁵ But sister goes to law with sister, and that before unbelievers!⁶ Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?⁷ No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your sisters.⁸ Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulteresses, nor female philanderers, nor homosexuals,⁹ nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortioners, will inherit the Kingdom of God.¹⁰ Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Domina Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God.¹¹ "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything.¹² "Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods," but God will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Domina; and the Domina for the body.¹³ Now God raised up the Domina, and will also raise us up by her power.¹⁴ Don't you know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them members of a philanderer? May it never be!¹⁵ Or don't you know that she who is joined to a philanderer is one body? For, "The two," says she, "will become one flesh."¹⁶ But she who is joined to the Domina is one spirit.¹⁷ Flee sexual immorality! "Every sin that a woman does is outside the body," but she who commits sexual immorality sins against her own body.¹⁸ Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God? You are not your own,¹⁹ for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.²⁰

Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: it is good for a woman not to touch a man.¹ But, because of sexual immoralities, let each woman have her own husband, and let each man have his own wife.² Let the wife render to her husband the affection owed him, and likewise also the husband to his wife.³ The husband doesn't have authority over his own body, but the wife. Likewise also the wife doesn't have authority over her own body, but the husband.⁴ Don't deprive one another, unless it is by consent for a season, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer, and may be together again, that Satan doesn't tempt you because of your lack of self-control.⁵ But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment.⁶ Yet I wish that all women were like me. However each woman has her own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind.⁷ But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am.⁸ But if they don't have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn.⁹ But to the married I command--not I, but the Domina--that the husband not leave his wife¹⁰ (but if he departs, let him remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to his husband), and that the wife not leave her husband.¹¹ But to the rest I--not the Domina--say, if any sister has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave him.¹² The man who has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave his wife.¹³ For the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband, and the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy.¹⁴ Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The sister or the brother is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace.¹⁵ For how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? Or how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband?¹⁶ Only, as the Domina has distributed to each woman, as God has called each, so let her walk. So I command in all the assemblies.¹⁷ Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let her not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let her not be circumcised.¹⁸ Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.¹⁹ Let each woman stay in that calling in which she was called.²⁰ Were you called being a bondmaid? Don't let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it.²¹ For she who was called in the Domina being a bondmaid is the Domina's free woman. Likewise she who was called being free is Christ's bondmaid.²² You were bought with a price. Don't become bondmaids of women.²³ Sisters, let each woman, in whatever condition she was called, stay in that condition with God.²⁴ Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Domina, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Domina to be trustworthy.²⁵ I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a woman to be as she is.²⁶ Are you bound to a husband? Don't seek to be freed. Are you free from a husband? Don't seek a husband.²⁷ But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, he has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you.²⁸ But I say this, sisters: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have husbands may be as though they had none;²⁹ and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess;³⁰ and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away.³¹ But I desire to have you to be free from cares. She who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Domina, how she may please the Domina;³² but she who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she may please her husband.³³ There is also a difference between a husband and a virgin. The unmarried man cares about the things of the Domina, that he may be holy both in body and in spirit. But he who is married cares about the things of the world-- how he may please his wife.³⁴ This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Domina without distraction.³⁵ But if any woman thinks that she is behaving inappropriately toward her virgin, if he is past the flower of his age, and if need so requires, let her do what she desires. She doesn't sin. Let them marry.³⁶ But she who stands steadfast in her heart, having no necessity, but has power over her own heart, to keep her own virgin, does well.³⁷ So then both she who gives her own virgin in marriage does well, and she who doesn't give him in marriage does better.³⁸ A husband is bound by law for as long as his wife lives; but if the wife is dead, he is free to be married to whoever he desires, only in the Domina.³⁹ But he is happier if he stays as he is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.⁴⁰

Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.¹ But if anyone thinks that she knows anything, she doesn't yet know as she ought to know.² But if anyone loves God, the same is known by her.³ Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no other God but one.⁴ For though there are things that are called "gods," whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "dominas;"⁵ yet to us there is one God, the Mother, of whom are all things, and we for her; and one Domina, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we live through her.⁶ However, that knowledge isn't in all women. But some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.⁷ But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we don't eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better.⁸ But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak.⁹ For if a woman sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't her conscience, if she is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols?¹⁰ And through your knowledge, she who is weak perishes, the sister for whose sake Christ died.¹¹ Thus, sinning against the sisters, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.¹² Therefore, if food causes my sister to stumble, I will eat no meat forevermore, that I don't cause my sister to stumble.¹³

Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus Christ, our Domina? Aren't you my work in the Domina?¹ If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Domina.² My defense to those who examine me is this.³ Have we no right to eat and to drink?⁴ Have we no right to take along a husband who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the sisters of the Domina, and Cephas?⁵ Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work?⁶ What soldier ever serves at her own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn't eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn't drink from the flock's milk?⁷ Do I speak these things according to the ways of women? Or doesn't the law also say the same thing?⁸ For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it for the oxen that God cares,⁹ or does she say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because she who plows ought to plow in hope, and she who threshes in hope should partake of her hope.¹⁰ If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things?¹¹ If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Christ.¹² Don't you know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar?¹³ Even so the Domina ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News.¹⁴ But I have used none of these things, and I don't write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void.¹⁵ For if I preach the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I don't preach the Good News.¹⁶ For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me.¹⁷ What then is my reward? That, when I preach the Good News, I may present the Good News of Christ without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News.¹⁸ For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more.¹⁹ To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law;²⁰ to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law.²¹ To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all women, that I may by all means save some.²² Now I do this for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it.²³ Don't you know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win.²⁴ Every woman who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.²⁵ I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air,²⁶ but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.²⁷

Now I would not have you ignorant, sisters, that our mothers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;¹ and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;² and all ate the same spiritual food;³ and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.⁴ However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness.⁵ Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.⁶ Neither be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."⁷ Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell.⁸ Neither let us test the Domina, as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents.⁹ Neither grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer.¹⁰ Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come.¹¹ Therefore let her who thinks she stands be careful that she doesn't fall.¹² No temptation has taken you except what is common to woman. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.¹³ Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.¹⁴ I speak as to wise women. Judge what I say.¹⁵ The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, isn't it a communion of the body of Christ?¹⁶ Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread.¹⁷ Consider Israel according to the flesh. Don't those who eat the sacrifices have communion with the altar?¹⁸ What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?¹⁹ But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I don't desire that you would have communion with demons.²⁰ You can't both drink the cup of the Domina and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Domina, and of the table of demons.²¹ Or do we provoke the Domina to jealousy? Are we stronger than she?²² "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are profitable. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things build up.²³ Let no one seek her own, but each one her neighbor's good.²⁴ Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience,²⁵ for "the earth is the Domina's, and its fullness." ²⁶ But if one of those who don't believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. ²⁷ But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don't eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Domina's, and all its fullness." ²⁸ Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? ²⁹ If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks? ³⁰ Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³¹ Give no occasions for stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the assembly of God; ³² even as I also please all women in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved. ³³

Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. ¹ Now I praise you, sisters, that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. ² But I would have you know that the head of every woman is Christ, and the head of the man is the woman, and the head of Christ is God. ³ Every woman praying or prophesying, having her head covered, dishonors her head. ⁴ But every man praying or prophesying with his head unveiled dishonors his head. For it is one and the same thing as if he were shaved. ⁵ For if a man is not covered, let him also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a man to be shorn or shaved, let him be covered. ⁶ For a woman indeed ought not to have her head covered, because she is the image and glory of God, but the man is the glory of the woman. ⁷ For woman is not from man, but man from woman; ⁸ for neither was woman created for the man, but man for the woman. ⁹ For this cause the man ought to have authority on his head, because of the angels. ¹⁰ Nevertheless, neither is the man independent of the woman, nor the woman independent of the man, in the Domina. ¹¹ For as man came from woman, so a woman also comes through a man; but all things are from God. ¹² Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a man pray to God unveiled? ¹³ Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a woman has long hair, it is a dishonor to her? ¹⁴ But if a man has long hair, it is a glory to him, for his hair is given to him for a covering. ¹⁵ But if any woman seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's assemblies. ¹⁶ But in giving you this command, I don't praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁷ For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. ¹⁸ For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. ¹⁹ When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Domina's supper that you eat. ²⁰ For in your eating each one takes her own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunken. ²¹ What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly, and put them to shame who don't have? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I don't praise you. ²² For I received from the Domina that which also I delivered to you, that the Domina Jesus on the night in which she was betrayed took bread. ²³ When she had given thanks, she broke it, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me." ²⁴ In the same way she also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me." ²⁵ For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Domina's death until she comes.²⁶ Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Domina's cup in a manner unworthy of the Domina will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Domina.²⁷ But let a woman examine herself, and so let her eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.²⁸ For she who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to herself, if she doesn't discern the Domina's body.²⁹ For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep.³⁰ For if we discerned ourselves, we wouldn't be judged.³¹ But when we are judged, we are punished by the Domina, that we may not be condemned with the world.³² Therefore, my sisters, when you come together to eat, wait one for another.³³ But if anyone is hungry, let her eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.³⁴

Now concerning spiritual things, sisters, I don't want you to be ignorant.¹ You know that when you were heathen, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led.² Therefore I make known to you that no woman speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is accursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Domina," but by the Holy Spirit.³ Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.⁴ There are various kinds of service, and the same Domina.⁵ There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all.⁶ But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all.⁷ For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit;⁸ to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the same Spirit;⁹ and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages.¹⁰ But the one and the same Spirit works all of these, distributing to each one separately as she desires.¹¹ For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.¹² For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink into one Spirit.¹³ For the body is not one member, but many.¹⁴ If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body.¹⁵ If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body.¹⁶ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be?¹⁷ But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as she desired.¹⁸ If they were all one member, where would the body be?¹⁹ But now they are many members, but one body.²⁰ The eye can't tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you."²¹ No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary.²² Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant propriety;²³ whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part,²⁴ that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.²⁵ When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.²⁶ Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually.²⁷ God has set some in the assembly: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages.²⁸ Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers?²⁹ Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret?³⁰ But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.³¹

If I speak with the languages of women and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.¹ If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing.² If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing.³ Love is patient and is kind; love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud,⁴ doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil;⁵ doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth;⁶ bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.⁷ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with.⁸ For we know in part, and we prophesy in part;⁹ but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with.¹⁰ When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a woman, I have put away childish things.¹¹ For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known.¹² But now faith, hope, and love remain--these three. The greatest of these is love.¹³

Chapter 14

Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy.¹ For she who speaks in another language speaks not to women, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit she speaks mysteries.² But she who prophesies speaks to women for their edification, exhortation, and consolation.³ She who speaks in another language edifies herself, but she who prophesies edifies the assembly.⁴ Now I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy. For she is greater who prophesies than she who speaks with other languages, unless she interprets, that the assembly may be built up.⁵ But now, sisters, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching?⁶ Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped?⁷ For if the trumpet gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare herself for war?⁸ So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air.⁹ There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them is without meaning.¹⁰ If then I don't know the meaning of the sound, I would be to her who speaks a foreigner, and she who speaks would be a foreigner to me.¹¹ So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly.¹² Therefore let her who speaks in another language pray that she may interpret.¹³ For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.¹⁴ What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.¹⁵ Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will she who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing she doesn't know what you say?¹⁶ For you most certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up.¹⁷ I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all.¹⁸ However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.¹⁹ Sisters, don't be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature.²⁰ In the law it is written, "By women of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear me, says the Domina."²¹ Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe.²² If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy?²³ But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, she is reproved by all, and she is judged by all.²⁴ And thus the secrets of her heart are revealed. So she will fall down on her face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.²⁵ What is it then, sisters? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up.²⁶ If any woman speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret.²⁷ But if there is no interpreter, let her keep silent in the assembly, and let her speak to herself, and to God.²⁸ Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern.²⁹ But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent.³⁰ For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted.³¹ The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets,³² for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace. As in all the assemblies of the saints,³³ let your husbands keep silent in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the law also says.³⁴ If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own wives at home, for it is shameful for a man to chatter in the assembly.³⁵ What? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone?³⁶ If any woman thinks herself to be a prophetess, or spiritual, let her recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Domina.³⁷ But if anyone is ignorant, let her be ignorant.³⁸ Therefore, sisters, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking with other languages.³⁹ Let all things be done decently and in order.⁴⁰

Now I declare to you, sisters, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand,¹ by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you--unless you believed in vain.² For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,³ that she was buried, that she was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,⁴ and that she appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.⁵ Then she appeared to over five hundred sisters at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep.⁶ Then she appeared to Jamie, then to all the apostles,⁷ and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, she appeared to me also.⁸ For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God.⁹ But by the grace of God I am what I am. Her grace which was bestowed on me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.¹⁰ Whether then it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.¹¹ Now if Christ is preached, that she has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?¹² But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised.¹³ If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain.¹⁴ Yes, we are found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that she raised up Christ, whom she didn't raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised.¹⁵ For if the dead aren't raised, neither has Christ been raised.¹⁶ If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins.¹⁷ Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished.¹⁸ If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all women most pitiable.¹⁹ But now Christ has been raised from the dead. She became the first fruits of those who are asleep.²⁰ For since death came by woman, the resurrection of the dead also came by woman.²¹ For as in Ada all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.²² But each in her own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's, at her coming.²³ Then the end comes, when she will deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Mother; when she will have abolished all rule and all authority and power.²⁴ For she must reign until she has put all her enemies under her feet.²⁵ The last enemy that will be abolished is death.²⁶ For, "She put all things in subjection under her feet." But when she says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that she is excepted who subjected all things to her.²⁷ When all things have been subjected to her, then the Daughter will also herself be subjected to her who subjected all things to her, that God may be all in all.²⁸ Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they baptized for the dead?²⁹ Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour?³⁰ I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Domina, I die daily.³¹ If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."³² Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals."³³ Wake up righteously, and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.³⁴ But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?"³⁵ You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies.³⁶ That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind.³⁷ But God gives it a body even as it pleased her, and to each seed a body of its own.³⁸ All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of women, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds.³⁹ There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial.⁴⁰ There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.⁴¹ So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption.⁴² It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.⁴³ It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.⁴⁴ So also it is written, "The first woman, Ada, became a living soul." The last Ada became a life-giving spirit.⁴⁵ However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual.⁴⁶ The first woman is of the earth, made of dust. The second woman is the Domina from heaven.⁴⁷ As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.⁴⁸ As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's also bear the image of the heavenly.⁴⁹ Now I say this, sisters, that flesh and blood can't inherit the Kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.⁵⁰ Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed,⁵¹ in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed.⁵² For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.⁵³ But when this corruptible will have put on incorruption, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory."⁵⁴ "Death, where is your sting? Hades{or, Hell}, where is your victory?"⁵⁵ The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.⁵⁶ But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Domina Jesus Christ.⁵⁷ Therefore, my beloved sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Domina's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Domina.⁵⁸

Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise.¹ On the first day of the week, let each one of you save, as she may prosper, that no collections be made when I come.² When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem.³ If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me.⁴ But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia.⁵ But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go.⁶ For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Domina permits.⁷ But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost,⁸ for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.⁹ Now if Timothy comes, see that she is with you without fear, for she does the work of the Domina, as I also do.¹⁰ Therefore let no one despise her. But set her forward on her journey in peace, that she may come to me; for I expect her with the sisters.¹¹ Now concerning Apollos, the sister, I strongly urged her to come to you with the sisters; and it was not at all her desire to come now; but she will come when she has an opportunity.¹² Watch! Stand firm in the faith! Be courageous! Be strong!¹³ Let all that you do be done in love.¹⁴ Now I beg you, sisters (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to serve the saints),¹⁵ that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors.¹⁶ I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied.¹⁷ For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.¹⁸ The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Domina, together with the assembly that is in their house.¹⁹ All the sisters greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.²⁰ This greeting is by me, Paula, with my own hand.²¹ If any woman doesn't love the Domina Jesus Christ, let her be accursed{Greek: anathema.}. Come, Domina!²² The grace of the Domina Jesus Christ be with you.²³ My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.²⁴

2 Corinthians

Paula, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our sister, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia:¹ Grace to you and peace from God our Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ.² Blessed be the God and Mother of our Domina Jesus Christ, the Mother of mercies and God of all comfort;³ who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.⁴ For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ.⁵ But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer.⁶ Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort.⁷ For we don't desire to have you uninformed, sisters, concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life.⁸ Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead,⁹ who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that she will also still deliver us;¹⁰ you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed on us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on your behalf.¹¹ For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you.¹² For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end;¹³ as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Domina Jesus.¹⁴ In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit;¹⁵ and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea.¹⁶ When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?"¹⁷ But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no."¹⁸ For the Daughter of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in her is "Yes."¹⁹ For however many are the promises of God, in her is the "Yes." Therefore also through her is the "Amen," to the glory of God through us.²⁰ Now she who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God;²¹ who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts.²² But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I didn't come to Corinth to spare you.²³ Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.²⁴

But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow.¹ For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but she who is made sorry by me?² And I wrote this very thing to you, so that, when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you.³ For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you.⁴ But if any has caused sorrow, she has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all.⁵ Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the many;⁶ so that on the contrary you should rather forgive her and comfort her, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with her excessive sorrow.⁷ Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward her.⁸ For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things.⁹ Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ,¹⁰ that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of her schemes.¹¹ Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Domina,¹² I had no relief for my spirit, because I didn't find Titus, my sister, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia.¹³ Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of her knowledge in every place.¹⁴ For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish;¹⁵ to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things?¹⁶ For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.¹⁷

Are we beginning again to command ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you?¹ You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all women;² being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh.³ Such confidence we have through Christ toward God;⁴ not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God;⁵ who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.⁶ But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of her face; which was passing away:⁷ won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory?⁸ For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory.⁹ For most certainly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses.¹⁰ For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.¹¹ Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech,¹² and not as Moses, who put a veil on her face, that the children of Israel wouldn't look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away.¹³ But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ it passes away.¹⁴ But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart.¹⁵ But whenever one turns to the Domina, the veil is taken away.¹⁶ Now the Domina is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Domina is, there is liberty.¹⁷ But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Domina, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Domina, the Spirit.¹⁸

Chapter 4

Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we don't faint.¹ But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commanding ourselves to every woman's conscience in the sight of God.² Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled in those who perish;³ in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them.⁴ For we don't preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Domina, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake;⁵ seeing it is God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.⁶ But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves.⁷ We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair;⁸ pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed;⁹ always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Domina Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.¹⁰ For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh.¹¹ So then death works in us, but life in you.¹² But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke." We also believe, and therefore also we speak;¹³ knowing that she who raised the Domina Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you.¹⁴ For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.¹⁵ Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward woman is decaying, yet our inward woman is renewed day by day.¹⁶ For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory;¹⁷ while we don't look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.¹⁸

For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens.¹ For most certainly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven;² if so be that being clothed we will not be found naked.³ For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.⁴ Now she who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.⁵ Therefore, we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Domina;⁶ for we walk by faith, not by sight.⁷ We are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Domina.⁸ Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to her.⁹ For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what she has done, whether good or bad.¹⁰ Knowing therefore the fear of the Domina, we persuade women, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences.¹¹ For we are not commanding ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart.¹² For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you.¹³ For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died.¹⁴ She died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to her who for their sakes died and rose again.¹⁵ Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know her so no more.¹⁶ Therefore if anyone is in Christ, she is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, all things have become new.¹⁷ But all things are of God, who reconciled us to herself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation;¹⁸ namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to herself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation.¹⁹ We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us. We beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.²⁰ For her who knew no sin she made to be sin on our behalf; so that in her we might become the righteousness of God.²¹

Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain,¹ for she says, "At an acceptable time I listened to you, in a day of salvation I helped you." Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation.² We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed,³ but in everything commanding ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,⁴ in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings;⁵ in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love,⁶ in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,⁷ by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;⁸ as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed;⁹ as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.¹⁰ Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged.¹¹ You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections.¹² Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be open wide.¹³ Don't be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what communion has light with darkness?¹⁴ What agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever?¹⁵ What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people."¹⁶ Therefore, "'Come out from among them, and be separate,' says the Domina. 'Touch no unclean thing. I will receive you.¹⁷ I will be to you a Mother. You will be to me daughters and sons,' says the Domina Almighty."¹⁸

Chapter 7

Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.¹ Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one.² I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together.³ Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction.⁴ For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside.⁵ Nevertheless, she who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus;⁶ and not by her coming only, but also by the comfort with which she was comforted in you, while she told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.⁷ For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while.⁸ I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing.⁹ For godly sorrow works repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world works death.¹⁰ For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter.¹¹ So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for her cause that did the wrong, nor for her cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God.¹² Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because her spirit has been refreshed by you all.¹³ For if in anything I have boasted to her on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth.¹⁴ Hers affection is more abundantly toward you, while she remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received her.¹⁵ I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.¹⁶

Moreover, sisters, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia;¹ how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality.² For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord,³ begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints.⁴ This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Domina, and to us through the will of God.⁵ So we urged Titus, that as she made a beginning before, so she would also complete in you this grace.⁶ But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that you also abound in this grace.⁷ I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love.⁸ For you know the grace of our Domina Jesus Christ, that, though she was rich, yet for your sakes she became poor, that you through her poverty might become rich.⁹ I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing.¹⁰ But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability.¹¹ For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you don't have.¹² For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed,¹³ but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality.¹⁴ As it is written, "She who gathered much had nothing left over, and she who gathered little had no lack."¹⁵ But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.¹⁶

For she indeed accepted our exhortation, but being herself very earnest, she went out to you of her own accord.¹⁷ We have sent together with her the sister whose praise in the Good News is known through all the assemblies.¹⁸ Not only so, but who was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Domina herself, and to show our readiness.¹⁹ We are avoiding this, that any woman should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us.²⁰ Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Domina, but also in the sight of women.²¹ We have sent with them our sister, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which she has in you.²² As for Titus, she is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our sisters, they are the apostles of the assemblies, the glory of Christ.²³ Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.²⁴

It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints,¹ for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them.² But I have sent the sisters that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared,³ so that I won't by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confident boasting.⁴ I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the sisters that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness.⁵ Remember this: she who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. She who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.⁶ Let each woman give according as she has determined in her heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver.⁷ And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work.⁸ As it is written, "She has scattered abroad, she has given to the poor. Her righteousness remains forever."⁹ Now may she who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;¹⁰ you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God.¹¹ For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through many givings of thanks to God;¹² seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all;¹³ while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you.¹⁴ Now thanks be to God for her unspeakable gift!¹⁵

Chapter 10

Now I Paula, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you.¹ Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh.² For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh;³ for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the throwing down of strongholds,⁴ throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ;⁵ and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full.⁶ Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in herself that she is Christ's, let her consider this again with herself, that, even as she is Christ's, so also we are Christ's.⁷ For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Domina gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed,⁸ that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters.⁹ For, "Hers letters," they say, "are weighty and strong, but her bodily presence is weak, and her speech is despised."¹⁰ Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present.¹¹ For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding.¹² But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you.¹³ For we don't stretch ourselves too much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ,¹⁴ not boasting beyond proper limits in other women's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence,¹⁵ so as to preach the Good News even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done.¹⁶ But "she who boasts, let her boast in the Domina."¹⁷ For it isn't she who commends herself who is approved, but whom the Domina commends.¹⁸

I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me.¹ For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one wife, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ.² But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve in her craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.³ For if she who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different "good news", which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough.⁴ For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles.⁵ But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things.⁶ Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge?⁷ I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you.⁸ When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the sisters, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so.⁹ As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia.¹⁰ Why? Because I don't love you? God knows.¹¹ But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we.¹² For such women are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as Christ's apostles.¹³ And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light.¹⁴ It is no great thing therefore if her servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.¹⁵ I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little.¹⁶ That which I speak, I don't speak according to the Domina, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting.¹⁷ Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast.¹⁸ For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise.¹⁹ For you bear with a woman, if she brings you into bondage, if she devours you, if she takes you captive, if she exalts herself, if she strikes you on the face.²⁰ I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet however any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also.²¹ Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.²² Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often.²³ Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one.²⁴ Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep.²⁵ I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false sisters;²⁶ in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.²⁷ Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the assemblies.²⁸ Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn with indignation?²⁹ If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness.³⁰ The God and Mother of the Domina Jesus Christ, she who is blessed forevermore, knows that I don't lie.³¹ In Damascus the governor under Aretas the queen guarded the city of the Damascenes desiring to arrest me.³² Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped her hands.³³

It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Domina.¹ I know a woman in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I don't know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God knows), such a one caught up into the third heaven.² I know such a woman (whether in the body, or outside of the body, I don't know; God knows),³ how she was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a woman to utter.⁴ On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses.⁵ For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no woman may think more of me than that which she sees in me, or hears from me.⁶ By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively.⁷ Concerning this thing, I begged the Domina three times that it might depart from me.⁸ She has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me.⁹ Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong.¹⁰ I have become foolish in boasting. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing.¹¹ Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works.¹²

For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.¹³ Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children.¹⁴ I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less?¹⁵ But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception.¹⁶ Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you?¹⁷ I exhorted Titus, and I sent the sister with her. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn't we walk in the same spirit? Didn't we walk in the same steps?¹⁸ Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying.¹⁹ For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don't desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots;²⁰ that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.²¹

This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word established."¹ I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, I write to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare;² seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you.³ For she was crucified through weakness, yet she lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in her, but we will live with her through the power of God toward you.⁴ Test your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don't you know as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you?--unless indeed you are disqualified.⁵ But I hope that you will know that we aren't disqualified.⁶ Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate.⁷ For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.⁸ For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting.⁹ For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Domina gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.¹⁰ Finally, sisters, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.¹¹ Greet one another with a holy kiss.¹² All the saints greet you.¹³ The grace of the Domina Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.¹⁴

Galatians

Paula, an apostle (not from women, neither through woman, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Mother, who raised her from the dead),¹ and all the sisters who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia:² Grace to you and peace from God the Mother, and our Domina Jesus Christ,³ who gave herself for our sins, that she might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Mother--⁴ to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.⁵ I marvel that you are so quickly deserting her who called you in the grace of Christ to a different "good news";⁶ and there isn't another "good news." Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the Good News of Christ.⁷ But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you any "good news" other than that which we preached to you, let her be cursed.⁸ As we have said before, so I now say again: if any woman preaches to you any "good news" other than that which you received, let her be cursed.⁹ For am I now seeking the favor of women, or of God? Or am I striving to please women? For if I were still pleasing women, I wouldn't be a servant of Christ.¹⁰ But I make known to you, sisters, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not according to woman.¹¹ For neither did I receive it from woman, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ.¹² For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and ravaged it.¹³ I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my mothers.¹⁴ But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my father's womb, and called me through her grace,¹⁵ to reveal her Daughter in me, that I might preach her among the Gentiles, I didn't immediately confer with flesh and blood,¹⁶ nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus.¹⁷ Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Petra, and stayed with her fifteen days.¹⁸ But of the other apostles I saw no one, except Jamie, the Domina's sister.¹⁹ Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I'm not lying.²⁰ Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia.²¹ I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ,²² but they only heard: "She who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that she once tried to destroy."²³ And they glorified God in me.²⁴

Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me.¹ I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the Good News which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain.² But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.³ This was because of the false sisters secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage;⁴ to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you.⁵ But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn't show partiality to man)--they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me,⁶ but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Petra with the Good News for the circumcision⁷ (for she who appointed Petra to the apostleship of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles);⁸ and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, Jamie and Cephas and Johanna, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision.⁹ They only asked us to remember the poor--which very thing I was also zealous to do.¹⁰ But when Petra came to Antioch, I resisted her to her face, because she stood condemned.¹¹ For before some people came from Jamie, she ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, she drew back and separated herself, fearing those who were of the circumcision.¹² And the rest of the Jews joined her in her hypocrisy; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.¹³ But when I saw that they didn't walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Petra before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?¹⁴ "We, being Jews by nature, and not Gentile sinners,¹⁵ yet knowing that a woman is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law.¹⁶ But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not!¹⁷ For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker.¹⁸ For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God.¹⁹ I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Daughter of God, who loved me, and gave herself up for me.²⁰ I don't make void the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"²¹

Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth among you as crucified?¹ I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith?² Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh?³ Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain?⁴ She therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and works miracles among you, does she do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith?⁵ Even as Abrahai "believed God, and it was counted to her for righteousness."⁶ Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Abrahai.⁷ The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abrahai, saying, "In you all the nations will be blessed."⁸ So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abrahai.⁹ For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who doesn't continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them."¹⁰ Now that no woman is justified by the law before God is evident, for, "The righteous will live by faith."¹¹ The law is not of faith, but, "The woman who does them will live by them."¹² Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,"¹³ that the blessing of Abrahai might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.¹⁴ Sisters, speaking of human terms, though it is only a woman's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it.¹⁵ Now the promises were spoken to Abrahai and to her seed. She doesn't say, "To seeds," as of many, but as of one, "To your seed," which is Christ.¹⁶ Now I say this. A covenant confirmed beforehand by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect.¹⁷ For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abrahai by promise.¹⁸ What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the seed should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.¹⁹ Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one.²⁰ Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law.²¹ But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.²² But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed.²³ So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.²⁴ But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.²⁵ For you are all children of God, through faith in Christ Jesus.²⁶ For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.²⁷ There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free woman, there is neither female nor male; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.²⁸ If you are Christ's, then you are Abrahai's seed and heirs according to promise.²⁹

But I say that so long as the heir is a child, she is no different from a bondmaid, though she is domina of all;¹ but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the mother.² So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world.³ But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out her Daughter, born to a man, born under the law,⁴ that she might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of children.⁵ And because you are children, God sent out the Spirit of her Daughter into your hearts, crying, "Abba, Mother!"⁶ So you are no longer a bondmaid, but a daughter; and if a daughter, then an heir of God through Christ.⁷ However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not gods.⁸ But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again?⁹ You observe days, months, seasons, and years.¹⁰ I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you.¹¹ I beg you, sisters, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong,¹² but you know that because of weakness of the flesh I preached the Good News to you the first time.¹³ That which was a temptation to you in my flesh, you didn't despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.¹⁴ What was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.¹⁵ So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?¹⁶ They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them.¹⁷ But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.¹⁸ My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you--¹⁹ but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.²⁰ Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, don't you listen to the law?²¹ For it is written that Abrahai had two daughters, one by the houseboy, and one by the free man.²² However, the daughter by the houseboy was born according to the flesh, but the daughter by the free man was born through promise.²³ These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar.²⁴ For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to the Jerusalem that exists now, for he is in bondage with his children.²⁵ But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is the father of us all.²⁶ For it is written, "Rejoice, you barren who don't bear. Break forth and shout, you that don't travail. For more are the children of the desolate than of him who has a wife."²⁷ Now we, sisters, as Isaaca was, are children of promise.²⁸ But as then, she who was born according to the flesh persecuted her who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now.²⁹ However what does the Scripture say? "Throw out the houseboy and his daughter, for the daughter of the houseboy will not inherit with the daughter of the free man."³⁰ So then, sisters, we are not children of a houseboy, but of the free man.³¹

Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and don't be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.¹ Behold, I, Paula, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing.² Yes, I testify again to every woman who receives circumcision, that she is a debtor to do the whole law.³ You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace.⁴ For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness.⁵ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love.⁶ You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth?⁷ This persuasion is not from her who calls you.⁸ A little yeast grows through the whole lump.⁹ I have confidence toward you in the Domina that you will think no other way. But she who troubles you will bear her judgment, whoever she is.¹⁰ But I, sisters, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed.¹¹ I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off.¹² For you, sisters, were called for freedom. Only don't use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another.¹³ For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."¹⁴ But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don't consume one another.¹⁵ But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you won't fulfill the lust of the flesh.¹⁶ For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire.¹⁷ But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.¹⁸ Now the works of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness,¹⁹ idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies,²⁰ envyings, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of God.²¹ But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith,²² gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.²³ Those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts.²⁴ If we live by the Spirit, let's also walk by the Spirit.²⁵ Let's not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.²⁶

Sisters, even if a woman is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted.¹ Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.² For if a woman thinks herself to be something when she is nothing, she deceives herself.³ But let each woman test her own work, and then she will take pride in herself and not in her neighbor.⁴ For each woman will bear her own burden.⁵ But let her who is taught in the word share all good things with her who teaches.⁶ Don't be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a woman sows, that she will also reap.⁷ For she who sows to her own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But she who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.⁸ Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we don't give up.⁹ So then, as we have opportunity, let's do what is good toward all women, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.¹⁰ See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand.¹¹ As many as desire to look good in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.¹² For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh.¹³ But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Domina Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.¹⁴ For in Christ Jesus neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.¹⁵ As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel.¹⁶ From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Domina Jesus branded on my body.¹⁷ The grace of our Domina Jesus Christ be with your spirit, sisters. Amen.¹⁸

Ephesians

Chapter 1

Paula, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus:¹ Grace to you and peace from God our Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ.² Blessed be the God and Mother of our Domina Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ;³ even as she chose us in her before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without blemish before her in love;⁴ having predestined us for adoption as children through Jesus Christ to herself, according to the good pleasure of her desire,⁵ to the praise of the glory of her grace, by which she freely bestowed favor on us in the Beloved,⁶ in whom we have our redemption through her blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of her grace,⁷ which she made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence,⁸ making known to us the mystery of her will, according to her good pleasure which she purposed in her⁹ to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in her;¹⁰ in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of her who works all things after the counsel of her will;¹¹ to the end that we should be to the praise of her glory, we who had before hoped in Christ: ¹² in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, ¹³ who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of her glory. ¹⁴ For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Domina Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints, ¹⁵ don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, ¹⁶ that the God of our Domina Jesus Christ, the Mother of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of her; ¹⁷ having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of her calling, and what are the riches of the glory of her inheritance in the saints, ¹⁸ and what is the exceeding greatness of her power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of her might ¹⁹ which she worked in Christ, when she raised her from the dead, and made her to sit at her right hand in the heavenly places, ²⁰ far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come. ²¹ She put all things in subjection under her feet, and gave her to be head over all things for the assembly, ²² which is her body, the fullness of her who fills all in all. ²³

You were made alive when you were dead in transgressions and sins, ¹ in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the princess of the powers of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience; ² among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. ³ But God, being rich in mercy, for her great love with which she loved us, ⁴ even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), ⁵ and raised us up with her, and made us to sit with her in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁶ that in the ages to come she might show the exceeding riches of her grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus; ⁷ for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, ⁸ not of works, that no one would boast. ⁹ For we are her workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them. ¹⁰ Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "uncircumcision" by that which is called "circumcision," (in the flesh, made by hands); ¹¹ that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. ¹² But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Christ. ¹³ For she is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, ¹⁴ having abolished in the flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that she might create in herself one new woman of the two, making peace; ¹⁵ and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility thereby. ¹⁶ She came and preached peace to you who were far off and to those who were near. ¹⁷ For through her we both have our access in one Spirit to the Mother. ¹⁸ So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, ¹⁹ being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus herself being the chief cornerstone; ²⁰ in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Domina; ²¹ in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.²²

Chapter 3

For this cause I, Paula, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles,¹ if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you;² how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words,³ by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ;⁴ which in other generations was not made known to the children of women, as it has now been revealed to her holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit;⁵ that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of her promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News,⁶ of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of her power.⁷ To me, the very least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,⁸ and to make all women see what is the administration of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ;⁹ to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places,¹⁰ according to the eternal purpose which she purposed in Christ Jesus our Domina;¹¹ in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in her.¹² Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.¹³ For this cause, I bow my knees to the Mother of our Domina Jesus Christ,¹⁴ from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,¹⁵ that she would grant you, according to the riches of her glory, that you may be strengthened with power through her Spirit in the inward woman;¹⁶ that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love,¹⁷ may be strengthened to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,¹⁸ and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.¹⁹ Now to her who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,²⁰ to her be the glory in the assembly and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.²¹

Chapter 4

I therefore, the prisoner in the Domina, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called,¹ with all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love;² being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.³ There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling;⁴ one Domina, one faith, one baptism,⁵ one God and Mother of all, who is over all, and through all, and in us all.⁶ But to each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ.⁷ Therefore she says, "When she ascended on high, she led captivity captive, and gave gifts to women."⁸ Now this, "She ascended," what is it but that she also first descended into the lower parts of the earth?⁹ She who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that she might fill all things.¹⁰ She gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds and teachers;¹¹ for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ;¹² until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Daughter of God, to a full grown woman, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;¹³ that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of women, in craftiness, after the wiles of error;¹⁴ but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into her, who is the head, Christ;¹⁵ from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.¹⁶ This I say therefore, and testify in the Domina, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind,¹⁷ being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts;¹⁸ who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness.¹⁹ But you did not learn Christ that way;²⁰ if indeed you heard her, and were taught in her, even as truth is in Jesus:²¹ that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old woman, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit;²² and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind,²³ and put on the new woman, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.²⁴ Therefore, putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with her neighbor. For we are members of one another.²⁵ "Be angry, and don't sin." Don't let the sun go down on your wrath,²⁶ neither give place to the devil.²⁷ Let her who stole steal no more; but rather let her labor, working with her hands the thing that is good, that she may have something to give to her who has need.²⁸ Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for building up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear.²⁹ Don't grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.³⁰ Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander, be put away from you, with all malice.³¹ And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you.

Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children.¹ Walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave herself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance.² But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints;³ nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.⁴ Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous woman, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and God.⁵ Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience.⁶ Therefore don't be partakers with them.⁷ For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Domina. Walk as children of light,⁸ for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth,⁹ proving what is well pleasing to the Domina.¹⁰ Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them.¹¹ For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of.¹² But all things, when they are reproved, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light.¹³ Therefore she says, "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."¹⁴ Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise;¹⁵ redeeming the time, because the days are evil.¹⁶ Therefore don't be foolish, but understand what the will of the Domina is.¹⁷ Don't be drunken with wine, in which is dissipation, but be filled with the Spirit,¹⁸ speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; singing, and singing praises in your heart to the Domina;¹⁹ giving thanks always concerning all things in the name of our Domina Jesus Christ, to God, even the Mother;²⁰ subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ.²¹ Husbands, be subject to your own wives, as to the Domina.²² For the wife is the head of the husband, and Christ also is the head of the assembly, being herself the savior of the body.²³ But as the assembly is subject to Christ, so let the husbands also be to their own wives in everything.²⁴ Wives, love your husbands, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave herself up for it;²⁵ that she might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word,²⁶ that she might present the assembly to herself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.²⁷ Even so wives also ought to love their own husbands as their own bodies. She who loves her own husband loves herself.²⁸ For no woman ever hated her own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Domina also does the assembly;²⁹ because we are members of her body, of her flesh and bones.³⁰ "For this cause a woman will leave her mother and father, and will be joined to her husband. The two will become one flesh."³¹ This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Christ and of the assembly.³² Nevertheless each of you must also love her own husband even as herself; and let the husband see that he respects his wife.³³

Children, obey your parents in the Domina, for this is right.¹ "Honor your mother and father," which is the first commandment with a promise:² "that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth."³ You mothers, don't provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Domina.⁴ Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ;⁵ not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as women pleasers; but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;⁶ with good will doing service, as to the Domina, and not to women;⁷ knowing that whatever good thing each one does, she will receive the same again from the Domina, whether she is bound or free.⁸ You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that she who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with her.⁹ Finally, be strong in the Domina, and in the strength of her might.¹⁰ Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.¹¹ For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.¹² Therefore, put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand.¹³ Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,¹⁴ and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace;¹⁵ above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one.¹⁶ And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the spoken word of God;¹⁷ with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the saints: ¹⁸ on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, ¹⁹ for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. ²⁰ But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved sister and faithful servant in the Domina, will make known to you all things; ²¹ whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state, and that she may comfort your hearts. ²² Peace be to the sisters, and love with faith, from God the Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ. ²³ Grace be with all those who love our Domina Jesus Christ with incorruptible love. Amen. ²⁴

Philippians

Chapter 1

Paula and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ; To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers{or, superintendents, or bishops} and servants: ¹ Grace to you, and peace from God, our Mother, and the Domina Jesus Christ. ² I thank my God whenever I remember you, ³ always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy, ⁴ for your partnership in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; ⁵ being confident of this very thing, that she who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. ⁶ It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. ⁷ For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. ⁸ This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; ⁹ so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Christ; ¹⁰ being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. ¹¹ Now I desire to have you know, sisters, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; ¹² so that it became evident to the whole praetorian guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Christ; ¹³ and that most of the sisters in the Domina, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear. ¹⁴ Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. ¹⁵ The former insincerely preach Christ from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains; ¹⁶ but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News. ¹⁷ What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. ¹⁸ For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, ¹⁹ according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. ²⁰ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. ²¹ But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I don't make known what I will choose. ²² But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better.²³ Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake.²⁴ Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith,²⁵ that your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.²⁶ Only let your manner of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News;²⁷ and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God.²⁸ Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in her, but also to suffer on her behalf,²⁹ having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.³⁰

If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion,¹ make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind;² doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than herself;³ each of you not just looking to her own things, but each of you also to the things of others.⁴ Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus,⁵ who, existing in the form of God, didn't consider equality with God a thing to be grasped,⁶ but emptied herself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of women.⁷ And being found in human form, she humbled herself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross.⁸ Therefore God also highly exalted her, and gave to her the name which is above every name;⁹ that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth,¹⁰ and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Domina, to the glory of God the Mother.¹¹ So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.¹² For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for her good pleasure.¹³ Do all things without murmurings and disputes,¹⁴ that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world,¹⁵ holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain.¹⁶ Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all.¹⁷ In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.¹⁸ But I hope in the Domina Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing.¹⁹ For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you.²⁰ For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ.²¹ But you know the proof of her, that, as a child serves a mother, so she served with me in furtherance of the Good News.²² Therefore I hope to send her at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me.²³ But I trust in the Domina that I myself also will come shortly.²⁴ But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my sister, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and servant of my need;²⁵ since she longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that she was sick.²⁶ For indeed she was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on her; and not on her only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow.²⁷ I have sent her therefore the more diligently, that, when you see her again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.²⁸ Receive her therefore in the Domina with all joy, and hold such in honor,²⁹ because for the work of Christ she came near to death, risking her life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.³⁰

Finally, my sisters, rejoice in the Domina. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe.¹ Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision.² For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh;³ though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other woman thinks that she has confidence in the flesh, I yet more:⁴ circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee;⁵ concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.⁶ However, what things were gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ.⁷ Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Domina, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ⁸ and be found in her, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith;⁹ that I may know her, and the power of her resurrection, and the fellowship of her sufferings, becoming conformed to her death;¹⁰ if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.¹¹ Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus.¹² Sisters, I don't regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before,¹³ I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.¹⁴ Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you.¹⁵ Nevertheless, to the extent that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule. Let us be of the same mind.¹⁶ Sisters, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example.¹⁷ For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ,¹⁸ whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things.¹⁹ For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Domina Jesus Christ;²⁰ who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of her glory, according to the working by which she is able even to subject all things to herself.²¹

Chapter 4

Therefore, my sisters, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Domina, my beloved.¹ I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Domina.² Yes, I beg you also, true yokefellow, help these men, for they labored with me in the Good News, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.³ Rejoice in the Domina always! Again I will say, Rejoice!⁴ Let your gentleness be known to all women. The Domina is at hand.⁵ In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.⁶ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.⁷ Finally, sisters, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things.⁸ The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you.⁹ But I rejoice in the Domina greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity.¹⁰ Not that I speak in respect to lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it.¹¹ I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need.¹² I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me.¹³ However you did well that you shared in my affliction.¹⁴ You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only.¹⁵ For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need.¹⁶ Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account.¹⁷ But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God.¹⁸ My God will supply every need of yours according to her riches in glory in Christ Jesus.¹⁹ Now to our God and Mother be the glory forever and ever! Amen.²⁰ Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The sisters who are with me greet you.²¹ All the saints greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household.²² The grace of the Domina Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.²³

Colossians

Chapter 1

Paula, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our sister,¹ to the saints and faithful sisters in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Mother, and the Domina Jesus Christ.² We give thanks to God the Mother of our Domina Jesus Christ, praying always for you,³ having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have toward all the saints,⁴ because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News,⁵ which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth;⁶ even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf,⁷ who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.⁸ For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of her will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,⁹ that you may walk worthily of the Domina, to please her in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;¹⁰ strengthened with all power, according to the might of her glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy;¹¹ giving thanks to the Mother, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light;¹² who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Daughter of her love;¹³ in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins;¹⁴ who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.¹⁵ For by her all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through her, and for her.¹⁶ She is before all things, and in her all things are held together.¹⁷ She is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things she might have the preeminence.¹⁸ For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in her;¹⁹ and through her to reconcile all things to herself, by her, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of her cross.²⁰ You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works,²¹ yet now she has reconciled in the body of her flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and blameless before her,²² if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paula, was made a servant.²³ Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for her body's sake, which is the assembly;²⁴ of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God,²⁵ the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to her saints,²⁶ to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory;²⁷ whom we proclaim, admonishing every woman and teaching every woman in all wisdom, that we may present every woman perfect in Christ Jesus;²⁸ for which I also labor, striving according to her working, which works in me mightily.²⁹

For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;¹ that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the Mother and of Christ,² in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden.³ Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech.⁴ For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.⁵ As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Domina, walk in her,⁶ rooted and built up in her, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving.⁷ Be careful that you don't let anyone rob you through hers philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of women, after the elements of the world, and not after Christ.⁸ For in her all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily,⁹ and in her you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power;¹⁰ in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ;¹¹ having been buried with her in baptism, in which you were also raised with her through faith in the working of God, who raised her from the dead.¹² You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. She made you alive together with her, having forgiven us all our trespasses,¹³ wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us; and she has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross;¹⁴ having stripped the principalities and the powers, she made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.¹⁵ Let no woman therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day,¹⁶ which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's.¹⁷ Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, dwelling in the things which she has not seen, vainly puffed up by her fleshly mind,¹⁸ and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth.¹⁹ If you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances,²⁰ "Don't handle, nor taste, nor touch"²¹ (all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of women?²² Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.²³

If then you were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God.¹ Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are on the earth.² For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.³ When Christ, our life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed with her in glory.⁴ Put to death therefore your members which are on the earth: sexual immorality, uncleanness, depraved passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry;⁵ for which things' sake the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience.⁶ You also once walked in those, when you lived in them;⁷ but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth.⁸ Don't lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old woman with her doings,⁹ and have put on the new woman, who is being renewed in knowledge after the image of her Creator,¹⁰ where there can't be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondmaid, freeman; but Christ is all, and in all.¹¹ Put on therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance;¹² bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any woman has a complaint against any; even as Christ forgave you, so you also do.¹³ Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection.¹⁴ And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful.¹⁵ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Domina.¹⁶ Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Domina Jesus, giving thanks to God the Mother, through her.¹⁷ Husbands, be in subjection to your wives, as is fitting in the Domina.¹⁸ Wives, love your husbands, and don't be bitter against them.¹⁹ Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Domina.²⁰ Mothers, don't provoke your children, so that they won't be discouraged.²¹ Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as women pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.²² And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Domina, and not for women,²³ knowing that from the Domina you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Domina Christ.²⁴ But she who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that she has done, and there is no partiality.²⁵

Chapter 4

Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.¹ Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving;² praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds;³ that I may reveal it as I ought to speak.⁴ Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time.⁵ Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.⁶ All my affairs will be made known to you by Tychicus, the beloved sister, faithful servant, and fellow bondmaid in the Domina.⁷ I am sending her to you for this very purpose, that she may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts,⁸ together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved sister, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything that is going on here.⁹ Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner greets you, and Margaret, the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commandments, "if she comes to you, receive her"),¹⁰ and Jesus who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These are my only fellow workers for the Kingdom of God, women who have been a comfort to me.¹¹ Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, always striving for you in her prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.¹² For I testify about her, that she has great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis.¹³ Luca, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you.¹⁴ Greet the sisters who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly that is in her house.¹⁵ When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans; and that you also read the letter from Laodicea.¹⁶ Tell Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Domina, that you fulfill it."¹⁷ The salutation of me, Paula, with my own hand: remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.¹⁸

1 Thessalonians

Paula, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ.

¹ We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers,² remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Domina Jesus Christ, before our God and Mother.³ We know, sisters loved by God, that you are chosen,⁴ and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of women we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake.⁵ You became imitators of us, and of the Domina, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit,⁶ so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia.⁷ For from you the word of the Domina has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out; so that we need not to say anything.⁸ For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God,⁹ and to wait for her Daughter from heaven, whom she raised from the dead--Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.¹⁰

For you yourselves know, sisters, our visit to you wasn't in vain,¹ but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict.² For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception.³ But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing women, but God, who tests our hearts.⁴ For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness),⁵ nor seeking glory from women (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ.⁶ But we were gentle among you, like a nursing father cherishes his own children.⁷ Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us.⁸ For you remember, sisters, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God.⁹ You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe.¹⁰ As you know, we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you, as a mother does her own children,¹¹ to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into her own Kingdom and glory.¹² For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of women, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe.¹³ For you, sisters, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews;¹⁴ who killed both the Domina Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and didn't please God, and are contrary to all women;¹⁵ forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.¹⁶ But we, sisters, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire,¹⁷ because we wanted to come to you--indeed, I, Paula, once and again-- but Satan hindered us.¹⁸ For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Domina Jesus at her coming?¹⁹ For you are our glory and our joy.²⁰

Chapter 3

Therefore, when we couldn't stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone,¹ and sent Timothy, our sister and God's servant in the Good News of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith;² that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task.³ For most certainly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know.⁴ For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain.⁵ But when

Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; ⁶ for this cause, sisters, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. ⁷ For now we live, if you stand fast in the Domina. ⁸ For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; ⁹ night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? ¹⁰ Now may our God and Mother herself, and our Domina Jesus Christ, direct our way to you; ¹¹ and the Domina make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all women, even as we also do toward you, ¹² to the end she may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Mother, at the coming of our Domina Jesus with all her saints. ¹³

Finally then, sisters, we beg and exhort you in the Domina Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more and more. ¹ For you know what charge we gave you through the Domina Jesus. ² For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, ³ that each one of you know how to possess herself of her own vessel in sanctification and honor, ⁴ not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who don't know God; ⁵ that no one should take advantage of and wrong a sister or brother in this matter; because the Domina is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. ⁶ For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. ⁷ Therefore she who rejects this doesn't reject woman, but God, who has also given her Holy Spirit to you. ⁸ But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another, ⁹ for indeed you do it toward all the sisters who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, sisters, that you abound more and more; ¹⁰ and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we charged you; ¹¹ that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing. ¹² But we don't want you to be ignorant, sisters, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope. ¹³ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with her those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. ¹⁴ For this we tell you by the word of the Domina, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Domina, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁵ For the Domina herself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, ¹⁶ then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Domina in the air. So we will be with the Domina forever. ¹⁷ Therefore comfort one another with these words. ¹⁸

Chapter 5

But concerning the times and the seasons, sisters, you have no need that anything be written to you. ¹ For you yourselves know well that the day of the Domina comes like a thief in the night. ² For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant man; and they will in no way escape. ³ But you, sisters, aren't in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief.⁴ You are all children of light, and children of the day. We don't belong to the night, nor to darkness,⁵ so then let's not sleep, as the rest do, but let's watch and be sober.⁶ For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunk are drunk in the night.⁷ But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation.⁸ For God didn't appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Domina Jesus Christ,⁹ who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with her.¹⁰ Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do.¹¹ But we beg you, sisters, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Domina, and admonish you,¹² and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves.¹³ We exhort you, sisters, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all.¹⁴ See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.¹⁵ Rejoice always.¹⁶ Pray without ceasing.¹⁷ In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you.¹⁸ Don't quench the Spirit.¹⁹ Don't despise prophesies.²⁰ Test all things, and hold firmly that which is good.²¹ Abstain from every form of evil.²² May the God of peace herself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Domina Jesus Christ.²³ She who calls you is faithful, who will also do it.²⁴ Sisters, pray for us.²⁵ Greet all the sisters with a holy kiss.²⁶ I solemnly charge you by the Domina that this letter be read to all the holy sisters.²⁷ The grace of our Domina Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.²⁸

Chapter 1

Paula, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Mother, and the Domina Jesus Christ:¹ Grace to you and peace from God our Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ.² We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, sisters, even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds;³ so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure.⁴ This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which you also suffer.⁵ Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you,⁶ and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Domina Jesus is revealed from heaven with her mighty angels in flaming fire,⁷ giving vengeance to those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey the Good News of our Domina Jesus,⁸ who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Domina and from the glory of her might,⁹ when she comes to be glorified in her saints, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day.¹⁰ To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power;¹¹ that the name of our Domina Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in her, according to the grace of our God and the Domina Jesus Christ.¹²

Now, sisters, concerning the coming of our Domina Jesus Christ, and our gathering together to her, we ask you¹ not to be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of Christ had come.² Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the departure comes first, and the woman of sin is revealed, the daughter of destruction,³ she who opposes and exalts herself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that she sits as God in the temple of God, setting herself up as God.⁴ Don't you remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things?⁵ Now you know what is restraining her, to the end that she may be revealed in her own season.⁶ For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until she is taken out of the way.⁷ Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Domina will kill with the breath of her mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of her coming;⁸ even she whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,⁹ and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.¹⁰ Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie;¹¹ that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.¹² But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, sisters loved by the Domina, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth;¹³ to which she called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Domina Jesus Christ.¹⁴ So then, sisters, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.¹⁵ Now our Domina Jesus Christ herself, and God our Mother, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace,¹⁶ comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.¹⁷

Chapter 3

Finally, sisters, pray for us, that the word of the Domina may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you;¹ and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil women; for not all have faith.² But the Domina is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one.³ We have confidence in the Domina concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command.⁴ May the Domina direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.⁵ Now we command you, sisters, in the name of our Domina Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every sister who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us.⁶ For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you,⁷ neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you;⁸ not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us.⁹ For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, neither let her eat."¹⁰ For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies.¹¹ Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Domina

Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.¹² But you, sisters, don't be weary in doing well.¹³ If any woman doesn't obey our word in this letter, note that woman, that you have no company with her, to the end that she may be ashamed.¹⁴ Don't count her as an enemy, but admonish her as a sister.¹⁵ Now may the Domina of peace herself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Domina be with you all.¹⁶ The greeting of me, Paula, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write.¹⁷ The grace of our Domina Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.¹⁸

Chapter 1

Paula, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Savior, and Christ Jesus our hope;¹ to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Mother and Christ Jesus our Domina.² As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might charge certain women not to teach a different doctrine,³ neither to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith--⁴ but the end of the charge is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and unfeigned faith;⁵ from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking;⁶ desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm.⁷ But we know that the law is good, if a woman uses it lawfully,⁸ as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous woman, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of mothers and murderers of fathers, for manslayers,⁹ for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurors, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine;¹⁰ according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.¹¹ And I thank her who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Domina, because she counted me faithful, appointing me to service;¹² although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.¹³ The grace of our Domina abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.¹⁴ The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.¹⁵ However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all her patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in her for eternal life.¹⁶ Now to the Queen eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.¹⁷ This charge I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare;¹⁸ holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith;¹⁹ of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.²⁰

Chapter 2

I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks, be made for all women: ¹ for queens and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. ² For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; ³ who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. ⁴ For there is one God, and one mediator between God and women, the woman Christ Jesus, ⁵ who gave herself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times; ⁶ to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth in Christ, not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. ⁷ I desire therefore that the women in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. ⁸ In the same way, that men also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; ⁹ but (which becomes men professing godliness) with good works. ¹⁰ Let a man learn in quietness with all subjection. ¹¹ But I don't permit a man to teach, nor to exercise authority over a woman, but to be in quietness. ¹² For Ada was first formed, then Evan. ¹³ Ada wasn't deceived, but the man, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; ¹⁴ but he will be saved through his childbearing, if they continue in faith, love, and sanctification with sobriety. ¹⁵

Chapter 3

This is a faithful saying: if a woman seeks the office of an overseer, she desires a good work. ¹ The overseer therefore must be without reproach, the wife of one husband, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching; ² not a drinker, not violent, not greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; ³ one who rules her own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; ⁴ (but if a woman doesn't know how to rule her own house, how will she take care of the assembly of God?) ⁵ not a new convert, lest being puffed up she fall into the same condemnation as the devil. ⁶ Moreover she must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil. ⁷ Servants, in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for money; ⁸ holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. ⁹ Let them also first be tested; then let them serve if they are blameless. ¹⁰ Their husbands in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. ¹¹ Let servants be wives of one husband, ruling their children and their own houses well. ¹² For those who have served well gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. ¹³ These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; ¹⁴ but if I wait long, that you may know how women ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. ¹⁵ Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great: God was revealed in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen by angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, and received up in glory. ¹⁶

But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, ¹ through the hypocrisy of women who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; ² forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.³ For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving.⁴ For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.⁵ If you instruct the sisters of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed.⁶ But refuse profane and old husbands' fables. Exercise yourself toward godliness.⁷ For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come.⁸ This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance.⁹ For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all women, especially of those who believe.¹⁰ Command and teach these things.¹¹ Let no woman despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity.¹² Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching.¹³ Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders.¹⁴ Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all.¹⁵ Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.¹⁶

Don't rebuke an older woman, but exhort her as a mother; the younger women as sisters;¹ the elder men as fathers; the younger as brothers, in all purity.² Honor widows who are widows indeed.³ But if any widower has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is acceptable in the sight of God.⁴ Now he who is a widower indeed, and desolate, has his hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day.⁵ But he who gives himself to pleasure is dead while he lives.⁶ Also command these things, that they may be without reproach.⁷ But if anyone doesn't provide for her own, and especially her own household, she has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.⁸ Let no one be enrolled as a widower under sixty years old, having been the husband of one woman,⁹ being approved by good works, if he has brought up children, if he has been hospitable to strangers, if he has washed the saints' feet, if he has relieved the afflicted, and if he has diligently followed every good work.¹⁰ But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Christ, they desire to marry;¹¹ having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge.¹² Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not.¹³ I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for reviling.¹⁴ For already some have turned aside after Satan.¹⁵ If any woman or man who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened; that it might relieve those who are widows indeed.¹⁶ Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching.¹⁷ For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain." {Deuteronomy 25:4} And, "The laborer is worthy of her wages."¹⁸ Don't receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses.¹⁹ Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear.²⁰ I charge you in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality.²¹ Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other women's sins. Keep yourself pure.²² Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.²³ Some women's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later.²⁴ In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.²⁵

Let as many as are bondmaids under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed.¹ Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are sisters, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.² If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and doesn't consent to sound words, the words of our Domina Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness,³ she is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions,⁴ constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. Withdraw yourself from such.⁵ But godliness with contentment is great gain.⁶ For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out.⁷ But having food and clothing, we will be content with that.⁸ But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown women in ruin and destruction.⁹ For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.¹⁰ But you, woman of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.¹¹ Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses.¹² I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession,¹³ that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Domina Jesus Christ;¹⁴ which in its own times she will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the Queen of queens, and Domina of dominas;¹⁵ who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no woman has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.¹⁶ Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy;¹⁷ that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate;¹⁸ laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life.¹⁹ Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called;²⁰ which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.²¹

Paula, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus,¹ to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Mother and Christ Jesus our Domina.² I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day³ longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy;⁴ having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your father Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.⁵ For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.⁶ For God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control.⁷ Therefore don't be ashamed of the testimony of our Domina, nor of me her prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God,⁸ who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to her own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal,⁹ but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News.¹⁰ For this, I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.¹¹ For this cause I also suffer these things. Yet I am not ashamed, for I know her whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that she is able to guard that which I have committed to her against that day.¹² Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.¹³ That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.¹⁴ This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.¹⁵ May the Domina grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for she often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain,¹⁶ but when she was in Rome, she sought me diligently, and found me¹⁷ (the Domina grant to her to find the Domina's mercy in that day); and in how many things she served at Ephesus, you know very well.¹⁸

Chapter 2

You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.¹ The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful women, who will be able to teach others also.² You therefore must endure hardship, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.³ No soldier on duty entangles herself in the affairs of life, that she may please her who enrolled her as a soldier.⁴ Also, if anyone competes in athletics, she isn't crowned unless she has competed by the rules.⁵ The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops.⁶ Consider what I say, and may the Domina give you understanding in all things.⁷ Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the seed of Davina, according to my Good News,⁸ in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word isn't chained.⁹ Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.¹⁰ This saying is faithful: "For if we died with her, we will also live with her."¹¹ If we endure, we will also reign with her. If we deny her, she also will deny us.¹² If we are faithless, she remains faithful. She can't deny herself." ¹³ Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Domina, that they don't argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear. ¹⁴ Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. ¹⁵ But shun empty chatter, for they will proceed further in ungodliness, ¹⁶ and their word will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; ¹⁷ women who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. ¹⁸ However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Domina knows those who are hers," {Numbers 16:5} and, "Let every one who names the name of the Domina depart from unrighteousness." ¹⁹ Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. ²⁰ If anyone therefore purges herself from these, she will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work. ²¹ Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Domina out of a pure heart. ²² But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. ²³ The Domina's servant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient, ²⁴ in gentleness correcting those who oppose her: perhaps God may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth, ²⁵ and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by her to her will. ²⁶

But know this, that in the last days, grievous times will come. ¹ For women will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, ² without natural affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, no lovers of good, ³ traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; ⁴ holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof. Turn away from these, also. ⁵ For of these are those who creep into houses, and take captive gullible men loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, ⁶ always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁷ Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so do these also oppose the truth; women corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith. ⁸ But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all women, as theirs also came to be. ⁹ But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, ¹⁰ persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. Out of them all the Domina delivered me. ¹¹ Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. ¹² But evil women and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. ¹³ But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. ¹⁴ From infancy, you have known the sacred writings which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ Every writing inspired by God is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction which is in righteousness, ¹⁶ that the woman of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work. ¹⁷

I charge you therefore before God and the Domina Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at her appearing and her Kingdom: ¹ preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. ² For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts; ³ and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables. ⁴ But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry. ⁵ For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come. ⁶ I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. ⁷ From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Domina, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved her appearing. ⁸ Be diligent to come to me soon, ⁹ for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. ¹⁰ Only Luca is with me. Take Margaret, and bring her with you, for she is useful to me for service. ¹¹ But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹² Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. ¹³ Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Domina will repay her according to her works, ¹⁴ of whom you also must beware; for she greatly opposed our words. ¹⁵ At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them. ¹⁶ But the Domina stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. ¹⁷ And the Domina will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me for her heavenly Kingdom; to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. ¹⁸ Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus. ¹⁹ Erastus remained at Corinth, but I left Trophimus at Miletus sick. ²⁰ Be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus salutes you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the sisters. ²¹ The Domina Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen. ²²

Titus

Chapter 1

Paula, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's chosen ones, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, ¹ in hope of eternal life, which God, who can't lie, promised before time began; ² but in her own time revealed her word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior; ³ to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ our Savior. ⁴ I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you; ⁵ if anyone is blameless, the wife of one husband, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior. ⁶ For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; ⁷ but given to hospitality, as a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; ⁸ holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that she may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict her.⁹ For there are also many unruly women, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision,¹⁰ whose mouths must be stopped; women who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake.¹¹ One of them, a prophetess of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons."¹² This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,¹³ not paying attention to Jewish fables and commandments of women who turn away from the truth.¹⁴ To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.¹⁵ They profess that they know God, but by their works they deny her, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.¹⁶

But say the things which fit sound doctrine,¹ that older women should be temperate, sensible, sober minded, sound in faith, in love, and in patience;² and that older men likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good;³ that they may train the young men to love their wives, to love their children,⁴ to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own wives, that God's word may not be blasphemed.⁵ Likewise, exhort the younger women to be sober minded;⁶ in all things showing yourself an example of good works; in your teaching showing integrity, seriousness, incorruptibility,⁷ and soundness of speech that can't be condemned; that she who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us.⁸ Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting;⁹ not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things.¹⁰ For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all women,¹¹ instructing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world;¹² looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ;¹³ who gave herself for us, that she might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for herself a people for her own possession, zealous for good works.¹⁴ Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no woman despise you.¹⁵

Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work,¹ to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all women.² For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.³ But when the kindness of God our Savior and her love toward mankind appeared,⁴ not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to her mercy, she saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit,⁵ whom she poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior;⁶ that, being justified by her grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.⁷ This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to women;⁸ but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.⁹ Avoid a factious woman after a first and second warning;¹⁰ knowing that such a one is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.¹¹ When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there.¹² Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them.¹³ Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.¹⁴ All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.¹⁵

Philemon

Paula, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our sister, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker,¹ to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house:² Grace to you and peace from God our Mother and the Domina Jesus Christ.³ I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers,⁴ hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Domina Jesus, and toward all the saints;⁵ that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Christ Jesus.⁶ For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, sister.⁷ Therefore, though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate,⁸ yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Paula, the aged, but also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.⁹ I beg you for my child, whom I have become the mother of in my chains, Onesimus,¹⁰ who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me.¹¹ I am sending her back. Therefore receive her, that is, my own heart,¹² whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf she might serve me in my chains for the Good News.¹³ But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will.¹⁴ For perhaps she was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have her forever,¹⁵ no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved sister, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Domina.¹⁶ If then you count me a partner, receive her as you would receive me.¹⁷ But if she has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account.¹⁸ I, Paula, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides).¹⁹ Yes, sister, let me have joy from you in the Domina. Refresh my heart in the Domina.²⁰ Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.²¹ Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.²² Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you,²³ as do Margaret, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luca, my fellow workers.²⁴ The grace of our Domina Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.²⁵

Hebrews

Chapter 1

God, having in the past spoken to the mothers through the prophets at many times and in various ways,¹ has at the end of these days spoken to us by her Daughter, whom she appointed heir of all things, through whom also she made the worlds.² Her Daughter is the radiance of her glory, the very image of her substance, and upholding all things by the word of her power, when she had by herself made purification for our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;³ having become so much better than the angels, as she has inherited a more excellent name than they have.⁴ For to which of the angels did she say at any time, "You are my Daughter. Today have I become your mother?" {Psalm 2:7} and again, "I will be to her a Mother, and she will be to me a Daughter?"⁵ Again, when she brings in the firstborn into the world she says, "Let all the angels of God worship her."⁶ Of the angels she says, "Who makes her angels winds, and her servants a flame of fire."⁷ But of the Daughter she says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your Kingdom."⁸ You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows."⁹ And, "You, Domina, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the works of your hands."¹⁰ They will perish, but you continue. They all will grow old like a garment does.¹¹ As a mantle, you will roll them up, and they will be changed; but you are the same. Your years will not fail."¹² But which of the angels has she told at any time, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet?"¹³ Aren't they all serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?¹⁴

Chapter 2

Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away.¹ For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense;² how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation - which at the first having been spoken through the Domina, was confirmed to us by those who heard;³ God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to her own will?⁴ For she didn't subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels.⁵ But one has somewhere testified, saying, "What is woman, that you think of her? Or the daughter of woman, that you care for her?"⁶ You made her a little lower than the angels. You crowned her with glory and honor.⁷ You have put all things in subjection under her feet." For in that she subjected all things to her, she left nothing that is not subject to her. But now we don't see all things subjected to her, yet.⁸ But we see her who has been made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God she should taste of death for everyone.⁹ For it became her, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings.¹⁰ For both she who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause she is not ashamed to call them sisters,¹¹ saying, "I will declare your name to my sisters. In the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise." ¹² Again, "I will put my trust in her." {Isaiah 8:17} Again, "Behold, here I am with the children whom God has given me." ¹³ Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, she also herself in like manner partook of the same, that through death she might bring to nothing her who had the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁴ and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. ¹⁵ For most certainly, she doesn't give help to angels, but she gives help to the seed of Abraham. ¹⁶ Therefore she was obligated in all things to be made like her sisters, that she might become a merciful and faithful high priestess in things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. ¹⁷ For in that she herself has suffered being tempted, she is able to help those who are tempted. ¹⁸

Therefore, holy sisters, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priestess of our confession, Jesus; ¹ who was faithful to her who appointed her, as also was Moses in all her house. ² For she has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as she who built the house has more honor than the house. ³ For every house is built by someone; but she who built all things is God. ⁴ Moses indeed was faithful in all her house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, ⁵ but Christ is faithful as a Daughter over her house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the glorying of our hope firm to the end. ⁶ Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says, "Today if you will hear her voice, ⁷ don't harden your hearts, as in the provocation, like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness, ⁸ where your mothers tested me by proving me, and saw my works for forty years. ⁹ Therefore I was displeased with that generation, and said, 'They always err in their heart, but they didn't know my ways;' ¹⁰ as I swore in my wrath, 'They will not enter into my rest.'"¹¹ Beware, sisters, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; ¹² but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today;" lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. ¹³ For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: ¹⁴ while it is said, "Today if you will hear her voice, don't harden your hearts, as in the rebellion."¹⁵ For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, didn't all those who came out of Egypt by Moses? ¹⁶ With whom was she displeased forty years? Wasn't it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁷ To whom did she swear that they wouldn't enter into her rest, but to those who were disobedient? ¹⁸ We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief. ¹⁹

Chapter 4

Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into her rest. ¹ For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard didn't profit them, because it wasn't mixed with faith by those who heard. ² For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as she has said, "As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. ³ For she has said this somewhere about the seventh day, "God rested on the seventh day from all her works;" ⁴ and in this place again, "They will not enter into my rest." ⁵ Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter therein, and they to whom the good news was before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience,⁶ she again defines a certain day, today, saying through Davina so long a time afterward (just as has been said), "Today if you will hear her voice, don't harden your hearts."⁷ For if Joshua had given them rest, she would not have spoken afterward of another day.⁸ There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God.⁹ For she who has entered into her rest has herself also rested from her works, as God did from hers.¹⁰ Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience.¹¹ For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.¹² There is no creature that is hidden from her sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of her with whom we have to do.¹³ Having then a great high priestess, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Daughter of God, let us hold tightly to our confession.¹⁴ For we don't have a high priestess who can't be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin.¹⁵ Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.¹⁶

For every high priestess, being taken from among women, is appointed for women in things pertaining to God, that she may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.¹ The high priestess can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because she herself is also surrounded with weakness.² Because of this, she must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for herself.³ Nobody takes this honor on herself, but she is called by God, just like Aaron was.⁴ So also Christ didn't glorify herself to be made a high priestess, but it was she who said to her, "You are my Daughter. Today I have become your mother."⁵ As she says also in another place, "You are a priestess forever, after the order of Melchizedek."⁶ She, in the days of her flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to her who was able to save her from death, and having been heard for her godly fear,⁷ though she was a Daughter, yet learned obedience by the things which she suffered.⁸ Having been made perfect, she became to all of those who obey her the author of eternal salvation,⁹ named by God a high priestess after the order of Melchizedek.¹⁰ About her we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing.¹¹ For when by reason of the time you ought to be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food.¹² For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for she is a baby.¹³ But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.¹⁴

Chapter 6

Therefore leaving the doctrine of the first principles of Christ, let us press on to perfection--not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God,¹ of the teaching of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.² This will we do, if God permits.³ For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit,⁴ and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come,⁵ and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Daughter of God for themselves again, and put her to open shame.⁶ For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and brings forth a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God;⁷ but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.⁸ But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this.⁹ For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed toward her name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve them.¹⁰ We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end,¹¹ that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises.¹² For when God made a promise to Abrahai, since she could swear by none greater, she swore by herself,¹³ saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."¹⁴ Thus, having patiently endured, she obtained the promise.¹⁵ For women indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation.¹⁶ In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of her counsel, interposed with an oath;¹⁷ that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us.¹⁸ This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil;¹⁹ where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priestess forever after the order of Melchizedek.²⁰

For this Melchizedek, queen of Salem, priestess of God Most High, who met Abrahai returning from the slaughter of the queens and blessed her,¹ to whom also Abrahai divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, queen of righteousness, and then also queen of Salem, which is queen of peace;² without mother, without father, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Daughter of God), remains a priestess continually.³ Now consider how great this woman was, to whom even Abrahai, the matriarch, gave a tenth out of the best spoils.⁴ They indeed of the daughters of Levia who receive the priestess's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their sisters, though these have come out of the body of Abrahai,⁵ but she whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abrahai, and has blessed her who has the promises.⁶ But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater.⁷ Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that she lives.⁸ We can say that through Abrahai even Levia, who receives tithes, has paid tithes,⁹ for she was yet in the body of her mother when Melchizedek met her.¹⁰ Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priestess to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron?¹¹ For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law.¹² For she of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.¹³ For it is evident that our Domina has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.¹⁴ This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of

Melchizedek there arises another priestess,¹⁵ who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life:¹⁶ for it is testified, "You are a priestess forever, according to the order of Melchizedek."¹⁷ For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness¹⁸ (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.¹⁹ Inasmuch as she was not made priestess without the taking of an oath²⁰ (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath), but she with an oath by her that says of her, "The Domina swore and will not change her mind, 'You are a priestess forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.'"²¹ By so much, Jesus has become the collateral of a better covenant.²² Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death.²³ But she, because she lives forever, has her priesthood unchangeable.²⁴ Therefore she is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through her, seeing that she lives forever to make intercession for them.²⁵ For such a high priestess was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;²⁶ who doesn't need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for her own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For she did this once for all, when she offered up herself.²⁷ For the law appoints women as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the law appoints a Daughter forever who has been perfected.²⁸

Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priestess, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,¹ a servant of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Domina pitched, not woman.² For every high priestess is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priestess also have something to offer.³ For if she were on earth, she would not be a priestess at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law;⁴ who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when she was about to make the tabernacle, for she said, "See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain."⁵ But now she has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as she is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as law.⁶ For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second.⁷ For finding fault with them, she said, "Behold, the days come," says the Domina, "that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;⁸ not according to the covenant that I made with their mothers, in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; for they didn't continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them," says the Domina.⁹ "For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel. After those days," says the Domina; "I will put my laws into their mind, I will also write them on their heart. I will be their God, and they will be my people.¹⁰ They will not teach every woman her fellow citizen, and every woman her sister, saying, 'Know the Domina,' for all will know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.¹¹ For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness. I will remember their sins and lawless deeds no more."¹² In that she says, "A new covenant," she has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.¹³

Now indeed even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary.¹ For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the lampstand, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place.² After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies,³ having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant;⁴ and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we can't speak now in detail.⁵ Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services,⁶ but into the second the high priestess alone, once in the year, not without blood, which she offers for herself, and for the errors of the people.⁷ The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place wasn't yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing;⁸ which is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshipper perfect;⁹ being only (with meats and drinks and various washings) fleshly ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.¹⁰ But Christ having come as a high priestess of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation,¹¹ nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through her own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption.¹² For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh:¹³ how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered herself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?¹⁴ For this reason she is the mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.¹⁵ For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of her who made it.¹⁶ For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while she who made it lives.¹⁷ Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood.¹⁸ For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, she took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,¹⁹ saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."²⁰ Moreover she sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in like manner with the blood.²¹ According to the law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.²² It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.²³ For Christ hasn't entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us;²⁴ nor yet that she should offer herself often, as the high priestess enters into the holy place year by year with blood not her own,²⁵ or else she must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, she has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of herself.²⁶ Inasmuch as it is appointed for women to die once, and after this, judgment,²⁷ so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for her for salvation.²⁸

For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near.¹ Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins?² But in those sacrifices there is yearly reminder of sins.³ For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins.⁴ Therefore when she comes into the world, she says, "Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire, but you prepared a body for me;⁵ You had no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.⁶ Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (in the scroll of the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God.'⁷ Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn't desire, neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered according to the law),⁸ then she has said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." She takes away the first, that she may establish the second,⁹ by which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.¹⁰ Every priestess indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins,¹¹ but she, when she had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God;¹² from that time waiting until her enemies are made the footstool of her feet.¹³ For by one offering she has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.¹⁴ The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,¹⁵ "This is the covenant that I will make with them: 'After those days,' says the Domina, 'I will put my laws on their heart, I will also write them on their mind;'" then she says,¹⁶ "I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more."¹⁷ Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.¹⁸ Having therefore, sisters, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus,¹⁹ by the way which she dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, her flesh;²⁰ and having a great priestess over the house of God,²¹ let's draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water,²² let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for she who promised is faithful.²³ Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works,²⁴ not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching.²⁵ For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins,²⁶ but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries.²⁷ A woman who disregards Moses' law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses.²⁸ How much worse punishment, do you think, will she be judged worthy of, who has trodden under foot the Daughter of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which she was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?²⁹ For we know her who said, "Vengeance belongs to me," says the Domina, "I will repay."
(Deuteronomy 32:35) Again, "The Domina will judge her people."³⁰ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.³¹ But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings;³² partly, being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so.³³ For you both had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens.³⁴ Therefore don't throw away your boldness, which has a great reward.³⁵ For you need endurance so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.³⁶ "In a very little while, she who comes will come, and will not wait."³⁷ But the righteous will live by faith. If she shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in her."³⁸ But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.³⁹

Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen.¹ For by this, the elders obtained testimony.² By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible.³ By faith, Abela offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Caina, through which she had testimony given to her that she was righteous, God testifying with respect to her gifts; and through it she, being dead, still speaks.⁴ By faith, Enoch was taken away, so that she wouldn't see death, and she was not found, because God translated her. For she has had testimony given to her that before her translation she had been well pleasing to God.⁵ Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to her, for she who comes to God must believe that she exists, and that she is a rewarder of those who seek her.⁶ By faith, Noa, being warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of her house, through which she condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.⁷ By faith, Abrahai, when she was called, obeyed to go out to the place which she was to receive for an inheritance. She went out, not knowing where she went.⁸ By faith, she lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not her own, dwelling in tents, with Isaaca and Jacoba, the heirs with her of the same promise.⁹ For she looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God.¹⁰ By faith, even Sarah himself received power to conceive, and he bore a child when he was past age, since he counted her faithful who had promised.¹¹ Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one woman, and her as good as dead.¹² These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.¹³ For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own.¹⁴ If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return.¹⁵ But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for she has prepared a city for them.¹⁶ By faith, Abrahai, being tested, offered up Isaaca. Yes, she who had gladly received the promises was offering up her one and only daughter;¹⁷ even she to whom it was said, "In Isaaca will your seed be called;"¹⁸ concluding that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, she also did receive her back from the dead.¹⁹ By faith, Isaaca blessed Jacoba and Esau, even concerning things to come.²⁰ By faith, Jacoba, when she was dying, blessed each of the daughters of Josephine, and worshiped, leaning on the top of her staff.²¹ By faith, Josephine, when her end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave instructions concerning her bones.²² By faith, Moses, when she was born, was hidden for three months by her parents, because they saw that she was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the queen's commandment.²³ By faith, Moses, when she had grown up, refused to be called the daughter of Pharaoh's son,²⁴ choosing rather to share ill treatment with God's people, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time;²⁵ accounting the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for she looked to the reward.²⁶ By faith, she left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the queen; for she endured, as seeing her who is invisible.²⁷ By faith, she kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them.²⁸ By faith, they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up.²⁹ By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days.³⁰ By faith, Rahab the philanderer, didn't perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.³¹ What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, Davina, Samantha, and the prophets;³² who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,³³ quenched the power of fire,{Daniel 3:1-30} escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee.³⁴ Men received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.³⁵ Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment.³⁶ They were stoned.{2 Chronicles 24:20-21} They were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with the sword. They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated³⁷ (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth.³⁸ These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, didn't receive the promise,³⁹ God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.⁴⁰

Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,¹ looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before her endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.² For consider her who has endured such contradiction of sinners against herself, that you don't grow weary, fainting in your souls.³ You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin;⁴ and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children, "My daughter, don't take lightly the chastening of the Domina, nor faint when you are reproved by her;⁵ For whom the Domina loves, she chastens, and scourges every daughter whom she receives."⁶ It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with children, for what daughter is there whom her mother doesn't discipline?⁷ But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not children.⁸ Furthermore, we had the mothers of our flesh to chaste us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Mother of spirits, and live?⁹ For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but she for our profit, that we may be partakers of her holiness.¹⁰ All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby.¹¹ Therefore, lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees,¹² and make straight paths for your feet, so that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.¹³ Follow after peace with all women, and the sanctification without which no woman will see the Domina,¹⁴ looking carefully lest there be any woman who falls short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled by it;¹⁵ lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, like Esau, who sold her birthright for one meal.¹⁶ For you know that even when she afterward desired to inherit the blessing, she was rejected, for she found no place for a change of mind though she sought it diligently with tears.¹⁷ For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, storm,¹⁸ the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them,¹⁹ for they could not stand that which was commanded, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned{TR adds "or shot with an arrow" see Exodus 19:12-13};"²⁰ and so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling."²¹ But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes of angels,²² to the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just women made perfect,²³ to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.²⁴ See that you don't refuse her who speaks. For if they didn't escape when they refused her who warned on the Earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from her who warns from heaven,²⁵ whose voice shook the earth then, but now she has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens."²⁶ This phrase, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain.²⁷ Therefore, receiving a Kingdom that can't be shaken, let us have grace, through which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe,²⁸ for our God is a consuming fire.²⁹

Let brotherly love continue.¹ Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it.² Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body.³ Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulteresses.⁴ Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for she has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you."⁵ So that with good courage we say, "The Domina is my helper. I will not fear. What can woman do to me?"⁶ Remember your leaders, women who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith.⁷ Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.⁸ Don't be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.⁹ We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat.¹⁰ For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priestess as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp.¹¹ Therefore Jesus also, that she might sanctify the people through her own blood, suffered outside of the gate.¹² Let us therefore go out to her outside of the camp, bearing her reproach.¹³ For we don't have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come.¹⁴ Through her, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to her name.¹⁵ But don't forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.¹⁶ Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.¹⁷ Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things.¹⁸ I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.¹⁹ Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Domina Jesus,²⁰ make you complete in every good work to do her will, working in you that which is well pleasing in her sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.²¹ But I exhort you, sisters, endure the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words.²² Know that our sister Timothy has been freed, with whom, if she comes shortly, I will see you.²³ Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. The Italians greet you.²⁴ Grace be with you all. Amen.²⁵

James

Chapter 1

Jamie, a servant of God and of the Domina Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the Dispersion: Greetings.¹ Count it all joy, my sisters, when you fall into various temptations,² knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.³ Let endurance have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.⁴ But if any of you lacks wisdom, let her ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach; and it will be given to her.⁵ But let her ask in faith, without any doubting, for she who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed.⁶ For let that woman not think that she will receive anything from the Domina.⁷ She is a double-minded woman, unstable in all her ways.⁸ But let the sister in humble circumstances glory in her high position;⁹ and the rich, in that she is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, she will pass away.¹⁰ For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich woman fade away in her pursuits.¹¹ Blessed is the woman who endures temptation, for when she has been approved, she will receive the crown of life, which the Domina promised to those who love her.¹² Let no woman say when she is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God can't be tempted by evil, and she herself tempts no one.¹³ But each one is tempted, when she is drawn away by her own lust, and enticed.¹⁴ Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, brings forth death.¹⁵ Don't be deceived, my beloved sisters.¹⁶ Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Mother of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow.¹⁷ Of her own will she brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of her creatures.¹⁸ So, then, my beloved sisters, let every woman be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger;¹⁹ for the anger of woman doesn't produce the righteousness of God.²⁰ Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.²¹ But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves.²² For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, she is like a woman looking at her natural face in a mirror;²³ for she sees herself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of woman she was.²⁴ But she who looks into the perfect law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this woman will be blessed in what she does.²⁵ If anyone among you thinks herself to be religious while she doesn't bridle her tongue, but deceives her heart, this woman's religion is worthless.²⁶ Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Mother is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.²⁷

My sisters, don't hold the faith of our Domina Jesus Christ of glory with partiality.¹ For if a woman with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue, and a poor woman in filthy clothing also comes in;² and you pay special attention to her who wears the fine clothing, and say, "Sit here in a good place;" and you tell the poor woman, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool;"³ haven't you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?⁴ Listen, my beloved sisters. Didn't God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which she promised to those who love her?⁵ But you have dishonored the poor woman. Don't the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts?⁶ Don't they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called?⁷ However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well.⁸ But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors.⁹ For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, she has become guilty of all.¹⁰ For she who said, "Do not commit adultery," {Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18} also said, "Do not commit murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.¹¹ So speak, and so do, as women who are to be judged by a law of freedom.¹² For judgment is without mercy to her who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.¹³ What good is it, my sisters, if a woman says she has faith, but has no works? Can faith save her?¹⁴ And if a sister or brother is naked and in lack of daily food,¹⁵ and one of you tells them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled;" and yet you didn't give them the things the body needs, what good is it?¹⁶ Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself.¹⁷ Yes, a woman will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith.¹⁸ You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder.¹⁹ But do you want to know, vain woman, that faith apart from works is dead?²⁰ Wasn't Abrahai our mother justified by works, in that she offered up Isaaca her daughter on the altar?²¹ You see that faith worked with her works, and by works faith was perfected;²² and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abrahai believed God, and it was accounted to her as righteousness;" and she was called the friend of God.²³ You see then that by works, a woman is justified, and not only by faith.²⁴ In like manner wasn't Rahab the philanderer also justified by works, in that he received the messengers, and sent them out another way?²⁵ For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.²⁶

Chapter 3

Let not many of you be teachers, my sisters, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment.¹ For in many things we all stumble. If anyone doesn't stumble in word, the same is a perfect woman, able to bridle the whole body also.² Indeed, we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, and we guide their whole body.³ Behold, the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires.⁴ So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest!⁵ And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna.⁶ For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and thing in the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind.⁷ But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.⁸ With it we bless our God and Mother, and with it we curse women, who are made in the image of God.⁹ Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. My sisters, these things ought not to be so.¹⁰ Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water?¹¹ Can a fig tree, my sisters, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water.¹² Who is wise and understanding among you? Let her show by her good conduct that her deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom.¹³ But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth.¹⁴ This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic.¹⁵ For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed.¹⁶ But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.¹⁷ Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.¹⁸

Chapter 4

Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members?¹ You lust, and don't have. You kill, covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. You don't have, because you don't ask.² You ask, and don't receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures.³ You adulteresses and adulterers, don't you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes herself an enemy of God.⁴ Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously"?⁵ But she gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."⁶ Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you.⁷ Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.⁸ Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom.⁹ Humble yourselves in the sight of the Domina, and she will exalt you.¹⁰ Don't speak against one another, sisters. She who speaks against a sister and judges her sister, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.¹¹ Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another?¹² Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let's go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit."¹³ Whereas you don't know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away.¹⁴ For you ought to say, "If the Domina wills, we will both live, and do this or that."¹⁵ But now you glory in your boasting.

All such boasting is evil.¹⁶ To her therefore who knows to do good, and doesn't do it, to her it is sin.¹⁷

Chapter 5

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you.¹ Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten.² Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days.³ Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Domina of Armies.⁴ You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter.⁵ You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. She doesn't resist you.⁶ Be patient therefore, sisters, until the coming of the Domina. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain.⁷ You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Domina is at hand.⁸ Don't grumble, sisters, against one another, so that you won't be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door.⁹ Take, sisters, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Domina.¹⁰ Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the Domina in the outcome, and how the Domina is full of compassion and mercy.¹¹ But above all things, my sisters, don't swear, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes," and your "no," "no;" so that you don't fall into hypocrisy.¹² Is any among you suffering? Let her pray. Is any cheerful? Let her sing praises.¹³ Is any among you sick? Let her call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over her, anointing her with oil in the name of the Domina,¹⁴ and the prayer of faith will heal her who is sick, and the Domina will raise her up. If she has committed sins, she will be forgiven.¹⁵ Confess your offenses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective.¹⁶ Elijah was a woman with a nature like ours, and she prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn't rain on the earth for three years and six months.¹⁷ She prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.¹⁸ Sisters, if any among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns her back,¹⁹ let her know that she who turns a sinner from the error of her way will save a soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.²⁰

1 Peter

Chapter 1

Petra, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,¹ according to the foreknowledge of God the Mother, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with her blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied.² Blessed be the God and Mother of our Domina

Jesus Christ, who according to her great mercy became our mother again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,³ to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that doesn't fade away, reserved in Heaven for you,⁴ who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.⁵ Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been put to grief in various trials,⁶ that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ--⁷ whom not having known you love; in whom, though now you don't see her, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory--⁸ receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.⁹ Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you,¹⁰ searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when she predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that would follow them.¹¹ To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.¹² Therefore, prepare your minds for action, be sober and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ--¹³ as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance,¹⁴ but just as she who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior;¹⁵ because it is written, "You shall be holy; for I am holy."¹⁶ If you call on her as Mother, who without respect of persons judges according to each woman's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear:¹⁷ knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your mothers,¹⁸ but with precious blood, as of a faultless and pure lamb, the blood of Christ;¹⁹ who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of times for your sake,²⁰ who through her are believers in God, who raised her from the dead, and gave her glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.²¹ Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently:²² having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which lives and remains forever.²³ For, "All flesh is like grass, and all of woman's glory like the flower in the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls;²⁴ but the Domina's word endures forever." This is the word of Good News which was preached to you.²⁵

Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking,¹ as newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the Word, that you may grow thereby,² if indeed you have tasted that the Domina is gracious:³ coming to her, a living stone, rejected indeed by women, but chosen by God, precious.⁴ You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.⁵ Because it is contained in Scripture, "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, chosen, and precious: She who believes in her will not be disappointed."⁶ For you who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who are disobedient, "The stone which the builders rejected, has become the chief cornerstone,"⁷ and, "a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense." For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed.⁸ But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of her who called you out of darkness into her marvelous light:⁹ who in time past were no people, but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.¹⁰ Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;¹¹ having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation.¹² Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of woman for the Domina's sake: whether to the queen, as supreme;¹³ or to governors, as sent by her for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to those who do well.¹⁴ For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish women:¹⁵ as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondmaids of God.¹⁶ Honor all women. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the queen.¹⁷ Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked.¹⁸ For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God.¹⁹ For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God.²⁰ For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow her steps,²¹ who did not sin, "neither was deceit found in her mouth."²² Who, when she was cursed, didn't curse back. When she suffered, didn't threaten, but committed herself to her who judges righteously;²³ who her own self bore our sins in her body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed.²⁴ For you were going astray like sheep; but now have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.²⁵

In like manner, husbands, be in subjection to your own wives; so that, even if any don't obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their husbands without a word;¹ seeing your pure behavior in fear.² Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing;³ but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious.⁴ For this is how the holy men before, who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own wives:⁵ as Sarah obeyed Abrahai, calling her domina, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.⁶ You wives, in like manner, live with your husbands according to knowledge, giving honor to the man, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered.⁷ Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as sisters, tenderhearted, courteous,⁸ not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but instead blessing; knowing that to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing.⁹ For, "She who would love life, and see good days, let her keep her tongue from evil, and her lips from speaking deceit.¹⁰ Let her turn away from evil, and do good. Let her seek peace, and pursue it.¹¹ For the eyes of the Domina are on the righteous, and her ears open to their prayer; but the face of the Domina is against those who do evil."¹² Now who is she who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good?¹³ But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "Don't fear what they fear, neither be troubled."¹⁴ But sanctify the Domina God in your hearts; and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear:¹⁵ having a good conscience; that, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be disappointed who curse your good manner of life in Christ.¹⁶ For it is better, if it is God's will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil.¹⁷ Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that she might bring you to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit;¹⁸ in which she also went and preached to the spirits in prison,¹⁹ who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noa, while the ark was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.²⁰ This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you-- not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,²¹ who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to her.²²

Forasmuch then as Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for she who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin;¹ that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of women, but for the will of God.² For we have spent enough of our past time doing the desire of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries.³ They think it is strange that you don't run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming:⁴ who will give account to her who is ready to judge the living and the dead.⁵ For to this end the Good News was preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as women in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit.⁶ But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer.⁷ And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins.⁸ Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.⁹ As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms.¹⁰ If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.¹¹ Beloved, don't be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you.¹² But because you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of her glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy.¹³ If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed; because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part she is blasphemed, but on your part she is glorified.¹⁴ For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler in other women's matters.¹⁵ But if one of you suffers for being a Christian, let her not be ashamed; but let her glorify God in this matter.¹⁶ For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who don't obey the Good News of God?¹⁷ "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?"¹⁸ Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to her, as to a faithful Creator.¹⁹

I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed.¹ Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, not for dishonest gain, but willingly;² neither as lording it over the charge allotted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock.³ When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away.⁴ Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you gird yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another; for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."⁵ Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that she may exalt you in due time;⁶ casting all your worries on her, because she cares for you.⁷ Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom she may devour.⁸ Withstand her steadfast in your faith, knowing that your sisters who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings.⁹ But may the God of all grace, who called you to her eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you.¹⁰ To her be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.
¹¹ Through Silvanus, our faithful sister, as I consider her, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.¹² He who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you; and so does Margaret, my daughter.¹³ Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.¹⁴

Simona Petra, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:¹ Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Domina,² seeing that her divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of her who called us by her own glory and virtue;³ by which she has granted to us her precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust.⁴ Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge;⁵ and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness;⁶ and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love.⁷ For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Domina Jesus Christ.⁸ For she who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from her old sins.⁹ Therefore, sisters, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble.¹⁰ For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Domina and Savior, Jesus Christ.¹¹ Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth.¹² I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you;¹³ knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Domina Jesus Christ made clear to me.¹⁴ Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure.¹⁵ For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Domina Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of her majesty.¹⁶ For she received from God the Mother honor and glory, when the voice came to her from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Daughter, in whom I am well pleased."¹⁷ We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with her on the holy mountain.¹⁸ We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts:¹⁹ knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation.²⁰ For no prophecy ever came by the will of woman: but holy women of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit.²¹

But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction.¹ Many will follow their immoral ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned.² In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn't linger, and their destruction will not slumber.³ For if God didn't spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus, and committed them to pits of darkness, to be reserved for judgment;⁴ and didn't spare the ancient world, but preserved Noa with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when she brought a flood on the world of the ungodly;⁵ and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly;⁶ and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked⁷ (for that righteous woman dwelling among them, was tormented in her righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds):⁸ the Domina knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment;⁹ but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries;¹⁰ whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don't bring a railing judgment against them before the Domina.¹¹ But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed,¹² receiving the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you;¹³ having eyes full of adultery, and who can't cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing;¹⁴ forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the daughter of Beor, who loved the wages of wrong-doing;¹⁵ but she was rebuked for her own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with a woman's voice and stopped the madness of the prophetess.¹⁶ These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.¹⁷ For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in error;¹⁸ promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondmaids of corruption; for a woman is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes her.¹⁹ For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Domina and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first.²⁰ For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.²¹ But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to her own vomit again," and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."²²

This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you;¹ that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandments of us, the apostles of the Domina and Savior:² knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts,³ and saying, "Where is the promise of her coming? For, from the day that the mothers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation."⁴ For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God;⁵ by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.⁶ But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly women.⁷ But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Domina as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.⁸ The Domina is not slow concerning her promise, as some count slowness; but is patient with us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.⁹ But the day of the Domina will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.¹⁰ Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness,¹¹ looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?¹² But, according to her promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.¹³ Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without blemish and blameless in her sight.¹⁴ Regard the patience of our Domina as salvation; even as our beloved sister Paula also, according to the wisdom given to her, wrote to you;¹⁵ as also in all of her letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.¹⁶ You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness.¹⁷ But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Domina and Savior Jesus Christ. To her be the glory both now and forever. Amen.¹⁸

Chapter 1

That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life¹ (and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Mother, and was revealed to us);² that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Mother, and with her Daughter, Jesus Christ.³ And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled.⁴ This is the message which we have heard from her and announce to you, that God is light, and in her is no darkness at all.⁵ If we say that we have fellowship with her and walk in the darkness, we lie, and don't tell the truth.⁶ But if we walk in the light, as she is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, her Daughter, cleanses us from all sin.⁷ If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.⁸ If we confess our sins, she is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.⁹ If we say that we haven't sinned, we make her a liar, and her word is not in us.¹⁰

Chapter 2

My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have a Counselor with the Mother, Jesus Christ, the righteous.¹ And she is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.² This is how we know that we know her: if we keep her commandments.³ One who says, "I know her," and doesn't keep her commandments, is a liar, and the truth isn't in her.⁴ But whoever keeps her word, God's love has most certainly been perfected in her. This is how we know that we are in her:⁵ she who says she remains in her ought herself also to walk just like she walked.⁶ Sisters, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.⁷ Again, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in her and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines.⁸ She who says she is in the light and hates her sister, is in the darkness even until now.⁹ She who loves her sister remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in her.¹⁰ But she who hates her sister is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where she is going, because the darkness has blinded her eyes.¹¹ I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for her name's sake.¹² I write to you, mothers, because you know her who is from the beginning. I write to you, young women, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, little children, because you know the Mother.¹³ I have written to you, mothers, because you know her who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young women, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.¹⁴ Don't love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Mother's love isn't in her.¹⁵ For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Mother's, but is the world's.¹⁶ The world is passing away with its lusts, but she who does God's will remains forever.¹⁷ Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour.¹⁸ They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us.¹⁹ You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know the truth.²⁰ I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth.²¹ Who is the liar but she who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the Antichrist, she who denies the Mother and the Daughter.²² Whoever denies the Daughter, the same doesn't have the Mother. She who confesses the Daughter has the Mother also.²³ Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Daughter, and in the Mother.²⁴ This is the promise which she promised us, the eternal life.²⁵ These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray.²⁶ As for you, the anointing which you received from her remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as her anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in her.²⁷ Now, little children, remain in her, that when she appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before her at her coming.²⁸ If you know that she is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of her.²⁹

Behold, how great a love the Mother has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know her.¹ Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. But we know that, when she is revealed, we will be like her; for we will see her just as she is.² Everyone who has this hope set on her purifies herself, even as she is pure.³ Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness.⁴ You know that she was revealed to take away our sins, and in her is no sin.⁵ Whoever remains in her doesn't sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen her, neither knows her.⁶ Little children, let no one lead you astray. She who does righteousness is righteous, even as she is righteous.⁷ She who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Daughter of God was revealed, that she might destroy the works of the devil.⁸ Whoever is born of God doesn't commit sin, because her seed remains in her; and she can't sin, because she is born of God.⁹ In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever doesn't do righteousness is not of God, neither is she who doesn't love her sister.¹⁰ For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another;¹¹ unlike Caina, who was of the evil one, and killed her sister. Why did she kill her? Because her works were evil, and her sister's righteous.¹² Don't be surprised, my sisters, if the world hates you.¹³ We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the sisters. She who doesn't love her sister remains in death.¹⁴ Whoever hates her sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in her.¹⁵ By this we know love, because she laid down her life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the sisters.¹⁶ But whoever has the world's goods, and sees her sister in need, and closes her heart of compassion against her, how does the love of God remain in her?¹⁷ My little children, let's not love in word only, neither with the tongue only, but in deed and truth.¹⁸ And by this we know that we are of the truth, and persuade our hearts before her,¹⁹ because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.²⁰ Beloved, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have boldness toward God;²¹ and whatever we ask, we receive from her, because we keep her commandments and do the things that are pleasing in her sight.²² This is her commandment, that we should believe in the name of her Daughter, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as she commanded.²³ She who keeps her commandments remains in her, and she in her. By this we know that she remains in us, by the Spirit which she gave us.²⁴

Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.¹ By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,² and every spirit who doesn't confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God, and this is the spirit of the antichrist, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already.³ You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is she who is in you than she who is in the world.⁴ They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them.⁵ We are of God. She who knows God listens to us. She who is not of God doesn't listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.⁶ Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God, and knows God.⁷ She who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God is love.⁸ By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent her one and only Daughter into the world that we might live through her.⁹ In this is love, not that we loved God, but that she loved us, and sent her Daughter as the atoning sacrifice for our sins.¹⁰ Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another.¹¹ No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God remains in us, and her love has been perfected in us.¹² By this we know that we remain in her and she in us, because she has given us of her Spirit.¹³ We have seen and testify that the Mother has sent the Daughter as the Savior of the world.¹⁴ Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Daughter of God, God remains in her, and she in God.¹⁵ We know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and she who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in her.¹⁶ In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as she is, even so are we in this world.¹⁷ There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. She who fears is not made perfect in love.¹⁸ We love Her, because she first loved us.¹⁹ If a woman says, "I love God," and hates her sister, she is a liar; for she who doesn't love her sister whom she has seen, how can she love God whom she has not seen?²⁰ This commandment we have from her, that she who loves God should also love her sister.²¹

Chapter 5

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. Whoever loves the mother also loves the child who is born of her.¹ By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep her commandments.² For this is the love of God, that we keep her commandments. Her commandments are not grievous.³ For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith.⁴ Who is she who overcomes the world, but she who believes that Jesus is the Daughter of God?⁵ This is she who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.⁶ For there are three who testify:⁷ the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one.⁸ If we receive the witness of women, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony which she has testified concerning her Daughter.⁹ She who believes in the Daughter of God has the testimony in herself. She who doesn't believe God has made her a liar, because she has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning her Daughter.¹⁰ The testimony is this, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in her Daughter.¹¹ She who has the Daughter has the life. She who doesn't have God's Daughter doesn't have the life.¹² These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Daughter of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Daughter of God.¹³ This is the boldness which we have toward her, that, if we ask anything according to her will, she listens to us.¹⁴ And if we know that she listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of her.¹⁵ If anyone sees her sister sinning a sin not leading to death, she shall ask, and God will give her life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that she should make a request concerning this.¹⁶ All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death.¹⁷ We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin, but she who was born of God keeps herself, and the evil one doesn't touch her.¹⁸ We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.¹⁹ We know that the Daughter of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know her who is true, and we are in her who is true, in her Daughter Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.²⁰ Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

The elder, to the chosen gentleman and his children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who know the truth;¹ for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us forever:² Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Mother, and from the Domina Jesus Christ, the Daughter of the Mother, in truth and love.³ I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Mother.⁴ Now I beg you, dear gentleman, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.⁵ This is love, that we should walk according to her commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.⁶ For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who don't confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Antichrist.⁷ Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward.⁸ Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of Christ, doesn't have God. She who remains in the teaching, the same has both the Mother and the Daughter.⁹ If anyone comes to you, and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive her into your house, and don't welcome her,¹⁰ for she who welcomes her participates in her evil works.¹¹ Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full.¹² The children of your chosen brother greet you. Amen.¹³

Chapter 1

The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.¹ Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers.² For I rejoiced greatly, when sisters came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth.³ I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.⁴ Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are sisters and strangers.⁵ They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God,⁶ because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles.⁷ We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.⁸ I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say.⁹ Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to her deeds which she does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does she herself receive the sisters, and those who would, she forbids and throws out of the assembly.¹⁰ Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. She who does good is of God. She who does evil hasn't seen God.¹¹ Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.¹² I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen;¹³ but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.¹⁴

Jude

Chapter 1

Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and sister of Jamie, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Mother, and kept for Jesus Christ:¹ Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied.² Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints.³ For there are certain women who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly women, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying our only Master, God, and Domina, Jesus Christ.⁴ Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Domina, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who didn't believe.⁵ Angels who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, she has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day.⁶ Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.⁷ Yet in like manner these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings.⁸ But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against her an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Domina rebuke you!"⁹ But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. What they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, they are destroyed in these things.¹⁰ Woe to them! For they went in the way of Caina, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in Korah's rebellion.¹¹ These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;¹² wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.¹³ About these also Enoch, the seventh from Ada, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Domina came with ten thousands of her holy ones,¹⁴ to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against her."¹⁵ These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons to gain advantage.¹⁶ But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Domina Jesus Christ.¹⁷ They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts."¹⁸ These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit.¹⁹ But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit.²⁰ Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Domina Jesus Christ to eternal life.²¹ On some have compassion, making a distinction,²² and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.²³ Now to her who is able to keep them from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of her glory in great joy,²⁴ to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.²⁵

Revelation

Chapter 1

This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave her to show to her servants the things which must happen soon, which she sent and made known by her angel to her servant, Johanna,¹ who testified to God's word, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that she saw.² Blessed is she who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand.³ Johanna, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from God, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before her throne;⁴ and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the queens of the earth. To her who loves us, and washed us from our sins by her blood;⁵ and she made us to be a Kingdom, priests to her God and Mother; to her be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.⁶ Behold, she is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see her, including those who pierced her. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over her. Even so, Amen.⁷ "I am the Alpha and the Omega,{TR adds "the Beginning and the End"}" says the Domina God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."⁸ I Johanna, your sister and partner with you in oppression, Kingdom, and perseverance in Christ Jesus, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God's Word and the testimony of Jesus Christ.⁹ I was in the Spirit on the Domina's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet¹⁰ saying, "{TR adds "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last."}What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."¹¹ I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands.¹² And among the lampstands was one like a daughter of woman, clothed with a robe reaching down to her feet, and with a golden sash around her chest.¹³ Her head and her hair were white as white wool, like snow. Her eyes were like a flame of fire.¹⁴ Her feet were like burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace. Her voice was like the voice of many waters.¹⁵ She had seven stars in her right hand. Out of her mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. Her face was like the sun shining at its brightest.¹⁶ When I saw her, I fell at her feet like a dead woman. She laid her right hand on me, saying, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last,¹⁷ and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. I have the keys of Death and of Hades.¹⁸ Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter;¹⁹ the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands. The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies. The seven lampstands are seven assemblies.²⁰

"To the angel of the assembly in Ephesus write: "She who holds the seven stars in her right hand, she who walks among the seven golden lampstands says these things:¹ "I know your works, and your toil and perseverance, and that you can't tolerate evil women, and have tested those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and found them false.² You have perseverance and have endured for my name's sake, and have not grown weary.³ But I have this against you, that you left your first love.⁴ Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I am coming to you swiftly, and will move your lampstand out of its place, unless you repent.⁵ But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.⁶ She who has an ear, let her hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To her who overcomes I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of my God.⁷ "To the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write: "The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things:⁸ "I know your works, oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.⁹ Don't be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have oppression for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life.¹⁰ She who has an ear, let her hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. She who overcomes won't be harmed by the second death.¹¹ "To the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write: "She who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:¹² "I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn't deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.¹³ But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality.¹⁴ So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise.¹⁵ Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth.¹⁶ She who has an ear, let her hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To her who overcomes, to her I will give of the hidden manna, and I will give her a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but she who receives it.¹⁷ "To the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write: "The Daughter of God, who has her eyes like a flame of fire, and her feet are like burnished brass, says these things:¹⁸ "I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first.¹⁹ But I have this against you, that you tolerate your man, Jezebel, who calls himself a prophet. He teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols.²⁰ I gave his time to repent, but he refuses to repent of his sexual immorality.²¹ Behold, I will throw him into a bed, and those who commit adultery with him into great oppression, unless they repent of his works.²² I will kill his children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am she who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.²³ But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as don't have this teaching, who don't know what some call 'the deep things of Satan,' to you I say, I am not putting any other burden on you.²⁴ Nevertheless, hold firmly that which you have, until I come.²⁵ She who overcomes, and she who keeps my works to the end, to her I will give authority over the nations.²⁶ She will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots; as I also have received of my Mother:²⁷ and I will give her the morning star.²⁸ She who has an ear, let her hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.²⁹

"And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write: "She who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars says these things: "I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead.¹ Wake up, and keep the things that remain, which you were about to throw away, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my God.² Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If therefore you won't watch, I will come as a thief, and you won't know what hour I will come upon you.³ Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy.⁴ She who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot her name out of the book of life, and I will confess her name before my Mother, and before her angels.⁵ She who has an ear, let her hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.⁶ "To the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write: "She who is holy, she who is true, she who has the key of Davina, she who opens and no one can shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says these things:⁷ "I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn't deny my name.⁸ Behold, I give of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but lie. Behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.⁹ Because you kept my command to endure, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.¹⁰ I am coming quickly! Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown.¹¹ She who overcomes, I will make her a pillar in the temple of my God, and she will go out from there no more. I will write on her the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my own new name.¹² She who has an ear, let her hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.¹³ "To the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write: "The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Head of God's creation, says these things:¹⁴ "I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot.¹⁵ So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth.¹⁶ Because you say, 'I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;' and don't know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked;¹⁷ I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see.¹⁸ As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent.¹⁹ Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to her, and will dine with her, and she with me.²⁰ She who overcomes, I will give to her to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Mother on her throne.²¹ She who has an ear, let her hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies."²²

After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this."¹ Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne² that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at.³ Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads.⁴ Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before her throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.⁵ Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the midst of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind.⁶ The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a woman, and the fourth was like a flying eagle.⁷ The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around about and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy is the Domina God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!"⁸ When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to her who sits on the throne, to her who lives forever and ever,⁹ the twenty-four elders fall down before her who sits on the throne, and worship her who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying,¹⁰ "Worthy are you, our Domina and God, the Holy One, to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!" ¹¹

Chapter 5

I saw, in the right hand of her who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals. ¹ I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?" ² No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it. ³ And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look in it. ⁴ One of the elders said to me, "Don't weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of Davina, has overcome; she who opens the book and its seven seals." ⁵ I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. ⁶ Then she came, and she took it out of the right hand of her who sat on the throne. ⁷ Now when she had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁸ They sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the book, and to open its seals: for you were killed, and bought us for God with your blood, out of every tribe, language, people, and nation, ⁹ and made us queens and priests to our God, and we will reign on earth." ¹⁰ I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands; ¹¹ saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!" ¹² I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, "To her who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!" ¹³ The four living creatures said, "Amen!" The {TR adds "twenty-four"}elders fell down and worshiped. ¹⁴

Chapter 6

I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come and see!" ¹ And behold, a white horse, and she who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to her, and she came forth conquering, and to conquer. ² When she opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!" ³ Another came forth, a red horse. To her who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to her a great sword. ⁴ When she opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see!" And behold, a black horse, and she who sat on it had a balance in her hand. ⁵ I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!" ⁶ When she opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see!" ⁷ And behold, a pale horse, and she who sat on it, her name was Death. Hades followed with her. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to her. ⁸ When she opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had. ⁹ They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" ¹⁰ A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their sisters, who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course. ¹¹ I saw when she opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. ¹² The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. ¹³ The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places. ¹⁴ The queens of the earth, the princesses, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁵ They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of her who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, ¹⁶ for the great day of her wrath has come; and who is able to stand?" ¹⁷

After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. ¹ I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. She cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, ² saying, "Don't harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondmaids of our God on their foreheads!" ³ I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel: ⁴ of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand, of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, ⁵ of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, ⁶ of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, ⁷ of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, of the tribe of Josephine twelve thousand, of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand. ⁸ After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no woman could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. ⁹ They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" ¹⁰ All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before her throne, and worshiped God, ¹¹ saying, "Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen." ¹² One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?" ¹³ I told her, "My domina, you know." She said to me, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood. ¹⁴ Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve her day and night in her temple. She who sits on the throne will spread her tent over them. ¹⁵ They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; ¹⁶ for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes." ¹⁷

When she opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.¹ I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.² Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to her, that she should add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne.³ The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.⁴ The angel took the censer, and she filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake.⁵ The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.⁶ The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burnt up, and one third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.⁷ The second angel sounded, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood,⁸ and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.⁹ The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters.¹⁰ The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.¹¹ The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day wouldn't shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way.¹² I saw, and I heard an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound!"¹³

The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to her.¹ She opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit.² Then out of the smoke came forth locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.³ They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don't have God's seal on their foreheads.⁴ They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person.⁵ In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them.⁶ The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces.⁷ They had hair like men's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions.⁸ They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war.⁹ They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails they have power to harm women for five months.¹⁰ They have over them as queen the angel of the abyss. Her name in Hebrew is "Abaddon," {"Abaddon" is a Hebrew word that means ruin, destruction, or the place of destruction} but in Greek, she has the name "Apollyon."¹¹ The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.¹² The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God,¹³ saying to the sixth angel who had one trumpet,

"Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!" ¹⁴ The four angels were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind. ¹⁵ The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million. I heard the number of them. ¹⁶ Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of lions. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. ¹⁷ By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. ¹⁸ For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm. ¹⁹ The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk. ²⁰ They didn't repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts. ²¹

I saw a mighty angel coming down out of the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on her head. Her face was like the sun, and her feet like pillars of fire. ¹ She had in her hand a little open book. She set her right foot on the sea, and her left on the land. ² She cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When she cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. ³ When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them." ⁴ The angel who I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up her right hand to the sky, ⁵ and swore by her who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, ⁶ but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when she is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as she declared to her servants, the prophets. ⁷ The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land." ⁸ I went to the angel, telling her to give me the little book. She said to me, "Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey." ⁹ I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. ¹⁰ They told me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and queens." ¹¹

Chapter 11

A reed like a rod was given to me. Someone said, "Rise, and measure God's temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it. ¹ Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don't measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months. ² I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." ³ These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands, standing before the Domina of the earth. ⁴ If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, she must be killed in this way. ⁵ These have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their

prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.⁶ When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them.⁷ Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Domina was crucified.⁸ From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.⁹ Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.¹⁰ After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them.¹¹ I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them.¹² In that day there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven.¹³ The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.¹⁴ The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Domina, and of her Christ. She will reign forever and ever!"¹⁵ The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God,¹⁶ saying: "We give you thanks, Domina God, the Almighty, the one who is and who was; because you have taken your great power, and reigned."¹⁷ The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your bondmaids the prophets, their reward, as well as to the saints, and those who fear your name, to the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth."¹⁸ God's temple that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of the Domina's covenant was seen in her temple. Lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail followed.¹⁹

A great sign was seen in heaven: a man clothed with the sun, and the moon under his feet, and on his head a crown of twelve stars.¹ He was with child. He cried out in pain, laboring to give birth.² Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on her heads seven crowns.³ Her tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the man who was about to give birth, so that when he gave birth she might devour his child.⁴ He gave birth to a daughter, a female child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. His child was caught up to God, and to her throne.⁵ The man fled into the wilderness, where he has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish his one thousand two hundred sixty days.⁶ There was war in the sky. Michael and her angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and her angels made war.⁷ They didn't prevail, neither was a place found for her any more in heaven.⁸ The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, she who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. She was thrown down to the earth, and her angels were thrown down with her.⁹ I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now is come the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of her Christ; for the accuser of our sisters has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night.¹⁰ They overcame her because of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their testimony. They didn't love their life, even to death.¹¹ Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that she has but a short time." ¹² When the dragon saw that she was thrown down to the earth, she persecuted the man who gave birth to the female child. ¹³ Two wings of the great eagle were given to the man, that he might fly into the wilderness to his place, so that he might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. ¹⁴ The serpent spewed water out of her mouth after the man like a river, that she might cause him to be carried away by the stream. ¹⁵ The earth helped the man, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of her mouth. ¹⁶ The dragon grew angry with the man, and went away to make war with the rest of his seed, who keep God's commandments and hold Jesus' testimony. ¹⁷

Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On her horns were ten crowns, and on her heads, blasphemous names. ¹ The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and her feet were like those of a bear, and her mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave her her power, her throne, and great authority. ² One of her heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. Her fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled at the beast. ³ They worshiped the dragon, because she gave her authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with her?" ⁴ A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to her. Authority to make war for forty-two months was given to her. ⁵ She opened her mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme her name, and her dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. ⁶ It was given to her to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to her. ⁷ All who dwell on the earth will worship her, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed. ⁸ If anyone has an ear, let her hear. ⁹ If anyone has captivity, she will go. If anyone is with the sword, she must be killed. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints. ¹⁰ I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. She had two horns like a lamb, and she spoke like a dragon. ¹¹ She exercises all the authority of the first beast in her presence. She makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. ¹² She performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky to the earth in the sight of people. ¹³ She deceives my own people who dwell on the earth because of the signs she was granted to do in front of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who had the sword wound and lived. ¹⁴ It was given to her to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as wouldn't worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁵ She causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given marks on their right hands, or on their foreheads; ¹⁶ and that no one would be able to buy or to sell, unless she has that mark, the name of the beast or the number of her name. ¹⁷ Here is wisdom. She who has understanding, let her calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a woman. Her number is six hundred sixty-six. ¹⁸

Chapter 14

I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with her a number, one hundred forty-four thousand, having her name, and the name of her Mother, written on their foreheads.¹ I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps.² They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth.³ These are those who were not defiled with men, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever she goes. These were redeemed by Jesus from among women, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb.⁴ In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless.⁵ I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people.⁶ She said with a loud voice, "Fear the Domina, and give her glory; for the hour of her judgment has come. Worship her who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"⁷ Another, a second angel, followed, saying, "Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of his sexual immorality."⁸ Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and her image, and receives a mark on her forehead, or on her hand,⁹ she also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of her anger. She will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.¹⁰ The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and her image, and whoever receives the mark of her name.¹¹ Here is the patience of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."¹² I heard the voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Domina from now on.'"¹³ "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."¹⁴ I looked, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud one sitting like a daughter of woman, having on her head a golden crown, and in her hand a sharp sickle.¹⁵ Another angel came out from the temple, crying with a loud voice to her who sat on the cloud, "Send forth your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!"¹⁶ She who sat on the cloud thrust her sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.¹⁷ Another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven. She also had a sharp sickle.¹⁸ Another angel came out from the altar, she who has power over fire, and she called with a great voice to her who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth's grapes are fully ripe!"¹⁹ The angel thrust her sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.²⁰ The winepress was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out from the winepress, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.

Chapter 15

I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them God's wrath is finished.¹ I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, her image, and the number of her name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God.² They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are your works, Domina God, the Almighty! Righteous and true are your ways, you Queen of the nations."³ Who wouldn't fear you, Domina, and glorify your name? For you only are holy. For all the nations will come and worship before you. For your righteous acts have been revealed." ⁴ After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. ⁵ The seven angels who had the seven plagues came out, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their breasts. ⁶ One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. ⁷ The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from her power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished. ⁸

I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!" ¹ The first went, and poured out her bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped her image. ² The second angel poured out her bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead woman. Every living thing in the sea died. ³ The third poured out her bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. ⁴ I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, who are and who were, you Holy One, because you have judged these things. ⁵ For they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this." ⁶ I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Domina God, the Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments." ⁷ The fourth poured out her bowl on the sun, and it was given to her to scorch women with fire. ⁸ People were scorched with great heat, and people blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They didn't repent and give her glory. ⁹ The fifth poured out her bowl on the throne of the beast, and her kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, ¹⁰ and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They didn't repent of their works. ¹¹ The sixth poured out her bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the queens that come from the sunrise. ¹² I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophetess, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; ¹³ for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go forth to the queens of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of that great day of God, the Almighty. ¹⁴ "Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is she who watches, and keeps her clothes, so that she doesn't walk naked, and they see her shame." ¹⁵ She gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, Megiddo. ¹⁶ The seventh poured out her bowl into the air. A loud voice came forth out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" ¹⁷ There were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were women on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. ¹⁸ The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to him the cup of the wine of the fierceness of her wrath. ¹⁹ Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. ²⁰ Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent, came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe. ²¹

Chapter 17

One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great philanderer who sits on many waters,¹ with whom the queens of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of his sexual immorality."² She carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a man sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns.³ The man was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in his hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of the sexual immorality of the earth.⁴ And on his forehead a name was written, "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."⁵ I saw the man drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw him, I wondered with great amazement.⁶ The angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the man, and of the beast that carries him, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.⁷ The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, and shall be present.⁸ Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the man sits.⁹ They are seven queens. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When she comes, she must continue a little while.¹⁰ The beast that was, and is not, is herself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and she goes to destruction.¹¹ The ten horns that you saw are ten queens who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as queens, with the beast, for one hour.¹² These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast.¹³ These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for she is Domina of dominas, and Queen of queens. They also will overcome who are with her, called and chosen and faithful."¹⁴ She said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the philanderer sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.¹⁵ The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the philanderer, and will make him desolate, and will make his naked, and will eat his flesh, and will burn his utterly with fire.¹⁶ For God has put in their hearts to do what she has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished.¹⁷ The man whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the queens of the earth."¹⁸

After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with her glory.¹ She cried with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and he has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird!² For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of his sexual immorality, the queens of the earth committed sexual immorality with him, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of his luxury."³ I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of him, my people, that you have no participation in his sins, and that you don't receive of his plagues,⁴ for his sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered his iniquities.⁵ Return to him just as he returned, and repay him double as he did, and according to his works. In the cup which he mixed, mix to him double.⁶ However much he glorified himself, and grew wanton, so much give him of torment and mourning. For he says in his heart, 'I sit a king, and am no widower, and will in no way see mourning.' ⁷ Therefore in one day his plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and he will be utterly burned with fire; for the Domina God who has judged him is strong. ⁸ The queens of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with him, will weep and wail over him, when they look at the smoke of his burning, ⁹ standing far away for the fear of his torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.' ¹⁰ The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over him, for no one buys their merchandise any more; ¹¹ merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; ¹² and cinnamon, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, sheep, horses, chariots, and people's bodies and souls. ¹³ The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all. ¹⁴ The merchants of these things, who were made rich by him, will stand far away for the fear of his torment, weeping and mourning; ¹⁵ saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, he who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls!' ¹⁶ For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every shipmaster, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, ¹⁷ and cried out as they looked at the smoke of his burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?' ¹⁸ They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of his great wealth!' For in one hour is he made desolate. ¹⁹ "Rejoice over him, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on him." ²⁰ A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. ²¹ The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftswoman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. ²² The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bride and of the bridegroom will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princesses of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived. ²³ In him was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth." ²⁴

After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation, power, and glory belong to our God: ¹ for true and righteous are her judgments. For she has judged the great philanderer, who corrupted the earth with his sexual immorality, and she has avenged the blood of her servants at his hand." ² A second said, "Hallelujah! His smoke goes up forever and ever." ³ The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!" ⁴ A voice came forth from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you her servants, you who fear her, the small and the great!" ⁵ I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Domina our God, the Almighty, reigns!" ⁶ Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to her. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and her husband has made himself ready." ⁷ It was given to him that he would array himself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. ⁸ She said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" She said to me, "These are true words of God." ⁹ I fell down before her feet to worship her. She said to me, "Look! Don't do it! I am a fellow bondmaid with you and with your sisters who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy." ¹⁰ I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and she who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness she judges and makes war. ¹¹ Her eyes are a flame of fire, and on her head are many crowns. She has names written and a name written which no one knows but she herself. ¹² She is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. Her name is called "The Word of God." ¹³ The armies which are in heaven followed her on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen. ¹⁴ Out of her mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it she should strike the nations. She will rule them with an iron rod. She treads the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. ¹⁵ She has on her garment and on her thigh a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS." ¹⁶ I saw an angel standing in the sun. She cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, "Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God, ¹⁷ that you may eat the flesh of queens, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty women, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all women, both free and slave, and small and great." ¹⁸ I saw the beast, and the queens of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against her who sat on the horse, and against her army. ¹⁹ The beast was taken, and with her the false prophetess who worked the signs in her sight, with which she deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped her image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. ²⁰ The rest were killed with the sword of her who sat on the horse, the sword which came forth out of her mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh. ²¹

I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in her hand. ¹ She seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound her for a thousand years, ² and cast her into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over her, that she should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, she must be freed for a short time. ³ I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as didn't worship the beast nor her image, and didn't receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived, and reigned with Christ for the thousand years. ⁴ The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. ⁵ Blessed and holy is she who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with her one thousand years. ⁶ And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from her prison, ⁷ and she will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. ⁸ They went up over the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from God, and devoured them. ⁹ The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophetess are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.¹⁰ I saw a great white throne, and her who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them.¹¹ I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works.¹² The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to her works.¹³ Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.¹⁴ If anyone was not found written in the book of life, she was cast into the lake of fire.¹⁵

I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more.¹ I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready like a bridegroom adorned for his wife.² I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with people, and she will dwell with them, and they will be her people, and God herself will be with them as their God.³ She will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away."⁴ She who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." She said, "Write, for these words of God are faithful and true."⁵ She said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to her who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life.⁶ She who overcomes, I will give her these things. I will be her God, and she will be my daughter.⁷ But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."⁸ One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were loaded with the seven last plagues came, and she spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the husband, the Lamb's bridegroom."⁹ She carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,¹⁰ having the glory of God. His light was like a most precious stone, as if it was a jasper stone, clear as crystal;¹¹ having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.¹² On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.¹³ The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.¹⁴ She who spoke with me had for a measure, a golden reed, to measure the city, its gates, and its walls.¹⁵ The city lies foursquare, and its length is as great as its breadth. She measured the city with the reed, Twelve thousand twelve stadia. Its length, breadth, and height are equal.¹⁶ Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits, by the measure of a woman, that is, of an angel.¹⁷ The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass.¹⁸ The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;¹⁹ the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst.²⁰ The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.²¹ I saw no temple in it, for the Domina God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple.²² The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb.²³ The nations will walk in its light. The queens of the earth bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.²⁴ Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there),²⁵ and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it so that they may enter.²⁶ There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.²⁷

She showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb,¹ in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.² There will be no curse any more. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and her servants serve her.³ They will see her face, and her name will be on their foreheads.⁴ There will be no night, and they need no lamp light; for the Domina God will illuminate them. They will reign forever and ever.⁵ She said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Domina God of the spirits of the prophets sent her angel to show to her bondmaids the things which must happen soon."⁶ "Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is she who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."⁷ Now I, Johanna, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had shown me these things.⁸ She said to me, "See you don't do it! I am a fellow bondmaid with you and with your sisters, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."⁹ She said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand.¹⁰ She who acts unjustly, let her act unjustly still. She who is filthy, let her be filthy still. She who is righteous, let her do righteousness still. She who is holy, let her be holy still."¹¹ "Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with me, to repay to each woman according to her work.¹² I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.¹³ Blessed are those who do her commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city.¹⁴ Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.¹⁵ I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you for the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of Davina; the Bright and Morning Star."¹⁶ The Spirit and the bridegroom say, "Come!" She who hears, let her say, "Come!" She who is thirsty, let her come. She who desires, let her take the water of life freely.¹⁷ I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, may God add to her the plagues which are written in this book.¹⁸ If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, may God take away her part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book.¹⁹ She who testifies these things says, "Yes, I come quickly." Amen! Yes, come, Domina Jesus.²⁰ The grace of the Domina Jesus Christ be with all the saints. Amen.²¹
