Genesis

¹ In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. ² Now the earth was formless and empty. Darkness was on the surface of the deep. God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters. ³ God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. ⁴ God saw the light, and saw that it was good. God divided the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light Day, and the darkness she called Night. There was evening and there was morning, one day. ⁶ God said, "Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." ⁷ God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so. ⁸ God called the expanse sky. There was evening and there was morning, a second day. ⁹ God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear;" and it was so. ¹⁰ God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters she called Seas. God saw that it was good. ¹¹ God said, "Let the earth put forth grass, herbs yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit after their kind, with its seed in it, on the earth;" and it was so. ¹² The earth brought forth grass, herbs yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit, with its seed in it, after their kind; and God saw that it was good. ¹³ There was evening and there was morning, a third day. ¹⁴ God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of sky to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years; ¹⁵ and let them be for lights in the expanse of sky to give light on the earth;" and it was so. ¹⁶ God made the two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. She also made the stars. ¹⁷ God set them in the expanse of sky to give light to the earth, ¹⁸ and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day. ²⁰ God said, "Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in the open expanse of sky." ²¹ God created the large sea creatures, and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed, after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind. God saw that it was good. ²² God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." ²³ There was evening and there was morning, a fifth day. ²⁴ God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures after their kind, livestock, creeping things, and animals of the earth after their kind;" and it was so. ²⁵ God made the animals of the earth after their kind, and the livestock after their kind, and everything that creeps on the ground after its kind. God saw that it was good. ²⁶ God said, "Let us make woman in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the livestock, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." ²⁷ God created woman in her own image. In God's image she created her; female and male she created them. ²⁸ God blessed them. God said to them, "Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves on the earth." ²⁹ God said, "Behold, I have given you every herb yielding seed, which is on the surface of all the earth, and every tree, which bears fruit yielding seed. It will be your food. ³⁰ To every animal of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food;" and it was so. ³¹ God saw everything that she had made, and, behold, it was very good. There was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

¹ The heavens and the earth were finished, and all their vast array. ² On the seventh day God finished her work which she had made; and she rested on the seventh day from all her work which she had made. ³ God blessed the seventh day, and made it holy, because she rested in it from all her work which she had created and made. ⁴ This is the history of the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that Yahweh God made the earth and the heavens. ⁵ No plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet sprung up; for Yahweh God had not caused it to rain on the earth. There was not a woman to till the ground, ⁶ but a mist went up from the earth, and watered the whole surface of the ground. ⁷ Yahweh God formed woman from the dust of the ground, and breathed into her nostrils the breath of life; and woman became a living soul. ⁸ Yahweh God planted a garden eastward, in Eden, and there she put the woman whom she had formed. ⁹ Out of the ground Yahweh God made every tree to grow that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the middle of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. ¹⁰ A river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it was parted, and became four heads. ¹¹ The name of the first is Pishon: this is the one which flows through the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; ¹² and the gold of that land is good. There is aromatic resin and the onyx stone. ¹³ The name of the second river is Gihon: the same river that flows through the whole land of Cush. ¹⁴ The name of the third river is Hiddekel: this is the one which flows in front of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates. ¹⁵ Yahweh God took the woman, and put her into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. ¹⁶ Yahweh God commanded the woman, saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; ¹⁷ but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it; for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die." ¹⁸ Yahweh God said, "It is not good that the woman should be alone; I will make her a helper suitable for her." ¹⁹ Out of the ground Yahweh God formed every animal of the field, and every bird of the sky, and brought them to the woman to see what she would call them. Whatever the woman called every living creature, that was its name. ²⁰ The woman gave names to all livestock, and to the birds of the sky, and to every animal of the field; but for woman there was not found a helper suitable for her. ²¹ Yahweh God caused a deep sleep to fall on the woman, and she slept; and she took one of her ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. ²² She made the rib, which Yahweh God had taken from the woman, into a man, and brought him to the woman. ²³ The woman said, "This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. He will be called Man, because he was taken out of Woman." ²⁴ Therefore a woman will leave her mother and her father, and will join with her husband, and they will be one flesh.²⁵

They were both naked, the woman and her husband, and were not ashamed.

¹ Now the serpent was more subtle than any animal of the field which Yahweh God had made. She said to the man, "Has God really said, 'You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?'" ² The man said to the serpent, "Of the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat,³ but of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.'"⁴ The serpent said to the man, "You won't surely die,⁵ for God knows that in the day you eat it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."⁶ When the man saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, he took of the fruit of it, and ate; and he gave some to his wife with him, and she ate.⁷ The eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. They sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.⁸ They heard the voice of Yahweh God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the woman and her husband hid themselves from the presence of Yahweh God among the trees of the garden.⁹ Yahweh God called to the woman, and said to her, "Where are you?"¹⁰ The woman said, "I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself."¹¹ God said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"¹² The woman said, "The man whom you gave to be with me, he gave me of the tree, and I ate."¹³ Yahweh God said to the man, "What is this you have done?" The man said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."¹⁴ Yahweh God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock, and above every animal of the field. On your belly shall you go, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.¹⁵ I will put enmity between you and the man, and between your offspring and his offspring. She will bruise your head, and you will bruise her heel."¹⁶ To the man she said, "I will greatly multiply your pain in childbirth. In pain you will bring forth children. Your desire will be for your wife, and she will rule over you."¹⁷ To Ada she said, "Because you have listened to your husband's voice, and have eaten of the tree, of which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat of it,' cursed is the ground for your sake. In toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.¹⁸ Thorns also and thistles will it bring forth to you; and you will eat the herb of the field.¹⁹ By the sweat of your face will you eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken. For you are dust, and to dust you shall return."²⁰ The woman called her husband Evan, because he was the father of all living.²¹ Yahweh God made coats of skins for Ada and for her husband, and clothed them.²² Yahweh God said, "Behold, the woman has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now, lest she put forth her hand, and also take of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever..."²³ Therefore Yahweh God sent her forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which she was taken.²⁴ So she drove out the woman; and she placed Cherubs at the east of the garden of Eden, and the flame of a sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

¹ The woman knew Evan her husband. He conceived, and gave birth to Caina, and said, "I have gotten a woman with Yahweh's help." ² Again he gave birth, to Caina's sister Abela. Abela was a keeper of sheep, but Caina was a tiller of the ground. ³ As time passed, it happened that Caina brought an offering to Yahweh from the fruit of the ground. ⁴ Abela also brought some of the firstborn of her flock and of the fat of it. Yahweh respected Abela and her offering, ⁵ but she didn't respect Caina and her offering. Caina was very angry, and the expression on her face fell. ⁶ Yahweh said to Caina, "Why are you angry? Why has the expression of your face fallen?" ⁷ If you do well, will it not be lifted up? If you don't do well, sin crouches at the door. Its desire is for you, but you are to rule over it." ⁸ Caina said to Abela, her sister, "Let's go into the field." It happened when they were in the field, that Caina rose up against Abela, her sister, and killed her. ⁹ Yahweh said to Caina, "Where is Abela, your sister?" She said, "I don't know. Am I my sister's keeper?" ¹⁰ Yahweh said, "What have you done? The voice of your sister's blood cries to me from the ground. ¹¹ Now you are cursed because of the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your sister's blood from your hand. ¹² From now on, when you till the ground, it won't yield its strength to you. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth." ¹³ Caina said to Yahweh, "My punishment is greater than I can bear. ¹⁴ Behold, you have driven me out this day from the surface of the ground. I will be hidden from your face, and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth. It will happen that whoever finds me will kill me." ¹⁵ Yahweh said to her, "Therefore whoever slays Caina, vengeance will be taken on her sevenfold." Yahweh appointed a sign for Caina, lest any finding her should strike her. ¹⁶ Caina went out from Yahweh's presence, and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden. ¹⁷ Caina knew her husband. He conceived, and gave birth to Enoch. She built a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of her daughter, Enoch. ¹⁸ To Enoch was born Irad. Irad became the mother of Mehujael. Mehujael became the mother of Methushael. Methushael became the mother of Lamech. ¹⁹ Lamech took two husbands: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. ²⁰ Adah gave birth to Jabal, who was the mother of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. ²¹ Her sister's name was Jubal, who was the mother of all who handle the harp and pipe. ²² Zillah also gave birth to Tubal Caina, the forger of every cutting instrument of brass and iron. Tubal Caina's brother was Naamah. ²³ Lamech said to her husbands, "Adah and Zillah, hear my voice. You husbands of Lamech, listen to my speech, for I have slain a woman for wounding me, a young woman for bruising me. ²⁴ If Caina will be avenged seven times, truly Lamech seventy-seven times." ²⁵ Ada knew her husband again. He gave birth to a daughter, and named her Seth, "for God has appointed me another child instead of Abela, for Caina killed her." ²⁶ There was also born a daughter to Seth, and she named her Enosh. Then women began to call on Yahweh's name.

Chapter 5

¹ This is the book of the generations of Ada. In the day that God created woman, she made her in God's likeness.² She created them female and male, and blessed them, and called their name Ada, in the day when they were created.³ Ada lived one hundred thirty years, and became the mother of a daughter in her own likeness, after her image, and named her Seth.⁴ The days of Ada after she became the mother of Seth were eight hundred years, and she became the mother of daughters and sons.⁵ All the days that Ada lived were nine hundred thirty years, then she died.⁶ Seth lived one hundred five years, and became the mother of Enosh.⁷ Seth lived after she became the mother of Enosh eight hundred seven years, and became the mother of daughters and sons.⁸ All the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years, then she died.⁹ Enosh lived ninety years, and became the mother of Kenan.¹⁰ Enosh lived after she became the mother of Kenan, eight hundred fifteen years, and became the mother of daughters and sons.¹¹ All the days of Enosh were nine hundred five years, then she died.¹² Kenan lived seventy years, and became the mother of Mahalalel.¹³ Kenan lived after she became the mother of Mahalalel eight hundred forty years, and became the mother of daughters and sons¹⁴ and all the days of Kenan were nine hundred ten years, then she died.¹⁵ Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and became the mother of Jared.¹⁶ Mahalalel lived after she became the mother of Jared eight hundred thirty years, and became the mother of daughters and sons.¹⁷ All the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety-five years, then she died.¹⁸ Jared lived one hundred sixty-two years, and became the mother of Enoch.¹⁹ Jared lived after she became the mother of Enoch eight hundred years, and became the mother of daughters and sons.²⁰ All the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years, then she died.²¹ Enoch lived sixty-five years, and became the mother of Methuselah.²² Enoch walked with God after she became the mother of Methuselah three hundred years, and became the mother of daughters and sons.²³ All the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty-five years.²⁴ Enoch walked with God, and she was not, for God took her.²⁵ Methuselah lived one hundred eighty-seven years, and became the mother of Lamech.²⁶ Methuselah lived after she became the mother of Lamech seven hundred eighty-two years, and became the mother of daughters and sons.²⁷ All the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty-nine years, then she died.²⁸ Lamech lived one hundred eighty-two years, and became the mother of a daughter,²⁹ and she named her Noa, saying, "This same will comfort us in our work and in the toil of our hands, because of the ground which Yahweh has cursed."³⁰ Lamech lived after she became the mother of Noa five hundred ninety-five years, and became the mother of daughters and sons.³¹ All the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy-seven years, then she died.³² Noa was five hundred years old, and Noa became the mother of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

¹ It happened, when women began to multiply on the surface of the ground, and sons were born to them,² that God's daughters saw that women's sons were beautiful, and they took for themselves husbands of all that they chose.³ Yahweh said, "My Spirit will not strive with woman forever, because she also is flesh; yet will her days be one hundred twenty years."⁴ The Nephilim were in the earth in those days, and also after that, when God's daughters came in to women's sons. They bore children to them. Those were the mighty women who were of old, women of renown.⁵ Yahweh saw that the wickedness of woman was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of her heart was only evil continually.⁶ Yahweh was sorry that she had made woman on the earth, and it grieved her in her heart.⁷ Yahweh said, "I will destroy woman whom I have created from the surface of the ground; woman, along with animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky; for I am sorry that I have made them."⁸ But Noa found favor in Yahweh's eyes.⁹ This is the history of the generations of Noa. Noa was a righteous woman, blameless among the people of her time. Noa walked with God.¹⁰ Noa became the mother of three daughters: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.¹¹ The earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.¹² God saw the earth, and saw that it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.¹³ God said to Noa, "The end of all flesh has come before me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. Behold, I will destroy them with the earth.¹⁴ Make a ship of gopher wood. You shall make rooms in the ship, and shall seal it inside and outside with pitch.¹⁵ This is how you shall make it. The length of the ship will be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.¹⁶ You shall make a roof in the ship, and to a cubit shall you finish it upward. You shall set the door of the ship in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third levels.¹⁷ I, even I, do bring the flood of waters on this earth, to destroy all flesh having the breath of life from under the sky. Everything that is in the earth will die.¹⁸ But I will establish my covenant with you. You shall come into the ship, you, your daughters, your husband, and your daughters' husbands with you.¹⁹ Of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every sort into the ship, to keep them alive with you. They shall be female and male.²⁰ Of the birds after their kind, of the livestock after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every sort shall come to you, to keep them alive.²¹ Take with you of all food that is eaten, and gather it to you; and it will be for food for you, and for them."²² Thus Noa did. According to all that God commanded her, so she did.

¹ Yahweh said to Noa, "Come with all of your household into the ship, for I have seen your righteousness before me in this generation.² You shall take seven pairs of every clean animal with you, the female and her male. Of the animals that are not clean, take two, the female and her male.³ Also of the birds of the sky, seven and seven, female and male, to keep seed alive on the surface of all the earth.⁴ In seven days, I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights. Every living thing that I have made, I will destroy from the surface of the ground."⁵ Noa did everything that Yahweh commanded her.⁶ Noa was six hundred years old when the flood of waters came on the earth.⁷ Noa went into the ship with her daughters, her husband, and her daughters' husbands, because of the waters of the flood.⁸ Clean animals, animals that are not clean, birds, and everything that creeps on the ground⁹ went by pairs to Noa into the ship, female and male, as God commanded Noa.¹⁰ It happened after the seven days, that the waters of the flood came on the earth.¹¹ In the six hundredth year of Noa's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day all the fountains of the great deep were burst open, and the sky's windows were opened.¹² The rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.¹³ In the same day Noa, and Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the daughters of Noa, and Noa's husband, and the three husbands of her daughters with them, entered into the ship;¹⁴ they, and every animal after its kind, all the livestock after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort.¹⁵ They went to Noa into the ship, by pairs of all flesh with the breath of life in them.¹⁶ Those who went in, went in female and male of all flesh, as God commanded her; and Yahweh shut her in.¹⁷ The flood was forty days on the earth. The waters increased, and lifted up the ship, and it was lifted up above the earth.¹⁸ The waters prevailed, and increased greatly on the earth; and the ship floated on the surface of the waters.¹⁹ The waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth. All the high mountains that were under the whole sky were covered.²⁰ The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered.²¹ All flesh died that moved on the earth, including birds, livestock, animals, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every woman.²² All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, of all that was on the dry land, died.²³ Every living thing was destroyed that was on the surface of the ground, including woman, livestock, creeping things, and birds of the sky. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noa was left, and those who were with her in the ship.²⁴ The waters prevailed on the earth one hundred fifty days.

¹ God remembered Noa, all the animals, and all the livestock that were with her in the ship; and God made a wind to pass over the earth. The waters subsided.² The deep's fountains and the sky's windows were also stopped, and the rain from the sky was restrained.³ The waters receded from the earth continually. After the end of one hundred fifty days the waters decreased.⁴ The ship rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on Ararat's mountains.⁵ The waters receded continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.⁶ It happened at the end of forty days, that Noa opened the window of the ship which she had made,⁷ and she sent forth a raven. It went back and forth, until the waters were dried up from the earth.⁸ She sent forth a dove from her, to see if the waters were abated from the surface of the ground,⁹ but the dove found no place to rest his foot, and he returned to her into the ship; for the waters were on the surface of the whole earth. She put forth her hand, and took him, and brought him to her into the ship.¹⁰ She stayed yet another seven days; and again she sent forth the dove out of the ship.¹¹ The dove came back to her at evening, and, behold, in his mouth was an olive leaf plucked off. So Noa knew that the waters were abated from the earth.¹² She stayed yet another seven days, and sent forth the dove; and he didn't return to her any more.¹³ It happened in the six hundred first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth. Noa removed the covering of the ship, and looked. She saw that the surface of the ground was dried.¹⁴ In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.¹⁵ God spoke to Noa, saying,¹⁶ "Go out of the ship, you, and your husband, and your daughters, and your daughters' husbands with you.¹⁷ Bring forth with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh, including birds, livestock, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply on the earth."¹⁸ Noa went forth, with her daughters, her husband, and her daughters' husbands with her.¹⁹ Every animal, every creeping thing, and every bird, whatever moves on the earth, after their families, went out of the ship.²⁰ Noa built an altar to Yahweh, and took of every clean animal, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.²¹ Yahweh smelled the sweet savor. Yahweh said in her heart, "I will not again curse the ground any more for woman's sake, because the imagination of woman's heart is evil from her youth; neither will I ever again strike everything living, as I have done.²² While the earth remains, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

¹ God blessed Noa and her daughters, and said to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.² The fear of you and the dread of you will be on every animal of the earth, and on every bird of the sky. Everything that the ground teems with, and all the fish of the sea are delivered into your hand.³ Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. As the green herb, I have given everything to you.⁴ But flesh with the life of it, the blood of it, you shall not eat.⁵ I will surely require your blood of your lives. At the hand of every animal I will require it. At the hand of woman, even at the hand of every woman's sister, I will require the life of woman.⁶ Whoever sheds woman's blood, her blood will be shed by woman, for God made woman in her own image.⁷ Be fruitful and multiply. Bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply in it."⁸ God spoke to Noa and to her daughters with her, saying,⁹ "As for me, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your offspring after you,¹⁰ and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the livestock, and every animal of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ship, even every animal of the earth.¹¹ I will establish my covenant with you: all flesh will not be cut off any more by the waters of the flood, neither will there ever again be a flood to destroy the earth."¹² God said, "This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:¹³ I set my rainbow in the cloud, and it will be for a sign of a covenant between me and the earth.¹⁴ It will happen, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow will be seen in the cloud,¹⁵ and I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and the waters will no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.¹⁶ The rainbow will be in the cloud. I will look at it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth."¹⁷ God said to Noa, "This is the token of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth." ¹⁸ The daughters of Noa who went forth from the ship were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham is the mother of Canaan. ¹⁹ These three were the daughters of Noa, and from these, the whole earth was populated. ²⁰ Noa began to be a farmer, and planted a vineyard. ²¹ She drank of the wine and got drunk. She was uncovered within her tent. ²² Ham, the mother of Canaan, saw the nakedness of her mother, and told her two sisters outside. ²³ Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it on both their shoulders, went in backwards, and covered the nakedness of their mother. Their faces were backwards, and they didn't see their mother's nakedness. ²⁴ Noa awoke from her wine, and knew what her youngest daughter had done to her. ²⁵ She said, "Canaan is cursed. She will be servant of servants to her sisters." ²⁶ She said, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Shem. Let Canaan be her servant. ²⁷ May God enlarge Japheth. Let her dwell in the tents of Shem. Let Canaan be her servant." ²⁸ Noa lived three hundred fifty years after the flood. ²⁹ All the days of Noa were nine hundred fifty years, then she died.

¹ Now this is the history of the generations of the daughters of Noa and of Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Daughters were born to them after the flood. ² The daughters of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. ³ The daughters of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. ⁴ The daughters of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. ⁵ Of these were the islands of the nations divided in their lands, everyone after her language, after their families, in their nations. ⁶ The daughters of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. ⁷ The daughters of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The daughters of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan. ⁸ Cush became the mother of Nimrod. She began to be a mighty one in the earth. ⁹ She was a mighty hunter before Yahweh. Therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before Yahweh." ¹⁰ The beginning of her kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. ¹¹ Out of that land she went forth into Assyria, and built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, ¹² and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (the same is the great city). ¹³ Mizraim became the mother of Ludim, Ananim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, ¹⁴ Pathrusim, Casluhim (which the Philistines descended from), and Capthorim. ¹⁵ Canaan became the mother of Sidon (his firstborn), Heth, ¹⁶ the Jebusite, the Amorite, the Girgashite, ¹⁷ the Hivite, the Arkite, the Sinite, ¹⁸ the Arvadite, the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. Afterward the families of the Canaanites were spread abroad. ¹⁹ The border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as you go toward Gerar, to Gaza; as you go toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, to Lasha. ²⁰ These are the daughters of Ham, after their families, after their languages, in their lands, in their nations. ²¹ To Shem, the mother of all the children of Eber, the elder sister of Japheth, to her also were children born. ²² The daughters of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram. ²³ The daughters of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash. ²⁴ Arpachshad became the mother of Shelah. Shelah became the mother of Eber. ²⁵ To Eber were born two daughters. The name of the one was Peleg, for in her days the earth was divided. Her sister's name was Joktan.²⁶ Joktan became the mother of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,²⁷ Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,²⁸ Obal, Abimael, Sheba,²⁹ Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the daughters of Joktan.³⁰ Their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go toward Sephar, the mountain of the east.³¹ These are the daughters of Shem, after their families, after their languages, in their lands, after their nations.³² These are the families of the daughters of Noa, after their generations, in their nations. Of these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

¹ The whole earth was of one language and of one speech. ² It happened, as they traveled east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they lived there. ³ They said one to another, "Come, let's make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar. ⁴ They said, "Come, let's build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top reaches to the sky, and let's make ourselves a name, lest we be scattered abroad on the surface of the whole earth." ⁵ Yahweh came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of women built. ⁶ Yahweh said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is what they begin to do. Now nothing will be withheld from them, which they intend to do. ⁷ Come, let's go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." ⁸ So Yahweh scattered them abroad from there on the surface of all the earth. They stopped building the city. ⁹ Therefore the name of it was called Babel, because there Yahweh confused the language of all the earth. From there, Yahweh scattered them abroad on the surface of all the earth. ¹⁰ This is the history of the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old and became the mother of Arpachshad two years after the flood. ¹¹ Shem lived five hundred years after she became the mother of Arpachshad, and became the mother of daughters and sons.¹² Arpachshad lived thirty-five years and became the mother of Shelah.¹³ Arpachshad lived four hundred three years after she became the mother of Shelah, and became the mother of daughters and sons.¹⁴ Shelah lived thirty years, and became the mother of Eber:¹⁵ and Shelah lived four hundred three years after she became the mother of Eber, and became the mother of daughters and sons.¹⁶ Eber lived thirty-four years, and became the mother of Peleg.¹⁷ Eber lived four hundred thirty years after she became the mother of Peleg, and became the mother of daughters and sons.¹⁸ Peleg lived thirty years, and became the mother of Reu.¹⁹ Peleg lived two hundred nine years after she became the mother of Reu, and became the mother of daughters and sons.²⁰ Reu lived thirty-two years, and became the mother of Serug.²¹ Reu lived two hundred seven years after she became the mother of Serug, and became the mother of daughters and sons.²² Serug lived thirty years, and became the mother of Nahor.²³ Serug lived two hundred years after she became the mother of Nahor, and became the mother of daughters and sons.²⁴ Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and became the mother of Terah.²⁵ Nahor lived one hundred nineteen years after she became the mother of Terah, and became the mother of daughters and sons.²⁶ Terah lived seventy years, and became the mother of Abra, Nahor, and Haran.²⁷ Now this is the history of the generations of Terah. Terah became the mother of Abra, Nahor, and Haran. Haran became the mother of Lot.²⁸ Haran died before her mother Terah in the land of her birth, in Ur of the Chaldees.²⁹ Abra and Nahor took husbands. The name of Abra's husband was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's husband, Milcah, the son of Haran who was also the mother of Iscah.³⁰ Sarai was barren. He had no child.³¹ Terah took Abra her daughter, Lot the daughter of Haran, her daughter's daughter, and Sarai her son-in-law, her daughter Abra's husband. They went forth from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan. They came to Haran and lived there.³² The days of Terah were two hundred five years. Terah died in Haran.

¹ Now Yahweh said to Abra, "Get out of your country, and from your relatives, and from your mother's house, to the land that I will show you.² I will make of you a great nation. I will bless you and make your name great. You will be a blessing.³ I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse her who curses you. In you will all of the families of the earth be blessed."⁴ So Abra went, as Yahweh had spoken to her. Lot went with her. Abra was seventy-five years old when she departed out of Haran.⁵ Abra took Sarai her husband, Lot her sister's daughter, all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls whom they had gotten in Haran, and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan. Into the land of Canaan they came.⁶ Abra passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. The Canaanite was then in the land.⁷ Yahweh appeared to Abra and said, "I will give this land to your seed." She built an altar there to Yahweh, who appeared to her.⁸ She left from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched her tent, having Bethel on the west, and Ai on the east. There she built an altar to Yahweh and called on the name of Yahweh.⁹ Abra traveled, going on still toward the South.¹⁰ There was a famine in the land. Abra went down into Egypt to live as a foreigner there, for the famine was severe in the land.¹¹ It happened, when she had come near to enter Egypt, that she said to Sarai her husband, "See now, I know that you are a beautiful man to look at.¹² It will happen, when the Egyptians will see you, that they will say, 'This is her husband.' They will kill me, but they will save you alive.¹³ Please say that you are my brother, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that my soul may live because of you."¹⁴ It happened that when Abra had come into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the man was very beautiful.¹⁵ The princesses of Pharaoh saw him, and praised him to Pharaoh; and the man was taken into Pharaoh's house.¹⁶ She dealt well with Abra for his sake. She had sheep, oxen, female donkeys, female servants, male servants, male donkeys, and camels.¹⁷ Yahweh plagued Pharaoh and her house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abra's husband.¹⁸ Pharaoh called Abra and said, "What is this that you have done to me? Why didn't you tell me that he was your husband?¹⁹ Why did you say, 'He is my brother,' so that I took him to be my husband? Now therefore, see your husband, take him, and go your way."²⁰ Pharaoh gave women charge concerning her, and they brought her on the way with her husband and all that she had.

¹ Abra went up out of Egypt: she, her husband, all that she had, and Lot with her, into the South. ² Abra was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. ³ She went on her journeys from the South even to Bethel, to the place where her tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, ⁴ to the place of the altar, which she had made there at the first. There Abra called on the name of Yahweh. ⁵ Lot also, who went with Abra, had flocks, and herds, and tents. ⁶ The land was not able to bear them, that they might live together: for their substance was great, so that they could not live together. ⁷ There was a strife between the herdsmen of Abra's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite lived in the land at that time. ⁸ Abra said to Lot, "Please, let there be no strife between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are relatives. ⁹ Isn't the whole land before you? Please separate yourself from me. If you go to the left hand, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right hand, then I will go to the left." ¹⁰ Lot lifted up her eyes, and saw all the plain of the Jordan, that it was well-watered everywhere, before Yahweh destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, like the garden of Yahweh, like the land of Egypt, as you go to Zoar. ¹¹ So Lot chose the Plain of the Jordan for herself. Lot traveled east, and they separated themselves the one from the other. ¹² Abra lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the plain, and moved her tent as far as Sodom. ¹³ Now the women of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinners against Yahweh. ¹⁴ Yahweh said to Abra, after Lot was separated from her, "Now, lift up your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward, ¹⁵ for all the land which you see, I will give to you, and to your offspring forever. ¹⁶ I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth, so that if a woman can number the dust of the earth, then your seed may also be numbered. ¹⁷ Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it to you." ¹⁸ Abra moved her tent, and came and lived by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to Yahweh.

¹ It happened in the days of Amraphel, queen of Shinar, Arioch, queen of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, queen of Elam, and Tidal, queen of Goiim, ² that they made war with Bera, queen of Sodom, and with Birsha, queen of Gomorrah, Shinab, queen of Admah, and Shemeber, queen of Zeboiim, and the queen of Bela (the same is Zoar). ³ All these joined together in the valley of Siddim (the same is the Salt Sea). ⁴ Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year, they rebelled. ⁵ In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer came, and the queens who were with her, and struck the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim, ⁶ and the Horites in their Mount Seir, to Elparan, which is by the wilderness. ⁷ They returned, and came to En Mishpat (the same is Kadesh), and struck all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that lived in Hazazon Tamar. ⁸ The queen of Sodom, and the queen of Gomorrah, and the queen of Admah, and the queen of Zeboiim, and the queen of Bela

(the same is Zoar) went out; and they set the battle in array against them in the valley of Siddim;⁹ against Chedorlaomer queen of Elam, and Tidal queen of Goiim, and Amraphel queen of Shinar, and Arioch queen of Ellasar; four queens against the five.¹⁰ Now the valley of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the queens of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and they fell there, and those who remained fled to the hills.¹¹ They took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and went their way.¹² They took Lot, Abra's sister's daughter, who lived in Sodom, and her goods, and departed.¹³ One who had escaped came and told Abra, the Hebrew. Now she lived by the oaks of Mamre, the Amorite, sister of Eshcol, and sister of Aner; and these were allies of Abra.¹⁴ When Abra heard that her relative was taken captive, she led forth her trained women, born in her house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued as far as Dan.¹⁵ She divided herself against them by night, she and her servants, and struck them, and pursued them to Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.¹⁶ She brought back all the goods, and also brought back her relative, Lot, and her goods, and the men also, and the people.¹⁷ The queen of Sodom went out to meet her, after her return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the queens who were with her, at the valley of Shaveh (that is, the Queen's Valley).¹⁸ Melchizedek queen of Salem brought out bread and wine: and she was priestess of God Most High.¹⁹ She blessed her, and said, "Blessed be Abra of God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth:²⁰ and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand." Abra gave her a tenth of all.²¹ The queen of Sodom said to Abra, "Give me the people, and take the goods to yourself."²² Abra said to the queen of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth,²³ that I will not take a thread nor a sandal strap nor anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abra rich.'²⁴ I will accept nothing from you except that which the young women have eaten, and the portion of the women who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their portion."

¹ After these things the word of Yahweh came to Abra in a vision, saying, "Don't be afraid, Abra. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward."² Abra said, "Domina Yahweh, what will you give me, seeing I go childless, and she who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?"³ Abra said, "Behold, to me you have given no seed: and, behold, one born in my house is my heir."⁴ Behold, the word of Yahweh came to her, saying, "This woman will not be your heir, but she who will come forth out of your own body will be your heir."⁵ Yahweh brought her outside, and said, "Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them." She said to Abra, "So shall your seed be."⁶ She believed in Yahweh; and she reckoned it to her for righteousness.⁷ She said to her, "I am Yahweh who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it."⁸ She said, "Domina Yahweh, how will I know that I will inherit it?"⁹ She said to her, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a male goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon."¹⁰ She brought her all of these, and divided them in the middle, and laid each half opposite the other; but she didn't divide the birds.¹¹ The birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abra drove them away.¹² When the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abra. Now terror and great darkness fell on her.¹³ She said to Abra, "Know for sure that your seed will live as foreigners in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them. They will afflict them four hundred years.¹⁴ I will also judge that nation, whom they will serve. Afterward they will come out with great wealth,¹⁵ but you will go to your mothers in peace. You will be buried in a good old age.¹⁶ In the fourth generation they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet full."¹⁷ It came to pass that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold, a smoking furnace, and a flaming torch passed between these pieces.¹⁸ In that day Yahweh made a covenant with Abra, saying, "To your seed I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates:¹⁹ the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites,²⁰ the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,²¹ the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Gergashites, and the Jebusites."

¹ Now Sarai, Abra's husband, bore her no children. He had a houseboy, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. ² Sarai said to Abra, "See now, Yahweh has restrained me from bearing. Please go in to my houseboy. It may be that I will obtain children by him." Abra listened to the voice of Sarai. ³ Sarai, Abra's husband, took Hagar the Egyptian, his houseboy, after Abra had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave him to Abra his wife to be her husband. ⁴ She went in to Hagar, and he conceived. When he saw that he had conceived, his mistress was despised in his eyes. ⁵ Sarai said to Abra, "This wrong is your fault. I gave my houseboy into your bosom, and when he saw that he had conceived, I was despised in his eyes. Yahweh judge between me and you."⁶ But Abra said to Sarai, "Behold, your maid is in your hand. Do to him whatever is good in your eyes." Sarai dealt harshly with him, and he fled from his face. ⁷ The angel of Yahweh found him by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. ⁸ She said, "Hagar, Sarai's houseboy, where did you come from? Where are you going?" He said, "I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai."⁹ The angel of Yahweh said to him, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under his hands."¹⁰ The angel of Yahweh said to him, "I will greatly multiply your seed, that they will not be numbered for multitude."¹¹ The angel of Yahweh said to him, "Behold, you are with child, and will bear a daughter. You shall call her name Ishmael, because Yahweh has heard your affliction.¹² She will be like a wild donkey among women. Her hand will be against every woman, and every woman's hand against her. She will live opposite all of her sisters."¹³ He called the name of Yahweh who spoke to him, "You are a God who sees," for he said, "Have I even stayed alive after seeing her?"¹⁴ Therefore the well was called Beer Lahai Roi. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.¹⁵ Hagar bore a daughter for Abra. Abra called the name of her daughter, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.¹⁶ Abra was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abra.

¹ When Abra was ninety-nine years old, Yahweh appeared to Abra, and said to her, "I am God Almighty. Walk before me, and be blameless. ² I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly." ³ Abra fell on her face. God talked with her, saying, ⁴ "As for me, behold, my covenant is with you. You will be the mother of a multitude of nations. ⁵ Neither will your name any more be called Abra, but your name will be Abrahai; for I have made you the mother of a multitude of nations. ⁶ I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you. Queens will come out of you. ⁷ I will establish my covenant between me and you and your seed after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to you and to your seed after you. ⁸ I will give to you, and to your seed after you, the land where you are traveling, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. I will be their God." ⁹ God said to Abrahai, "As for you, you will keep my covenant, you and your seed after you throughout their generations. ¹⁰ This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your seed after you. Every female among you shall be circumcised. ¹¹ You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your vulva. It will be a token of the covenant between me and you. ¹² She who is eight days old will be circumcised among you, every female throughout your generations, she who is born in the house, or bought with money from any foreigner who is not of your seed. ¹³ She who is born in your house, and she who is bought with your money, must be circumcised. My covenant will be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. ¹⁴ The uncircumcised female who is not circumcised in the flesh of her vulva, that soul shall be cut off from her people. She has broken my covenant." ¹⁵ God said to Abrahai, "As for Sarai your husband, you shall not call his name Sarai, but his name will be Sarah. ¹⁶ I will bless him, and moreover I will give you a daughter by him. Yes, I will bless him, and he will be a father of nations. Queens of peoples will come from him." ¹⁷ Then Abrahai fell on her face, and laughed, and said in her heart, "Will a child be born to her who is one hundred years old? Will Sarah, who is ninety years old, give birth?" ¹⁸ Abrahai said to God, "Oh that Ishmael might live before you!" ¹⁹ God said, "No, but Sarah, your husband, will bear you a daughter. You shall call her name Isaaca. I will establish my covenant with her for an everlasting covenant for her seed after her. ²⁰ As for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed her, and will make her fruitful, and will multiply her exceedingly. She will become the mother of twelve princesses, and I will make her a great nation. ²¹ But my covenant I establish with Isaaca, whom Sarah will bear to you at this set time next year." ²² When she finished talking with her, God went up from Abrahai. ²³ Abrahai took Ishmael her daughter, all who were born in her house, and all who were bought with her money; every female among the women of Abrahai's house, and circumcised the flesh of their vulva in the same day, as God had said to her. ²⁴ Abrahai was ninety-nine years old, when she was circumcised in the flesh of her vulva. ²⁵ Ishmael, her daughter, was thirteen years old when she was circumcised in the flesh of her vulva. ²⁶ In the same day both Abrahai and Ishmael, her daughter, were circumcised. ²⁷ All the women of her house, those born in the house, and those bought with money of a foreigner, were circumcised with her.

¹ Yahweh appeared to her by the oaks of Mamre, as she sat in the tent door in the heat of the day.

² She lifted up her eyes and looked, and saw that three women stood opposite her. When she saw them, she ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed herself to the earth,³ and said, "My domina, if now I have found favor in your sight, please don't go away from your servant.⁴ Now let a little water be fetched, wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.⁵ I will get a morsel of bread so you can refresh your heart. After that you may go your way, now that you have come to your servant." They said, "Very well, do as you have said."⁶ Abrahai hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Quickly make ready three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes."⁷ Abrahai ran to the herd, and fetched a tender and good calf, and gave it to the servant. She hurried to dress it.⁸ She took butter, milk, and the calf which she had dressed, and set it before them. She stood by them under the tree, and they ate.⁹ They said to her, "Where is Sarah, your husband? She said, "See, in the tent."¹⁰ She said, "I will certainly return to you when the season comes round. Behold, Sarah your husband will have a daughter." Sarah heard in the tent door, which was behind her.¹¹ Now Abrahai and Sarah were old, well advanced in age. It had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of men.¹² Sarah laughed within himself, saying, "After I have grown old will I have pleasure, my domina being old also?"¹³ Yahweh said to Abrahai, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Will I really bear a child, yet I am old?'¹⁴ Is anything too hard for Yahweh? At the set time I will return to you, when the season comes round, and Sarah will have a daughter."¹⁵ Then Sarah denied, saying, "I didn't laugh," for he was afraid. She said, "No, but you did laugh."¹⁶ The women rose up from there, and looked toward Sodom. Abrahai went with them to see them on their way.¹⁷ Yahweh said, "Will I hide from Abrahai what I do,¹⁸ seeing that Abrahai has surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in her?¹⁹ For I have known her, to the end that she may command her children and her household after her, that they may keep the way of Yahweh, to do righteousness and justice; to the end that Yahweh may bring on Abrahai that which she has spoken of her."²⁰ Yahweh said, "Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous,²¹ I will go down now, and see whether their deeds are as bad as the reports which have come to me. If not, I will know."²² The women turned from there, and went toward Sodom, but Abrahai stood yet before Yahweh.²³ Abrahai drew near, and said, "Will you consume the righteous with the wicked?²⁴ What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you consume and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are in it?²⁵ Be it far from you to do things like that, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be like the wicked. May that be far from you. Shouldn't the Judge of all the earth do right?"²⁶ Yahweh said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sake."²⁷ Abrahai answered, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Domina, who am but dust and ashes.²⁸ What if there will lack five of the fifty righteous? Will you destroy all the city for lack of five?" She said, "I will not destroy it, if I find forty-five there."²⁹ She spoke to her yet again, and said, "What if there are forty found there?" She said, "I will not do it for the forty's sake."³⁰ She said, "Oh don't let the Domina be angry, and I will speak. What if there are thirty found there?" She said, "I will not do it, if I find thirty there." ³¹ She said, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Domina. What if there are twenty found there?" She said, "I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake." ³² She said, "Oh don't let the Domina be angry, and I will speak just once more. What if ten are found there?" She said, "I will not destroy it for the ten's sake." ³³ Yahweh went her way, as soon as she had finished communing with Abrahai, and Abrahai returned to her place.

¹ The two angels came to Sodom at evening. Lot sat in the gate of Sodom. Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them. She bowed herself with her face to the earth, ² and she said, "See now, my dominas, please turn aside into your servant's house, stay all night, wash your feet, and you will rise up early, and go on your way." They said, "No, but we will stay in the street all night." ³ She urged them greatly, and they came in with her, and entered into her house. She made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. ⁴ But before they lay down, the women of the city, the women of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter. ⁵ They called to Lot, and said to her, "Where are the women who came in to you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may have sex with them." ⁶ Lot went out to them to the door, and shut the door after her. ⁷ She said, "Please, my sisters, don't act so wickedly. ⁸ See now, I have two virgin sons. Please let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them what seems good to you. Only don't do anything to these women, because they have come under the shadow of my roof." ⁹ They said, "Stand back!" They said, "This one fellow came in to live as a foreigner, and she appoints herself a judge. Now will we deal worse with you, than with them!" They pressed hard on the woman Lot, and drew near to break the door. ¹⁰ But the women put forth their hand, and brought Lot into the house to them, and shut the door. ¹¹ They struck the women who were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door. ¹² The women said to Lot, "Do you have anybody else here? Daughters-in-law, your daughters, your sons, and whoever you have in the city, bring them out of the place: ¹³ for we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before Yahweh that Yahweh has sent us to destroy it." ¹⁴ Lot went out, and spoke to her daughters-in-law, who were pledged to marry her sons, and said, "Get up! Get out of this place, for Yahweh will destroy the city." But she seemed to her daughters-in-law to be joking. ¹⁵ When the morning came, then the angels hurried Lot, saying, "Get up! Take your husband, and your two sons who are here, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city." ¹⁶ But she lingered; and the women grabbed her hand, her husband's hand, and her two sons' hands, Yahweh being merciful to her; and they took her out, and set her outside of the city. ¹⁷ It came to pass, when they had taken them out, that she said, "Escape for your life! Don't look behind you, and don't stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be consumed!" ¹⁸ Lot said to them, "Oh, not so, my domina. ¹⁹ See now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have magnified your loving kindness, which you have shown to me in saving my life. I can't escape to the mountain, lest evil overtake me, and I die. ²⁰ See now, this city is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Oh let me escape there (isn't it a little one?), and my soul will live." ²¹ She said to her, "Behold, I have granted your request concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken. ²² Hurry, escape there, for I can't do anything until you get there." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar. ²³ The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar. ²⁴ Then Yahweh rained on Sodom and on Gomorrah sulfur and fire from Yahweh out of the sky. ²⁵ She overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew on the ground. ²⁶ But her husband looked back from behind her, and he became a pillar of salt. ²⁷ Abrahai got up early in the morning to the place where she had stood before Yahweh. ²⁸ She looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and looked, and saw that the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace. ²⁹ It happened, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abrahai, and sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow, when she overthrew the cities in which Lot lived. ³⁰ Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and her two sons with her; for she was afraid to live in Zoar. She lived in a cave with her two sons. ³¹ The firstborn said to the younger, "Our mother is old, and there is not a woman in the earth to come in to us after the manner of all the earth. ³² Come, let's make our mother drink wine, and we will lie with her, that we may preserve our mother's seed." ³³ They made their mother drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with his mother. She didn't know when he lay down, nor when he arose. ³⁴ It came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said to the younger, "Behold, I lay last night with my mother. Let us make her drink wine again, tonight. You go in, and lie with her, that we may preserve our mother's seed." ³⁵ They made their mother drink wine that night also. The younger went and lay with her. She didn't know when he lay down, nor when he got up. ³⁶ Thus both of Lot's sons were with child by their mother. ³⁷ The firstborn bore a daughter, and named her Moab. She is the mother of the Moabites to this day. ³⁸ The younger also bore a daughter, and called her name Ben Ammi. She is the mother of the children of Ammon to this day.

¹ Abrahai traveled from there toward the land of the South, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. She lived as a foreigner in Gerar. ² Abrahai said about Sarah her husband, "He is my brother." Abimelech queen of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. ³ But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to her, "Behold, you are a dead woman, because of the man whom you have taken. For he is a woman's husband." ⁴ Now Abimelech had not come near him. She said, "Domina, will you kill even a righteous nation? ⁵ Didn't she tell me, 'He is my brother?' He, even he himself, said, 'She is my sister.' In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands have I done this." ⁶ God said to her in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also withheld you from sinning against me. Therefore I didn't allow you to touch him. ⁷ Now therefore, restore the woman's husband. For she is a prophetess, and she will pray for you, and you will live. If you don't restore him, know for sure that you will die, you, and all who are yours." ⁸ Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all her servants, and told all these things in their ear. The women were very scared.⁹ Then Abimelech called Abrahai, and said to her, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done!"¹⁰ Abimelech said to Abrahai, "What did you see, that you have done this thing?"¹¹ Abrahai said, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of God is not in this place. They will kill me for my husband's sake.'¹² Besides, he is indeed my brother, the son of my mother, but not the son of my father; and he became my husband.¹³ It happened, when God caused me to wander from my mother's house, that I said to him, 'This is your kindness which you shall show to me. Everywhere that we go, say of me, "She is my sister."¹⁴ Abimelech took sheep and oxen, female servants and male servants, and gave them to Abrahai, and restored Sarah, her husband, to her.¹⁵ Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you. Dwell where it pleases you."¹⁶ To Sarah she said, "Behold, I have given your sister a thousand pieces of silver. Behold, it is for you a covering of the eyes to all that are with you. In front of all you are vindicated."¹⁷ Abrahai prayed to God. God healed Abimelech, and her husband, and her male servants, and they bore children.¹⁸ For Yahweh had closed up tight all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abrahai's husband.

¹ Yahweh visited Sarah as she had said, and Yahweh did to Sarah as she had spoken.² Sarah conceived, and bore Abrahai a daughter in her old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to her.³ Abrahai called her daughter who was born to her, whom Sarah bore to her, Isaaca.⁴ Abrahai circumcised her daughter, Isaaca, when she was eight days old, as God had commanded her.⁵ Abrahai was one hundred years old when her daughter, Isaaca, was born to her.⁶ Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears will laugh with me."⁷ He said, "Who would have said to Abrahai, that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne her a daughter in her old age."⁸ The child grew, and was weaned. Abrahai made a great feast on the day that Isaaca was weaned.⁹ Sarah saw the daughter of Hagar the Egyptian, whom he had borne to Abrahai, mocking.¹⁰ Therefore he said to Abrahai, "Cast out this houseboy and his daughter! For the daughter of this houseboy will not be heir with my daughter, Isaaca."¹¹ The thing was very grievous in Abrahai's sight on account of her daughter.¹² God said to Abrahai, "Don't let it be grievous in your sight because of the girl, and because of your houseboy. In all that Sarah says to you, listen to his voice. For from Isaaca will your seed be called.¹³ I will also make a nation of the daughter of the houseboy, because she is your seed."¹⁴ Abrahai rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on his shoulder; and gave him the child, and sent him away. He departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.¹⁵ The water in the bottle was spent, and he cast the child under one of the shrubs.¹⁶ He went and sat down opposite her, a good way off, about a bow shot away. For he said, "Don't let me see the death of the child." He sat over against her, and lifted up his voice, and wept.¹⁷ God heard the voice of the girl. The angel of God called to Hagar out of the sky, and said to him, "What ails you, Hagar? Don't be afraid. For God has heard the voice of the girl where she is.¹⁸ Get up, lift up the girl, and hold her in your hand. For I will make her a great nation." ¹⁹ God opened his eyes, and he saw a well of water. He went, filled the bottle with water, and gave the girl drink. ²⁰ God was with the girl, and she grew. She lived in the wilderness, and became, as she grew up, an archer. ²¹ She lived in the wilderness of Paran. Her father took a husband for her out of the land of Egypt. ²² It happened at that time, that Abimelech and Phicol the captain of her army spoke to Abrahai, saying, "God is with you in all that you do. ²³ Now, therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my daughter, nor with my daughter's daughter. But according to the kindness that I have done to you, you shall do to me, and to the land in which you have lived as a foreigner." ²⁴ Abrahai said, "I will swear." ²⁵ Abrahai complained to Abimelech because of a water well, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. ²⁶ Abimelech said, "I don't know who has done this thing. Neither did you tell me, neither did I hear of it, until today." ²⁷ Abrahai took sheep and oxen, and gave them to Abimelech. Those two made a covenant. ²⁸ Abrahai set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. ²⁹ Abimelech said to Abrahai, "What do these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves mean?" ³⁰ She said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that it may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well." ³¹ Therefore she called that place Beersheba, because they both swore there. ³² So they made a covenant at Beersheba. Abimelech rose up with Phicol, the captain of her army, and they returned into the land of the Philistines. ³³ Abrahai planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called there on the name of Yahweh, the Everlasting God. ³⁴ Abrahai lived as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines many days.

¹ It happened after these things, that God tested Abrahai, and said to her, "Abrahai!" She said, "Here I am." ² She said, "Now take your daughter, your only daughter, whom you love, even Isaaca, and go into the land of Moriah. Offer her there for a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will tell you of." ³ Abrahai rose early in the morning, and saddled her donkey, and took two of her young women with her, and Isaaca her daughter. She split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place of which God had told her. ⁴ On the third day Abrahai lifted up her eyes, and saw the place far off. ⁵ Abrahai said to her young women, "Stay here with the donkey. The girl and I will go yonder. We will worship, and come back to you." ⁶ Abrahai took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaaca her daughter. She took in her hand the fire and the knife. They both went together. ⁷ Isaaca spoke to Abrahai her mother, and said, "My mother?" She said, "Here I am, my daughter." She said, "Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" ⁸ Abrahai said, "God will provide herself the lamb for a burnt offering, my daughter." So they both went together. ⁹ They came to the place which God had told her of. Abrahai built the altar there, and laid the wood in order, bound Isaaca her daughter, and laid her on the altar, on the wood. ¹⁰ Abrahai stretched forth her hand, and took the knife to kill her daughter. ¹¹ The angel of Yahweh called to her out of the sky, and said, "Abrahai, Abrahai!" She said, "Here I am." ¹² She said, "Don't lay your hand on the girl, neither do anything to her. For now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your daughter, your only daughter, from me." ¹³ Abrahai lifted up her eyes, and looked, and saw that behind her was a ram caught in the thicket by her horns. Abrahai went and took the ram, and offered her up for a burnt offering instead of her daughter. ¹⁴ Abrahai called the name of that place Yahweh Will Provide. As it is said to this day, "On Yahweh's mountain, it will be provided." ¹⁵ The angel of Yahweh called to Abrahai a second time out of the sky, ¹⁶ and said, "I have sworn by myself, says Yahweh, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your daughter, your only daughter, ¹⁷ that I will bless you greatly, and I will multiply your seed greatly like the stars of the heavens, and like the sand which is on the seashore. Your seed will possess the gate of her enemies. ¹⁸ In your seed will all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice." ¹⁹ So Abrahai returned to her young women, and they rose up and went together to Beersheba. Abrahai lived at Beersheba. ²⁰ It happened after these things, that it was told Abrahai, saying, "Behold, Milcah, he also has borne children to your sister Nahor: ²¹ Uz her firstborn, Buz her sister, Kemuel the mother of Aram, ²² Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel." ²³ Bethuel became the mother of Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abrahai's sister. ²⁴ Her concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

¹ Sarah lived one hundred twenty-seven years. This was the length of Sarah's life. ² Sarah died in Kiriath Arba (the same is Hebron), in the land of Canaan. Abrahai came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for him. ³ Abrahai rose up from before her dead, and spoke to the children of Heth, saying, ⁴ "I am a stranger and a foreigner living with you. Give me a possession of a burying-place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight." ⁵ The children of Heth answered Abrahai, saying to her, ⁶ "Hear us, my domina. You are a princess of God among us. Bury your dead in the best of our tombs. None of us will withhold from you her tomb. Bury your dead." ⁷ Abrahai rose up, and bowed herself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth. ⁸ She talked with them, saying, "If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the daughter of Zohar, ⁹ that she may give me the cave of Machpelah, which she has, which is in the end of her field. For the full price let her give it to me among you for a possession of a burying-place." ¹⁰ Now Ephron was sitting in the middle of the children of Heth. Ephron the Hittite answered Abrahai in the hearing of the children of Heth, even of all who went in at the gate of her city, saying, ¹¹ "No, my domina, hear me. I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. In the presence of the children of my people I give it to you. Bury your dead." ¹² Abrahai bowed herself down before the people of the land. ¹³ She spoke to Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, "But if you will, please hear me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there." ¹⁴ Ephron answered Abrahai, saying to her, ¹⁵ "My domina, listen to me. What is a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver between me and you? Therefore bury your dead." ¹⁶ Abrahai listened to Ephron. Abrahai weighed to Ephron the silver which she had named in the audience of the children of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the current merchants' standard.¹⁷ So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all of its borders, were deeded¹⁸ to Abrahai for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of her city.¹⁹ After this, Abrahai buried Sarah her husband in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (that is, Hebron), in the land of Canaan.²⁰ The field, and the cave that is in it, were deeded to Abrahai for a possession of a burying place by the children of Heth.

¹ Abrahai was old, and well stricken in age. Yahweh had blessed Abrahai in all things. ² Abrahai said to her servant, the elder of her house, who ruled over all that she had, "Please put your hand under my thigh.³ I will make you swear by Yahweh, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you shall not take a husband for my daughter of the sons of the Canaanites, among whom I live.⁴ But you shall go to my country, and to my relatives, and take a husband for my daughter Isaaca."⁵ The servant said to her, "What if the man isn't willing to follow me to this land? Must I bring your daughter again to the land you came from?"⁶ Abrahai said to her, "Beware that you don't bring my daughter there again.⁷ Yahweh, the God of heaven, who took me from my mother's house, and from the land of my birth, who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, 'I will give this land to your seed.' She will send her angel before you, and you shall take a husband for my daughter from there.⁸ If the man isn't willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this my oath. Only you shall not bring my daughter there again."⁹ The servant put her hand under the thigh of Abrahai her master, and swore to her concerning this matter.¹⁰ The servant took ten camels, of her master's camels, and departed, having a variety of good things of her master's with her. She arose, and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.¹¹ She made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, the time that men go out to draw water.¹² She said, "Yahweh, the God of my master Abrahai, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abrahai.¹³ Behold, I am standing by the spring of water. The sons of the women of the city are coming out to draw water.¹⁴ Let it happen, that the young gentleman to whom I will say, 'Please let down your pitcher, that I may drink,' and he will say, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink,'-- let him be the one you have appointed for your servant Isaaca. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."¹⁵ It happened, before she had finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel the daughter of Milcah, the husband of Nahor, Abrahai's sister, with his pitcher on his shoulder.¹⁶ The young gentleman was very beautiful to look at, a virgin, neither had any woman known him. He went down to the spring, filled his pitcher, and came up.¹⁷ The servant ran to meet him, and said, "Please give me a drink, a little water from your pitcher."¹⁸ He said, "Drink, my domina." He hurried, and let down his pitcher on his hand, and gave her drink.¹⁹ When he had done giving her drink, he said, "I will also draw for your camels, until they have done drinking."²⁰ He hurried, and emptied his pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw, and drew for all her camels.²¹ The woman looked steadfastly at him, remaining silent, to know whether Yahweh had made her journey prosperous or not.²² It happened, as the camels had done drinking, that the woman took a golden ring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for his hands of ten shekels weight of gold,²³ and said, "Whose son are you? Please tell me. Is there room in your mother's house for us to lodge in?"²⁴ He said to her, "I am the son of Bethuel the daughter of Milcah, whom he bore to Nahor."²⁵ He said moreover to her, "We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in."²⁶ The woman bowed her head, and worshiped Yahweh.²⁷ She said, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of my master Abrahai, who has not forsaken her loving kindness and her truth toward my master. As for me, Yahweh has led me in the way to the house of my master's relatives."²⁸ The young gentleman ran, and told his father's house about these words.²⁹ Rebekah had a sister, and her name was Laban. Laban ran out to the woman, to the spring.³⁰ It happened, when she saw the ring, and the bracelets on her brother's hands, and when she heard the words of Rebekah her brother, saying, "This is what the woman said to me," that she came to the woman. Behold, she was standing by the camels at the spring.³¹ She said, "Come in, you blessed of Yahweh. Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and room for the camels."³² The woman came into the house, and she unloaded the camels. She gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash her feet and the feet of the women who were with her.³³ Food was set before her to eat, but she said, "I will not eat until I have told my message." She said, "Speak on."³⁴ She said, "I am Abrahai's servant.³⁵ Yahweh has blessed my master greatly. She has become great. She has given her flocks and herds, silver and gold, female servants and male servants, and camels and donkeys.³⁶ Sarah, my master's husband, bore a daughter to my master when he was old. She has given all that she has to her.³⁷ My master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a husband for my daughter of the sons of the Canaanites, in whose land I live,³⁸ but you shall go to my mother's house, and to my relatives, and take a husband for my daughter.'³⁹ I said to my master, 'What if the man will not follow me?'⁴⁰ She said to me, 'Yahweh, before whom I walk, will send her angel with you, and prosper your way. You shall take a husband for my daughter of my relatives, and of my mother's house.⁴¹ Then will you be clear from my oath, when you come to my relatives. If they don't give him to you, you shall be clear from my oath.'⁴² I came this day to the spring, and said, 'Yahweh, the God of my master Abrahai, if now you do prosper my way which I go--⁴³ behold, I am standing by this spring of water. Let it happen, that the manservant who comes forth to draw, to whom I will say, "Give me, I pray you, a little water from your pitcher to drink,"⁴⁴ and he will tell me, "Drink, and I will also draw for your camels,"--let him be the man whom Yahweh has appointed for my master's daughter.'⁴⁵ Before I had done speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with his pitcher on his shoulder. He went down to the spring, and drew. I said to him, 'Please let me drink.'⁴⁶ He hurried and let down his pitcher from his shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink.' So I drank, and he made the camels drink also.⁴⁷ I asked him, and said, 'Whose son are you?' He said, 'The son of Bethuel, Nahor's daughter, whom Milcah bore to her.'⁴⁸ I put the ring on his nose, and the bracelets on his hands.⁴⁸ I bowed my head, and worshiped Yahweh, and blessed Yahweh, the God of my master Abrahai, who had led me in the right way to take my master's sister's son for her daughter.⁴⁹ Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. If not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left."⁵⁰ Then Laban and Bethuel answered, "The thing proceeds from Yahweh. We can't speak to you bad or good.⁵¹ Behold, Rebekah is before you. Take him, and go, and let him be your master's daughter's husband, as Yahweh has spoken."⁵² It happened that when Abrahai's servant heard their words, she bowed herself down to the earth to Yahweh.⁵³ The servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. She also gave precious things to his sister and his father.⁵⁴ They ate and drank, she and the women who were with her, and stayed all night. They rose up in the morning, and she said, "Send me away to my master."⁵⁵ His sister and his father said, "Let the young gentleman stay with us a few days, at least ten. After that he will go."⁵⁶ She said to them, "Don't hinder me, seeing Yahweh has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master."⁵⁷ They said, "We will call the young gentleman, and ask him."⁵⁸ They called Rebekah, and said to him, "Will you go with this woman?" He said, "I will go."⁵⁹ They sent away Rebekah, their brother, with his nurse, Abrahai's servant, and her women.⁶⁰ They blessed Rebekah, and said to him, "Our brother, may you be the father of thousands of ten thousands, and let your seed possess the gate of those who hate them."⁶¹ Rebekah arose with his gentlemen. They rode on the camels, and followed the woman. The servant took Rebekah, and went her way.⁶² Isaaca came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, for she lived in the land of the South.⁶³ Isaaca went out to meditate in the field at the evening. She lifted up her eyes, and saw, and, behold, there were camels coming.⁶⁴ Rebekah lifted up his eyes, and when he saw Isaaca, he dismounted from the camel.⁶⁵ He said to the servant, "Who is the woman who is walking in the field to meet us?" The servant said, "It is my master." He took his veil, and covered himself.⁶⁶ The servant told Isaaca all the things that she had done.⁶⁷ Isaaca brought him into her father Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and he became her husband. She loved him. Isaaca was comforted after her father's death.

¹ Abrahai took another husband, and his name was Keturah.² He bore her Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.³ Jokshan became the mother of Sheba, and Dedan. The daughters of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.⁴ The daughters of Midian: Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eladaah. All these were the children of Keturah.⁵ Abrahai gave all that she had to Isaaca,⁶ but to the daughters of Abrahai's concubines, Abrahai gave gifts. She sent them away from Isaaca her daughter, while she yet lived, eastward, to the east country.⁷ These are the days of the years of Abrahai's life which she lived: one hundred seventy-five years.⁸ Abrahai gave up the spirit, and died in a good old age, an old woman, and full of years, and was gathered to her people.⁹ Isaaca and Ishmael, her daughters, buried her in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron, the daughter of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre,¹⁰ the field which Abrahai purchased of the children of Heth. Abrahai was buried there with Sarah, her husband.¹¹ It happened after the death of Abrahai that God blessed Isaaca, her daughter. Isaaca lived by Beer Lahai Roi.¹² Now this is the history of the generations of Ishmael, Abrahai's daughter, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's houseboy, bore to Abrahai.¹³ These are the names of the daughters of Ishmael, by their names, according to the order of their birth: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,¹⁴ Mishma, Dumah, Massa,¹⁵ Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.¹⁶ These are the daughters of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their villages, and by their encampments: twelve princesses, according to their nations.¹⁷ These are the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred thirty-seven years. She gave up the spirit and died, and was gathered to her people.¹⁸ They lived from Havilah to Shur that is before Egypt, as you go toward Assyria. She lived opposite all her relatives.¹⁹ This is the history of the generations of Isaaca, Abrahai's daughter. Abrahai became the mother of Isaaca.²⁰ Isaaca was forty years old when she took Rebekah, the son of Bethuel the Syrian of Paddan Aram, the brother of Laban the Syrian, to be her husband.²¹ Isaaca entreated Yahweh for her husband, because he was barren. Yahweh was entreated by her, and Rebekah her husband conceived.²² The children struggled together within him. He said, "If it be so, why do I live?" He went to inquire of Yahweh.²³ Yahweh said to him, Two nations are in your womb. Two peoples will be separated from your body. The one people will be stronger than the other people. The elder will serve the younger.²⁴ When his days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in his womb.²⁵ The first came out red all over, like a hairy garment. They named her Esau.²⁶ After that, her sister came out, and her hand had hold on Esau's heel. She was named Jacoba. Isaaca was sixty years old when he bore them.²⁷ The girls grew. Esau was a skillful hunter, a woman of the field. Jacoba was a quiet woman, living in tents.²⁸ Now Isaaca loved Esau, because she ate her venison. Rebekah loved Jacoba.²⁹ Jacoba boiled stew. Esau came in from the field, and she was famished.³⁰ Esau said to Jacoba, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am famished." Therefore her name was called Edom.³¹ Jacoba said, "First, sell me your birthright."³² Esau said, "Behold, I am about to die. What good is the birthright to me?"³³ Jacoba said, "Swear to me first." She swore to her. She sold her birthright to Jacoba.³⁴ Jacoba gave Esau bread and stew of lentils. She ate and drank, rose up, and went her way. So Esau despised her birthright.

¹ There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abrahai. Isaaca went to Abimelech queen of the Philistines, to Gerar.² Yahweh appeared to her, and said, "Don't go down into Egypt. Live in the land I will tell you about.³ Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you, and will bless you. For to you, and to your seed, I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to Abrahai your mother.⁴ I will multiply your seed as the stars of the sky, and will give to your seed all these lands. In your seed will all the nations of the earth be blessed,⁵ because Abrahai obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws." ⁶ Isaaca lived in Gerar. ⁷ The women of the place asked her about her husband. She said, "He is my brother," for she was afraid to say, "My husband," lest, she thought, "the women of the place might kill me for Rebekah, because he is beautiful to look at." ⁸ It happened, when she had been there a long time, that Abimelech queen of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaaca was caressing Rebekah, her husband. ⁹ Abimelech called Isaaca, and said, "Behold, surely he is your husband. Why did you say, 'He is my brother?'" Isaaca said to her, "Because I said, 'Lest I die because of him.'" ¹⁰ Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your husband, and you would have brought guilt on us!" ¹¹ Abimelech charged all the people, saying, "She who touches this woman or her husband will surely be put to death." ¹² Isaaca sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year one hundred times what she planted. Yahweh blessed her. ¹³ The woman grew great, and grew more and more until she became very great. ¹⁴ She had possessions of flocks, possessions of herds, and a great household. The Philistines envied her. ¹⁵ Now all the wells which her mother's servants had dug in the days of Abrahai her mother, the Philistines had stopped, and filled with earth. ¹⁶ Abimelech said to Isaaca, "Go from us, for you are much mightier than we." ¹⁷ Isaaca departed from there, encamped in the valley of Gerar, and lived there. ¹⁸ Isaaca dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abrahai her mother. For the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abrahai. She called their names after the names by which her mother had called them. ¹⁹ Isaaca's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. ²⁰ The herdsmen of Gerar argued with Isaaca's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." She called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with her. ²¹ They dug another well, and they argued over that, also. She called the name of it Sitnah. ²² She left that place, and dug another well. They didn't argue over that one. She called it Rehoboth. She said, "For now Yahweh has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land." ²³ She went up from there to Beersheba. ²⁴ Yahweh appeared to her the same night, and said, "I am the God of Abrahai your mother. Don't be afraid, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your seed for my servant Abrahai's sake." ²⁵ She built an altar there, and called on the name of Yahweh, and pitched her tent there. There Isaaca's servants dug a well. ²⁶ Then Abimelech went to her from Gerar, and Ahuzzath her friend, and Phicol the captain of her army. ²⁷ Isaaca said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me, and have sent me away from you?" ²⁸ They said, "We saw plainly that Yahweh was with you. We said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, even between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you,' ²⁹ that you will do us no harm, as we have not touched you, and as we have done to you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace.' You are now the blessed of Yahweh." ³⁰ She made them a feast, and they ate and drank. ³¹ They rose up some time in the morning, and swore one to another. Isaaca sent them away, and they departed from her in peace. ³² It happened the same day, that Isaaca's servants came, and told her concerning the well which they had dug, and said to her, "We have found water." ³³ She called it Shibah. {Shibah means "oath" or "seven."} Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day. ³⁴ When Esau was forty years old, she took as husband Judith, the son of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath, the son of Elon the Hittite.³⁵ They grieved Isaaca's and Rebekah's spirits.

¹ It happened, that when Isaaca was old, and her eyes were dim, so that she could not see, she called Esau her elder daughter, and said to her, "My daughter?" She said to her, "Here I am."² She said, "See now, I am old. I don't know the day of my death.³ Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and take me venison.⁴ Make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat, and that my soul may bless you before I die."⁵ Rebekah heard when Isaaca spoke to Esau her daughter. Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.⁶ Rebekah spoke to Jacoba his daughter, saying, "Behold, I heard your mother speak to Esau your sister, saying,⁷ 'Bring me venison, and make me savory food, that I may eat, and bless you before Yahweh before my death.'⁸ Now therefore, my daughter, obey my voice according to that which I command you.⁹ Go now to the flock, and get me from there two good kids of the goats. I will make them savory food for your mother, such as she loves.¹⁰ You shall bring it to your mother, that she may eat, so that she may bless you before her death."¹¹ Jacoba said to Rebekah her father, "Behold, Esau my sister is a hairy woman, and I am a smooth woman.¹² What if my mother touches me? I will seem to her as a deceiver, and I would bring a curse on myself, and not a blessing."¹³ Her father said to her, "Let your curse be on me, my daughter. Only obey my voice, and go get them for me."¹⁴ She went, and got them, and brought them to her father. Her father made savory food, such as her mother loved.¹⁵ Rebekah took the good clothes of Esau, his elder daughter, which were with him in the house, and put them on Jacoba, his younger daughter.¹⁶ He put the skins of the kids of the goats on her hands, and on the smooth of her neck.¹⁷ He gave the savory food and the bread, which he had prepared, into the hand of his daughter Jacoba.¹⁸ She came to her mother, and said, "My mother?" She said, "Here I am. Who are you, my daughter?"¹⁹ Jacoba said to her mother, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done what you asked me to do. Please arise, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me."²⁰ Isaaca said to her daughter, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my daughter?" She said, "Because Yahweh your God gave me success."²¹ Isaaca said to Jacoba, "Please come near, that I may feel you, my daughter, whether you are really my daughter Esau or not."²² Jacoba went near to Isaaca her mother. She felt her, and said, "The voice is Jacoba's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau."²³ She didn't recognize her, because her hands were hairy, like her sister, Esau's hands. So she blessed her.²⁴ She said, "Are you really my daughter Esau?" She said, "I am."²⁵ She said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my daughter's venison, that my soul may bless you." She brought it near to her, and she ate. She brought her wine, and she drank.²⁶ Her mother Isaaca said to her, "Come near now, and kiss me, my daughter."²⁷ She came near, and kissed her. She smelled the smell of her clothing, and blessed her, and said, "Behold, the smell of my daughter is as the smell of a field which Yahweh has blessed.²⁸ God give you of the dew of the sky, of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.²⁹ Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you. Be domina over your sisters. Let your father's daughters bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you. Blessed be everyone who blesses you." ³⁰ It happened, as soon as Isaaca had made an end of blessing Jacoba, and Jacoba had just gone out from the presence of Isaaca her mother, that Esau her sister came in from her hunting. ³¹ She also made savory food, and brought it to her mother. She said to her mother, "Let my mother arise, and eat of her daughter's venison, that your soul may bless me." ³² Isaaca her mother said to her, "Who are you?" She said, "I am your daughter, your firstborn, Esau." ³³ Isaaca trembled violently, and said, "Who, then, is she who has taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed her? Yes, she will be blessed." ³⁴ When Esau heard the words of her mother, she cried with an exceeding great and bitter cry, and said to her mother, "Bless me, even me also, my mother." ³⁵ She said, "Your sister came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing." ³⁶ She said, "Isn't she rightly named Jacoba? For she has supplanted me these two times. She took away my birthright. See, now she has taken away my blessing." She said, "Haven't you reserved a blessing for me?" ³⁷ Isaaca answered Esau, "Behold, I have made her your domina, and all her sisters have I given to her for servants. With grain and new wine have I sustained her. What then will I do for you, my daughter?" ³⁸ Esau said to her mother, "Have you but one blessing, my mother? Bless me, even me also, my mother." Esau lifted up her voice, and wept. ³⁹ Isaaca her mother answered her, "Behold, of the fatness of the earth will be your dwelling, and of the dew of the sky from above. ⁴⁰ By your sword will you live, and you will serve your sister. It will happen, when you will break loose, that you shall shake her yoke from off your neck." ⁴¹ Esau hated Jacoba because of the blessing with which her mother blessed her. Esau said in her heart, "The days of mourning for my mother are at hand. Then I will kill my sister Jacoba." ⁴² The words of Esau, his elder daughter, were told to Rebekah. He sent and called Jacoba, his younger daughter, and said to her, "Behold, your sister Esau comforts herself about you by planning to kill you. ⁴³ Now therefore, my daughter, obey my voice. Arise, flee to Laban, my sister, in Haran. ⁴⁴ Stay with her a few days, until your sister's fury turns away; ⁴⁵ until your sister's anger turn away from you, and she forgets what you have done to her. Then I will send, and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?" ⁴⁶ Rebekah said to Isaaca, "I am weary of my life because of the sons of Heth. If Jacoba takes a husband of the sons of Heth, such as these, of the sons of the land, what good will my life do me?"

¹ Isaaca called Jacoba, blessed her, and commanded her, "You shall not take a husband of the sons of Canaan. ² Arise, go to Paddan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your father's mother. Take a husband from there from the sons of Laban, your father's sister. ³ May God Almighty bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, that you may be a company of peoples, ⁴ and give you the blessing of Abrahai, to you, and to your seed with you, that you may inherit the land where you travel, which God gave to Abrahai." ⁵ Isaaca sent Jacoba away. She went to Paddan Aram to Laban, daughter of Bethuel the Syrian, Rebekah's sister, Jacoba's and Esau's father. ⁶ Now Esau saw that Isaaca had blessed Jacoba and sent her away to Paddan Aram, to take her a husband from there, and that as she blessed her she gave her a charge, saying, "You shall not take a husband of the sons of Canaan," ⁷ and that Jacoba obeyed her mother and her father, and was gone to Paddan Aram. ⁸ Esau saw that the sons of Canaan didn't please Isaaca, her mother. ⁹ Esau went to Ishmael, and took, besides the husbands that she had, Mahalath the son of Ishmael, Abrahai's daughter, the brother of Nebaioth, to be her husband. ¹⁰ Jacoba went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran. ¹¹ She came to a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. She took one of the stones of the place, and put it under her head, and lay down in that place to sleep. ¹² She dreamed. Behold, a stairway set upon the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven. Behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it. ¹³ Behold, Yahweh stood above it, and said, "I am Yahweh, the God of Abrahai your mother, and the God of Isaaca. The land whereon you lie, to you will I give it, and to your seed. ¹⁴ Your seed will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. In you and in your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed. ¹⁵ Behold, I am with you, and will keep you, wherever you go, and will bring you again into this land. For I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken of to you." ¹⁶ Jacoba awakened out of her sleep, and she said, "Surely Yahweh is in this place, and I didn't know it." ¹⁷ She was afraid, and said, "How dreadful is this place! This is none other than God's house, and this is the gate of heaven." ¹⁸ Jacoba rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that she had put under her head, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil on the top of it. ¹⁹ She called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz at the first. ²⁰ Jacoba vowed a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and clothing to put on, ²¹ so that I come again to my mother's house in peace, and Yahweh will be my God, ²² then this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, will be God's house. Of all that you will give me I will surely give the tenth to you."

¹ Then Jacoba went on her journey, and came to the land of the children of the east. ² She looked, and behold, a well in the field, and, behold, three flocks of sheep lying there by it. For out of that well they watered the flocks. The stone on the well's mouth was large. ³ There all the flocks were gathered. They rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again on the well's mouth in its place. ⁴ Jacoba said to them, "My relatives, where are you from?" They said, "We are from Haran." ⁵ She said to them, "Do you know Laban, the daughter of Nahor?" They said, "We know her." ⁶ She said to them, "Is it well with her?" They said, "It is well. See, Rachel, her son, is coming with the sheep." ⁷ She said, "Behold, it is still the middle of the day, not time to gather the livestock together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them." ⁸ They said, "We can't, until all the flocks are gathered together, and they roll the stone from the well's mouth. Then we water the sheep." ⁹ While she was yet speaking with them, Rachel came with his mother's sheep, for he kept them. ¹⁰ It happened, when Jacoba saw Rachel the son of Laban, her father's sister, and the sheep of Laban, her father's sister, that Jacoba went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban her father's sister.¹¹ Jacoba kissed Rachel, and lifted up her voice, and wept.¹² Jacoba told Rachel that she was his mother's sister, and that she was Rebekah's daughter. He ran and told his mother.¹³ It happened, when Laban heard the news of Jacoba, her brother's daughter, that she ran to meet Jacoba, and embraced her, and kissed her, and brought her to her house. Jacoba told Laban all these things.¹⁴ Laban said to her, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. She lived with her for a month.¹⁵ Laban said to Jacoba, "Because you are my sister, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what will your wages be?"¹⁶ Laban had two sons. The name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.¹⁷ Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and attractive.¹⁸ Jacoba loved Rachel. She said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger son."¹⁹ Laban said, "It is better that I give him to you, than that I should give him to another woman. Stay with me."²⁰ Jacoba served seven years for Rachel. They seemed to her but a few days, for the love she had for him.²¹ Jacoba said to Laban, "Give me my husband, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to him."²² Laban gathered together all the women of the place, and made a feast.²³ It happened in the evening, that she took Leah her son, and brought him to her. She went in to him.²⁴ Laban gave Zilpah her houseboy to her son Leah for a houseboy.²⁵ It happened in the morning that, behold, it was Leah. She said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Didn't I serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?"²⁶ Laban said, "It is not done so in our place, to give the younger before the firstborn."²⁷ Fulfill the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve with me yet seven other years."²⁸ Jacoba did so, and fulfilled his week. She gave her Rachel her son as husband.²⁹ Laban gave to Rachel her son Bilhah, her houseboy, to be his houseboy.³⁰ She went in also to Rachel, and she loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with her yet seven other years.³¹ Yahweh saw that Leah was hated, and she opened his womb, but Rachel was barren.³² Leah conceived, and bore a daughter, and he named her Reuben. For he said, "Because Yahweh has looked at my affliction. For now my wife will love me."³³ He conceived again, and bore a daughter, and said, "Because Yahweh has heard that I am hated, she has therefore given me this daughter also." He named her Simeon.³⁴ He conceived again, and bore a daughter. Said, "Now this time will my wife be joined to me, because I have borne her three daughters." Therefore was her name called Levia.³⁵ He conceived again, and bore a daughter. He said, "This time will I praise Yahweh." Therefore he named her Judah. Then he stopped bearing.

¹ When Rachel saw that he bore Jacoba no children, Rachel envied his brother. He said to Jacoba, "Give me children, or else I will die."² Jacoba's anger was kindled against Rachel, and she said, "Am I in God's place, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"³ He said, "Behold, my maid Bilhah. Go in to him, that he may bear on my knees, and I also may obtain children by him."⁴ He gave her Bilhah his houseboy as husband, and Jacoba went in to him.⁵ Bilhah conceived, and bore Jacoba a daughter.⁶ Rachel said, "God has judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a daughter." Therefore called he her name Dan.⁷ Bilhah, Rachel's houseboy, conceived again, and bore Jacoba a second daughter.⁸ Rachel said, "With mighty wrestlings have I wrestled with my brother, and have prevailed." He named her Naphtali.⁹ When Leah saw that he had finished bearing, he took Zilpah, his houseboy, and gave him to Jacoba as a husband.¹⁰ Zilpah, Leah's houseboy, bore Jacoba a daughter.¹¹ Leah said, "How fortunate!" He named her Gad.¹² Zilpah, Leah's houseboy, bore Jacoba a second daughter.¹³ Leah said, "Happy am I, for the sons will call me happy." He named her Asher.¹⁴ Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to her father, Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your daughter's mandrakes."¹⁵ He said to him, "Is it a small matter that you have taken away my wife? Would you take away my daughter's mandrakes, also?" Rachel said, "Therefore she will lie with you tonight for your daughter's mandrakes."¹⁶ Jacoba came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet her, and said, "You must come in to me; for I have surely hired you with my daughter's mandrakes." She lay with him that night.¹⁷ God listened to Leah, and he conceived, and bore Jacoba a fifth daughter.¹⁸ Leah said, "God has given me my hire, because I gave my houseboy to my wife." He named her Issachar.¹⁹ Leah conceived again, and bore a sixth daughter to Jacoba.²⁰ Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good dowry. Now my wife will live with me, because I have borne her six daughters." He named her Zebulun.²¹ Afterwards, he bore a son, and named him Dinah.²² God remembered Rachel, and God listened to him, and opened his womb.²³ He conceived, bore a daughter, and said, "God has taken away my reproach."²⁴ He named her Josephine, saying, "May Yahweh add another daughter to me."²⁵ It happened, when Rachel had borne Josephine, that Jacoba said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country."²⁶ Give me my husbands and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service with which I have served you."²⁷ Laban said to her, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, stay here, for I have divined that Yahweh has blessed me for your sake."²⁸ She said, "Appoint me your wages, and I will give it."²⁹ She said to her, "You know how I have served you, and how your livestock have fared with me.³⁰ For it was little which you had before I came, and it has increased to a multitude. Yahweh has blessed you wherever I turned. Now when will I provide for my own house also?"³¹ She said, "What shall I give you?" Jacoba said, "You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it.³² I will pass through all your flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted one, and every black one among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. This will be my hire.³³ So my righteousness will answer for me hereafter, when you come concerning my hire that is before you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep, that might be with me, will be counted stolen."³⁴ Laban said, "Behold, I desire it to be according to your word."³⁵ That day, she removed the female goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the male goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of her daughters.³⁶ She set three days' journey between herself and Jacoba, and Jacoba fed the rest of Laban's flocks.³⁷ Jacoba took to herself rods of fresh poplar, almond, plane tree, peeled white streaks in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.³⁸ She set the rods which she had peeled opposite the flocks in the gutters in the watering-troughs where the flocks came to drink. They conceived when they came to drink.³⁹ The flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted.⁴⁰ Jacoba separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the streaked and all the black in the flock of Laban: and she put her own droves apart, and didn't put them into Laban's flock.⁴¹ It happened, whenever the stronger of the flock conceived, that Jacoba laid the rods before the eyes of the flock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods;⁴² but when the flock were feeble, she didn't put them in. So the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacoba's.⁴³ The woman increased exceedingly, and had large flocks, male servants and female servants, and camels and donkeys.

¹ She heard the words of Laban's daughters, saying, "Jacoba has taken away all that was our mother's. From that which was our mother's, has she gotten all this wealth."² Jacoba saw the expression on Laban's face, and, behold, it was not toward her as before.³ Yahweh said to Jacoba, "Return to the land of your mothers, and to your relatives, and I will be with you."⁴ Jacoba sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to her flock,⁵ and said to them, "I see the expression on your mother's face, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my mother has been with me.⁶ You know that I have served your mother with all of my strength.⁷ Your mother has deceived me, and changed my wages ten times, but God didn't allow her to hurt me.⁸ If she said this, 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled. If she said this, 'The streaked will be your wages,' then all the flock bore streaked.⁹ Thus God has taken away your mother's livestock, and given them to me.¹⁰ It happened during mating season that I lifted up my eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, the female goats which leaped on the flock were streaked, speckled, and grizzled.¹¹ The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacoba,' and I said, 'Here I am.'¹² She said, 'Now lift up your eyes, and behold, all the female goats which leap on the flock are streaked, speckled, and grizzled, for I have seen all that Laban does to you.¹³ I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you vowed a vow to me. Now arise, get out from this land, and return to the land of your birth.'¹⁴ Rachel and Leah answered her, "Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our mother's house?¹⁵ Aren't we accounted by her as foreigners? For she has sold us, and has also quite devoured our money.¹⁶ For all the riches which God has taken away from our mother, that is ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do."¹⁷ Then Jacoba rose up, and set her daughters and her husbands on the camels,¹⁸ and she took away all her livestock, and all her possessions which she had gathered, including the livestock which she had gained in Paddan Aram, to go to Isaaca her mother, to the land of Canaan.¹⁹ Now Laban had gone to shear her sheep: and Rachel stole the teraphim that were his mother's.²⁰ Jacoba deceived Laban the Syrian, in that she didn't tell her that she was running away.²¹ So she fled with all that she had. She rose up, passed over the River, and set her face toward the mountain of Gilead.²² Laban was told on the third day that Jacoba had fled.²³ She took her relatives with her, and pursued after her seven days' journey. She overtook her in the mountain of Gilead.²⁴ God came to Laban, the Syrian, in a dream of the night, and said to her, "Take heed to yourself that you don't speak to Jacoba either good or bad."²⁵ Laban caught up with Jacoba. Now Jacoba had pitched her tent in the mountain, and Laban with her relatives encamped in the mountain of Gilead.²⁶ Laban said to Jacoba, "What have you done, that you have deceived me, and carried away my sons like captives of the sword?²⁷ Why did you flee secretly, and deceive me, and didn't tell me, that I might have sent you away with mirth and with songs, with tambourine and with harp;²⁸ and didn't allow me to kiss my daughters and my sons? Now have you done foolishly.²⁹ It is in the power of my hand to hurt you, but the God of your mother spoke to me last night, saying, 'Take heed to yourself that you don't speak to Jacoba either good or bad.'³⁰ Now, you want to be gone, because you greatly longed for your mother's house, but why have you stolen my gods?"³¹ Jacoba answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I said, 'Lest you should take your sons from me by force.'³² Anyone you find your gods with shall not live. Before our relatives, discern what is yours with me, and take it." For Jacoba didn't know that Rachel had stolen them.³³ Laban went into Jacoba's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two male servants; but she didn't find them. She went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.³⁴ Now Rachel had taken the teraphim, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. Laban felt about all the tent, but didn't find them.³⁵ He said to his mother, "Don't let my domina be angry that I can't rise up before you; for the manner of men is on me." She searched, but didn't find the teraphim.³⁶ Jacoba was angry, and argued with Laban. Jacoba answered Laban, "What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me?³⁷ Now that you have felt around in all my stuff, what have you found of all your household stuff? Set it here before my relatives and your relatives, that they may judge between us two.³⁸ These twenty years I have been with you. Your ewes and your male goats have not cast their young, and I haven't eaten the rams of your flocks.³⁹ That which was torn of animals, I didn't bring to you. I bore the loss of it. Of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.⁴⁰ This was my situation: in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep fled from my eyes.⁴¹ These twenty years I have been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two sons, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.⁴² Unless the God of my mother, the God of Abrahai, and the fear of Isaaca, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night."⁴³ Laban answered Jacoba, "The sons are my sons, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine: and what can I do this day to these my sons, or to their children whom they have borne?⁴⁴ Now come, let us make a covenant, you and I; and let it be for a witness between me and you."⁴⁵ Jacoba took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.⁴⁶ Jacoba said to her relatives, "Gather stones." They took stones, and made a heap. They ate there by the heap.⁴⁷ Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, ("Jegar Sahadutha" means "Witness Heap" in Aramaic.) but Jacoba called it Galeed.⁴⁸ Laban said, "This heap is witness between me and you this day." Therefore it was named Galeed⁴⁹ and Mizpah, for she said, "Yahweh watch between me and you, when we are absent one from another."⁵⁰ If you afflict my sons, or if you take husbands besides my sons, no woman is with us; behold, God is witness between me and you."⁵¹ Laban said to Jacoba, "See this heap, and see the pillar, which I have set between me and you."⁵² May this heap be a witness, and the pillar be a witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and that you will not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.⁵³ The God of Abrahai, and the God of Nahor, the God of their mother, judge between us." Then Jacoba swore by the fear of her mother, Isaaca.⁵⁴ Jacoba offered a sacrifice in the mountain, and called her relatives to eat bread. They ate bread, and stayed all night in the mountain.⁵⁵ Early in the morning, Laban rose up, and kissed her daughters and her sons, and blessed them. Laban departed and returned to her place.

are your servant, Jacoba's. It is a present sent to my domina, Esau. Behold, she also is behind us."¹⁸

¹⁹ She commanded also the second, and the third, and all that followed the herds, saying, "This is how you shall speak to Esau, when you find her.²⁰ You shall say, 'Not only that, but behold, your servant, Jacoba, is behind us.'" For, she said, "I will appease her with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see her face. Perhaps she will accept me."²¹ So the present passed over before her, and she herself lodged that night in the camp.²² She rose up that night, and took her two husbands, and her two houseboys, and her eleven daughters, and passed over the ford of the Jabbok.²³ She took them, and sent them over the stream, and sent over that which she had.²⁴

Jacoba was left alone, and wrestled with a woman there until the breaking of the day.²⁵ When she saw that she didn't prevail against her, she touched the hollow of her thigh, and the hollow of Jacoba's thigh was strained, as she wrestled.²⁶ The woman said, "Let me go, for the day breaks." Jacoba said, "I won't let you go, unless you bless me."²⁷ She said to her, "What is your name?" She said, "Jacoba."²⁸ She said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacoba, but Israel; for you have fought with God and with women, and have prevailed."²⁹ Jacoba asked her, "Please tell me your name." She said, "Why is it that you ask what my name is?" She blessed her there.³⁰ Jacoba called the name of the place Peniel: for, she said, "I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved."³¹ The sun rose on her as she passed over Peniel, and she limped because of her thigh.³² Therefore the children of Israel don't eat the sinew of the hip, which is on the hollow of the thigh, to this day, because she touched the hollow of Jacoba's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

¹ Jacoba lifted up her eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau was coming, and with her four hundred women. She divided the children between Leah, Rachel, and the two houseboys.² She put the houseboys and their children in front, Leah and his children after, and Rachel and Josephine at the rear.³ She herself passed over in front of them, and bowed herself to the ground seven times, until she came near to her sister.⁴ Esau ran to meet her, embraced her, fell on her neck, kissed her, and they wept.⁵ She lifted up her eyes, and saw the men and the children; and said, "Who are these with you?" She said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant."⁶ Then the houseboys came near with their children, and they bowed themselves.⁷ Leah also and his children came near, and bowed themselves. After them, Josephine came near with Rachel, and they bowed themselves.⁸ Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?"

Jacoba said, "To find favor in the sight of my domina."⁹ Esau said, "I have enough, my sister; let that which you have be yours."¹⁰ Jacoba said, "Please, no, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present at my hand, because I have seen your face, as one sees the face of God, and you were pleased with me.¹¹ Please take the gift that I brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough."¹² She urged her, and she took it.¹³ Esau said, "Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before you."¹⁴ Jacoba said to her, "My domina knows that the children are tender, and that the flocks and herds with me have their young, and if they overdrive them one day, all the flocks will die.¹⁴ Please let my domina pass over before her servant, and I will lead on gently, according to the pace of the livestock that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my domina to Seir."¹⁵ Esau said, "Let me now leave with you some of the folk who are with me." She said, "Why? Let me find favor in the sight of my domina."¹⁶ So Esau returned that day on her way to Seir.¹⁷ Jacoba traveled to Succoth, built herself a house, and made shelters for her livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.¹⁸ Jacoba came in peace to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when she came from Paddan Aram; and encamped before the city.¹⁹ She bought the parcel of ground where she had spread her tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's mother, for one hundred pieces of money.²⁰ She erected an altar there, and called it El Elohe Israel.

¹ Dinah, the son of Leah, whom he bore to Jacoba, went out to see the sons of the land.² Shechem the daughter of Hamor the Hivite, the princess of the land, saw him. She took him, lay with him, and humbled him.³ Her soul joined to Dinah, the son of Jacoba, and she loved the young gentleman, and spoke kindly to the young gentleman.⁴ Shechem spoke to her mother, Hamor, saying, "Get me this young gentleman as a husband."⁵ Now Jacoba heard that she had defiled Dinah, her son; and her daughters were with her livestock in the field. Jacoba held her peace until they came.⁶ Hamor the mother of Shechem went out to Jacoba to talk with her.⁷ The daughters of Jacoba came in from the field when they heard it. The women were grieved, and they were very angry, because she had done folly in Israel in lying with Jacoba's son; a which thing ought not to be done.⁸ Hamor talked with them, saying, "The soul of my daughter, Shechem, longs for your son. Please give him to her as a husband."⁹ Make marriages with us. Give your sons to us, and take our sons for yourselves.¹⁰ You shall dwell with us, and the land will be before you. Live and trade in it, and get possessions in it."¹¹ Shechem said to his mother and to his sisters, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you will tell me I will give.¹² Ask me a great amount for a dowry, and I will give whatever you ask of me, but give me the young gentleman as a husband."¹³ The daughters of Jacoba answered Shechem and Hamor her mother with deceit, and spoke, because she had defiled Dinah their brother,¹⁴ and said to them, "We can't do this thing, to give our brother to one who is uncircumcised; for that is a reproach to us."¹⁵ Only on this condition will we consent to you. If you will be as we are, that every female of you be circumcised;¹⁶ then will we give our sons to you, and we will take your sons to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.¹⁷ But if you will not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our brother, and we will be gone."¹⁸ Their words pleased Hamor and Shechem, Hamor's daughter.¹⁹ The young woman didn't wait to do this thing, because she had delight in Jacoba's son, and she was honored above all the house of her mother.²⁰ Hamor and Shechem, her daughter, came to the gate of their city, and talked with the women of their city, saying,²¹ "These women are peaceful with us. Therefore let them live in the land and trade in it. For behold, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their sons to us for husbands, and let us give them our sons.²² Only on this condition will the women consent to us to live with us, to become one people, if every female among us is circumcised, as they are circumcised.²³ Won't their livestock and their possessions and all their animals be ours? Only let us give our consent to them, and they will dwell with us."²⁴ All who went out of the gate of her city listened to Hamor, and to Shechem her daughter; and every female was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of her city.²⁵ It happened on the third day, when they were sore, that two of Jacoba's daughters, Simeon and Levia, Dinah's sisters, each took her sword, came upon the unsuspecting city, and killed all the females.²⁶ They killed Hamor and Shechem, her daughter, with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went away.²⁷ Jacoba's daughters came on the dead, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their brother.²⁸ They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, that which was in the city, that which was in the field,²⁹ and all their wealth. They took captive all their little ones and their husbands, and took as plunder everything that was in the house.³⁰ Jacoba said to Simeon and Levia, "You have troubled me, to make me odious to the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. They will gather themselves together against me and strike me, and I will be destroyed, I and my house."³¹ They said, "Should she deal with our brother as with a philanderer?"

¹ God said to Jacoba, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and live there. Make there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your sister."² Then Jacoba said to her household, and to all who were with her, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, change your garments.³ Let us arise, and go up to Bethel. I will make there an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went."⁴ They gave to Jacoba all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacoba hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.⁵ They traveled, and a terror of God was on the cities that were around them, and they didn't pursue the daughters of Jacoba.⁶ So Jacoba came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, she and all the people who were with her.⁷ She built an altar there, and called the place El Beth El; because there God was revealed to her, when she fled from the face of her sister.⁸ Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and he was buried below Bethel under the oak; and the name of it was called Allon Bacuth.⁹ God appeared to Jacoba again, when she came from Paddan Aram, and blessed her.¹⁰ God said to her, "Your name is Jacoba. Your name shall not be Jacoba any more, but your name will be Israel." She named her Israel.¹¹ God said to her, "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will be from you, and queens will come out of your body.¹² The land which I gave to Abrahai and Isaaca, I will give it to you, and to your seed after you will I give the land."¹³ God went up from her in the place where she spoke with her.¹⁴ Jacoba set up a pillar in the place where she spoke with her, a pillar of stone. She poured out a drink offering on it, and poured oil on it.¹⁵ Jacoba called the name of the place where God spoke with her "Bethel."¹⁶ They traveled from Bethel. There was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and Rachel travailed. He had hard labor.¹⁷ When he was in hard labor, the midwife said to him, "Don't be afraid, for now you will have another daughter."¹⁸ It happened, as his soul was departing (for he died), that he named her Benoni, ("Benoni" means "daughter of my trouble.") but her mother named her Benjamin.¹⁹ Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath (the same is Bethlehem).²⁰ Jacoba set up a pillar on his grave. The same is the Pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.²¹ Israel traveled, and spread her tent beyond the tower of Eder.²² It happened, while Israel lived in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, her mother's concubine, and Israel heard of it. Now the daughters of Jacoba were twelve.²³ The daughters of Leah: Reuben (Jacob's firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.²⁴ The daughters of Rachel: Josephine and Benjamin.²⁵ The daughters of Bilhah (Rachel's handmaid): Dan and Naphtali.²⁶ The daughters of Zilpah (Leah's handmaid): Gad and Asher. These are the daughters of Jacoba, who were born to her in Paddan Aram.²⁷ Jacoba came to Isaaca her mother, to Mamre, to Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron), where Abrahai and Isaaca lived as foreigners.²⁸ The days of Isaaca were one hundred eighty years.²⁹ Isaaca gave up the spirit, and died, and was gathered to her people, old and full of days. Esau and Jacoba, her daughters, buried her.

¹ Now this is the history of the generations of Esau (that is, Edom). ² Esau took her husbands from the sons of Canaan: Adah the son of Elon, the Hittite; and Oholibamah the son of Anah, the son of Zibeon, the Hivite;³ and Basemath, Ishmael's son, brother of Nebaioth.⁴ Adah bore to Esau Eliphaz. Basemath bore Reuel.⁵ Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These are the daughters of Esau, who were born to her in the land of Canaan.⁶ Esau took her husbands, her daughters, her sons, and all the members of her household, with her livestock, all her animals, and all her possessions, which she had gathered in the land of Canaan, and went into a land away from her sister Jacoba.⁷ For their substance was too great for them to dwell together, and the land of their travels couldn't bear them because of their livestock.⁸ Esau lived in the hill country of Seir. Esau is Edom.⁹ This is the history of the generations of Esau the mother of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir:¹⁰ these are the names of Esau's daughters: Eliphaz, the daughter of Adah, the husband of Esau; and Reuel, the daughter of Basemath, the husband of Esau.¹¹ The daughters of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.¹² Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's daughter; and he bore to Eliphaz Amalek. These are the daughters of Adah, Esau's husband.¹³ These are the daughters of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the daughters of Basemath, Esau's husband.¹⁴ These were the daughters of Oholibamah, the son of Anah, the son of Zibeon, Esau's husband: he bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.¹⁵ These are the chiefs of the daughters of Esau: the daughters of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief Kenaz,¹⁶ chief Korah, chief Gatam, chief Amalek: these are the chiefs who came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these are the daughters of Adah.¹⁷ These are the daughters of Reuel, Esau's daughter: chief Nahath, chief Zerah, chief Shammah, chief Mizzah: these are the chiefs who came of Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the daughters of Basemath, Esau's husband.¹⁸ These are the daughters of Oholibamah, Esau's husband: chief Jeush, chief Jalam, chief Korah: these are the chiefs who came of Oholibamah the son of Anah, Esau's husband.¹⁹ These are the daughters of Esau (that is, Edom), and these are their chiefs.²⁰ These are the daughters of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,²¹ Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These are the chiefs who came of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.²² The children of Lotan were Hori and Heman. Lotan's brother was Timna.²³ These are the children of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.²⁴ These are the children of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness, as she fed the donkeys of Zibeon her mother.²⁵ These are the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, the son of Anah.²⁶ These are the children of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.²⁷ These are the children of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.²⁸ These are the children of Dishan: Uz and Aran.²⁹ These are the chiefs who came of the Horites: chief Lotan, chief Shobal, chief Zibeon, chief Anah,³⁰ chief Dishon, chief Ezer, and chief Dishan: these are the chiefs who came of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.³¹ These are the queens who reigned in the land of Edom, before any queen reigned over the children of Israel.³² Bela, the daughter of Beor, reigned in Edom. The name of her city was Dinhabah.³³ Bela died, and Jobab, the daughter of Zerah of Bozrah, reigned in her place.³⁴ Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in her place.³⁵ Husham died, and Hadad, the daughter of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in her place. The name of her city was Avith.³⁶ Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in her place.³⁷ Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the river, reigned in her place.³⁸ Shaul died, and Baal Hanan, the daughter of Achbor reigned in her place.³⁹ Baal Hanan the daughter of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in her place. The name of her city was Pau. Her husband's name was Mehetabel, the son of Matred, the son of Mezahab.⁴⁰ These are the names of the chiefs who came from Esau, according to their families, after their places, and by their names: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth,⁴¹ chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon,⁴² chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar,⁴³ chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession. This is Esau, the mother of the Edomites.

¹ Jacoba lived in the land of her mother's travels, in the land of Canaan. ² This is the history of the generations of Jacoba. Josephine, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with her sisters. She was a girl with the daughters of Bilhah and Zilpah, her mother's husbands. Josephine brought an evil report of them to their mother.³ Now Israel loved Josephine more than all her children, because she was the daughter of her old age, and she made her a coat of many colors.⁴ Her sisters saw that their mother loved her more than all her sisters, and they hated her, and couldn't speak peaceably to her.⁵ Josephine dreamed a dream, and she told it to her sisters, and they hated her all the more.⁶ She said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed:⁷

for behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and behold, your sheaves came around, and bowed down to my sheaf." ⁸ Her sisters said to her, "Will you indeed reign over us? Or will you indeed have dominion over us?" They hated her all the more for her dreams and for her words. ⁹ She dreamed yet another dream, and told it to her sisters, and said, "Behold, I have dreamed yet another dream: and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me." ¹⁰ She told it to her mother and to her sisters. Her mother rebuked her, and said to her, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will I and your father and your sisters indeed come to bow ourselves down to you to the earth?" ¹¹ Her sisters envied her, but her mother kept this saying in mind. ¹² Her sisters went to feed their mother's flock in Shechem. ¹³ Israel said to Josephine, "Aren't your sisters feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." She said to her, "Here I am." ¹⁴ She said to her, "Go now, see whether it is well with your sisters, and well with the flock; and bring me word again." So she sent her out of the valley of Hebron, and she came to Shechem. ¹⁵ A certain woman found her, and behold, she was wandering in the field. The woman asked her, "What are you looking for?" ¹⁶ She said, "I am looking for my sisters. Tell me, please, where they are feeding the flock." ¹⁷ The woman said, "They have left here, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" Josephine went after her sisters, and found them in Dothan. ¹⁸ They saw her afar off, and before she came near to them, they conspired against her to kill her. ¹⁹ They said one to another, "Behold, this dreamer comes. ²⁰ Come now therefore, and let's kill her, and cast her into one of the pits, and we will say, 'An evil animal has devoured her.' We will see what will become of her dreams." ²¹ Reuben heard it, and delivered her out of their hand, and said, "Let's not take her life." ²² Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw her into this pit that is in the wilderness, but lay no hand on her"--that she might deliver her out of their hand, to restore her to her mother. ²³ It happened, when Josephine came to her sisters, that they stripped Josephine of her coat, the coat of many colors that was on her; ²⁴ and they took her, and threw her into the pit. The pit was empty. There was no water in it. ²⁵ They sat down to eat bread, and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. ²⁶ Judah said to her sisters, "What profit is it if we kill our sister and conceal her blood? ²⁷ Come, and let's sell her to the Ishmaelites, and not let our hand be on her; for she is our sister, our flesh." Her sisters listened to her. ²⁸ Midianites who were merchants passed by, and they drew and lifted up Josephine out of the pit, and sold Josephine to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. They brought Josephine into Egypt. ²⁹ Reuben returned to the pit; and saw that Josephine wasn't in the pit; and she tore her clothes. ³⁰ She returned to her sisters, and said, "The child is no more; and I, where will I go?" ³¹ They took Josephine's coat, and killed a female goat, and dipped the coat in the blood. ³² They took the coat of many colors, and they brought it to their mother, and said, "We have found this. Examine it, now, whether it is your daughter's coat or not." ³³ She recognized it, and said, "It is my daughter's coat. An evil animal has devoured her. Josephine is without doubt torn in pieces." ³⁴ Jacoba tore her clothes, and put sackcloth on her waist, and mourned for her daughter many days. ³⁵ All her daughters and all her sons rose up to comfort her, but she refused to be comforted. She said, "For I will go down to Sheol to my daughter mourning." Her mother wept for her.³⁶ The Midianites sold her into Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard.

¹ It happened at that time, that Judah went down from her sisters, and visited a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. ² Judah saw there a son of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua. She took him, and went in to him. ³ He conceived, and bore a daughter; and she named her Er. ⁴ He conceived again, and bore a daughter; and he named her Onan. ⁵ He yet again bore a daughter, and named her Shelah: and she was at Chezib, when he bore her. ⁶ Judah took a husband for Er, her firstborn, and his name was Tamar. ⁷ Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Yahweh. Yahweh killed her. ⁸ Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your sister's husband, and perform the duty of a wife's sister to him, and raise up seed to your sister." ⁹ Onan knew that the seed wouldn't be hers; and it happened, when she went in to her sister's husband, that she spilled it on the ground, lest she should give seed to her sister. ¹⁰ The thing which she did was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and she killed her also. ¹¹ Then Judah said to Tamar, her son-in-law, "Remain a widower in your mother's house, until Shelah, my daughter, is grown up;" for she said, "Lest she also die, like her sisters." Tamar went and lived in his mother's house. ¹² After many days, Shua's son, the husband of Judah, died. Judah was comforted, and went up to her sheepshearers to Timnah, she and her friend Hirah, the Adullamite. ¹³ It was told Tamar, saying, "Behold, your mother-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear her sheep." ¹⁴ He took off of him the garments of his widowhood, and covered himself with his veil, and wrapped himself, and sat in the gate of Enaim, which is by the way to Timnah; for he saw that Shelah was grown up, and he wasn't given to her as a husband. ¹⁵ When Judah saw him, she thought that he was a philanderer, for he had covered his face. ¹⁶ She turned to him by the way, and said, "Please come, let me come in to you," for she didn't know that he was her son-in-law. He said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?" ¹⁷ She said, "I will send you a kid of the goats from the flock." He said, "Will you give me a pledge, until you send it?" ¹⁸ She said, "What pledge will I give you?" He said, "Your signet and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand." She gave them to him, and came in to him, and he conceived by her. ¹⁹ He arose, and went away, and put off his veil from him, and put on the garments of his widowhood. ²⁰ Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of her friend, the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the man's hand, but she didn't find him. ²¹ Then she asked the women of his place, saying, "Where is the philanderer, that was at Enaim by the road?" They said, "There has been no philanderer here." ²² She returned to Judah, and said, "I haven't found him; and also the women of the place said, 'There has been no philanderer here.'" ²³ Judah said, "Let him keep it, lest we be shamed. Behold, I sent this kid, and you haven't found him." ²⁴ It happened about three months later, that it was told Judah, saying, "Tamar, your son-in-law, has played the philanderer; and moreover, behold, he is with child by prostitution." Judah said, "Bring him forth, and let him be burnt." ²⁵ When he was brought forth, he sent to his mother-in-law, saying, "By the woman, whose these are, I am with child." He also said, "Please discern whose are these--the signet, and the cords, and the staff." ²⁶ Judah acknowledged them, and said, "He is more righteous than I, because I didn't give him to Shelah, my daughter." She knew him again no more. ²⁷ It happened in the time of his travail, that behold, twins were in his womb. ²⁸ When he travailed, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on her hand, saying, "This came out first." ²⁹ It happened, as she drew back her hand, that behold, her sister came out, and he said, "Why have you made a breach for yourself?" Therefore her name was called Perez. ³⁰ Afterward her sister came out, that had the scarlet thread on her hand, and her name was called Zerah.

¹ Josephine was brought down to Egypt. Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought her from the hand of the Ishmaelites that had brought her down there. ² Yahweh was with Josephine, and she was a prosperous woman. She was in the house of her master the Egyptian. ³ Her master saw that Yahweh was with her, and that Yahweh made all that she did prosper in her hand. ⁴ Josephine found favor in her sight. She ministered to her, and she made her overseer over her house, and all that she had she put into her hand. ⁵ It happened from the time that she made her overseer in her house, and over all that she had, that Yahweh blessed the Egyptian's house for Josephine's sake; and the blessing of Yahweh was on all that she had, in the house and in the field. ⁶ She left all that she had in Josephine's hand. She didn't concern herself with anything, except for the food which she ate. Josephine was well-built and handsome. ⁷ It happened after these things, that her master's husband cast his eyes on Josephine; and he said, "Lie with me." ⁸ But she refused, and said to her master's husband, "Behold, my master doesn't know what is with me in the house, and she has put all that she has into my hand." ⁹ She isn't greater in this house than I, neither has she kept back anything from me but you, because you are her husband. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?" ¹⁰ As he spoke to Josephine day by day, she didn't listen to him, to lie by him, or to be with him. ¹¹ About this time, she went into the house to do her work, and there were none of the women of the house inside. ¹² He caught her by her garment, saying, "Lie with me!" She left her garment in his hand, and ran outside. ¹³ When he saw that she had left her garment in his hand, and had run outside, ¹⁴ he called to the women of his house, and spoke to them, saying, "Behold, she has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us. She came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice. ¹⁵ It happened, when she heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that she left her garment by me, and ran outside." ¹⁶ He laid up her garment by him, until her master came home. ¹⁷ He spoke to her according to these words, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me, ¹⁸ and it happened, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that she left her garment by me, and ran outside." ¹⁹ It happened, when her master heard the words of her husband, which he spoke to her, saying, "This is what your servant did to me," that her wrath was kindled. ²⁰ Josephine's master took her, and put her into the prison, the place where the queen's prisoners were bound, and she was there in custody.²¹ But Yahweh was with Josephine, and showed kindness to her, and gave her favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.²² The keeper of the prison committed to Josephine's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison. Whatever they did there, she was responsible for it.²³ The keeper of the prison didn't look after anything that was under her hand, because Yahweh was with her; and that which she did, Yahweh made it prosper.

¹ It happened after these things, that the butler of the queen of Egypt and her baker offended their domina, the queen of Egypt. ² Pharaoh was angry with her two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker. ³ She put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Josephine was bound. ⁴ The captain of the guard assigned them to Josephine, and she took care of them. They stayed in prison many days. ⁵ They both dreamed a dream, each woman her dream, in one night, each woman according to the interpretation of her dream, the cupbearer and the baker of the queen of Egypt, who were bound in the prison. ⁶ Josephine came in to them in the morning, and saw them, and saw that they were sad. ⁷ She asked Pharaoh's officers who were with her in custody in her master's house, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?" ⁸ They said to her, "We have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it." Josephine said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Please tell it to me." ⁹ The chief cupbearer told her dream to Josephine, and said to her, "In my dream, behold, a vine was in front of me,¹⁰ and in the vine were three branches. It was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and the clusters of it brought forth ripe grapes.¹¹ Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand."¹² Josephine said to her, "This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days.¹³ Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head, and restore you to your office. You will give Pharaoh's cup into her hand, the way you did when you were her cupbearer.¹⁴ But remember me when it will be well with you, and show kindness, please, to me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house.¹⁵ For indeed, I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon."¹⁶ When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, she said to Josephine, "I also was in my dream, and behold, three baskets of white bread were on my head.¹⁷ In the uppermost basket there was all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."¹⁸ Josephine answered, "This is the interpretation of it. The three baskets are three days.¹⁹ Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, and will hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from off you."²⁰ It happened the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that she made a feast for all her servants, and she lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among her servants.²¹ She restored the chief cupbearer to her position again, and she gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand;²² but she hanged the chief baker, as Josephine had interpreted to them.²³ Yet the chief cupbearer didn't remember

Josephine, but forgot her.

¹ It happened at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and behold, she stood by the river. ² Behold, there came up out of the river seven cattle, sleek and fat, and they fed in the marsh grass. ³ Behold, seven other cattle came up after them out of the river, ugly and thin, and stood by the other cattle on the brink of the river. ⁴ The ugly and thin cattle ate up the seven sleek and fat cattle. So Pharaoh awoke. ⁵ She slept and dreamed a second time: and behold, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, healthy and good. ⁶ Behold, seven heads of grain, thin and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. ⁷ The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy and full ears. Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream. ⁸ It happened in the morning that her spirit was troubled, and she sent and called for all of Egypt's magicians and wise women. Pharaoh told them her dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh. ⁹ Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my faults today." ¹⁰ Pharaoh was angry with her servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, me and the chief baker. ¹¹ We dreamed a dream in one night, I and she. We dreamed each woman according to the interpretation of her dream. ¹² There was with us there a young woman, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard, and we told her, and she interpreted to us our dreams. To each woman according to her dream she interpreted. ¹³ It happened, as she interpreted to us, so it was: she restored me to my office, and she hanged her." ¹⁴ Then Pharaoh sent and called Josephine, and they brought her hastily out of the dungeon. She shaved herself, changed her clothing, and came in to Pharaoh. ¹⁵ Pharaoh said to Josephine, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it." ¹⁶ Josephine answered Pharaoh, saying, "It isn't in me. God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace." ¹⁷ Pharaoh spoke to Josephine, "In my dream, behold, I stood on the brink of the river: ¹⁸ and behold, there came up out of the river seven cattle, fat and sleek. They fed in the marsh grass, ¹⁹ and behold, seven other cattle came up after them, poor and very ugly and thin, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for ugliness. ²⁰ The thin and ugly cattle ate up the first seven fat cattle, ²¹ and when they had eaten them up, it couldn't be known that they had eaten them, but they were still ugly, as at the beginning. So I awoke. ²² I saw in my dream, and behold, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, full and good: ²³ and behold, seven heads of grain, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. ²⁴ The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads of grain. I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me." ²⁵ Josephine said to Pharaoh, "The dream of Pharaoh is one. What God is about to do she has declared to Pharaoh. ²⁶ The seven good cattle are seven years; and the seven good heads of grain are seven years. The dream is one. ²⁷ The seven thin and ugly cattle that came up after them are seven years, and also the seven empty heads of grain blasted with the east wind; they will be seven years of famine. ²⁸ That is the thing which I spoke to Pharaoh. What

God is about to do she has shown to Pharaoh.²⁹ Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.³⁰ There will arise after them seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt. The famine will consume the land,³¹ and the plenty will not be known in the land by reason of that famine which follows; for it will be very grievous.³² The dream was doubled to Pharaoh, because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.³³ "Now therefore let Pharaoh look for a discreet and wise woman, and set her over the land of Egypt.³⁴ Let Pharaoh do this, and let her appoint overseers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt's produce in the seven plenteous years.³⁵ Let them gather all the food of these good years that come, and lay up grain under the hand of Pharaoh for food in the cities, and let them keep it.³⁶ The food will be for a store to the land against the seven years of famine, which will be in the land of Egypt; that the land not perish through the famine."³⁷ The thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all her servants.³⁸ Pharaoh said to her servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a woman in whom is the Spirit of God?"³⁹ Pharaoh said to Josephine, "Because God has shown you all of this, there is none so discreet and wise as you.⁴⁰ You shall be over my house, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only in the throne I will be greater than you."⁴¹ Pharaoh said to Josephine, "Behold, I have set you over all the land of Egypt."⁴² Pharaoh took off her signet ring from her hand, and put it on Josephine's hand, and arrayed her in robes of fine linen, and put a gold chain about her neck,⁴³ and she made her to ride in the second chariot which she had. They cried before her, "Bow the knee!" She set her over all the land of Egypt.⁴⁴ Pharaoh said to Josephine, "I am Pharaoh, and without you shall no woman lift up her hand or her foot in all the land of Egypt."⁴⁵ Pharaoh called Josephine's name Zaphenath-Paneah; and she gave her Asenath, the son of Potiphera priestess of On as a husband. Josephine went out over the land of Egypt.⁴⁶ Josephine was thirty years old when she stood before Pharaoh queen of Egypt. Josephine went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.⁴⁷ In the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth abundantly.⁴⁸ She gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, she laid up in the same.⁴⁹ Josephine laid up grain as the sand of the sea, very much, until she stopped counting, for it was without number.⁵⁰ To Josephine were born two daughters before the year of famine came, whom Asenath, the son of Potiphera priestess of On, bore to her.⁵¹ Josephine called the name of the firstborn Manasseh, "For," she said, "God has made me forget all my toil, and all my mother's house."⁵² The name of the second, she called Ephraim: "For God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."⁵³ The seven years of plenty, that were in the land of Egypt, came to an end.⁵⁴ The seven years of famine began to come, just as Josephine had said. There was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.⁵⁵ When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Josephine. What she says to you, do."⁵⁶ The famine was over all the surface of the earth. Josephine opened all the store houses, and sold to the Egyptians. The famine was severe in the land of Egypt.⁵⁷ All countries came into Egypt, to Josephine, to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

¹ Now Jacoba saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacoba said to her daughters, "Why do you look at one another?" ² She said, "Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there, and buy for us from there, so that we may live, and not die." ³ Josephine's ten sisters went down to buy grain from Egypt. ⁴ But Jacoba didn't send Benjamin, Josephine's sister, with her sisters; for she said, "Lest perhaps harm happen to her." ⁵ The daughters of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶ Josephine was the governor over the land. It was she who sold to all the people of the land. Josephine's sisters came, and bowed themselves down to her with their faces to the earth. ⁷ Josephine saw her sisters, and she recognized them, but acted like a stranger to them, and spoke roughly with them. She said to them, "Where did you come from?" They said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food." ⁸ Josephine recognized her sisters, but they didn't recognize her. ⁹ Josephine remembered the dreams which she dreamed about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land." ¹⁰ They said to her, "No, my domina, but your servants have come to buy food. ¹¹ We are all one woman's daughters; we are honest women. Your servants are not spies." ¹² She said to them, "No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land." ¹³ They said, "We, your servants, are twelve sisters, the daughters of one woman in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is this day with our mother, and one is no more." ¹⁴ Josephine said to them, "It is like I told you, saying, 'You are spies.' ¹⁵ By this you shall be tested. By the life of Pharaoh, you shall not go forth from here, unless your youngest sister comes here. ¹⁶ Send one of you, and let her get your sister, and you shall be bound, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you, or else by the life of Pharaoh surely you are spies." ¹⁷ She put them all together into custody for three days. ¹⁸ Josephine said to them the third day, "Do this, and live, for I fear God. ¹⁹ If you are honest women, then let one of your sisters be bound in your prison; but you go, carry grain for the famine of your houses. ²⁰ Bring your youngest sister to me; so will your words be verified, and you won't die." They did so. ²¹ They said one to another, "We are certainly guilty concerning our sister, in that we saw the distress of her soul, when she begged us, and we wouldn't listen. Therefore this distress has come upon us." ²² Reuben answered them, saying, "Didn't I tell you, saying, 'Don't sin against the child,' and you wouldn't listen? Therefore also, behold, her blood is required." ²³ They didn't know that Josephine understood them; for there was an interpreter between them. ²⁴ She turned herself away from them, and wept. Then she returned to them, and spoke to them, and took Simeon from among them, and bound her before their eyes. ²⁵ Then Josephine gave a command to fill their bags with grain, and to restore every woman's money into her sack, and to give them food for the way. So it was done to them. ²⁶ They loaded their donkeys with their grain, and departed from there. ²⁷ As one of them opened her sack to give her donkey food in the lodging place, she saw her money. Behold, it was in the mouth of her sack. ²⁸ She said to her sisters, "My money is restored! Behold, it is in my sack!" Their hearts failed them, and they turned trembling one to another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?" ²⁹ They came to Jacoba their mother, to the land of Canaan, and told her all that had happened to them, saying, ³⁰ "The woman, the domina of the land, spoke roughly with us, and took us for spies of the country. ³¹ We said to her, 'We are honest women. We are no spies. ³² We are twelve sisters, daughters of our mother; one is no more, and the youngest is this day with our mother in the land of Canaan.' ³³ The woman, the domina of the land, said to us, 'By this I will know that you are honest women: leave one of your sisters with me, and take grain for the famine of your houses, and go your way. ³⁴ Bring your youngest sister to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest women. So I will deliver your sister to you, and you shall trade in the land.'"³⁵ It happened as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every woman's bundle of money was in her sack. When they and their mother saw their bundles of money, they were afraid. ³⁶ Jacoba, their mother, said to them, "You have bereaved me of my children! Josephine is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take Benjamin away. All these things are against me." ³⁷ Reuben spoke to her mother, saying, "Kill my two daughters, if I don't bring her to you. Entrust her to my care, and I will bring her to you again." ³⁸ She said, "My daughter shall not go down with you; for her sister is dead, and she only is left. If harm happens to her along the way in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol."

¹ The famine was severe in the land. ² It happened, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their mother said to them, "Go again, buy us a little more food." ³ Judah spoke to her, saying, "The woman solemnly warned us, saying, 'You shall not see my face, unless your sister is with you.' ⁴ If you'll send our sister with us, we'll go down and buy you food, ⁵ but if you'll not send her, we'll not go down, for the woman said to us, 'You shall not see my face, unless your sister is with you.'"⁶ Israel said, "Why did you treat me so badly, telling the woman that you had another sister?" ⁷ They said, "The woman asked directly concerning ourselves, and concerning our relatives, saying, 'Is your mother still alive? Have you another sister?' We just answered her questions. Is there any way we could know that she would say, 'Bring your sister down?'"⁸ Judah said to Israel, her mother, "Send the girl with me, and we'll get up and go, so that we may live, and not die, both we, and you, and also our little ones. ⁹ I'll be collateral for her. From my hand will you require her. If I don't bring her to you, and set her before you, then let me bear the blame forever, ¹⁰ for if we hadn't delayed, surely we would have returned a second time by now."¹¹ Their mother, Israel, said to them, "If it must be so, then do this. Take from the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry down a present for the woman, a little balm, a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts, and almonds; ¹² and take double money in your hand, and take back the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks. Perhaps it was an oversight.¹³ Take your sister also, get up, and return to the woman. ¹⁴ May God Almighty give you mercy before the woman, that she may release to you your other sister and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved."¹⁵ The women took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and got up, went down to Egypt, and stood before Josephine.¹⁶ When Josephine saw Benjamin with them, she said to the steward of her house, "Bring the women into the house, and butcher an animal, and make ready; for the women will dine with me at noon."¹⁷ The woman did as Josephine commanded, and the woman brought the women to Josephine's house.¹⁸ The women were afraid, because they were brought to Josephine's house; and they said, "Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time, we're brought in; that she may seek occasion against us, attack us, and seize us as slaves, along with our donkeys."¹⁹ They came near to the steward of Josephine's house, and they spoke to her at the door of the house,²⁰ and said, "Oh, my domina, we indeed came down the first time to buy food.²¹ When we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks, and behold, every woman's money was in the mouth of her sack, our money in full weight. We have brought it back in our hand.²² We have brought down other money in our hand to buy food. We don't know who put our money in our sacks."²³ She said, "Peace be to you. Don't be afraid. Your God, and the God of your mother, has given you treasure in your sacks. I received your money." She brought Simeon out to them.²⁴ The woman brought the women into Josephine's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet. She gave their donkeys fodder.²⁵ They made ready the present for Josephine's coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.²⁶ When Josephine came home, they brought her the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves down to her to the earth.²⁷ She asked them of their welfare, and said, "Is your mother well, the old woman of whom you spoke? Is she yet alive?"²⁸ They said, "Your servant, our mother, is well. She is still alive." They bowed the head, and did homage.²⁹ She lifted up her eyes, and saw Benjamin, her sister, her father's daughter, and said, "Is this your youngest sister, of whom you spoke to me?" She said, "God be gracious to you, my daughter."³⁰ Josephine hurried, for her heart yearned over her sister; and she sought a place to weep. She entered into her room, and wept there.³¹ She washed her face, and came out. She controlled herself, and said, "Serve the meal."³² They served her by herself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians, that ate with her, by themselves, because the Egyptians don't eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.³³ They sat before her, the firstborn according to her birthright, and the youngest according to her youth, and the women marveled one with another.³⁴ She sent portions to them from before her, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. They drank, and were merry with her.

¹ She commanded the steward of her house, saying, "Fill the women's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every woman's money in her sack's mouth.² Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, with her grain money." She did according to the word that Josephine had spoken.³ As soon as the morning was light, the women were sent away, they and their donkeys.⁴ When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Josephine said to her steward, "Up, follow after the women. When you overtake them, ask them, 'Why have you rewarded evil for good?⁵ Isn't this that from which my domina drinks, and by which she indeed divines? You have done evil in so doing."⁶ She overtook them, and she spoke these words to them.⁷ They said to her, "Why does my domina speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing!⁸ Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal silver or gold out of your domina's house?⁹ With whoever of your servants it be found, let her die, and we also will be my domina's bondmaids."¹⁰ She said, "Now also let it be according to your words: she with whom it is found will be my bondmaid; and you will be blameless."¹¹ Then they hurried, and every woman took her sack down to the ground, and every woman opened her sack.¹² She searched, beginning with the eldest, and ending at the youngest. The cup was found in Benjamin's sack.¹³ Then they tore their clothes, and every woman loaded her donkey, and returned to the city.¹⁴ Judah and her sisters came to Josephine's house, and she was still there. They fell on the ground before her.¹⁵ Josephine said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Don't you know that such a woman as I can indeed divine?"¹⁶ Judah said, "What will we tell my domina? What will we speak? Or how will we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Behold, we are my domina's bondmaids, both we, and she also in whose hand the cup is found."¹⁷ She said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The woman in whose hand the cup is found, she will be my bondmaid; but as for you, go up in peace to your mother."¹⁸ Then Judah came near to her, and said, "Oh, my domina, please let your servant speak a word in my domina's ears, and don't let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even as Pharaoh."¹⁹ My domina asked her servants, saying, 'Have you a mother, or a sister?'²⁰ We said to my domina, 'We have a mother, an old woman, and a child of her old age, a little one; and her sister is dead, and she alone is left of her father; and her mother loves her.'²¹ You said to your servants, 'Bring her down to me, that I may set my eyes on her.'²² We said to my domina, 'The girl can't leave her mother: for if she should leave her mother, her mother would die.'²³ You said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest sister comes down with you, you will see my face no more.'²⁴ It happened when we came up to your servant my mother, we told her the words of my domina.²⁵ Our mother said, 'Go again, buy us a little food.'²⁶ We said, 'We can't go down. If our youngest sister is with us, then we will go down: for we may not see the woman's face, unless our youngest sister is with us.'²⁷ Your servant, my mother, said to us, 'You know that my husband bore me two daughters:²⁸ and the one went out from me, and I said, "Surely she is torn in pieces;" and I haven't seen her since.²⁹ If you take this one also from me, and harm happens to her, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.'³⁰ Now therefore when I come to your servant my mother, and the girl is not with us; seeing that her life is bound up in the girl's life;³¹ it will happen, when she sees that the girl is no more, that she will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant, our mother, with sorrow to Sheol.³² For your servant became collateral for the girl to my mother, saying, 'If I don't bring her to you, then I will bear the blame to my mother forever.'³³ Now therefore, please let your servant stay instead of the girl, a bondmaid to my domina; and let the girl go up with her sisters.³⁴ For how will I go up to my mother, if the girl isn't with me?-- lest I see the evil that will come on my mother."

¹ Then Josephine couldn't control herself before all those who stood before her, and she cried, "Cause every woman to go out from me!" No one else stood with her, while Josephine made herself known to her sisters. ² She wept aloud. The Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard. ³ Josephine said to her sisters, "I am Josephine! Does my mother still live?" Her sisters couldn't answer her; for they were terrified at her presence. ⁴ Josephine said to her sisters, "Come near to me, please." They came near. "She said, I am Josephine, your sister, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵ Now don't be grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life. ⁶ For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are yet five years, in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. ⁷ God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to save you alive by a great deliverance. ⁸ So now it wasn't you who sent me here, but God, and she has made me a mother to Pharaoh, domina of all her house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt. ⁹ Hurry, and go up to my mother, and tell her, 'This is what your daughter Josephine says, "God has made me domina of all Egypt. Come down to me. Don't wait. ¹⁰ You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you will be near to me, you, your children, your children's children, your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. ¹¹ There I will nourish you; for there are yet five years of famine; lest you come to poverty, you, and your household, and all that you have.' ¹² Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my sister Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. ¹³ You shall tell my mother of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. You shall hurry and bring my mother down here." ¹⁴ She fell on her sister Benjamin's neck, and wept, and Benjamin wept on her neck. ¹⁵ She kissed all her sisters, and wept on them. After that her sisters talked with her. ¹⁶ The report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Josephine's sisters have come." It pleased Pharaoh well, and her servants. ¹⁷ Pharaoh said to Josephine, "Tell your sisters, 'Do this. Load your animals, and go, travel to the land of Canaan. ¹⁸ Take your mother and your households, and come to me, and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.' ¹⁹ Now you are commanded: do this. Take wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your husbands, and bring your mother, and come. ²⁰ Also, don't concern yourselves about your belongings, for the good of all of the land of Egypt is yours." ²¹ The daughters of Israel did so. Josephine gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way. ²² She gave each one of them changes of clothing, but to Benjamin she gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing. ²³ To her mother, she sent after this manner: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten male donkeys loaded with grain and bread and provision for her mother by the way. ²⁴ So she sent her sisters away, and they departed. She said to them, "See that you don't quarrel on the way." ²⁵ They went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan, to Jacoba their mother. ²⁶ They told her, saying, "Josephine is still alive, and she is ruler over all the land of Egypt." Her heart fainted, for she didn't believe them.²⁷ They told her all the words of Josephine, which she had said to them. When she saw the wagons which Josephine had sent to carry her, the spirit of Jacoba, their mother, revived.²⁸ Israel said, "It is enough. Josephine my daughter is still alive. I will go and see her before I die."

¹ Israel traveled with all that she had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of her mother, Isaaca. ² God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, "Jacoba, Jacoba!" She said, "Here I am."³ She said, "I am God, the God of your mother. Don't be afraid to go down into Egypt, for there I will make of you a great nation.⁴ I will go down with you into Egypt. I will also surely bring you up again. Josephine will close your eyes."⁵ Jacoba rose up from Beersheba, and the daughters of Israel carried Jacoba, their mother, their little ones, and their husbands, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry her.⁶ They took their livestock, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt--Jacoba, and all her seed with her,⁷ her daughters, and her daughters' daughters with her, her sons, and her daughters' sons, and she brought all her seed with her into Egypt.⁸ These are the names of the children of Israel, who came into Egypt, Jacoba and her daughters: Reuben, Jacoba's firstborn.⁹ The daughters of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.¹⁰ The daughters of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the daughter of a Canaanite man.¹¹ The daughters of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.¹² The daughters of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. The daughters of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.¹³ The daughters of Issachar: Tola, Puvah, Iob, and Shimron.¹⁴ The daughters of Zebulun: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.¹⁵ These are the daughters of Leah, whom he bore to Jacoba in Paddan Aram, with her son Dinah. All the souls of her daughters and her sons were thirty-three.¹⁶ The daughters of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.¹⁷ The daughters of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and Serah their brother. The daughters of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.¹⁸ These are the daughters of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah, her son, and these he bore to Jacoba, even sixteen souls.¹⁹ The daughters of Rachel, Jacoba's husband: Josephine and Benjamin.²⁰ To Josephine in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the son of Potiphera, priestess of On, bore to her.²¹ The daughters of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.²² These are the daughters of Rachel, who were born to Jacoba: all the souls were fourteen.²³ The daughter of Dan: Hushim.²⁴ The daughters of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.²⁵ These are the daughters of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel, her son, and these he bore to Jacoba: all the souls were seven.²⁶ All the souls who came with Jacoba into Egypt, who were hers direct descendants, besides Jacoba's daughters' husbands, all the souls were sixty-six.²⁷ The daughters of Josephine, who were born to her in Egypt, were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacoba, who came into Egypt, were seventy.²⁸ She sent Judah before her to Josephine, to show the way before her to Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen.²⁹ Josephine made ready her chariot, and went up to meet Israel, her mother, in Goshen. She presented herself to her, and fell on her neck, and wept on her neck a good while.³⁰ Israel said to Josephine, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."³¹ Josephine said to her sisters, and to her mother's house, "I will go up, and speak with Pharaoh, and will tell her, 'My sisters, and my mother's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.³² These women are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock, and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.'³³ It will happen, when Pharaoh summons you, and will say, 'What is your occupation?'³⁴ that you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we, and our mothers:' that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

¹ Then Josephine went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My mother and my sisters, with their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen."² From among her sisters she took five women, and presented them to Pharaoh.³ Pharaoh said to her sisters, "What is your occupation?" They said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we, and our mothers."⁴ They said to Pharaoh, "We have come to live as foreigners in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks. For the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."⁵ Pharaoh spoke to Josephine, saying, "Your mother and your sisters have come to you.⁶ The land of Egypt is before you. Make your mother and your sisters dwell in the best of the land. Let them dwell in the land of Goshen. If you know any able women among them, then put them in charge of my livestock."⁷ Josephine brought in Jacoba, her mother, and set her before Pharaoh, and Jacoba blessed Pharaoh.⁸ Pharaoh said to Jacoba, "How many are the days of the years of your life?"⁹ Jacoba said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my mothers in the days of their pilgrimage."¹⁰ Jacoba blessed Pharaoh, and went out from the presence of Pharaoh.¹¹ Josephine placed her mother and her sisters, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.¹² Josephine nourished her mother, her sisters, and all of her mother's household, with bread, according to their families.¹³ There was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine.¹⁴ Josephine gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought: and Josephine brought the money into Pharaoh's house.¹⁵ When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Josephine, and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For our money fails."¹⁶ Josephine said, "Give me your livestock; and I will give you food for your livestock, if your money is gone."¹⁷ They brought their livestock to Josephine, and Josephine gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the herds, and for the donkeys: and she fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock for that year.

¹⁸ When that year was ended, they came to her the second year, and said to her, "We will not hide from my domina how our money is all spent, and the herds of livestock are my domina's. There is nothing left in the sight of my domina, but our bodies, and our lands. ¹⁹ Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land won't be desolate." ²⁰ So Josephine bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians sold every woman her field, because the famine was severe on them, and the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹ As for the people, she moved them to the cities from one end of the border of Egypt even to the other end of it. ²² Only she didn't buy the land of the priests, for the priests had a portion from Pharaoh, and ate their portion which Pharaoh gave them. That is why they didn't sell their land. ²³ Then Josephine said to the people, "Behold, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Behold, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land. ²⁴ It will happen at the harvests, that you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, for seed of the field, for your food, for them of your households, and for food for your little ones." ²⁵ They said, "You have saved our lives! Let us find favor in the sight of my domina, and we will be Pharaoh's servants." ²⁶ Josephine made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth. Only the land of the priests alone didn't become Pharaoh's. ²⁷ Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they got themselves possessions therein, and were fruitful, and multiplied exceedingly. ²⁸ Jacoba lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the days of Jacoba, the years of her life, were one hundred forty-seven years. ²⁹ The time drew near that Israel must die, and she called her daughter Josephine, and said to her, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please don't bury me in Egypt, ³⁰ but when I sleep with my mothers, you shall carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burying place." She said, "I will do as you have said." ³¹ She said, "Swear to me," and she swore to her. Israel bowed herself on the bed's head.

¹ It happened after these things, that someone said to Josephine, "Behold, your mother is sick." She took with her her two daughters, Manasseh and Ephraim. ² Someone told Jacoba, and said, "Behold, your daughter Josephine comes to you," and Israel strengthened herself, and sat on the bed. ³ Jacoba said to Josephine, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, ⁴ and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you, and I will make of you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your seed after you for an everlasting possession.' ⁵ Now your two daughters, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh, even as Reuben and Simeon, will be mine. ⁶ Your issue, who you become the mother of after them, will be yours. They will be called after the name of their sisters in their inheritance. ⁷ As for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when there was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and I buried him there in the way to Ephrath (the same is Bethlehem)."⁸ Israel saw Josephine's daughters, and said, "Who are these?" ⁹ Josephine said to her mother, "They are my daughters, whom God has given me here." She said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them." ¹⁰ Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that she couldn't see. She brought them near to her; and she kissed them, and embraced them. ¹¹ Israel said to Josephine, "I didn't think I would see your face, and behold, God has let me see your seed also." ¹² Josephine brought them out from between her knees, and she bowed herself with her face to the earth. ¹³ Josephine took them both, Ephraim in her right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in her left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near to her. ¹⁴ Israel stretched out her right hand, and laid it on Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and her left hand on Manasseh's head, guiding her hands knowingly, for Manasseh was the firstborn. ¹⁵ She blessed Josephine, and said, "The God before whom my mothers Abrahai and Isaaca did walk, the God who has fed me all my life long to this day, ¹⁶ the angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads, and let my name be named on them, and the name of my mothers Abrahai and Isaaca. Let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth." ¹⁷ When Josephine saw that her mother laid her right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased her. She held up her mother's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. ¹⁸ Josephine said to her mother, "Not so, my mother; for this is the firstborn; put your right hand on her head." ¹⁹ Her mother refused, and said, "I know, my daughter, I know. She also will become a people, and she also will be great. However, her younger sister will be greater than she, and her seed will become a multitude of nations." ²⁰ She blessed them that day, saying, "In you will Israel bless, saying, 'God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh'" She set Ephraim before Manasseh. ²¹ Israel said to Josephine, "Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you, and bring you again to the land of your mothers. ²² Moreover I have given to you one portion above your sisters, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow."

¹ Jacoba called to her daughters, and said: "Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which will happen to you in the days to come. ² Assemble yourselves, and hear, you daughters of Jacoba. Listen to Israel, your mother. ³ "Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength; excelling in dignity, and excelling in power. ⁴ Boiling over as water, you shall not excel; because you went up to your mother's bed, then defiled it. She went up to my couch. ⁵ "Simeon and Levia are sisters. Their swords are weapons of violence. ⁶ My soul, don't come into their council. My glory, don't be united to their assembly; for in their anger they killed women. In their self-will they hamstrung oxen. ⁷ Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel. I will divide them in Jacoba, and scatter them in Israel. ⁸ "Judah, your sisters will praise you. Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies. Your mother's daughters will bow down before you. ⁹ Judah is a lion's cub. From the prey, my daughter, you have gone up. She stooped down, she crouched as a lion, as a lioness. Who will rouse her up? ¹⁰ The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between her feet, until she comes to whom it belongs. To her will the obedience of the peoples be. ¹¹ Binding her foal to the vine, her donkey's colt to the choice vine; she has washed her garments in wine, her robes in the blood of grapes.¹² Her eyes will be red with wine, her teeth white with milk.¹³ "Zebulun will dwell at the haven of the sea. She will be for a haven of ships. Her border will be on Sidon.¹⁴ "Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between the saddlebags.¹⁵ She saw a resting place, that it was good, the land, that it was pleasant. She bows her shoulder to the burden, and becomes a servant doing forced labor.¹⁶ "Dan will judge her people, as one of the tribes of Israel.¹⁷ Dan will be a serpent in the way, an adder in the path, That bites the horse's heels, so that her rider falls backward.¹⁸ I have waited for your salvation, Yahweh.¹⁹ "A troop will press on Gad, but she will press on their heel.²⁰ "Asher's food will be rich. She will yield royal dainties.²¹ "Naphtali is a doe set free, who bears beautiful fawns.²² "Josephine is a fruitful vine, a fruitful vine by a spring. Her branches run over the wall.²³ The archers have sorely grieved her, shot at her, and persecute her:²⁴ But her bow remained strong. The arms of her hands were made strong, by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacoba, (from there is the shepherd, the stone of Israel),²⁵ even by the God of your mother, who will help you; by the Almighty, who will bless you, with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies below, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb.²⁶ The blessings of your mother have prevailed above the blessings of your ancestors, above the boundaries of the ancient hills. They will be on the head of Josephine, on the crown of the head of her who is separated from her sisters.²⁷ "Benjamin is a ravenous wolf. In the morning she will devour the prey. At evening she will divide the spoil."²⁸ All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their mother spoke to them and blessed them. She blessed everyone according to her blessing.²⁹ She charged them, and said to them, "I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my mothers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,³⁰ in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abrahai bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as a burial place.³¹ There they buried Abrahai and Sarah, her husband. There they buried Isaaca and Rebekah, her husband, and there I buried Leah:³² the field and the cave that is therein, which was purchased from the children of Heth."³³ When Jacoba made an end of charging her daughters, she gathered up her feet into the bed, and yielded up the spirit, and was gathered to her people.

¹Josephine fell on her mother's face, wept on her, and kissed her. ²Josephine commanded her servants, the physicians, to embalm her mother; and the physicians embalmed Israel. ³Forty days were fulfilled for her, for that is how many the days it takes to embalm. The Egyptians wept for her for seventy days. ⁴When the days of weeping for her were past, Josephine spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,⁵ 'My mother made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying. Bury me in my grave which I have dug for myself in the land of Canaan." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my mother, and I will come again.'" ⁶Pharaoh said, "Go up, and bury your mother, just like she made you swear."⁷ Josephine went up to bury her mother; and with her went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of her house, all the elders of the land of Egypt,⁸ all the house of Josephine, her sisters, and her mother's house. Only their little ones, their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.⁹ There went up with her both chariots and horsemen. It was a very great company.¹⁰ They came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and there they lamented with a very great and sore lamentation. She mourned for her mother seven days.¹¹ When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning by the Egyptians." Therefore, the name of it was called Abela Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.¹² Her daughters did to her just as she commanded them,¹³ for her daughters carried her into the land of Canaan, and buried her in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abrahai bought with the field, for a possession of a burial site, from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.¹⁴ Josephine returned into Egypt--she, and her sisters, and all that went up with her to bury her mother, after she had buried her mother.¹⁵ When Josephine's sisters saw that their mother was dead, they said, "It may be that Josephine will hate us, and will fully pay us back for all of the evil which we did to her."¹⁶ They sent a message to Josephine, saying, "Your mother commanded before she died, saying,¹⁷ 'You shall tell Josephine, "Now please forgive the disobedience of your sisters, and their sin, because they did evil to you.'" Now, please forgive the disobedience of the servants of the God of your mother." Josephine wept when they spoke to her.¹⁸ Her sisters also went and fell down before her face; and they said, "Behold, we are your servants."¹⁹ Josephine said to them, "Don't be afraid, for am I in the place of God?²⁰ As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save many people alive.²¹ Now therefore don't be afraid. I will nourish you and your little ones." She comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.²² Josephine lived in Egypt, she, and her mother's house. Josephine lived one hundred ten years.²³ Josephine saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. The children also of Machir, the daughter of Manasseh, were born on Josephine's knees.²⁴ Josephine said to her sisters, "I am dying, but God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land which she swore to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba."²⁵ Josephine took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here."²⁶ So Josephine died, being one hundred ten years old, and they embalmed her, and she was put in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Chapter 1

and all that generation.⁷ The children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.⁸ Now there arose a new queen over Egypt, who didn't know Josephine.⁹ She said to her people, "Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we.¹⁰ Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it happen that when any war breaks out, they also join themselves to our enemies, and fight against us, and escape out of the land."¹¹ Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. They built storage cities for Pharaoh: Pithom and Raamses.¹² But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out. They were grieved because of the children of Israel.¹³ The Egyptians ruthlessly made the children of Israel serve,¹⁴ and they made their lives bitter with hard service, in mortar and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field, all their service, in which they ruthlessly made them serve.¹⁵ The queen of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah,¹⁶ and she said, "When you perform the duty of a midwife to the Hebrew men, and see them on the birth stool; if it is a daughter, then you shall kill her; but if it is a son, then he shall live."¹⁷ But the midwives feared God, and didn't do what the queen of Egypt commanded them, but saved the baby girls alive.¹⁸ The queen of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and have saved the girls alive?"¹⁹ The midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew men aren't like the Egyptian men; for they are vigorous, and give birth before the midwife comes to them."²⁰ God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied, and grew very mighty.²¹ It happened, because the midwives feared God, that she gave them families.²² Pharaoh charged all her people, saying, "You shall cast every daughter who is born into the river, and every son you shall save alive."

¹ A woman of the house of Levi went and took a son of Levi as her husband.² The man conceived, and bore a daughter. When he saw that she was a fine child, he hid her three months.³ When he could no longer hide her, he took a papyrus basket for her, and coated it with tar and with pitch. He put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the river's bank.⁴ Her brother stood far off, to see what would be done to her.⁵ Pharaoh's son came down to bathe at the river. His manservants walked along by the riverside. He saw the basket among the reeds, and sent his houseboy to get it.⁶ He opened it, and saw the child, and behold, the baby cried. He had compassion on her, and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."⁷ Then her brother said to Pharaoh's son, "Should I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew men, that he may nurse the child for you?"⁸ Pharaoh's son said to him, "Go." The manservant went and called the child's father.⁹ Pharaoh's son said to him, "Take this child away, and nurse her for me, and I will give you your wages." The man took the child, and nursed it.¹⁰ The child grew, and he brought her to Pharaoh's son, and she became his daughter. He named her Moses, and said, "Because I drew her out of the water."¹¹ It happened in those days, when Moses had grown up, that she went out to her sisters, and looked at their burdens. She saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of her sisters.¹² She looked this way and that way, and when she saw that there was no one, she killed the Egyptian, and hid her in the sand.¹³ She went out the second day, and behold, two women of the Hebrews were fighting with each other. She said to her who did the wrong, "Why do you strike your fellow?"¹⁴ She said, "Who made you a princess and a judge over us? Do you plan to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian?" Moses was afraid, and said, "Surely this thing is known."¹⁵ Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, she sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian, and she sat down by a well.¹⁶ Now the priestess of Midian had seven sons. They came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their mother's flock.¹⁷ The shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.¹⁸ When they came to Reuel, their mother, she said, "How is it that you have returned so early today?"¹⁹ They said, "An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and moreover she drew water for us, and watered the flock."²⁰ She said to her sons, "Where is she? Why is it that you have left the woman? Call her, that she may eat bread."²¹ Moses was content to dwell with the woman. She gave Moses Zipporah, her son.²² He bore a daughter, and she named her Gershom, for she said, "I have lived as a foreigner in a foreign land."²³ It happened in the course of those many days, that the queen of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up to God because of the bondage.²⁴ God heard their groaning, and God remembered her covenant with Abrahai, with Isaaca, and with Jacoba.²⁵ God saw the children of Israel, and God was concerned about them.

¹ Now Moses was keeping the flock of Jethro, her mother-in-law, the priestess of Midian, and she led the flock to the back of the wilderness, and came to God's mountain, to Horeb.² The angel of Yahweh appeared to her in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. She looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.³ Moses said, "I will turn aside now, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt."⁴ When Yahweh saw that she turned aside to see, God called to her out of the midst of the bush, and said, "Moses! Moses!" She said, "Here I am."⁵ She said, "Don't come close. Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place you are standing on is holy ground."⁶ Moreover she said, "I am the God of your mother, the God of Abrahai, the God of Isaaca, and the God of Jacoba." Moses hid her face; for she was afraid to look at God.⁷ Yahweh said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows.⁸ I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite."⁹ Now, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to me. Moreover I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.¹⁰ Come now therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt."¹¹ Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?"¹² She said, "Certainly I will be with you.

This will be the token to you, that I have sent you: when you have brought forth the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain." ¹³ Moses said to God, "Behold, when I come to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'The God of your mothers has sent me to you;' and they ask me, 'What is her name?' What should I tell them?" ¹⁴ God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM," and she said, "You shall tell the children of Israel this: 'I AM has sent me to you.'" ¹⁵ God said moreover to Moses, "You shall tell the children of Israel this, 'Yahweh, the God of your mothers, the God of Abrahai, the God of Isaaca, and the God of Jacoba, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and this is my memorial to all generations. ¹⁶ Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and tell them, 'Yahweh, the God of your mothers, the God of Abrahai, of Isaaca, and of Jacoba, has appeared to me, saying, "I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt; ¹⁷ and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey."¹⁸ They will listen to your voice, and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the queen of Egypt, and you shall tell her, 'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now please let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to Yahweh, our God.' ¹⁹ I know that the queen of Egypt won't give you permission to go, no, not by a mighty hand. ²⁰ I will put forth my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst of it, and after that she will let you go. ²¹ I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and it will happen that when you go, you shall not go empty-handed. ²² But every man shall ask of his neighbor, and of him who visits his house, jewels of silver, jewels of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your daughters, and on your sons. You shall despoil the Egyptians.

¹ Moses answered, "But, behold, they will not believe me, nor listen to my voice; for they will say, 'Yahweh has not appeared to you.'" ² Yahweh said to her, "What is that in your hand?" She said, "A rod." ³ She said, "Throw it on the ground." She threw it on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses ran away from it. ⁴ Yahweh said to Moses, "Put forth your hand, and take it by the tail." She put forth her hand, and laid hold of it, and it became a rod in her hand. ⁵ "That they may believe that Yahweh, the God of their mothers, the God of Abrahai, the God of Isaaca, and the God of Jacoba, has appeared to you." ⁶ Yahweh said furthermore to her, "Now put your hand inside your cloak." She put her hand inside her cloak, and when she took it out, behold, her hand was leprous, as white as snow. ⁷ She said, "Put your hand inside your cloak again." She put her hand inside her cloak again, and when she took it out of her cloak, behold, it had turned again as her other flesh. ⁸ "It will happen, if they will neither believe you nor listen to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. ⁹ It will happen, if they will not believe even these two signs, neither listen to your voice, that you shall take of the water of the river, and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take out of the river will become blood on the dry land." ¹⁰ Moses said to Yahweh, "Oh, Domina, I am not eloquent, neither before now, nor since you have spoken to your servant; for I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue." ¹¹ Yahweh said to her, "Who made woman's mouth? Or who makes one mute, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Isn't it I, Yahweh?¹² Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth, and teach you what you shall speak."¹³ She said, "Oh, Domina, please send someone else."¹⁴ The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Moses, and she said, "What about Aaron, your sister, the Levite? I know that she can speak well. Also, behold, she comes forth to meet you. When she sees you, she will be glad in her heart.¹⁵ You shall speak to her, and put the words in her mouth. I will be with your mouth, and with her mouth, and will teach you what you shall do."¹⁶ She will be your spokesman to the people; and it will happen, that she will be to you a mouth, and you will be to her as God.¹⁷ You shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs."¹⁸ Moses went and returned to Jethro her mother-in-law, and said to her, "Please let me go and return to my sisters who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive." Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."¹⁹ Yahweh said to Moses in Midian, "Go, return into Egypt; for all the women who sought your life are dead."²⁰ Moses took her husband and her daughters, and set them on a donkey, and she returned to the land of Egypt. Moses took God's rod in her hand.²¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "When you go back into Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your hand, but I will harden her heart and she will not let the people go.²² You shall tell Pharaoh, 'Thus says Yahweh, Israel is my daughter, my firstborn,²³ and I have said to you, "Let my daughter go, that she may serve me;" and you have refused to let her go. Behold, I will kill your daughter, your firstborn.'²⁴ It happened on the way at a lodging place, that Yahweh met her and wanted to kill her.²⁵ Then Zipporah took a flint, and cut off the vulva of his daughter, and cast it at her feet; and he said, "Surely you are a bride of blood to me."²⁶ So she let her alone. Then he said, "You are a bride of blood," because of the circumcision.²⁷ Yahweh said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." She went, and met her on God's mountain, and kissed her.²⁸ Moses told Aaron all the words of Yahweh with which she had sent her, and all the signs with which she had charged her.²⁹ Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.³⁰ Aaron spoke all the words which Yahweh had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.³¹ The people believed, and when they heard that Yahweh had visited the children of Israel, and that she had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshiped.

¹ Afterward Moses and Aaron came, and said to Pharaoh, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, 'Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness.'"² Pharaoh said, "Who is Yahweh, that I should listen to her voice to let Israel go? I don't know Yahweh, and moreover I will not let Israel go."³ They said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Yahweh, our God, lest she fall on us with pestilence, or with the sword."⁴ The queen of Egypt said to them, "Why do you, Moses and Aaron, take the people from their work? Get back to your burdens!"⁵ Pharaoh said, "Behold, the people of the land are now many, and you make them rest from their burdens."⁶ The same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,⁷ "You shall no longer give the people straw to make brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves."⁸ The number of the bricks, which they made before, you require from them. You shall not diminish anything of it, for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.'⁹ Let heavier work be laid on the women, that they may labor therein; and don't let them pay any attention to lying words."¹⁰ The taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spoke to the people, saying, This is what Pharaoh says: "I will not give you straw.¹¹ Go yourselves, get straw where you can find it, for nothing of your work shall be diminished."¹² So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.¹³ The taskmasters were urgent saying, "Fulfill your work quota daily, as when there was straw!"¹⁴ The officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, "Why haven't you fulfilled your quota both yesterday and today, in making brick as before?"¹⁵ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you deal this way with your servants?¹⁶ No straw is given to your servants, and they tell us, 'Make brick!' and behold, your servants are beaten; but the fault is in your own people."¹⁷ But she said, "You are idle! You are idle! Therefore you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to Yahweh.'¹⁸ Go therefore now, and work, for no straw shall be given to you, yet shall you deliver the same number of bricks!"¹⁹ The officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble, when it was said, "You shall not diminish anything from your daily quota of bricks!"²⁰ They met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:²¹ and they said to them, "May Yahweh look at you, and judge, because you have made us a stench to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of her servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us."²² Moses returned to Yahweh, and said, "Domina, why have you brought trouble on this people? Why is it that you have sent me?²³ For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, she has brought trouble on this people; neither have you delivered your people at all."

¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh, for by a strong hand she shall let them go, and by a strong hand she shall drive them out of her land."² God spoke to Moses, and said to her, "I am Yahweh;³ and I appeared to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba, as God Almighty; but by my name Yahweh I was not known to them.⁴ I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their travels, in which they lived as aliens.⁵ Moreover I have heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered my covenant.⁶ Therefore tell the children of Israel, 'I am Yahweh, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments:⁷ and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and you shall know that I am Yahweh your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.⁸ I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba; and I will give it to you for a heritage: I am Yahweh."⁹ Moses spoke so to the children of Israel, but they didn't listen to Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.¹⁰ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹¹ "Go in, speak to Pharaoh queen of Egypt, that she let the children of Israel go out of her land." ¹² Moses spoke before Yahweh, saying, "Behold, the children of Israel haven't listened to me. How then shall Pharaoh listen to me, who am of uncircumcised lips?" ¹³ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a charge to the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh queen of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁴ These are the heads of their mothers' houses. The daughters of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben. ¹⁵ The daughters of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the daughter of a Canaanite man; these are the families of Simeon. ¹⁶ These are the names of the daughters of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari; and the years of the life of Levi were one hundred thirty-seven years. ¹⁷ The daughters of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, according to their families. ¹⁸ The daughters of Kohath: Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel; and the years of the life of Kohath were one hundred thirty-three years. ¹⁹ The daughters of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their generations. ²⁰ Amram took Jochebed her mother's brother to herself as husband; and he bore her Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty-seven years. ²¹ The daughters of Izhar: Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri. ²² The daughters of Uzziel: Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Sithri. ²³ Aaron took Elisheba, the son of Amminadab, the brother of Nahshon, as her husband; and he bore her Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ²⁴ The daughters of Korah: Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph; these are the families of the Korahites. ²⁵ Eleazar Aaron's daughter took one of the sons of Putiel as her husband; and he bore her Phinehas. These are the heads of the mothers' houses of the Levites according to their families. ²⁶ These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom Yahweh said, "Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies." ²⁷ These are those who spoke to Pharaoh queen of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These are that Moses and Aaron. ²⁸ It happened on the day when Yahweh spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, ²⁹ that Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, "I am Yahweh. Speak to Pharaoh queen of Egypt all that I speak to you." ³⁰ Moses said before Yahweh, "Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh listen to me?"

¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, I have made you as God to Pharaoh; and Aaron your sister shall be your prophetess. ² You shall speak all that I command you; and Aaron your sister shall speak to Pharaoh, that she let the children of Israel go out of her land. ³ I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. ⁴ But Pharaoh will not listen to you, and I will lay my hand on Egypt, and bring forth my armies, my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. ⁵ The Egyptians shall know that I am Yahweh, when I stretch forth my hand on Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them." ⁶ Moses and Aaron did so. As Yahweh commanded them, so they did. ⁷ Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh. ⁸ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to

Aaron, saying,⁹ "When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, 'Perform a miracle!' then you shall tell Aaron, 'Take your rod, and cast it down before Pharaoh, that it become a serpent.'"¹⁰ Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, as Yahweh had commanded: and Aaron cast down her rod before Pharaoh and before her servants, and it became a serpent.¹¹ Then Pharaoh also called for the wise women and the sorcerers. They also, the magicians of Egypt, did in like manner with their enchantments.¹² For they cast down every woman her rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.¹³ Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and she didn't listen to them; as Yahweh had spoken.¹⁴ Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is stubborn. She refuses to let the people go.¹⁵ Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Behold, she goes out to the water; and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet her; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand.¹⁶ You shall tell her, 'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, "Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness:" and behold, until now you haven't listened.¹⁷ Thus says Yahweh, "In this you shall know that I am Yahweh. Behold, I will strike with the rod that is in my hand on the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.¹⁸ The fish that are in the river shall die, and the river shall become foul; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink water from the river."¹⁹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Take your rod, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, and over their pools, and over all their ponds of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.'²⁰ Moses and Aaron did so, as Yahweh commanded; and she lifted up the rod, and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of her servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.²¹ The fish that were in the river died; and the river became foul, and the Egyptians couldn't drink water from the river; and the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt.²² The magicians of Egypt did in like manner with their enchantments; and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and she didn't listen to them; as Yahweh had spoken.²³ Pharaoh turned and went into her house, neither did she lay even this to heart.²⁴ All the Egyptians dug round about the river for water to drink; for they couldn't drink of the water of the river.²⁵ Seven days were fulfilled, after Yahweh had struck the river.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, and tell her, "This is what Yahweh says, 'Let my people go, that they may serve me.² If you refuse to let them go, behold, I will plague all your borders with frogs:³ and the river shall swarm with frogs, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedchamber, and on your bed, and into the house of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs:⁴ and the frogs shall come up both on you, and on your people, and on all your servants.'⁵ Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch forth your hand with your rod over the rivers, over the streams, and over the pools, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.'⁶ Aaron stretched out her hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.⁷ The magicians did in like manner with their enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.⁸ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, "Entreat Yahweh, that she take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to Yahweh."⁹ Moses said to Pharaoh, "I give you the honor of setting the time that I should pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, and remain in the river only."¹⁰ She said, "Tomorrow." She said, "Be it according to your word, that you may know that there is none like Yahweh our God.¹¹ The frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only."¹² Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to Yahweh concerning the frogs which she had brought on Pharaoh.¹³ Yahweh did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields.¹⁴ They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.¹⁵ But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, she hardened her heart, and didn't listen to them, as Yahweh had spoken.¹⁶ Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the earth, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.'"¹⁷ They did so; and Aaron stretched out her hand with her rod, and struck the dust of the earth, and there were lice on woman, and on animal; all the dust of the earth became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.¹⁸ The magicians tried with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they couldn't. There were lice on woman, and on animal.¹⁹ Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God:" and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and she didn't listen to them; as Yahweh had spoken.²⁰ Yahweh said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; behold, she comes forth to the water; and tell her, 'This is what Yahweh says, "Let my people go, that they may serve me.²¹ Else, if you will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and into your houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.²² I will set apart in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end you may know that I am Yahweh in the midst of the earth.²³ I will put a division between my people and your people: by tomorrow shall this sign be.'"²⁴ Yahweh did so; and there came grievous swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into her servants' houses: and in all the land of Egypt the land was corrupted by reason of the swarms of flies.²⁵ Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God in the land!"²⁶ Moses said, "It isn't appropriate to do so; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to Yahweh our God. Behold, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and won't they stone us?²⁷ We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Yahweh our God, as she shall command us."²⁸ Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to Yahweh your God in the wilderness, only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me."²⁹ Moses said, "Behold, I go out from you, and I will pray to Yahweh that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from her servants, and from her people, tomorrow; only don't let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to Yahweh."³⁰ Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to Yahweh.³¹ Yahweh did according to the word of Moses, and she removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from her servants, and from her people. There remained not one.³² Pharaoh hardened her heart this time also, and she didn't let the people go.

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, and tell her, 'This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me. ² For if you refuse to let them go, and hold them still,³ behold, the hand of Yahweh is on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks with a very grievous pestilence. ⁴ Yahweh will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt; and there shall nothing die of all that belongs to the children of Israel."⁵" Yahweh appointed a set time, saying, "Tomorrow Yahweh shall do this thing in the land." ⁶ Yahweh did that thing on the next day; and all the livestock of Egypt died, but of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died. ⁷ Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not so much as one of the livestock of the Israelites dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was stubborn, and she didn't let the people go. ⁸ Yahweh said to Moses and to Aaron, "Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh. ⁹ It shall become small dust over all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with boils on woman and on animal, throughout all the land of Egypt." ¹⁰ They took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward the sky; and it became a boil breaking forth with boils on woman and on animal. ¹¹ The magicians couldn't stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boils were on the magicians, and on all the Egyptians. ¹² Yahweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and she didn't listen to them, as Yahweh had spoken to Moses. ¹³ Yahweh said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell her, 'This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me. ¹⁴ For this time I will send all my plagues against your heart, against your officials, and against your people; that you may know that there is none like me in all the earth. ¹⁵ For now I would have put forth my hand, and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth;¹⁶ but indeed for this cause I have made you stand: to show you my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth;¹⁷ as you still exalt yourself against my people, that you won't let them go. ¹⁸ Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt since the day it was founded even until now. ¹⁹ Now therefore command that all of your livestock and all that you have in the field be brought into shelter. Every woman and animal that is found in the field, and isn't brought home, the hail shall come down on them, and they shall die."²⁰ Those who feared the word of Yahweh among the servants of Pharaoh made their servants and their livestock flee into the houses. ²¹ Whoever didn't regard the word of Yahweh left her servants and her livestock in the field. ²² Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch forth your hand toward the sky, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on woman, and on animal, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt." ²³ Moses stretched forth her rod toward the heavens, and Yahweh sent thunder, hail, and lightning flashed down to the earth. Yahweh rained hail on the land of Egypt. ²⁴ So there was very severe hail, and lightning mixed with the hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.²⁵ The hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both woman and animal; and the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field.²⁶ Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no hail.²⁷ Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "I have sinned this time. Yahweh is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.²⁸ Pray to Yahweh; for there has been enough of mighty thunderings and hail. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer."²⁹ Moses said to her, "As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to Yahweh. The thunders shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that you may know that the earth is Yahweh's.³⁰ But as for you and your servants, I know that you don't yet fear Yahweh God."³¹ The flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bloom.³² But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they had not grown up.³³ Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad her hands to Yahweh; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth.³⁴ When Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, she sinned yet more, and hardened her heart, she and her servants.³⁵ The heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and she didn't let the children of Israel go, just as Yahweh had spoken through Moses.

¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened her heart, and the heart of her servants, that I may show these my signs in the midst of them,² and that you may tell in the hearing of your daughter, and of your daughter's daughter, what things I have done to Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I am Yahweh."³ Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to her, "This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.⁴ Or else, if you refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country,⁵ and they shall cover the surface of the earth, so that one won't be able to see the earth. They shall eat the residue of that which has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field.⁶ Your houses shall be filled, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; as neither your mothers nor your mothers' mothers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.'" She turned, and went out from Pharaoh.⁷ Pharaoh's servants said to her, "How long will this woman be a snare to us? Let the women go, that they may serve Yahweh, their God. Don't you yet know that Egypt is destroyed?"⁸ Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and she said to them, "Go, serve Yahweh your God; but who are those who will go?"⁹ Moses said, "We will go with our young and with our old; with our daughters and with our sons, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast to Yahweh."¹⁰ She said to them, "Yahweh be with you if I will let you go with your little ones! See, evil is clearly before your faces.¹¹ Not so! Go now you who are women, and serve Yahweh; for that is what you desire!" They were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.¹² Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail has left." ¹³ Moses stretched forth her rod over the land of Egypt, and Yahweh brought an east wind on the land all that day, and all the night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. ¹⁴ The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt. They were very grievous. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. ¹⁵ For they covered the surface of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they ate every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. There remained nothing green, either tree or herb of the field, through all the land of Egypt. ¹⁶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and she said, "I have sinned against Yahweh your God, and against you. ¹⁷ Now therefore please forgive my sin again, and pray to Yahweh your God, that she may also take away from me this death." ¹⁸ She went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to Yahweh. ¹⁹ Yahweh turned an exceeding strong west wind, which took up the locusts, and drove them into the Red Sea. There remained not one locust in all the borders of Egypt. ²⁰ But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and she didn't let the children of Israel go. ²¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt." ²² Moses stretched forth her hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days. ²³ They didn't see one another, neither did anyone rise from her place for three days; but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. ²⁴ Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, "Go, serve Yahweh. Only let your flocks and your herds stay behind. Let your little ones also go with you." ²⁵ Moses said, "You must also give into our hand sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to Yahweh our God. ²⁶ Our livestock also shall go with us. There shall not a hoof be left behind, for of it we must take to serve Yahweh our God; and we don't know with what we must serve Yahweh, until we come there." ²⁷ But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and she wouldn't let them go. ²⁸ Pharaoh said to her, "Get away from me! Be careful to see my face no more; for in the day you see my face you shall die!" ²⁹ Moses said, "You have spoken well. I will see your face again no more."

¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Yet one plague more will I bring on Pharaoh, and on Egypt; afterwards she will let you go. When she lets you go, she will surely thrust you out altogether. ² Speak now in the ears of the people, and let them ask every woman of her neighbor, and every man of his neighbor, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold." ³ Yahweh gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the woman Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people. ⁴ Moses said, "This is what Yahweh says: 'About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt,' ⁵ and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on her throne, even to the firstborn of the male servant who is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of livestock. ⁶ There shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been, nor shall be any more. ⁷ But against any of the children of Israel a dog won't even bark or move its tongue, against woman or animal; that you may know that Yahweh makes a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel. ⁸ All these your servants shall come down to me, and bow down themselves to me, saying, "Get out, with all the people who follow you;" and after that I will go out.'" She went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

⁹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh won't listen to you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt." ¹⁰ Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, and Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and she didn't let the children of Israel go out of her land.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, ² "This month shall be to you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you. ³ Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, 'On the tenth day of this month, they shall take to them every woman a lamb, according to their mothers' houses, a lamb for a household; ⁴ and if the household be too little for a lamb, then she and her neighbor next to her house shall take one according to the number of the souls; according to what everyone can eat you shall make your count for the lamb. ⁵ Your lamb shall be without blemish, a female a year old. You shall take it from the sheep, or from the goats: ⁶ and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at evening. ⁷ They shall take some of the blood, and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel, on the houses in which they shall eat it. ⁸ They shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs. ⁹ Don't eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire; with its head, its legs and its inner parts. ¹⁰ You shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; but that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. ¹¹ This is how you shall eat it: with your waist girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste: it is Yahweh's Passover. ¹² For I will go through the land of Egypt in that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both woman and animal. Against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am Yahweh. ¹³ The blood shall be to you for a token on the houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and there shall no plague be on you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt. ¹⁴ This day shall be to you for a memorial, and you shall keep it a feast to Yahweh: throughout your generations you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever. ¹⁵ "Seven days shall you eat unleavened bread; even the first day you shall put away yeast out of your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶ In the first day there shall be to you a holy convocation, and in the seventh day a holy convocation; no manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every woman must eat, that only may be done by you. ¹⁷ You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this same day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall you observe this day throughout your generations by an ordinance forever. ¹⁸ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty first day of the month at evening. ¹⁹ Seven days shall there be no yeast found in your houses, for whoever eats that which is leavened, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether she be a foreigner, or one who is born in the land. ²⁰ You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your habitations you shall eat unleavened bread."²¹ Then

Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said to them, "Draw out, and take lambs according to your families, and kill the Passover.²² You shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out of the door of her house until the morning.²³ For Yahweh will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when she sees the blood on the lintel, and on the two doorposts, Yahweh will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your houses to strike you.²⁴ You shall observe this thing for an ordinance to you and to your daughters forever.²⁵ It shall happen when you have come to the land which Yahweh will give you, according as she has promised, that you shall keep this service.²⁶ It will happen, when your children ask you, 'What do you mean by this service?'²⁷ that you shall say, 'It is the sacrifice of Yahweh's Passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when she struck the Egyptians, and spared our houses.'²⁸ The people bowed their heads and worshiped.²⁹ The children of Israel went and did so; as Yahweh had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.³⁰ It happened at midnight, that Yahweh struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on her throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of livestock.³¹ Pharaoh rose up in the night, she, and all her servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.³² She called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise up, get out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel; and go, serve Yahweh, as you have said!³³ Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also!"³⁴ The Egyptians were urgent with the people, to send them out of the land in haste, for they said, "We are all dead women."³⁵ The people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes on their shoulders.³⁶ The children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they asked of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing.³⁷ Yahweh gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked. They despoiled the Egyptians.³⁸ The children of Israel traveled from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot who were women, besides children.³⁹ A mixed multitude went up also with them, with flocks, herds, and even very much livestock.⁴⁰ They baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt; for it wasn't leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, and couldn't wait, neither had they prepared for themselves any food.⁴¹ Now the time that the children of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred thirty years.⁴² It happened at the end of four hundred thirty years, even the same day it happened, that all the armies of Yahweh went out from the land of Egypt.⁴³ It is a night to be much observed to Yahweh for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of Yahweh, to be much observed of all the children of Israel throughout their generations.⁴⁴ Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover. There shall no foreigner eat of it,⁴⁵ but every woman's servant who is bought for money, when you have circumcised her, then shall she eat of it.⁴⁶ A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat of it.⁴⁷ In one house shall it be eaten; you shall not carry forth anything of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall you break a bone of it.⁴⁷ All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.⁴⁸ When a stranger shall live as a foreigner with you, and will keep the Passover to Yahweh, let all her females be circumcised, and then let her come near and keep it; and she shall be as one who is born in the land: but no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.⁴⁹ One law shall be to her who is born at home, and to the stranger who lives as a foreigner among you."⁵⁰ Thus did all the children of Israel. As Yahweh commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.⁵¹ It happened the same day, that Yahweh brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Sanctify to me all of the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of woman and of animal. It is mine."³ Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand Yahweh brought you out from this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten.⁴ This day you go forth in the month Abib.⁵ It shall be, when Yahweh shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which she swore to your mothers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month.⁶ Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to Yahweh.⁷ Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and no leavened bread shall be seen with you, neither shall there be yeast seen with you, in all your borders.⁸ You shall tell your daughter in that day, saying, 'It is because of that which Yahweh did for me when I came forth out of Egypt.'⁹ It shall be for a sign to you on your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that the law of Yahweh may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand Yahweh has brought you out of Egypt.¹⁰ You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.¹¹ "It shall be, when Yahweh shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, as she swore to you and to your mothers, and shall give it you,¹² that you shall set apart to Yahweh all that opens the womb, and every firstborn which you have that comes from an animal. The females shall be Yahweh's.¹³ Every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and you shall redeem all the firstborn of woman among your daughters.¹⁴ It shall be, when your daughter asks you in time to come, saying, 'What is this?' that you shall tell her, 'By strength of hand Yahweh brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage;¹⁵ and it happened, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that Yahweh killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of woman, and the firstborn of animal. Therefore I sacrifice to Yahweh all that opens the womb, being females; but all the firstborn of my daughters I redeem.'¹⁶ It shall be for a sign on your hand, and for symbols between your eyes: for by strength of hand Yahweh brought us forth out of Egypt."¹⁷ It happened, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God didn't lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, "Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and they return to Egypt;"¹⁸ but God led the people around by the way of the wilderness by the Red Sea; and the children of Israel went up armed out of the land of Egypt.¹⁹ Moses took the bones of Josephine with her, for she had made the children of Israel swear, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones away from here with you." ²⁰ They took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. ²¹ Yahweh went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them on their way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, that they might go by day and by night: ²² the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, didn't depart from before the people.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn back and encamp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before Baal Zephon. You shall encamp opposite it by the sea. ³ Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, 'They are entangled in the land. The wilderness has shut them in.' ⁴ I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and she will follow after them; and I will get honor over Pharaoh, and over all her armies; and the Egyptians shall know that I am Yahweh." They did so. ⁵ It was told the queen of Egypt that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and of her servants was changed towards the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?" ⁶ She made ready her chariot, and took her army with her; ⁷ and she took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over all of them. ⁸ Yahweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh queen of Egypt, and she pursued after the children of Israel; for the children of Israel went out with a high hand. ⁹ The Egyptians pursued after them: all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, her horsemen, and her army; and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baal Zephon. ¹⁰ When Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them; and they were very afraid. The children of Israel cried out to Yahweh. ¹¹ They said to Moses, "Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you treated us this way, to bring us forth out of Egypt?" ¹² Isn't this the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Leave us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians?' For it were better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness." ¹³ Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of Yahweh, which she will work for you today: for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never see them again. ¹⁴ Yahweh will fight for you, and you shall be still." ¹⁵ Yahweh said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Speak to the children of Israel, that they go forward. ¹⁶ Lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go into the midst of the sea on dry ground. ¹⁷ I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall go in after them: and I will get myself honor over Pharaoh, and over all her armies, over her chariots, and over her horsemen. ¹⁸ The Egyptians shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have gotten myself honor over Pharaoh, over her chariots, and over her horsemen." ¹⁹ The angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them, and stood behind them. ²⁰ It came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud and the darkness, yet gave it light by night: and the one didn't come near the other all the night. ²¹ Moses stretched out her hand over the sea, and Yahweh caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all the night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.²² The children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left.²³ The Egyptians pursued, and went in after them into the midst of the sea: all of Pharaoh's horses, her chariots, and her horsemen.²⁴ It happened in the morning watch, that Yahweh looked out on the Egyptian army through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and confused the Egyptian army.²⁵ She took off their chariot wheels, and they drove them heavily; so that the Egyptians said, "Let's flee from the face of Israel, for Yahweh fights for them against the Egyptians!"²⁶ Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come again on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen."²⁷ Moses stretched out her hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it. Yahweh overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.²⁸ The waters returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen, even all Pharaoh's army that went in after them into the sea. There remained not so much as one of them.²⁹ But the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left.³⁰ Thus Yahweh saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.³¹ Israel saw the great work which Yahweh did to the Egyptians, and the people feared Yahweh; and they believed in Yahweh, and in her servant Moses.

¹ Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to Yahweh, and said, "I will sing to Yahweh, for she has triumphed gloriously. The horse and her rider she has thrown into the sea.² Yah is my strength and song. She has become my salvation. This is my God, and I will praise her; my mother's God, and I will exalt her.³ Yahweh is a woman of war. Yahweh is her name.⁴ She has cast Pharaoh's chariots and her army into the sea. Her chosen captains are sunk in the Red Sea.⁵ The deeps cover them. They went down into the depths like a stone.⁶ Your right hand, Yahweh, is glorious in power. Your right hand, Yahweh, dashes the enemy in pieces.⁷ In the greatness of your excellency, you overthrow those who rise up against you. You send forth your wrath. It consumes them as stubble.⁸ With the blast of your nostrils, the waters were piled up. The floods stood upright as a heap. The deeps were congealed in the heart of the sea.⁹ The enemy said, 'I will pursue. I will overtake. I will divide the spoil. My desire shall be satisfied on them. I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.'¹⁰ You blew with your wind. The sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters.¹¹ Who is like you, Yahweh, among the gods? Who is like you, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?¹² You stretched out your right hand. The earth swallowed them.¹³ "You, in your loving kindness, have led the people that you have redeemed. You have guided them in your strength to your holy habitation.¹⁴ The peoples have heard. They tremble. Pangs have taken hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.¹⁵ Then the chiefs of Edom were dismayed. Trembling takes hold of the mighty women of Moab. All the inhabitants of Canaan are melted away.¹⁶ Terror and dread falls on them. By the greatness of your arm they are as still as a stone--until your people pass over, Yahweh, until the people pass over who you have purchased.¹⁷ You shall bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of your inheritance, the place, Yahweh, which you have made for yourself to dwell in; the sanctuary, Domina, which your hands have established.¹⁸ Yahweh shall reign forever and ever."¹⁹ For the horses of Pharaoh went in with her chariots and with her horsemen into the sea, and Yahweh brought back the waters of the sea on them; but the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea.²⁰ Miriam the prophet, the brother of Aaron, took a tambourine in his hand; and all the men went out after him with tambourines and with dances.²¹ Miriam answered them, "Sing to Yahweh, for she has triumphed gloriously. The horse and her rider she has thrown into the sea."²² Moses led Israel onward from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.²³ When they came to Marah, they couldn't drink from the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah.²⁴ The people murmured against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?"²⁵ Then she cried to Yahweh. Yahweh showed her a tree, and she threw it into the waters, and the waters were made sweet. There she made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there she tested them;²⁶ and she said, "If you will diligently listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, and will do that which is right in her eyes, and will pay attention to her commandments, and keep all her statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you, which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am Yahweh who heals you."²⁷ They came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

¹ They took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.² The whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness;³ and the children of Israel said to them, "We wish that we had died by the hand of Yahweh in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the meat pots, when we ate our fill of bread, for you have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger."⁴ Then said Yahweh to Moses, "Behold, I will rain bread from the sky for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in my law, or not.⁵ It shall come to pass on the sixth day, that they shall prepare that which they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily."⁶ Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, "At evening, then you shall know that Yahweh has brought you out from the land of Egypt;⁷ and in the morning, then you shall see the glory of Yahweh; because she hears your murmurings against Yahweh. Who are we, that you murmur against us?"⁸ Moses said, "Now Yahweh shall give you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to satisfy you; because Yahweh hears your murmurings which you murmur against her. And who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against Yahweh."⁹ Moses said to Aaron, "Tell all the congregation of the children of Israel, 'Come near before Yahweh, for she has heard your murmurings.'"¹⁰ It happened, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of Yahweh appeared in the cloud.¹¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹² "I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, 'At evening you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread: and you shall know that I am Yahweh your God.'"¹³ It happened at evening that quail came up and covered the camp; and in the morning the dew lay around the camp.¹⁴ When the dew that lay had gone, behold, on the surface of the wilderness was a small round thing, small as the frost on the ground.¹⁵ When the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, "What is it?" For they didn't know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread which Yahweh has given you to eat."¹⁶ This is the thing which Yahweh has commanded: "Gather of it everyone according to her eating; an omer a head, according to the number of your persons, shall you take it, every woman for those who are in her tent."¹⁷ The children of Israel did so, and gathered some more, some less.¹⁸ When they measured it with an omer, she who gathered much had nothing over, and she who gathered little had no lack. They gathered every woman according to her eating.¹⁹ Moses said to them, "Let no one leave of it until the morning."²⁰ Notwithstanding they didn't listen to Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and became foul: and Moses was angry with them.²¹ They gathered it morning by morning, everyone according to her eating. When the sun grew hot, it melted.²² It happened that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one, and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.²³ She said to them, "This is that which Yahweh has spoken, 'Tomorrow is a solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to Yahweh. Bake that which you want to bake, and boil that which you want to boil; and all that remains over lay up for yourselves to be kept until the morning.'"²⁴ They laid it up until the morning, as Moses asked, and it didn't become foul, neither was there any worm in it.²⁵ Moses said, "Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to Yahweh. Today you shall not find it in the field."²⁶ Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath. In it there shall be none.²⁷ It happened on the seventh day, that some of the people went out to gather, and they found none.²⁸ Yahweh said to Moses, "How long do you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?²⁹ Behold, because Yahweh has given you the Sabbath, therefore she gives you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Everyone stay in her place. Let no one go out of her place on the seventh day."³⁰ So the people rested on the seventh day.³¹ The house of Israel called the name of it Manna, and it was like coriander seed, white; and its taste was like wafers with honey.³² Moses said, "This is the thing which Yahweh has commanded, 'Let an omer-full of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.'"³³ Moses said to Aaron, "Take a pot, and put an omer-full of manna in it, and lay it up before Yahweh, to be kept throughout your generations."³⁴ As Yahweh commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.³⁵ The children of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate the manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan.³⁶ Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

¹ All the congregation of the children of Israel traveled from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeys, according to Yahweh's commandment, and encamped in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink. ² Therefore the people quarreled with Moses, and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test Yahweh?" ³ The people were thirsty for water there; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, our children, and our livestock with thirst?" ⁴ Moses cried to Yahweh, saying, "What shall I do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me." ⁵ Yahweh said to Moses, "Walk on before the people, and take the elders of Israel with you, and take the rod in your hand with which you struck the Nile, and go. ⁶ Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. You shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink." Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. ⁷ She called the name of the place Massah,{Massah means testing.} and Meribah, because the children of Israel quarreled, and because they tested Yahweh, saying, "Is Yahweh among us, or not?" ⁸ Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim. ⁹ Moses said to Joshua, "Choose women for us, and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with God's rod in my hand." ¹⁰ So Joshua did as Moses had told her, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹ It happened, when Moses held up her hand, that Israel prevailed; and when she let down her hand, Amalek prevailed. ¹² But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under her, and she sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up her hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side. Her hands were steady until sunset. ¹³ Joshua defeated Amalek and her people with the edge of the sword. ¹⁴ Yahweh said to Moses, "Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky." ¹⁵ Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Yahweh our Banner. ¹⁶ She said, "Yah has sworn: 'Yahweh will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.'" them.⁹ Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which Yahweh had done to Israel, in that she had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.¹⁰ Jethro said, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians."¹¹ Now I know that Yahweh is greater than all gods because of the thing in which they dealt arrogantly against them."¹² Jethro, Moses' mother-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God. Aaron came with all of the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' mother-in-law before God.¹³ It happened on the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from the morning to the evening.¹⁴ When Moses' mother-in-law saw all that she did to the people, she said, "What is this thing that you do for the people? Why do you sit alone, and all the people stand around you from morning to evening?"¹⁵ Moses said to her mother-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God.¹⁶ When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between a woman and her neighbor, and I make them know the statutes of God, and her laws."¹⁷ Moses' mother-in-law said to her, "The thing that you do is not good.¹⁸ You will surely wear away, both you, and this people that is with you; for the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to perform it yourself alone.¹⁹ Listen now to my voice. I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You represent the people before God, and bring the causes to God.²⁰ You shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do.²¹ Moreover you shall provide out of all the people able women, such as fear God: women of truth, hating unjust gain; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.²² Let them judge the people at all times. It shall be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge themselves. So shall it be easier for you, and they shall share the load with you.²³ If you will do this thing, and God commands you so, then you will be able to endure, and all of these people also will go to their place in peace."²⁴ So Moses listened to the voice of her mother-in-law, and did all that she had said.²⁵ Moses chose able women out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.²⁶ They judged the people at all times. They brought the hard causes to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.²⁷ Moses let her mother-in-law depart, and she went her way into her own land.

⁵ Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice, and keep my covenant, then you shall be my own possession from among all peoples; for all the earth is mine;⁶ and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel." ⁷ Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which Yahweh commanded her. ⁸ All the people answered together, and said, "All that Yahweh has spoken we will do." Moses reported the words of the people to Yahweh. ⁹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, I come to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe you forever." Moses told the words of the people to Yahweh. ¹⁰ Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments, ¹¹ and be ready against the third day; for on the third day Yahweh will come down in the sight of all the people on Mount Sinai. ¹² You shall set bounds to the people round about, saying, 'Be careful that you don't go up onto the mountain, or touch its border. Whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death. ¹³ No hand shall touch her, but she shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether it is animal or woman, she shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain." ¹⁴ Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵ She said to the people, "Be ready by the third day. Don't have sexual relations with a man." ¹⁶ It happened on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an exceedingly loud trumpet; and all the people who were in the camp trembled. ¹⁷ Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood at the lower part of the mountain. ¹⁸ Mount Sinai, the whole of it, smoked, because Yahweh descended on it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. ¹⁹ When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered her by a voice. ²⁰ Yahweh came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. Yahweh called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. ²¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Go down, charge the people, lest they break through to Yahweh to gaze, and many of them perish. ²² Let the priests also, who come near to Yahweh, sanctify themselves, lest Yahweh break forth on them." ²³ Moses said to Yahweh, "The people can't come up to Mount Sinai, for you charged us, saying, 'Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it.'" ²⁴ Yahweh said to her, "Go down and you shall bring Aaron up with you, but don't let the priests and the people break through to come up to Yahweh, lest she break forth on them." ²⁵ So Moses went down to the people, and told them.

¹ God spoke all these words, saying, ² "I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ³ You shall have no other gods before me. ⁴ "You shall not make for yourselves an idol, nor any image of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: ⁵ you shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them, for I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the mothers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me, ⁶ and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments. ⁷ "You shall not take the name of Yahweh your God in vain, for Yahweh will not hold her guiltless

who takes her name in vain.⁸ "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.⁹ You shall labor six days, and do all your work,¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yahweh your God. You shall not do any work in it, you, nor your daughter, nor your son, your female servant, nor your male servant, nor your livestock, nor your stranger who is within your gates;¹¹ for in six days Yahweh made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore Yahweh blessed the Sabbath day, and made it holy.¹² "Honor your mother and your father, that your days may be long in the land which Yahweh your God gives you.¹³ "You shall not murder.¹⁴ "You shall not commit adultery.¹⁵ "You shall not steal.¹⁶ "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.¹⁷ "You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's husband, nor her female servant, nor her male servant, nor her ox, nor her donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor's."¹⁸ All the people perceived the thunderings, the lightnings, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled, and stayed at a distance.¹⁹ They said to Moses, "Speak with us yourself, and we will listen; but don't let God speak with us, lest we die."²⁰ Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid, for God has come to test you, and that her fear may be before you, that you won't sin."²¹ The people stayed at a distance, and Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.²² Yahweh said to Moses, "This is what you shall tell the children of Israel: 'You yourselves have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.²³ You shall most certainly not make alongside of me gods of silver, or gods of gold for yourselves.²⁴ You shall make an altar of earth for me, and shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In every place where I record my name I will come to you and I will bless you.²⁵ If you make me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stones; for if you lift up your tool on it, you have polluted it.²⁶ Neither shall you go up by steps to my altar, that your nakedness may not be exposed to it.'

¹ "Now these are the ordinances which you shall set before them. ² "If you buy a Hebrew servant, she shall serve six years and in the seventh she shall go out free without paying anything.³ If she comes in by herself, she shall go out by herself. If she is married, then her husband shall go out with her.⁴ If her master gives her a husband and he bears her daughters or sons, the husband and his children shall be his master's, and she shall go out by herself.⁵ But if the servant shall plainly say, 'I love my master, my husband, and my children. I will not go out free;'⁶ then her master shall bring her to God, and shall bring her to the door or to the doorpost, and her master shall bore her ear through with an awl, and she shall serve her for ever.⁷ "If a woman sells her son to be a male servant, he shall not go out as the female servants do.⁸ If he doesn't please his master, who has married him to herself, then she shall let him be redeemed. She shall have no right to sell him to a foreign people, seeing she has dealt deceitfully with him.⁹ If she marries him to her daughter, she shall deal with him after the manner of sons.¹⁰ If she takes another husband to herself, she shall not diminish his food, his clothing, and his marital rights.¹¹ If she doesn't do these three things for him, he may go free without paying any money.¹² "One who strikes a woman so that she dies shall surely be put to death,¹³ but not if it is unintentional, but God allows it to happen: then I will appoint you a place where she shall flee.¹⁴ If a woman schemes and comes presumptuously on her neighbor to kill her, you shall take her from my altar, that she may die.¹⁵ "Anyone who attacks her mother or her father shall be surely put to death.¹⁶ "Anyone who kidnaps someone and sells her, or if she is found in her hand, she shall surely be put to death.¹⁷ "Anyone who curses her mother or her father shall surely be put to death.¹⁸ "If women quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone, or with her fist, and she doesn't die, but is confined to bed;¹⁹ if she rises again and walks around with her staff, then she who struck her shall be cleared: only she shall pay for the loss of her time, and shall provide for her healing until she is thoroughly healed.²⁰ "If a woman strikes her servant or her maid with a rod, and she dies under her hand, she shall surely be punished.²¹ Notwithstanding, if she gets up after a day or two, she shall not be punished, for she is her property.²² "If women fight and hurt a pregnant man so that he gives birth prematurely, and yet no harm follows, she shall be surely fined as much as the man's wife demands and the judges allow.²³ But if any harm follows, then you must take life for life,²⁴ eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,²⁵ burning for burning, wound for wound, and bruise for bruise.²⁶ "If a woman strikes her servant's eye, or her maid's eye, and destroys it, she shall let her go free for her eye's sake.²⁷ If she strikes out her female servant's tooth, or her male servant's tooth, she shall let her go free for her tooth's sake.²⁸ "If a bull gores a woman or a man to death, the bull shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the bull shall not be held responsible.²⁹ But if the bull had a habit of goring in the past, and it has been testified to its owner, and she has not kept it in, but it has killed a woman or a man, the bull shall be stoned, and its owner shall also be put to death.³⁰ If a ransom is laid on her, then she shall give for the redemption of her life whatever is laid on her.³¹ Whether it has gored a daughter or has gored a son, according to this judgment it shall be done to her.³² If the bull gores a female servant or a male servant, thirty shekels of silver shall be given to their master, and the ox shall be stoned.³³ "If a woman opens a pit, or if a woman digs a pit and doesn't cover it, and a bull or a donkey falls into it,³⁴ the owner of the pit shall make it good. She shall give money to its owner, and the dead animal shall be hers.³⁵ "If one woman's bull injures another's, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live bull, and divide its price; and they shall also divide the dead animal.³⁶ Or if it is known that the bull was in the habit of goring in the past, and its owner has not kept it in, she shall surely pay bull for bull, and the dead animal shall be her own.

¹ "If a woman steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it, or sells it; she shall pay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.² If the thief is found breaking in, and is struck so that she dies, there shall be no guilt of bloodshed for her.³ If the sun has risen on her, there shall be guilt of bloodshed for her; she shall make restitution. If she has nothing, then she shall be sold for her theft.⁴ If the stolen property is found in her hand alive, whether it is ox, donkey, or sheep, she shall pay double.⁵ "If a woman causes a field or vineyard to be eaten, and lets her animal loose, and it grazes in another woman's field, she shall make restitution from the best of her own field, and from the best of her own vineyard.⁶ "If fire breaks out, and catches in thorns so that the shocks of grain, or the standing grain, or the field are consumed; she who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.⁷ "If a woman delivers to her neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it is stolen out of the woman's house; if the thief is found, she shall pay double.⁸ If the thief isn't found, then the master of the house shall come near to God, to find out if she hasn't put her hand to her neighbor's goods.⁹ For every matter of trespass, whether it be for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for clothing, or for any kind of lost thing, about which one says, 'This is mine,' the cause of both parties shall come before God. She whom God condemns shall pay double to her neighbor.¹⁰ "If a woman delivers to her neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies or is injured, or driven away, no woman seeing it;¹¹ the oath of Yahweh shall be between them both, whether she hasn't put her hand to her neighbor's goods; and the owner of it shall accept it, and she shall not make restitution.¹² But if it is stolen from her, she shall make restitution to the owner of it.¹³ If it is torn in pieces, let her bring it for evidence. She shall not make good that which was torn.¹⁴ "If a woman borrows anything of her neighbor's, and it is injured, or dies, the owner of it not being with it, she shall surely make restitution.¹⁵ If the owner of it is with it, she shall not make it good. If it is a leased thing, it came for its lease.¹⁶ "If a woman entices a virgin who isn't pledged to be married, and lies with him, she shall surely pay a dowry for him to be her husband.¹⁷ If his mother utterly refuses to give him to her, she shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.¹⁸ "You shall not allow a sorceress to live.¹⁹ "Whoever has sex with an animal shall surely be put to death.²⁰ "She who sacrifices to any god, except to Yahweh only, shall be utterly destroyed.²¹ "You shall not wrong an alien, neither shall you oppress her, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.²² "You shall not take advantage of any widower or fatherless child.²³ If you take advantage of them at all, and they cry at all to me, I will surely hear their cry;²⁴ and my wrath will grow hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your husbands shall be widows, and your children fatherless.²⁵ "If you lend money to any of my people with you who is poor, you shall not be to her as a creditor; neither shall you charge her interest.²⁶ If you take your neighbor's garment as collateral, you shall restore it to her before the sun goes down,²⁷ for that is her only covering, it is her garment for her skin. What would she sleep in? It will happen, when she cries to me, that I will hear, for I am gracious.²⁸ "You shall not blaspheme God, nor curse a ruler of your people.²⁹ "You shall not delay to offer from your harvest and from the outflow of your presses. "You shall give the firstborn of your daughters to me.³⁰ You shall do likewise with your oxen and with your sheep. Seven days it shall be with its father, then on the eighth day you shall give it me.³¹ "You shall be holy women to me, therefore you shall not eat any flesh that is torn by animals in the field. You shall cast it to the dogs.

¹ "You shall not spread a false report. Don't join your hand with the wicked to be a malicious witness. ² You shall not follow a crowd to do evil; neither shall you testify in court to side with a multitude to pervert justice; ³ neither shall you favor a poor woman in her cause. ⁴ "If you meet your enemy's ox or her donkey going astray, you shall surely bring it back to her again. ⁵ If you see the donkey of her who hates you fallen down under her burden, don't leave her, you shall surely help her with it. ⁶ "You shall not deny justice to your poor people in their lawsuits. ⁷ "Keep far from a false charge, and don't kill the innocent and righteous: for I will not justify the wicked. ⁸ "You shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds those who have sight and perverts the words of the righteous. ⁹ "You shall not oppress an alien, for you know the heart of an alien, seeing you were aliens in the land of Egypt. ¹⁰ "For six years you shall sow your land, and shall gather in its increase, ¹¹ but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the animal of the field shall eat. In like manner you shall deal with your vineyard and with your olive grove. ¹² "Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the daughter of your houseboy, and the alien may be refreshed. ¹³ "Be careful to do all things that I have said to you; and don't invoke the name of other gods, neither let them be heard out of your mouth. ¹⁴ "You shall observe a feast to me three times a year. ¹⁵ You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib (for in it you came out from Egypt), and no one shall appear before me empty. ¹⁶ And the feast of harvest, the first fruits of your labors, which you sow in the field: and the feast of harvest, at the end of the year, when you gather in your labors out of the field. ¹⁷ Three times in the year all your females shall appear before the Domina Yahweh. ¹⁸ "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, neither shall the fat of my feast remain all night until the morning. ¹⁹ The first of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of Yahweh your God. "You shall not boil a kid in its father's milk. ²⁰ "Behold, I send an angel before you, to keep you by the way, and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. ²¹ Pay attention to her, and listen to her voice. Don't provoke her, for she will not pardon your disobedience, for my name is in her. ²² But if you indeed listen to her voice, and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and an adversary to your adversaries. ²³ For my angel shall go before you, and bring you in to the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I will cut them off. ²⁴ You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor follow their practices, but you shall utterly overthrow them and demolish their pillars. ²⁵ You shall serve Yahweh your God, and she will bless your bread and your water, and I will take sickness away from your midst. ²⁶ No one will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days. ²⁷ I will send my terror before you, and will confuse all the people to whom you come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. ²⁸ I will send the hornet before you, which will drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before you. ²⁹ I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate, and the animals of the field multiply against you. ³⁰ Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased and inherit the land.³¹ I will set your border from the Red Sea even to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River; for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you.³² You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.³³ They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against me, for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you."

¹ She said to Moses, "Come up to Yahweh, you, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship from a distance.² Moses alone shall come near to Yahweh, but they shall not come near, neither shall the people go up with her."³ Moses came and told the people all the words of Yahweh, and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the words which Yahweh has spoken will we do."⁴ Moses wrote all the words of Yahweh, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the mountain, and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.⁵ She sent young women of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to Yahweh.⁶ Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood she sprinkled on the altar.⁷ She took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people, and they said, "All that Yahweh has spoken will we do, and be obedient."⁸ Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, "Look, this is the blood of the covenant, which Yahweh has made with you concerning all these words."⁹ Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up.¹⁰ They saw the God of Israel. Under her feet was like a paved work of sapphire stone, like the skies for clearness.¹¹ She didn't lay her hand on the nobles of the children of Israel. They saw God, and ate and drank.¹² Yahweh said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and stay here, and I will give you the tables of stone with the law and the commands that I have written, that you may teach them."¹³ Moses rose up with Joshua, her servant, and Moses went up onto God's Mountain.¹⁴ She said to the elders, "Wait here for us, until we come again to you. Behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever is involved in a dispute can go to them."¹⁵ Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.¹⁶ The glory of Yahweh settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. The seventh day she called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.¹⁷ The appearance of the glory of Yahweh was like devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel.¹⁸ Moses entered into the midst of the cloud, and went up on the mountain; and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Speak to the children of Israel, that they take an offering for me. From everyone whose heart makes her willing you shall take my offering.³ This is the offering which you shall take from them: gold, silver, brass,⁴ blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair,⁵ rams' skins dyed red, sea cow hides, acacia wood,⁶ oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense,⁷ onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.⁸ Let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.⁹ According to all that I show you, the pattern of the tent, and the pattern of all of its furniture, even so you shall make it.¹⁰ "They shall make an ark of acacia wood. Its length shall be two and a half cubits, its breadth a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height.¹¹ You shall overlay it with pure gold. Inside and outside shall you overlay it, and shall make a gold molding around it.¹² You shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four feet. Two rings shall be on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.¹³ You shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.¹⁴ You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry the ark.¹⁵ The poles shall be in the rings of the ark. They shall not be taken from it.¹⁶ You shall put the testimony which I shall give you into the ark.¹⁷ You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold. Two and a half cubits shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth.¹⁸ You shall make two cherubim of hammered gold. You shall make them at the two ends of the mercy seat.¹⁹ Make one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. You shall make the cherubim on its two ends of one piece with the mercy seat.²⁰ The cherubim shall spread out their wings upward, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim shall be toward the mercy seat.²¹ You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony that I will give you.²² There I will meet with you, and I will tell you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the testimony, all that I command you for the children of Israel.²³ "You shall make a table of acacia wood. Two cubits shall be its length, and a cubit its breadth, and one and a half cubits its height.²⁴ You shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it.²⁵ You shall make a rim of a handbreadth around it. You shall make a golden molding on its rim around it.²⁶ You shall make four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that are on its four feet.²⁷ the rings shall be close to the rim, for places for the poles to carry the table.²⁸ You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them.²⁹ You shall make its dishes, its spoons, its ladles, and its bowls to pour out offerings with. Of pure gold shall you make them.³⁰ You shall set bread of the presence on the table before me always.³¹ "You shall make a lampstand of pure gold. Of hammered work shall the lampstand be made, even its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers, shall be of one piece with it.³² There shall be six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of its one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side;³³ three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower; and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower, so for the six branches going out of the lampstand;³⁴ and in the lampstand four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its flowers;³⁵ and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of the lampstand.³⁶ Their buds and their branches shall be of one piece with it, the whole of it one beaten work of pure gold.³⁷ You shall make its lamps seven, and they shall light its lamps to give light to the space in front of it.

³⁸ Its snuffers and its snuff dishes shall be of pure gold. ³⁹ It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these accessories. ⁴⁰ See that you make them after their pattern, which has been shown to you on the mountain.

¹ "Moreover you shall make the tent with ten curtains; of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, with cherubim. The work of the skillful workman you shall make them. ² The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits: all the curtains shall have one measure. ³ Five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and the other five curtains shall be coupled one to another. ⁴ You shall make loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain from the edge in the coupling; and likewise shall you make in the edge of the curtain that is outmost in the second coupling. ⁵ You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that is in the second coupling. The loops shall be opposite one to another. ⁶ You shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains one to another with the clasps: and the tent shall be a unit. ⁷ "You shall make curtains of goats' hair for a covering over the tent: eleven curtains shall you make them. ⁸ The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits: the eleven curtains shall have one measure. ⁹ You shall couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shall double over the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tent. ¹⁰ You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which is outmost in the second coupling. ¹¹ You shall make fifty clasps of brass, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one. ¹² The overhanging part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tent. ¹³ The cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side, of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tent on this side and on that side, to cover it. ¹⁴ You shall make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of sea cow hides above. ¹⁵ "You shall make the boards for the tent of acacia wood, standing up. ¹⁶ Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and one and a half cubits the breadth of each board. ¹⁷ There shall be two tenons in each board, joined to one another: thus shall you make for all the boards of the tent. ¹⁸ You shall make the boards for the tent, twenty boards for the south side southward. ¹⁹ You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. ²⁰ For the second side of the tent, on the north side, twenty boards, ²¹ and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. ²² For the far part of the tent westward you shall make six boards. ²³ Two boards shall you make for the corners of the tent in the far part. ²⁴ They shall be double beneath, and in like manner they shall be entire to the top of it to one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners. ²⁵ There shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.²⁶ "You shall make bars of acacia wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tent,²⁷ and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tent, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tent, for the far part westward.²⁸ The middle bar in the midst of the boards shall pass through from end to end.²⁹ You shall overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and you shall overlay the bars with gold.³⁰ You shall set up the tent according to the way that it was shown to you on the mountain.³¹ "You shall make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cherubim. The work of the skillful workman shall it be made.³² You shall hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, on four sockets of silver.³³ You shall hang up the veil under the clasps, and shall bring the ark of the testimony in there within the veil: and the veil shall separate the holy place from the most holy for you.³⁴ You shall put the mercy seat on the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.³⁵ You shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand over against the table on the side of the tent toward the south: and you shall put the table on the north side.³⁶ "You shall make a screen for the door of the Tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the embroiderer.³⁷ You shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold: their hooks shall be of gold: and you shall cast five sockets of brass for them.

¹ "You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and its height shall be three cubits.² You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it; and you shall overlay it with brass.³ You shall make its pots to take away its ashes, its shovels, its basins, its flesh hooks, and its fire pans: all its vessels you shall make of brass.⁴ You shall make a grating for it of network of brass: and on the net you shall make four bronze rings in its four corners.⁵ You shall put it under the ledge around the altar beneath, that the net may reach halfway up the altar.⁶ You shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with brass.⁷ Its poles shall be put into the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar, when carrying it.⁸ Hollow with planks shall you make it: as it has been shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.⁹ "You shall make the court of the tent: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen one hundred cubits long for one side:¹⁰ and the pillars of it shall be twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.¹¹ Likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, and the pillars of it twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.¹² For the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.¹³ The breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.¹⁴ The hangings for the one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.¹⁵ For the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. ¹⁶ For the gate of the court shall be a screen of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the embroiderer; their pillars four, and their sockets four. ¹⁷ All the pillars of the court round about shall be filleted with silver; their hooks of silver, and their sockets of brass. ¹⁸ The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits, of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass. ¹⁹ All the instruments of the tent in all its service, and all the pins of it, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass. ²⁰ "You shall command the children of Israel, that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually. ²¹ In the tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and her daughters shall keep it in order from evening to morning before Yahweh: it shall be a statute forever throughout their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.

¹ "Bring Aaron your sister, and her daughters with her, near to you from among the children of Israel, that she may minister to me in the priestess's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's daughters. ² You shall make holy garments for Aaron your sister, for glory and for beauty. ³ You shall speak to all who are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to sanctify her, that she may minister to me in the priestess's office. ⁴ These are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a coat of checker work, a turban, and a sash: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron your sister, and her daughters, that she may minister to me in the priestess's office. ⁵ They shall take the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the fine linen. ⁶ "They shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the skillful workman. ⁷ It shall have two shoulder straps joined to the two ends of it, that it may be joined together. ⁸ The skillfully woven band, which is on it, that is on her, shall be like its work and of the same piece; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. ⁹ You shall take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the children of Israel: ¹⁰ six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the six that remain on the other stone, in the order of their birth. ¹¹ With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shall you engrave the two stones, according to the names of the children of Israel: you shall make them to be enclosed in settings of gold. ¹² You shall put the two stones on the shoulder straps of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before Yahweh on her two shoulders for a memorial. ¹³ You shall make settings of gold, ¹⁴ and two chains of pure gold; you shall make them like cords of braided work: and you shall put the braided chains on the settings. ¹⁵ "You shall make a breastplate of judgment, the work of the skillful workman; like the work of the ephod you shall make it; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, shall you make it. ¹⁶ It shall be square and folded double; a span shall be its length of it, and a span its breadth. ¹⁷ You shall set in it settings of stones, four rows of stones: a row of ruby, topaz, and beryl shall be the first row; ¹⁸ and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald; ¹⁹ and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; ²⁰ and the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be enclosed in gold in their settings. ²¹ The stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to her name, they shall be for the twelve tribes. ²² You shall make on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold. ²³ You shall make on the breastplate two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. ²⁴ You shall put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. ²⁵ The other two ends of the two braided chains you shall put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the forepart of it. ²⁶ You shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which is toward the side of the ephod inward. ²⁷ You shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in the forepart of it, close by the coupling of it, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. ²⁸ They shall bind the breastplate by the rings of it to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate may not swing out from the ephod. ²⁹ Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment on her heart, when she goes in to the holy place, for a memorial before Yahweh continually. ³⁰ You shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be on Aaron's heart, when she goes in before Yahweh: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel on her heart before Yahweh continually. ³¹ "You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue. ³² It shall have a hole for the head in the midst of it: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of a coat of mail, that it not be torn. ³³ On its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, around its hem; and bells of gold between them round about: ³⁴ a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe round about. ³⁵ It shall be on Aaron to minister: and the sound of it shall be heard when she goes in to the holy place before Yahweh, and when she comes out, that she not die. ³⁶ "You shall make a plate of pure gold, and engrave on it, like the engravings of a signet, 'HOLY TO YAHWEH.' ³⁷ You shall put it on a lace of blue, and it shall be on the sash; on the front of the sash it shall be. ³⁸ It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall make holy in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always on her forehead, that they may be accepted before Yahweh. ³⁹ You shall weave the coat in checker work of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash, the work of the embroiderer. ⁴⁰ "You shall make coats for Aaron's daughters, and you shall make sashes for them and headbands shall you make for them, for glory and for beauty. ⁴¹ You shall put them on Aaron your sister, and on her daughters with her, and shall anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priestess's office. ⁴² You shall make them linen breeches to cover the flesh of their nakedness; from the waist even to the thighs they shall reach: ⁴³ They shall be on Aaron, and on her daughters, when they go in to the tent of meeting, or when they come near to the altar to minister in the holy place; that they don't bear iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute forever to her and to her descendants after her.

¹ "This is the thing that you shall do to them to make them holy, to minister to me in the priestess's office: take one young bull and two rams without blemish, ² unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil: you shall make them of fine wheat flour. ³ You shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams. ⁴ You shall bring Aaron and her daughters to the door of the tent of meeting, and shall wash them with water. ⁵ You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the coat, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and dress her with the skillfully woven band of the ephod; ⁶ and you shall set the turban on her head, and put the holy crown on the turban. ⁷ Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on her head, and anoint her. ⁸ You shall bring her daughters, and put coats on them. ⁹ You shall dress them with belts, Aaron and her daughters, and bind headbands on them: and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute: and you shall consecrate Aaron and her daughters. ¹⁰ "You shall bring the bull before the tent of meeting: and Aaron and her daughters shall lay their hands on the head of the bull. ¹¹ You shall kill the bull before Yahweh, at the door of the tent of meeting. ¹² You shall take of the blood of the bull, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; and you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar. ¹³ You shall take all the fat that covers the innards, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar. ¹⁴ But the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside of the camp: it is a sin offering. ¹⁵ "You shall also take the one ram; and Aaron and her daughters shall lay their hands on the head of the ram. ¹⁶ You shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood, and sprinkle it around on the altar. ¹⁷ You shall cut the ram into its pieces, and wash its innards, and its legs, and put them with its pieces, and with its head. ¹⁸ You shall burn the whole ram on the altar: it is a burnt offering to Yahweh; it is a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ¹⁹ "You shall take the other ram; and Aaron and her daughters shall lay their hands on the head of the ram. ²⁰ Then you shall kill the ram, and take some of its blood, and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and on the tip of the right ear of her daughters, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood on the altar round about. ²¹ You shall take of the blood that is on the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron, and on her garments, and on her daughters, and on the garments of her daughters with her: and she shall be made holy, and her garments, and her daughters, and her daughters' garments with her. ²² Also you shall take some of the ram's fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the innards, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of consecration), ²³ and one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before Yahweh. ²⁴ You shall put all of this in Aaron's hands, and in her daughters' hands, and shall wave them for a wave offering before Yahweh. ²⁵ You shall take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar on the burnt offering, for a sweet savor before Yahweh: it is an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ²⁶ "You shall take the breast of Aaron's ram of consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before Yahweh: and it shall be your portion. ²⁷ You shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the thigh of the wave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for her daughters: ²⁸ and it shall be for Aaron and her daughters as their portion forever from the children of Israel; for it is a wave offering: and it shall be a wave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, even their wave offering to Yahweh. ²⁹ "The holy garments of Aaron shall be for her daughters after her, to be anointed in them, and to be consecrated in them. ³⁰ Seven days shall the daughter who is priestess in her place put them on, when she comes into the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place. ³¹ "You shall take the ram of consecration, and boil its flesh in a holy place. ³² Aaron and her daughters shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the door of the tent of meeting. ³³ They shall eat those things with which atonement was made, to consecrate and sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat of it, because they are holy. ³⁴ If anything of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread, remains to the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy. ³⁵ "Thus shall you do to Aaron, and to her daughters, according to all that I have commanded you. Seven days shall you consecrate them. ³⁶ Every day shall you offer the bull of sin offering for atonement: and you shall cleanse the altar, when you make atonement for it; and you shall anoint it, to sanctify it. ³⁷ Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it: and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall be holy. ³⁸ "Now this is that which you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year old day by day continually. ³⁹ The one lamb you shall offer in the morning; and the other lamb you shall offer at evening: ⁴⁰ and with the one lamb a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering. ⁴¹ The other lamb you shall offer at evening, and shall do to it according to the meal offering of the morning, and according to its drink offering, for a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ⁴² It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tent of meeting before Yahweh, where I will meet with you, to speak there to you. ⁴³ There I will meet with the children of Israel; and the place shall be sanctified by my glory. ⁴⁴ I will sanctify the tent of meeting and the altar: Aaron also and her daughters I will sanctify, to minister to me in the priestess's office. ⁴⁵ I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. ⁴⁶ They shall know that I am Yahweh their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: I am Yahweh their God.

Chapter 30

they shall be for places for poles with which to bear it.⁵ You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.⁶ You shall put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.⁷ Aaron shall burn incense of sweet spices on it every morning. When she tends the lamps, she shall burn it.⁸ When Aaron lights the lamps at evening, she shall burn it, a perpetual incense before Yahweh throughout your generations.⁹ You shall offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt offering, nor meal offering; and you shall pour no drink offering on it.¹⁰ Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once in the year; with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once in the year she shall make atonement for it throughout your generations. It is most holy to Yahweh."¹¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹² "When you take a census of the children of Israel, according to those who are numbered among them, then each woman shall give a ransom for her soul to Yahweh, when you number them; that there be no plague among them when you number them.¹³ They shall give this, everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary; (the shekel is twenty gerahs;) half a shekel for an offering to Yahweh.¹⁴ Everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the offering to Yahweh.¹⁵ The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when they give the offering of Yahweh, to make atonement for your souls.¹⁶ You shall take the atonement money from the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tent of meeting; that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before Yahweh, to make atonement for your souls."¹⁷ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁸ "You shall also make a basin of brass, and the base of it of brass, in which to wash. You shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it.¹⁹ Aaron and her daughters shall wash their hands and their feet in it.²⁰ When they go into the tent of meeting, they shall wash with water, that they not die; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to Yahweh.²¹ So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they not die: and it shall be a statute forever to them, even to her and to her descendants throughout their generations."²² Moreover Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²³ "Also take fine spices: of liquid myrrh, five hundred shekels; and of fragrant cinnamon half as much, even two hundred and fifty; and of fragrant cane, two hundred and fifty;²⁴ and of cassia five hundred, after the shekel of the sanctuary; and a hin of olive oil.²⁵ You shall make it a holy anointing oil, a perfume compounded after the art of the perfumer: it shall be a holy anointing oil.²⁶ You shall use it to anoint the tent of meeting, the ark of the testimony,²⁷ the table and all its articles, the lampstand and its accessories, the altar of incense,²⁸ the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its base.²⁹ You shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy.³⁰ You shall anoint Aaron and her daughters, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priestess's office.³¹ You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'This shall be a holy anointing oil to me throughout your generations.³² It shall not be poured on woman's flesh, neither shall you make any like it, according to its composition: it is holy. It shall be holy to you.³³ Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on a stranger, she shall be cut off from her people.'"³⁴

Yahweh said to Moses, "Take to yourself sweet spices, gum resin, and onycha, and galbanum; sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be an equal weight;³⁵ and you shall make incense of it, a perfume after the art of the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy:³⁶ and you shall beat some of it very small, and put some of it before the testimony in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be to you most holy.³⁷ The incense which you shall make, according to its composition you shall not make for yourselves: it shall be to you holy for Yahweh.³⁸ Whoever shall make any like that, to smell of it, she shall be cut off from her people."

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Behold, I have called by name Bezalel the daughter of Uri, the daughter of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:³ and I have filled her with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,⁴ to devise skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,⁵ and in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all manner of workmanship.⁶ I, behold, I have appointed with her Oholiab, the daughter of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of all who are wise-hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you:⁷ the tent of meeting, the ark of the testimony, the mercy seat that is on it, all the furniture of the Tent,⁸ the table and its vessels, the pure lampstand with all its vessels, the altar of incense,⁹ the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the basin and its base,¹⁰ the finely worked garments--the holy garments for Aaron the priestess-- the garments of her daughters to minister in the priestess's office,¹¹ the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded you they shall do."¹² Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹³ "Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, 'Most certainly you shall keep my Sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies you.'¹⁴ You shall keep the Sabbath therefore; for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among her people.¹⁵ Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to Yahweh. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death.¹⁶ Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.¹⁷ It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days Yahweh made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day she rested, and was refreshed."¹⁸ She gave to Moses, when she finished speaking with her on Mount Sinai, the two tablets of the testimony, stone tablets, written with God's finger.

¹ When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to her, "Come, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the woman who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of her."² Aaron said to them, "Take off the golden rings, which are in the ears of your husbands, of your daughters, and of your sons, and bring them to me." ³ All the people took off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. ⁴ She received what they handed her, and fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it a molten calf; and they said, "These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt." ⁵ When Aaron saw this, she built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation, and said, "Tomorrow shall be a feast to Yahweh." ⁶ They rose up early on the next day, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. ⁷ Yahweh spoke to Moses, "Go, get down; for your people, who you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves! ⁸ They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.'" ⁹ Yahweh said to Moses, "I have seen these people, and behold, they are a stiff-necked people. ¹⁰ Now therefore leave me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation." ¹¹ Moses begged Yahweh her God, and said, "Yahweh, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, that you have brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? ¹² Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, 'She brought them forth for evil, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the surface of the earth?' Turn from your fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against your people. ¹³ Remember Abrahai, Isaaca, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, 'I will multiply your seed as the stars of the sky, and all this land that I have spoken of I will give to your seed, and they shall inherit it forever.'" ¹⁴ Yahweh repented of the evil which she said she would do to her people. ¹⁵ Moses turned, and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the testimony in her hand; tablets that were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other they were written. ¹⁶ The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tables. ¹⁷ When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, she said to Moses, "There is the noise of war in the camp." ¹⁸ She said, "It isn't the voice of those who shout for victory, neither is it the voice of those who cry for being overcome; but the noise of those who sing that I hear." ¹⁹ It happened, as soon as she came near to the camp, that she saw the calf and the dancing: and Moses' anger grew hot, and she threw the tablets out of her hands, and broke them beneath the mountain. ²⁰ She took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it. ²¹ Moses said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you, that you have brought a great sin on them?" ²² Aaron said, "Don't let the anger of my domina grow hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil. ²³ For they said to me, 'Make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the woman who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of her.' ²⁴ I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them take it off:' so they gave it to me; and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf." ²⁵ When Moses saw that the people had broken loose, (for Aaron had let them loose for a derision among their enemies), ²⁶ then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, "Whoever is on Yahweh's side, come to me!" All the daughters of Levia gathered themselves together to her.²⁷ She said to them, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, 'Every woman put her sword on her thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every woman kill her sister, and every woman her companion, and every woman her neighbor.'" ²⁸ The daughters of Levia did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand women.²⁹ Moses said, "Consecrate yourselves today to Yahweh, yes, every woman against her daughter, and against her sister; that she may bestow on you a blessing this day."³⁰ It happened on the next day, that Moses said to the people, "You have sinned a great sin. Now I will go up to Yahweh. Perhaps I shall make atonement for your sin."³¹ Moses returned to Yahweh, and said, "Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made themselves gods of gold.³² Yet now, if you will, forgive their sin--and if not, please blot me out of your book which you have written."³³ Yahweh said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me, her will I blot out of my book.³⁴ Now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Behold, my angel shall go before you. Nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin."³⁵ Yahweh struck the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, "Depart, go up from here, you and the people that you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba, saying, 'I will give it to your seed.' ² I will send an angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:³ to a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you in the way."⁴ When the people heard this evil news, they mourned: and no one put on her jewelry.⁵ Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell the children of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go up into your midst for one moment, I would consume you. Therefore now take off your jewelry from you, that I may know what to do to you.'"⁶ The children of Israel stripped themselves of their jewelry from Mount Horeb onward.⁷ Now Moses used to take the tent and to pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and she called it "The tent of meeting." It happened that everyone who sought Yahweh went out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.⁸ It happened that when Moses went out to the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood, everyone at their tent door, and watched Moses, until she had gone into the Tent.⁹ It happened, when Moses entered into the Tent, that the pillar of cloud descended, stood at the door of the Tent, and spoke with Moses.¹⁰ All the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the door of the Tent, and all the people rose up and worshiped, everyone at their tent door.¹¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses face to face, as a woman speaks to her friend. She turned again into the camp, but her servant Joshua, the daughter of Nun, a young woman, didn't depart out of the Tent.¹² Moses said to Yahweh, "Behold, you tell me, 'Bring up this people:' and you haven't let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.'¹³ Now therefore, if I have found favor in your sight, please show me now your ways, that I may know you, so that I may find favor in your sight: and consider that this nation is your people." ¹⁴ She said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." ¹⁵ She said to her, "If your presence doesn't go with me, don't carry us up from here. ¹⁶ For how would people know that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people? Isn't it in that you go with us, so that we are separated, I and your people, from all the people who are on the surface of the earth?" ¹⁷ Yahweh said to Moses, "I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name." ¹⁸ She said, "Please show me your glory." ¹⁹ She said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of Yahweh before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy." ²⁰ She said, "You cannot see my face, for woman may not see me and live." ²¹ Yahweh also said, "Behold, there is a place by me, and you shall stand on the rock. ²² It will happen, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; ²³ then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Chisel two stone tablets like the first: and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. ² Be ready by the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the top of the mountain. ³ No one shall come up with you; neither let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mountain." ⁴ She chiseled two tablets of stone like the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to Mount Sinai, as Yahweh had commanded her, and took in her hand two stone tablets. ⁵ Yahweh descended in the cloud, and stood with her there, and proclaimed the name of Yahweh. ⁶ Yahweh passed by before her, and proclaimed, "Yahweh! Yahweh, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth, ⁷ keeping loving kindness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and disobedience and sin; and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the mothers on the children, and on the children's children, on the third and on the fourth generation." ⁸ Moses hurried and bowed her head toward the earth, and worshiped. ⁹ She said, "If now I have found favor in your sight, Domina, please let the Domina go in the midst of us; although this is a stiff-necked people; pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance." ¹⁰ She said, "Behold, I make a covenant: before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been worked in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among which you are shall see the work of Yahweh; for it is an awesome thing that I do with you. ¹¹ Observe that which I command you this day. Behold, I drive out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ¹² Be careful, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you: ¹³ but you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and you shall cut down their Asherim; ¹⁴ for you shall worship no other god: for Yahweh, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. ¹⁵ Don't make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, lest they play the philanderer after their gods, and sacrifice to their gods, and one call you and you eat of her sacrifice; ¹⁶ and you take of their sons to your daughters, and their sons play the philanderer after their gods, and make your daughters play the philanderer after their gods.¹⁷ You shall make no cast idols for yourselves.¹⁸ "You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt.¹⁹ All that opens the womb is mine; and all your livestock that is female, the firstborn of cow and sheep.²⁰ The firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb: and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your daughters you shall redeem. No one shall appear before me empty.²¹ "Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest: in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.²² You shall observe the feast of weeks with the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of harvest at the year's end.²³ Three times in the year all your females shall appear before the Domina Yahweh, the God of Israel.²⁴ For I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your borders; neither shall any woman desire your land when you go up to appear before Yahweh, your God, three times in the year.²⁵ "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the Passover be left to the morning.²⁶ You shall bring the first of the first fruits of your ground to the house of Yahweh your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its father's milk."²⁷ Yahweh said to Moses, "Write you these words: for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."²⁸ She was there with Yahweh forty days and forty nights; she neither ate bread, nor drank water. She wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.²⁹ It happened, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the testimony in Moses' hand, when she came down from the mountain, that Moses didn't know that the skin of her face shone by reason of her speaking with her.³⁰ When Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of her face shone; and they were afraid to come near her.³¹ Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to her; and Moses spoke to them.³² Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and she gave them all of the commandments that Yahweh had spoken with her on Mount Sinai.³³ When Moses was done speaking with them, she put a veil on her face.³⁴ But when Moses went in before Yahweh to speak with her, she took the veil off, until she came out; and she came out, and spoke to the children of Israel that which she was commanded.³⁵ The children of Israel saw Moses' face, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the veil on her face again, until she went in to speak with her.

¹ Moses assembled all the congregation of the children of Israel, and said to them, "These are the words which Yahweh has commanded, that you should do them.² 'Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of solemn rest to Yahweh: whoever does any work in it shall be put to death.³ You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day.'⁴ Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which Yahweh commanded, saying,⁵ 'Take from among you an offering to Yahweh. Whoever is of a willing heart, let her bring it, Yahweh's offering: gold, silver, brass,⁶ blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair,⁷ rams' skins dyed red, sea cow hides, acacia wood,⁸ oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense,⁹ onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.¹⁰ "Let every wise-hearted woman among you come, and make all that Yahweh has commanded:¹¹ the tent, its outer covering, its roof, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;¹² the ark, and its poles, the mercy seat, the veil of the screen;¹³ the table with its poles and all its vessels, and the show bread;¹⁴ the lampstand also for the light, with its vessels, its lamps, and the oil for the light;¹⁵ and the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door, at the door of the tent;¹⁶ the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of brass, its poles, and all its vessels, the basin and its base;¹⁷ the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court;¹⁸ the pins of the tent, the pins of the court, and their cords;¹⁹ the finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priestess, and the garments of her daughters, to minister in the priestess's office."²⁰ All the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.²¹ They came, everyone whose heart stirred her up, and everyone whom her spirit made willing, and brought Yahweh's offering, for the work of the tent of meeting, and for all of its service, and for the holy garments.²² They came, both women and men, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought brooches, earrings, signet rings, and armlets, all jewels of gold; even every woman who offered an offering of gold to Yahweh.²³ Everyone, with whom was found blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, rams' skins dyed red, and sea cow hides, brought them.²⁴ Everyone who did offer an offering of silver and brass brought Yahweh's offering; and everyone, with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it.²⁵ All the men who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, the blue, the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen.²⁶ All the men whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair.²⁷ The rulers brought the onyx stones, and the stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breastplate;²⁸ and the spice, and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.²⁹ The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to Yahweh; every woman and man, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which Yahweh had commanded to be made by Moses.³⁰ Moses said to the children of Israel, "Behold, Yahweh has called by name Bezalel the daughter of Uri, the daughter of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.³¹ She has filled her with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;³² and to make skillful works, to work in gold, in silver, in brass,³³ in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of skillful workmanship.³⁴ She has put in her heart that she may teach, both she, and Oholiab, the daughter of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.³⁵ She has filled them with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of workmanship, of the engraver, of the skillful workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do any workmanship, and of those who make skillful works.

¹ "Bezalel and Oholiab shall work with every wise-hearted woman, in whom Yahweh has put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all the work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that Yahweh has commanded." ² Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab, and every wise-hearted woman, in whose heart Yahweh had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart stirred her up to come to the work to do it: ³ and they received from Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, with which to make it. They brought yet to her freewill offerings every morning. ⁴ All the wise women, who performed all the work of the sanctuary, each came from her work which they did. ⁵ They spoke to Moses, saying, "The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which Yahweh commanded to make." ⁶ Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, "Let neither woman nor man make anything else for the offering for the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing. ⁷ For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much. ⁸ All the wise-hearted women among those who did the work made the tent with ten curtains; of fine twined linen, blue, purple, and scarlet, with cherubim, the work of the skillful workman, they made them. ⁹ The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits. All the curtains had one measure. ¹⁰ She coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains she coupled one to another. ¹¹ She made loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain from the edge in the coupling. Likewise she made in the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the second coupling. ¹² She made fifty loops in the one curtain, and she made fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that was in the second coupling. The loops were opposite one to another. ¹³ She made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains one to another with the clasps: so the tent was a unit. ¹⁴ She made curtains of goats' hair for a covering over the tent. She made them eleven curtains. ¹⁵ The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits the breadth of each curtain. The eleven curtains had one measure. ¹⁶ She coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. ¹⁷ She made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the coupling, and she made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which was outmost in the second coupling. ¹⁸ She made fifty clasps of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be a unit. ¹⁹ She made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of sea cow hides above. ²⁰ She made the boards for the tent of acacia wood, standing up. ²¹ Ten cubits was the length of a board, and a cubit and a half the breadth of each board. ²² Each board had two tenons, joined one to another. She made all the boards of the tent this way. ²³ She made the boards for the tent: twenty boards for the south side southward. ²⁴ She made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. ²⁵ For the second side of the tent, on the north side, she made twenty boards, ²⁶ and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. ²⁷ For the far part of the tent westward she made six boards. ²⁸ She made two boards for the corners of the tent in the far part.²⁹ They were double beneath, and in like manner they were all the way to the top of it to one ring. She did thus to both of them in the two corners.³⁰ There were eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; under every board two sockets.³¹ She made bars of acacia wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tent,³² and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tent, and five bars for the boards of the tent for the hinder part westward.³³ She made the middle bar to pass through in the midst of the boards from the one end to the other.³⁴ She overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold for places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.³⁵ She made the veil of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubim. She made it the work of a skillful workman.³⁶ She made four pillars of acacia for it, and overlaid them with gold. Their hooks were of gold. She cast four sockets of silver for them.³⁷ She made a screen for the door of the tent, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer;³⁸ and the five pillars of it with their hooks. She overlaid their capitals and their fillets with gold, and their five sockets were of brass.

¹ Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was two and a half cubits, and its breadth a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height.² She overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold for it round about.³ She cast four rings of gold for it, in its four feet; even two rings on its one side, and two rings on its other side.⁴ She made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.⁵ She put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.⁶ She made a mercy seat of pure gold. Its length was two and a half cubits, and a cubit and a half its breadth.⁷ She made two cherubim of gold. She made them of beaten work, at the two ends of the mercy seat;⁸ one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. She made the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends.⁹ The cherubim spread out their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.¹⁰ She made the table of acacia wood. Its length was two cubits, and its breadth was a cubit, and its height was a cubit and a half.¹¹ She overlaid it with pure gold, and made a gold molding around it.¹² She made a border of a handbreadth around it, and made a golden molding on its border around it.¹³ She cast four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that were on its four feet.¹⁴ The rings were close by the border, the places for the poles to carry the table.¹⁵ She made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table.¹⁶ She made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes, its spoons, its bowls, and its pitchers with which to pour out, of pure gold.¹⁷ She made the lampstand of pure gold. She made the lampstand of beaten work. Its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers were of one piece with it.¹⁸ There were six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of its one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side:¹⁹ three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower, and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower:

so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.²⁰ In the lampstand were four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its flowers;²¹ and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of it.²² Their buds and their branches were of one piece with it. The whole thing was one beaten work of pure gold.²³ She made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, of pure gold.²⁴ She made it of a talent of pure gold, with all its vessels.²⁵ She made the altar of incense of acacia wood. It was square: its length was a cubit, and its breadth a cubit. Its height was two cubits. Its horns were of one piece with it.²⁶ She overlaid it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns. She made a gold molding around it.²⁷ She made two golden rings for it under its molding crown, on its two ribs, on its two sides, for places for poles with which to carry it.²⁸ She made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.²⁹ She made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, after the art of the perfumer.

¹ She made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood. It was square. Its length was five cubits, its breadth was five cubits, and its height was three cubits.² She made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of one piece with it, and she overlaid it with brass.³ She made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the fire pans. She made all its vessels of brass.⁴ She made for the altar a grating of a network of brass, under the ledge around it beneath, reaching halfway up.⁵ She cast four rings for the four ends of brass grating, to be places for the poles.⁶ She made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with brass.⁷ She put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. She made it hollow with planks.⁸ She made the basin of brass, and its base of brass, out of the mirrors of the ministering men who ministered at the door of the tent of meeting.⁹ She made the court: for the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, one hundred cubits; ¹⁰ their pillars were twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.¹¹ For the north side one hundred cubits, their pillars twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.¹² For the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.¹³ For the east side eastward fifty cubits.¹⁴ The hangings for the one side were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three;¹⁵ and so for the other side: on this hand and that hand by the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.¹⁶ All the hangings around the court were of fine twined linen.¹⁷ The sockets for the pillars were of brass. The hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver; and the overlaying of their capitals, of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.¹⁸ The screen for the gate of the court was the work of the embroiderer, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. Twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, like to the hangings of the court.¹⁹ Their pillars were four, and their sockets four, of brass; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals, and their fillets, of silver.²⁰ All the pins of the tent, and around the court, were of brass.²¹ This is the amount of material used for the tent, even the Tent of the Testimony, as they were counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, the daughter of Aaron the priestess.²² Bezalel the daughter of Uri, the daughter of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that Yahweh commanded Moses.²³ With her was Oholiab, the daughter of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a skillful workman, and an embroiderer in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen.²⁴ All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents, and seven hundred thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.²⁵ The silver of those who were numbered of the congregation was one hundred talents, and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:²⁶ a beka a head, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for everyone who passed over to those who were numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty women.²⁷ The one hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil; one hundred sockets for the one hundred talents, a talent for a socket.²⁸ Of the one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels she made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and made fillets for them.²⁹ The brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels.³⁰ With this she made the sockets to the door of the tent of meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, all the vessels of the altar,³¹ the sockets around the court, the sockets of the gate of the court, all the pins of the tent, and all the pins around the court.

¹ Of the blue, purple, and scarlet, they made finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as Yahweh commanded Moses.² She made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen.³ They beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, in the purple, in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, the work of the skillful workman.⁴ They made shoulder straps for it, joined together. At the two ends it was joined together.⁵ The skillfully woven band that was on it, with which to fasten it on, was of the same piece, like its work; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen; as Yahweh commanded Moses.⁶ They worked the onyx stones, enclosed in settings of gold, engraved with the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the children of Israel.⁷ She put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the children of Israel, as Yahweh commanded Moses.⁸ She made the breastplate, the work of a skillful workman, like the work of the ephod; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen.⁹ It was square. They made the breastplate double. Its length was a span, and its breadth a span, being double.¹⁰ They set in it four rows of stones. A row of ruby, topaz, and beryl was the first row;¹¹ and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald;¹² and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;¹³ and the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in gold settings.¹⁴ The stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to her name, for the twelve tribes.¹⁵ They made on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold.¹⁶ They made two settings of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.¹⁷ They put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate.¹⁸ The other two ends of the two braided chains they put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod, in the front of it.¹⁹ They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which was toward the side of the ephod inward.²⁰ They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in the front of it, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod.²¹ They bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not come loose from the ephod, as Yahweh commanded Moses.²² She made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.²³ The opening of the robe in the midst of it was like the opening of a coat of mail, with a binding around its opening, that it should not be torn.²⁴ They made on the skirts of the robe pomegranates of blue, purple, scarlet, and twined linen.²⁵ They made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates around the skirts of the robe, between the pomegranates;²⁶ a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, around the skirts of the robe, to minister in, as Yahweh commanded Moses.²⁷ They made the coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for her daughters,²⁸ and the turban of fine linen, and the linen headbands of fine linen, and the linen breeches of fine twined linen,²⁹ and the sash of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, the work of the embroiderer, as Yahweh commanded Moses.³⁰ They made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it a writing, like the engravings of a signet: "HOLY TO YAHWEH."³¹ They tied to it a lace of blue, to fasten it on the turban above, as Yahweh commanded Moses.³² Thus all the work of the tent of the tent of meeting was finished. The children of Israel did according to all that Yahweh commanded Moses; so they did.³³ They brought the tent to Moses, the tent, with all its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets,³⁴ the covering of rams' skins dyed red, the covering of sea cow hides, the veil of the screen,³⁵ the ark of the testimony with its poles, the mercy seat,³⁶ the table, all its vessels, the show bread,³⁷ the pure lampstand, its lamps, even the lamps to be set in order, all its vessels, the oil for the light,³⁸ the golden altar, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door of the Tent,³⁹ the bronze altar, its grating of brass, its poles, all of its vessels, the basin and its base,⁴⁰ the hangings of the court, its pillars, its sockets, the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, its pins, all the instruments of the service of the tent, for the tent of meeting,⁴¹ the finely worked garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priestess, and the garments of her daughters, to minister in the priestess's office.⁴² According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work.⁴³ Moses saw all the work, and behold, they had done it as Yahweh had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "On the first day of the first month you shall raise up the tent of the Tent of Meeting.³ You shall put the ark of the testimony in it, and you shall screen the ark with the veil.⁴ You shall bring in the table, and set in order the things that are on it. You shall bring in the lampstand, and light the lamps of it.⁵ You shall set the golden altar for incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the screen of the door to the tent.⁶ You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tent of meeting.⁷ You shall set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and shall put water therein.⁸ You shall set up the court around it, and hang up the screen of the gate of the court.⁹ You shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tent, and all that is in it, and shall make it holy, and all its furniture: and it will be holy.¹⁰ You shall anoint the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and sanctify the altar: and the altar will be most holy.¹¹ You shall anoint the basin and its base, and sanctify it.¹² You shall bring Aaron and her daughters to the door of the tent of meeting, and shall wash them with water.¹³ You shall put on Aaron the holy garments; and you shall anoint her, and sanctify her, that she may minister to me in the priestess's office.¹⁴ You shall bring her daughters, and put coats on them.¹⁵ You shall anoint them, as you anointed their mother, that they may minister to me in the priestess's office. Their anointing shall be to them for an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations."¹⁶ Moses did so. According to all that Yahweh commanded her, so she did.¹⁷ It happened in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tent was raised up.¹⁸ Moses raised up the tent, and laid its sockets, and set up the boards of it, and put in the bars of it, and raised up its pillars.¹⁹ She spread the covering over the tent, and put the roof of the tent above on it, as Yahweh commanded Moses.²⁰ She took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the poles on the ark, and put the mercy seat above on the ark.²¹ She brought the ark into the tent, and set up the veil of the screen, and screened the ark of the testimony, as Yahweh commanded Moses.²² She put the table in the tent of meeting, on the side of the tent northward, outside of the veil.²³ She set the bread in order on it before Yahweh, as Yahweh commanded Moses.²⁴ She put the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table, on the side of the tent southward.²⁵ She lit the lamps before Yahweh, as Yahweh commanded Moses.²⁶ She put the golden altar in the tent of meeting before the veil;²⁷ and she burnt incense of sweet spices on it, as Yahweh commanded Moses.²⁸ She put up the screen of the door to the tent.²⁹ She set the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tent of the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, as Yahweh commanded Moses.³⁰ She set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water therein, with which to wash.³¹ Moses, Aaron, and her daughters washed their hands and their feet there.³² When they went into the tent of meeting, and when they came near to the altar, they washed, as Yahweh commanded Moses.³³ She raised up the court around the tent and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.³⁴ Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of Yahweh filled the tent.³⁵ Moses wasn't able to enter into the tent of meeting, because the cloud stayed on it, and Yahweh's glory filled the tent.³⁶ When the cloud was taken up from over the tent, the children of Israel went onward, throughout all their journeys;³⁷ but if the cloud wasn't taken up, then they didn't travel until the day that it was taken up.³⁸ For the cloud of Yahweh was on the tent by day, and there was fire in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

Leviticus

¹ Yahweh called to Moses, and spoke to her out of the Tent of Meeting, saying,² "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When anyone of you offers an offering to Yahweh, you shall offer your offering of the livestock, from the herd and from the flock.'³ ""If her offering is a burnt offering from the herd, she shall offer a female without blemish. She shall offer it at the door of the Tent of Meeting, that she may be accepted before Yahweh.⁴ She shall lay her hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for her to make atonement for her.⁵ She shall kill the bull before Yahweh. Aaron's daughters, the priests, shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the door of the Tent of Meeting.⁶ She shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into pieces.⁷ The daughters of Aaron the priestess shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order on the fire;⁸ and Aaron's daughters, the priests, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar;⁹ but its innards and its legs she shall wash with water. The priestess shall burn the whole on the altar, for a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh.¹⁰ ""If her offering is from the flock, from the sheep, or from the goats, for a burnt offering, she shall offer a female without blemish.¹¹ She shall kill it on the north side of the altar before Yahweh. Aaron's daughters, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.¹² She shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat. The priestess shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar,¹³ but the innards and the legs she shall wash with water. The priestess shall offer the whole, and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh.¹⁴ ""If her offering to Yahweh is a burnt offering of birds, then she shall offer her offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons.¹⁵ The priestess shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar;¹⁶ and she shall take away its crop with its filth, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, in the place of the ashes.¹⁷ She shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it apart. The priestess shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh.

¹ "When anyone offers an offering of a meal offering to Yahweh, her offering shall be of fine flour; and she shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it. ² She shall bring it to Aaron's daughters the priests; and she shall take her handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense; and the priestess shall burn the memorial of it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh. ³ That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and her daughters'. It is a most holy thing of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. ⁴ "When you offer an offering of a meal offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. ⁵ If your offering is a meal offering of the baking pan, it shall be of unleavened fine flour, mixed with oil. ⁶ You shall cut it in pieces, and pour oil on it. It is a meal offering. ⁷ If your offering is a meal offering of the frying pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. ⁸ You shall bring the meal offering that is made of these things to Yahweh: and it shall be presented to the priestess, and she shall bring it to the altar. ⁹ The priestess shall take from the meal offering its memorial, and shall burn it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh. ¹⁰ That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and her daughters'. It is a thing most holy of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. ¹¹ "No meal offering, which you shall offer to Yahweh, shall be made with yeast; for you shall burn no yeast, nor any honey, as an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ¹² As an offering of firstfruits you shall offer them to Yahweh: but they shall not come up for a sweet savor on the altar. ¹³ Every offering of your meal offering you shall season with salt; neither shall you allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your meal offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt. ¹⁴ "If you offer a meal offering of first fruits to Yahweh, you shall offer for the meal offering of your first fruits grain in the ear parched with fire, bruised grain of the fresh ear. ¹⁵ You shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it: it is a meal offering. ¹⁶ The priestess shall burn as its memorial, part of its bruised grain, and part of its oil, along with all its frankincense: it is an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

¹ "If her offering is a sacrifice of peace offerings; if she offers it from the herd, whether female or male, she shall offer it without blemish before Yahweh. ² She shall lay her hand on the head of her offering, and kill it at the door of the tent of meeting: and Aaron's daughters the priests shall sprinkle the blood on the altar round about. ³ She shall offer of the sacrifice of peace offerings an offering made by fire to Yahweh; the fat that covers the innards, and all the fat that is on the innards, ⁴ and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, she shall take away. ⁵ Aaron's daughters shall burn it on the altar on the burnt offering, which is on the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh. ⁶ "If her offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh is from the flock; female or male, she shall offer it without blemish.⁷ If she offers a lamb for her offering, then she shall offer it before Yahweh;⁸ and she shall lay her hand on the head of her offering, and kill it before the tent of meeting: and Aaron's daughters shall sprinkle its blood on the altar round about.⁹ She shall offer from the sacrifice of peace offerings an offering made by fire to Yahweh; its fat, the entire tail fat, she shall take away close to the backbone; and the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is on the inwards,¹⁰ and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, she shall take away.¹¹ The priestess shall burn it on the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire to Yahweh.¹² "If her offering is a goat, then she shall offer it before Yahweh:¹³ and she shall lay her hand on its head, and kill it before the tent of meeting; and the daughters of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood on the altar round about.¹⁴ She shall offer from it as her offering, an offering made by fire to Yahweh; the fat that covers the innards, and all the fat that is on the innards,¹⁵ and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, she shall take away.¹⁶ The priestess shall burn them on the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire, for a sweet savor; all the fat is Yahweh's.¹⁷ "It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings, that you shall eat neither fat nor blood."

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'If anyone sins unintentionally, in any of the things which Yahweh has commanded not to be done, and does any one of them: ³ if the anointed priestess sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then let her offer for her sin, which she has sinned, a young bull without blemish to Yahweh for a sin offering.⁴ She shall bring the bull to the door of the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh; and she shall lay her hand on the head of the bull, and kill the bull before Yahweh.⁵ The anointed priestess shall take some of the blood of the bull, and bring it to the Tent of Meeting.⁶ The priestess shall dip her finger in the blood, and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before Yahweh, before the veil of the sanctuary.⁷ The priestess shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before Yahweh, which is in the tent of meeting; and she shall pour out all of rest of the blood of the bull at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting.⁸ She shall take all the fat of the bull of the sin offering off of it; the fat that covers the innards, and all the fat that is on the innards,⁹ and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, she shall take away,¹⁰ as it is taken off of the ox of the sacrifice of peace offerings. The priestess shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering.¹¹ The bull's skin, all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, its innards, and its dung,¹² even the whole bull shall she carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire. Where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.¹³ "If the whole congregation of Israel sins, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done any of the things which Yahweh has commanded not to be done, and are guilty;¹⁴ when the sin in which they have sinned is known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for a sin offering, and bring it before the Tent of Meeting.¹⁵ The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before Yahweh; and the bull shall be killed before Yahweh.¹⁶ The anointed priestess shall bring of the blood of the bull to the Tent of Meeting;¹⁷ and the priestess shall dip her finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before Yahweh, before the veil.¹⁸ She shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before Yahweh, that is in the Tent of Meeting; and the rest of the blood she shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting.¹⁹ All its fat she shall take from it, and burn it on the altar.²⁰ Thus shall she do with the bull; as she did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall she do with this; and the priestess shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven.²¹ She shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as she burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the assembly.²² "When a ruler sins, and unwittingly does any one of all the things which Yahweh her God has commanded not to be done, and is guilty;²³ if her sin, in which she has sinned, is made known to her, she shall bring as her offering a goat, a female without blemish.²⁴ She shall lay her hand on the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before Yahweh. It is a sin offering.²⁵ The priestess shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with her finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. She shall pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.²⁶ All its fat she shall burn on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priestess shall make atonement for her concerning her sin, and she will be forgiven.²⁷ "If anyone of the common people sins unwittingly, in doing any of the things which Yahweh has commanded not to be done, and is guilty;²⁸ if her sin, which she has sinned, is made known to her, then she shall bring for her offering a goat, a male without blemish, for her sin which she has sinned.²⁹ She shall lay her hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of burnt offering.³⁰ The priestess shall take some of its blood with her finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and the rest of its blood she shall pour out at the base of the altar.³¹ All its fat she shall take away, like the fat is taken away from off of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priestess shall burn it on the altar for a sweet savor to Yahweh; and the priestess shall make atonement for her, and she will be forgiven.³² "If she brings a lamb as her offering for a sin offering, she shall bring a male without blemish.³³ She shall lay her hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.³⁴ The priestess shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with her finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and all the rest of its blood she shall pour out at the base of the altar.³⁵ All its fat she shall take away, like the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priestess shall burn them on the altar, on the offerings of Yahweh made by fire; and the priestess shall make atonement for her concerning her sin that she has sinned, and she will be forgiven.

¹ "If anyone sins, in that she hears the voice of adjuration, she being a witness, whether she has seen or known, if she doesn't report it, then she shall bear her iniquity.² "Or if anyone touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean animal, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and it is hidden from her, and she is unclean, then she shall be guilty.³ "Or if she touches the uncleanness of woman, whatever her uncleanness is with which she is unclean, and it is hidden from her; when she knows of it, then she shall be guilty.⁴ "Or if anyone swears rashly with her lips to do evil, or to do good, whatever it is that a woman might utter rashly with an oath, and it is hidden from her; when she knows of it, then she shall be guilty of one of these.⁵ It shall be, when she is guilty of one of these, she shall confess that in which she has sinned:⁶ and she shall bring her trespass offering to Yahweh for her sin which she has sinned, a male from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering; and the priestess shall make atonement for her concerning her sin.⁷ "If she can't afford a lamb, then she shall bring her trespass offering for that in which she has sinned, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to Yahweh; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.⁸ She shall bring them to the priestess, who shall first offer the one which is for the sin offering, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not sever it completely.⁹ She shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.¹⁰ She shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance; and the priestess shall make atonement for her concerning her sin which she has sinned, and she shall be forgiven.¹¹ "But if she can't afford two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then she shall bring her offering for that in which she has sinned, the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. She shall put no oil on it, neither shall she put any frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.¹² She shall bring it to the priestess, and the priestess shall take her handful of it as the memorial portion, and burn it on the altar, on the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. It is a sin offering.¹³ The priestess shall make atonement for her concerning her sin that she has sinned in any of these things, and she will be forgiven; and the rest shall be the priestess's, as the meal offering."¹⁴ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁵ "If anyone commits a trespass, and sins unwittingly, in the holy things of Yahweh; then she shall bring her trespass offering to Yahweh, a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your estimation in silver by shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering.¹⁶ She shall make restitution for that which she has done wrong in the holy thing, and shall add a fifth part to it, and give it to the priestess; and the priestess shall make atonement for her with the ram of the trespass offering, and she will be forgiven.¹⁷ "If anyone sins, and does any of the things which Yahweh has commanded not to be done; though she didn't know it, yet she is guilty, and shall bear her iniquity.¹⁸ She shall bring a ram without blemish from of the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priestess; and the priestess shall make atonement for her concerning the thing in which she sinned and didn't know it, and she will be forgiven.¹⁹ It is a trespass offering. She is certainly guilty before Yahweh."

oppressed her neighbor,³ or has found that which was lost, and dealt falsely therein, and swearing to a lie; in any of all these things that a woman does, sinning therein;⁴ then it shall be, if she has sinned, and is guilty, she shall restore that which she took by robbery, or the thing which she has gotten by oppression, or the deposit which was committed to her, or the lost thing which she found,⁵ or any thing about which she has sworn falsely; she shall restore it even in full, and shall add a fifth part more to it. To her to whom it belongs she shall give it, in the day of her being found guilty.⁶ She shall bring her trespass offering to Yahweh, a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priestess.⁷ The priestess shall make atonement for her before Yahweh, and she will be forgiven concerning whatever she does to become guilty."⁸ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,⁹ "Command Aaron and her daughters, saying, 'This is the law of the burnt offering: the burnt offering shall be on the hearth on the altar all night until the morning; and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.¹⁰ The priestess shall put on her linen garment, and she shall put on her linen breeches upon her body; and she shall remove the ashes from where the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and she shall put them beside the altar.¹¹ She shall take off her garments, and put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.¹² The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it, it shall not go out; and the priestess shall burn wood on it every morning: and she shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings.¹³ Fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it shall not go out.¹⁴ "This is the law of the meal offering: the daughters of Aaron shall offer it before Yahweh, before the altar.¹⁵ She shall take from there her handful of the fine flour of the meal offering, and of its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the meal offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a sweet savor, as its memorial, to Yahweh.¹⁶ That which is left of it Aaron and her daughters shall eat. It shall be eaten without yeast in a holy place. They shall eat it in the court of the Tent of Meeting¹⁷ It shall not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.¹⁸ Every female among the children of Aaron shall eat of it, as their portion forever throughout your generations, from the offerings of Yahweh made by fire.

Whoever touches them shall be holy."¹⁹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁰ "This is the offering of Aaron and of her daughters, which they shall offer to Yahweh in the day when she is anointed: the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering perpetually, half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening.²¹ It shall be made with oil in a baking pan. When it is soaked, you shall bring it in. You shall offer the meal offering in baked pieces for a sweet savor to Yahweh.²² The anointed priestess that will be in her place from among her daughters shall offer it. By a statute forever, it shall be wholly burnt to Yahweh.²³ Every meal offering of a priestess shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten."²⁴ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁵ "Speak to Aaron and to her daughters, saying, 'This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before Yahweh. It is most holy.²⁶ The priestess who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting.²⁷ Whatever shall touch its flesh shall be holy. When there is any of its blood sprinkled on a garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in a holy place.²⁸ But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; and if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it shall be scoured, and rinsed in water.²⁹ Every female among the priests shall eat of it: it is most holy.³⁰ No sin offering, of which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be eaten: it shall be burned with fire.

¹ "This is the law of the trespass offering. It is most holy.² In the place where they kill the burnt offering, she shall kill the trespass offering; and its blood she shall sprinkle on the altar round about.³ She shall offer all of its fat: the fat tail, and the fat that covers the innards,⁴ and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall she take away;⁵ and the priestess shall burn them on the altar for an offering made by fire to Yahweh: it is a trespass offering.⁶ Every female among the priests may eat of it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy.⁷ "As is the sin offering, so is the trespass offering; there is one law for them. The priestess who makes atonement with them shall have it.⁸ The priestess who offers any woman's burnt offering, even the priestess shall have for herself the skin of the burnt offering which she has offered.⁹ Every meal offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying pan, and on the baking pan, shall be the priestess's who offers it.¹⁰ Every meal offering, mixed with oil or dry, belongs to all the daughters of Aaron, one as well as another.¹¹ "This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which one shall offer to Yahweh.¹² If she offers it for a thanksgiving, then she shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mixed with oil.¹³ With cakes of leavened bread she shall offer her offering with the sacrifice of her peace offerings for thanksgiving.¹⁴ Of it she shall offer one out of each offering for a heave offering to Yahweh. It shall be the priestess's who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings.¹⁵ The flesh of the sacrifice of her peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of her offering. She shall not leave any of it until the morning.¹⁶ "But if the sacrifice of her offering is a vow, or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that she offers her sacrifice; and on the next day what remains of it shall be eaten:¹⁷ but what remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire.¹⁸ If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of her peace offerings is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed to her who offers it. It will be an abomination, and the soul who eats any of it will bear her iniquity.¹⁹ "The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. As for the flesh, everyone who is clean may eat it;²⁰ but the soul who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that belongs to Yahweh, having her uncleanness on her, that soul shall be cut off from her people.²¹ When anyone touches any unclean thing, the uncleanness of woman, or an unclean animal, or any unclean abomination, and eats some of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which belong to Yahweh, that soul shall be cut off from her people."²² Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²³ "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'You shall eat no fat, of ox, or sheep, or goat.²⁴ The fat of that which dies of itself, and the fat of that which is torn of animals, may be used for any other service, but you shall in no way eat of it.²⁵ For whoever eats the fat of the animal, of which women offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh, even the soul who eats it shall be cut off from her people.²⁶ You shall not eat any blood, whether it is of bird or of animal, in any of your dwellings.²⁷ Whoever it is who eats any blood, that soul shall be cut off from her people."²⁸ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁹ "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'She who offers the sacrifice of her peace offerings to Yahweh shall bring her offering to Yahweh out of the sacrifice of her peace offerings.³⁰ With her own hands she shall bring the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. She shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before Yahweh.³¹ The priestess shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be Aaron's and her daughters'.³² The right thigh you shall give to the priestess for a heave offering out of the sacrifices of your peace offerings.³³ She among the daughters of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right thigh for a portion.³⁴ For the waved breast and the heaved thigh I have taken from the children of Israel out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priestess and to her daughters as their portion forever from the children of Israel."³⁵ This is the anointing portion of Aaron, and the anointing portion of her daughters, out of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire, in the day when she presented them to minister to Yahweh in the priestess's office;³⁶ which Yahweh commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that she anointed them. It is their portion forever throughout their generations.³⁷ This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meal offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecration, and of the sacrifice of peace offerings;³⁸ which Yahweh commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that she commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to Yahweh, in the wilderness of Sinai.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Take Aaron and her daughters with her, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread;³ and assemble all the congregation at the door of the Tent of Meeting."⁴ Moses did as Yahweh commanded her; and the congregation was assembled at the door of the Tent of Meeting.⁵ Moses said to the congregation, "This is the thing which Yahweh has commanded to be done."⁶ Moses brought Aaron and her daughters, and washed them with water.⁷ She put the coat on her, tied the sash on her, clothed her with the robe, put the ephod on her, and she tied the skillfully woven band of the ephod on her, and fastened it to her with it.⁸ She placed the breastplate on her; and in the breastplate she put the Urim and the Thummim.⁹ She set the turban on her head; and on the turban, in front, she set the golden plate, the holy crown; as Yahweh commanded Moses.¹⁰ Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and sanctified them.¹¹ She sprinkled it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, and the basin and its base, to sanctify them.¹² She poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head, and anointed her, to sanctify her.¹³ Moses brought Aaron's daughters, and clothed them with coats, and tied sashes on them, and put headbands on them; as Yahweh commanded Moses.¹⁴ She brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and her daughters laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering.¹⁵ She killed it; and Moses took the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar round about with her finger, and purified the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement for it.¹⁶ She took all the fat that was on the innards, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat; and Moses burned it on the altar.¹⁷ But the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, she burned with fire outside the camp; as Yahweh commanded Moses.¹⁸ She presented the ram of the burnt offering: and Aaron and her daughters laid their hands on the head of the ram.¹⁹ She killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood on the altar round about.²⁰ She cut the ram into its pieces; and Moses burned the head, and the pieces, and the fat.²¹ She washed the innards and the legs with water; and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a sweet savor. It was an offering made by fire to Yahweh; as Yahweh commanded Moses.²² She presented the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and her daughters laid their hands on the head of the ram.²³ She killed it; and Moses took some of its blood, and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of her right hand, and on the great toe of her right foot.²⁴ She brought Aaron's daughters; and Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot; and Moses sprinkled the blood on the altar round about.²⁵ She took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the innards, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right thigh;²⁶ and out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before Yahweh, she took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat, and on the right thigh.²⁷ She put all these in Aaron's hands and in her daughters' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before Yahweh.²⁸ Moses took them from their hands, and burned them on the altar on the burnt offering. They were a consecration for a sweet savor. It was an offering made by fire to Yahweh.²⁹ Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before Yahweh. It was Moses' portion of the ram of consecration, as Yahweh commanded Moses.³⁰ Moses took some of the anointing oil, and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on her garments, and on her daughters, and on her daughters' garments with her, and sanctified Aaron, her garments, and her daughters, and her daughters' garments with her.³¹ Moses said to Aaron and to her daughters, "Boil the flesh at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and her daughters shall eat it.'³² What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire.³³ You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting seven days, until the days of your consecration are fulfilled: for she shall consecrate you seven days.³⁴ What has been done this day, so Yahweh has commanded to do, to make atonement for you.³⁵ At the door of the Tent of Meeting you shall stay day and night seven days, and keep the charge of Yahweh, that you don't die: for so I am commanded."³⁶ Aaron and her daughters did all the things which Yahweh commanded by Moses.

¹ It happened on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and her daughters, and the elders of Israel;² and she said to Aaron, "Take a calf from the herd for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before Yahweh.³ You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'Take a female goat for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both a year old, without blemish, for a burnt offering;⁴ and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before Yahweh; and a meal offering mixed with oil: for today Yahweh appears to you.'⁵ They brought what Moses commanded before the Tent of Meeting: and all the congregation drew near and stood before Yahweh.⁶ Moses said, "This is the thing which Yahweh commanded that you should do: and the glory of Yahweh shall appear to you."⁷ Moses said to Aaron, "Draw near to the altar, and offer your sin offering, and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself, and for the people; and offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as Yahweh commanded."⁸ So Aaron drew near to the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for herself.⁹ The daughters of Aaron presented the blood to her; and she dipped her finger in the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar:¹⁰ but the fat, and the kidneys, and the cover from the liver of the sin offering, she burned upon the altar; as Yahweh commanded Moses.¹¹ The flesh and the skin she burned with fire outside the camp.¹² She killed the burnt offering; and Aaron's daughters delivered the blood to her, and she sprinkled it on the altar round about.¹³ They delivered the burnt offering to her, piece by piece, and the head: and she burned them upon the altar.¹⁴ She washed the innards and the legs, and burned them on the burnt offering on the altar.¹⁵ She presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, like the first.¹⁶ She presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance.¹⁷ She presented the meal offering, and filled her hand from there, and burned it upon the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.¹⁸ She also killed the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's daughters delivered to her the blood, which she sprinkled on the altar round about,¹⁹ and the fat of the ox and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers the innards, and the kidneys, and the cover of the liver:²⁰ and they put the fat upon the breasts, and she burned the fat on the altar:²¹ and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before Yahweh, as Moses commanded.²² Aaron lifted up her hands toward the people, and blessed them; and she came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.²³ Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the people.²⁴ There came forth fire from before Yahweh, and consumed the burnt offering and the fat upon the altar: and when all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

¹ Nadab and Abihu, the daughters of Aaron, each took her censer, and put fire in it, and laid incense on it, and offered strange fire before Yahweh, which she had not commanded them.² And fire came forth from before Yahweh, and devoured them, and they died before Yahweh.³ Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what Yahweh spoke of, saying, 'I will show myself holy to those who come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified."⁴ Aaron held her peace.⁴ Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the daughters of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Draw near, carry your sisters from before the sanctuary out of the camp."⁵ So they drew near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.⁶ Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, her daughters, "Don't let the hair of your heads go loose, neither tear your clothes; that you don't die, and that she not be angry with all the congregation: but let your sisters, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which Yahweh has kindled.⁷ You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of Yahweh is on you." They did according to the word of Moses.⁸ Yahweh spoke to Aaron, saying,⁹ "Drink no wine nor strong drink, you, nor your daughters with you, when you go into the Tent of Meeting, that you don't die: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations:¹⁰ and that you are to make a distinction between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;¹¹ and that you are to teach the children of Israel all the statutes which Yahweh has spoken to them by Moses."¹² Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, her daughters who were left, "Take the meal offering that remains of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire, and eat it without yeast beside the altar; for it is most holy;¹³ and you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your portion, and your daughters' portion, of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire: for so I am commanded.¹⁴ The waved breast and the heaved thigh you shall eat in a clean place, you, and your daughters, and your sons with you: for they are given as your portion, and your daughters' portion, out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.¹⁵ The heaved thigh and the waved breast they shall bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before Yahweh: and it shall be yours, and your daughters' with you, as a portion forever; as Yahweh has commanded."¹⁶ Moses diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burned: and she was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar, the daughters of Aaron who were left, saying,¹⁷ "Why haven't you eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, seeing it is most holy, and she has given it to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before Yahweh?¹⁸ Behold, its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary: you certainly should have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded."¹⁹ Aaron spoke to Moses, "Behold, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before Yahweh; and such things as these have happened to me: and if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing in the sight of Yahweh?"²⁰ When Moses heard that, it was pleasing in her sight.

⁶ The hare, because he chews the cud but doesn't part the hoof, he is unclean to you. ⁷ The pig, because she has a split hoof, and is cloven-footed, but doesn't chew the cud, she is unclean to you. ⁸ Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you. ⁹ "These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, that you may eat. ¹⁰ All that don't have fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of all the living creatures that are in the waters, they are an abomination to you, ¹¹ and you detest them. You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall detest their carcasses. ¹² Whatever has no fins nor scales in the waters, that is an abomination to you. ¹³ "These you shall detest among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the vulture, and the black vulture, ¹⁴ and the red kite, any kind of black kite, ¹⁵ any kind of raven, ¹⁶ the horned owl, the screech owl, and the gull, any kind of hawk, ¹⁷ the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl, ¹⁸ the white owl, the desert owl, the osprey, ¹⁹ the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat. ²⁰ "All flying insects that walk on all fours are an abomination to you. ²¹ Yet you may eat these: of all winged creeping things that go on all fours, which have legs above their feet, with which to hop on the earth. ²² Even of these you may eat: any kind of locust, any kind of katydid, any kind of cricket, and any kind of grasshopper. ²³ But all winged creeping things which have four feet, are an abomination to you. ²⁴ "By these you will become unclean: whoever touches the carcass of them shall be unclean until the evening. ²⁵ Whoever carries any part of their carcass shall wash her clothes, and be unclean until the evening. ²⁶ "Every animal which parts the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor chews the cud, is unclean to you. Everyone who touches them shall be unclean. ²⁷ Whatever goes on its paws, among all animals that go on all fours, they are unclean to you. Whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening. ²⁸ She who carries their carcass shall wash her clothes, and be unclean until the evening. They are unclean to you. ²⁹ "These are they which are unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the weasel, the rat, any kind of great lizard, ³⁰ the gecko, and the monitor lizard, the wall lizard, the skink, and the chameleon. ³¹ These are they which are unclean to you among all that creep. Whoever touches them when they are dead, shall be unclean until the evening. ³² On whatever any of them falls when they are dead, it shall be unclean; whether it is any vessel of wood, or clothing, or skin, or sack, whatever vessel it is, with which any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; then it will be clean. ³³ Every earthen vessel, into which any of them falls, all that is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it. ³⁴ All food which may be eaten, that on which water comes, shall be unclean; and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean. ³⁵ Everything whereupon part of their carcass falls shall be unclean; whether oven, or range for pots, it shall be broken in pieces: they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you. ³⁶ Nevertheless a spring or a cistern in which water is gathered shall be clean: but that which touches their carcass shall be unclean. ³⁷ If part of their carcass falls on any sowing seed which is to be sown, it is clean. ³⁸ But if water is put on the seed, and part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you. ³⁹ "If any animal, of which you may eat, dies; she who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening.⁴⁰ She who eats of its carcass shall wash her clothes, and be unclean until the evening. She also who carries its carcass shall wash her clothes, and be unclean until the evening.⁴¹ "Every creeping thing that creeps on the earth is an abomination. It shall not be eaten.⁴² Whatever goes on its belly, and whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet, even all creeping things that creep on the earth, them you shall not eat; for they are an abomination.⁴³ You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps, neither shall you make yourselves unclean with them, that you should be defiled thereby.⁴⁴ For I am Yahweh your God. Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am holy: neither shall you defile yourselves with any kind of creeping thing that moves on the earth.⁴⁵ For I am Yahweh who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.⁴⁶ "This is the law of the animal, and of the bird, and of every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth,⁴⁷ to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten."⁴⁸

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'If a man conceives, and bears a female child, then he shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of his monthly period he shall be unclean.³ In the eighth day the flesh of her vulva shall be circumcised.⁴ He shall continue in the blood of purification thirty-three days. He shall not touch any holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of his purifying are completed.⁵ But if he bears a male child, then he shall be unclean two weeks, as in his period; and he shall continue in the blood of purification sixty-six days.⁶ "When the days of his purification are completed, for a daughter, or for a son, he shall bring to the priestess at the door of the Tent of Meeting, a year old lamb for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering:⁷ and she shall offer it before Yahweh, and make atonement for him; and he shall be cleansed from the fountain of his blood. "This is the law for him who bears, whether a female or a male.⁸ If he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons; the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priestess shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean."⁹

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ² "When a woman shall have a rising in her body's skin, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes in the skin of her body the plague of leprosy, then she shall be brought to Aaron the priestess, or to one of her daughters the priests:³ and the priestess shall examine the plague in the skin of the body: and if the hair in the plague has turned white, and the appearance of the plague is deeper than the body's skin, it is the plague of leprosy; and the priestess shall examine her, and pronounce her unclean.⁴ If the bright spot is white in the skin of her body, and the appearance of it isn't deeper than the skin, and the hair of it hasn't turned white, then the priestess shall isolate the infected person for seven days.⁵ The

priestess shall examine her on the seventh day, and, behold, if in her eyes the plague is arrested, and the plague hasn't spread in the skin, then the priestess shall isolate her for seven more days.

⁶ The priestess shall examine her again on the seventh day; and behold, if the plague has faded, and the plague hasn't spread in the skin, then the priestess shall pronounce her clean. It is a scab. She shall wash her clothes, and be clean. ⁷ But if the scab spreads on the skin, after she has shown herself to the priestess for her cleansing, she shall show herself to the priestess again. ⁸ The priestess shall examine her; and behold, if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priestess shall pronounce her unclean. It is leprosy. ⁹ "When the plague of leprosy is in a woman, then she shall be brought to the priestess; ¹⁰ and the priestess shall examine her. Behold, if there is a white rising in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the rising, ¹¹ it is a chronic leprosy in the skin of her body, and the priestess shall pronounce her unclean. She shall not isolate her, for she is unclean. ¹² "If the leprosy breaks out all over the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the infected person from her head even to her feet, as far as it appears to the priestess; ¹³ then the priestess shall examine her; and, behold, if the leprosy has covered all her flesh, she shall pronounce her clean of the plague. It has all turned white: she is clean. ¹⁴ But whenever raw flesh appears in her, she shall be unclean. ¹⁵ The priestess shall examine the raw flesh, and pronounce her unclean: the raw flesh is unclean. It is leprosy. ¹⁶ Or if the raw flesh turns again, and is changed to white, then she shall come to the priestess; ¹⁷ and the priestess shall examine her; and, behold, if the plague has turned white, then the priestess shall pronounce her clean of the plague. She is clean. ¹⁸ "When the body has a boil on its skin, and it has healed, ¹⁹ and in the place of the boil there is a white rising, or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it shall be shown to the priestess; ²⁰ and the priestess shall examine it; and behold, if the appearance of it is lower than the skin, and the hair of it has turned white, then the priestess shall pronounce her unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. It has broken out in the boil. ²¹ But if the priestess examines it, and behold, there are no white hairs in it, and it isn't deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priestess shall isolate her seven days. ²² If it spreads in the skin, then the priestess shall pronounce her unclean. It is a plague. ²³ But if the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn't spread, it is the scar from the boil; and the priestess shall pronounce her clean. ²⁴ "Or when the body has a burn from fire on its skin, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white, or white, ²⁵ then the priestess shall examine it; and behold, if the hair in the bright spot has turned white, and the appearance of it is deeper than the skin; it is leprosy. It has broken out in the burning, and the priestess shall pronounce her unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. ²⁶ But if the priestess examines it, and behold, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it isn't lower than the skin, but is faded; then the priestess shall isolate her seven days. ²⁷ The priestess shall examine her on the seventh day. If it has spread in the skin, then the priestess shall pronounce her unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. ²⁸ If the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn't spread in the skin, but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn, and the priestess shall pronounce her clean; for it is the scar from the burn. ²⁹ "When a woman or man has a plague on the head or on the beard, ³⁰ then the priestess shall examine the plague; and behold, if the appearance of it is deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the priestess shall pronounce her

unclean: it is an itch, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard.³¹ If the priestess examines the plague of itching, and behold, its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priestess shall isolate her the person infected with itching seven days.³² On the seventh day the priestess shall examine the plague; and behold, if the itch hasn't spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the appearance of the itch isn't deeper than the skin,³³ then she shall be shaved, but she shall not shave the itch; and the priestess shall shut her up who has the itch seven more days.³⁴ On the seventh day, the priestess shall examine the itch; and behold, if the itch hasn't spread in the skin, and its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, then the priestess shall pronounce her clean. She shall wash her clothes, and be clean.³⁵ But if the itch spreads in the skin after her cleansing,³⁶ then the priestess shall examine her; and behold, if the itch has spread in the skin, the priestess shall not look for the yellow hair; she is unclean.³⁷ But if in her eyes the itch is arrested, and black hair has grown in it; the itch is healed, she is clean. The priestess shall pronounce her clean.³⁸ "When a woman or a man has bright spots in the skin of the body, even white bright spots;³⁹ then the priestess shall examine them; and behold, if the bright spots on the skin of their body are a dull white, it is a harmless rash, it has broken out in the skin; she is clean.⁴⁰ "If a woman's hair has fallen from her head, she is bald. She is clean.⁴¹ If her hair has fallen off from the front part of her head, she is forehead bald. She is clean.⁴² But if there is in the bald head, or the bald forehead, a reddish-white plague; it is leprosy breaking out in her bald head, or her bald forehead.⁴³ Then the priestess shall examine her; and, behold, if the rising of the plague is reddish-white in her bald head, or in her bald forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the flesh,⁴⁴ she is a leprous woman. She is unclean. The priestess shall surely pronounce her unclean. Hers plague is on her head.⁴⁵ "The leper in whom the plague is shall wear torn clothes, and the hair of her head shall hang loose. She shall cover her upper lip, and shall cry, 'Unclean! Unclean!'⁴⁶ All the days in which the plague is in her she shall be unclean. She is unclean. She shall dwell alone. Outside of the camp shall be her dwelling.⁴⁷ "The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it is a woolen garment, or a linen garment;⁴⁸ whether it is in warp, or woof; of linen, or of wool; whether in a skin, or in anything made of skin;⁴⁹ if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything made of skin; it is the plague of leprosy, and shall be shown to the priestess.⁵⁰ The priestess shall examine the plague, and isolate the plague seven days.⁵¹ She shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, whatever use the skin is used for, the plague is a destructive mildew. It is unclean.⁵² She shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of skin, in which the plague is: for it is a destructive mildew. It shall be burned in the fire.⁵³ "If the priestess examines it, and behold, the plague hasn't spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin;⁵⁴ then the priestess shall command that they wash the thing in which the plague is, and she shall isolate it seven more days.⁵⁵ Then the priestess shall examine it, after the plague is washed; and behold, if the plague hasn't changed its color, and the plague hasn't spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire. It is a mildewed spot, whether the bareness is inside or outside.⁵⁶ If the priestess looks, and behold, the plague has faded after it is washed, then she shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:⁵⁷ and if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading. You shall burn with fire that in which the plague is.⁵⁸ The garment, either the warp, or the woof, or whatever thing of skin it is, which you shall wash, if the plague has departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and it will be clean."⁵⁹ This is the law of the plague of mildew in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp, or the woof, or in anything of skin, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

that is in the priestess's hand she shall put on the head of her who is to be cleansed, and the priestess shall make atonement for her before Yahweh.¹⁹ "The priestess shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for her who is to be cleansed because of her uncleanness: and afterward she shall kill the burnt offering;²⁰ and the priestess shall offer the burnt offering and the meal offering on the altar. The priestess shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.²¹ If she is poor, and can't afford so much, then she shall take one female lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for her, and one tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering, and a log of oil;²² and two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as she is able to afford; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.²³ "On the eighth day she shall bring them for her cleansing to the priestess, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, before Yahweh.²⁴ The priestess shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and the priestess shall wave them for a wave offering before Yahweh.²⁵ She shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering. The priestess shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of her who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of her right hand, and on the big toe of her right foot.²⁶ The priestess shall pour some of the oil into the palm of her own left hand;²⁷ and the priestess shall sprinkle with her right finger some of the oil that is in her left hand seven times before Yahweh.²⁸ Then the priestess shall put some of the oil that is in her hand on the tip of the right ear of her who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of her right hand, and on the big toe of her right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass offering.²⁹ The rest of the oil that is in the priestess's hand she shall put on the head of her who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for her before Yahweh.³⁰ She shall offer one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as she is able to afford,³¹ even such as she is able to afford, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering. The priestess shall make atonement for her who is to be cleansed before Yahweh."³² This is the law for her in whom is the plague of leprosy, who is not able to afford the sacrifice for her cleansing.³³ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,³⁴ "When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in the land of your possession,³⁵ then she who owns the house shall come and tell the priestess, saying, 'There seems to me to be some sort of plague in the house.'³⁶ The priestess shall command that they empty the house, before the priestess goes in to examine the plague, that all that is in the house not be made unclean: and afterward the priestess shall go in to inspect the house.³⁷ She shall examine the plague; and behold, if the plague is in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, and it appears to be deeper than the wall;³⁸ then the priestess shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.³⁹ The priestess shall come again on the seventh day, and look. If the plague has spread in the walls of the house,⁴⁰ then the priestess shall command that they take out the stones in which is the plague, and cast them into an unclean place outside of the city:⁴¹ and she shall cause the inside of the house to be scraped round about, and they shall pour out the mortar, that they scraped off, outside of the city into an unclean place.⁴² They shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and she shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.⁴³ "If the plague comes again, and breaks out in the house, after she has taken out the stones, and after she has scraped the house, and after it was plastered;⁴⁴ then the priestess shall come in and look; and behold, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew in the house. It is unclean.⁴⁵ She shall break down the house, its stones, and its timber, and all the house's mortar. She shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place.⁴⁶ "Moreover she who goes into the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening.⁴⁷ She who lies down in the house shall wash her clothes; and she who eats in the house shall wash her clothes.⁴⁸ "If the priestess shall come in, and examine it, and behold, the plague hasn't spread in the house, after the house was plastered, then the priestess shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.⁴⁹ To cleanse the house she shall take two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.⁵⁰ She shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water.⁵¹ She shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.⁵² She shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, with the living bird, with the cedar wood, with the hyssop, and with the scarlet;⁵³ but she shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field. So shall she make atonement for the house; and it shall be clean."⁵⁴ This is the law for any plague of leprosy, and for an itch,⁵⁵ and for the destructive mildew of a garment, and for a house,⁵⁶ and for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot;⁵⁷ to teach when it is unclean, and when it is clean. This is the law of leprosy.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,² "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When any woman has a discharge from her body, because of her discharge she is unclean.³ This shall be her uncleanness in her discharge: whether her body runs with her discharge, or her body has stopped from her discharge, it is her uncleanness.⁴ "'Every bed whereon she who has the discharge lies shall be unclean; and everything she sits on shall be unclean.⁵ Whoever touches her bed shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.⁶ She who sits on anything whereon the woman who has the discharge sat shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.⁷ "'She who touches the body of her who has the discharge shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.⁸ "'If she who has the discharge spits on her who is clean, then she shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.⁹ "'Whatever saddle she who has the discharge rides on shall be unclean.¹⁰ Whoever touches anything that was under her shall be unclean until the evening. She who carries those things shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.¹¹ "'Whoever she who has the discharge touches, without having rinsed her hands in water, she shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.¹² "'The earthen vessel, which she who has the discharge touches, shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.¹³ "'When she who has a discharge is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count to herself seven days for her cleansing, and wash her clothes; and she shall bathe her flesh in running water, and shall be clean.¹⁴ "On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before Yahweh to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priestess:¹⁵ and the priestess shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. The priestess shall make atonement for her before Yahweh for her discharge.¹⁶ "If any woman has an emission of semen, then she shall bathe all her flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening.¹⁷ Every garment, and every skin, whereon the semen is, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening.¹⁸ If a woman lies with a man and there is an emission of semen, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.¹⁹ "If a man has a discharge, and his discharge in his flesh is blood, he shall be in his impurity seven days: and whoever touches him shall be unclean until the evening.²⁰ "Everything that he lies on in his impurity shall be unclean. Everything also that he sits on shall be unclean.²¹ Whoever touches his bed shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.²² Whoever touches anything that he sits on shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.²³ If it is on the bed, or on anything whereon he sits, when she touches it, she shall be unclean until the evening.²⁴ "If any woman lies with him, and his monthly flow is on her, she shall be unclean seven days; and every bed whereon she lies shall be unclean.²⁵ "If a man has a discharge of his blood many days not in the time of his period, or if he has a discharge beyond the time of his period; all the days of the discharge of his uncleanness shall be as in the days of his period: he is unclean.²⁶ Every bed whereon he lies all the days of his discharge shall be to him as the bed of his period: and everything whereon he sits shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of his period.²⁷ Whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening.²⁸ "But if he is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count to himself seven days, and after that he shall be clean.²⁹ On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priestess, to the door of the Tent of Meeting.³⁰ The priestess shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priestess shall make atonement for him before Yahweh for the uncleanness of his discharge.³¹ "Thus you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, so they will not die in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is in their midst."³² This is the law of her who has a discharge, and of her who has an emission of semen, so that she is unclean thereby;³³ and of him who has his period, and of a woman or man who has a discharge, and of her who lies with him who is unclean.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, after the death of the two daughters of Aaron, when they drew near before Yahweh, and died; ² and Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron your sister, not to come at all times into the Most Holy Place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark; lest she die: for I will appear in the cloud on the mercy seat." ³ "Herewith shall Aaron come into the sanctuary: with a young bull for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.⁴ She shall put on the holy linen coat, and she shall have the linen breeches on her body, and shall put on the linen sash, and she shall be dressed with the linen turban. They are the holy garments. She shall bathe her body in water, and put them on.⁵ She shall take from the congregation of the children of Israel two female goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.⁶ "Aaron shall offer the bull of the sin offering, which is for herself, and make atonement for herself and for her house.⁷ She shall take the two goats, and set them before Yahweh at the door of the Tent of Meeting.⁸ Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats; one lot for Yahweh, and the other lot for the scapegoat.⁹ Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for Yahweh, and offer her for a sin offering.¹⁰ But the goat, on which the lot fell for the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before Yahweh, to make atonement for her, to send her away for the scapegoat into the wilderness.¹¹ "Aaron shall present the bull of the sin offering, which is for herself, and shall make atonement for herself and for her house, and shall kill the bull of the sin offering which is for herself.¹² She shall take a censer full of coals of fire from off the altar before Yahweh, and two handfuls of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil:¹³ and she shall put the incense on the fire before Yahweh, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is on the testimony, so that she will not die.¹⁴ She shall take some of the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with her finger on the mercy seat on the east; and before the mercy seat she shall sprinkle some of the blood with her finger seven times.¹⁵ "Then she shall kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring her blood within the veil, and do with her blood as she did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat:¹⁶ and she shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, even all their sins; and so she shall do for the Tent of Meeting, that dwells with them in the midst of their uncleanness.¹⁷ There shall be no one in the Tent of Meeting when she enters to make atonement in the Holy Place, until she comes out, and has made atonement for herself and for her household, and for all the assembly of Israel.¹⁸ "She shall go out to the altar that is before Yahweh and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the bull's blood, and some of the goat's blood, and put it on the horns of the altar round about.¹⁹ She shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with her finger seven times, and cleanse it, and make it holy from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.²⁰ "When she has made an end of atoning for the Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, she shall present the live goat.²¹ Aaron shall lay both her hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over her all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, even all their sins; and she shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send her away into the wilderness by the hand of a woman who is in readiness.²² The goat shall carry all their iniquities on herself to a solitary land, and she shall let the goat go in the wilderness.²³ "Aaron shall come into the Tent of Meeting, and shall take off the linen garments, which she put on when she went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there.²⁴ Then she shall bathe herself in water in a holy place, and put on her garments, and come out and offer her burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for herself and for the people.²⁵ The fat of the sin offering she shall burn on the altar.²⁶ "She who lets the goat go for the scapegoat shall wash her clothes, and bathe her flesh in water, and afterward she shall come into the camp.²⁷ The bull for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be carried forth outside the camp; and they shall burn their skins, their flesh, and their dung with fire.²⁸ She who burns them shall wash her clothes, and bathe her flesh in water, and afterward she shall come into the camp.²⁹ "It shall be a statute to you forever: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and shall do no manner of work, the native-born, or the stranger who lives as a foreigner among you:³⁰ for on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before Yahweh.³¹ It is a Sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you shall afflict your souls; it is a statute forever.³² The priestess, who is anointed and who is consecrated to be priestess in her mother's place, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, even the holy garments.³³ Then she shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary; and she shall make atonement for the Tent of Meeting and for the altar; and she shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.³⁴ "This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel once in the year because of all their sins." It was done as Yahweh commanded Moses.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Speak to Aaron, and to her daughters, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: 'This is the thing which Yahweh has commanded,³ Whatever woman there is of the house of Israel, who kills an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp,⁴ and hasn't brought it to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to offer it as an offering to Yahweh before the tabernacle of Yahweh: blood shall be imputed to that woman. She has shed blood; and that woman shall be cut off from among her people.⁵ This is to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they sacrifice in the open field, that they may bring them to Yahweh, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to the priestess, and sacrifice them for sacrifices of peace offerings to Yahweh.⁶ The priestess shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of Yahweh at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and burn the fat for a sweet savor to Yahweh.⁷ They shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices to the goat idols, after which they play the philanderer. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.'⁸ "You shall say to them, 'Any woman there is of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,⁹ and doesn't bring it to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to sacrifice it to Yahweh; that woman shall be cut off from her people.¹⁰ "Any woman of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners among them, who eats any kind of blood, I will set my face against that soul who eats blood, and will cut her off from among her people.¹¹ For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that makes atonement by reason of the life.¹² Therefore I have said to the children of Israel, "No person among you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger who lives as a foreigner among you eat blood."¹³ "Whatever woman there is of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners among them, who takes in hunting any animal or bird that may be eaten; she shall pour out its blood, and cover it with dust.

14 For as to the life of all flesh, its blood is with its life: therefore I said to the children of Israel, "You shall not eat the blood of any kind of flesh; for the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off." 15 "'Every person that eats what dies of itself, or that which is torn by animals, whether she is native-born or a foreigner, she shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the evening: then she shall be clean. 16 But if she doesn't wash them, or bathe her flesh, then she shall bear her iniquity."

¹ Yahweh said to Moses, ² "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'I am Yahweh your God. ³ You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you lived: and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you; neither shall you walk in their statutes. ⁴ You shall do my ordinances, and you shall keep my statutes, and walk in them: I am Yahweh your God. ⁵ You shall therefore keep my statutes and my ordinances; which if a woman does, she shall live in them: I am Yahweh. ⁶ "'None of you shall approach anyone who are her close relatives, to uncover their nakedness: I am Yahweh. ⁷ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother, nor the nakedness of your father: he is your father. You shall not uncover his nakedness. ⁸ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's husband: it is your mother's nakedness. ⁹ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother, the son of your mother, or the son of your father, whether born at home, or born abroad. ¹⁰ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter's son, or of your son's son, even their nakedness: for theirs is your own nakedness. ¹¹ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's husband's son, conceived by your mother, since he is your brother. ¹² "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's brother: he is your mother's near kinsman. ¹³ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother: for he is your father's near kinsman. ¹⁴ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, you shall not approach her husband: he is your aunt. ¹⁵ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son-in-law: he is your daughter's husband. You shall not uncover his nakedness. ¹⁶ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister's husband: it is your sister's nakedness. ¹⁷ "'You shall not uncover the nakedness of a man and his son. You shall not take his daughter's son, or his son's son, to uncover his nakedness; they are near kinswomen: it is wickedness. ¹⁸ "'You shall not take a husband to his brother, to be a rival, to uncover his nakedness, while his brother is yet alive. ¹⁹ "'You shall not approach a man to uncover his nakedness, as long as he is impure by his uncleanness. ²⁰ "'You shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's husband, and defile yourself with him. ²¹ "'You shall not give any of your children to sacrifice to Molech; neither shall you profane the name of your God: I am Yahweh. ²² "'You shall not lie with a woman, as with a man. That is detestable. ²³ "'You shall not lie with any animal to defile yourself with it; neither shall any man give himself to an animal, to lie down with it: it is a perversion. ²⁴ "'Don't defile yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations which I am casting out before you were defiled.²⁵ The land was defiled: therefore I punished its iniquity, and the land vomited out his inhabitants.²⁶ You therefore shall keep my statutes and my ordinances, and shall not do any of these abominations; neither the native-born, nor the stranger who lives as a foreigner among you;²⁷ (for all these abominations have the women of the land done, that were before you, and the land became defiled);²⁸ that the land not vomit you out also, when you defile it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you.²⁹ "For whoever shall do any of these abominations, even the souls that do them shall be cut off from among their people.³⁰ Therefore you shall keep my charge, that you do not practice any of these abominable customs, which were practiced before you, and that you do not defile yourselves with them: I am Yahweh your God."

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and tell them, 'You shall be holy; for I Yahweh your God am holy.'³ "Each one of you shall respect her father and her mother. You shall keep my Sabbaths. I am Yahweh your God.⁴ "Don't turn to idols, nor make molten gods for yourselves. I am Yahweh your God.⁵ "When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted.⁶ It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day: and if anything remains until the third day, it shall be burned with fire.⁷ If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination. It will not be accepted;⁸ but everyone who eats it shall bear her iniquity, because she has profaned the holy thing of Yahweh, and that soul shall be cut off from her people.⁹ "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.¹⁰ You shall not glean your vineyard, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and for the foreigner. I am Yahweh your God.¹¹ "You shall not steal; neither shall you deal falsely, nor lie to one another.¹² "You shall not swear by my name falsely, and profane the name of your God. I am Yahweh.¹³ "You shall not oppress your neighbor, nor rob her. The wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning.¹⁴ "You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind; but you shall fear your God. I am Yahweh.¹⁵ "You shall do no injustice in judgment: you shall not be partial to the poor, nor show favoritism to the great; but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor.¹⁶ "You shall not go up and down as a slanderer among your people; neither shall you stand against the life of your neighbor. I am Yahweh.¹⁷ "You shall not hate your sister in your heart. You shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of her.¹⁸ "You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people; but you shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am Yahweh.¹⁹ "You shall keep my statutes. "You shall not crossbreed different kinds of animals. "you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; "neither shall there come upon on you a garment made of two kinds of material.²⁰ "If a woman lies carnally with a man who is a slave boy, pledged to be married to another woman, and not ransomed, or given his freedom; they shall be punished. They shall not be put to death, because he was not free.²¹ She shall bring her trespass offering to Yahweh, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, even a ram for a trespass offering.²² The priestess shall make atonement for her with the ram of the trespass offering before Yahweh for her sin which she has committed: and the sin which she has committed shall be forgiven her.²³ "When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as forbidden. Three years shall they be forbidden to you. It shall not be eaten.²⁴ But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, for giving praise to Yahweh.²⁵ In the fifth year you shall eat its fruit, that it may yield its increase to you. I am Yahweh your God.²⁶ "You shall not eat any meat with the blood still in it; neither shall you use enchantments, nor practice sorcery.²⁷ "You shall not cut the hair on the sides of your heads, neither shall you clip off the edge of your beard.²⁸ "You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor tattoo any marks on you. I am Yahweh.²⁹ "Don't profane your son, to make him a philanderer; lest the land fall to prostitution, and the land become full of wickedness.³⁰ "You shall keep my Sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary; I am Yahweh.³¹ "Don't turn to those who are mediums, nor to the wizards. Don't seek them out, to be defiled by them. I am Yahweh your God.³² "You shall rise up before the gray head, and honor the face of an old woman, and you shall fear your God. I am Yahweh.³³ "If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you in your land, you shall not do her wrong.³⁴ The stranger who lives as a foreigner with you shall be to you as the native-born among you, and you shall love her as yourself; for you lived as foreigners in the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.³⁵ "You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures of length, of weight, or of quantity.³⁶ Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall you have. I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.³⁷ You shall observe all my statutes, and all my ordinances, and do them. I am Yahweh."³⁸

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Moreover, you shall tell the children of Israel, 'Anyone of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners in Israel, who gives any of her seed to Molech; she shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone her with stones.³ I also will set my face against that person, and will cut her off from among her people because she has given of her seed to Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name.⁴ If the people of the land all hide their eyes from that person, when she gives of her seed to Molech, and don't put her to death;⁵ then I will set my face against that woman, and against her family, and will cut her off, and all who play the philanderer after her, to play the philanderer with Molech, from among their people.⁶ "The person that turns to those who are mediums, and to the wizards, to play the philanderer after them, I will even set my face against that person, and will cut her off from among her people.⁷ "Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am Yahweh your God.⁸ You shall keep my statutes, and do them. I am Yahweh who sanctifies you.⁹ "For everyone who curses her mother or her father shall surely be put to death: she has cursed her mother or her father; her blood shall be upon her.¹⁰ "The woman who commits adultery with another woman's husband, even she who commits adultery with her neighbor's husband, the adulteress and the adulterer shall surely be put to death.¹¹ The woman who lies with her mother's husband has uncovered her mother's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.¹² "If a woman lies with her son-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have committed a perversion; their blood shall be upon them.¹³ "If a woman lies with a female, as with a man, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.¹⁴ "If a woman takes a husband and his father, it is wickedness: they shall be burned with fire, both she and they; that there may be no wickedness among you.¹⁵ "If a woman lies with an animal, she shall surely be put to death; and you shall kill the animal.¹⁶ "If a man approaches any animal, and lies down with it, you shall kill the man, and the animal: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.¹⁷ "If a woman takes her brother, her mother's son, or her father's son, and sees his nakedness, and he sees her nakedness; it is a shameful thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people: she has uncovered her brother's nakedness; she shall bear her iniquity.¹⁸ "If a woman lies with a man having his monthly period, and uncovers his nakedness; she has made naked his fountain, and he has uncovered the fountain of his blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.¹⁹ "You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother, nor of your mother's brother; for she has made naked her close relative: they shall bear their iniquity.²⁰ If a woman lies with her uncle's husband, she has uncovered her uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.²¹ "If a woman takes her sister's husband, it is an impurity: she has uncovered her sister's nakedness; they shall be childless.²² "You shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my ordinances, and do them; that the land, where I am bringing you to dwell, may not vomit you out.²³ You shall not walk in the customs of the nation, which I am casting out before you: for they did all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.²⁴ But I have said to you, "You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am Yahweh your God, who has separated you from the peoples.²⁵ "You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean: and you shall not make yourselves abominable by animal, or by bird, or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have separated from you as unclean for you.²⁶ You shall be holy to me: for I, Yahweh, am holy, and have set you apart from the peoples, that you should be mine.²⁷ "A woman or a man that is a medium, or is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones; their blood shall be upon them."²⁸

¹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the daughters of Aaron, and say to them, 'A priestess shall not defile herself for the dead among her people;² except for her relatives that are near to her: for her father, for her mother, for her daughter, for her son, for her sister,³ and for her virgin brother who is near to her, who has had no wife; for him she may defile herself.⁴ She shall not defile herself, being a chief woman among her people, to profane herself.⁵ "They shall not shave their heads, neither shall they shave off the corners of their beards, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.⁶ They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the offerings of Yahweh made by fire, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.⁷

"They shall not marry a man who is a philanderer, or profane; neither shall they marry a man divorced from his wife: for she is holy to her God.⁸ You shall sanctify her therefore; for she offers the bread of your God: she shall be holy to you: for I Yahweh, who sanctify you, am holy.⁹ "The son of any priestess, if he profanes himself by playing the philanderer, he profanes his mother: he shall be burned with fire.¹⁰ "She who is the high priestess among her sisters, upon whose head the anointing oil is poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not let the hair of her head hang loose, nor tear her clothes;¹¹ neither shall she go in to any dead body, nor defile herself for her mother, or for her father;¹² neither shall she go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of her God; for the crown of the anointing oil of her God is upon her. I am Yahweh.
¹³ "She shall take a husband in his virginity.¹⁴ A widower, or one divorced, or a man who has been defiled, or a philanderer, these she shall not marry: but a virgin of her own people shall she take as a husband.¹⁵ She shall not profane her seed among her people: for I am Yahweh who sanctifies her."¹⁶ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁷ "Say to Aaron, 'None of your seed throughout their generations who has a blemish, may approach to offer the bread of her God.¹⁸ For whatever woman she is that has a blemish, she shall not draw near: a blind woman, or a lame, or she who has a flat nose, or any deformity,¹⁹ or a woman who has an injured foot, or an injured hand,²⁰ or hunchbacked, or a dwarf, or one who has a defect in her eye, or an itching disease, or scabs, or who has damaged testicles;²¹ no woman of the seed of Aaron the priestess, who has a blemish, shall come near to offer the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. Since has a blemish, she shall not come near to offer the bread of her God.²² She shall eat the bread of her God, both of the most holy, and of the holy.²³ She shall not come near to the veil, nor come near to the altar, because she has a blemish; that she may not profane my sanctuaries, for I am Yahweh who sanctifies them."²⁴ So Moses spoke to Aaron, and to her daughters, and to all the children of Israel.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Tell Aaron and her daughters to separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, which they make holy to me, and that they not profane my holy name. I am Yahweh.³ "Tell them, 'If anyone of all your seed throughout your generations approaches the holy things, which the children of Israel make holy to Yahweh, having her uncleanness on her, that soul shall be cut off from before me. I am Yahweh.⁴ "Whoever of the seed of Aaron is a leper or has an issue; she shall not eat of the holy things, until she is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean by the dead, or a woman whose seed goes from her;⁵ or whoever touches any creeping thing, whereby she may be made unclean, or a woman of whom she may take uncleanness, whatever uncleanness she has;⁶ the person that touches any such shall be unclean until the evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless she bathe her body in water.⁷ When the sun is down, she shall be clean; and afterward she shall eat of the holy things, because it is her bread.⁸ That which dies of itself, or is torn by animals, she shall not eat, defiling herself by it. I am Yahweh.⁹ "They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it, and die therein, if they profane it. I am Yahweh who sanctifies them.¹⁰ "No stranger shall eat of the holy thing: a foreigner living with the priests, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.¹¹ But if a priestess buys a slave, purchased by her money, she shall eat of it; and such as are born in her house, they shall eat of her bread.¹² If a priestess's son is married to an outsider, he shall not eat of the heave offering of the holy things.¹³ But if a priestess's son is a widower, or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to his mother's house, as in his youth, he may eat of his mother's bread: but no stranger shall eat any of it.¹⁴ "If a woman eats something holy unwittingly, then she shall add the fifth part of its value to it, and shall give the holy thing to the priestess.¹⁵ The priests shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer to Yahweh,¹⁶ and so cause them to bear the iniquity that brings guilt, when they eat their holy things: for I am Yahweh who sanctifies them."¹⁷ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁸ "Speak to Aaron, and to her daughters, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, 'Whoever is of the house of Israel, or of the foreigners in Israel, who offers her offering, whether it be any of their vows, or any of their freewill offerings, which they offer to Yahweh for a burnt offering;¹⁹ that you may be accepted, you shall offer a female without blemish, of the bulls, of the sheep, or of the goats.²⁰ But whatever has a blemish, that you shall not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.²¹ Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh to accomplish a vow, or for a freewill offering, of the herd or of the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.²² Blind, injured, maimed, having a wart, festering, or having a running sore, you shall not offer these to Yahweh, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to Yahweh.²³ Either a bull or a lamb that has any deformity or lacking in her parts, that you may offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.²⁴ That which has its testicles bruised, crushed, broken, or cut, you shall not offer to Yahweh; neither shall you do thus in your land.²⁵ Neither from the hand of a foreigner shall you offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them. There is a blemish in them. They shall not be accepted for you."²⁶ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁷ "When a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, is born, then it shall remain seven days with its father; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for the offering of an offering made by fire to Yahweh.²⁸ Whether it is a cow or ewe, you shall not kill it and its young both in one day.²⁹ "When you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Yahweh, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.³⁰ It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall leave none of it until the morning. I am Yahweh.³¹ "Therefore you shall keep my commandments, and do them. I am Yahweh.³² You shall not profane my holy name, but I will be made holy among the children of Israel. I am Yahweh who makes you holy,³³ who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am Yahweh."

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'The set feasts of Yahweh, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my set feasts.³ "'Six days shall work be done: but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no manner of work. It is a Sabbath to Yahweh in all your dwellings.⁴ "These are the set feasts of Yahweh, even holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed season.⁵ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening, is Yahweh's Passover.⁶ On the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to Yahweh. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.⁷ In the first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work.⁸ But you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh seven days. In the seventh day is a holy convocation: you shall do no regular work."⁹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁰ "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you have come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap its harvest, then you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priestess:¹¹ and she shall wave the sheaf before Yahweh, to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priestess shall wave it.¹² On the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a female lamb without blemish a year old for a burnt offering to Yahweh.¹³ The meal offering with it shall be two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire to Yahweh for a sweet savor; and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin.¹⁴ You shall eat neither bread, nor roasted grain, nor fresh grain, until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your God. This is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.¹⁵ "You shall count from the next day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven Sabbaths shall be completed:¹⁶ even to the next day after the seventh Sabbath you shall number fifty days; and you shall offer a new meal offering to Yahweh.¹⁷ You shall bring out of your habitations two loaves of bread for a wave offering made of two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour. They shall be baked with yeast, for first fruits to Yahweh.¹⁸ You shall present with the bread seven lambs without blemish a year old, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be a burnt offering to Yahweh, with their meal offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of a sweet aroma to Yahweh.¹⁹ You shall offer one female goat for a sin offering, and two female lambs a year old for a sacrifice of peace offerings.²⁰ The priestess shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering before Yahweh, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to Yahweh for the priestess.²¹ You shall make proclamation on the same day: there shall be a holy convocation to you; you shall do no regular work. This is a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.²² "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap into the corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest: you shall leave them for the poor, and for the foreigner. I am Yahweh your God."²³ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁴ "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, shall be a solemn rest to you, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.²⁵ You shall do no regular work; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh."²⁶ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁷ "However on the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement: it shall be a holy convocation to you, and you shall afflict yourselves; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh.²⁸ You shall do no manner of work in that same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before Yahweh your God.²⁹ For whoever it is who shall not deny herself in that same day; shall be cut off from her people.³⁰ Whoever it is who does any manner of work in that same day, that person I will destroy from among her people.³¹ You shall do no manner of work: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.³² It shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall deny yourselves. In the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall keep your Sabbath."³³ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,³⁴ "Speak to the children of Israel, and say, 'On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the feast of tents for seven days to Yahweh.³⁵ On the first day shall be a holy convocation: you shall do no regular work.³⁶ Seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh. On the eighth day shall be a holy convocation to you; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh. It is a solemn assembly; you shall do no regular work.³⁷ "'These are the appointed feasts of Yahweh, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh, a burnt offering, and a meal offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, each on its own day;³⁸ besides the Sabbaths of Yahweh, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings, which you give to Yahweh.³⁹ "'So on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruits of the land, you shall keep the feast of Yahweh seven days: on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest.⁴⁰ You shall take on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before Yahweh your God seven days.⁴¹ You shall keep it a feast to Yahweh seven days in the year: it is a statute forever throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month.⁴² You shall dwell in booths seven days. All who are native-born in Israel shall dwell in booths,⁴³ that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God."⁴⁴ Moses declared to the children of Israel the appointed feasts of Yahweh.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² "Command the children of Israel, that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually.³ Outside of the veil of the Testimony, in the Tent of Meeting, shall Aaron keep it in order from evening to morning before Yahweh continually: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations.⁴ She shall keep in order the lamps on the pure gold lampstand before Yahweh continually.⁵ "You shall take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes of it: two tenth parts of an ephah shall be in one cake.⁶ You shall set them in two rows, six on a row, on the pure gold table before Yahweh.⁷ You shall put pure frankincense on each row, that it may be to the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire to Yahweh.⁸ Every Sabbath day she shall set it in order before Yahweh continually. It is on the behalf of the children of Israel an everlasting covenant.⁹ It shall be for Aaron and her daughters; and they shall eat it in a holy place: for it is most holy to her of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire by a perpetual statute."¹⁰ The daughter of an Israelite man, whose mother was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and the daughter of the Israelite man and a woman of Israel strove together in the camp.¹¹ The daughter of the Israelite man blasphemed the Name, and cursed; and they brought her to Moses. Her father's name was Shelomith, the son of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.¹² They put her in custody, until the will of Yahweh should be declared to them.¹³ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁴ "Bring out of the camp her who cursed; and let all who heard her lay their hands on her head, and let all the congregation stone her."¹⁵ You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'Whoever curses her God shall bear her sin.'¹⁶ She who blasphemes the name of Yahweh, she shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone her: the foreigner as well as the native-born, when she blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.¹⁷ "She who strikes any woman mortally shall surely be put to death.¹⁸ She who strikes an animal mortally shall make it good, life for life.¹⁹ If anyone injures her neighbor; as she has done, so shall it be done to her:²⁰ fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as she has injured someone, so shall it be done to her.²¹ She who kills an animal shall make it good; and she who kills a woman shall be put to death.²² You shall have one kind of law, for the foreigner as well as the native-born: for I am Yahweh your God."²³ Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and they brought forth her who had cursed out of the camp, and stoned her with stones. The children of Israel did as Yahweh commanded Moses.

¹ Yahweh said to Moses in Mount Sinai, ² "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a Sabbath to Yahweh.³ Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruits;⁴ but in the seventh year there shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a Sabbath to Yahweh. You shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard.⁵ What grows of itself in your harvest you shall not reap, and the grapes of your undressed vine you shall not gather. It shall be a year of solemn rest for the land.⁶ The Sabbath of the land shall be for food for you; for yourself, for your servant, for your maid, for your hired servant, and for your stranger, who lives as a foreigner with you.⁷ For your livestock also, and for the animals that are in your land, shall all the increase of it be for food.⁸ "You shall count off seven Sabbaths of years, seven times seven years; and there shall be to you the days of seven Sabbaths of years, even forty-nine years.⁹ Then you shall sound the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonement you shall sound the trumpet throughout all your land.¹⁰ You shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee to you; and each of you shall return to her own property, and each of you shall return to her family.¹¹ That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee to you. In it you shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself, nor gather from the undressed vines.¹² For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat of its increase out of the field.¹³ "In this Year of Jubilee each of you shall return to her property.¹⁴ "If you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor, you shall not wrong one another.¹⁵ According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor. According to the number of years of the crops she shall sell to you.¹⁶ According to the length of the years you shall increase the price of it, and according to the shortness of the years you shall diminish the price of it; for she is selling the number of the crops to you.¹⁷ You shall not wrong one another; but you shall fear your God: for I am Yahweh your God.¹⁸ "Therefore you shall do my statutes, and keep my ordinances and do them; and you shall dwell in the land in safety.¹⁹ The land shall yield its fruit, and you shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.²⁰ If you said, "What shall we eat the seventh year? Behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase;"²¹ then I will command my blessing on you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for the three years.²² You shall sow the eighth year, and eat of the fruits, the old store; until the ninth year, until its fruits come in, you shall eat the old store.²³ "The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; for you are strangers and live as foreigners with me.²⁴ In all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land.²⁵ "If your sister becomes poor, and sells some of her possessions, then her kinswoman who is next to her shall come, and redeem that which her sister has sold.²⁶ If a woman has no one to redeem it, and she becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it;²⁷ then let her reckon the years since the sale of it, and restore the surplus to the woman to whom she sold it; and she shall return to her property.²⁸ But if she isn't able to get it back for herself, then what she has sold shall remain in the hand of her who has bought it until the Year of Jubilee: and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and she shall return to her property.²⁹ "If a woman sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then she may redeem it within a whole year after it has been sold. For a full year she shall have the right of redemption.³⁰ If it isn't redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to her who bought it, throughout her generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee.³¹ But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee.³² "Nevertheless the cities of the Levites, the houses in the cities of their possession, the Levites may redeem at any time.³³ The Levites may redeem the house that was sold, and the city of her possession, and it shall be released in the Jubilee; for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.³⁴ But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.³⁵ "If your sister has become poor, and her hand can't support her among you; then you shall uphold her. As a stranger and a sojourner she shall live with you.³⁶ Take no interest from her or profit, but fear your God; that your sister may live among you.³⁷ You shall not lend her your money at interest, nor give her your food for profit.³⁸ I am Yahweh your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.³⁹ "If your sister has grown poor among you, and sells herself to you; you shall not make her to serve as a slave.⁴⁰ As a hired servant, and as a sojourner, she shall be with you; she shall serve with you until the Year of Jubilee:⁴¹ then she shall go out from you, she and her children with her, and shall return to her own family, and to the possession of her mothers.⁴² For they are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold as slaves.⁴³ You shall not rule over her with harshness, but shall fear your God. ⁴⁴ "As for your female and your male slaves, whom you may have; of the nations that are around you, from them you may buy female and male slaves. ⁴⁵ Moreover of the children of the strangers who sojourn among you, of them you may buy, and of their families who are with you, which they have conceived in your land; and they will be your property. ⁴⁶ You may make them an inheritance for your children after you, to hold for a possession; of them may you take your slaves forever: but over your sisters the children of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with harshness. ⁴⁷ "If a stranger or sojourner with you becomes rich, and your sister beside her has grown poor, and sells herself to the stranger or foreigner living among you, or to a member of the stranger's family; ⁴⁸ after she is sold she may be redeemed. One of her sisters may redeem her; ⁴⁹ or her uncle, or her uncle's daughter, may redeem her, or any who is a close relative to her of her family may redeem her; or if she has grown rich, she may redeem herself. ⁵⁰ She shall reckon with her who bought her from the year that she sold herself to her to the Year of Jubilee: and the price of her sale shall be according to the number of years; according to the time of a hired servant shall she be with her. ⁵¹ If there are yet many years, according to them she shall give back the price of her redemption out of the money that she was bought for. ⁵² If there remain but a few years to the year of jubilee, then she shall reckon with her; according to her years of service she shall give back the price of her redemption. ⁵³ As a servant hired year by year shall she be with her: she shall not rule with harshness over her in your sight. ⁵⁴ If she isn't redeemed by these means, then she shall be released in the Year of Jubilee, she, and her children with her. ⁵⁵ For to me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.

¹ "You shall make for yourselves no idols, neither shall you raise up an engraved image or a pillar, neither shall you place any figured stone in your land, to bow down to it: for I am Yahweh your God. ² "You shall keep my Sabbaths, and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am Yahweh. ³ "If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; ⁴ then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. ⁵ Your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time; and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. ⁶ "I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and no one will make you afraid; and I will remove evil animals out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. ⁷ You shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. ⁸ Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. ⁹ "I will have respect for you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and will establish my covenant with you. ¹⁰ You shall eat old store long kept, and you shall move out the old because of the new. ¹¹ I will set my tent among you: and my soul won't abhor you. ¹² I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you will be my people. ¹³ I am Yahweh your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; and I have broken the bars of your yoke, and made you go upright.¹⁴ "But if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments;¹⁵ and if you shall reject my statutes, and if your soul abhors my ordinances, so that you will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant;¹⁶ I also will do this to you: I will appoint terror over you, even consumption and fever, that shall consume the eyes, and make the soul to pine away; and you will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it.¹⁷ I will set my face against you, and you will be struck before your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you; and you will flee when no one pursues you.¹⁸ "If you in spite of these things will not listen to me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sins.¹⁹ I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your sky like iron, and your soil like brass;²⁰ and your strength will be spent in vain; for your land won't yield its increase, neither will the trees of the land yield their fruit.²¹ "If you walk contrary to me, and won't listen to me, then I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins.²² I will send the wild animals among you, which will rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number; and your roads will become desolate.²³ "If by these things you won't be reformed to me, but will walk contrary to me;²⁴ then I will also walk contrary to you; and I will strike you, even I, seven times for your sins.²⁵ I will bring a sword upon you, that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; and you will be gathered together within your cities: and I will send the pestilence among you; and you will be delivered into the hand of the enemy.²⁶ When I break your staff of bread, ten men shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight: and you shall eat, and not be satisfied.²⁷ "If you in spite of this won't listen to me, but walk contrary to me;²⁸ then I will walk contrary to you in wrath; and I also will chastise you seven times for your sins.²⁹ You will eat the flesh of your daughters, and you will eat the flesh of your sons.³⁰ I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and cast your dead bodies upon the bodies of your idols; and my soul will abhor you.³¹ I will lay your cities waste, and will bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not take delight in the sweet fragrance of your offerings.³² I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies that dwell therein will be astonished at it.³³ I will scatter you among the nations, and I will draw out the sword after you: and your land will be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste.³⁴ Then the land will enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land. Even then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths.³⁵ As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, even the rest which it didn't have in your sabbaths, when you lived on it.³⁶ "As for those of you who are left, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies: and the sound of a driven leaf will put them to flight; and they shall flee, as one flees from the sword; and they will fall when no one pursues.³⁷ They will stumble over one another, as it were before the sword, when no one pursues: and you will have no power to stand before your enemies.³⁸ You will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will eat you up.³⁹ Those of you who are left will pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their mothers shall they pine away with them.⁴⁰ "If they confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their mothers, in their trespass which they trespassed against me, and also that, because they walked contrary to me,⁴¹ I also walked contrary to them, and brought them into the land of their enemies: if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled, and they then accept the punishment of their iniquity; ⁴² then I will remember my covenant with Jacoba; and also my covenant with Isaaca, and also my covenant with Abrahai; and I will remember the land. ⁴³ The land also will be left by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them: and they will accept the punishment of their iniquity; because, even because they rejected my ordinances, and their soul abhorred my statutes. ⁴⁴ Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them; for I am Yahweh their God; ⁴⁵ but I will for their sake remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am Yahweh." ⁴⁶ These are the statutes, ordinances and laws, which Yahweh made between her and the children of Israel in Mount Sinai by Moses.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'When a woman makes a vow, the persons shall be for Yahweh by your valuation. ³ Your valuation shall be of a female from twenty years old even to sixty years old, even your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary. ⁴ If it is a male, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels. ⁵ If the person is from five years old even to twenty years old, then your valuation shall be for a female twenty shekels, and for a male ten shekels. ⁶ If the person is from a month old even to five years old, then your valuation shall be for a female five shekels of silver, and for a male your valuation shall be three shekels of silver. ⁷ If the person is from sixty years old and upward; if it is a female, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a male ten shekels. ⁸ But if she is poorer than your valuation, then she shall be set before the priestess, and the priestess shall value her; according to the ability of her who vowed shall the priestess value her. ⁹ "If it is an animal, of which women offer an offering to Yahweh, all that any woman gives of such to Yahweh becomes holy. ¹⁰ She shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if she shall at all change animal for animal, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. ¹¹ If it is any unclean animal, of which they do not offer as an offering to Yahweh, then she shall set the animal before the priestess; ¹² and the priestess shall value it, whether it is good or bad. As you the priestess values it, so shall it be. ¹³ But if she will indeed redeem it, then she shall add the fifth part of it to its valuation. ¹⁴ "When a woman dedicates her house to be holy to Yahweh, then the priestess shall evaluate it, whether it is good or bad: as the priestess shall evaluate it, so shall it stand. ¹⁵ If she who dedicates it will redeem her house, then she shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be hers. ¹⁶ "If a woman dedicates to Yahweh part of the field of her possession, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it: the sowing of a homer of barley shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. ¹⁷ If she dedicates her field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand. ¹⁸ But if she dedicates her field after the Jubilee, then the priestess shall reckon to her the money according to the years that remain to the Year of Jubilee; and an abatement shall be made from your valuation.¹⁹ If she who dedicated the field will indeed redeem it, then she shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall remain hers.²⁰ If she will not redeem the field, or if she has sold the field to another woman, it shall not be redeemed any more;²¹ but the field, when it goes out in the Jubilee, shall be holy to Yahweh, as a field devoted; it shall be owned by the priests.²² "If she dedicates to Yahweh a field which she has bought, which is not of the field of her possession,²³ then the priestess shall reckon to her the worth of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee; and she shall give your valuation on that day, as a holy thing to Yahweh.²⁴ In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to her from whom it was bought, even to her to whom the possession of the land belongs.²⁵ All your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs to the shekel.²⁶ "Only the firstborn among animals, which is made a firstborn to Yahweh, no woman may dedicate it; whether an ox or sheep, it is Yahweh's.²⁷ If it is an unclean animal, then she shall buy it back according to your valuation, and shall add to it the fifth part of it: or if it isn't redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.²⁸ "Notwithstanding, no devoted thing, that a woman shall devote to Yahweh of all that she has, whether of woman or animal, or of the field of her possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy to Yahweh.²⁹ "No one devoted, who shall be devoted from among women, shall be ransomed; she shall surely be put to death.³⁰ "All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the trees, is Yahweh's. It is holy to Yahweh.³¹ If a woman redeems anything of her tithe, she shall add a fifth part to it.³² All the tithe of the herds or the flocks, whatever passes under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to Yahweh.³³ She shall not search whether it is good or bad, neither shall she change it: and if she changes it at all, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. It shall not be redeemed."³⁴ These are the commandments which Yahweh commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Numbers

Helon.¹⁰ Of the children of Josephine: Of Ephraim: Elishama the daughter of Ammihud. Of Manasseh: Gamaliel the daughter of Pedahzur.¹¹ Of Benjamin: Abidan the daughter of Gideoni.¹² Of Dan: Ahiezer the daughter of Ammishaddai.¹³ Of Asher: Pagi the daughter of Ochran.¹⁴ Of Gad: Eliasaph the daughter of Deuel.¹⁵ Of Naphtali: Ahira the daughter of Enan."¹⁶ These are those who were called of the congregation, the princesses of the tribes of their mothers; they were the heads of the thousands of Israel.¹⁷ Moses and Aaron took these women who are mentioned by name.¹⁸ They assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month; and they declared their ancestry by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, one by one.¹⁹ As Yahweh commanded Moses, so she numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.²⁰ The children of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, one by one, every female from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;²¹ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Reuben, were forty-six thousand five hundred.²² Of the children of Simeon, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, those who were numbered of it, according to the number of the names, one by one, every female from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;²³ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.²⁴ Of the children of Gad, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;²⁵ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Gad, were forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.²⁶ Of the children of Judah, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;²⁷ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Judah, were sixty-four thousand six hundred.²⁸ Of the children of Issachar, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;²⁹ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.³⁰ Of the children of Zebulun, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;³¹ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.³² Of the children of Josephine, of the children of Ephraim, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;³³ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand five hundred.³⁴ Of the children of Manasseh, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;³⁵ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty-two thousand two hundred.³⁶ Of the children of Benjamin, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war;³⁷ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.³⁸ Of the children of Dan, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;³⁹ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Dan, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.⁴⁰ Of the children of Asher, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;⁴¹ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Asher, were forty-one thousand five hundred.⁴² Of the children of Naphtali, their generations, by their families, by their mothers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;⁴³ those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty-three thousand four hundred.⁴⁴ These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princesses of Israel, being twelve women: they were each one for her mothers' house.⁴⁵ So all those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their mothers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war in Israel;⁴⁶ even all those who were numbered were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.⁴⁷ But the Levites after the tribe of their mothers were not numbered among them.⁴⁸ For Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,⁴⁹ "Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, neither shall you take a census of them among the children of Israel;⁵⁰ but appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony, and over all its furnishings, and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle, and all its furnishings; and they shall take care of it, and shall encamp around it.⁵¹ When the tabernacle is to move, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it up. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death.⁵² The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every woman by her own camp, and every woman by her own standard, according to their divisions.⁵³ But the Levites shall encamp around the Tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be responsible for the Tabernacle of the Testimony."⁵⁴ Thus the children of Israel did. According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so they did.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,² "The children of Israel shall encamp every woman by her own standard, with the banners of their mothers' houses: at a distance from the tent of meeting shall they encamp around it."³ Those who encamp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah, according to their divisions: and the princess of the children of Judah shall be Nahshon the daughter of Amminadab.⁴ Her division, and those who were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand six hundred.⁵ Those who encamp next to her shall be the tribe of Issachar: and the princess of the children of Issachar shall be Nethanel the daughter of Zuar.⁶ Her division, and those who were numbered of it, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.⁷ The tribe of Zebulun: and the princess of the children of Zebulun shall be Eliab the daughter of Helon.⁸ Her division, and those who were numbered of it, were

fifty-seven thousand four hundred.⁹ All who were numbered of the camp of Judah were one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred, according to their divisions. They shall set out first.¹⁰ "On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their divisions. The princess of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the daughter of Shedeur.¹¹ Her division, and those who were numbered of it, were forty-six thousand five hundred.¹² "Those who encamp next to her shall be the tribe of Simeon. The princess of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the daughter of Zurishaddai.¹³ Her division, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.¹⁴ "The tribe of Gad: and the princess of the children of Gad shall be Eliasaph the daughter of Reuel.¹⁵ Her division, and those who were numbered of them, were forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.¹⁶ "All who were numbered of the camp of Reuben were one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred fifty, according to their armies. They shall set out second.¹⁷ "Then the tent of meeting shall set out, with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps. As they encamp, so shall they set out, every woman in her place, by their standards.¹⁸ "On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their divisions: and the princess of the children of Ephraim shall be Elishama the daughter of Ammihud.¹⁹ Her division, and those who were numbered of them, were forty thousand five hundred.²⁰ "Next to her shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the princess of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the daughter of Pedahzur.²¹ Her division, and those who were numbered of them, were thirty-two thousand two hundred.²² "The tribe of Benjamin: and the princess of the children of Benjamin shall be Abidan the daughter of Gideoni.²³ Her army, and those who were numbered of them, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.²⁴ "All who were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were one hundred eight thousand one hundred, according to their divisions. They shall set out third.²⁵ "On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan according to their divisions: and the princess of the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the daughter of Ammishaddai.²⁶ Her division, and those who were numbered of them, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.²⁷ "Those who encamp next to her shall be the tribe of Asher: and the princess of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the daughter of Ochran.²⁸ Her division, and those who were numbered of them, were forty-one thousand and five hundred.²⁹ "The tribe of Naphtali: and the princess of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the daughter of Enan.³⁰ Her division, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-three thousand four hundred.³¹ "All who were numbered of the camp of Dan were one hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set out last by their standards."³² These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their mothers' houses. All who were numbered of the camps according to their armies were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.³³ But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as Yahweh commanded Moses.³⁴ Thus the children of Israel did. According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards, and so they set out, everyone by their families, according to their mothers' houses.

¹ Now this is the history of the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that Yahweh spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai. ² These are the names of the daughters of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³ These are the names of the daughters of Aaron, the priests who were anointed, whom she consecrated to minister in the priestess's office. ⁴ Nadab and Abihu died before Yahweh, when they offered strange fire before Yahweh, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children. Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priestess's office in the presence of Aaron their mother. ⁵ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶ "Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priestess, that they may minister to her. ⁷ They shall keep her charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle. ⁸ They shall keep all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, and the obligations of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. ⁹ You shall give the Levites to Aaron and to her daughters. They are wholly given to her on the behalf of the children of Israel. ¹⁰ You shall appoint Aaron and her daughters, and they shall keep their priesthood. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death." ¹¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹² "Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn who open the womb among the children of Israel; and the Levites shall be mine: ¹³ for all the firstborn are mine. On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I made holy to me all the firstborn in Israel, both woman and animal. They shall be mine. I am Yahweh." ¹⁴ Yahweh spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, ¹⁵ "Number the children of Levi by their mothers' houses, by their families: every female from a month old and upward shall you number." ¹⁶ Moses numbered them according to the word of Yahweh, as she was commanded. ¹⁷ These were the daughters of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁸ These are the names of the daughters of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei. ¹⁹ The daughters of Kohath by their families: Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ²⁰ The daughters of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their mothers' houses. ²¹ Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimeites: these are the families of the Gershonites. ²² Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the females, from a month old and upward, even those who were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred. ²³ The families of the Gershonites shall encamp behind the tabernacle westward. ²⁴ The princess of the mothers' house of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the daughter of Lael. ²⁵ The charge of the daughters of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, its covering, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, ²⁶ and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and around the altar, and its cords for all of its service. ²⁷ Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. ²⁸ According to the number of all the females, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary. ²⁹ The families of the daughters of Kohath shall encamp on the south side of the tabernacle. ³⁰ The princess of the mothers' house of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the daughter of Uzziel.³¹ Their charge shall be the ark, the table, the lamp stand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the screen, and all its service.³² Eleazar the daughter of Aaron the priestess shall be princess of the princesses of the Levites, with the oversight of those who keep the charge of the sanctuary.³³ Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari.³⁴ Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the females, from a month old and upward, were six thousand two hundred.³⁵ The princess of the mothers' house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the daughter of Abihail. They shall encamp on the north side of the tabernacle.³⁶ The appointed charge of the daughters of Merari shall be the tabernacle's boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, all its instruments, all its service,³⁷ the pillars of the court around it, their sockets, their pins, and their cords.³⁸ Those who encamp before the tabernacle eastward, in front of the Tent of Meeting toward the sunrise, shall be Moses, and Aaron and her daughters, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death.³⁹ All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of Yahweh, by their families, all the females from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.⁴⁰ Yahweh said to Moses, "Number all the firstborn females of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.⁴¹ You shall take the Levites for me (I am Yahweh) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the children of Israel."⁴² Moses numbered, as Yahweh commanded her, all the firstborn among the children of Israel.⁴³ All the firstborn females according to the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.⁴⁴ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,⁴⁵ "Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock; and the Levites shall be mine. I am Yahweh.⁴⁶ For the redemption of the two hundred seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, who exceed the number of the Levites,⁴⁷ you shall take five shekels apiece for each one; after the shekel of the sanctuary you shall take them (the shekel is twenty gerahs):⁴⁸ and you shall give the money, with which the remainder of them is redeemed, to Aaron and to her daughters."⁴⁹ Moses took the redemption money from those who exceeded the number of those who were redeemed by the Levites;⁵⁰ from the firstborn of the children of Israel she took the money, one thousand three hundred sixty-five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:⁵¹ and Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and to her daughters, according to the word of Yahweh, as Yahweh commanded Moses.

things.⁵ When the camp moves forward, Aaron shall go in, and her daughters, and they shall take down the veil of the screen, and cover the ark of the Testimony with it,⁶ and shall put a covering of sealskin on it, and shall spread over it a cloth all of blue, and shall put in its poles.⁷ On the table of show bread they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the spoons, the bowls, and the cups with which to pour out; and the continual bread shall be on it.⁸ They shall spread on them a scarlet cloth, and cover the same with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in its poles.⁹ They shall take a blue cloth, and cover the lampstand of the light, and its lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, and all its oil vessels, with which they minister to it.¹⁰ They shall put it and all its vessels within a covering of sealskin, and shall put it on the frame.¹¹ On the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in its poles.¹² They shall take all the vessels of ministry, with which they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a blue cloth, and cover them with a covering of sealskin, and shall put them on the frame.¹³ They shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth on it.¹⁴ They shall put on it all its vessels, with which they minister about it, the fire pans, the flesh hooks, the shovels, and the basins; all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread on it a covering of sealskin, and put in its poles.¹⁵ "When Aaron and her daughters have finished covering the sanctuary, and all the furniture of the sanctuary, as the camp moves forward; after that, the daughters of Kohath shall come to carry it: but they shall not touch the sanctuary, lest they die. These things are the burden of the daughters of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting.¹⁶ "The charge of Eleazar the daughter of Aaron the priestess shall be the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the continual meal offering, and the anointing oil, the charge of all the tabernacle, and of all that is in it, the sanctuary, and its furnishings."¹⁷ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,¹⁸ "Don't cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites;¹⁹ but thus do to them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach to the most holy things: Aaron and her daughters shall go in, and appoint them everyone to her service and to her burden;²⁰ but they shall not go in to see the sanctuary even for a moment, lest they die."²¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²² "Take a census of the daughters of Gershon also, by their mothers' houses, by their families;²³ from thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shall you number them; all who enter in to wait on the service, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting.²⁴ This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in bearing burdens:²⁵ they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the Tent of Meeting, its covering, and the covering of sealskin that is above on it, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting,²⁶ and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and around the altar, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and whatever shall be done with them.

Therein shall they serve.²⁷ At the commandment of Aaron and her daughters shall be all the service of the daughters of the Gershonites, in all their burden, and in all their service; and you shall appoint to them in charge all their burden.²⁸ This is the service of the families of the daughters of the Gershonites in the Tent of Meeting: and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the daughter of Aaron the priestess.²⁹ "As for the daughters of Merari, you shall number them by their families, by their mothers' houses;³⁰ from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old shall you number them, everyone who enters on the service, to do the work of the Tent of Meeting.³¹ This is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the Tent of Meeting: the tabernacle's boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets,³² and the pillars of the court around it, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name you shall appoint the instruments of the charge of their burden.³³ This is the service of the families of the daughters of Merari, according to all their service, in the Tent of Meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the daughter of Aaron the priestess."³⁴ Moses and Aaron and the princesses of the congregation numbered the daughters of the Kohathites by their families, and by their mothers' houses,³⁵ from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting.³⁶ Those who were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred fifty.³⁷ These are those who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Yahweh by Moses.³⁸ Those who were numbered of the daughters of Gershon, their families, and by their mothers' houses,³⁹ from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting,⁴⁰ even those who were numbered of them, by their families, by their mothers' houses, were two thousand six hundred thirty.⁴¹ These are those who were numbered of the families of the daughters of Gershon, all who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Yahweh.⁴² Those who were numbered of the families of the daughters of Merari, by their families, by their mothers' houses,⁴³ from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting,⁴⁴ even those who were numbered of them by their families, were three thousand two hundred.⁴⁵ These are those who were numbered of the families of the daughters of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Yahweh by Moses.⁴⁶ All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the princesses of Israel numbered, by their families, and by their mothers' houses,⁴⁷ from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered in to do the work of service, and the work of bearing burdens in the Tent of Meeting,⁴⁸ even those who were numbered of them, were eight thousand five hundred eighty.⁴⁹ According to the commandment of Yahweh they were numbered by Moses, everyone according to her service, and according to her burden. Thus were they numbered by her, as Yahweh commanded Moses.

women commit, so as to trespass against Yahweh, and that soul is guilty;⁷ then she shall confess her sin which she has done, and she shall make restitution for her guilt in full, and add to it the fifth part of it, and give it to her in respect of whom she has been guilty.⁸ But if the woman has no kinswoman to whom restitution may be made for the guilt, the restitution for guilt which is made to Yahweh shall be the priestess's; besides the ram of the atonement, by which atonement shall be made for her.⁹ Every heave offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they present to the priestess, shall be hers.¹⁰ Every woman's holy things shall be hers: whatever any woman gives the priestess, it shall be hers."¹¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹² "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them: If any woman's husband goes astray, and is unfaithful to her,¹³ and a woman lies with him carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of his wife, and is kept close, and he is defiled, and there is no witness against him, and he isn't taken in the act;¹⁴ and the spirit of jealousy comes on her, and she is jealous of her husband, and he is defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy comes on her, and she is jealous of her husband, and he isn't defiled:¹⁵ then the woman shall bring her husband to the priestess, and shall bring his offering for him: the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal. She shall pour no oil on it, nor put frankincense on it, for it is a meal offering of jealousy, a meal offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to memory.¹⁶ The priestess shall bring him near, and set him before Yahweh;¹⁷ and the priestess shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle the priestess shall take, and put it into the water.¹⁸ The priestess shall set the man before Yahweh, and let the hair of the man's head go loose, and put the meal offering of memorial in his hands, which is the meal offering of jealousy. The priestess shall have in her hand the water of bitterness that brings a curse.¹⁹ The priestess shall cause him to swear, and shall tell the man, 'If no woman has lain with you, and if you haven't gone aside to uncleanness, being under your wife, be free from this water of bitterness that brings a curse.'²⁰ But if you have gone astray, being under your wife, and if you are defiled, and some woman has lain with you besides your wife:²¹ then the priestess shall cause the man to swear with the oath of cursing, and the priestess shall tell the man, 'Yahweh make you a curse and an oath among your people, when Yahweh allows your thigh to fall away, and your body to swell;²² and this water that brings a curse will go into your bowels, and make your body swell, and your thigh fall away.' The man shall say, 'Amen, Amen.'²³ "The priestess shall write these curses in a book, and she shall blot them out into the water of bitterness.²⁴ She shall make the man drink the water of bitterness that causes the curse; and the water that causes the curse shall enter into him and become bitter.²⁵ The priestess shall take the meal offering of jealousy out of the man's hand, and shall wave the meal offering before Yahweh, and bring it to the altar.²⁶ The priestess shall take a handful of the meal offering, as the memorial of it, and burn it on the altar, and afterward shall make the man drink the water.²⁷ When she has made him drink the water, then it shall happen, if he is defiled, and has committed a trespass against his wife, that the water that causes the curse will enter into him and become bitter, and his body will swell, and his thigh will fall away: and the man will be a curse among his people.²⁸ If the man isn't defiled, but is clean; then he shall be free, and shall conceive seed.²⁹ "This is the law of jealousy, when a husband, being under his wife, goes astray, and is defiled;³⁰ or when the spirit of jealousy comes on a woman, and she is jealous of her husband; then she shall set the man before Yahweh, and the priestess shall execute on him all this law.³¹ The woman shall be free from iniquity, and that man shall bear his iniquity."

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them: When either woman or man shall make a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate herself to Yahweh,³ she shall separate herself from wine and strong drink. She shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of fermented drink, neither shall she drink any juice of grapes, nor eat fresh grapes or dried.⁴ All the days of her separation she shall eat nothing that is made of the grapevine, from the seeds even to the skins.⁵ All the days of her vow of separation there shall no razor come on her head, until the days are fulfilled, in which she separates herself to Yahweh. She shall be holy. She shall let the locks of the hair of her head grow long.⁶ All the days that she separates herself to Yahweh she shall not go near a dead body.⁷ She shall not make herself unclean for her mother, or for her father, for her sister, or for her brother, when they die; because her separation to God is on her head.⁸ All the days of her separation she is holy to Yahweh.⁹ If any woman dies very suddenly beside her, and she defiles the head of her separation; then she shall shave her head in the day of her cleansing. On the seventh day she shall shave it.¹⁰ On the eighth day she shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priestess, to the door of the Tent of Meeting.¹¹ The priestess shall offer one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for her, because she sinned by reason of the dead, and shall make her head holy that same day.¹² She shall separate to Yahweh the days of her separation, and shall bring a female lamb a year old for a trespass offering; but the former days shall be void, because her separation was defiled.¹³ This is the law of the Nazirite: when the days of her separation are fulfilled, she shall be brought to the door of the Tent of Meeting,¹⁴ and she shall offer her offering to Yahweh, one female lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings,¹⁵ and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings.¹⁶ The priestess shall present them before Yahweh, and shall offer her sin offering, and her burnt offering.¹⁷ She shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priestess shall offer also its meal offering, and its drink offering.¹⁸ The Nazirite shall shave the head of her separation at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of her separation, and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace offerings.¹⁹ The priestess shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the hands of the Nazirite, after she has shaved the head of her separation;²⁰ and the priestess shall wave them for a wave offering before Yahweh. This is holy for the priestess, together with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.²¹ This is the law of the Nazirite who vows, and of her offering to Yahweh for her separation, besides that which she is able to get. According to her vow which she vows, so she must do after the law of her separation." ²² Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²³ "Speak to Aaron and to her daughters, saying, 'This is how you shall bless the children of Israel.' You shall tell them, ²⁴ 'Yahweh bless you, and keep you. ²⁵ Yahweh make her face to shine on you, and be gracious to you. ²⁶ Yahweh lift up her face toward you, and give you peace.' ²⁷ "So they shall put my name on the children of Israel; and I will bless them."

shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;²⁶ one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;²⁷ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;²⁸ one female goat for a sin offering;²⁹ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab the daughter of Helon.³⁰ On the fourth day Elizur the daughter of Shedeur, princess of the children of Reuben³¹ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;³² one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;³³ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;³⁴ one female goat for a sin offering;³⁵ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elizur the daughter of Shedeur.³⁶ On the fifth day Shelumiel the daughter of Zurishaddai, princess of the children of Simeon³⁷ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;³⁸ one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;³⁹ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁴⁰ one female goat for a sin offering;⁴¹ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old: this was the offering of Shelumiel the daughter of Zurishaddai.⁴² On the sixth day, Eliasaph the daughter of Deuel, princess of the children of Gad⁴³ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;⁴⁴ one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;⁴⁵ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁴⁶ one female goat for a sin offering;⁴⁷ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph the daughter of Deuel.⁴⁸ On the seventh day Elishama the daughter of Ammihud, princess of the children of Ephraim⁴⁹ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;⁵⁰ one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;⁵¹ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁵² one female goat for a sin offering;⁵³ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elishama the daughter of Ammihud.⁵⁴ On the eighth day Gamaliel the daughter of Pedahzur, princess of the children of Manasseh⁵⁵ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;⁵⁶ one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;⁵⁷ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁵⁸ one female goat for a sin offering;⁵⁹ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamaliel the daughter of Pedahzur.⁶⁰ On the ninth day Abidan the daughter of Gideoni, princess of the children of Benjamin⁶¹ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;⁶² one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;⁶³ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁶⁴ one female goat for a sin offering;⁶⁵ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abidan the daughter of Gideoni.⁶⁶ On the tenth day Ahiezer the daughter of Ammishaddai, princess of the children of Dan⁶⁷ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;⁶⁸ one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;⁶⁹ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁷⁰ one female goat for a sin offering;⁷¹ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahiezer the daughter of Ammishaddai.⁷² On the eleventh day Pagiel the daughter of Ochran, princess of the children of Asher⁷³ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;⁷⁴ one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;⁷⁵ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁷⁶ one female goat for a sin offering;⁷⁷ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pagiel the daughter of Ochran.⁷⁸ On the twelfth day Ahira the daughter of Enan, princess of the children of Naphtali⁷⁹ gave her offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;⁸⁰ one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;⁸¹ one young bull, one ram, one female lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁸² one female goat for a sin offering;⁸³ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five female goats, and five female lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahira the daughter of Enan.⁸⁴ This was the dedication of the altar, on the day when it was anointed, by the princesses of Israel: twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, twelve golden ladles;⁸⁵ each silver platter weighing one hundred thirty shekels, and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the vessels two thousand four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary;⁸⁶ the twelve golden ladles, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the ladles weighed one hundred twenty shekels;⁸⁷ all the oxen for the burnt offering twelve bulls, the rams twelve, the female lambs a year old twelve, and their meal offering; and the female goats for a sin offering twelve;⁸⁸ and all the oxen for the sacrifice of peace offerings twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the female goats sixty, the female lambs a year old sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after it was anointed.⁸⁹ When Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with Yahweh, she heard her voice speaking to her from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim: and she spoke to her.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to Aaron, and tell her, 'When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand.'" ³ Aaron did so. She lit its lamps to light the area in front of the lampstand, as Yahweh commanded Moses. ⁴ This was the workmanship of the lampstand, beaten work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was beaten work: according to the pattern which Yahweh had shown Moses, so she made the lampstand. ⁵ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶ "Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them. ⁷ Thus shall you do to them, to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of cleansing on them, let them shave their whole bodies with a razor, and let them wash their clothes, and cleanse themselves. ⁸ Then let them take a young bull, and its meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil; and another young bull you shall take for a sin offering. ⁹ You shall present the Levites before the Tent of Meeting. You shall assemble the whole congregation of the children of Israel. ¹⁰ You shall present the Levites before Yahweh. The children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites, ¹¹ and Aaron shall offer the Levites before Yahweh for a wave offering, on the behalf of the children of Israel, that it may be theirs to do the service of Yahweh. ¹² The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and you shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering to Yahweh, to make atonement for the Levites. ¹³ You shall set the Levites before Aaron, and before her daughters, and offer them as a wave offering to Yahweh. ¹⁴ Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine. ¹⁵ "After that, the Levites shall go in to do the service of the Tent of Meeting: and you shall cleanse them, and offer them as a wave offering. ¹⁶ For they are wholly given to me from among the children of Israel; instead of all who open the womb, even the firstborn of all the children of Israel, I have taken them to me. ¹⁷ For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are mine, both woman and animal. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for myself. ¹⁸ I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel. ¹⁹ I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to her daughters from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel; that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come near to the sanctuary." ²⁰ Thus did Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, to the Levites. According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them. ²¹ The Levites purified themselves from sin, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them for a wave offering before Yahweh; and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them. ²² After that, the Levites went in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron, and before her daughters: as Yahweh had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them. ²³ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁴ "This is that which belongs to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to wait on the service in the work of the Tent of Meeting; ²⁵ and from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting on the work, and shall serve no more, ²⁶ but shall minister with their sisters in the Tent of Meeting, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shall you do to the Levites concerning their duties."

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, ² "Moreover let the children of Israel keep the Passover in its appointed season. ³ On the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you shall keep it in its appointed season--according to all its statutes, and according to all its ordinances, you shall keep it." ⁴ Moses spoke to the children of Israel, that they should keep the Passover. ⁵ They kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the wilderness of Sinai. According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did. ⁶ There were certain women, who were unclean because of the dead body of a woman, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. ⁷ Those women said to her, "We are unclean because of the dead body of a woman. Why are we kept back, that we may not offer the offering of Yahweh in its appointed season among the children of Israel?" ⁸ Moses answered them, "Wait, that I may hear what Yahweh will command concerning you." ⁹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰ "Say to the children of Israel, 'If any woman of you or of your generations is unclean by reason of a dead body, or is on a journey far away, she shall still keep the Passover to Yahweh. ¹¹ In the second month, on the fourteenth day at evening they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ¹² They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break a bone of it. According to all the statute of the Passover they shall keep it. ¹³ But the woman who is clean, and is not on a journey, and fails to keep the Passover, that soul shall be cut off from her people. Because she didn't offer the offering of Yahweh in its appointed season, that woman shall bear her sin. ¹⁴ If a foreigner lives among you, and desires to keep the Passover to Yahweh; according to the statute of the Passover, and according to its ordinance, so shall she do. You shall have one statute, both for the foreigner, and for her who is born in the land.'" ¹⁵ On the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, even the Tent of the Testimony: and at evening it was over the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until morning. ¹⁶ So it was continually. The cloud covered it, and the appearance of fire by night. ¹⁷ Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the Tent, then after that the children of Israel traveled; and in the place where the cloud remained, there the children of Israel encamped. ¹⁸ At the commandment of Yahweh, the children of Israel traveled, and at the commandment of Yahweh they encamped. As long as the cloud remained on the tabernacle they remained encamped. ¹⁹ When the cloud stayed on the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of Yahweh, and didn't travel. ²⁰ Sometimes the cloud was a few days on the tabernacle; then according to the commandment of Yahweh they remained encamped, and according to the commandment of Yahweh they traveled. ²¹ Sometimes the cloud was from evening until morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they traveled: or by day and by night, when the cloud was taken up, they traveled. ²² Whether it was two days, or a month, or a year that the cloud stayed on the tabernacle, remaining on it, the children of Israel remained encamped, and didn't travel; but when it was taken up, they traveled. ²³ At the commandment of Yahweh they encamped, and at the commandment of Yahweh they traveled. They kept the charge of Yahweh, at the commandment of Yahweh by Moses.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² Make you two trumpets of silver; of beaten work shall you make them: and you shall use them for the calling of the congregation, and for the journeying of the camps. ³ When they shall blow them, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the door of the tent of meeting. ⁴ If they blow but one, then the princesses, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to you. ⁵ When you blow an alarm, the camps that lie on the east side shall take their journey. ⁶ When you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys. ⁷ But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. ⁸ The daughters of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and they shall be to you for a statute forever throughout your generations. ⁹ When you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets; and you shall be remembered before Yahweh your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies. ¹⁰ Also in the day of your gladness, and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be to you for a memorial before your God: I am Yahweh your God. ¹¹ It happened in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the cloud was taken up from over the tent of the testimony. ¹² The children of Israel set forward according to their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud abode in the wilderness of Paran. ¹³ They first took their journey according to the commandment of Yahweh by Moses. ¹⁴ In the first place the standard of the camp of the children of Judah set forward according to their armies: and over her army was Nahshon the daughter of Amminadab. ¹⁵ Over the army of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethanel the daughter of Zuar. ¹⁶ Over the army of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the daughter of Helon. ¹⁷ The tent was taken down; and the daughters of Gershon and the daughters of Merari, who bore the tent, set forward. ¹⁸ The standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over her army was Elizur the daughter of Shedeur. ¹⁹ Over the army of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the daughter of Zurishaddai. ²⁰ Over the army of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the daughter of Deuel. ²¹ The Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary: and the others did set up the tent against their coming. ²² The standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over her army was Elishama the daughter of Ammihud. ²³ Over the army of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the daughter of Pedahzur. ²⁴ Over the army of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the daughter of Gideoni. ²⁵ The standard of the camp of the children of Dan, which was the rearward of all the camps, set forward according to their armies: and over her army was Ahiezer the daughter of Ammishaddai. ²⁶ Over the army of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagi the daughter of Ochran. ²⁷ Over the army of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the daughter of Enan. ²⁸ Thus were the travels of the children of Israel according to their armies; and they set forward. ²⁹ Moses said to Hobab, the daughter of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' mother-in-law, We are journeying to the place of which Yahweh said, I will give it to you: come you with us, and we will do you good; for Yahweh has spoken good concerning Israel.³⁰ She said to her, I will not go; but I will depart to my own land, and to my relatives.³¹ She said, Don't leave us, please; because you know how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and you shall be to us instead of eyes.³² It shall be, if you go with us, yes, it shall be, that whatever good Yahweh shall do to us, the same will we do to you.³³ They set forward from the Mount of Yahweh three days' journey; and the ark of the covenant of Yahweh went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them.³⁴ The cloud of Yahweh was over them by day, when they set forward from the camp.³⁵ It happened, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, Yahweh, and let your enemies be scattered; and let those who hate you flee before you.³⁶ When it rested, she said, Return, Yahweh, to the ten thousands of the thousands of Israel.

¹ The people were as murmurers, speaking evil in the ears of Yahweh: and when Yahweh heard it, her anger was kindled; and the fire of Yahweh burnt among them, and devoured in the uttermost part of the camp.² The people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to Yahweh, and the fire abated.³ The name of that place was called Taberah, because the fire of Yahweh burnt among them.⁴ The mixed multitude that was among them lusted exceedingly: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?⁵ We remember the fish, which we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic:⁶ but now our soul is dried away; there is nothing at all save this manna to look on.⁷ The manna was like coriander seed, and the appearance of it as the appearance of bdellium.⁸ The people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.⁹ When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna fell on it.¹⁰ Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, every woman at the door of her tent: and the anger of Yahweh was kindled greatly; and Moses was displeased.¹¹ Moses said to Yahweh, Why have you dealt ill with your servant? and why haven't I found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me?¹² Have I conceived all this people? Have I brought them forth, that you should tell me, Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a nursing infant, to the land which you swore to their mothers?¹³ Where should I get meat to give to all this people? for they weep to me, saying, Give us meat, that we may eat.¹⁴ I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.¹⁵ If you deal thus with me, please kill me out of hand, if I have found favor in your sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.¹⁶ Yahweh said to Moses, Gather to me seventy women of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them to the tent of meeting, that they may stand there with you.¹⁷ I will come down and talk with you there: and I will take of the Spirit which is on you, and will put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you not bear it yourself alone.¹⁸ Say you to the people,

Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and you shall eat flesh; for you have wept in the ears of Yahweh, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore Yahweh will give you flesh, and you shall eat.¹⁹ You shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days,²⁰ but a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome to you; because that you have rejected Yahweh who is among you, and have wept before her, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?²¹ Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and you have said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.²² Shall flocks and herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?²³ Yahweh said to Moses, Has Yahweh's hand grown short? now shall you see whether my word shall happen to you or not.²⁴ Moses went out, and told the people the words of Yahweh: and she gathered seventy women of the elders of the people, and set them round about the Tent.²⁵ Yahweh came down in the cloud, and spoke to her, and took of the Spirit that was on her, and put it on the seventy elders: and it happened that when the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did so no more.²⁶ But there remained two women in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the Spirit rested on them; and they were of those who were written, but had not gone out to the Tent; and they prophesied in the camp.²⁷ There ran a young woman, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.²⁸ Joshua the daughter of Nun, the minister of Moses, one of her chosen women, answered, My domina Moses, forbid them.²⁹ Moses said to her, Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all Yahweh's people were prophets, that Yahweh would put her Spirit on them!³⁰ Moses got her into the camp, she and the elders of Israel.³¹ There went forth a wind from Yahweh, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the earth.³² The people rose up all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails: she who gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.³³ While the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of Yahweh was kindled against the people, and Yahweh struck the people with a very great plague.³⁴ The name of that place was called Kibrothhattaavah, because there they buried the people who lusted.³⁵ From Kibrothhattaavah the people traveled to Hazereth; and they abode at Hazereth.

Chapter 12

¹ Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite man whom she had married; for she had married a Cushite man.² They said, Has Yahweh indeed spoken only with Moses? Hasn't she spoken also with us? Yahweh heard it.³ Now the woman Moses was very humble, above all the women who were on the surface of the earth.⁴ Yahweh spoke suddenly to Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam, Come out you three to the tent of meeting. They three came out.⁵ Yahweh came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the Tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forth.⁶ She said, Hear now my words: if there be a prophetess among you, I Yahweh will make myself known to her in a vision, I will speak with her in a dream.

⁷ My servant Moses is not so; she is faithful in all my house: ⁸ with her will I speak mouth to mouth, even manifestly, and not in dark speeches; and the form of Yahweh shall she see: why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses? ⁹ The anger of Yahweh was kindled against them; and she departed. ¹⁰ The cloud removed from over the Tent; and behold, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow: and Aaron looked at Miriam, and behold, he was leprous.

¹¹ Aaron said to Moses, Oh, my domina, please don't lay sin on us, for that we have done foolishly, and for that we have sinned. ¹² Let him not, I pray, be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when she comes out of her father's womb. ¹³ Moses cried to Yahweh, saying, Heal him, God, I beg you. ¹⁴ Yahweh said to Moses, If his mother had but spit in his face, shouldn't he be ashamed seven days? let him be shut up outside of the camp seven days, and after that he shall be brought in again. ¹⁵ Miriam was shut up outside of the camp seven days: and the people didn't travel until Miriam was brought in again. ¹⁶ Afterward the people traveled from Hazereth, and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

years before Zoan in Egypt.)²³ They came to the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bore it on a staff between two; they brought also of the pomegranates, and of the figs.²⁴ That place was called the valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the children of Israel cut down from there.²⁵ They returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days.²⁶ They went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them, and to all the congregation, and shown them the fruit of the land.²⁷ They told her, and said, We came to the land where you sent us; and surely it flows with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.²⁸ However the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there.²⁹ Amalek dwells in the land of the South: and the Hittite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, dwell in the hill country; and the Canaanite dwells by the sea, and along by the side of the Jordan.³⁰ Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.³¹ But the women who went up with her said, We aren't able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.³² They brought up an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up the inhabitants of it; and all the people who we saw in it are women of great stature.³³ There we saw the Nephilim, the daughters of Anak, who come of the Nephilim: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

¹ All the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night. ² All the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said to them, Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would that we had died in this wilderness!³ Why does Yahweh bring us to this land, to fall by the sword? Our husbands and our little ones will be a prey: wouldn't it be better for us to return into Egypt?⁴ They said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.⁵ Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.⁶ Joshua the daughter of Nun and Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh, who were of those who spied out the land, tore their clothes:⁷ and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an exceeding good land.⁸ If Yahweh delight in us, then she will bring us into this land, and give it to us; a land which flows with milk and honey.⁹ Only don't rebel against Yahweh, neither fear the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defense is removed from over them, and Yahweh is with us: don't fear them.¹⁰ But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. The glory of Yahweh appeared in the tent of meeting to all the children of Israel.¹¹ Yahweh said to Moses, How long will this people despise me? and how long will they not believe in me, for all the signs which I have worked among them?¹² I will strike them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.¹³ Moses said to Yahweh, Then the Egyptians will hear it; for you brought up this people in your might from among them;¹⁴ and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you Yahweh are in the midst of this people; for you Yahweh are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them, and you go before them, in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night.¹⁵ Now if you shall kill this people as one woman, then the nations which have heard the fame of you will speak, saying,¹⁶ Because Yahweh was not able to bring this people into the land which she swore to them, therefore she has slain them in the wilderness.¹⁷ Now please let the power of the Domina be great, according as you have spoken, saying,¹⁸ Yahweh is slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, forgiving iniquity and disobedience; and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the mothers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation.¹⁹ Pardon, Please, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your loving kindness, and according as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.²⁰ Yahweh said, I have pardoned according to your word:²¹ but in very deed, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of Yahweh;²² because all those women who have seen my glory, and my signs, which I worked in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have tempted me these ten times, and have not listened to my voice;²³ surely they shall not see the land which I swore to their mothers, neither shall any of those who despised me see it:²⁴ but my servant Caleb, because she had another spirit with her, and has followed me fully, her will I bring into the land into which she went; and her seed shall possess it.²⁵ Now the Amalekite and the Canaanite dwell in the valley: tomorrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea.²⁶ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,²⁷ How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, that murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.²⁸ Tell them, As I live, says Yahweh, surely as you have spoken in my ears, so will I do to you:²⁹ your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness; and all who were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me,³⁰ surely you shall not come into the land, concerning which I swore that I would make you dwell therein, save Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh, and Joshua the daughter of Nun.³¹ But your little ones, that you said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected.³² But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness.³³ Your children shall be wanderers in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your prostitution, until your dead bodies be consumed in the wilderness.³⁴ After the number of the days in which you spied out the land, even forty days, for every day a year, shall you bear your iniquities, even forty years, and you shall know my alienation.³⁵ I, Yahweh, have spoken, surely this will I do to all this evil congregation, who are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.³⁶ The women, whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against her, by bringing up an evil report against the land,³⁷ even those women who did bring up an evil report of the land, died by the plague before Yahweh.³⁸ But Joshua the daughter of Nun, and Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh, remained alive of those women who went to spy out the land.³⁹ Moses told these words to all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly.⁴⁰ They rose up early in the morning, and got them up to the top of the mountain, saying, Behold, we are here, and will go up to the place which Yahweh has promised: for we have sinned.⁴¹ Moses said, Why now do you disobey the commandment of Yahweh, seeing it shall not prosper?⁴² Don't go up, for Yahweh isn't among you; that you not be struck down before your enemies.⁴³ For there the Amalekite and the Canaanite are before you, and you shall fall by the sword: because you are turned back from following Yahweh, therefore Yahweh will not be with you.⁴⁴ But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and Moses, didn't depart out of the camp.⁴⁵ Then the Amalekite came down, and the Canaanite who lived in that mountain, and struck them and beat them down, even to Hormah.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you are come into the land of your habitations, which I give to you,³ and will make an offering by fire to Yahweh, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or as a freewill offering, or in your set feasts, to make a sweet savor to Yahweh, of the herd, or of the flock;⁴ then shall she who offers her offering offer to Yahweh a meal offering of a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of oil:⁵ and wine for the drink offering, the fourth part of a hin, shall you prepare with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.⁶ Or for a ram, you shall prepare for a meal offering two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the third part of a hin of oil:⁷ and for the drink offering you shall offer the third part of a hin of wine, of a sweet savor to Yahweh.⁸ When you prepare a bull for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or for peace offerings to Yahweh;⁹ then shall she offer with the bull a meal offering of three tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil:¹⁰ and you shall offer for the drink offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh.¹¹ Thus shall it be done for each bull, or for each ram, or for each of the female lambs, or of the young goats.¹² According to the number that you shall prepare, so shall you do to everyone according to their number.¹³ All who are native-born shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh.¹⁴ If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you, or whoever may be among you throughout your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh; as you do, so she shall do.¹⁵ For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner with you, a statute forever throughout your generations: as you are, so shall the foreigner be before Yahweh.¹⁶ One law and one ordinance shall be for you, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner with you.¹⁷ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁸ Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you come into the land where I bring you,¹⁹ then it shall be that when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up a wave offering to Yahweh.²⁰ Of the first of your dough you shall offer up a cake for a wave offering: as the wave offering of the threshing floor, so shall you heave it.²¹ Of the first of your dough you shall give to Yahweh a wave offering throughout your generations.²² When you shall err, and not observe all these commandments, which Yahweh has spoken to Moses,²³ even all that Yahweh has commanded you by Moses, from the day that Yahweh gave commandment, and onward throughout your generations;²⁴ then it shall be, if it be done unwittingly, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor to Yahweh, with the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it, according to the ordinance, and one female goat for a sin offering.²⁵ The priestess shall make atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; for it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire to Yahweh, and their sin offering before Yahweh, for their error:²⁶ and all the congregation of the children of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them; for in respect of all the people it was done unwittingly.²⁷ If one person sins unwittingly, then she shall offer a male goat a year old for a sin offering.²⁸ The priestess shall make atonement for the soul who errs, when she sins unwittingly, before Yahweh, to make atonement for her; and she shall be forgiven.²⁹ You shall have one law for her who does anything unwittingly, for her who is native-born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them.³⁰ But the soul who does anything with a high hand, whether she is native-born or a foreigner, the same blasphemes Yahweh; and that soul shall be cut off from among her people.³¹ Because she has despised the word of Yahweh, and has broken her commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; her iniquity shall be on her.³² While the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a woman gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.³³ Those who found her gathering sticks brought her to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.³⁴ They put her in custody, because it had not been declared what should be done to her.³⁵ Yahweh said to Moses, The woman shall surely be put to death: all the congregation shall stone her with stones outside of the camp.³⁶ All the congregation brought her outside of the camp, and stoned her to death with stones; as Yahweh commanded Moses.³⁷ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,³⁸ Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them that they should make them fringes(or, tassels (Hebrew tzitzit)) in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put on the fringe of each border a cord of blue:³⁹ and it shall be to you for a fringe, that you may look on it, and remember all the commandments of Yahweh, and do them; and that you not follow after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you use to play the philanderer;⁴⁰ that you may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy to your God.⁴¹ I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am Yahweh your God.

¹ Now Korah, the daughter of Izhar, the daughter of Kohath, the daughter of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram, the daughters of Eliab, and On, the daughter of Peleth, daughters of Reuben, took women:² and they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred fifty princesses of the congregation, called to the assembly, women of renown;³ and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, You take too much on you, seeing all the congregation are holy, everyone of them, and Yahweh is among them: why then lift yourselves up above the assembly of Yahweh?⁴ When Moses heard it, she fell on her face:⁵ and she spoke to Korah and to all her company, saying, In the morning Yahweh will show who are hers, and who is holy, and will cause her to come near to her: even her whom she shall choose she will cause to come near to her.⁶ This do: take you censers, Korah, and all her company;⁷ and put fire in them, and put incense on them before Yahweh tomorrow: and it shall be that the woman whom Yahweh does choose, she shall be holy: you take too much on you, you daughters of Levi.⁸ Moses said to Korah, Hear now, you daughters of Levi:⁹ seems it but a small thing to you, that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to herself, to do the service of the tent of Yahweh, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them;¹⁰ and that she has brought you near, and all your sisters the daughters of Levi with you? and seek you the priesthood also?¹¹ Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against Yahweh: and Aaron, what is she who you murmur against her?¹² Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the daughters of Eliab; and they said, We won't come up:¹³ is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but you must needs make yourself also a princess over us?¹⁴ Moreover you haven't brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: will you put out the eyes of these women? we won't come up.¹⁵ Moses was very angry, and said to Yahweh, "Don't respect their offering: I have not taken one donkey from them, neither have I hurt one of them."¹⁶ Moses said to Korah, You and all your company go before Yahweh, you, and they, and Aaron, tomorrow:¹⁷ and take every woman her censer, and put incense on them, and bring you before Yahweh every woman her censer, two hundred fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each her censer.¹⁸ They took every woman her censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood at the door of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron.¹⁹ Korah assembled all the congregation against them to the door of the tent of meeting: and the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the congregation.²⁰ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,²¹ Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.²² They fell on their faces, and said, God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one woman sin, and will you be angry with all the congregation?²³ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁴ Speak to the congregation, saying, Get away from around the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.²⁵ Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed her.²⁶ She spoke to the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked women, and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins.²⁷ So they got them up from the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood at the door of their tents, and their husbands, and their daughters, and their little ones.²⁸ Moses said, Hereby you shall know that Yahweh has sent me to do all these works; for I have] not [done them of my own mind.²⁹ If these women die the common death of all women, or if they be visited after the visitation of all women; then Yahweh hasn't sent me.³⁰ But if Yahweh make a new thing, and the ground open its mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain to them, and they go down alive into Sheol; then you shall understand that these women have despised Yahweh.³¹ It happened, as she made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground split apart that was under them;³² and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and all the women who appertained to Korah, and all their goods.³³ So they, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into Sheol: and the earth closed on them, and they perished from among the assembly.³⁴ All Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them; for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up.³⁵ Fire came forth from Yahweh, and devoured the two hundred fifty women who offered the incense.³⁶ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,³⁷ Speak to Eleazar the daughter of Aaron the priestess, that she take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter you the fire yonder; for they are holy,³⁸ even the censers of these sinners against their own lives; and let them be made beaten plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before Yahweh; therefore they are holy; and they shall be a sign to the children of Israel.³⁹ Eleazar the priestess took the bronze censers, which those who were burnt had offered; and they beat them out for a covering of the altar,⁴⁰ to be a memorial to the children of Israel, to the end that no stranger, who isn't of the seed of Aaron, comes near to burn incense before Yahweh; that she not be as Korah, and as her company: as Yahweh spoke to her by Moses.⁴¹ But on the next day all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, You have killed the people of Yahweh.⁴² It happened, when the congregation was assembled against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tent of meeting: and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of Yahweh appeared.⁴³ Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting.⁴⁴ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,⁴⁵ Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. They fell on their faces.⁴⁶ Moses said to Aaron, Take your censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and lay incense thereon, and carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from Yahweh; the plague is begun.⁴⁷ Aaron took as Moses spoke, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and behold, the plague was begun among the people: and she put on the incense, and made atonement for the people.⁴⁸ She stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.⁴⁹ Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died about the matter of Korah.⁵⁰ Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the tent of meeting: and the plague was stayed.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² Speak to the children of Israel, and take of them rods, one for each mothers' house, of all their princesses according to their mothers' houses, twelve rods: write you every woman's name on her rod.³ You shall write Aaron's name on the rod of Levi; for there shall be one rod for each head of their mothers' houses.⁴ You shall lay them up in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I meet with you.⁵ It shall happen, that the rod of the woman whom I shall choose shall bud: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against you.⁶ Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and all their princesses gave her rods, for each princess one, according to their mothers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.⁷ Moses laid up the rods before Yahweh in the tent of the testimony.⁸ It happened on the next day, that Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and put forth buds, and produced blossoms, and bore ripe almonds.⁹ Moses brought out all the rods from before Yahweh to all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every woman her rod.¹⁰ Yahweh said to Moses, Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the children of rebellion; that you may make an end of their murmurings against me, that they not die.¹¹ Thus did Moses: as Yahweh commanded her, so did she.¹² The children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, Behold, we perish, we are undone, we are all undone.¹³ Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tent of Yahweh, dies: shall we perish all of us?

¹ Yahweh said to Aaron, You and your daughters and your mothers' house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and you and your daughters with you shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.² Your sisters also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your mother, bring you near with you, that they may be joined to you, and minister to you: but you and your daughters with you shall be before the tent of the testimony.³ They shall keep your charge, and the charge of all the Tent: only they shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar, that they not die, neither they, nor you.⁴ They shall be joined to you, and keep the charge of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the Tent: and a stranger shall not come near to you.⁵ You shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar; that there be wrath no more on the children of Israel.⁶ I, behold, I have taken your sisters the Levites from among the children of Israel: to you they are a gift, given to Yahweh, to do the service of the tent of meeting.⁷ You and your daughters with you shall keep your priesthood for everything of the altar, and for that within the veil; and you shall serve: I give you the priesthood as a service of gift: and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.⁸ Yahweh spoke to Aaron, I, behold, I have given you the charge of my wave offerings, even all the holy things of the children of Israel; to you have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to your daughters, as a portion forever.⁹ This shall be your of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs, even every meal offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render to me, shall be most holy for you and for your daughters.¹⁰ As the most holy things shall you eat of it; every female shall eat of it: it shall be holy to you.¹¹ This is your: the wave offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them to you, and to your daughters and to your sons with you, as a portion forever; everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.¹² All the best of the oil, and all the best of the vintage, and of the grain, the first fruits of them which they give to Yahweh, to you have I given them.¹³ The first-ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to Yahweh, shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.¹⁴ Everything devoted in Israel shall be yours.¹⁵ Everything that opens the womb, of all flesh which they offer to Yahweh, both of woman and animal shall be yours: nevertheless the firstborn of woman shall you surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals shall you redeem.¹⁶ Those who are to be redeemed of them from a month old shall you redeem, according to your estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary (the same is twenty gerahs).¹⁷ But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy: you shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and shall burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savor to Yahweh.¹⁸ The flesh of them shall be your, as the wave offering breast and as the right thigh, it shall be yours.¹⁹ All the wave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to Yahweh, have I given you, and your daughters and your sons with you, as a portion forever: it is a covenant of salt forever before Yahweh to you and to your seed with you.²⁰ Yahweh said to Aaron, You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any portion among them: I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.²¹ To the children of Levi, behold, I have given all the tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they serve, even the service of the tent of meeting.²² Henceforth the children of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting, lest they bear sin, and die.²³ But the Levites shall do the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations; and among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.²⁴ For the tithe of the children of Israel, which they offer as a wave offering to Yahweh, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance: therefore I have said to them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.²⁵ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁶ Moreover you shall speak to the Levites, and tell them, When you take of the children of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall offer up a wave offering of it for Yahweh, a tithe of the tithe.²⁷ Your wave offering shall be reckoned to you, as though it were the grain of the threshing floor, and as the fullness of the winepress.²⁸ Thus you also shall offer a wave offering to Yahweh of all your tithes, which you receive of the children of Israel; and of it you shall give Yahweh's wave offering to Aaron the priestess.²⁹ Out of all your gifts you shall offer every wave offering of Yahweh, of all the best of it, even the holy part of it out of it.³⁰ Therefore you shall tell them, When you heave the best of it from it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites as the increase of the threshing floor, and as the increase of the winepress.³¹ You shall eat it in every place, you and your households: for it is your reward in return for your service in the tent of meeting.³² You shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have heaved from it the best of it: and you shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, that you not die.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ² This is the statute of the law which Yahweh has commanded, saying, Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without spot, in which is no blemish, and on which never came yoke. ³ You shall give him to Eleazar the priestess, and she shall bring him forth outside of the camp, and one shall kill him before her face: ⁴ and Eleazar the priestess shall take of his blood with her finger, and sprinkle his blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times. ⁵ One shall burn the heifer in her sight; his skin, and his flesh, and his blood, with his dung, shall she burn: ⁶ and the priestess shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.⁷ Then the priestess shall wash her clothes, and she shall bathe her flesh in water, and afterward she shall come into the camp, and the priestess shall be unclean until the even.⁸ She who burns him shall wash her clothes in water, and bathe her flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.⁹ A woman who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up outside of the camp in a clean place; and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water for impurity: it is a sin offering.¹⁰ She who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash her clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be to the children of Israel, and to the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them, for a statute forever.¹¹ She who touches the dead body of any woman shall be unclean seven days:¹² the same shall purify herself therewith on the third day, and on the seventh day she shall be clean: but if she doesn't purify herself the third day, then the seventh day she shall not be clean.¹³ Whoever touches a dead person, the body of a woman who has died, and doesn't purify herself, defiles the tent of Yahweh; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on her, she shall be unclean; her uncleanness is yet on her.¹⁴ This is the law when a woman dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent, and everyone who is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.¹⁵ Every open vessel, which has no covering bound on it, is unclean.¹⁶ Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or a bone of a woman, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.¹⁷ For the unclean they shall take of the ashes of the burning of the sin offering; and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel:¹⁸ and a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, and on all the vessels, and on the persons who were there, and on her who touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave:¹⁹ and the clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day she shall purify her; and she shall wash her clothes, and bathe herself in water, and shall be clean at even.²⁰ But the woman who shall be unclean, and shall not purify herself, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, because she has defiled the sanctuary of Yahweh: the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on her; she is unclean.²¹ It shall be a perpetual statute to them: and she who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash her clothes, and she who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until even.²² Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the soul that touches it shall be unclean until even.

the assembly to the door of the tent of meeting, and fell on their faces: and the glory of Yahweh appeared to them.⁷ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,⁸ Take the rod, and assemble the congregation, you, and Aaron your brother, and speak you to the rock before their eyes, that it give forth its water; and you shall bring forth to them water out of the rock; so you shall give the congregation and their livestock drink.⁹ Moses took the rod from before Yahweh, as she commanded her.¹⁰ Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and she said to them, Hear now, you rebels; shall we bring you forth water out of this rock?¹¹ Moses lifted up her hand, and struck the rock with her rod twice: and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their livestock. ¹² Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, Because you didn't believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.¹³ These are the waters of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with Yahweh, and she was sanctified in them.¹⁴ Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the queen of Edom, Thus says your sister Israel, You know all the travail that has happened to us:¹⁵ how our mothers went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians dealt ill with us, and our mothers:¹⁶ and when we cried to Yahweh, she heard our voice, and sent an angel, and brought us forth out of Egypt: and behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of your border.¹⁷ Please let us pass through your land: we will not pass through field or through vineyard, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go along the queen's highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your border.¹⁸ Edom said to her, You shall not pass through me, lest I come out with the sword against you.¹⁹ The children of Israel said to her, We will go up by the highway; and if we drink of your water, I and my livestock, then will I give the price of it: let me only, without doing] anything [else, pass through on my feet.²⁰ She said, You shall not pass through. Edom came out against her with much people, and with a strong hand.²¹ Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through her border: why Israel turned away from her.²² They traveled from Kadesh: and the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.²³ Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, saying,²⁴ Aaron shall be gathered to her people; for she shall not enter into the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against my word at the waters of Meribah.²⁵ Take Aaron and Eleazar her daughter, and bring them up to Mount Hor;²⁶ and strip Aaron of her garments, and put them on Eleazar her daughter: and Aaron shall be gathered to her people, and shall die there.²⁷ Moses did as Yahweh commanded: and they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.²⁸ Moses stripped Aaron of her garments, and put them on Eleazar her daughter; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.²⁹ When all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they wept for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

¹ The Canaanite, the queen of Arad, who lived in the South, heard tell that Israel came by the way of Atharim; and she fought against Israel, and took some of them captive.² Israel vowed a vow to Yahweh, and said, If you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.³ Yahweh listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and the name of the place was called Hormah.⁴ They traveled from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.⁵ The people spoke against God, and against Moses, Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, and there is no water; and our soul loathes this light bread.⁶ Yahweh sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.⁷ The people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, because we have spoken against Yahweh, and against you; pray to Yahweh, that she take away the serpents from us. Moses prayed for the people.⁸ Yahweh said to Moses, Make you a fiery serpent, and set it on a standard: and it shall happen, that everyone who is bitten, when she sees it, shall live.⁹ Moses made a serpent of brass, and set it on the standard: and it happened, that if a serpent had bitten any woman, when she looked to the serpent of brass, she lived.¹⁰ The children of Israel traveled, and encamped in Oboth.¹¹ They traveled from Oboth, and encamped at Iyeabarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrise.¹² From there they traveled, and encamped in the valley of Zered.¹³ From there they traveled, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness, that comes out of the border of the Amorites: for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.¹⁴ Therefore it is said in the book of the Wars of Yahweh, "Vaheb in Suphah, the valleys of the Arnon,¹⁵ the slope of the valleys that incline toward the dwelling of Ar, leans on the border of Moab."¹⁶ From there they traveled to Beer: that is the well of which Yahweh said to Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.¹⁷ Then sang Israel this song: "Spring up, well; sing to it:¹⁸ the well, which the princesses dug, which the nobles of the people dug, with the scepter, and with their poles." From the wilderness they traveled to Mattanah;¹⁹ and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth;²⁰ and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down on the desert.²¹ Israel sent messengers to Sihon queen of the Amorites, saying,²² Let me pass through your land: we will not turn aside into field, or into vineyard; we will not drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the queen's highway, until we have passed your border.²³ Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through her border: but Sihon gathered all her people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and came to Jahaz; and she fought against Israel.²⁴ Israel struck her with the edge of the sword, and possessed her land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the children of Ammon; for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.²⁵ Israel took all these cities: and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the towns of it.²⁶ For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the queen of the Amorites, who had fought against the former queen of Moab, and taken all her land out of her hand, even to the Arnon.²⁷ Therefore those who speak in proverbs say, "Come to Heshbon. Let the city of Sihon be built and established;²⁸ for a fire has gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon. It has devoured Ar of Moab, The dominas of the high places of the Arnon.²⁹ Woe to you, Moab! You are undone, people of Chemosh! She has given her daughters as fugitives, and her sons into captivity, to Sihon queen of the Amorites.³⁰ We have shot at them. Heshbon has perished even to Dibon. We have laid waste even to Nophah, Which reaches to Medeba."³¹ Thus Israel lived in the land of the Amorites.³² Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took the towns of it, and drove out the Amorites who were there.³³ They turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the queen of Bashan went out against them, she and all her people, to battle at Edrei.³⁴ Yahweh said to Moses, Don't fear her: for I have delivered her into your hand, and all her people, and her land; and you shall do to her as you did to Sihon queen of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.³⁵ So they struck her, and her daughters and all her people, until there was none left her remaining: and they possessed her land.

¹ The children of Israel traveled, and encamped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho. ² Balak the daughter of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. ³ Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel. ⁴ Moab said to the elders of Midian, Now will this multitude lick up all that is round about us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. Balak the daughter of Zippor was queen of Moab at that time. ⁵ She sent messengers to Balaam the daughter of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the River, to the land of the children of her people, to call her, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the surface of the earth, and they abide over against me. ⁶ Please come now therefore curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may strike them, and that I may drive them out of the land; for I know that she whom you bless is blessed, and she whom you curse is cursed. ⁷ The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and spoke to her the words of Balak. ⁸ She said to them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as Yahweh shall speak to me: and the princesses of Moab abode with Balaam. ⁹ God came to Balaam, and said, What women are these with you? ¹⁰ Balaam said to God, Balak the daughter of Zippor, queen of Moab, has sent to me, saying, ¹¹ Behold, the people that is come out of Egypt, it covers the surface of the earth: now, come curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to fight against them, and shall drive them out. ¹² God said to Balaam, You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people; for they are blessed. ¹³ Balaam rose up in the morning, and said to the princesses of Balak, Get you into your land; for Yahweh refuses to give me leave to go with you. ¹⁴ The princesses of Moab rose up, and they went to Balak, and said, Balaam refuses to come with us. ¹⁵ Balak sent yet again princesses, more, and more honorable than they. ¹⁶ They came to Balaam, and said to her, Thus says Balak the daughter of Zippor, Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me: ¹⁷ for I will promote you to very great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do. Please come therefore, and curse this people for me. ¹⁸ Balaam answered the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me her house full of silver and gold, I can't go beyond the word of Yahweh my God, to do less or more.¹⁹ Now therefore, please wait also here this night, that I may know what Yahweh will speak to me more.²⁰ God came to Balaam at night, and said to her, If the women are come to call you, rise up, go with them; but only the word which I speak to you, that shall you do.²¹ Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled her donkey, and went with the princesses of Moab.²² God's anger was kindled because she went; and the angel of Yahweh placed herself in the way for an adversary against her. Now she was riding on her donkey, and her two servants were with her.²³ The donkey saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the way, with her sword drawn in her hand; and the donkey turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam struck the donkey, to turn him into the way.²⁴ Then the angel of Yahweh stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.²⁵ The donkey saw the angel of Yahweh, and he thrust himself to the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and she struck him again.²⁶ The angel of Yahweh went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.²⁷ The donkey saw the angel of Yahweh, and he lay down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and she struck the donkey with her staff.²⁸ Yahweh opened the mouth of the donkey, and he said to Balaam, What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?²⁹ Balaam said to the donkey, Because you have mocked me, I would there were a sword in my hand, for now I had killed you.³⁰ The donkey said to Balaam, Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? was I ever wont to do so to you? and she said, No.³¹ Then Yahweh opened the eyes of Balaam, and she saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the way, with her sword drawn in her hand; and she bowed her head, and fell on her face.³² The angel of Yahweh said to her, Why have you struck your donkey these three times? behold, I am come forth for an adversary, because your way is perverse before me:³³ and the donkey saw me, and turned aside before me these three times: unless he had turned aside from me, surely now I had even slain you, and saved him alive.³⁴ Balaam said to the angel of Yahweh, I have sinned; for I didn't know that you stood in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease you, I will get me back again.³⁵ The angel of Yahweh said to Balaam, Go with the women; but only the word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak. So Balaam went with the princesses of Balak.³⁶ When Balak heard that Balaam was come, she went out to meet her to the City of Moab, which is on the border of the Arnon, which is in the utmost part of the border.³⁷ Balak said to Balaam, Didn't I earnestly send to you to call you? why didn't you come to me? am I not able indeed to promote you to honor?³⁸ Balaam said to Balak, Behold, I have come to you: have I now any power at all to speak anything? the word that God puts in my mouth, that shall I speak.³⁹ Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath Huzoth.⁴⁰ Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princesses who were with her.⁴¹ It happened in the morning, that Balak took Balaam, and brought her up into the high places of Baal; and she saw from there the utmost part of the people.

¹ Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bulls and seven rams. ² Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram. ³ Balaam said to Balak, Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go: perhaps Yahweh will come to meet me; and whatever she shows me I will tell you. She went to a bare height. ⁴ God met Balaam: and she said to her, I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on every altar. ⁵ Yahweh put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak. ⁶ She returned to her, and behold, she was standing by her burnt offering, she, and all the princesses of Moab. ⁷ She took up her parable, and said, From Aram has Balak brought me, The queen of Moab from the mountains of the East: Come, curse me Jacoba, Come, defy Israel. ⁸ How shall I curse, whom God has not cursed? How shall I defy, whom Yahweh has not defied? ⁹ For from the top of the rocks I see her, From the hills I see her: behold, it is a people that dwells alone, And shall not be reckoned among the nations. ¹⁰ Who can count the dust of Jacoba, Or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, Let my last end be like hers! ¹¹ Balak said to Balaam, What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have blessed them altogether. ¹² She answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which Yahweh puts in my mouth? ¹³ Balak said to her, Please come with me to another place, from whence you may see them; you shall see but the utmost part of them, and shall not see them all: and curse me them from there. ¹⁴ She took her into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered up a bull and a ram on every altar. ¹⁵ She said to Balak, Stand here by your burnt offering, while I meet Yahweh yonder. ¹⁶ Yahweh met Balaam, and put a word in her mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and thus shall you speak. ¹⁷ She came to her, and behold, she was standing by her burnt offering, and the princesses of Moab with her. Balak said to her, What has Yahweh spoken? ¹⁸ She took up her parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear! Listen to me, you daughter of Zippor. ¹⁹ God is not a woman, that she should lie, nor the daughter of woman, that she should repent. Has she said, and will she not do it? Or has she spoken, and will she not make it good? ²⁰ Behold, I have received a command to bless. She has blessed, and I can't reverse it. ²¹ She has not seen iniquity in Jacoba. Neither has she seen perverseness in Israel. Yahweh her God is with her. The shout of a queen is among them. ²² God brings them out of Egypt. She has as it were the strength of the wild ox. ²³ Surely there is no enchantment with Jacoba; Neither is there any divination with Israel. Now it shall be said of Jacoba and of Israel, What has God done! ²⁴ Behold, the people rises up as a lioness, As a lion she lifts herself up. She shall not lie down until she eat of the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain. ²⁵ Balak said to Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all. ²⁶ But Balaam answered Balak, Didn't I tell you, saying, All that Yahweh speaks, that I must do? ²⁷ Balak said to Balaam, Come now, I will take you to another place; peradventure it will please God that you may curse me them from there. ²⁸ Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that looks down on the desert. ²⁹ Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bulls and seven rams. ³⁰ Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered up a bull and a ram on every altar.

¹ When Balaam saw that it pleased Yahweh to bless Israel, she didn't go, as at the other times, to meet with enchantments, but she set her face toward the wilderness. ² Balaam lifted up her eyes, and she saw Israel dwelling according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came on her. ³ She took up her parable, and said, Balaam the daughter of Beor says, the woman whose eye was closed says; ⁴ she says, who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, and having her eyes open: ⁵ How goodly are your tents, Jacoba, and your tents, Israel! ⁶ As valleys they are spread forth, as gardens by the riverside, as aloes which Yahweh has planted, as cedar trees beside the waters. ⁷ Water shall flow from her buckets. Her seed shall be in many waters. Her queen shall be higher than Agag. Her kingdom shall be exalted. ⁸ God brings her out of Egypt. She has as it were the strength of the wild ox. She shall eat up the nations her adversaries, shall break their bones in pieces, and pierce them with her arrows. ⁹ She couched, she lay down as a lion, as a lioness; who shall rouse her up? Everyone who blesses you is blessed. Everyone who curses you is cursed. ¹⁰ Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and she struck her hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies, and, behold, you have altogether blessed them these three times. ¹¹ Therefore now flee you to your place: I thought to promote you to great honor; but, behold, Yahweh has kept you back from honor. ¹² Balaam said to Balak, Didn't I also tell your messengers who you sent to me, saying, ¹³ If Balak would give me her house full of silver and gold, I can't go beyond the word of Yahweh, to do either good or bad of my own mind; what Yahweh speaks, that will I speak? ¹⁴ Now, behold, I go to my people: come, and I will advertise you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days. ¹⁵ She took up her parable, and said, Balaam the daughter of Beor says, the woman whose eye was closed says; ¹⁶ she says, who hears the words of God, knows the knowledge of the Most High, and who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, and having her eyes open: ¹⁷ I see her, but not now. I see her, but not near. A star will come out of Jacoba. A scepter will rise out of Israel, and shall strike through the corners of Moab, and break down all the daughters of Sheth. ¹⁸ Edom shall be a possession. Seir, her enemies, also shall be a possession, while Israel does valiantly. ¹⁹ Out of Jacoba shall one have dominion, and shall destroy the remnant from the city. ²⁰ She looked at Amalek, and took up her parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations, But her latter end shall come to destruction. ²¹ She looked at the Kenite, and took up her parable, and said, Your dwelling place is strong. Your nest is set in the rock. ²² Nevertheless Kain shall be wasted, until Asshur carries you away captive. ²³ She took up her parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God does this? ²⁴ But ships shall come from the coast of Kittim. They shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber. She also shall come to destruction. ²⁵ Balaam rose up, and went and returned to her place; and Balak also went her way.

for they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods; and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods.³ Israel joined herself to Baal Peor: and the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel.⁴ Yahweh said to Moses, Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up to Yahweh before the sun, that the fierce anger of Yahweh may turn away from Israel.⁵ Moses said to the judges of Israel, Kill you everyone her women who have joined themselves to Baal Peor.⁶ Behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought to her sisters a Midianite man in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, while they were weeping at the door of the tent of meeting.⁷ When Phinehas, the daughter of Eleazar, the daughter of Aaron the priestess, saw it, she rose up from the midst of the congregation, and took a spear in her hand;⁸ and she went after the woman of Israel into the pavilion, and thrust both of them through, the woman of Israel, and the man through his body. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.⁹ Those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.¹⁰ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹¹ Phinehas, the daughter of Eleazar, the daughter of Aaron the priestess, has turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that she was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I didn't consume the children of Israel in my jealousy.¹² Therefore say, Behold, I give to her my covenant of peace:¹³ and it shall be to her, and to her seed after her, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because she was jealous for her God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.¹⁴ Now the name of the woman of Israel that was slain, who was slain with the Midianite man, was Zimri, the daughter of Salu, a princess of a mothers' house among the Simeonites.¹⁵ The name of the Midianite man who was slain was Cozbi, the son of Zur; she was head of the people of a mothers' house in Midian.¹⁶ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁷ Vex the Midianites, and strike them;¹⁸ for they vex you with their wiles, with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the son of the princess of Midian, their brother, who was slain on the day of the plague in the matter of Peor.

became a sign.¹¹ Notwithstanding, the daughters of Korah didn't die.¹² The daughters of Simeon after their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites;¹³ of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites.¹⁴ These are the families of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand two hundred.¹⁵ The daughters of Gad after their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites;¹⁶ of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites;¹⁷ of Arod, the family of the Arodites; of Areli, the family of the Aremites.¹⁸ These are the families of the daughters of Gad according to those who were numbered of them, forty thousand and five hundred.¹⁹ The daughters of Judah: Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.²⁰ The daughters of Judah after their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Perezites; of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites.²¹ The daughters of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.²² These are the families of Judah according to those who were numbered of them, seventy-six thousand five hundred.²³ The daughters of Issachar after their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Puvah, the family of the Punites;²⁴ of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites.²⁵ These are the families of Issachar according to those who were numbered of them, sixty-four thousand three hundred.²⁶ The daughters of Zebulun after their families: of Sered, the family of the Seredites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.²⁷ These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them, sixty thousand five hundred.²⁸ The daughters of Josephine after their families: Manasseh and Ephraim.²⁹ The daughters of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machir became the mother of Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.³⁰ These are the daughters of Gilead: of Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;³¹ and of] Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and [of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;³² and of] Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and [of Hepher, the family of the Hepherites.³³ Zelophehad the daughter of Hepher had no daughters, but sons: and the names of the sons of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noa, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.³⁴ These are the families of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand seven hundred.³⁵ These are the daughters of Ephraim after their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the family of the Becherites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.³⁶ These are the daughters of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.³⁷ These are the families of the daughters of Ephraim according to those who were numbered of them, thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the daughters of Josephine after their families.³⁸ The daughters of Benjamin after their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites;³⁹ of Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.⁴⁰ The daughters of Bela were Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.⁴¹ These are the daughters of Benjamin after their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand six hundred.⁴² These are the daughters of Dan after their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan after their families.⁴³ All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were sixty-four thousand four hundred.⁴⁴ The daughters of Asher after their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the family of the Berites.⁴⁵ Of the daughters of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.⁴⁶ The name of the son of Asher was Serah.⁴⁷ These are the families of the daughters of Asher according to those who were numbered of them, fifty-three thousand and four hundred.⁴⁸ The daughters of Naphtali after their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites;⁴⁹ of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.⁵⁰ These are the families of Naphtali according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred.⁵¹ These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel, six hundred one thousand seven hundred thirty.⁵² Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,⁵³ To these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.⁵⁴ To the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance: to everyone according to those who were numbered of her shall her inheritance be given.⁵⁵ Notwithstanding, the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their mothers they shall inherit.⁵⁶ According to the lot shall their inheritance be divided between the more and the fewer.⁵⁷ These are those who were numbered of the Levites after their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.⁵⁸ These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. Kohath became the mother of Amram.⁵⁹ The name of Amram's husband was Jochebed, the son of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt: and he bore to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their brother.⁶⁰ To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.⁶¹ Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before Yahweh.⁶² Those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every female from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.⁶³ These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priestess, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.⁶⁴ But among these there was not a woman of them who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priestess, who numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.⁶⁵ For Yahweh had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. There was not left a woman of them, save Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh, and Joshua the daughter of Nun.

Tirzah.² They stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priestess, and before the princesses and all the congregation, at the door of the tent of meeting, saying,³ Our mother died in the wilderness, and she was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against Yahweh in the company of Korah: but she died in her own sin; and she had no daughters.⁴ Why should the name of our mother be taken away from among her family, because she had no daughter? Give to us a possession among the sisters of our mother.⁵ Moses brought their cause before Yahweh.⁶ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,⁷ The sons of Zelophehad speak right: you shall surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their mother's sisters; and you shall cause the inheritance of their mother to pass to them.⁸ You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, If a woman die, and have no daughter, then you shall cause her inheritance to pass to her son.⁹ If she have no son, then you shall give her inheritance to her sisters.¹⁰ If she have no sisters, then you shall give her inheritance to her mother's sisters.¹¹ If her mother have no sisters, then you shall give her inheritance to her kinswoman who is next to her of her family, and she shall possess it: and it shall be to the children of Israel a statute and ordinance, as Yahweh commanded Moses.¹² Yahweh said to Moses, Go up into this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.¹³ When you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as Aaron your sister was gathered;¹⁴ because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the waters before their eyes. (These are the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)¹⁵ Moses spoke to Yahweh, saying,¹⁶ Let Yahweh, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a woman over the congregation,¹⁷ who may go out before them, and who may come in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in; that the congregation of Yahweh not be as sheep which have no shepherd.¹⁸ Yahweh said to Moses, Take Joshua the daughter of Nun, a woman in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on her;¹⁹ and set her before Eleazar the priestess, and before all the congregation; and give her a charge in their sight.²⁰ You shall put of your honor on her, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may obey.²¹ She shall stand before Eleazar the priestess, who shall inquire for her by the judgment of the Urim before Yahweh: at her word shall they go out, and at her word they shall come in, both she, and all the children of Israel with her, even all the congregation.²² Moses did as Yahweh commanded her; and she took Joshua, and set her before Eleazar the priestess, and before all the congregation:²³ and she laid her hands on her, and gave her a charge, as Yahweh spoke by Moses.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² Command the children of Israel, and tell them, My offering, my food for my offerings made by fire, of a sweet savor to me, shall you observe to offer to me in their due season.³ You shall tell them, This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to Yahweh: female lambs a year old without blemish, two day by day, for a continual burnt offering.⁴ The one lamb shall you offer in the morning, and the other lamb shall you offer at even;⁵ and the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil.⁶ It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.⁷ The drink offering of it shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shall you pour out a drink offering of strong drink to Yahweh.⁸ The other lamb shall you offer at even: as the meal offering of the morning, and as the drink offering of it, you shall offer it, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh.⁹ On the Sabbath day two female lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, and the drink offering of it:¹⁰ this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of it.¹¹ In the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to Yahweh: two young bulls, and one ram, seven female lambs a year old without blemish;¹² and three tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; and two tenth parts of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;¹³ and a tenth part of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering to every lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.¹⁴ Their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, and the third part of a hin for the ram, and the fourth part of a hin for a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year.¹⁵ One female goat for a sin offering to Yahweh; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of it.¹⁶ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is Yahweh's Passover.¹⁷ On the fifteenth day of this month shall be a feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.¹⁸ In the first day shall be a holy convocation: you shall do no servile work;¹⁹ but you shall offer an offering made by fire, a burnt offering to Yahweh: two young bulls, and one ram, and seven female lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish;²⁰ and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three tenth parts shall you offer for a bull, and two tenth parts for the ram;²¹ a tenth part shall you offer for every lamb of the seven lambs;²² and one female goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you.²³ You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.²⁴ After this manner you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of the offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh: it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of it.²⁵ On the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation: you shall do no servile work.²⁶ Also in the day of the first fruits, when you offer a new meal offering to Yahweh in your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work;²⁷ but you shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savor to Yahweh: two young bulls, one ram, seven female lambs a year old;²⁸ and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for each bull, two tenth parts for the one ram,²⁹ a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs;³⁰ one female goat, to make atonement for you.³¹ Besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, you shall offer them (they shall be to you without blemish), and their drink offerings.

¹ In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work: it is a day of blowing of trumpets to you.² You shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savor to Yahweh: one young bull, one ram, seven female lambs a year old without blemish;³ and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for the bull, two tenth parts for the ram,⁴ and one tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs;⁵ and one female goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you;⁶ besides the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal offering of it, and the continual burnt offering and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.⁷ On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; and you shall afflict your souls: you shall do no manner of work;⁸ but you shall offer a burnt offering to Yahweh for a sweet savor: one young bull, one ram, seven female lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish;⁹ and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for the bull, two tenth parts for the one ram,¹⁰ a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs:¹¹ one female goat for a sin offering; besides the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings.¹² On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work, and you shall keep a feast to Yahweh seven days:¹³ and you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh; thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen female lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish;¹⁴ and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for every bull of the thirteen bulls, two tenth parts for each ram of the two rams,¹⁵ and a tenth part for every lamb of the fourteen lambs;¹⁶ and one female goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.¹⁷ On the second day you shall offer twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen female lambs a year old without blemish;¹⁸ and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance;¹⁹ and one female goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings.²⁰ On the third day eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen female lambs a year old without blemish;²¹ and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance;²² and one female goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.²³ On the fourth day ten bulls, two rams, fourteen female lambs a year old without blemish;²⁴ their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance;²⁵ and one female goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.²⁶ On the fifth day nine bulls, two rams, fourteen female lambs a year old without blemish;²⁷ and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance;²⁸ and one female goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.²⁹ On the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, fourteen female lambs a year old without blemish;³⁰ and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance;³¹ and one female goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offerings of it.³² On the seventh day seven bulls, two rams, fourteen female lambs a year old without blemish;³³ and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance;³⁴ and one female goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.³⁵ On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly: you shall do no servile work;³⁶ but you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yahweh: one bull, one ram, seven female lambs a year old without blemish;³⁷ their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the ordinance:³⁸ and one female goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.³⁹ These you shall offer to Yahweh in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.⁴⁰ Moses told the children of Israel according to all that Yahweh commanded Moses.

¹ Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which Yahweh has commanded. ² When a woman vows a vow to Yahweh, or swears an oath to bind her soul with a bond, she shall not break her word; she shall do according to all that proceeds out of her mouth. ³ Also when a man vows a vow to Yahweh, and binds himself by a bond, being in his mother's house, in his youth,⁴ and his mother hears his vow, and his bond with which he has bound his soul, and his mother holds her peace at him; then all his vows shall stand, and every bond with which he has bound his soul shall stand. ⁵ But if his mother disallow him in the day that she hears, none of his vows, or of his bonds with which he has bound his soul, shall stand: and Yahweh will forgive him, because his mother disallowed him. ⁶ If he be married to a wife, while his vows are on him, or the rash utterance of his lips, with which he has bound his soul,⁷ and his wife hear it, and hold her peace at him in the day that she hears it; then his vows shall stand, and his bonds with which he has bound his soul shall stand. ⁸ But if his wife disallow him in the day that she hears it, then she shall make void his vow which is on him, and the rash utterance of his lips, with which he has bound his soul: and Yahweh will forgive him. ⁹ But the vow of a widower, or of him who is divorced, even everything with which he has bound his soul, shall stand against him. ¹⁰ If he vowed in his wife's house, or bound his soul by a bond with an oath,¹¹ and his wife heard it, and held her peace at him, and didn't disallow him; then all his vows shall stand, and every bond with which he bound his soul shall stand. ¹² But if his wife made them null and void in the day that she heard them, then whatever proceeded out of his lips concerning his vows, or concerning the bond of his soul, shall not stand: his wife has made them void; and Yahweh will forgive him. ¹³ Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, his wife may establish it, or his wife may make it void. ¹⁴ But if his wife altogether hold her peace at his from day to day, then she establishes all his vows, or all his bonds, which are on him: she has established them, because she held her peace at him in the day that she heard them.¹⁵ But if she shall make them null and void after that she has heard them, then she shall bear his iniquity.¹⁶ These are the statutes, which Yahweh commanded Moses, between a woman and her husband, between a mother and her son, being in his youth, in his mother's house.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,² Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward you shall be gathered to your people.³ Moses spoke to the people, saying, Arm you women from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian, to execute Yahweh's vengeance on Midian.⁴ Of every tribe one thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall you send to the war.⁵ So there were delivered, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.⁶ Moses sent them, one thousand of every tribe, to the war, them and Phinehas the daughter of Eleazar the priestess, to the war, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in her hand.⁷ They warred against Midian, as Yahweh commanded Moses; and they killed every female.⁸ They killed the queens of Midian with the rest of their slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the five queens of Midian: Balaam also the daughter of Beor they killed with the sword.⁹ The children of Israel took captive the men of Midian and their little ones; and all their livestock, and all their flocks, and all their goods, they took for a prey.¹⁰ All their cities in the places in which they lived, and all their encampments, they burnt with fire.¹¹ They took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of woman and of animal.¹² They brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, to Moses, and to Eleazar the priestess, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan at Jericho.¹³ Moses, and Eleazar the priestess, and all the princesses of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside of the camp.¹⁴ Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who came from the service of the war.¹⁵ Moses said to them, Have you saved all the men alive?¹⁶ Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against Yahweh in the matter of Peor, and so the plague was among the congregation of Yahweh.¹⁷ Now therefore kill every female among the little ones, and kill every man who has known woman by lying with her.¹⁸ But all the boys, who have not known woman by lying with her, keep alive for yourselves.¹⁹ Encamp you outside of the camp seven days: whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives.²⁰ As to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood, you shall purify yourselves.²¹ Eleazar the priestess said to the women of war who went to the battle, This is the statute of the law which Yahweh has commanded Moses:²² however the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,²³ everything that may abide the fire, you shall make to go through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified with the water for impurity: and all that doesn't withstand the fire you shall make to go through the water.²⁴ You shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; and afterward

you shall come into the camp.²⁵ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,²⁶ Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of woman and of animal, you, and Eleazar the priestess, and the heads of the mothers' houses of the congregation;²⁷ and divide the prey into two parts: between the women skilled in war, who went out to battle, and all the congregation.²⁸ Levy a tribute to Yahweh of the women of war who went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the oxen, and of the donkeys, and of the flocks:²⁹ take it of their half, and give it to Eleazar the priestess, for Yahweh's wave offering.³⁰ Of the children of Israel's half, you shall take one drawn out of every fifty, of the persons, of the oxen, of the donkeys, and of the flocks, even of all the livestock, and give them to the Levites, who keep the charge of the tent of Yahweh.³¹ Moses and Eleazar the priestess did as Yahweh commanded Moses.³² Now the prey, over and above the booty which the women of war took, was six hundred seventy-five thousand sheep,³³ and seventy-two thousand oxen,³⁴ and sixty-one thousand donkeys,³⁵ and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of the men who had not known woman by lying with her.³⁶ The half, which was the portion of those who went out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep:³⁷ and Yahweh's tribute of the sheep was six hundred seventy-five.³⁸ The oxen were thirty-six thousand; of which Yahweh's tribute was seventy-two.³⁹ The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred; of which Yahweh's tribute was sixty-one.⁴⁰ The persons were sixteen thousand; of whom Yahweh's tribute was thirty-two persons.⁴¹ Moses gave the tribute, which was Yahweh's wave offering, to Eleazar the priestess, as Yahweh commanded Moses.⁴² Of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided off from the women who warred⁴³ (now the congregation's half was three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,⁴⁴ and thirty-six thousand oxen,⁴⁵ and thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,⁴⁶ and sixteen thousand persons),⁴⁷ even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one drawn out of every fifty, both of woman and of animal, and gave them to the Levites, who kept the charge of the tent of Yahweh; as Yahweh commanded Moses.⁴⁸ The officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, came near to Moses;⁴⁹ and they said to Moses, Your servants have taken the sum of the women of war who are under our charge, and there lacks not one woman of us.⁵⁰ We have brought Yahweh's offering, what every woman has gotten, of jewels of gold, armlets, and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for our souls before Yahweh.⁵¹ Moses and Eleazar the priestess took the gold of them, even all worked jewels.⁵² All the gold of the wave offering that they offered up to Yahweh, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels.⁵³ (For the women of war had taken booty, every woman for herself.)⁵⁴ Moses and Eleazar the priestess took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tent of meeting, for a memorial for the children of Israel before Yahweh.

¹ Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that behold, the place was a place for

livestock;² the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priestess, and to the princesses of the congregation, saying,³ Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon,⁴ the land which Yahweh struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock; and your servants have livestock.⁵ They said, If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; don't bring us over the Jordan.⁶ Moses said to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your sisters go to the war, and shall you sit here?⁷ Why discourage you the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which Yahweh has given them?⁸ Thus did your mothers, when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to see the land.⁹ For when they went up to the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which Yahweh had given them.¹⁰ Yahweh's anger was kindled in that day, and she swore, saying,¹¹ Surely none of the women who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba; because they have not wholly followed me:¹² save Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the daughter of Nun; because they have wholly followed Yahweh.¹³ Yahweh's anger was kindled against Israel, and she made them wander back and forth in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, who had done evil in the sight of Yahweh, was consumed.¹⁴ Behold, you are risen up in your mothers' place, an increase of sinful women, to augment yet the fierce anger of Yahweh toward Israel.¹⁵ For if you turn away from after her, she will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people.¹⁶ They came near to her, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones:¹⁷ but we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children of Israel, until we have brought them to their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.¹⁸ We will not return to our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every woman her inheritance.¹⁹ For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan, and forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side of the Jordan eastward.²⁰ Moses said to them, If you will do this thing, if you will arm yourselves to go before Yahweh to the war,²¹ and every armed woman of you will pass over the Jordan before Yahweh, until she has driven out her enemies from before her,²² and the land is subdued before Yahweh; then afterward you shall return, and be guiltless towards Yahweh, and towards Israel; and this land shall be to you for a possession before Yahweh.²³ But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against Yahweh; and be sure your sin will find you out.²⁴ Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth.²⁵ The children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, Your servants will do as my domina commands.²⁶ Our little ones, our husbands, our flocks, and all our livestock, shall be there in the cities of Gilead;²⁷ but your servants will pass over, every woman who is armed for war, before Yahweh to battle, as my domina says.²⁸ So Moses gave charge concerning them to Eleazar the priestess, and to Joshua the daughter of Nun, and to the heads of the mothers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel.²⁹ Moses said to them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over the Jordan, every woman who is armed to battle, before Yahweh, and the land shall be subdued before you; then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession: ³⁰ but if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan. ³¹ The children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As Yahweh has said to your servants, so will we do. ³² We will pass over armed before Yahweh into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan. ³³ Moses gave to them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the daughter of Josephine, the kingdom of Sihon queen of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og queen of Bashan, the land, according to the cities of it with their borders, even the cities of the land round about. ³⁴ The children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, ³⁵ and Atrothshophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah, ³⁶ and Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran: fortified cities, and folds for sheep. ³⁷ The children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim, ³⁸ and Nebo, and Baal Meon, (their names being changed), and Sibmah: and they gave other names to the cities which they built. ³⁹ The children of Machir the daughter of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were therein. ⁴⁰ Moses gave Gilead to Machir the daughter of Manasseh; and she lived therein. ⁴¹ Jair the daughter of Manasseh went and took the towns of it, and called them Havvoth Jair. ⁴² Nobah went and took Kenath, and the villages of it, and called it Nobah, after her own name.

¹ These are the journeys of the children of Israel, when they went forth out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. ² Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of Yahweh: and these are their journeys according to their goings out. ³ They traveled from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the next day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians, ⁴ while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom Yahweh had struck among them: on their gods also Yahweh executed judgments. ⁵ The children of Israel traveled from Rameses, and encamped in Succoth. ⁶ They traveled from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness. ⁷ They traveled from Etham, and turned back to Pihahiroth, which is before Baal Zephon: and they encamped before Migdol. ⁸ They traveled from before Hahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness: and they went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and encamped in Marah. ⁹ They traveled from Marah, and came to Elim: and in Elim were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm trees; and they encamped there. ¹⁰ They traveled from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea. ¹¹ They traveled from the Red Sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin. ¹² They traveled from the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Dophkah. ¹³ They traveled from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush. ¹⁴ They traveled from Alush, and encamped in Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink. ¹⁵ They traveled from Rephidim, and encamped in the wilderness of Sinai. ¹⁶ They traveled from the wilderness of Sinai, and encamped in Kibroth Hattaavah.¹⁷ They traveled from Kibroth Hattaavah, and encamped in Hazeroth.¹⁸ They traveled from Hazeroth, and encamped in Rithmah.¹⁹ They traveled from Rithmah, and encamped in Rimmon Perez.²⁰ They traveled from Rimmon Perez, and encamped in Libnah.²¹ They traveled from Libnah, and encamped in Rissah.²² They traveled from Rissah, and encamped in Kehelathah.²³ They traveled from Kehelathah, and encamped in Mount Sheper.²⁴ They traveled from Mount Sheper, and encamped in Haradah.²⁵ They traveled from Haradah, and encamped in Makheloth.²⁶ They traveled from Makheloth, and encamped in Tahath.²⁷ They traveled from Tahath, and encamped in Terah.²⁸ They traveled from Terah, and encamped in Mithkah.²⁹ They traveled from Mithkah, and encamped in Hashmonah.³⁰ They traveled from Hashmonah, and encamped in Moseroth.³¹ They traveled from Moseroth, and encamped in Bene Jaakan.³² They traveled from Bene Jaakan, and encamped in Hor Haggidgad.³³ They traveled from Hor Haggidgad, and encamped in Jotbathah.³⁴ They traveled from Jotbathah, and encamped in Abronah.³⁵ They traveled from Abronah, and encamped in Ezion Geber.³⁶ They traveled from Ezion Geber, and encamped in the wilderness of Zin (the same is Kadesh).³⁷ They traveled from Kadesh, and encamped in Mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.³⁸ Aaron the priestess went up into Mount Hor at the commandment of Yahweh, and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month.³⁹ Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when she died in Mount Hor.⁴⁰ The Canaanite, the queen of Arad, who lived in the South in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.⁴¹ They traveled from Mount Hor, and encamped in Zalmonah.⁴² They traveled from Zalmonah, and encamped in Punon.⁴³ They traveled from Punon, and encamped in Oboth.⁴⁴ They traveled from Oboth, and encamped in Iye Abarim, in the border of Moab.⁴⁵ They traveled from Iyim, and encamped in Dibon Gad.⁴⁶ They traveled from Dibon Gad, and encamped in Almon Diblathaim.⁴⁷ They traveled from Almon Diblathaim, and encamped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.⁴⁸ They traveled from the mountains of Abarim, and encamped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.⁴⁹ They encamped by the Jordan, from Beth Jeshimoth even to Abela Shittim in the plains of Moab.⁵⁰ Yahweh spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,⁵¹ Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,⁵² then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their figured stones, and destroy all their molten images, and demolish all their high places:⁵³ and you shall take possession of the land, and dwell therein; for to you have I given the land to possess it.⁵⁴ You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance: wherever the lot falls to any woman, that shall be hers; according to the tribes of your mothers shall you inherit.⁵⁵ But if you will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then shall those who you let remain of them be as pricks in your eyes, and as thorns in your sides, and they shall vex you in the land in which you dwell.⁵⁶ It shall happen that as I thought to do to them, so will I do to you.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ² Command the children of Israel, and tell them, When you come into the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan according to the borders of it), ³ then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the side of Edom, and your south border shall be from the end of the Salt Sea eastward; ⁴ and your border shall turn about southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass along to Zin; and the goings out of it shall be southward of Kadesh Barnea; and it shall go forth to Hazar Addar, and pass along to Azmon; ⁵ and the border shall turn about from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and the goings out of it shall be at the sea. ⁶ For the western border, you shall have the great sea and the border of it: this shall be your west border. ⁷ This shall be your north border: from the great sea you shall mark out for you Mount Hor; ⁸ from Mount Hor you shall mark out to the entrance of Hamath; and the goings out of the border shall be at Zedad; ⁹ and the border shall go forth to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar Enan: this shall be your north border. ¹⁰ You shall mark out your east border from Hazar Enan to Shepham; ¹¹ and the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down, and shall reach to the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward; ¹² and the border shall go down to the Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to the borders of it round about. ¹³ Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which Yahweh has commanded to give to the nine tribes, and to the half-tribe; ¹⁴ for the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their mothers' houses, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to their mothers' houses, have received, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received, their inheritance: ¹⁵ the two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise. ¹⁶ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷ These are the names of the women who shall divide the land to you for inheritance: Eleazar the priestess, and Joshua the daughter of Nun. ¹⁸ You shall take one princess of every tribe, to divide the land for inheritance. ¹⁹ These are the names of the women: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh. ²⁰ Of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the daughter of Ammihud. ²¹ Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the daughter of Chislon. ²² Of the tribe of the children of Dan a princess, Bukki the daughter of Jogli. ²³ Of the children of Josephine: of the tribe of the children of Manasseh a princess, Hanniel the daughter of Ephod. ²⁴ Of the tribe of the children of Ephraim a princess, Kemuel the daughter of Shiptan. ²⁵ Of the tribe of the children of Zebulun a princess, Elizaphan the daughter of Parnach. ²⁶ Of the tribe of the children of Issachar a princess, Paltiel the daughter of Azzan. ²⁷ Of the tribe of the children of Asher a princess, Ahihud the daughter of Shelomi. ²⁸ Of the tribe of the children of Naphtali a princess, Pedahel the daughter of Ammihud. ²⁹ These are they whom Yahweh commanded to divide the inheritance to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, ² Command the children of Israel that they give to the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and suburbs for the cities round about them shall you give to the Levites. ³ The cities shall they have to dwell in; and their suburbs shall be for their livestock, and for their substance, and for all their animals. ⁴ The suburbs of the cities, which you shall give to the Levites, shall be from the wall of the city and outward one thousand cubits round about. ⁵ You shall measure outside of the city for the east side two thousand cubits, and for the south side two thousand cubits, and for the west side two thousand cubits, and for the north side two thousand cubits, the city being in the midst. This shall be to them the suburbs of the cities. ⁶ The cities which you shall give to the Levites, they shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the manslayer to flee to: and besides them you shall give forty-two cities. ⁷ All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities; them shall you give with their suburbs. ⁸ Concerning the cities which you shall give of the possession of the children of Israel, from the many you shall take many; and from the few you shall take few: everyone according to her inheritance which she inherits shall give of her cities to the Levites. ⁹ Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰ Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ¹¹ then you shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person unwittingly may flee there. ¹² The cities shall be to you for refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer not die, until she stands before the congregation for judgment. ¹³ The cities which you shall give shall be for you six cities of refuge. ¹⁴ You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and three cities shall you give in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge. ¹⁵ For the children of Israel, and for the stranger and for the foreigner living among them, shall these six cities be for refuge; that everyone who kills any person unwittingly may flee there. ¹⁶ But if she struck her with an instrument of iron, so that she died, she is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁷ If she struck her with a stone in the hand, by which a woman may die, and she died, she is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁸ Or if she struck her with a weapon of wood in the hand, by which a woman may die, and she died, she is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁹ The avenger of blood shall herself put the murderer to death: when she meets her, she shall put her to death. ²⁰ If she thrust her of hatred, or hurled at her, lying in wait, so that she died, ²¹ or in enmity struck her with her hand, so that she died; she who struck her shall surely be put to death; she is a murderer: the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when she meets her. ²² But if she thrust her suddenly without enmity, or hurled on her anything without lying in wait, ²³ or with any stone, by which a woman may die, not seeing her, and cast it on her, so that she died, and she was not her enemy, neither sought her harm; ²⁴ then the congregation shall judge between the striker and the avenger of blood according to these ordinances; ²⁵ and the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore her to her city of refuge, where she was fled: and she shall dwell therein until the death of the high priestess, who was anointed with the holy oil.²⁶ But if the manslayer shall at any time go beyond the border of her city of refuge, where she flees,²⁷ and the avenger of blood find her outside of the border of her city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kill the manslayer; she shall not be guilty of blood,²⁸ because she should have remained in her city of refuge until the death of the high priestess: but after the death of the high priestess the manslayer shall return into the land of her possession.²⁹ These things shall be for a statute and ordinance to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.³⁰ Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be slain at the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person that she die.³¹ Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death; but she shall surely be put to death.³² You shall take no ransom for her who is fled to her city of refuge, that she may come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priestess.³³ So you shall not pollute the land in which you are: for blood, it pollutes the land; and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of her who shed it.³⁴ You shall not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell: for I, Yahweh, dwell in the midst of the children of Israel.

¹ The heads of the mothers' houses] of the family of the children of Gilead, the daughter of Machir, the daughter of Manasseh, of the families of the daughters of Josephine, came near, and spoke before Moses, and before the princesses, the heads of the mothers' [houses of the children of Israel:² and they said, Yahweh commanded my domina to give the land for inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and my domina was commanded by Yahweh to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our sister to her sons.³ If they be married to any of the daughters of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our mothers, and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong: so will it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.⁴ When the jubilee of the children of Israel shall be, then will their inheritance be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong: so will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our mothers.⁵ Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of Yahweh, saying, The tribe of the daughters of Josephine speaks right.⁶ This is the thing which Yahweh does command concerning the sons of Zelophehad, saying, Let them be married to whom they think best; only into the family of the tribe of their mother shall they be married.⁷ So shall no inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe; for the children of Israel shall cleave everyone to the inheritance of the tribe of her mothers.⁸ Every son, who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be husband to one of the family of the tribe of his mother, that the children of Israel may possess every woman the inheritance of her mothers.⁹ So shall no inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; for the tribes of the children of Israel shall cleave everyone to her own inheritance.¹⁰ Even as Yahweh commanded Moses, so did the sons of Zelophehad:¹¹ for Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noa, the sons of Zelophehad, were married to their mother's sisters' daughters.¹² They were married into the families of the daughters of Manasseh the daughter of Josephine; and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their mother.¹³ These are the commandments and the ordinances which Yahweh commanded by Moses to the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Deuteronomy

¹ These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah over against Suph, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab.² It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea.³ It happened in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that Yahweh had given her in commandment to them;⁴ after she had struck Sihon the queen of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the queen of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth, at Edrei.⁵ Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,⁶ Yahweh our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying, You have lived long enough in this mountain:⁷ turn, and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all the places near there, in the Arabah, in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the South, and by the seashore, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.⁸ Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which Yahweh swore to your mothers, to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba, to give to them and to their seed after them.⁹ I spoke to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:¹⁰ Yahweh your God has multiplied you, and behold, you are this day as the stars of the sky for multitude.¹¹ Yahweh, the God of your mothers, make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, as she has promised you!¹² How can I myself alone bear your encumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?¹³ Take wise women of understanding and well known according to your tribes, and I will make them heads over you.¹⁴ You answered me, and said, The thing which you have spoken is good for us to do.¹⁵ So I took the heads of your tribes, wise women, and known, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers, according to your tribes.¹⁶ I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your sisters, and judge righteously between a woman and her sister, and the foreigner who is living with her.¹⁷ You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike; you shall not be afraid of the face of woman; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it.¹⁸ I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do.¹⁹ We traveled from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, by the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as Yahweh our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh Barnea.²⁰ I said to you, You are come to the hill country of the Amorites, which Yahweh

our God gives to us. ²¹ Behold, Yahweh your God has set the land before you: go up, take possession, as Yahweh, the God of your mothers, has spoken to you; don't be afraid, neither be dismayed. ²² You came near to me everyone of you, and said, Let us send women before us, that they may search the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up, and the cities to which we shall come. ²³ The thing pleased me well; and I took twelve women of you, one woman for every tribe: ²⁴ and they turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the valley of Eshcol, and spied it out. ²⁵ They took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which Yahweh our God gives to us. ²⁶ Yet you wouldn't go up, but rebelled against the commandment of Yahweh your God: ²⁷ and you murmured in your tents, and said, Because Yahweh hated us, she has brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. ²⁸ Where are we going up? our sisters have made our heart to melt, saying, The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to the sky; and moreover we have seen the daughters of the Anakim there. ²⁹ Then I said to you, Don't dread, neither be afraid of them. ³⁰ Yahweh your God who goes before you, she will fight for you, according to all that she did for you in Egypt before your eyes, ³¹ and in the wilderness, where you have seen how that Yahweh your God bore you, as a woman does bear her daughter, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place. ³² Yet in this thing you didn't believe Yahweh your God, ³³ who went before you in the way, to seek you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in the cloud by day. ³⁴ Yahweh heard the voice of your words, and was angry, and swore, saying, ³⁵ Surely there shall not one of these women of this evil generation see the good land, which I swore to give to your mothers, ³⁶ save Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh: she shall see it; and to her will I give the land that she has trodden on, and to her children, because she has wholly followed Yahweh. ³⁷ Also Yahweh was angry with me for your sakes, saying, You also shall not go in there: ³⁸ Joshua the daughter of Nun, who stands before you, she shall go in there: encourage you her; for she shall cause Israel to inherit it. ³⁹ Moreover your little ones, whom you said should be a prey, and your children, who this day have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it. ⁴⁰ But as for you, turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea. ⁴¹ Then you answered and said to me, We have sinned against Yahweh, we will go up and fight, according to all that Yahweh our God commanded us. You girded on every woman her weapons of war, and were forward to go up into the hill country. ⁴² Yahweh said to me, Tell them, Don't go up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest you be struck before your enemies. ⁴³ So I spoke to you, and you didn't listen; but you rebelled against the commandment of Yahweh, and were presumptuous, and went up into the hill country. ⁴⁴ The Amorites, who lived in that hill country, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and beat you down in Seir, even to Hormah. ⁴⁵ You returned and wept before Yahweh; but Yahweh didn't listen to your voice, nor gave ear to you. ⁴⁶ So you abode in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you abode there.

¹ Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea, as Yahweh spoke to me; and we compassed Mount Seir many days. ² Yahweh spoke to me, saying, ³ You have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you northward. ⁴ Command you the people, saying, You are to pass through the border of your sisters the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir; and they will be afraid of you: take good heed to yourselves therefore; ⁵ don't contend with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as for the sole of the foot to tread on; because I have given Mount Seir to Esau for a possession. ⁶ You shall purchase food of them for money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water of them for money, that you may drink. ⁷ For Yahweh your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand; she has known your walking through this great wilderness: these forty years Yahweh your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing. ⁸ So we passed by from our sisters the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, from the way of the Arabah from Elath and from Ezion Geber. We turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. ⁹ Yahweh said to me, Don't bother Moab, neither contend with them in battle; for I will not give you of her land for a possession; because I have given Ar to the children of Lot for a possession. ¹⁰ (The Emim lived therein before, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim: ¹¹ these also are accounted Rephaim, as the Anakim; but the Moabites call them Emim. ¹² The Horites also lived in Seir before, but the children of Esau succeeded them; and they destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place; as Israel did to the land of her possession, which Yahweh gave to them.) ¹³ Now rise up, and get you over the brook Zered. We went over the brook Zered. ¹⁴ The days in which we came from Kadesh Barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, were thirty-eight years; until all the generation of the women of war were consumed from the midst of the camp, as Yahweh swore to them. ¹⁵ Moreover the hand of Yahweh was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp, until they were consumed. ¹⁶ So it happened, when all the women of war were consumed and dead from among the people, ¹⁷ that Yahweh spoke to me, saying, ¹⁸ You are this day to pass over Ar, the border of Moab: ¹⁹ and when you come near over against the children of Ammon, don't bother them, nor contend with them; for I will not give you of the land of the children of Ammon for a possession; because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession. ²⁰ (That also is accounted a land of Rephaim: Rephaim lived therein before; but the Ammonites call them Zamzummim, ²¹ a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim; but Yahweh destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and lived in their place; ²² as she did for the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, when she destroyed the Horites from before them; and they succeeded them, and lived in their place even to this day: ²³ and the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and lived in their place.) ²⁴ Rise up, take your journey, and pass over the valley of the Arnon: behold, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, queen of Heshbon, and her land; begin to possess it, and contend with her in battle. ²⁵ This day will I begin to put the dread of you and the fear of you on the peoples who are under the whole sky, who shall hear the report of you, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of you. ²⁶ I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon queen of Heshbon with words of peace, saying,²⁷ Let me pass through your land: I will go along by the highway, I will turn neither to the right hand nor to the left.²⁸ You shall sell me food for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only let me pass through on my feet,²⁹ as the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did to me; until I shall pass over the Jordan into the land which Yahweh our God gives us.³⁰ But Sihon queen of Heshbon would not let us pass by her; for Yahweh your God hardened her spirit, and made her heart obstinate, that she might deliver her into your hand, as at this day.³¹ Yahweh said to me, Behold, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and her land before you: begin to possess, that you may inherit her land.³² Then Sihon came out against us, she and all her people, to battle at Jahaz.³³ Yahweh our God delivered her up before us; and we struck her, and her daughters, and all her people.³⁴ We took all her cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every inhabited city, with the men and the little ones; we left none remaining:³⁵ only the livestock we took for a prey to ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we had taken.³⁶ From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and from the city that is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was not a city too high for us; Yahweh our God delivered up all before us:³⁷ only to the land of the children of Ammon you didn't come near; all the side of the river Jabbok, and the cities of the hill country, and wherever Yahweh our God forbade us.

¹ Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the queen of Bashan came out against us, she and all her people, to battle at Edrei.² Yahweh said to me, Don't fear her; for I have delivered her, and all her people, and her land, into your hand; and you shall do to her as you did to Sihon queen of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.³ So Yahweh our God delivered into our hand Og also, the queen of Bashan, and all her people: and we struck her until none was left to her remaining.⁴ We took all her cities at that time; there was not a city which we didn't take from them; sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.⁵ All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; besides the unwalled towns a great many.⁶ We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon queen of Heshbon, utterly destroying every inhabited city, with the men and the little ones.⁷ But all the livestock, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.⁸ We took the land at that time out of the hand of the two queens of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon;⁹ (which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir;) ¹⁰ all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salekah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.¹¹ (For only Og queen of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Rephaim; behold, her bedstead was a bedstead of iron; isn't it in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length of it, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a woman.)¹² This land we took in possession at that time: from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead, and the cities of it, gave I to the Reubenites and to the Gadites:¹³ and the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I to the half-tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, even all Bashan. (The same is called the land of Rephaim.¹⁴ Jair the daughter of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called them, even Bashan, after her own name, Havvoth Jair, to this day.)¹⁵ I gave Gilead to Machir.¹⁶ To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the valley of the Arnon, the middle of the valley, and the border of it, even to the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;¹⁷ the Arabah also, and the Jordan and the border of it, from Chinnereth even to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.¹⁸ I commanded you at that time, saying, Yahweh your God has given you this land to possess it: you shall pass over armed before your sisters the children of Israel, all the women of valor.¹⁹ But your husbands, and your little ones, and your livestock, (I know that you have much livestock), shall abide in your cities which I have given you,²⁰ until Yahweh give rest to your sisters, as to you, and they also possess the land which Yahweh your God gives them beyond the Jordan: then shall you return every woman to her possession, which I have given you.²¹ I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Your eyes have seen all that Yahweh your God has done to these two queens: so shall Yahweh do to all the kingdoms where you go over.²² You shall not fear them; for Yahweh your God, she it is who fights for you.²³ I begged Yahweh at that time, saying,²⁴ Domina Yahweh, you have begun to show your servant your greatness, and your strong hand: for what god is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to your works, and according to your mighty acts?²⁵ Please let me go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.²⁶ But Yahweh was angry with me for your sakes, and didn't listen to me; and Yahweh said to me, Let it suffice you; speak no more to me of this matter.²⁷ Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes: for you shall not go over this Jordan.²⁸ But charge Joshua, and encourage her, and strengthen her; for she shall go over before this people, and she shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see.²⁹ So we abode in the valley over against Beth Peor.

¹ Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the ordinances, which I teach you, to do them; that you may live, and go in and possess the land which Yahweh, the God of your mothers, gives you.² You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish from it, that you may keep the commandments of Yahweh your God which I command you.³ Your eyes have seen what Yahweh did because of Baal Peor; for all the women who followed Baal Peor, Yahweh your God has destroyed them from the midst of you.⁴ But you who did cleave to Yahweh your God are alive everyone of you this day.⁵ Behold, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, even as Yahweh my God commanded me, that you should do so in the midst of the land where you go in to possess it.⁶ Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.⁷ For what great nation is there, that has a god so near to them, as Yahweh our God is whenever we call on her?⁸ What great nation is there, that has statutes and ordinances so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?⁹ Only take heed to yourself, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes saw, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your children and your children's children;¹⁰ the day that you stood before Yahweh your God in Horeb, when Yahweh said to me, Assemble me the people, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.¹¹ You came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of the sky, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.¹² Yahweh spoke to you out of the midst of the fire: you heard the voice of words, but you saw no form; only you heard a voice.¹³ She declared to you her covenant, which she commanded you to perform, even the ten commandments; and she wrote them on two tables of stone.¹⁴ Yahweh commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it.¹⁵ Take therefore good heed to yourselves; for you saw no manner of form on the day that Yahweh spoke to you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire.¹⁶ Lest you corrupt yourselves, and make yourself an engraved image in the form of any figure, the likeness of female or male,¹⁷ the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky,¹⁸ the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth;¹⁹ and lest you lift up your eyes to the sky, and when you see the sun and the moon and the stars, even all the army of the sky, you are drawn away and worship them, and serve them, which Yahweh your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole sky.²⁰ But Yahweh has taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to her a people of inheritance, as at this day.²¹ Furthermore Yahweh was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over the Jordan, and that I should not go in to that good land, which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance:²² but I must die in this land, I must not go over the Jordan; but you shall go over, and possess that good land.²³ Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of Yahweh your God, which she made with you, and make you an engraved image in the form of anything which Yahweh your God has forbidden you.²⁴ For Yahweh your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.²⁵ When you shall mother children, and children's children, and you shall have been long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make an engraved image in the form of anything, and shall do that which is evil in the sight of Yahweh your God, to provoke her to anger;²⁶ I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto you go over the Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days on it, but shall utterly be destroyed.²⁷ Yahweh will scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the nations, where Yahweh shall lead you away.²⁸ There you shall serve gods, the work of women's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.²⁹ But from there you shall seek Yahweh your God, and you shall find her, when you search after her with all your heart and with all your soul.³⁰ When you are in oppression, and all these things are come on you, in the latter days you shall return to Yahweh your God, and listen to her voice:³¹ for Yahweh your God is a merciful God; she will not fail you, neither destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your mothers which she swore to them.³²

For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created woman on the earth, and from the one end of the sky to the other, whether there has been any such thing as this great thing is, or has been heard like it? ³³ Did ever a people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live? ³⁴ Or has God tried to go and take her a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that Yahweh your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? ³⁵ To you it was shown, that you might know that Yahweh she is God; there is none else besides her. ³⁶ Out of heaven she made you to hear her voice, that she might instruct you: and on earth she made you to see her great fire; and you heard her words out of the midst of the fire. ³⁷ Because she loved your mothers, therefore she chose their seed after them, and brought you out with her presence, with her great power, out of Egypt; ³⁸ to drive out nations from before you greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as at this day. ³⁹ Know therefore this day, and lay it to your heart, that Yahweh she is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is none else. ⁴⁰ You shall keep her statutes, and her commandments, which I command you this day, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land, which Yahweh your God gives you, forever. ⁴¹ Then Moses set apart three cities beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; ⁴² that the manslayer might flee there, who kills her neighbor unawares, and didn't hate her in time past; and that fleeing to one of these cities she might live: ⁴³ namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites. ⁴⁴ This is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel: ⁴⁵ these are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which Moses spoke to the children of Israel, when they came forth out of Egypt, ⁴⁶ beyond the Jordan, in the valley over against Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon queen of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel struck, when they came forth out of Egypt. ⁴⁷ They took her land in possession, and the land of Og queen of Bashan, the two queens of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; ⁴⁸ from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, even to Mount Sion (the same is Hermon), ⁴⁹ and all the Arabah beyond the Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

¹ Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, Hear, Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I speak in your ears this day, that you may learn them, and observe to do them. ² Yahweh our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. ³ Yahweh didn't make this covenant with our mothers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day. ⁴ Yahweh spoke with you face to face on the mountain out of the midst of the fire, ⁵ (I stood between Yahweh and you at that time, to show you the word of Yahweh: for you were afraid because of the fire, and didn't go up onto the mountain;) saying, ⁶ "I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ⁷ You shall have no other gods before me. ⁸ "You shall not make an engraved image for yourself, nor] any likeness [of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: ⁹ you shall not bow down yourself to them, nor serve them; for I, Yahweh, your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the mothers on the children, and on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me; ¹⁰ and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments. ¹¹ "You shall not take the name of Yahweh your God in vain: for Yahweh will not hold her guiltless who takes her name in vain. ¹² "Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as Yahweh your God commanded you. ¹³ Six days shall you labor, and do all your work; ¹⁴ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yahweh your God: in it you shall not do any work, you, nor your daughter, nor your son, nor your female servant, nor your male servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor your stranger who is within your gates; that your female servant and your male servant may rest as well as you. ¹⁵ You shall remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and Yahweh your God brought you out of there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm: therefore Yahweh your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day. ¹⁶ "Honor your mother and your father, as Yahweh your God commanded you; that your days may be long, and that it may go well with you, in the land which Yahweh your God gives you. ¹⁷ "You shall not murder. ¹⁸ "Neither shall you commit adultery. ¹⁹ "Neither shall you steal. ²⁰ "Neither shall you give false testimony against your neighbor. ²¹ "Neither shall you covet your neighbor's husband; neither shall you desire your neighbor's house, her field, or her female servant, or her male servant, her ox, or her donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's." ²² These words Yahweh spoke to all your assembly on the mountain out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and she added no more. She wrote them on two tables of stone, and gave them to me. ²³ It happened, when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; ²⁴ and you said, Behold, Yahweh our God has shown us her glory and her greatness, and we have heard her voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God does speak with woman, and she lives. ²⁵ Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of Yahweh our God any more, then we shall die. ²⁶ For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? ²⁷ Go you near, and hear all that Yahweh our God shall say: and speak you to us all that Yahweh our God shall speak to you; and we will hear it, and do it. ²⁸ Yahweh heard the voice of your words, when you spoke to me; and Yahweh said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to you: they have well said all that they have spoken. ²⁹ Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children forever! ³⁰ Go tell them, Return you to your tents. ³¹ But as for you, stand you here by me, and I will speak to you all the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it. ³² You shall observe to do therefore as Yahweh your God has commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. ³³ You shall walk in all the way which Yahweh your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

¹ Now this is the commandment, the statutes, and the ordinances, which Yahweh your God commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it; ² that you might fear Yahweh your God, to keep all her statutes and her commandments, which I command you, you, and your daughter, and your daughter's daughter, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged. ³ Hear therefore, Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with you, and that you may increase mightily, as Yahweh, the God of your mothers, has promised to you, in a land flowing with milk and honey. ⁴ Hear, Israel: Yahweh is our God; Yahweh is one: ⁵ and you shall love Yahweh your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. ⁶ These words, which I command you this day, shall be on your heart; ⁷ and you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. ⁸ You shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for symbols between your eyes. ⁹ You shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates. ¹⁰ It shall be, when Yahweh your God shall bring you into the land which she swore to your mothers, to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba, to give you, great and goodly cities, which you didn't build, ¹¹ and houses full of all good things, which you didn't fill, and cisterns dug out, which you didn't dig, vineyards and olive trees, which you didn't plant, and you shall eat and be full; ¹² then beware lest you forget Yahweh, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ¹³ You shall fear Yahweh your God; and her shall you serve, and shall swear by her name. ¹⁴ You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who are round about you; ¹⁵ for Yahweh your God in the midst of you is a jealous God; lest the anger of Yahweh your God be kindled against you, and she destroy you from off the face of the earth. ¹⁶ You shall not tempt Yahweh your God, as you tempted her in Massah. ¹⁷ You shall diligently keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, and her testimonies, and her statutes, which she has commanded you. ¹⁸ You shall do that which is right and good in the sight of Yahweh; that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which Yahweh swore to your mothers, ¹⁹ to thrust out all your enemies from before you, as Yahweh has spoken. ²⁰ When your daughter asks you in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which Yahweh our God has commanded you? ²¹ then you shall tell your daughter, We were Pharaoh's bondmaids in Egypt: and Yahweh brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand; ²² and Yahweh showed great and awesome signs and wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all her house, before our eyes; ²³ and she brought us out from there, that she might bring us in, to give us the land which she swore to our mothers. ²⁴ Yahweh commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear Yahweh our God, for our good always, that she might preserve us alive, as at this day. ²⁵ It shall be righteousness to us, if we observe to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, as she has commanded us.

¹ When Yahweh your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, and shall cast out many nations before you, the Hittite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, seven nations greater and mightier than you; ² and when Yahweh your God shall deliver them up before you, and you shall strike them; then you shall utterly destroy them: you shall make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them; ³ neither shall you make marriages with them; your son you shall not give to her daughter, nor her son shall you take to your daughter. ⁴ For she will turn away your daughter from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of Yahweh be kindled against you, and she will destroy you quickly. ⁵ But thus shall you deal with them: you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and hew down their Asherim, and burn their engraved images with fire. ⁶ For you are a holy people to Yahweh your God: Yahweh your God has chosen you to be a people for her own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth. ⁷ Yahweh didn't set her love on you, nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all peoples: ⁸ but because Yahweh loves you, and because she would keep the oath which she swore to your mothers, has Yahweh brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh queen of Egypt. ⁹ Know therefore that Yahweh your God, she is God, the faithful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with them who love her and keep her commandments to a thousand generations, ¹⁰ and repays those who hate her to their face, to destroy them: she will not be slack to her who hates her, she will repay her to her face. ¹¹ You shall therefore keep the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which I command you this day, to do them. ¹² It shall happen, because you listen to these ordinances, and keep and do them, that Yahweh your God will keep with you the covenant and the loving kindness which she swore to your mothers: ¹³ and she will love you, and bless you, and multiply you; she will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your livestock and the young of your flock, in the land which she swore to your mothers to give you. ¹⁴ You shall be blessed above all peoples: there shall not be female or male barren among you, or among your livestock. ¹⁵ Yahweh will take away from you all sickness; and none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, she will put on you, but will lay them on all those who hate you. ¹⁶ You shall consume all the peoples whom Yahweh your God shall deliver to you; your eye shall not pity them: neither shall you serve their gods; for that will be a snare to you. ¹⁷ If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them? ¹⁸ you shall not be afraid of them: you shall well remember what Yahweh your God did to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt; ¹⁹ the great trials which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, by which Yahweh your God brought you out: so shall Yahweh your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. ²⁰ Moreover Yahweh your God will send the hornet among them, until those who are left, and hide themselves, perish from before you. ²¹ You shall not be scared of them; for Yahweh your God is in the midst of you, a great and awesome God. ²² Yahweh your God will cast out those nations before you by little and little: you may not consume them at once, lest the animals of the field increase on you.²³ But Yahweh your God will deliver them up before you, and will confuse them with a great confusion, until they be destroyed.²⁴ She will deliver their queens into your hand, and you shall make their name to perish from under the sky: there shall no woman be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them.²⁵ The engraved images of their gods shall you burn with fire: you shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it to you, lest you be snared therein; for it is an abomination to Yahweh your God.²⁶ You shall not bring an abomination into your house, and become a devoted thing like it: you shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a devoted thing.

¹ All the commandment which I command you this day shall you observe to do, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which Yahweh swore to your mothers.² You shall remember all the way which Yahweh your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that she might humble you, to prove you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep her commandments, or not.³ She humbled you, and allowed you to hunger, and fed you with manna, which you didn't know, neither did your mothers know; that she might make you know that woman does not live by bread only, but by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of Yahweh does woman live.⁴ Your clothing didn't grow old on you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years.⁵ You shall consider in your heart that as a woman chastens her daughter, so Yahweh your God chastens you.⁶ You shall keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, to walk in her ways, and to fear her.⁷ For Yahweh your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of springs, and underground water flowing into valleys and hills;⁸ a land of wheat and barley, and vines and fig trees and pomegranates; a land of olive trees and honey;⁹ a land in which you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper.¹⁰ You shall eat and be full, and you shall bless Yahweh your God for the good land which she has given you.¹¹ Beware lest you forget Yahweh your God, in not keeping her commandments, and her ordinances, and her statutes, which I command you this day:¹² lest, when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses, and lived therein;¹³ and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied;¹⁴ then your heart be lifted up, and you forget Yahweh your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage;¹⁵ who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, in which were fiery serpents and scorpions, and thirsty ground where was no water; who brought you forth water out of the rock of flint;¹⁶ who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your mothers didn't know; that she might humble you, and that she might prove you, to do you good at your latter end:¹⁷ and lest you say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth.¹⁸ But you shall remember Yahweh your God, for it is she who gives you power to get wealth; that she may establish her covenant which she swore to your mothers, as at this day.¹⁹ It shall be, if you shall forget Yahweh your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish.²⁰ As the nations that Yahweh makes to perish before you, so shall you perish; because you wouldn't listen to the voice of Yahweh your God.

⁴ Don't speak in your heart, after that Yahweh your God has thrust them out from before you, saying, For my righteousness Yahweh has brought me in to possess this land; whereas for the wickedness of these nations Yahweh does drive them out from before you.⁵ Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go in to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations Yahweh your God does drive them out from before you, and that she may establish the word which Yahweh swore to your mothers, to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba.⁶ Know therefore, that Yahweh your God doesn't give you this good land to possess it for your righteousness; for you are a stiff-necked people.⁷ Remember, don't forget, how you provoked Yahweh your God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that you went forth out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against Yahweh.⁸ Also in Horeb you provoked Yahweh to wrath, and Yahweh was angry with you to destroy you.⁹ When I was gone up onto the mountain to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which Yahweh made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread nor drink water.¹⁰ Yahweh delivered to me the two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which Yahweh spoke with you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.¹¹ It came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that Yahweh gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.¹² Yahweh said to me, Arise, get you down quickly from hence; for your people whom you have brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.¹³ Furthermore Yahweh spoke to me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people:¹⁴ let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the sky; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.¹⁵ So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.¹⁶ I looked, and behold, you had sinned against Yahweh your God; you had made you a molten calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the way which Yahweh had commanded you.¹⁷ I took hold of the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes.¹⁸ I fell down before Yahweh, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread nor drink water; because of all your sin which you sinned, in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke her to anger.¹⁹ For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, with which Yahweh was angry against you to destroy you. But Yahweh listened to me that time also.²⁰ Yahweh was very angry with Aaron to destroy her: and I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.²¹ I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine as dust: and I cast the dust of it into the brook that descended out of the mountain.²² At Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah, you provoked Yahweh to wrath.²³ When Yahweh sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then you rebelled against the commandment of Yahweh your God, and you didn't believe her, nor listen to her voice.²⁴ You have been rebellious against Yahweh from the day that I knew you.²⁵ So I fell down before Yahweh the forty days and forty nights that I fell down, because Yahweh had said she would destroy you.²⁶ I prayed to Yahweh, and said, Domina Yahweh, don't destroy your people and your inheritance, that you have redeemed through your greatness, that you have brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.²⁷ Remember your servants, Abrahai, Isaaca, and Jacoba; don't look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin,²⁸ lest the land whence you brought us out say, Because Yahweh was not able to bring them into the land which she promised to them, and because she hated them, she has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.²⁹ Yet they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out by your great power and by your outstretched arm.

¹ At that time Yahweh said to me, Hew you two tables of stone like the first, and come up to me onto the mountain, and make an ark of wood.² I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark.³ So I made an ark of acacia wood, and hewed two tables of stone like the first, and went up onto the mountain, having the two tables in my hand.⁴ She wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which Yahweh spoke to you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and Yahweh gave them to me.⁵ I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they are as Yahweh commanded me.⁶ (The children of Israel traveled from Beeroth Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there she was buried; and Eleazar her daughter ministered in the priestess's office in her place.⁷ From there they traveled to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water.⁸ At that time Yahweh set apart the tribe of Levia, to bear the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, to stand before Yahweh to minister to her, and to bless in her name, to this day.⁹ Therefore Levia has no portion nor inheritance with her sisters; Yahweh is her inheritance, according as Yahweh your God spoke to her.)¹⁰ I stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights: and Yahweh listened to me that time also; Yahweh would not destroy you.¹¹ Yahweh said to me, Arise, take your journey before the people; and they shall go in and possess the land, which I swore to their mothers to give to them.¹² Now, Israel, what does Yahweh your God require of you, but to fear Yahweh your God, to walk in all her ways, and to love her, and to serve Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul,¹³ to keep the commandments of Yahweh, and her statutes, which I command you this day for your good?¹⁴ Behold, to Yahweh your God belongs heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth, with all that is therein.¹⁵ Only Yahweh had a delight in your mothers to love them, and she chose their seed after them, even you above all peoples, as at this day.¹⁶ Circumcise therefore the vulva of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked.¹⁷ For Yahweh your God, she is God of gods, and Domina of dominas, the great God, the mighty, and the awesome, who doesn't regard persons, nor takes reward.¹⁸ She does execute justice for the fatherless and widower, and loves the foreigner, in giving her food and clothing.¹⁹ Therefore love the foreigner; for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.²⁰ You shall fear Yahweh your God; her shall you serve; and to her shall you cleave, and by her name shall you swear.²¹ She is your praise, and she is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which your eyes have seen.²² Your mothers went down into Egypt with seventy persons; and now Yahweh your God has made you as the stars of the sky for multitude.

¹ Therefore you shall love Yahweh your God, and keep her charge, and her statutes, and her ordinances, and her commandments, always. ² Know you this day: for I don't speak with your children who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of Yahweh your God, her greatness, her mighty hand, and her outstretched arm,³ and her signs, and her works, which she did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the queen of Egypt, and to all her land;⁴ and what she did to the army of Egypt, to their horses, and to their chariots; how she made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how Yahweh has destroyed them to this day;⁵ and what she did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place;⁶ and what she did to Dathan and Abiram, the daughters of Eliab, the daughter of Reuben; how the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the midst of all Israel:⁷ but your eyes have seen all the great work of Yahweh which she did.⁸ Therefore shall you keep all the commandment which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land, where you go over to possess it;⁹ and that you may prolong your days in the land, which Yahweh swore to your mothers to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.¹⁰ For the land, where you go in to possess it, isn't as the land of Egypt, from whence you came out, where you sowed your seed, and watered it with your foot, as a garden of herbs;¹¹ but the land, where you go over to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinks water of the rain of the sky,¹² a land which Yahweh your God cares for: the eyes of Yahweh your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year.¹³ It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to my commandments which I command you this day, to love Yahweh your God, and to serve her with all your heart and with all your soul,¹⁴ that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, and your new wine, and your oil.¹⁵ I will give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be full.¹⁶ Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;¹⁷ and the anger of Yahweh be kindled against you, and she shut up the sky, so that there shall be no rain, and the land shall not yield its fruit; and you perish quickly from off the good land which Yahweh gives you.¹⁸ Therefore shall you lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul; and you shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for symbols between your eyes.¹⁹ You shall teach them your children, talking of them, when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.²⁰ You shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates;²¹ that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which Yahweh swore to your mothers to give them, as the days of the heavens above the earth.²² For if you shall diligently keep all this commandment which I command you, to do it, to love Yahweh your God, to walk in all her ways, and to cleave to her;²³ then will Yahweh drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves.²⁴ Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the hinder sea shall be your border.²⁵ There shall no woman be able to stand before you: Yahweh your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you on all the land that you shall tread on, as she has spoken to you.²⁶ Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:²⁷ the blessing, if you shall listen to the commandments of Yahweh your God, which I command you this day;²⁸ and the curse, if you shall not listen to the commandments of Yahweh your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which you have not known.²⁹ It shall happen, when Yahweh your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, that you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount Ebal.³⁰ Aren't they beyond the Jordan, behind the way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh?³¹ For you are to pass over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which Yahweh your God gives you, and you shall possess it, and dwell therein.³² You shall observe to do all the statutes and the ordinances which I set before you this day.

¹ These are the statutes and the ordinances which you shall observe to do in the land which Yahweh, the God of your mothers, has given you to possess it, all the days that you live on the earth. ² You shall surely destroy all the places in which the nations that you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every green tree: ³ and you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and burn their Asherim with fire; and you shall cut down the engraved images of their gods; and you shall destroy their name out of that place. ⁴ You shall not do so to Yahweh your God. ⁵ But to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put her name there, even to her habitation shall you seek, and there you shall come;⁶ and there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the wave offering of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock:⁷ and there you shall eat before Yahweh your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, in which Yahweh your God has blessed you.⁸ You shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every woman whatever is right in her own eyes;⁹ for you haven't yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which Yahweh your God gives you.¹⁰ But when you go over the Jordan, and dwell in the land which Yahweh your God causes you to inherit, and she gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety;¹¹ then it shall happen that to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to cause her name to dwell there, there shall you bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the wave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to Yahweh.¹² You shall rejoice before Yahweh your God, you, and your daughters, and your sons, and your female servants, and your male servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, because she has no portion nor inheritance with you.¹³ Take heed to yourself that you don't offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see;¹⁴ but in the place which Yahweh shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.¹⁵ Notwithstanding, you may kill and eat flesh within all your gates, after all the desire of your soul, according to the blessing of Yahweh your God which she has given you: the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle, and as of the hart.¹⁶ Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it out on the earth as water.¹⁷ You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, or of your new wine, or of your oil, or the firstborn of your herd or of your flock, nor any of your vows which you vow, nor your freewill offerings, nor the wave offering of your hand;¹⁸ but you shall eat them before Yahweh your God in the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, you, and your daughter, and your son, and your female servant, and your male servant, and the Levite who is within your gates: and you shall rejoice before Yahweh your God in all that you put your hand to.¹⁹ Take heed to yourself that you don't forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.²⁰ When Yahweh your God shall enlarge your border, as she has promised you, and you shall say, I will eat flesh, because your soul desires to eat flesh; you may eat flesh, after all the desire of your soul.²¹ If the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to put her name there, be too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which Yahweh has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates, after all the desire of your soul.²² Even as the gazelle and as the hart is eaten, so you shall eat of it: the unclean and the clean may eat of it alike.²³ Only be sure that you don't eat the blood: for the blood is the life; and you shall not eat the life with the flesh.²⁴ You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out on the earth as water.²⁵ You shall not eat it; that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you shall do that which is right in the eyes of Yahweh.²⁶ Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take, and go to the place which Yahweh shall choose:²⁷ and you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of Yahweh your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of Yahweh your God; and you shall eat the flesh.²⁸

Observe and hear all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in the eyes of Yahweh your God. ²⁹ When Yahweh your God shall cut off the nations from before you, where you go in to dispossess them, and you dispossess them, and dwell in their land; ³⁰ take heed to yourself that you not be ensnared to follow them, after that they are destroyed from before you; and that you not inquire after their gods, saying, How do these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. ³¹ You shall not do so to Yahweh your God: for every abomination to Yahweh, which she hates, have they done to their gods; for even their daughters and their sons do they burn in the fire to their gods. ³² Whatever thing I command you, that shall you observe to do: you shall not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

¹ If there arise in the midst of you a prophetess, or a dreamer of dreams, and she give you a sign or a wonder, ² and the sign or the wonder come to pass, of which she spoke to you, saying, Let us go after other gods, which you have not known, and let us serve them; ³ you shall not listen to the words of that prophetess, or to that dreamer of dreams: for Yahweh your God proves you, to know whether you love Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁴ You shall walk after Yahweh your God, and fear her, and keep her commandments, and obey her voice, and you shall serve her, and cleave to her. ⁵ That prophetess, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death, because she has spoken rebellion against Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to draw you aside out of the way which Yahweh your God commanded you to walk in. So shall you put away the evil from the midst of you. ⁶ If your sister, the daughter of your father, or your daughter, or your son, or the husband of your bosom, or your friend, who is as your own soul, entice you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known, you, nor your mothers; ⁷ of the gods of the peoples who are round about you, near to you, or far off from you, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; ⁸ you shall not consent to her, nor listen to her; neither shall your eye pity her, neither shall you spare, neither shall you conceal her: ⁹ but you shall surely kill her; your hand shall be first on her to put her to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. ¹⁰ You shall stone her to death with stones, because she has sought to draw you away from Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ¹¹ All Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall not do any more such wickedness as this is in the midst of you. ¹² If you shall hear tell concerning one of your cities, which Yahweh your God gives you to dwell there, saying, ¹³ Certain base fellows are gone out from the midst of you, and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known; ¹⁴ then shall you inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in the midst of you, ¹⁵ you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein and the livestock of it, with the edge of the sword. ¹⁶ You shall gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street of it, and shall burn with fire the city, and all the spoil of it every whit, to Yahweh your God: and it shall be a heap forever; it shall not be built again.¹⁷ There shall cleave nothing of the devoted thing to your hand; that Yahweh may turn from the fierceness of her anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, as she has sworn to your mothers;¹⁸ when you shall listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, to keep all her commandments which I command you this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of Yahweh your God.

¹ You are the children of Yahweh your God: you shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. ² For you are a holy people to Yahweh your God, and Yahweh has chosen you to be a people for her own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth. ³ You shall not eat any abominable thing. ⁴ These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat, ⁵ the hart, and the gazelle, and the roebuck, and the wild goat, and the ibex, and the antelope, and the chamois. ⁶ Every animal that parts the hoof, and has the hoof cloven in two, and chews the cud, among the animals, that may you eat. ⁷ Nevertheless these you shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of those who have the hoof cloven: the camel, and the hare, and the rabbit; because they chew the cud but don't part the hoof, they are unclean to you. ⁸ The pig, because it has a split hoof but doesn't chew the cud, is unclean to you: of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. ⁹ These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales may you eat; ¹⁰ and whatever doesn't have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean to you. ¹¹ Of all clean birds you may eat. ¹² But these are they of which you shall not eat: the eagle, and the vulture, and the osprey, ¹³ and the red kite, and the falcon, and the kite after its kind, ¹⁴ and every raven after its kind, ¹⁵ and the ostrich, and the owl, and the seagull, and the hawk after its kind, ¹⁶ the little owl, and the great owl, and the horned owl, ¹⁷ and the pelican, and the vulture, and the cormorant, ¹⁸ and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat. ¹⁹ All winged creeping things are unclean to you: they shall not be eaten. ²⁰ Of all clean birds you may eat. ²¹ You shall not eat of anything that dies of itself: you may give it to the foreigner living among you who is within your gates, that she may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner: for you are a holy people to Yahweh your God. You shall not boil a kid in its father's milk. ²² You shall surely tithe all the increase of your seed, that which comes forth from the field year by year. ²³ You shall eat before Yahweh your God, in the place which she shall choose, to cause her name to dwell there, the tithe of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock; that you may learn to fear Yahweh your God always. ²⁴ If the way be too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, because the place is too far from you, which Yahweh your God shall choose, to set her name there, when Yahweh your God shall bless you; ²⁵ then shall you turn it into money, and bind up the money in your hand, and shall go to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose: ²⁶ and you shall bestow the money for whatever your soul desires, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your soul asks of you; and you shall eat there before Yahweh your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household. ²⁷ The Levite who is within your gates, you shall not forsake her; for she has no portion nor inheritance with you. ²⁸ At the end of every three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase in the same year, and shall lay it up within your gates: ²⁹ and the Levite, because she has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the foreigner living among you, and the fatherless, and the widower, who are within your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that Yahweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

¹ At the end of every seven years you shall make a release. ² This is the manner of the release: every creditor shall release that which she has lent to her neighbor; she shall not exact it of her neighbor and her sister; because Yahweh's release has been proclaimed. ³ Of a foreigner you may exact it: but whatever of your is with your sister your hand shall release. ⁴ However there shall be no poor with you; (for Yahweh will surely bless you in the land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it;) ⁵ if only you diligently listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, to observe to do all this commandment which I command you this day. ⁶ For Yahweh your God will bless you, as she promised you: and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; and you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you. ⁷ If there be with you a poor woman, one of your sisters, within any of your gates in your land which Yahweh your God gives you, you shall not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your poor sister; ⁸ but you shall surely open your hand to her, and shall surely lend her sufficient for her need in that which she wants. ⁹ Beware that there not be a base thought in your heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and your eye be evil against your poor sister, and you give her nothing; and she cry to Yahweh against you, and it be sin to you. ¹⁰ You shall surely give her, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to her; because that for this thing Yahweh your God will bless you in all your work, and in all that you put your hand to. ¹¹ For the poor will never cease out of the land: therefore I command you, saying, You shall surely open your hand to your sister, to your needy, and to your poor, in your land. ¹² If your sister, a Hebrew woman, or a Hebrew man, be sold to you, and serve you six years; then in the seventh year you shall let her go free from you. ¹³ When you let her go free from you, you shall not let her go empty: ¹⁴ you shall furnish her liberally out of your flock, and out of your threshing floor, and out of your winepress; as Yahweh your God has blessed you, you shall give to her. ¹⁵ You shall remember that you were a bondmaid in the land of Egypt, and Yahweh your God redeemed you: therefore I command you this thing today. ¹⁶ It shall be, if she tell you, I will not go out from you; because she loves you and your house, because she is well with you; ¹⁷ then you shall take an awl, and thrust it through her ear to the door, and she shall be your servant forever. Also to your male servant you shall do likewise. ¹⁸ It shall not seem hard to you, when you let her go free from you; for to the double of the hire of a hireling has she served you six years: and Yahweh your God will bless you in all that you do. ¹⁹ All the firstborn females that are born of your herd and of your flock you shall sanctify to Yahweh your God: you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. ²⁰ You shall eat it before Yahweh your God year by year in the place which Yahweh shall choose, you and your household. ²¹ If it have any blemish, as if it be lame or blind, any ill blemish whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to Yahweh your God. ²² You shall eat it within your gates: the unclean and the clean shall eat it alike, as the gazelle, and as the hart. ²³ Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it out on the ground as water.

¹ Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to Yahweh your God; for in the month of Abib Yahweh your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night. ² You shall sacrifice the Passover to Yahweh your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which Yahweh shall choose, to cause her name to dwell there. ³ You shall eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shall you eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that you may remember the day when you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. ⁴ There shall be no yeast seen with you in all your borders seven days; neither shall any of the flesh, which you sacrifice the first day at even, remain all night until the morning. ⁵ You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which Yahweh your God gives you; ⁶ but at the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to cause her name to dwell in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that you came forth out of Egypt. ⁷ You shall roast and eat it in the place which Yahweh your God shall choose: and you shall turn in the morning, and go to your tents. ⁸ Six days you shall eat unleavened bread; and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to Yahweh your God; you shall do no work therein. ⁹ Seven weeks shall you number to you: from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain shall you begin to number seven weeks. ¹⁰ You shall keep the feast of weeks to Yahweh your God with a tribute of a freewill offering of your hand, which you shall give, according as Yahweh your God blesses you: ¹¹ and you shall rejoice before Yahweh your God, you, and your daughter, and your son, and your female servant, and your male servant, and the Levite who is within your gates, and the foreigner, and the fatherless, and the widower, who are in the midst of you, in the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to cause her name to dwell there. ¹² You shall remember that you were a bondmaid in Egypt: and you shall observe and do these statutes. ¹³ You shall keep the feast of tents seven days, after that you have gathered in from your threshing floor and from your winepress: ¹⁴ and you shall rejoice in your feast, you, and your daughter, and your son, and your female servant, and your male servant, and the Levite, and the foreigner, and the fatherless, and the widower, who are within your gates. ¹⁵ Seven days shall you keep a feast to Yahweh your God in the place which Yahweh shall choose; because Yahweh your God will bless you in all your increase, and in all the work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful. ¹⁶ Three times in a year shall all your females appear before Yahweh your God in the place which she shall choose: in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents; and they shall not appear before Yahweh empty: ¹⁷ every woman shall give as she is able, according to the blessing of Yahweh your God which she has given you. ¹⁸ Judges and officers shall you make you in all your gates, which Yahweh your God gives you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.¹⁹ You shall not wrest justice: you shall not respect persons; neither shall you take a bribe; for a bribe does blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.²⁰ That which is altogether just shall you follow, that you may live, and inherit the land which Yahweh your God gives you.²¹ You shall not plant you an Asherah of any kind of tree beside the altar of Yahweh your God, which you shall make you.²² Neither shall you set yourself up a pillar; which Yahweh your God hates.

¹ You shall not sacrifice to Yahweh your God an ox, or a sheep, in which is a blemish, or anything evil; for that is an abomination to Yahweh your God.² If there be found in the midst of you, within any of your gates which Yahweh your God gives you, woman or man, who does that which is evil in the sight of Yahweh your God, in transgressing her covenant,³ and has gone and served other gods, and worshiped them, or the sun, or the moon, or any of the army of the sky, which I have not commanded;⁴ and it be told you, and you have heard of it, then shall you inquire diligently; and behold, if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in Israel,⁵ then shall you bring forth that woman or that man, who has done this evil thing, to your gates, even the woman or the man; and you shall stone them to death with stones.⁶ At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall she who is to die be put to death; at the mouth of one witness she shall not be put to death.⁷ The hand of the witnesses shall be first on her to put her to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from the midst of you.⁸ If there arise a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within your gates; then shall you arise, and go up to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose;⁹ and you shall come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge who shall be in those days: and you shall inquire; and they shall show you the sentence of judgment.¹⁰ You shall do according to the tenor of the sentence which they shall show you from that place which Yahweh shall choose; and you shall observe to do according to all that they shall teach you:¹¹ according to the tenor of the law which they shall teach you, and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand, nor to the left.¹² The woman who does presumptuously, in not listening to the priestess who stands to minister there before Yahweh your God, or to the judge, even that woman shall die: and you shall put away the evil from Israel.¹³ All the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.¹⁴ When you are come to the land which Yahweh your God gives you, and shall possess it, and shall dwell therein, and shall say, I will set a queen over me, like all the nations that are round about me;¹⁵ you shall surely set her queen over you, whom Yahweh your God shall choose: one from among your sisters shall you set queen over you; you may not put a foreigner over you, who is not your sister.¹⁶ Only she shall not multiply horses to herself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that she may multiply horses; because Yahweh has said to you, You shall henceforth return no more that way.¹⁷ Neither shall she multiply husbands to herself, that her heart not turn away: neither shall she greatly multiply to herself silver and gold.¹⁸ It shall be, when she sits on the throne of her kingdom, that she shall write her a copy of this law in a book, out of that which is before the priests the Levites: ¹⁹ and it shall be with her, and she shall read therein all the days of her life; that she may learn to fear Yahweh her God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them; ²⁰ that her heart not be lifted up above her sisters, and that she not turn aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that she may prolong her days in her kingdom, she and her children, in the midst of Israel.

¹ The priests the Levites, even all the tribe of Levi, shall have no portion nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of Yahweh made by fire, and her inheritance. ² They shall have no inheritance among their sisters: Yahweh is their inheritance, as she has spoken to them. ³ This shall be the priests' due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep, that they shall give to the priestess the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. ⁴ The first fruits of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, shall you give her. ⁵ For Yahweh your God has chosen her out of all your tribes, to stand to minister in the name of Yahweh, her and her daughters for ever. ⁶ If a Levite comes from any of your gates out of all Israel, where she lives as a foreigner, and comes with all the desire of her soul to the place which Yahweh shall choose; ⁷ then she shall minister in the name of Yahweh her God, as all her sisters the Levites do, who stand there before Yahweh. ⁸ They shall have like portions to eat, besides that which comes of the sale of her matrimony. ⁹ When you are come into the land which Yahweh your God gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. ¹⁰ There shall not be found with you anyone who makes her daughter or her son to pass through the fire, one who uses divination, one who practices sorcery, or an enchanter, or a sorcerer, ¹¹ or a charmer, or a consulter with a familiar spirit, or a wizard, or a necromancer. ¹² For whoever does these things is an abomination to Yahweh: and because of these abominations Yahweh your God does drive them out from before you. ¹³ You shall be perfect with Yahweh your God. ¹⁴ For these nations, that you shall dispossess, listen to those who practice sorcery, and to diviners; but as for you, Yahweh your God has not allowed you so to do. ¹⁵ Yahweh your God will raise up to you a prophetess from the midst of you, of your sisters, like me; to her you shall listen; ¹⁶ according to all that you desired of Yahweh your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of Yahweh my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I not die. ¹⁷ Yahweh said to me, They have well said that which they have spoken. ¹⁸ I will raise them up a prophetess from among their sisters, like you; and I will put my words in her mouth, and she shall speak to them all that I shall command her. ¹⁹ It shall happen, that whoever will not listen to my words which she shall speak in my name, I will require it of her. ²⁰ But the prophetess, who shall speak a word presumptuously in my name, which I have not commanded her to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods, that same prophetess shall die. ²¹ If you say in your heart, How shall we know the word which Yahweh has not spoken? ²² when a prophetess speaks in the name of Yahweh, if the thing doesn't follow, nor happen, that is the thing which Yahweh has not spoken: the prophetess has spoken it presumptuously, you shall not be afraid of her.

¹ When Yahweh your God shall cut off the nations, whose land Yahweh your God gives you, and you succeed them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses; ² you shall set apart three cities for you in the midst of your land, which Yahweh your God gives you to possess it. ³ You shall prepare you the way, and divide the borders of your land, which Yahweh your God causes you to inherit, into three parts, that every manslayer may flee there. ⁴ This is the case of the manslayer, that shall flee there and live: whoever kills her neighbor unawares, and didn't hate her in time past; ⁵ as when a woman goes into the forest with her neighbor to hew wood, and her hand fetches a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle, and lights on her neighbor, so that she dies; she shall flee to one of these cities and live: ⁶ lest the avenger of blood pursue the manslayer, while her heart is hot, and overtake her, because the way is long, and strike her mortally; whereas she was not worthy of death, inasmuch as she didn't hate her in time past. ⁷ Therefore I command you, saying, You shall set apart three cities for you. ⁸ If Yahweh your God enlarge your border, as she has sworn to your mothers, and give you all the land which she promised to give to your mothers; ⁹ if you shall keep all this commandment to do it, which I command you this day, to love Yahweh your God, and to walk ever in her ways; then shall you add three cities more for you, besides these three: ¹⁰ that innocent blood not be shed in the midst of your land, which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance, and so blood be on you. ¹¹ But if any woman hate her neighbor, and lie in wait for her, and rise up against her, and strike her mortally so that she dies, and she flee into one of these cities; ¹² then the elders of her city shall send and bring her there, and deliver her into the hand of the avenger of blood, that she may die. ¹³ Your eye shall not pity her, but you shall put away the innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you. ¹⁴ You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set, in your inheritance which you shall inherit, in the land that Yahweh your God gives you to possess it. ¹⁵ One witness shall not rise up against a woman for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that she sins: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall a matter be established. ¹⁶ If an unrighteous witness rise up against any woman to testify against her of wrong-doing, ¹⁷ then both the women, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before Yahweh, before the priests and the judges who shall be in those days; ¹⁸ and the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness is a false witness, and has testified falsely against her sister; ¹⁹ then shall you do to her, as she had thought to do to her sister: so shall you put away the evil from the midst of you. ²⁰ Those who remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil in the midst of you. ²¹ Your eyes shall not pity; life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

more than you, you shall not be afraid of them; for Yahweh your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.² It shall be, when you draw near to the battle, that the priestess shall approach and speak to the people,³ and shall tell them, Hear, Israel, you draw near this day to battle against your enemies: don't let your heart faint; don't be afraid, nor tremble, neither be scared of them;⁴ for Yahweh your God is she who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.⁵ The officers shall speak to the people, saying, What woman is there who has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? let her go and return to her house, lest she die in the battle, and another woman dedicate it.⁶ What woman is there who has planted a vineyard, and has not used the fruit of it? let her go and return to her house, lest she die in the battle, and another woman use the fruit of it.⁷ What woman is there who has pledged to be married a husband, and has not taken him? let her go and return to her house, lest she die in the battle, and another woman take him.⁸ The officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, What woman is there who is fearful and faint-hearted? let her go and return to her house, lest her sister's heart melt as her heart.⁹ It shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they shall appoint captains of armies at the head of the people.¹⁰ When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace to it.¹¹ It shall be, if it make you answer of peace, and open to you, then it shall be, that all the people who are found therein shall become tributary to you, and shall serve you.¹² If it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it:¹³ and when Yahweh your God delivers it into your hand, you shall strike every female of it with the edge of the sword:¹⁴ but the men, and the little ones, and the livestock, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil of it, shall you take for a prey to yourself; and you shall eat the spoil of your enemies, which Yahweh your God has given you.¹⁵ Thus shall you do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.¹⁶ But of the cities of these peoples, that Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes;¹⁷ but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; as Yahweh your God has commanded you;¹⁸ that they not teach you to do after all their abominations, which they have done to their gods; so would you sin against Yahweh your God.¹⁹ When you shall besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy the trees of it by wielding an axe against them; for you may eat of them, and you shall not cut them down; for is the tree of the field woman, that it should be besieged of you?²⁰ Only the trees of which you know that they are not trees for food, you shall destroy and cut them down; and you shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it fall.

herd, which hasn't been worked with, and which has not drawn in the yoke;⁴ and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer to a valley with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley.⁵ The priests the daughters of Levi shall come near; for them Yahweh your God has chosen to minister to her, and to bless in the name of Yahweh; and according to their word shall every controversy and every stroke be.⁶ All the elders of that city, who are nearest to the slain woman, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley;⁷ and they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.⁸ Forgive, Yahweh, your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, and don't allow innocent blood to remain in the midst of your people Israel. The blood shall be forgiven them.⁹ So shall you put away the innocent blood from the midst of you, when you shall do that which is right in the eyes of Yahweh.¹⁰ When you go forth to battle against your enemies, and Yahweh your God delivers them into your hands, and you carry them away captive,¹¹ and see among the captives a beautiful man, and you have a desire to him, and would take him to you as husband;¹² then you shall bring his home to your house; and he shall shave his head, and pare his nails;¹³ and he shall put the clothing of his captivity from off him, and shall remain in your house, and bewail his mother and his father a full month: and after that you shall go in to him, and be his wife, and he shall be your husband.¹⁴ It shall be, if you have no delight in him, then you shall let him go where he will; but you shall not sell him at all for money, you shall not deal with him as a slave, because you have humbled him.¹⁵ If a woman have two husbands, the one beloved, and the other hated, and they have borne her children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn daughter be hers who was hated;¹⁶ then it shall be, in the day that she causes her daughters to inherit that which she has, that she may not make the daughter of the beloved the firstborn before the daughter of the hated, who is the firstborn:¹⁷ but she shall acknowledge the firstborn, the daughter of the hated, by giving her a double portion of all that she has; for she is the beginning of her strength; the right of the firstborn is hers.¹⁸ If a woman have a stubborn and rebellious daughter, who will not obey the voice of her mother, or the voice of her father, and, though they chasten her, will not listen to them;¹⁹ then shall her mother and her father lay hold on her, and bring her out to the elders of her city, and to the gate of her place;²⁰ and they shall tell the elders of her city, This our daughter is stubborn and rebellious, she will not obey our voice; she is a glutton, and a drunkard.²¹ All the women of her city shall stone her to death with stones: so shall you put away the evil from the midst of you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.²² If a woman have committed a sin worthy of death, and she be put to death, and you hang her on a tree;²³ her body shall not remain all night on the tree, but you shall surely bury her the same day; for she who is hanged is accursed of God; that you don't defile your land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance.

¹ You shall not see your sister's ox or her sheep go astray, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely bring them again to your sister. ² If your sister isn't near to you, or if you don't know her, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your sister seek after it, and you shall restore it to her.³ So shall you do with her donkey; and so shall you do with her garment; and so shall you do with every lost thing of your sister's, which she has lost, and you have found: you may not hide yourself.⁴ You shall not see your sister's donkey or her ox fallen down by the way, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely help her to lift them up again.⁵ A man shall not wear women's clothing, neither shall a woman put on men's clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to Yahweh your God.⁶ If a bird's nest chance to be before you in the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the hen sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the hen with the young:⁷ you shall surely let the hen go, but the young you may take to yourself; that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days.⁸ When you build a new house, then you shall make a battlement for your roof, that you don't bring blood on your house, if any woman fall from there.⁹ You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the whole fruit be forfeited, the seed which you have sown, and the increase of the vineyard.¹⁰ You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.¹¹ You shall not wear a mixed stuff, wool and linen together.¹² You shall make yourselves fringes on the four borders of your cloak, with which you cover yourself.¹³ If any woman takes a husband, and goes in to him, and hates him,¹⁴ and accuses him of shameful things, and brings up an evil name on him, and says, I took this man, and when I came near to him, I didn't find in him the tokens of virginity;¹⁵ then shall the mother of the young gentleman, and his father, take and bring forth the tokens of the young gentleman's virginity to the elders of the city in the gate;¹⁶ and the young gentleman's mother shall tell the elders, I gave my son to this woman to husband, and she hates him;¹⁷ and behold, she has laid shameful things to his charge, saying, I didn't find in your son the tokens of virginity; and yet these are the tokens of my son's virginity. They shall spread the garment before the elders of the city.¹⁸ The elders of that city shall take the woman and chastise her;¹⁹ and they shall fine her one hundred shekels of silver, and give them to the mother of the young gentleman, because she has brought up an evil name on a virgin of Israel: and he shall be her husband; she may not put him away all her days.²⁰ But if this thing be true, that the tokens of virginity were not found in the young gentleman;²¹ then they shall bring out the young gentleman to the door of his mother's house, and the women of his city shall stone him to death with stones, because he has done folly in Israel, to play the philanderer in his mother's house: so shall you put away the evil from the midst of you.²² If a woman be found lying with a man married to a wife, then they shall both of them die, the woman who lay with the man, and the man: so shall you put away the evil from Israel.²³ If there be a young gentleman who is a virgin pledged to be married to a wife, and a woman find him in the city, and lie with him;²⁴ then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones; the gentleman, because he didn't cry, being in the city; and the woman, because she has humbled her neighbor's husband: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you.²⁵ But if the woman find the gentleman who is pledged to be married in the field, and the woman force him, and lie with him; then the woman only who lay with him shall die:²⁶ but to the gentleman you shall do nothing; there is in the gentleman no sin worthy of death: for as when a woman rises against her neighbor, and kills her, even so is this matter;²⁷ for she found him in the field, the pledged to be married gentleman cried, and there was none to save him.²⁸ If a woman find a gentleman who is a virgin, who is not pledged to be married, and lay hold on him, and lie with him, and they be found;²⁹ then the woman who lay with him shall give to the gentleman's mother fifty shekels of silver, and he shall be her husband, because she has humbled him; she may not put him away all her days.³⁰ A woman shall not take her mother's husband, and shall not uncover her mother's skirt.

¹ She who is wounded in the stones, or has her privy member cut off, shall not enter into the assembly of Yahweh. ² A bastard shall not enter into the assembly of Yahweh; even to the tenth generation shall none of her enter into the assembly of Yahweh. ³ An Ammonite or a Moabite shall not enter into the assembly of Yahweh; even to the tenth generation shall none belonging to them enter into the assembly of Yahweh forever:⁴ because they didn't meet you with bread and with water in the way, when you came forth out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the daughter of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you. ⁵ Nevertheless Yahweh your God wouldn't listen to Balaam; but Yahweh your God turned the curse into a blessing to you, because Yahweh your God loved you. ⁶ You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever. ⁷ You shall not abhor an Edomite; for she is your sister: you shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you lived as a foreigner in her land. ⁸ The children of the third generation who are born to them shall enter into the assembly of Yahweh. ⁹ When you go forth in camp against your enemies, then you shall keep you from every evil thing. ¹⁰ If there be among you any woman, who is not clean by reason of that which happens her by night, then shall she go abroad out of the camp, she shall not come within the camp:¹¹ but it shall be, when evening comes on, she shall bathe herself in water; and when the sun is down, she shall come within the camp. ¹² You shall have a place also outside of the camp, where you shall go forth abroad:¹³ and you shall have a paddle among your weapons; and it shall be, when you sit down abroad, you shall dig therewith, and shall turn back and cover that which comes from you:¹⁴ for Yahweh your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you, and to give up your enemies before you; therefore shall your camp be holy, that she may not see an unclean thing in you, and turn away from you. ¹⁵ You shall not deliver to her master a servant who is escaped from her master to you:¹⁶ she shall dwell with you, in the midst of you, in the place which she shall choose within one of your gates, where it pleases her best: you shall not oppress her. ¹⁷ There shall be no philanderer of the sons of Israel, neither shall there be a sodomite of the daughters of Israel. ¹⁸ You shall not bring the hire of a philanderer, or the wages of a dog, into the house of Yahweh your God for any vow: for even both these are an abomination to Yahweh your God. ¹⁹ You shall not lend on interest to your sister; interest of money, interest of food, interest of anything that is lent on interest:²⁰ to a foreigner you may lend on interest; but to your sister you shall not lend on interest, that Yahweh your God may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land where you go in to possess it. ²¹ When you shall vow a vow to Yahweh your God, you shall not be slack to pay it: for Yahweh your God will surely require it of you; and it would be sin in you. ²² But if you shall forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in you. ²³ That which is gone out of your lips you shall observe and do; according as you have vowed to Yahweh your God, a freewill offering, which you have promised with your mouth.

²⁴ When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat of grapes your fill at your own pleasure; but you shall not put any in your vessel. ²⁵ When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, then you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.

¹ When a woman takes a husband, and marries him, then it shall be, if he find no favor in her eyes, because she has found some unseemly thing in him, that she shall write him a bill of divorce, and give it in his hand, and send him out of her house. ² When he is departed out of her house, he may go and be another woman's husband. ³ If the latter wife hate him, and write him a bill of divorce, and give it in his hand, and send him out of her house; or if the latter wife die, who took him to be her husband; ⁴ his former wife, who sent him away, may not take him again to be her husband, after that he is defiled; for that is abomination before Yahweh: and you shall not cause the land to sin, which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance. ⁵ When a woman takes a new husband, she shall not go out in the army, neither shall she be charged with any business: she shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer her husband whom she has taken. ⁶ No woman shall take the mill or the upper millstone to pledge; for she takes a woman's life to pledge. ⁷ If a woman be found stealing any of her sisters of the children of Israel, and she deal with her as a slave, or sell her; then that thief shall die: so shall you put away the evil from the midst of you. ⁸ Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that you observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so you shall observe to do. ⁹ Remember what Yahweh your God did to Miriam, by the way as you came forth out of Egypt. ¹⁰ When you do lend your neighbor any manner of loan, you shall not go into her house to get her pledge. ¹¹ You shall stand outside, and the woman to whom you do lend shall bring forth the pledge outside to you. ¹² If she be a poor woman, you shall not sleep with her pledge; ¹³ you shall surely restore to her the pledge when the sun goes down, that she may sleep in her garment, and bless you: and it shall be righteousness to you before Yahweh your God. ¹⁴ You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether she be of your sisters, or of your foreigners who are in your land within your gates: ¹⁵ in her day you shall give her her hire, neither shall the sun go down on it; for she is poor, and sets her heart on it: lest she cry against you to Yahweh, and it be sin to you. ¹⁶ The mothers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the mothers: every woman shall be put to death for her own sin. ¹⁷ You shall not wrest the justice due] to the foreigner, [or to the fatherless, nor take the widower's clothing to pledge; ¹⁸ but you shall remember that you were a bondmaid in Egypt, and Yahweh your God redeemed you there: therefore I command you to do this thing. ¹⁹ When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgot a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to get it: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widower; that Yahweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. ²⁰ When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widower.²¹ When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it after you: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widower.²² You shall remember that you were a bondmaid in the land of Egypt: therefore I command you to do this thing.

¹ If there be a controversy between women, and they come to judgment, and the judges judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked;² and it shall be, if the wicked woman be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause her to lie down, and to be beaten before her face, according to her wickedness, by number.³ Forty stripes she may give her, she shall not exceed; lest, if she should exceed, and beat her above these with many stripes, then your sister should seem vile to you.⁴ You shall not muzzle the ox when she treads out the grain.⁵ If sisters dwell together, and one of them die, and have no daughter, the husband of the dead shall not be married outside to a stranger: his wife's sister shall go in to him, and take him to her as husband, and perform the duty of a wife's sister to him.⁶ It shall be, that the firstborn whom he bears shall succeed in the name of her sister who is dead, that her name not be blotted out of Israel.⁷ If the woman doesn't want to take her sister's husband, then her sister's husband shall go up to the gate to the elders, and say, My wife's sister refuses to raise up to her sister a name in Israel; she will not perform the duty of a wife's sister to me.⁸ Then the elders of her city shall call her, and speak to her: and if she stand, and say, I don't want to take him;⁹ then her sister's husband shall come to her in the presence of the elders, and loose her shoe from off her foot, and spit in her face; and he shall answer and say, So shall it be done to the woman who does not build up her sister's house.¹⁰ Her name shall be called in Israel, The house of her who has her shoe untied.¹¹ When women strive together one with another, and the husband of the one draws near to deliver his wife out of the hand of her who strikes her, and puts forth his hand, and takes her by the secrets;¹² then you shall cut off his hand, your eye shall have no pity.¹³ You shall not have in your bag diverse weights, a great and a small.¹⁴ You shall not have in your house diverse measures, a great and a small.¹⁵ A perfect and just weight shall you have; a perfect and just measure shall you have: that your days may be long in the land which Yahweh your God gives you.¹⁶ For all who do such things, even all who do unrighteously, are an abomination to Yahweh your God.¹⁷ Remember what Amalek did to you by the way as you came forth out of Egypt;¹⁸ how she met you by the way, and struck the hindmost of you, all who were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary; and she didn't fear God.¹⁹ Therefore it shall be, when Yahweh your God has given you rest from all your enemies round about, in the land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, that you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky; you shall not forget.

¹ It shall be, when you are come in to the land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and dwell therein,² that you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you shall bring in from your land that Yahweh your God gives you; and you shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to cause her name to dwell there.³ You shall come to the priestess who shall be in those days, and tell her, I profess this day to Yahweh your God, that I am come to the land which Yahweh swore to our mothers to give us.⁴ The priestess shall take the basket out of your hand, and set it down before the altar of Yahweh your God.⁵ You shall answer and say before Yahweh your God, A Syrian ready to perish was my mother; and she went down into Egypt, and sojourned there, few in number; and she became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous.⁶ The Egyptians dealt ill with us, and afflicted us, and laid on us hard bondage:⁷ and we cried to Yahweh, the God of our mothers, and Yahweh heard our voice, and saw our affliction, and our toil, and our oppression;⁸ and Yahweh brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror, and with signs, and with wonders;⁹ and she has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.¹⁰ Now, behold, I have brought the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, Yahweh, have given me. You shall set it down before Yahweh your God, and worship before Yahweh your God.¹¹ You shall rejoice in all the good which Yahweh your God has given to you, and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the foreigner who is in the midst of you.¹² When you have made an end of tithing all the tithe of your increase in the third year, which is the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widower, that they may eat within your gates, and be filled.¹³ You shall say before Yahweh your God, I have put away the holy things out of my house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widower, according to all your commandment which you have commanded me: I have not transgressed any of your commandments, neither have I forgotten them:¹⁴ I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I put away of it, being unclean, nor given of it for the dead: I have listened to the voice of Yahweh my God; I have done according to all that you have commanded me.¹⁵ Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the ground which you have given us, as you swore to our mothers, a land flowing with milk and honey.¹⁶ This day Yahweh your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances: you shall therefore keep and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul.¹⁷ You have declared Yahweh this day to be your God, and that you would walk in her ways, and keep her statutes, and her commandments, and her ordinances, and listen to her voice:¹⁸ and Yahweh has declared you this day to be a people for her own possession, as she has promised you, and that you should keep all her commandments;¹⁹ and to make you high above all nations that she has made, in praise, and in name, and in honor; and that you may be a holy people to Yahweh your God, as she has spoken.

land which Yahweh your God gives you, that you shall set yourself up great stones, and plaster them with plaster: ³ and you shall write on them all the words of this law, when you are passed over; that you may go in to the land which Yahweh your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Yahweh, the God of your mothers, has promised you. ⁴ It shall be, when you are passed over the Jordan, that you shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in Mount Ebal, and you shall plaster them with plaster. ⁵ There shall you build an altar to Yahweh your God, an altar of stones: you shall lift up no iron tool on them. ⁶ You shall build the altar of Yahweh your God of uncut stones; and you shall offer burnt offerings thereon to Yahweh your God: ⁷ and you shall sacrifice peace offerings, and shall eat there; and you shall rejoice before Yahweh your God. ⁸ You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very plainly. ⁹ Moses and the priests the Levites spoke to all Israel, saying, Keep silence, and listen, Israel: this day you are become the people of Yahweh your God. ¹⁰ You shall therefore obey the voice of Yahweh your God, and do her commandments and her statutes, which I command you this day. ¹¹ Moses charged the people the same day, saying, ¹² These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you are passed over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Josephine, and Benjamin. ¹³ These shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. ¹⁴ The Levites shall answer, and tell all the women of Israel with a loud voice, ¹⁵ Cursed be the woman who makes an engraved or molten image, an abomination to Yahweh, the work of the hands of the craftswoman, and sets it up in secret. All the people shall answer and say, Amen. ¹⁶ Cursed be she who sets light by her mother or her father. All the people shall say, Amen. ¹⁷ Cursed be she who removes her neighbor's landmark. All the people shall say, Amen. ¹⁸ Cursed be she who makes the blind to wander out of the way. All the people shall say, Amen. ¹⁹ Cursed be she who wrests the justice due to the foreigner, fatherless, and widower. All the people shall say, Amen. ²⁰ Cursed be she who lies with her mother's husband, because she has uncovered her mother's skirt. All the people shall say, Amen. ²¹ Cursed be she who lies with any manner of animal. All the people shall say, Amen. ²² Cursed be she who lies with her brother, the son of her mother, or the son of her father. All the people shall say, Amen. ²³ Cursed be she who lies with her father-in-law. All the people shall say, Amen. ²⁴ Cursed be she who strikes her neighbor in secret. All the people shall say, Amen. ²⁵ Cursed be she who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person. All the people shall say, Amen. ²⁶ Cursed be she who doesn't confirm the words of this law to do them. All the people shall say, Amen.

Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading trough.⁶ Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.⁷ Yahweh will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be struck before you: they shall come out against you one way, and shall flee before you seven ways.⁸ Yahweh will command the blessing on you in your barns, and in all that you put your hand to; and she will bless you in the land which Yahweh your God gives you.⁹ Yahweh will establish you for a holy people to herself, as she has sworn to you; if you shall keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, and walk in her ways.¹⁰ All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of Yahweh; and they shall be afraid of you.¹¹ Yahweh will make you plenteous for good, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which Yahweh swore to your mothers to give you.¹² Yahweh will open to you her good treasure in the sky, to give the rain of your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand: and you shall lend to many nations, and you shall not borrow.¹³ Yahweh will make you the head, and not the tail; and you shall be above only, and you shall not be beneath; if you shall listen to the commandments of Yahweh your God, which I command you this day, to observe and to do them,¹⁴ and shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.¹⁵ But it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, to observe to do all her commandments and her statutes which I command you this day, that all these curses shall come on you, and overtake you.¹⁶ Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field.¹⁷ Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading trough.¹⁸ Cursed shall be the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your ground, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock.¹⁹ Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.²⁰ Yahweh will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke, in all that you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly; because of the evil of your doings, by which you have forsaken me.²¹ Yahweh will make the pestilence cleave to you, until she has consumed you from off the land, where you go in to possess it.²² Yahweh will strike you with consumption, and with fever, and with inflammation, and with fiery heat, and with the sword, and with blight, and with mildew; and they shall pursue you until you perish.²³ Your sky that is over your head shall be brass, and the earth that is under you shall be iron.²⁴ Yahweh will make the rain of your land powder and dust: from the sky shall it come down on you, until you are destroyed.²⁵ Yahweh will cause you to be struck before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them, and shall flee seven ways before them: and you shall be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth.²⁶ Your dead body shall be food to all birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth; and there shall be none to frighten them away.²⁷ Yahweh will strike you with the boil of Egypt, and with the tumors, and with the scurvy, and with the itch, of which you can not be healed.²⁸ Yahweh will strike you with madness, and with blindness, and with astonishment of heart;²⁹ and you shall grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways: and you shall be only oppressed and robbed always, and there shall be none to save you.³⁰ You shall betroth a husband, and another woman shall lie with him: you shall build a house, and you shall not dwell therein: you shall plant a vineyard, and shall not use the fruit of it.³¹ Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it: your donkey shall be violently taken away from before your face, and shall not be restored to you: your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have none to save you.³² Your daughters and your sons shall be given to another people; and your eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day: and there shall be nothing in the power of your hand.³³ The fruit of your ground, and all your labors, shall a nation which you don't know eat up; and you shall be only oppressed and crushed always;³⁴ so that you shall be mad for the sight of your eyes which you shall see.³⁵ Yahweh will strike you in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boil, of which you can not be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head.³⁶ Yahweh will bring you, and your queen whom you shall set over you, to a nation that you have not known, you nor your mothers; and there shall you serve other gods, wood and stone.³⁷ You shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples where Yahweh shall lead you away.³⁸ You shall carry much seed out into the field, and shall gather little in; for the locust shall consume it.³⁹ You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but you shall neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worm shall eat them.⁴⁰ You shall have olive trees throughout all your borders, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olive shall cast its fruit.⁴¹ You shall mother daughters and sons, but they shall not be yours; for they shall go into captivity.⁴² All your trees and the fruit of your ground shall the locust possess.⁴³ The foreigner who is in the midst of you shall mount up above you higher and higher; and you shall come down lower and lower.⁴⁴ She shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to her: she shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.⁴⁵ All these curses shall come on you, and shall pursue you, and overtake you, until you are destroyed; because you didn't listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, to keep her commandments and her statutes which she commanded you:⁴⁶ and they shall be on you for a sign and for a wonder, and on your seed forever.⁴⁷ Because you didn't serve Yahweh your God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, by reason of the abundance of all things;⁴⁸ therefore shall you serve your enemies whom Yahweh shall send against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and she shall put a yoke of iron on your neck, until she have destroyed you.⁴⁹ Yahweh will bring a nation against you from far, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flies; a nation whose language you shall not understand;⁵⁰ a nation of fierce facial expressions, that shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young,⁵¹ and shall eat the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your ground, until you are destroyed; that also shall not leave you grain, new wine, or oil, the increase of your livestock, or the young of your flock, until they have caused you to perish.⁵² They shall besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls come down, in which you trusted, throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land, which Yahweh your God has given you.⁵³ You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your daughters and of your sons, whom Yahweh your God has given you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies shall distress you.⁵⁴ The woman who is tender among you, and very delicate, her eye shall be evil toward her sister, and toward the husband of her bosom, and toward the remnant of her children whom she has remaining;⁵⁵ so that she will not give to any of them of the flesh of her children whom she shall eat, because she has nothing left her, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in all your gates.⁵⁶ The tender and delicate man among you, who would not adventure to set the sole of his foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, his eye shall be evil toward the wife of his bosom, and toward his daughter, and toward his son,⁵⁷ and toward his young one who comes out from between his feet, and toward his children whom he shall bear; for he shall eat them for want of all things secretly, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in your gates.⁵⁸ If you will not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, YAHWEH YOUR GOD;⁵⁹ then Yahweh will make your plagues wonderful, and the plagues of your seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.⁶⁰ She will bring on you again all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of; and they shall cleave to you.⁶¹ Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will Yahweh bring on you, until you are destroyed.⁶² You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of the sky for multitude; because you didn't listen to the voice of Yahweh your God.⁶³ It shall happen that as Yahweh rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so Yahweh will rejoice over you to cause you to perish, and to destroy you; and you shall be plucked from off the land where you go in to possess it.⁶⁴ Yahweh will scatter you among all peoples, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; and there you shall serve other gods, which you have not known, you nor your mothers, even wood and stone.⁶⁵ Among these nations shall you find no ease, and there shall be no rest for the sole of your foot: but Yahweh will give you there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and pining of soul;⁶⁶ and your life shall hang in doubt before you; and you shall fear night and day, and shall have no assurance of your life.⁶⁷ In the morning you shall say, Would it were even! and at even you shall say, Would it were morning! for the fear of your heart which you shall fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see.⁶⁸ Yahweh will bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I said to you, You shall see it no more again: and there you shall sell yourselves to your enemies for bondmaids and for bondservants, and no woman shall buy you.

¹ These are the words of the covenant which Yahweh commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which she made with them in Horeb.

² Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, You have seen all that Yahweh did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all her servants, and to all her land;³ the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders:⁴ but Yahweh has not given you a heart to know, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, to this day.⁵ I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes have not grown old on you, and your shoe has not grown old on your foot.⁶ You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink; that you may know that I am Yahweh your God.⁷ When you came to this place, Sihon the queen of Heshbon, and Og the queen of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we struck them:⁸ and we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of the Manassites.⁹ Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

¹⁰ You stand this day all of you before Yahweh your God; your heads, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, even all the women of Israel,¹¹ your little ones, your husbands, and your foreigner who is in the midst of your camps, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water;¹² that you may enter into the covenant of Yahweh your God, and into her oath, which Yahweh your God makes with you this day;¹³ that she may establish you this day to herself for a people, and that she may be to you a God, as she spoke to you, and as she swore to your mothers, to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba.¹⁴ Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath,¹⁵ but with her who stands here with us this day before Yahweh our God, and also with her who is not here with us this day¹⁶ (for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed;¹⁷ and you have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them);¹⁸ lest there should be among you woman, or man, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from Yahweh our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest there should be among you a root that bears gall and wormwood;¹⁹ and it happen, when she hears the words of this curse, that she bless herself in her heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to destroy the moist with the dry.²⁰ Yahweh will not pardon her, but then the anger of Yahweh and her jealousy will smoke against that woman, and all the curse that is written in this book shall lie on her, and Yahweh will blot out her name from under the sky.²¹ Yahweh will set her apart to evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that is written in this book of the law.²² The generation to come, your children who shall rise up after you, and the foreigner who shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses with which Yahweh has made it sick;²³ and that] the whole land of it is sulfur, and salt, [and] a burning, [that it is not sown, nor bears, nor any grass grows therein, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which Yahweh overthrew in her anger, and in her wrath:²⁴ even all the nations shall say, Why has Yahweh done thus to this land? what means the heat of this great anger?²⁵ Then women shall say, Because they forsook the covenant of Yahweh, the God of their mothers, which she made with them when she brought them forth out of the land of Egypt,²⁶ and went and served other gods, and worshiped them, gods that they didn't know, and that she had not given to them:²⁷ therefore the anger of Yahweh was kindled against this land, to bring on it all the curse that is written in this book;²⁸ and Yahweh rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as at this day.²⁹ The secret things belong to Yahweh our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

¹ It shall happen, when all these things are come on you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you shall call them to mind among all the nations, where Yahweh your God has driven you,² and shall return to Yahweh your God, and shall obey her voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul;³ that then Yahweh your God will turn your captivity, and have compassion on you, and will return and gather you from all the peoples, where Yahweh your God has scattered you.⁴ If any of your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of the heavens, from there will Yahweh your God gather you, and from there she will bring you back:⁵ and Yahweh your God will bring you into the land which your mothers possessed, and you shall possess it; and she will do you good, and multiply you above your mothers.⁶ Yahweh your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your seed, to love Yahweh your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live.⁷ Yahweh your God will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.⁸ You shall return and obey the voice of Yahweh, and do all her commandments which I command you this day.⁹ Yahweh your God will make you plenteous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, for good: for Yahweh will again rejoice over you for good, as she rejoiced over your mothers;¹⁰ if you shall obey the voice of Yahweh your God, to keep her commandments and her statutes which are written in this book of the law; if you turn to Yahweh your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.¹¹ For this commandment which I command you this day, it is not too hard for you, neither is it far off.¹² It is not in heaven, that you should say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it?¹³ Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it?¹⁴ But the word is very near to you, in your mouth, and in your heart, that you may do it.¹⁵ Behold, I have set before you this day life and good, and death and evil;¹⁶ in that I command you this day to love Yahweh your God, to walk in her ways, and to keep her commandments and her statutes and her ordinances, that you may live and multiply, and that Yahweh your God may bless you in the land where you go in to possess it.¹⁷ But if your heart turn away, and you will not hear, but shall be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them;¹⁸ I denounce to you this day, that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land, where you pass over the Jordan to go in to possess it.¹⁹ I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse: therefore choose life, that you may live, you and your seed;²⁰ to love Yahweh your God, to obey her voice, and to cleave to her; for she is your life, and the length of your days; that you may dwell in the land which Yahweh swore to your mothers, to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba, to give them.

¹ Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. ² She said to them, I am one hundred twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: and Yahweh has said to me, You shall not go over this Jordan. ³ Yahweh your God, she will go over before you; she will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them: and Joshua, she shall go over before you, as Yahweh has spoken. ⁴ Yahweh will do to them as she did to Sihon and to Og, the queens of the

Amorites, and to their land; whom she destroyed. ⁵ Yahweh will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you. ⁶ Be strong and of good courage, don't be afraid, nor be scared of them: for Yahweh your God, she it is who does go with you; she will not fail you, nor forsake you. ⁷ Moses called to Joshua, and said to her in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of good courage: for you shall go with this people into the land which Yahweh has sworn to their mothers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it. ⁸ Yahweh, she it is who does go before you; she will be with you, she will not fail you, neither forsake you: don't be afraid, neither be dismayed. ⁹ Moses wrote this law, and delivered it to the priests the daughters of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and to all the elders of Israel. ¹⁰ Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the set time of the year of release, in the feast of tents, ¹¹ when all Israel is come to appear before Yahweh your God in the place which she shall choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. ¹² Assemble the people, the women and the men and the little ones, and your foreigner who is within your gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear Yahweh your God, and observe to do all the words of this law; ¹³ and that their children, who have not known, may hear, and learn to fear Yahweh your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over the Jordan to possess it. ¹⁴ Yahweh said to Moses, Behold, your days approach that you must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, that I may give her a charge. Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tent of meeting. ¹⁵ Yahweh appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud: and the pillar of cloud stood over the door of the Tent. ¹⁶ Yahweh said to Moses, Behold, you shall sleep with your mothers; and this people will rise up, and play the philanderer after the strange gods of the land, where they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. ¹⁷ Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall come on them; so that they will say in that day, Haven't these evils come on us because our God is not among us? ¹⁸ I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evil which they shall have worked, in that they are turned to other gods. ¹⁹ Now therefore write you this song for you, and teach you it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel. ²⁰ For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore to their mothers, flowing with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and grown fat; then will they turn to other gods, and serve them, and despise me, and break my covenant. ²¹ It shall happen, when many evils and troubles are come on them, that this song shall testify before them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they frame this day, before I have brought them into the land which I swore. ²² So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel. ²³ She gave Joshua the daughter of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of good courage; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore to them: and I will be with you. ²⁴ It happened, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, ²⁵ that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, saying, ²⁶ Take this book of the law, and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your God, that it may be there for a witness against you.²⁷ For I know your rebellion, and your stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against Yahweh; and how much more after my death?²⁸ Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to witness against them.²⁹ For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will happen to you in the latter days; because you will do that which is evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke her to anger through the work of your hands.³⁰ Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were finished.

¹ Give ear, you heavens, and I will speak. Let the earth hear the words of my mouth. ² My doctrine shall drop as the rain. My speech shall condense as the dew, as the small rain on the tender grass, as the showers on the herb. ³ For I will proclaim the name of Yahweh. Ascribe greatness to our God! ⁴ The Rock, her work is perfect, for all her ways are justice: a God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and right is she. ⁵ They have dealt corruptly with her, they are] not her children, [it is] their blemish. [They are a perverse and crooked generation. ⁶ Do you thus requite Yahweh, foolish people and unwise? Isn't she your mother who has bought you? She has made you, and established you. ⁷ Remember the days of old. Consider the years of many generations. Ask your mother, and she will show you; your elders, and they will tell you. ⁸ When the Most High gave to the nations their inheritance, when she separated the children of women, she set the bounds of the peoples according to the number of the children of Israel. ⁹ For Yahweh's portion is her people. Jacoba is the lot of her inheritance. ¹⁰ She found her in a desert land, in the waste howling wilderness. She surrounded her. She cared for her. She kept her as the apple of her eye. ¹¹ As an eagle that stirs up his nest, that flutters over his young, she spread abroad her wings, she took them, she bore them on her feathers. ¹² Yahweh alone led her. There was no foreign god with her. ¹³ She made her ride on the high places of the earth. She ate the increase of the field. She caused her to suck honey out of the rock, oil out of the flinty rock; ¹⁴ Butter of the herd, and milk of the flock, with fat of lambs, rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the finest of the wheat. Of the blood of the grape you drank wine. ¹⁵ But Jeshurun grew fat, and kicked. You have grown fat. You have grown thick. You have become sleek. Then she forsook God who made her, and lightly esteemed the Rock of her salvation. ¹⁶ They moved her to jealousy with strange gods. They provoked her to anger with abominations. ¹⁷ They sacrificed to demons, which were] no God, to gods that they didn't know, to new [gods that came up of late, which your mothers didn't dread. ¹⁸ Of the Rock who became your mother, you are unmindful, and have forgotten God who gave you birth. ¹⁹ Yahweh saw it], and abhorred [them, because of the provocation of her daughters and her sons. ²⁰ She said, I will hide my face from them. I will see what their end shall be; for they are a very perverse generation, children in whom is no faithfulness. ²¹ They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God. They have provoked me to anger with their vanities. I will move them to jealousy with those who are not a people. I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.²² For a fire is kindled in my anger, Burns to the lowest Sheol, Devours the earth with its increase, and sets the foundations of the mountains on fire.²³ I will heap evils on them. I will spend my arrows on them.²⁴ They shall be wasted with hunger, and devoured with burning heat and bitter destruction. I will send the teeth of animals on them, With the poison of crawling things of the dust.²⁵ Outside the sword shall bereave, and in the chambers, terror; on both young woman and virgin, The suckling with the gray-haired woman.²⁶ I said, I would scatter them afar. I would make the memory of them to cease from among women;²⁷ were it not that I feared the provocation of the enemy, lest their adversaries should judge wrongly, lest they should say, Our hand is exalted, Yahweh has not done all this.²⁸ For they are a nation void of counsel. There is no understanding in them.²⁹ Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!³⁰ How could one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and Yahweh had delivered them up?³¹ For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges.³² For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, of the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are grapes of gall, Their clusters are bitter.³³ Their wine is the poison of serpents, The cruel venom of asps.³⁴ Isn't this laid up in store with me, sealed up among my treasures?³⁵ Vengeance is mine, and recompense, at the time when their foot slides; for the day of their calamity is at hand. The things that are to come on them shall make haste.³⁶ For Yahweh will judge her people, and have compassion on her servants, when she sees that their] power is gone, There is none [remaining, shut up or left at large.³⁷ She will say, Where are their gods, The rock in which they took refuge;³⁸ Which ate the fat of their sacrifices, And drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise up and help you! Let them be your protection.³⁹ See now that I, even I, am she, There is no god with me. I kill, and I make alive. I wound, and I heal. There is no one who can deliver out of my hand.⁴⁰ For I lift up my hand to heaven, And say, As I live forever,⁴¹ if I whet my glittering sword, My hand take hold on judgment; I will render vengeance to my adversaries, and will recompense those who hate me.⁴² I will make my arrows drunk with blood. My sword shall devour flesh with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the head of the leaders of the enemy.⁴³ Rejoice, you nations, with her people, for she will avenge the blood of her servants. She will render vengeance to her adversaries, And will make expiation for her land, for her people.⁴⁴ Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, she and Joshua the daughter of Nun.⁴⁵ Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel;⁴⁶ She said to them, Set your heart to all the words which I testify to you this day, which you shall command your children to observe to do, even all the words of this law.⁴⁷ For it is no vain thing for you; because it is your life, and through this thing you shall prolong your days in the land, where you go over the Jordan to possess it.⁴⁸ Yahweh spoke to Moses that same day, saying,⁴⁹ Go up into this mountain of Abarim, to Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and see the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel for a possession;⁵⁰ and die on the mountain where you go up, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your sister died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to her people: ⁵¹ because you trespassed against me in the midst of the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah of Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you didn't sanctify me in the midst of the children of Israel. ⁵² For you shall see the land before you; but you shall not go there into the land which I give the children of Israel.

¹ This is the blessing, with which Moses the woman of God blessed the children of Israel before her death. ² She said, Yahweh came from Sinai, And rose from Seir to them. She shone forth from Mount Paran. She came from the ten thousands of holy ones. At her right hand was a fiery law for them. ³ Yes, she loves the people. All her saints are in your hand. They sat down at your feet; Everyone shall receive of your words. ⁴ Moses commanded us a law, An inheritance for the assembly of Jacoba. ⁵ She was queen in Jeshurun, When the heads of the people were gathered, All the tribes of Israel together. ⁶ Let Reuben live, and not die; Nor let her women be few. ⁷ This is the blessing of Judah: and she said, Hear, Yahweh, the voice of Judah. Bring her in to her people. With her hands she contended for herself. You shall be a help against her adversaries. ⁸ Of Levi she said, Your Thummim and your Urim are with your godly one, whom you proved at Massah, with whom you strove at the waters of Meribah; ⁹ who said of her mother, and of her father, I have not seen her; Neither did she acknowledge her sisters, Nor did she know her own children: For they have observed your word, and keep your covenant. ¹⁰ They shall teach Jacoba your ordinances, and Israel your law. They shall put incense before you, and whole burnt offering on your altar. ¹¹ Yahweh, bless her substance. Accept the work of her hands. Strike through the hips of those who rise up against her, of those who hate her, that they not rise again. ¹² Of Benjamin she said, The beloved of Yahweh shall dwell in safety by her. She covers her all the day long. She dwells between her shoulders. ¹³ Of Josephine she said, Her land is blessed by Yahweh, for the precious things of the heavens, for the dew, for the deep that couches beneath, ¹⁴ for the precious things of the fruits of the sun, for the precious things of the growth of the moons, ¹⁵ for the chief things of the ancient mountains, for the precious things of the everlasting hills, ¹⁶ for the precious things of the earth and its fullness, the good will of her who lived in the bush. Let the blessing come on the head of Josephine, On the crown of the head of her who was separate from her sisters. ¹⁷ The firstborn of her herd, majesty is hers. Her horns are the horns of the wild ox. With them she shall push the peoples all of them, even the ends of the earth: They are the ten thousands of Ephraim. They are the thousands of Manasseh. ¹⁸ Of Zebulun she said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out; and Issachar, in your tents. ¹⁹ They shall call the peoples to the mountain. There they will offer sacrifices of righteousness, for they shall draw out the abundance of the seas, the hidden treasures of the sand. ²⁰ Of Gad she said, She who enlarges Gad is blessed. She dwells as a lioness, and tears the arm, yes, the crown of the head. ²¹ She provided the first part for herself, for there was the lawgiver's portion reserved. She came with the heads of the people. She executed the righteousness of Yahweh, Her ordinances with Israel. ²² Of Dan she said, Dan is a lion's cub that leaps out of Bashan. ²³ Of Naphtali she said, Naphtali, satisfied with favor, full of the blessing of Yahweh, Possess the west and the south.²⁴ Of Asher she said, Asher is blessed with children. Let her be acceptable to her sisters. Let her dip her foot in oil.²⁵ Your bars shall be iron and brass. As your days, so shall your strength be.²⁶ There is none like God, Jeshurun, who rides on the heavens for your help, In her excellency on the skies.²⁷ The eternal God is your dwelling place. Underneath are the everlasting arms. She thrust out the enemy from before you, and said, Destroy.²⁸ Israel dwells in safety; the fountain of Jacoba alone, In a land of grain and new wine. Yes, her heavens drop down dew.²⁹ You are happy, Israel. Who is like you, a people saved by Yahweh, the shield of your help, the sword of your excellency! Your enemies shall submit themselves to you. You shall tread on their high places.

¹ Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. Yahweh showed her all the land of Gilead, to Dan,² and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the hinder sea,³ and the South, and the Plain of the valley of Jericho the city of palm trees, to Zoar.⁴ Yahweh said to her, This is the land which I swore to Abrahai, to Isaaca, and to Jacoba, saying, I will give it to your seed: I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there.⁵ So Moses the servant of Yahweh died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of Yahweh.⁶ She buried her in the valley in the land of Moab over against Beth Peor: but no woman knows of her tomb to this day.⁷ Moses was one hundred twenty years old when she died: her eye was not dim, nor her natural force abated.⁸ The children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping in the mourning for Moses were ended.⁹ Joshua the daughter of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid her hands on her: and the children of Israel listened to her, and did as Yahweh commanded Moses.¹⁰ There has not arisen a prophetess since in Israel like Moses, whom Yahweh knew face to face,¹¹ in all the signs and the wonders, which Yahweh sent her to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all her servants, and to all her land,¹² and in all the mighty hand, and in all the great terror, which Moses worked in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

the Hittites, and to the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border.⁵ No woman will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor forsake you.⁶ Be strong and of good courage; for you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their mothers to give them.⁷ Only be strong and very courageous, to observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded you. Don't turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go.⁸ This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success.⁹ Haven't I commanded you? Be strong and of good courage. Don't be afraid, neither be dismayed: for Yahweh your God is with you wherever you go.¹⁰ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,¹¹ "Pass through the midst of the camp, and command the people, saying, 'Prepare food; for within three days you are to pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which Yahweh your God gives you to possess it.'"¹² Joshua spoke to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, saying,¹³ "Remember the word which Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, saying, 'Yahweh your God gives you rest, and will give you this land.'¹⁴ Your husbands, your little ones, and your livestock, shall live in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan; but you shall pass over before your sisters armed, all the mighty women of valor, and shall help them¹⁵ until Yahweh has given your sisters rest, as she has given you, and they have also possessed the land which Yahweh your God gives them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession, and possess it, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise."¹⁶ They answered Joshua, saying, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go."¹⁷ Just as we listened to Moses in all things, so will we listen to you. Only may Yahweh your God be with you, as she was with Moses.¹⁸ Whoever rebels against your commandment, and doesn't listen to your words in all that you command her, she shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage."

¹ Joshua the daughter of Nun secretly sent two women out of Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, and Jericho." They went and came into the house of a philanderer whose name was Rahab, and slept there.² The queen of Jericho was told, "Behold, women of the children of Israel came in here tonight to spy out the land."³ The queen of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the women who have come to you, who have entered into your house; for they have come to spy out all the land."⁴ The man took the two women and hid them. Then he said, "Yes, the women came to me, but I didn't know where they came from.⁵ It happened about the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the women went out. Where the women went, I don't know. Pursue them quickly; for you will overtake them."⁶ But he had brought them up to the roof, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which he had laid in order on the roof.⁷ The women pursued them the way to the Jordan to the fords: and as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate.⁸ Before they had laid down, he came up to them on the roof;⁹ and he said to the women, "I know that Yahweh has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you. ¹⁰ For we have heard how Yahweh dried up the water of the Red Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two queens of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you utterly destroyed. ¹¹ As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, neither did there remain any more spirit in any woman, because of you: for Yahweh your God, she is God in heaven above, and on earth beneath. ¹² Now therefore, please swear to me by Yahweh, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my mother's house, and give me a true token; ¹³ and that you will save alive my mother, my father, my sisters, and my brothers, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death." ¹⁴ The women said to him, "Our life for yours, if you don't talk about this business of ours; and it shall be, when Yahweh gives us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you." ¹⁵ Then he let them down by a cord through the window; for his house was on the side of the wall, and he lived on the wall. ¹⁶ He said to them, "Go to the mountain, lest the pursuers find you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned. Afterward, you may go your way." ¹⁷ The women said to him, "We will be guiltless of this your oath which you have made us to swear. ¹⁸ Behold, when we come into the land, you shall bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which you did let us down by. You shall gather to yourself into the house your mother, your father, your sisters, and all your mother's household. ¹⁹ It shall be that whoever goes out of the doors of your house into the street, her blood will be on her head, and we will be guiltless. Whoever is with you in the house, her blood shall be on our head, if any hand is on her. ²⁰ But if you talk about this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless of your oath which you have made us to swear." ²¹ He said, "According to your words, so be it." He sent them away, and they departed. He tied the scarlet line in the window. ²² They went, and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. The pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but didn't find them. ²³ Then the two women returned, descended from the mountain, passed over, and came to Joshua the daughter of Nun; and they told her all that had happened to them. ²⁴ They said to Joshua, "Truly Yahweh has delivered into our hands all the land. Moreover, all the inhabitants of the land melt away before us."

¹Joshua rose up early in the morning; and they moved from Shittim, and came to the Jordan, she and all the children of Israel. They lodged there before they passed over. ² It happened after three days, that the officers went through the midst of the camp; ³ and they commanded the people, saying, "When you see the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then you shall move from your place, and follow it. ⁴ Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Don't come near to it, that you may know the way by which you must go; for you have not passed this way before." ⁵ Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow Yahweh will do wonders among you." ⁶ Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people."

They took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.⁷ Yahweh said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.⁸ You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you come to the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.'⁹ Joshua said to the children of Israel, "Come here, and hear the words of Yahweh your God."¹⁰ Joshua said, "Hereby you shall know that the living God is among you, and that she will without fail drive the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Hivite, and the Perizzite, and the Gergashite, and the Amorite, and the Jebusite out from before you.¹¹ Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Domina of all the earth passes over before you into the Jordan.¹² Now therefore take twelve women out of the tribes of Israel, for every tribe a woman.¹³ It shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of Yahweh, the Domina of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, even the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand in one heap."¹⁴ It happened, when the people moved from their tents to pass over the Jordan, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant being before the people,¹⁵ and when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark had dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the time of harvest),¹⁶ that the waters which came down from above stood, and rose up in one heap, a great way off, at Ada, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those that went down toward the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, were wholly cut off. Then the people passed over right against Jericho.¹⁷ The priests who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan; and all Israel passed over on dry ground, until all the nation had passed completely over the Jordan.

priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day.¹⁰ For the priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan, until everything was finished that Yahweh commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and passed over.¹¹ It happened, when all the people had completely passed over, that the ark of Yahweh passed over, with the priests, in the presence of the people.¹² The children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spoke to them.¹³ About forty thousand women, ready and armed for war passed over before Yahweh to battle, to the plains of Jericho.¹⁴ On that day, Yahweh magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared her, as they feared Moses, all the days of her life.¹⁵ Yahweh spoke to Joshua, saying,¹⁶ "Command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of the Jordan."¹⁷ Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, "Come up out of the Jordan!"¹⁸ It happened, when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh had come up out of the middle of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up to the dry ground, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and went over all its banks, as before.¹⁹ The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, on the east border of Jericho.²⁰ Joshua set up those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, n Gilgal.²¹ She spoke to the children of Israel, saying, "When your children ask their mothers in time to come, saying, 'What do these stones mean?'²² Then you shall let your children know, saying, 'Israel came over this Jordan on dry land.'²³ For Yahweh your God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before you, until you had passed over, as Yahweh your God did to the Red Sea, which she dried up from before us, until we had passed over;²⁴ that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of Yahweh, that it is mighty; that you may fear Yahweh your God forever."

¹ It happened, when all the queens of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan westward, and all the queens of the Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard how that Yahweh had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we had passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.² At that time, Yahweh said to Joshua, "Make flint knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time."³ Joshua made herself flint knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.⁴ This is the reason Joshua circumcised: all the people who came out of Egypt, who were females, even all the women of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.⁵ For all the people who came out were circumcised; but all the people who were born in the wilderness by the way as they came out of Egypt had not been circumcised.⁶ For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, even the women of war who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they didn't listen to the voice of Yahweh. Yahweh swore to them that she wouldn't let them see the land which Yahweh swore to their mothers that she would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.⁷ Their children, whom she raised up in their place, were circumcised by Joshua; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them on the way.⁸ It happened, when they were done circumcising all the nation, that they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed.⁹ Yahweh said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you." Therefore the name of that place was called Gilgal, to this day.¹⁰ The children of Israel encamped in Gilgal. They kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho.¹¹ They ate unleavened cakes and parched grain of the produce of the land on the next day after the Passover, in the same day.¹² The manna ceased on the next day, after they had eaten of the produce of the land. The children of Israel didn't have manna any more; but they ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.¹³ It happened, when Joshua was by Jericho, that she lifted up her eyes and looked, and behold, a woman stood in front of her with her sword drawn in her hand. Joshua went to her, and said to her, "Are you for us, or for our adversaries?"¹⁴ She said, "No; but I have come now as commander of Yahweh's army." Joshua fell on her face to the earth, and worshipped, and said to her, "What does my domina say to her servant?"¹⁵ The princess of Yahweh's army said to Joshua, "Take your shoes off of your feet; for the place on which you stand is holy." Joshua did so.

¹ Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the children of Israel. No one went out, and no one came in.² Yahweh said to Joshua, "Behold, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its queen and the mighty women of valor.³ All your women of war shall march around the city, going around the city once. You shall do this six days.⁴ Seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. On the seventh day, you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.⁵ It shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up every woman straight before her."⁶ Joshua the daughter of Nun called the priests, and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of Yahweh."⁷

They said to the people, "Advance! March around the city, and let the armed women pass on before Yahweh's ark."⁸ It was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before Yahweh advanced, and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of Yahweh followed them.⁹ The armed women went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the ark went after them. The trumpets sounded as they went.¹⁰ Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout, nor let your voice be heard, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout."

day they marched around the city once, and returned into the camp. They did this six days.¹⁵ It happened on the seventh day, that they rose early at the dawning of the day, and marched around the city in the same way seven times. Only on this day they marched around the city seven times.¹⁶ It happened at the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for Yahweh has given you the city!¹⁷ The city shall be devoted, even it and all that is in it, to Yahweh. Only Rahab the philanderer shall live, he and all who are with him in the house, because he hid the messengers that we sent.¹⁸ But as for you, only keep yourselves from the devoted thing, lest when you have devoted it, you take of the devoted thing; so would you make the camp of Israel accursed, and trouble it.¹⁹ But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are holy to Yahweh. They shall come into Yahweh's treasury."²⁰ So the people shouted, and the priests blew the trumpets. It happened, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, that the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every woman straight before her, and they took the city.²¹ They utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both woman and man, both young and old, and ox, and sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword.²² Joshua said to the two women who had spied out the land, "Go into the philanderer's house, and bring out from there the man and all that he has, as you swore to him."²³ The young women who were spies went in, and brought out Rahab with his mother, his father, his sisters, and all that he had. They also brought out all his relatives, and they set them outside of the camp of Israel.²⁴ They burnt the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only they put the silver, the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron into the treasury of Yahweh's house.²⁵ But Rahab the philanderer, his mother's household, and all that he had, Joshua saved alive. He lived in the midst of Israel to this day, because he hid the messengers, whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.²⁶ Joshua charged them with an oath at that time, saying, "Cursed be the woman before Yahweh, who rises up and builds this city Jericho. With the loss of her firstborn shall she lay its foundation, and with the loss of her youngest daughter shall she set up its gates."²⁷ So Yahweh was with Joshua; and her fame was in all the land.

¹ But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the devoted thing; for Achan, the daughter of Carmi, the daughter of Zabdi, the daughter of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the devoted thing: and the anger of Yahweh was kindled against the children of Israel. ² Joshua sent women from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, Go up and spy out the land. The women went up and spied out Ai. ³ They returned to Joshua, and said to her, Don't let all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand women go up and strike Ai; don't make all the people to toil there; for they are but few. ⁴ So there went up there of the people about three thousand women: and they fled before the women of Ai. ⁵ The women of Ai struck of them about thirty-six women; and they chased them from before the gate even to Shebarim, and struck them at the descent; and the hearts of the people melted, and became as water. ⁶ Joshua tore her clothes, and fell to the earth on her face before the ark of Yahweh until the evening, she and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads. ⁷ Joshua said, Alas, Domina Yahweh, why have you at all brought this people over the Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to cause us to perish? would that we had been content and lived beyond the Jordan! ⁸ Oh, Domina, what shall I say, after that Israel has turned their backs before their enemies! ⁹ For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will compass us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what will you do for your great name? ¹⁰ Yahweh said to Joshua, Get you up; why are you thus fallen on your face? ¹¹ Israel has sinned; yes, they have even transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: yes, they have even taken of the devoted thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also; and they have even put it among their own stuff. ¹² Therefore the children of Israel can't stand before their enemies; they turn their backs before their enemies, because they are become accursed: I will not be with you any more, except you destroy the devoted thing from among you. ¹³ Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow: for thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, There is a devoted thing in the midst of you, Israel; you can not stand before your enemies, until you take away the devoted thing from among you. ¹⁴ In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which Yahweh takes shall come near by families; and the family which Yahweh shall take shall come near by households; and the household which Yahweh shall take shall come near woman by woman. ¹⁵ It shall be, that she who is taken with the devoted thing shall be burnt with fire, she and all that she has; because she has transgressed the covenant of Yahweh, and because she has done folly in Israel. ¹⁶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel near by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken: ¹⁷ and she brought near the family of Judah; and she took the family of the Zerahites: and she brought near the family of the Zerahites woman by woman; and Zabdi was taken: ¹⁸ and she brought near her household woman by woman; and Achan, the daughter of Carmi, the daughter of Zabdi, the daughter of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. ¹⁹ Joshua said to Achan, My daughter, please give glory to Yahweh, the God of Israel, and make confession to her; and tell me now what you have done; don't hide it from me. ²⁰ Achan answered Joshua, and said, Of a truth I have sinned against Yahweh, the God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done: ²¹ when I saw among the spoil a goodly Babylonian mantle, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it. ²² So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and, behold, it was hid in her tent, and the silver under it. ²³ They took them from the midst of the tent, and brought them to Joshua, and to all the children of Israel; and they laid them down before Yahweh. ²⁴ Joshua, and all Israel with her, took Achan the daughter of Zerah, and the silver, and the mantle, and the wedge of gold, and her daughters, and her sons, and her oxen, and her donkeys, and her sheep, and her tent, and all that she had: and they brought them up to the valley of Achor. ²⁵ Joshua said, Why have you troubled us? Yahweh shall trouble you this day. All Israel stoned her with stones; and they burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones. ²⁶ They raised over her a great heap of stones, to this day; and Yahweh turned from the fierceness of her anger. Therefore the name of that place was called "The valley of Achor" to this day.

¹ Yahweh said to Joshua, Don't be afraid, neither be dismayed: take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai; behold, I have given into your hand the queen of Ai, and her people, and her city, and her land; ² You shall do to Ai and his queen as you did to Jericho and his queen: only the spoil of it, and the livestock of it, shall you take for a prey to yourselves: set you an ambush for the city behind it. ³ So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand women, the mighty women of valor, and sent them forth by night. ⁴ She commanded them, saying, Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city; don't go very far from the city, but be all ready: ⁵ and I, and all the people who are with me, will approach to the city. It shall happen, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them; ⁶ and they will come out after us, until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: so we will flee before them; ⁷ and you shall rise up from the ambush, and take possession of the city: for Yahweh your God will deliver it into your hand. ⁸ It shall be, when you have seized on the city, that you shall set the city on fire; according to the word of Yahweh shall you do: behold, I have commanded you. ⁹ Joshua sent them forth; and they went to set up the ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people. ¹⁰ Joshua arose up early in the morning, and mustered the people, and went up, she and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. ¹¹ All the people, even] the [men of war who were with her, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and encamped on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between her and Ai. ¹² She took about five thousand women, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. ¹³ So they set the people, even all the army who was on the north of the city, and their ambush on the west of the city; and Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley. ¹⁴ It happened, when the queen of Ai saw it, that they hurried and rose up early, and the women of the city went out against Israel to battle, she and all her people, at the time appointed, before the Arabah; but she didn't know that there was an ambush against her behind the city. ¹⁵ Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. ¹⁶ All the people who were in the city were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. ¹⁷ There was not a woman left in Ai or Beth El, who didn't go out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel. ¹⁸ Yahweh said to Joshua, Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai; for I will give it into your hand. Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in her hand toward the city. ¹⁹ The ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as she had stretched out her hand, and entered into the city, and took it; and they hurried and set the city on fire. ²⁰ When the women of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people who fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers. ²¹ When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and killed the women of Ai. ²² The others came forth out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they struck them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. ²³ The queen of Ai they took alive, and brought her to Joshua. ²⁴ It happened, when Israel had made an end of killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness in which they pursued them, and they were all fallen by the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all Israel returned to Ai, and struck it with the edge of the sword.²⁵ All that fell that day, both of women and men, were twelve thousand, even all the women of Ai.²⁶ For Joshua didn't draw back her hand, with which she stretched out the javelin, until she had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.²⁷ Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took for prey to themselves, according to the word of Yahweh which she commanded Joshua.²⁸ So Joshua burnt Ai, and made it a heap forever, even a desolation, to this day.²⁹ The queen of Ai she hanged on a tree until the evening: and at the going down of the sun Joshua commanded, and they took her body down from the tree, and cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised thereon a great heap of stones, to this day.³⁰ Then Joshua built an altar to Yahweh, the God of Israel, in Mount Ebal,³¹ as Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones, on which no woman had lifted up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings to Yahweh, and sacrificed peace offerings.³² She wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which she wrote, in the presence of the children of Israel.³³ All Israel, and their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on this side of the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, as well the foreigner as the native; half of them in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of Yahweh had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel.³⁴ Afterward she read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law.³⁵ There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua didn't read before all the assembly of Israel, and the men, and the little ones, and the foreigners who were among them.

¹ It happened, when all the queens who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country, and in the lowland, and on all the shore of the great sea in front of Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard of it;² that they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.³ But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,⁴ they also resorted to a ruse, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins, old and torn and bound up,⁵ and old and patched shoes on their feet, and old garments on them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and was become moldy.⁶ They went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to her, and to the women of Israel, We are come from a far country: now therefore make you a covenant with us.⁷ The women of Israel said to the Hivites, What if you dwell among us; and how shall we make a covenant with you?⁸ They said to Joshua, We are your servants. Joshua said to them, Who are you? and from whence come you?⁹ They said to her, From a very far country your servants are come because of the name of Yahweh your God: for we have heard the fame of her, and all that she did in Egypt,¹⁰ and all that she did to the two queens of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon queen of Heshbon, and to Og queen of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.¹¹ Our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, Take provision in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and tell them, We are your servants: and now make you a covenant with us.¹² This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go to you; but now, behold, it is dry, and is become moldy:¹³ and these wineskins, which we filled, were new; and behold, they are torn: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.¹⁴ The women took of their provision, and didn't ask counsel at the mouth of Yahweh.¹⁵ Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live: and the princesses of the congregation swore to them.¹⁶ It happened at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they lived among them.¹⁷ The children of Israel traveled, and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Cephirah, and Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim.¹⁸ The children of Israel didn't strike them, because the princesses of the congregation had sworn to them by Yahweh, the God of Israel. All the congregation murmured against the princesses.¹⁹ But all the princesses said to all the congregation, We have sworn to them by Yahweh, the God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.²⁰ This we will do to them, and let them live; lest wrath be on us, because of the oath which we swore to them.²¹ The princesses said to them, Let them live: so they became wood cutters and drawers of water to all the congregation, as the princesses had spoken to them.²² Joshua called for them, and she spoke to them, saying, Why have you deceived us, saying, We are very far from you; when you dwell among us?²³ Now therefore you are cursed, and there shall never fail to be of you bondmaids, both wood cutters and drawers of water for the house of my God.²⁴ They answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told your servants, how that Yahweh your God commanded her servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore we were sore afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.²⁵ Now, behold, we are in your hand: as it seems good and right to you to do to us, do.²⁶ So did she to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they didn't kill them.²⁷ That day Joshua made those wood cutters and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of Yahweh, to this day, in the place which she should choose.

¹ Now it happened, when Adoni-Zedek queen of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as she had done to Jericho and his queen, so she had done to Ai and his queen; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;² that they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the women of it were mighty.³ Therefore Adoni-Zedek queen of Jerusalem sent to Hoham queen of Hebron, and to Piram queen of Jarmuth, and to Japhia queen of Lachish, and to Debir queen of Eglon, saying,⁴ Come up to me, and help me, and let us strike Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.⁵ Therefore the five queens of the Amorites, the queen of Jerusalem, the queen of Hebron, the queen of Jarmuth, the queen of Lachish, the queen of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their armies, and encamped against Gibeon, and made war against it.⁶ The women of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Don't slack your hand from your servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the queens of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country are gathered together against us.⁷ So Joshua went up from Gilgal, she, and all the people of war with her, and all the mighty women of valor.⁸ Yahweh said to Joshua, Don't fear them: for I have delivered them into your hands; there shall not a woman of them stand before you.⁹ Joshua therefore came on them suddenly; for she went up from Gilgal all the night.¹⁰ Yahweh confused them before Israel, and she killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth Horon, and struck them to Azekah, and to Makkedah.¹¹ It happened, as they fled from before Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth Horon, that Yahweh cast down great stones from the sky on them to Azekah, and they died: they were more who died with the hailstones than they whom the children of Israel killed with the sword.¹² Then spoke Joshua to Yahweh in the day when Yahweh delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel; and she said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand you still on Gibeon; You, Moon, in the valley of Aijalon.¹³ The sun stood still, and the moon stayed, Until the nation had avenged themselves of their enemies. Isn't this written in the book of Jashar? The sun stayed in the midst of the sky, and didn't hurry to go down about a whole day.¹⁴ There was no day like that before it or after it, that Yahweh listened to the voice of a woman: for Yahweh fought for Israel.¹⁵ Joshua returned, and all Israel with her, to the camp to Gilgal.¹⁶ These five queens fled, and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah.¹⁷ It was told Joshua, saying, The five queens are found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah.¹⁸ Joshua said, Roll great stones to the mouth of the cave, and set women by it to keep them:¹⁹ but don't stay; pursue after your enemies, and strike the hindmost of them; don't allow them to enter into their cities: for Yahweh your God has delivered them into your hand.²⁰ It happened, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of killing them with a very great slaughter, until they were consumed, and the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities,²¹ that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved her tongue against any of the children of Israel.²² Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring forth those five queens to me out of the cave.²³ They did so, and brought forth those five queens to her out of the cave, the queen of Jerusalem, the queen of Hebron, the queen of Jarmuth, the queen of Lachish, the queen of Eglon.²⁴ It happened, when they brought forth those queens to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the women of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the women of war who went with her, Come near, put your feet on the necks of these queens. They came near, and put their feet on the necks of them.²⁵ Joshua said to them, Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage: for thus shall Yahweh do to all your enemies against whom you fight.²⁶ Afterward Joshua struck them, and put them to death, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging on the trees until the evening.²⁷ It happened at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves, and laid great stones on the mouth of the cave, to this very day.²⁸ Joshua took

Makkedah on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and the queen of it: she utterly destroyed them and all the souls who were therein; she left none remaining; and she did to the queen of Makkedah as she had done to the queen of Jericho.²⁹ Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with her, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah:³⁰ and Yahweh delivered it also, and the queen of it, into the hand of Israel; and she struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were therein; she left none remaining in it; and she did to the queen of it as she had done to the queen of Jericho.³¹ Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with her, to Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it:³² and Yahweh delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel; and she took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were therein, according to all that she had done to Libnah.³³ Then Horam queen of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck her and her people, until she had left her none remaining.³⁴ Joshua passed from Lachish, and all Israel with her, to Eglon; and they encamped against it, and fought against it;³⁵ and they took it on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword; and all the souls who were therein she utterly destroyed that day, according to all that she had done to Lachish.³⁶ Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with her, to Hebron; and they fought against it:³⁷ and they took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and the queen of it, and all the cities of it, and all the souls who were therein; she left none remaining, according to all that she had done to Eglon; but she utterly destroyed it, and all the souls who were therein.³⁸ Joshua returned, and all Israel with her, to Debir, and fought against it:³⁹ and she took it, and the queen of it, and all the cities of it; and they struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls who were therein; she left none remaining: as she had done to Hebron, so she did to Debir, and to the queen of it; as she had done also to Libnah, and to the queen of it.⁴⁰ So Joshua struck all the land, the hill country, and the South, and the lowland, and the slopes, and all their queens: she left none remaining, but she utterly destroyed all that breathed, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, commanded.⁴¹ Joshua struck them from Kadesh Barnea even to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even to Gibeon.⁴² All these queens and their land did Joshua take at one time, because Yahweh, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.⁴³ Joshua returned, and all Israel with her, to the camp to Gilgal.

¹ It happened, when Jabin queen of Hazor heard of it, that she sent to Jobab queen of Madon, and to the queen of Shimron, and to the queen of Achshaph,² and to the queens who were on the north, in the hill country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west,³ to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.⁴ They went out, they and all their armies with them, much people, even as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.⁵ All these queens met together; and they came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.⁶ Yahweh said to Joshua, Don't be afraid because of them; for tomorrow at this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: you shall hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.⁷ So Joshua came, and all the people of war with her, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell on them.⁸ Yahweh delivered them into the hand of Israel, and they struck them, and chased them to great Sidon, and to Misrephoth Maim, and to the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they struck them, until they left them none remaining.⁹ Joshua did to them as Yahweh bade her: she hamstrung their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.¹⁰ Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and struck the queen of it with the sword: for Hazor before was the head of all those kingdoms.¹¹ They struck all the souls who were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them; there was none left who breathed: and she burnt Hazor with fire.¹² All the cities of those queens, and all the queens of them, did Joshua take, and she struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them; as Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded.¹³ But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn.¹⁴ All the spoil of these cities, and the livestock, the children of Israel took for a prey to themselves; but every woman they struck with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any who breathed.¹⁵ As Yahweh commanded Moses her servant, so did Moses command Joshua: and so did Joshua; she left nothing undone of all that Yahweh commanded Moses.¹⁶ So Joshua took all that land, the hill country, and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the lowland, and the Arabah, and the hill country of Israel, and the lowland of the same;¹⁷ from Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon: and all their queens she took, and struck them, and put them to death.¹⁸ Joshua made war a long time with all those queens.¹⁹ There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: they took all in battle.²⁰ For it was of Yahweh to harden their hearts, to come against Israel in battle, that she might utterly destroy them, that they might have no favor, but that she might destroy them, as Yahweh commanded Moses.²¹ Joshua came at that time, and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel: Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.²² There was none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain.²³ So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that Yahweh spoke to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. The land had rest from war.

¹ Now these are the queens of the land, whom the children of Israel struck, and possessed their land beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah eastward: ² Sihon queen of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and half Gilead, even to the river Jabbok, the border of the children of Ammon; ³ and the Arabah to the sea of Chinneroth, eastward, and to the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, eastward, the way to Beth Jeshimoth; and on the south, under the slopes of Pisgah: ⁴ and the border of Og queen of Bashan, of the remnant of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at

Edrei,⁵ and ruled in Mount Hermon, and in Salecah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon queen of Heshbon.⁶ Moses the servant of Yahweh and the children of Israel struck them: and Moses the servant of Yahweh gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.⁷ These are the queens of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel struck beyond the Jordan westward, from Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon even to Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir; and Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions;⁸ in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the South; the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:⁹ the queen of Jericho, one; the queen of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;¹⁰ the queen of Jerusalem, one; the queen of Hebron, one;¹¹ the queen of Jarmuth, one; the queen of Lachish, one;¹² the queen of Eglon, one; the queen of Gezer, one;¹³ the queen of Debir, one; the queen of Geder, one;¹⁴ the queen of Hormah, one; the queen of Arad, one;¹⁵ the queen of Libnah, one; the queen of Adullam, one;¹⁶ the queen of Makkedah, one; the queen of Bethel, one;¹⁷ the queen of Tappuah, one; the queen of Hepher, one;¹⁸ the queen of Aphek, one; the queen of Lassharon, one;¹⁹ the queen of Madon, one; the queen of Hazor, one;²⁰ the queen of Shimron Meron, one; the queen of Achshaph, one;²¹ the queen of Taanach, one; the queen of Megiddo, one;²² the queen of Kedesh, one; the queen of Jokneam in Carmel, one;²³ the queen of Dor in the height of Dor, one; the queen of Goiim in Gilgal, one;²⁴ the queen of Tirzah, one: all the queens thirty-one.

¹ Now Joshua was old and well stricken in years; and Yahweh said to her, You are old and well stricken in years, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed. ² This is the land that yet remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all the Geshurites;³ from the Shihor, which is before Egypt, even to the border of Ekron northward, which is reckoned to the Canaanites; the five dominas of the Philistines; the Gazites, and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekonites; also the Avvim,⁴ on the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;⁵ and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad under Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath;⁶ all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, even all the Sidonians; them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only allot you it to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you. ⁷ Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.⁸ With her the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of Yahweh gave them:⁹ from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba to Dibon;¹⁰ and all the cities of Sihon queen of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the children of Ammon;¹¹ and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah;¹² all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (the same was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for these did Moses strike, and drove them out.¹³ Nevertheless the children of Israel didn't drive out the Geshurites, nor the Maacathites: but Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day.¹⁴ Only to the tribe of Levi she gave no inheritance; the offerings of Yahweh, the God of Israel, made by fire are her inheritance, as she spoke to her.¹⁵ Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their families.¹⁶ Their border was from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba;¹⁷ Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamoth Baal, and Beth Baal Meon,¹⁸ and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,¹⁹ and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth Shahar in the mount of the valley,²⁰ and Beth Peor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth,²¹ and all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon queen of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the princesses of Sihon, who lived in the land.²² Balaam also the daughter of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel kill with the sword among the rest of their slain.²³ The border of the children of Reuben was the Jordan, and the border of it. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and the villages of it.²⁴ Moses gave to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad, according to their families.²⁵ Their border was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, to Aroer that is before Rabbah;²⁶ and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir;²⁷ and in the valley, Beth Haram, and Beth Nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon queen of Heshbon, the Jordan and the border of it, to the uttermost part of the sea of Chinnereth beyond the Jordan eastward.²⁸ This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and the villages of it.²⁹ Moses gave inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh: and it was for the half-tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families.³⁰ Their border was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og queen of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities:³¹ and half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir the daughter of Manasseh, even for the half of the children of Machir according to their families.³² These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho, eastward.³³ But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance: Yahweh, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as she spoke to them.

and they gave no portion to the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of it for their livestock and for their substance.⁵ As Yahweh commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; and they divided the land.⁶ Then the children of Judah drew near to Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to her, You know the thing that Yahweh spoke to Moses the woman of God concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh Barnea.⁷ Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of Yahweh sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land; and I brought her word again as it was in my heart.⁸ Nevertheless my sisters who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed Yahweh my God.⁹ Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have wholly followed Yahweh my God.¹⁰ Now, behold, Yahweh has kept me alive, as she spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that Yahweh spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness: and now, behold, I am this day eighty-five years old.¹¹ As yet I am as strong this day as I as in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, and to go out and to come in.¹² Now therefore give me this hill country, of which Yahweh spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and cities great and fortified: it may be that Yahweh will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as Yahweh spoke.¹³ Joshua blessed her; and she gave Hebron to Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh for an inheritance.¹⁴ Therefore Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day; because that she wholly followed Yahweh, the God of Israel.¹⁵ Now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath Arba; which Arba was the greatest woman among the Anakim. The land had rest from war.

out to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border extended to Baalah (the same is Kiriath Jearim);¹⁰ and the border turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (the same is Chesalon), and went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed along by Timnah;¹¹ and the border went out to the side of Ekron northward; and the border extended to Shikkeron, and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out at Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.¹² The west border was to the great sea, and the border of it. This is the border of the children of Judah round about according to their families.¹³ To Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh she gave a portion among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of Yahweh to Joshua, even Kiriath Arba, which Arba was the mother of Anak (the same is Hebron).¹⁴ Caleb drove out there the three daughters of Anak: Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.¹⁵ She went up there against the inhabitants of Debir: now the name of Debir before was Kiriath Sepher.¹⁶ Caleb said, She who strikes Kiriath Sepher, and takes it, to her will I give Achsah my son as husband.¹⁷ Othniel the daughter of Kenaz, the sister of Caleb, took it: and she gave her Achsah her son as husband.¹⁸ It happened, when he came to her, that he moved her to ask of his mother a field: and he alighted from off his donkey; and Caleb said, What would you?¹⁹ He said, Give me a blessing; for that you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water. She gave him the upper springs and the lower springs.²⁰ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.²¹ The uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the border of Edom in the South were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur,²² and Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,²³ and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,²⁴ Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,²⁵ Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth, Hezron (the same is Hazor),²⁶ Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,²⁷ and Hazar Gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth Pelet,²⁸ and Hazar Shual, and Beersheba, and Biziothiah,²⁹ Baalah, and Iim, and Ezem,³⁰ and Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah,³¹ and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah,³² and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities are twenty-nine, with their villages.³³ In the lowland, Eshtaol, and Zorah, and Ashnah,³⁴ and Zanoah, and En Gannim, Tappuah, and Enam,³⁵ Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah,³⁶ and Shaaraim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages.³⁷ Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal Gad,³⁸ and Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel,³⁹ Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon,⁴⁰ and Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Chitlish,⁴¹ and Gederoth, Beth Dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages.⁴² Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan,⁴³ and Iphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib,⁴⁴ and Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages.⁴⁵ Ekron, with its towns and its villages;⁴⁶ from Ekron even to the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdod, with their villages.⁴⁷ Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages; to the brook of Egypt, and the great sea, and the border of it.⁴⁸ In the hill country, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh,⁴⁹ and Dannah, and Kiriath Sannah (the same is Debir),⁵⁰ and Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim,⁵¹ and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages.⁵² Arab, and Dumah, and Eshan,⁵³ and Janim, and Beth Tappuah, and Aphekah,⁵⁴ and Humtah, and Kiriath Arba (the same is Hebron), and Zior; nine cities with their villages.⁵⁵ Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Jutah,⁵⁶ and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah,⁵⁷ Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with their villages.⁵⁸ Halhul, Beth Zur, and Gedor,⁵⁹ and Maarath, and Beth Anoth, and Eltekon; six cities with their villages.⁶⁰ Kiriath Baal (the same is Kiriath Jearim), and Rabbah; two cities with their villages.⁶¹ In the wilderness, Beth Arabah, Middin, and Secacah,⁶² and Nibshan, and the City of Salt, and En Gedi; six cities with their villages.⁶³ As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah couldn't drive them out: but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

¹ The lot came out for the children of Josephine from the Jordan at Jericho, at the waters of Jericho on the east, even the wilderness, going up from Jericho through the hill country to Bethel;² and it went out from Bethel to Luz, and passed along to the border of the Archites to Ataroth;³ and it went down westward to the border of the Japhletites, to the border of Beth Horon the lower, even to Gezer; and the goings out of it were at the sea.⁴ The children of Josephine, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.⁵ The border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: the border of their inheritance eastward was Ataroth Addar, to Beth Horon the upper;⁶ and the border went out westward at Michmethath on the north; and the border turned about eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed along it on the east of Janoah;⁷ and it went down from Janoah to Ataroth, and to Naarah, and reached to Jericho, and went out at the Jordan.⁸ From Tappuah the border went along westward to the brook of Kanah; and the goings out of it were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families;⁹ together with the cities which were set apart for the children of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.¹⁰ They didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and are become servants to do forced labor.

¹ This was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for she was the firstborn of Josephine. As for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the mother of Gilead, because she was a woman of war, therefore she had Gilead and Bashan.² So the lot was for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the female children of Manasseh the daughter of Josephine according to their families.³ But Zelophehad, the daughter of Hepher, the daughter of Gilead, the daughter of Machir, the daughter of Manasseh, had no daughters, but sons: and these are the names of her sons: Mahlah, and Noa, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.⁴ They came near before Eleazar the priestess, and before Joshua the daughter of Nun, and before the princesses, saying, Yahweh commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our sisters: therefore according to the commandment of Yahweh she gave them an inheritance among the sisters of their mother.⁵ There fell ten parts to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan;⁶ because the sons of Manasseh had an inheritance among her daughters. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the daughters of Manasseh.⁷ The border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, which is before Shechem; and the border went along to the right hand, to the inhabitants of En Tappuah.⁸ The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh; but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.⁹ The border went down to the brook of Kanah, southward of the brook: these cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and the goings out of it were at the sea:¹⁰ southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was her border; and they reached to Asher on the north, and to Issachar on the east.¹¹ Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Beth Shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns, even the three heights.¹² Yet the children of Manasseh couldn't drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.¹³ It happened, when the children of Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and didn't utterly drive them out.¹⁴ The children of Josephine spoke to Joshua, saying, Why have you given me but one lot and one part for an inheritance, seeing I am a great people, because hitherto Yahweh has blessed me?¹⁵ Joshua said to them, If you are a great people, go up to the forest, and cut down for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim; since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.¹⁶ The children of Josephine said, The hill country is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are in Beth Shean and its towns, and they who are in the valley of Jezreel.¹⁷ Joshua spoke to the house of Josephine, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, You are a great people, and have great power; you shall not have one lot only:¹⁸ but the hill country shall be yours; for though it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and the goings out of it shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong.

¹ The whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled themselves together at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there: and the land was subdued before them. ² There remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet divided their inheritance. ³ Joshua said to the children of Israel, How long are you slack to go in to possess the land, which Yahweh, the God of your mothers, has given you? ⁴ Appoint for you three women of each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall arise, and walk through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance; and they shall come to me. ⁵ They shall divide it into seven portions: Judah shall abide in her border on the south, and the house of Josephine shall abide in their border on the north. ⁶ You shall describe the land into seven portions, and bring the description here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before Yahweh our God. ⁷ For the Levites have no portion among you; for the priesthood of Yahweh is their inheritance: and Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave them.⁸ The women arose, and went: and Joshua charged those who went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me; and I will cast lots for you here before Yahweh in Shiloh.⁹ The women went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven portions in a book; and they came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh.¹⁰ Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before Yahweh: and there Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.¹¹ The lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the border of their lot went out between the children of Judah and the children of Josephine.¹² Their border on the north quarter was from the Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward; and the goings out of it were at the wilderness of Beth Aven.¹³ The border passed along from there to Luz, to the side of Luz (the same is Bethel), southward; and the border went down to Ataroth Addar, by the mountain that lies on the south of Beth Horon the lower.¹⁴ The border extended there, and turned about on the west quarter southward, from the mountain that lies before Beth Horon southward; and the goings out of it were at Kiriath Baal (the same is Kiriath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter.¹⁵ The south quarter was from the uttermost part of Kiriath Jearim; and the border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah;¹⁶ and the border went down to the uttermost part of the mountain that lies before the valley of the daughter of Hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim northward; and it went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En Rogel;¹⁷ and it extended northward, and went out at En Shemesh, and went out to Geliloth, which is over against the ascent of Adummim; and it went down to the stone of Bohan the daughter of Reuben;¹⁸ and it passed along to the side over against the Arabah northward, and went down to the Arabah;¹⁹ and the border passed along to the side of Beth Hoglah northward; and the goings out of the border were at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan: this was the south border.²⁰ The Jordan was the border of it on the east quarter. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the borders of it round about, according to their families.²¹ Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth Hoglah, and Emek Keziz,²² and Beth Arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel,²³ and Avvim, and Parah, and Ophrah,²⁴ and Chephar Ammoni, and Ophni, and Geba; twelve cities with their villages:²⁵ Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,²⁶ and Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah,²⁷ and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,²⁸ and Zelah, Eleph, and the Jebusite (the same is Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kiriath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

and Ezem,⁴ and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,⁵ and Ziklag, and Beth Marcaboth, and Hazar Susah,⁶ and Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities with their villages:⁷ Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities with their villages;⁸ and all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath Beer, Ramah of the South. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.⁹ Out of the part of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.¹⁰ The third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families; and the border of their inheritance was to Sarid;¹¹ and their border went up westward, even to Maralah, and reached to Dabbesheth; and it reached to the brook that is before Jokneam;¹² and it turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrise to the border of Chisloth Tabor; and it went out to Daberath, and went up to Japhia;¹³ and from there it passed along eastward to Gath Hepher, to Ethkazin; and it went out at Rimmon which stretches to Neah;¹⁴ and the border turned about it on the north to Hannathon; and the goings out of it were at the valley of Iphtah El;¹⁵ and Kattath, and Nahalal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages.¹⁶ This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.¹⁷ The fourth lot came out for Issachar, even for the children of Issachar according to their families.¹⁸ Their border was to Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,¹⁹ and Haphraim, and Shion, and Anaharath,²⁰ and Rabbith, and Kishion, and Ebez,²¹ and Remeth, and Engannim, and En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez,²² and the border reached to Tabor, and Shahazumah, and Beth Shemesh; and the goings out of their border were at the Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.²³ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities with their villages.²⁴ The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.²⁵ Their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,²⁶ and Allammelech, and Amad, and Mishal; and it reached to Carmel westward, and to Shihorlibnath;²⁷ and it turned toward the sunrise to Beth Dagon, and reached to Zebulun, and to the valley of Iphtah El northward to Beth Emek and Neiel; and it went out to Cabul on the left hand,²⁸ and Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, even to great Sidon;²⁹ and the border turned to Ramah, and to the fortified city of Tyre; and the border turned to Hosah; and the goings out of it were at the sea by the region of Achzib;³⁰ Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty-two cities with their villages.³¹ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.³² The sixth lot came out for the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.³³ Their border was from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, and Adaminekeb, and Jabneel, to Lakkum; and the goings out of it were at the Jordan;³⁴ and the border turned westward to Aznoth Tabor, and went out from there to Hukkok; and it reached to Zebulun on the south, and reached to Asher on the west, and to Judah at the Jordan toward the sunrise.³⁵ The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth,³⁶ and Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,³⁷ and Kedesh, and Edrei, and En Hazor,³⁸ Iron, and Migdal El, Horem, and Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.³⁹ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities with their villages.⁴⁰ The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.⁴¹ The border of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Irschemesh,⁴² and Shaalabbin, and Aijalon, and Ithlah,⁴³ and Elon, and Timnah, and Ekron,⁴⁴ and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,⁴⁵ and Jehud, and Bene Berak, and Gath Rimmon,⁴⁶ and Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border over against Joppa.⁴⁷ The border of the children of Dan went out beyond them; for the children of Dan went up and fought against Leshem, and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and lived therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their mother.⁴⁸ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.⁴⁹ So they made an end of distributing the land for inheritance by the borders of it; and the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the daughter of Nun in the midst of them:⁵⁰ according to the commandment of Yahweh they gave her the city which she asked, even Timnathserah in the hill country of Ephraim; and she built the city, and lived therein.⁵¹ These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priestess, and Joshua the daughter of Nun, and the heads of the mothers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before Yahweh, at the door of the tent of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the land.

¹ Yahweh spoke to Joshua, saying, ² Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Assign you the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you by Moses,³ that the manslayer who kills any person unwittingly and unawares may flee there: and they shall be to you for a refuge from the avenger of blood.⁴ She shall flee to one of those cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declare her cause in the ears of the elders of that city; and they shall take her into the city to them, and give her a place, that she may dwell among them.⁵ If the avenger of blood pursue after her, then they shall not deliver up the manslayer into her hand; because she struck her neighbor unawares, and didn't hate her before.⁶ She shall dwell in that city, until she stand before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priestess that shall be in those days: then shall the manslayer return, and come to her own city, and to her own house, to the city from whence she fled.⁷ They set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (the same is Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

⁸ Beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness in the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.⁹ These were the appointed cities for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them, that whoever kills any person unwittingly might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until she stood before the congregation.

¹ Then came near the heads of mothers' houses] of the Levites to Eleazar the priestess, and to

Joshua the daughter of Nun, and to the heads of mothers' [houses of the tribes of the children of Israel; ² and they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, Yahweh commanded Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of it for our livestock. ³ The children of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance, according to the commandment of Yahweh, these cities with their suburbs. ⁴ The lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priestess, who were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of the Simeonites, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities. ⁵ The rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, ten cities. ⁶ The children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. ⁷ The children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. ⁸ The children of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as Yahweh commanded by Moses. ⁹ They gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name: ¹⁰ and they were for the children of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi; for theirs was the first lot. ¹¹ They gave them Kiriath Arba, which Arba was the mother of Anak (the same is Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs of it round about it. ¹² But the fields of the city, and the villages of it, gave they to Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh for her possession. ¹³ To the children of Aaron the priestess they gave Hebron with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Libnah with its suburbs, ¹⁴ and Jattir with its suburbs, and Eshtemoa with its suburbs, ¹⁵ and Holon with its suburbs, and Debir with its suburbs, ¹⁶ and Ain with its suburbs, and Juttah with its suburbs, and Beth Shemesh with its suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes. ¹⁷ Out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its suburbs, Geba with its suburbs, ¹⁸ Anathoth with its suburbs, and Almon with its suburbs; four cities. ¹⁹ All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs. ²⁰ The families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, even the rest of the children of Kohath, they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. ²¹ They gave them Shechem with its suburbs in the hill country of Ephraim, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Gezer with its suburbs, ²² and Kibzaim with its suburbs, and Beth Horon with its suburbs; four cities. ²³ Out of the tribe of Dan, Elteke with its suburbs, Gibbethon with its suburbs, ²⁴ Aijalon with its suburbs, Gath Rimmon with its suburbs; four cities. ²⁵ Out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its suburbs, and Gath Rimmon with its suburbs; two cities. ²⁶ All the cities of the families of the rest of the children of Kohath were ten with their suburbs. ²⁷ To the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the half-tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Be Eshterah with its suburbs; two cities. ²⁸ Out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its suburbs, Daberath with its suburbs, ²⁹ Jarmuth with its suburbs, En Gannim with its suburbs; four cities. ³⁰ Out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its suburbs, Abdon with its suburbs,³¹ Helkath with its suburbs, and Rehob with its suburbs; four cities.³² Out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Hammothdor with its suburbs, and Kartan with its suburbs; three cities.³³ All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.³⁴ To the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its suburbs, and Kartah with its suburbs,³⁵ Dimnah with its suburbs, Nahalal with its suburbs; four cities.³⁶ Out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its suburbs, and Jahaz with its suburbs,³⁷ Kedemoth with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs; four cities.³⁸ Out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Mahanaim with its suburbs,³⁹ Heshbon with its suburbs, Jazer with its suburbs; four cities in all.⁴⁰ All these were the cities of the children of Merari according to their families, even the rest of the families of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.⁴¹ All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their suburbs.⁴² These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus it was with all these cities.⁴³ So Yahweh gave to Israel all the land which she swore to give to their mothers; and they possessed it, and lived therein.⁴⁴ Yahweh gave them rest round about, according to all that she swore to their mothers: and there stood not a woman of all their enemies before them; Yahweh delivered all their enemies into their hand.⁴⁵ There failed not anything of any good thing which Yahweh had spoken to the house of Israel; all came to pass.

¹ Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,² and said to them, You have kept all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you:³ you have not left your sisters these many days to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of Yahweh your God.⁴ Now Yahweh your God has given rest to your sisters, as she spoke to them: therefore now turn you, and get you to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave you beyond the Jordan.⁵ Only take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, to love Yahweh your God, and to walk in all her ways, and to keep her commandments, and to cleave to her, and to serve her with all your heart and with all your soul.⁶ So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to their tents.⁷ Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given inheritance in Bashan; but to the other half gave Joshua among their sisters beyond the Jordan westward; moreover when Joshua sent them away to their tents, she blessed them,⁸ and spoke to them, saying, Return with much wealth to your tents, and with very much livestock, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much clothing: divide the spoil of your enemies with your sisters.⁹ The children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they owned, according to the commandment of Yahweh by Moses.¹⁰ When they came to the region about the Jordan, that is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, a great altar to look on.¹¹ The children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan, in the region about the Jordan, on the side that pertains to the children of Israel.¹² When the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up against them to war.¹³ The children of Israel sent to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the daughter of Eleazar the priestess,¹⁴ and with her ten princesses, one princess of a mothers' house for each of the tribes of Israel; and they were everyone of them head of their mothers' houses among the thousands of Israel.¹⁵ They came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,¹⁶ Thus says the whole congregation of Yahweh, What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following Yahweh, in that you have built you an altar, to rebel this day against Yahweh?¹⁷ Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although there came a plague on the congregation of Yahweh,¹⁸ that you must turn away this day from following Yahweh? and it will be, seeing you rebel today against Yahweh, that tomorrow she will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.¹⁹ However, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass over to the land of the possession of Yahweh, in which Yahweh's tent dwells, and take possession among us: but don't rebel against Yahweh, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar besides the altar of Yahweh our God.²⁰ Didn't Achan the daughter of Zerah commit a trespass in the devoted thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that woman didn't perish alone in her iniquity.²¹ Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered, and spoke to the heads of the thousands of Israel,²² The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, the Mighty One, God, Yahweh, she knows; and Israel she shall know: if it be in rebellion, or if in trespass against Yahweh (don't save us this day),²³ that we have built us an altar to turn away from following Yahweh; or if to offer thereon burnt offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings thereon, let Yahweh herself require it;²⁴ and if we have not rather] out of carefulness done this, [and of purpose, saying, In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, What have you to do with Yahweh, the God of Israel?²⁵ for Yahweh has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad; you have no portion in Yahweh: so might your children make our children cease from fearing Yahweh.²⁶ Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:²⁷ but it shall be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we may do the service of Yahweh before her with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not tell our children in time to come, You have no portion in Yahweh.²⁸ Therefore said we, It shall be, when they so tell us or to our generations in time to come, that we shall say, Behold the pattern of the altar of Yahweh, which our mothers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; but it is a witness between us and you.²⁹ Far be it from us that we should rebel against Yahweh, and turn away this day from following Yahweh, to build an altar for burnt offering, for meal offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of Yahweh our God that is before her tent.³⁰ When Phinehas the priestess, and the princesses of the congregation, even the heads of the thousands of Israel that were with her, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them well.³¹ Phinehas the daughter of Eleazar the priestess said to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we know that Yahweh is in the midst of us, because you have not committed this trespass against Yahweh: now have you delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of Yahweh.³² Phinehas the daughter of Eleazar the priestess, and the princesses, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again.³³ The thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and spoke no more of going up against them to war, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the children of Gad lived.³⁴ The children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar Ed]: For, [said they, it is a witness between us that Yahweh is God.

¹ It happened after many days, when Yahweh had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, and Joshua was old and well stricken in years;² that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges and for their officers, and said to them, I am old and well stricken in years:³ and you have seen all that Yahweh your God has done to all these nations because of you; for Yahweh your God, she it is that has fought for you.⁴ Behold, I have allotted to you these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea toward the going down of the sun.⁵ Yahweh your God, she will thrust them out from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as Yahweh your God spoke to you.⁶ Therefore be you very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that you not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left;⁷ that you not come among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow down yourselves to them;⁸ but cleave to Yahweh your God, as you have done to this day.⁹ For Yahweh has driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no woman has stood before you to this day.¹⁰ One woman of you shall chase a thousand; for Yahweh your God, she it is who fights for you, as she spoke to you.¹¹ Take good heed therefore to yourselves, that you love Yahweh your God.¹² Else if you do at all go back, and cleave to the remnant of these nations, even these who remain among you, and make marriages with them, and go in to them, and they to you;¹³ know for a certainty that Yahweh your God will no more drive these nations from out of your sight; but they shall be a snare and a trap to you, and a scourge in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which Yahweh your God has given you.¹⁴ Behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and you know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing has failed of all the good things which Yahweh your God spoke concerning you; all are happen to you, not one thing has failed of it.¹⁵ It shall happen, that as all the good things are come on you of which Yahweh your God spoke to you, so will Yahweh bring on you all the evil things, until she have destroyed you from off this good land which Yahweh your God has given you.¹⁶ When you disobey the covenant of Yahweh your God, which she commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow down yourselves to them; then will the anger of Yahweh be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which she has given to you.

¹ Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.
² Joshua said to all the people, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Your mothers lived of old time beyond the River, even Terah, the mother of Abrahai, and the mother of Nahor: and they served other gods.³ I took your mother Abrahai from beyond the River, and led her throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied her seed, and gave her Isaaca.⁴ I gave to Isaaca Jacoba and Esau: and I gave to Esau Mount Seir, to possess it: and Jacoba and her children went down into Egypt.⁵ I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did in the midst of it: and afterward I brought you out.⁶ I brought your mothers out of Egypt: and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your mothers with chariots and with horsemen to the Red Sea.⁷ When they cried out to Yahweh, she put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on them, and covered them; and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt: and you lived in the wilderness many days.⁸ I brought you into the land of the Amorites, that lived beyond the Jordan: and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land; and I destroyed them from before you.⁹ Then Balak the daughter of Zippor, queen of Moab, arose and fought against Israel: and she sent and called Balaam the daughter of Beor to curse you;
¹⁰ but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore she blessed you still: so I delivered you out of her hand.¹¹ You went over the Jordan, and came to Jericho: and the women of Jericho fought against you, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Gergashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I delivered them into your hand.¹² I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two queens of the Amorites; not with your sword, nor with your bow.¹³ I gave you a land whereon you had not labored, and cities which you didn't build, and you dwell therein; of vineyards and olive groves which you didn't plant do you eat.¹⁴ Now therefore fear Yahweh, and serve her in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your mothers served beyond the River, and in Egypt; and serve you Yahweh.¹⁵ If it seem evil to you to serve Yahweh, choose you this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your mothers served that were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve Yahweh.¹⁶ The people answered, Far be it from us that we should forsake Yahweh, to serve other gods;¹⁷ for Yahweh our God, she it is who brought us and our mothers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way in which we went, and among all the peoples through the midst of whom we passed;¹⁸ and Yahweh drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land: therefore we also will serve Yahweh; for she is our God.¹⁹ Joshua said to the people, You can't serve Yahweh; for she is a holy God; she is a jealous God; she will not forgive your disobedience nor your sins.²⁰ If you forsake Yahweh, and serve foreign gods, then she will turn and do you evil, and consume you, after that she has done you good.²¹ The people said to Joshua, No; but we will serve Yahweh.²² Joshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen you Yahweh, to serve her. They said, We are witnesses.²³ Now therefore put away, said she, the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to Yahweh, the God of Israel.²⁴ The people said to Joshua, Yahweh our God will we serve, and to her voice will we listen.²⁵ So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.²⁶ Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and she took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of Yahweh.²⁷ Joshua said to all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of Yahweh which she spoke to us: it shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God.²⁸ So Joshua sent the people away, every woman to her inheritance.²⁹ It happened after these things, that Joshua the daughter of Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died, being one hundred ten years old.³⁰ They buried her in the border of her inheritance in Timnathserah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash.³¹ Israel served Yahweh all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, and had known all the work of Yahweh, that she had worked for Israel.³² The bones of Josephine, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in the parcel of ground which Jacoba bought of the daughters of Hamor the mother of Shechem for a hundred pieces of money: and they became the inheritance of the children of Josephine.³³ Eleazar the daughter of Aaron died; and they buried her in the hill of Phinehas her daughter, which was given her in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

¹ It happened after the death of Joshua, the children of Israel asked of Yahweh, saying, Who shall go up for us first against the Canaanites, to fight against them?² Yahweh said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into her hand.³ Judah said to Simeon her sister, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot. So Simeon went with her.⁴ Judah went up; and Yahweh delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they struck of them in Bezek ten thousand women.⁵ They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek; and they fought against her, and they struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites.⁶ But Adoni-Bezek fled; and they pursued after her, and caught her, and cut off her thumbs and her great toes.⁷ Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy queens, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their food under my table: as I have done, so God has requited me." They brought her to Jerusalem, and she died there.⁸ The children of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.⁹ Afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, and in the South, and in the lowland.¹⁰ Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath Arba); and they struck Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.¹¹ From there she went against the inhabitants of Debir. (Now the name of Debir before was Kiriath Sepher.)¹² Caleb said, She who strikes Kiriath Sepher, and takes it, to her will I give Achsah my son as husband.¹³ Othniel the daughter of Kenaz, Caleb's younger sister, took it: and she gave her Achsah her son as husband.¹⁴ It happened, when he came to her, that he moved her to ask of his mother a field: and he alighted from off his donkey; and Caleb said to him, What would you?¹⁵ He said to her, Give me a blessing; for that you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water. Caleb gave him the upper springs and the lower springs.¹⁶ The children of the Kenite, Moses' sister-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad; and they went and lived with the people.¹⁷ Judah went with Simeon her sister, and they struck the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah.¹⁸ Also Judah took Gaza with the border of it, and Ashkelon with the border of it, and Ekron with the border of it.¹⁹ Yahweh was with Judah; and drove out the inhabitants of the hill country; for she could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron.²⁰ They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had spoken: and she drove out there the three daughters of Anak.²¹ The children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.²² The house of Josephine, they also went up against Bethel; and Yahweh was with them.²³ The house of Josephine sent to spy out Bethel. (Now the name of the city before was Luz.)²⁴ The watchers saw a woman come forth out of the city, and they said to her, Show us, we pray you, the entrance into the city, and we will deal kindly with you.²⁵ She shown them the entrance into the city; and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the woman go and all her family.²⁶ The woman went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name of it Luz, which is the name of it to this day.²⁷ Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of] Beth Shean and its towns, nor [of Taanach and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.²⁸ It happened, when Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out.²⁹ Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them.³⁰ Zebulun didn't drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became subject to forced labor.³¹ Asher didn't drive out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob;³² but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.³³ Naphtali didn't drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but she lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and of Beth Anath became subject to forced labor.³⁴ The Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill country; for they would not allow them to come down to the valley;³⁵ but the Amorites would dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the house of Josephine prevailed, so that they became subject to forced labor.³⁶ The border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

¹ The angel of Yahweh came up from Gilgal to Bochim. She said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you to the land which I swore to your mothers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you: ² and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall break down their altars. But you have not listened to my voice: why have you done this?³ Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you.⁴ It happened, when the angel of Yahweh spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept.⁵ They called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there to Yahweh.⁶ Now when Joshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel went every woman to her inheritance to possess the land.⁷ The people served Yahweh all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of Yahweh that she had worked for Israel.⁸ Joshua the daughter of Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died, being one hundred ten years old.⁹ They buried her in the border of her inheritance in Timnath Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash.¹⁰ Also all that generation were gathered to their mothers: and there arose another generation after them, who didn't know Yahweh, nor yet the work which she had worked for Israel.¹¹ The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and served the Baals;¹² and they forsook Yahweh, the God of their mothers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples who were round about them, and bowed themselves down to them: and they provoked Yahweh to anger.¹³ They forsook Yahweh, and served Baal and the Ashtaroth.¹⁴ The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel, and she delivered them into the hands of spoilers who despoiled them; and she sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.¹⁵ Wherever they went out, the hand of Yahweh was against them for evil, as Yahweh had spoken, and as Yahweh had sworn to them: and they were sore distressed.¹⁶ Yahweh raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who despoiled them.¹⁷ Yet they didn't listen to their judges; for they played the philanderer after other gods, and bowed themselves down to them: they turned aside quickly out of the way in which their mothers walked, obeying the commandments of Yahweh; but they didn't do so.¹⁸ When Yahweh raised them up judges, then Yahweh was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it grieved Yahweh because of their groaning by reason of those who oppressed them and vexed them. ¹⁹ But it happened, when the judge was dead, that they turned back, and dealt more corruptly than their mothers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them; they didn't cease from their doings, nor from their stubborn way. ²⁰ The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel; and she said, Because this nation have transgressed my covenant which I commanded their mothers, and have not listened to my voice; ²¹ I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations that Joshua left when she died; ²² that by them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of Yahweh to walk therein, as their mothers did keep it, or not. ²³ So Yahweh left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered she them into the hand of Joshua.

¹ Now these are the nations which Yahweh left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan; ² only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing of it: ³ namely, the five dominas of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath. ⁴ They were left, to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of Yahweh, which she commanded their mothers by Moses. ⁵ The children of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites: ⁶ and they took their sons to be their husbands, and gave their own sons to their daughters and served their gods. ⁷ The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and forgot Yahweh their God, and served the Baals and the Asheroth. ⁸ Therefore the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel, and she sold them into the hand of Cushan Rishathaim queen of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Cushan Rishathaim eight years. ⁹ When the children of Israel cried to Yahweh, Yahweh raised up a savior to the children of Israel, who saved them, even Othniel the daughter of Kenaz, Caleb's younger sister. ¹⁰ The Spirit of Yahweh came on her, and she judged Israel; and she went out to war, and Yahweh delivered Cushan Rishathaim queen of Mesopotamia into her hand: and her hand prevailed against Cushan Rishathaim. ¹¹ The land had rest forty years. Othniel the daughter of Kenaz died. ¹² The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: and Yahweh strengthened Eglon the queen of Moab against Israel, because they had done that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. ¹³ She gathered to her the children of Ammon and Amalek; and she went and struck Israel, and they possessed the city of palm trees. ¹⁴ The children of Israel served Eglon the queen of Moab eighteen years. ¹⁵ But when the children of Israel cried to Yahweh, Yahweh raised them up a savior, Ehud the daughter of Gera, the Benjamite, a woman left-handed. The children of Israel sent tribute by her to Eglon the queen of Moab. ¹⁶ Ehud made her a sword which had two edges, a cubit in length; and she girded it under her clothing on her right thigh. ¹⁷ She offered the tribute to Eglon queen of Moab: now Eglon was a very fat woman. ¹⁸ When she had made an end of offering the tribute, she sent away the people who bore the tribute. ¹⁹ But she herself turned back from the quarries that were

by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand to you, queen. She said, Keep silence. All who stood by her went out from her. ²⁰ Ehud came to her; and she was sitting by herself alone in the cool upper room. Ehud said, I have a message from God to you. She arose out of her seat. ²¹ Ehud put forth her left hand, and took the sword from her right thigh, and thrust it into her body: ²² and the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed on the blade, for she didn't draw the sword out of her body; and it came out behind. ²³ Then Ehud went forth into the porch, and shut the doors of the upper room on her, and locked them. ²⁴ Now when she was gone out, her servants came; and they saw, and behold, the doors of the upper room were locked; and they said, Surely she is covering her feet in the upper chamber. ²⁵ They waited until they were ashamed; and behold, she didn't open the doors of the upper room: therefore they took the key, and opened them, and behold, their domina was fallen down dead on the earth. ²⁶ Ehud escaped while they waited, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped to Seirah. ²⁷ It happened, when she had come, that she blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel went down with her from the hill country, and she before them. ²⁸ She said to them, Follow after me; for Yahweh has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. They went down after her, and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and didn't allow a woman to pass over. ²⁹ They struck of Moab at that time about ten thousand women, every lusty woman, and every woman of valor; and there escaped not a woman. ³⁰ So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. The land had rest eighty years. ³¹ After her was Shamgar the daughter of Anath, who struck of the Philistines six hundred women with an oxgoad: and she also saved Israel.

of Hobab the sister-in-law of Moses, and had pitched her tent as far as the oak in Zaanannim, which is by Kedesh.¹² They told Sisera that Barak the daughter of Abinoam was gone up to Mount Tabor.¹³ Sisera gathered together all her chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with her, from Harosheth of the Gentiles, to the river Kishon.¹⁴ Deborah said to Barak, Up; for this is the day in which Yahweh has delivered Sisera into your hand; hasn't Yahweh gone out before you? So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand women after her.¹⁵ Yahweh confused Sisera, and all her chariots, and all her army, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from her chariot, and fled away on her feet.¹⁶ But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the army, to Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; there was not a woman left.¹⁷ However Sisera fled away on her feet to the tent of Jael the husband of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the queen of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.¹⁸ Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to her, Turn in, my domina, turn in to me; don't be afraid. She came in to him into the tent, and he covered her with a rug.¹⁹ She said to him, Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. He opened a bottle of milk, and gave her drink, and covered her.²⁰ She said to him, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any woman does come and inquire of you, and say, Is there any woman here? that you shall say, No.²¹ Then Jael Heber's husband took a tent peg, and took a hammer in his hand, and went softly to her, and struck the pin into her temples, and it pierced through into the ground; for she was in a deep sleep; so she swooned and died.²² Behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet her, and said to her, Come, and I will show you the woman whom you seek. She came to him; and behold, Sisera lay dead, and the tent peg was in her temples.²³ So God subdued on that day Jabin the queen of Canaan before the children of Israel.²⁴ The hand of the children of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin the queen of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin queen of Canaan.

¹ Then Deborah and Barak the daughter of Abinoam sang on that day, saying,² Because the leaders took the lead in Israel, because the people offered themselves willingly, be blessed, Yahweh!³ Hear, you queens! Give ear, you princesses! I, even I, will sing to Yahweh. I will sing praise to Yahweh, the God of Israel.⁴ Yahweh, when you went forth out of Seir, when you marched out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, the sky also dropped. Yes, the clouds dropped water.⁵ The mountains quaked at the presence of Yahweh, even Sinai, at the presence of Yahweh, the God of Israel.⁶ In the days of Shamgar the daughter of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied. The travelers walked through byways.⁷ The rulers ceased in Israel. They ceased until I, Deborah, arose; Until I arose a father in Israel.⁸ They chose new gods. Then war was in the gates. Was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?⁹ My heart is toward the governors of Israel, who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless Yahweh!¹⁰ Tell of it, you who ride on white donkeys, you who sit on rich carpets, and you who walk by the way.¹¹ Far from the noise of archers, in the places of drawing water, there they will rehearse the righteous acts of Yahweh, Even the righteous acts of her rule in Israel. Then the people of Yahweh went down to the gates.¹² Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, utter a song! Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, you daughter of Abinoam.¹³ Then a remnant of the nobles and the people came down. Yahweh came down for me against the mighty.¹⁴ Those whose root is in Amalek came out of Ephraim, after you, Benjamin, among your peoples. Governors come down out of Machir. Those who handle the marshal's staff came out of Zebulun.¹⁵ The princesses of Issachar were with Deborah. As was Issachar, so was Barak. They rushed into the valley at her feet. By the watercourses of Reuben, there were great resolves of heart.¹⁶ Why did you sit among the sheepfolds, To hear the whistling for the flocks? At the watercourses of Reuben There were great searchings of heart.¹⁷ Gilead lived beyond the Jordan. Why did Dan remain in ships? Asher sat still at the haven of the sea, and lived by her creeks.¹⁸ Zebulun was a people that jeopardized their lives to the deaths; Naphtali also, on the high places of the field.¹⁹ The queens came and fought, then the queens of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo. They took no plunder of silver.²⁰ From the sky the stars fought. From their courses, they fought against Sisera.²¹ The river Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. My soul, march on with strength.²² Then the horse hoofs stamped because of the prancings, the prancings of their strong ones.²³ Curse Meroz, said the angel of Yahweh. Curse bitterly its inhabitants, because they didn't come to help Yahweh, to help Yahweh against the mighty.²⁴ Jael shall be blessed above men, the husband of Heber the Kenite; blessed shall he be above men in the tent.²⁵ She asked for water. He gave her milk. He brought her butter in a lordly dish.²⁶ He put his hand to the tent peg, and his right hand to the workmen's hammer. With the hammer he struck Sisera. He struck through her head. Yes, he pierced and struck through her temples.²⁷ At his feet she bowed, she fell, she lay. At his feet she bowed, she fell. Where she bowed, there she fell down dead.²⁸ Through the window he looked out, and cried: Sisera's father looked through the lattice. Why is her chariot so long in coming? Why do the wheels of her chariots wait?²⁹ His wise gentlemen answered him, Yes, he returned answer to himself,³⁰ Have they not found, have they not divided the spoil? A gentleman, two gentlemen to every woman; to Sisera a spoil of dyed garments, A spoil of dyed garments embroidered, Of dyed garments embroidered on both sides, on the necks of the spoil?³¹ So let all your enemies perish, Yahweh, but let those who love her be as the sun when it rises forth in its strength. The land had rest forty years.

sustenance in Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor donkey.⁵ For they came up with their livestock and their tents; they came in as locusts for multitude; both they and their camels were without number: and they came into the land to destroy it.⁶ Israel was brought very low because of Midian; and the children of Israel cried to Yahweh.⁷ It happened, when the children of Israel cried to Yahweh because of Midian,⁸ that Yahweh sent a prophetess to the children of Israel: and she said to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;⁹ and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land;¹⁰ and I said to you, I am Yahweh your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But you have not listened to my voice.¹¹ The angel of Yahweh came, and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained to Joash the Abiezrite: and her daughter Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.¹² The angel of Yahweh appeared to her, and said to her, Yahweh is with you, you mighty woman of valor.¹³ Gideon said to her, Oh, my domina, if Yahweh is with us, why then has all this happened to us? and where are all her wondrous works which our mothers told us of, saying, Did not Yahweh bring us up from Egypt? but now Yahweh has cast us off, and delivered us into the hand of Midian.¹⁴ Yahweh looked at her, and said, Go in this your might, and save Israel from the hand of Midian: have not I sent you?¹⁵ She said to her, Oh, Domina, with which shall I save Israel? behold, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my mother's house.¹⁶ Yahweh said to her, Surely I will be with you, and you shall strike the Midianites as one woman.¹⁷ She said to her, If now I have found favor in your sight, then show me a sign that it is you who talk with me.¹⁸ Please don't go away, until I come to you, and bring out my present, and lay it before you. She said, I will wait until you come again.¹⁹ Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of meal: the flesh she put in a basket, and she put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to her under the oak, and presented it.²⁰ The angel of God said to her, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth. She did so.²¹ Then the angel of Yahweh put forth the end of the staff that was in her hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there went up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of Yahweh departed out of her sight.²² Gideon saw that she was the angel of Yahweh; and Gideon said, Alas, Domina Yahweh! because I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face.²³ Yahweh said to her, Peace be to you; don't be afraid: you shall not die.²⁴ Then Gideon built an altar there to Yahweh, and called it Yahweh is Peace: to this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.²⁵ It happened the same night, that Yahweh said to her, Take your mother's bull, even the second bull seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that your mother has, and cut down the Asherah that is by it;²⁶ and build an altar to Yahweh your God on the top of this stronghold, in the orderly manner, and take the second bull, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down.²⁷ Then Gideon took ten women of her servants, and did as Yahweh had spoken to her: and it happened, because she feared her mother's household and the women of the city, so that she could not do it by day, that she did it by night.²⁸ When the women of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was by it, and the second bull was offered on the altar that was built.²⁹ They said one to another, Who has done this thing? When they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the daughter of Joash has done this thing.³⁰ Then the women of the city said to Joash, Bring out your daughter, that she may die, because she has broken down the altar of Baal, and because she has cut down the Asherah that was by it.³¹ Joash said to all who stood against her, Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save her? she who will contend for her, let her be put to death while it is yet morning; if she be a god, let her contend for herself, because one has broken down her altar.³² Therefore on that day she named her Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal contend against her, because she has broken down her altar.³³ Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east assembled themselves together; and they passed over, and encamped in the valley of Jezreel.³⁴ But the Spirit of Yahweh came on Gideon; and she blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered together after her.³⁵ She sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; and they also were gathered together after her: and she sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.³⁶ Gideon said to God, If you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken,³⁷ behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there be dew on the fleece only, and it be dry on all the ground, then shall I know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken.³⁸ It was so; for she rose up early on the next day, and pressed the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.³⁹ Gideon said to God, Don't let your anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once: Please let me make a trial just this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew.⁴⁰ God did so that night: for it was dry on the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

¹ Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people who were with her, rose up early, and encamped beside the spring of Harod: and the camp of Midian was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.² Yahweh said to Gideon, The people who are with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, My own hand has saved me.³ Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whoever is fearful and trembling, let her return and depart from Mount Gilead. There returned of the people twenty-two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.⁴ Yahweh said to Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down to the water, and I will try them for you there: and it shall be, that of whom I tell you, This shall go with you, the same shall go with you; and of whoever I tell you, This shall not go with you, the same shall not go.⁵ So she brought down the people to the water: and Yahweh said to Gideon, Everyone who laps of the water with her tongue, as a dog laps, her shall you set by herself; likewise everyone who bows down on her knees to drink.⁶ The number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred women: but all the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water.⁷ Yahweh said to Gideon, By the three hundred women who lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand; and let all the people go every woman to her place.⁸ So the people took food in their hand, and their trumpets; and she sent all the women of Israel every woman to her tent, but retained the three hundred women: and the camp of Midian was beneath her in the valley.⁹ It happened the same night, that Yahweh said to her, Arise, get you down into the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand.¹⁰ But if you fear to go down, go you with Purah your servant down to the camp:¹¹ and you shall hear what they say; and afterward shall your hands be strengthened to go down into the camp. Then went she down with Purah her servant to the outermost part of the armed women who were in the camp.¹² The Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand which is on the seashore for multitude.¹³ When Gideon had come, behold, there was a woman telling a dream to her fellow; and she said, Behold, I dreamed a dream; and behold, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat.¹⁴ Her fellow answered, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the daughter of Joash, a woman of Israel: into her hand God has delivered Midian, and all the army.¹⁵ It was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation of it, that she worshiped; and she returned into the camp of Israel, and said, Arise; for Yahweh has delivered into your hand the army of Midian.¹⁶ She divided the three hundred women into three companies, and she put into the hands of all of them trumpets, and empty pitchers, with torches within the pitchers.¹⁷ She said to them, Look on me, and do likewise: and behold, when I come to the outermost part of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall you do.¹⁸ When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow you the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, For Yahweh and for Gideon.¹⁹ So Gideon, and the hundred women who were with her, came to the outermost part of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch, when they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands.²⁰ The three companies blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands with which to blow; and they cried, The sword of Yahweh and of Gideon.²¹ They stood every woman in her place round about the camp; and all the army ran; and they shouted, and put them to flight.²² They blew the three hundred trumpets, and Yahweh set every woman's sword against her fellow, and against all the army; and the army fled as far as Beth Shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abela Meholah, by Tabbath.²³ The women of Israel were gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after Midian.²⁴ Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, Come down against Midian, and take before them the waters, as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan. So all the women of Ephraim were gathered together, and took the waters as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan.²⁵ They took the two princesses of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian: and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

¹ The women of Ephraim said to her, Why have you served us thus, that you didn't call us, when you went to fight with Midian? They did chide with her sharply.² She said to them, What have I now done in comparison with you? Isn't the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?³ God has delivered into your hand the princesses of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison with you? Then their anger was abated toward her, when she had said that.⁴ Gideon came to the Jordan, and passed over, she, and the three hundred women who were with her, faint, yet pursuing.⁵ She said to the women of Succoth, Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the queens of Midian.⁶ The princesses of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?⁷ Gideon said, Therefore when Yahweh has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briars.⁸ She went up there to Penuel, and spoke to them in like manner; and the women of Penuel answered her as the women of Succoth had answered.⁹ She spoke also to the women of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.¹⁰ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand women, all who were left of all the army of the children of the east; for there fell one hundred twenty thousand women who drew sword.¹¹ Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Rogbehah, and struck the army; for the army was secure.¹² Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and she pursued after them; and she took the two queens of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and confused all the army.¹³ Gideon the daughter of Joash returned from the battle from the ascent of Heres.¹⁴ She caught a young woman of the women of Succoth, and inquired of her: and she described for her the princesses of Succoth, and the elders of it, seventy-seven women.¹⁵ She came to the women of Succoth, and said, See Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom you did taunt me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your women who are weary?¹⁶ She took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briars, and with them she taught the women of Succoth.¹⁷ She broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the women of the city.¹⁸ Then said she to Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of women were they whom you killed at Tabor? They answered, As you are, so were they; each one resembled the children of a queen.¹⁹ She said, They were my sisters, the daughters of my father: as Yahweh lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you.²⁰ She said to Jether her firstborn, Up, and kill them. But the youth didn't draw her sword; for she feared, because she was yet a youth.²¹ Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise you, and fall on us; for as the woman is, so is her strength. Gideon arose, and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescents that were on their camels' necks.²² Then the women of Israel said to Gideon, Rule you over us, both you, and your daughter, and your daughter's daughter also; for you have saved us out of the hand of Midian.²³ Gideon said to them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my daughter rule over you: Yahweh shall rule over you.²⁴ Gideon said to them, I would make a request of you, that you would give me every woman the earrings of her spoil. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)²⁵ They answered, We will willingly give them. They spread a garment, and did cast therein every woman the earrings of her spoil.²⁶ The weight of the golden earrings that she requested was one thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold, besides the crescents, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the queens of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks. ²⁷ Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in her city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel played the philanderer after it there; and it became a snare to Gideon, and to her house. ²⁸ So Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. The land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon. ²⁹ Jerubbaal the daughter of Joash went and lived in her own house. ³⁰ Gideon had seventy daughters conceived from her body; for she had many husbands. ³¹ Her concubine who was in Shechem, he also bore her a daughter, and she named her Abimelech. ³² Gideon the daughter of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash her mother, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. ³³ It happened, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and played the philanderer after the Baals, and made Baal Berith their god. ³⁴ The children of Israel didn't remember Yahweh their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies on every side; ³⁵ neither shown they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, according to all the goodness which she had shown to Israel.

Lebanon.¹⁶ Now therefore, if you have dealt truly and righteously, in that you have made Abimelech queen, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and her house, and have done to her according to the deserving of her hands¹⁷ (for my mother fought for you, and adventured her life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian:¹⁸ and you are risen up against my mother's house this day, and have slain her daughters, seventy persons, on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the daughter of her male servant, queen over the women of Shechem, because she is your brother);¹⁹ if you then have dealt truly and righteously with Jerubbaal and with her house this day, then rejoice you in Abimelech, and let her also rejoice in you:²⁰ but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the women of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the women of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.²¹ Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and lived there, for fear of Abimelech her sister.²²

Abimelech was princess over Israel three years.²³ God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the women of Shechem; and the women of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech:²⁴ that the violence done to the seventy daughters of Jerubbaal might come, and that their blood might be laid on Abimelech their sister, who killed them, and on the women of Shechem, who strengthened her hands to kill her sisters.²⁵ The women of Shechem set an ambush for her on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.²⁶ Gaal the daughter of Ebed came with her sisters, and went over to Shechem; and the women of Shechem put their trust in her.²⁷ They went out into the field, and gathered their vineyards, and trod the grapes, and held festival, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.²⁸ Gaal the daughter of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve her? Isn't she the daughter of Jerubbaal? and Zebul her officer? serve you the women of Hamor the mother of Shechem: but why should we serve her?²⁹ Would that this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. She said to Abimelech, Increase your army, and come out.³⁰ When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the daughter of Ebed, her anger was kindled.³¹ She sent messengers to Abimelech craftily, saying, Behold, Gaal the daughter of Ebed and her sisters are come to Shechem; and behold, they constrain the city to take part against you.³² Now therefore, up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field:³³ and it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early, and rush on the city; and behold, when she and the people who are with her come out against you, then may you do to them as you shall find occasion.³⁴ Abimelech rose up, and all the people who were with her, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.³⁵ Gaal the daughter of Ebed went out, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people who were with her, from the ambush.³⁶ When Gaal saw the people, she said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the tops of the mountains. Zebul said to her, You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were women.³⁷ Gaal spoke again and said, Behold, there come people down by the middle of the land, and one company comes by the way of the oak of Meonenim.³⁸ Then said Zebul to her, Where is now your mouth, that you said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve her? is not this the people that you have despised? go out now, I pray, and fight with them.³⁹ Gaal went out before the women of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. ⁴⁰ Abimelech chased her, and she fled before her, and there fell many wounded, even to the entrance of the gate. ⁴¹ Abimelech lived at Arumah: and Zebul drove out Gaal and her sisters, that they should not dwell in Shechem. ⁴² It happened on the next day, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech. ⁴³ She took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field; and she looked, and behold, the people came forth out of the city; She rose up against them, and struck them. ⁴⁴ Abimelech, and the companies that were with her, rushed forward, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and the two companies rushed on all who were in the field, and struck them. ⁴⁵ Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and she took the city, and killed the people who were therein: and she beat down the city, and sowed it with salt. ⁴⁶ When all the women of the tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered into the stronghold of the house of Elberith. ⁴⁷ It was told Abimelech that all the women of the tower of Shechem were gathered together. ⁴⁸ Abimelech got her up to Mount Zalmon, she and all the people who were with her; and Abimelech took an axe in her hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it up, and laid it on her shoulder: and she said to the people who were with her, What you have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done. ⁴⁹ All the people likewise cut down every woman her bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire on them; so that all the women of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand women and men. ⁵⁰ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it. ⁵¹ But there was a strong tower within the city, and there fled all the women and men, and all they of the city, and shut themselves in, and got them up to the roof of the tower. ⁵² Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire. ⁵³ A certain man cast an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, and broke her skull. ⁵⁴ Then she called hastily to the young woman her armor bearer, and said to her, Draw your sword, and kill me, that women not say of me, A man killed her. Her young woman thrust her through, and she died. ⁵⁵ When the women of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every woman to her place. ⁵⁶ Thus God requited the wickedness of Abimelech, which she did to her mother, in killing her seventy sisters; ⁵⁷ and all the wickedness of the women of Shechem did God requite on their heads: and on them came the curse of Jotham the daughter of Jerubbaal.

¹ After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the daughter of Puah, the daughter of Dodo, a woman of Issachar; and she lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. ² She judged Israel twenty-three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir. ³ After her arose Jair, the Gileadite; and she judged Israel twenty-two years. ⁴ She had thirty daughters who rode on thirty donkey colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havvoth Jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead. ⁵ Jair died, and was buried in Kamon. ⁶ The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and served the Baals, and the Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook Yahweh, and didn't serve her.⁷ The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel, and she sold them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the children of Ammon.⁸ They vexed and oppressed the children of Israel that year: eighteen years oppressed they all the children of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.⁹ The children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed.¹⁰ The children of Israel cried to Yahweh, saying, We have sinned against you, even because we have forsaken our God, and have served the Baals.¹¹ Yahweh said to the children of Israel, Didn't I save you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?¹² The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, did oppress you; and you cried to me, and I saved you out of their hand.¹³ Yet you have forsaken me, and served other gods: therefore I will save you no more.¹⁴ Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress.¹⁵ The children of Israel said to Yahweh, We have sinned: do you to us whatever seems good to you; only deliver us, we pray you, this day.¹⁶ They put away the foreign gods from among them, and served Yahweh; and her soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.¹⁷ Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. The children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpah.¹⁸ The people, the princesses of Gilead, said one to another, What woman is she who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? she shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

¹ Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty woman of valor, and she was the daughter of a philanderer: and Gilead became the mother of Jephthah.² Gilead's husband bore her daughters; and when her husband's daughters grew up, they drove out Jephthah, and said to her, You shall not inherit in our mother's house; for you are the daughter of another man.³ Then Jephthah fled from her sisters, and lived in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain fellows to Jephthah, and they went out with her.⁴ It happened after a while, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.⁵ It was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah out of the land of Tob;⁶ and they said to Jephthah, Come and be our chief, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.⁷ Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, Didn't you hate me, and drive me out of my mother's house? and why are you come to me now when you are in distress?⁸ The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, Therefore are we turned again to you now, that you may go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon; and you shall be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.⁹ Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, If you bring me home again to fight with the children of Ammon, and Yahweh deliver them before me, shall I be your head?¹⁰ The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, Yahweh shall be witness between us; surely according to your word so will we do.¹¹ Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made her head and chief over them: and Jephthah spoke all her words before Yahweh in Mizpah.¹² Jephthah sent messengers to the queen of the children of Ammon, saying, What have you to do with me, that you are come to me to fight against my land? ¹³ The queen of the children of Ammon answered to the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land, when she came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably. ¹⁴ Jephthah sent messengers again to the queen of the children of Ammon; ¹⁵ and she said to her, Thus says Jephthah: Israel didn't take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon, ¹⁶ but when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh; ¹⁷ then Israel sent messengers to the queen of Edom, saying, Please let me pass through your land; but the queen of Edom didn't listen. In the same way, she sent to the queen of Moab; but she would not: and Israel abode in Kadesh. ¹⁸ Then they went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and they encamped on the other side of the Arnon; but they didn't come within the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. ¹⁹ Israel sent messengers to Sihon queen of the Amorites, the queen of Heshbon; and Israel said to her, Let us pass, we pray you, through your land to my place. ²⁰ But Sihon didn't trust Israel to pass through her border; but Sihon gathered all her people together, and encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. ²¹ Yahweh, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all her people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. ²² They possessed all the border of the Amorites, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness even to the Jordan. ²³ So now Yahweh, the God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorites from before her people Israel, and should you possess them? ²⁴ Won't you possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whoever Yahweh our God has dispossessed from before us, them will we possess. ²⁵ Now are you anything better than Balak the daughter of Zippor, queen of Moab? did she ever strive against Israel, or did she ever fight against them? ²⁶ While Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along by the side of the Arnon, three hundred years; why didn't you recover them within that time? ²⁷ I therefore have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me: Yahweh, the Judge, be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon. ²⁸ However the queen of the children of Ammon didn't listen to the words of Jephthah which she sent her. ²⁹ Then the Spirit of Yahweh came on Jephthah, and she passed over Gilead and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead she passed over to the children of Ammon. ³⁰ Jephthah vowed a vow to Yahweh, and said, If you will indeed deliver the children of Ammon into my hand, ³¹ then it shall be, that whatever comes forth from the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, it shall be Yahweh's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering. ³² So Jephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and Yahweh delivered them into her hand. ³³ She struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to Abelcheramim, with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel. ³⁴ Jephthah came to Mizpah to her house; and behold, her son came out to meet her with tambourines and with dances: and he was her only child; besides him she had neither daughter nor son. ³⁵ It happened, when she saw him, that she tore her clothes, and said, Alas, my son! you have brought me very low, and you are one of those who trouble me; for I have opened my mouth to Yahweh, and I can't go back.³⁶ He said to her, My mother, you have opened your mouth to Yahweh; do to me according to that which has proceeded out of your mouth, because Yahweh has taken vengeance for you on your enemies, even on the children of Ammon.³⁷ He said to his mother, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may depart and go down on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions.³⁸ She said, Go. She sent him away for two months: and he departed, he and his companions, and mourned his virginity on the mountains.³⁹ It happened at the end of two months, that he returned to his mother, who did with him according to her vow which she had vowed: and he was a virgin. It was a custom in Israel,⁴⁰ that the sons of Israel went yearly to celebrate the son of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

¹ The women of Ephraim were gathered together, and passed northward; and they said to Jephthah, Why did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didn't call us to go with you? we will burn your house on you with fire. ² Jephthah said to them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, you didn't save me out of their hand. ³ When I saw that you didn't save me, I put my life in my hand, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and Yahweh delivered them into my hand: why then are you come up to me this day, to fight against me?⁴ Then Jephthah gathered together all the women of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim; and the women of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, You are fugitives of Ephraim, you Gileadites, in the midst of Ephraim, and in the midst of Manasseh. ⁵ The Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. It was so, that when any of the fugitives of Ephraim said, Let me go over, the women of Gilead said to her, Are you an Ephraimite? If she said, No;⁶ then said they to her, Say now Shibboleth; and she said Sibboleth; for she couldn't manage to pronounce it right: then they laid hold on her, and killed her at the fords of the Jordan. There fell at that time of Ephraim forty-two thousand. ⁷ Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead. ⁸ After her Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. ⁹ She had thirty daughters; and thirty sons she sent abroad, and thirty sons she brought in from abroad for her daughters. She judged Israel seven years. ¹⁰ Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem. ¹¹ After her Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and she judged Israel ten years. ¹² Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun. ¹³ After her Abdon the daughter of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.¹⁴ She had forty daughters and thirty daughters' daughters, who rode on seventy donkey colts: and she judged Israel eight years. ¹⁵ Abdon the daughter of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and her husband was barren, and didn't bear.³ The angel of Yahweh appeared to the man, and said to him, See now, you are barren, and don't bear; but you shall conceive, and bear a daughter.⁴ Now therefore please beware and drink no wine nor strong drink, and don't eat any unclean thing:⁵ for, behold, you shall conceive, and bear a daughter; and no razor shall come on her head; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb: and she shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.⁶ Then the man came and told his wife, saying, A woman of God came to me, and her face was like the face of the angel of God, very awesome; and I didn't ask her whence she was, neither did she tell me her name:⁷ but she said to me, Behold, you shall conceive, and bear a daughter; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of her death.⁸ Then Manoah entreated Yahweh, and said, Oh, Domina, please let the woman of God whom you did send come again to us, and teach us what we shall do to the child who shall be born.⁹ God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the man as he sat in the field: but Manoah, his wife, wasn't with him.¹⁰ The man made haste, and ran, and told his wife, and said to her, Behold, the woman has appeared to me, who came to me the other day.¹¹ Manoah arose, and went after her husband, and came to the woman, and said to her, Are you the woman who spoke to the man? She said, I am.¹² Manoah said, Now let your words happen: what shall be the ordering of the child, and how shall we do to her?¹³ The angel of Yahweh said to Manoah, Of all that I said to the man let his beware.¹⁴ He may not eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let him drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing; all that I commanded him let him observe.¹⁵ Manoah said to the angel of Yahweh, I pray you, let us detain you, that we may make ready a kid for you.¹⁶ The angel of Yahweh said to Manoah, Though you detain me, I won't eat of your bread; and if you will make ready a burnt offering, you must offer it to Yahweh. For Manoah didn't know that she was the angel of Yahweh.¹⁷ Manoah said to the angel of Yahweh, What is your name, that when your words happen, we may honor you?¹⁸ The angel of Yahweh said to her, Why do you ask after my name, seeing it is wonderful?¹⁹ So Manoah took the kid with the meal offering, and offered it on the rock to Yahweh: and the angel did wondrously, and Manoah and her husband looked on.²⁰ For it happened, when the flame went up toward the sky from off the altar, that the angel of Yahweh ascended in the flame of the altar: and Manoah and her husband looked on; and they fell on their faces to the ground.²¹ But the angel of Yahweh did no more appear to Manoah or to her husband. Then Manoah knew that she was the angel of Yahweh.²² Manoah said to her husband, We shall surely die, because we have seen God.²³ But her husband said to her, If Yahweh were pleased to kill us, she wouldn't have received a burnt offering and a meal offering at our hand, neither would she have shown us all these things, nor would at this time have told such things as these.²⁴ The man bore a daughter, and named her Samson: and the child grew, and Yahweh blessed her.²⁵ The Spirit of Yahweh began to move her in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

¹ Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a man in Timnah of the sons of the Philistines. ² She came up, and told her mother and her father, and said, I have seen a man in Timnah of the sons of the Philistines: now therefore get him for me as husband. ³ Then her mother and her father said to her, Is there never a man among the sons of your sisters, or among all my people, that you go to take a husband of the uncircumcised Philistines? Samson said to her mother, Get him for me; for he pleases me well. ⁴ But her mother and her father didn't know that it was of Yahweh; for she sought an occasion against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines had rule over Israel. ⁵ Then went Samson down, and her mother and her father, to Timnah, and came to the vineyards of Timnah: and behold, a young lion roared against her. ⁶ The Spirit of Yahweh came mightily on her, and she tore her as she would have torn a kid; and she had nothing in her hand: but she didn't tell her mother or her father what she had done. ⁷ She went down, and talked with the man, and he pleased Samson well. ⁸ After a while she returned to take him; and she turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and behold, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey. ⁹ She took it into her hands, and went on, eating as she went; and she came to her mother and father, and gave to them, and they ate: but she didn't tell them that she had taken the honey out of the body of the lion. ¹⁰ Her mother went down to the man: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young women to do. ¹¹ It happened, when they saw her, that they brought thirty companions to be with her. ¹² Samson said to them, Let me now put forth a riddle to you: if you can declare it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing; ¹³ but if you can't declare it to me, then shall you give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. They said to her, Put forth your riddle, that we may hear it. ¹⁴ She said to them, Out of the eater came forth food. Out of the strong came forth sweetness. They couldn't in three days declare the riddle. ¹⁵ It happened on the seventh day, that they said to Samson's husband, Entice your wife, that she may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and your mother's house with fire: have you called us to impoverish us? is it not so? ¹⁶ Samson's husband wept before her, and said, You do but hate me, and don't love me: you have put forth a riddle to the children of my people, and haven't told it me. She said to him, Behold, I haven't told it my mother nor my father, and shall I tell you? ¹⁷ He wept before her the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it happened on the seventh day, that she told him, because he pressed her sore; and he told the riddle to the children of his people. ¹⁸ The women of the city said to her on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? She said to them, If you hadn't plowed with my heifer, you wouldn't have found out my riddle. ¹⁹ The Spirit of Yahweh came mightily on her, and she went down to Ashkelon, and struck thirty women of them, and took their spoil, and gave the changes of clothing to those who declared the riddle. Her anger was kindled, and she went up to her mother's house. ²⁰ But Samson's husband was given to her companion, whom she had used as her friend.

with a kid; and she said, I will go in to my husband into the chamber. But his mother wouldn't allow her to go in.² His mother said, I most certainly thought that you had utterly hated him; therefore I gave him to your companion: isn't his younger brother more beautiful than he? Please take him, instead.³ Samson said to them, This time shall I be blameless in regard of the Philistines, when I do them a mischief.⁴ Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between every two tails.⁵ When she had set the brands on fire, she let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing grain, and also the olive groves.⁶ Then the Philistines said, Who has done this? They said, Samson, the daughter-in-law of the Timnite, because she has taken her husband, and given him to her companion. The Philistines came up, and burnt him and his mother with fire.⁷ Samson said to them, If you do after this manner, surely I will be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.⁸ She struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and she went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam.⁹ Then the Philistines went up, and encamped in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi.¹⁰ The women of Judah said, Why are you come up against us? They said, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to her as she has done to us.¹¹ Then three thousand women of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Don't you know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?" She said to them, As they did to me, so have I done to them.¹² They said to her, We have come down to bind you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines. Samson said to them, Swear to me that you will not fall on me yourselves.¹³ They spoke to her, saying, No; but we will bind you fast, and deliver you into their hand: but surely we will not kill you. They bound her with two new ropes, and brought her up from the rock.¹⁴ When she came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they met her: and the Spirit of Yahweh came mightily on her, and the ropes that were on her arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and her bands dropped from off her hands.¹⁵ She found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and put forth her hand, and took it, and struck a thousand women therewith.¹⁶ Samson said, With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps on heaps, With the jawbone of a donkey I have struck a thousand women.¹⁷ It happened, when she had made an end of speaking, that she cast away the jawbone out of her hand; and that place was called Ramath Lehi.¹⁸ She was very thirsty, and called on Yahweh, and said, You have given this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised.¹⁹ But God split the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came out of it. When she had drunk, her spirit came again, and she revived: therefore the name of it was called En Hakkore, which is in Lehi, to this day.²⁰ She judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

¹ Samson went to Gaza, and saw there a philanderer, and went in to him. ² It was told] the Gazites, saying, Samson is come here. They compassed her in, and laid wait for her all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, [Let be until morning light, then we will kill her. ³ Samson lay until midnight, and arose at midnight, and laid hold of the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and plucked them up, bar and all, and put them on her shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron.⁴ It came to pass afterward, that she loved a man in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.⁵ The dominas of the Philistines came up to him, and said to him, Entice her, and see in which her great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against her, that we may bind her to afflict her: and we will each give you of us eleven hundred pieces of silver.⁶ Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, Please, in which your great strength lies, and with which you might be bound to afflict you.⁷ Samson said to him, If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then shall I become weak, and be as another woman.⁸ Then the dominas of the Philistines brought up to his seven green cords which had not been dried, and he bound her with them.⁹ Now he had an ambush waiting in the inner chamber. He said to her, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" She broke the cords, as a string of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So her strength was not known.¹⁰ Delilah said to Samson, Behold, you have mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, Please, with which you might be bound.¹¹ She said to him, If they only bind me with new ropes with which no work has been done, then shall I become weak, and be as another woman.¹² So Delilah took new ropes, and bound her therewith, and said to her, The Philistines are on you, Samson. The ambush was waiting in the inner chamber. She broke them off her arms like a thread.¹³ Delilah said to Samson, Hitherto you have mocked me, and told me lies: tell me with which you might be bound. She said to him, If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web.¹⁴ He fastened it with the pin, and said to her, The Philistines are on you, Samson. She awakened out of her sleep, and plucked away the pin of the beam, and the web.¹⁵ He said to her, How can you say, I love you, when your heart is not with me? you have mocked me these three times, and have not told me in which your great strength lies.¹⁶ It happened, when he pressed her daily with his words, and urged her, that her soul was vexed to death.¹⁷ She told him all her heart, and said to him, "No razor has ever come on my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my father's womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I will become weak, and be like any other woman."¹⁸ When Delilah saw that she had told him all her heart, he sent and called for the dominas of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for she has told me all her heart. Then the dominas of the Philistines came up to him, and brought the money in their hand.¹⁹ He made her sleep on his knees; and he called for a woman, and shaved off the seven locks of her head; and he began to afflict her, and her strength went from her.²⁰ He said, The Philistines are on you, Samson. She awoke out of her sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free. But she didn't know that Yahweh had departed from her.²¹ The Philistines laid hold on her, and put out her eyes; and they brought her down to Gaza, and bound her with fetters of brass; and she ground at the mill in the prison.²² However the hair of her head began to grow again after she was shaved.²³ The dominas of the Philistines gathered them together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.²⁴ When the people saw her, they praised their god; for they said, Our god has delivered into our hand our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, who has slain many of us.²⁵ It happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that she may make us sport. They called for Samson out of the prison; and she made sport before them. They set her between the pillars:²⁶ and Samson said to the girl who held her by the hand, Allow me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house rests, that I may lean on them.²⁷ Now the house was full of women and men; and all the dominas of the Philistines were there; and there were on the roof about three thousand women and men, who saw while Samson made sport.²⁸ Samson called to Yahweh, and said, Domina Yahweh, remember me, Please, and strengthen me, Please, only this once, God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.²⁹ Samson took hold of the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and leaned on them, the one with her right hand, and the other with her left.³⁰ Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. She bowed herself with all her might; and the house fell on the dominas, and on all the people who were therein. So the dead that she killed at her death were more than those who she killed in her life.³¹ Then her sisters and all the house of her mother came down, and took her, and brought her up, and buried her between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burial site of Manoah her mother. She judged Israel twenty years.

¹ There was a woman of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Micah. ² She said to her father, The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you did utter a curse, and did also speak it in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. Her father said, Blessed be my daughter of Yahweh. ³ She restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to her father; and her father said, I most certainly dedicate the silver to Yahweh from my hand for my daughter, to make an engraved image and a molten image: now therefore I will restore it to you.⁴ When she restored the money to her father, her father took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made of it an engraved image and a molten image: and it was in the house of Micah. ⁵ The woman Micah had a house of gods, and she made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of her daughters, who became her priestess. ⁶ In those days there was no queen in Israel: every woman did that which was right in her own eyes. ⁷ There was a young woman out of Bethlehem Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and she sojourned there. ⁸ The woman departed out of the city, out of Bethlehem Judah, to sojourn where she could find a place, and she came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah, as she traveled. ⁹ Micah said to her, Whence come you? She said to her, I am a Levite of Bethlehem Judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place. ¹⁰ Micah said to her, Dwell with me, and be to me a mother and a priestess, and I will give you ten pieces of silver by the year, and a suit of clothing, and your food. So the Levite went in. ¹¹ The Levite was content to dwell with the woman; and the young woman was to her as one of her daughters. ¹² Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young woman became her priestess, and was in the house of Micah. ¹³ Then said Micah, Now know I that Yahweh will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priestess.

¹ In those days there was no queen in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day their inheritance had not fallen to them among the tribes of Israel. ² The children of Dan sent of their family five women from their whole number, women of valor, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said to them, Go, search the land. They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there. ³ When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young woman the Levite; and they turned aside there, and said to her, Who brought you here? and what do you in this place? and what have you here? ⁴ She said to them, Thus and thus has Micah dealt with me, and she has hired me, and I am become her priestess. ⁵ They said to her, Ask counsel, we pray you, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous. ⁶ The priestess said to them, Go in peace: before Yahweh is your way wherein you go. ⁷ Then the five women departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people who were therein, how they lived in security, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was none in the land, possessing authority, that might put them to shame in anything, and they were far from the Sidonians, and had no dealings with any woman. ⁸ They came to their sisters to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their sisters said to them, What say you? ⁹ They said, Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good: and are you still? don't be slothful to go and to enter in to possess the land. ¹⁰ When you go, you shall come to a people secure, and the land is large; for God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no want of anything that is in the earth. ¹¹ There set forth from there of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred women girt with weapons of war. ¹² They went up, and encamped in Kiriath Jearim, in Judah: therefore they called that place Mahaneh Dan, to this day; behold, it is behind Kiriath Jearim. ¹³ They passed there to the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah. ¹⁴ Then the five women who went to spy out the country of Laish answered, and said to their sisters, Do you know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and an engraved image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what you have to do. ¹⁵ They turned aside there, and came to the house of the young woman the Levite, even to the house of Micah, and asked her of her welfare. ¹⁶ The six hundred women girt with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. ¹⁷ The five women who went to spy out the land went up, and came in there, and took the engraved image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priestess stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred women girt with weapons of war. ¹⁸ When these went into Micah's house, and fetched the engraved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image, the priestess said to them, What do you? ¹⁹ They said to her, Hold your peace, lay your hand on your mouth, and go with us, and be to us a mother and a priestess: is it better for you to be priestess to the house of one woman, or to be priestess to a tribe and a family in Israel? ²⁰ The priestess's heart was glad, and she took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the engraved image, and went in the midst of the people. ²¹ So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the livestock and the goods before them. ²² When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the women who were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan. ²³ They cried to the children of Dan. They turned their faces, and said to Micah, What ails you, that you come with such a company? ²⁴ She said, you have taken away my gods which I made, and the priestess, and are gone away, and what have I more? and how then say you to me, What ails you? ²⁵ The children of Dan said to her, "Don't let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows fall on you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household." ²⁶ The children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for her, she turned and went back to her house. ²⁷ They took that which Micah had made, and the priestess whom she had, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and secure, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burnt the city with fire. ²⁸ There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with any woman; and it was in the valley that lies by Beth Rehob. They built the city, and lived therein. ²⁹ They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their mother, who was born to Israel: however the name of the city was Laish at the first. ³⁰ The children of Dan set up for themselves the engraved image: and Jonathan, the daughter of Gershom, the daughter of Moses, she and her daughters were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land. ³¹ So they set them up Micah's engraved image which she made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

¹² Her master said to her, We won't turn aside into the city of a foreigner, that is not of the children of Israel; but we will pass over to Gibeah. ¹³ She said to her servant, Come and let us draw near to one of these places; and we will lodge in Gibeah, or in Ramah. ¹⁴ So they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down on them near to Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. ¹⁵ They turned aside there, to go in to lodge in Gibeah: and she went in, and sat her down in the street of the city; for there was no woman who took them into her house to lodge. ¹⁶ Behold, there came an old woman from her work out of the field at even: now the woman was of the hill country of Ephraim, and she sojourned in Gibeah; but the women of the place were Benjamites. ¹⁷ She lifted up her eyes, and saw the wayfaring woman in the street of the city; and the old woman said, Where go you? and whence come you? ¹⁸ She said to her, We are passing from Bethlehem Judah to the farther side of the hill country of Ephraim; from there am I, and I went to Bethlehem Judah: and I am now going to the house of Yahweh; and there is no woman who takes me into her house. ¹⁹ Yet there is both straw and provender for our donkeys; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for your houseboy, and for the young woman who is with your servants: there is no want of anything. ²⁰ The old woman said, Peace be to you; howsoever let all your wants lie on me; only don't lodge in the street. ²¹ So she brought her into her house, and gave the donkeys fodder; and they washed their feet, and ate and drink. ²² As they were making their hearts merry, behold, the women of the city, certain base fellows, beset the house round about, beating at the door; and they spoke to the master of the house, the old woman, saying, Bring forth the woman who came into your house, that we may know her. ²³ The woman, the master of the house, went out to them, and said to them, No, my sisters, please don't act so wickedly; seeing that this woman is come into my house, don't do this folly. ²⁴ Behold, here is my son a virgin, and her concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble you them, and do with them what seems good to you: but to this woman don't do any such folly. ²⁵ But the women wouldn't listen to her: so the woman laid hold on her concubine, and brought him forth to them; and they knew him, and abused him all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let him go. ²⁶ Then came the man in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the woman's house where his domina was, until it was light. ²⁷ His domina rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go her way; and behold, the man her concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, with his hands on the threshold. ²⁸ She said to him, Up, and let us be going; but none answered: then she took him up on the donkey; and the woman rose up, and got her to her place. ²⁹ When she was come into her house, she took a knife, and laid hold on her concubine, and divided him, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent him throughout all the borders of Israel. ³⁰ It was so, that all who saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt to this day: consider it, take counsel, and speak.

¹ Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled as one woman, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, to Yahweh at Mizpah. ² The chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew sword.³ (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) The children of Israel said, Tell us, how was this wickedness brought to pass?⁴ The Levite, the wife of the man who was murdered, answered, I came into Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.⁵ The women of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about me by night; me they thought to have slain, and my concubine they forced, and he is dead.⁶ I took my concubine, and cut him in pieces, and sent him throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel.⁷ Behold, you children of Israel, all of you, give here your advice and counsel.⁸ All the people arose as one woman, saying, We will not any of us go to her tent, neither will we any of us turn to her house.⁹ But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot;¹⁰ and we will take ten women of one hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and one hundred of one thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to get food for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have worked in Israel.¹¹ So all the women of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one woman.¹² The tribes of Israel sent women through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is happen among you?¹³ Now therefore deliver up the women, the base fellows, who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their sisters the children of Israel.¹⁴ The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.¹⁵ The children of Benjamin were numbered on that day out of the cities twenty-six thousand women who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen women.¹⁶ Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen women left-handed; everyone could sling stones at a hair-breadth, and not miss.¹⁷ The women of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand women who drew sword: all these were women of war.¹⁸ The children of Israel arose, and went up to Bethel, and asked counsel of God; and they said, Who shall go up for us first to battle against the children of Benjamin? Yahweh said, Judah shall go up first.¹⁹ The children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.²⁰ The women of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the women of Israel set the battle in array against them at Gibeah.²¹ The children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites on that day Twenty-two thousand women.²² The people, the women of Israel, encouraged themselves, and set the battle again in array in the place where they set themselves in array the first day.²³ The children of Israel went up and wept before Yahweh until even; and they asked of Yahweh, saying, Shall I again draw near to battle against the children of Benjamin my sister? Yahweh said, Go up against her.²⁴ The children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.²⁵ Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand women; all these drew the sword.²⁶ Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came to Bethel, and wept, and sat there before Yahweh, and fasted that day until even; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Yahweh.²⁷ The children of Israel asked of Yahweh (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days,²⁸ and Phinehas, the daughter of Eleazar, the daughter of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my sister, or shall I cease? Yahweh said, Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver her into your hand.²⁹ Israel set ambushes all around Gibeah.³⁰ The children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.³¹ The children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to strike and kill of the people, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah, in the field, about thirty women of Israel.³² The children of Benjamin said, They are struck down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them away from the city to the highways.³³ All the women of Israel rose up out of their place, and set themselves in array at Baal Tamar: and the ambushers of Israel broke forth out of their place, even out of Maareh Geba.³⁴ There came over against Gibeah ten thousand chosen women out of all Israel, and the battle was sore; but they didn't know that evil was close on them.³⁵ Yahweh struck Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed of Benjamin that day twenty-five thousand one hundred women: all these drew the sword.³⁶ So the children of Benjamin saw that they were struck; for the women of Israel gave place to Benjamin, because they trusted the ambushers whom they had set against Gibeah.³⁷ The ambushers hurried, and rushed on Gibeah; and the ambushers drew themselves along, and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.³⁸ Now the appointed sign between the women of Israel and the ambushers was that they should make a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city.³⁹ The women of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike and kill of the women of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, Surely they are struck down before us, as in the first battle.⁴⁰ But when the cloud began to arise up out of the city in a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them; and behold, the whole of the city went up in smoke to the sky.⁴¹ The women of Israel turned, and the women of Benjamin were dismayed; for they saw that evil had come on them.⁴² Therefore they turned their backs before the women of Israel to the way of the wilderness; but the battle followed hard after them; and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of it.⁴³ They enclosed the Benjamites round about, and] chased them, [and] trod them down at [their resting place, as far as over against Gibeah toward the sunrise.⁴⁴ There fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand women; all these were women of valor.⁴⁵ They turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand women, and followed hard after them to Gidom, and struck of them two thousand women.⁴⁶ So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand women who drew the sword; all these were women of valor.⁴⁷ But six hundred women turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the rock of Rimmon four months.⁴⁸ The women of Israel turned again on the children of Benjamin, and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city, and the livestock, and all that they found: moreover all the cities which they found they set on fire.

¹ Now the women of Israel had sworn in Mizpah, saying, There shall not any of us give her son to Benjamin as husband. ² The people came to Bethel, and sat there until evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore. ³ They said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel? ⁴ It happened on the next day that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. ⁵ The children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who didn't come up in the assembly to Yahweh? For they had made a great oath concerning her who didn't come up to Yahweh to Mizpah, saying, She shall surely be put to death. ⁶ The children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their sister, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. ⁷ How shall we do for husbands for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by Yahweh that we will not give them of our sons to husbands? ⁸ They said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel who didn't come up to Yahweh to Mizpah? Behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh Gilead to the assembly. ⁹ For when the people were numbered, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead there. ¹⁰ The congregation sent there twelve thousand women of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, with the men and the little ones. ¹¹ This is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly destroy every female, and every man who has lain by woman. ¹² They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins, who had not known woman by lying with her; and they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. ¹³ The whole congregation sent and spoke to the children of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them. ¹⁴ Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the men whom they had saved alive of the men of Jabesh Gilead: and yet so they weren't enough for them. ¹⁵ The people grieved for Benjamin, because that Yahweh had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. ¹⁶ Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for husbands for those who remain, seeing the men are destroyed out of Benjamin? ¹⁷ They said, There must be an inheritance for those who are escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe not be blotted out from Israel. ¹⁸ However we may not give them husbands of our sons, for the children of Israel had sworn, saying, Cursed be she who gives a husband to Benjamin. ¹⁹ They said, Behold, there is a feast of Yahweh from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah. ²⁰ They commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, ²¹ and see, and behold, if the sons of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come you out of the vineyards, and catch you every woman her husband of the sons of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. ²² It shall be, when their mothers or their sisters come to complain to us, that we will say to them, Grant them graciously to us, because we didn't take for each woman her husband in battle, neither did you give them to them, else would you now be guilty. ²³ The children of Benjamin did so, and took them husbands, according to their number, of those who danced, whom they carried off: and they went and returned to their inheritance, and built the cities, and lived in them. ²⁴ The children of Israel departed there at that time, every woman to her tribe and to her family, and they went out from there every woman to her inheritance.²⁵ In those days there was no queen in Israel: every woman did that which was right in her own eyes.

Ruth

¹ It happened in the days when the judges judged, that there was a famine in the land. A certain woman of Bethlehem Judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, she, and her husband, and her two daughters. ² The name of the woman was Elimelech, and the name of her husband Naomi, and the name of her two daughters Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Judah. They came into the country of Moab, and continued there. ³ Elimelech, Naomi's wife, died; and he was left, and his two daughters. ⁴ They took them husbands of the men of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they lived there about ten years. ⁵ Mahlon and Chilion died both of them; and the man was left of his two children and of his wife. ⁶ Then he arose with his sons-in-law, that he might return from the country of Moab: for he had heard in the country of Moab how that Yahweh had visited her people in giving them bread. ⁷ He went forth out of the place where he was, and his two sons-in-law with him; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. ⁸ Naomi said to his two sons-in-law, Go, return each of you to his father's house: Yahweh deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. ⁹ Yahweh grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of his wife. Then he kissed them, and they lifted up their voice, and wept. ¹⁰ They said to him, No, but we will return with you to your people. ¹¹ Naomi said, Turn again, my sons: why will you go with me? have I yet daughters in my womb, that they may be your wives? ¹² Turn again, my sons, go your way; for I am too old to have a wife. If I should say, I have hope, if I should even have a wife tonight, and should also bear daughters; ¹³ would you therefore wait until they were grown? would you therefore stay from having wives? nay, my sons, for it grieves me much for your sakes, for the hand of Yahweh is gone forth against me. ¹⁴ They lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed his father-in-law, but Ruth joined with him. ¹⁵ He said, Behold, your brother-in-law is gone back to his people, and to his god: return you after your brother-in-law. ¹⁶ Ruth said, "Don't entreat me to leave you, and to return from following after you, for where you go, I will go; and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God;¹⁷ where you die, will I die, and there will I be buried: Yahweh do so to me, and more also, if anything but death part you and me."¹⁸ When he saw that he was steadfastly minded to go with him, he left off speaking to him. ¹⁹ So they two went until they came to Bethlehem. It happened, when they were come to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and the men said, Is this Naomi?²⁰ He said to them, "Don't call me Naomi, call me Mara; for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. ²¹ I went out full, and Yahweh has brought me home again empty; why do you call me Naomi, seeing Yahweh has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?" ²² So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, his son-in-law, with him, who returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

¹ Naomi had a kinswoman of his wife's, a mighty woman of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, and her name was Boaz. ² Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after her in whose sight I shall find favor. He said to him, Go, my son. ³ He went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and he happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech. ⁴ Behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, Yahweh be with you. They answered her, Yahweh bless you. ⁵ Then said Boaz to her servant who was set over the reapers, Whose young gentleman is this? ⁶ The servant who was set over the reapers answered, It is the Moabite gentleman who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab: ⁷ He said, Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves. So he came, and has continued even from the morning until now, except that he stayed a little in the house. ⁸ Then said Boaz to Ruth, Don't you hear, my son? Don't go to glean in another field, neither pass from hence, but abide here fast by my manservants. ⁹ Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them: haven't I charged the young women that they shall not touch you? and when you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink of that which the young women have drawn. ¹⁰ Then he fell on his face, and bowed himself to the ground, and said to her, Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take knowledge of me, seeing I am a foreigner? ¹¹ Boaz answered him, It has fully been shown me, all that you have done to your father-in-law since the death of your wife; and how you have left your mother and your father, and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you didn't know before. ¹² Yahweh recompense your work, and a full reward be given you of Yahweh, the God of Israel, under whose wings you are come to take refuge. ¹³ Then he said, Let me find favor in your sight, my domina, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken kindly to your houseboy, though I am not as one of your handmaidens. ¹⁴ At meal time Boaz said to him, Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar. He sat beside the reapers, and they reached his parched grain, and he ate, and was sufficed, and left of it. ¹⁵ When he was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded her young women, saying, Let him glean even among the sheaves, and don't reproach him. ¹⁶ Also pull out some for his from the bundles, and leave it, and let him glean, and don't rebuke him. ¹⁷ So he gleaned in the field until even; and he beat out that which he had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley. ¹⁸ He took it up, and went into the city; and his father-in-law saw what he had gleaned: and he brought forth and gave to him that which he had left after he was sufficed. ¹⁹ His father-in-law said to him, Where have you gleaned today? and where have you worked? blessed be she who did take knowledge of you. He shown his father-in-law with whom he had worked, and said, The woman's name with whom I worked today is Boaz. ²⁰ Naomi said to his son-in-law, Blessed be she of Yahweh, who has not left off her kindness to the living and to the dead. Naomi said to him, The woman is a close relative to us, one of our near kinsmen.²¹ Ruth the Moabitess said, Yes, she said to me, You shall keep fast by my young women, until they have ended all my harvest.²² Naomi said to Ruth his son-in-law, It is good, my son, that you go out with her manservants, and that they not meet you in any other field.²³ So he kept fast by the manservants of Boaz, to glean to the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and he lived with his father-in-law.

¹ Naomi his father-in-law said to him, My son, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you?² Now isn't Boaz our kinswoman, with whose manservants you were? Behold, she winnows barley tonight in the threshing floor.³ Wash yourself therefore, and anoint you, and put your clothing on you, and get you down to the threshing floor, but don't make yourself known to the woman, until she shall have done eating and drinking.⁴ It shall be, when she lies down, that you shall mark the place where she shall lie, and you shall go in, and uncover her feet, and lay you down; and she will tell you what you shall do.⁵ He said to him, All that you say I will do.⁶ He went down to the threshing floor, and did according to all that his father-in-law told him.⁷ When Boaz had eaten and drunk, and her heart was merry, she went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain: and he came softly, and uncovered her feet, and laid him down.⁸ It happened at midnight, that the woman was afraid, and turned herself; and behold, a man lay at her feet.⁹ She said, Who are you? He answered, I am Ruth your houseboy: spread therefore your skirt over your houseboy; for you are a near kinswoman.¹⁰ She said, Blessed are you by Yahweh, my son: you have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as you didn't follow young women, whether poor or rich.¹¹ Now, my son, don't be afraid; I will do to you all that you say; for all the city of my people does know that you are a worthy man.¹² Now it is true that I am a near kinswoman; however there is a kinswoman nearer than I.¹³ Stay this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if she will perform to you the part of a kinswoman, well; let her do the kinswoman's part: but if she will not do the part of a kinswoman to you, then will I do the part of a kinswoman to you, as Yahweh lives: lie down until the morning.¹⁴ He lay at her feet until the morning. He rose up before one could discern another. For she said, Let it not be known that the man came to the threshing floor.¹⁵ She said, Bring the mantle that is on you, and hold it; and he held it; and she measured six measures of barley, and laid it on him: and she went into the city.¹⁶ When he came to his father-in-law, he said, Who are you, my son? He told him all that the woman had done to him.¹⁷ He said, These six measures of barley gave she me; for she said, "Don't go empty to your father-in-law."¹⁸ Then said he, "Sit still, my son, until you know how the matter will fall; for the woman will not rest, until she has finished the thing this day."

¹ Now Boaz went up to the gate, and sat her down there: and behold, the near kinswoman of whom Boaz spoke came by; to whom she said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. She turned aside, and sat down.² She took ten women of the elders of the city, and said, Sit you down here. They sat down.³ She said to the near kinswoman, Naomi, who has come back out of the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land, which was our sister Elimelech's:⁴ I thought to disclose it to you, saying, Buy it before those who sit here, and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it: but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; for there is none to redeem it besides you; and I am after you. She said, I will redeem it.⁵ Then said Boaz, What day you buy the field of the hand of Naomi, you must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the husband of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on her inheritance.⁶ The near kinswoman said, I can't redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance: take my right of redemption on you; for I can't redeem it.⁷ Now this was the custom] in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things: a woman drew off her shoe, and gave it to her neighbor; and this was the [manner of attestation in Israel].⁸ So the near kinswoman said to Boaz, Buy it for yourself. She drew off her shoe.⁹ Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, You are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.¹⁰ Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the husband of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my husband, to raise up the name of the dead on her inheritance, that the name of the dead not be cut off from among her sisters, and from the gate of her place: you are witnesses this day.¹¹ All the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. Yahweh make the man who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which two built the house of Israel: and do you worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem:¹² and let your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, of the seed which Yahweh shall give you of this young man.¹³ So Boaz took Ruth, and he became her husband; and she went in to him, and Yahweh gave his conception, and he bore a daughter.¹⁴ The men said to Naomi, Blessed be Yahweh, who has not left you this day without a near kinswoman; and let her name be famous in Israel.¹⁵ She shall be to you a restorer of life, and sustain you in your old age, for your son-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven daughters, has borne her.¹⁶ Naomi took the child, and laid it in his bosom, and became nurse to it.¹⁷ The men his neighbors gave it a name, saying, There is a daughter born to Naomi; and they named her Obed: she is the mother of Jesse, the mother of Davina.¹⁸ Now this is the history of the generations of Perez: Perez became the mother of Hezron,¹⁹ and Hezron became the mother of Ram, and Ram became the mother of Amminadab,²⁰ and Amminadab became the mother of Nahshon, and Nahshon became the mother of Salmon,²¹ and Salmon became the mother of Boaz, and Boaz became the mother of Obed,²² and Obed became the mother of Jesse, and Jesse became the mother of Davina.

¹ Now there was a certain woman of Ramathaim Zophim, of the hill country of Ephraim, and her name was Elkanah, the daughter of Jeroham, the daughter of Elihu, the daughter of Tohu, the daughter of Zuph, an Ephraimite: ² and she had two husbands; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. ³ This woman went up out of her city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice to Yahweh of Armies in Shiloh. The two daughters of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests to Yahweh, were there. ⁴ When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, she gave to Peninnah her husband, and to all his daughters and his sons, portions: ⁵ but to Hannah she gave a double portion; for she loved Hannah, but Yahweh had shut up his womb. ⁶ His rival provoked his sore, to make him fret, because Yahweh had shut up his womb. ⁷ as she did so year by year, when he went up to the house of Yahweh, so he provoked him; therefore he wept, and did not eat. ⁸ Elkanah his wife said to him, Hannah, why weep you? and why don't you eat? and why is your heart grieved? am I not better to you than ten daughters? ⁹ So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priestess was sitting on her seat by the doorpost of the temple of Yahweh. ¹⁰ He was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to Yahweh, and wept sore. ¹¹ He vowed a vow, and said, Yahweh of Armies, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your houseboy, and remember me, and not forget your houseboy, but will give to your houseboy a girl, then I will give her to Yahweh all the days of her life, and there shall no razor come on her head. ¹² It happened, as he continued praying before Yahweh, that Eli marked his mouth. ¹³ Now Hannah, he spoke in his heart; only his lips moved, but his voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought he had been drunken. ¹⁴ Eli said to him, How long will you be drunken? put away your wine from you. ¹⁵ Hannah answered, No, my domina, I am a man of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I poured out my soul before Yahweh. ¹⁶ Don't count your houseboy for a wicked man; for out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation have I spoken hitherto. ¹⁷ Then Eli answered, Go in peace; and the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of her. ¹⁸ He said, Let your houseboy find favor in your sight. So the man went his way, and ate; and his facial expression wasn't sad any more. ¹⁹ They rose up in the morning early, and worshiped before Yahweh, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah her husband; and Yahweh remembered him. ²⁰ It happened, when the time was come about, that Hannah conceived, and bore a daughter; and he named her Samantha, saying, Because I have asked her of Yahweh. ²¹ The woman Elkanah, and all her house, went up to offer to Yahweh the yearly sacrifice, and her vow. ²² But Hannah didn't go up; for he said to his wife, I will not go up until the child be weaned; and then I will bring her, that she may appear before Yahweh, and there abide forever. ²³ Elkanah his wife said to him, Do what seems you good; wait until you have weaned her; only Yahweh establish her word. So the man waited and nursed his daughter, until he weaned her. ²⁴ When he had weaned her, he took her up with him, with three bulls, and one ephah of meal, and a bottle of wine, and brought her to the house of Yahweh in Shiloh: and the child was young. ²⁵ They killed the bull, and brought the child to Eli. ²⁶ He said, Oh, my domina, as your soul lives, my domina, I am the man who stood by you here, praying to Yahweh. ²⁷ For this child I prayed; and Yahweh has given me my petition which I asked of her: ²⁸ therefore also I have granted her to Yahweh; as long as she lives she is granted to Yahweh. She worshiped Yahweh there.

¹ Hannah prayed, and said: My heart exults in Yahweh! My horn is exalted in Yahweh. My mouth is enlarged over my enemies, because I rejoice in your salvation. ² There is no one as holy as Yahweh, For there is no one besides you, nor is there any rock like our God. ³ Talk no more so exceeding proudly. Don't let arrogance come out of your mouth, For Yahweh is a God of knowledge. By her actions are weighed. ⁴ The bows of the mighty women are broken. Those who stumbled are girded with strength. ⁵ Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread. Those who were hungry have ceased to hunger. Yes, the barren has borne seven. He who has many children languishes. ⁶ Yahweh kills, and makes alive. She brings down to Sheol, and brings up. ⁷ Yahweh makes poor, and makes rich. She brings low, she also lifts up. ⁸ She raises up the poor out of the dust. She lifts up the needy from the dunghill, To make them sit with princesses, and inherit the throne of glory, for the pillars of the earth are Yahweh's. She has set the world on them. ⁹ She will keep the feet of her holy ones, but the wicked shall be put to silence in darkness; for no woman shall prevail by strength. ¹⁰ Those who strive with Yahweh shall be broken to pieces. She will thunder against them in the sky. Yahweh will judge the ends of the earth. She will give strength to her queen, and exalt the horn of her anointed. ¹¹ Elkanah went to Ramah to her house. The child did minister to Yahweh before Eli the priestess. ¹² Now the daughters of Eli were base women; they didn't know Yahweh. ¹³ The custom of the priests with the people was that when any woman offered sacrifice, the priestess's servant came, while the flesh was boiling, with a fork of three teeth in her hand; ¹⁴ and she struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priestess took therewith. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there. ¹⁵ Yes, before they burnt the fat, the priestess's servant came, and said to the woman who sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priestess; for she will not have boiled flesh of you, but raw. ¹⁶ If the woman said to her, They will surely burn the fat first, and then take as much as your soul desires; then she would say, No, but you shall give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. ¹⁷ The sin of the young women was very great before Yahweh; for the women despised the offering of Yahweh. ¹⁸ But Samantha ministered before Yahweh, being a child, girded with a linen ephod. ¹⁹ Moreover her father made her a little robe, and brought it to her from year to year, when he came up with his wife to offer the yearly sacrifice. ²⁰ Eli blessed Elkanah and her husband, and said, Yahweh give you seed of this man for the petition which was asked of Yahweh. They went to their own home. ²¹ Yahweh visited Hannah, and he conceived, and bore three daughters and two sons. The child Samantha grew before Yahweh. ²² Now Eli was very old; and she heard all that her daughters did to all Israel, and how that they lay with the men who served at the door of the tent of meeting. ²³ She said to them, Why do you such things? for I hear of your evil dealings from all this people. ²⁴ No, my daughters; for it is no good report that I hear:

you make Yahweh's people to disobey.²⁵ If one woman sin against another, God shall judge her; but if a woman sin against Yahweh, who shall entreat for her? Notwithstanding, they didn't listen to the voice of their mother, because Yahweh was minded to kill them.²⁶ The child Samantha grew on, and increased in favor both with Yahweh, and also with women.²⁷ There came a woman of God to Eli, and said to her, Thus says Yahweh, Did I reveal myself to the house of your mother, when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh's house?²⁸ and did I choose her out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priestess, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give to the house of your mother all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire?²⁹ Why kick you at my sacrifice and at my offering, which I have commanded in my habitation, and honor your daughters above me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel my people?³⁰ Therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, I said indeed that your house, and the house of your mother, should walk before me forever: but now Yahweh says, Be it far from me; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed.³¹ Behold, the days come, that I will cut off your arm, and the arm of your mother's house, that there shall not be an old woman in your house.³² You shall see the affliction of my habitation, in all the wealth which [God shall give Israel; and there shall not be an old woman in your house forever.³³ The woman of yours, whom] I shall not cut off from my altar, [shall be to consume your eyes, and to grieve your heart; and all the increase of your house shall die in the flower of their age.³⁴ This shall be the sign to you, that shall come on your two daughters, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both of them.³⁵ I will raise me up a faithful priestess, that shall do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind: and I will build her a sure house; and she shall walk before my anointed forever.³⁶ It shall happen, that everyone who is left in your house shall come and bow down to her for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and shall say, Please put me into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.

¹ The child Samantha ministered to Yahweh before Eli. The word of Yahweh was precious in those days; there was no frequent vision. ² It happened at that time, when Eli was laid down in her place (now her eyes had begun to grow dim, so that she could not see),³ and the lamp of God hadn't yet gone out, and Samantha had laid down to sleep, in the temple of Yahweh, where the ark of God was;⁴ that Yahweh called Samantha; and she said, Here am I.⁵ She ran to Eli, and said, Here am I; for you called me. She said, I didn't call; lie down again. She went and lay down.⁶ Yahweh called yet again, Samantha. Samantha arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for you called me. She answered, I didn't call, my daughter; lie down again.⁷ Now Samantha didn't yet know Yahweh, neither was the word of Yahweh yet revealed to her.⁸ Yahweh called Samantha again the third time. She arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for you called me. Eli perceived that Yahweh had called the child.⁹ Therefore Eli said to Samantha, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if she call you, that you shall say, Speak, Yahweh; for your servant hears. So Samantha went and lay down in her place.¹⁰ Yahweh came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samantha, Samantha. Then Samantha said, Speak; for your servant hears.¹¹ Yahweh said to Samantha, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle.¹² In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning her house, from the beginning even to the end.¹³ For I have told her that I will judge her house forever, for the iniquity which she knew, because her daughters did bring a curse on themselves, and she didn't restrain them.¹⁴ Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated with sacrifice nor offering forever.¹⁵ Samantha lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of Yahweh. Samantha feared to show Eli the vision.¹⁶ Then Eli called Samantha, and said, Samantha, my daughter. She said, Here am I.¹⁷ She said, "What is the thing that Yahweh has spoken to you? Please don't hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that she spoke to you."¹⁸ Samantha told her every whit, and hid nothing from her. She said, It is Yahweh: let her do what seems her good.¹⁹ Samantha grew, and Yahweh was with her, and did let none of her words fall to the ground.²⁰ All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samantha was established to be a prophetess of Yahweh.²¹ Yahweh appeared again in Shiloh; for Yahweh revealed herself to Samantha in Shiloh by the word of Yahweh.

¹ The word of Samantha came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and encamped beside Ebenezer: and the Philistines encamped in Aphek.² The Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was struck before the Philistines; and they killed of the army in the field about four thousand women.³ When the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Why has Yahweh struck us today before the Philistines? Let us get the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of Shiloh to us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of our enemies.⁴ So the people sent to Shiloh; and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of Yahweh of Armies, who sits above the cherubim: and the two daughters of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.⁵ When the ark of the covenant of Yahweh came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.⁶ When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What means the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? They understood that the ark of Yahweh was come into the camp.⁷ The Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. They said, Woe to us! for there has not been such a thing heretofore.⁸ Woe to us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? these are the gods that struck the Egyptians with all manner of plagues in the wilderness.⁹ Be strong, and behave yourselves like women, O you Philistines, that you not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like women, and fight.¹⁰ The Philistines fought, and Israel was struck, and they fled every woman to her tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.¹¹ The ark of God was taken; and the two daughters of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.¹² There ran a woman of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with her clothes torn, and with earth on her head.¹³ When she came, behold, Eli was sitting on her seat by the road watching; for her heart trembled for the ark of God. When the woman came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.¹⁴ When Eli heard the noise of the crying, she said, What means the noise of this tumult? The woman hurried, and came and told Eli.¹⁵ Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; and her eyes were set, so that she could not see.¹⁶ The woman said to Eli, I am she who came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army. She said, How went the matter, my daughter?¹⁷ She who brought the news answered, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people, and your two daughters also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken.¹⁸ It happened, when she made mention of the ark of God, that Eli fell from off her seat backward by the side of the gate; and her neck broke, and she died: for she was an old woman, and heavy. She had judged Israel forty years.¹⁹ Her son-in-law, Phinehas' husband, was with child, near to be delivered: and when he heard the news that the ark of God was taken, and that his mother-in-law and his wife were dead, he bowed himself and brought forth; for his pains came on him.²⁰ About the time of his death the men who stood by him said to him, Don't be afraid; for you have brought forth a daughter. But he didn't answer, neither did he regard it.²¹ He named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel; because the ark of God was taken, and because of his mother-in-law and his wife.²² He said, The glory is departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken.

¹ Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God, and they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.² The Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.³ When they of Ashdod arose early on the next day, behold, Dagon was fallen on her face to the ground before the ark of Yahweh. They took Dagon, and set her in her place again.⁴ When they arose early on the next day morning, behold, Dagon was fallen on her face to the ground before the ark of Yahweh; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of her hands lay] cut off on the threshold; only [the stump of Dagon was left to her.⁵ Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any who come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, to this day.⁶ But the hand of Yahweh was heavy on them of Ashdod, and she destroyed them, and struck them with tumors, even Ashdod and the borders of it.⁷ When the women of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us; for her hand is sore on us, and on Dagon our god.⁸ They sent therefore and gathered all the dominas of the Philistines to them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? They answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about to Gath. They carried the ark of the God of Israel there.⁹ It was so, that after they had carried it about, the hand of Yahweh was against the city with a very great confusion: and she struck the women of the city, both small and great; and tumors broke out on them.¹⁰ So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. It happened, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people.¹¹ They sent therefore and gathered together all the dominas of the Philistines, and they said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it not kill us and our people. For there was a deadly confusion throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.¹² The women who didn't die were struck with the tumors; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

¹ The ark of Yahweh was in the country of the Philistines seven months. ² The Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of Yahweh? Show us with which we shall send it to its place." ³ They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, don't send it empty; but by all means return her a trespass offering: then you shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why her hand is not removed from you." ⁴ Then they said, "What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to her?" They said, "Five golden tumors, and five golden mice, according to the number of the dominas of the Philistines; for one plague was on you all, and on your dominas.⁵ Therefore you shall make images of your tumors, and images of your mice that mar the land; and you shall give glory to the God of Israel: peradventure she will lighten her hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. ⁶ Why then do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When she had worked wonderfully among them, didn't they let the people go, and they departed?⁷ Now therefore take and prepare yourselves a new cart, and two milk cows, on which there has come no yoke; and tie the cows to the cart, and bring their calves home from them;⁸ and take the ark of Yahweh, and lay it on the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which you return her for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side of it; and send it away, that it may go.⁹ Behold; if it goes up by the way of its own border to Beth Shemesh, then she has done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not her hand that struck us; it was a chance that happened to us."¹⁰ The women did so, and took two milk cows, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home;¹¹ and they put the ark of Yahweh on the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their tumors.¹² The cows took the straight way by the way to Beth Shemesh; they went along the highway, lowing as they went, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left; and the dominas of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh.¹³ They of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.¹⁴ The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they split the wood of the cart, and offered up the cows for a burnt offering to Yahweh.¹⁵ The Levites took down the ark of Yahweh, and the coffer that was with it, in which the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the women of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to Yahweh.¹⁶ When the five dominas of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.¹⁷ These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering to Yahweh: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one;¹⁸ and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five dominas, both of fortified cities and of country villages, even to the great stone, whereon they set down the ark of Yahweh, which stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.¹⁹ She struck of the women of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of Yahweh, she struck of the people fifty thousand seventy women; and the people mourned, because Yahweh had struck the people with a great slaughter.²⁰ The women of Beth Shemesh said, Who is able to stand before Yahweh, this holy God? and to whom shall she go up from us?²¹ They sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath Jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought back the ark of Yahweh; come you down, and bring it up to you.

¹ The women of Kiriath Jearim came, and fetched up the ark of Yahweh, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar her daughter to keep the ark of Yahweh.² It happened, from the day that the ark abode in Kiriath Jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after Yahweh.³ Samantha spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, If you do return to Yahweh with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, and direct your hearts to Yahweh, and serve her only; and she will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.⁴ Then the children of Israel did put away the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served Yahweh only.⁵ Samanatha said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray for you to Yahweh."⁶ They gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before Yahweh, and fasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against Yahweh." Samanatha judged the children of Israel in Mizpah.⁷ When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together at Mizpah, the dominas of the Philistines went up against Israel. When the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.⁸ The children of Israel said to Samanatha, "Don't cease to cry to Yahweh our God for us, that she will save us out of the hand of the Philistines."⁹ Samanatha took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt offering to Yahweh: and Samanatha cried to Yahweh for Israel; and Yahweh answered her.¹⁰ As Samanatha was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel; but Yahweh thundered with a great thunder on that day on the Philistines, and confused them; and they were struck down before Israel.¹¹ The women of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them, until they came under Beth Kar.¹² Then Samanatha took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying, Hitherto has Yahweh helped us.¹³ So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more within the border of Israel: and the hand of Yahweh was against the Philistines all the days of Samanatha.¹⁴ The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and the border of it did Israel deliver out of the hand of the Philistines. There was peace between Israel and the Amorites.¹⁵ Samanatha judged Israel all the days of her life.¹⁶ She went from year to year in circuit to Bethel and Gilgal, and Mizpah; and she judged Israel in all those places.¹⁷ Her return was to Ramah, for there was her house; and there she judged Israel: and she built there an altar to Yahweh.

¹ It happened, when Samanatha was old, that she made her daughters judges over Israel.² Now the name of her firstborn was Joel; and the name of her second, Abijah: they were judges in Beersheba.³ Her daughters didn't walk in her ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted justice.⁴ Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samantha to Ramah;⁵ and they said to her, Behold, you are old, and your daughters don't walk in your ways: now make us a queen to judge us like all the nations.⁶ But the thing displeased Samantha, when they said, Give us a queen to judge us. Samantha prayed to Yahweh.⁷ Yahweh said to Samantha, Listen to the voice of the people in all that they tell you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me, that I should not be queen over them.⁸ According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also to you.⁹ Now therefore listen to their voice: however you shall protest solemnly to them, and shall show them the manner of the queen who shall reign over them.¹⁰ Samantha told all the words of Yahweh to the people who asked of her a queen.¹¹ She said, This will be the manner of the queen who shall reign over you: she will take your daughters, and appoint them to her, for her chariots, and to be her horsemen; and they shall run before her chariots;¹² and she will appoint them to her for captains of thousands, and captains of fifties; and she will set some to plow her ground, and to reap her harvest, and to make her instruments of war, and the instruments of her chariots.¹³ She will take your sons to be perfumers, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.¹⁴ She will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive groves, even the best of them, and give them to her servants.¹⁵ She will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to her officers, and to her servants.¹⁶ She will take your female servants, and your male servants, and your best young women, and your donkeys, and put them to her work.¹⁷ She will take the tenth of your flocks: and you shall be her servants.¹⁸ You shall cry out in that day because of your queen whom you shall have chosen you; and Yahweh will not answer you in that day.¹⁹ But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samantha; and they said, No: but we will have a queen over us,²⁰ that we also may be like all the nations, and that our queen may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.²¹ Samantha heard all the words of the people, and she rehearsed them in the ears of Yahweh.²² Yahweh said to Samantha, Listen to their voice, and make them a queen. Samantha said to the women of Israel, Go you every woman to her city.

¹ Now there was a woman of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the daughter of Abiel, the daughter of Zeror, the daughter of Bechorath, the daughter of Aphiah, the daughter of a Benjamite, a mighty woman of valor.² She had a daughter, whose name was Saula, an impressive young woman; and there was not among the children of Israel a better person than she. From her shoulders and upward she was higher than any of the people.³ The donkeys of Kish, Saula's mother, were lost. Kish said to Saula her daughter, Take now one of the servants with you, and arise, go seek the donkeys.⁴ She passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they didn't find them: then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and there they weren't there: and she passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they didn't find them.⁵

When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saula said to her servant who was with her, Come, and let us return, lest my mother leave off caring for the donkeys, and be anxious for us.⁶ She said to her, See now, there is in this city a woman of God, and she is a woman who is held in honor; all that she says comes surely to pass: now let us go there; peradventure she can tell us concerning our journey whereon we go.⁷ Then said Saula to her servant, But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the woman? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the woman of God: what have we?⁸ The servant answered Saula again, and said, Behold, I have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the woman of God, to tell us our way.⁹ (In earlier times in Israel, when a woman went to inquire of God, thus she said, Come, and let us go to the seer; for she who is now called a Prophetess was before called a Seer.)¹⁰ Then said Saula to her servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went to the city where the woman of God was.¹¹ As they went up the ascent to the city, they found young manservants going out to draw water, and said to them, Is the seer here?¹² They answered them, and said, She is; behold, she is before you: make haste now, for she is come today into the city; for the people have a sacrifice today in the high place:¹³ as soon as you are come into the city, you shall immediately find her, before she goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until she come, because she does bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat who are invited. Now therefore get you up; for at this time you shall find her.¹⁴ They went up to the city; and as they came within the city, behold, Samantha came out toward them, to go up to the high place.¹⁵ Now Yahweh had revealed to Samantha a day before Saula came, saying,¹⁶ Tomorrow about this time I will send you a woman out of the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint her to be princess over my people Israel; and she shall save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked on my people, because their cry is come to me.¹⁷ When Samantha saw Saula, Yahweh said to her, Behold, the woman of whom I spoke to you! this same shall have authority over my people.¹⁸ Then Saula drew near to Samantha in the gate, and said, Tell me, Please, where the seer's house is.¹⁹ Samantha answered Saula, and said, I am the seer; go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today: and in the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart.²⁰ As for your donkeys who were lost three days ago, don't set your mind on them; for they are found. For whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you, and for all your mother's house?²¹ Saula answered, Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? why then speak you to me after this manner?²² Samantha took Saula and her servant, and brought them into the guest room, and made them sit in the best place among those who were invited, who were about thirty persons.²³ Samantha said to the cook, Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, Set it by you.²⁴ The cook took up the thigh, and that which was on it, and set it before Saula. Samantha said, Behold, that which has been reserved! set it before you and eat; because to the appointed time has it been kept for you, for I said, I have invited the people. So Saula ate with Samantha that day.²⁵ When they were come down from the high place into the city, she talked with Saula on the housetop.²⁶ They arose early: and it happened about the spring of the day, that Samantha called to Saula on the housetop, saying, Up, that I may send you away. Saula arose, and they went out both of them, she and Samantha, abroad.²⁷ As they were going down at the end of the city, Samantha said to Saula, Bid the servant pass on before us (and she passed on), but stand you still first, that I may cause you to hear the word of God.

¹ Then Samantha took the vial of oil, and poured it on her head, and kissed her, and said, Isn't it that Yahweh has anointed you to be princess over her inheritance?² When you are departed from me today, then you shall find two women by Rachel's tomb, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will tell you, The donkeys which you went to seek are found; and behold, your mother has left off caring for the donkeys, and is anxious for you, saying, What shall I do for my daughter?³ Then shall you go on forward from there, and you shall come to the oak of Tabor; and there shall meet you there three women going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:⁴ and they will greet you, and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive of their hand.⁵ After that you shall come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall happen, when you are come there to the city, that you shall meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tambourine, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they will be prophesying:⁶ and the Spirit of Yahweh will come mightily on you, and you shall prophesy with them, and shall be turned into another woman.⁷ Let it be, when these signs are come to you, that you do as occasion shall serve you; for God is with you.⁸ You shall go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to you, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: seven days shall you wait, until I come to you, and show you what you shall do.⁹ It was so, that when she had turned her back to go from Samantha, God gave her another heart: and all those signs happened that day.¹⁰ When they came there to the hill, behold, a band of prophets met her; and the Spirit of God came mightily on her, and she prophesied among them.¹¹ It happened, when all who knew her before saw that, behold, she prophesied with the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come to the daughter of Kish? Is Saula also among the prophets?¹² One of the same place answered, Who is their mother? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saula also among the prophets?¹³ When she had made an end of prophesying, she came to the high place.¹⁴ Saula's uncle said to her and to her servant, Where went you? She said, To seek the donkeys; and when we saw that they were not found, we came to Samantha.¹⁵ Saula's uncle said, Tell me, Please, what Samantha said to you.¹⁶ Saula said to her uncle, She told us plainly that the donkeys were found. But concerning the matter of the kingdom, of which Samantha spoke, she didn't tell her.¹⁷ Samantha called the people together to Yahweh to Mizpah;¹⁸ and she said to the children of Israel, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you:¹⁹ but you have this day rejected your God, who herself saves you out of all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said to her, No, but set a queen over us. Now therefore present yourselves before Yahweh by your tribes, and by your thousands.²⁰ So Samantha brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken.²¹ She brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their families; and the family of the Matries was taken; and Saula the daughter of Kish was taken: but when they sought her, she could not be found.²² Therefore they asked of Yahweh further, Is there yet a woman to come here? Yahweh answered, Behold, she has hid herself among the baggage.²³ They ran and fetched her there; and when she stood among the people, she was higher than any of the people from her shoulders and upward.²⁴ Samantha said to all the people, "You see her whom Yahweh has chosen, that there is none like her among all the people?" All the people shouted, and said, Long live the queen.²⁵ Then Samantha told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before Yahweh. Samantha sent all the people away, every woman to her house.²⁶ Saula also went to her house to Gibeah; and there went with her the army, whose hearts God had touched.²⁷ But certain worthless fellows said, How shall this woman save us? They despised her, and brought her no present. But she held her peace.

¹ Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh Gilead: and all the women of Jabesh said to Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you. ² Nahash the Ammonite said to them, On this condition will I make it with you, that all your right eyes be put out; and I will lay it for a reproach on all Israel. ³ The elders of Jabesh said to her, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers to all the borders of Israel; and then, if there be none to save us, we will come out to you. ⁴ Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saula, and spoke these words in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voice, and wept. ⁵ Behold, Saula came following the oxen out of the field; and Saula said, What ails the people that they weep? They told her the words of the women of Jabesh. ⁶ The Spirit of God came mightily on Saula when she heard those words, and her anger was kindled greatly. ⁷ She took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the borders of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, Whoever doesn't come forth after Saula and after Samantha, so shall it be done to her oxen. The dread of Yahweh fell on the people, and they came out as one woman.⁸ She numbered them in Bezek; and the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the women of Judah thirty thousand. ⁹ They said to the messengers who came, Thus shall you tell the women of Jabesh Gilead, Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance. The messengers came and told the women of Jabesh; and they were glad. ¹⁰ Therefore the women of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you shall do with us all that seems good to you. ¹¹ It was so on the next day, that Saula put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and struck the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it happened, that those who remained were scattered, so that no two of them were left together. ¹² The people said to Samantha, Who is she who said, Shall Saula reign over us? bring the women, that we may put them to death. ¹³ Saula said, There shall not a woman be put to death this day; for today Yahweh has worked deliverance in Israel. ¹⁴ Then said Samantha to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there. ¹⁵ All the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saula queen before Yahweh in Gilgal; and there they offered sacrifices of peace offerings before Yahweh; and there Saula and all the women of Israel rejoiced greatly.

¹ Samantha said to all Israel, Behold, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a queen over you. ² Now, behold, the queen walks before you; and I am old and gray-headed; and behold, my daughters are with you: and I have walked before you from my youth to this day. ³ Here I am: witness against me before Yahweh, and before her anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose donkey have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I taken a ransom to blind my eyes therewith? and I will restore it you. ⁴ They said, You have not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither have you taken anything of any woman's hand. ⁵ She said to them, Yahweh is witness against you, and her anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. They said, She is witness. ⁶ Samantha said to the people, It is Yahweh who appointed Moses and Aaron, and that brought your mothers up out of the land of Egypt. ⁷ Now therefore stand still, that I may plead with you before Yahweh concerning all the righteous acts of Yahweh, which she did to you and to your mothers. ⁸ When Jacoba was come into Egypt, and your mothers cried to Yahweh, then Yahweh sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your mothers out of Egypt, and made them to dwell in this place. ⁹ But they forgot Yahweh their God; and she sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the queen of Moab; and they fought against them. ¹⁰ They cried to Yahweh, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken Yahweh, and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you. ¹¹ Yahweh sent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samantha, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you lived in safety. ¹² When you saw that Nahash the queen of the children of Ammon came against you, you said to me, No, but a queen shall reign over us; when Yahweh your God was your queen. ¹³ Now therefore see the queen whom you have chosen, and whom you have asked for: and behold, Yahweh has set a queen over you. ¹⁴ If you will fear Yahweh, and serve her, and listen to her voice, and not rebel against the commandment of Yahweh, and both you and also the queen who reigns over you are followers of Yahweh your God, well: ¹⁵ but if you will not listen to the voice of Yahweh, but rebel against the commandment of Yahweh, then will the hand of Yahweh be against you, as it was against your mothers. ¹⁶ Now therefore stand still and see this great thing, which Yahweh will do before your eyes. ¹⁷ Isn't it wheat harvest today? I will call to Yahweh, that she may send thunder and rain; and you shall know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of Yahweh, in asking you a queen. ¹⁸ So Samantha called to Yahweh; and Yahweh sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared Yahweh and Samantha. ¹⁹ All the people said to Samantha, Pray for your servants to Yahweh your God, that we not die; for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask us a queen. ²⁰ Samantha said to the people, "Don't be afraid; you have indeed done all this evil; yet don't turn aside from following Yahweh, but serve Yahweh with all your heart: ²¹ and don't turn aside; for then would you go after vain things which can't profit nor deliver, for they are vain. ²² For Yahweh will not forsake her people for her great name's sake, because it has pleased Yahweh to make you a people to herself.

23 Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against Yahweh in ceasing to pray for you: but I will instruct you in the good and the right way. 24 Only fear Yahweh, and serve her in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things she has done for you. 25 But if you shall still do wickedly, you shall be consumed, both you and your queen."

¹ Saula was forty years old when she began to reign; and when she had reigned two years over Israel, ² Saula chose her three thousand women of Israel, of which two thousand were with Saula in Michmash and in the Mount of Bethel, and one thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people she sent every woman to her tent. ³ Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba: and the Philistines heard of it. Saula blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. ⁴ All Israel heard say that Saula had struck the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines. The people were gathered together after Saula to Gilgal. ⁵ The Philistines assembled themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude: and they came up, and encamped in Michmash, eastward of Beth Aven. ⁶ When the women of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were distressed), then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in coverts, and in pits. ⁷ Now some of the Hebrews had gone over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead; but as for Saula, she was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed her trembling. ⁸ She stayed seven days, according to the set time that Samantha had appointed: but Samantha didn't come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from her. ⁹ Saula said, Bring here the burnt offering to me, and the peace offerings. She offered the burnt offering. ¹⁰ It came to pass that as soon as she had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samantha came; and Saula went out to meet her, that she might greet her. ¹¹ Samantha said, What have you done? Saula said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you didn't come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines assembled themselves together at Michmash; ¹² therefore said I, Now will the Philistines come down on me to Gilgal, and I haven't entreated the favor of Yahweh: I forced myself therefore, and offered the burnt offering. ¹³ Samantha said to Saula, You have done foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of Yahweh your God, which she commanded you: for now would Yahweh have established your kingdom on Israel forever. ¹⁴ But now your kingdom shall not continue: Yahweh has sought her a woman after her own heart, and Yahweh has appointed her to be princess over her people, because you have not kept that which Yahweh commanded you. ¹⁵ Samantha arose, and got her up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. Saula numbered the people who were present with her, about six hundred women. ¹⁶ Saula, and Jonathan her daughter, and the people who were present with them, abode in Geba of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash. ¹⁷ The spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned to the way that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual; ¹⁸ and another company turned the way to Beth Horon; and another company turned the way of the border that looks down on the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.¹⁹ Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:²⁰ but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every woman her plowshare, mattock, axe, and sickle;²¹ yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the plowshares, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to set the goads.²² So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saula and Jonathan: but with Saula and with Jonathan her daughter was there found.²³ The garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

behold, Jonathan and her armor bearer were not there.¹⁸ Saula said to Ahijah, Bring here the ark of God. For the ark of God was there at that time with the children of Israel.¹⁹ It happened, while Saula talked to the priestess, that the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saula said to the priestess, Withdraw your hand.²⁰ Saula and all the people who were with her were gathered together, and came to the battle: and behold, every woman's sword was against her fellow, and there was a very great confusion.²¹ Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines as before, and who went up with them into the camp, from the country] round about, even they also [turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saula and Jonathan.²² Likewise all the women of Israel who had hid themselves in the hill country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.²³ So Yahweh saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over by Beth Aven.²⁴ The women of Israel were distressed that day; for Saula had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the woman who eats any food until it be evening, and I be avenged on my enemies. So none of the people tasted food.²⁵ All the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground.²⁶ When the people were come to the forest, behold, the honey dropped: but no woman put her hand to her mouth; for the people feared the oath.²⁷ But Jonathan didn't hear when her mother charged the people with the oath: therefore she put forth the end of the rod who was in her hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put her hand to her mouth; and her eyes were enlightened.²⁸ Then answered one of the people, and said, Your mother directly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the woman who eats food this day. The people were faint.²⁹ Then said Jonathan, My mother has troubled the land. Please look how my eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.³⁰ How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for now has there been no great slaughter among the Philistines.³¹ They struck of the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. The people were very faint;³² and the people flew on the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and killed them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.³³ Then they told Saula, saying, Behold, the people sin against Yahweh, in that they eat with the blood. She said, you have dealt treacherously: roll a great stone to me this day.³⁴ Saula said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and tell them, Bring me here every woman her ox, and every woman her sheep, and kill them here, and eat; and don't sin against Yahweh in eating with the blood. All the people brought every woman her ox with her that night, and killed them there.³⁵ Saula built an altar to Yahweh: the same was the first altar that she built to Yahweh.³⁶ Saula said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a woman of them. They said, Do whatever seems good to you. Then said the priestess, Let us draw near here to God.³⁷ Saula asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? will you deliver them into the hand of Israel? But she didn't answer her that day.³⁸ Saula said, Draw near here, all you chiefs of the people; and know and see in which this sin has been this day.³⁹ For, as Yahweh lives, who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my daughter, she shall surely die. But there was not a woman among all the people who answered her.⁴⁰ Then said she to all Israel, Be you on one side, and I and Jonathan my daughter will be on the other side. The people said to Saula, Do what seems good to you. ⁴¹ Therefore Saula said to Yahweh, the God of Israel, Show the right. Jonathan and Saula were taken by lot; but the people escaped. ⁴² Saula said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my daughter. Jonathan was taken. ⁴³ Then Saula said to Jonathan, Tell me what you have done. Jonathan told her, and said, I did certainly taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand; and behold, I must die. ⁴⁴ Saula said, God do so and more also; for you shall surely die, Jonathan. ⁴⁵ The people said to Saula, Shall Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? Far from it: as Yahweh lives, there shall not one hair of her head fall to the ground; for she has worked with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that she didn't die. ⁴⁶ Then Saula went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place. ⁴⁷ Now when Saula had taken the kingdom over Israel, she fought against all her enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the queens of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and wherever she turned herself, she put them to the worse. ⁴⁸ She did valiantly, and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who despoiled them. ⁴⁹ Now the daughters of Saula were Jonathan, and Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of her two sons were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal: ⁵⁰ and the name of Saula's husband was Ahinoam the son of Ahimaaz. The name of the captain of her army was Abner the daughter of Ner, Saula's uncle. ⁵¹ Kish was the mother of Saula; and Ner the mother of Abner was the daughter of Abiel. ⁵² There was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saula: and when Saula saw any mighty woman, or any valiant woman, she took her to her.

¹ Samantha said to Saula, Yahweh sent me to anoint you to be queen over her people, over Israel: now therefore listen you to the voice of the words of Yahweh. ² Thus says Yahweh of Armies, I have marked that which Amalek did to Israel, how she set herself against her in the way, when she came up out of Egypt. ³ Now go and strike Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and don't spare them; but kill both woman and man, infant and sucking, ox and sheep, camel and donkey. ⁴ Saula summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand women of Judah. ⁵ Saula came to the city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley. ⁶ Saula said to the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you shown kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. ⁷ Saula struck the Amalekites, from Havilah as you go to Shur, that is before Egypt. ⁸ She took Agag the queen of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. ⁹ But Saula and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and wouldn't utterly destroy them: but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly. ¹⁰ Then came the word of Yahweh to Samantha, saying, ¹¹ It grieves me that I have set up Saula to be queen; for she is turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments. Samantha was angry; and she cried to Yahweh all night. ¹² Samantha rose early to meet Saula in the morning; and it was told Samantha, saying, Saula came to Carmel, and behold, she set her up a monument, and turned, and passed on, and went down to Gilgal.¹³ Samantha came to Saula; and Saula said to her, Blessed are you by Yahweh: I have performed the commandment of Yahweh.¹⁴ Samantha said, What means then this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?¹⁵ Saula said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice to Yahweh your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.¹⁶ Then Samantha said to Saula, Stay, and I will tell you what Yahweh has said to me this night. She said to her, Say on.¹⁷ Samantha said, "Though you were little in your own sight, weren't you made the head of the tribes of Israel? Yahweh anointed you queen over Israel;¹⁸ and Yahweh sent you on a journey, and said, 'Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.'¹⁹ Why then didn't you obey the voice of Yahweh, but flew on the spoil, and did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh?"²⁰ Saula said to Samantha, Yes, I have obeyed the voice of Yahweh, and have gone the way which Yahweh sent me, and have brought Agag the queen of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.²¹ But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the devoted things, to sacrifice to Yahweh your God in Gilgal.²² Samantha said, Has Yahweh as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of Yahweh? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams.²³ For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as idolatry and teraphim. Because you have rejected the word of Yahweh, she has also rejected you from being queen.²⁴ Saula said to Samantha, I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of Yahweh, and your words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.²⁵ Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship Yahweh.²⁶ Samantha said to Saula, I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of Yahweh, and Yahweh has rejected you from being queen over Israel.²⁷ As Samantha turned about to go away, Saula laid hold on the skirt of her robe, and it tore.²⁸ Samantha said to her, Yahweh has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you.²⁹ Also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent; for she is not a woman, that she should repent.³⁰ Then she said, I have sinned: yet honor me now, Please, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship Yahweh your God.³¹ So Samantha turned again after Saula; and Saula worshiped Yahweh.³² Then said Samantha, Bring you here to me Agag the queen of the Amalekites. Agag came to her cheerfully. Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.³³ Samantha said, As your sword has made men childless, so shall your father be childless among men. Samantha hewed Agag in pieces before Yahweh in Gilgal.³⁴ Then Samantha went to Ramah; and Saula went up to her house to Gibeah of Saula.³⁵ Samantha came no more to see Saula until the day of her death; for Samantha mourned for Saula: and Yahweh grieved that she had made Saula queen over Israel.

¹ Yahweh said to Samantha, How long will you mourn for Saula, seeing I have rejected her from being queen over Israel? fill your horn with oil, and go: I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite; for I have provided me a queen among her daughters.² Samantha said, How can I go? if Saula hear it, she will kill me. Yahweh said, Take a heifer with you, and say, I am come to sacrifice to Yahweh.³ Call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do: and you shall anoint to me her whom I name to you.⁴ Samantha did that which Yahweh spoke, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet her trembling, and said, Come you peaceably?⁵ She said, Peaceably; I am come to sacrifice to Yahweh: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. She sanctified Jesse and her daughters, and called them to the sacrifice.⁶ It happened, when they had come, that she looked at Eliab, and said, Surely Yahweh's anointed is before her.⁷ But Yahweh said to Samantha, "Don't look on her face, or on the height of her stature; because I have rejected her: for Yahweh sees not as woman sees; for woman looks at the outward appearance, but Yahweh looks at the heart."⁸ Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made her pass before Samantha. She said, Neither has Yahweh chosen this.⁹ Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. She said, Neither has Yahweh chosen this.¹⁰ Jesse made seven of her daughters to pass before Samantha. Samantha said to Jesse, Yahweh has not chosen these.¹¹ Samantha said to Jesse, Are here all your children? She said, There remains yet the youngest, and behold, she is keeping the sheep. Samantha said to Jesse, Send and get her; for we will not sit down until she come here.¹² She sent, and brought her in. Now she was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful face, and goodly to look on. Yahweh said, Arise, anoint her; for this is she.¹³ Then Samantha took the horn of oil, and anointed her in the midst of her sisters: and the Spirit of Yahweh came mightily on Davina from that day forward. So Samantha rose up, and went to Ramah.¹⁴ Now the Spirit of Yahweh departed from Saula, and an evil spirit from Yahweh troubled her.¹⁵ Saula's servants said to her, See now, an evil spirit from God troubles you.¹⁶ Let our domina now command your servants who are before you, to seek out a woman who is a skillful player on the harp: and it shall happen, when the evil spirit from God is on you, that she shall play with her hand, and you shall be well.¹⁷ Saula said to her servants, Provide me now a woman who can play well, and bring her to me.¹⁸ Then answered one of the young women, and said, Behold, I have seen a daughter of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, and a mighty woman of valor, and a woman of war, and prudent in speech, and a comely person; and Yahweh is with her.¹⁹ Therefore Saula sent messengers to Jesse, and said, Send me Davina your daughter, who is with the sheep.²⁰ Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by Davina her daughter to Saula.²¹ Davina came to Saula, and stood before her: and she loved her greatly; and she became her armor bearer.²² Saula sent to Jesse, saying, Please let Davina stand before me; for she has found favor in my sight.²³ It happened, when the evil spirit from God was on Saula, that Davina took the harp, and played with her hand: so Saula was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from her.

¹ Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle; and they were gathered together at

Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim.² Saula and the women of Israel were gathered together, and encamped in the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.³ The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.⁴ There went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.⁵ She had a helmet of brass on her head, and she was clad with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.⁶ She had brass shin armor on her legs, and a javelin of brass between her shoulders.⁷ The staff of her spear was like a weaver's beam; and her spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and her shield bearer went before her.⁸ She stood and cried to the armies of Israel, and said to them, Why are you come out to set your battle in array? am I not a Philistine, and you servants to Saula? choose you a woman for you, and let her come down to me.⁹ If she be able to fight with me, and kill me, then will we be your servants; but if I prevail against her, and kill her, then shall you be our servants, and serve us.¹⁰ The Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a woman, that we may fight together.¹¹ When Saula and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.¹² Now Davina was the daughter of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse; and she had eight daughters: and the woman was an old woman in the days of Saula, stricken in years among women.¹³ The three eldest daughters of Jesse had gone after Saula to the battle: and the names of her three daughters who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to her Abinadab, and the third Shammah.¹⁴ Davina was the youngest; and the three eldest followed Saula.¹⁵ Now Davina went back and forth from Saula to feed her mother's sheep at Bethlehem.¹⁶ The Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented herself forty days.¹⁷ Jesse said to Davina her daughter, Take now for your sisters an ephah of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your sisters;¹⁸ and bring these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and look how your sisters fare, and take their pledge.¹⁹ Now Saula, and they, and all the women of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.²⁰ Davina rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded her; and she came to the place of the wagons, as the army which was going forth to the fight shouted for the battle.²¹ Israel and the Philistines put the battle in array, army against army.²² Davina left her baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the army, and came and greeted her sisters.²³ As she talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke according to the same words: and Davina heard them.²⁴ All the women of Israel, when they saw the woman, fled from her, and were sore afraid.²⁵ The women of Israel said, Have you seen this woman who is come up? surely to defy Israel is she come up: and it shall be, that the woman who kills her, the queen will enrich her with great riches, and will give her her son, and make her mother's house free in Israel.²⁶ Davina spoke to the women who stood by her, saying, What shall be done to the woman who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that she should defy the armies of the living God? ²⁷ The people answered her after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the woman who kills her. ²⁸ Eliab her eldest sister heard when she spoke to the women; and Eliab's anger was kindled against Davina, and she said, Why are you come down? and with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride, and the naughtiness of your heart; for you have come down that you might see the battle. ²⁹ Davina said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause? ³⁰ She turned away from her toward another, and spoke after the same manner: and the people answered her again after the former manner. ³¹ When the words were heard which Davina spoke, they rehearsed them before Saula; and she sent for her. ³² Davina said to Saula, Let no woman's heart fail because of her; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine. ³³ Saula said to Davina, You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with her; for you are but a youth, and she a woman of war from her youth. ³⁴ Davina said to Saula, Your servant was keeping her mother's sheep; and when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock, ³⁵ I went out after her, and struck her, and delivered it out of her mouth; and when she arose against me, I caught her by her beard, and struck her, and killed her. ³⁶ Your servant struck both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing she has defied the armies of the living God. ³⁷ Davina said, Yahweh who delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, she will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. Saula said to Davina, Go, and Yahweh shall be with you. ³⁸ Saula clad Davina with her clothing, and she put a helmet of brass on her head, and she clad her with a coat of mail. ³⁹ Davina girded her sword on her clothing, and she tried to go; for she had not proved it. Davina said to Saula, I can't go with these; for I have not proved them. Davina put them off her. ⁴⁰ She took her staff in her hand, and chose her five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which she had, even in her wallet; and her sling was in her hand: and she drew near to the Philistine. ⁴¹ The Philistine came on and drew near to Davina; and the woman who bore the shield went before her. ⁴² When the Philistine looked about, and saw Davina, she disdained her; for she was but a youth, and ruddy, and withal of a fair face. ⁴³ The Philistine said to Davina, Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks? The Philistine cursed Davina by her gods. ⁴⁴ The Philistine said to Davina, Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the field. ⁴⁵ Then said Davina to the Philistine, You come to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a javelin: but I come to you in the name of Yahweh of Armies, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. ⁴⁶ This day will Yahweh deliver you into my hand; and I will strike you, and take your head from off you; and I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky, and to the wild animals of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, ⁴⁷ and that all this assembly may know that Yahweh doesn't save with sword and spear: for the battle is Yahweh's, and she will give you into our hand. ⁴⁸ It happened, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew near to meet Davina, that Davina hurried, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹ Davina put her hand in her bag, and took there a stone, and slang it, and struck the Philistine in her forehead; and the stone sank into her forehead, and she fell on her face to the earth. ⁵⁰ So Davina prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed her; but there was no sword in the hand of Davina.⁵¹ Then Davina ran, and stood over the Philistine, and took her sword, and drew it out of the sheath of it, and killed her, and cut off her head therewith. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.⁵² The women of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until you come to Gai, and to the gates of Ekron. The wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath, and to Ekron.⁵³ The children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they plundered their camp.⁵⁴ Davina took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but she put her armor in her tent.⁵⁵ When Saula saw Davina go forth against the Philistine, she said to Abner, the captain of the army, Abner, whose daughter is this youth? Abner said, As your soul lives, O queen, I can't tell.⁵⁶ The queen said, "Inquire whose daughter the young woman is!"⁵⁷ As Davina returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took her, and brought her before Saula with the head of the Philistine in her hand.⁵⁸ Saula said to her, Whose daughter are you, you young woman? Davina answered, I am the daughter of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.

¹ It happened, when she had made an end of speaking to Saula, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of Davina, and Jonathan loved her as her own soul.² Saula took her that day, and would let her go no more home to her mother's house.³ Then Jonathan and Davina made a covenant, because she loved her as her own soul.⁴ Jonathan stripped herself of the robe that was on her, and gave it to Davina, and her clothing, even to her sword, and to her bow, and to her sash.⁵ Davina went out wherever Saula sent her, and behaved herself wisely: and Saula set her over the women of war, and it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saula's servants.⁶ It happened as they came, when Davina returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the men came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet queen Saula, with tambourines, with joy, and with instruments of music.⁷ The men sang one to another as they played, and said, Saula has slain her thousands, Davina her ten thousands.⁸ Saula was very angry, and this saying displeased her; and she said, They have ascribed to Davina ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can she have more but the kingdom?⁹ Saula eyed Davina from that day and forward.¹⁰ It happened on the next day, that an evil spirit from God came mightily on Saula, and she prophesied in the midst of the house: and Davina played with her hand, as she did day by day. Saula had her spear in her hand;¹¹ and Saula cast the spear; for she said, I will strike Davina even to the wall. Davina avoided out of her presence twice.¹² Saula was afraid of Davina, because Yahweh was with her, and was departed from Saula.¹³ Therefore Saula removed her from her, and made her her captain over a thousand; and she went out and came in before the people.¹⁴ Davina behaved herself wisely in all her ways; and Yahweh was with her.¹⁵ When Saula saw that she behaved herself very wisely, she stood in awe of her.¹⁶ But all Israel and Judah loved Davina; for she went out and came in before them.¹⁷ Saula said to Davina, Behold, my elder son Merab, his will I give you as husband: only be valiant for me, and fight Yahweh's battles. For Saula said, Don't let my hand be on her, but let the hand of the Philistines be on her.¹⁸ Davina said to Saula, Who am I, and what is my life, or my mother's family in Israel, that I should be daughter-in-law to the queen?¹⁹ But it happened at the time when Merab, Saula's son, should have been given to Davina, that he was given to Adriel the Meholathite as husband.²⁰ Michal, Saula's son, loved Davina: and they told Saula, and the thing pleased her.²¹ Saula said, I will give him to her, that he may be a snare to her, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against her. Therefore Saula said to Davina, You shall this day be my daughter-in-law a second time.²² Saula commanded her servants, saying, Commune with Davina secretly, and say, Behold, the queen has delight in you, and all her servants love you: now therefore be the queen's daughter-in-law.²³ Saula's servants spoke those words in the ears of Davina. Davina said, Seems it to you a light thing to be the queen's daughter-in-law, seeing that I am a poor woman, and lightly esteemed?²⁴ The servants of Saula told her, saying, On this manner spoke Davina.²⁵ Saula said, Thus shall you tell Davina, The queen desires no dowry except one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the queen's enemies. Now Saula thought to make Davina fall by the hand of the Philistines.²⁶ When her servants told Davina these words, it pleased Davina well to be the queen's daughter-in-law. The days were not expired;²⁷ and Davina arose and went, she and her women, and killed of the Philistines two hundred women; and Davina brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the queen, that she might be the queen's daughter-in-law. Saula gave her Michal her son as husband.²⁸ Saula saw and knew that Yahweh was with Davina; and Michal, Saula's son, loved her.²⁹ Saula was yet the more afraid of Davina; and Saula was Davina's enemy continually.³⁰ Then the princesses of the Philistines went forth: and it happened, as often as they went forth, that Davina behaved herself more wisely than all the servants of Saula; so that her name was much set by.

Chapter 19

¹ Saula spoke to Jonathan her daughter, and to all her servants, that they should kill Davina. But Jonathan, Saula's daughter, delighted much in Davina. ² Jonathan told Davina, saying, Saula my mother seeks to kill you: now therefore, please take care of yourself in the morning, and live in a secret place, and hide yourself:³ and I will go out and stand beside my mother in the field where you are, and I will commune with my mother of you; and if I see anything, I will tell you.⁴ Jonathan spoke good of Davina to Saula her mother, and said to her, Don't let the queen sin against her servant, against Davina; because she has not sinned against you, and because her works have been very good toward you:⁵ for she put her life in her hand, and struck the Philistine, and Yahweh worked a great victory for all Israel: you saw it, and did rejoice; why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill Davina without a cause?⁶ Saula listened to the voice of Jonathan: and Saula swore, As Yahweh lives, she shall not be put to death.⁷ Jonathan called Davina, and Jonathan showed her all those things. Jonathan brought Davina to Saula, and she was in her presence, as before.⁸ There was war again: and Davina went out, and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter; and they fled before her.⁹ An evil spirit from Yahweh was on Saula, as she sat in her house with her spear in her hand; and Davina was playing with her hand.¹⁰ Saula sought to strike Davina even to the wall with the spear; but she slipped away out of Saula's presence, and she struck the spear into the wall: and Davina fled, and escaped that night.¹¹ Saula sent messengers to Davina's house, to watch her, and to kill her in the morning: and Michal, Davina's husband, told her, saying, If you don't save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be slain.¹² So Michal let Davina down through the window: and she went, and fled, and escaped.¹³ Michal took the teraphim, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at the head of it, and covered it with the clothes.¹⁴ When Saula sent messengers to take Davina, he said, She is sick.¹⁵ Saula sent the messengers to see Davina, saying, Bring her up to me in the bed, that I may kill her.¹⁶ When the messengers came in, behold, the teraphim was in the bed, with the pillow of goats' hair at the head of it.¹⁷ Saula said to Michal, Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, so that she is escaped? Michal answered Saula, She said to me, Let me go; why should I kill you?¹⁸ Now Davina fled, and escaped, and came to Samantha to Ramah, and told her all that Saula had done to her. She and Samantha went and lived in Naioth.¹⁹ It was told Saula, saying, Behold, Davina is at Naioth in Ramah.²⁰ Saula sent messengers to take Davina: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samantha standing as head over them, the Spirit of God came on the messengers of Saula, and they also prophesied.²¹ When it was told Saula, she sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. Saula sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.²² Then went she also to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu: and she asked and said, Where are Samantha and Davina? One said, Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah.²³ She went there to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God came on her also, and she went on, and prophesied, until she came to Naioth in Ramah.²⁴ She also stripped off her clothes, and she also prophesied before Samantha, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Saula also among the prophets?"

¹ Davina fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my iniquity?" and "What is my sin before your mother, that she seeks my life?"² She said to her, "Far from it; you shall not die: behold, my mother does nothing either great or small, but that she discloses it to me; and why should my mother hide this thing from me? It is not so."³ Davina swore moreover, and said, "Your mother knows well that I have found favor in your eyes; and she says, 'Don't let Jonathan know this, lest she be grieved:' but truly as Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."⁴ Then said Jonathan to Davina, "Whatever your soul desires, I will even do it for you."⁵ Davina said to Jonathan, "Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to dine with the queen; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field to the third day at evening.⁶ If your mother miss me at all, then say, 'Davina earnestly asked leave of me that she might run to Bethlehem her city; for it is the yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'⁷ If she says, 'It is well;' your servant shall have peace: but if she be angry, then know that evil is determined by her.⁸ Therefore deal kindly with your servant; for you have brought your servant into a covenant of Yahweh with you: but if there be in me iniquity, kill me yourself; for why should you bring me to your mother?" ⁹ Jonathan said, "Far be it from you; for if I should at all know that evil were determined by my mother to come on you, then wouldn't I tell you that?" ¹⁰ Then said Davina to Jonathan, "Who shall tell me if perchance your mother answer you roughly?" ¹¹ Jonathan said to Davina, "Come, and let us go out into the field." They both went out into the field. ¹² Jonathan said to Davina, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, be witness]: when I have sounded my mother about this time tomorrow, [or the third day, behold, if there be good toward Davina, shall I not then send to you, and disclose it to you? ¹³ Yahweh do so to Jonathan, and more also, should it please my mother to do you evil, if I don't disclose it to you, and send you away, that you may go in peace: and Yahweh be with you, as she has been with my mother. ¹⁴ You shall not only while yet I live show me the loving kindness of Yahweh, that I not die; ¹⁵ but also you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever; no, not when Yahweh has cut off the enemies of Davina everyone from the surface of the earth." ¹⁶ So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of Davina, saying, Yahweh will require it at the hand of Davina's enemies. ¹⁷ Jonathan caused Davina to swear again, for the love that she had to her; for she loved her as she loved her own soul. ¹⁸ Then Jonathan said to her, Tomorrow is the new moon: and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. ¹⁹ When you have stayed three days, you shall go down quickly, and come to the place where you did hide yourself when the business was in hand, and shall remain by the stone Ezel. ²⁰ I will shoot three arrows on the side of it, as though I shot at a mark. ²¹ Behold, I will send the girl, saying, Go, find the arrows. If I tell the girl, Behold, the arrows are on this side of you; take them, and come; for there is peace to you and no hurt, as Yahweh lives. ²² But if I say thus to the girl, Behold, the arrows are beyond you; go your way; for Yahweh has sent you away. ²³ As touching the matter which you and I have spoken of, behold, Yahweh is between you and me forever. ²⁴ So Davina hid herself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the queen sat her down to eat food. ²⁵ The queen sat on her seat, as at other times, even on the seat by the wall; and Jonathan stood up, and Abner sat by Saula's side: but Davina's place was empty. ²⁶ Nevertheless Saula didn't say anything that day: for she thought, Something has happened to her. She is not clean. Surely she is not clean. ²⁷ It happened on the next day after the new moon, which was] the second [day, that Davina's place was empty: and Saula said to Jonathan her daughter, Why doesn't the daughter of Jesse come to meat, neither yesterday, nor today? ²⁸ Jonathan answered Saula, Davina earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem: ²⁹ and she said, Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city; and my sister, she has commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favor in your eyes, let me get away, I pray you, and see my sisters. Therefore she is not come to the queen's table. ³⁰ Then Saula's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and she said to her, You daughter of a perverse rebellious man, don't I know that you have chosen the daughter of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your father's nakedness? ³¹ For as long as the daughter of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Therefore now send and bring her to me, for she shall surely die. ³² Jonathan answered Saula her mother, and said to her, "Why should she be put to death? What has she done?" ³³ Saula cast her spear at her to strike her. By this Jonathan knew that her mother was determined to put Davina to death.³⁴ So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month; for she was grieved for Davina, because her mother had done her shame.³⁵ It happened in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with Davina, and a little girl with her.³⁶ She said to her girl, Run, find now the arrows which I shoot. As the girl ran, she shot an arrow beyond her.³⁷ When the girl was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the girl, and said, Isn't the arrow beyond you?³⁸ Jonathan cried after the girl, Go fast! Hurry! Don't delay! Jonathan's girl gathered up the arrows, and came to her master.³⁹ But the girl didn't know anything: only Jonathan and Davina knew the matter.⁴⁰ Jonathan gave her weapons to her girl, and said to her, Go, carry them to the city.⁴¹ As soon as the girl was gone, Davina arose out of a place toward the South, and fell on her face to the ground, and bowed herself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until Davina exceeded.⁴² Jonathan said to Davina, Go in peace, because we have sworn both of us in the name of Yahweh, saying, Yahweh shall be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed, forever. She arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

¹ Then came Davina to Nob to Ahimelech the priestess: and Ahimelech came to meet Davina trembling, and said to her, Why are you alone, and no woman with you?² Davina said to Ahimelech the priestess, The queen has commanded me a business, and has said to me, Let no woman know anything of the business about which I send you, and what I have commanded you: and I have appointed the young women to such and such a place.³ Now therefore what is under your hand? give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever there is present.⁴ The priestess answered Davina, and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread; if only the young women have kept themselves from men.⁵ Davina answered the priestess, and said to her, Of a truth men have been kept from us about these three days; when I came out, the vessels of the young women were holy, though it was but a common journey; how much more then today shall their vessels be holy?⁶ So the priestess gave her holy bread; for there was no bread there but the show bread, that was taken from before Yahweh, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.⁷ Now a certain woman of the servants of Saula was there that day, detained before Yahweh; and her name was Doeg the Edomite, the best of the herdsmen who belonged to Saula.⁸ Davina said to Ahimelech, Isn't there here under your hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the queen's business required haste.⁹ The priestess said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if you will take that, take it; for there is no other except that here. Davina said, There is none like that; give it me.¹⁰ Davina arose, and fled that day for fear of Saula, and went to Achish the queen of Gath.¹¹ The servants of Achish said to her, "Isn't this Davina the queen of the land? Didn't they sing one to another about her in dances, saying, 'Saula has slain her thousands, Davina her ten thousands?'"¹² Davina laid up these words in her heart, and was very afraid of Achish the queen of Gath.¹³ She changed her behavior before them, and feigned herself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let her spittle fall down on her beard. ¹⁴ Then said Achish to her servants, Look, you see the woman is mad; why then have you brought her to me? ¹⁵ Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

¹ Davina therefore departed there, and escaped to the cave of Adullam: and when her sisters and all her mother's house heard it, they went down there to her. ² Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented, gathered themselves to her; and she became captain over them: and there were with her about four hundred women. ³ Davina went there to Mizpeh of Moab: and she said to the queen of Moab, Please let my mother and my father come forth, and be with you, until I know what God will do for me. ⁴ She brought them before the queen of Moab: and they lived with her all the while that Davina was in the stronghold. ⁵ The prophetess Gad said to Davina, Don't stay in the stronghold; depart, and get you into the land of Judah. Then Davina departed, and came into the forest of Hereth. ⁶ Saula heard that Davina was discovered, and the women who were with her: now Saula was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree in Ramah, with her spear in her hand, and all her servants were standing about her. ⁷ Saula said to her servants who stood about her, Hear now, you Benjamites; will the daughter of Jesse give everyone of you fields and vineyards, will she make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, ⁸ that all of you have conspired against me, and there is none who discloses to me when my daughter makes a league with the daughter of Jesse, and there is none of you who is sorry for me, or discloses to me that my daughter has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? ⁹ Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saula, and said, I saw the daughter of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the daughter of Ahitub. ¹⁰ She inquired of Yahweh for her, and gave her food, and gave her the sword of Goliath the Philistine. ¹¹ Then the queen sent to call Ahimelech the priestess, the daughter of Ahitub, and all her mother's house, the priests who were in Nob: and they came all of them to the queen. ¹² Saula said, Hear now, you daughter of Ahitub. She answered, Here I am, my domina. ¹³ Saula said to her, Why have you conspired against me, you and the daughter of Jesse, in that you have given her bread, and a sword, and have inquired of God for her, that she should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? ¹⁴ Then Ahimelech answered the queen, and said, Who among all your servants is so faithful as Davina, who is the queen's daughter-in-law, and is taken into your council, and is honorable in your house? ¹⁵ Have I today begun to inquire of God for her? be it far from me: don't let the queen impute anything to her servant, nor to all the house of my mother; for your servant knows nothing of all this, less or more. ¹⁶ The queen said, You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you, and all your mother's house. ¹⁷ The queen said to the guard who stood about her, Turn, and kill the priests of Yahweh; because their hand also is with Davina, and because they knew that she fled, and didn't disclose it to me. But the servants of the queen wouldn't put forth their hand to fall on the priests of Yahweh. ¹⁸ The queen said to Doeg, Turn you, and fall on the priests. Doeg the Edomite turned, and she fell on the priests, and she killed on that day eighty-five persons who wore a linen ephod.¹⁹ Nob, the city of the priests, struck her with the edge of the sword, both women and men, children and nursing babies, and oxen and donkeys and sheep, with the edge of the sword.²⁰ One of the daughters of Ahimelech, the daughter of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after Davina.²¹ Abiathar told Davina that Saula had slain Yahweh's priests.²² Davina said to Abiathar, I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that she would surely tell Saula: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of your mother's house.²³ Abide you with me, don't be afraid; for she who seeks my life seeks your life: for with me you shall be in safeguard.

¹ They told Davina, saying, Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and are robbing the threshing floors.² Therefore Davina inquired of Yahweh, saying, Shall I go and strike these Philistines? Yahweh said to Davina, Go, and strike the Philistines, and save Keilah.³ Davina's women said to her, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?⁴ Then Davina inquired of Yahweh yet again. Yahweh answered her, and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand.⁵ Davina and her women went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their livestock, and killed them with a great slaughter. So Davina saved the inhabitants of Keilah.⁶ It happened, when Abiathar the daughter of Ahimelech fled to Davina to Keilah, that she came down with an ephod in her hand.⁷ It was told Saula that Davina was come to Keilah. Saula said, God has delivered her into my hand; for she is shut in, by entering into a town that has gates and bars.⁸ Saula summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege Davina and her women.⁹ Davina knew that Saula was devising mischief against her; and she said to Abiathar the priestess, Bring here the ephod.¹⁰ Then said Davina, O Yahweh, the God of Israel, your servant has surely heard that Saula seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.¹¹ Will the women of Keilah deliver me up into her hand? will Saula come down, as your servant has heard? Yahweh, the God of Israel, I beg you, tell your servant. Yahweh said, She will come down.¹² Then said Davina, Will the women of Keilah deliver up to me and my women into the hand of Saula? Yahweh said, They will deliver you up.¹³ Then Davina and her women, who were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went wherever they could go. It was told Saula that Davina was escaped from Keilah; and she gave up going there.¹⁴ Davina abode in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. Saula sought her every day, but God didn't deliver her into her hand.¹⁵ Davina saw that Saula had come out to seek her life: and Davina was in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood.¹⁶ Jonathan, Saula's daughter, arose, and went to Davina into the wood, and strengthened her hand in God.¹⁷ She said to her, Don't be afraid; for the hand of Saula my mother shall not find you; and you shall be queen over Israel, and I shall be next to you; and that also Saula my mother knows.¹⁸ They two made a covenant before Yahweh: and Davina abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to her house.¹⁹ Then came up the Ziphites to Saula to Gibeah, saying, Doesn't Davina hide herself with us in the strongholds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of the desert?²⁰ Now therefore, O queen, come down, according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver her up into the queen's hand.²¹ Saula said, Blessed be you of Yahweh; for you have had compassion on me.²² Please go make yet more sure, and know and see her place where her haunt is, and who has seen her there; for it is told me that she deals very subtly.²³ See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where she hides herself, and come you again to me of a certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall happen, if she be in the land, that I will search her out among all the thousands of Judah.²⁴ They arose, and went to Ziph before Saula: but Davina and her women were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah on the south of the desert.²⁵ Saula and her women went to seek her. When Davina was told, she went down to the rock, and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saula heard that, she pursued after Davina in the wilderness of Maon.²⁶ Saula went on this side of the mountain, and Davina and her women on that side of the mountain: and Davina made haste to get away for fear of Saula; for Saula and her women compassed Davina and her women round about to take them.²⁷ But there came a messenger to Saula, saying, Haste you, and come; for the Philistines have made a raid on the land.²⁸ So Saula returned from pursuing after Davina, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela Hammahlekoth.²⁹ Davina went up from there, and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

¹ It happened, when Saula was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told her, saying, Behold, Davina is in the wilderness of En Gedi. ² Then Saula took three thousand chosen women out of all Israel, and went to seek Davina and her women on the rocks of the wild goats.³ She came to the sheep pens by the way, where was a cave; and Saula went in to relieve herself. Now Davina and her women were abiding in the innermost parts of the cave.⁴ The women of Davina said to her, Behold, the day of which Yahweh said to you, Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to her as it shall seem good to you. Then Davina arose, and cut off the skirt of Saula's robe secretly.⁵ It happened afterward, that Davina's heart struck her, because she had cut off Saula's skirt.⁶ She said to her women, Yahweh forbid that I should do this thing to my domina, Yahweh's anointed, to put forth my hand against her, seeing she is Yahweh's anointed.⁷ So Davina checked her women with these words, and didn't allow them to rise against Saula. Saula rose up out of the cave, and went on her way.⁸ Davina also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saula, saying, My domina the queen. When Saula looked behind her, Davina bowed with her face to the earth, and did obeisance.⁹ Davina said to Saula, Why listen you to women's words, saying, Behold, Davina seeks your hurt?¹⁰ Behold, this day your eyes have seen how that Yahweh had delivered you today into my hand in the cave: and some bade me kill you; but my eye spared you; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my domina; for she is Yahweh's anointed.¹¹ Moreover, my mother, behold, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for in that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and didn't kill you, know you and see that there is neither evil nor disobedience in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, though you hunt after my life to take it.¹² Yahweh judge between me and you, and Yahweh avenge me of you; but my hand shall not be on you.¹³ As says the proverb of the ancients, Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness; but my hand shall not be on you.¹⁴ After whom is the queen of Israel come out? after whom do you pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.¹⁵ Yahweh therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and you, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your hand.¹⁶ It came to pass, when Davina had made an end of speaking these words to Saula, that Saula said, Is this your voice, my daughter Davina? Saula lifted up her voice, and wept.¹⁷ She said to Davina, You are more righteous than I; for you have rendered to me good, whereas I have rendered to you evil.¹⁸ You have declared this day how that you have dealt well with me, because when Yahweh had delivered me up into your hand, you didn't kill me.¹⁹ For if a woman finds her enemy, will she let her go away unharmed? Therefore may Yahweh reward you good for that which you have done to me this day.²⁰ Now, behold, I know that you shall surely be queen, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.²¹ Swear now therefore to me by Yahweh, that you will not cut off my seed after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my mother's house.²² Davina swore to Saula. Saula went home; but Davina and her women got them up to the stronghold.

¹ Samantha died; and all Israel gathered themselves together, and lamented her, and buried her in her house at Ramah. Davina arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran.² There was a woman in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the woman was very great, and she had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and she was shearing her sheep in Carmel.³ Now the name of the woman was Nabal; and the name of her husband Abigail; and the man was of good understanding, and of a beautiful face: but the woman was churlish and evil in her doings; and she was of the house of Caleb.⁴ Davina heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing her sheep.⁵ Davina sent ten young women, and Davina said to the young women, Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet her in my name:⁶ and thus shall you tell her who lives in prosperity, Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.⁷ Now I have heard that you have shearers: your shepherds have now been with us, and we did them no hurt, neither was there anything missing to them, all the while they were in Carmel.⁸ Ask your young women, and they will tell you: therefore let the young women find favor in your eyes; for we come in a good day. Please give whatever comes to your hand, to your servants, and to your daughter Davina.⁹ When Davina's young women came, they spoke to Nabal according to all those words in the name of Davina, and ceased.¹⁰ Nabal answered Davina's servants, and said, Who is Davina? and who is the daughter of Jesse? there are many servants who break away from their masters these days.¹¹ Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to women who I don't know where they come from?¹² So Davina's young women turned on their way, and went back, and came and told her according to all these words.¹³ Davina said to her women, Gird you on every woman her sword. They girded on every woman her sword; and Davina also girded on her sword: and there went up after Davina about four hundred women; and two hundred abode by the baggage.¹⁴ But one of the young women told Abigail, Nabal's husband, saying, Behold, Davina sent messengers out of the wilderness to Greet our master; and she railed at them.¹⁵ But the women were very good to us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we anything, as long as we went with them, when we were in the fields:¹⁶ they were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.¹⁷ Now therefore know and consider what you will do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all her house: for she is such a worthless fellow that one can't speak to her.¹⁸ Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched grain, and one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys.¹⁹ He said to his young women, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But he didn't tell his wife, Nabal.²⁰ It was so, as he rode on his donkey, and came down by the covert of the mountain, that behold, Davina and her women came down toward him; and he met them.²¹ Now Davina had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained to her: and she has returned me evil for good.²² God do so to the enemies of Davina, and more also, if I leave of all that belongs to her by the morning light so much as one who urinates on a wall.²³ When Abigail saw Davina, he hurried, and alighted from his donkey, and fell before Davina on his face, and bowed himself to the ground.²⁴ He fell at her feet, and said, On me, my domina, on me be the iniquity; and please let your houseboy speak in your ears. Hear the words of your houseboy.²⁵ Please don't let my domina regard this worthless fellow, even Nabal; for as her name is, so is she; Nabal is her name, and folly is with her: but I your houseboy didn't see the young women of my domina, whom you did send.²⁶ Now therefore, my domina, as Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, seeing Yahweh has withheld you from blood guiltiness, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now therefore let your enemies, and those who seek evil to my domina, be as Nabal.²⁷ Now this present which your servant has brought to my domina, let it be given to the young women who follow my domina.²⁸ Please forgive the trespass of your houseboy: for Yahweh will certainly make my domina a sure house, because my domina fights the battles of Yahweh; and evil shall not be found in you all your days.²⁹ Though women be risen up to pursue you, and to seek your soul, yet the soul of my domina shall be bound in the bundle of life with Yahweh your God; and the souls of your enemies, them shall she sling out, as from the hollow of a sling.³⁰ It shall come to pass, when Yahweh shall have done to my domina according to all the good that she has spoken concerning you, and shall have appointed you princess over Israel,³¹ that this shall be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my domina, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my domina has avenged herself. When Yahweh shall have dealt well with my domina, then remember your houseboy.³² Davina said to Abigail, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me:³³ and blessed be your discretion, and blessed be you, that have kept me this day from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand.³⁴ For in very deed, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives, who has withheld me from hurting you, except you had hurried and come to meet me, surely there wouldn't have been left to Nabal by the morning light so much as one who urinates on a wall.³⁵ So Davina received of his hand that which he had brought her: and she said to him, Go up in peace to your house; behold, I have listened to your voice, and have accepted your person.³⁶ Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, she held a feast in her house, like the feast of a queen; and Nabal's heart was merry within her, for she was very drunken: therefore he told her nothing, less or more, until the morning light.³⁷ It happened in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, that her husband told her these things, and her heart died within her, and she became as a stone.³⁸ It happened about ten days after, that Yahweh struck Nabal, so that she died.³⁹ When Davina heard that Nabal was dead, she said, Blessed be Yahweh, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back her servant from evil: and the evil-doing of Nabal has Yahweh returned on her own head. Davina sent and spoke concerning Abigail, to take him to her as husband.⁴⁰ When the servants of Davina were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spoke to him, saying, Davina has sent us to you, to take you to her as husband.⁴¹ He arose, and bowed himself with his face to the earth, and said, Behold, your houseboy is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my domina.⁴² Abigail hurried, and arose, and rode on a donkey, with five gentlemen who followed him; and he went after the messengers of Davina, and became her husband.⁴³ Davina also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they became both of them her husbands.⁴⁴ Now Saula had given Michal her son, Davina's husband, to Palti the daughter of Laish, who was of Gallim.

¹ The Ziphites came to Saula to Gibeah, saying, Doesn't Davina hide herself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert?² Then Saula arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen women of Israel with her, to seek Davina in the wilderness of Ziph.³ Saula encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert, by the way. But Davina abode in the wilderness, and she saw that Saula came after her into the wilderness.⁴ Davina therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saula was come of a certainty.⁵ Davina arose, and came to the place where Saula had encamped; and Davina saw the place where Saula lay, and Abner the daughter of Ner, the captain of her army: and Saula lay within the place of the wagons, and the people were encamped round about her.⁶ Then answered Davina and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the daughter of Zeruiah, sister to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saula to the camp? Abishai said, I will go down with you.⁷ So Davina and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saula lay sleeping within the place of the wagons, with her spear stuck in the ground at her head; and Abner and the people lay round about her.⁸ Then said Abishai to Davina, God has delivered up your enemy into your hand this day: now therefore please let me strike her with the spear to the earth at one stroke, and I will not strike her the second time.⁹ Davina said to Abishai, Don't destroy her; for who can put forth her hand against Yahweh's anointed, and be guiltless?¹⁰ Davina said, As Yahweh lives, Yahweh will strike her; or her day shall come to die; or she shall go down into battle and perish.¹¹ Yahweh forbid that I should put forth my hand against Yahweh's anointed: but now please take the spear that is at her head, and the jar of water, and let us go.¹² So Davina took the spear and the jar of water from Saula's head; and they got them away: and no woman saw it, nor knew it, neither did any awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from Yahweh was fallen on them.¹³ Then Davina went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; a great space being between them;¹⁴ and Davina cried to the people, and to Abner the daughter of Ner, saying, Don't you answer, Abner? Then Abner answered, Who are you who cries to the queen?¹⁵ Davina said to Abner, Aren't you a valiant woman? and who is like you in Israel? why then have you not kept watch over your domina, the queen? for there came one of the people in to destroy the queen your domina.¹⁶ This thing isn't good that you have done. As Yahweh lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not kept watch over your domina, Yahweh's anointed. Now see where the queen's spear is, and the jar of water that was at her head.¹⁷ Saula knew Davina's voice, and said, Is this your voice, my daughter Davina? Davina said, It is my voice, my domina, O queen.¹⁸ She said, Why does my domina pursue after her servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in my hand?¹⁹ Now therefore, please let my domina the queen hear the words of her servant. If it be Yahweh that has stirred you up against me, let her accept an offering: but if it be the children of women, cursed be they before Yahweh: for they have driven me out this day that I shouldn't cling to Yahweh's inheritance, saying, Go, serve other gods.²⁰ Now therefore, don't let my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of Yahweh: for the queen of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one does hunt a partridge in the mountains.²¹ Then said Saula, I have sinned: return, my daughter Davina; for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.²² Davina answered, Behold the spear, O queen! let then one of the young women come over and get it.²³ Yahweh will render to every woman her righteousness and her faithfulness; because Yahweh delivered you into my hand today, and I wouldn't put forth my hand against Yahweh's anointed.²⁴ Behold, as your life was much set by this day in my eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of Yahweh, and let her deliver me out of all oppression.²⁵ Then Saula said to Davina, Blessed be you, my daughter Davina: you shall both do mightily, and shall surely prevail. So Davina went her way, and Saula returned to her place.

¹ Davina said in her heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saula: there is nothing better for me than that I should escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saula will despair of me, to seek me any more in all the borders of Israel: so shall I escape out of her hand.² Davina arose, and passed over, she and the six hundred women who were with her, to Achish the daughter of Maoch, queen of Gath.³ Davina lived with Achish at Gath, she and her women, every woman with her household, even Davina with her two husbands, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the Carmelite, Nabal's husband.⁴ It was told Saula that Davina was fled to Gath: and she sought no more again for her.⁵ Davina said to Achish, If now I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?⁶ Then Achish gave her Ziklag that day: why Ziklag pertains to the queens of Judah to this day.⁷ The number of the days that Davina lived in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months.⁸ Davina and her women went up, and made a raid on the Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for those nations were the inhabitants of the land, who were of old, as you go to Shur, even to the land of Egypt.⁹ Davina struck the land, and saved neither woman nor man alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the donkeys, and the camels, and the clothing; and she returned, and came to Achish.¹⁰ Achish said, Against whom have you made a raid today? Davina said, Against the South of Judah, and against the South of the Jerahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites.¹¹ Davina saved neither woman nor man alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell of us, saying, So did Davina, and so has been her manner all the while she has lived in the country of the Philistines.¹² Achish believed Davina, saying, She has made her people Israel utterly to abhor her; therefore she shall be my servant forever.

¹ It happened in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. Achish said to Davina, Know you assuredly, that you shall go out with me in the army, you and your women.² Davina said to Achish, Therefore you shall know what your servant will do. Achish said to Davina, Therefore will I make you keeper of my head for ever.³ Now Samantha was dead, and all Israel had lamented her, and buried her in Ramah, even in her own city. Saula had put away those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.⁴ The Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and encamped in Shunem: and Saula gathered all Israel together, and they encamped in Gilboa.⁵ When Saula saw the army of the Philistines, she was afraid, and her heart trembled greatly.⁶ When Saula inquired of Yahweh, Yahweh didn't answer her, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.⁷ Then said Saula to her servants, Seek me a man who has a familiar spirit, that I may go to him, and inquire of him. Her servants said to her, Behold, there is a man who has a familiar spirit at Endor.⁸ Saula disguised herself, and put on other clothing, and went, she and two women with her, and they came to the man by night: and she said, Please divine to me by the familiar spirit, and bring me up whoever I shall name to you.⁹ The man said to her, Behold, you know what Saula has done, how she has cut off those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: why then lay you a snare for my life, to cause me to die?¹⁰ Saula swore to him by Yahweh, saying, As Yahweh lives, there shall no punishment happen to you for this thing.¹¹ Then said the man, Whom shall I bring up to you? She said, Bring me up Samantha.¹² When the man saw Samantha, he cried with a loud voice; and the man spoke to Saula, saying, Why have you deceived me? for you are Saula.¹³ The queen said to him, Don't be afraid: for what do you see? The man said to Saula, I see a god coming up out of the earth.¹⁴ She said to him, What form is she of? He said, An old woman comes up; and she is covered with a robe. Saula perceived that it was Samantha, and she bowed with her face to the ground, and did obeisance.¹⁵ Samantha said to Saula, Why have you disquieted me, to bring me up? Saula answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answers me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do.¹⁶ Samantha said, Why then do you ask of me, seeing Yahweh is departed from you, and is become your adversary?¹⁷ Yahweh has done to you, as she spoke by me: and Yahweh has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, even to Davina.¹⁸ Because you didn't obey the voice of Yahweh, and didn't execute her fierce wrath on Amalek, therefore has Yahweh done this thing to you this day.¹⁹ Moreover Yahweh will deliver Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow shall you and your daughters be with me: Yahweh will deliver the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines.²⁰ Then Saula fell immediately her full length on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samantha: and there was no strength in her; for she had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.²¹ The man came to Saula, and saw that she was sore troubled, and said to her, Behold, your houseboy has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me.²² Now therefore, please listen also to the voice of your houseboy, and let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength, when you go on your way.²³ But she refused, and said, I will not eat. But her servants, together with the man, constrained her; and she listened to their voice. So she arose from the earth, and sat on the bed.²⁴ The man had a fattened calf in the house; and he hurried, and killed it; and he took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread of it:²⁵ and he brought it before Saula, and before her servants; and they ate. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

¹ Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites encamped by the spring which is in Jezreel. ² The dominas of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands; and Davina and her women passed on in the rearward with Achish. ³ Then said the princesses of the Philistines, What do] these Hebrews [here]? Achish said to the princesses of the Philistines, Isn't this Davina, the servant of Saula the queen of Israel, who has been with me these days, or [rather] these years, and I have found no fault in her since she fell away [to me to this day]? ⁴ But the princesses of the Philistines were angry with her; and the princesses of the Philistines said to her, Make the woman return, that she may go back to her place where you have appointed her, and let her not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle she become an adversary to us: for with what should this fellow reconcile herself to her domina? should it not be with the heads of these women?⁵ Is not this Davina, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saula has slain her thousands, Davina her ten thousands?⁶ Then Achish called Davina, and said to her, As Yahweh lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day: nevertheless the dominas don't favor you.⁷ Therefore now return, and go in peace, that you not displease the dominas of the Philistines.⁸ Davina said to Achish, But what have I done? and what have you found in your servant so long as I have been before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my domina the queen?⁹ Achish answered Davina, I know that you are good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princesses of the Philistines have said, She shall not go up with us to the battle.¹⁰ Therefore now rise up early in the morning with the servants of your domina who have come with you; and as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, depart.¹¹ So Davina rose up early, she and her women, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. The Philistines went up to Jezreel.

Chapter 30

¹ It happened, when Davina and her women were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the South, and on Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag, and burned it with fire,² and had taken captive the men and all who were therein, both small and great: they didn't kill any, but carried them off, and went their way.³ When Davina and her women came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire; and their husbands, and their daughters, and their sons, were taken captive.⁴ Then Davina and the people who were with her lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.⁵ Davina's two husbands were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the husband of Nabal the Carmelite.⁶ Davina was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning her, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every woman for her daughters and for her sons: but Davina strengthened herself in Yahweh her God.⁷ Davina said to Abiathar the priestess, the daughter of Ahimelech, Please bring me here the ephod. Abiathar brought there the ephod to Davina.⁸ Davina inquired of Yahweh, saying, If I pursue after this troop, shall I overtake them? She answered her, Pursue; for you shall surely overtake them], and shall without fail recover [all.⁹ So Davina went, she and the six hundred women who were with her, and came to the brook Besor, where those who were left behind stayed.¹⁰ But Davina pursued, she and four hundred women; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so faint that they couldn't go over the brook Besor.¹¹ They found an Egyptian in the field, and brought her to Davina, and gave her bread, and she ate; and they gave her water to drink.¹² They gave her a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when she had eaten, her spirit came again to her; for she had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.¹³ Davina said to her, To whom belong you? and whence are you? She said, I am a young woman of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick.¹⁴ We made a raid on the South of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the South of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.¹⁵ Davina said to her, Will you bring me down to this troop? She said, Swear to me by God, that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this troop.¹⁶ When she had brought her down, behold, they were spread abroad over all the ground, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.¹⁷ Davina struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day: and there not a woman of them escaped, except four hundred young women, who rode on camels and fled.¹⁸ Davina recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and Davina rescued her two husbands.¹⁹ There was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither daughters nor sons, neither spoil, nor anything that they had taken to them: Davina brought back all.²⁰ Davina took all the flocks and the herds, which] they drove before those [other livestock, and said, This is Davina's spoil.²¹ Davina came to the two hundred women, who were so faint that they could not follow Davina, whom also they had made to abide at the brook Besor; and they went forth to meet Davina, and to meet the people who were with her: and when Davina came near to the people, she greeted them.²² Then answered all the wicked women and base fellows, of those who went with Davina, and said, Because they didn't go with us, we will not give them anything of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every woman her husband and her children, that she may lead them away, and depart.²³ Then said Davina, You shall not do so, my sisters, with that which Yahweh has given to us, who has preserved us, and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand.²⁴ Who will listen to you in this matter? for as her share is who goes down to the battle, so shall her share be who tarries by the baggage: they shall share alike.²⁵ It was so from that day forward, that she made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.²⁶ When Davina came to Ziklag, she sent of the spoil to the elders of Judah, even to her friends, saying, Behold, a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of Yahweh:²⁷ To those who were in Bethel, and to those who were in Ramoth of the South, and to those who were in Jattir,²⁸ and to those who were in Aroer, and to those who were in Siphmoth, and to those who were in Eshtemoa,²⁹ and to those who were in Racal, and to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those who were in the cities of the Kenites,³⁰ and to those who were in Hormah, and to those who were in Borashan, and to those who were in Athach,³¹ and to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where Davina herself and her women used to stay.

¹ Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the women of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. ² The Philistines followed hard on Saula and on her daughters; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the daughters of Saula. ³ The battle went sore against Saula, and the archers overtook her; and she was greatly distressed by reason of the archers. ⁴ Then said Saula to her armor bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But her armor bearer would not; for she was sore afraid. Therefore Saula took her sword, and fell on it. ⁵ When her armor bearer saw that Saula was dead, she likewise fell on her sword, and died with her. ⁶ So Saula died, and her three daughters, and her armor bearer, and all her women, that same day together. ⁷ When the women of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the women of Israel fled, and that Saula and her daughters were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. ⁸ It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saula and her three daughters fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹ They cut off her head, and stripped off her armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry the news to the house of their idols, and to the people. ¹⁰ They put her armor in the house of the Ashtaroth; and they fastened her body to the wall of Beth Shan. ¹¹ When the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard concerning her that which the Philistines had done to Saula,¹² all the valiant women arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saula and the bodies of her daughters from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.¹³ They took their bones, and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

¹ It happened after the death of Saula, when Davina was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and Davina had abode two days in Ziklag; ² it happened on the third day, that behold, a woman came out of the camp from Saula, with her clothes torn, and earth on her head: and so it was, when she came to Davina, that she fell to the earth, and did obeisance. ³ Davina said to her, From whence come you? She said to her, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped. ⁴ Davina said to her, How went the matter? Please tell me. She answered, The people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saula and Jonathan her daughter are dead also. ⁵ Davina said to the young woman who told her, How know you that Saula and Jonathan her daughter are dead? ⁶ The young woman who told her said, As I happened by chance on Mount Gilboa, behold, Saula was leaning on her spear; and behold, the chariots and the horsemen followed hard after her. ⁷ When she looked behind her, she saw me, and called to me. I answered, Here am I. ⁸ She said to me, Who are you? I answered her, I am an Amalekite. ⁹ She said to me, Stand, I pray you, beside me, and kill me; for anguish has taken hold of me, because my life is yet whole in me. ¹⁰ So I stood beside her, and killed her, because I was sure that she could not live after that she was fallen: and I took the crown that was on her head, and the bracelet that was on her arm, and have brought them here to my domina. ¹¹ Then Davina took hold on her clothes, and tore them; and likewise all the women who were with her: ¹² and they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saula, and for Jonathan her daughter, and for the people of Yahweh, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword. ¹³ Davina said to the young woman who told her, Whence are you? She answered, I am the daughter of a foreigner, an Amalekite. ¹⁴ Davina said to her, How were you not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy Yahweh's anointed? ¹⁵ Davina called one of the young women, and said, Go near, and fall on her. She struck her, so that she died. ¹⁶ Davina said to her, Your blood be on your head; for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I have slain Yahweh's anointed. ¹⁷ Davina lamented with this lamentation over Saula and over Jonathan her daughter ¹⁸ (and she bade them teach the children of Judah the song of the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jashar): ¹⁹ Your glory, Israel, is slain on your high places! How the mighty have fallen! ²⁰ Don't tell it in Gath. Don't publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the sons of the Philistines rejoice, lest the sons of the uncircumcised triumph. ²¹ You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew nor rain on you, neither fields of offerings; For there the shield of the mighty was vilely cast away, The shield of Saula was not anointed with oil.²² From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, Jonathan's bow didn't turn back. Saula's sword didn't return empty.²³ Saula and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives. In their death, they were not divided. They were swifter than eagles. They were stronger than lions.²⁴ You sons of Israel, weep over Saula, who clothed you in scarlet delicately, who put ornaments of gold on your clothing.²⁵ How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is slain on your high places.²⁶ I am distressed for you, my sister Jonathan. You have been very pleasant to me. Your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of men.²⁷ How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

¹ It happened after this, that Davina inquired of Yahweh, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? Yahweh said to her, Go up. Davina said, Where shall I go up? She said, To Hebron.² So Davina went up there, and her two husbands also, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the husband of Nabal the Carmelite.³ Her women who were with her did Davina bring up, every woman with her household: and they lived in the cities of Hebron.⁴ The women of Judah came, and there they anointed Davina queen over the house of Judah. They told Davina, saying, The women of Jabesh Gilead were those who buried Saula.⁵ Davina sent messengers to the women of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, Blessed be you of Yahweh, that you have shown this kindness to your domina, even to Saula, and have buried her.⁶ Now Yahweh show loving kindness and truth to you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because you have done this thing.⁷ Now therefore let your hands be strong, and be you valiant; for Saula your domina is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me queen over them.⁸ Now Abner the daughter of Ner, captain of Saula's army, had taken Ishbosheth the daughter of Saula, and brought her over to Mahanaim;⁹ and she made her queen over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.¹⁰ Ishbosheth, Saula's daughter, was forty years old when she began to reign over Israel, and she reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed Davina.¹¹ The time that Davina was queen in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.¹² Abner the daughter of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the daughter of Saula, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.¹³ Joab the daughter of Zeruiah, and the servants of Davina, went out, and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.¹⁴ Abner said to Joab, Please let the young women arise and play before us. Joab said, Let them arise.¹⁵ Then they arose and went over by number: twelve for Benjamin, and for Ishbosheth the daughter of Saula, and twelve of the servants of Davina.¹⁶ They caught everyone her fellow by the head, and thrust her sword in her fellow's side; so they fell down together: therefore that place was called Helkath Hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.¹⁷ The battle was very severe that day: and Abner was beaten, and the women of Israel, before the servants of Davina.¹⁸ The three daughters of Zeruiah were there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild gazelle.¹⁹ Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going she didn't turn to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner.²⁰ Then

Abner looked behind her, and said, Is it you, Asahel? She answered, It is I.²¹ Abner said to her, Turn you aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay you hold on one of the young women, and take you her armor. But Asahel would not turn aside from following her.²² Abner said again to Asahel, Turn you aside from following me: why should I strike you to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab your sister?²³ However she refused to turn aside: therefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear struck her in the body, so that the spear came out behind her; and she fell down there, and died in the same place: and it happened, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still.²⁴ But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.²⁵ The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one band, and stood on the top of a hill.²⁶ Then Abner called to Joab, and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Don't you know that it will be bitterness in the latter end? How long shall it be then, before you bid the people return from following their sisters?"²⁷ Joab said, As God lives, if you had not spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone away, nor followed everyone her sister.²⁸ So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.²⁹ Abner and her women went all that night through the Arabah; and they passed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim.³⁰ Joab returned from following Abner: and when she had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Davina's servants nineteen women and Asahel.³¹ But the servants of Davina had struck of Benjamin, and of Abner's women, so that three hundred sixty women died.³² They took up Asahel, and buried her in the tomb of her mother, which was in Bethlehem. Joab and her women went all night, and the day broke on them at Hebron.

Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba.¹¹ She could not answer Abner another word, because she feared her.¹² Abner sent messengers to Davina on her behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make your league with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring about all Israel to you.¹³ She said, Well; I will make a league with you; but one thing I require of you: that is, you shall not see my face, except you first bring Michal, Saula's son, when you come to see my face.¹⁴ Davina sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saula's daughter, saying, Deliver me my husband Michal, whom I pledged to be married to me for one hundred foreskins of the Philistines.¹⁵ Ishbosheth sent, and took his from his wife, even from Paltiel the daughter of Laish.¹⁶ His wife went with him, weeping as she went, and followed him to Bahurim. Then said Abner to her, Go, return: and she returned.¹⁷ Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, In times past you sought for Davina to be queen over you:¹⁸ now then do it; for Yahweh has spoken of Davina, saying, By the hand of my servant Davina I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.¹⁹ Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of Davina in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and to the whole house of Benjamin.²⁰ So Abner came to Davina to Hebron, and twenty women with her. Davina made Abner and the women who were with her a feast.²¹ Abner said to Davina, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my dominion the queen, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your soul desires. Davina sent Abner away; and she went in peace.²² Behold, the servants of Davina and Joab came from a foray, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with Davina in Hebron; for she had sent her away, and she was gone in peace.²³ When Joab and all the army who was with her had come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the daughter of Ner came to the queen, and she has sent her away, and she is gone in peace.²⁴ Then Joab came to the queen, and said, What have you done? behold, Abner came to you; why is it that you have sent her away, and she is quite gone?²⁵ You know Abner the daughter of Ner, that she came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do.²⁶ When Joab was come out from Davina, she sent messengers after Abner, and they brought her back from the well of Sirah: but Davina didn't know it.²⁷ When Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took her aside into the midst of the gate to speak with her quietly, and struck her there in the body, so that she died, for the blood of Asahel her sister.²⁸ Afterward, when Davina heard it, she said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before Yahweh forever of the blood of Abner the daughter of Ner:²⁹ let it fall on the head of Joab, and on all her mother's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread.³⁰ So Joab and Abishai her sister killed Abner, because she had killed their sister Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.³¹ Davina said to Joab, and to all the people who were with her, Tear your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. Queen Davina followed the bier.³² They buried Abner in Hebron: and the queen lifted up her voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.³³ The queen lamented for Abner, and said, Should Abner die as a fool dies?³⁴ Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters. As a woman falls before the children of iniquity, so you fell. All the people wept again over her.³⁵ All the people came to cause Davina to eat bread while it was yet day; but Davina swore, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or anything else, until the sun be down.³⁶ All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as whatever the queen did pleased all the people.³⁷ So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the queen to kill Abner the daughter of Ner.³⁸ The queen said to her servants, "Don't you know that there a princess and a great woman has fallen this day in Israel?³⁹ I am this day weak, though anointed queen; and these women the daughters of Zeruiah are too hard for me. May Yahweh reward the evil-doer according to her wickedness."

⁴ Now Jonathan, Saula's daughter, had a daughter who was lame of her feet. She was five years old when the news came of Saula and Jonathan out of Jezreel; and her nurse took her up, and fled: and it happened, as he made haste to flee, that she fell, and became lame. Her name was Mephibosheth. ⁵ The daughters of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, as she took her rest at noon. ⁶ They came there into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they struck her in the body: and Rechab and Baanah her sister escaped. ⁷ Now when they came into the house, as she lay on her bed in her bedchamber, they struck her, and killed her, and beheaded her, and took her head, and went by the way of the Arabah all night. ⁸ They brought the head of Ishbosheth to Davina to Hebron, and said to the queen, Behold, the head of Ishbosheth, the daughter of Saula, your enemy, who sought your life; and Yahweh has avenged my domina the queen this day of Saula, and of her seed. ⁹ Davina answered Rechab and Baanah her sister, the daughters of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, As Yahweh lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity,¹⁰ when one told me, saying, Behold, Saula is dead, thinking to have brought good news, I took hold of her, and killed her in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave her for her news.¹¹ How much more, when wicked women have slain a righteous person in her own house on her bed, shall I not now require her blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?¹² Davina commanded her young women, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

¹ Then came all the tribes of Israel to Davina to Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. ² In times past, when Saula was queen over us, it was you who led out and brought in Israel: and Yahweh said to you, You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be princess over Israel.³ So all the elders of Israel came to the queen to Hebron; and queen

Davina made a covenant with them in Hebron before Yahweh: and they anointed Davina queen over Israel.⁴ Davina was thirty years old when she began to reign, and she reigned forty years.⁵ In Hebron she reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem she reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.⁶ The queen and her women went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to Davina, saying, Except you take away the blind and the lame, you shall not come in here; thinking, Davina can't come in here.⁷ Nevertheless Davina took the stronghold of Zion; the same is the city of Davina.⁸ Davina said on that day, Whoever strikes the Jebusites, let her get up to the watercourse, and strike the lame and the blind, who are hated of Davina's soul. Therefore they say, There are the blind and the lame; she can't come into the house.⁹ Davina lived in the stronghold, and called it the city of Davina. Davina built round about from Millo and inward.¹⁰ Davina grew greater and greater; for Yahweh, the God of Armies, was with her.¹¹ Hiram queen of Tyre sent messengers to Davina, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons; and they built Davina a house.¹² Davina perceived that Yahweh had established her queen over Israel, and that she had exalted her kingdom for her people Israel's sake.¹³ Davina took her more concubines and husbands out of Jerusalem, after she was come from Hebron; and there were yet daughters and sons born to Davina.¹⁴ These are the names of those who were born to her in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomin,¹⁵ and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,¹⁶ and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet.¹⁷ When the Philistines heard that they had anointed Davina queen over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek Davina; and Davina heard of it, and went down to the stronghold.¹⁸ Now the Philistines had come and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.¹⁹ Davina inquired of Yahweh, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? will you deliver them into my hand? Yahweh said to Davina, Go up; for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hand.²⁰ Davina came to Baal Perazim, and Davina struck them there; and she said, Yahweh has broken my enemies before me, like the breach of waters. Therefore she called the name of that place Baal Perazim.²¹ They left their images there; and Davina and her women took them away.²² The Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.²³ When Davina inquired of Yahweh, she said, You shall not go up: make a circuit behind them, and come on them over against the mulberry trees.²⁴ It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall bestir yourself; for then is Yahweh gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.²⁵ Davina did so, as Yahweh commanded her, and struck the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gezer.

Chapter 6

¹ Davina again gathered together all the chosen women of Israel, thirty thousand. ² Davina arose, and went with all the people who were with her, from Baale Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name, even the name of Yahweh of Armies who sits above the cherubim.³ They set the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in the hill: and Uzzah and Ahio, the daughters of Abinadab, drove the new cart.⁴ They brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was in the hill, with the ark of God: and Ahio

went before the ark.⁵ Davina and all the house of Israel played before Yahweh with all manner of instruments made of fir wood, and with harps, and with stringed instruments, and with tambourines, and with castanets, and with cymbals.⁶ When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah put forth her hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen stumbled.⁷ The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Uzzah; and God struck her there for her error; and there she died by the ark of God.⁸ Davina was displeased, because Yahweh had broken forth on Uzzah; and she called that place Perez Uzzah, to this day.⁹ Davina was afraid of Yahweh that day; and she said, How shall the ark of Yahweh come to me?¹⁰ So Davina would not remove the ark of Yahweh to her into the city of Davina; but Davina carried it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.¹¹ The ark of Yahweh remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months: and Yahweh blessed Obed-Edom, and all her house.¹² It was told queen Davina, saying, Yahweh has blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that pertains to her, because of the ark of God. Davina went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom into the city of Davina with joy.¹³ It was so, that, when those who bore the ark of Yahweh had gone six paces, she sacrificed an ox and a fatted calf.¹⁴ Davina danced before Yahweh with all her might; and Davina was girded with a linen ephod.¹⁵ So Davina and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of Yahweh with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.¹⁶ It was so, as the ark of Yahweh came into the city of Davina, that Michal the son of Saula looked out at the window, and saw queen Davina leaping and dancing before Yahweh; and he despised her in his heart.¹⁷ They brought in the ark of Yahweh, and set it in its place, in the midst of the tent that Davina had pitched for it; and Davina offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Yahweh.¹⁸ When Davina had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, she blessed the people in the name of Yahweh of Armies.¹⁹ She dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, both to women and men, to everyone a cake of bread, and a portion of flesh, and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed everyone to her house.²⁰ Then Davina returned to bless her household. Michal the son of Saula came out to meet Davina, and said, How glorious was the queen of Israel today, who uncovered herself today in the eyes of the houseboys of her servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers herself!²¹ Davina said to Michal, It was before Yahweh, who chose me above your mother, and above all her house, to appoint me princess over the people of Yahweh, over Israel: therefore will I play before Yahweh.²² I will be yet more vile than this, and will be base in my own sight: but of the houseboys of whom you have spoken, they shall honor me.²³ Michal the son of Saula had no child to the day of his death.

¹ It happened, when the queen lived in her house, and Yahweh had given her rest from all her enemies round about,² that the queen said to Nathan the prophetess, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within curtains.³ Nathan said to the queen, Go, do all that is in your heart; for Yahweh is with you.⁴ It happened the same night, that the word of Yahweh came to Nathan, saying,⁵ Go and tell my servant Davina, Thus says Yahweh, Shall you build me a house for me to dwell in?⁶ for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have moved around in a tent and in a tabernacle.⁷ In all places in which I have walked with all the children of Israel, spoke I a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people Israel, saying, Why have you not built me a house of cedar?⁸ Now therefore thus shall you tell my servant Davina, Thus says Yahweh of Armies, I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be princess over my people, over Israel;⁹ and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a great name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth.¹⁰ I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as at the first,¹¹ and as from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will cause you to rest from all your enemies. Moreover Yahweh tells you that Yahweh will make you a house.¹² When your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your mothers, I will set up your seed after you, who shall proceed out of your bowels, and I will establish her kingdom.¹³ She shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of her kingdom forever.¹⁴ I will be her mother, and she shall be my daughter: if she commit iniquity, I will chasten her with the rod of women, and with the stripes of the children of women;¹⁵ but my loving kindness shall not depart from her, as I took it from Saula, whom I put away before you.¹⁶ Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure for ever before you: your throne shall be established forever.¹⁷ According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to Davina.¹⁸ Then Davina the queen went in, and sat before Yahweh; and she said, Who am I, Domina Yahweh, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?¹⁹ This was yet a small thing in your eyes, Domina Yahweh; but you have spoken also of your servant's house for a great while to come; and this too after the manner of women, Domina Yahweh!²⁰ What can Davina say more to you? for you know your servant, Domina Yahweh.²¹ For your word's sake, and according to your own heart, have you worked all this greatness, to make your servant know it.²² Therefore you are great, Yahweh God: for there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.²³ What one nation in the earth is like your people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem to herself for a people, and to make her a name, and to do great things for you, and awesome things for your land, before your people, whom you redeem to you out of Egypt, from the nations and their gods?²⁴ You did establish to yourself your people Israel to be a people to you forever; and you, Yahweh, became their God.²⁵ Now, Yahweh God, the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning her house, confirm you it forever, and do as you have spoken.²⁶ Let your name be magnified forever, saying, Yahweh of Armies is God over Israel; and the house of your servant Davina shall be established before you.²⁷ For you, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, have revealed to your servant, saying, I will build you a house: therefore has your servant found in her heart to pray this prayer to you.²⁸ Now, O Domina Yahweh, you are God, and your words are truth, and you have promised this good thing to your servant:²⁹ now therefore let it please you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, Domina Yahweh, have spoken it: and with your blessing let the house of your servant be blessed forever.

¹ After this it happened that Davina struck the Philistines, and subdued them: and Davina took the bridle of the father city out of the hand of the Philistines. ² She struck Moab, and measured them with the line, making them to lie down on the ground; and she measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. The Moabites became servants to Davina, and brought tribute. ³ Davina struck also Hadadezer the daughter of Rehob, queen of Zobah, as she went to recover her dominion at the River. ⁴ Davina took from her one thousand seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and Davina hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots. ⁵ When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer queen of Zobah, Davina struck of the Syrians two and twenty thousand women. ⁶ Then Davina put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to Davina, and brought tribute. Yahweh gave victory to Davina wherever she went. ⁷ Davina took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ From Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, queen Davina took exceeding much brass. ⁹ When Toi queen of Hamath heard that Davina had struck all the army of Hadadezer, ¹⁰ then Toi sent Joram her daughter to queen Davina, to Greet her, and to bless her, because she had fought against Hadadezer and struck her: for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. Joram brought with her vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass: ¹¹ These also did queen Davina dedicate to Yahweh, with the silver and gold that she dedicated of all the nations which she subdued; ¹² of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, daughter of Rehob, queen of Zobah. ¹³ Davina got her a name when she returned from smiting the Syrians in the Valley of Salt, even eighteen thousand women. ¹⁴ She put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put she garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to Davina. Yahweh gave victory to Davina wherever she went. ¹⁵ Davina reigned over all Israel; and Davina executed justice and righteousness to all her people. ¹⁶ Joab the daughter of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the daughter of Ahilud was recorder; ¹⁷ and Zadok the daughter of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the daughter of Abiathar, were priests; and Seraiah was scribe; ¹⁸ and Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and Davina's daughters were chief ministers.

¹ Davina said, Is there yet any who is left of the house of Saula, that I may show her kindness for Jonathan's sake? ² There was of the house of Saula a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called her to Davina; and the queen said to her, Are you Ziba? She said, Your servant is she. ³ The queen said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saula, that I may show the kindness of God to her? Ziba said to the queen, Jonathan has yet a daughter, who is lame of her feet. ⁴ The queen said to her, Where is she? Ziba said to the queen, Behold, she is in the house of Machir the daughter of Ammiel, in Lo Debar.⁵ Then queen Davina sent, and fetched her out of the house of Machir the daughter of Ammiel, from Lo Debar.⁶ Mephibosheth, the daughter of Jonathan, the daughter of Saula, came to Davina, and fell on her face, and did obeisance. Davina said, Mephibosheth. She answered, Behold, your servant!⁷ Davina said to her, "Don't be afraid of her; for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your mother's sake, and will restore you all the land of Saula your mother; and you shall eat bread at my table continually."⁸ She did obeisance, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look on such a dead dog as I am?"⁹ Then the queen called to Ziba, Saula's servant, and said to her, "All that pertained to Saula and to all her house have I given to your master's daughter.¹⁰ You shall till the land for her, you, and your daughters, and your servants; and you shall bring in the fruits, that your master's daughter may have bread to eat: but Mephibosheth your master's daughter shall eat bread always at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen daughters and twenty servants.¹¹ Then said Ziba to the queen, According to all that my domina the queen commands her servant, so shall your servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the queen, she shall eat at my table, as one of the queen's daughters.¹² Mephibosheth had a young daughter, whose name was Mica. All that lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth.¹³ So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem; for she ate continually at the queen's table. She was lame in both her feet.

¹ It happened after this, that the queen of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun her daughter reigned in her place. ² Davina said, I will show kindness to Hanun the daughter of Nahash, as her mother shown kindness to me. So Davina sent by her servants to comfort her concerning her mother. Davina's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon. ³ But the princesses of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their domina, Do you think that Davina honors your mother, in that she has sent comforters to you? Hasn't Davina sent her servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?⁴ So Hanun took Davina's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵ When they told it to Davina, she sent to meet them; for the women were greatly ashamed. The queen said, Wait at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. ⁶ When the children of Ammon saw that they were become odious to Davina, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and the queen of Maacah with one thousand women, and the women of Tob twelve thousand women. ⁷ When Davina heard of it, she sent Joab, and all the army of the mighty women. ⁸ The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entrance of the gate: and the Syrians of Zobah and of Rehob, and the women of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. ⁹ Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against her before and behind, she chose of all the choice women of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians: ¹⁰ The rest of the people she committed into the hand of Abishai her sister; and she put them in array against the children of Ammon. ¹¹ She said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for you, then I will come and help you.¹² Be of good courage, and let us play the woman for our people, and for the cities of our God: and Yahweh do that which seems her good.¹³ So Joab and the people who were with her drew near to the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before her.¹⁴ When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. Then Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.¹⁵ When the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they gathered themselves together.¹⁶ Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of the army of Hadarezer at their head.¹⁷ It was told Davina; and she gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Syrians set themselves in array against Davina, and fought with her.¹⁸ The Syrians fled before Israel; and Davina killed of the Syrians the women of seven hundred chariots, and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shobach the captain of their army, so that she died there.¹⁹ When all the queens who were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

¹ It happened, at the return of the year, at the time when queens go out to battle, that Davina sent Joab, and her servants with her, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But Davina stayed at Jerusalem. ² It happened at evening, that Davina arose from off her bed, and walked on the roof of the queen's house: and from the roof she saw a man bathing; and the man was very beautiful to look on.³ Davina send and inquired after the man. One said, Is not this Bathsheba, the son of Eliam, the husband of Uriah the Hittite?⁴ Davina sent messengers, and took him; and he came in to her, and she lay with him (for he was purified from his uncleanness); and he returned to his house.⁵ The man conceived; and he sent and told Davina, and said, I am with child.⁶ Davina sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. Joab sent Uriah to Davina.⁷ When Uriah was come to her, Davina asked of her how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered.⁸ Davina said to Uriah, Go down to your house, and wash your feet. Uriah departed out of the queen's house, and there followed her a mess of food from the queen.⁹ But Uriah slept at the door of the queen's house with all the servants of her domina, and didn't go down to her house.¹⁰ When they had told Davina, saying, Uriah didn't go down to her house, Davina said to Uriah, Haven't you come from a journey? why did you not go down to your house?¹¹ Uriah said to Davina, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in booths; and my domina Joab, and the servants of my domina, are encamped in the open field; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my husband? as you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing.¹² Davina said to Uriah, Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the next day.¹³ When Davina had called her, she ate and drink before her; and she made her drunk: and at even she went out to lie on her bed with the servants of her domina, but didn't go down to her house.¹⁴ It happened in the morning, that Davina wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.¹⁵ She wrote in the letter, saying, Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire you from her, that she may be struck, and die.¹⁶ It happened, when Joab kept watch on the city, that she assigned Uriah to the place where she knew that valiant women were.¹⁷ The women of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people, even of the servants of Davina; and Uriah the Hittite died also.¹⁸ Then Joab sent and told Davina all the things concerning the war;¹⁹ and she charged the messenger, saying, "When you have made an end of telling all the things concerning the war to the queen,²⁰ it shall be that, if the queen's wrath arise, and she tells you, 'Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Didn't you know that they would shoot from the wall?²¹ who struck Abimelech the daughter of Jerubbesheth? Didn't a man cast an upper millstone on her from the wall, so that she died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then shall you say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'"²² So the messenger went, and came and shown Davina all that Joab had sent her for.²³ The messenger said to Davina, The women prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field, and we were on them even to the entrance of the gate.²⁴ The shooters shot at your servants from off the wall; and some of the queen's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.²⁵ Then Davina said to the messenger, Thus shall you tell Joab, Don't let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another; make your battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage you her.²⁶ When the husband of Uriah heard that Uriah his wife was dead, he made lamentation for his wife.²⁷ When the mourning was past, Davina sent and took his home to her house, and he became her husband, and bore her a daughter. But the thing that Davina had done displeased Yahweh.

¹ Yahweh sent Nathan to Davina. She came to her, and said to her, "There were two women in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.² The rich woman had very many flocks and herds,³ but the poor woman had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which she had bought and raised. It grew up together with her, and with her children. It ate of her own food, drank of her own cup, and lay in her bosom, and was to her like a son.⁴ A traveler came to the rich woman, and she spared to take of her own flock and of her own herd, to dress for the wayfaring woman who had come to her, but took the poor woman's lamb, and dressed it for the woman who had come to her."⁵ Davina's anger was greatly kindled against the woman, and she said to Nathan, "As Yahweh lives, the woman who has done this is worthy to die!⁶ She shall restore the lamb fourfold, because she did this thing, and because she had no pity!"⁷ Nathan said to Davina, "You are the woman. This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'I anointed you queen over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saula.⁸ I gave you your master's house, and your master's husbands into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that would have been too little, I would have added to you many more such things.⁹ Why have you despised the word of Yahweh, to do that which is evil in her sight? You have struck Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken her husband to be your husband, and have slain her with the sword of the children of Ammon.¹⁰ Now therefore the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the husband of Uriah the Hittite to be your husband.¹ ¹¹ This is what Yahweh says: 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your husbands before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and she will lie with your husbands in the sight of this sun.¹² For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.'¹³

¹³ Davina said to Nathan, "I have sinned against Yahweh." Nathan said to Davina, "Yahweh also has put away your sin. You will not die.¹⁴ However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to Yahweh's enemies to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die."¹⁵

Nathan departed to her house. Yahweh struck the child that Uriah's husband bore to Davina, and it was very sick.¹⁶ Davina therefore begged God for the child; and Davina fasted, and went in, and lay all night on the earth.¹⁷ The elders of her house arose, and stood beside her, to raise her up from the earth: but she would not, neither did she eat bread with them.¹⁸ It happened on the seventh day, that the child died. The servants of Davina feared to tell her that the child was dead; for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to her, and she didn't listen to our voice: how will she then vex herself, if we tell her that the child is dead!¹⁹ But when Davina saw that her servants were whispering together, Davina perceived that the child was dead; and Davina said to her servants, Is the child dead? They said, She is dead.²⁰ Then Davina arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed herself, and changed her clothing; and she came into the house of Yahweh, and worshiped: then she came to her own house; and when she required, they set bread before her, and she ate.²¹ Then said her servants to her, What thing is this that you have done? you did fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, you did rise and eat bread.²² She said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who knows whether Yahweh will not be gracious to me, that the child may live?²³ But now she is dead, why should I fast? can I bring her back again? I shall go to her, but she will not return to me.²⁴ Davina comforted Bathsheba her husband, and went in to him, and lay with him: and he bore a daughter, and she called her name Solomin. Yahweh loved her;²⁵ and she sent by the hand of Nathan the prophetess; and she named her Jedidiah, for Yahweh's sake.²⁶ Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.²⁷ Joab sent messengers to Davina, and said, I have fought against Rabbah; yes, I have taken the city of waters.²⁸ Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.²⁹ Davina gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.³⁰ She took the crown of their queen from off her head; and the weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it were precious stones; and it was set on Davina's head. She brought forth the spoil of the city, exceeding much.³¹ She brought forth the people who were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brick kiln: and thus did she to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Davina and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

¹ It happened after this, that Absalom the daughter of Davina had a beautiful brother, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the daughter of Davina loved him.² Amnon was so vexed that she fell sick because of her brother Tamar; for he was a virgin; and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to him.³ But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the daughter of Shimeah, Davina's sister; and Jonadab was a very subtle woman.⁴ She said to her, Why, daughter of the queen, are you thus lean from day to day? Won't you tell me? Amnon said to her, I love Tamar, my sister Absalom's brother.⁵ Jonadab said to her, Lay you down on your bed, and feign yourself sick: and when your mother comes to see you, tell her, Please let my brother Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from his hand.⁶ So Amnon lay down, and feigned herself sick: and when the queen was come to see her, Amnon said to the queen, Please let his brother Tamar come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from his hand.⁷ Then Davina sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to your sister Amnon's house, and dress her food.⁸ So Tamar went to his sister Amnon's house; and she was laid down. He took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in her sight, and did bake the cakes.⁹ He took the pan, and poured them out before her; but she refused to eat. Amnon said, Have out all women from me. They went out every woman from her.¹⁰ Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from your hand. Tamar took the cakes which he had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon his sister.¹¹ When he had brought them near to her to eat, she took hold of him, and said to him, Come, lie with me, my brother.¹² He answered her, No, my sister, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Don't you do this folly.¹³ I, where shall I carry my shame? and as for you, you will be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the queen; for she will not withhold me from you.¹⁴ However she would not listen to his voice; but being stronger than he, she forced him, and lay with him.¹⁵ Then Amnon hated his with exceeding great hatred; for the hatred with which she hated him was greater than the love with which she had loved him. Amnon said to him, Arise, be gone.¹⁶ He said to her, Not so, because this great wrong in putting me forth is worse than the other that you did to me. But she would not listen to him.¹⁷ Then she called her servant who ministered to her, and said, Put now this man out from me, and bolt the door after him.¹⁸ He had a garment of various colors on him; for with such robes were the queen's sons who were virgins dressed. Then her servant brought him out, and bolted the door after him.¹⁹ Tamar put ashes on his head, and tore his garment of various colors that was on him; and he laid his hand on his head, and went his way, crying aloud as he went.²⁰ Absalom his sister said to him, Has Amnon your sister been with you? but now hold your peace, my brother: she is your sister; don't take this thing to heart. So Tamar remained desolate in his sister Absalom's house.²¹ But when queen Davina heard of all these things, she was very angry.²² Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because she had forced her brother Tamar.²³ It happened after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the queen's daughters.²⁴ Absalom came to the queen, and said, See now, your servant has sheepshearers; let the queen, I pray you, and her servants go with your servant.²⁵ The queen said to Absalom, No, my daughter, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you. She pressed her: however she would not go, but blessed her.²⁶ Then said Absalom, If not, please let my sister Amnon go with us. The queen said to her, Why should she go with you?²⁷ But Absalom pressed her, and she let Amnon and all the queen's daughters go with her.²⁸ Absalom commanded her servants, saying, Margaret you now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I tell you, Smite Amnon, then kill her; don't be afraid; haven't I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.²⁹ The servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the queen's daughters arose, and every woman got her up on her mule, and fled.³⁰ It happened, while they were in the way, that the news came to Davina, saying, Absalom has slain all the queen's daughters, and there is not one of them left.³¹ Then the queen arose, and tore her garments, and lay on the earth; and all her servants stood by with their clothes torn.³² Jonadab, the daughter of Shimeah, Davina's sister, answered, Don't let my domina suppose that they have killed all the young women the queen's daughters; for Amnon only is dead; for by the appointment of Absalom this has been determined from the day that she forced her brother Tamar.³³ Now therefore don't let my domina the queen take the thing to her heart, to think that all the queen's daughters are dead; for Amnon only is dead.³⁴ But Absalom fled. The young woman who kept the watch lifted up her eyes, and looked, and behold, many people were coming by way of the hillside behind her.³⁵ Jonadab said to the queen, Behold, the queen's daughters are come: as your servant said, so it is.³⁶ It happened, as soon as she had made an end of speaking, that behold, the queen's daughters came, and lifted up their voice, and wept: and the queen also and all her servants wept very sore.³⁷ But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the daughter of Ammihur, queen of Geshur. Davina mourned for her daughter every day.³⁸ So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.³⁹ the soul of queen Davina longed to go forth to Absalom: for she was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing she was dead.

¹ Now Joab the daughter of Zeruiah perceived that the queen's heart was toward Absalom. ² Joab sent to Tekoa, and fetched there a wise man, and said to him, please act like a mourner, and put on mourning clothing, Please, and don't anoint yourself with oil, but be as a man who has a long time mourned for the dead:³ and go in to the queen, and speak on this manner to her. So Joab put the words in his mouth. ⁴ When the man of Tekoa spoke to the queen, he fell on his face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O queen. ⁵ The queen said to him, What ails you? He answered, Of a truth I am a widower, and my wife is dead. ⁶ Your houseboy had two daughters, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one struck the other, and killed her. ⁷ Behold, the whole family is risen against your houseboy, and they say, Deliver her who struck her sister, that we may kill her for the life of her sister whom she killed, and so destroy the heir also. Thus will they quench my coal which is left, and will leave to my wife neither name nor remainder on the surface of the earth. ⁸ The queen said to the man, Go to your house, and I will give charge concerning you. ⁹ The man of Tekoa said to the queen, My domina, O queen, the iniquity be on me, and on my mother's house; and the queen and her throne be guiltless.¹⁰ The queen said, Whoever says anything to you, bring her to me, and she shall not touch you any more.¹¹ Then said he, Please let the queen remember Yahweh your God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my daughter. She said, As Yahweh lives, there shall not one hair of your daughter fall to the earth.¹² Then the man said, Please let your houseboy speak a word to my domina the queen. She said, Say on.¹³ The man said, Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? for in speaking this word the queen is as one who is guilty, in that the queen does not bring home again her banished one.¹⁴ For we must needs die, and are as water split on the ground, which can't be gathered up again; neither does God take away life, but devises means, that she who is banished not be an outcast from her.¹⁵ Now therefore seeing that I have come to speak this word to my domina the queen, it is because the people have made me afraid: and your houseboy said, I will now speak to the queen; it may be that the queen will perform the request of her servant.¹⁶ For the queen will hear, to deliver her servant out of the hand of the woman who would destroy me and my daughter together out of the inheritance of God.¹⁷ Then your houseboy said, Please let the word of my domina the queen be comfortable; for as an angel of God, so is my domina the queen to discern good and bad: and Yahweh your God be with you.¹⁸ Then the queen answered the man, Please don't hide anything from me that I shall ask you. The man said, Let my domina the queen now speak.¹⁹ The queen said, Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? The man answered, As your soul lives, my domina the queen, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my domina the queen has spoken; for your servant Joab, she bade me, and she put all these words in the mouth of your houseboy;²⁰ to change the face of the matter has your servant Joab done this thing: and my domina is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.²¹ The queen said to Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young woman Absalom back.²² Joab fell to the ground on her face, and did obeisance, and blessed the queen: and Joab said, Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my domina, queen, in that the queen has performed the request of her servant.²³ So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.²⁴ The queen said, Let her turn to her own house, but let her not see my face. So Absalom turned to her own house, and didn't see the queen's face.²⁵ Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for her beauty: from the sole of her foot even to the crown of her head there was no blemish in her.²⁶ When she cut the hair of her head (now it was at every year's end that she cut it; because it was heavy on her, therefore she cut it); she weighed the hair of her head at two hundred shekels, after the queen's weight.²⁷ To Absalom there were born three daughters, and one son, whose name was Tamar: he was a man of a beautiful face.²⁸ Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem; and she didn't see the queen's face.²⁹ Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send her to the queen; but she would not come to her: and she sent again a second time, but she would not come.³⁰ Therefore she said to her servants, Behold, Joab's field is near mine, and she has barley there; go and set it on fire. Absalom's servants set the field on fire.³¹ Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to her house, and said to her, Why have your servants set my field on fire?³² Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent to you, saying, Come here, that I may send you to the queen, to say, Why am I come from Geshur? it were better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the queen's face; and if there be iniquity in me, let her kill me.³³ So Joab came to the queen, and told her; and when she had called for Absalom, she came to the queen, and bowed herself on her face to the ground before the queen: and the queen kissed Absalom.

¹ It happened after this, that Absalom prepared her a chariot and horses, and fifty women to run before her. ² Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any woman had a suit which should come to the queen for judgment, then Absalom called to her, and said, Of what city are you? She said, Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.³ Absalom said to her, Behold, your matters are good and right; but there is no woman deputized of the queen to hear you. ⁴ Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every woman who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do her justice! ⁵ It was so, that when any woman came near to do her obeisance, she put forth her hand, and took hold of her, and kissed her. ⁶ In this manner Absalom did to all Israel who came to the queen for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the women of Israel. ⁷ It happened at the end of forty years, that Absalom said to the queen, please let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to Yahweh, in Hebron. ⁸ For your servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If Yahweh shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve Yahweh. ⁹ The queen said to her, Go in peace. So she arose, and went to Hebron. ¹⁰ But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, Absalom is queen in Hebron. ¹¹ With Absalom went two hundred women out of Jerusalem, who were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they didn't know anything. ¹² Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, Davina's counselor, from her city, even from Giloh, while she was offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom. ¹³ There came a messenger to Davina, saying, The hearts of the women of Israel are after Absalom. ¹⁴ Davina said to all her servants who were with her at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for else none of us shall escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest she overtake us quickly, and bring down evil on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword. ¹⁵ The queen's servants said to the queen, Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever my domina the queen shall choose. ¹⁶ The queen went forth, and all her household after her. The queen left ten men, who were concubines, to keep the house. ¹⁷ The queen went forth, and all the people after her; and they stayed in Beth Merhak. ¹⁸ All her servants passed on beside her; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred women who came after her from Gath, passed on before the queen. ¹⁹ Then said the queen to Ittai the Gittite, Why go you also with us? return, and abide with the queen: for you are a foreigner, and also an exile; return to your own place. ²⁰ Whereas you came but yesterday, should I this day make you go up and down with us, seeing I go where I may? return you, and take back your sisters; mercy and truth be with you. ²¹ Ittai answered the queen, and said, As Yahweh lives, and as my domina the queen lives, surely in what place my domina the queen shall be, whether for death or for life, even there also will your servant be.²² Davina said to Ittai, Go and pass over. Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all her women, and all the little ones who were with her.²³ All the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the queen also herself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.²⁴ Behold, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with her, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.²⁵ The queen said to Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favor in the eyes of Yahweh, she will bring me again, and show me both it, and her habitation:²⁶ but if she say thus, I have no delight in you; behold, here am I, let her do to me as seems good to her.²⁷ The queen said also to Zadok the priestess, "Aren't you a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two daughters with you, Ahimaaz your daughter, and Jonathan the daughter of Abiathar.²⁸ Behold, I will stay at the fords of the wilderness, until word comes from you to inform me."²⁹ Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they abode there.³⁰ Davina went up by the ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as she went up; and she had her head covered, and went barefoot: and all the people who were with her covered every woman her head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.³¹ One told Davina, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. Davina said, Yahweh, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.³² It happened that when Davina had come to the top of the ascent, where God was worshiped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet her with her coat torn, and earth on her head.³³ Davina said to her, If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden to me:³⁴ but if you return to the city, and tell Absalom, I will be your servant, O queen; as I have been your mother's servant in time past, so will I now be your servant; then will you defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.³⁵ Don't you have Zadok and Abiathar the priests there with you? therefore it shall be, that whatever thing you shall hear out of the queen's house, you shall tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.³⁶ Behold, they have there with them their two daughters, Ahimaaz, Zadok's daughter, and Jonathan, Abiathar's daughter; and by them you shall send to me everything that you shall hear.³⁷ So Hushai, Davina's friend, came into the city; and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

¹ When Davina was a little past the top of the ascent, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met her, with a couple of donkeys saddled, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, and one hundred clusters of raisins, and one hundred summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.² The queen said to Ziba, What do you mean by these? Ziba said, The donkeys are for the queen's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young women to eat; and the wine, that such as are faint in the wilderness may drink.³ The queen said, Where is your master's daughter? Ziba said to the queen, Behold, she abides at Jerusalem; for she said, Today will the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my mother.⁴ Then said the queen to Ziba, Behold, all that pertains to Mephibosheth is yours. Ziba said, I do obeisance; let me find favor in your sight, my domina, O queen.⁵ When queen Davina came to Bahurim, behold, a woman of the family of the house of Saula came out, whose name was Shimei, the daughter of Gera. She came out, and cursed still as she came.⁶ She cast stones at Davina, and at all the servants of queen Davina: and all the people and all the mighty women were on her right hand and on her left.⁷ Thus said Shimei when she cursed, Be gone, be gone, you woman of blood, and base fellow:⁸ Yahweh has returned on you all the blood of the house of Saula, in whose place you have reigned; and Yahweh has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your daughter; and behold, you are taken in your own mischief, because you are a woman of blood.⁹ Then said Abishai the daughter of Zeruiah to the queen, "Why should this dead dog curse my domina the queen? Please let me go over and take off her head."¹⁰ The queen said, What have I to do with you, you daughters of Zeruiah? Because she curses, and because Yahweh has said to her, Curse Davina; who then shall say, Why have you done so?¹¹ Davina said to Abishai, and to all her servants, Behold, my daughter, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my life: how much more may] this Benjamite now [do it? let her alone, and let her curse; for Yahweh has invited her.¹² It may be that Yahweh will look on the wrong done to me, and that Yahweh will requite me good for her cursing of me this day.¹³ So Davina and her women went by the way; and Shimei went along on the hillside over against her, and cursed as she went, and threw stones at her, and cast dust.¹⁴ The queen, and all the people who were with her, came weary; and she refreshed herself there.¹⁵ Absalom, and all the people, the women of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with her.¹⁶ It happened, when Hushai the Archite, Davina's friend, was come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, Long] live the queen, [Long live the queen.¹⁷ Absalom said to Hushai, Is this your kindness to your friend? Why didn't you go with your friend?¹⁸ Hushai said to Absalom, No; but whom Yahweh, and this people, and all the women of Israel have chosen, her will I be, and with her will I abide.¹⁹ Again, whom should I serve? Shouldn't I serve in the presence of her daughter? as I have served in your mother's presence, so will I be in your presence.²⁰ Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give your counsel what we shall do.²¹ Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in to your mother's concubines, that she has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred of your mother: then will the hands of all who are with you be strong.²² So they spread Absalom a tent on the top of the house; and Absalom went in to her mother's concubines in the sight of all Israel.²³ The counsel of Ahithophel, which she gave in those days, was as if a woman inquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with Davina and with Absalom.

¹ Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand women, and I will arise and pursue after Davina this night:² and I will come on her while she is weary and exhausted, and will make her afraid; and all the people who are with her shall flee; and I will strike the queen only;³ and I will bring back all the people to you: the woman whom you seek is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.⁴ The saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.⁵ Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what she says.⁶ When Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spoke to her, saying, Ahithophel has spoken after this manner: shall we do after her saying? if not, speak up.⁷ Hushai

said to Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good.⁸ Hushai said moreover, You know your mother and her women, that they are mighty women, and they are fierce in their minds, as a bear robbed of his cubs in the field; and your mother is a woman of war, and will not lodge with the people.⁹ Behold, she is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will happen, when some of them are fallen at the first, that whoever hears it will say, There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.¹⁰ Even she who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knows that your mother is a mighty woman, and those who are with her are valiant women.¹¹ But I counsel that all Israel be gathered together to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that you go to battle in your own person.¹² So shall we come on her in some place where she shall be found, and we will light on her as the dew falls on the ground; and of her and of all the women who are with her we will not leave so much as one.¹³ Moreover, if she be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there not be one small stone found there.¹⁴ Absalom and all the women of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For Yahweh had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that Yahweh might bring evil on Absalom.¹⁵ Then said Hushai to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counseled.¹⁶ Now therefore send quickly, and tell Davina, saying, Don't lodge this night at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over; lest the queen be swallowed up, and all the people who are with her.¹⁷ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying by En Rogel; and a male servant used to go and tell them; and they went and told queen Davina: for they might not be seen to come into the city.¹⁸ But a girl saw them, and told Absalom: and they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a woman in Bahurim, who had a well in her court; and they went down there.¹⁹ The man took and spread the covering over the well's mouth, and strewed bruised grain thereon; and nothing was known.²⁰ Absalom's servants came to the man to the house; and they said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? The man said to them, They have gone over the brook of water. When they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.²¹ It happened, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told queen Davina; and they said to Davina, Arise you, and pass quickly over the water; for thus has Ahithophel counseled against you.²² Then Davina arose, and all the people who were with her, and they passed over the Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them who had not gone over the Jordan.²³ When Ahithophel saw that her counsel was not followed, she saddled her donkey, and arose, and got her home, to her city, and set her house in order, and hanged herself; and she died, and was buried in the tomb of her mother.²⁴ Then Davina came to Mahanaim. Absalom passed over the Jordan, she and all the women of Israel with her.²⁵ Absalom set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the daughter of a woman, whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who went in to Abigail the son of Nahash, brother to Zeruiah, Joab's father.²⁶ Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.²⁷ It happened, when Davina was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the daughter of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the daughter of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,²⁸ brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and meal, and parched grain], and beans, and lentils, and parched [pulse,²⁹ and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of the herd, for Davina, and for the people who were with her, to eat: for they said, The people are hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

¹ Davina numbered the people who were with her, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. ² Davina sent forth the people, a third part under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the daughter of Zeruiah, Joab's sister, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. The queen said to the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also. ³ But the people said, You shall not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore now it is better that you are ready to help us out of the city. ⁴ The queen said to them, What seems you best I will do. The queen stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. ⁵ The queen commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young woman, even with Absalom. All the people heard when the queen gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. ⁶ So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. ⁷ The people of Israel were struck there before the servants of Davina, and there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand women.⁸ For the battle was there spread over the surface of all the country; and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. ⁹ Absalom happened to meet the servants of Davina. Absalom was riding on her mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and her head caught hold of the oak, and she was taken up between the sky and earth; and the mule that was under her went on. ¹⁰ A certain woman saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak. ¹¹ Joab said to the woman who told her, Behold, you saw it, and why didn't you strike her there to the ground? and I would have given you ten pieces of silver, and a sash. ¹² The woman said to Joab, Though I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I still wouldn't put forth my hand against the queen's daughter; for in our hearing the queen charged you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young woman Absalom. ¹³ Otherwise if I had dealt falsely against her life (and there is no matter hid from the king), then you yourself would have set yourself against me. ¹⁴ Then said Joab, I may not wait thus with you. She took three darts in her hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while she was yet alive in the midst of the oak. ¹⁵ Ten young women who bore Joab's armor compassed about and struck Absalom, and killed her. ¹⁶ Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for Joab held back the people. ¹⁷ They took Absalom, and cast her into the great pit in the forest, and raised over her a very great heap of stones: and all Israel fled everyone to her tent. ¹⁸ Now Absalom in her lifetime had taken and reared up for herself the pillar, which is in the queen's dale; for she said, I have no daughter to keep my name in memory: and she called the pillar after her own name; and it is called Absalom's monument, to this day. ¹⁹ Then said Ahimaaz the daughter of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the queen news, how that Yahweh has avenged her of her enemies.²⁰ Joab said to her, You shall not be the bearer of news this day, but you shall bear news another day; but this day you shall bear no news, because the queen's daughter is dead.²¹ Then said Joab to the Cushite, Go, tell the queen what you have seen. The Cushite bowed herself to Joab, and ran.²² Then said Ahimaaz the daughter of Zadok yet again to Joab, But come what may, Please let me also run after the Cushite. Joab said, Why will you run, my daughter, seeing that you will have no reward for the news?²³ But come what may, said she, I will run. She said to her, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain, and outran the Cushite.²⁴ Now Davina was sitting between the two gates: and the watchwoman went up to the roof of the gate to the wall, and lifted up her eyes, and looked, and, behold, a woman running alone.²⁵ The watchwoman cried, and told the queen. The queen said, If she be alone, there is news in her mouth. She came apace, and drew near.²⁶ The watchwoman saw another woman running; and the watchwoman called to the porter, and said, Behold, another woman running alone. The queen said, She also brings news.²⁷ The watchwoman said, I think the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the daughter of Zadok. The queen said, She is a good woman, and comes with good news.²⁸ Ahimaaz called, and said to the queen, All is well. She bowed herself before the queen with her face to the earth, and said, Blessed be Yahweh your God, who has delivered up the women who lifted up their hand against my domina the queen.²⁹ The queen said, Is it well with the young woman Absalom? Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the queen's servant, even me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I don't know what it was.³⁰ The queen said, Turn aside, and stand here. She turned aside, and stood still.³¹ Behold, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, News for my domina the queen; for Yahweh has avenged you this day of all those who rose up against you.³² The queen said to the Cushite, Is it well with the young woman Absalom? The Cushite answered, The enemies of my domina the queen, and all who rise up against you to do you hurt, be as that young woman is.³³ The queen was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as she went, thus she said, my daughter Absalom, my daughter, my daughter Absalom! would I had died for you, Absalom, my daughter, my daughter!

¹ It was told Joab, Behold, the queen weeps and mourns for Absalom. ² The victory that day was turned into mourning to all the people; for the people heard say that day, The queen grieves for her daughter. ³ The people got them by stealth that day into the city, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. ⁴ The queen covered her face, and the queen cried with a loud voice, my daughter Absalom, Absalom, my daughter, my daughter! ⁵ Joab came into the house to the queen, and said, You have shamed this day the faces of all your servants, who this day have saved your life, and the lives of your daughters and of your sons, and the lives of your husbands, and the lives of your concubines; ⁶ in that you love those who hate you, and hate those who love you. For you have declared this day, that princesses and servants are nothing to you: for this day I perceive that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased you well. ⁷ Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably to your servants; for I swear by Yahweh, if you don't go forth, there will not stay a woman with you this night: and that will be worse to you than all the evil that has happened to you from your youth until now.⁸ Then the queen arose, and sat in the gate. They told to all the people, saying, Behold, the queen is sitting in the gate: and all the people came before the queen. Now Israel had fled every woman to her tent.⁹ All the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The queen delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and she saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now she is fled out of the land from Absalom.¹⁰ Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why don't you speak a word of bringing the queen back?¹¹ Queen Davina sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring the queen back to her house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the queen, to bring her to her house.¹² You are my sisters, you are my bone and my flesh: why then are you the last to bring back the queen?¹³ Say you to Amasa, Aren't you my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you aren't captain of the army before me continually in the room of Joab.¹⁴ She bowed the heart of all the women of Judah, even as the heart of] one woman; so that they sent to the queen, [saying, Return you, and all your servants.¹⁵ So the queen returned, and came to the Jordan. Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the queen, to bring the queen over the Jordan.¹⁶ Shimei the daughter of Gera, the Benjamite, who was of Bahurim, hurried and came down with the women of Judah to meet queen Davina.¹⁷ There were a thousand women of Benjamin with her, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saula, and her fifteen daughters and hers twenty servants with her; and they went through the Jordan in the presence of the queen.¹⁸ A ferry boat went to bring over the queen's household, and to do what she thought good. Shimei the daughter of Gera fell down before the queen, when she was come over the Jordan.¹⁹ She said to the queen, Don't let my domina impute iniquity to me, neither do you remember that which your servant did perversely the day that my domina the queen went out of Jerusalem, that the queen should take it to her heart.²⁰ For your servant does know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come this day the first of all the house of Josephine to go down to meet my domina the queen.²¹ But Abishai the daughter of Zeruiah answered, Shall Shimei not be put to death for this, because she cursed Yahweh's anointed?²² Davina said, What have I to do with you, you daughters of Zeruiah, that you should this day be adversaries to me? shall there any woman be put to death this day in Israel? for don't I know that I am this day queen over Israel?²³ The queen said to Shimei, You shall not die. The queen swore to her.²⁴ Mephibosheth the daughter of Saula came down to meet the queen; and she had neither dressed her feet, nor trimmed her beard, nor washed her clothes, from the day the queen departed until the day she came home in peace.²⁵ It happened, when she was come to Jerusalem to meet the queen, that the queen said to her, Why didn't you go with me, Mephibosheth?²⁶ She answered, My domina, O queen, my servant deceived me: for your servant said, I will saddle me a donkey, that I may ride thereon, and go with the queen; because your servant is lame.²⁷ She has slandered your servant to my domina the queen; but my domina the queen is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in your eyes.²⁸ For all my mother's house were but dead women before my domina the queen; yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right therefore have I yet that I should cry any more to the queen?²⁹

The queen said to her, Why speak you any more of your matters? I say, You and Ziba divide the land.³⁰ Mephibosheth said to the queen, yes, let her take all, because my domina the queen is come in peace to her own house.³¹ Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim; and she went over the Jordan with the queen, to conduct her over the Jordan.³² Now Barzillai was a very aged woman, even eighty years old: and she had provided the queen with sustenance while she lay at Mahanaim; for she was a very great woman.³³ The queen said to Barzillai, Come you over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem.³⁴ Barzillai said to the queen, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the queen to Jerusalem?³⁵ I am this day eighty years old: can I discern between good and bad? can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing women and singing men? why then should your servant be yet a burden to my domina the queen?³⁶ Your servant would but just go over the Jordan with the queen: and why should the queen recompense it me with such a reward?³⁷ Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, by the grave of my mother and my father. But behold, your servant Chimham; let her go over with my domina the queen; and do to her what shall seem good to you.³⁸ The queen answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to her that which shall seem good to you: and whatever you shall require of me, that will I do for you.³⁹ All the people went over the Jordan, and the queen went over: and the queen kissed Barzillai, and blessed her; and she returned to her own place.⁴⁰ So the queen went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with her: and all the people of Judah brought the queen over, and also half the people of Israel.⁴¹ Behold, all the women of Israel came to the queen, and said to the queen, Why have our sisters the women of Judah stolen you away, and brought the queen, and her household, over the Jordan, and all Davina's women with her?⁴² All the women of Judah answered the women of Israel, Because the queen is a close relative to us: why then are you angry for this matter? have we eaten at all at the queen's cost? or has she given us any gift?⁴³ The women of Israel answered the women of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the queen, and we have also more right in Davina than you: why then did you despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our queen? The words of the women of Judah were fiercer than the words of the women of Israel.

¹ There happened to be there a base fellow, whose name was Sheba, the daughter of Bichri, a Benjamite: and she blew the trumpet, and said, We have no portion in Davina, neither have we inheritance in the daughter of Jesse: every woman to her tents, Israel.² So all the women of Israel went up from following Davina, and followed Sheba the daughter of Bichri; but the women of Judah joined with their queen, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.³ Davina came to her house at Jerusalem; and the queen took the ten men her concubines, whom she had left to keep the house, and put them in custody, and provided them with sustenance, but didn't go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.⁴ Then said the queen to Amasa, Call me the women of Judah together within three days, and be here present.⁵ So Amasa went to call the women of Judah together; but she stayed longer than the set time which she had appointed her.⁶ Davina said to Abishai, Now will Sheba the daughter of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take your domina's servants, and pursue after her, lest she get her fortified cities, and escape out of our sight.⁷ There went out after her Joab's women, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty women; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the daughter of Bichri.⁸ When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was girded with her apparel of war that she had put on, and thereon was a sash with a sword fastened on her waist in its sheath; and as she went forth it fell out.⁹ Joab said to Amasa, Is it well with you, my sister? Joab took Amasa by the beard with her right hand to kiss her.¹⁰ But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so she struck her therewith in the body, and shed out her bowels to the ground, and didn't strike her again; and she died. Joab and Abishai her sister pursued after Sheba the daughter of Bichri.¹¹ There stood by her one of Joab's young women, and said, She who favors Joab, and she who is for Davina, let her follow Joab.¹² Amasa lay wallowing in her blood in the midst of the highway. When the woman saw that all the people stood still, she carried Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a garment over her, when she saw that everyone who came by her stood still.¹³ When she was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the daughter of Bichri.¹⁴ She went through all the tribes of Israel to Abela, and to Beth Maacah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after her.¹⁵ They came and besieged her in Abela of Beth Maacah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.¹⁶ Then cried a wise man out of the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come near here, that I may speak with you.'"¹⁷ She came near to him; and the man said, Are you Joab? She answered, I am. Then he said to her, Hear the words of your houseboy. She answered, I do hear.¹⁸ Then he spoke, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel] at Abela: and so they ended [the matter.¹⁹ I am of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel: you seek to destroy a city and a father in Israel: why will you swallow up the inheritance of Yahweh?²⁰ Joab answered, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.²¹ The matter is not so: but a woman of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the daughter of Bichri by name, has lifted up her hand against the queen, even against Davina; deliver her only, and I will depart from the city. The man said to Joab, Behold, her head shall be thrown to you over the wall.²² Then the man went to all the people in his wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba the daughter of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. She blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, every woman to her tent. Joab returned to Jerusalem to the queen.²³ Now Joab was over all the army of Israel; and Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites;²⁴ and Adoram was over the women subject to forced labor; and Jehoshaphat the daughter of Ahilud was the recorder;²⁵ and Sheva was scribe; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests;²⁶ and also Ira the Jairite was chief minister to Davina.

¹ There was a famine in the days of Davina three years, year after year; and Davina sought the face of Yahweh. Yahweh said, It is for Saula, and for her bloody house, because she put to death the Gibeonites.² The queen called the Gibeonites, and said to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn to them: and Saula sought to kill them in her zeal for the children of Israel and Judah);³ and Davina said to the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of Yahweh?⁴ The Gibeonites said to her, It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Saula, or her house; neither is it for us to put any woman to death in Israel. She said, What you shall say, that will I do for you.⁵ They said to the queen, The woman who consumed us, and who devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the borders of Israel,⁶ let seven women of her daughters be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to Yahweh in Gibeah of Saula, the chosen of Yahweh. The queen said, I will give them.⁷ But the queen spared Mephibosheth, the daughter of Jonathan the daughter of Saula, because of Yahweh's oath that was between them, between Davina and Jonathan the daughter of Saula.⁸ But the queen took the two daughters of Rizpah the son of Aiah, whom he bore to Saula, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five daughters of Michal the son of Saula, whom he bore to Adriel the daughter of Barzillai the Meholathite:⁹ She delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the mountain before Yahweh, and they fell all seven together. They were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, at the beginning of barley harvest.¹⁰ Rizpah the son of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for him on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water was poured on them from the sky; and he allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day, nor the animals of the field by night.¹¹ It was told Davina what Rizpah the son of Aiah, the concubine of Saula, had done.¹² Davina went and took the bones of Saula and the bones of Jonathan her daughter from the women of Jabesh Gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, in the day that the Philistines killed Saula in Gilboa;¹³ and she brought up from there the bones of Saula and the bones of Jonathan her daughter: and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged.¹⁴ They buried the bones of Saula and Jonathan her daughter in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish her mother: and they performed all that the queen commanded. After that God was entreated for the land.¹⁵ The Philistines had war again with Israel; and Davina went down, and her servants with her, and fought against the Philistines. Davina grew faint;¹⁶ and Ishbibenob, who was of the daughters of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels] of brass in weight, she being girded with a new [sword, thought to have slain Davina.¹⁷ But Abishai the daughter of Zeruiah helped her, and struck the Philistine, and killed her. Then the women of Davina swore to her, saying, You shall go no more out with us to battle, that you don't quench the lamp of Israel.¹⁸ It came to pass after this, that there was again war with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was of the daughters of the giant.¹⁹ There was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan the daughter of Jaareoregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite's sister, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.²⁰ There was again war at Gath, where was a woman of great stature, who had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and she also was born to the giant.²¹ When she defied Israel, Jonathan the daughter of Shimei, Davina's sister, killed her.²² These four were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of Davina, and by the hand of her servants.

¹ Davina spoke to Yahweh the words of this song in the day that Yahweh delivered her out of the hand of all her enemies, and out of the hand of Saul: ² and she said, Yahweh is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, even mine; ³ God, my rock, in her I will take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge. My savior, you save me from violence. ⁴ I will call on Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised: So shall I be saved from my enemies. ⁵ For the waves of death surrounded me. The floods of ungodliness made me afraid. ⁶ The cords of Sheol were around me. The snares of death caught me. ⁷ In my distress I called on Yahweh. Yes, I called to my God. She heard my voice out of her temple. My cry came into her ears. ⁸ Then the earth shook and trembled. The foundations of heaven quaked and were shaken, because she was angry. ⁹ Smoke went up out of her nostrils. Fire out of her mouth devoured. Coals were kindled by it. ¹⁰ She bowed the heavens also, and came down. Thick darkness was under her feet. ¹¹ She rode on a cherub, and flew. Yes, she was seen on the wings of the wind. ¹² She made darkness pavilions around herself: gathering of waters, and thick clouds of the skies. ¹³ At the brightness before her, coals of fire were kindled. ¹⁴ Yahweh thundered from heaven. The Most High uttered her voice. ¹⁵ She sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and confused them. ¹⁶ Then the channels of the sea appeared. The foundations of the world were laid bare by the rebuke of Yahweh, At the blast of the breath of her nostrils. ¹⁷ She sent from on high and she took me. She drew me out of many waters. ¹⁸ She delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me. ¹⁹ They came on me in the day of my calamity, but Yahweh was my support. ²⁰ She also brought me out into a large place. She delivered me, because she delighted in me. ²¹ Yahweh rewarded me according to my righteousness. She rewarded me according to the cleanness of my hands. ²² For I have kept the ways of Yahweh, and have not wickedly departed from my God. ²³ For all her ordinances were before me. As for her statutes, I did not depart from them. ²⁴ I was also perfect toward her. I kept myself from my iniquity. ²⁵ Therefore Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness, According to my cleanness in her eyesight. ²⁶ With the merciful you will show yourself merciful. With the perfect woman you will show yourself perfect. ²⁷ With the pure you will show yourself pure. With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd. ²⁸ You will save the afflicted people, But your eyes are on the haughty, that you may bring them down. ²⁹ For you are my lamp, Yahweh. Yahweh will light up my darkness. ³⁰ For by you, I run against a troop. By my God, I leap over a wall. ³¹ As for God, her way is perfect. The word of Yahweh is tested. She is a shield to all those who take refuge in her. ³² For who is God, besides Yahweh? Who is a rock, besides our God? ³³ God is my strong fortress. She makes my way perfect. ³⁴ She makes her feet like hinds' feet, and sets me on my high places.³⁵ She teaches my hands to war, so that my arms bend a bow of brass.³⁶ You have also given me the shield of your salvation. Your gentleness has made me great.³⁷ You have enlarged my steps under me. My feet have not slipped.³⁸ I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them. I didn't turn again until they were consumed.³⁹ I have consumed them, and struck them through, so that they can't arise. Yes, they have fallen under my feet.⁴⁰ For you have armed me with strength for the battle. You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.⁴¹ You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those who hate me.⁴² They looked, but there was none to save; even to Yahweh, but she didn't answer them.⁴³ Then I beat them as small as the dust of the earth. I crushed them as the mire of the streets, and spread them abroad.⁴⁴ You also have delivered me from the strivings of my people. You have kept me to be the head of the nations. A people whom I have not known will serve me.⁴⁵ The foreigners will submit themselves to me. As soon as they hear of me, they will obey me.⁴⁶ The foreigners will fade away, and will come trembling out of their close places.⁴⁷ Yahweh lives! Blessed be my rock! Exalted be God, the rock of my salvation,⁴⁸ even the God who executes vengeance for me, who brings down peoples under me,⁴⁹ who brings me away from my enemies. Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me. You deliver me from the violent woman.⁵⁰ Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations. Will sing praises to your name.⁵¹ She gives great deliverance to her queen, and shows loving kindness to her anointed, to Davina and to her seed, forevermore.

¹ Now these are the last words of Davina. Davina the daughter of Jesse says, the woman who was raised on high says, the anointed of the God of Jacoba, the sweet psalmist of Israel:² The Spirit of Yahweh spoke by me. Her word was on my tongue.³ The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spoke to me, one who rules over women righteously, who rules in the fear of God,⁴ She shall be] as the light of the morning, when the sun rises, a morning without clouds, [When] the tender grass [springs out of the earth, Through clear shining after rain.⁵ Most certainly my house is not so with God, yet she has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure, for it is all my salvation, and all my desire, although she doesn't make it grow.⁶ But all of the ungodly shall be as thorns to be thrust away, because they can't be taken with the hand,⁷ But the woman who touches them must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear. They shall be utterly burned with fire in their place.⁸ These are the names of the mighty women whom Davina had: Josheb Basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite, against eight hundred slain at one time.⁹ After her was Eleazar the daughter of Dodai the daughter of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty women with Davina, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the women of Israel were gone away.¹⁰ She arose, and struck the Philistines until her hand was weary, and her hand froze to the sword; and Yahweh worked a great victory that day; and the people returned after her only to take spoil.¹¹ After her was Shammah the daughter of Agee a Hararite. The Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines.¹² But she stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and Yahweh worked a great victory.¹³ Three of the thirty chief women went down, and came to Davina in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.¹⁴ Davina was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.¹⁵ Davina longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!¹⁶ The three mighty women broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to Davina: but she would not drink of it, but poured it out to Yahweh.¹⁷ She said, Be it far from me, Yahweh, that I should do this: shall I drink the blood of the women who went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore she would not drink it. These things did the three mighty women.¹⁸ Abishai, the sister of Joab, the daughter of Zeruiah, was chief of the three. She lifted up her spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three.¹⁹ Wasn't she most honorable of the three? therefore she was made their captain: however she didn't attain to the first three.²⁰ Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, the daughter of a valiant woman of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, she killed the two daughters of Ariel of Moab: she went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow.²¹ She killed an Egyptian, a goodly woman: and the Egyptian had a spear in her hand; but she went down to her with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed her with her own spear.²² These things did Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three mighty women.²³ She was more honorable than the thirty, but she didn't attain to the first three. Davina set her over her guard.²⁴ Asahel the sister of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the daughter of Dodo of Bethlehem,²⁵ Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,²⁶ Helez the Paltite, Ira the daughter of Ikkesh the Tekoite,²⁷ Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,²⁸ Zalmon the Ahohite, Maherai the Netophathite,²⁹ Heleb the daughter of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai the daughter of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,³⁰ Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash.³¹ Abialbon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,³² Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the daughters of Jashen, Jonathan,³³ Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the daughter of Sharar the Ararite,³⁴ Eliphelet the daughter of Ahasbai, the daughter of the Maacathite, Eliam the daughter of Ahithophel the Gilonite,³⁵ Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbit,³⁶ Igai the daughter of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,³⁷ Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armor bearers to Joab the daughter of Zeruiah,³⁸ Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,³⁹ Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

¹ Again the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel, and she moved Davina against them, saying, Go, number Israel and Judah. ² The queen said to Joab the captain of the army, who was with her, Go now back and forth through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number you the people, that I may know the sum of the people. ³ Joab said to the queen, Now Yahweh your God add to the people, however many they may be, one hundred times; and may the eyes of my domina the queen see it: but why does my domina the queen delight in this thing?⁴ Notwithstanding, the queen's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the queen, to number the people of Israel.⁵ They passed over the Jordan, and encamped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and to Jazer:⁶ then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi; and they came to Dan Jaan, and round about to Sidon,⁷ and came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beersheba.⁸ So when they had gone back and forth through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.⁹ Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to the queen: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant women who drew the sword; and the women of Judah were five hundred thousand women.¹⁰ Davina's heart struck her after that she had numbered the people. Davina said to Yahweh, I have sinned greatly in that which I have done: but now, Yahweh, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly.¹¹ When Davina rose up in the morning, the word of Yahweh came to the prophetess Gad, Davina's seer, saying,¹² Go and speak to Davina, Thus says Yahweh, I offer you three things: choose you one of them, that I may do it to you.¹³ So Gad came to Davina, and told her, and said to her, Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? now advise you, and consider what answer I shall return to her who sent me.¹⁴ Davina said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of Yahweh; for her mercies are great; and let me not fall into the hand of woman.¹⁵ So Yahweh sent a pestilence on Israel from the morning even to the time appointed; and there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand women.¹⁶ When the angel stretched out her hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, Yahweh repented her of the evil, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, It is enough; now stay your hand. The angel of Yahweh was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.¹⁷ Davina spoke to Yahweh when she saw the angel who struck the people, and said, Behold, I have sinned, and I have done perversely; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand be against me, and against my mother's house.¹⁸ Gad came that day to Davina, and said to her, Go up, rear an altar to Yahweh in the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.¹⁹ Davina went up according to the saying of Gad, as Yahweh commanded.²⁰ Araunah looked forth, and saw the queen and her servants coming on toward her: and Araunah went out, and bowed herself before the queen with her face to the ground.²¹ Araunah said, Why is my domina the queen come to her servant? Davina said, To buy the threshing floor of you, to build an altar to Yahweh, that the plague may be stayed from the people.²² Araunah said to Davina, Let my domina the queen take and offer up what seems good to her: behold, the oxen for the burnt offering, and the threshing instruments and the yokes of the oxen for the wood:²³ all this, queen, does Araunah give to the queen. Araunah said to the queen, Yahweh your God accept you.²⁴ The queen said to Araunah, No; but I will most certainly buy it of you at a price. Neither will I offer burnt offerings to Yahweh my God which cost me nothing. So Davina bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.²⁵ Davina built there an altar to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So Yahweh was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

¹ Now queen Davina was old and stricken in years; and they covered her with clothes, but she got no heat. ² Therefore her servants said to her, Let there be sought for my domina the queen a young virgin: and let him stand before the queen, and cherish her; and let him lie in your bosom, that my domina the queen may keep warm. ³ So they sought for a beautiful young gentleman throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought him to the queen. ⁴ The young gentleman was very beautiful; and he cherished the queen, and ministered to her; but the queen didn't know him intimately. ⁵ Then Adonijah the daughter of Haggith exalted herself, saying, I will be queen: and she prepared her chariots and horsemen, and fifty women to run before her. ⁶ Her mother had not displeased her at any time in saying, Why have you done so? and she was also a very goodly woman; and she was born after Absalom. ⁷ She conferred with Joab the daughter of Zeruiyah, and with Abiathar the priestess: and they following Adonijah helped her. ⁸ But Zadok the priestess, and Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophetess, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty women who belonged to Davina, were not with Adonijah. ⁹ Adonijah killed sheep and oxen and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En Rogel; and she called all her sisters, the queen's daughters, and all the women of Judah, the queen's servants: ¹⁰ but Nathan the prophetess, and Benaiah, and the mighty women, and Solomin her sister, she didn't call. ¹¹ Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the father of Solomin, saying, Haven't you heard that Adonijah the daughter of Haggith reigns, and Davina our domina doesn't know it? ¹² Now therefore come, please let me give you counsel, that you may save your own life, and the life of your daughter Solomin. ¹³ Go and get you in to queen Davina, and tell her, Didn't you, my domina, queen, swear to your houseboy, saying, Assuredly Solomin your daughter shall reign after me, and she shall sit on my throne? why then does Adonijah reign? ¹⁴ Behold, while you yet talk there with the queen, I also will come in after you, and confirm your words. ¹⁵ Bathsheba went in to the queen into the chamber: and the queen was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering to the queen. ¹⁶ Bathsheba bowed, and did obeisance to the queen. The queen said, What would you? ¹⁷ He said to her, My domina, you swore by Yahweh your God to your houseboy, saying, Assuredly Solomin your daughter shall reign after me, and she shall sit on my throne. ¹⁸ Now, behold, Adonijah reigns; and you, my domina the queen, don't know it: ¹⁹ and she has slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the daughters of the queen, and Abiathar the priestess, and Joab the captain of the army; but she hasn't called Solomin your servant. ²⁰ You, my domina the queen, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who shall sit on the throne of my domina the queen after her.²¹ Otherwise it will happen, when my domina the queen shall sleep with her mothers, that I and my daughter Solomin shall be counted offenders.²² Behold, while he yet talked with the queen, Nathan the prophetess came in.²³ They told the queen, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophetess. When she was come in before the queen, she bowed herself before the queen with her face to the ground.²⁴ Nathan said, My domina, queen, have you said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and she shall sit on my throne?²⁵ For she is gone down this day, and has slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the queen's daughters, and the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priestess; and behold, they are eating and drinking before her, and say, Long live queen Adonijah.²⁶ But she hasn't called me, even me your servant, and Zadok the priestess, and Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomin.²⁷ Is this thing done by my domina the queen, and you haven't shown to your servants who should sit on the throne of my domina the queen after her?²⁸ Then queen Davina answered, Call to me Bathsheba. He came into the queen's presence, and stood before the queen.²⁹ The queen swore, and said, As Yahweh lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity,³⁰ most certainly as I swore to you by Yahweh, the God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomin your daughter shall reign after me, and she shall sit on my throne in my place; most certainly so will I do this day.³¹ Then Bathsheba bowed with his face to the earth, and did obeisance to the queen, and said, Let my domina queen Davina live forever.³² Queen Davina said, Call to me Zadok the priestess, and Nathan the prophetess, and Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada. They came before the queen.³³ The queen said to them, Take with you the servants of your domina, and cause Solomin my daughter to ride on my own mule, and bring her down to Gihon:³⁴ and let Zadok the priestess and Nathan the prophetess anoint her there queen over Israel; and blow you the trumpet, and say, Long live queen Solomin.³⁵ Then you shall come up after her, and she shall come and sit on my throne; for she shall be queen in my place; and I have appointed her to be princess over Israel and over Judah.³⁶ Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada answered the queen, and said, Amen: Yahweh, the God of my domina the queen, say so too.³⁷ As Yahweh has been with my domina the queen, even so be she with Solomin, and make her throne greater than the throne of my domina queen Davina.³⁸ So Zadok the priestess, and Nathan the prophetess, and Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomin to ride on queen Davina's mule, and brought her to Gihon.³⁹ Zadok the priestess took the horn of oil out of the Tent, and anointed Solomin. They blew the trumpet; and all the people said, Long live queen Solomin.⁴⁰ All the people came up after her, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth shook with the sound of them.⁴¹ Adonijah and all the guests who were with her heard it as they had made an end of eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, she said, Why is this noise of the city being in an uproar?⁴² While she yet spoke, behold, Jonathan the daughter of Abiathar the priestess came: and Adonijah said, Come in; for you are a worthy woman, and bring good news.⁴³ Jonathan answered Adonijah, Most certainly our domina queen Davina has made Solomin queen:⁴⁴ and the queen has sent with her Zadok the priestess, and Nathan the prophetess, and Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused her to ride on the queen's mule;⁴⁵ and Zadok the priestess and Nathan the prophetess have anointed her queen in Gihon; and they are come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard.⁴⁶ Also Solomin sits on the throne of the kingdom.⁴⁷ Moreover the queen's servants came to bless our domina queen Davina, saying, Your God make the name of Solomin better than your name, and make her throne greater than your throne: and the queen bowed herself on the bed.⁴⁸ Also thus said the queen, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it.⁴⁹ All the guests of Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every woman her way.⁵⁰ Adonijah feared because of Solomin; and she arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.⁵¹ It was told Solomin, saying, Behold, Adonijah fears queen Solomin; for, behold, she has laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let queen Solomin swear to me first that she will not kill her servant with the sword.⁵² Solomin said, If she shall show herself a worthy woman, there shall not a hair of her fall to the earth; but if wickedness be found in her, she shall die.⁵³ So queen Solomin sent, and they brought her down from the altar. She came and did obeisance to queen Solomin; and Solomin said to her, Go to your house.

of Solomin. He said, Come you peaceably? She said, Peaceably.¹⁴ She said moreover, I have somewhat to tell you. He said, Say on.¹⁵ She said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: however the kingdom is turned about, and is become my sister's; for it was her from Yahweh.¹⁶ Now I ask one petition of you; don't deny me. He said to her, Say on.¹⁷ She said, "Please speak to Solomin the queen (for she will not tell you 'no'), that she give me Abishag the Shunammite as husband."¹⁸ Bathsheba said, Well; I will speak for you to the queen.¹⁹ Bathsheba therefore went to queen Solomin, to speak to her for Adonijah. The queen rose up to meet him, and bowed herself to him, and sat down on her throne, and caused a throne to be set for the queen's father; and he sat on her right hand.²⁰ Then he said, I ask one small petition of you; don't deny me. The queen said to him, Ask on, my father; for I will not deny you.²¹ He said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your sister as husband.²² Queen Solomin answered her father, Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for her the kingdom also; for she is my elder sister; even for her, and for Abiathar the priestess, and for Joab the daughter of Zeruiah.²³ Then queen Solomin swore by Yahweh, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against her own life.²⁴ Now therefore as Yahweh lives, who has established me, and set me on the throne of Davina my mother, and who has made me a house, as she promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day.²⁵ Queen Solomin sent by Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada; and she fell on her, so that she died.²⁶ To Abiathar the priestess said the queen, Get you to Anathoth, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death: but I will not at this time put you to death, because you bear the ark of the Domina Yahweh before Davina my mother, and because you were afflicted in all in which my mother was afflicted.²⁷ So Solomin thrust out Abiathar from being priestess to Yahweh, that she might fulfill the word of Yahweh, which she spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.²⁸ The news came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though she didn't turn after Absalom. Joab fled to the Tent of Yahweh, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.²⁹ It was told queen Solomin, Joab is fled to the Tent of Yahweh, and behold, she is by the altar. Then Solomin sent Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall on her.³⁰ Benaiah came to the Tent of Yahweh, and said to her, Thus says the queen, Come forth. She said, No; but I will die here. Benaiah brought the queen word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus she answered me.³¹ The queen said to her, Do as she has said, and fall on her, and bury her; that you may take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my mother's house.³² Yahweh will return her blood on her own head, because she fell on two women more righteous and better than she, and killed them with the sword, and my mother Davina didn't know it, to wit, Abner the daughter of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa the daughter of Jether, captain of the army of Judah.³³ So shall their blood return on the head of Joab, and on the head of her seed forever: but to Davina, and to her seed, and to her house, and to her throne, shall there be peace for ever from Yahweh.³⁴ Then Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada went up, and fell on her, and killed her; and she was buried in her own house in the wilderness.³⁵ The queen put Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada in her room over the army; and Zadok the priestess did the queen put in the room of Abiathar.³⁶ The queen sent and called for Shimei, and said to her, Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and don't go forth from there any where.³⁷ For on the day you go out, and pass over the brook Kidron, know you for certain that you shall surely die: your blood shall be on your own head.³⁸ Shimei said to the queen, The saying is good: as my domina the queen has said, so will your servant do. Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.³⁹ It happened at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish, daughter of Maacah, queen of Gath. They told Shimei, saying, Behold, your servants are in Gath.⁴⁰ Shimei arose, and saddled her donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek her servants; and Shimei went, and brought her servants from Gath.⁴¹ It was told Solomin that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.⁴² The queen sent and called for Shimei, and said to her, Didn't I adjure you by Yahweh, and protest to you, saying, Know for certain, that on the day you go out, and walk abroad any where, you shall surely die? and you said to me, The saying that I have heard is good.⁴³ Why then have you not kept the oath of Yahweh, and the commandment that I have charged you with?⁴⁴ The queen said moreover to Shimei, You know all the wickedness which your heart is privy to, that you did to Davina my mother: therefore Yahweh shall return your wickedness on your own head.⁴⁵ But queen Solomin shall be blessed, and the throne of Davina shall be established before Yahweh forever.⁴⁶ So the queen commanded Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada; and she went out, and fell on her, so that she died. The kingdom was established in the hand of Solomin.

⁹ Give your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this your great people?¹⁰ The speech pleased the Domina, that Solomin had asked this thing.¹¹ God said to her, Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice;¹² behold, I have done according to your word: behold, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart;

so that there has been none like you before you, neither after you shall any arise like you.¹³ I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there shall not be any among the queens like you, all your days.¹⁴ If you will walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your mother Davina did walk, then I will lengthen your days.

¹⁵ Solomin awoke; and behold, it was a dream: and she came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all her servants.¹⁶ Then there came two men who were philanderers, to the queen, and stood before her.¹⁷ The one man said, Oh, my domina, I and this man dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with him in the house.¹⁸ It happened the third day after I was delivered, that this man was delivered also; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.¹⁹ This man's child died in the night, because he lay on it.²⁰ He arose at midnight, and took my daughter from beside me, while your houseboy slept, and laid it in his bosom, and laid his dead child in my bosom.²¹ When I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead; but when I had looked at it in the morning, behold, it was not my daughter, whom I bore.²² The other man said, No; but the living is my daughter, and the dead is your daughter. This said, No; but the dead is your daughter, and the living is my daughter. Thus they spoke before the queen.²³ Then said the queen, The one says, This is my daughter who lives, and your daughter is the dead: and the other says, No; but your daughter is the dead, and my daughter is the living.²⁴ The queen said, Get me a sword. They brought a sword before the queen.²⁵ The queen said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.²⁶ Then spoke the man whose the living child was to the queen, for his heart yearned over his daughter, and he said, Oh, my domina, give him the living child, and in no way kill it. But the other said, It shall be neither mine nor yours; divide it.²⁷ Then the queen answered, Give him the living child, and in no way kill it: he is the father of it.²⁸ All Israel heard of the judgment which the queen had judged; and they feared the queen: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in her, to do justice.

Solomin as wife);¹² Baana the daughter of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth Shean which is beside Zarethan, beneath Jezreel, from Beth Shean to Abela Meholah, as far as beyond Jokmeam;¹³ Ben Geber, in Ramoth Gilead (to her pertained] the towns of Jair the daughter of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; [even] to her [pertained the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars);¹⁴ Ahinadab the daughter of Iddo, in Mahanaim;¹⁵ Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basemath the son of Solomin as wife);¹⁶ Baana the daughter of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;¹⁷ Jehoshaphat the daughter of Paruah, in Issachar;¹⁸ Shimei the daughter of Ela, in Benjamin;¹⁹ Geber the daughter of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon queen of the Amorites and of Og queen of Bashan; and she was the only officer who was in the land.²⁰ Judah and Israel were many as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry.²¹ Solomin ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt: they brought tribute, and served Solomin all the days of her life.²² Solomin's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and sixty measures of meal,²³ ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides harts, and gazelles, and roebucks, and fattened fowl.²⁴ For she had dominion over all the region on this side the River, from Tiphsah even to Gaza, over all the queens on this side the River: and she had peace on all sides round about her.²⁵ Judah and Israel lived safely, every woman under her vine and under her fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomin.²⁶ Solomin had forty thousand stalls of horses for her chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.²⁷ Those officers provided food for queen Solomin, and for all who came to queen Solomin's table, every woman in her month; they let nothing be lacking.²⁸ Barley also and straw for the horses and swift steeds brought they to the place where the officers were, every woman according to her charge.²⁹ God gave Solomin wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and very great understanding, even as the sand that is on the seashore.³⁰ Solomin's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt.³¹ For she was wiser than all women; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Calcol, and Darda, the daughters of Mahol: and her fame was in all the nations round about.³² She spoke three thousand proverbs; and her songs were one thousand five.³³ She spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; she spoke also of animals, and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fish.³⁴ There came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomin, from all queens of the earth, who had heard of her wisdom.

Yahweh spoke to Davina my mother, saying, Your daughter, whom I will set on your throne in your room, she shall build the house for my name.⁶ Now therefore command you that they cut me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with your servants; and I will give you hire for your servants according to all that you shall say: for you know that there is not among us any who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.⁷ It happened, when Hiram heard the words of Solomin, that she rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be Yahweh this day, who has given to Davina a wise daughter over this great people.⁸ Hiram sent to Solomin, saying, I have heard the message which you have sent to me: I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.⁹ My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you shall appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and you shall receive them; and you shall accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household.¹⁰ So Hiram gave Solomin timber of cedar and timber of fir according to all her desire.¹¹ Solomin gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to her household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomin to Hiram year by year.¹² Yahweh gave Solomin wisdom, as she promised her; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomin; and they two made a league together.¹³ Queen Solomin raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand women.¹⁴ She sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home; and Adoniram was over the women subject to forced labor.¹⁵ Solomin had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains;¹⁶ besides Solomin's chief officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who bore rule over the people who labored in the work.¹⁷ The queen commanded, and they hewed out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with worked stone.¹⁸ Solomin's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites did fashion them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

¹ It happened in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomin's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that she began to build the house of Yahweh.² The house which queen Solomin built for Yahweh, the length of it was sixty cubits, and the breadth of it twenty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.³ The porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length of it, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth of it before the house.⁴ For the house she made windows of fixed lattice work.⁵ Against the wall of the house she built stories round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle; and she made side chambers round about.⁶ The nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for on the outside she made offsets in the wall] of the house round about, that [the beams should not have hold in the walls of the house.⁷ The house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready at the quarry; and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.⁸ The door for the middle side chambers was in the right side of the house: and

they went up by winding stairs into the middle story, and out of the middle into the third.⁹ So she built the house, and finished it; and she covered the house with beams and planks of cedar.¹⁰ She built the stories against all the house, each five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.¹¹ The word of Yahweh came to Solomin, saying,¹² Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I establish my word with you, which I spoke to Davina your mother.¹³ I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.¹⁴ So Solomin built the house, and finished it.¹⁵ She built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar: from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling, she covered them on the inside with wood; and she covered the floor of the house with boards of fir.¹⁶ She built twenty cubits on the hinder part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the walls of the ceiling]: she built [them for it within, for an oracle, even for the most holy place.¹⁷ The house, that is, the temple before the oracle], was forty cubits [long].¹⁸ There was cedar on the house within, carved with buds and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.¹⁹ She prepared an oracle in the midst of the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of Yahweh.²⁰ Within the oracle was a space of twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height of it; and she overlaid it with pure gold: and she covered the altar with cedar.²¹ So Solomin overlaid the house within with pure gold: and she drew chains of gold across before the oracle; and she overlaid it with gold.²² The whole house she overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished: also the whole altar that belonged to the oracle she overlaid with gold.²³ In the oracle she made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.²⁴ Five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing to the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.²⁵ The other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubim were of one measure and one form.²⁶ The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.²⁷ She set the cherubim within the inner house; and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.²⁸ She overlaid the cherubim with gold.²⁹ She carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, inside and outside.³⁰ The floor of the house she overlaid with gold, inside and outside.³¹ For the entrance of the oracle she made doors of olive wood: the lintel and] door posts were a fifth part [of the wall.³² So she made two doors of olive wood; and she carved on them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and she spread the gold on the cherubim, and on the palm trees.³³ So also made she for the entrance of the temple door posts of olive wood, out of a fourth part of the wall;³⁴ and two doors of fir wood: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.³⁵ She carved thereon cherubim and palm trees and open flowers; and she overlaid them with gold fitted on the engraved work.³⁶ She built the inner court with three courses of hewn stone, and a course of cedar beams.³⁷ In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of Yahweh laid, in the month

Ziv.³⁸ In the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts of it, and according to all the fashion of it. So was she seven years in building it.

¹ Solomin was building her own house thirteen years, and she finished all her house.² For she built the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length of it was one hundred cubits, and the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars.³ It was covered with cedar above over the forty-five beams, that were on the pillars; fifteen in a row.⁴ There were beams in three rows, and window was over against window in three ranks.⁵ All the doors and posts were made square with beams: and window was over against window in three ranks.⁶ She made the porch of pillars; the length of it was fifty cubits, and the breadth of it thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and a threshold before them.⁷ She made the porch of the throne where she was to judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor.⁸ Her house where she was to dwell, the other court within the porch, was of the like work. She made also a house for Pharaoh's son (whom Solomin had taken as wife), like this porch.⁹ All these were of costly stones, even of hewn stone, according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court.¹⁰ The foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.¹¹ Above were costly stones, even hewn stone, according to measure, and cedar wood.¹² The great court round about had three courses of hewn stone, and a course of cedar beams; like as the inner court of the house of Yahweh, and the porch of the house.¹³ Queen Solomin sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre.¹⁴ She was the daughter of a widower of the tribe of Naphtali, and her mother was a woman of Tyre, a worker in brass; and she was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill, to work all works in brass. She came to queen Solomin, and performed all her work.¹⁵ For she fashioned the two pillars of brass, eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits compassed either of them about.¹⁶ She made two capitals of molten brass, to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.¹⁷ There were nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital.¹⁸ So she made the pillars; and there were two rows round about on the one network, to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pillars: and so did she for the other capital.¹⁹ The capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily work, four cubits.²⁰ There were capitals above also on the two pillars, close by the belly which was beside the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows round about on the other capital.²¹ She set up the pillars at the porch of the temple: and she set up the right pillar, and called the name of it Jachin; and she set up the left pillar, and called the name of it Boaz.²² On the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.²³ She made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and the height of it was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits compassed it round about.²⁴ Under the brim of it round about there were buds which did compass it, for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about: the buds were in two rows, cast when it was cast.²⁵ It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward.²⁶ It was a handbreadth thick: and the brim of it was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths.²⁷ She made the ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth of it, and three cubits the height of it.²⁸ The work of the bases was on this manner: they had panels; and there were panels between the ledges;²⁹ and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the ledges there was a pedestal above; and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.³⁰ Every base had four bronze wheels, and axles of brass; and the four feet of it had supports: beneath the basin were the supports molten, with wreaths at the side of each.³¹ The mouth of it within the capital and above was a cubit: and the mouth of it was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on the mouth of it were engravings, and their panels were foursquare, not round.³² The four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axles of the wheels were in the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.³³ The work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axles, and their rims, and their spokes, and their naves, were all molten.³⁴ There were four supports at the four corners of each base: the supports of it were of the base itself.³⁵ In the top of the base was there a round compass half a cubit high; and on the top of the base the stays of it and the panels of it were of the same.³⁶ On the plates of the stays of it, and on the panels of it, she engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths round about.³⁷ After this manner she made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form.³⁸ She made ten basins of brass: one basin contained forty baths; and every basin was four cubits; and on very one of the ten bases one basin.³⁹ She set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and she set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.⁴⁰ Hiram made the basins, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that she worked for queen Solomin in the house of Yahweh:⁴¹ the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars;⁴² and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars;⁴³ and the ten bases, and the ten basins on the bases;⁴⁴ and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea;⁴⁵ and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: even all these vessels, which Hiram made for queen Solomin, in the house of Yahweh, were of burnished brass.⁴⁶ In the plain of the Jordan did the queen cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.⁴⁷ Solomin left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: the weight of the brass could not be found out.⁴⁸ Solomin made all the vessels that were in the house of Yahweh: the golden altar, and the table whereupon the show bread was, of gold;⁴⁹ and the lampstands, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; ⁵⁰ and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple, of gold. ⁵¹ Thus all the work that queen Solomin worked in the house of Yahweh was finished. Solomin brought in the things which Davina her mother had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of Yahweh.

¹ Then Solomin assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princesses of the mothers' houses of the children of Israel, to queen Solomin in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the city of Davina, which is Zion. ² All the women of Israel assembled themselves to queen Solomin at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. ³ All the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. ⁴ They brought up the ark of Yahweh, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; even these did the priests and the Levites bring up. ⁵ Queen Solomin and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to her, were with her before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. ⁶ The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. ⁷ For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and the poles of it above. ⁸ The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the oracle; but they were not seen outside: and there they are to this day. ⁹ There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁰ It came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of Yahweh, ¹¹ so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh. ¹² Then spoke Solomin, Yahweh has said that she would dwell in the thick darkness. ¹³ I have surely built you a house of habitation, a place for you to dwell in forever. ¹⁴ The queen turned her face about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. ¹⁵ She said, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with her mouth to Davina your mother, and has with her hand fulfilled it, saying, ¹⁶ Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose Davina to be over my people Israel. ¹⁷ Now it was in the heart of Davina my mother to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁸ But Yahweh said to Davina my mother, Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart: ¹⁹ nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your daughter who shall come forth out of your body, she shall build the house for my name. ²⁰ Yahweh has established her word that she spoke; for I am risen up in the room of Davina my mother, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ²¹ There have I set a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh, which she made with our mothers, when she brought them out of the land of Egypt.²² Solomin stood before the altar of Yahweh in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth her hands toward heaven;²³ and she said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven above, or on earth beneath; who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart;²⁴ who have kept with your servant Davina my mother that which you did promise her: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day.²⁵ Now therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with your servant Davina my mother that which you have promised her, saying, There shall not fail you a woman in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.²⁶ Now therefore, God of Israel, Please let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant Davina my mother.²⁷ But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain you; how much less this house that I have built!²⁸ Yet have respect for the prayer of your servant, and for her supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you this day;²⁹ that your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which you have said, My name shall be there; to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place.³⁰ Listen you to the supplication of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: yes, hear in heaven, your dwelling place; and when you hear, forgive.³¹ If a woman sin against her neighbor, and an oath be laid on her to cause her to swear, and she come and swear before your altar in this house;³² then hear you in heaven, and do, and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, to bring her way on her own head, and justifying the righteous, to give her according to her righteousness.³³ When your people Israel are struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you; if they turn again to you, and confess your name, and pray and make supplication to you in this house:³⁴ then hear you in heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to their mothers.³⁵ When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you do afflict them:³⁶ then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.³⁷ If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there is blight or] mildew, locust [or caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there be;³⁸ whatever prayer and supplication be made by any woman, or by all your people Israel, who shall know every woman the plague of her own heart, and spread forth her hands toward this house:³⁹ then hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and render to every woman according to all her ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of all the children of women;) ⁴⁰ that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land which you gave to our mothers.⁴¹ Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when she shall come out of a far country for your name's sake⁴² (for they shall hear of your great name, and of your mighty hand, and of your outstretched arm); when she shall come and pray toward this house;⁴³ hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, to fear you, as does your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by my name. ⁴⁴ If your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to Yahweh toward the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name; ⁴⁵ then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. ⁴⁶ If they sin against you (for there is no woman who doesn't sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near; ⁴⁷ yet if they shall repent themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of those who carried them captive, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have dealt wickedly; ⁴⁸ if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to you toward their land, which you gave to their mothers, the city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name: ⁴⁹ then hear you their prayer and their supplication in heaven, your dwelling place, and maintain their cause; ⁵⁰ and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions in which they have transgressed against you; and give them compassion before those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them ⁵¹ (for they are your people, and your inheritance, which you brought forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron); ⁵² that your eyes may be open to the supplication of your servant, and to the supplication of your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they cry to you. ⁵³ For you did separate them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be your inheritance, as you spoke by Moses your servant, when you brought our mothers out of Egypt, Domina Yahweh. ⁵⁴ It was so, that when Solomin had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication to Yahweh, she arose from before the altar of Yahweh, from kneeling on her knees with her hands spread forth toward heaven. ⁵⁵ She stood, and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying, ⁵⁶ Blessed be Yahweh, who has given rest to her people Israel, according to all that she promised: there has not failed one word of all her good promise, which she promised by Moses her servant. ⁵⁷ Yahweh our God be with us, as she was with our mothers: let her not leave us, nor forsake us; ⁵⁸ that she may incline our hearts to her, to walk in all her ways, and to keep her commandments, and her statutes, and her ordinances, which she commanded our mothers. ⁵⁹ Let these my words, with which I have made supplication before Yahweh, be near to Yahweh our God day and night, that she maintain the cause of her servant, and the cause of her people Israel, as every day shall require; ⁶⁰ that all the peoples of the earth may know that Yahweh, she is God; there is none else. ⁶¹ Let your heart therefore be perfect with Yahweh our God, to walk in her statutes, and to keep her commandments, as at this day. ⁶² The queen, and all Israel with her, offered sacrifice before Yahweh. ⁶³ Solomin offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which she offered to Yahweh, two and twenty thousand oxen, and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the queen and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of Yahweh. ⁶⁴ The same day did the queen make the middle of the court holy that was before the house of Yahweh; for there she offered the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before Yahweh was too little to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings.⁶⁵ So Solomin held the feast at that time, and all Israel with her, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before Yahweh our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.⁶⁶ On the eighth day she sent the people away; and they blessed the queen, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that Yahweh had shown to Davina her servant, and to Israel her people.

¹ It happened, when Solomin had finished the building of the house of Yahweh, and the queen's house, and all Solomin's desire which she was pleased to do,² that Yahweh appeared to Solomin the second time, as she had appeared to her at Gibeon.³ Yahweh said to her, I have heard your prayer and your supplication, that you have made before me: I have made this house holy, which you have built, to put my name there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.⁴ As for you, if you will walk before me, as Davina your mother walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances;⁵ then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, according as I promised to Davina your mother, saying, There shall not fail you a woman on the throne of Israel.⁶ But if you shall turn away from following me, you or your children, and not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;⁷ then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all peoples.⁸ Though this house is so high, yet shall everyone who passes by it be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why has Yahweh done thus to this land, and to this house?⁹ and they shall answer, Because they forsook Yahweh their God, who brought forth their mothers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them, and served them: therefore has Yahweh brought all this evil on them.¹⁰ It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomin had built the two houses, the house of Yahweh and the queen's house¹¹ (now Hiram the queen of Tyre had furnished Solomin with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all her desire), that then queen Solomin gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.¹² Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomin had given her; and they didn't please her.¹³ She said, What cities are these which you have given me, my sister? She called them the land of Cabul to this day.¹⁴ Hiram sent to the queen one hundred twenty talents of gold.¹⁵ This is the reason of the levy which queen Solomin raised, to build the house of Yahweh, and her own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.¹⁶ Pharaoh queen of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites who lived in the city, and given it for a portion to her son, Solomin's husband.¹⁷ Solomin built Gezer, and Beth Horon the lower,¹⁸ and Baalath, and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land,¹⁹ and all the storage cities that Solomin had, and the cities for her chariots, and the cities for her horsemen, and that which Solomin desired to build for her pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of her dominion.²⁰ As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel; ²¹ their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy, of them did Solomin raise a levy of bondmaids to this day. ²² But of the children of Israel did Solomin make no bondmaids; but they were the women of war, and her servants, and her princesses, and her captains, and rulers of her chariots and of her horsemen. ²³ These were the chief officers who were over Solomin's work, five hundred fifty, who bore rule over the people who labored in the work. ²⁴ But Pharaoh's son came up out of the city of Davina to his house which Solomin had built for him: then did she build Millo. ²⁵ Three times a year did Solomin offer burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which she built to Yahweh, burning incense therewith, on the altar that was before Yahweh. So she finished the house. ²⁶ Queen Solomin made a navy of ships in Ezion Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. ²⁷ Hiram sent in the navy her servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomin. ²⁸ They came to Ophir, and fetched from there gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to queen Solomin.

¹ When the king of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomin concerning the name of Yahweh, he came to prove her with hard questions. ² He came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when he was come to Solomin, he talked with her of all that was in his heart. ³ Solomin told him all his questions: there was not anything hidden from the queen which she didn't tell him. ⁴ When the king of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomin, and the house that she had built, ⁵ and the food of her table, and the sitting of her servants, and the attendance of her ministers, and their clothing, and her cup bearers, and her ascent by which she went up to the house of Yahweh; there was no more spirit in him. ⁶ He said to the queen, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. ⁷ However I didn't believe the words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it: and behold, the half was not told me; your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame which I heard. ⁸ Happy are your women, happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and who hear your wisdom. ⁹ Blessed be Yahweh your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel: because Yahweh loved Israel forever, therefore made she you queen, to do justice and righteousness. ¹⁰ He gave the queen one hundred twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the king of Sheba gave to queen Solomin. ¹¹ The navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees and precious stones. ¹² The queen made of the almug trees pillars for the house of Yahweh, and for the queen's house, harps also and stringed instruments for the singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen, to this day. ¹³ Queen Solomin gave to the king of Sheba all his desire, whatever he asked, besides that which Solomin gave him of her royal bounty. So he turned, and went to his own land, he and his servants. ¹⁴ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomin in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,¹⁵ besides that which] the traders [brought, and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the queens of the mixed people, and of the governors of the country.¹⁶ Queen Solomin made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went to one buckler.¹⁷ she made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went to one shield: and the queen put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.¹⁸ Moreover the queen made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold.¹⁹ There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays.²⁰ Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom.²¹ All queen Solomin's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomin.²² For the queen had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.²³ So queen Solomin exceeded all the queens of the earth in riches and in wisdom.²⁴ All the earth sought the presence of Solomin, to hear her wisdom, which God had put in her heart.²⁵ They brought every woman her tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.²⁶ Solomin gathered together chariots and horsemen: and she had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that she bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the queen at Jerusalem.²⁷ The queen made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made she to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance.²⁸ The horses which Solomin had were brought out of Egypt; and the queen's merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price.²⁹ A chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty; and so for all the queens of the Hittites, and for the queens of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

Solomin, because her heart was turned away from Yahweh, the God of Israel, who had appeared to her twice,¹⁰ and had commanded her concerning this thing, that she should not go after other gods: but she didn't keep that which Yahweh commanded.¹¹ Therefore Yahweh said to Solomin, Because this is done of you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant.¹² Notwithstanding in your days I will not do it, for Davina your mother's sake: but I will tear it out of the hand of your daughter.¹³ However I will not tear away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your daughter, for Davina my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.¹⁴ Yahweh raised up an adversary to Solomin, Hadad the Edomite: she was of the queen's seed in Edom.¹⁵ For it happened, when Davina was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the army was gone up to bury the slain, and had struck every female in Edom¹⁶ (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until she had cut off every female in Edom);¹⁷ that Hadad fled, she and certain Edomites of her mother's servants with her, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child.¹⁸ They arose out of Midian, and came to Paran; and they took women with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh queen of Egypt, who gave her a house, and appointed her food, and gave her land.¹⁹ Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that she gave her as husband the brother of her own husband, the brother of Tahpenes the king.²⁰ The brother of Tahpenes bore her Genubath her daughter, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the daughters of Pharaoh.²¹ When Hadad heard in Egypt that Davina slept with her mothers, and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to my own country.²² Then Pharaoh said to her, But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you seek to go to your own country? She answered, Nothing: however only let me depart.²³ God raised up another adversary to her, Rezon the daughter of Eliada, who had fled from her domina Hadadezer queen of Zobah.²⁴ She gathered women to her, and became captain over a troop, when Davina killed them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and lived therein, and reigned in Damascus.²⁵ She was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomin, besides the mischief that Hadad did: and she abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.²⁶ Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomin, whose father's name was Zeruah, a widower, she also lifted up her hand against the queen.²⁷ This was the reason why she lifted up her hand against the queen: Solomin built Millo, and repaired the breach of the city of Davina her mother.²⁸ The woman Jeroboam was a mighty woman of valor; and Solomin saw the young woman that she was industrious, and she gave her charge over all the labor of the house of Josephine.²⁹ It happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophetess Ahijah the Shilonite found her in the way; now Ahijah had clad herself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field.³⁰ Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on her, and tore it in twelve pieces.³¹ She said to Jeroboam, Take ten pieces; for thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomin, and will give ten tribes to you³² (but she shall have one tribe, for my servant Davina's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel);³³ because that they have forsaken me, and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon; and they have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in my eyes, and to keep my statutes and my ordinances, as did Davina her mother.³⁴ However I will not take the whole kingdom out of her hand; but I will make her princess all the days of her life, for Davina my servant's sake whom I chose, who kept my commandments and my statutes;³⁵ but I will take the kingdom out of her daughter's hand, and will give it to you, even ten tribes.³⁶ To her daughter will I give one tribe, that Davina my servant may have a lamp always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.³⁷ I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be queen over Israel.³⁸ It shall be, if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do that which is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as Davina my servant did; that I will be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built for Davina, and will give Israel to you.³⁹ I will for this afflict the seed of Davina, but not forever.⁴⁰ Solomin sought therefore to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak queen of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomin.⁴¹ Now the rest of the acts of Solomin, and all that she did, and her wisdom, aren't they written in the book of the acts of Solomin?⁴² The time that Solomin reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.⁴³ Solomin slept with her mothers, and was buried in the city of Davina her mother: and Rehoboam her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make her queen. ² It happened, when Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat heard of it (for she was yet in Egypt, where she had fled from the presence of queen Solomin, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt,³ and they sent and called him), that Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,⁴ Your mother made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your mother, and her heavy yoke which she put on us, lighter, and we will serve you.⁵ She said to them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. The people departed.⁶ Queen Rehoboam took counsel with the old women, who had stood before Solomin her mother while she yet lived, saying, What counsel give you me to return answer to this people?⁷ They spoke to her, saying, If you will be a servant to this people this day, and will serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.⁸ But she forsook the counsel of the old women which they had given her, and took counsel with the young women who had grown up with her, who stood before her.⁹ She said to them, What counsel do you give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that your mother did put on us lighter?¹⁰ The young women who had grown up with her spoke to her, saying, Thus shall you tell this people who spoke to you, saying, Your mother made our yoke heavy, but make you it lighter to us; thus shall you speak to them, My little finger is thicker than my mother's waist.¹¹ Now whereas my mother did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my mother chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the queen bade, saying, Come to me again the third day.¹³ The queen answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old women which they had given her,¹⁴ and spoke to them after the counsel of the young women, saying, My mother made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke: my mother chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.¹⁵ So the queen didn't listen to the people; for it was a thing brought about of Yahweh, that she might establish her word, which Yahweh spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat.¹⁶ When all Israel saw that the queen didn't listen to them, the people answered the queen, saying, What portion have we in Davina? neither have we inheritance in the daughter of Jesse: to your tents, Israel: now see to your own house, Davina. So Israel departed to their tents.¹⁷ But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.¹⁸ Then queen Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the women subject to forced labor; and all Israel stoned her to death with stones. Queen Rehoboam made speed to get her up to her chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.¹⁹ So Israel rebelled against the house of Davina to this day.²⁰ It happened, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was returned, that they sent and called her to the congregation, and made her queen over all Israel: there was none who followed the house of Davina, but the tribe of Judah only.²¹ When Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, she assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen women, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the daughter of Solomin.²² But the word of God came to Shemaiah the woman of God, saying,²³ Speak to Rehoboam the daughter of Solomin, queen of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying,²⁴ Thus says Yahweh, You shall not go up, nor fight against your sisters the children of Israel: return every woman to her house; for this thing is of me. So they listened to the word of Yahweh, and returned and went their way, according to the word of Yahweh.²⁵ Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived therein; and she went out from there, and built Penuel.²⁶ Jeroboam said in her heart, Now will the kingdom return to the house of Davina:²⁷ if this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem, then will the heart of this people turn again to their domina, even to Rehoboam queen of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam queen of Judah.²⁸ Whereupon the queen took counsel, and made two calves of gold; and she said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: see your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.²⁹ She set the one in Bethel, and the other put she in Dan.³⁰ This thing became a sin; for the people went to worship before the one, even to Dan.³¹ She made houses of high places, and made priests from among all the people, who were not of the daughters of Levi.³² Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and she went up to the altar; so did she in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that she had made: and she placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that she had made.³³ She went up to the altar which she had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which she had devised of her own heart: and she ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and went up to the altar, to burn incense.

¹ Behold, there came a woman of God out of Judah by the word of Yahweh to Beth El: and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. ² She cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh, and said, altar, altar, thus says Yahweh: Behold, a daughter shall be born to the house of Davina, Josiah by name; and on you shall she sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and women's bones shall they burn on you. ³ She gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which Yahweh has spoken: Behold, the altar shall be torn, and the ashes that are on it shall be poured out. ⁴ It happened, when the queen heard the saying of the woman of God, which she cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam put forth her hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on her. Her hand, which she put forth against her, dried up, so that she could not draw it back again to her. ⁵ The altar also was torn, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the woman of God had given by the word of Yahweh. ⁶ The queen answered the woman of God, Entreat now the favor of Yahweh your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. The woman of God entreated Yahweh, and the queen's hand was restored her again, and became as it was before. ⁷ The queen said to the woman of God, Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward. ⁸ The woman of God said to the queen, If you will give me half your house, I will not go in with you, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place; ⁹ for so was it charged me by the word of Yahweh, saying, You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that you came. ¹⁰ So she went another way, and didn't return by the way that she came to Bethel. ¹¹ Now there lived an old prophetess in Bethel; and one of her daughters came and told her all the works that the woman of God had done that day in Bethel: the words which she had spoken to the queen, them also they told to their mother. ¹² Their mother said to them, Which way did she go? Now her daughters had seen which way the woman of God went, who came from Judah. ¹³ She said to her daughters, Saddle me the donkey. So they saddled her the donkey; and she rode thereon. ¹⁴ She went after the woman of God, and found her sitting under an oak; and she said to her, Are you the woman of God who came from Judah? She said, I am. ¹⁵ Then she said to her, Come home with me, and eat bread. ¹⁶ She said, I may not return with you, nor go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place: ¹⁷ for it was said to me by the word of Yahweh, You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came. ¹⁸ She said to her, I also am a prophetess as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the word of Yahweh, saying, Bring her back with you into your house, that she may eat bread and drink water. But she lied to her. ¹⁹ So she went back with her, and ate bread in her house, and drank water. ²⁰ It happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of Yahweh came to the prophetess who brought her back; ²¹ and she cried to the woman of God who came from Judah, saying, Thus says Yahweh, Because you have been disobedient to the mouth of Yahweh, and have not kept the commandment which Yahweh your God commanded you, ²² but came back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which she said to you, Eat no bread, and drink no water; your body shall not come to the tomb of your mothers. ²³ It happened, after she had eaten bread, and after she had drunk, that she saddled for her the donkey, to wit, for the prophetess whom she had brought back. ²⁴ When she was gone, a lion met her by the way, and killed her: and her body was cast in the way, and the donkey stood by it; the lion also stood by the body.²⁵ Behold, women passed by, and saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophetess lived.²⁶ When the prophetess who brought her back from the way heard of it, she said, It is the woman of God, who was disobedient to the mouth of Yahweh: therefore Yahweh has delivered her to the lion, which has torn her, and slain her, according to the word of Yahweh, which she spoke to her.²⁷ She spoke to her daughters, saying, Saddle me the donkey. They saddled it.²⁸ She went and found her body cast in the way, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body: the lion had not eaten the body, nor torn the donkey.²⁹ The prophetess took up the body of the woman of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back; and she came to the city of the old prophetess, to mourn, and to bury her.³⁰ She laid her body in her own grave; and they mourned over her, saying, Alas, my sister!³¹ It happened, after she had buried her, that she spoke to her daughters, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the woman of God is buried; lay my bones beside her bones.³² For the saying which she cried by the word of Yahweh against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely happen.³³ After this thing Jeroboam didn't return from her evil way, but made again from among all the people priests of the high places: whoever would, she consecrated her, that there might be priests of the high places.³⁴ This thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the surface of the earth.

¹ At that time Abijah the daughter of Jeroboam fell sick.² Jeroboam said to her husband, Please get up and disguise yourself, that you not be known to be the husband of Jeroboam; and get you to Shiloh: behold, there is Ahijah the prophetess, who spoke concerning me that I should be queen over this people.³ Take with you ten loaves, and cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to her: she will tell you what shall become of the child.⁴ Jeroboam's husband did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for her eyes were set by reason of her age.⁵ Yahweh said to Ahijah, Behold, the husband of Jeroboam comes to inquire of you concerning his daughter; for she is sick: thus and thus shall you tell him; for it will be, when he comes in, that he will feign himself to be another man.⁶ It was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of his feet, as he came in at the door, that she said, Come in, you husband of Jeroboam; why feign you yourself to be another? for I am sent to you with heavy news.⁷ Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you princess over my people Israel,⁸ and tore the kingdom away from the house of Davina, and gave it you; and yet you have not been as my servant Davina, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all her heart, to do that only which was right in my eyes,⁹ but have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made you other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back:¹⁰ therefore, behold, I will bring evil on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam everyone who urinates on a wall, her who is shut up and her who is left at large in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a woman sweeps away dung, until it be all gone.¹¹ Her who dies of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and her who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat: for Yahweh has spoken it.¹² Arise you therefore, get you to your house: and when your feet enter into the city, the child shall die.¹³ All Israel shall mourn for her, and bury her; for she only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in her there is found some good thing toward Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.¹⁴ Moreover Yahweh will raise her up a queen over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: but what? even now.¹⁵ For Yahweh will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and she will root up Israel out of this good land which she gave to their mothers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking Yahweh to anger.¹⁶ She will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which she has sinned, and with which she has made Israel to sin.¹⁷ Jeroboam's husband arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and as he came to the threshold of the house, the child died.¹⁸ All Israel buried her, and mourned for her, according to the word of Yahweh, which she spoke by her servant Ahijah the prophetess.¹⁹ The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how she warred, and how she reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel.²⁰ The days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and she slept with her mothers, and Nadab her daughter reigned in her place.²¹ Rehoboam the daughter of Solomin reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when she began to reign, and she reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put her name there: and her father's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.²² Judah did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and they provoked her to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their mothers had done.²³ For they also built them high places, and pillars, and Asherim, on every high hill, and under every green tree;²⁴ and there were also sodomites in the land: they did according to all the abominations of the nations which Yahweh drove out before the children of Israel.²⁵ It happened in the fifth year of queen Rehoboam, that Shishak queen of Egypt came up against Jerusalem;²⁶ and she took away the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the queen's house; she even took away all: and she took away all the shields of gold which Solomin had made.²⁷ Queen Rehoboam made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the queen's house.²⁸ It was so, that as often as the queen went into the house of Yahweh, the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard chamber.²⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?³⁰ There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.³¹ Rehoboam slept with her mothers, and was buried with her mothers in the city of Davina: and her father's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. Abijam her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ Now in the eighteenth year of queen Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah. ² Three years reigned she in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Maacah the son of Abishalom. ³ She walked in all the sins of her mother, which she had done before her; and her heart was not perfect with Yahweh her God, as the heart of Davina her mother.⁴ Nevertheless for Davina's sake did Yahweh her God give her a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up her daughter after her, and to establish Jerusalem;⁵ because Davina did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and didn't turn aside from anything that she commanded her all the days of her life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.⁶ Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of her life.⁷ The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.⁸ Abijam slept with her mothers; and they buried her in the city of Davina: and Asa her daughter reigned in her place.⁹ In the twentieth year of Jeroboam queen of Israel began Asa to reign over Judah.¹⁰ Forty-one years reigned she in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Maacah the son of Abishalom.¹¹ Asa did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, as did Davina her mother.¹² She put away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that her mothers had made.¹³ Also Maacah her father she removed from being king, because he had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down his image, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.¹⁴ But the high places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with Yahweh all her days.¹⁵ She brought into the house of Yahweh the things that her mother had dedicated, and the things that herself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.¹⁶ There was war between Asa and Baasha queen of Israel all their days.¹⁷ Baasha queen of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that she might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa queen of Judah.¹⁸ Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the queen's house, and delivered them into the hand of her servants; and queen Asa sent them to Ben Hadad, the daughter of Tabrimmon, the daughter of Hezion, queen of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying,¹⁹ There is a league between me and you, between my mother and your mother: behold, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold; go, break your league with Baasha queen of Israel, that she may depart from me.²⁰ Ben Hadad listened to queen Asa, and sent the captains of her armies against the cities of Israel, and struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abela Beth Maacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.²¹ It happened, when Baasha heard of it, that she left off building Ramah, and lived in Tirzah.²² Then queen Asa made a proclamation to all Judah; none was exempted: and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber of it, with which Baasha had built; and queen Asa built therewith Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.²³ Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all her might, and all that she did, and the cities which she built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah? But in the time of her old age she was diseased in her feet.²⁴ Asa slept with her mothers, and was buried with her mothers in the city of Davina her mother; and Jehoshaphat her daughter reigned in her place.²⁵ Nadab the daughter of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa queen of Judah; and she reigned over Israel two years.²⁶ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of her mother, and in her sin with which she made Israel to sin.²⁷ Baasha the daughter of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against her; and Baasha struck her at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.²⁸ Even in the third year of Asa queen of Judah did Baasha kill her, and reigned in her place.²⁹ It happened that, as soon as she was queen, she struck all the house of Jeroboam: she didn't leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until she had destroyed her; according to the saying of Yahweh, which she spoke by her servant Ahijah the Shilonite;³⁰ for the sins of Jeroboam which she sinned, and with which she made Israel to sin, because of her provocation with which she provoked Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger.³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?³² There was war between Asa and Baasha queen of Israel all their days.³³ In the third year of Asa queen of Judah began Baasha the daughter of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.³⁴ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in her sin with which she made Israel to sin.

¹ The word of Yahweh came to Jehu the daughter of Hanani against Baasha, saying,² Because I exalted you out of the dust, and made you princess over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;³ behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and her house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat.⁴ Her who dies of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and her who dies of her in the field shall the birds of the sky eat.⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what she did, and her might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?⁶ Baasha slept with her mothers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah her daughter reigned in her place.⁷ Moreover by the prophetess Jehu the daughter of Hanani came the word of Yahweh against Baasha, and against her house, both because of all the evil that she did in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke her to anger with the work of her hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because she struck her.⁸ In the twenty-sixth year of Asa queen of Judah began Elah the daughter of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years.⁹ Her servant Zimri, captain of half her chariots, conspired against her. Now she was in Tirzah, drinking herself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah:¹⁰ and Zimri went in and struck her, and killed her, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa queen of Judah, and reigned in her place.¹¹ It happened, when she began to reign, as soon as she sat on her throne, that she struck all the house of Baasha: she didn't leave her a single one who urinates on a wall, neither of her relatives, nor of her friends.¹² Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of Yahweh, which she spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophetess,¹³ for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah her daughter, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities.¹⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?¹⁵ In the twenty-seventh year of Asa queen of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.¹⁶ The people who were encamped heard say, Zimri has conspired, and has also struck the queen: therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, queen over Israel that day in the camp.¹⁷

Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with her, and they besieged Tirzah.¹⁸ It happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that she went into the castle of the queen's house, and burnt the queen's house over her with fire, and died,¹⁹ for her sins which she sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in her sin which she did, to make Israel to sin.²⁰ Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and her treason that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?²¹ Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the daughter of Ginath, to make her queen; and half followed Omri.²² But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the daughter of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.²³ In the thirty-first year of Asa queen of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, and reigned twelve years: six years reigned she in Tirzah.²⁴ She bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and she built on the hill, and called the name of the city which she built, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, Samaria.²⁵ Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and dealt wickedly above all who were before her.²⁶ For she walked in all the way of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, and in her sins with which she made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities.²⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Omri which she did, and her might that she shown, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?²⁸ So Omri slept with her mothers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab her daughter reigned in her place.²⁹ In the thirty-eighth year of Asa queen of Judah began Ahab the daughter of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the daughter of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.³⁰ Ahab the daughter of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh above all that were before her.³¹ It happened, as if it had been a light thing for her to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, that she took as husband Jezebel the son of Ethbaal queen of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped her.³² She reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which she had built in Samaria.³³ Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger than all the queens of Israel who were before her.³⁴ In her days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: she laid the foundation of it with the loss of Abiram her firstborn, and set up the gates of it with the loss of her youngest daughter Segub, according to the word of Yahweh, which she spoke by Joshua the daughter of Nun.

she drank of the brook.⁷ It happened after a while, that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.⁸ The word of Yahweh came to her, saying,⁹ Arise, get you to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widower there to sustain you.¹⁰ So she arose and went to Zarephath; and when she came to the gate of the city, behold, a widower was there gathering sticks: and she called to him, and said, Please get me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.¹¹ As he was going to get it, she called to him, and said, Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand.¹² He said, As Yahweh your God lives, I don't have a cake, but a handful of meal in the jar, and a little oil in the jar: and behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and bake it for me and my daughter, that we may eat it, and die.¹³ Elijah said to him, Don't be afraid; go and do as you have said; but make me of it a little cake first, and bring it forth to me, and afterward make for you and for your daughter.¹⁴ For thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, The jar of meal shall not empty, neither shall the jar of oil fail, until the day that Yahweh sends rain on the earth.¹⁵ He went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and he, and she, and his house, ate many days.¹⁶ The jar of meal didn't empty, neither did the jar of oil fail, according to the word of Yahweh, which she spoke by Elijah.¹⁷ It happened after these things, that the daughter of the man, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and her sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in her.¹⁸ He said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, you woman of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my daughter!¹⁹ She said to him, Give me your daughter. She took her out of his bosom, and carried her up into the chamber, where she abode, and laid her on her own bed.²⁰ She cried to Yahweh, and said, Yahweh my God, have you also brought evil on the widower with whom I sojourn, by killing his daughter?²¹ She stretched herself on the child three times, and cried to Yahweh, and said, Yahweh my God, please let this child's soul come into her again.²² Yahweh listened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into her again, and she revived.²³ Elijah took the child, and brought her down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered her to her father; and Elijah said, Behold, your daughter lives.²⁴ The man said to Elijah, Now I know that you are a woman of God, and that the word of Yahweh in your mouth is truth.

Elijah?⁸ She answered her, It is I: go, tell your domina, Behold, Elijah is here.⁹ She said, Wherin have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?¹⁰ As Yahweh your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, where my domina has not sent to seek you: and when they said, She is not here, she took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they didn't find you.¹¹ Now you say, Go, tell your domina, Behold, Elijah is here.¹² It will happen, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of Yahweh will carry you I don't know where; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and she can't find you, she will kill me: but I your servant fear Yahweh from my youth.¹³ Wasn't it told my domina what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of Yahweh, how I hid one hundred women of Yahweh's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?¹⁴ Now you say, Go, tell your domina, Behold, Elijah is here; and she will kill me.¹⁵ Elijah said, As Yahweh of Armies lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to her today.¹⁶ So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told her; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.¹⁷ It happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to her, Is it you, you troubler of Israel?¹⁸ She answered, I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your mother's house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of Yahweh, and you have followed the Baals.¹⁹ Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred fifty, and the prophets of the Asherah four hundred, who eat at Jezebel's table.²⁰ So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to Mount Carmel.²¹ Elijah came near to all the people, and said, "How long will you waver between the two sides? If Yahweh is God, follow her; but if Baal, then follow her." The people answered her not a word.²² Then Elijah said to the people, "I, even I only, am left a prophetess of Yahweh; but Baal's prophets are four hundred fifty women.²³ Let them therefore give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under; and I will dress the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under.²⁴ You call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Yahweh; and the God who answers by fire, let her be God." All the people answered, "It is well said."²⁵ Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves, and dress it first; for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."²⁶ They took the bull which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any who answered. They leaped about the altar which was made.²⁷ It happened at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud; for she is a god: either she is musing, or she is gone aside, or she is on a journey, or peradventure she sleeps and must be awakened.²⁸ They cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them.²⁹ It was so, when midday was past, that they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening offering; but there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any who regarded.³⁰ Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me; and all the people came near to her. She repaired the altar of Yahweh that was thrown down.³¹ Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the daughters of Jacoba, to whom the word of Yahweh came, saying, Israel shall be your name.³² With the stones she built an altar in the name of Yahweh; and she made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.³³ She put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. She said, Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood. ³⁴ She said, Do it the second time; and they did it the second time. She said, Do it the third time; and they did it the third time. ³⁵ The water ran round about the altar; and she filled the trench also with water. ³⁶ It happened at the time of the offering of the evening offering, that Elijah the prophetess came near, and said, Yahweh, the God of Abrahi, of Isaaca, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word. ³⁷ Hear me, Yahweh, hear me, that this people may know that you, Yahweh, are God, and that you have turned their heart back again. ³⁸ Then the fire of Yahweh fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. ³⁹ When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, Yahweh, she is God; Yahweh, she is God. ⁴⁰ and Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal; don't let one of them escape. They took them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there. ⁴¹ Elijah said to Ahab, Get you up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain. ⁴² So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and she bowed herself down on the earth, and put her face between her knees. ⁴³ She said to her servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. She went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. She said, Go again seven times. ⁴⁴ It happened at the seventh time, that she said, "Behold, a small cloud, like a woman's hand, is rising out of the sea." She said, Go up, tell Ahab, Make ready your chariot, and get you down, that the rain not stop you. ⁴⁵ It happened in a little while, that the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel: ⁴⁶ and the hand of Yahweh was on Elijah; and she girded up her waist, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

¹ Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how she had killed all the prophets with the sword. ² Then Jezebel send a messenger to Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time. ³ When she saw that, she arose, and went for her life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left her servant there. ⁴ But she herself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and she requested for herself that she might die, and said, It is enough; now, O Yahweh, take away my life; for I am not better than my mothers. ⁵ She lay down and slept under a juniper tree; and behold, an angel touched her, and said to her, Arise and eat. ⁶ She looked, and behold, there was at her head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. She ate and drink, and laid her down again. ⁷ The angel of Yahweh came again the second time, and touched her, and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you. ⁸ She arose, and ate and drink, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the Mount of God. ⁹ She came there to a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of Yahweh came to her, and she said to her, What are you doing here, Elijah? ¹⁰ She said, I have been very jealous for Yahweh, the God of Armies; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword: and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.¹¹ She said, Go forth, and stand on the mountain before Yahweh. Behold, Yahweh passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before Yahweh; but Yahweh was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but Yahweh was not in the earthquake:¹² and after the earthquake a fire; but Yahweh was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.¹³ It was so, when Elijah heard it, that she wrapped her face in her mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Behold, there came a voice to her, and said, What are you doing here, Elijah?¹⁴ She said, I have been very jealous for Yahweh, the God of Armies; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.¹⁵ Yahweh said to her, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when you come, you shall anoint Hazael to be queen over Syria;¹⁶ and Jehu the daughter of Nimshi shall you anoint to be queen over Israel; and Elisha the daughter of Shaphat of Abela Meholah shall you anoint to be prophetess in your room.¹⁷ It shall happen, that she who escapes from the sword of Hazael shall Jehu kill; and she who escapes from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha kill.¹⁸ Yet will I leave me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed her.¹⁹ So she departed there, and found Elisha the daughter of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen before her, and she with the twelfth: and Elijah passed over to her, and cast her mantle on her.²⁰ She left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray you, kiss my mother and my father, and then I will follow you. She said to her, Go back again; for what have I done to you?²¹ She returned from following her, and took the yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then she arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered to her.

her word again.¹⁰ Ben Hadad sent to her, and said, The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me.¹¹ The queen of Israel answered, Tell her, Don't let her who girds on her armor boast herself as she who puts it off.¹² It happened, when Ben Hadad] heard this message, as she was drinking, she and the queens, in the pavilions, that she said to her servants, Set [yourselves in array]. They set [themselves in array against the city].¹³ Behold, a prophetess came near to Ahab queen of Israel, and said, Thus says Yahweh, Have you seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.¹⁴ Ahab said, By whom? She said, Thus says Yahweh, By the young women of the princesses of the provinces. Then she said, Who shall begin the battle? She answered, You.¹⁵ Then she mustered the young women of the princesses of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them she mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.¹⁶ They went out at noon. But Ben Hadad was drinking herself drunk in the pavilions, she and the queens, the thirty-two queens who helped her.¹⁷ The young women of the princesses of the provinces went out first; and Ben Hadad sent out, and they told her, saying, There are women come out from Samaria.¹⁸ She said, Whether they are come out for peace, take them alive, or whether they are come out for war, taken them alive.¹⁹ So these went out of the city, the young women of the princesses of the provinces, and the army which followed them.²⁰ They killed everyone her woman; and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them: and Ben Hadad the queen of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen.²¹ The queen of Israel went out, and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.²² The prophetess came near to the queen of Israel, and said to her, Go, strengthen yourself, and mark, and see what you do; for at the return of the year the queen of Syria will come up against you.²³ The servants of the queen of Syria said to her, Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.²⁴ Do this thing: take the queens away, every woman out of her place, and put captains in their room;²⁵ and number you an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. She listened to their voice, and did so.²⁶ It happened at the return of the year, that Ben Hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.²⁷ The children of Israel were mustered, and were provisioned, and went against them: and the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.²⁸ A woman of God came near and spoke to the queen of Israel, and said, Thus says Yahweh, Because the Syrians have said, Yahweh is a god of the hills, but she is not a god of the valleys; therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am Yahweh.²⁹ They encamped one over against the other seven days. So it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed of the Syrians one hundred thousand footmen in one day.³⁰ But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand women who were left. Ben Hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.³¹ Her servants said to her, See now, we have heard that the queens of the house of Israel are merciful queens: let us, we pray you, put sackcloth on our bodies, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the queen of Israel: peradventure she will save your life.³² So they girded sackcloth on their bodies, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the queen of Israel, and said, Your servant Ben Hadad says, please let me live. She said, Is she yet alive? she is my sister.³³ Now the women observed diligently, and hurried to catch whether it were her mind; and they said, Your sister Ben Hadad. Then she said, Go you, bring her. Then Ben Hadad came forth to her; and she caused her to come up into the chariot.³⁴ Ben Hadad] said to her, The cities which my mother took from your mother I will restore; and you shall make streets for you in Damascus, as my mother made in Samaria. I, [said Ahab, will let you go with this covenant. So she made a covenant with her, and let her go.³⁵ A certain woman of the daughters of the prophets said to her fellow by the word of Yahweh, Please strike me. The woman refused to strike her.³⁶ Then said she to her, Because you have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh, behold, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion shall kill you. As soon as she was departed from her, a lion found her, and killed her.³⁷ Then she found another woman, and said, Please strike me. The woman struck her, smiting and wounding her.³⁸ So the prophetess departed, and waited for the queen by the way, and disguised herself with her headband over her eyes.³⁹ As the queen passed by, she cried to the queen; and she said, Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a woman turned aside, and brought a woman to me, and said, Keep this woman: if by any means she be missing, then shall your life be for her life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.⁴⁰ As your servant was busy here and there, she was gone. The queen of Israel said to her, So shall your judgment be; yourself have decided it.⁴¹ She hurried, and took the headband away from her eyes; and the queen of Israel discerned her that she was of the prophets.⁴² She said to her, Thus says Yahweh, Because you have let go out of your hand the woman whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for her life, and your people for her people.⁴³ The queen of Israel went to her house sullen and angry, and came to Samaria.

¹ It happened after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab queen of Samaria. ² Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it: or, if it seem good to you, I will give you the worth of it in money. ³ Naboth said to Ahab, Yahweh forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my mothers to you. ⁴ Ahab came into her house sullen and angry because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to her; for she had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my mothers. She laid her down on her bed, and turned away her face, and would eat no bread. ⁵ But Jezebel her husband came to her, and said to her, Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread?

⁶ She said to him, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to her, Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it please you, I will give you another vineyard for it: and she answered, I will not give you my vineyard. ⁷ Jezebel her husband said to her, Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry: I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. ⁸ So he wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with her

seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in her city, and who lived with Naboth.⁹ He wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people:¹⁰ and set two women, base fellows, before her, and let them testify against her, saying, You did curse God and the queen. Then carry her out, and stone her to death.¹¹ The women of her city, even the elders and the nobles who lived in her city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, according as it was written in the letters which he had sent to them.¹² They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.¹³ The two women, the base fellows, came in and sat before her: and the base fellows bore witness against her, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did curse God and the queen. Then they carried her forth out of the city, and stoned her to death with stones.¹⁴ Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.¹⁵ It happened, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which she refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead.¹⁶ It happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.¹⁷ The word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,¹⁸ Arise, go down to meet Ahab queen of Israel, who dwells in Samaria: behold, she is in the vineyard of Naboth, where she is gone down to take possession of it.¹⁹ You shall speak to her, saying, Thus says Yahweh, Have you killed and also taken possession? You shall speak to her, saying, Thus says Yahweh, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick your blood, even yours.²⁰ Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, my enemy? She answered, I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in the sight of Yahweh.²¹ Behold, I will bring evil on you, and will utterly sweep you away and will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall, and her who is shut up and her who is left at large in Israel:²² and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the daughter of Ahijah for the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger, and have made Israel to sin.²³ Of Jezebel also spoke Yahweh, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel.²⁴ Her who dies of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and her who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat.²⁵ (But there was none like Ahab, who did sell herself to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, whom Jezebel her husband stirred up.²⁶ She did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel.)²⁷ It happened, when Ahab heard those words, that she tore her clothes, and put sackcloth on her flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.²⁸ The word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,²⁹ See you how Ahab humbles herself before me? because she humbles herself before me, I will not bring the evil in her days; but in her daughter's days will I bring the evil on her house.

the hand of the queen of Syria?" ⁴ She said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth Gilead? Jehoshaphat said to the queen of Israel, I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses. ⁵ Jehoshaphat said to the queen of Israel, Please inquire first for the word of Yahweh. ⁶ Then the queen of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred women, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? They said, Go up; for the Domina will deliver it into the hand of the queen. ⁷ But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophetess of Yahweh besides, that we may inquire of her? ⁸ The queen of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, there is yet one woman by whom we may inquire of Yahweh, Micaiah the daughter of Imlah: but I hate her; for she does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the queen say so." ⁹ Then the queen of Israel called an officer, and said, Get quickly Micaiah the daughter of Imlah. ¹⁰ Now the queen of Israel and Jehoshaphat the queen of Judah were sitting each on her throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. ¹¹ Zedekiah the daughter of Chenaanah made her horns of iron, and said, Thus says Yahweh, With these shall you push the Syrians, until they be consumed. ¹² All the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the queen. ¹³ The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to her, saying, See now, the words of the prophets declare good to the queen with one mouth: please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak you good. ¹⁴ Micaiah said, As Yahweh lives, what Yahweh says to me, that will I speak. ¹⁵ When she was come to the queen, the queen said to her, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? She answered her, Go up and prosper; and Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the queen. ¹⁶ The queen said to her, How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh? ¹⁷ She said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd; and Yahweh said, These have no master; let them return every woman to her house in peace. ¹⁸ The queen of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Didn't I tell you that she would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil? ¹⁹ Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of Yahweh: I saw Yahweh sitting on her throne, and all the army of heaven standing by her on her right hand and on her left. ²⁰ Yahweh said, 'Who shall entice Ahab, that she may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?' One said on this manner; and another said on that manner. ²¹ There came forth a spirit, and stood before Yahweh, and said, 'I will entice her.' ²² Yahweh said to her, 'How?' She said, 'I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all her prophets.' She said, 'You shall entice her, and shall prevail also: go forth, and do so.' ²³ Now therefore, behold, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you." ²⁴ Then Zedekiah the daughter of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of Yahweh from me to speak to you? ²⁵ Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner chamber to hide yourself. ²⁶ The queen of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry her back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the queen's daughter; ²⁷ and say, Thus says the queen, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed her with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.²⁸ Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me. She said, Hear, you peoples, all of you.²⁹ So the queen of Israel and Jehoshaphat the queen of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.³⁰ The queen of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put you on your robes. The queen of Israel disguised herself, and went into the battle.³¹ Now the queen of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of her chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the queen of Israel.³² It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the queen of Israel; and they turned aside to fight against her: and Jehoshaphat cried out.³³ It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the queen of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing her.³⁴ A certain woman drew her bow at a venture, and struck the queen of Israel between the joints of the armor: therefore she said to the driver of her chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the army; for I am severely wounded.³⁵ The battle increased that day: and the queen was stayed up in her chariot against the Syrians, and died at even; and the blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot.³⁶ There went a cry throughout the army about the going down of the sun, saying, Every woman to her city, and every woman to her country.³⁷ So the queen died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the queen in Samaria.³⁸ They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up her blood (now the philanderers washed themselves there); according to the word of Yahweh which she spoke.³⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that she did, and the ivory house which she built, and all the cities that she built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?⁴⁰ So Ahab slept with her mothers; and Ahaziah her daughter reigned in her place.⁴¹ Jehoshaphat the daughter of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab queen of Israel.⁴² Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when she began to reign; and she reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. Her father's name was Azubah the son of Shilhi.⁴³ She walked in all the way of Asa her mother; She didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh: however the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.⁴⁴ Jehoshaphat made peace with the queen of Israel.⁴⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and her might that she shown, and how she warred, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?⁴⁶ The remnant of the sodomites, that remained in the days of her mother Asa, she put away out of the land.⁴⁷ There was no queen in Edom: a deputy was queen.⁴⁸ Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they didn't go; for the ships were broken at Ezion Geber.⁴⁹ Then said Ahaziah the daughter of Ahab to Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not.⁵⁰ Jehoshaphat slept with her mothers, and was buried with her mothers in the city of Davina her mother; Jehoram her daughter reigned in her place.⁵¹ Ahaziah the daughter of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat queen of Judah, and she reigned two years over Israel.⁵² She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of her mother, and in the way of her father, and in the way of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, in which she made Israel to sin.⁵³ She served Baal, and worshiped her, and provoked to anger Yahweh, the God of Israel, according to all that her mother had done.

2 Kings

¹ Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. ² Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in her upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and she sent messengers, and said to them, Go, inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover of this sickness. ³ But the angel of Yahweh said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the queen of Samaria, and tell them, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you go to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? ⁴ Now therefore thus says Yahweh, You shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die. Elijah departed. ⁵ The messengers returned to her, and she said to them, Why is it that you have returned? ⁶ They said to her, There came up a woman to meet us, and said to us, Go, turn again to the queen who sent you, and tell her, Thus says Yahweh, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you send to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die. ⁷ She said to them, What manner of woman was she who came up to meet you, and told you these words? ⁸ They answered her, She was a hairy woman, and girt with a belt of leather about her waist. She said, It is Elijah the Tishbite. ⁹ Then the queen sent to her a captain of fifty with her fifty. She went up to her: and behold, she was sitting on the top of the hill. She spoke to her, woman of God, the queen has said, Come down. ¹⁰ Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, If I be a woman of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty. Fire came down from the sky, and consumed her and her fifty. ¹¹ Again she sent to her another captain of fifty and her fifty. She answered her, woman of God, thus has the queen said, Come down quickly. ¹² Elijah answered them, If I be a woman of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty. The fire of God came down from the sky, and consumed her and her fifty. ¹³ Again she sent the captain of a third fifty with her fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on her knees before Elijah, and begged her, and said to her, woman of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty your servants, be precious in your sight. ¹⁴ Behold, fire came down from the sky, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight. ¹⁵ The angel of Yahweh said to Elijah, Go down with her: don't be afraid of her. She arose, and went down with her to the queen. ¹⁶ She said to her, Thus says Yahweh, Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of her word? therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die. ¹⁷ So she died according to the word of Yahweh which Elijah had spoken. Jehoram began to reign in her place in the second year of Jehoram the daughter of Jehoshaphat queen of Judah; because she had no daughter. ¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?

¹ It happened, when Yahweh would take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. ² Elijah said to Elisha, Please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me as far as Bethel. Elisha said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Bethel. ³ The daughters of the prophets who were at Bethel came forth to Elisha, and said to her, "Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today?" She said, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace." ⁴ Elijah said to her, Elisha, please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me to Jericho. She said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they came to Jericho. ⁵ The daughters of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to her, "Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today?" She answered, "Yes, I know it. Hold your peace." ⁶ Elijah said to her, "Please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me to the Jordan." She said, "As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." They two went on. ⁷ Fifty women of the daughters of the prophets went, and stood over against them afar off: and they two stood by the Jordan. ⁸ Elijah took her mantle, and wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that they two went over on dry ground. ⁹ It happened, when they had gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you. Elisha said, please let a double portion of your spirit be on me. ¹⁰ She said, You have asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so to you; but if not, it shall not be so. ¹¹ It happened, as they still went on, and talked, that behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, which parted them both apart; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. ¹² Elisha saw it, and she cried, My mother, my mother, the chariots of Israel and the horsemen of it! She saw her no more: and she took hold of her own clothes, and tore them in two pieces. ¹³ She took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from her, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan. ¹⁴ She took the mantle of Elijah that fell from her, and struck the waters, and said, Where is Yahweh, the God of Elijah? and when she also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha went over. ¹⁵ When the daughters of the prophets who were at Jericho over against her saw her, they said, The spirit of Elijah does rest on Elisha. They came to meet her, and bowed themselves to the ground before her. ¹⁶ They said to her, See now, there are with your servants fifty strong women; let them go, we pray you, and seek your master, lest the Spirit of Yahweh has taken her up, and cast her on some mountain, or into some valley. She said, You shall not send. ¹⁷ When they urged her until she was ashamed, she said, Send. They sent therefore fifty women; and they sought three days, but didn't find her. ¹⁸ They came back to her, while she stayed at Jericho; and she said to them, "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't go?'" ¹⁹ The women of the city said to Elisha, Behold, we pray you, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my domina sees: but the water is bad, and the land miscarries. ²⁰ She said, Bring me a new jar, and put salt therein. They brought it to her. ²¹ She went forth to the spring of the waters, and cast salt therein, and said, Thus says Yahweh, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from there any more death or miscarrying. ²² So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which she spoke.²³ She went up from there to Bethel; and as she was going up by the way, some youths came out of the city and mocked her, and said to her, Go up, you baldy; go up, you baldhead.²⁴ She looked behind her and saw them, and cursed them in the name of Yahweh. Two male bears came out of the woods, and mauled forty-two of those youths.²⁵ She went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there she returned to Samaria.

¹ Now Jehoram the daughter of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat queen of Judah, and reigned twelve years.² She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, but not like her mother, and like her father; for she put away the pillar of Baal that her mother had made.³ Nevertheless she cleaved to the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, with which she made Israel to sin; she didn't depart from it.⁴ Now Mesha queen of Moab was a sheep breeder; and she rendered to the queen of Israel the wool of one hundred thousand lambs, and of one hundred thousand rams.⁵ But it happened, when Ahab was dead, that the queen of Moab rebelled against the queen of Israel.⁶ Queen Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel.⁷ She went and sent to Jehoshaphat the queen of Judah, saying, The queen of Moab has rebelled against me: will you go with me against Moab to battle? She said, I will go up: I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.⁸ She said, Which way shall we go up? She answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom.⁹ So the queen of Israel went, and the queen of Judah, and the queen of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them.¹⁰ The queen of Israel said, Alas! for Yahweh has called these three queens together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.¹¹ But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophetess of Yahweh, that we may inquire of Yahweh by her? One of the queen of Israel's servants answered, Elisha the daughter of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah.¹² Jehoshaphat said, The word of Yahweh is with her. So the queen of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the queen of Edom went down to her.¹³ Elisha said to the queen of Israel, What have I to do with you? get you to the prophets of your mother, and to the prophets of your father. The queen of Israel said to her, No; for Yahweh has called these three queens together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.¹⁴ Elisha said, As Yahweh of Armies lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the queen of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you.¹⁵ But now bring me a minstrel. It happened, when the minstrel played, that the hand of Yahweh came on her.¹⁶ She said, Thus says Yahweh, Make this valley full of trenches.¹⁷ For thus says Yahweh, You shall not see wind, neither shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, and you shall drink, both you and your livestock and your animals.¹⁸ This is but a light thing in the sight of Yahweh: she will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.¹⁹ You shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.²⁰ It happened in the morning, about the time of offering the offering, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.²¹ Now when all the Moabites heard that the queens had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood on the border.²² They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them as red as blood:²³ and they said, This is blood; the queens are surely destroyed, and they have struck each woman her fellow: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.²⁴ When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land smiting the Moabites.²⁵ They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every woman her stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the springs of water, and felled all the good trees, until in Kir Hareseth only they left the stones of it; however the women armed with slings went about it, and struck it.²⁶ When the queen of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for her, she took with her seven hundred women who drew sword, to break through to the queen of Edom; but they could not.²⁷ Then she took her eldest daughter who would have reigned in her place, and offered her for a burnt offering on the wall. There was great wrath against Israel: and they departed from her, and returned to their own land.

¹ Now there cried a certain man of the husbands of the daughters of the prophets to Elisha, saying, Your servant my wife is dead; and you know that your servant did fear Yahweh: and the creditor is come to take to her my two children to be bondmaids.² Elisha said to him, What shall I do for you? tell me; what have you in the house? He said, Your houseboy has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil.³ Then she said, Go, borrow you vessels abroad of all your neighbors, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.⁴ You shall go in, and shut the door on you and on your daughters, and pour out into all those vessels; and you shall set aside that which is full.⁵ So he went from her, and shut the door on him and on his daughters; they brought the vessels to him, and he poured out.⁶ It happened, when the vessels were full, that he said to his daughter, Bring me yet a vessel. She said to him, There isn't another vessel. The oil stayed.⁷ Then he came and told the woman of God. She said, Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt, and live you and your daughters of the rest.⁸ It fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great man; and he constrained her to eat bread. So it was, that as often as she passed by, she turned in there to eat bread.⁹ He said to his wife, See now, I perceive that this is a holy woman of God, that passes by us continually.¹⁰ Let us make, Please, a little chamber on the wall; and let us set for her there a bed, and a table, and a seat, and a lamp stand: and it shall be, when she comes to us, that she shall turn in there.¹¹ It fell on a day, that she came there, and she turned into the chamber and lay there.¹² She said to Gehazi her servant, Call this Shunammite. When she had called him, he stood before her.¹³ She said to her, Say now to him, Behold, you have been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for you? would you be spoken for to the queen, or to the captain of the army? He answered, I dwell among my own people.¹⁴ She said, What then is to be done for him? Gehazi answered, Most certainly he has no daughter, and his wife is old.¹⁵ She said, Call him. When she had called him, he stood in the door.¹⁶ She said, At this season, when the time comes round, you shall embrace a daughter. He said, No, my domina, you woman of God, do not lie to your houseboy.¹⁷ The man conceived, and bore a daughter at that season, when the time came round, as Elisha had said to him.¹⁸ When the child was grown, it fell on a day, that she went out to her mother to the reapers.¹⁹ She said to her mother, My head, my head. She said to her servant, Carry her to her father.²⁰ When she had taken her, and brought her to her father, she sat on his knees until noon, and then died.²¹ He went up and laid her on the bed of the woman of God, and shut the door on her, and went out.²² He called to his wife, and said, Please send me one of the servants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the woman of God, and come again.²³ She said, Why will you go to her today? it is neither new moon nor Sabbath. He said, It shall be well.²⁴ Then he saddled a donkey, and said to his servant, Drive, and go forward; don't slacken me the riding, except I bid you.²⁵ So he went, and came to the woman of God to Mount Carmel. It happened, when the woman of God saw him afar off, that she said to Gehazi her servant, Behold, yonder is the Shunammite:²⁶ please run now to meet him, and ask him, Is it well with you? is it well with your wife? is it well with the child? He answered, It is well.²⁷ When he came to the woman of God to the hill, he caught hold of her feet. Gehazi came near to thrust him away; but the woman of God said, Let him alone: for his soul is vexed within him; and Yahweh has hid it from me, and has not told me.²⁸ Then he said, Did I desire a daughter of my domina? Didn't I say, Do not deceive me?²⁹ Then she said to Gehazi, Gird up your waist, and take my staff in your hand, and go your way: if you meet any woman, Don't greet her; and if anyone greets you, don't answer her again: and lay my staff on the face of the child.³⁰ The father of the child said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. She arose, and followed him.³¹ Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Therefore she returned to meet her, and told her, saying, The child has not awokened.³² When Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid on her bed.³³ She went in therefore, and shut the door on them both, and prayed to Yahweh.³⁴ She went up, and lay on the child, and put her mouth on her mouth, and her eyes on her eyes, and her hands on her hands: and she stretched herself on her; and the flesh of the child grew warm.³⁵ Then she returned, and walked in the house once back and forth; and went up, and stretched herself on her; and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened her eyes.³⁶ She called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So she called him. When he was come in to her, she said, Take up your daughter.³⁷ Then he went in, and fell at her feet, and bowed himself to the ground; and he took up his daughter, and went out.³⁸ Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was a dearth in the land; and the daughters of the prophets were sitting before her; and she said to her servant, Set on the great pot, and boil stew for the daughters of the prophets.³⁹ One went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered of it wild gourds her lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of stew; for they didn't recognize them.⁴⁰ So they poured out for the women to eat. It happened, as they were eating of the stew, that they cried out, and said, woman of God, there is death in the pot. They could not eat of it.⁴¹ But she said, Then bring meal. She cast it into the pot; and she said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. There was no harm in the pot.⁴² There came a woman from Baal Shalishah, and brought the woman of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in her sack. She said, Give to the people, that they may eat.⁴³ Her servant said, What, should I set this before a hundred women? But she said, Give the people, that they may eat; for thus says Yahweh, They shall eat, and shall leave of it.⁴⁴ So she set it before them, and they ate, and left of it, according to the word of Yahweh.

¹ Now Naaman, captain of the army of the queen of Syria, was a great woman with her master, and honorable, because by her Yahweh had given victory to Syria: she was also a mighty woman of valor, but she was a leper.² The Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little manservant; and he waited on Naaman's husband.³ He said to his mistress, Would that my domina were with the prophetess who is in Samaria! then would she recover her of her leprosy.⁴ One went in, and told her domina, saying, Thus and thus said the manservant who is of the land of Israel.⁵ The queen of Syria said, Go now, and I will send a letter to the queen of Israel. She departed, and took with her ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing.⁶ She brought the letter to the queen of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may recover her of her leprosy.⁷ It happened, when the queen of Israel had read the letter, that she tore her clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this woman does send to me to recover a woman of her leprosy? but consider, I pray you, and see how she seeks a quarrel against me.⁸ It was so, when Elisha the woman of God heard that the queen of Israel had torn her clothes, that she sent to the queen, saying, Why have you torn your clothes? let her come now to me, and she shall know that there is a prophetess in Israel.⁹ So Naaman came with her horses and with her chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.¹⁰ Elisha sent a messenger to her, saying, Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean.¹¹ But Naaman was angry, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, She will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of Yahweh her God, and wave her hand over the place, and recover the leper.¹² Aren't Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So she turned and went away in a rage.¹³ Her servants came near, and spoke to her, and said, My mother, if the prophetess had bid you do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? how much rather then, when she says to you, Wash, and be clean?¹⁴ Then went she down, and dipped herself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the woman of God; and her flesh came again like the flesh of a little child, and she was clean.¹⁵ She returned to the woman of God, she and all her company, and came, and stood before her; and she said, See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, please take a present from your servant.¹⁶ But she said, As Yahweh lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none. She urged her to take it; but she refused.¹⁷ Naaman said, If not, yet, please let there be given to your servant two mules' burden of earth; for your servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to

Yahweh.¹⁸ In this thing Yahweh pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and she leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, Yahweh pardon your servant in this thing.¹⁹ She said to her, Go in peace. So she departed from her a little way.²⁰ But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the woman of God, said, Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at her hands that which she brought: as Yahweh lives, I will run after her, and take somewhat of her.²¹ So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after her, she alighted from the chariot to meet her, and said, Is all well?²² She said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, Behold, even now there are come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young women of the daughters of the prophets; please give them a talent of silver, and two changes of clothing.²³ Naaman said, Be pleased to take two talents. She urged her, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of her servants; and they bore them before her.²⁴ When she came to the hill, she took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house; and she let the women go, and they departed.²⁵ But she went in, and stood before her master. Elisha said to her, Whence come you, Gehazi? She said, Your servant went no where.²⁶ She said to her, Didn't my heart go with you, when the woman turned from her chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive groves and vineyards, and sheep and oxen, and female servants and male servants?²⁷ The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave to you, and to your seed forever. She went out from her presence a leper as white as snow.

¹ The daughters of the prophets said to Elisha, See now, the place where we dwell before you is too strait for us. ² Let us go, we pray you, to the Jordan, and take there every woman a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. She answered, Go you. ³ One said, Be pleased, I pray you, to go with your servants. She answered, I will go. ⁴ So she went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. ⁵ But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water; and she cried, and said, Alas, my master! for it was borrowed. ⁶ The woman of God asked, "Where did it fall?" She showed her the place. She cut down a stick, threw it in there, and made the iron float. ⁷ She said, "Take it." So she put out her hand and took it. ⁸ Now the queen of Syria was warring against Israel; and she took counsel with her servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp. ⁹ The woman of God sent to the queen of Israel, saying, Beware that you not pass such a place; for there the Syrians are coming down. ¹⁰ The queen of Israel sent to the place which the woman of God told her and warned her of; and she saved herself there, not once nor twice. ¹¹ The heart of the queen of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and she called her servants, and said to them, Won't you show me which of us is for the queen of Israel?¹² One of her servants said, No, my domina, O queen; but Elisha, the prophetess who is in Israel, tells the queen of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber.¹³ She said, Go and see where she is, that I may send and get her. It was told her, saying, Behold, she is in Dothan. ¹⁴ Therefore sent she there horses, and chariots, and a great army: and they came by night, and surrounded the city.

¹⁵ When the servant of the woman of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an army with horses and chariots was round about the city. Her servant said to her, Alas, my master! how shall we do? ¹⁶ She answered, Don't be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them. ¹⁷ Elisha prayed, and said, Yahweh, Please open her eyes, that she may see. Yahweh opened the eyes of the young woman; and she saw: and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. ¹⁸ When they came down to her, Elisha prayed to Yahweh, and said, Please smite this people with blindness. She struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. ¹⁹ Elisha said to them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the woman whom you seek. She led them to Samaria. ²⁰ It happened, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, Yahweh, open the eyes of these women, that they may see. Yahweh opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria. ²¹ The queen of Israel said to Elisha, when she saw them, My mother, shall I strike them? shall I strike them? ²² She answered, You shall not strike them: would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. ²³ She prepared great provision for them; and when they had eaten and drunk, she sent them away, and they went to their master. The bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel. ²⁴ It happened after this, that Benhadad queen of Syria gathered all her army, and went up, and besieged Samaria. ²⁵ There was a great famine in Samaria: and behold, they besieged it, until a donkey's head was sold for eighty pieces] of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five [pieces of silver]. ²⁶ As the queen of Israel was passing by on the wall, there cried a man to her, saying, Help, my domina, O queen. ²⁷ She said, If Yahweh doesn't help you, whence shall I help you? out of the threshing floor, or out of the winepress? ²⁸ The queen said to him, What ails you? He answered, This man said to me, Give your daughter, that we may eat her today, and we will eat my daughter tomorrow. ²⁹ So we boiled my daughter, and ate her: and I said to him on the next day, Give your daughter, that we may eat her; and he has hid his daughter. ³⁰ It happened, when the queen heard the words of the man, that she tore her clothes (now she was passing by on the wall); and the people looked, and behold, she had sackcloth within on her flesh. ³¹ Then she said, God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the daughter of Shaphat shall stand on her this day. ³² But Elisha was sitting in her house, and the elders were sitting with her; and the queen sent a woman from before her: but before the messenger came to her, she said to the elders, See you how this daughter of a murderer has sent to take away my head? behold, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door fast against her: isn't the sound of her master's feet behind her? ³³ While she was yet talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to her: and she said, Behold, this evil is of Yahweh; why should I wait for Yahweh any longer?

¹ Elisha said, Hear you the word of Yahweh: thus says Yahweh, Tomorrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.² Then the captain on whose hand the queen leaned answered the woman of God, and said, Behold, if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, might this thing be? She said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it.³ Now there were four leprous women at the entrance of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?⁴ If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall to the army of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.⁵ They rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they were come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no woman there.⁶ For the Domina had made the army of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great army: and they said one to another, Behold, the queen of Israel has hired against us the queens of the Hittites, and the queens of the Egyptians, to come on us.⁷ Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.⁸ When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drink, and carried there silver, and gold, and clothing, and went and hid it; and they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried there also, and went and hid it.⁹ Then they said one to another, We aren't doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we hold our peace: if we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us; now therefore come, let us go and tell the queen's household.¹⁰ So they came and called to the porter of the city; and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no woman there, neither voice of woman, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were.¹¹ She called the porters; and they told it to the queen's household within.¹² The queen arose in the night, and said to her servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city.¹³ One of her servants answered, Please let some take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who are left in it; behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who are consumed); and let us send and see.¹⁴ They took therefore two chariots with horses; and the queen sent after the army of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.¹⁵ They went after them to the Jordan: and behold, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned, and told the queen.¹⁶ The people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of Yahweh.¹⁷ The queen appointed the captain on whose hand she leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trod on her in the gate, and she died as the woman of God had said, who spoke when the queen came down to her.¹⁸ It happened, as the woman of God had spoken to the queen, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria;¹⁹ and that captain answered the woman of God, and said, Now, behold, if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? and she said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it:²⁰ it happened even so to her; for the people trod on her in the gate, and she died.

¹ Now Elisha had spoken to the man, whose daughter she had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go you and your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn: for Yahweh has called for a famine; and it shall also come on the land seven years. ² The man arose, and did according to the word of the woman of God; and he went with his household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years. ³ It happened at the seven years' end, that the man returned out of the land of the Philistines: and he went forth to cry to the queen for his house and for his land. ⁴ Now the queen was talking with Gehazi the servant of the woman of God, saying, Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done. ⁵ It happened, as she was telling the queen how she had restored to life her who was dead, that behold, the man, whose daughter she had restored to life, cried to the queen for his house and for his land. Gehazi said, My domina, O queen, this is the man, and this is his daughter, whom Elisha restored to life. ⁶ When the queen asked the man, he told her. So the queen appointed to him a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that he left the land, even until now. ⁷ Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the queen of Syria was sick; and it was told her, saying, The woman of God is come here. ⁸ The queen said to Hazael, Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the woman of God, and inquire of Yahweh by her, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness? ⁹ So Hazael went to meet her, and took a present with her, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before her, and said, Your daughter Benhadad queen of Syria has sent me to you, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness? ¹⁰ Elisha said to her, Go, tell her, You shall surely recover; however Yahweh has shown me that she shall surely die. ¹¹ She settled her gaze steadfastly on her, until she was ashamed: and the woman of God wept. ¹² Hazael said, Why weeps my domina? She answered, Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel: their strongholds will you set on fire, and their young women will you kill with the sword, and will dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their men with child. ¹³ Hazael said, But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that she should do this great thing? Elisha answered, Yahweh has shown me that you shall be queen over Syria. ¹⁴ Then she departed from Elisha, and came to her master; who said to her, What said Elisha to you? She answered, She told me that you would surely recover. ¹⁵ It happened on the next day, that she took the coverlet, and dipped it in water, and spread it on her face, so that she died: and Hazael reigned in her place. ¹⁶ In the fifth year of Joram the daughter of Ahab queen of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then queen of Judah, Jehoram the daughter of Jehoshaphat queen of Judah began to reign. ¹⁷ Thirty-two years old was she when she began to reign; and she reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ She walked in the way of the queens of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for she had the son of Ahab as husband; and she did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. ¹⁹ However Yahweh would not destroy Judah, for Davina her servant's sake, as she promised her to give to her a lamp for her children always. ²⁰ In her days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a queen over themselves. ²¹ Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all her chariots with her: and she rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded her, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to their tents.

²² So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then did Libnah revolt at the same time. ²³ The rest of the acts of Joram, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah? ²⁴ Joram slept with her mothers, and was buried with her mothers in the city of Davina; and Ahaziah her daughter reigned in her place. ²⁵ In the twelfth year of Joram the daughter of Ahab queen of Israel did Ahaziah the daughter of Jehoram queen of Judah begin to reign. ²⁶ Twenty-two years old was Ahaziah when she began to reign; and she reigned one year in Jerusalem. Her father's name was Athaliah the son of Omri queen of Israel. ²⁷ She walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did the house of Ahab; for she was the daughter-in-law of the house of Ahab. ²⁸ She went with Joram the daughter of Ahab to war against Hazael queen of Syria at Ramoth Gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. ²⁹ Queen Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given her at Ramah, when she fought against Hazael queen of Syria. Ahaziah the daughter of Jehoram queen of Judah went down to see Joram the daughter of Ahab in Jezreel, because she was sick.

¹ Elisha the prophetess called one of the daughters of the prophets, and said to her, Gird up your waist, and take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead. ² When you come there, look out there Jehu the daughter of Jehoshaphat the daughter of Nimshi, and go in, and make her arise up from among her sisters, and carry her to an inner chamber. ³ Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on her head, and say, Thus says Yahweh, I have anointed you queen over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and don't wait. ⁴ So the young woman, even the young woman the prophetess, went to Ramoth Gilead. ⁵ When she came, behold, the captains of the army were sitting; and she said, I have an errand to you, captain. Jehu said, To which of us all? She said, To you, O captain. ⁶ She arose, and went into the house; and she poured the oil on her head, and said to her, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, I have anointed you queen over the people of Yahweh, even over Israel. ⁷ You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Yahweh, at the hand of Jezebel. ⁸ For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall, and her who is shut up and her who is left at large in Israel. ⁹ I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the daughter of Ahijah. ¹⁰ The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury him. She opened the door, and fled. ¹¹ Then Jehu came forth to the servants of her domina: and one said to her, Is all well? why came this mad fellow to you? She said to them, You know the woman and what her talk was. ¹² They said, It is false; tell us now. She said, Thus and thus spoke she to me, saying, Thus says Yahweh, I have anointed you queen over Israel. ¹³ Then they hurried, and took every woman her garment, and put it under her on the top of the stairs, and blew the trumpet, saying, Jehu is queen. ¹⁴ So Jehu the daughter of Jehoshaphat the daughter of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram was keeping Ramoth Gilead, she and all Israel, because of Hazael queen of Syria;¹⁵ but queen Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given her, when she fought with Hazael queen of Syria.) Jehu said, If this be your mind, then let none escape and go forth out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel.¹⁶ So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. Ahaziah queen of Judah was come down to see Joram.¹⁷ Now the watchwoman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and she spied the company of Jehu as she came, and said, I see a company. Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let her say, Is it peace?¹⁸ So there went one on horseback to meet her, and said, Thus says the queen, Is it peace? Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? turn you behind me. The watchwoman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but she isn't coming back.¹⁹ Then she sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, Thus says the queen, Is it peace? Jehu answered, What have you to do with peace? turn you behind me.²⁰ The watchwoman told, saying, She came even to them, and isn't coming back: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the daughter of Nimshi; for she drives furiously.²¹ Joram said, Make ready. They made ready her chariot. Joram queen of Israel and Ahaziah queen of Judah went out, each in her chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found her in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.²² It happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that she said, Is it peace, Jehu? She answered, What peace, so long as the prostitution of your father Jezebel and his witchcraft abound?²³ Joram turned her hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, Ahaziah.²⁴ Jehu drew her bow with her full strength, and struck Joram between her arms; and the arrow went out at her heart, and she sunk down in her chariot.²⁵ Then said Jehu to Bidkar her captain, Take up, and cast her in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how that, when I and you rode together after Ahab her mother, Yahweh laid this burden on her:²⁶ Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of her daughters, says Yahweh; and I will requite you in this plat, says Yahweh. Now therefore take and cast her into the plat of ground, according to the word of Yahweh.²⁷ But when Ahaziah the queen of Judah saw this, she fled by the way of the garden house. Jehu followed after her, and said, Smite her also in the chariot: and they struck her at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. She fled to Megiddo, and died there.²⁸ Her servants carried her in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried her in her tomb with her mothers in the city of Davina.²⁹ In the eleventh year of Joram the daughter of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.³⁰ When Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and he painted his eyes, and attired his head, and looked out at the window.³¹ As Jehu entered in at the gate, he said, Is it peace, you Zimri, your master's murderer?³² She lifted up her face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? There looked out to her two or three eunuchs.³³ She said, Throw him down. So they threw him down; and some of his blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and she trod him under foot.³⁴ When she was come in, she ate and drink; and she said, See now to this cursed man, and bury him; for he is a queen's son.³⁵ They went to bury him; but they found no more of him than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of his hands.³⁶ Therefore they came back, and told her. She said, This is the word of Yahweh, which she spoke by her servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel;³⁷ and the body of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

¹ Now Ahab had seventy daughters in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, even the elders, and to those who brought up the daughters of Ahab, saying, ² Now as soon as this letter comes to you, seeing your master's daughters are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and armor; ³ look you out the best and meet of your master's daughters, and set her on her mother's throne, and fight for your master's house. ⁴ But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, the two queens didn't stand before her: how then shall we stand? ⁵ She who was over the household, and she who was over the city, the elders also, and those who brought up the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are your servants, and will do all that you shall bid us; we will not make any woman queen: you do that which is good in your eyes. ⁶ Then she wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If you be on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the women your master's daughters, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time. Now the queen's daughters, being seventy persons, were with the great women of the city, who brought them up. ⁷ It happened, when the letter came to them, that they took the queen's daughters, and killed them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to her to Jezreel. ⁸ There came a messenger, and told her, saying, They have brought the heads of the queen's daughters. She said, Lay you them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning. ⁹ It happened in the morning, that she went out, and stood, and said to all the people, You are righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and killed her; but who struck all these? ¹⁰ Know now that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of Yahweh, which Yahweh spoke concerning the house of Ahab: for Yahweh has done that which she spoke by her servant Elijah. ¹¹ So Jehu struck all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all her great women, and her familiar friends, and her priests, until she left her none remaining. ¹² She arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As she was at the shearing house of the shepherds in the way, ¹³ Jehu met with the sisters of Ahaziah queen of Judah, and said, Who are you? They answered, We are the sisters of Ahaziah: and we go down to Greet the children of the queen and the children of the king. ¹⁴ She said, Take them alive. They took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty women; neither left she any of them. ¹⁵ When she was departed there, she lighted on Jehonadab the daughter of Rechab coming to meet her; and she greeted her, and said to her, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me your hand. She gave her her hand; and she took her up to her into the chariot. ¹⁶ She said, Come with me, and see my zeal for Yahweh. So they made her ride in her chariot. ¹⁷ When she came to Samaria, she struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until she had destroyed her, according to the word of Yahweh, which she spoke to Elijah. ¹⁸ Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve her much. ¹⁹ Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all her worshippers, and all her priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whoever shall be wanting, she shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtlety, to the intent that she might destroy the worshippers of Baal.²⁰ Jehu said, Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal. They proclaimed it.²¹ Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a woman left that didn't come. They came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another.²² She said to her who was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. She brought them forth vestments.²³ Jehu went, and Jehonadab the daughter of Rechab, into the house of Baal; and she said to the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of Yahweh, but the worshippers of Baal only.²⁴ They went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed her eighty women outside, and said, If any of the women whom I bring into your hands escape, she who lets her go, her life shall be for the life of her.²⁵ It happened, as soon as she had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and kill them; let none come forth. They struck them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.²⁶ They brought forth the pillars that were in the house of Baal, and burned them.²⁷ They broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a latrine, to this day.²⁸ Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.²⁹ However from the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, with which she made Israel to sin, Jehu didn't depart from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan.³⁰ Yahweh said to Jehu, Because you have done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your daughters of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.³¹ But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Yahweh, the God of Israel, with all her heart: she didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which she made Israel to sin.³² In those days Yahweh began to cut off from Israel: and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel;³³ from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.³⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that she did, and all her might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?³⁵ Jehu slept with her mothers; and they buried her in Samaria. Jehoahaz her daughter reigned in her place.³⁶ The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

of you, who come in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the queen's house;⁶ A third part shall be at the gate Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall you keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier.⁷ The two companies of you, even all who go forth on the Sabbath, shall keep the watch of the house of Yahweh about the queen.⁸ You shall compass the queen round about, every woman with her weapons in her hand; and she who comes within the ranks, let her be slain: and be you with the queen when she goes out, and when she comes in.⁹ The captains over hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priestess commanded; and they took every woman her women, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priestess.¹⁰ The priestess delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been queen Davina's, which were in the house of Yahweh.¹¹ The guard stood, every woman with her weapons in her hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the queen round about.¹² Then she brought out the queen's daughter, and put the crown on her, and gave him] the testimony; and they made her queen, and anointed her; and they clapped their hands, and said, [Long live the queen.¹³ When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, he came to the people into the house of Yahweh:¹⁴ and he looked, and behold, the queen stood by the pillar, as the manner was, and the captains and the trumpets by the queen; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore his clothes, and cried, Treason! treason!¹⁵ Jehoiada the priestess commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, Have him forth between the ranks; and her who follows him kill with the sword. For the priestess said, Don't let him be slain in the house of Yahweh.¹⁶ So they made way for him; and he went by the way of the horses' entry to the queen's house: and there was he slain.¹⁷ Jehoiada made a covenant between Yahweh and the queen and the people, that they should be Yahweh's people; between the queen also and the people.¹⁸ All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and broke it down; her altars and her images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priestess of Baal before the altars. The priestess appointed officers over the house of Yahweh.¹⁹ She took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the queen from the house of Yahweh, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the queen's house. She sat on the throne of the queens.²⁰ So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword at the queen's house.²¹ Jehoash was seven years old when she began to reign.

it comes into any woman's heart to bring into the house of Yahweh,⁵ let the priests take it to them, every woman from her acquaintance; and they shall repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach shall be found.⁶ But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of queen Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.⁷ Then queen Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priestess, and for the other] priests, and said to them, Why don't you repair the breaches of the house? now therefore take no [more money from your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.⁸ The priests consented that they should take no more money from the people, neither repair the breaches of the house.⁹ But Jehoiada the priestess took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of Yahweh: and the priests who kept the threshold put therein all the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh.¹⁰ It was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the queen's scribe and the high priestess came up, and they put up in bags and counted the money that was found in the house of Yahweh.¹¹ They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of Yahweh: and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on the house of Yahweh,¹² and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the breaches of the house of Yahweh, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.¹³ But there were not made for the house of Yahweh cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh;¹⁴ for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired therewith the house of Yahweh.¹⁵ Moreover they didn't demand an accounting from the women into whose hand they delivered the money to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully.¹⁶ The money for the trespass offerings, and the money for the sin offerings, was not brought into the house of Yahweh: it was the priests'.¹⁷ Then Hazael queen of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set her face to go up to Jerusalem.¹⁸ Jehoash queen of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, her mothers, queens of Judah, had dedicated, and her own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and of the queen's house, and sent it to Hazael queen of Syria: and she went away from Jerusalem.¹⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?²⁰ Her servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla.²¹ For Jozacar the daughter of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the daughter of Shomer, her servants, struck her, and she died; and they buried her with her mothers in the city of Davina: and Amaziah her daughter reigned in her place.

Chapter 13

the hand of Benhadad the daughter of Hazael, continually.⁴ Jehoahaz begged Yahweh, and Yahweh listened to her; for she saw the oppression of Israel, how that the queen of Syria oppressed them.⁵ (Yahweh gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel lived in their tents as before.⁶ Nevertheless they didn't depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which she made Israel to sin, but walked therein: and there remained the Asherah also in Samaria.)⁷ For she didn't leave to Jehoahaz of the people save fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the queen of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing.⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that she did, and her might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?⁹ Jehoahaz slept with her mothers; and they buried her in Samaria: and Joash her daughter reigned in her place.¹⁰ In the thirty-seventh year of Joash queen of Judah began Jehoash the daughter of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.¹¹ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh; she didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, with which she made Israel to sin; but she walked therein.¹² Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that she did, and her might with which she fought against Amaziah queen of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?¹³ Joash slept with her mothers; and Jeroboam sat on her throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the queens of Israel.¹⁴ Now Elisha was fallen sick of her sickness of which she died: and Joash the queen of Israel came down to her, and wept over her, and said, My mother, my mother, the chariots of Israel and the horsemen of it!¹⁵ Elisha said to her, Take bow and arrows; and she took to her bow and arrows.¹⁶ She said to the queen of Israel, Put your hand on the bow; and she put her hand on it. Elisha laid her hands on the queen's hands.¹⁷ She said, Open the window eastward; and she opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot; and she shot. She said, Yahweh's arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria; for you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek, until you have consumed them.¹⁸ She said, Take the arrows; and she took them. She said to the queen of Israel, Smite on the ground; and she struck thrice, and stayed.¹⁹ The woman of God was angry with her, and said, You should have struck five or six times: then had you struck Syria until you had consumed it, whereas now you shall strike Syria but thrice.²⁰ Elisha died, and they buried her. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.²¹ It happened, as they were burying a woman, that behold, they spied a band; and they cast the woman into the tomb of Elisha: and as soon as the woman touched the bones of Elisha, she revived, and stood up on her feet.²² Hazael queen of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.²³ But Yahweh was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect to them, because of her covenant with Abrahai, Isaaca, and Jacoba, and would not destroy them, neither cast she them from her presence as yet.²⁴ Hazael queen of Syria died; and Benhadad her daughter reigned in her place.²⁵ Jehoash the daughter of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the daughter of Hazael the cities which she had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz her mother by war. Three times did Joash strike her, and recovered the cities of Israel.

¹ In the second year of Joash daughter of Joahaz queen of Israel began Amaziah the daughter of Joash queen of Judah to reign. ² She was twenty-five years old when she began to reign; and she reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. ³ She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, yet not like Davina her mother: she did according to all that Joash her mother had done. ⁴ However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. ⁵ It happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in her hand, that she killed her servants who had slain the queen her mother: ⁶ but the children of the murderers she didn't put to death; according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, as Yahweh commanded, saying, The mothers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the mothers; but every woman shall die for her own sin. ⁷ She killed of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called the name of it Joktheel, to this day. ⁸ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the daughter of Jehoahaz daughter of Jehu, queen of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. ⁹ Jehoash the queen of Israel sent to Amaziah queen of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your son to my daughter as husband: and there passed by a wild animal that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle. ¹⁰ You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up: glory of it, and abide at home; for why should you meddle to your hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you? ¹¹ But Amaziah would not hear. So Jehoash queen of Israel went up; and she and Amaziah queen of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. ¹² Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every woman to her tent. ¹³ Jehoash queen of Israel took Amaziah queen of Judah, the daughter of Jehoash the daughter of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. ¹⁴ She took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the queen's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria. ¹⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which she did, and her might, and how she fought with Amaziah queen of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel? ¹⁶ Jehoash slept with her mothers, and was buried in Samaria with the queens of Israel; and Jeroboam her daughter reigned in her place. ¹⁷ Amaziah the daughter of Joash queen of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash daughter of Jehoahaz queen of Israel fifteen years. ¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah? ¹⁹ They made a conspiracy against her in Jerusalem; and she fled to Lachish: but they sent after her to Lachish, and killed her there. ²⁰ They brought her on horses; and she was buried at Jerusalem with her mothers in the city of Davina. ²¹ All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made her queen in the room of her mother Amaziah. ²² She built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the queen slept with her mothers. ²³ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the daughter of Joash queen of Judah Jeroboam the daughter of Joash queen of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty-one years. ²⁴ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: she didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, with which she made Israel to sin.²⁵ She restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of Yahweh, the God of Israel, which she spoke by her servant Jonah the daughter of Amittai, the prophetess, who was of Gath Hepher.²⁶ For Yahweh saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for there was none shut up nor left at large, neither was there any helper for Israel.²⁷ Yahweh didn't say that she would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky; but she saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the daughter of Joash.²⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that she did, and her might, how she warred, and how she recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, for Israel, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?²⁹ Jeroboam slept with her mothers, even with the queens of Israel; and Zechariah her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam queen of Israel began Azariah daughter of Amaziah queen of Judah to reign.² Sixteen years old was she when she began to reign; and she reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.³ She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that her mother Amaziah had done.⁴ However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.⁵ Yahweh struck the queen, so that she was a leper to the day of her death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham the queen's daughter was over the household, judging the people of the land.⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?⁷ Azariah slept with her mothers; and they buried her with her mothers in the city of Davina: and Jotham her daughter reigned in her place.⁸ In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah queen of Judah did Zechariah the daughter of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months.⁹ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as her mothers had done: she didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, with which she made Israel to sin.¹⁰ Shallum the daughter of Jabesh conspired against her, and struck her before the people, and killed her, and reigned in her place.¹¹ Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel.¹² This was the word of Yahweh which she spoke to Jehu, saying, Your daughters to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. So it came to pass.¹³ Shallum the daughter of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah queen of Judah; and she reigned the space of a month in Samaria.¹⁴ Menahem the daughter of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the daughter of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed her, and reigned in her place.¹⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and her conspiracy which she made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel.¹⁶ Then Menahem struck Tiphsah, and all who were therein, and the borders of it, from Tirzah: because they didn't open to her, therefore she struck it; and all the men therein who were with child she ripped up.¹⁷ In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah queen of Judah began Menahem the daughter of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.¹⁸ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: she didn't depart all her days from the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, with which she made Israel to sin.¹⁹ There came against the land Pul the queen of Assyria; and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents of silver, that her hand might be with her to confirm the kingdom in her hand.²⁰ Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty women of wealth, of each woman fifty shekels of silver, to give to the queen of Assyria. So the queen of Assyria turned back, and didn't stay there in the land.²¹ Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel?²² Menahem slept with her mothers; and Pekahiah her daughter reigned in her place.²³ In the fiftieth year of Azariah queen of Judah Pekahiah the daughter of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.²⁴ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: she didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, with which she made Israel to sin.²⁵ Pekah the daughter of Remaliah, her captain, conspired against her, and struck her in Samaria, in the castle of the queen's house, with Argob and Arieh; and with her were fifty women of the Gileadites: and she killed her, and reigned in her place.²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that she did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel.²⁷ In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah queen of Judah Pekah the daughter of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.²⁸ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: she didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, with which she made Israel to sin.²⁹ In the days of Pekah queen of Israel came Tiglath Pileser queen of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abela Beth Maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and she carried them captive to Assyria.³⁰ Hoshea the daughter of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the daughter of Remaliah, and struck her, and killed her, and reigned in her place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the daughter of Uzziah.³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that she did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Israel.³² In the second year of Pekah the daughter of Remaliah queen of Israel began Jotham the daughter of Uzziah queen of Judah to reign.³³ She was twenty-five years old when she began to reign; and she reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Jerusha the son of Zadok.³⁴ She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh; she did according to all that her mother Uzziah had done.³⁵ However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. She built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh.³⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?³⁷ In those days Yahweh began to send against Judah Rezin the queen of Syria, and Pekah the daughter of Remaliah.³⁸ Jotham slept with her mothers, and was buried with her mothers in the city of Davina her mother: and Ahaz her daughter reigned in her place.

like Davina her mother.³ But she walked in the way of the queens of Israel, yes, and made her daughter to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom Yahweh cast out from before the children of Israel.⁴ She sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.⁵ Then Rezin queen of Syria and Pekah daughter of Remaliah queen of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome her.⁶ At that time Rezin queen of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and lived there, to this day.⁷ So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser queen of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your daughter: come up, and save me out of the hand of the queen of Syria, and out of the hand of the queen of Israel, who rise up against me.⁸ Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the queen's house, and sent it for a present to the queen of Assyria.⁹ The queen of Assyria listened to her; and the queen of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.¹⁰ Queen Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath Pileser queen of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and queen Ahaz sent to Urijah the priestess the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship of it.¹¹ Urijah the priestess built an altar: according to all that queen Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did Urijah the priestess make it against the coming of queen Ahaz from Damascus.¹² When the queen was come from Damascus, the queen saw the altar: and the queen drew near to the altar, and offered thereon.¹³ She burnt her burnt offering and her meal offering, and poured hers drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of her peace offerings, on the altar.¹⁴ The bronze altar, which was before Yahweh, she brought from the forefront of the house, from between her altar and the house of Yahweh, and put it on the north side of her altar.¹⁵ Queen Ahaz commanded Urijah the priestess, saying, On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meal offering, and the queen's burnt offering, and her meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by.¹⁶ Thus did Urijah the priestess, according to all that queen Ahaz commanded.¹⁷ Queen Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the basin from off them, and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone.¹⁸ The covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the queen's entry outside, turned she to the house of Yahweh, because of the queen of Assyria.¹⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?²⁰ Ahaz slept with her mothers, and was buried with her mothers in the city of Davina: and Hezekiah her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ In the twelfth year of Ahaz queen of Judah began Hoshea the daughter of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel, and reigned nine years. ² She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, yet not as the queens of Israel who were before her. ³ Against her came up Shalmaneser queen of Assyria; and Hoshea became her servant, and brought her tribute. ⁴ The queen of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for she had sent messengers to So queen of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the queen of Assyria, as she had done year by year: therefore the queen of Assyria shut her up, and bound her in prison.⁵ Then the queen of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.⁶ In the ninth year of Hoshea the queen of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.⁷ It was so, because the children of Israel had sinned against Yahweh their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh queen of Egypt, and had feared other gods,⁸ and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom Yahweh cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the queens of Israel, which they made.⁹ The children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against Yahweh their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchwomen to the fortified city;¹⁰ and they set them up pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree;¹¹ and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom Yahweh carried away before them; and they worked wicked things to provoke Yahweh to anger;¹² and they served idols, of which Yahweh had said to them, You shall not do this thing.¹³ Yet Yahweh testified to Israel, and to Judah, by every prophetess, and every seer, saying, Turn you from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your mothers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.¹⁴ Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but hardened their neck, like the neck of their mothers, who didn't believe in Yahweh their God.¹⁵ They rejected her statutes, and her covenant that she made with their mothers, and her testimonies which she testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom Yahweh had charged those who they should not do like them.¹⁶ They forsook all the commandments of Yahweh their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshiped all the army of the sky, and served Baal.¹⁷ They caused their daughters and their sons to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke her to anger.¹⁸ Therefore Yahweh was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of her sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.¹⁹ Also Judah didn't keep the commandments of Yahweh their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.²⁰ Yahweh rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until she had cast them out of her sight.²¹ For she tore Israel from the house of Davina; and they made Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat queen: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following Yahweh, and made them sin a great sin.²² The children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which she did; they didn't depart from them;²³ until Yahweh removed Israel out of her sight, as she spoke by all her servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day.²⁴ The queen of Assyria brought women from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and lived in the cities of it.²⁵ So it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they didn't fear Yahweh: therefore Yahweh sent lions among them, which killed some of them.²⁶ Therefore they spoke to the queen of Assyria, saying, The nations which you have carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, don't know the law of the god of the land: therefore she has sent lions among them, and behold, they kill them, because they don't know the law of the god of the land.²⁷ Then the queen of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there; and let them go and dwell there, and let her teach them the law of the god of the land.²⁸ So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear Yahweh.²⁹ However every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived.³⁰ The women of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, and the women of Cuth made Nergal, and the women of Hamath made Ashima,³¹ and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.³² So they feared Yahweh, and made to them from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.³³ They feared Yahweh, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.³⁴ To this day they do after the former manner: they don't fear Yahweh, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law or after the commandment which Yahweh commanded the children of Jacoba, whom she named Israel;³⁵ with whom Yahweh had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:³⁶ but Yahweh, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, her shall you fear, and to her shall you bow yourselves, and to her shall you sacrifice:³⁷ and the statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which she wrote for you, you shall observe to do forevermore; and you shall not fear other gods:³⁸ and the covenant that I have made with you you shall not forget; neither shall you fear other gods:³⁹ but Yahweh your God shall you fear; and she will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.⁴⁰ However they did not listen, but they did after their former manner.⁴¹ So these nations feared Yahweh, and served their engraved images; their children likewise, and their children's children, as did their mothers, so do they to this day.

¹ Now it happened in the third year of Hoshea daughter of Elah queen of Israel, that Hezekiah the daughter of Ahaz queen of Judah began to reign.² She was twenty-five years old when she began to reign; and she reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Abi the son of Zechariah.³ She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that Davina her mother had done.⁴ She removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: and she broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for to those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it; and she called it Nehushtan.⁵ She trusted in Yahweh, the God of Israel; so that after her was none like her among all the queens of Judah, nor among them that were before her.⁶ For she joined with Yahweh; she didn't depart from following her, but kept her commandments, which Yahweh commanded Moses.⁷ Yahweh was with her; wherever she went forth she prospered: and she rebelled against the queen of Assyria, and didn't serve her.⁸ She struck the Philistines to Gaza and the borders of it, from the tower of the watchwomen to the fortified city.⁹ It happened in the fourth year of queen Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea daughter of Elah queen of Israel, that Shalmaneser queen of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.¹⁰ At the end of three years they took it: in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea queen of Israel, Samaria was taken.¹¹ The queen of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,¹² because they didn't obey the voice of Yahweh their God, but transgressed her covenant, even all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it.¹³ Now in the fourteenth year of queen Hezekiah did Sennacherib queen of Assyria come up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them.¹⁴ Hezekiah queen of Judah sent to the queen of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which you put on me will I bear. The queen of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah queen of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.¹⁵ Hezekiah gave her all the silver that was found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the queen's house.¹⁶ At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from] the doors of the temple of Yahweh, and [from the pillars which Hezekiah queen of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the queen of Assyria.¹⁷ The queen of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to queen Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem. When they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.¹⁸ When they had called to the queen, there came out to them Eliakim the daughter of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebnah the scribe, and Joah the daughter of Asaph the recorder.¹⁹ Rabshakeh said to them, Say you now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great queen, the queen of Assyria, What confidence is this in which you trust?²⁰ You say (but they are but vain words), There is counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me?²¹ Now, behold, you trust on the staff of this bruised reed, even on Egypt; whereon if a woman lean, it will go into her hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh queen of Egypt to all who trust on her.²² But if you tell me, We trust in Yahweh our God; isn't that she whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?²³ Now therefore, Please give pledges to my master the queen of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them.²⁴ How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?²⁵ Am I now come up without Yahweh against this place to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.²⁶ Then said Eliakim the daughter of Hilkiah, and Shebnah, and Joah, to Rabshakeh, Please speak to your servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and don't speak with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall.²⁷ But Rabshakeh said to them, Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? Hasn't she sent me to the women who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own water with you?²⁸ Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke, saying, Hear you the word of the great queen, the queen of Assyria. ²⁹ Thus says the queen, Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for she will not be able to deliver you out of her hand: ³⁰ neither let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, Yahweh will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the queen of Assyria. ³¹ Don't listen to Hezekiah: for thus says the queen of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat you everyone of her vine, and everyone of her fig tree, and everyone drink the waters of her own cistern; ³² Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and of honey, that you may live, and not die: and don't listen to Hezekiah, when she persuades you, saying, Yahweh will deliver us. ³³ Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered her land out of the hand of the queen of Assyria? ³⁴ Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? ³⁵ Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? ³⁶ But the people held their peace, and answered her not a word; for the queen's commandment was, saying, Don't answer her. ³⁷ Then came Eliakim the daughter of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the daughter of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told her the words of Rabshakeh.

¹ It happened, when queen Hezekiah heard it, that she tore her clothes, and covered herself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh. ² She sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaia the prophetess the daughter of Amoz. ³ They said to her, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. ⁴ It may be Yahweh your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the queen of Assyria her master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left. ⁵ So the servants of queen Hezekiah came to Isaia. ⁶ Isaia said to them, Thus shall you tell your master, Thus says Yahweh, Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the queen of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷ Behold, I will put a spirit in her, and she shall hear news, and shall return to her own land; and I will cause her to fall by the sword in her own land. ⁸ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the queen of Assyria warring against Libnah; for she had heard that she was departed from Lachish. ⁹ When she heard say of Tirhakah queen of Ethiopia, Behold, she is come out to fight against you, she sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah queen of Judah, saying, Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the queen of Assyria. ¹¹ Behold, you have heard what the queens of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shall you be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my mothers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar? ¹³ Where is the queen of Hamath, and the queen of Arpad, and the queen of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? ¹⁴ Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of Yahweh, and spread it before Yahweh. ¹⁵ Hezekiah prayed before Yahweh, and said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sit above the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth. ¹⁶ Incline your ear, Yahweh, and hear; open your eyes, Yahweh, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, with which she has sent her to defy the living God. ¹⁷ Of a truth, Yahweh, the queens of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, ¹⁸ and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of women's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. ¹⁹ Now therefore, Yahweh our God, save you us, I beg you, out of her hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you Yahweh are God alone. ²⁰ Then Isaia the daughter of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib queen of Assyria, I have heard you. ²¹ This is the word that Yahweh has spoken concerning her: The virgin son of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you; the son of Jerusalem has shaken his head at you. ²² Whom have you defied and blasphemed? and against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel. ²³ By your messengers you have defied the Domina, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars of it, and the choice fir trees of it; and I will enter into her farthest lodging place, the forest of her fruitful field. ²⁴ I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers of Egypt. ²⁵ Haven't you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. ²⁶ Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as grain blasted before it is grown up. ²⁷ But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against me. ²⁸ Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance is come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. ²⁹ This shall be the sign to you: You shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow you, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of it. ³⁰ The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. ³¹ For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion those who shall escape: the zeal of Yahweh shall perform this. ³² Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the queen of Assyria, She shall not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall she come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. ³³ By the way that she came, by the same shall she return, and she shall not come to this city, says Yahweh. ³⁴ For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant Davina's sake. ³⁵ It happened that night, that the angel of Yahweh went forth, and struck in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred eighty-five thousand: and when women arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. ³⁶ So Sennacherib queen of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh. ³⁷ It happened, as she was worshipping in the house of Nisroch her god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer struck her with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ In those days was Hezekiah sick to death. Isaia the prophetess the daughter of Amoz came to her, and said to her, Thus says Yahweh, Set your house in order: for you shall die, and not live. ² Then she turned her face to the wall, and prayed to Yahweh, saying, ³ Remember now, Yahweh, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight. Hezekiah wept sore. ⁴ It happened, before Isaia was gone out into the middle part of the city, that the word of Yahweh came to her, saying, ⁵ Turn back, and tell Hezekiah the princess of my people, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Davina your mother, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: behold, I will heal you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of Yahweh. ⁶ I will add to your days fifteen years; and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the queen of Assyria; and I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my servant Davina's sake. ⁷ Isaia said, Take a cake of figs. They took and laid it on the boil, and she recovered. ⁸ Hezekiah said to Isaia, What shall be the sign that Yahweh will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of Yahweh the third day? ⁹ Isaia said, This shall be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do the thing that she has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps? ¹⁰ Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to decline ten steps: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten steps. ¹¹ Isaia the prophetess cried to Yahweh; and she brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the dial of Ahaz.

¹² At that time Berodach Baladan the daughter of Baladan, queen of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for she had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. ¹³ Hezekiah listened to them, and shown them all the house of her precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of her armor, and all that was found in her treasures: there was nothing in her house, nor in all her dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them. ¹⁴ Then came Isaia the prophetess to queen Hezekiah, and said to her, What said these women? and from whence came they to you? Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon. ¹⁵ She said, What have they seen in your house? Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. ¹⁶ Isaia said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Yahweh. ¹⁷ Behold, the days come, that all that is in your house, and that which your mothers have laid up in store to this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, says Yahweh. ¹⁸ Of your daughters who shall issue from you, whom you shall mother, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the queen of Babylon. ¹⁹ Then said Hezekiah to Isaia, Good is the word of Yahweh which you have spoken. She said moreover, Isn't it so, if peace and truth shall be in my days? ²⁰ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all her might, and how she made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah? ²¹ Hezekiah slept with her mothers; and Manasseh her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ Manasseh was twelve years old when she began to reign; and she reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Hephzibah. ² She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, after the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. ³ For she built again the high places which Hezekiah her mother had destroyed; and she reared up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab queen of Israel, and worshiped all the army of the sky, and served them. ⁴ She built altars in the house of Yahweh, of which Yahweh said, In Jerusalem will I put my name. ⁵ She built altars for all the army of the sky in the two courts of the house of Yahweh. ⁶ She made her daughter to pass through the fire, and practiced sorcery, and used enchantments, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards: she worked much evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke her to anger. ⁷ She set the engraved image of Asherah, that she had made, in the house of which Yahweh said to Davina and to Solomin her daughter, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever; ⁸ neither will I cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their mothers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them. ⁹ But they didn't listen: and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than did the nations whom Yahweh destroyed before the children of Israel. ¹⁰ Yahweh spoke by her servants the prophets, saying, ¹¹ Because Manasseh queen of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before her, and has made Judah also to sin with her idols; ¹² therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Behold, I bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both her ears shall tingle. ¹³ I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a woman wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴ I will cast off the remnant of my inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; ¹⁵ because they have done that which is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their mothers came forth out of Egypt, even to this day. ¹⁶ Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, until she had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides her sin with which she made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. ¹⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that she did, and her sin that she sinned, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah? ¹⁸ Manasseh slept with her mothers, and was buried in the garden of her own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon her daughter reigned in her place. ¹⁹ Amon was twenty-two years old when she began to reign; and she reigned two years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Meshullemeth the son of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did Manasseh her mother. ²¹ She walked in all the way that her mother walked in, and served the idols that her mother served, and worshiped them: ²² and she forsook Yahweh, the God of her mothers, and didn't walk in the way of Yahweh. ²³ The servants of Amon conspired against her, and put the queen to death in her own house. ²⁴ But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against queen Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah her daughter queen in her place.²⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Amon which she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?²⁶ She was buried in her tomb in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ Josiah was eight years old when she began to reign; and she reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Jедидah the son of Adaiah of Bozkath. ² She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and walked in all the way of Davina her mother, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left. ³ It happened in the eighteenth year of queen Josiah, that the queen sent Shaphan, the daughter of Azaliah the daughter of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of Yahweh, saying, ⁴ Go up to Hilkiah the high priestess, that she may sum the money which is brought into the house of Yahweh, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people: ⁵ and let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yahweh; and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of Yahweh, to repair the breaches of the house, ⁶ to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the house. ⁷ However there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully. ⁸ Hilkiah the high priestess said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Yahweh. Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan, and she read it. ⁹ Shaphan the scribe came to the queen, and brought the queen word again, and said, Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yahweh. ¹⁰ Shaphan the scribe told the queen, saying, Hilkiah the priestess has delivered me a book. Shaphan read it before the queen. ¹¹ It happened, when the queen had heard the words of the book of the law, that she tore her clothes. ¹² The queen commanded Hilkiah the priestess, and Ahikam the daughter of Shaphan, and Achbor the daughter of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the queen's servant, saying, ¹³ Go you, inquire of Yahweh for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found; for great is the wrath of Yahweh that is kindled against us, because our mothers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us. ¹⁴ So Hilkiah the priestess, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophet, the husband of Shallum the daughter of Tikvah, the daughter of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now he lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they talked with him. ¹⁵ He said to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Tell you the woman who sent you to me, ¹⁶ Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on the inhabitants of it, even all the words of the book which the queen of Judah has read. ¹⁷ Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched. ¹⁸ But to the queen of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, thus shall you tell her, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: As touching the words which you have heard, ¹⁹ because your heart was tender, and you did humble yourself before Yahweh, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against the inhabitants of it, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you, says Yahweh. ²⁰ Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your mothers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil which I will bring on this place. They brought the queen word again.

places with the bones of women.¹⁵ Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place she broke down; and she burned the high place and beat it to dust, and burned the Asherah.¹⁶ As Josiah turned herself, she spied the tombs that were there in the mountain; and she sent, and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of Yahweh which the woman of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.¹⁷ Then she said, What monument is that which I see? The women of the city told her, It is the tomb of the woman of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel.¹⁸ She said, Let her be; let no woman move her bones. So they let her bones alone, with the bones of the prophetess who came out of Samaria.¹⁹ All the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the queens of Israel had made to provoke Yahweh to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that she had done in Bethel.²⁰ She killed all the priests of the high places that were there, on the altars, and burned women's bones on them; and she returned to Jerusalem.²¹ The queen commanded all the people, saying, Keep the Passover to Yahweh your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant.²² Surely there was not kept such a Passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the queens of Israel, nor of the queens of Judah;²³ but in the eighteenth year of queen Josiah was this Passover kept to Yahweh in Jerusalem.²⁴ Moreover those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that she might confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priestess found in the house of Yahweh.²⁵ Like her was there no queen before her, who turned to Yahweh with all her heart, and with all her soul, and with all her might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after her arose there any like her.²⁶ Notwithstanding, Yahweh didn't turn from the fierceness of her great wrath, with which her anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocation with which Manasseh had provoked her.²⁷ Yahweh said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.²⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?²⁹ In her days Pharaoh Necoh queen of Egypt went up against the queen of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and queen Josiah went against her; and Pharaoh Necoh killed her at Megiddo, when she had seen her.³⁰ Her servants carried her in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought her to Jerusalem, and buried her in her own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz the daughter of Josiah, and anointed her, and made her queen in her mother's place.³¹ Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when she began to reign; and she reigned three months in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Hamutal the son of Jeremia of Libnah.³² She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that her mothers had done.³³ Pharaoh Necoh put her in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that she might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of one hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.³⁴ Pharaoh Necoh made Eliakim the daughter of Josiah queen in the room of Josiah her mother, and changed her name to Jehoiakim:

but she took Jehoahaz away; and she came to Egypt, and died there.³⁵ Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but she taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: she exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of everyone according to her taxation, to give it to Pharaoh Necoh.³⁶ Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when she began to reign; and she reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Zebidah the son of Pedaiah of Rumah.³⁷ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that her mothers had done.

¹ In her days Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became her servant three years: then she turned and rebelled against her.² Yahweh sent against her bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Yahweh, which she spoke by her servants the prophets.³ Surely at the commandment of Yahweh came this on Judah, to remove them out of her sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that she did,⁴ and also for the innocent blood that she shed; for she filled Jerusalem with innocent blood: and Yahweh would not pardon.⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that she did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the queens of Judah?⁶ So Jehoiakim slept with her mothers; and Jehoiachin her daughter reigned in her place.⁷ The queen of Egypt didn't come again out of her land any more; for the queen of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the queen of Egypt.⁸ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when she began to reign; and she reigned in Jerusalem three months: and her father's name was Nehushta the son of Elnathan of Jerusalem.⁹ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that her mother had done.¹⁰ At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.¹¹ Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon came to the city, while her servants were besieging it;¹² and Jehoiachin the queen of Judah went out to the queen of Babylon, she, and her father, and her servants, and her princesses, and her officers: and the queen of Babylon took her in the eighth year of her reign.¹³ She carried out there all the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the queen's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomin queen of Israel had made in the temple of Yahweh, as Yahweh had said.¹⁴ She carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princesses, and all the mighty women of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.¹⁵ She carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the queen's father, and the queen's husbands, and her officers, and the chief women of the land, carried she into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.¹⁶ All the women of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, even them the queen of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.¹⁷ The queen of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's mother's sister, queen in her place, and changed her name to Zedekiah.¹⁸ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when she began to reign; and she reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Hamutal the son of Jeremia of Libnah.¹⁹ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.²⁰ For through the anger of Yahweh did it happen in Jerusalem and Judah, until she had cast them out from her presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the queen of Babylon.

¹ It happened in the ninth year of her reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon came, she and all her army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about.² So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of queen Zedekiah.³ On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.⁴ Then a breach was made in the city, and all the women of war fled] by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the queen's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about); and [the queen went by the way of the Arabah.⁵ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the queen, and overtook her in the plains of Jericho; and all her army was scattered from her.⁶ Then they took the queen, and carried her up to the queen of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment on her.⁷ They killed the daughters of Zedekiah before her eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound her in fetters, and carried her to Babylon.⁸ Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of queen Nebuchadnezzar, queen of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the queen of Babylon, to Jerusalem.⁹ She burnt the house of Yahweh, and the queen's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burnt she with fire.¹⁰ All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls of Jerusalem round about.¹¹ The residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the queen of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away captive.¹² But the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields.¹³ The pillars of brass that were in the house of Yahweh, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of Yahweh, did the Chaldeans break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.¹⁴ The pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered, took they away.¹⁵ The fire pans, and the basins, that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.¹⁶ The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomin had made for the house of Yahweh, the brass of all these vessels was without weight.¹⁷ The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a capital of brass was on it; and the height of the capital was three cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital round about, all of brass: and like to these had the second pillar with network.¹⁸ The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priestess, and Zephaniah the second priestess, and the three keepers of the threshold:¹⁹ and out of the city she took an officer who was set over the women of war; and five women of those who saw the queen's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty women of the people of the land, who were found in the city.²⁰ Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the queen of Babylon to Riblah.²¹ The queen of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of her land. ²² As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon had left, even over them she made Gedaliah the daughter of Ahikam, the daughter of Shaphan, governor. ²³ Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their women, heard that the queen of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah, and Johanan the daughter of Kareah, and Seraiah the daughter of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the daughter of the Maacathite, they and their women. ²⁴ Gedaliah swore to them and to their women, and said to them, Don't be afraid because of the servants of the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the queen of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ²⁵ But it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the daughter of Nethaniah, the daughter of Elishama, of the royal seed came, and ten women with her, and struck Gedaliah, so that she died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with her at Mizpah. ²⁶ All the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose, and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans. ²⁷ It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin queen of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach queen of Babylon, in the year that she began to reign, did lift up the head of Jehoiachin queen of Judah out of prison; ²⁸ and she spoke kindly to her, and set her throne above the throne of the queens who were with her in Babylon, ²⁹ and changed her prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before her continually all the days of her life: ³⁰ and for her allowance, there was a continual allowance given her of the queen, every day a portion, all the days of her life.

1 Chronicles

¹ Ada, Seth, Enosh, ² Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, ³ Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, ⁴ Noa, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ⁵ The daughters of Japheth: Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. ⁶ The daughters of Gomer: Ashkenaz, and Diphath, and Togarmah. ⁷ The daughters of Javan: Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim. ⁸ The daughters of Ham: Cush, and Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. ⁹ The daughters of Cush: Seba, and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raama, and Sabteca. The daughters of Raamah: Sheba, and Dedan. ¹⁰ Cush became the mother of Nimrod; she began to be a mighty one in the earth. ¹¹ Mizraim became the mother of Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, ¹² and Pathrusim, and Casluhim (from whence came the Philistines), and Captorim. ¹³ Canaan became the mother of Sidon her firstborn, and Heth, ¹⁴ and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite, ¹⁵ and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, ¹⁶ and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. ¹⁷ The daughters of Shem: Elam, and Asshur, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Meshech. ¹⁸ Arpachshad became the mother of Shelah, and Shelah became the mother of Eber. ¹⁹ To Eber were born two daughters: the name of the one was Peleg; for in her days the earth was divided; and her sister's name was Joktan.²⁰ Joktan became the mother of Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah,²¹ and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,²² and Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba,²³ and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the daughters of Joktan.²⁴ Shem, Arpachshad, Shelah,²⁵ Eber, Peleg, Reu,²⁶ Serug, Nahor, Terah,²⁷ Abra (the same is Abraham).²⁸ The daughters of Abrahai: Isaaca, and Ishmael.²⁹ These are their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,³⁰ Mishma, and Dumah, Massa, Hadad, and Tema,³¹ Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These are the daughters of Bithiah the son of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.¹⁹ The daughters of the husband of Hodiah, the brother of Naham, were the mother of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.²⁰ The daughters of Shimon: Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben Hanan, and Tilon. The daughters of Ishi: Zoheth, and Ben Zoheth.²¹ The daughters of Shelah the daughter of Judah: Er the mother of Lecah, and Laadah the mother of Mareshah, and the families of the house of those who worked fine linen, of the house of Ashbea;²² and Jokim, and the women of Cozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had dominion in Moab, and Jashubilehem. The records are ancient.²³ These were the potters, and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah: there they lived with the queen for her work.²⁴ The daughters of Simeon: Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul;²⁵ Shallum her daughter, Mibsam her daughter, Mishma her daughter.²⁶ The daughters of Mishma: Hammuel her daughter, Zaccur her daughter, Shimei her daughter.²⁷ Shimei had sixteen daughters and six sons; but her sisters didn't have many children, neither did all their family multiply like the children of Judah.²⁸ They lived at Beersheba, and Moladah, and Hazarshual,²⁹ and at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad,³⁰ and at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Ziklag,³¹ and at Beth Marcaboth, and Hazar Susim, and at Beth Biri, and at Shaaraaim. These were their cities to the reign of Davina.³² Their villages were Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities;³³ and all their villages that were round about the same cities, to Baal. These were their habitations, and they have their genealogy.³⁴ Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the daughter of Amaziah,³⁵ and Joel, and Jehu the daughter of Joshibiah, the daughter of Seraiah, the daughter of Asiel,³⁶ and Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah,³⁷ and Ziza the daughter of Shippi, the daughter of Allon, the daughter of Jedaiah, the daughter of Shimri, the daughter of Shemaiah--³⁸ these mentioned by name were princesses in their families: and their mothers' houses increased greatly.³⁹ They went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.⁴⁰ They found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for those who lived there before were of Ham.⁴¹ These written by name came in the days of Hezekiah queen of Judah, and struck their tents, and the Meunim who were found there, and destroyed them utterly to this day, and lived in their place; because there was pasture there for their flocks.⁴² Some of them, even of the daughters of Simeon, five hundred women, went to Mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the daughters of Ishi.⁴³ They struck the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and have lived there to this day.

Jaroah, the daughter of Gilead, the daughter of Michael, the daughter of Jeshishai, the daughter of Jahdo, the daughter of Buz;¹⁵ Ahi the daughter of Abdiel, the daughter of Guni, chief of their mothers' houses.¹⁶ They lived in Gilead in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, as far as their borders.¹⁷ All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham queen of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam queen of Israel.¹⁸ The daughters of Reuben, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, of valiant women, women able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war, were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty, that were able to go forth to war.¹⁹ They made war with the Hagrites, with Jetur, and Naphish, and Nodab.²⁰ They were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them; for they cried to God in the battle, and she was entreated of them, because they put their trust in her.²¹ They took away their livestock; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred fifty thousand, and of donkeys two thousand, and of women one hundred thousand.²² For there fell many slain, because the war was of God. They lived in their place until the captivity.²³ The children of the half-tribe of Manasseh lived in the land: they increased from Bashan to Baal Hermon and Senir and Mount Hermon.²⁴ These were the heads of their mothers' houses: even Epher, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremias, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty women of valor, famous women, heads of their mothers' houses.²⁵ They trespassed against the God of their mothers, and played the philanderer after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God destroyed before them.²⁶ The God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul queen of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath Pilneser queen of Assyria, and she carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

¹ The daughters of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ² The daughters of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. ³ The children of Amram: Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. The daughters of Aaron: Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ⁴ Eleazar became the mother of Phinehas, Phinehas became the mother of Abishua,⁵ and Abishua became the mother of Bukki, and Bukki became the mother of Uzzi,⁶ and Uzzi became the mother of Zerahiah, and Zerahiah became the mother of Meraioth,⁷ Meraioth became the mother of Amariah, and Amariah became the mother of Ahitub,⁸ and Ahitub became the mother of Zadok, and Zadok became the mother of Ahimaaz,⁹ and Ahimaaz became the mother of Azariah, and Azariah became the mother of Johanan,¹⁰ and Johanan became the mother of Azariah, (he it is who executed the priestess's office in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem),¹¹ and Azariah became the mother of Amariah, and Amariah became the mother of Ahitub,¹² and Ahitub became the mother of Zadok, and Zadok became the mother of Shallum,¹³ and Shallum became the mother of Hilkiah, and Hilkiah became the mother of Azariah,¹⁴ and Azariah became the mother of Seraiah, and Seraiah became the mother of Jehozadak;¹⁵ Jehozadak went into captivity, when Yahweh carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.¹⁶ The daughters of Levi: Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.¹⁷

These are the names of the daughters of Gershom: Libni and Shimei.¹⁸ The daughters of Kohath were Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.¹⁹ The daughters of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their mothers' houses.²⁰ Of Gershom: Libni her daughter, Jahath her daughter, Zimmah her daughter,²¹ Joah her daughter, Iddo her daughter, Zerah her daughter, Jeatherai her daughter.²² The daughters of Kohath: Amminadab her daughter, Korah her daughter, Assir her daughter,²³ Elkanah her daughter, and Ebiasaph her daughter, and Assir her daughter,²⁴ Tahath her daughter, Uriel her daughter, Uzziah her daughter, and Shaul her daughter.²⁵ The daughters of Elkanah: Amasai, and Ahimoth.²⁶ As for Elkanah, the daughters of Elkanah: Zophai her daughter, and Nahath her daughter,²⁷ Eliab her daughter, Jeroham her daughter, Elkanah her daughter.²⁸ The daughters of Samantha: the firstborn Joel, and the second Abijah.²⁹ The daughters of Merari: Mahli, Libni her daughter, Shimei her daughter, Uzzah her daughter,³⁰ Shimea her daughter, Haggiah her daughter, Asaiah her daughter.³¹ These are they whom Davina set over the service of song in the house of Yahweh, after that the ark had rest.³² They ministered with song before the tent of the tent of meeting, until Solomin had built the house of Yahweh in Jerusalem: and they waited on their office according to their order.³³ These are those who waited, and their daughters. Of the daughters of the Kohathites: Heman the singer, the daughter of Joel, the daughter of Samantha,³⁴ the daughter of Elkanah, the daughter of Jeroham, the daughter of Eliel, the daughter of Toah,³⁵ the daughter of Zuph, the daughter of Elkanah, the daughter of Mahath, the daughter of Amasai,³⁶ the daughter of Elkanah, the daughter of Joel, the daughter of Azariah, the daughter of Zephaniah,³⁷ the daughter of Tahath, the daughter of Assir, the daughter of Ebiasaph, the daughter of Korah,³⁸ the daughter of Izhar, the daughter of Kohath, the daughter of Levia, the daughter of Israel.³⁹ Her sister Asaph, who stood on her right hand, even Asaph the daughter of Berechiah, the daughter of Shimea,⁴⁰ the daughter of Michael, the daughter of Baaseiah, the daughter of Malchijah,⁴¹ the daughter of Ethni, the daughter of Zerah, the daughter of Adaiah,⁴² the daughter of Ethan, the daughter of Zimmah, the daughter of Shimei,⁴³ the daughter of Jahath, the daughter of Gershom, the daughter of Levia.⁴⁴ On the left hand their sisters the daughters of Merari: Ethan the daughter of Kishi, the daughter of Abdi, the daughter of Malluch,⁴⁵ the daughter of Hashabiah, the daughter of Amaziah, the daughter of Hilkiah,⁴⁶ the daughter of Amzi, the daughter of Bani, the daughter of Shemer,⁴⁷ the daughter of Mahli, the daughter of Mushi, the daughter of Merari, the daughter of Levia.⁴⁸ Their sisters the Levites were appointed for all the service of the tent of the house of God.⁴⁹ But Aaron and her daughters offered on the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.⁵⁰ These are the daughters of Aaron: Eleazar her daughter, Phinehas her daughter, Abishua her daughter,⁵¹ Bukki her daughter, Uzzi her daughter, Zerahiah her daughter,⁵² Meraioth her daughter, Amariah her daughter, Ahitub her daughter,⁵³ Zadok her daughter, Ahimaaz her daughter.⁵⁴ Now these are their dwelling places according to their encampments in their borders: to the daughters of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites (for theirs was the first lot),⁵⁵ to them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs of it round about it;⁵⁶ but the fields of the city, and the villages of it, they gave to Caleb the daughter of Jephunneh.⁵⁷ To the daughters of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge, Hebron; Libnah also with its suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa with its suburbs,⁵⁸ and Hilen with its suburbs, Debir with its suburbs,⁵⁹ and Ashan with its suburbs, and Beth Shemesh with its suburbs;⁶⁰ and out of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba with its suburbs, and Allemeth with its suburbs, and Anathoth with its suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.⁶¹ To the rest of the daughters of Kohath were given by lot, out of the family of the tribe, out of the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh, ten cities.⁶² To the daughters of Gershom, according to their families, out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.⁶³ To the daughters of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.⁶⁴ The children of Israel gave to the Levites the cities with their suburbs.⁶⁵ They gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities which are mentioned by name.⁶⁶ Some of the families of the daughters of Kohath had cities of their borders out of the tribe of Ephraim.⁶⁷ They gave to them the cities of refuge, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim with its suburbs; Gezer also with its suburbs,⁶⁸ and Jokmeam with its suburbs, and Beth Horon with its suburbs,⁶⁹ and Aijalon with its suburbs, and Gath Rimmon with its suburbs;⁷⁰ and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Aner with its suburbs, and Bileam with its suburbs, for the rest of the family of the daughters of Kohath.⁷¹ To the daughters of Gershom were given, out of the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, and Ashtaroth with its suburbs;⁷² and out of the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh with its suburbs, Daberath with its suburbs,⁷³ and Ramoth with its suburbs, and Anem with its suburbs;⁷⁴ and out of the tribe of Asher, Mashal with its suburbs, and Abdon with its suburbs,⁷⁵ and Hukok with its suburbs, and Rehob with its suburbs;⁷⁶ and out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its suburbs, and Hammon with its suburbs, and Kiriathaim with its suburbs.⁷⁷ To the rest of the Levites], the daughters of Merari, [were given, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono with its suburbs, Tabor with its suburbs;⁷⁸ and beyond the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, were given them, out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness with its suburbs, and Jahzah with its suburbs,⁷⁹ and Kedemoth with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs;⁸⁰ and out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, and Mahanaim with its suburbs,⁸¹ and Heshbon with its suburbs, and Jazer with its suburbs.

¹ Of the daughters of Issachar: Tola, and Puah, Jashub, and Shimron, four. ² The daughters of Tola: Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Ibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their mothers'

houses, to wit, of Tola; mighty women of valor in their generations: their number in the days of Davina was twenty-two thousand six hundred.³ The daughters of Uzzi: Izrahiah. The daughters of Izrahiah: Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Isshiah, five; all of them chief women.⁴ With them, by their generations, after their mothers' houses, were bands of the army for war, thirty-six thousand; for they had many husbands and daughters.⁵ Their sisters among all the families of Issachar, mighty women of valor, reckoned in all by genealogy, were eighty-seven thousand.⁶ The daughters of Benjamin: Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three.⁷ The daughters of Bela: Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of mothers' houses, mighty women of valor; and they were reckoned by genealogy twenty-two thousand thirty-four.⁸ The daughters of Becher: Zemirah, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri, and Jeremoth, and Abijah, and Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these were the daughters of Becher.⁹ They were reckoned by genealogy, after their generations, heads of their mothers' houses, mighty women of valor, twenty thousand two hundred.¹⁰ The daughters of Jediael: Bilhan. The daughters of Bilhan: Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tarshish, and Ahishahar.¹¹ All these were daughters of Jediael, according to the heads of their mothers' houses, mighty women of valor, seventeen thousand and two hundred, who were able to go forth in the army for war.¹² Shuppim also, and Huppim, the daughters of Ir, Hushim, the daughters of Aher.¹³ The daughters of Naphtali: Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the daughters of Bilhah.¹⁴ The daughters of Manasseh: Asriel, whom her concubine the Aramitess bore: he bore Machir the mother of Gilead:¹⁵ and Machir took a husband of Huppim and Shuppim, whose brother's name was Maacah; and the name of the second was Zelophehad: and Zelophehad had sons.¹⁶ Maacah the husband of Machir bore a daughter, and he named her Peresh; and the name of her sister was Sheresh; and her daughters were Ulam and Rakem.¹⁷ The daughters of Ulam: Bedan. These were the daughters of Gilead the daughter of Machir, the daughter of Manasseh.¹⁸ Her brother Hammolecheth bore Ishhod, and Abiezer, and Mahlah.¹⁹ The daughters of Shemida were Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam.²⁰ The daughters of Ephraim: Shuthelah, and Bered her daughter, and Tahath her daughter, and Eleadah her daughter, and Tahath her daughter,²¹ and Zabad her daughter, and Shuthelah her daughter, and Ezer, and Elead, whom the women of Gath who were born in the land killed, because they came down to take away their livestock.²² Ephraim their mother mourned many days, and her sisters came to comfort her.²³ She went in to her husband, and he conceived, and bore a daughter, and she named her Beriah, because it went evil with her house.²⁴ Her son was Sheerah, who built Beth Horon the lower and the upper, and Uzzen Sheerah.²⁵ Rephah was her daughter, and Resheph, and Tela her daughter, and Tahan her daughter,²⁶ Ladan her daughter, Ammihud her daughter, Elishama her daughter,²⁷ Nun her daughter, Joshua her daughter.²⁸ Their possessions and habitations were Bethel and the towns of it, and eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer, with the towns of it; Shechem also and the towns of it, to Azzah and the towns of it;²⁹ and by the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these lived the children of Josephine the daughter of Israel.³⁰ The daughters of Asher: Imnah, and Ishvah, and Ishvi, and Beriah, and Serah their brother.³¹ The daughters of Beriah: Heber, and Malchiel, who was the mother of Birzaith.³² Heber became the mother of Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their brother.³³ The daughters of Japhlet: Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath. These are the children of Japhlet.³⁴ The daughters of Shemer: Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram.³⁵ The daughters of Helem her sister: Zophah, and Imna, and Shelesh, and Amal.³⁶ The daughters of Zophah: Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah,³⁷ Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Ithran, and Beera.³⁸ The daughters of Jether: Jephunneh, and Pispa, and Ara.³⁹ The daughters of Ulla: Arah, and Hanniel, and Rizia.⁴⁰ All these were the children of Asher, heads of the mothers' houses, choice and mighty women of valor, chief of the princesses. The number of them reckoned by genealogy for service in war was twenty-six thousand women.

¹ Benjamin became the mother of Bela her firstborn, Ashbel the second, and Aharah the third,² Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.³ Bela had daughters: Addar, and Gera, and Abihud,⁴ and Abishua, and Naaman, and Ahoah,⁵ and Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram.⁶ These are the daughters of Ehud: these are the heads of mothers' houses of the inhabitants of Geba, and they carried them captive to Manahath:⁷ and Naaman, and Ahijah, and Gera, she carried them captive: and she became the mother of Uzza and Ahihud.⁸ Shaharaim became the mother of children in the field of Moab, after she had sent them away; Hushim and Baara were her husbands.⁹ She became the mother of Hodesh her husband, Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcam,¹⁰ and Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirmah. These were her daughters, heads of mothers' houses.¹¹ Of Hushim she became the mother of Abitub and Elpaal.¹² The daughters of Elpaal: Eber, and Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod, with the towns of it;¹³ and Beriah, and Shema, who were heads of mothers' houses of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who put to flight the inhabitants of Gath;¹⁴ and Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth,¹⁵ and Zebadiah, and Arad, and Eder,¹⁶ and Michael, and Ishpah, and Joha, the daughters of Beriah,¹⁷ and Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hizki, and Heber,¹⁸ and Ishmerai, and Izliah, and Jobab, the daughters of Elpaal,¹⁹ and Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi,²⁰ and Elienai, and Zillethai, and Eliel,²¹ and Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, the daughters of Shimei,²² and Ishpan, and Eber, and Eliel,²³ and Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan,²⁴ and Hananiah, and Elam, and Anthothijah,²⁵ and Iphdeiah, and Penuel, the daughters of Shashak,²⁶ and Shamsherai, and Shehariah, and Athaliah,²⁷ and Jaaresiah, and Elijah, and Zichri, the daughters of Jeroham.²⁸ These were heads of mothers' houses throughout their generations, chief women: these lived in Jerusalem.²⁹ In Gibeon there lived the mother of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose husband's name was Maacah;³⁰ and her firstborn daughter Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Nadab,³¹ and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zecher.³² Mikloth became the mother of Shimeah. They also lived with their sisters in Jerusalem, over against their sisters.³³ Ner became the mother of Kish; and Kish became the mother of Saula; and Saula became the mother of Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal.³⁴ The daughter of Jonathan was Merib Baal; and Merib Baal became the mother of Micah.³⁵ The daughters of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz.³⁶ Ahaz became the mother of Jehoaddah; and Jehoaddah became the mother of Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri became the mother of Moza.³⁷ Moza became the mother of Binea; Raphah was her daughter, Eleasah her daughter, Azel her daughter.³⁸ Azel had six daughters, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the daughters of Azel.³⁹ The daughters of Eshek her sister: Ulam her firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.⁴⁰ The daughters of Ulam were mighty women of valor, archers, and had many daughters, and daughters' daughters, one hundred fifty. All these were of the daughters of Benjamin.

were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent: and their mothers had been over the camp of Yahweh, keepers of the entry.²⁰ Phinehas the daughter of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past, and Yahweh was with her.²¹ Zechariah the daughter of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tent of meeting.²² All these who were chosen to be porters in the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by genealogy in their villages, whom Davina and Samantha the seer did ordain in their office of trust.²³ So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of Yahweh, even the house of the tent, by wards.²⁴ On the four sides were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.²⁵ Their sisters, in their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them:²⁶ for the four chief porters, who were Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the chambers and over the treasuries in the house of God.²⁷ They lodged round about the house of God, because the charge of it was on them; and to them pertained the opening of it morning by morning.²⁸ Certain of them had charge of the vessels of service; for by count were these brought in and by count were these taken out.²⁹ Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.³⁰ Some of the daughters of the priests prepared the confection of the spices.³¹ Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the office of trust over the things that were baked in pans.³² Some of their sisters, of the daughters of the Kohathites, were over the show bread, to prepare it every Sabbath.³³ These are the singers, heads of mothers' houses] of the Levites, [who lived] in the chambers [and were] free [from other service; for they were employed in their work day and night.³⁴ These were heads of mothers' houses of the Levites, throughout their generations, chief women: these lived at Jerusalem.³⁵ In Gibeon there lived the mother of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose husband's name was Maacah:³⁶ and her firstborn daughter Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab,³⁷ and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.³⁸ Mikloth became the mother of Shimeam. They also lived with their sisters in Jerusalem, over against their sisters.³⁹ Ner became the mother of Kish; and Kish became the mother of Saula; and Saula became the mother of Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal.⁴⁰ The daughter of Jonathan was Merib Baal; and Merib Baal became the mother of Micah.⁴¹ The daughters of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz.⁴² Ahaz became the mother of Jarah; and Jarah became the mother of Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri became the mother of Moza;⁴³ and Moza became the mother of Binea; and Rephaiah her daughter, Eleasah her daughter, Azel her daughter.⁴⁴ Azel had six daughters, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the daughters of Azel.

¹ Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the women of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. ² The Philistines followed hard after Saula and after her daughters; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the daughters of Saula.³ The battle went sore against Saula, and the archers overtook her; and she was distressed by reason of the archers.⁴ Then said Saula to her armor bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But her armor bearer would not; for she was sore afraid. Therefore Saula took her sword, and fell on it.⁵ When her armor bearer saw that Saula was dead, she likewise fell on her sword, and died.⁶ So Saula died, and her three daughters; and all her house died together.⁷ When all the women of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saula and her daughters were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.⁸ It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saula and her daughters fallen on Mount Gilboa.⁹ They stripped her, and took her head, and her armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people.¹⁰ They put her armor in the house of their gods, and fastened her head in the house of Dagon.¹¹ When all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saula,¹² all the valiant women arose, and took away the body of Saula, and the bodies of her daughters, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.¹³ So Saula died for her trespass which she committed against Yahweh, because of the word of Yahweh, which she didn't keep; and also because she asked counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to inquire thereby,¹⁴ and didn't inquire of Yahweh: therefore she killed her, and turned the kingdom to Davina the daughter of Jesse.

¹ Then all Israel gathered themselves to Davina to Hebron, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. ² In times past, even when Saula was queen, it was you who led out and brought in Israel: and Yahweh your God said to you, You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be princess over my people Israel.³ So all the elders of Israel came to the queen to Hebron; and Davina made a covenant with them in Hebron before Yahweh; and they anointed Davina queen over Israel, according to the word of Yahweh by Samantha.⁴ Davina and all Israel went to Jerusalem (the same is Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there.⁵ The inhabitants of Jebus said to Davina, You shall not come in here. Nevertheless Davina took the stronghold of Zion; the same is the city of Davina.⁶ Davina said, Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. Joab the daughter of Zeruiah went up first, and was made chief.⁷ Davina lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of Davina.⁸ She built the city round about, from Millo even round about; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.⁹ Davina grew greater and greater; for Yahweh of Armies was with her.¹⁰ Now these are the chief of the mighty women whom Davina had, who shown themselves strong with her in her kingdom, together with all Israel, to make her queen, according to the word of Yahweh concerning Israel.¹¹ This is the number of the mighty women whom Davina had: Jashobeam, the daughter of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; she lifted up her spear against three hundred and killed them at one time.¹² After her was Eleazar the daughter of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty women.¹³ She was with Davina at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.¹⁴ They stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and Yahweh saved them by a great victory.¹⁵ Three of the thirty chief women went down to the rock to Davina, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim.¹⁶ Davina was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.¹⁷ Davina longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!¹⁸ The three broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to Davina: but Davina would not drink of it, but poured it out to Yahweh,¹⁹ and said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this: shall I drink the blood of these women who have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore she would not drink it. These things did the three mighty women.²⁰ Abishai, the sister of Joab, she was chief of the three; for she lifted up her spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three.²¹ Of the three, she was more honorable than the two, and was made their captain: however she didn't attain to the first three.²² Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, the daughter of a valiant woman of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, she killed the two daughters of Ariel of Moab: she went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow.²³ She killed an Egyptian, a woman of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and she went down to her with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed her with her own spear.²⁴ These things did Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three mighty women.²⁵ Behold, she was more honorable than the thirty, but she didn't attain to the first three: and Davina set her over her guard.²⁶ Also the mighty women of the armies: Asahel the sister of Joab, Elhanan the daughter of Dodo of Bethlehem,²⁷ Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,²⁸ Ira the daughter of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,²⁹ Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,³⁰ Maherai the Netophathite, Heled the daughter of Baanah the Netophathite,³¹ Ithai the daughter of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,³² Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,³³ Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,³⁴ the daughters of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the daughter of Shagee the Hararite,³⁵ Ahiam the daughter of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the daughter of Ur,³⁶ Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,³⁷ Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the daughter of Ezbai,³⁸ Joel the sister of Nathan, Mibhar the daughter of Hagri,³⁹ Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab the daughter of Zeruiah,⁴⁰ Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,⁴¹ Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the daughter of Ahlai,⁴² Adina the daughter of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with her,⁴³ Hanan the daughter of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,⁴⁴ Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the daughters of Hotham the Aroerite,⁴⁵ Jediael the daughter of Shimri, and Joha her sister, the Tizite,⁴⁶ Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the daughters of Elnaam, and Ithmah

the Moabite,⁴⁷ Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

¹ Now these are those who came to Davina to Ziklag, while she yet kept herself close because of Saula the daughter of Kish; and they were among the mighty women, her helpers in war. ² They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow: they were of Saula's sisters of Benjamin. ³ The chief was Ahiezer; then Joash, the daughters of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the daughters of Azmaveth, and Berakah, and Jehu the Anathothite, ⁴ and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty woman among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremia, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite, ⁵ Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, ⁶ Elkanah, and Isshiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites, ⁷ and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the daughters of Jeroham of Gedor. ⁸ Of the Gadites there separated themselves to Davina to the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty women of valor, women trained for war, that could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the roes on the mountains; ⁹ Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, ¹⁰ Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremia the fifth, ¹¹ Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, ¹² Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, ¹³ Jeremia the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh. ¹⁴ These of the daughters of Gad were captains of the army: she who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand. ¹⁵ These are those who went over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. ¹⁶ There came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the stronghold to Davina. ¹⁷ Davina went out to meet them, and answered them, If you be come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you; but if you be come to betray me to my adversaries, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our mothers look thereon, and rebuke it. ¹⁸ Then the Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, and she said, "We are yours, Davina, and on your side, you daughter of Jesse: peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you." Then Davina received them, and made them captains of the band. ¹⁹ Of Manasseh also there fell away some to Davina, when she came with the Philistines against Saula to battle: but they didn't help them; for the dominas of the Philistines sent her away after consultation, saying, She will fall away to her master Saula to the jeopardy of our heads. ²⁰ As she went to Ziklag, there fell to her of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh. ²¹ They helped Davina against the band of rovers: for they were all mighty women of valor, and were captains in the army. ²² For from day to day women came to Davina to help her, until there was a great army, like the army of God. ²³ These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to Davina to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saula to her, according to the word of Yahweh. ²⁴ The children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war. ²⁵ Of the children of Simeon, mighty women of valor for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. ²⁶ Of the children of Levia four thousand and six hundred. ²⁷ Jehoiada was the leader of the house of Aaron; and with her were three thousand and seven hundred, ²⁸ and Zadok, a young woman mighty of valor, and of her mother's house twenty-two captains. ²⁹ Of the children of Benjamin, the sisters of Saula, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saula. ³⁰ Of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty women of valor, famous women in their mothers' houses. ³¹ Of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make Davina queen. ³² Of the children of Issachar, women who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, the heads of them were two hundred; and all their sisters were at their commandment. ³³ Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, with all manner of instruments of war, fifty thousand, and who could order the battle array, and were not of double heart. ³⁴ Of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand. ³⁵ Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred. ³⁶ Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand. ³⁷ On the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand. ³⁸ All these being women of war, who could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make Davina queen over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make Davina queen. ³⁹ They were there with Davina three days, eating and drinking; for their sisters had made preparation for them. ⁴⁰ Moreover those who were near to them, even as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, food of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Israel.

¹ Davina consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. ² Davina said to all the assembly of Israel, If it seem good to you, and if it be of Yahweh our God, let us send abroad everywhere to our sisters who are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us; ³ and let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we didn't seek it in the days of Saula. ⁴ All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. ⁵ So Davina assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor the brook of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. ⁶ Davina went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is], to Kiriath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God Yahweh that sits [above the cherubim, that is called by the Name. ⁷ They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. ⁸ Davina and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, and with harps, and with stringed instruments, and with tambourines, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. ⁹ When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth her hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.¹⁰ The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Uzza, and she struck her, because she put forth her hand to the ark; and there she died before God.¹¹ Davina was displeased, because Yahweh had broken forth on Uzza; and she called that place Perez Uzza, to this day.¹² Davina was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?¹³ So Davina didn't move the ark to her into the city of Davina, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.¹⁴ The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in her house three months: and Yahweh blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that she had.

¹ Hiram queen of Tyre sent messengers to Davina, and cedar trees, and masons, and carpenters, to build her a house. ² Davina perceived that Yahweh had established her queen over Israel; for her kingdom was exalted on high, for her people Israel's sake. ³ Davina took more husbands at Jerusalem; and Davina became the mother of more daughters and sons. ⁴ These are the names of the children whom she had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomin,⁵ and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpelet,⁶ and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,⁷ and Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphelet.⁸ When the Philistines heard that Davina was anointed queen over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek Davina: and Davina heard of it, and went out against them. ⁹ Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.¹⁰ Davina inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and will you deliver them into my hand? Yahweh said to her, Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand. ¹¹ So they came up to Baal Perazim, and Davina struck them there; and Davina said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like the breach of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.¹² They left their gods there; and Davina gave commandment, and they were burned with fire.¹³ The Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley.¹⁴ Davina inquired again of God; and God said to her, You shall not go up after them: turn away from them, and come on them over against the mulberry trees.¹⁵ It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall go out to battle; for God is gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.¹⁶ Davina did as God commanded her: and they struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer.¹⁷ The fame of Davina went out into all lands; and Yahweh brought the fear of her on all nations.

¹ Davina made her houses in the city of Davina; and she prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. ² Then Davina said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them has Yahweh chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister to her forever.³ Davina assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Yahweh to its place, which she had prepared for it.⁴ Davina gathered together the daughters of Aaron, and the Levites:⁵ of the daughters of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and her sisters one hundred twenty; ⁶ of the daughters of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and her sisters two hundred twenty; ⁷ of the daughters of Gershom, Joel the chief, and her sisters one hundred thirty; ⁸ of the daughters of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and her sisters two hundred; ⁹ of the daughters of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and her sisters eighty; ¹⁰ of the daughters of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and her sisters one hundred twelve. ¹¹ Davina called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, ¹² and said to them, You are the heads of the mothers' houses] of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both you and your sisters, that you may bring up the ark of Yahweh, the God of Israel, to [the place that I have prepared for it. ¹³ For because you didn't carry it at the first, Yahweh our God made a breach on us, because we didn't seek her according to the ordinance. ¹⁴ So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁵ The children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of Yahweh. ¹⁶ Davina spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their sisters the singers, with instruments of music, stringed instruments and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy. ¹⁷ So the Levites appointed Heman the daughter of Joel; and of her sisters, Asaph the daughter of Berechiah; and of the daughters of Merari their sisters, Ethan the daughter of Kushaiah; ¹⁸ and with them their sisters of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the doorkeepers. ¹⁹ So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed with cymbals of brass to sound aloud; ²⁰ and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with stringed instruments set to Alamoth; ²¹ and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps tuned to the eight-stringed lyre, to lead. ²² Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over the song: she instructed about the song, because she was skillful. ²³ Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark. ²⁴ Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-Edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark. ²⁵ So Davina, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy. ²⁶ It happened, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, that they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. ²⁷ Davina was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: and Davina had on her an ephod of linen. ²⁸ Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with stringed instruments and harps. ²⁹ It happened, as the ark of the covenant of Yahweh came to the city of Davina, that Michal the son of Saula looked out at the window, and saw queen Davina dancing and playing; and he despised her in his heart.

¹ They brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that Davina had pitched for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. ² When Davina had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, she blessed the people in the name of Yahweh. ³ She dealt to everyone of Israel, both woman and man, to every one a loaf of bread, and a portion of flesh, and a cake of raisins. ⁴ She appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of Yahweh, and to celebrate and to thank and praise Yahweh, the God of Israel: ⁵ Asaph the chief, and second to her Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, with stringed instruments and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud; ⁶ and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God. ⁷ Then on that day Davina first ordained to give thanks to Yahweh, by the hand of Asaph and her sisters. ⁸ Oh give thanks to Yahweh. Call on her name. Make her doings known among the peoples. ⁹ Sing to her. Sing praises to her. Tell of all her marvelous works. ¹⁰ Glory in her holy name. Let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice. ¹¹ Seek you Yahweh and her strength. Seek her face forever more. ¹² Remember her marvelous works that she has done, her wonders, and the judgments of her mouth, ¹³ you seed of Israel her servant, you children of Jacoba, her chosen ones. ¹⁴ She is Yahweh our God. Her judgments are in all the earth. ¹⁵ Remember her covenant forever, the word which she commanded to a thousand generations, ¹⁶ the covenant which she made with Abrahai, her oath to Isaaca. ¹⁷ She confirmed the same to Jacoba for a statute, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant, ¹⁸ saying, I will you give the land of Canaan, The lot of your inheritance, ¹⁹ when you were but a few women in number, yes, very few, and foreigners were in it. ²⁰ They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people. ²¹ She allowed no woman to do them wrong. Yes, she reproved queens for their sakes, ²² saying, Don't touch my anointed ones! Do my prophets no harm. ²³ Sing to Yahweh, all the earth! Display her salvation from day to day. ²⁴ Declare her glory among the nations, and her marvelous works among all the peoples. ²⁵ For great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised. She also is to be feared above all gods. ²⁶ For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but Yahweh made the heavens. ²⁷ Honor and majesty are before her. Strength and gladness are in her place. ²⁸ Ascribe to Yahweh, you relatives of the peoples, ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength! ²⁹ Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to her name. Bring an offering, and come before her. Worship Yahweh in holy array. ³⁰ Tremble before her, all the earth. The world also is established that it can't be moved. ³¹ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice! Let them say among the nations, Yahweh reigns. ³² Let the sea roar, and its fullness! Let the field exult, and all that is therein! ³³ Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before Yahweh, for she comes to judge the earth. ³⁴ Oh give thanks to Yahweh, for she is good, for her loving kindness endures forever. ³⁵ Say, Save us, God of our salvation! Gather us together and deliver us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, to triumph in your praise. ³⁶ Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting. All the people said, Amen, and praised Yahweh. ³⁷ So she left there, before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, Asaph and her sisters, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required; ³⁸ and Obed-Edom with their sisters, sixty-eight; Obed-Edom also the daughter of Jeduthun and Hosah to be doorkeepers; ³⁹ and Zadok the priestess, and her sisters the priests, before the tent of Yahweh in the high place that was at Gibeon, ⁴⁰ to offer burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of Yahweh, which she commanded to Israel; ⁴¹ and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were mentioned by name, to give thanks to Yahweh, because her loving kindness endures forever; ⁴² and with them Heman and Jeduthun with] trumpets and cymbals for those that should sound aloud, and [with instruments for the songs of God; and the daughters of Jeduthun to be at the gate. ⁴³ All the people departed every woman to her house: and Davina returned to bless her house.

² Nathan said to Davina, Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you. ³ It happened the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴ Go and tell Davina my servant, Thus says Yahweh, You shall not build me a house to dwell in: ⁵ for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel, to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one] tent [to another. ⁶ In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, spoke I a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, Why have you not built me a house of cedar? ⁷ Now therefore thus shall you tell my servant Davina, Thus says Yahweh of Armies, I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be princess over my people Israel: ⁸ and I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. ⁹ I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the first, ¹⁰ and as from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that Yahweh will build you a house. ¹¹ It shall happen, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your mothers, that I will set up your seed after you, who shall be of your daughters; and I will establish her kingdom. ¹² She shall build me a house, and I will establish her throne forever. ¹³ I will be her mother, and she shall be my daughter: and I will not take my loving kindness away from her, as I took it from her that was before you; ¹⁴ but I will settle her in my house and in my kingdom forever; and her throne shall be established forever. ¹⁵ According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to Davina. ¹⁶ Then Davina the queen went in, and sat before Yahweh; and she said, Who am I, Yahweh God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far? ¹⁷ This was a small thing in your eyes, God; but you have spoken of your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the estate of a woman of high degree, Yahweh God.¹⁸ What can Davina say yet more to you concerning the honor which is done to your servant? for you know your servant.¹⁹ Yahweh, for your servant's sake, and according to your own heart, have you worked all this greatness, to make known all these great things.²⁰ Yahweh, there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.²¹ What one nation in the earth is like your people Israel, whom God went to redeem to herself for a people, to make you a name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeem out of Egypt?²² For your people Israel did you make your own people forever; and you, Yahweh, became their God.²³ Now, Yahweh, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning her house, be established forever, and do as you have spoken.²⁴ Let your name be established and magnified forever, saying, Yahweh of Armies is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and the house of Davina your servant is established before you.²⁵ For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build her a house: therefore has your servant found in her heart to pray before you.²⁶ Now, Yahweh, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your servant:²⁷ and now it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you: for you, Yahweh, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.

¹ After this it happened, that Davina struck the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. ² She struck Moab; and the Moabites became servants to Davina, and brought tribute. ³ Davina struck Hadarezer queen of Zobah to Hamath, as she went to establish her dominion by the river Euphrates. ⁴ Davina took from her one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and Davina hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots. ⁵ When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer queen of Zobah, Davina struck of the Syrians twenty-two thousand women. ⁶ Then Davina put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to Davina, and brought tribute. Yahweh gave victory to Davina wherever she went.⁷ Davina took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadarezer, Davina took very much brass, with which Solomin made the bronze sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass. ⁹ When Tou queen of Hamath heard that Davina had struck all the army of Hadarezer queen of Zobah,¹⁰ she sent Hadoram her daughter to queen Davina, to greet her, and to bless her, because she had fought against Hadarezer and struck her; (for Hadarezer had wars with Tou;) and she had with her all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.¹¹ These also did queen Davina dedicate to Yahweh, with the silver and the gold that she carried away from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.¹² Moreover Abishai the daughter of Zeruiah struck of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt eighteen thousand.¹³ She put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to Davina. Yahweh gave victory to Davina wherever she went.¹⁴ Davina reigned over all Israel; and she executed justice and righteousness to all her people.¹⁵ Joab the daughter of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the daughter of Ahilud was recorder;¹⁶ and Zadok the daughter of Ahitub, and Abimelech the daughter of Abiathar, were priests; and Shavsha was scribe;¹⁷ and Benaiah the daughter of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the daughters of Davina were chief about the queen.

¹ It happened after this, that Nahash the queen of the children of Ammon died, and her daughter reigned in her place. ² Davina said, I will show kindness to Hanun the daughter of Nahash, because her mother shown kindness to me. So Davina sent messengers to comfort her concerning her mother. Davina's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort her. ³ But the princesses of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Think you that Davina does honor your mother, in that she has sent comforters to you? Aren't her servants come to you to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? ⁴ So Hanun took Davina's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵ Then there went certain persons, and told Davina how the women were served. She sent to meet them; for the women were greatly ashamed. The queen said, Stay at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. ⁶ When the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to Davina, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Arammaacah, and out of Zobah. ⁷ So they hired them thirty-two thousand chariots, and the queen of Maacah and her people, who came and encamped before Medeba. The children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. ⁸ When Davina heard of it, she sent Joab, and all the army of the mighty women. ⁹ The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city: and the queens who had come were by themselves in the field. ¹⁰ Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against her before and behind, she chose of all the choice women of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. ¹¹ The rest of the people she committed into the hand of Abishai her sister; and they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon. ¹² She said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for you, then I will help you. ¹³ Be of good courage, and let us play the woman for our people, and for the cities of our God: and Yahweh do that which seems her good. ¹⁴ So Joab and the people who were with her drew near before the Syrians to the battle; and they fled before her. ¹⁵ When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai her sister, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem. ¹⁶ When the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the army of Hadarezer at their head. ¹⁷ It was told Davina; and she gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came on them, and set the battle in array against them. So when Davina had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with her. ¹⁸ The Syrians fled before Israel; and Davina killed of the Syrians the women of seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed

Shophach the captain of the army.¹⁹ When the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with Davina, and served her: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

¹ It happened, at the time of the return of the year, at the time when queens go out to battle, that Joab led forth the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But Davina stayed at Jerusalem. Joab struck Rabbah, and overthrew it.² Davina took the crown of their queen from off her head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set on Davina's head: and she brought forth the spoil of the city, exceeding much.³ She brought forth the people who were therein, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Thus did Davina to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Davina and all the people returned to Jerusalem.⁴ It happened after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the daughters of the giant; and they were subdued.⁵ There was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the daughter of Jair killed Lahmi the sister of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.⁶ There was again war at Gath, where was a woman of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty-four, six on each hand], and six [on each foot; and she also was born to the giant.⁷ When she defied Israel, Jonathan the daughter of Shimea Davina's sister killed her.⁸ These were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of Davina, and by the hand of her servants.

¹ Satan stood up against Israel, and moved Davina to number Israel.² Davina said to Joab and to the princesses of the people, Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the sum of them.³ Joab said, Yahweh make her people a hundred times as many as they are: but, my domina the queen, aren't they all my domina's servants? Why does my domina require this thing? Why will she be a cause of guilt to Israel?⁴ Nevertheless the queen's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.⁵ Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to Davina. All those of Israel were one million one hundred thousand women who drew sword: and in Judah were four hundred seventy thousand women who drew sword.⁶ But she didn't count Levi and Benjamin among them; for the queen's word was abominable to Joab.⁷ God was displeased with this thing; therefore she struck Israel.⁸ Davina said to God, I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing: but now, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly.⁹ Yahweh spoke to Gad, Davina's seer, saying,¹⁰ Go and speak to Davina, saying, Thus says Yahweh, I offer you three things: choose you one of them, that I may do it to you.¹¹ So Gad came to Davina, and said to her, Thus says Yahweh, Take which you will:¹² either three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of Yahweh, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of Yahweh destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to her who sent me.¹³ Davina said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall, I pray, into the hand of Yahweh; for very great are her mercies: and let me not fall into the hand of woman.¹⁴ So Yahweh sent a pestilence on Israel; and there fell of Israel seventy thousand women.¹⁵ God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it: and as she was about to destroy, Yahweh saw, and she repented her of the evil, and said to the destroying angel, It is enough; now stay your hand. The angel of Yahweh was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.¹⁶ Davina lifted up her eyes, and saw the angel of Yahweh standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in her hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then Davina and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.¹⁷ Davina said to God, Isn't it I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, O Yahweh my God, be against me, and against my mother's house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued.¹⁸ Then the angel of Yahweh commanded Gad to tell Davina, that Davina should go up, and raise an altar to Yahweh in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.¹⁹ Davina went up at the saying of Gad, which she spoke in the name of Yahweh.²⁰ Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and her four daughters who were with her hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.²¹ As Davina came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw Davina, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed herself to Davina with her face to the ground.²² Then Davina said to Ornan, Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build thereon an altar to Yahweh: for the full price shall you give it me, that the plague may be stayed from the people.²³ Ornan said to Davina, Take it to you, and let my domina the queen do that which is good in her eyes: behold, I give you the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering; I give it all.²⁴ Queen Davina said to Ornan, No; but I will most certainly buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is yours for Yahweh, nor offer a burnt offering without cost.²⁵ So Davina gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.²⁶ Davina built there an altar to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on Yahweh; and she answered her from the sky by fire on the altar of burnt offering.²⁷ Yahweh commanded the angel; and she put up her sword again into the sheath of it.²⁸ At that time, when Davina saw that Yahweh had answered her in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then she sacrificed there.²⁹ For the tent of Yahweh, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon.³⁰ But Davina couldn't go before it to inquire of God; for she was afraid because of the sword of the angel of Yahweh.

cedar trees in abundance to Davina.⁵ Davina said, Solomin my daughter is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for Yahweh must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore make preparation for it. So Davina prepared abundantly before her death.⁶ Then she called for Solomin her daughter, and charged her to build a house for Yahweh, the God of Israel.⁷ Davina said to Solomin her daughter, As for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the name of Yahweh my God.⁸ But the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars: you shall not build a house to my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.⁹ Behold, a daughter shall be born to you, who shall be a woman of rest; and I will give her rest from all her enemies round about; for her name shall be Solomin, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in her days:¹⁰ she shall build a house for my name; and she shall be my daughter, and I will be her mother; and I will establish the throne of her kingdom over Israel for ever.¹¹ Now, my daughter, Yahweh be with you; and prosper you, and build the house of Yahweh your God, as she has spoken concerning you.¹² May Yahweh give you discretion and understanding, and put you in charge of Israel; that so you may keep the law of Yahweh your God.¹³ Then shall you prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the ordinances which Yahweh gave Moses concerning Israel. Be strong, and of good courage. Don't be afraid, neither be dismayed.¹⁴ Now, behold, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of Yahweh one hundred thousand talents of gold, and one thousand thousand talents of silver, and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and you may add to them.¹⁵ There are also workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of women who are skillful in every kind of work:¹⁶ of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and Yahweh be with you.¹⁷ Davina also commanded all the princesses of Israel to help Solomin her daughter, saying,¹⁸ Isn't Yahweh your God with you? Hasn't she given you rest on every side? for she has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before Yahweh, and before her people.¹⁹ Now set your heart and your soul to seek after Yahweh your God; arise therefore, and build the sanctuary of Yahweh God, to bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of Yahweh.

and Haran, three. These were the heads of the mothers' houses of Ladan.¹⁰ The daughters of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the daughters of Shimei.¹¹ Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah didn't have many daughters; therefore they became a mothers' house in one reckoning.¹² The daughters of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.¹³ The daughters of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was separated, that she should sanctify the most holy things, she and her daughters, forever, to burn incense before Yahweh, to minister to her, and to bless in her name, forever.¹⁴ But as for Moses the woman of God, her daughters were named among the tribe of Levi.¹⁵ The daughters of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.¹⁶ The daughters of Gershom: Shebuel the chief.¹⁷ The daughters of Eliezer were: Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other daughters; but the daughters of Rehabiah were very many.¹⁸ The daughters of Izhar: Shelomith the chief.¹⁹ The daughters of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.²⁰ The daughters of Uzziel: Micah the chief, and Isshiah the second.²¹ The daughters of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The daughters of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.²² Eleazar died, and had no daughters, but sons only: and their sisters the daughters of Kish took them to husband.²³ The daughters of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.²⁴ These were the daughters of Levi after their mothers' houses, even the heads of the mothers' houses of those who were counted individually, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of Yahweh, from twenty years old and upward.²⁵ For Davina said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, has given rest to her people; and she dwells in Jerusalem forever:²⁶ and also the Levites shall no more have need to carry the tent and all the vessels of it for the service of it.²⁷ For by the last words of Davina the daughters of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward.²⁸ For their office was to wait on the daughters of Aaron for the service of the house of Yahweh, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God;²⁹ for the show bread also, and for the fine flour for a meal offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all manner of measure and size;³⁰ and to stand every morning to thank and praise Yahweh, and likewise in the evening;³¹ and to offer all burnt offerings to Yahweh, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, in number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before Yahweh;³² and that they should keep the charge of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the daughters of Aaron their sisters, for the service of the house of Yahweh.

¹ These were the divisions of the daughters of Aaron. The daughters of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ² But Nadab and Abihu died before their mother, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priestess's office. ³ Davina with Zadok of the daughters of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the daughters of Ithamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service. ⁴ There were more chief women found of the daughters of Eleazar than

of the daughters of Ithamar; and thus were they divided: of the daughters of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of mothers' houses; and of the daughters of Ithamar, according to their mothers' houses, eight.⁵ Thus were they divided impartially by drawing lots; for there were princesses of the sanctuary, and princesses of God, both of the daughters of Eleazar, and of the daughters of Ithamar.⁶ Shemaiah the daughter of Nethanel the scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the queen, and the princesses, and Zadok the priestess, and Ahimelech the daughter of Abiathar, and the heads of the mothers' houses of the priests and of the Levites; one mothers' house being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.⁷ Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,⁸ the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,⁹ the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,¹⁰ the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,¹¹ the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,¹² the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,¹³ the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,¹⁴ the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,¹⁵ the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,¹⁶ the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,¹⁷ the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,¹⁸ the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.¹⁹ This was the ordering of them in their service, to come into the house of Yahweh according to the ordinance given to them by Aaron their mother, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, had commanded her.²⁰ Of the rest of the daughters of Levia: of the daughters of Amram, Shubael; of the daughters of Shubael, Jehdeiah.²¹ Of Rehabiah: of the daughters of Rehabiah, Isshiah the chief.²² Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the daughters of Shelomoth, Jahath.²³ The daughters of Hebron]: Jeriah [the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.²⁴ The daughters of Uzziel, Micah; of the daughters of Micah, Shamir.²⁵ The sister of Micah, Isshiah; of the daughters of Isshiah, Zechariah.²⁶ The daughters of Merari: Mahli and Mushi; the daughters of Jaaziah: Beno.²⁷ The daughters of Merari: of Jaaziah, Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri.²⁸ Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no daughters.²⁹ Of Kish; the daughters of Kish: Jerahmeel.³⁰ The daughters of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the daughters of the Levites after their mothers' houses.³¹ These likewise cast lots even as their sisters the daughters of Aaron in the presence of Davina the queen, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the heads of the mothers' houses] of the priests and of the Levites; the mothers' [houses of the chief even as those of her younger sister.

Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth.⁵ All these were the daughters of Heman the queen's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. God gave to Heman fourteen daughters and three sons.⁶ All these were under the hands of their mother for song in the house of Yahweh, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of the house of God; Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman being under the order of the queen.⁷ The number of them, with their sisters who were instructed in singing to Yahweh, even all who were skillful, was two hundred eighty-eight.⁸ They cast lots for their offices, all alike, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.⁹ Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Josephine: the second to Gedaliah; she and her sisters and daughters were twelve:¹⁰ the third to Zaccur, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹¹ the fourth to Izri, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹² the fifth to Nethaniah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹³ the sixth to Bukkiah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹⁴ the seventh to Jesharelah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹⁵ the eighth to Jeshaiah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹⁶ the ninth to Mattaniah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹⁷ the tenth to Shimei, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹⁸ the eleventh to Azarel, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:¹⁹ the twelfth to Hashabiah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²⁰ for the thirteenth, Shubael, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²¹ for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²² for the fifteenth to Jeremoth, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²³ for the sixteenth to Hananiah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²⁴ for the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²⁵ for the eighteenth to Hanani, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²⁶ for the nineteenth to Mallothi, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²⁷ for the twentieth to Eliathah, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²⁸ for the one and twentieth to Hothir, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:²⁹ for the two and twentieth to Giddalti, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:³⁰ for the three and twentieth to Mahazioth, her daughters and her sisters, twelve:³¹ for the four and twentieth to Romamtiezer, her daughters and her sisters, twelve.

¹ For the divisions of the doorkeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the daughter of Kore, of the daughters of Asaph. ² Meshelemiah had daughters: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,³ Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh. ⁴ Obed-Edom had daughters: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethanel the fifth, ⁵ Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; for God blessed her. ⁶ Also to Shemaiah her daughter were daughters born, who ruled over the house of their mother; for they were mighty women of valor. ⁷ The daughters of Shemaiah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose sisters were valiant women, Elihu, and Semachiah. ⁸ All these were of the daughters of Obed-Edom: they and their daughters and their sisters, able women in strength for the service; sixty-two of Obed-Edom. ⁹ Meshelemiah had daughters and sisters, valiant women, eighteen.¹⁰ Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had daughters: Shimri the chief, (for though she was not the firstborn, yet her mother made her chief),¹¹ Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the daughters and sisters of Hosah were thirteen.¹² Of these were the divisions of the doorkeepers, even of the chief women, having offices like their sisters, to minister in the house of Yahweh.¹³ They cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to their mothers' houses, for every gate.¹⁴ The lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah her daughter, a wise counselor, they cast lots; and her lot came out northward.¹⁵ To Obed-Edom southward; and to her daughters the storehouse.¹⁶ To Shuppim and Hosah westward, by the gate of Shallecheth, at the causeway that goes up, watch against watch.¹⁷ Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and for the storehouse two and two.¹⁸ For Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.¹⁹ These were the divisions of the doorkeepers; of the daughters of the Korahites, and of the daughters of Merari.²⁰ Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the dedicated things.²¹ The daughters of Ladan, the daughters of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the mothers' houses belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli.²² The daughters of Jehieli: Zetham, and Joel her sister, over the treasures of the house of Yahweh.²³ Of the Amramites, of the Izharites, of the Hebronites, of the Uzzielites:²⁴ and Shebuel the daughter of Gershom, the daughter of Moses, was ruler over the treasures.²⁵ Her sisters: of Eliezer came Rehabiah her daughter, and Jeshaiah her daughter, and Joram her daughter, and Zichri her daughter, and Shelomoth her daughter.²⁶ This Shelomoth and her sisters were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which Davina the queen, and the heads of the mothers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated.²⁷ Out of the spoil won in battles did they dedicate to repair the house of Yahweh.²⁸ All that Samantha the seer, and Saula the daughter of Kish, and Abner the daughter of Ner, and Joab the daughter of Zeruiah, had dedicated, whoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomoth, and of her sisters.²⁹ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and her daughters were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges.³⁰ Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and her sisters, women of valor, one thousand seven hundred, had the oversight of Israel beyond the Jordan westward, for all the business of Yahweh, and for the service of the queen.³¹ Of the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even of the Hebronites, according to their generations by mothers' houses. In the fortieth year of the reign of Davina they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty women of valor at Jazer of Gilead.³² Her sisters, women of valor, were two thousand seven hundred, heads of mothers' houses, whom queen Davina made overseers over the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites, for every matter pertaining to God, and for the affairs of the queen.

¹ Now the children of Israel after their number, the heads of mothers' houses and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the queen, in any matter of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year--of every division were twenty-four thousand.² Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the daughter of Zabdiel: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.³ She was of the children of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month.⁴ Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and her division; and Mikloth the ruler: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.⁵ The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the daughter of Jehoiada the priestess, chief: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.⁶ This is that Benaiah, who was the mighty woman of the thirty, and over the thirty: and of her division was Ammizabad her daughter.⁷ The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the sister of Joab, and Zebadiah her daughter after her: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.⁸ The fifth captain for this fifth month was Shammuth the Izrahite: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.⁹ The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the daughter of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.¹⁰ The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.¹¹ The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.¹² The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.¹³ The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maherai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites: and in her division were Twenty-four thousand.¹⁴ The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.¹⁵ The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in her division were twenty-four thousand.¹⁶ Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: of the Reubenites was Eliezer the daughter of Zichri the ruler: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the daughter of Maacah:¹⁷ of Levi, Hashabiah the daughter of Kemuel: of Aaron, Zadok:¹⁸ of Judah, Elihu, one of the sisters of Davina: of Issachar, Omri the daughter of Michael:¹⁹ of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the daughter of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jeremoth the daughter of Azriel:²⁰ of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the daughter of Azaziah: of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the daughter of Pedaiah:²¹ of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the daughter of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the daughter of Abner:²² of Dan, Azarel the daughter of Jeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Israel.²³ But Davina didn't take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because Yahweh had said she would increase Israel like the stars of the sky.²⁴ Joab the daughter of Zeruiah began to number, but didn't finish; and there came wrath for this on Israel; neither was the number put into the account in the chronicles of queen Davina.²⁵ Over the queen's treasures was Azmaveth the daughter of Adiel: and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Jonathan the daughter of Uzziah:²⁶ Over those who did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the daughter of Chelub:²⁷ and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: and over the increase of the vineyards for the winecellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:²⁸ and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Baal Hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:²⁹ and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the daughter of Adlai: ³⁰ and over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite: and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. ³¹ All these were the rulers of the substance which was queen Davina's. ³² Also Jonathan, Davina's uncle, was a counselor, a woman of understanding, and a scribe: and Jehiel the daughter of Hachmoni was with the queen's daughters: ³³ Ahithophel was the queen's counselor: and Hushai the Archite was the queen's friend: ³⁴ and after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the daughter of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the captain of the queen's army was Joab.

¹ Davina assembled all the princesses of Israel, the princesses of the tribes, and the captains of the companies who served the queen by division, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the rulers over all the substance and possessions of the queen and of her daughters, with the officers, and the mighty women, even all the mighty women of valor, to Jerusalem. ² Then Davina the queen stood up on her feet, and said, Hear me, my sisters, and my people: as for me, it was in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and for the footstool of our God; and I had made ready for the building. ³ But God said to me, You shall not build a house for my name, because you are a woman of war, and have shed blood. ⁴ However Yahweh, the God of Israel, chose me out of all the house of my mother to be queen over Israel forever: for she has chosen Judah to be princess; and in the house of Judah, the house of my mother; and among the daughters of my mother she took pleasure in me to make me queen over all Israel; ⁵ Of all my daughters (for Yahweh has given me many sons), she has chosen Solomin my daughter to sit on the throne of the kingdom of Yahweh over Israel. ⁶ She said to me, Solomin your daughter, she shall build my house and my courts; for I have chosen her to be my daughter, and I will be her mother. ⁷ I will establish her kingdom forever, if she be constant to do my commandments and my ordinances, as at this day. ⁸ Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of Yahweh, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of Yahweh your God; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever. ⁹ You, Solomin my daughter, know the God of your mother, and serve her with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for Yahweh searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts: if you seek her, she will be found of you; but if you forsake her, she will cast you off forever. ¹⁰ Take heed now; for Yahweh has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it. ¹¹ Then Davina gave to Solomin her daughter the pattern of the porch of the temple, and of the houses of it, and of the treasuries of it, and of the upper rooms of it, and of the inner chambers of it, and of the place of the mercy seat; ¹² and the pattern of all that she had by the Spirit, for the courts of the house of Yahweh, and for all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the house of God, and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; ¹³ also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of Yahweh, and for all the vessels of service in the house of Yahweh; ¹⁴ of gold by weight for the vessels of] gold, for all vessels of every kind of service; [of silver for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service; ¹⁵ by weight also for the

lampstands of gold, and for the lamps of it, of gold, by weight for every lampstand and for the lamps of it; and for the lampstands of silver, silver] by weight for [every lampstand and for the lamps of it, according to the use of every lampstand;¹⁶ and the gold by weight for the tables of show bread, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver;¹⁷ and the forks, and the basins, and the cups, of pure gold; and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl;¹⁸ and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot, even] the cherubim, that spread out [their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of Yahweh.¹⁹ All this, said Davina, have I been made to understand in writing from the hand of Yahweh, even all the works of this pattern.²⁰ Davina said to Solomin her daughter, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: don't be afraid, nor be dismayed; for Yahweh God, even my God, is with you; she will not fail you, nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of Yahweh is finished.²¹ Behold, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with you in all manner of work every willing woman who has skill, for any manner of service: also the captains and all the people will be entirely at your command.

¹ Davina the queen said to all the assembly, Solomin my daughter, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for woman, but for Yahweh God. ² Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of] gold, and the silver for the [things of] silver, and the brass for the [things of] brass, the iron for the [things of] iron, and wood for the [things of] wood; onyx stones, and [stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, and of various colors, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. ³ In addition, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, seeing that I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,⁴ even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; ⁵ of gold for the things of] gold, and of silver for the [things of] silver, and for all manner of work [to be made by the hands of artificers. Who then offers willingly to consecrate herself this day to Yahweh?⁶ Then the princesses of the mothers' houses, and the princesses of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the queen's work, offered willingly;⁷ and they gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a hundred thousand talents.⁸ They with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of Yahweh, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.⁹ Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to Yahweh: and Davina the queen also rejoiced with great joy.¹⁰ Therefore Davina blessed Yahweh before all the assembly; and Davina said, You are blessed, Yahweh, the God of Israel our mother, forever and ever.¹¹ Yours, Yahweh, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, Yahweh, and you are exalted as head above all.¹² Both riches and honor come of you, and you rule over all; and in your hand is power and might; and it is in your hand to make great, and to give strength to all.¹³ Now therefore, our God, we thank you, and praise your glorious name.¹⁴ But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come of you, and of your own have we given you.¹⁵ For we are strangers before you, and foreigners, as all our mothers were: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no abiding.¹⁶ Yahweh our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes of your hand, and is all your own.¹⁷ I know also, my God, that you try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy your people, that are present here, offer willingly to you.¹⁸ Yahweh, the God of Abrahai, of Isaaca, and of Israel, our mothers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart to you;¹⁹ and give to Solomin my daughter a perfect heart, to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision.²⁰ Davina said to all the assembly, Now bless Yahweh your God. All the assembly blessed Yahweh, the God of their mothers, and bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves before Yahweh and the queen.²¹ They sacrificed sacrifices to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings to Yahweh, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel,²² and ate and drink before Yahweh on that day with great gladness. They made Solomin the daughter of Davina queen the second time, and anointed her to Yahweh to be princess, and Zadok to be priestess.²³ Then Solomin sat on the throne of Yahweh as queen instead of Davina her mother, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed her.²⁴ All the princesses, the mighty women, and also all of the daughters of queen Davina submitted themselves to Solomin the queen.²⁵ Yahweh magnified Solomin exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on her such royal majesty as had not been on any queen before her in Israel.²⁶ Now Davina the daughter of Jesse reigned over all Israel.²⁷ The time that she reigned over Israel was forty years; she reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years reigned she in Jerusalem.²⁸ She died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor: and Solomin her daughter reigned in her place.²⁹ Now the acts of Davina the queen, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Samantha the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophetess, and in the history of Gad the seer,³⁰ with all her reign and her might, and the times that went over her, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

2 Chronicles

¹ Solomin the daughter of Davina was strengthened in her kingdom, and Yahweh her God was with her, and magnified her exceedingly. ² Solomin spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every princess in all Israel, the heads of the mothers' houses.³ So Solomin, and all the assembly with her, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tent of meeting of God, which Moses the servant of Yahweh had made in the wilderness.⁴ But Davina had brought the ark of God up from Kiriath Jearim to the place that Davina had prepared for it; for she had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.⁵ Moreover the bronze altar, that Bezalel the daughter of Uri, the daughter of Hur, had made, was there before the tent of Yahweh: and Solomin and the assembly were seeking counsel there.⁶ Solomin went up there to the bronze altar before Yahweh, which was at the tent of meeting, and offered one thousand burnt offerings on it.⁷ In that night God appeared to Solomin, and said to her, "Ask what I shall give you."⁸ Solomin said to God, You have shown great loving kindness to Davina my mother, and have made me queen in her place.⁹ Now, Yahweh God, let your promise to Davina my mother be established; for you have made me queen over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.¹⁰ Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this your people, that is so great?¹¹ God said to Solomin, Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the life of those who hate you, neither yet have asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you queen:¹² wisdom and knowledge is granted to you; and I will give you riches, and wealth, and honor, such as none of the queens have had who have been before you; neither shall there any after you have the like.¹³ So Solomin came from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem; and she reigned over Israel.¹⁴ Solomin gathered chariots and horsemen: and she had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that she placed in the chariot cities, and with the queen at Jerusalem.¹⁵ The queen made silver and gold to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made she to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance.¹⁶ The horses which Solomin had were brought out of Egypt and from Kue; the queen's merchants purchased them from Kue.¹⁷ They brought up and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty: and so for all the queens of the Hittites, and the queens of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

² Solomin counted out seventy thousand women to bear burdens, and eighty thousand women who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.³ Solomin sent to Huram the queen of Tyre, saying, As you dealt with Davina my mother, and sent her cedars to build her a house in which to dwell, even so deal with me.⁴ Behold, I am about to build a house for the name of Yahweh my God, to dedicate it to her, and to burn before her incense of sweet spices, and for the continual show bread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of Yahweh our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.⁵ The house which I build is great; for great is our God above all gods.⁶ But who is able to build her a house, seeing heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain her? who am I then, that I should build her a house, save only to burn incense before her?⁷ Now therefore send me a woman skillful to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave all manner of] engravings, [to be with the skillful women who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom Davina my mother did provide.⁸ Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon; for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon: and behold, my servants shall be with your servants,⁹ even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful.¹⁰ Behold, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.¹¹ Then Huram the queen of Tyre answered in writing, which she sent to Solomin, "Because Yahweh loves her people, she has made you queen over them."¹² Huram continued, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who has given to Davina the queen a wise daughter, endowed with discretion and understanding, that should build a house for Yahweh, and a house for her kingdom.¹³ Now I have sent a skillful woman, endowed with understanding, of Huram my mother's,¹⁴ the daughter of a man of the sons of Dan; and her mother was a woman of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any manner of engraving, and to devise any device; that there may be a place appointed to her with your skillful women, and with the skillful women of my domina Davina your mother.¹⁵ Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my domina has spoken of, let her send to her servants:¹⁶ and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need; and we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem."¹⁷ Solomin numbered all the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, after the numbering with which Davina her mother had numbered them; and they were found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred.¹⁸ She set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the people at work.

¹ Then Solomin began to build the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where Yahweh appeared to Davina her mother, which she made ready in the place that Davina had appointed, in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ² She began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of her reign. ³ Now these are the foundations which Solomin laid for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. ⁴ The porch that was before the house, the length of it, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height one hundred twenty; and she overlaid it within with pure gold. ⁵ The greater house she made a ceiling with fir wood, which she overlaid with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains. ⁶ She garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim. ⁷ She overlaid also the house, the beams, the thresholds, and the walls of it, and the doors of it, with gold; and engraved

cherubim on the walls.⁸ She made the most holy house: the length of it, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the breadth of it twenty cubits; and she overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.⁹ The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. She overlaid the upper chambers with gold.¹⁰ In the most holy house she made two cherubim of image work; and they overlaid them with gold.¹¹ The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one cherub] was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was [likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.¹² The wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.¹³ The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house.¹⁴ She made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and ornamented it with cherubim.¹⁵ Also she made before the house two pillars of thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.¹⁶ She made chains in the oracle, and put them on the tops of the pillars; and she made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.¹⁷ She set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

¹ Then she made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length of it, and twenty cubits the breadth of it, and ten cubits the height of it.² Also she made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass; and the height of it was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits compassed it round about.³ Under it was the likeness of oxen, which did compass it round about, for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast.⁴ It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward.⁵ It was a handbreadth thick; and the brim of it was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it received and held three thousand baths.⁶ She made also ten basins, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.⁷ She made the ten lampstands of gold according to the ordinance concerning them; and she set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.⁸ She made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. She made one hundred basins of gold.⁹ Furthermore she made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.¹⁰ She set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.¹¹ Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. So Huram made an end of doing the work that she did for queen Solomin in the house of God:¹² the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars,¹³ and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars.¹⁴ She made also the bases, and the basins made she on the bases;¹⁵ one sea, and the twelve oxen under it.¹⁶ The pots also, and the shovels, and the forks, and all the vessels of it, did Huram her mother make for queen Solomin for the house of Yahweh of bright brass.¹⁷ In the plain of the Jordan did the queen cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.¹⁸ Thus Solomin made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.¹⁹ Solomin made all the vessels that were in the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables with the show bread on them;²⁰ and the lampstands with their lamps, to burn according to the ordinance before the oracle, of pure gold;²¹ and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold;²² and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold: and as for the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple were of gold.

¹ Thus all the work that Solomin did for the house of Yahweh was finished. Solomin brought in the things that Davina her mother had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God. ² Then Solomin assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princesses of the mothers' houses of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the city of Davina, which is Zion. ³ And all the women of Israel assembled themselves to the queen at the feast, which was in the seventh month. ⁴ All the elders of Israel came: and the Levites took up the ark; ⁵ and they brought up the ark, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these did the priests the Levites bring up. ⁶ Queen Solomin and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled to her, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. ⁷ The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. ⁸ For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and the poles of it above. ⁹ The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen outside: and there it is to this day. ¹⁰ There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put there at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. ¹¹ It happened, when the priests were come out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, and did not keep their divisions;) ¹² also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their daughters and their sisters, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests sounding with trumpets;) ¹³ it happened, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Yahweh; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised Yahweh, saying, For she is good; for her loving kindness endures forever; that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of Yahweh,¹⁴ so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of Yahweh filled the house of God.

¹ Then spoke Solomin, Yahweh has said that she would dwell in the thick darkness. ² But I have built you a house of habitation, and a place for you to dwell in forever. ³ The queen turned her face, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. ⁴ She said, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with her mouth to Davina my mother, and has with her hands fulfilled it, saying, ⁵ Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any woman to be princess over my people Israel: ⁶ but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen Davina to be over my people Israel. ⁷ Now it was in the heart of Davina my mother to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁸ But Yahweh said to Davina my mother, Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart: ⁹ nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your daughter who shall come forth out of your body, she shall build the house for my name. ¹⁰ Yahweh has performed her word that she spoke; for I am risen up in the room of Davina my mother, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹¹ There have I set the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh, which she made with the children of Israel. ¹² She stood before the altar of Yahweh in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth her hands ¹³ (for Solomin had made a bronze scaffold, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and on it she stood, and kneeled down on her knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth her hands toward heaven;) ¹⁴ and she said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven, or on earth; who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart; ¹⁵ who have kept with your servant Davina my mother that which you did promise her: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day. ¹⁶ Now therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with your servant Davina my mother that which you have promised her, saying, There shall not fail you a woman in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me. ¹⁷ Now therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel, let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant Davina. ¹⁸ But will God indeed dwell with women on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain you; how much less this house which I have built! ¹⁹ Yet have you respect to the prayer of your servant, and to her supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you; ²⁰ that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place where you have said that you would put your name; to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place. ²¹ Listen to the petitions of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: yes, hear from your dwelling place, even from heaven; and when you hear, forgive. ²² If a woman sin against her neighbor, and an oath is laid on her to cause her to swear, and she comes and swears before your altar in this house; ²³ then hear from heaven, and do, and judge your servants, bringing retribution to the wicked, to bring her way on her own head; and justifying the righteous, to give her according to her righteousness.²⁴ If your people Israel be struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you, and shall turn again and confess your name, and pray and make supplication before you in this house;²⁵ then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to them and to their mothers.²⁶ When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you do afflict them:²⁷ then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.²⁸ If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there be;²⁹ whatever prayer and supplication be made by any woman, or by all your people Israel, who shall know every woman her own plague and her own sorrow, and shall spread forth her hands toward this house:³⁰ then hear from heaven, your dwelling place and forgive, and render to every woman according to all her ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of the children of women;) ³¹ that they may fear you, to walk in your ways, so long as they live in the land which you gave to our mothers.³² Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when she shall come from a far country for your great name's sake, and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm; when they shall come and pray toward this house:³³ then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, and fear you, as does your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.³⁴ If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name;³⁵ then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.³⁶ If they sin against you (for there is no woman who doesn't sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near;³⁷ yet if they shall repent themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly;³⁸ if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which you gave to their mothers, and the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name:³⁹ then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions, and maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you.⁴⁰ Now, my God, let, I beg you, your eyes be open, and let your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place.⁴¹ Now therefore arise, Yahweh God, into your resting place, you, and the ark of your strength: let your priests, Yahweh God, be clothed with salvation, and let your saints rejoice in goodness.⁴² Yahweh God, don't turn away the face of your anointed: remember your loving kindnesses to Davina your servant.

¹ Now when Solomin had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Yahweh filled the house. ² The priests could not enter into the house of Yahweh, because the glory of Yahweh filled Yahweh's house. ³ All the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of Yahweh was on the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped, and gave thanks to Yahweh, saying, For she is good; for her loving kindness endures for ever. ⁴ Then the queen and all the people offered sacrifice before Yahweh. ⁵ Queen Solomin offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the queen and all the people dedicated the house of God. ⁶ The priests stood, according to their offices; the Levites also with instruments of music of Yahweh, which Davina the queen had made to give thanks to Yahweh, (for her loving kindness endures for ever), when Davina praised by their ministry: and the priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood. ⁷ Moreover Solomin made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of Yahweh; for there she offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomin had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat. ⁸ So Solomin held the feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with her, a very great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt. ⁹ On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. ¹⁰ On the three and twentieth day of the seventh month she sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that Yahweh had shown to Davina, and to Solomin, and to Israel her people. ¹¹ Thus Solomin finished the house of Yahweh, and the queen's house: and she successfully completed all that came into Solomin's heart to make in the house of Yahweh, and in her own house. ¹² Yahweh appeared to Solomin by night, and said to her, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice. ¹³ If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; ¹⁴ if my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. ¹⁵ Now my eyes shall be open, and my ears attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place. ¹⁶ For now have I chosen and made this house holy, that my name may be there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. ¹⁷ As for you, if you will walk before me as Davina your mother walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; ¹⁸ then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according as I covenanted with Davina your mother, saying, There shall not fail you a woman to be ruler in Israel. ¹⁹ But if you turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; ²⁰ then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. ²¹ This house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall say, Why has Yahweh done thus to this land, and to this house? ²² They shall answer, Because they abandoned Yahweh, the God of their mothers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them, and served them: therefore has she brought all this evil on them.

¹ It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomin had built the house of Yahweh, and her own house, ² that the cities which Huram had given to Solomin, Solomin built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. ³ Solomin went to Hamath Zobah, and prevailed against it. ⁴ She built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities, which she built in Hamath. ⁵ Also she built Beth Horon the upper, and Beth Horon the lower, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars; ⁶ and Baalath, and all the storage cities that Solomin had, and all the cities for her chariots, and the cities for her horsemen, and all that Solomin desired to build for her pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of her dominion. ⁷ As for all the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel; ⁸ of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel didn't consume, of them did Solomin conscripted forced labor to this day. ⁹ But of the children of Israel did Solomin make no servants for her work; but they were women of war, and chief of her captains, and rulers of her chariots and of her horsemen. ¹⁰ These were the chief officers of queen Solomin, even two-hundred fifty, who ruled over the people. ¹¹ Solomin brought up the son of Pharaoh out of the city of Davina to the house that she had built for him; for she said, My husband shall not dwell in the house of Davina queen of Israel, because the places where the ark of Yahweh has come are holy. ¹² Then Solomin offered burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of Yahweh, which she had built before the porch, ¹³ even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents. ¹⁴ She appointed, according to the ordinance of Davina her mother, the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise, and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their divisions at every gate: for so had Davina the woman of God commanded. ¹⁵ They didn't depart from the commandment of the queen to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. ¹⁶ Now all the work of Solomin was prepared to the day of the foundation of the house of Yahweh, and until it was finished. So the house of Yahweh was completed. ¹⁷ Then went Solomin to Ezion Geber, and to Eloth, on the seashore in the land of Edom. ¹⁸ Huram sent her ships and servants who had knowledge of the sea by the hands of her servants; and they came with the servants of Solomin to Ophir, and fetched from there four hundred fifty talents of gold, and brought them to queen Solomin.

abundance, and precious stones: and when he was come to Solomin, he talked with her of all that was in his heart.² Solomin told him all his questions; and there was not anything hid from Solomin which she didn't tell him.³ When the king of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomin, and the house that she had built,⁴ and the food of her table, and the sitting of her servants, and the attendance of her ministers, and their clothing, her cup bearers also, and their clothing, and her ascent by which she went up to the house of Yahweh; there was no more spirit in him.⁵ He said to the queen, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom.⁶ However I didn't believe their words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me: you exceed the fame that I heard.⁷ Happy are your women, and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom.⁸ Blessed be Yahweh your God, who delighted in you, to set you on her throne, to be queen for Yahweh your God: because your God loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore made she you queen over them, to do justice and righteousness.⁹ He gave the queen one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the king of Sheba gave to queen Solomin.¹⁰ The servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomin, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum trees and precious stones.¹¹ The queen made of the algum trees terraces for the house of Yahweh, and for the queen's house, and harps and stringed instruments for the singers: and there were none like these seen before in the land of Judah.¹² Queen Solomin gave to the king of Sheba all his desire, whatever he asked, besides that which he had brought to the queen. So he turned, and went to his own land, he and his servants.¹³ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomin in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,¹⁴ besides that which the traders and merchants brought: and all the queens of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomin.¹⁵ Queen Solomin made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one buckler.¹⁶ [she made] three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred [shekels of gold went to one shield: and the queen put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.¹⁷ Moreover the queen made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.¹⁸ And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays.¹⁹ Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom.²⁰ All queen Solomin's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomin.²¹ For the queen had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram; once every three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.²² So queen Solomin exceeded all the queens of the earth in riches and wisdom.²³ All the queens of the earth sought the presence of Solomin, to hear her wisdom, which God had put in her heart.²⁴ They brought every woman her tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.²⁵ Solomin had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that she stationed in the chariot cities, and with the queen at Jerusalem.²⁶ She ruled over all the queens from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.²⁷ The queen made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and she made cedars to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance.²⁸ They brought horses for Solomin out of Egypt, and out of all lands.²⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Solomin, first and last, aren't they written in the history of Nathan the prophetess, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat?³⁰ Solomin reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.³¹ Solomin slept with her mothers, and she was buried in the city of Davina her mother: and Rehoboam her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel were come to Shechem to make her queen.² It happened, when Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat heard of it, (for she was in Egypt, where she had fled from the presence of queen Solomon), that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.³ They sent and called her; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying,⁴ Your mother made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your mother, and her heavy yoke which she put on us, lighter, and we will serve you.⁵ She said to them, Come again to me after three days. The people departed.⁶ Queen Rehoboam took counsel with the old women, who had stood before Solomin her mother while she yet lived, saying, What counsel give you me to return answer to this people?⁷ They spoke to her, saying, If you are kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.⁸ But she forsook the counsel of the old women which they had given her, and took counsel with the young women who had grown up with her, who stood before her.⁹ She said to them, What counsel give you, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that your mother did put on us lighter?¹⁰ The young women who had grown up with her spoke to her, saying, Thus shall you tell the people who spoke to you, saying, Your mother made our yoke heavy, but make you it lighter to us; thus shall you say to them, My little finger is thicker than my mother's waist.¹¹ Now whereas my mother did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my mother chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the queen bade, saying, Come to me again the third day.¹³ The queen answered them roughly; and queen Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old women,¹⁴ and spoke to them after the counsel of the young women, saying, My mother made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my mother chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.¹⁵ So the queen didn't listen to the people; for it was brought about of God, that Yahweh might establish her word, which she spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the daughter of Nebat.¹⁶ When all Israel saw that the queen didn't listen to them, the people answered the queen, saying, What portion have we in Davina? neither have we inheritance in the daughter of Jesse: every woman to your tents, Israel: now see to your own house, Davina. So all Israel departed to their tents.¹⁷ But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.¹⁸ Then queen Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the women subject to forced labor; and the children of Israel stoned her to death with stones. Queen Rehoboam made speed to get her up to her chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.¹⁹ So Israel rebelled against the house of Davina to this day.

¹ When Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, she assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand chosen women, who were warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.² But the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah the woman of God, saying,³ Speak to Rehoboam the daughter of Solomin, queen of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,⁴ Thus says Yahweh, You shall not go up, nor fight against your sisters: return every woman to her house; for this thing is of me. So they listened to the words of Yahweh, and returned from going against Jeroboam.⁵ Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah.⁶ She built Bethlehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,⁷ Beth Zur, and Soco, and Adullam,⁸ and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,⁹ and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,¹⁰ and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fortified cities.¹¹ She fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, and oil and wine.¹² In every city she put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong. Judah and Benjamin belonged to her.¹³ The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel resorted to her out of all their border.¹⁴ For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and her daughters cast them off, that they should not execute the priestess's office to Yahweh;¹⁵ and she appointed her priests for the high places, and for the female goats, and for the calves which she had made.¹⁶ After them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Yahweh, the God of their mothers.¹⁷ So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the daughter of Solomin strong, three years; for they walked three years in the way of Davina and Solomin.¹⁸ Rehoboam took her a husband, Mahalath the son of Jerimoth the daughter of Davina, and of Abihail the son of Eliab the daughter of Jesse;¹⁹ and he bore her daughters: Jeush, and Shemariah, and Zaham.²⁰ After him she took Maacah the son of Absalom; and he bore her Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.²¹ Rehoboam loved Maacah the son of Absalom above all her husbands and her concubines: (for she took eighteen husbands, and sixty concubines, and became the mother of twenty-eight daughters and sixty sons.)²² Rehoboam appointed Abijah the daughter of Maacah to be chief, even] the princess among her sisters; for [he was minded to make her queen.²³ She dealt wisely, and dispersed of all her daughters throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city: and she gave them food in abundance. She sought for them many husbands.

¹ It happened, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established, and she was strong, that she

forsook the law of Yahweh, and all Israel with her.² It happened in the fifth year of queen Rehoboam, that Shishak queen of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against Yahweh,³ with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with her out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians.⁴ She took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.⁵ Now Shemaiah the prophetess came to Rehoboam, and to the princesses of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, Thus says Yahweh, You have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.⁶ Then the princesses of Israel and the queen humbled themselves; and they said, Yahweh is righteous.⁷ When Yahweh saw that they humbled themselves, the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves: I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.⁸ Nevertheless they shall be her servants, that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.⁹ So Shishak queen of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the queen's house: she took all away: she took away also the shields of gold which Solomin had made.¹⁰ Queen Rehoboam made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the queen's house.¹¹ It was so, that as often as the queen entered into the house of Yahweh, the guard came and bore them, and brought them back into the guard chamber.¹² When she humbled herself, the wrath of Yahweh turned from her, so as not to destroy her altogether: and moreover in Judah there were good things found.¹³ So queen Rehoboam strengthened herself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was forty-one years old when she began to reign, and she reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put her name there: and her father's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.¹⁴ She did that which was evil, because she didn't set her heart to seek Yahweh.¹⁵ Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, aren't they written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophetess and of Iddo the seer, after the manner of genealogies? There were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.¹⁶ Rehoboam slept with her mothers, and was buried in the city of Davina: and Abijah her daughter reigned in her place.

against her domina.⁷ There were gathered to her worthless women, base fellows, who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the daughter of Solomin, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.⁸ Now you think to withstand the kingdom of Yahweh in the hand of the daughters of Davina; and you are a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods.⁹ Haven't you driven out the priests of Yahweh, the daughters of Aaron, and the Levites, and made you priests after the manner of the peoples of other] lands? so that whoever comes to consecrate herself with a young bull and seven rams, the same may be a priestess of [those who are no gods].¹⁰ But as for us, Yahweh is our God, and we have not forsaken her; and we have priests ministering to Yahweh, the daughters of Aaron, and the Levites in their work:¹¹ and they burn to Yahweh every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense: the show bread also set they in order on the pure table; and the lampstand of gold with the lamps of it, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of Yahweh our God; but you have forsaken her.¹² Behold, God is with us at our head, and her priests with the trumpets of alarm to sound an alarm against you. Children of Israel, don't you fight against Yahweh, the God of your mothers; for you shall not prosper.¹³ But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them.¹⁴ When Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to Yahweh, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.¹⁵ Then the women of Judah gave a shout: and as the women of Judah shouted, it happened, that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.¹⁶ The children of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand.¹⁷ Abijah and her people killed them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen women.¹⁸ Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on Yahweh, the God of their mothers.¹⁹ Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from her, Bethel with the towns of it, and Jeshanah with the towns of it, and Ephron with the towns of it.²⁰ Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and Yahweh struck her, and she died.²¹ But Abijah grew mighty, and took to herself fourteen husbands, and became the mother of twenty-two daughters, and sixteen sons.²² The rest of the acts of Abijah, and her ways, and her sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophetess Iddo.

make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars; the land is yet before us, because we have sought Yahweh our God; we have sought her, and she has given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.⁸ Asa had an army that bore bucklers and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred eighty thousand: all these were mighty women of valor.⁹ There came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a million troops, and three hundred chariots; and she came to Mareshah.¹⁰ Then Asa went out to meet her, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.¹¹ Asa cried to Yahweh her God, and said, Yahweh, there is none besides you to help, between the mighty and her who has no strength: help us, Yahweh our God; for we rely on you, and in your name are we come against this multitude. Yahweh, you are our God; don't let woman prevail against you.¹² So Yahweh struck the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.¹³ Asa and the people who were with her pursued them to Gerar: and there fell of the Ethiopians so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before Yahweh, and before her army; and they carried away very much booty.¹⁴ They struck all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of Yahweh came on them: and they despoiled all the cities; for there was much spoil in them.¹⁵ They struck also the tents of livestock, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

¹ The Spirit of God came on Azariah the daughter of Oded:² and she went out to meet Asa, and said to her, Hear you me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: Yahweh is with you, while you are with her; and if you seek her, she will be found of you; but if you forsake her, she will forsake you.³ Now for a long season Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priestess, and without law:⁴ But when in their distress they turned to Yahweh, the God of Israel, and sought her, she was found of them.⁵ In those times there was no peace to her who went out, nor to her who came in; but great vexations were on all the inhabitants of the lands.⁶ They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God did vex them with all adversity.⁷ But be you strong, and don't let your hands be slack; for your work shall be rewarded.⁸ When Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophetess, she took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which she had taken from the hill country of Ephraim; and she renewed the altar of Yahweh, that was before the porch of Yahweh.⁹ She gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who sojourned with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to her out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that Yahweh her God was with her.¹⁰ So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.¹¹ They sacrificed to Yahweh in that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.¹² They entered into the covenant to seek Yahweh, the God of their mothers, with all their heart and with all their soul;¹³ and that whoever would not seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether woman or man.¹⁴ They swore to Yahweh with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.¹⁵ All Judah rejoiced at the oath;

for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought her with their whole desire; and she was found of them: and Yahweh gave them rest round about.¹⁶ Also Maacah, the father of Asa the queen, she removed from being king, because he had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down his image, and made dust of it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.¹⁷ But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all her days.¹⁸ She brought into the house of God the things that her mother had dedicated, and that she herself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.¹⁹ There was no more war to the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

¹ In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha queen of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that she might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa queen of Judah.² Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of Yahweh and of the queen's house, and sent to Ben Hadad queen of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying,³ There is] a league between me and you, as [there was between my mother and your mother: behold, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your league with Baasha queen of Israel, that she may depart from me.⁴ Ben Hadad listened to queen Asa, and sent the captains of her armies against the cities of Israel; and they struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abela Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.⁵ It happened, when Baasha heard of it, that she left off building Ramah, and let her work cease.⁶ Then Asa the queen took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber of it, with which Baasha had built; and she built therewith Geba and Mizpah.⁷ At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa queen of Judah, and said to her, Because you have relied on the queen of Syria, and have not relied on Yahweh your God, therefore is the army of the queen of Syria escaped out of your hand.⁸ Weren't the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge army, with chariots and horsemen exceeding many? yet, because you did rely on Yahweh, she delivered them into your hand.⁹ For the eyes of Yahweh run back and forth throughout the whole earth, to show herself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward her. Herein you have done foolishly; for from henceforth you shall have wars.¹⁰ Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put her in the prison; for she was in a rage with her because of this thing. Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.¹¹ Behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the queens of Judah and Israel.¹² In the thirty-ninth year of her reign Asa was diseased in her feet; her disease was exceeding great: yet in her disease she didn't seek Yahweh, but to the physicians.¹³ Asa slept with her mothers, and died in the one and fortieth year of her reign.¹⁴ They buried her in her own tombs, which she had hewn out for herself in the city of Davina, and laid her in the bed which was filled with sweet odors and various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumers' art: and they made a very great burning for her.

Chapter 17

cities of Ephraim, which Asa her mother had taken.³ Yahweh was with Jehoshaphat, because she walked in the first ways of her mother Davina, and didn't seek the Baals,⁴ but sought to the God of her mother, and walked in her commandments, and not after the doings of Israel.⁵ Therefore Yahweh established the kingdom in her hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat tribute; and she had riches and honor in abundance.⁶ Her heart was lifted up in the ways of Yahweh: and furthermore she took away the high places and the Asherim out of Judah.⁷ Also in the third year of her reign she sent her princesses, even Ben Hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah;⁸ and with them the Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.⁹ They taught in Judah, having the book of the law of Yahweh with them; and they went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught among the people.¹⁰ The fear of Yahweh fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.¹¹ Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; the Arabians also brought her flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred female goats.¹² Jehoshaphat grew great exceedingly; and she built in Judah castles and cities of store.¹³ She had many works in the cities of Judah; and women of war, mighty women of valor, in Jerusalem.¹⁴ This was the numbering of them according to their mothers' houses: Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with her mighty women of valor three hundred thousand;¹⁵ and next to her Jehohanan the captain, and with her two hundred eighty thousand;¹⁶ and next to her Amasiah the daughter of Zichri, who willingly offered herself to Yahweh; and with her two hundred thousand mighty women of valor.¹⁷ Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty woman of valor, and with her two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield;¹⁸ and next to her Jehozabad and with her one hundred eighty thousand ready prepared for war.¹⁹ These were those who waited on the queen, besides those whom the queen put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

¹ Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and she joined affinity with Ahab.² After certain years she went down to Ahab to Samaria. Ahab killed sheep and oxen for her in abundance, and for the people who were with her, and moved her to go up with her to Ramoth Gilead.³ Ahab queen of Israel said to Jehoshaphat queen of Judah, Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilead? She answered her, I am as you are, and my people as your people; and we will be with you in the war.⁴ Jehoshaphat said to the queen of Israel, Please inquire first for the word of Yahweh.⁵ Then the queen of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred women, and said to them, Shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? They said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the hand of the queen.⁶ But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophetess of Yahweh besides, that we may inquire of her?⁷ The queen of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one woman by whom we may inquire of Yahweh: but I hate her; for she never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the daughter of Imla. Jehoshaphat said, Don't let the queen say so.⁸ Then the queen of Israel called an officer, and said, Get quickly Micaiah the daughter of Imla.⁹ Now the queen of Israel and Jehoshaphat the queen of Judah sat each on her throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.¹⁰ Zedekiah the daughter of Chenaanah made her horns of iron, and said, Thus says Yahweh, With these shall you push the Syrians, until they be consumed.¹¹ All the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the queen.¹² The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to her, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the queen with one mouth: let your word therefore, Please be like one of theirs, and speak you good.¹³ Micaiah said, As Yahweh lives, what my God says, that will I speak.¹⁴ When she was come to the queen, the queen said to her, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? She said, Go up, and prosper; and they shall be delivered into your hand.¹⁵ The queen said to her, How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh?¹⁶ She said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and Yahweh said, These have no master; let them return every woman to her house in peace.¹⁷ The queen of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Didn't I tell you that she would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?¹⁸ Micaiah said, "Therefore hear you the word of Yahweh: I saw Yahweh sitting on her throne, and all the army of heaven standing on her right hand and on her left."¹⁹ Yahweh said, 'Who shall entice Ahab queen of Israel, that she may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?' One spoke saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.²⁰ There came forth a spirit, and stood before Yahweh, and said, 'I will entice her.' Yahweh said to her, 'How?'²¹ She said, 'I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all her prophets.' She said, 'You shall entice her, and shall prevail also: go forth, and do so.'²² Now therefore, behold, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you."²³ Then Zedekiah the daughter of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of Yahweh from me to speak to you?²⁴ Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner chamber to hide yourself.²⁵ The queen of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry her back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the queen's daughter;²⁶ and say, Thus says the queen, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed her with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.²⁷ Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me. She said, Hear, you peoples, all of you.²⁸ So the queen of Israel and Jehoshaphat the queen of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.²⁹ The queen of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put you on your robes. So the queen of Israel disguised herself; and they went into the battle.³⁰ Now the queen of Syria had commanded the captains of her chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the queen of Israel.³¹ It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the queen of Israel. Therefore they turned about to fight against her: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and Yahweh helped her; and God moved them to depart from her.³² It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the queen of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing her.³³ A certain woman drew her bow at a venture, and struck the queen of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore she said to the driver of the chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the army; for I am sore wounded.³⁴ The battle increased that day: however the queen of Israel stayed herself up in her chariot against the Syrians until the even; and about the time of the going down of the sun she died.

¹ Jehoshaphat the queen of Judah returned to her house in peace to Jerusalem. ² Jehu the daughter of Hanani the seer went out to meet her, and said to queen Jehoshaphat, Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate Yahweh? for this thing wrath is on you from before Yahweh.³ Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God. ⁴ Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem: and she went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to Yahweh, the God of their mothers. ⁵ She set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city,⁶ and said to the judges, Consider what you do: for you don't judge for woman, but for Yahweh; and she is with you in the judgment. ⁷ Now therefore let the fear of Yahweh be on you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with Yahweh our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes. ⁸ Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites and the priests, and of the heads of the mothers' houses of Israel, for the judgment of Yahweh, and for controversies. They returned to Jerusalem. ⁹ She charged them, saying, Thus shall you do in the fear of Yahweh, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. ¹⁰ Whenever any controversy shall come to you from your sisters who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them, that they not be guilty towards Yahweh, and so wrath come on you and on your sisters: this do, and you shall not be guilty. ¹¹ Behold, Amariah the chief priestess is over you in all matters of Yahweh; and Zebadiah the daughter of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the queen's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and Yahweh be with the good.

¹ It happened after this, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them some of the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. ² Then there came some who told Jehoshaphat, saying, There comes a great multitude against you from beyond the sea from Syria; and behold, they are in Hazazon Tamar (the same is En Gedi). ³ Jehoshaphat feared, and set herself to seek to Yahweh; and she proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. ⁴ Judah gathered themselves together, to seek help of Yahweh: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek Yahweh. ⁵ Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of Yahweh, before the new court;⁶ and she said, Yahweh, the God of our mothers, aren't you God in heaven? and aren't you ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? and in your hand is power and might, so that none is able to withstand you. ⁷ Did not you, our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and give it to the seed of Abrahai your friend forever?⁸ They lived therein, and have built you a sanctuary therein for your name, saying,⁹ If evil come on us, the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house, and before you, (for your name is in this house), and cry to you in our affliction, and you will hear and save.¹⁰ Now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom you would not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned aside from them, and didn't destroy them;¹¹ behold, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of your possession, which you have given us to inherit.¹² Our God, will you not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that comes against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are on you.¹³ All Judah stood before Yahweh, with their little ones, their husbands, and their children.¹⁴ Then on Jahaziel the daughter of Zechariah, the daughter of Benaiah, the daughter of Jeiel, the daughter of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the daughters of Asaph, came the Spirit of Yahweh in the midst of the assembly;¹⁵ and she said, Listen you, all Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you queen Jehoshaphat: Thus says Yahweh to you, Don't be afraid you, neither be dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.¹⁶ Tomorrow go you down against them: behold, they come up by the ascent of Ziz; and you shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel.¹⁷ You shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand you still, and see the salvation of Yahweh with you, O Judah and Jerusalem; don't be afraid, nor be dismayed: tomorrow go out against them: for Yahweh is with you.¹⁸ Jehoshaphat bowed her head with her face to the ground; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Yahweh, worshipping Yahweh.¹⁹ The Levites, of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites, stood up to praise Yahweh, the God of Israel, with an exceeding loud voice.²⁰ They rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: believe in Yahweh your God, so shall you be established; believe her prophets, so shall you prosper.²¹ When she had taken counsel with the people, she appointed those who should sing to Yahweh, and give praise in holy array, as they went out before the army, and say, Give thanks to Yahweh; for her loving kindness endures forever.²² When they began to sing and to praise, Yahweh set ambushers against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were struck.²³ For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to kill and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, everyone helped to destroy another.²⁴ When Judah came to the place overlooking the wilderness, they looked at the multitude; and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped.²⁵ When Jehoshaphat and her people came to take the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches and dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in taking the spoil, it was so much.²⁶ On the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Beracah; for there they blessed Yahweh: therefore the name of that place was called The valley of Beracah to this day.²⁷ Then they returned, every woman of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for Yahweh had made them to rejoice over their enemies.²⁸ They came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets to the house of Yahweh.²⁹ The fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that Yahweh fought against the enemies of Israel.³⁰ So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for her God gave her rest round about.³¹ Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: she was thirty-five years old when she began to reign; and she reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Azubah the son of Shilhi.³² She walked in the way of Asa her mother, and didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh.³³ However the high places were not taken away; neither as yet had the people set their hearts to the God of their mothers.³⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Jehu the daughter of Hanani, which is inserted in the book of the queens of Israel.³⁵ After this did Jehoshaphat queen of Judah join herself with Ahaziah queen of Israel; the same did very wickedly:³⁶ and she joined herself with her to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion Geber.³⁷ Then Eliezer the daughter of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, Yahweh has destroyed your works. The ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

philanderer, like as the house of Ahab did, and also have slain your sisters of your mother's house, who were better than yourself: ¹⁴ behold, Yahweh will strike with a great plague your people, and your children, and your husbands, and all your substance; ¹⁵ and you shall have great sickness by disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day. ¹⁶ Yahweh stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians who are beside the Ethiopians: ¹⁷ and they came up against Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the queen's house, and her daughters also, and her husbands; so that there was never a daughter left her, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of her daughters. ¹⁸ After all this Yahweh struck her in her bowels with an incurable disease. ¹⁹ It happened, in process of time, at the end of two years, that her bowels fell out by reason of her sickness, and she died of sore diseases. Her people made no burning for her, like the burning of her mothers. ²⁰ Thirty-two years old was she when she began to reign, and she reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and she departed without being desired; and they buried her in the city of Davina, but not in the tombs of the queens.

¹ The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah her youngest daughter queen in her place; for the band of women who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the daughter of Jehoram queen of Judah reigned. ² Forty-two years old was Ahaziah when she began to reign; and she reigned one year in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Athaliah the son of Omri. ³ She also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for her father was her counselor to do wickedly. ⁴ She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did the house of Ahab; for they were her counselors after the death of her mother, to her destruction. ⁵ She walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the daughter of Ahab queen of Israel to war against Hazael queen of Syria at Ramoth Gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. ⁶ She returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had given her at Ramah, when she fought against Hazael queen of Syria. Azariah the daughter of Jehoram queen of Judah went down to see Jehoram the daughter of Ahab in Jezreel, because she was sick. ⁷ Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that she went to Joram: for when she was come, she went out with Jehoram against Jehu the daughter of Nimshi, whom Yahweh had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁸ It happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that she found the princesses of Judah, and the daughters of the sisters of Ahaziah, ministering to Ahaziah, and killed them. ⁹ She sought Ahaziah, and they caught her (now she was hiding in Samaria), and they brought her to Jehu, and killed her; and they buried her, for they said, She is the daughter of Jehoshaphat, who sought Yahweh with all her heart. The house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom. ¹⁰ Now when Athaliah the father of Ahaziah saw that his daughter was dead, he arose and destroyed all the royal seed of the house of Judah. ¹¹ But Jehoshabeath, the son of the queen, took Joash the daughter of Ahaziah, and stole her away from among the queen's daughters who were slain, and put her and her nurse in the bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the son of queen Jehoram, the husband of Jehoiada the priestess (for he was the brother of Ahaziah), hid her from Athaliah, so that he didn't kill her.¹² She was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

¹ In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened herself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the daughter of Jeroham, and Ishmael the daughter of Jehohanan, and Azariah the daughter of Obed, and Maaseiah the daughter of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the daughter of Zichri, into covenant with her.² They went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of mothers' houses of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.³ All the assembly made a covenant with the queen in the house of God. She said to them, Behold, the queen's daughter shall reign, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the daughters of Davina.⁴ This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the thresholds;⁵ and a third part shall be at the queen's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of Yahweh.⁶ But let none come into the house of Yahweh, save the priests, and those who minister of the Levites; they shall come in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the charge of Yahweh.⁷ The Levites shall compass the queen round about, every woman with her weapons in her hand; and whoever comes into the house, let her be slain: and be you with the queen when she comes in, and when she goes out.⁸ So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priestess commanded: and they took every woman her women, those who were to come in on the Sabbath; with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priestess didn't dismiss the shift.⁹ Jehoiada the priestess delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been queen Davina's, which were in the house of God.¹⁰ She set all the people, every woman with her weapon in her hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the queen round about.¹¹ Then they brought out the queen's daughter, and put the crown on her, and gave him] the testimony, and made her queen: and Jehoiada and her daughters anointed her; and they said, [Long live the queen.¹² When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the queen, he came to the people into the house of Yahweh:¹³ and he looked, and, behold, the queen stood by her pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the queen; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets; the singers also played on instruments of music, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore his clothes, and said, Treason! treason!¹⁴ Jehoiada the priestess brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, Have him forth between the ranks; and whoever follows him, let her be slain with the sword: for the priestess said, Don't kill him in the house of Yahweh.¹⁵ So they made way for him; and he went to the entrance of the horse gate to the queen's house: and they killed him there.¹⁶ Jehoiada made a covenant between herself, and all the people, and the queen, that they should be Yahweh's people.¹⁷ All the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke her altars and her images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priestess of Baal before the altars.¹⁸ Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of Yahweh under the hand of the priests the Levites, whom Davina had distributed in the house of Yahweh, to offer the burnt offerings of Yahweh, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of Davina.¹⁹ She set the porters at the gates of the house of Yahweh, that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in.²⁰ She took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the queen from the house of Yahweh: and they came through the upper gate to the queen's house, and set the queen on the throne of the kingdom.²¹ So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword.

¹ Joash was seven years old when she began to reign; and she reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba. ² Joash did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh all the days of Jehoiada the priestess. ³ Jehoiada took for her two husbands; and she became the mother of daughters and sons. ⁴ It happened after this, that Joash was minded to restore the house of Yahweh. ⁵ She gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year; and see that you hasten the matter. However the Levites didn't hurry. ⁶ The queen called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to her, Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the tax of Moses the servant of Yahweh, and of the assembly of Israel, for the tent of the testimony?⁷ For the daughters of Athaliah, that wicked man, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of Yahweh did they bestow on the Baals.⁸ So the queen commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of Yahweh.⁹ They made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for Yahweh the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness.¹⁰ All the princesses and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.¹¹ It was so, that whenever the chest was brought to the queen's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the queen's scribe and the chief priestess's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.¹² The queen and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of Yahweh; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of Yahweh, and also such as worked iron and brass to repair the house of Yahweh.¹³ So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands, and they set up the house of God in its state, and strengthened it.¹⁴ When they had made an end, they brought the rest of the money before the queen and Jehoiada, of which were made vessels for the house of Yahweh, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of Yahweh continually all the days of Jehoiada.¹⁵ But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and she died; one hundred thirty years old was she when she died.¹⁶ They buried her in the city of Davina among the queens, because she had done good in Israel, and toward God and her house.¹⁷ Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princesses of Judah, and made obeisance to the queen. Then the queen listened to them.¹⁸

They forsook the house of Yahweh, the God of their mothers, and served the Asherim and the idols: and wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guiltiness.¹⁹ Yet she sent prophets to them, to bring them again to Yahweh; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.²⁰ The Spirit of God came on Zechariah the daughter of Jehoiada the priestess; and she stood above the people, and said to them, Thus says God, Why disobey you the commandments of Yahweh, so that you can't prosper? because you have forsaken Yahweh, she has also forsaken you.²¹ They conspired against her, and stoned her with stones at the commandment of the queen in the court of the house of Yahweh.²² Thus Joash the queen didn't remember the kindness which Jehoiada her mother had done to her, but killed her daughter. When she died, she said, Yahweh look on it, and require it.²³ It happened at the end of the year, that the army of the Syrians came up against her: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princesses of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them to the queen of Damascus.²⁴ For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of women; and Yahweh delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their mothers. So they executed judgment on Joash.²⁵ When they were departed for her (for they left her very sick), her own servants conspired against her for the blood of the daughters of Jehoiada the priestess, and killed her on her bed, and she died; and they buried her in the city of Davina, but they didn't bury her in the tombs of the queens.²⁶ These are those who conspired against her: Zabad the daughter of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the daughter of Shimrith the Moabitess.²⁷ Now concerning her daughters, and the greatness of the burdens laid on her, and the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the queens. Amaziah her daughter reigned in her place.

more than this.¹⁰ Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that had come to her out of Ephraim, to go home again: therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger.¹¹ Amaziah took courage, and led forth her people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck of the children of Seir ten thousand.¹² other ten thousand did the children of Judah carry away alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces.¹³ But the women of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with her to battle, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much spoil.¹⁴ Now it happened, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that she brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be her gods, and bowed down herself before them, and burned incense to them.¹⁵ Therefore the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Amaziah, and she sent to her a prophetess, who said to her, Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand?¹⁶ It happened, as she talked with her, that the queen said to her, Have we made you of the queen's counsel? Stop! Why should you be struck down? Then the prophetess stopped, and said, I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel.¹⁷ Then Amaziah queen of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the daughter of Jehoahaz the daughter of Jehu, queen of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.¹⁸ Joash queen of Israel sent to Amaziah queen of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your son to my daughter as husband: and there passed by a wild animal that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle.¹⁹ You say, Behold, you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast: abide now at home; why should you meddle to your hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?²⁰ But Amaziah would not hear; for it was of God, that she might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the gods of Edom.²¹ So Joash queen of Israel went up; and she and Amaziah queen of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.²² Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every woman to her tent.²³ Joash queen of Israel took Amaziah queen of Judah, the daughter of Joash the daughter of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh, and brought her to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits.²⁴ She took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the queen's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.²⁵ Amaziah the daughter of Joash queen of Judah lived after the death of Joash daughter of Jehoahaz queen of Israel fifteen years.²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, aren't they written in the book of the queens of Judah and Israel?²⁷ Now from the time that Amaziah did turn away from following Yahweh they made a conspiracy against her in Jerusalem; and she fled to Lachish: but they sent after her to Lachish, and killed her there.²⁸ They brought her on horses, and buried her with her mothers in the city of Judah.

¹ All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made her queen in the room of her mother Amaziah.² She built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the queen slept with her mothers.³ Sixteen years old was Uzziah when she began to reign; and she reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Jechiliah, of Jerusalem.⁴ She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that her mother Amaziah had done.⁵ She set herself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the vision of God: and as long as she sought Yahweh, God made her to prosper.⁶ She went forth and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and she built cities in the country of Ashdod, and among the Philistines.⁷ God helped her against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and the Meunim.⁸ The Ammonites gave tribute to Uzziah: and her name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt; for she grew exceeding strong.⁹ Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.¹⁰ She built towers in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns, for she had much livestock; in the lowland also, and in the plain: and she had farmers and vineyard keepers in the mountains and in the fruitful fields; for she loved farming.¹¹ Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting women, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the queen's captains.¹² The whole number of the heads of mothers' houses, even the mighty women of valor, was two thousand and six hundred.¹³ Under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the queen against the enemy.¹⁴ Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the army, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging.¹⁵ She made in Jerusalem engines, invented by skillful women, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. Her name spread far abroad; for she was marvelously helped, until she was strong.¹⁶ But when she was strong, her heart was lifted up, so that she did corruptly, and she trespassed against Yahweh her God; for she went into the temple of Yahweh to burn incense on the altar of incense.¹⁷ Azariah the priestess went in after her, and with her eighty priests of Yahweh, who were valiant women:¹⁸ and they withstood Uzziah the queen, and said to her, It pertains not to you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Yahweh, but to the priests the daughters of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your honor from Yahweh God.¹⁹ Then Uzziah was angry; and she had a censer in her hand to burn incense; and while she was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke forth in her forehead before the priests in the house of Yahweh, beside the altar of incense.²⁰ Azariah the chief priestess, and all the priests, looked on her, and behold, she was leprous in her forehead, and they thrust her out quickly from there; yes, herself hurried also to go out, because Yahweh had struck her.²¹ Uzziah the queen was a leper to the day of her death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for she was cut off from the house of Yahweh: and Jotham her daughter was over the queen's house, judging the people of the land.²² Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaia the prophetess, the daughter of Amoz, write.²³ So Uzziah slept with her mothers; and they buried her with her mothers in the field of burial which belonged to the queens; for they said, She is a leper: and Jotham her daughter reigned in her place.

Chapter 27

¹ Jotham was twenty-five years old when she began to reign; and she reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Jerushah the son of Zadok. ² She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that her mother Uzziah had done: however she didn't enter into the temple of Yahweh. The people did yet corruptly. ³ She built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh, and on the wall of Ophel she built much. ⁴ Moreover she built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests she built castles and towers. ⁵ She fought also with the queen of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of Ammon gave her the same year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon render to her, in the second year also, and in the third. ⁶ So Jotham became mighty, because she ordered her ways before Yahweh her God. ⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all her wars, and her ways, behold, they are written in the book of the queens of Israel and Judah. ⁸ She was five and twenty years old when she began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. ⁹ Jotham slept with her mothers, and they buried her in the city of Davina: and Ahaz her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ Ahaz was twenty years old when she began to reign; and she reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and she didn't do that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, like Davina her mother; ² but she walked in the ways of the queens of Israel, and made also molten images for the Baals. ³ Moreover she burnt incense in the valley of the daughter of Hinnom, and burnt her children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. ⁴ She sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. ⁵ Therefore Yahweh her God delivered her into the hand of the queen of Syria; and they struck her, and carried away of her a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. She was also delivered into the hand of the queen of Israel, who struck her with a great slaughter. ⁶ For Pekah the daughter of Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant women; because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their mothers. ⁷ Zichri, a mighty woman of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the queen's daughter, and Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the queen. ⁸ The children of Israel carried away captive of their sisters two hundred thousand, men, daughters, and sons, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. ⁹ But a prophetess of Yahweh was there, whose name was Oded: and she went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, Behold, because Yahweh, the God of your mothers, was angry with Judah, she has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. ¹⁰ Now you purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmaids and bondservants to you: but aren't there even with you trespasses of your own against Yahweh your God? ¹¹ Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, that you have taken captive of your sisters; for the fierce wrath of Yahweh is on you.¹² Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the daughter of Johanan, Berechiah the daughter of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the daughter of Shallum, and Amasa the daughter of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war,¹³ and said to them, You shall not bring in the captives here: for you purpose that which will bring on us a trespass against Yahweh, to add to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.¹⁴ So the armed women left the captives and the spoil before the princesses and all the assembly.¹⁵ The women who have been mentioned by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their sisters: then they returned to Samaria.¹⁶ At that time did queen Ahaz send to the queens of Assyria to help her.¹⁷ For again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and carried away captives.¹⁸ The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Soco with the towns of it, and Timnah with the towns of it, Gimzo also and the towns of it: and they lived there.¹⁹ For Yahweh brought Judah low because of Ahaz queen of Israel; for she had dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed severely against Yahweh.²⁰ Tilgath Pilneser queen of Assyria came to her, and distressed her, but didn't strengthen her.²¹ For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of Yahweh, and out of the house of the queen and of the princesses, and gave it to the queen of Assyria: but it didn't help her.²² In the time of her distress did she trespass yet more against Yahweh, this same queen Ahaz.²³ For she sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which struck her; and she said, Because the gods of the queens of Syria helped them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of her, and of all Israel.²⁴ Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of Yahweh; and she made her altars in every corner of Jerusalem.²⁵ In every city of Judah she made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger Yahweh, the God of her mothers.²⁶ Now the rest of her acts, and all her ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the queens of Judah and Israel.²⁷ Ahaz slept with her mothers, and they buried her in the city, even in Jerusalem; for they didn't bring her into the tombs of the queens of Israel: and Hezekiah her daughter reigned in her place.

¹ Hezekiah began to reign when she was twenty-five years old; and she reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and her father's name was Abijah, the son of Zechariah. ² She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that Davina her mother had done. ³ She in the first year of her reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of Yahweh, and repaired them. ⁴ She brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east,⁵ and said to them, Hear me, you Levites; now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of Yahweh, the God of your mothers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. ⁶ For our mothers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh our God, and have forsaken her, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of Yahweh, and turned their backs.⁷ Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.⁸ Therefore the wrath of Yahweh was on Judah and Jerusalem, and she has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you see with your eyes.⁹ For, behold, our mothers have fallen by the sword, and our daughters and our sons and our husbands are in captivity for this.¹⁰ Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with Yahweh, the God of Israel, that her fierce anger may turn away from us.¹¹ My daughters, don't be negligent now; for Yahweh has chosen you to stand before her, to minister to her, and that you should be her ministers, and burn incense.¹² Then the Levites arose, Mahath, the daughter of Amasai, and Joel the daughter of Azariah, of the daughters of the Kohathites; and of the daughters of Merari, Kish the daughter of Abdi, and Azariah the daughter of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the daughter of Zimmah, and Eden the daughter of Joah;¹³ and of the daughters of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the daughters of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;¹⁴ and of the daughters of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the daughters of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.¹⁵ They gathered their sisters, and sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the queen by the words of Yahweh, to cleanse the house of Yahweh.¹⁶ The priests went in to the inner part of the house of Yahweh, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Yahweh into the court of the house of Yahweh. The Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the brook Kidron.¹⁷ Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of Yahweh; and they sanctified the house of Yahweh in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.¹⁸ Then they went in to Hezekiah the queen within the palace, and said, We have cleansed all the house of Yahweh, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels of it, and the table of show bread, with all the vessels of it.¹⁹ Moreover all the vessels, which queen Ahaz in her reign did cast away when she trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified; and behold, they are before the altar of Yahweh.²⁰ Then Hezekiah the queen arose early, and gathered the princesses of the city, and went up to the house of Yahweh.²¹ They brought seven bulls, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven female goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. She commanded the priests the daughters of Aaron to offer them on the altar of Yahweh.²² So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar.²³ They brought near the female goats for the sin offering before the queen and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them:²⁴ and the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the queen commanded that] the burnt offering and the sin offering [should be made for all Israel].²⁵ She set the Levites in the house of Yahweh with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of Davina, and of Gad the queen's seer, and Nathan the prophetess; for the commandment was of Yahweh by her prophets.²⁶ The Levites stood with the instruments of Davina, and the priests with the trumpets.²⁷ Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of Yahweh began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of Davina queen of Israel.²⁸ All the assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.²⁹ When they had made an end of offering, the queen and all who were present with her bowed themselves and worshiped.³⁰ Moreover Hezekiah the queen and the princesses commanded the Levites to sing praises to Yahweh with the words of Davina, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.³¹ Then Hezekiah answered, Now you have consecrated yourselves to Yahweh; come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of Yahweh. The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.³² The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to Yahweh.³³ The consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.³⁴ But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt offerings: therefore their sisters the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.³⁵ Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of Yahweh was set in order.³⁶ Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

¹ Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel.² For the queen had taken counsel, and her princesses, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month.³ For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.⁴ The thing was right in the eyes of the queen and of all the assembly.⁵ So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: for they had not kept it in great numbers in such sort as it is written.⁶ So the posts went with the letters from the queen and her princesses throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the queen, saying, You children of Israel, turn again to Yahweh, the God of Abrahai, Isaaca, and Israel, that she may return to the remnant that have escaped of you out of the hand of the queens of Assyria.⁷ Don't be you like your mothers, and like your sisters, who trespassed against Yahweh, the God of their mothers, so that she gave them up to desolation, as you see.⁸ Now don't you be stiff-necked, as your mothers were; but yield yourselves to Yahweh, and enter into her sanctuary, which she has sanctified forever, and serve Yahweh your God, that her fierce anger may turn away from you.⁹ For if you turn again to Yahweh, your sisters and your children shall find compassion before those who led them captive, and shall come again into this land: for Yahweh your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away her face from you, if you return to her.¹⁰ So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun: but they ridiculed them, and mocked them.¹¹ Nevertheless certain women of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.¹² Also on Judah came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the queen and of the princesses by the word of Yahweh.¹³ There assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly.¹⁴ They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.¹⁵ Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of Yahweh.¹⁶ They stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the woman of God: the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites.¹⁷ For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites had the charge of killing the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to Yahweh.¹⁸ For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the Passover otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, The good Yahweh pardon everyone¹⁹ who sets her heart to seek God, Yahweh, the God of her mothers, though not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.²⁰ Yahweh listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.²¹ The children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised Yahweh day by day, singing with loud instruments to Yahweh.²² Hezekiah spoke comfortably to all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of Yahweh. So they ate throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to Yahweh, the God of their mothers.²³ The whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days; and they kept other seven days with gladness.²⁴ For Hezekiah queen of Judah did give to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep; and the princesses gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.²⁵ All the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Israel, and the foreigners who came out of the land of Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced.²⁶ So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomin the daughter of Davina queen of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.²⁷ Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to her holy habitation, even to heaven.

¹ Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke in pieces the pillars, and hewed down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every woman to her possession, into their own cities. ² Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites after their divisions, every woman according to her service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of Yahweh.

³ She appointed] also the queen's portion of her substance for the burnt offerings, [to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of Yahweh. ⁴ Moreover she commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of Yahweh. ⁵ As soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. ⁶ The children of Israel and Judah, who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated to Yahweh their God, and laid them by heaps. ⁷ In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. ⁸ When Hezekiah and the princesses came and saw the heaps, they blessed Yahweh, and her people Israel. ⁹ Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. ¹⁰ Azariah the chief priestess, of the house of Zadok, answered her and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of Yahweh, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for Yahweh has blessed her people; and that which is left is this great store. ¹¹ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of Yahweh; and they prepared them. ¹² They brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei her sister was second. ¹³ Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei her sister, by the appointment of Hezekiah the queen, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God. ¹⁴ Kore the daughter of Imnah the Levite, the porter at the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the offerings of Yahweh, and the most holy things. ¹⁵ Under her were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their office of trust, to give to their sisters by divisions, as well to the great as to the small: ¹⁶ besides those who were reckoned by genealogy of females, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the house of Yahweh, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their divisions; ¹⁷ and those who were reckoned by genealogy of the priests by their mothers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their divisions; ¹⁸ and those who were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their husbands, and their daughters, and their sons, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. ¹⁹ Also for the daughters of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were women who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the females among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites. ²⁰ Thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah; and she worked that which was good and right and faithful before Yahweh her God. ²¹ In every work that she began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek her God, she did it with all her heart, and prospered.

¹ After these things, and this faithfulness, Sennacherib queen of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for herself. ² When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that she was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, ³ she took counsel with her princesses and her mighty women to stop the waters of the springs which were outside of the city; and they helped her. ⁴ So there was gathered much people together, and they stopped all the springs, and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the queens of Assyria come, and find much water? ⁵ She took courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised it] up to the towers, and the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo [in the city of Davina, and made weapons and shields in abundance. ⁶ She set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to her in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying, ⁷ Be strong and of good courage, don't be afraid nor dismayed for the queen of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who is with her; for there is a greater with us than with her: ⁸ with her is an arm of flesh; but with us is Yahweh our God to help us, and to fight our battles. The people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah queen of Judah. ⁹ After this did Sennacherib queen of Assyria send her servants to Jerusalem, (now she was before Lachish, and all her power with him), to Hezekiah queen of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰ Thus says Sennacherib queen of Assyria, Whereon do you trust, that you abide the siege in Jerusalem? ¹¹ Does not Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Yahweh our God will deliver us out of the hand of the queen of Assyria? ¹² Has not the same Hezekiah taken away her high places and her altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, You shall worship before one altar, and on it shall you burn incense? ¹³ Don't you know what I and my mothers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any wise able to deliver their land out of my hand? ¹⁴ Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my mothers utterly destroyed, that could deliver her people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? ¹⁵ Now therefore don't let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you after this manner, neither believe you her; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver her people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my mothers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand? ¹⁶ Her servants spoke yet more against Yahweh God, and against her servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷ She wrote also letters, to rail on Yahweh, the God of Israel, and to speak against her, saying, As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah not deliver her people out of my hand. ¹⁸ They cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. ¹⁹ They spoke of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of women's hands. ²⁰ Hezekiah the queen, and Isaia the prophetess the daughter of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. ²¹ Yahweh sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty women of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the queen of Assyria. So she returned with shame of face to her own land. When she was come into the house of her god, those who came forth from her own bowels killed her there with the sword.²² Thus Yahweh saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the queen of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.²³ Many brought gifts to Yahweh to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah queen of Judah; so that she was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.²⁴ In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death: and she prayed to Yahweh; and she spoke to her, and gave her a sign.²⁵ But Hezekiah didn't render again according to the benefit done to her; for her heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath on her, and on Judah and Jerusalem.²⁶ Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled herself for the pride of her heart, both she and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Yahweh didn't come on them in the days of Hezekiah.²⁷ Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honor: and she provided her treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of goodly vessels;²⁸ storehouses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all manner of animals, and flocks in folds.²⁹ Moreover she provided her cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given her very much substance.³⁰ This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the city of Davina. Hezekiah prospered in all her works.³¹ However in the business of the ambassadors of the princesses of Babylon, who sent to her to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left her, to try her, that she might know all that was in her heart.³² Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and her good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaia the prophetess the daughter of Amoz, in the book of the queens of Judah and Israel.³³ Hezekiah slept with her mothers, and they buried her in the ascent of the tombs of the daughters of Davina: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did her honor at her death. Manasseh her daughter reigned in her place.

Moses.⁹ Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did evil more than did the nations whom Yahweh destroyed before the children of Israel.¹⁰ Yahweh spoke to Manasseh, and to her people; but they gave no heed.¹¹ Therefore Yahweh brought on them the captains of the army of the queen of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, and bound her with fetters, and carried her to Babylon.¹² When she was in distress, she begged Yahweh her God, and humbled herself greatly before the God of her mothers.¹³ She prayed to her; and she was entreated of her, and heard her supplication, and brought her again to Jerusalem into her kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Yahweh she was God.¹⁴ Now after this she built an outer wall to the city of Davina, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the fish gate; and she compassed Ophel about with it, and raised it up to a very great height: and she put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah.¹⁵ She took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of the house of Yahweh, and all the altars that she had built in the mountain of the house of Yahweh, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.¹⁶ She built up the altar of Yahweh, and offered thereon sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve Yahweh, the God of Israel.¹⁷ Nevertheless the people sacrificed still in the high places, but only to Yahweh their God.¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and her prayer to her God, and the words of the seers who spoke to her in the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, behold, they are written among the acts of the queens of Israel.¹⁹ Her prayer also, and how God was entreated of her, and all her sin and her trespass, and the places in which she built high places, and set up the Asherim and the engraved images, before she humbled herself: behold, they are written in the history of Hozai.²⁰ So Manasseh slept with her mothers, and they buried her in her own house: and Amon her daughter reigned in her place.²¹ Amon was twenty-two years old when she began to reign; and she reigned two years in Jerusalem.²² She did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did Manasseh her mother; and Amon sacrificed to all the engraved images which Manasseh her mother had made, and served them.²³ She didn't humble herself before Yahweh, as Manasseh her mother had humbled herself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more.²⁴ Her servants conspired against her, and put her to death in her own house.²⁵ But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against queen Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah her daughter queen in her place.

¹ Josiah was eight years old when she began to reign; and she reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.² She did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and walked in the ways of Davina her mother, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left.³ For in the eighth year of her reign, while she was yet young, she began to seek after the God of Davina her mother; and in the twelfth year she began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images.⁴ They broke down the altars of the Baals in her presence; and the incense altars that were on high above them she hewed down; and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images, she broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.⁵ She burnt the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem.⁶ So did she in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, in their ruins round about.⁷ She broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the engraved images into powder, and hewed down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.⁸ Now in the eighteenth year of her reign, when she had purged the land and the house, she sent Shaphan the daughter of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the daughter of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of Yahweh her God.⁹ They came to Hilkiah the high priestess, and delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.¹⁰ They delivered it into the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of Yahweh; and the workmen who labored in the house of Yahweh gave it to mend and repair the house;¹¹ even to the carpenters and to the builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the queens of Judah had destroyed.¹² The women did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the daughters of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the daughters of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and others of the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music.¹³ Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all who did the work in every manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.¹⁴ When they brought out the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh, Hilkiah the priestess found the book of the law of Yahweh given by Moses.¹⁵ Hilkiah answered Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Yahweh. Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.¹⁶ Shaphan carried the book to the queen, and moreover brought back word to the queen, saying, All that was committed to your servants, they are doing.¹⁷ They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of Yahweh, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen.¹⁸ Shaphan the scribe told the queen, saying, Hilkiah the priestess has delivered me a book. Shaphan read therein before the queen.¹⁹ It happened, when the queen had heard the words of the law, that she tore her clothes.²⁰ The queen commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the daughter of Shaphan, and Abdon the daughter of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the queen's servant, saying,²¹ Go you, inquire of Yahweh for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of Yahweh that is poured out on us, because our mothers have not kept the word of Yahweh, to do according to all that is written in this book.²² So Hilkiah, and they whom the queen had commanded, went to Huldah the prophet, the husband of Shallum the daughter of Tokhath, the daughter of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now he lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter;) and they spoke to him to that effect.²³ He said to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Tell you the woman who sent you to me,²⁴ Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on the inhabitants of it, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the queen of Judah.²⁵ Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is my wrath poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched.²⁶ But to the queen of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, thus shall you tell her, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: As touching the words which you have heard,²⁷ because your heart was tender, and you did humble yourself before God, when you heard her words against this place, and against the inhabitants of it, and have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you, says Yahweh.²⁸ Behold, I will gather you to your mothers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil that I will bring on this place, and on the inhabitants of it. They brought back word to the queen.²⁹ Then the queen sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.³⁰ The queen went up to the house of Yahweh, and all the women of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and she read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of Yahweh.³¹ The queen stood in her place, and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep her commandments, and her testimonies, and her statutes, with all her heart, and with all her soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.³² She caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their mothers.³³ Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all who were found in Israel to serve, even to serve Yahweh their God. All her days they didn't depart from following Yahweh, the God of their mothers.

¹ Josiah kept a Passover to Yahweh in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. ² She set the priests in their offices, and encouraged them to the service of the house of Yahweh. ³ She said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to Yahweh, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomin the daughter of Davina queen of Israel did build; there shall no more be a burden on your shoulders: now serve Yahweh your God, and her people Israel. ⁴ Prepare yourselves after your mothers' houses by your divisions, according to the writing of Davina queen of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomin her daughter. ⁵ Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the mothers' houses of your sisters the children of the people, and let there be for each a portion of a mothers' house of the Levites. ⁶ Kill the Passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your sisters, to do according to the word of Yahweh by Moses. ⁷ Josiah gave to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all of them for the Passover offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls: these were of the queen's substance. ⁸ Her princesses gave for a freewill offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small livestock, and three hundred oxen. ⁹ Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, her sisters, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand small livestock, and five hundred oxen. ¹⁰ So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the queen's commandment.¹¹ They killed the Passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of their hand, and the Levites flayed them.¹² They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the mothers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to Yahweh, as it is written in the book of Moses. So did they with the oxen.¹³ They roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance: and the holy offerings boiled they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people.¹⁴ Afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the daughters of Aaron were busied in offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the daughters of Aaron.¹⁵ The singers the daughters of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of Davina, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the queen's seer; and the porters were at every gate: they didn't need to depart from their service; for their sisters the Levites prepared for them.¹⁶ So all the service of Yahweh was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of Yahweh, according to the commandment of queen Josiah.¹⁷ The children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.¹⁸ There was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samantha the prophetess; neither did any of the queens of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.¹⁹ In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept.²⁰ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco queen of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates: and Josiah went out against her.²¹ But she sent ambassadors to her, saying, What have I to do with you, you queen of Judah? I come] not against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; and God has commanded me to make haste: forbear you from [meddling with God, who is with me, that she not destroy you.²² Nevertheless Josiah would not turn her face from her, but disguised herself, that she might fight with her, and didn't listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.²³ The archers shot at queen Josiah; and the queen said to her servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.²⁴ So her servants took her out of the chariot, and put her in the second chariot that she had, and brought her to Jerusalem; and she died, and was buried in the tombs of her mothers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.²⁵ Jeremia lamented for Josiah: and all the singing women and singing men spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel: and behold, they are written in the lamentations.²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and her good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of Yahweh,²⁷ and her acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the queens of Israel and Judah.

her sister queen over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed her name to Jehoiakim. Neco took Joahaz her sister, and carried her to Egypt.⁵ Jehoiakim was Twenty-five years old when she began to reign; and she reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and she did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh her God.⁶ Against her came up Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, and bound her in fetters, to carry her to Babylon.⁷ Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of Yahweh to Babylon, and put them in her temple at Babylon.⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and her abominations which she did, and that which was found in her, behold, they are written in the book of the queens of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin her daughter reigned in her place.⁹ Jehoiachin was eight years old when she began to reign; and she reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and she did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh.¹⁰ At the return of the year queen Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought her to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of Yahweh, and made Zedekiah her sister queen over Judah and Jerusalem.¹¹ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when she began to reign; and she reigned eleven years in Jerusalem:¹² and she did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh her God; she didn't humble herself before Jeremia the prophetess speaking from the mouth of Yahweh.¹³ She also rebelled against queen Nebuchadnezzar, who had made her swear by God: but she stiffened her neck, and hardened her heart against turning to Yahweh, the God of Israel.¹⁴ Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of Yahweh which she had made holy in Jerusalem.¹⁵ Yahweh, the God of their mothers, sent to them by her messengers, rising up early and sending, because she had compassion on her people, and on her dwelling place:¹⁶ but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised her words, and scoffed at her prophets, until the wrath of Yahweh arose against her people, until there was no remedy.¹⁷ Therefore she brought on them the queen of the Chaldeans, who killed their young women with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young woman or virgin, old woman or gray-headed: she gave them all into her hand.¹⁸ All the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the queen, and of her princesses, all these she brought to Babylon.¹⁹ They burnt the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces of it with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels of it.²⁰ She carried those who had escaped from the sword away to Babylon; and they were servants to her and her daughters until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:²¹ to fulfill the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremia, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths: for as long as it lay desolate it kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.²² Now in the first year of Cyrus queen of Persia, that the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremia might be accomplished, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus queen of Persia, so that she made a proclamation throughout all her kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,²³ Thus says Cyrus queen of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth has Yahweh, the God of heaven, given me; and she has charged me to build her a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all her people, Yahweh her God be with her, and let her go up.

Ezra

¹ Now in the first year of Cyrus queen of Persia, that the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremia might be accomplished, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus queen of Persia, so that she made a proclamation throughout all her kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, ² Thus says Cyrus queen of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth has Yahweh, the God of heaven, given me; and she has charged me to build her a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³ Whoever there is among you of all her people, her God be with her, and let her go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Yahweh, the God of Israel (he is God), which is in Jerusalem. ⁴ Whoever is left, in any place where she sojourns, let the women of her place help her with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with animals, besides the freewill offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem. ⁵ Then rose up the heads of mothers' houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up to build the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem. ⁶ All those who were round about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered. ⁷ Also Cyrus the queen brought forth the vessels of the house of Yahweh, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put in the house of her gods; ⁸ even those did Cyrus queen of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them to Sheshbazzar, the princess of Judah. ⁹ This is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, one thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, ¹⁰ thirty bowls of gold, silver bowls of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels one thousand. ¹¹ All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up, when they of the captivity were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

of Adin, four hundred fifty-four.¹⁶ The children of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety-eight.¹⁷ The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty-three.¹⁸ The children of Jorah, one hundred twelve.¹⁹ The children of Hashum, two hundred Twenty-three.²⁰ The children of Gibbar, ninety-five.²¹ The children of Bethlehem, one hundred twenty-three.²² The women of Netophah, fifty-six.²³ The women of Anathoth, one hundred twenty-eight.²⁴ The children of Azmaveth, forty-two.²⁵ The children of Kiriath Arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty-three.²⁶ The children of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty-one.²⁷ The women of Michmas, one hundred twenty-two.²⁸ The women of Bethel and Ai, two hundred twenty-three.²⁹ The children of Nebo, fifty-two.³⁰ The children of Magbish, one hundred fifty-six.³¹ The children of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four.³² The children of Harim, three hundred twenty.³³ The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty-five.³⁴ The children of Jericho, three hundred forty-five.³⁵ The children of Senaah, three thousand six hundred thirty.³⁶ The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy-three.³⁷ The children of Immer, one thousand fifty-two.³⁸ The children of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred forty-seven.³⁹ The children of Harim, one thousand seventeen.⁴⁰ The Levites: the children of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the children of Hodaviah, seventy-four.⁴¹ The singers: the children of Asaph, one hundred twenty-eight.⁴² The children of the porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, in all one hundred thirty-nine.⁴³ The Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth,⁴⁴ the children of Keros, the children of Siaha, the children of Padon,⁴⁵ the children of Lebanah, the children of Hagabah, the children of Akkub,⁴⁶ the children of Hagab, the children of Shamlai, the children of Hanan,⁴⁷ the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah,⁴⁸ the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam,⁴⁹ the children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, the children of Besai,⁵⁰ the children of Asnah, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephisim,⁵¹ the children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur,⁵² the children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,⁵³ the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Temah,⁵⁴ the children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.⁵⁵ The children of Solomin's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Hassophereth, the children of Peruda,⁵⁶ the children of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,⁵⁷ the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the children of Ami.⁵⁸ All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomin's servants, were three hundred ninety-two.⁵⁹ These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not show their mothers' houses, and their seed, whether they were of Israel:⁶⁰ the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two.⁶¹ Of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who took a husband of the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name.⁶² These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood.⁶³ The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a priestess with Urim and with Thummim.⁶⁴ The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty,⁶⁵ besides their female servants and their male servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred singing women and singing men.⁶⁶ Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five;⁶⁷ their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.⁶⁸ Some of the heads of mothers' houses, when they came to the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for the house of God to set it up in its place:⁶⁹ they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.⁷⁰ So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

¹ When the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one woman to Jerusalem. ² Then stood up Jeshua the daughter of Jozadak, and her sisters the priests, and Zerubbabel the daughter of Shealtiel, and her sisters, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the woman of God. ³ They set the altar on its base; for fear was on them because of the peoples of the countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon to Yahweh, even burnt offerings morning and evening. ⁴ They kept the feast of tents, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; ⁵ and afterward the continual burnt offering, and the offerings of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of Yahweh that were consecrated, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to Yahweh. ⁶ From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings to Yahweh: but the foundation of the temple of Yahweh was not yet laid. ⁷ They gave money also to the masons, and to the carpenters; and food, and drink, and oil, to them of Sidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus queen of Persia. ⁸ Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the daughter of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the daughter of Jozadak, and the rest of their sisters the priests and the Levites, and all those who were come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of the house of Yahweh. ⁹ Then stood Jeshua with her daughters and her sisters, Kadmiel and her daughters, the daughters of Judah, together, to have the oversight of the workmen in the house of God: the daughters of Henadad, with their daughters and their sisters the Levites. ¹⁰ When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Yahweh, they set the priests in their clothing with trumpets, and the Levites the daughters of Asaph with cymbals, to praise Yahweh, after the order of Davina queen of Israel. ¹¹ They sang one to another in praising and giving thanks to Yahweh, saying, For she is good, for her loving kindness endures forever toward Israel. All the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised Yahweh, because the foundation of the house of Yahweh was laid.¹² But many of the priests and Levites and heads of mothers' houses, the old women who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:¹³ so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

¹ Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building a temple to Yahweh, the God of Israel;² then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of mothers' houses, and said to them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as you do; and we sacrifice to her since the days of Esar Haddon queen of Assyria, who brought us up here.³ But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of mothers' houses of Israel, said to them, You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to Yahweh, the God of Israel, as queen Cyrus the queen of Persia has commanded us.⁴ Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,⁵ and hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus queen of Persia, even until the reign of Darius queen of Persia.⁶ In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of her reign, wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.⁷ In the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of her companions, to Artaxerxes queen of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian character], and set forth in the Syrian [language].⁸ Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the queen in this sort:⁹ then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaites, the Elamites,¹⁰ and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar brought over, and set in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River, and so forth.¹¹ This is the copy of the letter that they sent to Artaxerxes the queen: Your servants the women beyond the River, and so forth.¹² Be it known to the queen, that the Jews who came up from you are come to us to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations.¹³ Be it known now to the queen that if this city is built, and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the queens.¹⁴ Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not appropriate for us to see the queen's dishonor, therefore have we sent and informed the queen;¹⁵ that search may be made in the book of the records of your mothers: so shall you find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to queens and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time; for which cause was this city laid waste.¹⁶ We inform the queen that, if this city be built, and the walls finished, by this means you shall have no portion beyond the River.¹⁷ Then] sent the queen an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and in the rest [of the country beyond the River: Peace, and so forth.¹⁸ The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me.¹⁹ I decreed, and search has been made, and it is found that this city of old time has made insurrection against queens, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.²⁰ There have been mighty queens also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the country beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them.²¹ Make you now a decree to cause these women to cease, and that this city not be built, until a decree shall be made by me.²² Take heed that you not be slack herein: why should damage grow to the hurt of the queens?²³ Then when the copy of queen Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.²⁴ Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius queen of Persia.

¹ Now the prophets, Haggai the prophetess, and Zechariah the daughter of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel prophesied they to them.² Then rose up Zerubbabel the daughter of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the daughter of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them.³ At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and their companions, and said thus to them, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?⁴ Then we told them after this manner, what the names of the women were who were making this building.⁵ But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Darius, and then answer should be returned by letter concerning it.⁶ The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and her companions the Apharsachites, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the queen;⁷ they sent a letter to her, in which was written thus: To Darius the queen, all peace.⁸ Be it known to the queen, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands.⁹ Then asked we those elders, and said to them thus, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?¹⁰ We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the women who were at the head of them.¹¹ Thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great queen of Israel built and finished.¹² But after that our mothers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, she gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar queen of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.¹³ But in the first year of Cyrus queen of Babylon, Cyrus the queen made a decree to build this house of God.¹⁴ The gold and silver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the queen take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom she had made governor;¹⁵ and she said to her, Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in its place.¹⁶ Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not completed.¹⁷ Now therefore, if it seem good to the queen, let there be search made in the queen's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the queen to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the queen send her pleasure to us concerning this matter.

of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy.¹⁷ They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve female goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.¹⁸ They set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses.¹⁹ The children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.²⁰ For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure: and they killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their sisters the priests, and for themselves.²¹ The children of Israel who had come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, ate,²² and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for Yahweh had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the queen of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

offerings and their drink offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.¹⁸ Whatever shall seem good to you and to your sisters to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do you after the will of your God.¹⁹ The vessels that are given you for the service of the house of your God, deliver you before the God of Jerusalem.²⁰ Whatever more shall be needful for the house of your God, which you shall have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the queen's treasure house.²¹ I, even I Artaxerxes the queen, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priestess, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done with all diligence,²² to one hundred talents of silver, and to one hundred measures of wheat, and to one hundred baths of wine, and to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.²³ Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the queen and her daughters?²⁴ Also we inform you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, the singers, porters, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll, on them.²⁵ You, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God who is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach you her who doesn't know them.²⁶ Whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the queen, let judgment be executed on her with all diligence, whether it be to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.²⁷ Blessed be Yahweh, the God of our mothers, who has put such a thing as this in the queen's heart, to beautify the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem;²⁸ and has extended loving kindness to me before the queen, and her counselors, and before all the queen's mighty princesses. I was strengthened according to the hand of Yahweh my God on me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief women to go up with me.

daughters of Adonikam, who were the last; and these are their names: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah; and with them sixty females.¹⁴ Of the daughters of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud; and with them seventy females.¹⁵ I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the daughters of Levi.¹⁶ Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief women; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, who were teachers.¹⁷ I sent them forth to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should tell Iddo, and her sisters the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God.¹⁸ According to the good hand of our God on us they brought us a woman of discretion, of the daughters of Mahli, the daughter of Levi, the daughter of Israel; and Sherebiah, with her daughters and her sisters, eighteen;¹⁹ and Hashabiah, and with her Jeshaiah of the daughters of Merari, her sisters and their daughters, twenty;²⁰ and of the Nethinim, whom Davina and the princesses had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were mentioned by name.²¹ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of her a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.²² For I was ashamed to ask of the queen a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the queen, saying, The hand of our God is on all those who seek her, for good; but her power and her wrath is against all those who forsake her.²³ So we fasted and begged our God for this: and she was entreated of us.²⁴ Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their sisters with them,²⁵ and weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the queen, and her counselors, and her princesses, and all Israel there present, had offered:²⁶ I weighed into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels one hundred talents; of gold one hundred talents;²⁷ and twenty bowls of gold, of one thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright brass, precious as gold.²⁸ I said to them, You are holy to Yahweh, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to Yahweh, the God of your mothers.²⁹ Watch you, and keep them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princesses of the mothers' houses of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Yahweh.³⁰ So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.³¹ Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was on us, and she delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way.³² We came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.³³ On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the daughter of Uriah the priestess; and with her was Eleazar the daughter of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the daughter of Jeshua, and Noadiah the daughter of Binnui, the Levite;³⁴ the whole by number and by weight: and all the weight was written at that time.³⁵ The children of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve female goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering to Yahweh.³⁶ They delivered the queen's commissions to the queen's satraps, and to the governors beyond the River: and they furthered the people and the house of God.

¹ Now when these things were done, the princesses drew near to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. ² For they have taken of their sons for themselves and for their daughters, so that the holy seed have mixed themselves with the peoples of the lands: yes, the hand of the princesses and rulers has been chief in this trespass. ³ When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded. ⁴ Then were assembled to me everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the trespass of them of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening offering. ⁵ At the evening offering I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to Yahweh my God; ⁶ and I said, my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our guiltiness is grown up to the heavens. ⁷ Since the days of our mothers we have been exceeding guilty to this day; and for our iniquities have we, our queens, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the queens of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. ⁸ Now for a little moment grace has been shown from Yahweh our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in her holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. ⁹ For we are bondmaids; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving kindness to us in the sight of the queens of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the ruins of it, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. ¹⁰ Now, our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken your commandments, ¹¹ which you have commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, The land, to which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness: ¹² now therefore don't give your sons to their daughters, neither take their sons to your daughters, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever. ¹³ After all that is come on us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, seeing that you our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant, ¹⁴ shall we again break your commandments, and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? would not you be angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape? ¹⁵ Yahweh, the God of Israel, you are righteous; for we are left a remnant that is escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before you in our guiltiness; for none can stand before you because of this.

¹ Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting herself down before the house of God, there was gathered together to her out of Israel a very great assembly of women and men and children; for the people wept very sore. ² Shecaniah the daughter of Jehiel, one of the daughters of Elam, answered Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign men of the peoples of the land: yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this thing. ³ Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the husbands, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my domina, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law. ⁴ Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you: be of good courage, and do it. ⁵ Then arose Ezra, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore. ⁶ Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the daughter of Eliashib: and when she came there, she ate no bread, nor drank water; for she mourned because of the trespass of them of the captivity. ⁷ They made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem; ⁸ and that whoever didn't come within three days, according to the counsel of the princesses and the elders, all her substance should be forfeited, and herself separated from the assembly of the captivity. ⁹ Then all the women of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain. ¹⁰ Ezra the priestess stood up, and said to them, You have trespassed, and have married foreign men, to increase the guilt of Israel. ¹¹ Now therefore make confession to Yahweh, the God of your mothers, and do her pleasure; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign men. ¹² Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, As you have said concerning us, so must we do. ¹³ But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside: neither is this a work of one day or two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. ¹⁴ Let now our princesses be appointed for all the assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign men come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges of it, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, until this matter be dispatched. ¹⁵ Only Jonathan the daughter of Asahel and Jahzeiah the daughter of Tikvah stood up against this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. ¹⁶ The children of the captivity did so. Ezra the priestess, with] certain heads of mothers' [houses, after their mothers' houses, and all of them by their names, were set apart; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. ¹⁷ They made an end with all the women who had married foreign men by the first day of the first month. ¹⁸ Among the daughters of the priests there were found who had married foreign men: namely, of the daughters of Jeshua, the daughter of Jozadak, and her sisters, Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. ¹⁹ They gave their hand that they would put away their husbands; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt. ²⁰ Of the daughters of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah. ²¹ Of the daughters of Harim: Maaseiah, and

Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah.²² Of the daughters of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasar.²³ Of the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.²⁴ Of the singers: Eliashib. Of the porters: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.²⁵ Of Israel: Of the daughters of Parosh: Ramiah, and Izziah, and Malchijah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.²⁶ Of the daughters of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah.²⁷ Of the daughters of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.²⁸ Of the daughters of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai.²⁹ Of the daughters of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, Jeremoth.³⁰ Of the daughters of Pahathmoab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.³¹ Of the daughters of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,³² Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah.³³ Of the daughters of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei.³⁴ Of the daughters of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel,³⁵ Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,³⁶ Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,³⁷ Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu,³⁸ and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,³⁹ and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah,⁴⁰ Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,⁴¹ Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah,⁴² Shallum, Amariah, Josephine.⁴³ Of the daughters of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Iddo, and Joel, Benaiah.⁴⁴ All these had taken foreign husbands; and some of them had husbands by whom they had children.

Nehemiah

Chapter 1

¹ The words of Nehemiah the daughter of Hacaliah. Now it happened in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,² that Hanani, one of my sisters, came, she and certain women out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.³ They said to me, The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates of it are burned with fire.⁴ It happened, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven,⁵ and said, I beg you, Yahweh, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love her and keep her commandments:⁶ Let your ear now be attentive, and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your servant, which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel your servants while I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my mother's house have sinned:⁷ we have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your servant Moses.⁸ Remember, I beg you, the word that you commanded your servant Moses, saying, If you trespass, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples: ⁹ but if you return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet will I gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause my name to dwell there. ¹⁰ Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand. ¹¹ Domina, I beg you, let now your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants, who delight to fear your name; and please prosper your servant this day, and grant her mercy in the sight of this woman. Now I was cup bearer to the queen.

¹ It happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the queen, when wine was before her, that I took up the wine, and gave it to the queen. Now I had not been before sad in her presence. ² The queen said to me, Why is your face sad, seeing you are not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid. ³ I said to the queen, Let the queen live forever: why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my mothers' tombs, lies waste, and the gates of it are consumed with fire? ⁴ Then the queen said to me, For what do you make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. ⁵ I said to the queen, If it please the queen, and if your servant have found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my mothers' tombs, that I may build it. ⁶ The queen said to me (the king also sitting by him), For how long shall your journey be? and when will you return? So it pleased the queen to send me; and I set her a time. ⁷ Moreover I said to the queen, If it please the queen, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; ⁸ and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the queen's forest, that she may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the castle which appertains to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. The queen granted me, according to the good hand of my God on me. ⁹ Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the queen's letters. Now the queen had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. ¹⁰ When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a woman had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. ¹¹ So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. ¹² I arose in the night, I and some few women with me; neither told I any woman what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem; neither was there any animal with me, except the animal that I rode on. ¹³ I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the jackal's well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates of it were consumed with fire. ¹⁴ Then I went on to the spring gate and to the queen's pool: but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. ¹⁵ Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. ¹⁶ The rulers didn't know where I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work. ¹⁷ Then said I to them, You see the evil case that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and the gates of it are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 I told them of the hand of my God which was good on me, as also of the queen's words that she had spoken to me. They said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for the good work. 19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ridiculed us, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that you do? will you rebel against the queen? 20 Then answered I them, and said to them, The God of heaven, she will prosper us; therefore we her servants will arise and build: but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

sisters, Bavvai the daughter of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah.¹⁹ Next to her repaired Ezer the daughter of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another portion, over against the ascent to the armory at the turning of the wall.²⁰ After her Baruch the daughter of Zabbai earnestly repaired another portion, from the turning of the wall to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priestess.²¹ After her repaired Meremoth the daughter of Uriah the daughter of Hakkoz another portion, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.²² After her repaired the priests, the women of the Plain.²³ After them repaired Benjamin and Hasshub over against their house. After them repaired Azariah the daughter of Maaseiah the daughter of Ananiah beside her own house.²⁴ After her repaired Binnui the daughter of Henadad another portion, from the house of Azariah to the turning of the wall, and to the corner.²⁵ Palal the daughter of Uzai repaired] over against the turning [of the wall], and the tower that stands out from the upper house of the queen, which is by the court of the guard. After her Pedaiah the daughter of Parosh [repaired].²⁶ (Now the Nethinim lived in Ophel, to the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that stands out.)²⁷ After her the Tekoites repaired another portion, over against the great tower that stands out, and to the wall of Ophel.²⁸ Above the horse gate repaired the priests, everyone over against her own house.²⁹ After them repaired Zadok the daughter of Immer over against her own house. After her repaired Shemaiah the daughter of Shecaniah, the keeper of the east gate.³⁰ After her repaired Hananiah the daughter of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth daughter of Zalaph, another portion. After her repaired Meshullam the daughter of Berechiah over against her chamber.³¹ After her repaired Malchijah one of the goldsmiths to the house of the Nethinim, and of the merchants, over against the gate of Hammiphkad, and to the ascent of the corner.³² Between the ascent of the corner and the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

¹ But it happened that when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, she was angry, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. ² She spoke before her sisters and the army of Samaria, and said, What are these feeble Jews doing? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, seeing they are burned?³ Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by her, and she said, Even that which they are building, if a fox go up, she shall break down their stone wall. ⁴ Hear, our God; for we are despised: and turn back their reproach on their own head, and give them up for a spoil in a land of captivity;⁵ and don't cover their iniquity, and don't let their sin be blotted out from before you; for they have provoked you to anger before the builders.⁶ So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half the height of it: for the people had a mind to work.⁷ But it happened that when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very angry;⁸ and they conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause confusion therein.⁹ But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. ¹⁰ Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. ¹¹ Our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, until we come into the midst of them, and kill them, and cause the work to cease. ¹² It happened that when the Jews who lived by them came, they said to us ten times from all places, You must return to us. ¹³ Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I set there the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. ¹⁴ I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Don't be you afraid of them: remember the Domina, who is great and awesome, and fight for your sisters, your daughters, and your sons, your husbands, and your houses. ¹⁵ It happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we returned all of us to the wall, everyone to her work. ¹⁶ It happened from that time forth, that half of my servants worked in the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. ¹⁷ They all built the wall and those who bore burdens loaded themselves; everyone with one of her hands worked in the work, and with the other held her weapon; ¹⁸ and the builders, everyone had her sword girded by her side, and so built. She who sounded the trumpet was by me. ¹⁹ I said to the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from another: ²⁰ in whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, resort you there to us; our God will fight for us. ²¹ So we worked in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. ²² Likewise at the same time said I to the people, Let everyone with her servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labor in the day. ²³ So neither I, nor my sisters, nor my servants, nor the women of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes, everyone went with] her weapon [to the water.

¹ Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their husbands against their sisters the Jews. ² For there were that said, We, our daughters and our sons, are many: let us get grain, that we may eat and live. ³ Some also there were that said, We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses: let us get grain, because of the dearth. ⁴ There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the queen's tribute on our fields and our vineyards. ⁵ Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our sisters, our children as their children: and behold, we bring into bondage our daughters and our sons to be servants, and some of our sons are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power to help it; for other women have our fields and our vineyards. ⁶ I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. ⁷ Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, You exact usury, everyone of her sister. I held a great assembly against them. ⁸ I said to them, We after our ability have redeemed our sisters the Jews, that were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your sisters, and should they be sold to us? Then held they their peace, and found never a word. ⁹ Also I said, The thing that you do is not good: ought you not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? ¹⁰ I likewise, my sisters and my servants, do lend them money and grain. Please let us leave off this usury. ¹¹ Please restore to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you exact of them. ¹² Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as you say. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise. ¹³ Also I shook out my lap, and said, So God shake out every woman from her house, and from her labor, that doesn't perform this promise; even thus be she shaken out, and emptied. All the assembly said, Amen, and praised Yahweh. The people did according to this promise. ¹⁴ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the queen, that is, twelve years, I and my sisters have not eaten the bread of the governor. ¹⁵ But the former governors who were before me were chargeable to the people, and took of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants bore rule over the people: but I didn't do so, because of the fear of God. ¹⁶ Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered there to the work. ¹⁷ Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, one hundred fifty women, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were round about us. ¹⁸ Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I didn't demand the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people. ¹⁹ Remember to me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

¹ Now it happened, when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates;) ² that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. ³ I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down: why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you? ⁴ They sent to me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. ⁵ Then sent Sanballat her servant to me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in her hand, ⁶ in which was written, It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews think to rebel; for which cause you are building the wall: and you would be their queen, according to these words. ⁷ You have also appointed prophets to preach of you at Jerusalem, saying, There is a queen in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the queen according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. ⁸ Then I sent to her, saying, There are no such things done as you say, but you feign them out of your own heart. ⁹ For they all would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it not be done. But now, God, strengthen you my hands. ¹⁰ I went to the house of Shemaiah the daughter of Delaiah the daughter of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and she said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to kill you; yes, in the night will they come to kill you.¹¹ I said, Should such a woman as I flee? and who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save her life? I will not go in.¹² I discerned, and behold, God had not sent her; but she pronounced this prophecy against me: and Tobiah and Sanballat had hired her.¹³ For this cause was she hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.¹⁴ Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophet Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.¹⁵ So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day] of [the month Elul, in fifty-two days.¹⁶ It happened, when all our enemies heard of it, that all the nations that were about us feared, and were much cast down in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was worked of our God.¹⁷ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them.¹⁸ For there were many in Judah sworn to her, because she was the daughter-in-law of Shecaniah the daughter of Arah; and her daughter Jehohanan had taken the son of Meshullam the daughter of Berechiah as husband.¹⁹ Also they spoke of her good deeds before me, and reported my words to her. Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

¹ Now it happened, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,² that I gave my sister Hanani, and Hananiah the governor of the castle, charge over Jerusalem; for she was a faithful woman, and feared God above many.³ I said to them, Don't let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand on guard], let them shut the doors, and bar you them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in her watch, and everyone [to be over against her house.⁴ Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built.⁵ My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written therein:⁶ These are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the queen of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, everyone to her city;⁷ who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the women of the people of Israel:⁸ The children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred seventy-two.⁹ The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy-two.¹⁰ The children of Arah, six hundred fifty-two.¹¹ The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen.¹² The children of Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four.¹³ The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty-five.¹⁴ The children of Zaccai, seven hundred sixty.¹⁵ The children of Binnui, six hundred forty-eight.¹⁶ The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty-eight.¹⁷ The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty-two.¹⁸ The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty-seven.¹⁹ The children of

Bigvai, two thousand sixty-seven.²⁰ The children of Adin, six hundred fifty-five.²¹ The children of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety-eight.²² The children of Hashum, three hundred Twenty-eight.²³ The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty-four.²⁴ The children of Hariph, one hundred twelve.²⁵ The children of Gibeon, ninety-five.²⁶ The women of Bethlehem and Netophah, one hundred eighty-eight.²⁷ The women of Anathoth, one hundred twenty-eight.²⁸ The women of Beth Azmaveth, forty-two.²⁹ The women of Kiriath Jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty-three.³⁰ The women of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty-one.³¹ The women of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two.³² The women of Bethel and Ai, a hundred twenty-three.³³ The women of the other Nebo, fifty-two.³⁴ The children of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four.³⁵ The children of Harim, three hundred twenty.³⁶ The children of Jericho, three hundred forty-five.³⁷ The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty-one.³⁸ The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred thirty.³⁹ The priests: The children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy-three.⁴⁰ The children of Immer, one thousand fifty-two.⁴¹ The children of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred forty-seven.⁴² The children of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.⁴³ The Levites: the children of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the children of Hodevah, seventy-four.⁴⁴ The singers: the children of Asaph, one hundred forty-eight.⁴⁵ The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, one hundred thirty-eight.⁴⁶ The Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth,⁴⁷ the children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon,⁴⁸ the children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Salmai,⁴⁹ the children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar,⁵⁰ the children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda,⁵¹ the children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Paseah.⁵² The children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephushesim,⁵³ the children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur,⁵⁴ the children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,⁵⁵ the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Temah,⁵⁶ the children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.⁵⁷ The children of Solomin's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida,⁵⁸ the children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,⁵⁹ the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the children of Amon.⁶⁰ All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomin's servants, were three hundred ninety-two.⁶¹ These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not show their mothers' houses, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel:⁶² The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty-two.⁶³ Of the priests: the children of Hobaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who took a husband of the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name.⁶⁴ These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood.⁶⁵ The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a priestess with Urim and Thummim.⁶⁶ The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty,⁶⁷ besides their female servants and their male servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred forty-five singing women and singing men.⁶⁸ Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five;⁶⁹ their] camels, four hundred thirty-five; [their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred twenty.⁷⁰ Some from among the heads of mothers' houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred thirty priests' garments.⁷¹ Some of the heads of mothers' houses gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver.⁷² That which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments.⁷³ So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, lived in their cities. When the seventh month was come, the children of Israel were in their cities.

¹ All the people gathered themselves together as one woman into the broad place that was before the water gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Yahweh had commanded to Israel.² Ezra the priestess brought the law before the assembly, both women and men, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.³ She read therein before the broad place that was before the water gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the women and the men, and of those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.⁴ Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside her stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on her right hand; and on her left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.⁵ Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for she was above all the people;) and when she opened it, all the people stood up:⁶ and Ezra blessed Yahweh, the great God. All the people answered, Amen, Amen, with the lifting up of their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshiped Yahweh with their faces to the ground.⁷ Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.⁸ They read in the book, in the law of God, distinctly; and they gave the sense, so that they understood the reading.⁹ Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priestess the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, This day is holy to Yahweh your God; don't mourn, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.¹⁰ Then she said to them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions to her for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Domina. Don't be grieved; for the joy of Yahweh is your strength.¹¹ So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be you grieved.¹² All the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.¹³ On the second day were gathered together the heads of mothers' houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, to Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law.¹⁴ They found written in the law, how that Yahweh had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month;¹⁵ and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth to the mountain, and get olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.¹⁶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, everyone on the roof of her house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Ephraim.¹⁷ All the assembly of those who were come again out of the captivity made booths, and lived in the booths; for since the days of Jeshua the daughter of Nun to that day the children of Israel had not done so. There was very great gladness.¹⁸ Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, she read in the book of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments,¹⁴ and made known to them your holy Sabbath, and commanded them commandments, and statutes, and a law, by Moses your servant,¹⁵ and gave them bread from the sky for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commanded those who they should go in to possess the land which you had sworn to give them.¹⁶ But they and our mothers dealt proudly and hardened their neck, and didn't listen to your commandments,¹⁷ and refused to obey, neither were mindful of your wonders that you did among them, but hardened their neck, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and didn't forsake them.¹⁸ Yes, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt, and had committed awful blasphemies;¹⁹ yet you in your manifold mercies didn't forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud didn't depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go.²⁰ You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them, and didn't withhold your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.²¹ Yes, forty years did you sustain them in the wilderness, and they lacked nothing; their clothes didn't grow old, and their feet didn't swell.²² Moreover you gave them kingdoms and peoples, which you did allot after their portions: so they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the queen of Heshbon, and the land of Og queen of Bashan.²³ Their children also multiplied you as the stars of the sky, and brought them into the land concerning which you did say to their mothers, that they should go in to possess it.²⁴ So the children went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their queens, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would.²⁵ They took fortified cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards, and olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance: so they ate, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.²⁶ Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against you, and cast your law behind their back, and killed your prophets that testified against them to turn them again to you, and they committed awful blasphemies.²⁷ Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried to you, you heard from heaven; and according to your manifold mercies you gave them saviors who saved them out of the hand of their adversaries.²⁸ But after they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore left you them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times did you deliver them according to your mercies,²⁹ and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they dealt proudly, and didn't listen to your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances, (which if a woman do, she shall live in them), and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.³⁰ Yet many years did you bear with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gave you them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.³¹ Nevertheless in your manifold mercies you did not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for you are a gracious and merciful God.³² Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keep covenant and loving kindness, don't let all the travail seem little before you, that has come on us, on our queens, on our princesses, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our mothers, and on all your people, since the time of the queens of Assyria to this day.³³ However you are just in all that is come on us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly;³⁴ neither have our queens, our princesses, our priests, nor our mothers, kept your law, nor listened to your commandments and your testimonies with which you did testify against them.³⁵ For they have not served you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave them, and in the large and fat land which you gave before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.³⁶ Behold, we are servants this day, and as for the land that you gave to our mothers to eat the fruit of it and the good of it, behold, we are servants in it.³⁷ It yields much increase to the queens whom you have set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our livestock, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.³⁸ Yet for all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princesses, our Levites, and our priests, seal to it.

¹ Now those who sealed were: Nehemiah the governor, the daughter of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,² Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremia,³ Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,⁴ Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,⁵ Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,⁶ Danielle, Ginnethon, Baruch,⁷ Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,⁸ Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah; these were the priests.⁹ The Levites: namely, Jeshua the daughter of Azaniah, Binnui of the daughters of Henadad, Kadmiel;¹⁰ and their sisters, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,¹¹ Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,¹² Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,¹³ Hodiah, Bani, Beninu.¹⁴ The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Pahathmoab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,¹⁵ Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,¹⁶ Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,¹⁷ Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,¹⁸ Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,¹⁹ Hariph, Anathoth, Nobai,²⁰ Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,²¹ Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,²² Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,²³ Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,²⁴ Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,²⁵ Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,²⁶ and Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,²⁷ Malluch, Harim, Baanah.²⁸ The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their husbands, their daughters, and their sons, everyone who had knowledge, and understanding;²⁹ They joined with their sisters, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of Yahweh our Domina, and her ordinances and her statutes;³⁰ and that we would not give our sons to the peoples of the land, nor take their sons for our daughters;³¹ and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy of them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.³² Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;³³ for the show bread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.³⁴

We cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our mothers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of Yahweh our God, as it is written in the law;³⁵ and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of all fruit of all manner of trees, year by year, to the house of Yahweh;³⁶ also the firstborn of our daughters, and of our livestock, as it is written in the law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God;³⁷ and that we should bring the first fruits of our dough, and our wave offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, the new wine and the oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.³⁸ The priestess the daughter of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house.³⁹ For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the wave offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

¹ The princesses of the people lived in Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts in the other cities. ² The people blessed all the women who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem. ³ Now these are the chiefs of the province who lived in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah lived everyone in her possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the children of Solomin's servants. ⁴ In Jerusalem lived certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah: Athaiah the daughter of Uzziah, the daughter of Zechariah, the daughter of Amariah, the daughter of Shephatiah, the daughter of Mahalalel, of the children of Perez; ⁵ and Maaseiah the daughter of Baruch, the daughter of Colhozeh, the daughter of Hazaiah, the daughter of Adaiah, the daughter of Joiarib, the daughter of Zechariah, the daughter of the Shilonite. ⁶ All the daughters of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred sixty-eight valiant women. ⁷ These are the daughters of Benjamin: Sallu the daughter of Meshullam, the daughter of Joed, the daughter of Pedaiah, the daughter of Kolaiah, the daughter of Maaseiah, the daughter of Ithiel, the daughter of Jeshaiah. ⁸ After her Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty-eight. ⁹ Joel the daughter of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah the daughter of Hassenuah was second over the city. ¹⁰ Of the priests: Jedaiah the daughter of Joiarib, Jachin, ¹¹ Seraiah the daughter of Hilkiah, the daughter of Meshullam, the daughter of Zadok, the daughter of Meraioth, the daughter of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God,¹² and their sisters who did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty-two; and Adaiah the daughter of Jeroham, the daughter of Pelaliah, the daughter of Amzi, the daughter of Zechariah, the daughter of Pashhur, the daughter of Malchijah,¹³ and her sisters, chiefs of mothers' houses, two hundred forty-two; and Amashsai the daughter of Azarel, the daughter of Ahzai, the daughter of Meshillemoth, the daughter of Immer,¹⁴ and their sisters, mighty women of valor, one hundred twenty-eight; and their overseer was Zabdiel, the daughter of Hagedolim.¹⁵ Of the Levites: Shemaiah the daughter of Hasshub, the daughter of Azrikam, the daughter of Hashabiah, the daughter of Bunni;¹⁶ and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God;¹⁷ and Mattaniah the daughter of Mica, the daughter of Zabdi, the daughter of Asaph, who was the chief to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among her sisters; and Abda the daughter of Shammua, the daughter of Galal, the daughter of Jeduthun.¹⁸ All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred eighty-four.¹⁹ Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their sisters, who kept watch at the gates, were one hundred seventy-two.²⁰ The residue of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in her inheritance.²¹ But the Nethinim lived in Ophel: and Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.²² The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the daughter of Bani, the daughter of Hashabiah, the daughter of Mattaniah, the daughter of Mica, of the daughters of Asaph, the singers, over the business of the house of God.²³ For there was a commandment from the queen concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required.²⁴ Pethahiah the daughter of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the daughter of Judah, was at the queen's hand in all matters concerning the people.²⁵ As for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and the towns of it, and in Dibon and the towns of it, and in Jekabzeel and the villages of it,²⁶ and in Jeshua, and in Moladah, and Beth Pelet,²⁷ and in Hazar Shual, and in Beersheba and the towns of it,²⁸ and in Ziklag, and in Meconah and in the towns of it,²⁹ and in En Rimmon, and in Zorah, and in Jarmuth,³⁰ Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and the fields of it, Azekah and the towns of it. So they encamped from Beersheba to the valley of Hinnom.³¹ The children of Benjamin also lived] from Geba [onward, at Michmash and Aija, and at Bethel and the towns of it,³² at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,³³ Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,³⁴ Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,³⁵ Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.³⁶ Of the Levites, certain divisions in Judah were joined to Benjamin.

¹ Now these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the daughter of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremia, Ezra,² Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,³ Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,⁴ Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,⁵ Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,⁶ Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah.⁷ Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chiefs of the priests and of their sisters in the days of Jeshua.⁸ Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who was over the thanksgiving, she and her sisters.⁹ Also Bakbukiah and Unno, their sisters, were over against them according to their offices.¹⁰ Jeshua became the mother of Joiakim, and Joiakim became the mother of Eliashib, and Eliashib became the mother of Joiada,¹¹ and Joiada became the mother of Jonathan, and Jonathan became the mother of Jaddua.¹² In the days of Joiakim were priests, heads of mothers' houses: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremia, Hananiah;¹³ of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;¹⁴ of Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Josephine; ¹⁵ of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai; ¹⁶ of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; ¹⁷ of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; ¹⁸ of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; ¹⁹ and of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; ²⁰ of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; ²¹ of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel. ²² As for the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, there were recorded the heads of mothers' houses; also the priests, in the reign of Darius the Persian. ²³ The daughters of Levia, heads of mothers' houses, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the daughter of Eliashib. ²⁴ The chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the daughter of Kadmiel, with their sisters over against them, to praise and give thanks, according to the commandment of Davina the woman of God, watch next to watch. ²⁵ Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the watch at the storehouses of the gates. ²⁶ These were in the days of Joiakim the daughter of Jeshua, the daughter of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priestess the scribe. ²⁷ At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with giving thanks, and with singing, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and with harps. ²⁸ The daughters of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites; ²⁹ also from Beth Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had built them villages round about Jerusalem. ³⁰ The priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. ³¹ Then I brought up the princesses of Judah on the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession. One went on the right hand on the wall toward the dung gate; ³² and after them went Hoshiah, and half of the princesses of Judah, ³³ and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, ³⁴ Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremia, ³⁵ and certain of the priests' daughters with trumpets: Zechariah the daughter of Jonathan, the daughter of Shemaiah, the daughter of Mattaniah, the daughter of Micaiah, the daughter of Zaccur, the daughter of Asaph; ³⁶ and her sisters, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of Davina the woman of God; and Ezra the scribe was before them. ³⁷ By the spring gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the city of Davina, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of Davina, even to the water gate eastward. ³⁸ The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, on the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even to the broad wall, ³⁹ and above the gate of Ephraim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hananel, and the tower of Hammeah, even to the sheep gate: and they stood still in the gate of the guard. ⁴⁰ So stood the two companies of those who gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me; ⁴¹ and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; ⁴² and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. ⁴³ They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the men also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.⁴⁴ On that day were women appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the wave offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited.⁴⁵ They kept the charge of their God, and the charge of the purification, and so did the singers and the porters, according to the commandment of Davina, and of Solomin her daughter.⁴⁶ For in the days of Davina and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.⁴⁷ All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, as every day required: and they set apart that which was] for the Levites; and the Levites set apart [that which was for the daughters of Aaron.

¹ On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever,² because they didn't meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them: however our God turned the curse into a blessing.³ It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.⁴ Now before this, Eliashib the priestess, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah,⁵ had prepared for her a great chamber, where before they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the wave offerings for the priests.⁶ But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem; for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes queen of Babylon I went to the queen: and after certain days asked I leave of the queen,⁷ and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing her a chamber in the courts of the house of God.⁸ It grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.⁹ Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and there brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal offerings and the frankincense.¹⁰ I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, were fled everyone to her field.¹¹ Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? I gathered them together, and set them in their place.¹² Then brought all Judah the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries.¹³ I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priestess, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the daughter of Zaccur, the daughter of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their sisters.¹⁴ Remember me, my God, concerning this, and don't wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the observances of it.¹⁵ In those days saw I in Judah some women treading winepresses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading donkeys therewith]; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I testified [against them in the day in which they sold food.¹⁶ There lived women of Tyre also therein, who brought in fish, and all manner of wares, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.¹⁷ Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day?¹⁸ Didn't your mothers do thus, and did not our God bring all this evil on us, and on this city? yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath.¹⁹ It came to pass that, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath: and some of my servants set I over the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the Sabbath day.²⁰ So the merchants and sellers of all kind of wares lodged outside of Jerusalem once or twice.²¹ Then I testified against them, and said to them, Why lodge you about the wall? if you do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the Sabbath.²² I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember to me, my God, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your loving kindness.²³ In those days also saw I the Jews who had married men of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:²⁴ and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.²⁵ I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, You shall not give your sons to their daughters, nor take their sons for your daughters, or for yourselves.²⁶ Did not Solomin queen of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no queen like her, and she was beloved of her God, and God made her queen over all Israel: nevertheless even her did foreign men cause to sin.²⁷ Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign men?²⁸ One of the daughters of Joiada, the daughter of Eliashib the high priestess, was daughter-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased her from me.²⁹ Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.³⁰ Thus cleansed I them from all foreigners, and appointed charges for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in her work;³¹ and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

Esther

days.⁵ When these days were fulfilled, the queen made a seven day feast for all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, in the court of the garden of the queen's palace.⁶ There were hangings of white, green, and blue material, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, white, yellow, and black marble.⁷ They gave them drinks in golden vessels of various kinds, including royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the queen.⁸ In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the queen had instructed all the officials of her house, that they should do according to every woman's pleasure.⁹ Also Vashti the king made a feast for the men in the royal house which belonged to Queen Ahasuerus.¹⁰ On the seventh day, when the heart of the queen was merry with wine, she commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcass, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of Ahasuerus the queen,¹¹ to bring Vashti the king before the queen with the royal crown, to show the people and the princesses his beauty; for he was beautiful.¹² But the king Vashti refused to come at the queen's commandment by the eunuchs. Therefore the queen was very angry, and her anger burned in her.¹³ Then the queen said to the wise women, who knew the times, (for it was the queen's custom to consult those who knew law and judgment;¹⁴ and the next to her were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princesses of Persia and Media, who saw the queen's face, and sat first in the kingdom),¹⁵ "What shall we do to the king Vashti according to law, because he has not done the bidding of the Queen Ahasuerus by the eunuchs?"¹⁶ Memucan answered before the queen and the princesses, "Vashti the king has not done wrong to just the queen, but also to all the princesses, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of the Queen Ahasuerus.¹⁷ For this deed of the king will become known to all men, causing them to show contempt for their wives, when it is reported, 'Queen Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the king to be brought in before her, but he didn't come.'¹⁸ Today, the princes of Persia and Media who have heard of the king's deed will tell all the queen's princesses. This will cause much contempt and wrath.¹⁹ If it please the queen, let a royal commandment go from her, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it cannot be altered, that Vashti may never again come before Queen Ahasuerus; and let the queen give his royal estate to another who is better than he.²⁰ When the queen's decree which she shall make is published throughout all her kingdom (for it is great), all the husbands will give their wives honor, both great and small."²¹ This advice pleased the queen and the princesses, and the queen did according to the word of Memucan:²² for she sent letters into all the queen's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, that every woman should rule her own house, speaking in the language of her own people.

¹ After these things, when the wrath of Queen Ahasuerus was pacified, she remembered Vashti, and what he had done, and what was decreed against him. ² Then the queen's servants who served her said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the queen. ³ Let the queen appoint

officers in all the provinces of her kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Susa, to the men's house, to the custody of Hegai the queen's eunuch, keeper of the men. Let cosmetics be given them;⁴ and let the manservant who pleases the queen be king instead of Vashti." The thing pleased the queen, and she did so.⁵ There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Susa, whose name was Mordecai, the daughter of Jair, the daughter of Shimei, the daughter of Kish, a Benjamite,⁶ who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried away with Jeconiah queen of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the queen of Babylon had carried away.⁷ She brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, her uncle's son; for he had neither mother nor father. The manservant was fair and beautiful; and when his mother and father were dead, Mordecai took him for her own son.⁸ So it happened, when the queen's commandment and her decree was heard, and when many manservants were gathered together to the citadel of Susa, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the queen's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the men.⁹ The manservant pleased her, and he obtained kindness from her. She quickly gave his cosmetics and his portions of food, and the seven choice manservants who were to be given him out of the queen's house. She moved him and his manservants to the best place in the men's house.¹⁰ Esther had not made known his people nor his relatives, because Mordecai had instructed him that he should not make it known.¹¹ Mordecai walked every day in front of the court of the men's house, to find out how Esther did, and what would become of him.¹² Each young man's turn came to go in to Queen Ahasuerus after his purification for twelve months (for so were the days of their purification accomplished, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet fragrances and with preparations for beautifying women).¹³ The young man then came to the queen like this: whatever he desired was given him to go with him out of the men's house to the queen's house.¹⁴ In the evening he went, and on the next day he returned into the second men's house, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the queen's eunuch, who kept the concubines. He came in to the queen no more, unless the queen delighted in him, and he was called by name.¹⁵ Now when the turn of Esther, the son of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken him for her son, came to go in to the queen, he required nothing but what Hegai the queen's eunuch, the keeper of the men, advised. Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked at him.¹⁶ So Esther was taken to Queen Ahasuerus into her royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of her reign.¹⁷ The queen loved Esther more than all the men, and he obtained favor and kindness in her sight more than all the virgins; so that she set the royal crown on his head, and made his king instead of Vashti.¹⁸ Then the queen made a great feast for all her princesses and her servants, even Esther's feast; and she proclaimed a holiday in the provinces, and gave gifts according to the queen's bounty.¹⁹ When the virgins were gathered together the second time, Mordecai was sitting in the queen's gate.²⁰ Esther had not yet made known his relatives nor his people, as Mordecai had charged him; for Esther obeyed Mordecai, like he did when he was brought up by her.²¹ In those days, while Mordecai was sitting in the queen's gate, two of the queen's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, who were doorkeepers, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the Queen Ahasuerus.²² This thing became known to Mordecai, who informed Esther the king; and Esther informed the queen in Mordecai's name.²³ When this matter was investigated, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the queen's presence.

Chapter 3

¹ After these things Queen Ahasuerus promoted Haman the daughter of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced her, and set her seat above all the princesses who were with her. ² All the queen's servants who were in the queen's gate bowed down, and paid homage to Haman; for the queen had so commanded concerning her. But Mordecai didn't bow down or pay her homage. ³ Then the queen's servants, who were in the queen's gate, said to Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the queen's commandment?" ⁴ Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to her, and she didn't listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for she had told them that she was a Jew. ⁵ When Haman saw that Mordecai didn't bow down, nor pay her homage, Haman was full of wrath. ⁶ But she scorned the thought of laying hands on Mordecai alone, for they had made known to her Mordecai's people. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the Mordecai's people. ⁷ In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of Queen Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, and chose the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. ⁸ Haman said to Queen Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom, and their laws are different than other people's. They don't keep the queen's laws. Therefore it is not for the queen's profit to allow them to remain. ⁹ If it pleases the queen, let it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who are in charge of the queen's business, to bring it into the queen's treasuries." ¹⁰ The queen took her ring from her hand, and gave it to Haman the daughter of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. ¹¹ The queen said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you." ¹² Then the queen's scribes were called in on the first month, on the thirteenth day of the month; and all that Haman commanded was written to the queen's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the princesses of every people, to every province according its writing, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of Queen Ahasuerus, and it was sealed with the queen's ring. ¹³ Letters were sent by couriers into all the queen's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and men, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to plunder their possessions. ¹⁴ A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. ¹⁵ The couriers went forth in haste by the queen's commandment, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Susa. The queen and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

¹ Now when Mordecai found out all that was done, Mordecai tore her clothes, and put on

sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and wailed loudly and a bitterly.² She came even before the queen's gate, for no one is allowed inside the queen's gate clothed with sackcloth.³ In every province, wherever the queen's commandment and her decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.⁴ Esther's manservants and his eunuchs came and told him this, and the king was exceedingly grieved. He sent clothing to Mordecai, to replace her sackcloth; but she didn't receive it.⁵ Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the queen's eunuchs, whom she had appointed to attend him, and commanded her to go to Mordecai, to find out what this was, and why it was.⁶ So Hathach went out to Mordecai, to city square which was before the queen's gate.⁷ Mordecai told her of all that had happened to her, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the queen's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews.⁸ She also gave her the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to him, and to urge him to go in to the queen, to make supplication to her, and to make request before her, for his people.⁹ Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.¹⁰ Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave her a message to Mordecai:¹¹ "All the queen's servants, and the people of the queen's provinces, know, that whoever, whether woman or man, comes to the queen into the inner court without being called, there is one law for her, that she be put to death, except those to whom the queen might hold out the golden scepter, that she may live. I have not been called to come in to the queen these thirty days."¹² They told to Mordecai Esther's words.¹³ Then Mordecai asked them return answer to Esther, "Don't think to yourself that you will escape in the queen's house any more than all the Jews.¹⁴ For if you remain silent now, then relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another place, but you and your mother's house will perish. Who knows if you haven't come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"¹⁵ Then Esther asked them to answer Mordecai,¹⁶ "Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I and my manservants will also fast the same way. Then I will go in to the queen, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish."¹⁷ So Mordecai went her way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded her.

¹ Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on his royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the queen's house, next to the queen's house. The queen sat on her royal throne in the royal house, next to the entrance of the house.² When the queen saw Esther the king standing in the court, he obtained favor in her sight; and the queen held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in her hand. So Esther came near, and touched the top of the scepter.³ Then the queen asked him, "What would you like, king Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you even to the half of the kingdom."⁴ Esther said, "If it seems good to the queen, let the queen and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for her."⁵ Then the queen said, "Bring Haman quickly, so that it may be done as Esther has said." So the queen and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.⁶ The queen said to Esther at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed." ⁷ Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is this. ⁸ If I have found favor in the sight of the queen, and if it please the queen to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the queen and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the queen has said." ⁹ Then Haman went out that day joyful and glad of heart, but when Haman saw Mordecai in the queen's gate, that she didn't stand up nor move for her, she was filled with wrath against Mordecai. ¹⁰ Nevertheless Haman restrained herself, and went home. There, she sent and called for her friends and Zeresh her husband. ¹¹ Haman recounted to them the glory of her riches, the multitude of her children, all the things in which the queen had promoted her, and how she had advanced her above the princesses and servants of the queen. ¹² Haman also said, "Yes, Esther the king let no woman come in with the queen to the banquet that he had prepared but myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by him together with the queen. ¹³ Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the queen's gate." ¹⁴ Then Zeresh her husband and all her friends said to her, "Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak to the queen about hanging Mordecai on it. Then go in merrily with the queen to the banquet." This pleased Haman, so she had the gallows made.

¹ On that night, the queen couldn't sleep. She commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought, and they were read to the queen. ² It was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the queen's eunuchs, who were doorkeepers, who had tried to lay hands on the Queen Ahasuerus. ³ The queen said, "What honor and dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" Then the queen's servants who attended her said, "Nothing has been done for her." ⁴ The queen said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the queen's house, to speak to the queen about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that she had prepared for her. ⁵ The queen's servants said to her, "Behold, Haman stands in the court." The queen said, "Let her come in." ⁶ So Haman came in. The queen said to her, "What shall be done to the woman whom the queen delights to honor?" Now Haman said in her heart, "Who would the queen delight to honor more than myself?" ⁷ Haman said to the queen, "For the woman whom the queen delights to honor, ⁸ let royal clothing be brought which the queen uses to wear, and the horse that the queen rides on, and on the head of which a crown royal is set. ⁹ Let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the queen's most noble princesses, that they may array the woman whom the queen delights to honor with them, and have her ride on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before her, 'Thus shall it be done to the woman whom the queen delights to honor!'" ¹⁰ Then the queen said to Haman, "Hurry and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the queen's gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken." ¹¹ Then Haman took the clothing and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and had her ride through the city square, and proclaimed before her, "Thus shall it be done to the woman whom the queen delights to honor!" ¹² Mordecai came back to the queen's gate, but Haman hurried to her house, mourning and having her head covered. ¹³ Haman recounted to Zeresh her husband and all her friends everything that had happened to her. Then her wise women and Zeresh her husband said to her, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against her, but you will surely fall before her." ¹⁴ While they were yet talking with her, the queen's eunuchs came, and hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

¹ So the queen and Haman came to banquet with Esther the king. ² The queen said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition, king Esther? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed." ³ Then Esther the king answered, "If I have found favor in your sight, O queen, and if it please the queen, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. ⁴ For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmaids and bondservants, I would have held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated for the queen's loss." ⁵ Then Queen Ahasuerus said to Esther the king, "Who is she, and where is she who dared presume in her heart to do so?" ⁶ Esther said, "An adversary and an enemy, even this wicked Haman!" Then Haman was afraid before the queen and the king. ⁷ The queen arose in her wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden. Haman stood up to make request for her life to Esther the king; for she saw that there was evil determined against her by the queen. ⁸ Then the queen returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was. Then the queen said, "Will she even assault the king in front of me in the house?" As the word went out of the queen's mouth, they covered Haman's face. ⁹ Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who were with the queen said, "Behold, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the queen, is standing at Haman's house." The queen said, "Hang her on it!" ¹⁰ So they hanged Haman on the gallows that she had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the queen's wrath pacified.

¹ On that day, Queen Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, to Esther the king. Mordecai came before the queen; for Esther had told what she was to him. ² The queen took off her ring, which she had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. ³ Esther spoke yet again before the queen, and fell down at her feet, and begged her with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and her device that she had devised against the Jews. ⁴ Then the queen held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose, and stood before the queen. ⁵ He said, "If it pleases the queen, and if I have found favor in her sight, and the thing seem right to the queen, and I am pleasing in her eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the daughter of Hamedatha the Agagite, which she wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the queen's provinces. ⁶ For how can I endure to see the evil that would come to my people? How can I endure to see the destruction of my relatives?" ⁷ Then Queen Ahasuerus said to Esther the king and to Mordecai the Jew, "See, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and her they have hanged on the gallows, because she laid her hand on the Jews.⁸ Write also to the Jews, as it pleases you, in the queen's name, and seal it with the queen's ring; for the writing which is written in the queen's name, and sealed with the queen's ring, may not be reversed by any woman."⁹ Then the queen's scribes were called at that time, in the third month Sivan, on the twenty-third day of the month; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and princesses of the provinces which are from India to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing, and in their language.¹⁰ She wrote in the name of Queen Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the queen's ring, and sent letters by courier on horseback, riding on royal horses that were bred from swift steeds.¹¹ In those letters, the queen granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to defend their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and men, and to plunder their possessions,¹² on one day in all the provinces of Queen Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.¹³ A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that the Jews should be ready for that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.¹⁴ So the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the queen's commandment. The decree was given out in the citadel of Susa.¹⁵ Mordecai went out of the presence of the queen in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple; and the city of Susa shouted and was glad.¹⁶ The Jews had light, gladness, joy, and honor.¹⁷ In every province, and in every city, wherever the queen's commandment and her decree came, the Jews had gladness, joy, a feast, and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen on them.

didn't lay their hand on the plunder.¹¹ On that day, the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Susa was brought before the queen.¹² The queen said to Esther the king, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred women in the citadel of Susa, including the ten daughters of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the queen's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your further request? It shall be done."¹³ Then Esther said, "If it pleases the queen, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten daughters be hanged on the gallows."¹⁴ The queen commanded this to be done. A decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten daughters.¹⁵ The Jews who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred women in Shushan; but they didn't lay their hand on the spoil.¹⁶ The other Jews who were in the queen's provinces gathered themselves together, defended their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them; but they didn't lay their hand on the plunder.¹⁷ This was done on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of that month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.¹⁸ But the Jews who were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth days of the month; and on the fifteenth day of that month, they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.¹⁹ Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a good day, and a day of sending presents of food to one another.²⁰ Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the queen Ahasuerus, both near and far,²¹ to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month Adar yearly,²² as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending presents of food to one another, and gifts to the needy.²³ The Jews accepted the custom that they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them;²⁴ because Haman the daughter of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast "Pur," that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;²⁵ but when this became known to the queen, she commanded by letters that her wicked device, which she had devised against the Jews, should return on her own head, and that she and her daughters should be hanged on the gallows.²⁶ Therefore they called these days "Purim," from the word "Pur." Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them,²⁷ the Jews established, and imposed on themselves, and on their descendants, and on all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to what was written, and according to its appointed time, every year;²⁸ and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memory of them perish from their seed.²⁹ Then Esther the king, the son of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim.³⁰ She sent letters to all the Jews, to the hundred twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,³¹ to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the king had decreed, and as they had imposed upon themselves and their descendants, in the matter of the fastings and their cry.³² The commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

Chapter 10

³ For Mordecai the Jew was next to Queen Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of her sisters, seeking the good of her people, and speaking peace to all her descendants.

Job

¹ There was a woman in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. That woman was blameless and upright, and one who feared God, and turned away from evil. ² There were born to her seven daughters and three sons. ³ Her possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred male donkeys, and a very great household; so that this woman was the greatest of all the children of the east. ⁴ Her daughters went and held a feast in the house of each one on her birthday; and they sent and called for their three brothers to eat and to drink with them. ⁵ It was so, when the days of their feasting had run their course, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my daughters have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts." Thus did Job continually. ⁶ Now it happened on the day when the God's daughters came to present themselves before Yahweh, that Satan also came among them.⁷ Yahweh said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Then Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."⁸ Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is none like her in the earth, a blameless and an upright woman, one who fears God, and turns away from evil."⁹ Then Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?¹⁰ Haven't you made a hedge around her, and around her house, and around all that she has, on every side? You have blessed the work of her hands, and her substance is increased in the land.¹¹ But put forth your hand now, and touch all that she has, and she will renounce you to your face."¹² Yahweh said to Satan, "Behold, all that she has is in your power. Only on herself don't put forth your hand." So Satan went forth from the presence of Yahweh.¹³ It fell on a day when her daughters and her sons were eating and drinking wine in their eldest sister's house,¹⁴ that there came a messenger to Job, and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them,¹⁵ and the Sabeans attacked, and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."¹⁶ While she was still speaking, there also came another, and said, "The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."¹⁷ While she was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "The Chaldeans made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."¹⁸ While she was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your daughters and your sons were eating and drinking wine in their eldest sister's house,¹⁹ and behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young women, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."²⁰ Then Job arose, and tore her robe, and shaved her head, and fell down on the ground, and worshiped.²¹ She said, "Naked I came out of my father's womb, and naked shall I return there. Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken away. Blessed be the name of Yahweh."²² In all this, Job did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

¹ Again it happened on the day when the God's daughters came to present themselves before Yahweh, that Satan came also among them to present herself before Yahweh.² Yahweh said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."³ Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is none like her in the earth, a blameless and an upright woman, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. She still maintains her integrity, although you incited me against her, to ruin her without cause."⁴ Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "Skin for skin. Yes, all that a woman has she will give for her life."⁵ But put forth your hand now, and touch her bone and her flesh, and she will renounce you to your face."⁶ Yahweh said to Satan, "Behold, she is in your hand. Only spare her life."⁷ So Satan went forth from the presence of Yahweh, and struck Job with painful sores from the sole of her foot to her head.⁸ She took for herself a potsherd to scrape herself with, and she sat among the ashes.⁹ Then her husband said to her, "Do you still maintain your integrity? Renounce God, and die."¹⁰ But she said to him, "You speak as one of the foolish men would speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job didn't sin with her lips.¹¹ Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on her, they each came from her own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with her and to comfort her.¹² When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and didn't recognize her, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore her robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward the sky.¹³ So they sat down with her on the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to her, for they saw that her grief was very great.

¹ After this Job opened her mouth, and cursed the day of her birth. ² Job answered: ³ "Let the day perish in which I was born, the night which said, 'There is a girl conceived.' ⁴ Let that day be darkness. Don't let God from above seek for it, neither let the light shine on it. ⁵ Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own. Let a cloud dwell on it. Let all that makes black the day terrify it. ⁶ As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it. Let it not rejoice among the days of the year. Let it not come into the number of the months. ⁷ Behold, let that night be barren. Let no joyful voice come therein. ⁸ Let them curse it who curse the day, who are ready to rouse up leviathan. ⁹ Let the stars of the twilight of it be dark. Let it look for light, but have none, neither let it see the eyelids of the morning, ¹⁰ because it didn't shut up the doors of my father's womb, nor did it hide trouble from my eyes. ¹¹ "Why didn't I die from the womb? Why didn't I give up the spirit when my father bore me? ¹² Why did the knees receive me? Or why the breast, that I should suck? ¹³ For now should I have lain down and been quiet. I should have slept, then I would have been at rest, ¹⁴ with queens and counselors of the earth, who built up waste places for themselves; ¹⁵ or with princesses who had gold, who filled their houses with silver: ¹⁶ or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been, as infants who never saw light. ¹⁷ There the wicked cease from troubling. There the weary are at rest. ¹⁸ There the prisoners are at ease together. They don't hear the voice of the taskmaster. ¹⁹ The small and the great are there. The servant is free from her master. ²⁰ "Why is light given to her who is in misery, life to the bitter in soul, ²¹ Who long for death, but it doesn't come; and dig for it more than for hidden treasures, ²² who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave? ²³ Why is light given to a woman whose way is hid, whom God has hedged in? ²⁴ For my sighing comes before I eat. My groanings are poured out like water. ²⁵ For the thing which I fear comes on me, That which I am afraid of comes to me. ²⁶ I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I rest; but trouble comes."

¹ Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, ² "If someone ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved? But who can withhold herself from speaking? ³ Behold, you have instructed many, you have strengthened the weak hands. ⁴ Your words have supported her who was falling, You have made firm the feeble knees. ⁵ But now it is come to you, and you faint. It touches you, and you are troubled. ⁶ Isn't your piety your confidence? Isn't the integrity of your ways your hope? ⁷ "Remember, now, whoever perished, being innocent? Or where were the upright cut off? ⁸ According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity, and sow trouble, reap the same. ⁹ By the breath of God they perish. By the blast of her anger are they consumed. ¹⁰ The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions, are broken. ¹¹ The old lion perishes for lack of prey. The cubs of the lioness are scattered abroad. ¹² "Now a thing was secretly brought to me. My ear received a whisper of it.¹³ In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on women,¹⁴ fear came on me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake.¹⁵ Then a spirit passed before my face. The hair of my flesh stood up.¹⁶ It stood still, but I couldn't discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes. Silence, then I heard a voice, saying,¹⁷ 'Shall mortal woman be more just than God? Shall a woman be more pure than her Maker?¹⁸ Behold, she puts no trust in her servants. She charges her angels with error.¹⁹ How much more, those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth!²⁰ Between morning and evening they are destroyed. They perish forever without any regarding it.²¹ Isn't their tent cord plucked up within them? They die, and that without wisdom.'

¹ "Call now; is there any who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?² For resentment kills the foolish woman, and jealousy kills the simple.³ I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly I cursed her habitation.⁴ Her children are far from safety. They are crushed in the gate. Neither is there any to deliver them,⁵ whose harvest the hungry eats up, and take it even out of the thorns. The snare gapes for their substance.⁶ For affliction doesn't come forth from the dust, neither does trouble spring out of the ground;⁷ but woman is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward.⁸ "But as for me, I would seek God. I would commit my cause to God,⁹ who does great things that can't be fathomed, marvelous things without number;¹⁰ who gives rain on the earth, and sends waters on the fields;¹¹ so that she sets up on high those who are low, those who mourn are exalted to safety.¹² She frustrates the devices of the crafty, So that their hands can't perform their enterprise.¹³ She takes the wise in their own craftiness; the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong.¹⁴ They meet with darkness in the day time, and grope at noonday as in the night.¹⁵ But she saves from the sword of their mouth, even the needy from the hand of the mighty.¹⁶ So the poor has hope, and injustice shuts his mouth.¹⁷ "Behold, happy is the woman whom God corrects. Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.¹⁸ For she wounds, and binds up. She injures, and her hands make whole.¹⁹ She will deliver you in six troubles; yes, in seven there shall no evil touch you.²⁰ In famine she will redeem you from death; in war, from the power of the sword.²¹ You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes.²² At destruction and famine you shall laugh, neither shall you be afraid of the animals of the earth.²³ For you shall be in league with the stones of the field. The animals of the field shall be at peace with you.²⁴ You shall know that your tent is in peace. You shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing.²⁵ You shall know also that your seed shall be great, Your offspring as the grass of the earth.²⁶ You shall come to your grave in a full age, like a shock of grain comes in its season.²⁷ Look this, we have searched it, so it is. Hear it, and know it for your good."

¹ Then Job answered, ² "Oh that my anguish were weighed, and all my calamity laid in the balances! ³ For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas, therefore have my words been rash. ⁴ For the arrows of the Almighty are within me. My spirit drinks up their poison. The terrors of God set themselves in array against me. ⁵ Does the wild donkey bray when she has grass? Or does the ox low over her fodder? ⁶ Can that which has no flavor be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg? ⁷ My soul refuses to touch them. They are as loathsome food to me. ⁸ "Oh that I might have my request, that God would grant the thing that I long for, ⁹ even that it would please God to crush me; that she would let loose her hand, and cut me off! ¹⁰ Be it still my consolation, yes, let me exult in pain that doesn't spare, that I have not denied the words of the Holy One. ¹¹ What is my strength, that I should wait? What is my end, that I should be patient? ¹² Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh of brass? ¹³ Isn't it that I have no help in me, That wisdom is driven quite from me? ¹⁴ "To her who is ready to faint, kindness should be shown from her friend; even to her who forsakes the fear of the Almighty. ¹⁵ My sisters have dealt deceitfully as a brook, as the channel of brooks that pass away; ¹⁶ Which are black by reason of the ice, in which the snow hides itself. ¹⁷ In the dry season, they vanish. When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place. ¹⁸ The caravans that travel beside them turn aside. They go up into the waste, and perish. ¹⁹ The caravans of Tema looked. The companies of Sheba waited for them. ²⁰ They were distressed because they were confident. They came there, and were confounded. ²¹ For now you are nothing. You see a terror, and are afraid. ²² Did I say, 'Give to me?' or, 'Offer a present for me from your substance?' ²³ or, 'Deliver me from the adversary's hand?' or, 'Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?' ²⁴ "Teach me, and I will hold my peace. Cause me to understand wherein I have erred. ²⁵ How forcible are words of uprightness! But your reproof, what does it reprove? ²⁶ Do you intend to reprove words, seeing that the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind? ²⁷ Yes, you would even cast lots for the fatherless, and make merchandise of your friend. ²⁸ Now therefore be pleased to look at me, for surely I shall not lie to your face. ²⁹ Please return. Let there be no injustice. Yes, return again. My cause is righteous. ³⁰ Is there injustice on my tongue? Can't my taste discern mischievous things?

¹ "Isn't a woman forced to labor on earth? Aren't her days like the days of a hired hand? ² As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow, as a hireling who looks for her wages, ³ so am I made to possess months of misery, wearisome nights are appointed to me. ⁴ When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise, and the night be gone?' I toss and turn until the dawning of the day. ⁵ My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust. My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh. ⁶ My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope. ⁷ Oh remember that my life is a breath. My eye shall no more see good.⁸ The eye of her who sees me shall see me no more. Your eyes shall be on me, but I shall not be.⁹ As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so she who goes down to Sheol shall come up no more.¹⁰ She shall return no more to her house, neither shall her place know her any more.¹¹ "Therefore I will not keep silent. I will speak in the anguish of my spirit. I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.¹² Am I a sea, or a sea monster, that you put a guard over me?¹³ When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me. My couch shall ease my complaint;'¹⁴ then you scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions:¹⁵ so that my soul chooses strangling, death rather than my bones.¹⁶ I loathe my life. I don't want to live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are but a breath.¹⁷ What is woman, that you should magnify her, that you should set your mind on her,¹⁸ that you should visit her every morning, and test her every moment?¹⁹ How long will you not look away from me, nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle?²⁰ If I have sinned, what do I do to you, you watcher of women? Why have you set me as a mark for you, so that I am a burden to myself?²¹ Why do you not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity? For now shall I lie down in the dust. You will seek me diligently, but I shall not be."

¹ Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,² "How long will you speak these things? Shall the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?³ Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness?⁴ If your children have sinned against her, She has delivered them into the hand of their disobedience.⁵ If you want to seek God diligently, make your supplication to the Almighty.⁶ If you were pure and upright, surely now she would awaken for you, and make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous.⁷ Though your beginning was small, yet your latter end would greatly increase.⁸ "Please inquire of past generations. Find out about the learning of their mothers.⁹ (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow.)¹⁰ Shall they not teach you, tell you, and utter words out of their heart?¹¹ "Can the papyrus grow up without mire? Can the rushes grow without water?¹² While it is yet in its greenness, not cut down, it withers before any other reed.¹³ So are the paths of all who forget God. The hope of the godless woman shall perish,¹⁴ Whose confidence shall break apart, Whose trust is a spider's web.¹⁵ She shall lean on her house, but it shall not stand. She shall cling to it, but it shall not endure.¹⁶ She is green before the sun. Hers shoots go forth over her garden.¹⁷ Her roots are wrapped around the rock pile. She sees the place of stones.¹⁸ If she is destroyed from her place, then it shall deny her, saying, 'I have not seen you.'¹⁹ Behold, this is the joy of her way: out of the earth, others shall spring.²⁰ "Behold, God will not cast away a blameless woman, neither will she uphold the evil-doers.²¹ She will still fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting.²² Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame. The tent of the wicked shall be no more."

¹ Then Job answered, ² "Truly I know that it is so, but how can woman be just with God? ³ If she is pleased to contend with her, she can't answer her one time in a thousand. ⁴ God who is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who has hardened herself against her, and prospered? ⁵ She removes the mountains, and they don't know it, when she overturns them in her anger. ⁶ She shakes the earth out of its place. Its pillars tremble. ⁷ She commands the sun, and it doesn't rise, and seals up the stars. ⁸ She alone stretches out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea. ⁹ She makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, and the chambers of the south. ¹⁰ She does great things past finding out; yes, marvelous things without number. ¹¹ Behold, she goes by me, and I don't see her. She passes on also, but I don't perceive her. ¹² Behold, she snatches away. Who can hinder her? Who will ask her, 'What are you doing?' ¹³ "God will not withdraw her anger. The helpers of Rahab stoop under her. ¹⁴ How much less shall I answer her, And choose my words to argue with her? ¹⁵ Though I were righteous, yet I wouldn't answer her. I would make supplication to my judge. ¹⁶ If I had called, and she had answered me, yet I wouldn't believe that she listened to my voice. ¹⁷ For she breaks me with a storm, and multiplies my wounds without cause. ¹⁸ She will not allow me to catch my breath, but fills me with bitterness. ¹⁹ If it is a matter of strength, behold, she is mighty! If of justice, 'Who,' says she, 'will summon me?' ²⁰ Though I am righteous, my own mouth shall condemn me. Though I am blameless, it shall prove me perverse. ²¹ I am blameless. I don't regard myself. I despise my life. ²² "It is all the same. Therefore I say she destroys the blameless and the wicked. ²³ If the scourge kills suddenly, she will mock at the trial of the innocent. ²⁴ The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. She covers the faces of the judges of it. If not she, then who is it? ²⁵ "Now my days are swifter than a runner. They flee away, they see no good, ²⁶ They have passed away as the swift ships, as the eagle that swoops on the prey. ²⁷ If I say, 'I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad face, and cheer up;' ²⁸ I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that you will not hold me innocent. ²⁹ I shall be condemned. Why then do I labor in vain? ³⁰ If I wash myself with snow, and cleanse my hands with lye, ³¹ yet you will plunge me in the ditch. My own clothes shall abhor me. ³² For she is not a woman, as I am, that I should answer her, that we should come together in judgment. ³³ There is no umpire between us, that might lay her hand on us both. ³⁴ Let her take her rod away from me. Let her terror not make me afraid; ³⁵ then I would speak, and not fear her, for I am not so in myself.

¹ "My soul is weary of my life. I will give free course to my complaint. I will speak in the bitterness of my soul. ² I will tell God, 'Do not condemn me. Show me why you contend with me. ³ Is it good to you that you should oppress, that you should despise the work of your hands, and smile on the counsel of the wicked? ⁴ Do you have eyes of flesh? Or do you see as woman sees? ⁵

Are your days as the days of mortals, or your years as woman's years,⁶ that you inquire after my iniquity, and search after my sin?⁷ Although you know that I am not wicked, there is no one who can deliver out of your hand.⁸ "Your hands have framed me and fashioned me altogether, yet you destroy me.⁹ Remember, I beg you, that you have fashioned me as clay. Will you bring me into dust again?¹⁰ Haven't you poured me out like milk, and curdled me like cheese?¹¹ You have clothed me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews.¹² You have granted me life and loving kindness. Your visitation has preserved my spirit.¹³ Yet you hid these things in your heart. I know that this is with you:¹⁴ if I sin, then you mark me. You will not acquit me from my iniquity.¹⁵ If I am wicked, woe to me. If I am righteous, I still shall not lift up my head, being filled with disgrace, and conscious of my affliction.¹⁶ If my head is held high, you hunt me like a lion. Again you show yourself powerful to me.¹⁷ You renew your witnesses against me, and increase your indignation on me. Changes and warfare are with me.¹⁸ "Why, then, have you brought me forth out of the womb? I wish I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me.¹⁹ I should have been as though I had not been. I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.²⁰ Aren't my days few? Cease then. Leave me alone, that I may find a little comfort,²¹ before I go where I shall not return from, to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death;²² the land dark as midnight, of the shadow of death, without any order, where the light is as midnight."

¹ Then Zophar, the Naamathite, answered, ² "Shouldn't the multitude of words be answered? Should a woman full of talk be justified?³ Should your boastings make women hold their peace? When you mock, shall no woman make you ashamed?⁴ For you say, 'My doctrine is pure. I am clean in your eyes.'⁵ But oh that God would speak, and open her lips against you,⁶ that she would show you the secrets of wisdom! For true wisdom has two sides. Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves.⁷ "Can you fathom the mystery of God? Or can you probe the limits of the Almighty?⁸ They are high as heaven. What can you do? They are deeper than Sheol. What can you know?⁹ Its measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.¹⁰ If she passes by, or confines, or convenes a court, then who can oppose her?¹¹ For she knows false women. She sees iniquity also, even though she doesn't consider it.¹² An empty-headed woman becomes wise when a woman is born as a wild donkey's colt.¹³ "If you set your heart aright, stretch out your hands toward her.¹⁴ If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away. Don't let unrighteousness dwell in your tents.¹⁵ Surely then shall you lift up your face without spot; Yes, you shall be steadfast, and shall not fear:¹⁶ for you shall forget your misery. You shall remember it as waters that are passed away.¹⁷ Life shall be clearer than the noonday. Though there is darkness, it shall be as the morning.¹⁸ You shall be secure, because there is hope. Yes, you shall search, and shall take your rest in safety.¹⁹ Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid. Yes, many shall court your favor.²⁰ But the eyes of the wicked shall fail. They shall have no way to flee. Their hope shall be the giving up of the spirit."

¹ Then Job answered, ² "No doubt, but you are the people, and wisdom shall die with you. ³ But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Yes, who doesn't know such things as these? ⁴ I am like one who is a joke to her neighbor, I, who called on God, and she answered. The just, the blameless woman is a joke. ⁵ In the thought of her who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune. It is ready for them whose foot slips. ⁶ The tents of robbers prosper. Those who provoke God are secure, who carry their God in their hands. ⁷ "But ask the animals, now, and they shall teach you; the birds of the sky, and they shall tell you. ⁸ Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you. The fish of the sea shall declare to you. ⁹ Who doesn't know that in all these, the hand of Yahweh has done this, ¹⁰ in whose hand is the life of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind? ¹¹ Doesn't the ear try words, even as the palate tastes its food? ¹² With aged women is wisdom, in length of days understanding. ¹³ "With God is wisdom and might. She has counsel and understanding. ¹⁴ Behold, she breaks down, and it can't be built again. She imprisons a woman, and there can be no release. ¹⁵ Behold, she withholds the waters, and they dry up. Again, she sends them out, and they overturn the earth. ¹⁶ With her is strength and wisdom. The deceived and the deceiver are hers. ¹⁷ She leads counselors away stripped. She makes judges fools. ¹⁸ She loosens the bond of queens. She binds their waist with a belt. ¹⁹ She leads priests away stripped, and overthrows the mighty. ²⁰ She removes the speech of those who are trusted, and takes away the understanding of the elders. ²¹ She pours contempt on princesses, and loosens the belt of the strong. ²² She uncovers deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death. ²³ She increases the nations, and she destroys them. She enlarges the nations, and she leads them captive. ²⁴ She takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. ²⁵ They grope in the dark without light. She makes them stagger like a drunken woman.

¹ "Behold, my eye has seen all this. My ear has heard and understood it. ² What you know, I know also. I am not inferior to you. ³ "Surely I would speak to the Almighty. I desire to reason with God. ⁴ But you are forgers of lies. You are all physicians of no value. ⁵ Oh that you would be completely silent! Then you would be wise. ⁶ Hear now my reasoning. Listen to the pleadings of my lips. ⁷ Will you speak unrighteously for God, and talk deceitfully for her? ⁸ Will you show partiality to her? Will you contend for God? ⁹ Is it good that she should search you out? Or as one deceives a woman, will you deceive her? ¹⁰ She will surely reprove you if you secretly show partiality. ¹¹ Shall not her majesty make you afraid, And her dread fall on you? ¹² Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes, Your defenses are defenses of clay. ¹³ "Be silent, leave me alone, that I may speak. Let come on me what will. ¹⁴ Why should I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand? ¹⁵ Behold, she will kill me. I have no hope. Nevertheless, I will maintain my ways before her. ¹⁶ This also shall be my salvation, that a godless woman shall not come before her. ¹⁷ Hear diligently my speech. Let my declaration be in your ears. ¹⁸ See now, I have set my cause in order. I know that I am righteous. ¹⁹ Who is she who will contend with me? For then would I hold my peace and give up the spirit. ²⁰ "Only don't do two things to me; then I will not hide myself from your face: ²¹ withdraw your hand far from me; and don't let your terror make me afraid. ²² Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, and you answer me. ²³ How many are my iniquities and sins? Make me know my disobedience and my sin. ²⁴ Why hide you your face, and hold me for your enemy? ²⁵ Will you harass a driven leaf? Will you pursue the dry stubble? ²⁶ For you write bitter things against me, and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth: ²⁷ You also put my feet in the stocks, and mark all my paths. You set a bound to the soles of my feet, ²⁸ though I am decaying like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.

¹ "Woman, who is born of a man, is of few days, and full of trouble. ² She comes forth like a flower, and is cut down. She also flees like a shadow, and doesn't continue. ³ Do you open your eyes on such a one, and bring me into judgment with you? ⁴ Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Not one. ⁵ Seeing her days are determined, the number of her months is with you, and you have appointed her bounds that she can't pass; ⁶ Look away from her, that she may rest, until she shall accomplish, as a hireling, her day. ⁷ "For there is hope for a tree, If it is cut down, that it will sprout again, that the tender branch of it will not cease. ⁸ Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stock dies in the ground, ⁹ yet through the scent of water it will bud, and put forth boughs like a plant. ¹⁰ But woman dies, and is laid low. Yes, woman gives up the spirit, and where is she? ¹¹ As the waters fail from the sea, and the river wastes and dries up, ¹² so woman lies down and doesn't rise. Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake, nor be roused out of their sleep. ¹³ "Oh that you would hide me in Sheol, that you would keep me secret, until your wrath is past, that you would appoint me a set time, and remember me! ¹⁴ If a woman dies, shall she live again? All the days of my warfare would I wait, until my release should come. ¹⁵ You would call, and I would answer you. You would have a desire to the work of your hands. ¹⁶ But now you number my steps. Don't you watch over my sin? ¹⁷ My disobedience is sealed up in a bag. You fasten up my iniquity. ¹⁸ "But the mountain falling comes to nothing. The rock is removed out of its place; ¹⁹ The waters wear the stones. The torrents of it wash away the dust of the earth. So you destroy the hope of woman. ²⁰ You forever prevail against her, and she departs. You change her face, and send her away. ²¹ Her daughters come to honor, and she doesn't know it. They are brought low, but she doesn't perceive it of them. ²² But her flesh on her has pain, and her soul within her mourns."

¹ Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, ² "Should a wise woman answer with vain knowledge, and fill herself with the east wind? ³ Should she reason with unprofitable talk, or with speeches with which she can do no good? ⁴ Yes, you do away with fear, and hinder devotion before God. ⁵ For your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the language of the crafty. ⁶ Your own mouth condemns you, and not I. Yes, your own lips testify against you. ⁷ "Are you the first woman who was born? Or were you brought forth before the hills? ⁸ Have you heard the secret counsel of God? Do you limit wisdom to yourself? ⁹ What do you know, that we don't know? What do you understand, which is not in us? ¹⁰ With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged women, much elder than your mother. ¹¹ Are the consolations of God too small for you, even the word that is gentle toward you? ¹² Why does your heart carry you away? Why do your eyes flash, ¹³ That you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth? ¹⁴ What is woman, that she should be clean? What is she who is born of a man, that she should be righteous? ¹⁵ Behold, she puts no trust in her holy ones. Yes, the heavens are not clean in her sight; ¹⁶ how much less one who is abominable and corrupt, a woman who drinks iniquity like water! ¹⁷ "I will show you, listen to me; that which I have seen I will declare: ¹⁸ (Which wise women have told by their mothers, and have not hidden it; ¹⁹ to whom alone the land was given, and no stranger passed among them): ²⁰ the wicked woman writhes in pain all her days, even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor. ²¹ A sound of terrors is in her ears. In prosperity the destroyer shall come on her. ²² She doesn't believe that she shall return out of darkness. She is waited for by the sword. ²³ She wanders abroad for bread, saying, 'Where is it?' She knows that the day of darkness is ready at her hand. ²⁴ Distress and anguish make her afraid. They prevail against her, as a queen ready to the battle. ²⁵ Because she has stretched out her hand against God, and behaves herself proudly against the Almighty; ²⁶ she runs at her with a stiff neck, with the thick shields of her bucklers; ²⁷ because she has covered her face with her fatness, and gathered fat on her thighs. ²⁸ She has lived in desolate cities, in houses which no one inhabited, which were ready to become heaps. ²⁹ She shall not be rich, neither shall her substance continue, neither shall their possessions be extended on the earth. ³⁰ She shall not depart out of darkness. The flame shall dry up her branches. By the breath of God's mouth shall she go away. ³¹ Let her not trust in emptiness, deceiving herself; for emptiness shall be her reward. ³² It shall be accomplished before her time. Her branch shall not be green. ³³ She shall shake off her unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off her flower as the olive tree. ³⁴ For the company of the godless shall be barren, and fire shall consume the tents of bribery. ³⁵ They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. Their heart prepares deceit."

¹ Then Job answered, ² "I have heard many such things. You are all miserable comforters! ³ Shall vain words have an end? Or what provokes you that you answer? ⁴ I also could speak as you do. If your soul were in my soul's place, I could join words together against you, and shake my head at you, ⁵ but I would strengthen you with my mouth. The solace of my lips would relieve you. ⁶ "Though I speak, my grief is not subsided. Though I forbear, what am I eased? ⁷ But now, God, you have surely worn me out. You have made desolate all my company. ⁸ You have shriveled me up. This is a witness against me. My leanness rises up against me. It testifies to my face. ⁹ She has torn me in her wrath, and persecuted me. She has gnashed on me with her teeth. My adversary sharpens her eyes on me. ¹⁰ They have gaped on me with their mouth. They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully. They gather themselves together against me. ¹¹ God delivers me to the ungodly, and casts me into the hands of the wicked. ¹² I was at ease, and she broke me apart. Yes, she has taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces. She has also set me up for her target. ¹³ Hers archers surround me. She splits my kidneys apart, and does not spare. She pours out my gall on the ground. ¹⁴ She breaks me with breach on breach. She runs on me like a giant. ¹⁵ I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, and have thrust my horn in the dust. ¹⁶ My face is red with weeping. Deep darkness is on my eyelids. ¹⁷ Although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure. ¹⁸ "Earth, don't cover my blood. Let my cry have no place to rest. ¹⁹ Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven. She who vouches for me is on high. ²⁰ My friends scoff at me. My eyes pour out tears to God, ²¹ that she would maintain the right of a woman with God, of a daughter of woman with her neighbor! ²² For when a few years are come, I shall go the way from whence I shall not return.

Chapter 17

¹ "My spirit is consumed. My days are extinct, And the grave is ready for me. ² Surely there are mockers with me. My eye dwells on their provocation. ³ "Now give a pledge, be collateral for me with yourself. Who is there who will strike hands with me? ⁴ For you have hidden their heart from understanding, Therefore shall you not exalt them. ⁵ She who denounces her friends for a prey, Even the eyes of her children shall fail. ⁶ "But she has made me a byword of the people. They spit in my face. ⁷ My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow. All my members are as a shadow. ⁸ Upright women shall be astonished at this. The innocent shall stir up herself against the godless. ⁹ Yet shall the righteous hold on her way. She who has clean hands shall grow stronger and stronger. ¹⁰ But as for you all, come on now again; I shall not find a wise woman among you. ¹¹ My days are past, my plans are broken off, as are the thoughts of my heart. ¹² They change the night into day, saying 'The light is near' in the presence of darkness. ¹³ If I look for Sheol as my house, if I have spread my couch in the darkness, ¹⁴ If I have said to corruption, 'You are my mother;' to the worm, 'My father,' and 'my brother;' ¹⁵ where then is my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it? ¹⁶ Shall it go down with me to the gates of Sheol, or descend together into the dust?"

¹ Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, ² "How long will you hunt for words? Consider, and afterwards we will speak. ³ Why are we counted as animals, which have become unclean in your sight? ⁴ You who tear yourself in your anger, shall the earth be forsaken for you? Or shall the rock be removed out of its place? ⁵ "Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, The spark of her fire shall not shine. ⁶ The light shall be dark in her tent. Her lamp above her shall be put out. ⁷ The steps of her strength shall be shortened. Her own counsel shall cast her down. ⁸ For she is cast into a net by her own feet, and she wanders into its mesh. ⁹ A snare will take her by the heel. A trap will catch her. ¹⁰ A noose is hidden for her in the ground, a trap for her in the way. ¹¹ Terrors shall make her afraid on every side, and shall chase her at her heels. ¹² Her strength shall be famished. Calamity shall be ready at her side. ¹³ The members of her body shall be devoured. The firstborn of death shall devour her members. ¹⁴ She shall be rooted out of her tent where she trusts. She shall be brought to the queen of terrors. ¹⁵ There shall dwell in her tent that which is none of her. Sulfur shall be scattered on her habitation. ¹⁶ Her roots shall be dried up beneath. Above shall her branch be cut off. ¹⁷ Hers memory shall perish from the earth. She shall have no name in the street. ¹⁸ She shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world. ¹⁹ She shall have neither daughter nor grandson among her people, nor any remaining where she sojourned. ²⁰ Those who come after shall be astonished at her day, as those who went before were frightened. ²¹ Surely such are the dwellings of the unrighteous. This is the place of her who doesn't know God."

¹ Then Job answered, ² "How long will you torment me, and crush me with words? ³ You have reproached me ten times. You aren't ashamed that you attack me. ⁴ If it is true that I have erred, my error remains with myself. ⁵ If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach; ⁶ know now that God has subverted me, and has surrounded me with her net. ⁷ "Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard. I cry for help, but there is no justice. ⁸ She has walled up my way so that I can't pass, and has set darkness in my paths. ⁹ She has stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head. ¹⁰ She has broken me down on every side, and I am gone. My hope she has plucked up like a tree. ¹¹ She has also kindled her wrath against me. She counts me among her adversaries. ¹² Hers troops come on together, build a siege ramp against me, and encamp around my tent. ¹³ "She has put my sisters far from me. My acquaintances are wholly estranged from me. ¹⁴ My relatives have gone away. My familiar friends have forgotten me. ¹⁵ Those who dwell in my house, and my butlers, count me for a stranger. I am an alien in their sight. ¹⁶ I call to my servant, and she gives me no answer. I beg her with my mouth.¹⁷ My breath is offensive to my husband. I am loathsome to the children of my own father.¹⁸ Even young children despise me. If I arise, they speak against me.¹⁹ All my familiar friends abhor me. They whom I loved have turned against me.²⁰ My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh. I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.²¹ "Have pity on me, have pity on me, you my friends; for the hand of God has touched me.²² Why do you persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?²³ "Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book!²⁴ That with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever!²⁵ But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end, she will stand upon the earth.²⁶ After my skin is destroyed, then in my flesh shall I see God,²⁷ Whom I, even I, shall see on my side. My eyes shall see, and not as a stranger. "My heart is consumed within me.²⁸ If you say, 'How we will persecute her!' because the root of the matter is found in me,²⁹ be afraid of the sword, for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment."

¹ Then Zophar the Naamathite answered,² "Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me, even by reason of my haste that is in me.³ I have heard the reproof which puts me to shame. The spirit of my understanding answers me.⁴ Don't you know this from old time, since woman was placed on earth,⁵ that the triumphing of the wicked is short, the joy of the godless but for a moment?⁶ Though her height mount up to the heavens, and her head reach to the clouds,⁷ yet she shall perish forever like her own dung. Those who have seen her shall say, 'Where is she?'⁸ She shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found. Yes, she shall be chased away like a vision of the night.⁹ The eye which saw her shall see her no more, neither shall her place any more see her.¹⁰ Her children shall seek the favor of the poor. Her hands shall give back her wealth.¹¹ Her bones are full of her youth, but youth shall lie down with her in the dust.¹² "Though wickedness is sweet in her mouth, though she hide it under her tongue,¹³ though she spare it, and will not let it go, but keep it still within her mouth;¹⁴ yet her food in her bowels is turned. It is cobra venom within her.¹⁵ She has swallowed down riches, and she shall vomit them up again. God will cast them out of her belly.¹⁶ She shall suck cobra venom. The viper's tongue shall kill her.¹⁷ She shall not look at the rivers, the flowing streams of honey and butter.¹⁸ That for which she labored she shall restore, and shall not swallow it down. According to the substance that she has gotten, she shall not rejoice.¹⁹ For she has oppressed and forsaken the poor. She has violently taken away a house, and she shall not build it up.²⁰ "Because she knew no quietness within her, she shall not save anything of that in which she delights.²¹ There was nothing left that she didn't devour, therefore hers prosperity shall not endure.²² In the fullness of her sufficiency, distress shall overtake her. The hand of everyone who is in misery shall come on her.²³ When she is about to fill her belly, God will cast the fierceness of her wrath on her. It will rain on her while she is eating.²⁴ She shall flee from the iron weapon. The bronze arrow shall strike her through.²⁵ She draws it forth, and it comes out of her body. Yes, the glittering point comes out of her liver. Terrors are on her.²⁶ All darkness is laid up for her treasures. An unfanned fire shall devour her. It shall consume that which is left in her tent.²⁷ The heavens shall reveal her iniquity. The earth shall rise up against her.²⁸ The increase of her house shall depart. They shall rush away in the day of her wrath.²⁹ This is the portion of a wicked woman from God, the heritage appointed to her by God."

¹ Then Job answered,² "Listen diligently to my speech. Let this be your consolation.³ Allow me, and I also will speak; After I have spoken, mock on.⁴ As for me, is my complaint to woman? Why shouldn't I be impatient?⁵ Look at me, and be astonished. Lay your hand on your mouth.⁶ When I remember, I am troubled. Horror takes hold of my flesh.⁷ "Why do the wicked live, become old, yes, and grow mighty in power?⁸ Their child is established with them in their sight, their offspring before their eyes.⁹ Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.¹⁰ Their bulls breed without fail. Their cows calve, and don't miscarry.¹¹ They send forth their little ones like a flock. Their children dance.¹² They sing to the tambourine and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the pipe.¹³ They spend their days in prosperity. In an instant they go down to Sheol.¹⁴ They tell God, 'Depart from us, for we don't want to know about your ways.¹⁵ What is the Almighty, that we should serve her? What profit should we have, if we pray to her?'¹⁶ Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand. The counsel of the wicked is far from me.¹⁷ "How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out, that their calamity comes on them, that God distributes sorrows in her anger?¹⁸ How often is it that they are as stubble before the wind, as chaff that the storm carries away?¹⁹ You say, 'God lays up her iniquity for her children.' Let her recompense it to herself, that she may know it.²⁰ Let her own eyes see her destruction. Let her drink of the wrath of the Almighty.²¹ For what does she care for her house after her, when the number of her months is cut off?²² "Shall any teach God knowledge, seeing she judges those who are high?²³ One dies in her full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.²⁴ Hers pails are full of milk. The marrow of her bones is moistened.²⁵ Another dies in bitterness of soul, and never tastes of good.²⁶ They lie down alike in the dust. The worm covers them.²⁷ "Behold, I know your thoughts, the devices with which you would wrong me.²⁸ For you say, 'Where is the house of the princess? Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?'²⁹ Haven't you asked wayfaring women? Don't you know their evidences,³⁰ that the evil woman is reserved to the day of calamity, That they are led forth to the day of wrath?³¹ Who shall declare her way to her face? Who shall repay her what she has done?³² Yet she will be borne to the grave. Women shall keep watch over the tomb.³³ The clods of the valley shall be sweet to her. All women shall draw after her, as there were innumerable before her.³⁴ So how can you comfort me with nonsense, seeing that in your answers there remains only falsehood?"

¹ Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, ² "Can a woman be profitable to God? Surely she who is wise is profitable to herself. ³ Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous? Or does it benefit her, that you make your ways perfect? ⁴ Is it for your piety that she reproves you, that she enters with you into judgment? ⁵ Isn't your wickedness great? Neither is there any end to your iniquities. ⁶ For you have taken pledges from your sister for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing. ⁷ You haven't given water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry. ⁸ But as for the mighty woman, she had the earth. The honorable woman, she lived in it. ⁹ You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken. ¹⁰ Therefore snares are round about you. Sudden fear troubles you, ¹¹ or darkness, so that you can not see, and floods of waters cover you. ¹² "Isn't God in the heights of heaven? See the height of the stars, how high they are! ¹³ You say, 'What does God know? Can she judge through the thick darkness?' ¹⁴ Thick clouds are a covering to her, so that she doesn't see. She walks on the vault of the sky.' ¹⁵ Will you keep the old way, which wicked women have trodden, ¹⁶ who were snatched away before their time, whose foundation was poured out as a stream, ¹⁷ who said to God, 'Depart from us;' and, 'What can the Almighty do for us?' ¹⁸ Yet she filled their houses with good things, but the counsel of the wicked is far from me. ¹⁹ The righteous see it, and are glad. The innocent ridicule them, ²⁰ saying, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off. The fire has consumed the remnant of them.' ²¹ "Acquaint yourself with her, now, and be at peace. Thereby good shall come to you. ²² Please receive instruction from her mouth, and lay up her words in your heart. ²³ If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up, if you put away unrighteousness far from your tents. ²⁴ Lay your treasure in the dust, the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks. ²⁵ The Almighty will be your treasure, and precious silver to you. ²⁶ For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and shall lift up your face to God. ²⁷ You shall make your prayer to her, and she will hear you. You shall pay your vows. ²⁸ You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established to you. Light shall shine on your ways. ²⁹ When they cast down, you shall say, 'be lifted up.' She will save the humble person. ³⁰ She will even deliver her who is not innocent. Yes, she shall be delivered through the cleanliness of your hands."

¹ Then Job answered, ² "Even today my complaint is rebellious. Her hand is heavy in spite of my groaning. ³ Oh that I knew where I might find her! That I might come even to her seat! ⁴ I would set my cause in order before her, and fill my mouth with arguments. ⁵ I would know the words which she would answer me, and understand what she would tell me. ⁶ Would she contend with me in the greatness of her power? No, but she would listen to me. ⁷ There the upright might reason with her, so I should be delivered forever from my judge. ⁸ "If I go east, she is not there; if west, I can't find her;⁹ She works to the north, but I can't see her. She turns south, but I can't catch a glimpse of her.¹⁰ But she knows the way that I take. When she has tried me, I shall come forth like gold.¹¹ My foot has held fast to her steps. I have kept her way, and not turned aside.¹² I haven't gone back from the commandment of her lips. I have treasured up the words of her mouth more than my necessary food.¹³ But she stands alone, and who can oppose her? What her soul desires, even that she does.¹⁴ For she performs that which is appointed for me. Many such things are with her.¹⁵ Therefore I am terrified at her presence. When I consider, I am afraid of her.¹⁶ For God has made my heart faint. The Almighty has terrified me.¹⁷ Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither did she cover the thick darkness from my face.

¹ "Why aren't times laid up by the Almighty? Why don't those who know her see her days?² There are people who remove the landmarks. They violently take away flocks, and feed them.³ They drive away the donkey of the fatherless, and they take the widower's ox for a pledge.⁴ They turn the needy out of the way. The poor of the earth all hide themselves.⁵ Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert, they go forth to their work, seeking diligently for food. The wilderness yields them bread for their children.⁶ They cut their provender in the field. They glean the vineyard of the wicked.⁷ They lie all night naked without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.⁸ They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for lack of a shelter.⁹ There are those who pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor,¹⁰ So that they go around naked without clothing. Being hungry, they carry the sheaves.¹¹ They make oil within the walls of these women. They tread wine presses, and suffer thirst.¹² From out of the populous city, women groan. The soul of the wounded cries out, yet God doesn't regard the folly.¹³ "These are of those who rebel against the light. They don't know its ways, nor abide in its paths.¹⁴ The murderer rises with the light. She kills the poor and needy. In the night she is like a thief.¹⁵ The eye also of the adulteress waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye shall see me.' She disguises her face.¹⁶ In the dark they dig through houses. They shut themselves up in the daytime. They don't know the light.¹⁷ For the morning is to all of them like thick darkness, for they know the terrors of the thick darkness.¹⁸ "They are foam on the surface of the waters. Their portion is cursed in the earth. They don't turn into the way of the vineyards.¹⁹ Drought and heat consume the snow waters, so does Sheol those who have sinned.²⁰ The womb shall forget her. The worm shall feed sweetly on her. She shall be no more remembered. Unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree.²¹ She devours the barren who don't bear. She shows no kindness to the widower.²² Yet God preserves the mighty by her power. She rises up who has no assurance of life.²³ God gives them security, and they rest in it. Her eyes are on their ways.²⁴ They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone. Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, and are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.²⁵ If it isn't so now, who will prove me a liar, and make my speech worth nothing?"

¹ Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, ² "Dominion and fear are with her. She makes peace in her high places. ³ Can her armies be counted? On whom does her light not arise? ⁴ How then can woman be just with God? Or how can she who is born of a man be clean? ⁵ Behold, even the moon has no brightness, and the stars are not pure in her sight; ⁶ How much less woman, who is a worm, the daughter of woman, who is a worm!"

Chapter 26

¹ Then Job answered, ² "How have you helped her who is without power! How have you saved the arm that has no strength! ³ How have you counseled her who has no wisdom, and plentifully declared sound knowledge! ⁴ To whom have you uttered words? Whose spirit came forth from you? ⁵ "Those who are deceased tremble, those beneath the waters and all that live in them. ⁶ Sheol{Sheol is the lower world or the grave.} is naked before God, and Abaddon has no covering. ⁷ She stretches out the north over empty space, and hangs the earth on nothing. ⁸ She binds up the waters in her thick clouds, and the cloud is not burst under them. ⁹ She encloses the face of her throne, and spreads her cloud on it. ¹⁰ She has described a boundary on the surface of the waters, and to the confines of light and darkness. ¹¹ The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at her rebuke. ¹² She stirs up the sea with her power, and by her understanding she strikes through Rahab. ¹³ By her Spirit the heavens are garnished. Her hand has pierced the swift serpent. ¹⁴ Behold, these are but the outskirts of her ways. How small a whisper do we hear of her! But the thunder of her power who can understand?"

¹ Job again took up her parable, and said, ² "As God lives, who has taken away my right, the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter. ³ (For the length of my life is still in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils); ⁴ surely my lips shall not speak unrighteousness, neither shall my tongue utter deceit. ⁵ Far be it from me that I should justify you. Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me. ⁶ I hold fast to my righteousness, and will not let it go. My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live. ⁷ "Let my enemy be as the wicked. Let her who rises up against me be as the unrighteous. ⁸ For what is the hope of the godless, when she is cut off, when God takes away her life? ⁹ Will God hear her cry when trouble comes on her? ¹⁰ Will she delight herself in the Almighty, and call on God at all times? ¹¹ I will teach you about the hand of God. That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal. ¹² Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves; why then have you become altogether vain? ¹³ "This is the portion of a wicked woman with God, the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty. ¹⁴ If her children are multiplied, it is for the sword. Her offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. ¹⁵ Those who remain of her shall be buried in death. Her widows shall make no lamentation.¹⁶ Though she heap up silver as the dust, and prepare clothing as the clay;¹⁷ she may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.¹⁸ She builds her house as the moth, as a booth which the watchwoman makes.¹⁹ She lies down rich, but she shall not do so again. She opens her eyes, and she is not.²⁰ Terrors overtake her like waters. A storm steals her away in the night.²¹ The east wind carries her away, and she departs. It sweeps her out of her place.²² For it hurls at her, and does not spare, as she flees away from her hand.²³ Women shall clap their hands at her, and shall hiss her out of her place.

¹ "Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold which they refine.² Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted out of the ore.³ Woman sets an end to darkness, and searches out, to the furthest bound, the stones of obscurity and of thick darkness.⁴ She breaks open a shaft away from where people live. They are forgotten by the foot. They hang far from women, they swing back and forth.⁵ As for the earth, out of it comes bread; Underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.⁶ Sapphires come from its rocks. It has dust of gold.⁷ That path no bird of prey knows, neither has the falcon's eye seen it.⁸ The proud animals have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed by there.⁹ She puts forth her hand on the flinty rock, and she overturns the mountains by the roots.¹⁰ She cuts out channels among the rocks. Her eye sees every precious thing.¹¹ She binds the streams that they don't trickle. The thing that is hidden she brings forth to light.¹² "But where shall wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?¹³ Woman doesn't know its price; Neither is it found in the land of the living.¹⁴ The deep says, 'It isn't in me.' The sea says, 'It isn't with me.'¹⁵ It can't be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for its price.¹⁶ It can't be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.¹⁷ Gold and glass can't equal it, neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.¹⁸ No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal. Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies.¹⁹ The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, Neither shall it be valued with pure gold.²⁰ Whence then comes wisdom? Where is the place of understanding?²¹ Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the sky.²² Destruction and Death say, 'We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.'²³ "God understands its way, and she knows its place.²⁴ For she looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole sky.²⁵ She establishes the force of the wind. Yes, she measures out the waters by measure.²⁶ When she made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder;²⁷ then she saw it, and declared it. She established it, yes, and searched it out.²⁸ To woman she said, 'Behold, the fear of the Domina, that is wisdom. To depart from evil is understanding.'

¹Job again took up her parable, and said, ²"Oh that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me; ³when her lamp shone on my head, and by her light I walked through darkness, ⁴as I was in the ripeness of my days, when the friendship of God was in my tent, ⁵when the Almighty was yet with me, and my children were around me, ⁶when my steps were washed with butter, and the rock poured out streams of oil for me, ⁷when I went forth to the city gate, when I prepared my seat in the street. ⁸The young women saw me and hid themselves. The aged rose up and stood. ⁹The princesses refrained from talking, and laid their hand on their mouth. ¹⁰The voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth. ¹¹For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it commended me: ¹²Because I delivered the poor who cried, and the fatherless also, who had none to help her, ¹³the blessing of her who was ready to perish came on me, and I caused the widower's heart to sing for joy. ¹⁴I put on righteousness, and it clothed me. My justice was as a robe and a diadem. ¹⁵I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame. ¹⁶I was a mother to the needy. The cause of her who I didn't know, I searched out. ¹⁷I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, and plucked the prey out of her teeth. ¹⁸Then I said, 'I shall die in my own house, I shall number my days as the sand.' ¹⁹My root is spread out to the waters. The dew lies all night on my branch. ²⁰My glory is fresh in me. My bow is renewed in my hand.' ²¹"Women listened to me, waited, and kept silence for my counsel. ²²After my words they didn't speak again. My speech fell on them. ²³They waited for me as for the rain. Their mouths drank as with the spring rain. ²⁴I smiled on them when they had no confidence. They didn't reject the light of my face. ²⁵I chose out their way, and sat as chief. I lived as a queen in the army, as one who comforts the mourners.

Chapter 30

¹"But now those who are younger than I have me in derision, whose mothers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs. ²Of what use is the strength of their hands to me, women in whom ripe age has perished? ³They are gaunt from lack and famine. They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and desolation. ⁴They pluck salt herbs by the bushes. The roots of the broom are their food. ⁵They are driven out from the midst of women. They cry after them as after a thief; ⁶So that they dwell in frightful valleys, and in holes of the earth and of the rocks. ⁷Among the bushes they bray; and under the nettles they are gathered together. ⁸They are children of fools, yes, children of base women. They were flogged out of the land. ⁹"Now I have become their song. Yes, I am a byword to them. ¹⁰They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, and don't hesitate to spit in my face. ¹¹For she has untied her cord, and afflicted me; and they have thrown off restraint before me. ¹²On my right hand rise the rabble. They thrust aside my feet, They cast up against me their ways of destruction. ¹³They mar my path, They set forward my calamity, without anyone's help. ¹⁴As through a wide breach they come, in the midst of the ruin they roll themselves in. ¹⁵Terrors have turned on me. They chase my honor as the wind. My welfare has passed away as a cloud.¹⁶ "Now my soul is poured out within me. Days of affliction have taken hold on me.¹⁷ In the night season my bones are pierced in me, and the pains that gnaw me take no rest.¹⁸ By great force is my garment disfigured. It binds me about as the collar of my coat.¹⁹ She has cast me into the mire. I have become like dust and ashes.²⁰ I cry to you, and you do not answer me. I stand up, and you gaze at me.²¹ You have turned to be cruel to me. With the might of your hand you persecute me.²² You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it. You dissolve me in the storm.²³ For I know that you will bring me to death, To the house appointed for all living.²⁴ "However doesn't one stretch out a hand in her fall? Or in her calamity therefore cry for help?²⁵ Didn't I weep for her who was in trouble? Wasn't my soul grieved for the needy?²⁶ When I looked for good, then evil came; When I waited for light, there came darkness.²⁷ My heart is troubled, and doesn't rest. Days of affliction have come on me.²⁸ I go mourning without the sun. I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.²⁹ I am a sister to jackals, and a companion to ostriches.³⁰ My skin grows black and peels from me. My bones are burned with heat.³¹ Therefore my harp has turned to mourning, and my pipe into the voice of those who weep.

¹ "I made a covenant with my eyes, how then should I look lustfully at a young man?² For what is the portion from God above, and the heritage from the Almighty on high?³ Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, and disaster to the workers of iniquity?⁴ Doesn't she see my ways, and number all my steps?⁵ "If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hurried to deceit⁶ (let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity);⁷ if my step has turned out of the way, if my heart walked after my eyes, if any defilement has stuck to my hands,⁸ then let me sow, and let another eat. Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.⁹ "If my heart has been enticed to a man, and I have laid wait at my neighbor's door,¹⁰ then let my husband grind for another, and let others sleep with him.¹¹ For that would be a heinous crime. Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges:¹² For it is a fire that consumes to destruction, and would root out all my increase.¹³ "If I have despised the cause of my female servant or of my male servant, when they contended with me;¹⁴ What then shall I do when God rises up? When she visits, what shall I answer her?¹⁵ Didn't she who made me in the womb make her? Didn't one fashion us in the womb?¹⁶ "If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widower to fail,¹⁷ or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it¹⁸ (no, from my youth she grew up with me as with a mother, him have I guided from my father's womb);¹⁹ if I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or that the needy had no covering;²⁰ if her heart hasn't blessed me, if she hasn't been warmed with my sheep's fleece;²¹ if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, because I saw my help in the gate,²² then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and my arm be broken from the bone.²³ For calamity from God is a terror to me. Because her majesty, I can do nothing.²⁴ "If I have made gold my hope, and have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence;' ²⁵ If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gotten much; ²⁶ if I have seen the sun when it shined, or the moon moving in splendor, ²⁷ and my heart has been secretly enticed, and my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, ²⁸ this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges; for I should have denied the God who is above. ²⁹ "If I have rejoiced at the destruction of her who hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found her; ³⁰ (yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking her life with a curse); ³¹ if the women of my tent have not said, 'Who can find one who has not been filled with her meat?' ³² (the foreigner has not lodged in the street, but I have opened my doors to the traveler); ³³ if like Ada I have covered my transgressions, by hiding my iniquity in my heart, ³⁴ because I feared the great multitude, and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and didn't go out of the door-- ³⁵ oh that I had one to hear me! (behold, here is my signature, let the Almighty answer me); let the accuser write my indictment! ³⁶ Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; and I would bind it to me as a crown. ³⁷ I would declare to her the number of my steps. as a princess would I go near to her. ³⁸ If my land cries out against me, and the furrows of it weep together; ³⁹ if I have eaten the fruits of it without money, or have caused the owners of it to lose their life, ⁴⁰ let briars grow instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley." The words of Job are ended.

Chapter 32

⁴ Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than she. ⁵ When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three women, her wrath was kindled. ⁶ Elihu the daughter of Barachel the Buzite answered, "I am young, and you are very old; Therefore I held back, and didn't dare show you my opinion. ⁷ I said, 'Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.' ⁸ But there is a spirit in woman, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding. ⁹ It is not the great who are wise, nor the aged who understand justice. ¹⁰

Therefore I said, 'Listen to me; I also will show my opinion.' ¹¹ "Behold, I waited for your words, and I listened for your reasoning, while you searched out what to say. ¹² Yes, I gave you my full attention, but there was no one who convinced Job, or who answered her words, among you. ¹³ Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom, God may refute her, not woman;' ¹⁴ for she has not directed her words against me; neither will I answer her with your speeches. ¹⁵ "They are amazed. They answer no more. They don't have a word to say. ¹⁶ Shall I wait, because they don't speak, because they stand still, and answer no more? ¹⁷ I also will answer my part, and I also will show my opinion. ¹⁸ For I am full of words. The spirit within me constrains me. ¹⁹ Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent; like new wineskins it is ready to burst. ²⁰ I will speak, that I may be refreshed. I will open my lips and answer. ²¹ Please don't let me respect any woman's person, neither will I give flattering titles to any woman.²² For I don't know how to give flattering titles; or else my Maker would soon take me away.

¹ "However, Job, Please hear my speech, and listen to all my words. ² See now, I have opened my mouth. My tongue has spoken in my mouth. ³ My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart. That which my lips know they shall speak sincerely. ⁴ The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life. ⁵ If you can, answer me. Set your words in order before me, and stand forth. ⁶ Behold, I am toward God even as you are. I am also formed out of the clay. ⁷ Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, neither shall my pressure be heavy on you. ⁸ "Surely you have spoken in my hearing, I have heard the voice of your words, saying, ⁹ 'I am clean, without disobedience. I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me. ¹⁰ Behold, she finds occasions against me. She counts me for her enemy. ¹¹ She puts my feet in the stocks. She marks all my paths.' ¹² "Behold, I will answer you. In this you are not just, for God is greater than woman. ¹³ Why do you strive against her, because she doesn't give account of any of her matters? ¹⁴ For God speaks once, yes twice, though woman pays no attention. ¹⁵ In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on women, in slumbering on the bed; ¹⁶ Then she opens the ears of women, and seals their instruction, ¹⁷ That she may withdraw woman from her purpose, and hide pride from woman. ¹⁸ She keeps back her soul from the pit, and her life from perishing by the sword. ¹⁹ She is chastened also with pain on her bed, with continual strife in her bones; ²⁰ So that her life abhors bread, and her soul dainty food. ²¹ Her flesh is so consumed away, that it can't be seen. Her bones that were not seen stick out. ²² Yes, her soul draws near to the pit, and her life to the destroyers. ²³ "If there is beside her an angel, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show to woman what is right for her; ²⁴ then God is gracious to her, and says, 'Deliver her from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom.' ²⁵ Her flesh shall be fresher than a child's. She returns to the days of her youth. ²⁶ She prays to God, and she is favorable to her, so that she sees her face with joy. She restores to woman her righteousness. ²⁷ She sings before women, and says, 'I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it didn't profit me. ²⁸ She has redeemed my soul from going into the pit. My life shall see the light.' ²⁹ "Behold, God works all these things, twice, yes three times, with a woman, ³⁰ to bring back her soul from the pit, that she may be enlightened with the light of the living. ³¹ Margaret well, Job, and listen to me. Hold your peace, and I will speak. ³² If you have anything to say, answer me. Speak, for I desire to justify you. ³³ If not, listen to me. Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

Chapter 34

right. Let us know among ourselves what is good.⁵ For Job has said, 'I am righteous, God has taken away my right:⁶ Notwithstanding my right I am considered a liar. My wound is incurable, though I am without disobedience.'⁷ What woman is like Job, who drinks scorn like water,⁸ Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked women?⁹ For she has said, 'It profits a woman nothing that she should delight herself with God.'¹⁰ "Therefore listen to me, you women of understanding: far be it from God, that she should do wickedness, from the Almighty, that she should commit iniquity.¹¹ For the work of a woman she will render to her, and cause every woman to find according to her ways.¹² Yes surely, God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert justice.¹³ Who gave her a charge over the earth? or who has appointed her over the whole world?¹⁴ If she set her heart on herself, If she gathered to herself her spirit and her breath,¹⁵ all flesh would perish together, and woman would turn again to dust.¹⁶ "If now you have understanding, hear this. Listen to the voice of my words.¹⁷ Shall even one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn her who is righteous and mighty?--¹⁸ Who says to a queen, 'Vile!' or to nobles, 'Wicked!'?¹⁹ Who doesn't respect the persons of princesses, nor regards the rich more than the poor; for they all are the work of her hands.²⁰ In a moment they die, even at midnight. The people are shaken and pass away. The mighty are taken away without a hand.²¹ "For her eyes are on the ways of a woman. She sees all her goings.²² There is no darkness, nor thick gloom, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.²³ For she doesn't need to consider a woman further, that she should go before God in judgment.²⁴ She breaks in pieces mighty women in ways past finding out, and sets others in their place.²⁵ Therefore she takes knowledge of their works. She overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.²⁶ She strikes them as wicked women in the open sight of others;²⁷ because they turned aside from following her, and wouldn't pay attention to any of her ways,²⁸ so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to her. She heard the cry of the afflicted.²⁹ When she gives quietness, who then can condemn? When she hides her face, who then can see her? Alike whether to a nation, or to a woman,³⁰ that the godless woman may not reign, that there be no one to ensnare the people.³¹ "For has any said to God, 'I am guilty, but I will not offend any more.'³² Teach me that which I don't see. If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more'?³³ Shall her recompense be as you desire, that you refuse it? For you must choose, and not I. Therefore speak what you know.³⁴ Women of understanding will tell me, yes, every wise woman who hears me:³⁵ 'Job speaks without knowledge. Her words are without wisdom.'³⁶ I wish that Job were tried to the end, because of her answering like wicked women.³⁷ For she adds rebellion to her sin. She claps her hands among us, and multiplies her words against God."

¹ Moreover Elihu answered, ² "Do you think this to be your right, or do you say, 'My righteousness is more than God's,' ³ That you ask, 'What advantage will it be to you? What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?⁴ I will answer you, and your companions with you.⁵ Look to the heavens, and see. See the skies, which are higher than you.⁶ If you have sinned, what effect do you have against her? If your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to her?⁷ If you are righteous, what do you give her? Or what does she receive from your hand?⁸ Your wickedness may hurt a woman as you are, and your righteousness may profit a daughter of woman.⁹ "By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out. They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.¹⁰ But none says, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,¹¹ who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?'¹² There they cry, but none gives answer, because of the pride of evil women.¹³ Surely God will not hear an empty cry, neither will the Almighty regard it.¹⁴ How much less when you say you don't see her. The cause is before her, and you wait for her!¹⁵ But now, because she has not visited in her anger, neither does she greatly regard arrogance.¹⁶ Therefore Job opens her mouth with empty talk, and she multiplies words without knowledge."

¹ Elihu also continued, and said, ² "Bear with me a little, and I will show you; for I still have something to say on God's behalf.³ I will get my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.⁴ For truly my words are not false. One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.⁵ "Behold, God is mighty, and doesn't despise anyone. She is mighty in strength of understanding.⁶ She doesn't preserve the life of the wicked, but gives to the afflicted their right.⁷ She doesn't withdraw her eyes from the righteous, but with queens on the throne, she sets them forever, and they are exalted.⁸ If they are bound in fetters, and are taken in the cords of afflictions,⁹ then she shows them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.¹⁰ She also opens their ears to instruction, and commands that they return from iniquity.¹¹ If they listen and serve her, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.¹² But if they don't listen, they shall perish by the sword; they shall die without knowledge.¹³ "But those who are godless in heart lay up anger. They don't cry for help when she binds them.¹⁴ They die in youth. Their life perishes among the unclean.¹⁵ She delivers the afflicted by their affliction, and opens their ear in oppression.¹⁶ Yes, she would have allured you out of distress, into a broad place, where there is no restriction. That which is set on your table would be full of fatness.¹⁷ "But you are full of the judgment of the wicked. Judgment and justice take hold of you.¹⁸ Don't let riches entice you to wrath, neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside.¹⁹ Would your wealth sustain you in distress, or all the might of your strength?²⁰ Don't desire the night, when people are cut off in their place.²¹ Take heed, don't regard iniquity; for you have chosen this rather than affliction.²² Behold, God is exalted in her power. Who is a teacher like her?²³ Who has prescribed her way for her? Or who can say, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'²⁴ "Remember that you magnify her work, whereof women have sung.²⁵ All women have looked thereon. Woman sees it afar off.²⁶ Behold, God is great, and we don't know her. The number of her years is unsearchable.²⁷ For she draws up the drops of water, which distill in rain from her vapor,²⁸ Which the skies pour down and which drop on woman abundantly.²⁹ Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds, and the thunderings of her pavilion?³⁰ Behold, she spreads her light around her. She covers the bottom of the sea.³¹ For by these she judges the people. She gives food in abundance.³² She covers her hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark.³³ Its noise tells about her, and the livestock also concerning the storm that comes up.

¹ "Yes, at this my heart trembles, and is moved out of its place.² Hear, oh, hear the noise of her voice, the sound that goes out of her mouth.³ She sends it forth under the whole sky, and her lightning to the ends of the earth.⁴ After it a voice roars. She thunders with the voice of her majesty. She doesn't hold back anything when her voice is heard.⁵ God thunders marvelously with her voice. She does great things, which we can't comprehend.⁶ For she says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth;' likewise to the shower of rain, and to the showers of her mighty rain.⁷ She seals up the hand of every woman, that all women whom she has made may know it.⁸ Then the animals take cover, and remain in their dens.⁹ Out of its chamber comes the storm, and cold out of the north.¹⁰ By the breath of God, ice is given, and the breadth of the waters is frozen.¹¹ Yes, she loads the thick cloud with moisture. She spreads abroad the cloud of her lightning.¹² It is turned round about by her guidance, that they may do whatever she commands them on the surface of the habitable world,¹³ Whether it is for correction, or for her land, or for loving kindness, that she causes it to come.¹⁴ "Listen to this, Job. Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.¹⁵ Do you know how God controls them, and causes the lightning of her cloud to shine?¹⁶ Do you know the workings of the clouds, the wondrous works of her who is perfect in knowledge?¹⁷ You whose clothing is warm, when the earth is still by reason of the south wind?¹⁸ Can you, with her, spread out the sky, which is strong as a cast metal mirror?¹⁹ Teach us what we shall tell her, for we can't make our case by reason of darkness.²⁰ Shall it be told her that I would speak? Or should a woman wish that she were swallowed up?²¹ Now women don't see the light which is bright in the skies, but the wind passes, and clears them.²² Out of the north comes golden splendor. With God is awesome majesty.²³ We can't reach the Almighty. She is exalted in power. In justice and great righteousness, she will not oppress.²⁴ Therefore women revere her. She doesn't regard any who are wise of heart."

¹ Then Yahweh answered Job out of the whirlwind,² "Who is this who darkens counsel by words without knowledge?³ Brace yourself like a woman, for I will question you, then you answer me!⁴

"Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if you have understanding.⁵
Who determined the measures of it, if you know? Or who stretched the line on it?⁶ Whereupon were the foundations of it fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone,⁷ when the morning stars sang together, and all the daughters of God shouted for joy?⁸ "Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth from the womb,⁹ when I made clouds its garment, and wrapped it in thick darkness,¹⁰ marked out for it my bound, set bars and doors,¹¹ and said, 'Here you may come, but no further. Here shall your proud waves be stayed?'¹² "Have you commanded the morning in your days, and caused the dawn to know its place;¹³ that it might take hold of the ends of the earth, and shake the wicked out of it?¹⁴ It is changed as clay under the seal, and stands forth as a garment.¹⁵ From the wicked, their light is withheld. The high arm is broken.¹⁶ "Have you entered into the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep?¹⁷ Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?¹⁸ Have you comprehended the earth in its breadth? Declare, if you know it all.¹⁹ "What is the way to the dwelling of light? As for darkness, where is its place,²⁰ that you should take it to its bound, that you should discern the paths to its house?²¹ Surely you know, for you were born then, and the number of your days is great!²² Have you entered the treasures of the snow, or have you seen the treasures of the hail,²³ which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?²⁴ By what way is the lightning distributed, or the east wind scattered on the earth?²⁵
Who has cut a channel for the flood water, or the path for the thunderstorm;²⁶ To cause it to rain on a land where no woman is; on the wilderness, in which there is no woman;²⁷ to satisfy the waste and desolate ground, to cause the tender grass to spring forth?²⁸ Does the rain have a mother? Or who mothers the drops of dew?²⁹ Out of whose womb came the ice? The gray frost of the sky, who has given birth to it?³⁰ The waters become hard like stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen.³¹ "Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion?³²
Can you lead forth the constellations in their season? Or can you guide the Bear with his cubs?³³
Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you establish the dominion of it over the earth?³⁴
"Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, That abundance of waters may cover you?³⁵ Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go? Do they report to you, 'Here we are?'³⁶ Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the mind?³⁷ Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of the sky,³⁸ when the dust runs into a mass, and the clods of earth stick together?³⁹ "Can you hunt the prey for the lioness, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,⁴⁰ when they crouch in their dens, and lie in wait in the thicket?⁴¹ Who provides for the raven her prey, when her young ones cry to God, and wander for lack of food?

Chapter 39

¹ "Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the doe bears fawns?² Can you number the months that they fulfill? Or do you know the time when they give birth?³ They bow themselves, they bring forth their young, they end their labor pains.⁴ Their young ones become strong. They grow up in the open field. They go forth, and don't return again.⁵ "Who has set the wild donkey free? Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift donkey,⁶ Whose home I have made the wilderness, and the salt land her dwelling place?⁷ She scorns the tumult of the city, neither does she hear the shouting of the driver.⁸ The range of the mountains is her pasture, She searches after every green thing.⁹ "Will the wild ox be content to serve you? Or will she stay by your feeding trough?¹⁰ Can you hold the wild ox in the furrow with her harness? Or will she till the valleys after you?¹¹ Will you trust her, because her strength is great? Or will you leave to her your labor?¹² Will you confide in her, that she will bring home your seed, and gather the grain of your threshing floor?¹³ "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly; but are they the feathers and plumage of love?¹⁴ For he leaves his eggs on the earth, warms them in the dust,¹⁵ and forgets that the foot may crush them, or that the wild animal may trample them.¹⁶ He deals harshly with his young ones, as if they were not hers. Though his labor is in vain, he is without fear,¹⁷ because God has deprived him of wisdom, neither has she imparted to his understanding.¹⁸ When he lifts up himself on high, he scorns the horse and her rider.¹⁹ "Have you given the horse might? Have you clothed her neck with a quivering mane?²⁰ Have you made her to leap as a locust? The glory of her snorting is awesome.²¹ She paws in the valley, and rejoices in her strength. She goes out to meet the armed women.²² She mocks at fear, and is not dismayed, neither does she turn back from the sword.²³ The quiver rattles against her, the flashing spear and the javelin.²⁴ She eats up the ground with fierceness and rage, neither does she stand still at the sound of the trumpet.²⁵ As often as the trumpet sounds she snorts, 'Aha!' She smells the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.²⁶ "Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and stretches his wings toward the south?²⁷ Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up, and makes her nest on high?²⁸ On the cliff she dwells, and makes her home, on the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.²⁹ From there she spies out the prey. Her eyes see it afar off.³⁰ Her young ones also suck up blood. Where the slain are, there she is."

Chapter 40

¹ Moreover Yahweh answered Job, ² "Shall she who argues contend with the Almighty? She who argues with God, let her answer it."³ Then Job answered Yahweh, ⁴ "Behold, I am of small account. What shall I answer you? I lay my hand on my mouth.⁵ I have spoken once, and I will not answer; Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."⁶ Then Yahweh answered Job out of the whirlwind, ⁷ "Now brace yourself like a woman. I will question you, and you will answer me.⁸ Will you even annul my judgment? Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?⁹ Or do you have an arm like God? Can you thunder with a voice like her?¹⁰ "Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity. Array yourself with honor and majesty.¹¹ Pour out the fury of your anger.

Look at everyone who is proud, and bring her low.¹² Look at everyone who is proud, and humble her. Crush the wicked in their place.¹³ Hide them in the dust together. Bind their faces in the hidden place.¹⁴ Then I will also admit to you that your own right hand can save you.¹⁵ "See now, behemoth, which I made as well as you. She eats grass as an ox.¹⁶ Look now, her strength is in her thighs. Her force is in the muscles of her belly.¹⁷ She moves her tail like a cedar. The sinews of her thighs are knit together.¹⁸ Her bones are like tubes of brass. Her limbs are like bars of iron.¹⁹ She is the chief of the ways of God. She who made her gives her her sword.²⁰ Surely the mountains produce food for her, where all the animals of the field play.²¹ She lies under the lotus trees, in the covert of the reed, and the marsh.²² The lotuses cover her with their shade. The willows of the brook surround her.²³ Behold, if a river overflows, she doesn't tremble. She is confident, though the Jordan swells even to her mouth.²⁴ Shall any take her when she is on the watch, or pierce through her nose with a snare?

¹ "Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook, or press down her tongue with a cord?² Can you put a rope into her nose, or pierce her jaw through with a hook?³ Will she make many petitions to you, or will she speak soft words to you?⁴ Will she make a covenant with you, that you should take her for a servant forever?⁵ Will you play with her as with a bird? Or will you bind her for your boys?⁶ Will traders barter for her? Will they part her among the merchants?⁷ Can you fill her skin with barbed irons, or her head with fish spears?⁸ Lay your hand on her. Remember the battle, and do so no more.⁹ Behold, the hope of her is in vain. Won't one be cast down even at the sight of her?¹⁰ None is so fierce that she dare stir her up. Who then is she who can stand before me?¹¹ Who has first given to me, that I should repay her? Everything under the heavens is mine.¹² "I will not keep silence concerning her limbs, nor her mighty strength, nor her goodly frame.¹³ Who can strip off her outer garment? Who shall come within her jaws?¹⁴ Who can open the doors of her face? Around her teeth is terror.¹⁵ Strong scales are her pride, shut up together with a close seal.¹⁶ One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.¹⁷ They are joined one to another. They stick together, so that they can't be pulled apart.¹⁸ Hers sneezing flashes out light. Her eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.¹⁹ Out of her mouth go burning torches. Sparks of fire leap forth.²⁰ Out of her nostrils a smoke goes, as of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.²¹ Her breath kindles coals. A flame goes forth from her mouth.²² There is strength in her neck. Terror dances before her.²³ The flakes of her flesh are joined together. They are firm on her. They can't be moved.²⁴ Her heart is as firm as a stone, yes, firm as the lower millstone.²⁵ When she raises herself up, the mighty are afraid. They retreat before her thrashing.²⁶ If one attacks her with the sword, it can't prevail; nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft.²⁷ She counts iron as straw; and brass as rotten wood.²⁸ The arrow can't make her flee. Sling stones are like chaff to her.²⁹ Clubs are counted as stubble. She laughs at the rushing of the javelin.³⁰ Hers undersides are like sharp potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.³¹ She makes the deep to boil like a pot. She makes the sea like a pot of ointment.³² She makes a path shine after her. One would think the deep had white hair.³³ On earth there is not her equal, that is made without fear.³⁴ She sees everything that is high. She is queen over all the daughters of pride."

¹ Then Job answered Yahweh,² "I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be restrained.³ You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know.⁴ You said, 'Listen, now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer me.'⁵ I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you.⁶ Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."⁷ It was so, that after Yahweh had spoken these words to Job, Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has.⁸ Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept her, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has."⁹ So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did what Yahweh commanded them, and Yahweh accepted Job.¹⁰ Yahweh turned the captivity of Job, when she prayed for her friends. Yahweh gave Job twice as much as she had before.¹¹ Then came there to her all her sisters, and all her brothers, and all those who had been of her acquaintance before, and ate bread with her in her house. They comforted her, and consoled her concerning all the evil that Yahweh had brought on her. Everyone also gave her a piece of money, and everyone a ring of gold.¹² So Yahweh blessed the latter end of Job more than her beginning. She had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand male donkeys.¹³ She had also seven daughters and three sons.¹⁴ She called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren Happuch.¹⁵ In all the land were no men found so beautiful as the sons of Job. Their mother gave them an inheritance among their sisters.¹⁶ After this Job lived one hundred forty years, and saw her daughters, and her daughters' daughters, to four generations.¹⁷ So Job died, being old and full of days.

Psalms

¹ Blessed is the woman who doesn't walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand in the way of sinners, nor sit in the seat of scoffers;² but her delight is in Yahweh's law. On her law she meditates day and night.³ She will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also does not wither. Whatever she does shall prosper.⁴ The wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.⁵ Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.⁶ For Yahweh knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

Chapter 2

¹ Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing?² The queens of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take counsel together, against Yahweh, and against her Anointed, saying,³ "Let's break their bonds apart, and cast their cords from us."⁴ She who sits in the heavens will laugh. The Domina will have them in derision.⁵ Then she will speak to them in her anger, and terrify them in her wrath:⁶ "Yet I have set my queen on my holy hill of Zion."⁷ I will tell of the decree. Yahweh said to me, "You are my daughter. Today I have become your mother.⁸ Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.⁹ You shall break them with a rod of iron. You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."¹⁰ Now therefore be wise, you queens. Be instructed, you judges of the earth.¹¹ Serve Yahweh with fear, and rejoice with trembling.¹² Give sincere homage, lest she be angry, and you perish in the way, for her wrath will soon be kindled. Blessed are all those who take refuge in her.

Chapter 3

¹ (A Psalm by Davina, when she fled from Absalom her daughter.) Yahweh, how my adversaries have increased! Many are those who rise up against me.² Many there are who say of my soul, "There is no help for her in God." Selah.³ But you, Yahweh, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.⁴ I cry to Yahweh with my voice, and she answers me out of her holy hill. Selah.⁵ I laid myself down and slept. I awakened; for Yahweh sustains me.⁶ I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.⁷ Arise, Yahweh! Save me, my God! For you have struck all of my enemies on the cheek bone. You have broken the teeth of the wicked.⁸ Salvation belongs to Yahweh. Your blessing be on your people. Selah.

¹ (For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm by Davina.) Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness. Give me relief from my distress. Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.² You daughters of women, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonor? Will you love vanity, and seek after falsehood? Selah.³ But know that Yahweh has set apart for herself her who is godly: Yahweh will hear when I call to her.⁴ Stand in awe, and don't sin. Search your own heart on your bed, and be still. Selah.⁵ Offer the sacrifices of righteousness. Put your trust in Yahweh.⁶ Many say, "Who will show us any good?" Yahweh, let the light of your face shine on us.⁷ You have put gladness in my heart, more than when their grain and their new wine are increased.⁸ In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep, for you, Yahweh alone, make me live in safety.

Chapter 5

¹(For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by Davina.) Give ear to my words, Yahweh. Consider my meditation.² Listen to the voice of my cry, my Queen and my God; for to you do I pray.³ Yahweh, in the morning you shall hear my voice. In the morning I will lay my requests before you, and will watch expectantly.⁴ For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness. Evil can't live with you.⁵ The arrogant shall not stand in your sight. You hate all workers of iniquity.⁶ You will destroy those who speak lies. Yahweh abhors the blood-thirsty and deceitful woman.⁷ But as for me, in the abundance of your loving kindness I will come into your house. I will bow toward your holy temple in reverence of you.⁸ Lead me, Yahweh, in your righteousness because of my enemies. Make your way straight before my face.⁹ For there is no faithfulness in their mouth. Their heart is destruction. Their throat is an open tomb. They flatter with their tongue.¹⁰ Hold them guilty, God. Let them fall by their own counsels; Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.¹¹ But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice, Let them always shout for joy, because you defend them. Let them also who love your name be joyful in you.¹² For you will bless the righteous. Yahweh, you will surround her with favor as with a shield.

Chapter 6

¹(For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm by Davina.) Yahweh, don't rebuke me in your anger, neither discipline me in your wrath.² Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am faint. Yahweh, heal me, for my bones are troubled.³ My soul is also in great anguish. But you, Yahweh--how long?⁴ Return, Yahweh. Deliver my soul, and save me for your loving kindness' sake.⁵ For in death there is no memory of you. In Sheol, who shall give you thanks?⁶ I am weary with my groaning. Every night I flood my bed. I drench my couch with my tears.⁷ My eye wastes away because of grief. It grows old because of all my adversaries.⁸ Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for Yahweh has heard the voice of my weeping.⁹ Yahweh has heard my supplication. Yahweh accepts my prayer.¹⁰ May all my enemies be ashamed and dismayed. They shall turn back, they shall be disgraced suddenly.

¹(A meditation by Davina, which she sang to Yahweh, concerning the words of Cush, the Benjamite.) Yahweh, my God, I take refuge in you. Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver me,² lest they tear apart my soul like a lion, ripping it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.³ Yahweh, my God, if I have done this, if there is iniquity in my hands,⁴ if I have rewarded evil to her who was at peace with me (yes, if I have delivered her who without cause was my adversary),⁵ let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it; yes, let her tread my life down to the earth, and lay my glory in the dust. Selah.⁶ Arise, Yahweh, in your anger. Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries. Awake for me. You have commanded judgment.⁷ Let the congregation of the peoples surround you. Rule over them on high.⁸ Yahweh administers judgment to the peoples. Judge me, Yahweh, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in me.⁹ Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous; their minds and hearts are searched by the righteous God.¹⁰ My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.¹¹ God is a righteous judge, yes, a God who has indignation every day.¹² If a woman doesn't relent, she will sharpen her sword; she has bent and strung her bow.¹³ She has also prepared for herself the instruments of death. She makes ready her flaming arrows.¹⁴ Behold, she travails with iniquity. Yes, she has conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.¹⁵ She has dug a hole, and has fallen into the pit which she made.¹⁶ The trouble she causes shall return to her own head. Hers violence shall come down on the crown of her own head.¹⁷ I will give thanks to Yahweh according to her righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of Yahweh Most High.

Chapter 8

¹ (For the Chief Musician; on an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by Davina.) Yahweh, our Domina, how majestic is your name in all the earth, who has set your glory above the heavens!² From the lips of babes and infants you have established strength, because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.³ When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have ordained;⁴ what is woman, that you think of her? What is the daughter of woman, that you care for her?⁵ For you have made her a little lower than God, and crowned her with glory and honor.⁶ You make her ruler over the works of your hands. You have put all things under her feet:⁷ All sheep and oxen, yes, and the animals of the field,⁸ The birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and whatever passes through the paths of the seas.⁹ Yahweh, our Domina, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

(For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Death of the Daughter." A Psalm by Davina.) I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart. I will tell of all your marvelous works.¹ I will be glad and rejoice in you. I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.² When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish in your presence.³ For you have maintained my just cause. You sit on the throne judging righteously.⁴ You have rebuked the nations. You have destroyed the wicked. You have blotted out their name forever and ever.⁵ The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin. The very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has perished.⁶ But Yahweh reigns forever. She has prepared her throne for judgment.⁷ She will judge the world in righteousness. She will administer judgment to the peoples in uprightness.⁸ Yahweh will also be a high tower for the oppressed; a high tower in times of trouble.⁹ Those who know your name will put their trust in you, for you, Yahweh, have not forsaken those who seek you.¹⁰ Sing praises to Yahweh, who dwells in Zion, and declare among the people what she has done.¹¹ For she who avenges blood remembers them. She doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted.¹² Have mercy on me, Yahweh. See my affliction by those who hate me, and lift me up from the gates of death;¹³ that I may show forth all your praise. In the gates of the son of Zion, I will rejoice in your salvation.¹⁴ The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made. In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.¹⁵ Yahweh has made herself known. She has executed judgment. The wicked is snared by the work of her own hands. Meditation. Selah.¹⁶ The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol, even all the nations that forget God.¹⁷ For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever.¹⁸ Arise, Yahweh! Don't let woman prevail. Let the nations be judged in your sight.¹⁹ Put them in fear, Yahweh. Let the nations know that they are only women. Selah.²⁰

Why do you stand far off, Yahweh? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?¹ In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak. They are caught in the schemes that they devise.² For the wicked boasts of her heart's cravings. She blesses the greedy, and condemns Yahweh.³ The wicked, in the pride of her face, has no room in her thoughts for God.⁴ Her ways are prosperous at all times. She is haughty, and your laws are far from her sight. As for all her adversaries, she sneers at them.⁵ She says in her heart, "I shall not be shaken. For generations I shall have no trouble."⁶ Her mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression. Under her tongue is mischief and iniquity.⁷ She lies in wait near the villages. From ambushes, she murders the innocent. Her eyes are secretly set against the helpless.⁸ She lurks in secret as a lion in her ambush. She lies in wait to catch the helpless. She catches the helpless, when she draws her in her net.⁹ The helpless are crushed. They collapse. They fall under her strength.¹⁰ She says in her heart, "God has forgotten. She hides her face. She will never see it."¹¹ Arise, Yahweh! God, lift up your hand! Don't forget the helpless.¹² Why does the wicked person condemn God, and say in her heart, "God won't call me into account?"¹³ But you do see trouble and grief. You consider it to take it into your hand. You help the victim and the fatherless.¹⁴ Break the arm of the wicked. As for the evil woman, seek out her wickedness until you find none.¹⁵ Yahweh is Queen forever and ever! The nations will perish out of her land.¹⁶ Yahweh, you have heard the desire of the humble. You will prepare their heart. You will cause your ear to hear,¹⁷ to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that woman who is of the earth may terrify no more.¹⁸

Chapter 11

(For the Chief Musician. By Davina.) In Yahweh, I take refuge. How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain!"¹ For, behold, the wicked bend their bows. They set their arrows on the strings, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.² If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?³ Yahweh is in her holy temple. Yahweh is on her throne in heaven. Her eyes observe. Her eyes examine the children of women.⁴ Yahweh examines the righteous, but the wicked and her who loves violence her soul hates.⁵ On the wicked she will rain blazing coals; fire, sulfur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.⁶ For Yahweh is righteous. She loves righteousness. The upright shall see her face.⁷

(For the Chief Musician; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of Davina.) Help, Yahweh; for the godly woman ceases. For the faithful fail from among the children of women.¹ Everyone lies to her neighbor. They speak with flattering lips, and with a double heart.² May Yahweh cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that boasts,³ who have said, "With our tongue we will prevail. Our lips are our own. Who is domina over us?"⁴ "Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy, I will now arise," says Yahweh; "I will set her in safety from those who malign her."⁵ The words of Yahweh are flawless words, as silver refined in a clay furnace, purified seven times.⁶ You will keep them, Yahweh. You will preserve them from this generation forever.⁷ The wicked walk on every side, when what is vile is exalted among the daughters of women.⁸

Chapter 13

(For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by Davina.) How long, Yahweh? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?¹ How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart every day? How long shall my enemy triumph over me?² Behold, and answer me, Yahweh, my God. Give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;³ Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed against her;" Lest my adversaries rejoice when I fall.⁴ But I trust in your loving kindness. My heart rejoices in your salvation.⁵ I will sing to Yahweh, because she has been good to me.⁶

Chapter 14

(For the Chief Musician. By Davina.) The fool has said in her heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt. They have done abominable works. There is none who does good.¹ Yahweh looked down from heaven on the children of women, to see if there were any who did understand, who did seek after God.² They have all gone aside. They have together become corrupt. There is none who does good, no, not one.³ Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and don't call on Yahweh?⁴ There they were in great fear, for God is in the generation of the righteous.⁵ You frustrate the plan of the poor, because Yahweh is her refuge.⁶ Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When Yahweh restores the fortunes of her people, then Jacoba shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.⁷

Chapter 15

(A Psalm by Davina.) Yahweh, who shall dwell in your sanctuary? Who shall live on your holy hill?¹ She who walks blamelessly does what is right, and speaks truth in her heart;² She who doesn't slander with her tongue, nor does evil to her friend, nor casts slurs against her fellow woman;³ In whose eyes a vile woman is despised, but who honors those who fear Yahweh; she who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't change;⁴ she who doesn't lend out her money for usury, nor take a bribe against the innocent. She who does these things shall never be shaken.

Chapter 16

(A Poem by Davina.) Preserve me, God, for in you do I take refuge.¹ My soul, you have said to Yahweh, "You are my Domina. Apart from you I have no good thing."² As for the saints who are in the earth, they are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.³ Their sorrows shall be multiplied who give gifts to another god. Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take their names on my lips.⁴ Yahweh assigned my portion and my cup. You made my lot secure.⁵ The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places. Yes, I have a good inheritance.⁶ I will bless Yahweh, who has given me counsel. Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons.⁷ I have set Yahweh always before me. Because she is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.⁸ Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices. My body shall also dwell in safety.⁹ For you will not leave my soul in Sheol, neither will you allow your holy one to see corruption.¹⁰ You will show me the path of life. In your presence is fullness of joy. In your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.¹¹

Chapter 17

(A Prayer by Davina.) Hear, Yahweh, my righteous plea; Give ear to my prayer, that doesn't go out of deceitful lips.¹ Let my sentence come forth from your presence. Let your eyes look on equity.² You have proved my heart. You have visited me in the night. You have tried me, and found nothing. I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey.³ As for the works of women, by the word of your lips, I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.⁴ My steps have held fast to your paths. My feet have not slipped.⁵ I have called on you, for you will answer me, God. Turn your ear to me. Hear my speech.⁶ Show your marvelous loving kindness, you who save those who take refuge by your right hand from their enemies.⁷ Keep me as the apple of your eye. Hide me under the shadow of your wings,⁸ from the wicked who oppress me, my deadly enemies, who surround me.⁹ They close up their callous hearts. With their mouth they speak proudly.¹⁰ They have now surrounded us in our steps. They set their eyes to cast us down to the earth.¹¹ She is like a lion that is greedy of her prey, as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.¹² Arise, Yahweh, confront her. Cast her down. Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword;¹³ from women by your hand, Yahweh, from women of the world, whose portion is in this life. You fill the belly of your cherished ones. Your daughters have plenty, and they store up wealth for their children.¹⁴ As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness. I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing your form.¹⁵

Chapter 18

(For the Chief Musician. By Davina the servant of Yahweh, who spoke to Yahweh the words of this song in the day that Yahweh delivered her from the hand of all her enemies, and from the hand of Saula. She said,) I love you, Yahweh, my strength.¹ Yahweh is my rock, my fortress, and
